Mrs. Jordan Reports on Success of Relief Clothing Drive; Big Collection Forwarded to UNNRA

Mrs. W. B. Jordan in a statement this week reports on the clothing collection campaign for the relief of war-ravaged nations as follows: "The clothing drive has closed. We feel indebted to each leader in the town or rural community that has helped put the drive over. Perhaps we could have had a larger collection had we made a house to house canvass, but that seemed impossible for us to do. Anyway we have a very good report to make though it is not complete.

There are five communities that we do not have a check up on, two have reported their shipment has gone out; the other three we have had no word from. We do not know if the drive was presented to those communities.

This is our total report as it now stands; garments, 5429; bedding, 70 pieces; shoes, 613 pairs; miscellaneous, 261 articles.

Since our shipment has gone, we have had calls to know if the drive was still on as they had found other garments that could be sent.

We wish to express our deep gratitude to every person who has helped, to the business men for saving large boxes for packing in, to Hull & McBrien for storage space to accommodate those to whom a down town place was more convenient, to those who helped pack and tie the boxes and to Mr. Warren who hauled them all to the depot for us and then to the papers of the county who gave the publicity for the drive, we say "Thank you," to each of you.

When we have reports from those other five communities we will add their list to our present report and give it to the public.

Quite a number are now receiving $40.00. Mrs. Bailey reports.

Implement Makers Blue Over Strikes

S. J. Latta, who attended the National Implement and Hardware dealers convention in Kansas City, Missouri, last week, came home under the impression that manufacturers and wholesalers of farm machinery are pessimistic over the outlook for a supply of farm machinery and repairs this year.

"The steel strike will begin to be felt seriously in the not too far distant future, these folks say," said Mr. Latta, "and after their present supply of materials is used up a considerable wait for more steel is due to follow, the length of time and the seriousness of the shortage depending on how long the strike continues."

Tournament This Week-End Names District Winner

Floydada Whirlwinds, along with six other teams in District 4-A basketball, are unwilling to concede district honors to the Lockney Longhorns without another "whirl" at it in the tournament at Matador Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night.

The Whirlwinds are freshmen so far as competitive basketball is concerned and, accordingly, play hot and cold, but the coach sees a chance the boys may be on their game and come through.

Except for drill the basketball squad of Floydada has been resting this week.

Their first try comes Friday night at 8 o'clock. According to the schedule made by district authorities, they play the Spur Bulldogs in that game. Their game will be preceded by two matches—Crosbyton vs. Ralls at 6 o'clock and Lockney vs. Petersburg at 7 o'clock. Final game of the preliminaries Friday night will be played by Paducah and Matador at 9 o'clock.

Two Games Saturday Afternoon Saturday afternoon's session of the tournament will begin at 1:30, when the winners of the Paducah-Matador and the Crosbyton-Ralls preliminaries will go into a play-off in the semi-finals. They will be followed at 2:30 by the winners of the Lockney-Petersburg and Spur-Floydada preliminary lifts.

Saturday night's finals begin at 7:30 o'clock. The two teams in the losing bracket of the semi-finals will play for consolation and the winners will play for tournament honors beginning at 8:30.

Representative of the Texas Unemployment commission will spend a day in Floydada to help in answering the myriad questions which ex-service men of Floyd county have to ask. It is promised by B. H. Thompson, of Amarillo, regional director of the service, said J. M. Willson yesterday.

Mr. Thompson will be here today to confer with local officials and organizations and set up the service at once.

Floyd county men who have been making repeated trips to Plainview to confer with the Unemployment field man have indicated considerable dissatisfaction. American Legion and other agencies have been trying to get a day set for a field man here for several weeks.

Side Lights From Washington

(By George Mahon)

Many farm and ranch people in Texas are experiencing a delay in getting rural electrification services. Where the delay is caused by the lack of funds by the local REA, much hope is offered by the fact that the President last week asked Congress to increase REA loan authorizations by one hundred million dollars. This would mean about five million dollars in new loans to Texas—more than to any other state—and would take care of more pressing applications for the next few months.

Claud Wickard, head of REA, has asked some of us who have sponsored the REA program through the years to try to get Congressional action on the new request by March 1. This we are trying to do.

Prior to July 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year, we plan to provide an additional and greatly expanded REA program. It is estimated that it will take seven years to fully complete the REA program of making electricity available to all rural homes. Only one farm out of every three in Texas now has electricity. A rapid expansion of REA in Texas should be one of our major post-war objectives.

Many people have written me about the Poage Bill, which provides REA loan authorizations for a three year period. I am supporting the bill, as it would make possible a better system of planning for the local REA co-ops. However, the best hope for early success on pending projects is the request of the President.

This week I was appointed chairman of a five-man subcommittee in the House for Government-owned Corporations. The appointment was made by Clarence Cannon, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

By an act of Congress approved last December, Congress proposes to keep a closer rein on Government-owned Corporations.

We will have jurisdiction over the Commodity Credit Corporation, which handles loans on cotton and other commodities, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, TVA, and all other wholly owned Government Corporations, totaling in all about forty. The program of these agencies have a direct bearing upon the welfare of our people.

It is too early to tell just what our committee will be able to do in promoting economy and improving the service which these various agencies are required to render to the American people. We will do our best to promote and safeguard the public interest.

In addition to the new assignment, I will continue my work on the War Department and Independent offices subcommittees.

According to the latest Census report, the 25-county 19th Congressional District has harvested 202,000 bales of cotton from the 1945 crop. This seems very small when compared to the 1,102,000 bales produced by the same 25 counties in 1937.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

Yesterday, Sunday, we met at Lubbock for mother's birthday dinner. That is five of us were there. Lots had gone to her daughter, Lois, to meet T. Graves, her son-in-law, Jim was at San Antonio but could not come. Joe in Amarillo was sick so Lowell, Edna, Guy, Josephine and myself with many of mother's grandchildren, celebrated the day.

Edna had a crick in her back, but was very jolly. She told how bad the housing situation was in Amarillo, so bad that her son, Carl, Jr. and family was living at Bushland for the time being with them. The other day her grandson David, got angry at her and said "I am going to put you in the hog pen," and then another thought followed. "And I will put grand-daddy in there with you, and then we can have this house when the hogs get you."

Edna laughed and said that even the children were getting the housing complex.

A nice surprise was the presence of a cousin from California, John Henry Witt. We had not seen him since he was a mischievous boy. He said everyone was remembering and telling funny things on him, not the bad. But perhaps, John, the folks thought it bad at the time. You know time mellow all things.

The other day I was burning weeds around and in my garden, yes, I let frost get them thinking then that it was not a bad thing to do, but I find that an old dead weed, growing through a wire fence, is harder to do anything with than a whole lot of green weeds. Resolution: get them while young and green. All at once as the weed burned, came the best scent, that of onions cooking. Yes, the onions were cooking, the winter onions along the fence.

I have a new red coat. Wilma gave it to me and of course I had to wear it. The gray red made me feel warm and cheerful, but it might have looked to you like a house burning up.

Do you remember when we called pennies, coppers? I called them that the other day to a little nephew, Charles Graves. "Yes, Aunt Nellie I know what coppers are. They stand on street corners to make cars go right."

Mr. Spikes is beginning to get about. He goes to the lots, waters the cows and is beginning to help carry out the feed bundles. He still uses one crutch for the fear of falling.

Is there any sure, good way to break ice on a water trough? I can break it with an old ax, but the water flies up in my face and slops over the sides down into my shoes. I get my gloves wet and soon my fingers, face and feet are freezing. I miss Wilda and Margaret Nell so, I told Wilma I just had to get a pet of some kind. She named, a dog, a cat, a bird, chickens, but I shook my head to all of these. Then she told me to get a bowl of goldfish, but I can think of nothing dumber, quite than that. Just imagine me being so lonesome, I could cry, sitting down near the bowl of fish.

Mrs. S. "Little fishes keep me company." Little fishes "Blub, blub" opening their silly mouths for only air, their eyes stemmed out like small bulbs. Around and around the bowl they go and I would want to lean over the top and cry a few salt tears in their small ocean.

I visited Mrs. Phillips' room at Cone last Friday and enjoyed the half hour very much. I heard the second readers read, and they read well. Of course that is Joe's grade. Several of the pupils brought me their spelling. I almost envied them the art of their nicely printed words. I never could print. It was not even taught when I went to school.

The walls and blackboards were decorated with valentines, axes for George Washington, log houses for Lincoln. Green growing plants took the warm sunshine, and a bird sang in his cage. I am going back. I like it in Mrs. Phillips' room.

She is such a good teacher and with such a pleasing personality. You like her from the first and when Joe Ellis forgets and calls me Mrs. Phillips I feel flattered.

Poem of the week:

The Same Old Faces

God does not send us strange flowers every year.
When the soft winds blow over the pleasant places;
The same old forms look out from the same old faces,
The violet is here.

It all comes back—the odor, grace, and hue—
Each fond relation of the life repeated;
Nothing is lost, no looking for is cheated.

So after death's winter, it shall be
God will not put strange sights in Heavenly places;
The same old love will look from the same sweet faces,
And we shall cry, "Beloved I have Thee!"

Speed Up Cattle Marketing Urged by B. F. Vance

COLLEGE STATION, February.—Overstocked ranges and short feed supplies are endangering the Texas livestock industry, B. F. Vance, state director of PMA's Field Service Branch, points out in urging that cattle marketing be speeded up.

"A slight change in the weather for the worse might result in tremendous losses of livestock," Vance declared. "It is highly important that the number of cattle both on the range and on feed be cut considerably in order to keep the cattle and feed supply in balance."

In addition, the PMA official said, delayed marketings now might result in congestion and jamming of marketing facilities later on. In order to avoid such congestion, producers should contact their marketing agents before shipping cattle to make sure the market can handle them.

Demand for meat is high, Vance said, and it is important that livestock move to market in an orderly manner but fast enough to keep packing plants operating at capacity.

Raymond Jones, of Towell, Wyoming, visited in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore last Wednesday. He was on his way to Chicago where he will start to school March 1.

What Happened To the Butter?

COLLEGE STATION, February.—Consumers cannot have more milk cream, ice cream, evaporated milk and cheese and at the same time have more butter too.

That is the way W. E. Morgan, economist with the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has summed up the butter situation.

Morgan explained that butter production has gone down steadily since 1942. Before that time almost half of the milk sold by farmers was separated on the farm or dairy for sale as cream, which was used largely for butter, while the skimmed milk remained on the farm. To increase the wartime food supply the Government urged farmers to deliver whole milk. Part of the whole milk was made into evaporated milk, Cheddar cheese, dried ice cream mix and dried whole milk. Much of this went to the armed forces and Lend-Lease. Meanwhile fluid milk consumption in this country jumped 25 per cent during the war years, and butter production in 1945 was the lowest in twenty years.

During the war, Morgan pointed out, the Army and other government agencies bought butter during the spring and early summer, when production is highest, so that all of the winter months production would be available for civilians. Last summer the Armed Services had to assume that the war would continue, and so butter stocks were bought to meet this winter's needs. With the sudden surrender of Japan all of the butter stocks were not needed. In December, for example, 70 million pounds were released for civilian use, so consumers actually had more butter in the last two months of 1945 than during any other two months of the year.

The Armed services will continue to need butter and milk products and cheese, while evaporated milk and dried milk are still being sent abroad. Meanwhile, with the end of rationing, demand for butter has increased. Although whole milk production is expected to continue high, Morgan sees little hope that the butter situation will be brighter in 1946.

Outlook on Farm Prices Discussed By Economists

COLLEGE STATION, January.—Farmers and ranchmen now planning their 1946 operations can expect farm prices to be moderately lower, but production costs should remain about the same for the year just begun.

Farm prices of fruits, vegetables, and eggs are expected to drop more than prices of other agricultural products, in the opinion of two economists for the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. W. E. Morgan believes the net farm income for the nation will be 10 to 15 per cent under the record high of 1945.

Farmers can rely on relatively high prices for about two-thirds of the things they produce, since prices for these are supported by law at 90 per cent of parity. There are support prices on most "basic commodities" such as cotton, corn, wheat, tobacco, and rice, but products not covered include beef cattle, sheep, fresh vegetables, and fruit, according to T. R. Timm.

On the bright side, farmers can expect more labor in the months ahead. Morgan says the total labor force in the country on the first anniversary of VJ Day will be about six million above what it was in August 1945. This should bring about the only drop in farm production costs—the cost of farm labor. Production efficiency of farm workers greatly increased during the war and for a few years before, but for 1946 it is more likely to decline rather than rise, he believes.

On a long-time basis Morgan says farm prices and production can remain at a high level, "if we can lick our unemployment problem by any means other than war." For the immediate future, increased population, high incomes for industrial workers, foreign purchases and UNRRA commitments should assure high consumption of farm products.

NOSE ALARM

In 12 Lake Superior metal mines, U. S. mining engineers taped flasks to the main compressed-air supply pipes. They opened the stop-cocks.

Into the pipes and down into the mines at 700 ft. per minute rushed evil-smelling ethyl mercaptan gas. From pipes it branched into hoses.

Gangway! Finally it reached compressed-air drills worked by the miners, puffed from the exhausts. Miners dropped their drills, held noses, scurried for exits.

The Bureau explained last week: These tests showed stench-signals can be used by superintendents to get men out quickly when cave-ins or explosions threaten. Smells are better than bells (miners are noisy) or flashing lights (miners have to keep their eyes on their work).

Nastiness Preferred. Also tested was amyl acetate gas, milder than mercaptan. No good, said the miners, it smelled too much like the bananas their chums sometimes munched, didn't scare them.—Pathfinder.

Terracing eliminates the cause of erosion and controls the results of erosion.

Fertilizers have a definite place in the building and maintaining of soil fertility.

INSURANCE FIRE

I think we have the safest homes in the world, here in Floyd County, and the rates are going to come down, down, DOWN!

In 1945 as in all other years our own Farmers Union Fire Insurance company paid every loss in full and used less than 16 percent of our premium rate of $6 per year per $1,000.00! That's why I offered $25.00 to any person that would get the record of the percent of premium money coming back as losses to the same policy holders from any OLD LINE agent in Floyd County who wrote more than $100,000.00 worth of business.

This week I'll raise it to $50 because it would be worth thousands of dollars to Floyd County farmers to know they are safe in their own company and it is unbelievable how much money STAYS in the big boy's hands, through Fire Insurance alone. It isn't common sense to give it to them, then cuss them because they have got it.

You will pardon me if I worry because the last farmer don't come into our own Farmers Union Fire Insurance Company. Some farmers are still afraid of their own shadow and won't go in with their neighbors. But a new day is dawning when farmers will know they are safe and will keep more of their savings in their own home and the rest in their own company.

FACTS FOR THE VETERAN

Educational Training
(American Red Cross News Service)
The bill amending the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 (GI Bill) contains changes of great interest to all veterans contemplating education or training under this bill.

The time limit during which a course of study may be initiated is extended from four years after discharge or the end of the war, whichever is later, and the time limit for completing the course is raised from seven to nine years after the end of the war.

Any eligible veteran may now receive one year of education or training, plus additional education (up to a maximum of four years), equal to the number of months of active service. He need not have been under 25 years when he entered service, nor need he show that his education was interrupted by war service.

Courses of education or training of the short intensive type are no longer limited to a cost of $500.00 for an ordinary school year. Under the new plan, a maximum $500.00 for tuition and materials may also be applied to a course of shorter duration than the normal school year. The additional cost may be prorated against the period of eligibility to which the veteran is entitled at the rate of $500.00 per school year, are increased from $50.00 to $65.00 for veterans without dependents and from $75.00 to $90.00 for veterans with dependents.

The bill also provides for correspondence courses, but the veteran is entitled to no subsistence allowance for these. One-fourth of the elapsed time used in pursuing such a course is charged against the veteran's period of eligibility. Total amount payable for correspondence courses for any veteran is limited to $500.00.

Dr. Wayne J. Greer was recently discharged from the army having served in the medical corps overseas for 18 months. He formerly operated a dentist office in Lockney.

The telephone company reports to those waiting for service

The telephone company is anxious to bring you the service you've ordered. Telephone factories are working hard at the tremendous task of catching up with America's backed-up demand for telephone service. (More than 2,000,000 people are waiting throughout the nation.)

In December factories were making telephone instruments at the rate of 230,000 a month. By January 1, in the five states served by this company, about 60,000 of these newly manufactured instruments already had been installed.

But making and installing telephone instruments is only a part of the job of providing service for everybody. We are planning, making, and installing the great volume of switchboards, dial equipment, cable, wire—and even buildings—necessary to make those telephones work.

By the year's end, enough central office equipment to connect 40,000 additional telephones had been made and installed in this company's territory. This is the time-taking part of the job—the apparatus is complicated to make and complicated to install.

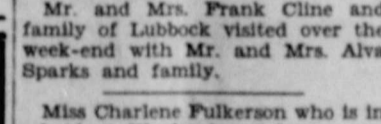

Equipment for 10,000 telephones must be wired to handle nearly 50 million possible telephone connections. We're pushing this complex job as fast as we can; it will take time, but we're doing our best to take as little time as possible.

Miles and miles of cable to connect telephones with central offices have been put in since the end of the war; and in the last few weeks, by reason of increased supplies of men and material, the rate of installation has doubled.

No time has been lost in getting building projects under way in places where new construction is needed to house additional central office equipment.

We have made progress—and every month during the coming year our progress will be still more rapid. Every one will get service in his proper turn. Your service once ordered, you can be sure that your application is before us; and as soon as the equipment is available to connect your telephone, we will notify you and arrange details for providing your service.

SCARCITY OF ROAD MAPS

Free road maps, a pre-war "must" in commercial advertising, are also having their reconversion ups and downs. Oil companies, biggest dispensers, say the first maps promised will be 1942 reprints with minor corrections and these won't be ready for distribution to the public before spring. The customary supply, they say, totaling about 150 million annually, won't be in dealers' hands before 1947.—Exchange.

NO MORE STATIC IN GINS?

COLLEGE STATION. — The end may be in sight for static electricity in gins, according to F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

When both cotton and air are very dry, static electricity is generated by the movement of cotton through the gin. In many West Texas points, Lichte says, static is often so bad to force gins to stop work for several days at a time. Even if the gins can operate, the lint cotton is often so fluffy and resilient when it goes into the press that it is impossible to put out a bale of standard weight. Such cotton is penalized by the buyer.

The problem has been investigated by the U. S. Cotton Ginning Laboratory at Stoneville, Miss., and preliminary tests indicate that a fine mist of water and sulphurated oil may be the answer. The mist, when sprayed on the cotton as it goes through the gin, has permitted both continuous operation and compression of bales to standard weight.

Lichte, who helped install the equipment for tests in several gins in Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, believes the mist will also result in an improved job of ginning.

Further tests are being conducted under supervision of the Stoneville laboratory.

FOR BETTER OR WORSE

At a wedding in the Piney Woods country a great time was had by all. At the big dinner held after the ceremony, the bridegroom was called on to respond to a toast, in spite of his protest that he could not make a speech. He blushed, placed his hand on the bride's shoulder, and stammered, "Well, folks, er, this thing has been forced on me."—Pathfinder Magazine.

Home From Rites For H. C. Odle at Meridian Monday

Mrs. Edd Johnson, Mrs. Julia Moss and Mrs. Glad Snodgrass in company with Mr. Snodgrass, were at Meridian the first of the week, where they attended the rites for H. C. Odle, 83, a native of Bosque county, who was one of the first members of the State Highway commission of Texas.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday at Meridian, where interment was made. The Floydada women are nieces of the deceased, a brother of the late Mrs. J. W. Adams. He was the last one of the brothers and sisters of that generation.

Mr. Odle long was prominent in affairs of Bosque county and central Texas. He was the first assistant tax collector of Bosque county, serving under his brother-in-law, Captain J. W. Adams, and it was during Mr. Odle's administration as a state highway commissioner that the first paved highway through the state was constructed.

FARM HOME IS DESIGNED TO FIT TEXAS CLIMATE

AUSTIN, Texas. — Believing that farm homes in Texas and the Southwest should be designed with special attention to Texas climate, and to the demands of the family, Walter T. Rolfe, chairman of the department of architecture at the University of Texas, has sketched his plans for such a home in the February issue of Country Gentleman.

The kitchen and utility room — which provides for laundry, sewing, canning, home freezing and food preparation — are located so as to permit the housewife a full view of the out-of-doors, as well as well-lighted, cheerful, work rooms.

Living room and bedrooms open out on a garden, which is well-removed from the dust of the driveway. A large service porch can be used for a variety of purposes. A fireplace in the living room has a double function with a cupboard above it for storage.

The house has many windows — particularly necessary for the heat of Texas summers — and has a flexible heating plan for either oil or gas, and also a provision for attic fans.

A special attraction for the housewife are the washroom in the garage, and an arrangement to by-pass traffic to the barn and corrals by means of an outer drive.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR PAPERS ON TEXAS BY JUNIORS

AUSTIN, Texas. — Good current Texas books, and $345 in prizes are being offered by the Texas State Historical association for the best papers on Texas history by any Junior historian, Dr. H. Bailey Carroll, acting director of the University of Texas, has announced.

The Rockefeller foundation is offering $345 in prizes for the papers and in addition, a part of each award will be Texas books. The prize money will be divided as follows: $100, first prize; $75, second prize; $50, third prize; $25, fourth prize; $20, fifth prize; $15, sixth prize; and $10 each for six honorable mention prizes.

In addition, $25 will be given by the association for the best paper on the Texas Gulf coast area, and another $25 will be given by the Texas Folklore society for the best paper dealing with observation of animals or natural objects in Texas.

The contest will close April 1, 1946. Any person under 21 who is a member of a Junior historian chapter, or who has paid a 50 cent fee to become a member-at-large is eligible to enter the contest.

SMALL TOWN'S ADVANTAGES

After 12 exciting years (4,383), the short, round man beneath the big black hat stepped down as mayor of New York, became plain Mr. Fiorello La Guardia.

Into his place as New York's 86th mayor went big, Irish-born William O'Dwyer, former Brooklyn district attorney who smashed the Murder, Inc. gang.

To 7,500,000 New Yorkers, Mayor O'Dwyer acknowledged:

"While our people have many advantages they do not have the open spaces and freedom that men, women and children of smaller communities enjoy. The struggle to live in our city is tougher than that in smaller cities and towns." — Exchange.

SHE WHO GETS SLAPPED

A bee gathering pollen in an alfalfa field that is cropped for seed is in somewhat the position of a Girl Scout doing a good turn — and getting slapped every time she does. Some of the best of the bee workers get slapped as often as seven times a minute — and stay on the job. In scientific studies of why yields from Utah alfalfa fields have declined, seriously in recent years, George H. Vansell and Frank E. Todd of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine have had to include careful study of the connection between bees (of wild and tame varieties) and the alfalfa flower.

In the following paragraph from a recent report they describe what happens when a pollen-gathering bee visits an alfalfa blossom: "The structure of the alfalfa blossom is especially adapted to pollination by bees. The pollen-collecting bee straddles the keel and extends her proboscis into the throat of the flower, where the tripping mechanism is contacted. When the flower trips, the bee's head is momentarily caught between the standard petal and the tip of the staminal column. A splash of pollen is entangled among the hairs on the bee's head at precisely the spot where the stigma of the next flower tripped will strike. This procedure insures cross pollination when the plant is worked for pollen. Since alfalfa flowers may be subjected to a surprising amount of shaking, whipping by wind, and to nectar collecting by bees without releasing the tripping mechanism, pollen-collecting bees must play an essential part in the reproduction of this plant."

A bee specializes on each trip and gathers either honey or pollen. The pollen is a protein food that bees need for brood rearing.

As with many of the legumes, the individual blossom of alfalfa is irregular in shape with one part in the form of a "keel." When the small flower first opens, the essential reproductive organs are clustered together in a slightly arched or bowled column and held by a part of the keel. If these parts are released at the right period, the bow straightens and the parts spring upward and spread out, and fertilization can take place. Release of this staminal column is called "tripping."

'FLY' STARS IN REVIVAL

The good old Mechanical Fly exhibit sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture has emerged from its wartime obscurity. It has had a new coat of paint and varnish; its joints have been oiled and readjusted; accompanying tables of statistics have been brought up to date. The Fly is now ready to go back as an entertainer and instructor on the State Fair circuit which is resuming in 1946 after a wartime eclipse of its own.

Popularity of the Mechanical Fly (whose truthful theme is "Flies Are Dangerous") is attested by the fact that it has visited 16 States and has played five "return engagements." Most exhibits are superseded in popular interest after a few seasons. The Mechanical Fly continues to hold "its public." J. W. Hiscoc, Chief of the Exhibits office of the Department, has figures for all but three or four of the public showings.

Attend Meeting Hardware Dealers

Floydada merchants and implement dealers who attended the 37th annual convention of the Panhandle Hardware and Implement Dealers Association held in Amarillo Monday and Tuesday of this week were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McDonald, H. M. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Parker and Mark Martin. Claud Hammond from Lockney also attended.

Claude Harp of Matador is president of the organization which is one of the oldest on the plains. The theme of the convention was "The Job Ahead" criterion of the advent of postwar years and the renewal of peacetime merchandising.

A. S. Meinecke, of Lubbock is one of the six directors of the convention, and George Buchenau of Tulsa is one of the three of the advisory board.

More than two million spectators have been clocked past The Fly, as compared with a total gate of more than four million at the fairs. Most of the visitors make it a point to study The Fly — which has always had favorable press notices.

In the 15 years since The Fly first flexed its mechanical joints at the Iowa Free Fair in Michigan in August 1931, the fly nuisance has been abated somewhat, but the interest in The Mechanical Fly persists. Mr. Hiscoc is not even announcing this as a "farewell tour."

Percent Average Briggs Hulsey In Eggs During Many Sea Battles Production

Franklin Griggs Hulsey received his discharge at Norman, Oklahoma and is now at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hulsey.

Griggs served in the Navy three years, one month and eighteen days seeing duty on the famous U. S. S. Boston. He was active at the time the Boston towed the crippled Houston from enemy fire. Their ship was the first major unit of the U. S. A. to enter the China Sea through the Baschi Channel and the last to leave. Returning to the Pacific through the Balintang channel, the ship served as a decoy to allure the Japanese fleet out and also served part time as a flag ship. She was one of those ships not fortunate enough to come to the states for Navy day.

Griggs has to his honor the Victory Medal, American Campaign Medal, Asiatic - Pacific Liberation Campaign ribbon with nine bronze stars, Philippine Liberation Campaign ribbon with two stars, and the Good Conduct medal.

At the time he received his discharge he qualified as Aviation Boat Swain Mate (C. P.) third class.

'THE HARVEY GIRLS'

MGM's musical romance in Technicolor

Epic of a famous Eating Place! Hearts, Heroism and Happiness in a Harvey House! When the Santa Fe, back in the last century, pushed its rails on out through the West, Fred Harvey followed with "civilized" eating places along the railroad. Waitresses were Ladies. Food was good. Harvey Houses along the Santa Fe became a national institution.

Stir up the Harvey House Girls serving beefsteak and coffee in a wild and woolly frontier town, add a handsome Western hero and a crooked Western political boss, season with seven hit songs, including that toot-toot-tooting hit, "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe," produce it under famous MGM producers, wrap it all up in Technicolor and you have something!

You met her in St. Louis. She made your heart ticktock in "The Clock." Now she'll put your hair in curls in "The Harvey Girls." Who-o-o? Nobody but Judy Garland. Never such a song for Judy to sing as "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe." Never such a part for Judy to play. She carries coffee—sings songs. She curbs crime. She rates romance—and she hog-ties her hero as the lights go up.

Winningest cast of the West:

Along with Judy you get He-Man JOHN HODIAK. PRESTON FOSTER as the vicious villain. Find-of-the-year ANGELA LANSBURY. RAY BOLGER with the frisky feet. Dead Pan VIRGINIA O'BRIEN. Those comical cutups, MARJORIE MAIN and CHILL WILLS. And KENNY BAKER, back in pictures, fresh from Broadway and radio successes. But that's not all. You get seven singable songs by JOHNNY MERCER and HARRY WARREN, including that Hit of Hits, "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe." You get direction and production by MGM's famous George Sidney and Arthur Freed. And all in Technicolor.

Historically "The Harvey Girls" grew up with Santa Fe. Our railroad and their eating houses pushed through the Southwest and West when towns were scarce, times were tough, and a Colt's 45 was a man's standard equipment. Today, the 70-year-old Fred Harvey company—which has been under the management of the same Harvey family for three generations—operates Santa Fe dining cars and the Fred Harvey hotels and restaurants located along the railroad.

"The Harvey Girls" is a delightful and wholesome entertainment the entire family will enjoy. Watch your newspapers for announcement on when "The Harvey Girls" will be in town.

Baltimore's "Miracle Boy" Walks Again

Five-year-old Roger Hawk, almost completely paralyzed for eleven months, made so rapid and complete a recovery within five weeks that he's called the "miracle boy" of Kernan's Hospital. Stricken with infantile paralysis in August of 1944, just after he had been crowned "Supreme King" of perfect health in a contest for Baltimore youngsters, young Roger's case was considered almost hopeless. Parents of the boy took the Polio Emergency

Volunteers training course in polio care, sponsored by the Maryland Chapter of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, so that they could help Roger in his fight back to health. First photo shows Mrs. Hawk helping Roger with his physical therapy exercises to strengthen weakened muscles. Second photo, Roger shows mother and dad that he really can walk again and without crutches. Dad, incidentally, was also a polio victim in his youth.

Electric Fans A Help in Household Heating

Save in Fuel Saving By Making Radiators More Efficient—Dispel Odors—Defrost and Live Air

In winter, with fuel scarce and money tight, make your electric fans save money and solve some of your heating and ventilating problems. Probably, if you have steam heat or hot water heat, your radiators are not doing nearly as much work as they could. Heated air tends to rise and stay near the ceiling, creating "warm pockets." When these pockets are broken up the warmth is carried into other portions of the home where it is more needed.

HEATING AID

By placing an electric fan so that it keeps the heated air around the radiator in motion. You will find that the warm air in circulation will heat up the "cold corners" of the room. The fan will live and freshen the air in the whole room. You may have experiment a little to find the best position for the fan, but the result will be worth while.

AIR FRESHENER

Perhaps, you are one of those people who dislike the musty, fusty atmosphere of storage spaces and closets. Try placing an electric fan for an hour or two each week so that it gives vigorous circulation to the air in the spaces where you have stored summer clothing and draperies, or wraps, or clothing in use. It will freshen things up and discourage moths.

WINDOW DEFROSTER

If you are one of those fortunate folks with a big picture window, take a tip from the automobile accessory makers and use your fan for a defroster. Just set your electric fan so that it will carry warm air from your room onto the glass window surfaces and watch the cloudy frost pattern vanish.

WEEK'S PERSONALITY

This week's personality, we chosen a very outstanding of our high school faculty. I'm not even going to surprise you this time, because you know that only La Fayette Gresham, will tell you didn't know what is.

Coach was born in Carey, and he went to college at Texas State Teacher's College. He is 3 inches tall, and he is a contrast to Diana, his wife has brown hair and hazel eyes (Huba!), and his favorite is steak. His favorite pastime is athletics, and his main sport is football, too.

Coach says his worst habit is and his favorite color is doesn't deny the fact that he is lazy, either. His nickname "Fate", and he goes by that name more than he does La Fayette. His main like is good boys (main dislike is—you guessed boys). He spends his spare time reading, and his favorite song is "Snow". He once had the ambition to be a doctor.

Coach was the most embarrassing in his life was falling over in his chair when he was in college. It put him in a dignified position. Coach wears jackets and slacks, and he loves to fish and hunt anything else. When he was in high school, his basketball team state, and he played both football and basketball in college.

Coach close without saying something about Coach's family, which will agree is ideal. His pin is Diana, his wife, and any agree that she could give Leslie some stiff competition. She is one little girl, Pamela Ann, one year old. She is very and has red hair to boot. Oh

Whirlwinds Defeat Wayland 30-14

The Whirlwinds journeyed to Wayland College on Thursday night and defeated them 30-14 in a very thrilling game. It was never very close as the Winds outplayed them in every quarter. The halftime mark found the Winds leading the College 17-3. So it just goes to show you that these "Winds can never be counted out.

The District tournament is to be held in Matador on Friday and Saturday, February 15-16. The games start at 6 o'clock P. M. on Friday evening. The "Winds lay Spur" at 8:00 P. M. on Friday, so come on out and back the "Winds because if they win the tournament they are District champs. It helps the morale of the team 100% for some one to be there backing them. So come on out and be there when the "Winds come on to the floor at Matador.

Prize Winners In Essay Contest

Bobby Tiner of Dougherty community won first place and a cash prize of $7.50 in the essay contest which was sponsored by Armour's creameries and conducted by the Floydada chapter of the Future Farmers of America this past week. Charles Beedy of South Plains community won second place and $5.00, while third place and $2.50 went to Claude Gene Hammitt of Cedar Hill community.

"Why it Pays to Produce High Quality Milk and Cream" was the subject used for the essays with 70 boys entering papers.

The second year class butchered a beef for Thomas Wayne Amburn Wednesday morning, while the first year class butchered a hog Thursday morning. Butchering is done as a means of practice teaching and also to aid the chapter in raising funds for chapter use.

yes, I mustn't forget—Coach is about a second cousin to Tom Ballard, the one and only president of our Senior class.

I'm sure we all agree we are fortunate to have Coach Gresham with us, because he is one of the best coaches we have ever had. He has led us to district championship, and we all hope that Coach will be here many more years to lead us on to victories.

De Quacker

Violets ain't red, Roses ain't blue— If you had this job—you'd be nuts too!

Our world of romance is really spinning around nowadays. As we see it wizzing through air we notice that there are many love birds flying around flopping their wings for the first time. Now—there's Leba Jean Gibson and Cecil McAdoo discovering how wonderful Love is while Ethel sits home in gloom—it looks like the real thing hatching out between La Rue Graves and Bruce Womack; Ruby Jewell Nichols and Gene; and Mickey Kennamer and James Finley.

This past week served as separation week—it seems with so many love affairs bustin' up; Mary Helen and Dean have launched out into a sweet couple. Hughetta, does Earl have what Dean lacks??? It "WUZ" Earl you were seen riding with after school, wuzn't it? No, it couldn't be! But come to think of it—it "WUZ"! And oh! such beautiful scenery—hmm hnm. And Marjorie isn't going to sit back and act calm; she's got Charles Beedy to cheer her up (Last Thursday night shall we say.) —Then what's happened between Bonnabelle and Hollis?? We're dying to know—Melvin, what did you say about Dallas? My! My! Norma J. sure must have a line! W. H.—Melvin? And he wuz such a swell guy—didn't they make a nice looking couple—oh well—next?? Joyce Reddy, do you think you are being true to J. D.?

Then there's those girls and boys that are ready to settle down and quit switching partners—namely Jean Warren and Howard Adams (or could that be a dime store ring she's wearing?). And Kay Crump-ton is wearing an engagement ring, we notice. Who knows, there really may be wedding bells!

'Tis the truth if I ever spoke it--D. F. tells De Quacker (in black ink) he thinks Nannette is "tops" cause I compared his handwriting—I know! Now, it is a pity you are over at Lubbock with June Powell and Virginia Duncan on your trail over here and you on Nancy's. 'Tis a shame!!

June P., why the gloom? Heard from Don or do you expect to?? Styba, don't tell me you're two-timing all your sailors?

Saw Orby motion for Jimmie to come sit by him in the show Sunday. And she DID!!

And here's other beginners—winking, gazing, dreaming for the first time (?—the "FIRST" time!!): Norma Jenkins, now don't be bashful. Tell us who the boyfriend is!—Gosh, wish I knew what Kenneth P. said on the picture he gave to Norma J.!!

Reva, who lip prints were on the letter you had the other day or who dug the letter to?—"Blackies" is not a DOG!, she'll have you to know!—Almarene and Kelly really act flirtatious in speech. Say, Kelly, how often do you write Jo Ann Daily? GOILY, wouldn't it help matters if I were a postman!—Orby and June Powell are good prospect for seeing more of each other in our near future, I think.—Wayland Faulkenberry gets results! All the women smile back at "HIM". He and June Frizell stopped deliberately on the stairs the other day to throw a smile over to each other. WUZ it sweet! And Laquita Burgett just can't look at him without smiling. This is your first step! Is this as far as we're going???

P. S. There seems to be more than "ONE" censor of this column!!

Boys Elect Joan Leslie Pin-Up

Either the boys in FHS are timid, bashful, or they're under-age, one or the other, but anyway only a few cast their ballots for pin-up favorites in our poll taken last week.

We wouldn't be truthful in saying this represents the taste of all the boys, but, oh, well, here they are:

Joan Leslie	45%
Esther Williams	25%
June Allyson	15%
Betty Grable	3%
Ann Miller	2%

And if that isn't okay these received noticeable mention: Rita Hayworth, Lana Turner, Hedy Lamarr, Ginger Rogers, Lauren Bacall, Jennifer Jones, Cass Daley (?), Dale Evans, Margaret O'Brien and June Haver.

P. S. You didn't have to be twenty-one years old.

EX-STUDENTS

During the past week, we have seen several familiar faces of former students of good old F. H. S. Among them were George Mize, Gene Collins, John Colville, Johnnie Collins, Macey Orman, Billy Wester, Brian Collins, Jean Wester, and Billy Green.

We are always glad to welcome back old students, and you are all cordially invited to visit us whenever you get the opportunity.

What's Back of My Gas Burners?

CHAPTER IV
 The Gas Reaches Your Home

Our main high-pressure transmission line originates at our Turkey Creek Compressor Station 30 miles northeast of Amarillo and goes to Canyon, Plainview, Lubbock, Midland and Odessa and other intervening cities. At Canyon, a line connects from this main trunk to Farwell, near the New Mexico line, and thence to Lubbock, forming a big triangle and serving a number of cities. More branch lines from this triangle and from the main trunk serve other cities and towns—a total of 44 in all. The pipe line system contains about 855 miles of pipe.

At or near each city served is a Town Border Station, which consists of a small building housing metering and pressure-regulating equipment. Now that the gas has almost reached its destination, high-pressure is no longer needed, so the pressure is reduced to what we call "Intermediate Pressure," after which it enters the city distribution system which consists of a network of lines carrying gas to homes, stores, offices and businesses in your city. There are about 548 miles of pipe in our city plants. The Intermediate Pressure is sufficient to carry the gas to the small District Regulator Station nearest you. Here the pressure is further reduced for delivery

'Dimes' Drive Is Completed

M. P. Goen, county director for the "March of Dimes" campaign just closed, announced on Tuesday the receipts for Floyd county at $1,633.39 and to that amount the donations taken at the theatres are to be added. $100.00 was the amount for Floydada and $9.75 for Lockney theatre.

Some rural offerings may possibly come in to be added supplementary to that amount, which was sent to the Foundation by Mr. Goen on Monday night February 11.

The amount lacked about $300.00 of being as much as was donated last year, which was the banner year to date. $500.00 had been the average amount up until 1945.

Mr. Goen wishes to express his appreciation for the help given him by all the various chairmen.

Internal Revenue Deputies Coming to Floyd Monday

To aid as many income taxpayers as possible with the limited personnel available, the internal revenue office at Dallas has announced that two deputy revenue collectors will be in Floydada Monday of next week. There are Fred I. Merrick and W. Dorn, who will be at the court house and may be seen there.

In spite of all the changes in the income tax laws, March 15 remains the deadline for filing final income tax returns and everyone who had a gross income of $500 or more in 1945 must file a return, are two salient statements made by the department in its announcement.

BOBBY M. MUNCY DISCHARGED FROM WAVES LAST WEEK

Bobbie M. Muncy 8k1/c, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Muncy of route M, Lockney, received her discharge from the WAVES last week at Memphis, Tennessee.

Bobbie joined the WAVES on March 21, 1943, at Amarillo, Texas. Prior to that time she was employed at the Hesperian office as bookkeeper. During her service with the WAVES she was stationed at the Naval Air Station in San Diego, California.

Bobbie plans to visit with friends and relatives before returning to Texas.

A brother, Archie B. Muncy, is with the United States Marines, stationed at Camp Miramar, San Diego, California.

CRAGERS IN EL PASO

Mrs. Arch Crager and Mrs. Ted Crager of Lockney, have been visiting for the past week in El Paso with Pvt. Ted Crager who is stationed there with the army.

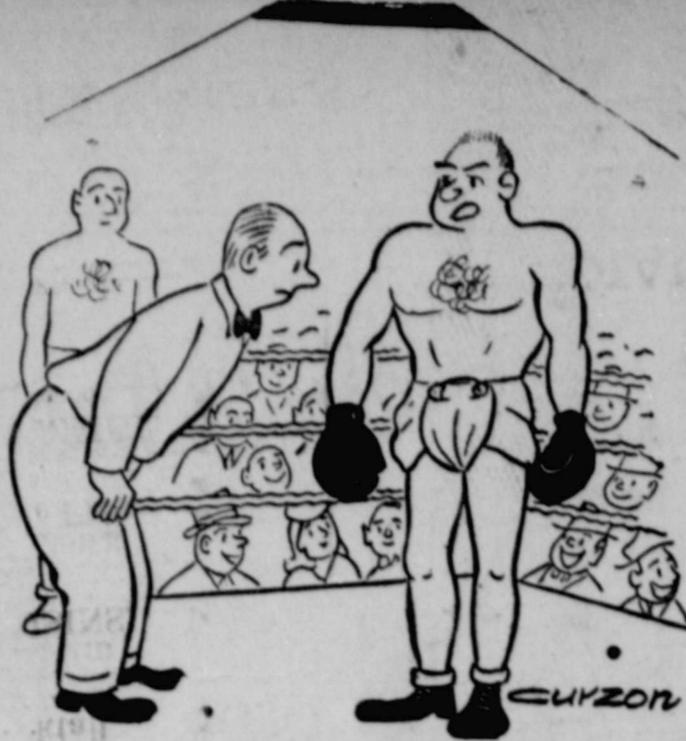

Arch Crager has left for El Paso and they will all return home this week-end.

Mrs. L. A. Moore has just returned from Vernon, Texas, where she has been at the bedside of Dr. W. R. Moore who is much improved after a serious operation.

New Weapon May Force Swinson to Run for Office

J. E. Swinson was showing a piece of heavy artillery (a pocket size pistol in fact that is popular in Germany now) which he fears may force him into the campaign as a candidate for sheriff of Floyd county.

Mr. Swinson points out that he qualifies so far as the gun is concerned and unless he runs for sheriff won't have a great deal of use for it.

The gun shoots 32 calibre Colt's ammunition, but the six-shooter is small enough that a service man who brought it home passed inspection overseas and again on landing in the U. S., with it in his hip pocket along with other items.

The un-named service man says you arrest a hundred Nazis in Germany and you get a hundred of the lethal little weapons when you make a search.

CRITICISM OF ROTARY AND ROTARIANS, FAVORABLE AND UNFAVORABLE, DISCUSSED

"Rotarians as other see us," a frank discussion of what is wrong with Rotary and Rotarians, if anything, as seen through other eyes, was given by Judge Alton B. Chapman at the club's luncheon yesterday.

Possibility that as the organization grows in years it may begin to creak at the joints was the thought background for the assignment of the subject by the program committee, and the speaker in his remarks took cognizance of the fact that the organization aims at ideals through the membership. Rotary is not trying to save the world nor to foster any particular political or religious creed, but to foster idealism in all relations of mankind, largely through study and understanding, the speaker pointed out.

R. D. Webb: "People of Floydada and Floyd county were good to us on our opening day. We will have our store looking more like a food store as we go along."

F. M. Bishop received his discharge at Lowry Field, Denver, Colorado, on Tuesday of this week, and returned to his home here on Wednesday.

He will resume his duties at the Looper-Fenner Grocery here.

Calls Petit Jury Monday Morning

A petit jury has been summoned for Monday of next week, February 18, in 110th District court for Floyd county. The trial of W. C. Plumlee has been re-set for that time.

The grand jury for the term will be empanelled tomorrow. Twelve men to serve out of a panel of 16 summoned will be chosen.

Irrigation Well Opens Wide Area in Crosby County

An experiment of widespread interest to farmers and business leaders of Crosby County has been undertaken by R. Ruford Danner who lives two miles east of Owens, according to the Crosbytown Review.

Mr. Danner completed an irrigation well on January 27, which was kept on the pump for a week following and it has been determined it will make a good well.

This experiment will result in opening up one of the best farming sections in the county to irrigation, a narea of approximately 150 square miles, running ten miles north and south and 15 miles east and west.

This is the first time a real test irrigation well has been drilled on the south side in this area. Naturally, the test is attracting widespread interest as it may mean many thousands of dollars to the farmers of that section.

Franklin Pierce Adams preferred to use his initials to designate his writings.

Rain always sounds better on the roof than on the raincoat.
