Despite several completions, Panhandle oil production took a drop off last week from previous flush production.

Gray county showed a decrease of 1,675 barrels despite several new wells, whose production came too late to halt the slide.

Gray county had nine completions during the week. Several of them were small producers.

Operators' No. 2, Cook-Faulkner, in section 30, block B-2, came in for 5,000 barrels a day.

In the same pool, Phillips Petroleum company's No. 4 Palmer, in section 31, block B-2, came in for 45 barrels an hour.

The LeFors area got two big wells in the Danciger Oil company's No. 1 Shell-Shaw, in section 5, block I, making 1,200 barrels and the Texas company's No. 2 Shaw, in that section making a similar amount.

The Bowers pool got the Gulf Production company's No. 1 Jackson, in section 62, block B-2, which made 500 barrels, initial production following a shot.

The county also showed 12 locations during the week. They were in various pools and two were wildcats.

Production by counties: Carson: 7,385 barrels, a loss of 260 barrels.

Water Demand Is More Than Twice That for 1928

Pampa citizens used more than twice as much water the first six months this year as was used last year.

City Manager F. M. Gwin said yesterday after checking water reports from Andy Crocker, water superintendent.

During the first six months last year, 10,700,000 gallons of water was used.

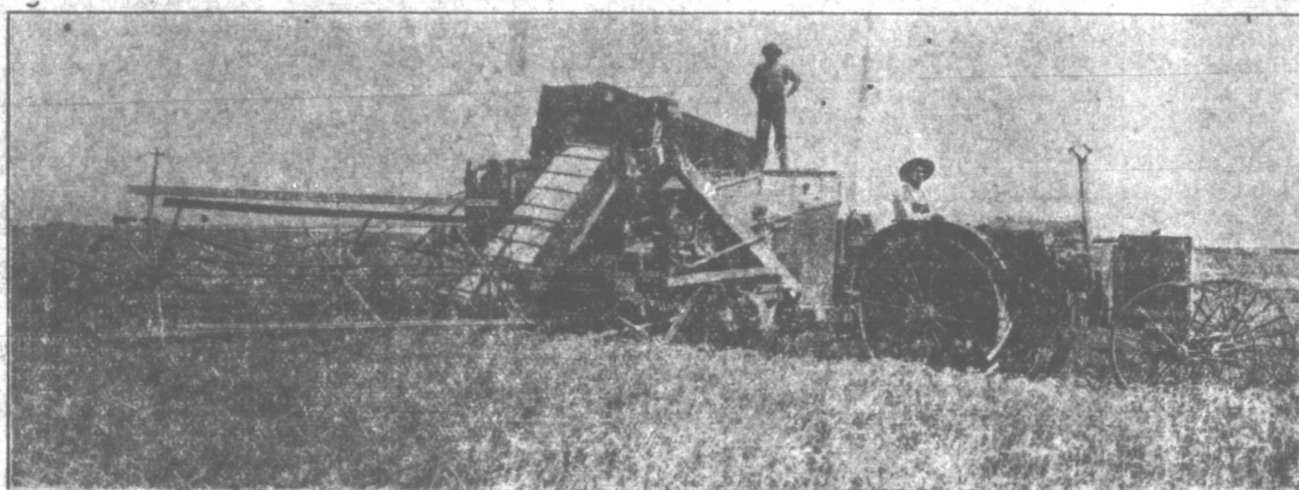

During the same length of time this year 20,800,000 gallons was used.

Five water wells handled the demand last year, while now seven wells are being used and a 1,000 gallon per minute capacity has practically been completed.

Water works' employees are unable to meet the demand for new meters and are several days behind on installations, Mr. Gwin said.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy Sunday, probably local showers in southwest portion; Monday, partly cloudy.

A typical wheat harvesting scene near Pampa is shown at the left. The combine harvesters cut and thresh the grain in one operation. This scene may be duplicated on most any farm in this community.

Daily clearings at both Pampa banks have more than doubled since the golden tide of harvest began taking deposits and making liquidation of debts possible.

Grain men late Saturday estimated that nearly one-third of the probable crop of 1,750,000 bushels of wheat in this immediate territory had been harvested.

The car situation was somewhat eased yesterday, when 40 empties were brought here. Nearby stations also received grain cars, although not as many as desired.

Elevator men, with a few exceptions, planned to work today, continuing their 24-hour shifts.

The wheat market dropped to near 95 cents per bushel yesterday owing to excessive profit-taking on the exchange.

Buyers were very uncertain in their predictions for Monday's market, some fearing a sharp drop should Canada get week-end rains.

TOPEKA, July 6. (P)—More than 100 elevators, choked with grain awaiting transportation to market, were reported today in the winter wheat area of Kansas.

Three funeral services were conducted at the Malone funeral chapel yesterday afternoon.

E. E. Watkins, fatally injured Thursday morning when shot in the abdomen, was buried yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Eugene Owen, 9-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Owen was buried at 3 o'clock.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Warner was buried at 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

W. C. Bushfield, new Gray county resident engineer appointed by the state highway commission, will arrive here this week.

Mr. French has instructed the new resident engineer to survey a route for highway 33, south of the Santa Fe tracks.

AMARILLO, July 6. (P)—C. S. Bradley of Groesbeck was elected president, and San Antonio was chosen as the 1930 convention city of the Texas Bar association.

LIQUOR WITH MURDER FORT WORTH, July 6. (P)—Liquor complaints late today were added to those charging Cecil O'Neal 27, and Philo Cooper, 26, with the murder of Audie Fentress.

Chicago Likely Will Get Gas From Near City

Admission by L. E. Phillips, president of the Phillips company, that a big financial combine is being formed to pipe Panhandle gas to Chicago is causing much discussion in Pampa oil circles.

According to Associated Press dispatches to The News from Tulsa, the interested corporations would be the Texas company, the Skelly Oil company, the Phillips Petroleum corporation, and the Columbian Carbon company.

It was learned here today that the Texas company is negotiating for a pipeline right-of-way from Central Gray county northwestward into Carson county.

Tapping of gas stores of this territory to supply Chicago with fuel is understood to involve the insular interests, which would buy the gas at the city gates and distribute it through their lines.

This would be the second big pipeline running eastward from the Panhandle. The Cities Service company, Empire subsidiary, has an 18-inch line connecting with the Kansas City mains.

Duncan Provides Rifle Club Site Through the courtesy of J. N. Duncan, oldtime Pampa resident, the Pampa Rifle club, affiliated with the National Rifle association, has an excellent range three miles east of the city.

Members will hold a match on both ranges tomorrow afternoon. Shooting will commence at 2:30 p. m. and will continue during the afternoon.

Thursday afternoon a number of the members who remained in the city for the holiday enjoyed an afternoon on the range. Several good scores were made.

Score of Residences Not Included in Building Permits for the Week

Building permits which totaled $23,015 during the last week give little indication of the amount of new construction being done.

Only four permits for buildings were taken out last week, and at least twenty new homes were started.

Other permits were for moving buildings and renovations.

Including permits issued yesterday noon, Pampa's total this year amounts to $796,655.

Bowman surrendered to Sheriff E. S. Graves Thursday morning and admitted that he shot Watkins, who operated a filling station in Southeast Pampa.

Two Men Held After Accident

Although thought to have been seriously injured after being struck by a car at South Cuyler street yesterday afternoon, W. E. Flemming was able to leave a local hospital a few hours after being admitted.

On July 16 the voters will pass on the propositions of raising the salary of the governor from $4,000 to $10,000, annually and of increasing the membership of the Supreme court from three to nine justices.

Cleveland Plane Down—Record Is Raised 1 1/2 Hours

CLEVELAND, July 6. (P)—Nerves frayed and bodies exhausted, Pilots Roy L. Mitchell and Byron K. Newcomb rested tonight while congratulatory messages poured in to the newest conquerors of the air.

Mitchell and Newcomb brought their monoplane, City of Cleveland, down amid the acclaim of 75,000 spectators at Cleveland airport at 12:39:58 a. m. today after remaining in the air 174 hours and 59 seconds—a new world's sustained endurance record for planes refueled in flight.

As they rested today, plans were under way for the city's official recognition of their record-making flight.

A deluge of vaudeville and exhibition offers and a stack of telegrams and cablegrams mounted while the fliers, with their hotel suites guarded from disturbances, were recovering from the strain of more than seven days battling against time for ahd storms.

Among the messages of congratulation was one from Reginald Robbins and James Kelly, who had set the previous record of 173 hours, 32 minutes, and 1 second at Fort Worth, Texas.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school, 9:45 o'clock.
Morning preaching service, 11 o'clock.
Amarillo Mission service, 2:30 o'clock.
Jail service, 4:30 o'clock.
B. Y. P. U. and B. Y. P. O. 7:15 o'clock.

Today is the second anniversary of Rev. D. H. Truhitt as pastor of the First Baptist church of Pampa. During his two years pastorate, the membership of the church has been doubled, an educational building and then an entire church building costing approximately $100,000 have been erected, and all phases of the church work have been strengthened and made to progress. The Rev. Truhitt has done a monumental work as pastor of the church here. Because of what the church already has accomplished through his leadership, a new day is dawning for Pampa Baptists, and under the continued direction of such a pastor this church hopes to go forward to greater victories for the cause of Christ in Pampa.

The pastor will speak this morning at the preaching hour on the subject "The Triumphal Climax." An evangelistic message will be the feature of the evening preaching service.

Special attention is called to the attendance at the training service last Sunday. The report showed that 108 people were present in the unions. Our unions are making gratifying progress. You will enjoy this evening the program of the union composed of people your age. At the "home meeting" in Miami last Sunday three of our unions won the banners given for their respective departments.

Though not as well attended as we had hoped it would be, the training school for our Sunday school workers last week was a pronounced success. Twenty-seven people, with a receive awards for courses completed. Attend the services of this church today. We warmly welcome you.

John Lee Harris, Assistant Pastor.

Legion Grays to Meet Lakeview in Return Ball Tilt

The newly organized Legion Grays will be in Lakeview this afternoon endeavoring to avenge a 5-to-4 defeat handed a local nine by the Lakeview men three weeks ago. Ed Gober has strengthened his team considerably and expects to pull a win.

The Grays have won both their starts this season. In the opening game, the Amarillo Texans were the victims of a 3-to-2 defeat. Thursday the clan of Gober swamped the Borger Legion team, 23 to 4.

Who will be in the box for the Grays has not been made known, but Gober says he may have a surprise for the Lakeview boys when his nine steps upon the field. The local manager is in the market for two good hurlers and may have one for this afternoon's game.

The next game the Grays will play may be at home. An effort is being made to locate a diamond here so that the home team can play at home instead of having to go away. Pampa is practically the only place in the Panhandle without a municipal baseball park.

Pampa Golfers in Borger Today for Return Matches

Pampa golfers are in Borger today meeting Boney Bonebrake's champions in a friendly match over the new Borger golf course. The Borgerites won the match here last Sunday.

Fourteen local members plan to make the trip. Play is to start at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Magnolia Nine to Meet Coltexo in LeFors Today

This afternoon the Magnolia baseball nine will meet the Coltexo team in LeFors. The game was to have been played two weeks ago, but injuries to Greer Dickey caused the game to be postponed.

The Coltexo nine is encouraged by a 7-to-5 win over the fast Western Carbor team of Borger, Thursday afternoon. With Thomas in the box and Clayton behind the bat the Coltexo nine played the best ball of the season.

Newsome, Coltexo third baseman, was the big noise for that nine. He made several sensational plays and was dangerous at the bat. Clayton also had a hand in winning the game.

Last week the Western nine battled 13 innings to win from Prairie Oil & Gas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Braly attended the state bar convention in Amarillo yesterday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hardecastle, July 3, at Pampa hospital.

There will be a big smoker at the Pla-Mor auditorium Thursday night with wrestling and boxing as the main attractions. Local fans have been yelling for a return match between Oscar Dotson, local blacksmith wrestler, and Bill Lutz of Plainview, and Doc Deneheim has finally got them together.

It will be a finish match, two falls out of three. Lutz and Dotson met in a 30-minute time limit affair several weeks ago and it was the wildest match pulled here. Lutz was thrown through the ropes four times, but came back to stay the limit.

As an added attraction Speedy Snow, local welterweight, will meet "Fighting" Dye of Phoenix, Ariz., in a 10-round exhibition. Dye will enter the ring at 148 pounds and Snow at 144.

The Arizona youth comes here highly touted as the toughest welterweight in the Southwest. He has a string of victories a mile long.

The local youth lost a decision to Jack Vincent in Borger two weeks ago, but has challenged the ex-college champ to a return bout. Snow is in good condition now.

Good preliminaries will open the smoker.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic: The Story of Ezekiel. Scripture lesson: Ezek. 3:4-11; 24:15-18.

Ezek. 3:4. And He said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with My words unto them.

5. For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6. Not to many people of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, if I sent thee to them, they would hearken unto thee.

7. But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me; for all the house of Israel are of a hard forehead and of a stiff heart.

8. Behold, I have made thy face hard against their faces, and thy forehead hard against their foreheads.

9. As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10. Moreover He said unto me, Son of man, all My words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thy heart, and hear with thine ears.

11. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them. Thus said the Lord Jehovah, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

Ezek. 24:15. Also the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying:

16. Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke; yet thou shalt neither mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17. Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind thy head-ire upon thee, and put thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18. So I spoke unto the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

Time: Ezekiel in the deportation of Jehoiachin, B. C. 597. Ezekiel prophesying, B. C. 593. The burning of Jerusalem, B. C. 586.

Place: Ezekiel prophesied at Telahib, a town on one of the great Babylonian irrigation canals.

Golden text: As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live.—Ezek. 33:11.

Introduction

That the Jehovah faith of the people of Israel survived the ruin and the captivity, is one of the marvels of history, and that it came out of that ordeal a purer, stronger faith is even more surprising. The man whom God especially used in bring about these results is the prophet Ezekiel, whom we are to study in the three beginning lessons of this quarter. His stern admonitions kept the Jehovah faith from being swamped in the materialism and idolatry of Babylon; his indomitable belief in a future for Israel preserved the national spirit intact through the years of exile, and had not a little to do with inspiring, at a later time, Zerubbabel, Ezra, and Nehemiah courageously to attempt a revival of the Jewish state and church. Ezekiel is thus a connecting link between the old and the new.

The Prophet's Vision

Ezekiel's call to be a prophet came to him, as so many of his revelations came, in the form of a vision. He saw the heavens opened, and such glorious sights burst upon his enraptured gaze that he called them "visions of God." He had a clear sense that the visions were personal to himself, that they came "expressly" to him, inaugurating a new life for him. He realized, with a solemn joy that "the hand of Jehovah was there upon him." This is an expression which comes up repeatedly in the writings of Ezekiel, signifying an ecstatic sense of God's presence and power. It must have been closely akin to the feeling of St. Paul when he said (1 Cor. 9:16), "Woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel."

Ezekiel, "Son of Man"

Ezekiel overawed by the vision of the Divine Majesty, fell on his face; but Jehovah spoke and bade him rise and receive God's message. The Lord addressed Ezekiel as "son of man," an expression used in this prophecy nearly one hundred times, and seldom elsewhere in the Old Testament, though it was Christ's most frequently used designation for Himself. In Ezekiel the term "expressed the contrast between the prophet, as 'one of mankind, and the majesty of God, whose glory he had just seen.'"

The Book of Ezekiel

It is one of the longest in the Bible. Lacking the beauties of language and figure of Isaiah, Hosea and Micah, it is nevertheless clear and vigorous in style and well arranged. The prophecies are in chronological order. Not so much of the book is in poetic form as is the case with three prophecies, just named.

There are four divisions: 1. Prophecies delivered before the destruction of Jerusalem; 2. Prophecies against foreign nations; 25-32; 3. Prophecies of restoration; 33-39; 4. Visions of restored Israel; temple, priesthood, sacrifices, etc.; 40-48.

Ezekiel's Commission

"And he (Jehovah) said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel." By "the house of Israel" is not meant the Northern Kingdom, which had fallen long before, but all the Jews, all the descendants of Jacob (Israel). Ezekiel was to be a prophet to his own people. "And speak with My words unto them." If Ezekiel had been told to speak with his own words, he might well have shrunk from the task; but the herald of a mighty king does not falter, knowing that he is only repeating a message of ample authority.

"For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but the house of Israel." The Jews in Babylon must have found it exceedingly hard to comprehend what their captors said to them, and to enter into intercourse with them. Thus it always has been in the case of our foreign missionaries who must spend years of laborious effort before they can preach effectively in the new language.

Ezekiel's Visions

The visions of Ezekiel are more elaborate and complex than those of the earlier prophets. Compare, for example, in the opening consecration vision of Ezekiel, the appearance of the wheels and living creatures (occupying twenty-five verses in the first chapter) with the simple and sublime imagery of Isaiah's consecration vision (Isa. 6). There is a strongly marked preference for Ezekiel for symbol, and parable in his prophetic teaching, but in comparison with Isaiah and Jeremiah the representations are far more overlaid with detail; and though there is a certain majestic statelyness of effect, the total impression falls short of that which is produced by the earlier prophets. Ezekiel was essentially a literary prophet.

"The omnipotence of the living God—that is the idea which predominates in the whole history of Ezekiel. It was that which was demanded by the condition of a people in whom the sense of their weakness was in danger of becoming an overwhelming discouragement."—F. Godet.

The Teaching of Sorrow

"Also the word of Jehovah came unto me." Ezekiel saw in all events the working of Jehovah's will. Whether joy or deepest grief, it was all of God, and to be received with reverent submission. "Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke." "The desire of his eyes" was the prophet's deeply beloved wife, removed from him with the stroke of some suddenly fatal disease. But it was God who gave the stroke, the loving Father whom Ezekiel had served so faithfully; and the prophet still trusted God. "Yet thou shalt neither mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down." "In ordinary circumstances such a calamity as the sudden death of a beloved wife would naturally have called forth, and would also have justified, the most affecting demonstrations of grief—doleful cries and lamentations, mourning attire and eating the bread of sorrow. But not one of those things was the prophet permitted to do." Of this verse Rev. Dinsdale T. Young says, "There is no more remarkable verse in the Old Testament than that."

Ezekiel's Bereavement

"And at even my wife died." What a depth of anguish is in these simple words! "And I did in the morning (after her death) as I was commanded." The prophet's strange silence and failure to mourn with outward demonstrations was noted by the people, who, well knowing that there was significance in it, came to ask him to explain. He told them that it was a token of trials to come, the profaning of their sanctuary, the desire of their eyes, and the death of their sons and daughters by the sword. Like the prophet, they are not to mourn in their sorrow, but are to endure their misfortune in silence, not complaining, for they are suffering under punishments imposed by a just God.

"Ezekiel—A Sign"

"Ezekiel shall be unto you a sign (v. 24). He is significant of the quiet, courageous bearing of the sorrows which God sends. Ezekiel is to us a sign that we are required and may be called to sustain our daily ills and our occasional troubles with an unrepining heart, with a submissive spirit, without sinning or charging God with folly. Ezekiel is to us a sign that we may be strengthened to carry every grief with what Bishop Stubbs of Oxford termed 'the patience of silence.'" "There is a worse thing—Ezekiel is here to set to teach us—than a man's own suffering. There is a worse than any suffering, and that is sin."

Success in Failure

"Measured by the common standards of success, Ezekiel's ministry was to be a ministry marked by failure from the beginning. Is such a ministry a failure? On the first consideration we are inclined to say that it is. But when we go into it more deeply we discover one of the sublimest of life's paradoxes—success in failure." "The thought of success in failure is one of Browning's favorite doctrines. His heroes never quite reach their ideal. They always approach it with a determined effort to attain it. But as they advance, so does their ideal. Therefore, the ideal is always yonder like the legendary pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow. Any ideal that is attainable is unworthy of the name. The ideal should be so high and so lofty and so perfect that it will be a constant challenge to the best that is within us. A life guided by such an ideal is the truly successful life—a life successful in that it fails to reach its ideal.

Hopefulness in Adversity

"Every cloud has a silver lining." "Behind the cloud the sun is shining." "Just turn the dark cloud inside out." "And see the silver lining."

Americans Take Three Titles Out of Five in Tennis

DIRECTORS TO MEET—The railroad situation, airport question and highways will be the chief topics of discussion at a meeting of the directors of the Pampa Board of City Development tomorrow night. President Frank Keim has called the meeting for 8 o'clock. Special notices have been sent to all members.

In a terrific battle on courts made slippery by intermittent rain, Johnny van Ryn of Orange, N. J., former Princeton tennis captain, and his blond partner from Texas, Wilmer Allison, triumphed over the powerful British Davis cup pair J. C. Gregory and I. G. Collins to win the final for the men's doubles championship, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, 10-12, 6-4.

The Ideal PLOW for Summer Following

ROCK ISLAND

SANDERS CYLINDER DISC PLOW

LAND may lie fallow for eighteen months, it may be grown solid with quick grass, sunflowers and weeds, and yet a Rock Island "Sanders" Cylinder Disc Plow will put it in shape for seed.

These "Sanders" Cylinder Disc Plows are changing tillage methods, reducing plants cost and raising profits in the wheat belt.

The special curvature of the disc blades—the Sanders cup shape—and the vertical set of the discs, which revolve together, reduce friction and move the soil in the same direction but about one-third as far as the regular disc plow. The discs cut off the vegetation the complete width of cut and work all the ground. Size to cut from 6 to 12 feet wide, 2 to 6 inches deep, creating the seed bed that holds moisture. You'll notice the difference between the work of a Sanders and other.

The construction of Rock Island "Sanders" Cylinder Disc Plows is rugged. They not only do hard work, but stand up under it. Notice the frame—it looks like a railway rail—it's strong, but simple.

Come in and look over this plow that is working 25 to 40 acres per day for your neighbor.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE IN TWO FIRES SATURDAY

The Pampa fire department answered two calls Saturday but in neither instance was it necessary to string hose and throw water.

The first call was received shortly after 2 o'clock when a stubble fire on E. C. Barrett's farm at the south edge of the city jumped a road and threatened the house. The fire was stamped out without damage.

The second call was received at 6:30 last night from Blair motor company where a car had caught fire. Chemicals were used to extinguish the blaze, and very little damage was done.

Barnard Well Is Brought in After Hope Almost Gone

After hope had been almost abandoned, the Morse et al Barnard No. 1 in Carson county, drilled by Neff and Harper, trustees for Speculative Mineral Stares company, was brought in Thursday through a shot of 380 quarts of nitro at 3,125-3,280 feet.

Yesterday the well was making between 10 and 15 barrels hourly. It was said to have more granite than any other well in the Panhandle, and successful shooting caused much discussion among oil men.

The well is in section 44, block 4, H. & G. N. survey, Carson county, about 10 miles west of Pampa.

Mrs. Catherine Thomas, Miss Margaret Moore, and Miss Lois Lyons, formerly of Big Spring, arrived yesterday to take positions with the local telephone company. All three will work at the emergency long-distance switchboard which is to be put in use Monday.

W. A. Oliver, who suffered minor injuries in an automobile accident on July 4, left Pampa hospital yesterday.

Mrs. A. C. Campbell and her little daughter, who was born June 31, left Pampa hospital yesterday.

Miss Mildred Barnard, who has been in Pampa hospital the last several days for treatment, is much improved and probably will return home in a few days.

Miss Hattie Lee Hingate left Thursday for her home in Texico, N. M., after a 10-day visit here in the home of her brother, Ray Hingate.

Robert Smith of Wellington, Kan., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Pond the last several days, left yesterday for Los Angeles, Calif., to attend the national convention of the Elks lodge. Mrs. Smith and their two small children remained for a longer visit here. Mrs. Smith is Mrs. Pond's sister.

Miss Winnie and Miss Mamie Wehrung and J. R. Wehrung of Waco are guests of their brother, J. Powell Wehrung, and Mrs. Wehrung.

Mrs. J. W. Glover of Memphis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Brumley.
