

Monday, June 6, Is Dollar Day In Floydada

Value Wise Shoppers To Find First Monday Claims Deserved

The June Calendar shows First Monday to come on June 6 and it is on this day that Floydada Retail establishments are shooting at a big Dollar Day in local stores.

Prompted to take action to boost Dollar Day by the retail trades committee of the Chamber of Commerce, store operators started laying in special buys several weeks ago and now they are all set to show the public just what a dollar will buy in Floydada.

The value wise shopper will find bargains in wearing apparel, household goods, gift items, foods, piece goods, auto accessories, building supplies, drug items, tractor accessories, tires, special and every day services and in fact about anything the heart desires.

In pages of this week's Hesperian appear advertisements crying the wares of the local stores and showing the all-important low-low prices that appeal to the dollar day shopper.

First Monday has made quite a reputation for itself in Floydada with dry goods and grocery items the chief drawing cards for a number of years. Now other retail firms are joining with the department and grocery stores to make the first Monday event even more popular.

Bill Hale heads the retail trades committee and assisting with the Dollar Day planning have been Louis Anderson, Sam Shami and Don West.

On page three of this section is an index of some 20 of the hottest Dollar Day values being offered town wide. Scattered throughout the paper are advertisements carrying additional big value buys that will be attractive to the shopper.

Floydada visitors this summer will find free parking space, a number of good eating places both down town and on the highway, service stations, both independent and representing most every major company.

Recreation facilities include the city's parks, boys league baseball, bowling, theatres, library, golf and swimming at the country club and the popular soft drink drive-ins.

Local merchants are joining with the Chamber of Commerce in inviting area shoppers to come and see for themselves how much more their dollar will buy in Friendly Floydada.

RAMSEY EXPLAINS WHY WILD GEESSE MISSING FROM PLAINS FIELDS

Ed (nicknamed Goose) Ramsey, of Dimmitt, has a simple explanation for the fact that wild geese are so rarely seen on the plains. Several years ago, he says, the wild geese on their flights from Canada, changed their course and now fly over the Vernon and Wichita Falls by the storm. It was a general country.

They may change back sometime in the next quarter of a century and fly over the plains again or they may never, Mr. Ramsey said.

Light Majority Primary Vote Is Forecast For Floyd County

Charged with the nomination of promptly at 8 o'clock Saturday a judge of the court of Criminal Appeals of Texas in balloting Saturday, it appeared as of Wednesday that the lightest vote in the history of majority primaries will short ticket, with only two names, he cast in Floyd County.

This forecast is borne out by the fact that only three absentee ballots had been filed with the county clerk at the deadline Tuesday night. (One or two ballots that are still out may reach the clerk before Saturday through the mails.)

Up for the post of judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals are incumbent Lloyd W. Davidson and W. T. McDonald, the latter a district judge at Bryan, Texas.

The race has not been widely discussed and there is an apparent reluctance by a considerable percentage of the people to vote in judicial races at the highest level.

Yesterday, however, County Democratic Chairman Ben P. Noble are shown above shortly before Mrs. Hughes Ayres said he had no reports gave her rendition of "The Old Sod House" at the Old Settlers Reunion.

The polling places would not open at the early morning business.

At the early morning business meeting conducted by President Joe Wilson, John B. Stapleton was named as his successor. Working with Stapleton for the 1961 reunion will be Duncan Hollums, vice-president; George L. Fawcett, secretary. New officers were approved as nominated by a committee headed by Bert Bobbitt, who made their report.

Frank Nix of Lubbock, former Floyd County pioneer resident, paid tribute to those who have passed on in the past year. Nix was introduced by Mrs. Carl McAdams, who with Mrs. Glad Snodgrass conducted the memorial service.

The assembled pioneers were honored with the presence of Mrs. John Hughes of Lubbock, daughter of Lee Noble of this county, who superbly gave her rendition of "The Old Sod House."

Old Settlers Observe County's Anniversary

Floyd County Pioneers Reunioned the parade which ran Association had a good day Saturday for their 23rd celebration. The parade was 11 blocks long, of the county's founding 70 years ago on May 23, 1890.

Two thousand or so of the old settlers, many still residents in the county and many also here from far places, gathered to recount old times, other days when the spirit of youth flamed high.

They sang and talked and ate together once more, and retold the story of the joys and sorrows they shared together in the days when their world was young.

Nearly 700 registered at the annual meeting.

A cooling shower in the late evening did not mar the fun of the event, although it sent several scurrying for cover at the old-fashioned dance on the courthouse square. These resumed their doo dee do later in the evening.

Buying Sport Shirts

Sports shirts make a useful gift. If you are buying a sport shirt, make every penny count by keeping some important buying guides in mind.

Take fabrics for instance. They come in many fibers, new blends and with new finishes. Do you know what to expect from rayon, nylon, or even cotton that has been treated with a special finish? Unless you ask for a label that gives this information, or depend upon a salesperson you know well, you may be disappointed by the wearing qualities of the shirt.

Quality is not always a matter of price alone. If you pay to check construction features such as pleats or gathers over shoulder blades to give ease; buttonholes, cuff finish and stitching along the front panel.

Color makes a difference too. Colors appropriate for the individual, the occasion, and the other parts of the ensemble, make for a better appearance.

Basic Guides In Baking A Cake: If your butter cakes don't turn out to meet your expectations every time, the reason or reasons may be found in the three basic guides for successful baking.

The three guides are: Use a reliable recipe and standard measuring equipment; make accurate measurements and follow directions for mixing; and use the recommended baking temperatures, and time.

A cake may fail because of not enough flour or too much shortening, sugar, leavening or liquid. Insufficient baking is also a reason for low baking temperatures.

If your cake is too dry, the reason may be overmeasuring of flour or undermeasuring of shortening, over beating egg whites, or substituting cocoa for chocolate without adding more shortening.

Overmixing in final stages, insufficient baking powder or sugar, too much liquid or shortening, or incorrect baking temperatures may be the causes of a heavy cake.

Tough texture may be the result of not enough sugar or shortening, too much flour, over beating, or incorrect temperatures while baking.

by NANCY MORCKEL Home Economist

Here's A Good Way To Save Money:

The national average use for an electric range is 150 kWh per month for a family of four. You can even make your electric range kWh usage come under the national average if you will do the following things:

1. Use proper utensils. Flat bottom, straight sided, covered boilers. Unwarped shiny baking pans. One of your biggest expenses is using your broiler to brown breads.

2. Always cut down heat on surface units to simmer or low after food begins to boil. You and lots of fun was had by those attending.

Present were Mrs. Cecil Lewis, Mark and Susan; Mrs. Ronald Evans, Joel and Ray; Mrs. Raymond Evans; Floyd Fuqua; H. W. Roberts; John Walker; Leo Sawyer; O. G. Mayfield; Raymond Williams; Newell Burk; and Elmer Norrell. Mrs. Trapp and Mrs. Mable Miles, and Janis Trapp served as hostesses.

Sand Hill News

By Mrs. James Jeffress

SAND HILL, May 30 — The community received nice showers early Monday morning, which were greatly appreciated. The measurements were from 60 to an inch around over the community. We are hoping the moisture is what the young crops are needing to start growing. Some are still planting trying to get a stand of cotton but time is running out.

Mrs. Hollis McLain and Mrs. Lynn Miller met with the 4-H girls Thursday afternoon to start work on their clothing projects for the dress review, which will be July 13. Pattern books were shown and instructions were given to the girls.

Mrs. McLain is in charge of the older girls. Her group consists of Beverly Jeffress, Mary Starkey, Norma Hollums and Bunny Hopper. Mrs. Lynn Miller is in charge of the younger group, which consists of Elaine Starkey, Judy Bullock, Becky Miller, Marilyn McLain and Betty Miller. The girls will have six meetings during the summer.

Janice Miller and Jimmy Huck abay will leave for College Station Tuesday, June 7, where they will give their demonstrations in Dairy Food and Entomology. Congratulations to these two and wish them much luck.

We would like to say congratulations to Judy Bullock and Elaine Starkey on winning second on their vegetable team took the banner home.

Men attending were Kirk Slater, Bill Goude, James Jeffress and Stinson Stinger. Boys attending were Johnny and Earl Ray Row, an, Jimmy and Timmy Jeffress, Cecil Jackson, Jimmy Hammond, and a guest of Bill Goude. Better luck next time.

L I G H T

GOD said, "Let there be light: and there was light."
How much is shining on you? Are you just sitting there — oblivious to the needs of your fellow-man — and inactive in your church?
Then a cloud is hiding you! Want to be a reflector?
Then get out in the open — out where the light can beam upon you.
Absorb aplenty of it...enough to purify and light up the dark corners of your soul. Lead your family and others to church. That is being a reflector of real light...true light.
For, "God is light and in Him is no darkness." 1 John 1-5.

DANGER! Floyd County Home Is No Place To Be

(Special to the Hesperian)
NEW YORK, May 30 — From an accident standpoint, home is no place for a Floyd County resident to live.

He would be much safer outdoors, even on city streets, the records show.

Not that home is much more dangerous a place locally than it is in most parts of the United States. It isn't, in fact.

In the region embracing Floyd County, the latest figures, released by the National Office of Vital Statistics, show a rate of 13.3 deaths from home accidents per 100,000 population.

This was slightly higher than the rate reported for the United States as a whole, 13.2 per 100,000. It was, however, below that of the West South Central States, 13.8 per 100,000.

For every such home accident that is fatal, there are many more that are not. The National Safety Council presents figures to show that there are 148 disabling home accidents for every one that results in a death. By disabling is meant those serious enough to warrant medical attention or to keep a person away from work or school for at least one day.

This general average, applied locally, indicates that there are approximately 217 such accidents a year in Floyd County.

The American Medical Association states that the home can no longer qualify as the haven of safety that has been ascribed to it traditionally.

"The growing hazards attached to living in a modern home make it a decidedly unsafe place to be," it states.

Among the dangers cited are those involved in the increased use of drugs, chemical cleaners, weed killers and the like that do about the house, the use of do-it-yourself power tools, carbon monoxide fumes from furnaces and cars, fires, falls and fire-arms.

The cost of home accidents is set at $900 million a year by the National Safety Council. This is described as a minimum figure.

covering only lost wages, medical expense and the over-head cost of insurance. Not included is property damage, especially from fire, which is huge.

On the basis of the number of home accidents occurring in Floyd County, the local cost is estimated at $49,000 a year.

Motor Car Driving Increase Since '54

Labor studies.
In Floyd County, for this average amount of driving and on the basis of the 4,170 passenger cars reported locally as of the beginning of 1959, approximately $4,000,000 a year is being spent on car operation.

Depreciation Biggest Item
A breakdown of the cost, as revised, shows that the largest item is depreciation, amounting to $646 a year. The next largest is property damage and liability insurance. Fire and theft coverage, license and registration fees make up the balance of the fixed charges.

The total, $609, is what the average driver must pay a year, even if he doesn't use his car at all.

Once he takes to the road he also incurs the variable costs — for gas, oil, tires and maintenance. They figure out to 3.9 cents a mile, bringing the total to 12.9 cents a mile for 10,000-mile operation.

For those who give their cars greater use, it becomes cheaper on a mileage basis.

The 20,000-mile driver has the same fixed charges, $609, and variable ones of $790, reducing the rate to 8.1 cents a mile. For the 5,000-mile driver, however, it is much higher, 20.1 cents a mile.

With gross business in Floyd County filling stations at $1,233,000 in the last fiscal year, according to latest consumer reports, cut curtailment in local driving is indicated. It was $1,156,000 the previous year.

The fire, believed started by careless smoking, caused $6,000 damage, $4,000 to the one-story frame structure, and $2,000 to contents.

Gamble's body was taken to the Martin Funeral Home where funeral service is to be held Saturday.

Surviving, besides his mother, are a daughter, Mrs. Dian McFee, Los Angeles; two sisters, Mrs. Glen Jones, Anaheim, and Mrs. Ababel Sutton, Houston, Tex., and a brother, Arthur Gamble, Stockton.

By Mrs. J. E. Green

CENTER, May 30 — What a nice rain we had this morning! About .75 of an inch and some places more. It has been so dry the moisture is really appreciated.

School is out and the Old Setters' Reunion over Saturday night. It was such a nice reunion, a big crowd, good eats, cool and cloudy. Evidently everybody enjoyed the visits with everybody else.

Gordon Lightfoot formerly of Center and family of Dallas visited over the weekend in town with his brother, Travis and family. All dined Sunday with their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hollums and children of Sand Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Plumlee and three children of Amarillo, Texas, were visitors in Floydada last mid-week. They were guests of Mr. Green's sister, Plumlee.

Mrs. Maude Sandifur of Austin is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sims and the Charles Hortons and other relatives in this part of the country.

Mrs. Hershel Hammonds and Linda visited Saturday evening with the Charles Hortons.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Burke, Floydada visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mankins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Green visited relatives in Borger and Phillips last mid-week, going up Tuesday and returning Thursday.

Mrs. K. J. Matthews of Borger is up and about after having sustained a fractured knee from a fall a few weeks back.

The Greens came back by Plainview, where they stopped by for a brief visit with their son and family, the Victor Greens.

EDITORIAL VIEWS AND COMMENTARY

The Great Metropolis of New York City has begun seriously to slip, a report in Barron's Weekly indicates. A city which thrived and grew great on successive waves of German, Irish, Hebrew and Polish immigrants has come upon evil days. The tidal wave from the soft under belly of Europe and lands adjacent to the Caribbean Sea have proven too much. Bad government is charged by the New York weekly with the decadence which has begun to set in. The influx of irresponsibles is our added thought, for what it may be worth. Says Barron's: "For those who live or work in the City, it is a sign and seal of the fiscal irresponsibility and worse that have condemned a once-great metropolis to encroaching slums, broken streets, poor schools and rampant lawlessness. For the rest of the country, it ought to be an object lesson in what used to be called civics; any government, whether local or federal, which fails to put first things first is bad government."

The immigrant waves which hit the shores of America in succession in a period of 100 years or so were people who sought freedom and opportunity to achieve. This last wave (from Southern Europe and from the Caribbean) have come for license and government doles.

The Tuberculosis Bug. There'll be a day not too far distant when the modern drugs now used to combat tuberculosis will be no longer effective. Why? Because drugs that fight diseases when they're first used fail to work after awhile. The germ develops defensive tactics. Should this occur with the tuberculin bacilli before the TB cleanup is finished in the US we would have lost an opportunity to wipe it out. Seems a bit overdrawn but the Texas Tuberculosis Association and the Public Health Service view the matter seriously. TB is everybody's problem and they expect to be calling on the public for a concerted effort soon to get a clean up right away.

Big Vote In May. Contrary to the report from rural counties in Texas that the vote was light in May, the population centers turned out in numbers and Texas recorded the second biggest vote in the history of primaries in the state, only exceeded by that of 1956. The theory of the difference between a cool May and a hot July, so far as voting is concerned, seems to have been exploded. At any rate the experiment, advantageous in many respects, is entitled to further trial.

Jerry Sadler, Politician. West Texans will be interested to know that Jerry Sadler is a distant cousin of the Harley Sadler of beloved tent show fame, whose visits to the cities and towns of the west brought such delight to the people. Also that Harley had something to do with Jerry's entry into politics. To most of us the Sadler win over Bill Allcorn for Land Commissioner was a real upset. The report was out that Allcorn had brought efficiency into the land office operations to the Nth degree. The Sadler name undoubtedly made Jerry many a vote in West Texas.

Second Primary Saturday. This is a reminder that Saturday is second primary day. All precincts are due to hold elections. With only one race to be determined it is questionable about the interest and the turnout in this county. However, it is noteworthy that the Court of Criminal Appeals has been a most controversial body of justices for several years, and there is strong sentiment both for and against a change. Judge Davidson, who is now in office, has been most careful to protect the rights of the defendants who come up to that body with appeals from trial courts, and this is as it should be his supporters assert. On the other hand it is charged that his rulings have so politicized as to border on the absurd. His opponent is Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan. You pick your horse and bet your money.

Dilemma of the Democrats who want to blind the consciences of their fellow citizens at the beginning of a campaign to support the nominees of the party under whatsoever the circumstances may be when the general election comes, is something to consider at this stage of the maneuvering for the presidential nomination. Now that it seems a probability that Jack Kennedy may be the nominee they realize they are having to soft pedal. Texans by the thousands who voted the ticket straight all their lives, (except one time) are not going to vote for Mr. Kennedy for president. Among these thousands is a large percent of the Democrats who insisted that Texans swallow the Stevenson line and tried to read them out of the party for not doing so in 1952 and 1956.

For the reason that it is doubtful if Mr. Kennedy can carry Texas and enough other states to win the presidency it is not expedient that he be the nominee of the Democrats in July. It might be as a matter of policy or principle, that the religious warfare should come out in the open but we doubt it quite seriously. Religion runs deep in even the unreligious. Call it prejudice or whatever, it is still there, and will evidence itself at the polls.

Innovations Will Speed Up Mail Service

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield today announced sweeping improvements in mail transportation that will mean better mail service for Floydada and 124 other communities in the Amarillo and Lubbock metropolitan areas, covering over 37,000 square miles.

Discussing the program at a meeting of postmasters in Amarillo, Geo. A. Gray, Regional Operations Director, said that 900,000 people in the 40 Texas counties would benefit by better mail service.

Barring infrequent delays in media of transportation and occasional distribution errors, first-class letters mailed at designated collection boxes or in the post office before 5:00 p. m. on a business day will be delivered on the first delivery at any office in the area on the following business day.

"Tests just concluded," Mr. Gray said, "proved the mail pattern to be highly successful. Approximately 600,000 first-class letters originate on an average business day in post offices with these two metropolitan areas. Approximately 66 per cent of this mail is destined for points within the area. We have tested our newly changed operations with highly gratifying results."

He pointed out that mail from and to offices outside the area all over the United States, will be expedited by the new arrangement. Accelerating the flow of mail in the metropolitan areas, it was explained, is part of the vast postal program which has next-day delivery between any two cities in the country as its long range objective. The revised mail pattern is based on the establishment of sectional centers to which mail from outlying offices is brought for consolidation, distribution and onward dispatch for connection with trunk line facilities, principally at Amarillo.

These sectional centers have been established at Amarillo, Childress, Lubbock and Plainview.

Post Offices near one of these sectional centers will send their mail to that point for processing. Fast non-stop service over the highway then will carry the mail to Amarillo and Lubbock for dispatch to destination. Special connections have been established via fast truck service north of Amarillo.

Some towns could not be brought within the plan because of the distance involved; however, slightly earlier mailing would assure the mailer the benefit of metropolitan area service.

Mobile sectional centers, which consist of mail distribution cars in trains and buses equipped for en route distribution, are also utilized in the program.

The plan required an intricate pattern of interlocking schedules, with connections being made within a matter of minutes at many places. For instance, a letter from Roaring Springs to Leveland travels over six different routes, including one train; it is transferred at five different locations.

Mr. Gray explained that the next-day delivery depends on the conscientious attention of postal employees as well as the closely integrated time table which governs the area's postal units and the transportation linking them together.

He said this improvement in letter mail service is the result of intensive study, and he credits the cooperation of dedicated postal employees in the 125 offices involved.

Boat Owners Registering By Hundreds

By Vern Sanford

Texas boat owners are registering their crafts with the highway department in Austin at the rate of 600 to 700 per day. You'd think it wouldn't take long for every boat in the Lone Star State to be "on record." But did you know that there are 212,000 boats in Texas and the number is increasing daily? Who said Texas was arid? Where there's a boat there's bound to be water. And where there are 212,000 boats then again must be in great abundance. According to Bob Townsley, chairman of registrations in the Austin office of the highway department, more than 115,000 boat numbers have been assigned as of May 1, under the new water safety law. Really in popularity of boats in Texas is not too surprising when you stop to consider the Dallas, Worth, Eagle Mountain, state's geography. Texas is bounded on the south by the Gulf of Mexico, with wonderful bay fishing or deep sea fishing, or both, from Port Arthur to Brownsville. Our northern boundary is the Red River and the mammoth bass fishing area provided by Lake Texoma. To our west is the Rio Grande River with its increasingly popular and highly productive Lake Falcon. On the east we have the Sabine River with an abundance of good fishing all the way from Lake Texarkana and Caddo Lake south to the Gulf of Mexico. That's not all that Texas has to offer the fisherman. Not by a long shot. Did you know that there are more than 700 lakes in Texas? You'll be surprised too to learn that not one of them is a natural lake. All are man-made. Over 600 of them are 100-acre lakes and larger, with the remaining 100 much, much larger. You can draw a not too wavy line through the center of Texas, north to south, from the Red River to the Gulf of Mexico, that will touch such wonderful lakes as Possum Kingdom, Bridgeport, Dallas, Worth, Eagle Mountain, Whitney, Brownwood, Waco, Belton—and the six beautiful Highland Lakes (Buchanan, Inks, Granite Shoals, Marble Falls, Travis and Austin)—not to mention Lake Medina and Lake Corpus Christi. Then toss in some wonderful lakes east and west of center and you have a tidy lot of temptation for the angler. For example there is Lake Kemp, Oak Creek Lake, Shafter Lake, Cedar Lake, Devil's Lake, Lake Nasworthy, San Angelo Reservoir, Lake Abilene and a handful of others in what once was known as dry west Texas. Good fishing spots abound in the Eastern half of Texas, with fish-filled rivers and clear running streams providing plenty of outdoors pleasure. To name a few of east Texas popular lakes there's Alcoa Lake, Lake Houston, Dan B. Reservoir, Lavin, all fine fishing spots. And there are many more, such as Lake Mervel, Striker Lake, and others. So, you see, there's a reason for all those boats. And there is a special reason too, why you who haven't done so should have your boat registered. Ever have your boat stolen? Well, it has been done, you know. Maybe not yours, but there have been plenty of others pilfered. And yours could be next. Numbering your boat will lessen the danger of theft. However, if it is stolen numbering also will help prevent resale of the boat. This because the original numbering certificate must go with the boat when you transfer ownership. Finally, and equally as important, it will hasten return of your boat in case it is stolen, as numbering is a definite aid to police and patrolmen. Many boat owners, incidentally, are making photo-copies of their boat number certificates. They keep the original in the family safe and carry only the duplicate copy in the boat. By so doing they can furnish evidence of ownership in conformity with the law, but avoid the possibility of losing or damaging the original "title." Actually the boat numbering law is a misnomer. True enough the boats are assigned a number.

NEW GRAIN STORAGE—Pictured above is the first stages of a new grain storage nearing completion in Floydada. The 50 by 80 structure will house 60,000 bushels of grain, according to Dennis Dempsey, owner. It is being erected by Behlen All Steel Building Corp., of Columbus, Ohio. The crew is from Muleshoe.

Mrs. Myron Kattner of Lubbock has been selected by the Training Union Dept. of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tenn., to serve as primary leader at Glorieta, N. Mex. before, the number becomes a permanent record from the day of the three Trai-

She has received word from Nashville that her primary unit of study to be published in July 1960 has been chosen as the even though they bear a license. But you can bet your bottom dollar more of them would disappear if that license wasn't on the car. Remember too that the car license isn't permanently assigned by the motor vehicle, nor is the series of articles on "Special curriculum Committee to write a Children in Our Churches." The number is painted or decaled on both sides. It is firmly affixed, permanently assigned, and of August of 1960.

Mrs. Kattner is a speech therapist with the Lubbock Public Schools. She is a member of N. E. A., T. S. T. A., L. C. T. A., A. C. E., Lubbock Speech and Hearing Association, Secretary of the District Council for Exceptional Children. She is an active member of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock.

Her husband is associated with Cobb Dept. Stores as General Manager.

Grow a "Dream Vacation" in a cotton field?

It's not fantastic! And here is why:

One prominent Texas farmer used Phillips 66 Ammonia to realize an added net profit of $54.32 per acre on his cotton, after deducting the cost of ammonia. Just 50 acres of cotton like this means over $2,700 extra profit... enough to enable a family vacation in some of the world's finest spots.

Ask your Phillips 66 Distributor to help you work out a complete fertilizer program on all your crops.

As a Farm Woman Thinks

PETRIFIED FOREST

By Jessie Brown Thomas
Once in days of long ago
Old trees stood there, row on row
Tall and straight; but by and by
Were lying dead beneath the sky.

Ages passed and one by one
Fallen trees were turned to stone.

Petrified they're lying there
Kissed by sun and desert air.
Black and gold and red and brown,
Jewels in the desert's crown.

I was looking through some old Epic Centuries published by the Naylor Co. of San Antonio and found this lovely poem which I am sure all will enjoy.

It was a delight to meet and visit with the "Brown Girls" of Floydada's Homecoming. I found Suzanne, whom I knew at Halls as Mrs. Flannery, sweet beautiful and charming as ever.

It was a joy to be with these sisters and brothers Edd and Fred. We gathered wild flowers of yesterday and cried over the plowing up of the little horse pasture.

Ruth made me promise faithfully to keep on writing this column and I will try not to let her down.

They asked me if my name had not been actually Brown as we had so many memories in common.
Well, the pioneers were all named alike as to ways and hospitality, even if some of our names were Jones and Witt.
Hope to see you next year, dear friends.

It was a fine day, just cool enough. We greeted Frank and Eulalie McDermott and Lee Howard, we ate our dinner and talked with Baxter Hones and Lee Noble.
Bless all of you that told me
"howdy" that sweet day, now put away with other days of memories. God bless and keep you all.

Wasn't the rain nice? Reminds me of the poem. I saw God wash the World last Night. Indeed we should be so grateful and thankful and show it by serving Him, we can be kind and thoughtful and helpful to others.

Mrs. Edna Nunnally of Causey,
N. Mex., arrived Friday to spend several days with her sister, Mrs.
Phil Gates and Mr. Gates. Tomorrow the three will journey to Rockport, Tex., to attend an Eppeli family reunion. All sisters and brothers of Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Nunnally expect to be present for the gathering.

Rev. and Mrs. Phil Gates were in Amarillo last week where they attended the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference.

the legislative expense fund for use between now and the end of the year. A good part of this probably will be needed to pay travel and miscellaneous expenses of the study committee that meet between sessions.

If these expenses run very high, the permanent legislative employees — people who keep records, staff the legislative library, etc. — may run short on salary money.

Their only course, if they want to stay on in their jobs, will be to hang on until the new legislature finds money to pay them.

SESSION COSTS TOTALED. Last year's legislative sessions — one regular, three special — cost the state $2,773,140.

This averages out to $16,385 a day when the lawmakers are meeting, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness' report.

Of the $2,773,140 total, $724,000 was spent by the 32-member Senate, $1,242,000 by the 150-member House. Each member received in salary about $5,000, at the rate of $25 per day.

Rest of the expense is mostly for the employees to keep a session going — answer letters, keep records, print bills, etc.

SALES TAX TAKE ESTIMATED. A retail sales tax with groceries, medical and other services exempted would raise an estimated $133,000,000 a year, a legislative committee was told.

Collection costs would run about $3,000,000 a year, a Texas Research League tax expert told the Commission on State and Local Tax Policy.

If the tax covered not only finished products but raw products used by business in manufacturing, the take would be some $180,000,000 a year more but would result in the consumer's paying two taxes on one item.

A retail sales tax would not hurt Texas' future industrial development, the Commission was told by a business expert, but a tax on manufacturing raw materials would.

Very few elective officials have come out strongly for any kind of broad-based sales tax. Some are bound to look longingly at this avenue, however, since the amount that will have to be raised next year will, if teachers get any sort of raise, be almost as much as a retail sales tax would net.

"LAME DUCK" OPINIONS ASKED. — Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has been asked for opinions on whether retiring lawmakers should continue to serve on two important interim committees.

Four members of the Commission on State and Local Tax Policy are "lame ducks." They are the chairman, Sen. Bill Fly of Victoria, and Rep. Frates Seeligion of San Antonio, who were defeated for re-election; Rep. V. L. Ramsey of Beckville, who ran for comptroller and lost, and Rep. Obie Bristow of Big Spring who didn't run this year.

Three of the five members of the House General Investigating Committee also did not run for new terms. They are Rep. H. J. Blanchard, chairman, and Reps. Joe Burkett of Kerrville and Carl Conley of Raymondville.

If the Attorney General rules these men should be replaced, most of the new appointments will be made by retiring House Speaker Waggoner Carr.

GAS TAX ARGUED. — Court action has begun on what will undoubtedly be a long legal battle over whether the natural gas severance beneficiary tax passed last year is constitutional.

An estimated $15,000,000 a year in state revenue is at stake. Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., which filed a separate suit,

DOWPON

controls cattails and problem grasses along ditches

DOWPON* puts an end to the expense and hard work of burning, chopping or cultivating Johnson or Bermuda grass out of crop lands and cattails out of ditches. In headlands and along fence lines, too, Dowpon eliminates grass—for it kills the deep roots as well as tops. You'll find Dowpon cheaper than chlorates or borates, less messy than oiling. Simply mix Dowpon with water, and spray.
