Council renews contract

The city council revisited the city manager's contract and following a lengthy executive session voted 5-2 to give Pete Kamper a three year contract, effective October 20, 2010 until October 20, 2013.

Prior to the rollcall vote, Councilman Jason Castillo prefaced his vote saying, "My vote is not against the city manager's character. It is against the way the contract is written. I do not think the way the contract is written is in the best interest of the city."

"Pete is doing a good job. This is not against Pete," Castillo said, who voted in favor of the same contract during the October council meeting.

The contract was a modified version of the original two year contract presented by the city to Kamper in 2009. However, instead of a revolving contract with automatic yearly renewals, the new contract has a set termination date, requiring the city council to give the city manager written notification of intent to renew the contract within 90 days of the termination date.

The new contract contains specific clauses for renewals, termination and leaving, complete with written notifications within specified time frames.

The contract also gives the city the authority to terminate the city manager without a good reason, but cannot do so within 180 days of a change in administration.

The contract also authorizes a severance package which is open to negotiation, for termination without cause, equal to 12 months of salary at the manager's current salary at time of termination, which has to be paid within a year of termination.

Mayor Carol Sue Dakan also voted against the contract. "I am not voting against Mr. Kamper, but rather for the extension of the contract the city of Colorado City wrote and gave him for two years," she said.

Emotions were already high at the council meeting as six citizens spoke out during the general public's time for comments.

Allegations were leveled at the city manager by Margie Brophy concerning pending lawsuits for discrimination and lack of police protection.

"The city attorney will tell you there is no substance to that," Pete Kamper said, referring to the lawsuits.

"I want to let the public know that the council is engaged and actively making the policies collectively as a united group and that Mr. Kamper is simply carrying out those duties," Councilman Keith Hiser said.

"The council is committed to ensuring that our citizens' well-being and property is protected

'54 Wolves champs recall glory days

It was more like a family reunion as the 1954 Wolves district champs assembled in the Colorado Middle School cafeteria for a reception before the present day team's Friday night game against Kermit.

The teammates, who were the first C-City Wolves to claim an undefeated season, reminisced, joked and cut up with the same camaraderie they displayed in high school.

According to more than one football player, the camaraderie was the lynch pin of their success.

"Most all of this group had been going to school since grade 1," Billy Williams, quarterback, said. "We knew each other really well and had a good time. We had a special group of people. I think it doesn't happen like that much."

"It was a wonderful season," Lee Mullican, who played defensive end and wing back, said. "The seniors and juniors of the class were as one. The seniors even prepared us some for the next year. It was really a team effort."

The camaraderie didn't fade after graduation. The members of the 1954 team stayed in close contact, deepening the friendships begun in school. More than one served as best man at each other's wedding.

"We stayed pretty close," said J. D. Padgett. "We take any opportunity to rag on each other a little bit. Most still show up for reunions, still talk on phone. Lot of good roots for us in C-City."

Padgett ought to know. As

Fire chars residence October 31

A house fire damaged the kitchen and living room of a residence on the corner of 17th and Locust October 31.

The Colorado City Fire Department responded to a call at 6:39 p.m. to the residence of Henry Sosa, where fire had already broken out a window on the north side of the house, according to Fire Chief Rufino Martinez.

"It burned the living room and kitchen," Martinez said. "Repairable, but a lot of smoke damage."

The department sent three trucks and 15 fire fighters to the scene, which took approximately 20 minutes to extinguish the fire.

No one was at home when the fire broke out.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

OBITUARIES

Celia Martinez 1938-2010

COLORADO CITY -- Celia "Mema" Martinez, 72, died at 10:45 p.m. on November 6, 2010, at her home. She was born October 1, 1938, in Bastrop to Tomas and Esther Castillo from Colorado City.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, November 9. Burial followed at Lawnhaven Memorial Gardens followed by a luncheon gathering at Fuente De Agua Viva at 1601 Hatcher, San Angelo. Arrangements were under the direction of Johnson's Funeral Home.

Celia (Sally) was married to Emilio Martinez for 50 years. Survivors include one son, Noe and wife Anna Martinez of Hurst; three daughters, Sylvia Martinez, Esther Perez and husband Albert, Patricia Griner and husband Ramon, all of San Angelo; five grandsons and one granddaughter. Celia has three surviving sisters, Carolina Campos, Ruth Orona and Hortencia Sanchez; and brother, Johnny Castillo. Pall bearers were the grandkids, Brian and Brandon Rivera, Lance and Jarod Rivera, Aaron Griner and Tori Martinez.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that memorials be made to the American Pancreatic Cancer Foundation or Hospice of San Angelo. Family and friends are invited to sign an online guest book at www.johnson-funeral-home.com.

joined the armed services in 1942. He continued boxing in the service. Jim received a discharge and decided to pursue his lifelong ambition to play football for Texas Christian University (TCU). After two years at TCU in 1944-1945 as center and linebacker, Jim transferred to North Texas State where he played the same position. He graduated in 1948. He received much recognition at both colleges in football such as 1944 All-Southwest Conference, 1944 Most Valuable Player, 1945 Most Outstanding Defensive Player in the Cotton Bowl while at TCU; at North Texas State he was All Lone Star Conference in 1946 and 1947 and played in two bowl games. He was also listed as Honorable Mention Little All-American. He received awards in boxing in Ft. Worth in 1944 and 1945. In 2006, the TCU magazine made selections from the years 1900-2006 of football players who best represented TCU and Jim was selected in three categories: All-Conference 1944, All-Time Letterman in 1944-45 and honorable mention player who best represented his jersey #56. Jim was recruited by several professional football teams but signed on with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the old AAFC. He played one year and then decided to begin his career in teaching and coaching.

Jim coached and taught in schools at Fabens, Odessa, Anchorage, Alaska, and Amarillo from 1949 to 1985. He also received his master's degree in education with certification in administration at West Texas State in Canyon. In 1967, a professional football team from Odessa called the Comets and later the West Texas Rufneks of the Continental League recruited Jim as the defensive coach. The team had to disband after several years because the league wanted to televise the games and the Odessa/Midland area did not have a large enough audience.

In 1985, Jim retired from the Odessa school system where he was Driver Education Supervisor. He then could devote full-time instead of part-time to enjoy his family, gardening, home remodeling, yard work and time fishing at his lake home. He loved to entertain his students, friends and medical personnel and patients at the nursing homes. Singing to others was one of his passions and fortunately he had a good voice. Playing 42 and other games was a pastime he enjoyed especially in his younger years. Whatever he did at work or at play he gave his very best effort.

The family will receive friends on Friday, November 12 between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. at Sunset Memorial Gardens, 6851 E. Hwy 80, Odessa, TX 79762. Funeral services will be held at 12:00 noon on Saturday, November 13 at the Odessa Tabernacle Church, 2406 Oakwood Drive, Odessa TX 79761.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be directed to the Jim Cooper Memorial Football Scholarship at TCU, Box 297044, Ft. Worth TX 76129 or given online at www.froglinks.com (click the "make a gift now" box).

Key cards give tourists info at their fingertips

Colorado City tourism efforts are taking on a new form.

Inspired by a hotel keycard concept found in Abilene, local resident Mary Smith compiled a list of things to do in Colorado City and coordinated with the Western Suites for local implementation.

The list includes the Veteran's Memorial, antique and boutique shopping, authentic Mexican food, downtown photo opportunities, the Branding Wall, the prehistoric animals at the Heart of West Texas Museum, movies at the historic Palace Theater and Lake Colorado City State Park. The Chamber of Commerce phone number is listed as well as the City's website www.coloradocity-texas.org.

The places of interest are featured on the reverse of the Western Suites room key cards, providing guests with a portable tourism guide.

"The face of tourism is changing and the ways tourists get information is evolving as well. This is just one more effort we are making to roll with that change," Amie Wood, Community Development Director said.

'Bomb' emails to be taken seriously

Emails warning of the dangers of soda pop bottle bombs should be taken seriously, according to Snopes.com, which has chronicled a series of incidents involving the homemade bombs.

Also known as a "Works" bomb, the device uses a 20 ounce pop bottle containing Drano and tin foil, usually detonating within a few seconds of touching or moving the device.

The amount of force generated at the time of the explosion is enough to sever fingers and deliver 2nd and 3rd degree chemical burns, according to Keith Mansell, Washtenaw County Sheriff. The chemicals can possibly cause blindness and the toxic fumes can be harmful.

The original email warning was sent out by the Washtenaw County Sheriff in April 2010 after discovering two Drano bombs left in the yards of residents in York Township, Michigan.

About the same time, according to Snopes.com, a similar rash of plastic-bottle bombs were used to blow up mailboxes in Methuen, Massachusetts.

Officials caution residents to examine soda or other bottles carefully without touching them. If the bottle exhibits any signs of melting or swelling, do not touch it and call 911 immediately.

If the soda bottle has any dark liquid in it or appears slightly swollen, do not touch it and call 911 immediately.

Changes in the law make the construction of such a device "possession of a substance with explosive capabilities." It carries a statutory guideline of a 15 year felony penalty if it causes no damage and a 20 year felony penalty if the device causes any damage.

If the bomb causes physical injury, it is a 25 year felony. For serious injury the penalty increases to "up to life imprisonment" and a "mandatory life without parole" penalty if the bomb results in the death of an individual.

OPINION & COMMENTARY

TUMBLEWEED SMITH

The most beautiful BBQ book in Texas

I judged goat in Brady again this year. The city's goat cooking event is in its 37th year, and I've been to a lot of them. This year I was promoted to team captain. I also was one of the selected judges to decide the winner of the "mystery meat" contest. Three of us judged the showmanship competition. That's my favorite job, and I hope to do the same thing next year. This year, more than 50 judges sampled the offerings of 132 goat cooks. I had some good goat and I had some pretty bad goat.

Rookie judges are held up in ridicule. They wear goat horns around their necks and take good-natured ribbing from veteran judges. Some of the judges are high-powered folks. Writers, photographers, legislators, and movie stars have judged goat in Brady.

I met Wyatt McSpadden, one of the rookie judges, in Brady. He is a native of Amarillo and worked for Stanley Marsh, who planted a bunch of Cadillacs nose down in a field as an art project. Wyatt was Marsh's official photographer on the Cadillac project as well as others. In the 90's Wyatt got interested in documentary photography and moved to Austin. His photos of prominent people have appeared in publications all across the country, many of them in Texas Monthly, where he is a contributing photographer.

He did the photography for a beautiful coffee table book titled TEXAS BBQ. He spent 20 years criss-crossing the state visiting small family owned barbecue operations. Wyatt is a true artist with a camera. His work hangs in some prestigious museums and galleries as well as in homes of collectors. The picture on the back cover of the book is simply a pepper sauce bottle filled with toothpicks. It looks intriguing enough to study it for a while to figure out what it is.

Looking at the photos you not only smell the barbecue but feel its soul as well. Wyatt uses both black and white photos in his book. He says some things had to be black and white; others had to be in color. He photographed men stoking fires, colorful signs inside and out, greasy pits, old cash registers, cracked seats at a barbecue counter, piles of mesquite wood, tongs and tools used in preparing the barbecue, brick ovens, knives, butcher blocks, cooked meat, raw meat, hanging aprons, customers and strings of sausages. Wyatt's book of barbecue photography evokes strong emotions about the state's favorite food. Anybody who has eaten delicious barbecue at a place with a broken screen door can identify with the book.

The book contains quotes from Texas barbecue cooks: "You just can't throw meat in an oven and come back 24 hours later. You gotta sweat and inhale a lot of smoke. You gotta cook right over the coals where the meat can drip down. Then the flavor can come back up through it. You can't be lazy if you want real Texas barbecue, you gotta do the work." That's a quote from Steve Kapchinski, pit master at Martin's Place in Bryan.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize Ron Dooley, former Chief of Police of the Colorado City Police Department, for an incredible job during his tenure. As District Attorney, I have the opportunity to work with all law enforcement personnel and agencies in my district which includes Nolan, Mitchell and Fisher Counties. Because of this, I know how hard these people work to make our towns and communities a better place to live.

Because of the nature of the job in law enforcement, it is vital to our agencies that they have good leadership. Ron Dooley provided outstanding leadership to his officers as their Chief. This was apparent to me in the quality of cases that were prepared by the officers of the police department for prosecution by my office. But that is not the only thing that evidenced the quality of leadership that Chief Dooley provided.

The police officers who were employed by the Colorado City Police Department under Chief Dooley had great pride in the jobs they were doing and rightfully so. It is often difficult to keep a good morale among officers, especially in a small department. Chief Dooley was able to accomplish this. Not only did the officers have pride in their jobs, and rightfully so, they had pride in their community. This is evidenced by many acts of kindness and professionalism through the years, but particularly the Blue Santa project that was a huge success during this past Christmas season. I look forward to participating in it again this year.

The officers are always professional and respectful when dealing with me, my staff, grand jurors, and court personnel. They are always eager to participate when we have training for law enforcement officers and genuinely want to do what they can to become better officers and a better department. This attitude comes from the top and has been instilled by Chief Dooley in these officers because he believes in them and the department and has worked hard to make it a department to be proud of.

Chief, I am proud of your department. As I have told you many times, I would put your department up against any that I know, regardless of size. I appreciate the job you have done for Colorado City. It is an important job and one that you did so very well. I will miss you, your expertise, your professionalism, and most of all, your positive attitude. I know you are leaving the department in good hands and I look forward to working with Interim Chief Bivins and the rest of the department. Wherever you go, you will be a great asset to that community.

Ann Reed
32nd Judicial District Attorney hours a day 7 days a week," Hiser said. "Her (Brophy) comments are in an effort to scare our citizens for no good reason."

"We have evaluated the police department and while it's not ideal to have only one officer on duty at times, it's the norm in small communities," Hiser said.

"We're making sure all shifts and patrols are covered all hours of the day," Kampfer said, "and training a rookie officer, who has another four weeks of training."

Bob Reily challenged citizens to "get over our petty prejudices, our petty agendas and petty endeavors and work together."

Reily's comments, along with Hollis Gainey's who also spoke in support of the council and city manager, received applause from the audience.

City finances showed another month of revenues over expenses, netting the city $83,468.91 during October.

Kampfer gave an update on TCEQ mandates as the city works with a firm to analyze the possibilities of repainting the water towers instead of replacing them to get long term stability in compliance with TCEQ regulations.

Drilling of test wells in excess of 800 feet in depth is already underway in multiple locations as the city works with the county, the Board of Economic Development and the water district on plans for a water desalination project.

"We're not looking at the city one dimensionally, so while it may not look like it makes sense to cut fire or police personnel, while at the same time investing money in an old dilapidated hotel, it is all connected to the other in the big picture," Hiser said.

"I can tell you there is a plan. We just need the citizens to give us a chance to see all the pieces of the puzzle come together," he said.

at a site and time to be determined after Friday's playoff games.

The Wolves are district champions for the fifth time in the last 8 years. Coach Frank Johnson and offensive coordinator Dan Gainey have teamed together in Colorado City since 2002 and have put together an impressive 5 district titles in 8 years.

In attendance at last Friday's Kermis game were 18 members of the 1954 undefeated Wolf team. "In my 21 years of coaching, this is only the second time I've been part of a 10-0 season," Johnson said. "I thought it was a neat experience for our kids. I hope the class of '54 had a blast. I'm glad our kids could share this 10-0 season with the class of 1954."

hunting her entire life and enjoys being outdoors. "I like just getting away from city life," she said. "We come down on Wednesday and head back on Sunday and come down again on Wednesday." It gives her just enough time to do laundry before heading back to the deer lease, which the couple also uses in the summer as a vacation get away.

Coby Stinson is ready for another deer season and the "adrenaline rush when you shoot 'em," he said.

The biggest deer he bagged was an 11 point drop tine which scored 137.

For Cutter Williams, it will be his first hunting season and he is looking forward to picking off spikes. "They're pretty much baby deer with only one horn," he said. "They're not supposed to be out there. If they go through mating season, they'll make more bad deer and you don't want that."

A new item at the hunters dinner this year was camouflage fudge. The specialty fudge is designed by the Fudge Lady in Texas, whom local artist Carolyn Walker met during the Petticoats on the Prairie show earlier this month.

The fudge lady designed her unique varieties of delicious fudge after family members taunts about not being able to cook hurt her feelings. Far from being the family tomboy who couldn't cook, her camo fudge caught the attention of Cabella's, famous for its hunting and fishing and outdoor gear.

"She got the call while we were sitting there," Walker said, adding the company is considering orders of 10,000 units a month of the specialty fudge. "I thought the hunters dinner would be the perfect place to come and introduce people to it."

Hospital receives trauma recertification

By Toni Everett

Mitchell County Hospital has been notified by The Texas Department of State Health Services that the hospital has qualified for re-designation as a Level IV Trauma Facility. The letter states, "Your hospital is to be commended for its ongoing commitment to ensure quality care is available for trauma patients in its area."

Nurse Trauma Coordinator Cindy Hale said, "The application process is lengthy, about 1 1/2 years. Our medical director and trauma committee have to examine treatment and transportation processes, beginning with patient injury and transportation to the Emergency Room (ER). We also review proper treatment when the injured patient is in the ER, and patient disposition, whether that is admission to the hospital or transfer to another facility."

Hale added, "The state examiner's survey process is difficult. The examiner is at our facility for a full day. He reviews charts, looks at equipment and supplies in the ER and Medical-Surgical area of the hospital. He determines the appropriateness of our trauma protocols. The state is very particular about our equipment being up to date. The surveyor looks for teamwork among pre-hospital and hospital personnel and made several comments about our EMS documentation being among the best in the state. The examiner is also helpful in providing us information about upcoming changes in treatment. He gives us ideas about what is working well in other hospitals."

The Trauma Committee consists of Robbie Dewberry, Hospital Administrator; Dr. Dee Roach, Trauma Medical Direc-

Among the certifications the ER nursing staff maintains are: Trauma Nurse Core Course, Advanced Cardiac Life Support, Pediatric Advanced Life Support, Advanced Burn Life Support, Advanced Trauma Core for Nurses, and The Board of Certified Emergency Nurses.

"Many of these certifications require renewals every two or four years, depending on the certification. This ensures our staff has current information to maintain their skill levels," Chief Nursing Officer Donna Goebel said.

Michele Wood, R.N. has worked in the MCH Emergency Room for ten years and sums it up this way, "The best course I maintain certification in is TNCC. I love the hands-on experience that allows me to deliver better patient care."

MITCHELL COUNTY HOSPITAL was recently redesignated as a Level IV Trauma Facility, a state-examined process that has to be completed every three years. Pictured are: (l-r) Dr. Dee Roach; Donna Goebel, RN, Chief Nursing Officer; Justa Gunn, RN, Quality Improvement Coordinator; Maria Morvant, RN, ER Director; Cindy Hale, RN, Trauma Coordinator; and Robbie Dewberry, MCHD Administrator. Producers have voice in USDA elections

The county committee elections for the USDA's Farm Service Agency are in progress, according to Keith Hiser, Executive Director of USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) in Mitchell County. Ballots were mailed to eligible voters and completed ballots must be returned by mail or to local FSA offices by Dec. 6, 2010.

"I strongly recommend that producers vote because the county committee members play a huge role in the Agency, especially at the county level," said Hiser. "County committee members make decisions on how federal farm programs will be administered locally."

County committee members are elected to office by their peers and serve as the representative voice for agriculture producers in the county, and they are responsible for communicating with USDA to ensure that national programs are adapted to fit local needs. County committees are responsible for making decisions on issues including commodity loans and payments, conservation programs, disaster assistance programs and emergency programs.

Hiser encourages minority and female producers to serve as county committee members in the future. It is important that the county committee is comprised of members who reflect the demographics of the local agriculture community.

Farmers and ranchers who participate in FSA programs are eligible to vote. If eligible voters do not receive a ballot by mail, one will be provided by the local USDA Service Center. Ballots returned by mail must be postmarked no later than Dec. 6, 2010. New county committee members will assume their role and related responsibilities on Jan. 1, 2011.

For more information on county committees, view the FSA website at www.fsa.usda.gov/elections or visit a local USDA Service Center.

Bloodmobile to set up at Railhead Trade Days

In conjunction with the upcoming Railhead Trade Days, United Blood Services' Bloodmobile will be parked in front of the Railhead Building to hold a blood drive.

The volunteers of Mitchell County Hospital District will host the community blood drive on Saturday, November 20 from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. In order to process donors more efficiently, an appointment may be made by calling Ernestine O'Dell at 325-728-5593 or United Blood Services at 800-756-0024.

"Everybody who can needs to donate," O'Dell said Tuesday. "You never know when you will have to be on the receiving end."

Each donor will receive a "thank you" gift and free cholesterol testing. Eligible donors must be at least 17 years old (16 with parental consent form), weigh at least 110 pounds and be in good health to donate.

United Blood Services has been this area's non-profit community blood provider since 1956 and serves patients in 10 hospitals in 11 counties, including Mitchell County Hospital.

The Ministerial Alliance will hold a Community Thanksgiving Service on Sunday, November 14 at Primera Iglesia Bautista El Calvario, 1635 Walnut, at 6 p.m. with Jerry Moore preaching. There will also be a reception following the service.

All members of the community are encouraged to come together as one to give thanks to God for all the blessings He has provided.

The offering that is taken at the service is used to help people in Mitchell County with needs such as utilities and rent.

Families attending the service are asked to bring cookies, brownies or other finger desserts for the reception following the service.

Community garden plans to be discussed by group

Plans for construction and maintenance of a community garden will be a hot topic at the next Keep Colorado City Beautiful meeting.

Changing from their regular calendar, KCCB will meet on Saturday, November 13 at the All Saints Episcopal Church at 9 a.m. to discuss upcoming plans over a cup of coffee.

"This is the biggest project we've ever taken on," Bob Reily, KCCB president said. "Lots of things are involved."

Anyone wishing to participate in the community garden, help with preparation, or become part of KCCB is encouraged to attend the Saturday meeting.

Following the meeting, KCCB members will gather across the alley at Hickory and Third Street to do clean up work on the proposed garden site.

KCCB hopes to have the garden ready for community use this coming spring.

'Mystery quilt' on view at museum

Heart of West Texas Museum has on display a handmade vintage "mystery quilt" with names

Gentry is named Artist of the Month

Glenda Gentry has been named Artist of the Month by the West Texas Art Guild. A painting by Gentry is on display in the lobby of First National Bank.

Gentry was a floral designer for 30 years and owned her own shop. She is extremely talented in making floral arrangements. She enjoys all types of crafts including decorating ostrich eggs to create beautiful decorative pieces.

Gentry is new to painting but has enthusiastically launched into watercolor and acrylic painting. She is a wife and mother of four children, grandmother to 11 and great-grandmother to six. She is also a member of the West Texas Art Guild.

Garden Club meets

The Colorado City Garden Club met on November 5th at Bama's. Twenty-two members were present for lunch and for the program presented by John Senter. He spoke about the "Texas Superstars". These are plants tested and developed by Texas Agri-life Extension Service. They have been found to perform very well in most parts of Texas, and he showed slides that gave facts and growing habits of many of these landscape plants. A discussion followed of how best to include these in the garden.

After the program, a business meeting was conducted by co-president, Carol Compton. The minutes and treasurer's report were given and approved. The up-coming Tour of Homes was then planned and discussed. Members are looking forward to presenting this event to the public. It will be on December 4th from 10 a.m. until noon, and tickets will be $10. There will be four homes on the tour and the Heritage House will be another stop with refreshments available there. Tickets are on sale at First National Bank, City National Bank, and the Chamber of Commerce. Members also have tickets for sale and may be contacted for those.

It was announced that the Garden Club will decorate a tree for the Festival of Trees to be held December 4th. Member Bobbie Johnson will be in charge of this project and asked for volunteers to help.

The meeting closed with the approval of plans to have a Garden Club page on Facebook. Dana Mayfield volunteered to set this up to provide information and upcoming events. The club looks forward to offering this to the public.

Wilson's Weekly Psalm 51 - God's Mercy

The 51st Psalm is one of the best examples found in the Bible of someone pouring their heart out before God in penitence. David had sinned in his dealings with Bathsheba, Uriah, and the Israelites. The prophet Nathan challenged David to correct his ways saying, "You are the man!" To which David responded, "I have sinned against the Lord" (2 Samuel 12:7,13). Psalm 51 expands upon David's great confession. In his own words, watch as he poured his heart out asking for God's mercy:

"Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your loving kindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight...Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow...Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart...Do not cast me away from Your presence...Restore to me the joy of Your salvation...Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall be converted to You" (v.1-13).

David's admission of guilt is something uncommon in our day. Too many pass the buck or will only admit poor judgment. In truth, we must repent of our sins or we will perish (Luke 13:3). David understood that what was most important was that he had sinned against God and it would cost him his soul. Therefore, David pleaded with the Lord for mercy and forgiveness. Then as a forgiven and thankful soul, he did what each of us should do when sin is washed away, he began to show others the way to God.

My dear friends and neighbors, if you are living in sin, do not wait until it is too late. Stand up with the courage of David and confess your sins before God and get your life right. There is no salvation outside of Christ, so if you are not a Christian, you must obey the gospel. If we can help you to become a Christian and serve God faithfully, please contact us. - Denny Wilson

A RECORD 56 YEARS IN THE MAKING

Wolves end season 10-0 with win over Kermit

By Patrick Gainey
The Colorado City Wolves made history last Friday night as they ended the season undefeated (10-0), in beating the Kermit Yellowjackets 35-0 before a full house at Wolf Stadium. The victory earned the Wolves their second consecutive district championship.

It was the first time in 56 years a Wolf team has gone undefeated. When asked about the significance of the game, Johnson said, "It hasn't sunk in yet, probably won't until after Christmas."

The Wolves were in no mood for drama as they dominated, both offensively and defensively, in securing their victory.

Senior running back Tracy Russell scored the first of his three touchdowns with 8:25 to go in the first quarter. Russell scored from 6 yards out and the successful PAT by Derek Gainey put the Wolves up 7-0.

The Wolves went up 14-0 late in the first quarter, when Russell scored again from 26 yards out. J.C. Johnson got in on the scoring with a 9-yard scamper early in the second quarter for a 21-0 lead. The run was set up by two Gainey passes, one to Nick Reyna and the other to Tylor Lorenz. Gainey was good on all his PAT attempts.

Russell tacked on his third touchdown of the night late in the second quarter when he scooted 39 yards with 3:25 to go in the half.

The Wolves would score the final touchdown of game early in the third quarter when Johnson scored on a 10-yard run.

Wolves' Joe Salazar recovered a fumble on the Wolves' 10 yard line late in the third quarter, and defensive back Andrew Muñoz also recovered a fumble for the Wolves.

The 2010 Wolves have set a tone not heard since 1954 in Colorado City, and that tone is called perfection. In conclusion, the 2010 Wolves' gridiron made many believers within and out of the community. This bunch seems to defy the law of football physics considering their size. They have proven yet again that quickness, determination and unity do win football games in the end.

This week is an off-week for the District Champs.

Loraine earns playoff spot, despite loss to Sterling City

By Aimee Adams

The Loraine Bulldogs almost pulled off the biggest upset of the year last Friday night in Sterling City.

Sterling City trailed the Bulldogs most of the game but were able to outscore them in the second half, scoring four touchdowns to only 1 for the Bulldog, escaping with a hard-fought victory 61-46.

Loraine won the coin toss and elected to receive. Rafael Acevedo ran the ball 40 yards on the second play of the game to open the scoring 6-0. The Eagles answered back with 9:24 to go and pulled ahead of the 'Dogs, 8-6. With 5:49 to go, Acevedo made it to the end zone and Toby Garza's kick was good putting the 'Dogs back on top, 14-8.

Four seconds later, the Eagles tied the game, 14-14. A little over 2 minutes elapsed before Acevedo rushed the final 12 yards into the end zone. Garza's kick was good, and the score had the Bulldogs up 22-14. Sterling City closed the gap with a touchdown and a pass for the extra point. The Eagles trailed the 'Dogs by only one point, 22-21. With 1:41 left in the 1st quarter, Jacob Benivamondez completed a 58-yard touchdown pass to Garza, who also made the extra point good for a total of 8 points giving the Bulldogs 30 points to the Eagles 21.

The second quarter opened with Sterling City scoring first. The Eagles' kick was good, and with 8:05 left in the quarter Sterling City trailed once again by only 1 point, 30-29. The ball went back and forth, and both teams' defense really stepped it up. Acevedo scored the only other touchdown of the quarter with 5:09 left to play. Garza's kick was good, and the score remained 38-29 for the rest of the first half.

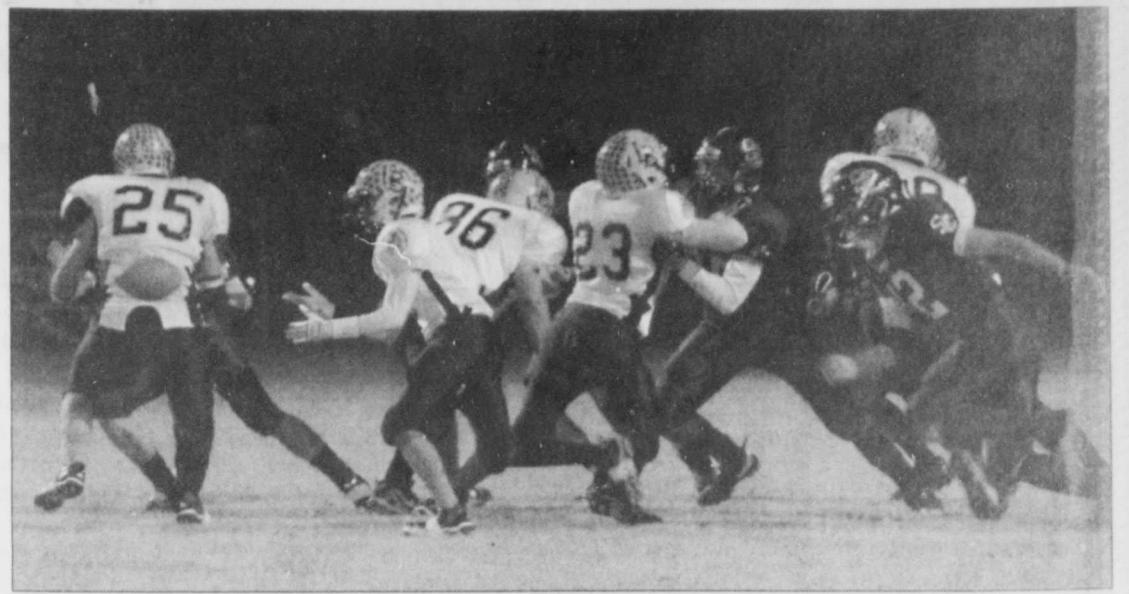

Coming into the second half, defense on both sides turned it up full throttle. The Eagles managed to score the only touchdown of the third quarter and trailed the Dogs by one point once again,

Fourth quarter-play opened up and with 6:18 to go in the 4th, Sterling City pulled ahead of Loraine, 45-38. Two minutes later, the Eagles scored again, 53-38. With 8:17 to go, Benivamondez connected with Carlos Lopez and Garza's kick was good. The 'Dogs pulled closer, 53-46. Six minutes of gridiron battling ensued before the Eagles were able to score again making the final score, 61-46.

"Both teams played their hearts out on that field. Everybody left everything they had on the field," Head Coach Richard Jackson said Monday. He was pleased with the game, even though the loss was painful. "The game came down to 1 stop and 2 yards. The best thing that can happen is for our boys to see Sterling City in 3 weeks on our field," Jackson said.

The 'Dogs will play Paint Rock Saturday night in Robert Lee. Paint Rock is 10-0.

THE LORAIN BULLDOGS traveled to Sterling City and led most the game, almost upsetting the preseason favorite Eagles. Sterling City ultimately prevailed, beating the Bulldogs 61-46. Wildcats lose to Gorillas in Trent, 66-18

Trent (7-0, 1-2) handed the Westbrook Wildcats their third defeat in as many weeks last Thursday night in Trent, 66-18.

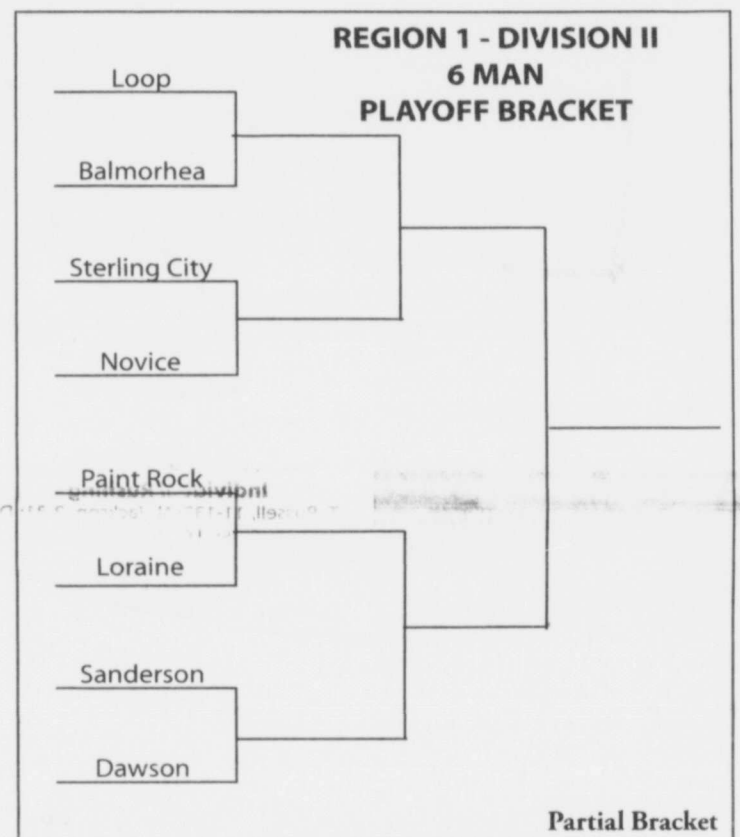

Ending the season at 7-3, the Wildcats certainly are headed in the right direction. The Wildcats records the last four years were: 1-9, 2-8, 3-7 and 1-9.

Head Coach Jim Hill, in his second year (second tenure), has certainly found the spark the Wildcats have needed to turn things around.

Loraine to face Paint Rock ...in first round of the playoffs

The Loraine Bulldogs start play-off action this Saturday night in Robert Lee against 10-0 Paint Rock.

The Indians are the champions of District 7 (DII) and sport a running attack that's awesome. Running back Nicky Sanders (5'11", 175 lbs) has scored 72 touchdowns this season while rushing for over 3000 yards.

The Bulldogs enter the playoffs as District 6 (DII) runner-up and are coming off a hard-fought championship game last Friday in Sterling City.

"We know what we have to do," Loraine Head Coach Richard Jackson said Monday. "We're going to take the next step."

Aside from a few bumps and bruises, the Bulldogs are injury-free. Asked if he thought he would be in the play-offs in his first year at Loraine, Jackson said, "I knew we had a chance if the kids bought into what we were doing. They've put in a lot of work."

Kick-off in Robert Lee is set for 7 p.m.

LORAINE NEWS

By Sharon Green Loraine Correspondent

How 'bout them Bulldogs? Man, what a game! The excitement is building for play-offs and we're behind you 100%. We know you will do your best, and we are already so proud of you that we could burst!

St. Joseph's Catholic Church here in Loraine will be serving a complimentary Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday, November 14th from 4:00 p.m. until around 6:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the fellowship and the great food.

The Loraine Senior Center had a few visitors this week. Linda and Alton Raschke, James Hallmark from Odessa and Thelma Snider from Roscoe came by to enjoy the crowd. Judy Macha from Lockney came Thursday to visit with her mother Elnora Mitchell and stayed through to Saturday.

Helen Hartley was the guest speaker at the Ladies Salad Dinner at the Loraine Methodist Church Monday night. Helen named several Christian women that she had known in her lifetime and told of how each of them had influenced her life over the years.

There were 13 ladies present for the occasion.

Debby Mitchell played guitar and sang for the Sunday morning services at the Loraine Methodist Church. Her song was "Please Search the Book Again." Wanda Applin was the guest pianist for the service, which was also Communion Sunday.

The Men's Breakfast at the Loraine Methodist Church will be this Saturday morning, November 13th at 7:00 a.m. All men are welcome and encouraged to bring a friend to enjoy the good food, good devotional and great fellowship.

Prayers are needed for Edgar Haltom who will have surgery Friday.

Edgar has spent the majority of his life making sure that all of us stayed safe, from working through the freezing nights to clear and gravel the highways to patrolling the city of Loraine and keeping our streets safe for us and our children.

We will pray for you to come safely and successfully through these procedures, Edgar.

Speaking of weather, I'm not sure how much longer I will be able to write this news as I am traveling to and from Austin for my daughter's weekly schooling at TSD. I have already been tied up from Thursday to Monday a couple of times, and that's not leaving me a whole lot of time to gather news.

I have really enjoyed doing this over the last six months, but God has a season for all things.

If anyone is interested in gathering and writing Loraine News for the Record, please contact me.

Loraine rally will send off Bulldogs

The Loraine Cheerleaders will host a pep rally to fire up the varsity Bulldog team and the fans on Saturday, November 13. The Bulldogs will face the Paint Rock Indians in Robert Lee on Saturday, with kick-off slated for 7 p.m.

The pep rally will be held in downtown Loraine by Western Bank and is set to begin at approximately 3:45 p.m.

The football team will depart from downtown immediately following the pep rally. Everyone is encouraged to come out and show some support for the Bulldogs!

one of the team cutups, he and partner in crime George Powell were Coach Adair's top lap runners.

"Coach Adair was more of a disciplinarian," Padgett said. "We cut up a lot, not during games or workout, but in the field house. He was always saying, 'Powell, Padgett another lap tomorrow!'"

The team, which won the district 4-AA title and was the first team to have an undefeated 10-0 season in 30 years of school history, fielded some outstanding individuals as well. Eleven were named to the all district team.

Frank Mackey, "one of the chosen few" was also known as the Golden Toes Lad, a moniker awarded him in one edition of the local paper for his kicking prowess which continued to stick.

"When playing Phillips in regionals in Lubbock at the Texas Tech stadium, there was 60 mile hour wind blowing down the stadium," Mackey said. "I kicked, with the participation of the wind, over the parking lot and all the way out into the street. I don't think they ever found it."

Lee Mullican remembers his big break when Padgett broke his arm, allowing Mullican to start.

"It was the fourth game of the season against Ballinger. I ran 75 yards, and they caught me on the 5 yard line," Mullican said.

"The whole year was special," Chili Black, offensive tackle, said,

"because we were winning, having fun. We were just all hanging back and letting Gainey take care of it, watching him run."

"Hollis was our real player," Williams said. "I just handed off to him, and he took off running."

"Bud Windham was good, too. He was a back with Gainey. Gainey was a special athlete. We were fortunate to have him on our team and we took advantage of it when we could," Williams said.

Hoss Gainey's number 31 was retired at the end of the 10-0 1954 football season. Nicknamed "Hoss," Gainey's speed carried him on to greater accolades and honors in college.

Character and coaches also contributed to winning Wolves teams.

"They were the best men in caliber and type of people I was associated with," Tiger Davis, defensive end said. "Every person on the team was raised right, went to church, Christian, loving people. The friendship of all these people is what makes it valuable."

"They were unbelievable," Coach Cecil Ellis said. "They were truly a group of great athletes with lots of ability, but the main thing was their character. Outstanding character. Outstanding students and hard-working, they were great to be around."
