Intimidation Charges Draw Fire Of GOP Candidate

Bullington Raps Editorial In Lubbock Newspaper In Address Here Thursday; Crowd Pleased

Audience Estimated At Near 600 Hears Republican Nominee As He Brings Campaign For Governor's Chair To Lubbock; Methods Used By Ferguson In Campaign Are Criticised

By HARRY MONTGOMERY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WHAT he described as "efforts to intimidate the voters of Texas and to force them to support the Democratic ticket by spreading fear that those sections of the state not supporting the ticket will be discriminated against" drew the fire of Orville Bullington, Republican nominee for governor, in a campaign address here last night, before a crowd estimated at near 600.

The audience positively was pro-Bullington and anti-Ferguson. Shouts frequently rose from the crowded courtroom, encouraging the speaker.

Bean Introduces Speaker

Robert Bean, Lubbock attorney, and an unsuccessful candidate in the first Democratic primary this year for 72nd district court judge, introduced the Republican candidate.

"We have come to a time in our history when we are beyond party lines. Your presence indicates you realize there is a crisis which must be met," the young lawyer declared. "You are not going to be led by the Ferguson party to a system of graft and penitentiary paroles. You are going to do some thinking on your own hook."

Many Turned Away

Many were turned away from the courtroom, although there was some space in the balcony.

Relatives of Mr. Bullington in this section presented a large flag to him, through Mr. Bean. The emblem bore the lone star of Texas on a background of red, white and blue, and carried the words, "Orville Bullington for governor."

Mrs. Zina Young, Republican organizer of this section, presided.

Bullington read an editorial which appeared in the Lubbock Daily Journal this week, advising the people of Lubbock to vote for Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson for fear that the Texas Technological college would not receive its share of state appropriations under a Ferguson administration, if voters of

McLennan County Embroiled In Fight Over The Ethics Of Bolting; Says Bullington's Campaign Ridiculous

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, Oct. 27. — Ex-Governor James E. Ferguson and his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Democratic nominee for governor, came to Central Texas tonight to make a plea for party solidarity in the November 8 election and found Waco and McLennan county embroiled in a controversy over the ethics of bolting.

The controversy started when speakers at a district rally in behalf of the Roosevelt-Garner cause purportedly used harsh terms in referring to members of the Democratic party who bolted the ticket. The rally had been called to take steps to keep persons who normally vote the Democratic ticket from jumping over the traces.

Bolting Nothing New

Bolting is nothing new in McLennan county. The county preferred Dr. George C. Butte, Republican candidate for governor, to Mrs. Ferguson in 1924 and favored Hoover over Smith in the 1928 presidential election. Butte led Mrs. Ferguson by 859 votes and Hoover led Smith by 696 votes in the county in those contests.

Into this setting the Fergusons came to make their second speech of the general election campaign.

Ferguson asserted that an overwhelming Democratic victory would mean much for Texas and show the nation where Texas really stood.

Ridicules Bullington

"It will show that the people of Texas are going to meet their economic conditions and troubles with an economical government," he said, "that they have not given up hope and have courage to grapple with problems that confront them."

Ferguson minimized the chances of Orville Bullington, Republican

Grand Jury Is Instructed To Give Aid To Residents

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct 27 (AP) The Duval county grand jury was brought into open court today and instructed by Circuit Judge George Couper Gibbs to protect residents from mob floggings.

The jurist's charge was prompted by more than a score of persons reporting to Jacksonville police they had been whipped recently by a gang that had accused them of offenses, including the selling of liquor, running disorderly houses, failing to support families and disregarding custom that forbid white dwellings from negro residential sections.

Mother Faces Kidnap Count

Child Is Spirited Away From Home Of Wealth By Unmarried Parent; Both Are Found Asleep In Shack

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27—Spirited away from a home of wealth that had been hers almost since birth, three-year old Nancy Irene Buchanan was found and returned today by officers, who put her distraught, unmarried mother, Ruth Borman, 20, in jail on a kidnaping charge.

The child was taken from the home of her guardian, Mrs. Violet C. Buchanan, young divorcee, by Miss Borman late yesterday.

Spurred by possibility that the baby might be the victim of criminals seeking ransom, officers made an all-night search. They found her this morning sleeping in the arms of her mother in a shack in San Fernando valley.

"She's still my baby," insisted the weeping mother, despite a recent court order making Mrs. Buchanan the guardian but not the legal parent of young Nancy.

Notre Dame Team Is Welcomed Here

Hundreds of Lubbock residents, including the Matador band, and a "wild west" pageant, welcomed Notre Dame's B team to Lubbock at 10:15 o'clock last night when the pullman carrying Freshman Coach Geo. Kozack and his squad arrived at the Santa Fe station.

The group formed into a parade unit, led by C. A. Sheffield, and a group of mounted, booted and spurred "cowboys," and the band. Automobiles behind the band were four abreast for several blocks. The visiting football men, however, were held in the pullman car by Coach Kozack. The Irish and the Matadors clash here tonight.

MARSHALL, Oct. 27 (AP)—Parades in every community of Texas before the general election as a demonstration for prohibition were urged by Mrs. Claude De Van Watts of Austin, president of the Texas Women's Christian Temperance Union, at its convention here today.

"We are not going to endorse any party," she said, "but we are going to vote the Republican ticket this year, undoubtedly."

Attorneys Of City Opposed To Resolution

Lubbock County Bar President Undetermined What Course Will Be Taken After Petition Is Presented

What course E. L. Klett, Lubbock County Bar association president, will take in connection with a petition signed by 27 Lubbock lawyers, who asked a called session to reconsider a recent resolution restricting criminal practice of attorneys, had not been determined last night, Mr. Klett said.

The resolution set out that no member of the association for a year would "represent any person charged with the commission of theft, burglary, robbery, or murder committed in the execution of these crimes, unless appointed by the court—"

Three Are Opposed

"Quite a number of those signing it were at the meeting when the resolution was adopted," the bar president said. "Only three of them voted against it."

Songs Of Revolution Are Sung As Thousands March Through Streets; Bricks Fly Thick And Fast In Mob

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Two thousand weary hunger marchers, converging on London from all parts of the island, reached their goal today in Hyde Park, traditional home of free speech, and precipitated the most serious riot London has seen in years. A score were hurt, nine requiring hospital treatment.

Singing the songs of revolution, the jobless demonstrators swung through London traffic behind the banner of the communist hammer and sickle. Up to the marble arch which leads into the park from great Cumberland place they marched through lanes of mounted police.

Thousands Look On

Thousands of spectators watched them. A squadron of police moved their horses to press back the crowd. Somebody threw a brick through a postoffice window. It was the signal for battle.

Men and women in the mob screamed defiance at the police. The mounted men charged and the mob fell back, only to form again. Bricks and stones whizzed past the policemen's heads. Dozens of windows were broken.

The rioters pulled branches from the trees in the park and tore up the park railings as weapons. A policeman was separated from his squadron. A stone knocked off his helmet. Swinging his club, he rejoined the others.

Women fainted and were carried

Cleburne Cotton Picker Found Dead In Bed Thursday Morning By A Friend; Inquest Is Staged

Death Comes Silently To W. E. Barnett And Bedmate Unaware He Shared Bed With Corpse; Two Other Men Complain Of Pains After Drinking Liquor At Shack Night Before

(Special To The Avalanche)

RALLS, Oct. 27.—Death came so silently early today to W. E. Barnett, a cotton picker from Cleburne, that his bedmate arose this morning, dressed, and went to breakfast unaware he had been sharing a bed with a corpse.

The Cleburne man, about 30, died at the C. R. Reed farm six miles south of Ralls, "of effects of corn whisky which he drank some time Wednesday, October 26," Justice of the Peace F. M. Reed said in his inquest verdict.

Dr. W. C. Snow said Barnett died at about midnight of "acute alcoholism."

Companion Testifies

J. C. Richmond of Fort Worth, who slept with Barnett, testified at the inquest at 10 o'clock this morning at the Reed farm that "I helped put him to bed. I do not think he moved after we put him to bed. He snored, and I went to sleep when he stopped."

"He was drunk when I helped put him to bed in a helpless condition," N. A. Logan, also of Cleburne, testified. "If there was anything else the matter with him, I don't know it."

Shared Small Shack

Barnett, Richmond, and Logan were sharing a small shack on the Reed farm. Because of Barnett's condition of the previous night Richmond, on arising this morning, did not wish to disturb his companion. The death was discovered about 6 o'clock this morning when Barnett was called.

About two weeks ago Barnett came to this section to pick cotton.

Liquor said to have been drunk in the shack Wednesday night made one other man ill for a time; another complained of pains in his stomach.

Funeral services for Barnett had not been arranged late today, but it was reported a Cleburne undertaker and relatives of the dead man were enroute here. Barnett's home was said to be at 240 Brazos Avenue, Cleburne.

Jarrett Martin, Crosby county attorney, and Sheriff Elmer Reed aided in the investigation.

Kidnapers Die In Gun Battle

Three Dead, Three Wounded In Fight With Officers; Three Others Sought; Plot Victim Is Freed

(By The Associated Press)

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, Oct. 27. Because a kidnaping plot went awry, three kidnapers were dead, three wounded and three at large today.

The kidnapers seized Teofilo Sanchez, a merchant, yesterday and sent two emissaries back to his family with demands for $4,000 ransom.

Daughters Scream

When the emissaries told their story to Sanchez' daughters, they screamed for the police, who arrived promptly enough to arrest the go-betweens.

Police got the details of the plot from their prisoners and found the kidnapers' hide-out. A gun battle ensued, resulting in death for three. The three who were wounded were captured, and Sanchez was freed.

Reputed Gunman Tells Story Of Killing And A Rum Ring

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 27 (AP)—Officers investigating a story told them by Thomas Kehoe, reputed gunman of St. Louis, that Louis Cheramie, dry informer who disappeared mysteriously two years ago, had been murdered and his body thrown into the river at Donaldsonville, La., reported today that human bones had been found in silt near the river's edge where Kehoe said the body was disposed of.

Kehoe, following his arrest and questioning here yesterday, told a reputed "inside" story of rum ring operations in the section, and asserted Cheramie was slain by a hired gangster. On request of local authorities, this gangster's arrest is now being sought in the east.

Kangaroo Courts Demand Cash On Barrel Head Or Belt Leather; No Wonder Lubbock Prisoners Abide By Laws

SUPREME in themselves and refusing remedy in a higher tribunal, Lubbock county jail's kangaroo courts demand—and receive—cash on the barrel head or belt leather.

The court's laws and the penalties are placed where members of each tank may see them. To obtain funds for cigarets and tobacco, to maintain personal cleanliness and tank sanitation, to keep order, and to protect the inmates, these are some of the regulations.

Persons who run afoul of the law soon develop a code. Not at all strange is it that the most severe punishment, not less than 100 licks nor more than 1,000, is for "anyone giving information to officers that will harm any prisoner."

A sorrel-top youth from Slaton, who is held on a burglary complaint, is boss of the southwest tank on the third floor. The quarters Thursday afternoon at feeding time were clean and straight, the men in good humor.

The first regulation of his "Ye Laws of Ye Olde Kangaroo Court" is:

"Entering this tank without the consent of the inmates, fine $3."

To become a "drawing member," that is, one who shares in the court's receipts, costs $1 extra.

Then come a series of rulings and orders—entered on the statute sheets, perhaps, as occasion arose.

Lying in court will be "punished accordingly." That's all the explanation given.

An inmate who has money in the (sheriff's) "office and refusing an order for it may be sentenced to not less than 10 lashes or more than 50."

"Stealing from the court will be severely punished."

There will be no "unnecessary noise while an inmate has

Over 250 School Patrons And Teachers Attend Programs At Schools

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

ATTEND County Federation program Saturday.

Perhaps you have never attended a County Federation club program. Moreover, perhaps you don't know much about what the county clubs are doing. This semi-annual meeting will give you a good opportunity to find out. And, don't forget to take your covered dish so you can have lunch. Each one who attends is to take something to eat.

The Union women are going to have the morning program and it is on the making of American cheese. Mrs. Ed Schroeder told me early in the week. She is responsible for this part. Slaton women will have the fine arts program in the afternoon.

Of course, delegates to the convention will attend. You are welcome to go also, and it will be a pleasant occasion for you.

MORE COOKING SCHOOL

PICKED up at the Cooking school: If your cake comes up to standards, it will be evenly browned, flat on top, tender, even grained, not too sticky, not too dry and free from soggy streaks. There are ways of avoiding these difficulties, according to Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, who is conducting the Avalanche-Journal free cooking school.

If you would have your cake flat on top, watch the temperature to see that it does not get too hot and beware of too much flour. It is a good idea, she thinks, to spread the batter so that it is a little thinner in the center of the pan.

To have a tender cake, have enough shortening and measure your carefully, she advises. But the amount of shortening affects the keeping qualities of the cake. Too much makes a cake that will dry quickly and crumble in a few days.

Sugar that is not sifted and carefully mixed with other ingredients will cause brown holes in a cake and too much sugar makes a sticky cake. The beating of the eggs influences texture. If they are beaten too dry the cake will be full of holes. A cake with soggy streaks is one that is under baked. Just how much time or too much heat is to each individual cake is a matter of judgment and experience.

The way to test a cake to see if it is done is to stick in a silver knife. If the blade comes out clean the cake is done.

This recipe was not sent in with the one chosen for publication, so it is to be included in this column for women who are particularly interested in foods for children. It is for carrot custard and is recommended by dietitians.

It is made of two cups milk, two eggs, two tablespoons melted butter, four tablespoons milk, one-half teaspoon salt and one tablespoon orange juice. If this is to be used as a dessert sugar is added. The carrots are cooked before the other ingredients are added.

Other vegetables may be used in place of the carrots. One-eighth teaspoon of mustard is substituted for the orange juice if spinach is used.

What a meal changes our entire existence," according to Mrs. Ihrig, who adds that "what we fail to eat may largely determine our disposition."

HELP THE P.-T. A.

THIS is the last day of the cooking school and the day for the baking contest. Attend both events and enter into the contest as well.

Plan not to buy a cake or a pie to take home for supper this evening. The cakes and pies entered in the contest become the property of the Co-Parent-Teacher association and are to be sold this evening and tomorrow. You can help their good cause along and at the same time have something good to eat by buying something the afternoon.

Today's Choice In Recipes

A Christmas fruit cake that can be kept by "hiding it" was made by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig in her cooking school class Thursday afternoon. It is made as follows:

Add one cup sugar to one-half cup shortening and two beaten eggs to which one teaspoon of vanilla has been added. Sift together two cups of flour, one teaspoon each of baking powder, cinnamon, soda ginger, and two tablespoons of cocoa. Add two cups of raisins, one and one-half cups of dates, three-fourths pound of nuts, one and one-half cup figs, one and one-half cups mince meat, one-fourth cup orange juice.

Cook two hours at 270 degrees, varying from this according to the depth and size of the pan.

Chicken Rissoles

Chicken Rissoles, as prepared in the Thursday school, were attractive and palatable.

One cup of chopped chicken and one cup of No. 3 white sauce highly seasoned. Mark off pastry one-fourth inch thick in squares. A saving of practically two-thirds in school time!

Each Vicks package contains full details of this unique Vicks Colds-Control Plan.

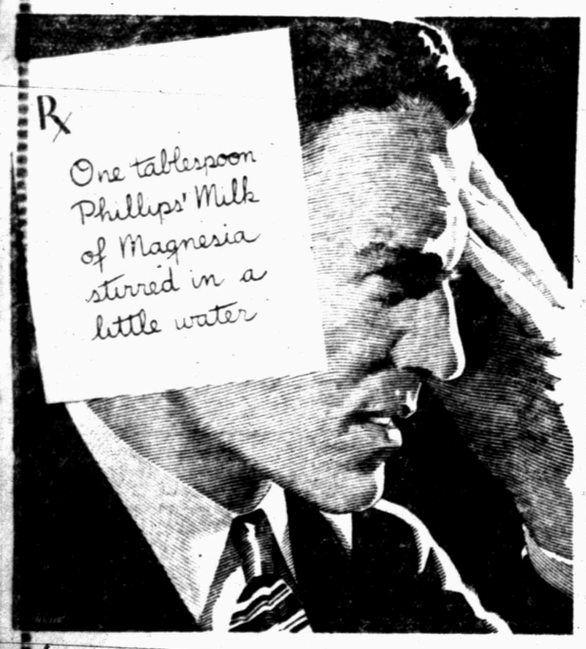
HEADACHE



● Frequent headaches mean too much acid. Neutralize the acids with Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It ends your headache because it removes the cause. Take a little whenever a coated tongue or sour stomach or sluggish bowels warn you of an acid condition. Take it when you've eaten too heartily, or after any meal that "disagrees." Be sure it is genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, in this bottle.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM: Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

RICH POOR MAN

CLEVELAND, O.—Even though he had $2,000 in his pockets, John Simkowski, 38, was down in the dumps. And that's where the police found him. And why an affluent citizen should be living in a city dump is something officials are trying to learn from Simkowski's relatives, when they find them. Simkowski's wealth was revealed by his checkbook, which is being held by police while its owner languishes in the psychopathic ward of County Jail.

JUSTIFIED SPEED

HOUSTON, Tex.—Speeding is a serious offense, but there are times when it is more or less justifiable, especially when an anxious father finds it necessary to race with a stork. And so Justice Overstreet celebrated the arrival of James Edgar Green by dismissing the speeding charge against the tot's father, who had been arrested after a wild dash for the maternity hospital only to find that the baby was born an hour before.

Do this for Your Child in

TWO WEEKS

How to rid any boy or girl of sluggishness or constipation and build a big appetite.

The trouble with children who will not eat is usually stasis. The symptoms are a tongue that's always coated, bad breath, poor color, dull eyes that are often a bilious yellow. No appetite, no ambition—even for play. Hard to get to sleep, hard to wake in the morning.

There's an absolute remedy for this condition. It gives listless youngsters the appetite and energies of a young animal! They eat! They gain! They keep well!

The California Treatment conquers Sluggishness

It's not the stomach, but the bowel condition that keeps children from eating. But the trouble is in the lower bowel—the colon. California syrup of figs is the only "medicine" that is needed to stimulate the colon muscles. The very next day, your child is eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the syrup of figs a few days and you will see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight and spirits.

Any drug store has the real California syrup of figs, all bottled, with directions. Nature never made a nicer acting or nicer tasting laxative. (It is purely vegetable.) Remember California syrup of figs when sickness, a cold or any upset has clogged a child's bowels.

WARNING

Even when it's something to give children, some stores will try to substitute. So be sure the bottle says CALIFORNIA Syrup of Figs.

Methodists Are Holding Session

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 27. (AP)—Delegates were here today for the North Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south.

They expected to consider the matter of establishing an Episcopal residence for Bishop Hiram A. Boaz, who now lives in Houston and to hear a committee's report on the resignation of R. H. Shuttles of Dallas from the board of trustees of Southern Methodist university last spring. Mr. Suttles, who asked the conference to appoint a committee to investigate his term of office, promised to give the conference his reasons for resigning when that committee had reported.

Bishop Boaz was on the program to preside at the opening session. Pastoral appointments for the new church year will be read Sunday night. Bishop James Cannon, Jr., chairman of the board of temperance and social service of the denomination, was expected to visit the conference Saturday.

Notre Dame B Team To Battle Matadors Before What May Be Record Crowd Of Season Here

George Kozak, Former Star Tackle At Notre Dame, Coaches Strong Team Of Ramblers Tonight Against Another Squad Which Goes In For Notre Dame System In Big Way

With the envious record of never having been defeated when the team was physically intact, the Notre Dame Ramblers, or at least a strong representation of that body have rambled to Lubbock and this night will gamble that record in a game with Texas Tech's Matadors.

The Irish B team, Tech's opponents in one of the most widely publicized games of the current season under the direction of George Kozak, assistant coach at Notre Dame, who was regular tackle on the first team last year, will take the field against Pete Cawthon's Matadors at 8 o'clock.

THE PLACE—Texas Tech Stadium.
THE TIME—8 o'clock this evening.
THE OFFICIALS—Referee, Shanks Lipscomb; umpire, Ziggy Sears; headlinesman, Bud Price.

The Ramblers, 23 strong, arrived in Lubbock last night but did not leave the train. Having charted a pullman from South Bend, the squad remained on the train all night. The visitors were to report at the Hilton hotel this morning for breakfast. They will dress for the game at the hotel.

Big Welcome Accorded

Much hoopla was raised last night as local fandom gathered at the railroad station following a giant pep rally at the Tech gymnasium and offered a rousing welcome to the visitors from South Bend. The Matador band, a large delegation of Tech students and a few hundred townspeople participated in the vociferous welcome.

The Matadors completed their preparations, so far as actual practice was concerned, with a night workout last night. They were to gather for a skull practice this morning.

Tech Outfit Ready

"Rarin' to go, that's us" was the unanimous expression chorused by the Matadors and their coaches last night. Keyed up to top notch mentally and in fair physical condition, the local team appeared ready to take all comers.

Coach Hunk Anderson has picked a strong team of Ramblers to oppose Tech tonight, regardless of the prospects of a defeat tomorrow for the Notre Dame regulars when they play the University of Pittsburgh in one of the nation's thrillers. The Notre Dame mentor has first hand information regarding the prowess of the Matadors, having conducted a coaching school in their midst this summer in which he used the Tech gridders in various demonstrations of the Notre Dame system. Tech's victory over S.M.U. caused Anderson to make switches in his original plans and fortify his lineup against a possible defeat.

The Blue And Gold

The traditional blue and gold of Notre Dame, the colors which have spelled terror to the best in the United States, is due to flame high tonight. The Ramblers recognize what they are up against, and they have no desire to see that perfect record broken.

It has been 20 years since a Notre Dame team invaded Texas. Knute Rockne, late lamented coach of the "fightin' Irish", was at that time an end on the Ramblers' team. The club won a victory over the University of Texas by a scant margin.

Because it is seldom that fans of this section have an opportunity to see a Notre Dame team in action, a record-breaking crowd, a cosmopolitan crowd at that, will see tonight's game.

Orders From Afar

Orders for ticket reservations have come from San Antonio, Amarillo, Dalhart, El Paso, Dallas, Fort Worth, Sherman and many other distant towns, and South Plains fans have bought practically as many tickets as have been sold to Lubbock residents.

Tech officials announced that plenty of seats would be available tonight, however. If necessary, extra bleacher seats will be erected. The greatest crowd ever to see a collegiate football game in West Texas is in prospect.

Fair weather for today and tonight was promised last night, making the probabilities of a complete sell-out all the more likely. Bleacher seats will go for $1.65, tax included, as long as they last. Early arrivals will have the best seats, as tickets to the bleacher section are sold only at the gate and are not marked for reservations.

Particular attention is called to two starting backfield aces for the Ramblers tonight. Lowell (Red) Hagan, playing his third year on the Notre Dame varsity, has been likened to the great Marchy Schwartz, all-America back last year. He played with the varsity regulars against Haskell early this season and scored two touchdowns over the Indians.

Another Carideo?

Bill Caldwell a sophomore quarterback, is a youngster slated for the better things in Notre Dame life if the reports emanating from the South Bend institution are correct. Caldwell is a triple threater, doing most of the punting and passing and a large part of the ball toting. He is said to be a great field general, and has been compared with the one and only Frank Carideo.

Other players who have had first team experience are Jaeger, 188-pound left guard; Joseph Mariani, 195-pound left tackle, and John Jordan, big halfback.

Weights About Even

So far as average weights are concerned, the opposing lineups will be fairly evenly balanced, with Notre Dame having a slight edge. The Tech team will average about 176 pounds and the Notre Dame average is 178 pounds. At various times, the Rambler backfield will have a big weight advantage over the Matador backs, depending upon which combination Cawthon chooses to use most of the time.

Tech coaches would hazard no guess as to the possible outcome of the ball game, choosing to retain a rather melancholy outlook. "The name of the ball club alone," Cawthon said, "is enough to prove dangerous to us. If our boys can settle down and play like they've been playing, we ought to make things hum, but if they get to thinking about Notre Dame and the odds against which they are laboring, it will be tough for us."

With both teams running plays off the famous Notre Dame style, Cawthon being a firm believer in the system, the teams know considerable about each other to start. The team with the most deception, the most strategy and the greatest spirit will win tonight's game. Brain will play a big part in the contest.

But The Style Lives On

THE NOTRE DAME SHIFT

No story of Notre Dame is complete without reference to Knute Rockne, who made the Notre Dame "system" famous and whose memory still hovers in the minds of Rambler players and fans. The diagram shows the completed shift from which Texas Tech and the Notre Dame B team will run their offensives tonight when they battle each other. The "box" forms either to the right or left of the center after three backs have been lined up parallel to the line of scrimmage and the fourth immediately in front of the middle man.

When Notre Dame Ran Wild Against Carnegie Tech

Quarter and half-mile races could have been the order of the day just as well as those 50 and 65-yard dashes Notre Dame pulled off during its 42-0 track meet with Carnegie Tech last Saturday. The only thing that stopped the Irish were the boundary lines of the field. The above photo, taken during the first quarter of the game at South Bend, shows Steve Banas skirting the Skibos' left end for a nine-yard gain. It is the fervent hope of all Texas Tech players and fans that the Rambler B team left its track shoes at home when they journeyed south to play the Matadors tonight.

Longhorns And SMU Scrap In Gridiron Spot

Baylor-T. C. U. Game May Hold Greater Interest From Game Standpoint Unless Ponies Show Surprising Stuff

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The twelfth annual football game between Southern Methodist University and the University of Texas, which will be at Austin tomorrow, banners the Southwest Conference program but it has a close rival in the Baylor University and Texas Christian game tomorrow at Fort Worth. These two conference battles are the only ones with championship atmosphere. Texas A. and M. plays an intersectional game at Shreveport against Centenary. Creighton University of Omaha, Neb., invades the Southwest conference for an intersectional game with Rice at Houston.

Texas Christian, with two conference victories, and Texas with one, are leading the Southwest race. Both are favored to take their opponents tomorrow. In their annual battles, Southern Methodist has emerged victorious over Texas five times. The Longhorns have won four and two games were scoreless ties.

Work Against Passes

Texas has drilled this week to stop Southern Methodist's aerial attack. Coach Clyde Littlefield has his Texans in excellent condition for tomorrow's fray. His three backfield aces, Bohn Hilliard, Ernest Koy and Harrison Stafford, are due to give the Mustangs plenty of trouble. Southern Methodist won last year's game, 9 to 7, but the Longhorns are two touchdown favorites this year. Coach Morrison recently said if Texas beat Rice, his cohorts would beat Texas. Rice lost to Texas, and now it is up to Morrison and his boys to make good. In practice this week, the Mustangs have appeared listless and absolutely discouraged over their poor showing so far this year.

Unless the Mustangs snap out of it, the Texan Christian and Baylor game at Fort Worth probably will be the best football attraction from a playing standpoint. Texas Christian holds conference wins over Arkansas and Texas A. and M. Baylor lost a recent conference game to Arkansas, and played a scoreless tie with Texas A. and M.

Bears Due For Drubbing

Texas Christian, with ten seniors and each a star, is favored to take Baylor, but the Christian ball luggers will find trouble slashing through the Baylor line, which stopped such Texas A. and M. backs as Spencer and Domingue. Richard Oliver, leading conference scorer and Texas Christian will see one of the longest and most accurate punters in the conference in Frank James, Baylor wing. Coach Francis Schmidt has drilled his warriors to stop Baylor's aerial heaves, expressing confidence that his powerful line would halt Baylor's ground attack. Both clubs will be at full strength for this game.

Brownfield And Lamesa To Meet

LAMESA, Oct. 27. (Special)—The Golden Tornadoes will go to Brownfield Friday for a conference game with the Brownfield Cubs. According to F. T. McCollum, local coach, his team is expecting a real battle in Friday's fray. Two years ago, it will be remembered, the Cubs took the Tornadoes by surprise and gloriously defeated them, which put the locals out of the conference race that year. The battle last season was equally close, with the Tornadoes coming out victorious.

The game Friday is somewhat a revenge affair, with the Cubs touted to win, being on their home grounds, and with several three- and four-year men on the team, while McCollum's men are all one- and two-year men. The locals are centering their attack in practice this week on Neil and Huckaby, the Cubs three- and four-year men who are touted as good enough for most Class A teams of this section. Lamesa will present a formidable line that has not been penetrated this season. Several hundred fans will motor from here to Brownfield Friday afternoon to witness this game.

Farm and home agents in Tennessee cost the counties in which they are employed less than one cent of each tax dollar.

Injuries Hurt Victory Hopes For Big Teams

Nine Major Teams Face Tough Game With Star Players On Benches Tomorrow; Harvard And Yale Among Sufferers

BY FOSTER HAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—Injuries to star players and uncertainties as to the capability of their substitutes under fire have upset prospects for some of the East's major football battles this week.

Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Navy, Dartmouth and New York university all face stern tests with at least one of their stars on the sidelines or ready for only light duty.

Violet End On Bench

Joe (Sugar) Hugret, star end, will be out with injuries when the N. Y. U. Violets go against a crushing Purdue attack which has not failed to register at least one touchdown in the last 36 games.

Princeton goes to Ann Arbor to meet the Big Ten leader, Michigan, minus the services of Milton Draudt, hard-running back who was injured in the Cornell game. Michigan will be without troubles with Stanley Fay and Jack Heston in the backfield.

Cornell and Columbia resume their old rivalry in New York with key players either missing or injured on both squads. Chances for the Lions were lessened considerably when Steve Dzamba, veteran guard and Otto Schwartz, fine defensive fullback, were forced to the sidelines. Cornell will start without Johnny Ferraro, star broken field runner, whose shoulder has mended slowly.

Gil Dobie may have a surprise for the Lions, however, in little Homer Geoffrion, 144-pound Jackrabbit back who annoyed Princeton the few minutes he was in the game. Geoffrion gained 30 yards against the Tigers in three plays.

Joe Johnson Injured

Joe Johnson, Yale's fine sophomore center, is definitely out of the Dartmouth fray because of a head concussion. The Indians are looking none too cheerful with Halfback Roald Morton, his nose broken, a doubtful starter against the Elis.

Brown and Harvard, both undefeated, meet at Cambridge with patched-up lineups, Jack Crickard and his understudy, Johnny Grady both will be missing from the Crimson backfield and big Jim Easterly probably will not be at guard. Captain Bill Gilbane, fullback, and John Buonanno, fleet half of Brown, are nursing injuries.

Captain Stanley Sokilis, 205-pound tackle at Pennsylvania, has returned to action after being on the shelf with injuries for several days. Whether he can compete on even terms with the surge of the Midshipmen's sturdy line remains doubtful. Chunghoon, the Navy's elusive Hawaiian back, has returned from an enforced rest cure for a head injury suffered in the Princeton game.

Westerners In District Game With Bulldogs

Lubbock Slight Favorite For Victory In First Conference Contest Today; Noble Atkins' Team Improved

In their first conference game of the Texas Interscholastic league race this season, the Lubbock High school Westerners will meet the Borger High school Bulldogs this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the Texas Tech field.

Although they are ruling as slight favorites to win, the Westerners expect plenty of trouble against Coach Noble Atkins' crew this afternoon. The Bulldogs, playing their first season in Class A football, have lost one game to Pampa, 19 to 0, but have shown such marked improvement since that contest that they are branded as serious opponents for ambitious pennant winners.

Noble Atkins

Coach Atkins, a former all-Southwest conference athlete at Texas Christian university, brought a squad of 24 picked men to Lubbock late yesterday, and quartered them in the Lubbock hotel. A brief warming up practice this morning probably will be held, and the Bulldogs will take the field highly hopeful of winning their first Class A ball game.

Fourteen Letter Men

With 14 letter men on his crew, Coach Atkins brings a veteran assembly to Lubbock, which is in sharp contrast to the local situation. The teams are fairly evenly matched in weight, with the Westerners perhaps holding a slight—very slight—advantage.

The Westerners have showed improvement in workouts this week, looking good in scrimmage sessions and displaying a fine spirit.

Two regulars have been handicapped with illness this week but are fairly certain to report in playing condition this afternoon. Bill Davidson, regular left halfback, and Bob Vaught, regular guard, have been nursing stomach-aches. Raymond Billings has been taking Davidson's place in the scrimmages and Howard Bain has been doing the trick at guard.

Both Sides Need Win

Because it is the first conference game and a chance to get somewhere in the district race, the

Amarillo College Badgers Invade Lubbock Saturday For Tiff With Tech Frosh

Conquerors Of The Varsity Point To Big Game

Texas Tech's freshmen footballists, feeling somewhat nervy after licking the varsity reserves last week, a victory which came a few days after the Picador 46 to 0 victory over the University of New Mexico freshmen at Albuquerque, are up against a foe tomorrow afternoon that promises little chance of stretching the string of victories.

The Amarillo College Badgers, coached by Al Baggett, will come to Lubbock tomorrow and top off a week-end gridiron program with what promises to be a lively scrap with the Picadors. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock. Admission will be 50 cents, and there will be no reserved seats.

The Badgers, who have been bowling over everything in their way this season, are confident of a victory tomorrow; the Picadors are just about as confident that they can do to the Badgers what they did to the varsity reserves last week.

Coach Baggett and his Badgers are to arrive in Lubbock early today, work out at the Tech practice fields this afternoon and see the Tech-Notre Dame game tonight.

Edward Moore Of Giants To Play With Dallas In 1933

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP)—The Dallas baseball club took the first step today toward strengthening the Steers for the 1933 Texas League pennant race when it acquired G. Edward Moore, veteran infielder, from the New York Giants. He comes to Dallas in a deal sending Cowboy Byrne, brilliant Steer second sacker, to the New York club. Dallas also was reported to have received $8,500 cash in the transaction. Moore was with New York during the last season but saw little service. He was expected to succeed James at second base.

Stock Trading Is Accelerated

Movement Of Sheep And Cattle Continuing Rapidly In West Texas Areas; Many Sales Of Stock Are Reported

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 27 (AP)—Movement of sheep and cattle is continuing at an accelerated pace in West Texas, and reports of large trades are pouring in from all sections of the range country. Good feeder lambs are bringing a top of 3 1-2 cents, and Hereford calves 5 1-2 cents a pound. Some lambs are going at 3 to 3 1-4 cents and some calves at 5 cents a pound.

A total of 17,365 feeder lambs is moving out from Sanderson, Dryden and Pumpville. The Big Canyon ranch has shipped 2,774 to Kansas points. The shipment was sold to Woodward and Ramsey of Wichita. They also got 2,000 feeders from J. C. Mitchell of Sanderson.

S. P. Rosenbaum, Hollywood, Calif., who has bought around 20,000 head of lambs, in West Texas this year, acquired 9,000 in the Pecos country from the Coates and Lyles ranch at 3 1-4 cents.

Wayne Culp, Beloit, Kan., of the family of Culps that each year handles thousands of sheep, is receiving the last of 11,000 head which he bought recently. Last year the Culps fed 75,000 head and expect to feed an equal number this season. Culp said they neither made nor lost money on last year's operations but believes prospects this year are fair.

Trading in the Menard area is more active. Frank Cartwell of Kansas City received 669 head of mixed calves which he contracted from Harold Bevans at 5 1-2 cents a pound. Cartwell has bought 3,000 in West Texas since July 25. W. W. Williams of Menard sold 53 head of steer calves to Bert Johnson of Stephenville at 5 1-2 cents, weights 465 pounds. George Kothmann and Fritz Luckenbach delivered 120 calves to Earl Carter of Mexico, Mo., at 5 cents, weights 425 pounds. J. D. Noguess sold to O. J. Flowers and F. T. Neel 2,000 head of mixed lambs at 3 1-2 cents a pound. Tom Russell sold 3,000 head of mixed lambs to Fred Cliett of Fort Stockton.

About 2,500 calves have been shipped out of Mason county to northern feeders at prices of from 4 1-2 to 5 1-2 cents a pound. Hogs, now on liveoak acorns, soon will be put on feed to be finished for market in November and December.

A number of cattle deals have been made in Jeff Davis, Presidio and Brewster counties recently. J. W. Merrill of Fort Davis topped the market when he sold around 500 head of steer calves to Joe Grimes, who will ship them to Indiana about Nov. 1. The price was 6 1-4 cents a pound, weights for the steer calves around 450 and steer yearlings around 600 pounds. Luke Brite of Marfa sold 1,500 steers to the producers livestock company for shipment to points in the corn belt.

Roy Barton of Brady is preparing to ship between 9,000 and 10,000 lambs which he recently bought on orders from feeders. Johnny White of Brady is buying lambs. Each year the Whites buy from 15,000 to 20,000 head, carry them over the winter, shear in the spring and ship them to market.

"Shimmy Queen" In Tragic Role

Fate cast Gilda Gray, the glittering "shimmy queen", in a tragic role in a drab court drama at Milwaukee when her father, Max Michalski, was summoned to explain why he had been receiving county charity. Here is Gilda with her son, Martin Gorecki, 18, as she appeared in court to testify she had been sending her father support money, but that he squandered it all. She refunded to the county $98 for his treatment in an infirmary.

MADE JOHN HOT

BOSTON, Mass.—You can't blame John Callahan for getting all burned up. Just a few minutes before he was going to move his home furnishings to another house, a fire started which destroyed most of the furniture. Although firemen saved much of the furniture, the damage was estimated at $200.

AUSTRIA CENSORS NAMES

Austria has decreed that parents must not express their political feelings or enter into flights of fancy when naming their children. The Ministry has sent instructions to the birth-registration bureaus throughout the country, stating that infants will not be permitted to bear Christian names which offend agains either morality or public order, or are likely to be unpleasant to their owners.

Rejuvenation Is Said To Be Farce

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27. (AP)—Gland rejuvenation was termed a deception and goat gland cures as "bait for suckers" by Dr. Hugh Cabot of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn., in an address before the Interstate Post Graduate Medical association of North America here today.

"I would be tremendously worried," Dr. Cabot added, "if all these old men were rejuvenated."

Dr. William E. Lower of the Cleveland clinic likewise asserted gland implantation is still "a laboratory study and is not yet practicable for clinical use."

Dr. John M. T. Finney of Johns Hopkins university, Washington, was chosen as president-elect of the assembly. Dr. Will J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., was elevated to the presidency, succeeding Dr. Arthur Dean Beven of Chicago.

Her production in South Carolina has increased 33 per cent in the past two years.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengué (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengué by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic baumes, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

Think It Over, Taxpayers!

ASIDE from those citizens who have been misguided by a determined ballyhoo, just who is it supporting the Centennial amendment which comes before the voters of Texas next week?

Whose axes will be ground by the Centennial staged through expenditures of huge sums of tax money?

Who will profit by the "whoopla" observance paid for by already suffering John Public?

Will it be the taxpayer—the average citizen?

Or will someone else get the "gravy"?

The Centennial committee actively supporting the amendment is functioning efficiently. It has headquarters in Austin, has an office force, is having much printing done and is sending out a great flood of literature in behalf of the amendment.

That is all very well—but who is paying for this campaign?

Who is it that is willing to spend a sizeable sum of money lobbying with the public and with the newspapers in behalf of the Centennial amendment (which sets out that the legislature be empowered to spend whatever it thinks necessary to stage it)?

These are questions which Texas voters and taxpayers may well interest themselves in before they cast their vote on November 8.

Somebody, some organizations are seeking a cut of the tax pie.

Who is it?

By all means, Texas should have an educational and reverent observance of the Centennial through the schools, the churches, the many clubs—and through every channel which can possibly serve.

But Texas taxpayers are not in a position to spend huge sums of public money—to authorize the legislature to spend what it "thinks necessary in this regard."

Think it over before you vote!

WHY ADVERTISED GOODS SELL

There are many reasons why advertised goods sell best. In speaking of nationally advertised foods, for example, travelling salesmen—like those who travel to purchase the same brand of cracker in the East as in the West, in the North as in the South—and all of them are equally good and crisp.

And the same principles apply to all merchandise and goods made or sold locally. The buyer knows that a local advertiser is ready to stand behind his product because his advertising is proof of his confidence.

The advertiser is known and has pledged himself to stand back of his merchandise. He has given his printed word to the general public and must keep it. It is the mark of good faith and is recognized by buyers the world over as such.

Almost without exception, all of the improvements in packages, or other containers have been the direct outcome of advertising.

RAIN IN THE DESERT

Two inches of rain in most states is little more than a generous soaking which, while it may fill the streams and tax the gutters, does little real damage if spread over 12 hours. But two inches of rain in the Imperial Valley of Southern California brought floods, destruction and general disruption of business and industry. Light, gas and power lines were disabled. Roads were torn up, railroad tracks washed out and towns flooded. In twelve hours, a peaceful fertile valley was transformed into a scene of havoc.

The reason lies in the country itself. The Imperial Valley is a desert sink, fertile, but dry. Its normal annual rainfall is only about three inches. Its valleys are not wooded and instead of drainage ditches, it is criss-crossed with irrigating canals. When heavy rain comes, it beats on the raw, unprotected valley with cumulative fury. A downpour is as serious in consequences as is a prolonged drought in Pennsylvania. It is a land which has so adjusted itself to hot, dry skies that water which lacks man's control is no longer a blessing, but a very real disaster.

NO SLEEP SUBSTITUTE

The latest quest of over-imaginative scientists is a substitute for sleep. They figure that one-third of life is spent in sleep, and that if one could obtain the restorative effect equivalent to that of slumber from pill or phial, man's active days would run to 24 hours per, instead of the estimated 16. Just so; and if one could find a substitute for death, immortality could be attained.

The Great designer counted in time for sleep when he measured man's span of life, and science cannot beat the game of a substitute. This is one of those scientific quests that make reactionaries of Abyssinia experimenters whom Rasselas found searching for dyes that, when spread over flies fed to spiders, would result in the spinning of colored webs by their devourers. Cucumbers still contain sunshine, and rainbows yield pots of gold, but only to the poet.

Crash Is Break For Demos

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Governor Roosevelt frequently has been referred to as politically lucky.

He certainly has had the "breaks" of late on the power issue.

His position on this question looked hazardous for his presidential aspirations, as recently as five months ago.

It was a position which won him the pre-convention indorsement, as he has had the post convention support of Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska. Senator Norris, as everyone knows, rates as a radical, and especially in his attitude toward power interests.

Senator George Norris

Now the approval of the Nebraska senator and other statesmen of his type is a valuable asset at present in the farm belt, which normally is ultra-progressive in spots and which promises to be uniformly ultra-progressive this year. It did not seem so sure, however, that such backing would not prove to be a liability to the governor in the comparatively conservative east.

WHAT OBVIOUSLY was needed, from Governor Roosevelt's standpoint, was some development to reveal the power folk in the light of just as grave a public menace as Senator Norris has long been declaring them to be.

It needed to be something spectacular.

The average voter is not much interested in figures—not in small figures anyway. To tell him, for example, that power costs only a cent and a fraction per kilowatt hour in the province of Ontario, on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence, while simultaneously costing seven and a fraction cents in New York, on the American side of the border, does not greatly excite him. The power companies' representatives explain to him that Canadian power is untaxed, whereas American power pays a high impost, and that that accounts for the difference, which sounds reasonable to most voters, and, in short, satisfies them. Besides, few Americans consider six cents a sufficient sum to worry over.

THERE HAS been a deal of [illegible] power talk, it is true, by alarmists like Senator [illegible] Norris, Bronson Cutting, Robert La Follette, [illegible]s Norris, Bronson Cutting, Wheeler. The subject was before the country, Thomas Walsh and Burton K. Nevertheless, it lacked popular appeal.

Nor, unless Al Smith expressed it, there was "no kick in a kilowatt hour."

It was just this—a kick—that the issue required.

Well, there is quite a kick in the biggest bankruptcy in history.

Precisely at the so-called psychological moment to suit Governor Roosevelt's purpose Samuel Insull's enormous pyramid of holding companies, operating, in 32 states, subsidiary power utilities valued, at their boom peak, at four billions, toppled into a receivorship.

For a time an attempt was made to minimize the completeness of the failure. Insull himself was named temporarily as one of the administrators of the properties.

Investigation, however, began gradually to disclose the hopelessness of the situation, and Insull was eliminated.

THE SYSTEM of the supposed power wizard was disclosed bit by bit, as auditors delved more and more deeply into the records.

For years he had been adding local utility after local utility to his chain, inflating the nominal value of each, as he acquired it, to imaginary figures, and borrowing on it accordingly, to make fresh purchases.

This not only continued to be practiceable while times were good and credit easy, but such was the Insull prestige that it also had continued far into the depression before the superstructure of indebtedness grew too impossibly heavy for its underpinning and down came the entire edifice.

The basic operating companies, it appears, still are sound; it is their holding corporations which lie in ruins. That is a matter for the owners of their shares and their creditors to deplore. The item of chief concern to patrons of the operating companies is the question of the rates which they have been called on to pay to these local utilities, to meet the holding corporations' ever-increasing necessities.

Small wonder that Insull utilities have been compelled to charge stiff prices, considering that these prices were contributions toward interest on obligations estimated at nine times the present worth of Insull assets.

IT IS NOT especially to the point that the Insulls—73-year-old Samuel and his brother, Martin—now are resisting efforts to bring them back, the former from Europe, the latter from Canada to answer to criminal charges against them, arising out of their activities.

Still, it adds to the piquancy of the "story."

The spectacle of the aged elder brother as a pensioner on the bounty of three of the utilities which he ruled as a czar; of the younger of the two reduced to a room in a boarding house in a small Canadian town, and actually spending a night in jail, pending release on bond under accusations brought against him in Chicago; of Samuel, Jr., no longer able to keep a chauffeur, riding to work in a street car!—all this has a picturesqueness calculated to keep the affair alive in public attention during the balance of the presidential campaign.

IT IS DIFFICULT to interest the average voter in the relative rates for power on the Canadian and American banks of the St. Lawrence.

But he has heard of the Insull case. He knows it is a power case. He is aware that indictments are out in connection with it, that the extradition of two former Chicago multi-millionaires is sought and that one of them has slept in jail because of it. The fact that it is mentioned as involving billions sticks in his memory.

He may not fully understand, but when Governor Roosevelt is described to him as on the right side of the power question, at least it means to him the right side of something important.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

BETTER SPEED AGAINST THE WIND:

Paradoxical as it may seem a huge ocean liner actually makes faster speed heading into a strong wind than if the wind is with the vessel, because of the "slippage" of the waves. When the wind is with the ship the crests of the waves fall forward and the body of the waves slip back, with a tendency to drag the ship with them. But when the wind is against the vessel the wave-crests fall forward into the bow of the ship, the body of the waves recedes in the direction in which the ship is traveling, increasing its speed. With the speed of the motors constant, the "slippage" overcomes the increased wind resistance.

A GEOGRAPHICAL PARADOX:

Gibson Station, a little settlement in the extreme southwest corner of Virginia, is actually closer to the capitals of Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, than it is to Richmond, the capital of its own state.

Interesting Bits Of News And Comment From Austin

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Some of the Bullington-for-Governor partisans are appealing to Democrats to vote for the Republican candidate in order that there might be a cessation of "the Ferguson-Sterling-Moody" agitation that has been keeping Texas agog politically for quite a period.

"Get rid of 'em all," seems to be the slogan of that element passing the word quietly about that everybody ought to join hands in swatting the worrisome triangle.

They argue that Moody already has been eliminated, Sterling is about to pass out of the limelight and that "a clean sweep" of the feudists could be accomplished by defeating Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson with Orville Bullington.

How far the "get rid of 'em all" campaign will progress was problematical, but many political observers felt that there was widespread dissatisfation with the Ferguson-Sterling-Moody quarrel.

Leo Callan of San Antonio probably will return to the Texas state livestock sanitary commission should the Fergusons move into the governor's office next January. He was chairman of the board during Mrs. Ferguson's tenure eight years ago. He is one of the most active workers in southwest Texas in the interest of the Ferguson cause.

Eugene Smith, also of San Antonio, is another likely resident of Austin should the woman candidate win again. He was secretary of Mrs. Ferguson's highway commission. He always has been a leader in the ranks of those who espouse the Ferguson cause.

Harold Kayton, member of the Texas legislature from San Antonio, has completed an unusual map, after many days of tedious work. He has divided the counties of the state into state representative districts, with boundary lines marking each on the map. Each legislative subdivision bears its number and the name of the person that will represent it in the new legislature.

Rice landed safely near Mud lake. The plane plunged into the lake and was destroyed. The accident was witnessed at Fort Leavenworth and an ambulance was dispatched to the scene.

The officer said he was hurled from the machine as he was making preparations to jump at an altitude of 4,500 feet.

Lieutenant Rice was born in Oklahoma in 1903. He was graduated from Amarillo high school in 1923. He finished the air corps primary flying school in Texas and the air corps advanced flying school course in 1928. He was rated an air pilot and observer.

LOSER SEEKS DEATH

Because he had caused his side to lose in a game of street football in Prague, Czechoslovakia, a 12-year-old goal keeper tried to kill himself recently. The opponents made three goals and the lad blamed himself. He ran to a railway line just as an express train was approaching, and threw himself on the track. One of his legs was severed and the other crushed, but he will live.

Hoover Concentrates On Preparation For Score Of Big Speeches In Drive

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—Before turning westward tonight for the fourth successive time in 25 days of campaigning, President Hoover today concentrated on preparation for the score of big and little speeches scheduled for the next few days.

With appearances before at least 12 audiences arranged for tomorrow on his way to Indianapolis, the chief executive took time off only for a brief round of conferences and picture taking.

Late in the day White House aides announced that an even more strenuous journey had been arranged for the president than that originally announced. Four more stops were added to his itinerary—Hamden and Oxford, O., and Liberty and New Palestine, Ind.

Reports came to the White House from Indianapolis that the chief executive and Mrs. Hoover could expect to find the Hoosier capital in a political buzz upon their arrival at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

Governor Ritchie of Maryland will speak there tomorrow night also and rival torchlight parades with all of the old-style political trimmings have been planned by the Democratic and Republican leaders.

The president's address is scheduled to start earlier than usual, at 7:30 p. m. central standard time in the Butler university field house, five miles removed from the center of town. The Maryland governor will speak in the Cadle tabernacle near the business section. In the president's Indianapolis address his aides expect him to make a critical analysis of statements by his Democratic opponent, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and outline Republican economic efforts and policies anew.

Three Charges Of Murder Returned Against Convict

COLUMBIA, O., Oct. 27. (AP)—Three charges of first degree murder were returned by the grand jury today against John Downing, who police said confesses killing Mrs. Mauree M. Bonzo, wife of the record and parole clerk at Ohio penitentiary.

The charges were returned two hours after the jury was reconvened to hear the confession of Downing.

The first count charges Downing, a former Ohio penitentiary convict, murdered Mrs. Bonzo with "premeditation and deliberation." The second charges murder while in the perpetration of robbery and the third, he killed the woman in an attempt to assault.

Downing was held under close guard in the county jail today. He was said to have told police he took a gun from the Bonzo home so he could kill himself.

FOOTPRINT MYSTERY

BOSTON, Mass. — Local police don't know whether a burglar for whom they are searching is a "nut", or whether he's just trying to cross them up. At any rate, they'd like to know why he goes around robbing dwellings with one of his feet bare and the other covered only by a stocking. A detailed examination of foot-prints, left in the ground after a series of 14 robberies had been committed in a suburban district, revealed this interesting circumstance.

Cotton Cotton Trading Rather Active Livestock Level On Stock Steady To Weak Grain Grains Stage Bright Rally

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 27. (AP)—Trading in cotton was rather active today and fair trade buying by both domestic and foreign interests was more than sufficient to absorb hedge selling, which was more moderate, closing prices were within 2 points of the best, showing net gains for the day of 4 to 6 points.

The market opened steady as Liverpool cables came in about as due on weaker Sterling. Private cables said there was speculative buying on rains in the belt and weaker Sterling. Bombay bought and there was also realizing, but hedge selling was smaller. Manchester cabled the home trade was improving. First trades here showed gains of 2 to 4 points, but the market soon started to ease off on hedge selling and by the time the offerings were absorbed December has dropped to 6.26 and March to 6.38, down 5 to 6 points from yesterday's close.

The market steadied later owing to improvement in stocks and wheat and due to the rather good trade downward. Before noon, December advanced to 6.39 and March to 6.51, up 13 points from the earlier lows and 5 to 6 points above the previous close.

The market fluctuated rather nervously all afternoon within the earlier range as hedge selling was offset by more or less trade buying. Near the end prices were steadier and the close was within 2 points of the best, December closing at 6.35, up 4 points net, and March at 6.49, up 8 points net.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 2 to 3 penny points up.

Port receipts 40,037, for week 277,970, for season 2,785,953, last season 3,212,141. Exports 20,499, for week 101,016, for season 1,870,147, last season 1,434,386. Port stock 4,149,478, last year 4,302,617. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 162,621, last year 182,589. Spot sales at southern markets 57,328, last year 43,804.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP) — While fluctuations were irregular, cotton showed a generally steady undertone today with southern selling absorbed by continued foreign or domestic trade buying.

December contracts after selling at 6.34 at the start, reacted to 6.27 and then rallied to 6.40, closing at 6.37. The general market closed steady at net advances of 5 to 9 points.

The opening was unchanged 5 points advance. Offerings were absorbed on a setback following the opening and the market firmed up later in the morning with active months selling about 7 to 9 points net higher on a continuation of demand through houses with continental and Japanese connections.

Prices worked back to about yesterday's final quotations, but stiffened up again in the late trading on a continued demand from the trade. Closing quotations were within a few points of the best for the day.

Liverpool cables said that hedging was less active in that market and that British home trade in cotton goods was improving.

Longhorns Engage In Hard Scrimmage; Taper Off Today

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Taking advantage of ideal weather conditions, the University of Texas Longhorns engaged in a snappy scrimmage session here today. They will taper off tomorrow for their conference contest with the Southern Methodist University Mustangs here Saturday.

Coach Clyde Littlefield pronounced his charges in excellent condition and ready for any style of campaign the Ponies may launch. The Longhorn mentor has given particular attention to a forward pass defense throughout the past week, indicating that he expects the Methodists to depend upon the air for most of their gains.

In today's session, Bohn Hilliard and Ernie Koy ripped the freshman forward wall for consistent and substantial gains, while Harrison Stafford and Hank Clewis, the other two starting members of the Steer backfield, continued to display great defensive work, which was one of the outstanding features of Texas' decisive 18-6 victory over Rice. Stafford's interference running has been particularly spectacular during the past week's sessions.

Frogs Work On A Special Offense For Baylor Bears

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27. (AP) — Using a specially prepared offense for the Baylor Bears, the Horned Frogs went through their hardest scrimmage of the week this afternoon. It also was their last stiff workout as they will taper off with light signal drills tomorrow before announcing ready for their third conference game of the season with the Bears here Saturday afternoon.

Throughout the early part of the week the Frogs were worked on the defense stopping the Bears' offensive thrusts as presented by the freshmen. Today the Frogs were again opposed by the Polliwogs, who had been schooled on the Bears' defense.

The new puzzlers prepared for the Bears clicked successfully against the freshmen and the players were in an optimistic mood. With the exception of Johnny Kitchen, all the regulars were out for practice and no mishaps occurred. Kitchen still is unable to work out because of the infected left elbow and there is little chance of his being able to get into the game at all.

Morrison To Take Full Squad To Austin For Longhorn Game

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP)—Coach Ray Morrison announced tonight that every member of the Mustang squad of 35 would be taken to Austin for the game Saturday with the University of Texas Longhorns. Observers thought Morrison might be planning to use all his reserve strength in the contest, in which few persons have picked the Ponies to win. They know the coach expected a strenuous battle, which necessitates frequent replacements.

In their last hard drill before the game, the Mustangs moved about in a business-like way, much as they have done in other pre-Longhorn practice sessions. There was not so much of the attitude of hoping they might keep the Longhorn score down and more of a giving Texas a fight and maybe winning on the breaks.

Speculative Interest Continues At Low Ebb; Price Movement Listless

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—With speculative interest continuing at low ebb, prices moved listlessly on the stock exchange today. The main body of stocks closed a fraction higher.

Total transfers reached 739,102 shares. After a dull opening, stocks moved forward 1 to 2 points around midday when firmer wheat prices appeared to buoy up security speculation. Later, however, the list turned downward and early gains were replaced with small losses. A gentle gust of buying appeared in the final moments of trading which tilted prices a shade above their closing figures of yesterday.

Gains of around a point were made by American Can, Corn Products, Pullman, Pacific Gas and American Waterworks. Public Service of New Jersey gained nearly 2. A number of leaders, including U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, General Electric, Illinois Central, International Harvester, Pennsylvania, New York Central and Woolworth were unchanged to a fraction higher. General Motors closed a shade lower.

The weekly report of brokers loans, showing a decline of $91,000,000 to $752,000,000, was accepted by Wall street backers as an indication that some of the past week's selling of stocks had eliminated a number of weak, marginal accounts.

Matty Bell To Use Quartet Of Quarterbacks On Gents

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 27. (AP) —Coach Mattie Bell announced today that he would use four Texas Aggie quarterbacks against Centenary college at Shreveport Saturday.

Cadet football enthusiasts have noted that signal callin ghas been spotty all season and Bell's announcement was taken to mean he sought a remedy. "Dub" Williams was expected to start the game, with Cliff Domingue, Sid Martin and Odel Fowler following.

Besides a defensive practice today, the Aggies ran through a final signal drill to polish their offense which had little success against the freshmen yesterday.

Bell will omit a workout tomorrow afternoon, when his players will leave for Shreveport.

Westerners

Westerners will be battling hard this afternoon.

Because they have lost one game and because another loss virtually will eliminate them from the District 1 race, the Bulldogs will exert every effort to win.

After looking miserable in practice games with Snyder and Sweetwater, the Westerners showed much improvement when they held the strong Abilene Eagle team to a one-touchdown victory, and later when they scored a three-touchdown win over Slaton High. If the improvement continues at that rate, the Westerners may not be counted out of the race yet.

cluding some who had not been in the school before. Many of the women were accompanied by their children. Several brides and many young women were in the audience.

The hall began filling soon after 1 o'clock and most of the crowd was seated for the beginning of the lecture at 2 o'clock. Several entertainment features accompanied the program.

Talks On Vitamins

In response to many questions that have been received since the school started, Mrs. Ihrig talked on vitamins, ways of making the meal attractive, balancing the diet and gave suggestions on making the kitchen work easier. "Seek contrast in preparing menus and seek to have the meals balanced," she told her class.

The fruit cake was made in the school to meet a request that had come from women in attendance.

"Some women are better house keepers than home makers," Mrs. Ihrig said, admonishing members of her audience to make their homes livable and to prepare foods that are wholesome.

Rules Are Stressed

General rules for combining ingredients in pastries and cakes were stressed more than formulas for particular foods. "One-third as much shortening as flour" and "as little water as possible" for pie crusts were points stressed in her pastry making.

In adding spices to her fruit cake she read a recipe and then told her hearers to "flavor your cake to suit yourself." Likewise, in adding fruits she said that the amounts can be varied. "Some people like more fruit and less cake; others like more cake and less fruit," she explained.

A mixed program is promised again this afternoon in the school with other recipes added to those to be praperad in electrical appliances.

Passport Refused To Mother Mooney

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—The international labor defense announced today that the state department has refused to grant a passport to Mrs. Mary Mooney, mother of Tom Mooney, who is serving a life sentence in a California prison in connection with the preparedness day bombings in 1916.

Mrs. Mooney was scheduled to sail for Moscow tomorrow night as an honorary delegate of the international labor defense to the world congress of the international red aid on November 10.

The I. L. D. said the passport was refused because Mrs. Mooney was unable to provide birth and death certificates of her husband, Brian Mooney. The husband died in Cannelberg, Ind., in 1892, the organization said, and no records were available because no vital statistics were kept in that town at that time.

Carl Hacker, organization secretary of the organization said that this procedure is "a deliberate attempt on the part of the state department to prevent Mother Mooney from going to Europe."

Youth Is Shot And Killed After Robbery At McGregor

WACO, Oct. 27. (AP) — Charlie Ross, 23, was shot and killed last night as he ran from officers after the robbery of a cafe at McGregor, 20 miles west of Waco.

Will Hanover, owner of the cafe, was charged with murder and made bond of $1,000. Three shots were fired as Ross ran from the town's jail and he fell at the feet of his father, Bud Ross, who had asked Jim Williams, city marshall, to lock up his son for fear he would get into trouble.

Hanover was helping Williams make the arrest.

The University of Iowa speech clinic studied nearly 300 cases of speech defects during the last 12-month.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 27. (AP) — Big export business in Canadian wheat, 3,500,000 bushels during the last 48 hours, did much today to rally grains from record-breaking low prices.

Seizing opportunity to get flour materials cheap, domestic millers were brisk buyers. Overseas demand for United States corn was likewise in evidence though offset somewhat by the fact that country offerings to arrive were larger.

Wheat closed firm at almost the day's top, 5-8 to 1 cent lighter than yesterday's finish, corn 1-4 to 1-2 up, oats unchanged to 1-8 higher, and provisions unchanged to 45 cents off.

Jim Ferguson

nominee, to be victor over his wife and said Bullington's campaign was "ridiculous," that it had "no possibilities."

Mrs. Ferguson said the time had arrived to put personal ambitions and platforms in the background and declare allegiance to party principles and nominees "from president to constable."

"If our conscience will not permit us to keep our words in the primary, then that same conscience ought to keep us out of the primary," she said.

Says Reports False

As to newspaper accounts of the rally that had given impetus to discussions involving bolting, Clay McClellan, Waco district chairman for the national Democratic campaign, said the rally was "inaptly reported" and that he regretted that "unwonted publicity has been given what was really a mere bit of political extravagance." McClellan said he had paid high tribute to the opposition, then in mock seriousness endeavored to consign them to political oblition by use of a term which "may, when detached, appear uncalled for and harsh." Newspaper reports said he called bolters "skunks" and "moral cowards."

Ferguson said Bullington's actions in the campaign here were a reflection on his own intelligence. He said Bullington had failed to show he had any platform and that "in general intelligence and information he is not even as smart as Sterling."

NEWS BRIEFS

County Judge E. L. Pitts Thursday set temporary peace bonds of $100 each and appearance bonds of $50 each for Aud and Bryan Meyers, charged with aggravated assault and battery, and simple assault, respectively. The two were charged Wednesday as a result of statements by G. C. Burke, about 45. The complainant was arrested yesterday on a charge filed several weeks ago, alleging theft of a farm implement owned by the Meyers brothers' father.

The ocarina quartet, composed of Fred Fairly, Culver Hill, Roger Knapp, and L. G. Gordon, played several numbers at Lubbock Kiwanis club luncheon Thursday at Hotel Lubbock. W. C. Rylander and Chas. Whitacre were program chairmen.

Speakers included Del Morgan and Wm. H. Evans.

Alfred Parrack, 27, a member of the Lubbock fire department for three years, was resting at Lubbock sanitarium last night, although his condition was only "fair." Parrack, whose home address is 1511 Main street, underwent an operation for appendicitis Tuesday.

visitors." Another regulation makes an offense of swearing while there are visitors in the tank.

"Anyone caught spitting on the floors will be punished as the court sees fit."

"Foolish conversations with the jailer" are prohibited.

Every prisoner must take a bath on entering the section and "at least one bath a week."

Floors must be mopped "immediately after breakfast and supper."

Who mops and sweeps the floors?

Persons who cannot pay fines are allowed "10 cents a day on the floors."

"All letters and notes shall be read before handing same to the jailer."

"All noise must stop at 11 p. m. and there must be no noise until 7 a. m."

"Watches and rings may be confiscated until fines are paid."

A negro, held for murder, is judge of the northeast tank on the third floor. Inmates principally are Mexicans and negroes.

"Don't be a rat," is the warning which comes near the last of his orders.

Anyone entering that tank "shall be fined $2 or 25 licks." Each prisoner must take a bath oh entering, but there is no requirement for baths after that time.

Placing cigaret butts on the floor is punishable by a fine of 50 cents or 25 licks. Hands must be washed before meals.

Happy-go-lucky men, dour, disillusioned inmates, or whatever their disposition, the kangaroo court keeps their order with a stern hand. They make their own laws, and, surprising in men who are accused of violating the state's or nation's laws, they obey the ones they make, it was said.

Local Attorneys

and defeated," the petitioning group gave six reasons, branding the action as illegal and a reflection on the bar, jurors and courts.

Action Echoed Death

The bar association passed the resolution in launching a drive against the criminal element here, following the death of Robert Tharp, shot in a holdup. Three of the petitioners, J. E. Vickers, W. W. Campbell, and Max Coleman, voted against the move at the meeting. Several lawyers present did not vote.

Reasons given by the petitioners, in support of their belief that the resolution should be rescinded, are:

"1. Every person charged with the commission of any offense is presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

"2. Every person charged with a commission of a crime is entitled to have counsel of his own choice to represent him.

Violation Claimed

"3. To deprive a person charged with a crime of the right to employ counsel of his own selection would be in violation of the constitution and statutes of this state and would violate every principle of a free government.

"4. The Lubbock Bar association, or any other association, has no legal right to dictate to the lawyers of Lubbock the kind or character of employment that they may accept.

"5. To permit this resolution to stand means that no lawyer in Lubbock will represent a person charged with either of these offenses even though such person be absolutely innocent of such charge.

"6. To permit this resolution to stand is a reflection on the members of the Lubbock bar and on the jurors and courts of this county."

Petitioners, in addition to Messrs Vickers, Campbell, and Coleman, were:

G. E. Lockhart, Hill Stewart, John L. Ratliff, G. V. Pardue, Clyde F. Elkins, J. M. Marshall, D. W. Puckett, L. A. Howard, Tom Garrard, James H. Goodman, Charles Nordyke, Roy W. Starnes, Turner Adams, Charles C. Triplett, Robert J. Allen, Syrian E. Marbut, W. M. Peticolas, jr., F. D. Brown, Dennis B. Patton, Walter F. Schenck, George S. Berry, O. W. McWhorter, W. D. Benson, jr., and B. Kucera.

In the petition, the dissenting group asked that President Kleit "insist on each and every member of the Lubbock bar to be present at such meeting. . . ."

Bullington

the city supported Bullington. It termed Bullington's candidacy "a lost cause."

Rebellion Is Described

"George III tried to intimidate our forefathers," Bullington shouted, "but they rebelled against it. There would have been no Alamo, no Goliad, no San Jacinto, if the people of this great state could have been intimidated. We owe our liberty to an Anglo Saxon race that would not stand for such foolishness.

"You would not have this great school out here if our forefathers had yielded to such propaganda as that. Your country still would have been a part of Old Mexico.

Things At Pretty Pass

"Things have come to a pretty pass when a man can go about over this state asking to be elected governor and force people to vote for him by threatening the destruction or impairment of an institution like your college."

"That is why we are going to vote for you," shouted a voice from the crowd.

"I know you are," the speaker replied. "If I stood here in the face of a threat like that and pleaded with you for an hour to vote for Jim Ferguson rather than me you wouldn't do it.

School Will Get Aid

"But if you are afraid that this thing might happen, I don't want you to take a chance on the impairment of your educational institution. You can rest assured that if I am elected—and I will be—and every vote in Lubbock is cast against me, your school will get all that is coming to it, and every dollar that it would get if all of you voted for me. You are not taking any chances when you vote against me on a proposition like that."

Bullington repeated his proposal to quit the race if the Fergusons would withdraw, allowing the Democratic executive committee to "name an honest man for the place."

"I made this proposal first when they asked me how I would vote in the national race," Bullington said, "and it shut them up. They have not let out a peep since."

"That's the truth," came from every section of the auditorium.

To Stop Graft

"There are two practices of graft in this state that I intend to stop when I am governor," Bullington said. "One is the peddling of pardons like sorghum molasses at a country store, and the other is peddling influence—paid lobbyists. I am going to ask the legislature to make it a penitentiary offense to accept money either for obtaining a pardon or lobbying for a legislative measure. That will put Roy Miller of Corpus Christi and his pal, Jim Ferguson, out of business. And I will keep the legislators in session until they grow whiskers to their knees or make them enact such measures."

Bullington asked his audience to forget the primary pledge as "meaningless." He said the party was obligated to its members "to present honest and competent nominees," but that no obligation of the voter to the party existed.

"The three-point highway plan which Jim Ferguson had written into the Democratic platform here in your city during the state convention is a cheat, a fraud and a swindle," Bullington said. "If it goes into effect it means that you people will be without highways just as long as Moses and the children of Israel stayed in the wilderness, and that was 40 years. It will take that long to pay off the present highway bonds and under the Ferguson plan no money will be available for new construction until those obligations are paid.

"Reflects On Intelligence"

"Ferguson would give one-third of the tax, or one and one-third cents, to the schools," he said. "That part of the plan is all right and I am in favor of it, although Ferguson is obviously reflecting on the intelligence of the people when he talks about giving one-third of the tax to the schools. The Constitution guarantees the schools one-fourth of the tax, so Jim's plan really adds but one-third of a cent. That is about the difference between a pinch of this Levi Garrett snuff they talk about and no snuff at all.

"Then Jim would put, or promises he would put, one-third of the tax into the general fund. That is where he begins his swindle of the farmer and other tenants. The money placed in the fund would go to reduce the taxes of the landlords and the farmer and city tenants who pay their 4-cent gasoline tax like all others would get no return from the tax. I would not raise any antagonism between tenant and landlord for I am a landlord myself, but I can not help calling attention to this plan of trying to deliberately discriminate against more than 800,000 families in Texas which do not own farms and homes."

The other third of the tax, Bullington continued, Ferguson would place in the highway department.

Nothing For New Roads

"There is no objection to giving the money to the highway department, it is the smallness of the amount that I question. One-third of the gasoline tax would be little more than $10,000,000. It would take more than $7,000,000 of that to pay the interest on the $100,000,000 worth of road bonds which the state has agreed to retire, and I am glad that the state has decided to do that. However, under Ferguson's plan, this would leave less than $3,000,000 for highway maintenance and last year the maintenance cost was more than $10,000,000. This means that nothing would be left for building new highways and that no new roads ever would be built as long as that plan was in force.

"In fact, Jim Ferguson has said that he intends to cancel some of the contracts already let. It would mean that roads under construction now would not be finished. It would mean that federal aid would be withdrawn from Texas—in fact, the federal government would be afraid to send any money down here with Jim in office, even if he did get enough money together to match the federal funds. Under the Ferguson plan the tenant farmer, paying his share of the tax, would not realize one cent of benefit. No lateral roads could be built and he will have to keep plodding through the mud while his tax money went to pay off bonds in counties with thousands of dollars worth of good roads."

Bullington will swing back to Abilene for an address Friday night after speaking at Slaton, Post, Snyder, Colorado, Loraine, Roscoe and Merkel, and will finish up the week Saturday with speeches at Anson, Stamford, Haskell, Munday, Seymour, Olney, Graham and Breckenridge.

Nominee Is Invading Territory Of Enemy

LAMESA, Oct. 27 (AP)—A jump of 130 miles from Sweetwater where he spoke last night, brought Orville Bullington, Republican nominee for governor, into enemy territory for his first address today.

Bullington's campaign trip today carried him through an area that was favorable to the candidacy of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, his opponent, in the Democratic primaries. Dawson county, of which Lamesa is the seat of government, was perhaps the strongest in all West Texas in its support of the Democratic nominee in the recent primaries.

Candidate Delayed

The trouble delayed the candidate on the long drive from Sweetwater and it was after 11 a. m. when he began speaking.

He was greeted by a large group of former Parker county residents who were friends of his parents. He was introduced by Mrs. A. B. Hefferman, chairman of the Lamesa Bullington club.

Bullington's original schedule called for an engageemnt last night at Lamesa. When his campaign managers directed him to Sweetwater instead, H. H. Halsell, leader in the Bullington campaign at Lubbock, came here and spoke in his stead.

London Riot

into stores. More than a score of the unemployed were injured, nine of them seriously.

It was more than an hour before there was some semblance of order at the marble arch.

At the beginning of the trouble at this spot the crowd inside the park, between 50,000 and 100,000, had been entirely peaceable.

Two dozen or more soap boxes had been set up and from these the orators ranted against the condition of the jobless. Most of their condemnation was directed against the "means test," a provision of the dole system which requires certain recipients of government aid to furnish proof that they have no other means of subsistence.

Moscow Is Blamed

It was specifically to protest against the "means test" that 2,000 jobless men and women from Scotland, Wales and many parts of England organized a "hunger march" which the authorities said was inspired by agents from Moscow.

Many marchers carried banners with the Soviet emblem. Most of them wore red rosettes and W. A. L. Hannington, who appeared to be the principal organizer of the march, is known as a communist.

The slogans the men shouted as they marched through the streets also were familiar communist demands. "We want work or food!" they cried, and "down with the government! Down with the baby starvers!"

FOG-PROOF SIGNALS

Fog is defied on the new electrified railway between Barking and Upminster, in England. "Searchlight" signals cast a beam for 1,000 yards, and so fool-proof is the system of signaling that when a train passes a danger point it immediately stops and orders itself back again into safety.

19,000,000 APPLES IN SHIP

When the liner Baltic recently arrived at Liverpool, England, from New York it carried 19,000,000 apples. It was the first fruit consignment of the season from Nova Scotia. Hundreds of dock workers unloaded the 36,205 barrels of apples and 6,188 boxes and baskets of mixed fruit.

About 90 per cent of the total cultivated area of New Zealand is devoted to pasture.

Blanton Alibi Believed Good

District Attorney Bradley Is Convinced Amarillo Youth Is Wrong Man In Case After Court Of Inquiry

District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley, who conducted a court of inquiry at Amarillo Wednesday and Thursday, said there yesterday he was convinced H. C. (Buddy) Blanton, held here in connection with two hijackings, is "the wrong man."

Mr. Bradley had not returned to Lubbock late last night.

"After doing some additional private investigating in Amarillo today, I'll go back to Lubbock and again talk with the witnesses who identified Blanton and show them the signed statements received in this court of inquiry," Bradley said. "If they are not still positive in their identification, I'll ask the sheriff to release Blanton on my own responsibility. If they are still positive, I wouldn't care to take the responsibility of freeing him, and I shall take the case to the grand jury which meets Monday.

Blanton, 21-year-old former Amarillo high school football star, had been "positively" identified by two citizens of Lubbock as having been there the day that Robert Tharp, 25, was shot in the second of two store robberies.

Witnesses at Amarillo corroborated Blanton's testimony that he was there on the night Tharp was fatally wounded.

Roosevelt Takes Up Office Work

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 27 (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt laid aside his battered campaign hat today to resume the role of governor of New York while he made plans to avoid a special session of the legislature for relief purposes.

After conferring with various legislative leaders and relief officials to reach a conclusion that one could be avoided if a thirty million dollar bond issue is voted, the Democratic presidential candidate gave thought to plans for a whirlwind windup of his campaign in the east.

He went into the preparation of two short talks for delivery later tonight to separate meetings of actors and Greek voters in New York.

Looking fresh and with his voice apparently entirely recovered from the hoarseness that developed on the last day of his swing through the south, the governor spent most of today in his office at the state capitol before returning to the executive mansion for the two talks.

Extra Session

petitioned a special session of the Texas legislature to consider amendments to the state's conservation laws to broaden powers of the Texas railroad commission, state oil and gas regulatory agency, to enable it to function better, to insure the greatest ultimate recovery from the state pools.

The governor was opposed to convening the legislature if it were at all possible to avoid a session and at the same time not jeopardize the rights of interested persons, in and out of the business of producing, buying and selling oil.

Mind Is Not Closed

He had not receded from a decision of several days ago to the effect he would not order an extraordinary session, but he had not by any means closed his mind to the probable necessity of recognizing an emergency.

Governor Sterling was giving the situation serious thought. He said he recognized there were two sides of the question brought up by a decision of a United States district court invalidating orders of the railroad commission prorating production in East Texas in the interest of conservation. NIGHT PICNICS CLOSE ABBEY

Green county, Tenn., this year cut its tax rate 20 cents on the $100 valuation.

—when you require a tonic

. . when you feel "tired out" . . . "all run-down" . . . "sluggish" . . . "listless" . . . "no appetite"—it is then time to pause and consider what may be the cause of this condition. If you suspect an organic or functional trouble of a serious nature consult a physician at once.

But if your vital organs are sound and you have thru overwork, worry, unbalanced diet, working conditions, "bad air," lack of proper exercise, unconsciously reduced your vitality and resistance, then restore your vital red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin content so that your blood and tissues may have the oxygen to purify and strengthen your body.

For decades S.S.S. has been the preferred tonic for restoring hemoglobin to the red-cells of the blood. Start to rebuild now. You will surprise yourself. S.S.S. is on sale at all drug stores in two convenient sizes—the larger is more economical and is sufficient for a two weeks' treatment.

Feeder Loans Are Hurried

Banks Are Cooperating With Regional Organization In Advancing Money; Directors Meet On Friday

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27. (AP) — Feeder loans are being hurried as much as possible, Tom Yarbrough, president of the regional agricultural credit corporation at Fort Worth, said today.

Banks are cooperating in some cases by advancing money to applicants on sound security, he explained, and the credit corporation will reimburse them. Bill of lading drafts are provided applicants so they can draw on the corporation for money with which to transport the cattle from the place they are bought to the feeding ground.

"The corporation is adopting as liberal a policy as possible," Yarbrough explained. "There are a number of questions that have to be worked out though. Some of these will be taken up at the meeting of the board of directors here Friday.

"It is expected the money will be available on the first Texas loan within a few days."

The directors will meet at 10 a. m., Friday in the First National bank. It will be the first meeting of the board since actual investigations were begun by the credit agency, except for a called session preceding a feeder-breeder dinner in Dallas two weeks ago.

A. E. Thomas, executive vice-president and manager, Thursday announced that for the week ending October 21, the national association disbursed $216,874. He paid out $75,517 the week before, the first week loans were made. Tt the close of the second week there were 5,450 applications for loans aggregating $22,155,090 awaiting action.

Cotton Interests Continuing Fight

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP) —Interior cotton interests which battled here throughout a 13-day hearing before an Interstate Commerce Commission examiner against the proposal of the Burlington railway system and port interests for a carload rate on flat cotton prepared today to resume their fight in a few weeks before the Texas railroad commission.

The interior compressors and commercial interests have filed an application with the Texas railroad commission for a flexible schedule of carload rates similar to those in force in Arkansas, R. I. Wells, rate expert of the Texas commission who sat with I. C. C. Examiner G. H. Mattingly at the hearing here, said the Texas commission probably would take up the application at Austin on November 7.

Meanwhile, testimony assembled here on the Burlington's application will be assembled for Examiner Mattingly's recommendation to the federal rate body but a decision was not expected to be reached in time to affect the present cotton season. Testimony was concluded yesterday.

Throughout the hearing, interior interests claimed the Burlington proposal would ruin interior compresses by sending all compression business to Gulf ports and would leave the interior drained of its greatest source of wealth—the cotton business.

Conversely, the railroads, supported by powerful Gulf interests, insisted that the proposed rate was necessary to their defense against truck competition and would put port and interior interests on a par.

Emergency Relief Loans To Two States Are Authorized

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP) — Emergency relief loans of $6,303,150 to Illinois and $850,000 to Mississippi were granted today by the Reconstruction corporation.

Of the total granted to the governor of Illinois $5,554,500 is allocated to Cook county in which Chicago is located—the remainder to be used in 61 other counties. The money is to care for relief needs from November 1 to December 1.

The Mississippi loan is to care for relief needs in 70 counties and 13 cities over the same period.

FLOWERS HIS UNDOING

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—The love of Otis McHenry for beautiful flowers put him in jail. McHenry, carrying a bunch of rosebushes, asked Fred E. Boston if he wanted to buy some and have them set out in his yard. Boston said "yes," and Otis went to work with a spade. Meanwhile, Boston remembered having read of rosebush thefts from the city's parks. He phoned police, who questioned McHenry until he confessed.
