

WHY USE A SUBSTITUTE WHEN COTTON WILL DO THE WORK?

A peculiar thing to us is the fact that practically all the feed stuff that is sold in Lamesa comes in jute bags, as well as almost everything that is sacked. With a surplus of cotton and a carry over of several million bales, we wonder why, in a cotton country, anyway, that these bags cannot be made just as easily out of cotton. Take note if you will, of the many uses of jute when cotton would do the job just as well.

if not better and we are sure at as low a cost. If we ever hope to get a legitimate profit in growing cotton in the south we must take advantage of every break and we must where-possible and consistent to do so, demand a cotton made product in preference to some other material. Up until a short time ago, most parcel post packages came wrapped with copper wire instead of cotton string. You may say this is such a small item in comparison with the immensity of our cotton production, that the difference would not be noticed. But the same argument applies when you say that Woolworth could not amass an immense fortune selling items at five, ten and fifteen cents, but it has been done. Wriggly and Coco Cola have made millions out of an article that retails for only five cents. The tremendous amount of sacking material used each year throughout the United States would consume a whole lot of cotton, and every bale of cotton we can find consumption for, merely cuts our surplus down that much. Let us all as citizens of the worlds greatest cotton growing area, put our shoulders to the wheel and demand that wherever possible cotton be used in the products we buy. If every citizen of the south would make this demand on the manufacturer, we would all be surprised at how quickly our cotton surplus would diminish. In conversation with a local dry goods man this week he told us that for every dollars worth of cotton sold that they sold probably two dollars worth of silk. No wonder we have a surplus of cotton, when we are constantly seeking a substitute. As long as we are content to sit by and say nothing, just that long will we hear the cry of a surplus of cotton, but let us all unite as one to use more cotton and to use cotton wherever it is practical, we will find our surplus gone and the price of cotton at a price where the farmers of the south will be in a position to be independent and can say what they will accept for their commodity, rather than have the price set for them as it is today.

TO HOLD 3RD ANNUAL BALL TOURNAMENT

Fourth Annual Clean-Up Drive Is Extended For Two Weeks

Give Program At Conclusion Of Campaign

Lamesa's fourth annual clean up campaign was definitely extended for period of two weeks at a meeting held Tuesday morning in the Chamber of Commerce office. Representatives from the various committees in charge were present and stated that although much effective work had already been done towards cleaning up a better showing could be made if the time was extended.

Plans are being made for a short program to be given at the time of the presentation of the cup awarded to the organization doing the most effective work during the campaign. No announcements have been made but it is hoped that all taking part in the clean up will be present.

Judges for the clean up have been chosen and have already made an inspection of the town, before the clean up started. They will make their final tour of inspection Saturday, August 8th and turn in their grades to the C. of C. office when the winner will be announced.

The judging will not be made on the appearance of the section but on the amount of work done towards cleaning up.

A special feature of the next two weeks work will be the cleaning up of the entrances into town especially on the Lubbock highway where the wrecking yards are situated.

A. M. Gosch of the State Department of Health told those present that one of the greatest obstacles that could be overcome would be the installation of more sanitary conditions in the servant houses in the city.

Much effective work has already been completed by the organizations in the city and were complimented on their work by Mayor J. R. Lowrie.

PUSHES WHEELBARROW OVER

Lamesa is Host to Visitor This Week

THIRTY STATES IN TWO YEARS

Bill S. McCoy, age 61 years, and weighing only 117 pounds arrived in Lamesa Saturday on a tour of the United States, pushing a wheelbarrow carrying a load of 260 pounds. He started from Deadwood, North Dakota, August 1st, 1929 and since that date has traveled over 30 states in the union and has completely crossed 23 states. He first went to New York and then west to Omaha, Kansas and on into Texas. He arrived in this state March 1st of this year. He expects to go up Pikes Peak sometime in September. He left Big Spring Tuesday, July 14 and arrived here Saturday, July 25th. He stated that he had been sick practically ever since he left there and that slowed down his time. He said the people of this section of the state had been better to him than any section over which he had traveled and especially was he loud in his praise of the people of Sprenberg, where he received the best treatment of any town since he started. He is a Spanish-American war veteran and was shot three times in the war. He is very supple for a man of his age. He told a crowd of listeners Saturday that he had stood on his head and talked continuously for one hour and five minutes. His trip is sponsored by the World's Fair Association and data he is gathering on his trip will be used in compiling a book which will be published at the conclusion of his trip, which is scheduled to end in Chicago. He stated that the best water he had on the trip was after he hit the plains country. He is neither allowed to take up a collection or to beg, but any donations which are given may be taken. He stayed in Lamesa for several days resting and getting ready for the completion of his trip. When he reaches Pikes Peak he will be given a barrow with a load of only 10 pounds which he will push to the top.

There were about 15 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Key of Breck bridge returned home this week and after a visit with their son Mr. and Mrs. Jim Key and family.

Opening Date Be Announced Next Week

A meeting was held Saturday night in the county court room for the purpose of planning and organizing a County Baseball league one of which has been played in Dawson county for the last three years.

A fine representation of communities was present, 18 in number, and if all these teams enter the number playing will almost double the number of teams entered heretofore.

Bill White took charge of the meeting at which time plans and organizations were discussed. Rules and regulations by which the tournament will be governed were laid down.

The opening date of the tournament was not decided upon, but at a meeting to be held Saturday an announcement will be made August 8th at 8:30 in the county court room.

Committee in Charge A committee was elected to take charge of the tournament. Those elected were: Gus Ragsdale, Bill White, Jesse Paulk, and Gus White.

Umpires Appointed Carl Marshall was appointed as umpire in chief. Jesse Paulk was also appointed as an umpire for the tournament.

A vote was then taken from the representation as to whether or not any foreign players will be allowed to play on the teams. It was decided that no outside players will be allowed on the teams. A ruling was also made that former players on the league but not residents of Dawson county will not be allowed to play. The tournament is strictly confined to Dawson county alone.

Town Players To Play Another rule for the forthcoming tournament was made to the effect that town players of which team in the county they wish to, providing two or more are not on the same team.

Each team will play at least two games and because of the large number of teams playing the first few games of the tournament will be cut down to probably 7 innings. Also due to the large number three games will be played a day for the first few days.

Each team is allowed 15 players and the manager. Committees draw for opponents.

Meeting August 8th Besides announcing the tournament which will be held Saturday that meeting lineups for team will be announced.

managers who cannot get to their lineups ready and get in that night. Also to be discussed at this meeting will be the mission charge that will be in Communities represented at meeting and their managers as follows:

Arvanna, Bill White; Ackerly, Brown; Lou, Bill Cole; Five M, J. W. Chapman; Wilson, J. Franklin; O. K. H. L. Hohn, Klondike, Ollie Smith; Pumpkin, Center, Bill Drenon; Midway, S. W. All other managers of baseball teams in Dawson county are invited to attend the next meeting August 8th.

Prizes are to be offered during the tournament as in previous years.

84 YEAR OLD MAN RECOMMENDS HERB EXTRACT

Says it brought relief when other medicines failed

Mr. G. R. Martin, Dallas, had disappeared of ever curing his stomach trouble. He had tried many pills and different kinds of medicines. When he heard of Herb Extract, he thought "it was just another medicine."

Mr. Martin, who is 84 years old, recently told a Herb Extract representative about his experience. It is so interesting that it will doubtless prove of value to others.

"I bought a bottle of Miller's Herb Extract supposing it to be about like other medicines I had used, but the results were more than satisfying in every way. It seemed to work on my whole system. I am more than anxious to recommend this wonderful Herb Extract to everyone suffering from constipation, liver or kidney disorders, or a general run-down condition."

It is remarkable how this great medicine cleans the system, takes out the poisons and then builds back health. That's why thousands use it, praise it and recommend it. Many of your own friends are being benefited by it—so try it by all means. Ask your druggist for Herb Extract (for years called Herb Juice).

SACRED HARP SINGING CONVENTION ORGANIZED HERE

A sacred Harp Singing Convention was organized here in Dawson county recently at the Pilgrim Rest Primitive Baptist Church about 12 miles south of Lamesa.

The organization will be known as the Pilgrim's Rest Sacred Harp Singers and is the only Sacred Harp Singing Organization in Lamesa and as far as is known the only one ever organized in Dawson county.

At the first meeting 30 were present from all parts of the Co. Officers were elected at this meeting and were as follows:

President—Ed Ward of the Fairview community.
Vice President—Mrs. V. B. Wilson of Lamesa.

Secretary and Treasurer—B. F. Painter of the Pilgrim Rest Church.

Regular meetings for the organization will be held every 2nd Sunday in the month where lovers of the old time songs will gather to sing their hymns.

Many here will remember the Sacred Harp Convention which met here July 4 and 5 at the Missionary Church. They gave a short program on the 4th of July celebration here and received much favorable comment.

These famous singers of the old songs just sing in 3 notes. Their singing is very impressive and is enjoyed by all who hear.

SCOUT MEETING

Scout troop 22 met Friday evening as usual at the regular meeting place with an assembly opening the meeting followed by the scribes report. The Eagle Patrol had charge of the program. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

BLAMES COUNTRY'S ILLS ON DISHONESTY

Dear Editor:

Never before have I attempted to contribute to the columns of a newspaper ideas on public questions as finance. I have never considered it worth while. For even in case I should be correct, the influence of a common individual is altogether too small to be of any remedial value in such a huge and widespread affair as the present crisis. But now, some how, I desire to write a short article concerning the cause or causes of the present financial despair and offer my humble opinion of a remedy for the situation.

Dishonesty is at the bottom of it all. We are told in Holy Writ that "Righteousness Exalteth A Nation." Righteousness is the basis upon which civilization can move onward and upward and thru no other means can it do so. History reveals the collapse of one nation after another that have sought prestige and glory through any other measures than those of righteousness or honor.

Gradually at first and rapidly later the human race has drifted and then hurtled into dishonesty. When I say the human race I mean such an enormous part of it. Too many have come to regard the ones that lend them money and the ones that credit them as suckers rather than friends. Too many consider scheming, defrauding and wronging a fellow man to be shrewdness and admirable when such should be considered low and contemptible. Too many are willing to pay only when they have "blown in" all they wish to and then have their creditors money left, when almost the first thing they should do is to pay their just and honest debts. Thugery and thievery are just as much to be admired as the above mentioned forms of dishonesty.

Let us analyze a little closer to see whether or not dishonesty and evasion are to blame. Some say that it is the cessation or stopping of the circulation of credit. In fact most all admit this. The stopping of credit is correct. Dishonesty and evasion are the chief killers of credit. Why men of wealth are anxious to lend their money at 2 per cent and even so low as 1 1/2 of 1 per cent if they can secure safety in the placing of such loans. Prosperity has gone because normal thinking and right reasoning have gone. Prosperity will return only when correct thinking, correct reasoning and right dealing return. Until these requirements have been met, our hopes for a brighter future are only a mirage on a desert where the flowers never blossom and the roses never bloom.

Merchants must quit dodging behind bankrupt courts. A dealers guarantee must be gilt edged, for otherwise he provokes resentment on the part of his customers, beginning dishonesty in his own house. Furthermore unfair advantages that those in power and affluence sometime exert over the weak and the oppressed, should in the name of righteousness and honesty disappear under the fire of honest and decent thinking people. Of course good judgement otherwise is essential to prosperity. One should study and think before hand over indulging himself into debt. He must guard against that blood sucking octopus called High Taxation. High taxation has never prospered any country, or at least those who have to pay. I am for the return of a better day to Dawson county and my native land. I am willing to do my part. Won't you? It behooves us all to do regardless of our station in life, for the wholesome part of our civilization is threatened and it is trembling as if to pass forever out of sight.

Yours for better conditions,
P. W. DuBose

NOT CHEAP

A Home Concern

Any commodity that makes a cheap price appeal for your patronage, will be found to be cheap in its very build; or if the commodity does have virtue and is priced below the level, consistent with good business, you will invariably find a dead rat along the trail—the most common of which is recognized as "Canned" or grossly underpaid employees.

The party or parties, who through ignorance or exaggerated selfishness, would seek to profit at the expense of those who would break honest sweat for the right to life and happiness, as we see it, make a positive bid for your condemnation rather than your support, on which they are utterly dependent.
