OVERWORKED—Facilities at Woodard Produce have been overworked the past two weeks since maize began arriving for storage under the government program. Three and a half million pounds of the grain, which is last year's crop, began arriving in Hico two weeks ago from Hooker, Oklahoma. Thirty railroad cars were required to handle the shipment. Shown here is grain being unloaded from Katy Railroad cars into a hopper built beneath tracks at the mill, which moves from the hopper into the huge storage silos by way of an auger. Also shown is a truck load of bulk feed being unloaded.

Hico Firemen Start Campaign to Purchase Modern Resuscitator

Hico Volunteer Firemen this week started a campaign to raise $495.00 to purchase a portable resuscitator through public subscription. The resuscitator has been on display the past month at First National Bank.

Persons desiring to make contributions to the fund may do so by leaving them at the bank or handing them to any member of the fire department. Printed envelopes will be available this week end for contributions. The envelopes will have a place for the person's name, amount of contribution, and address. If necessary funds are not raised, the envelopes bearing the donor's contribution will be returned.

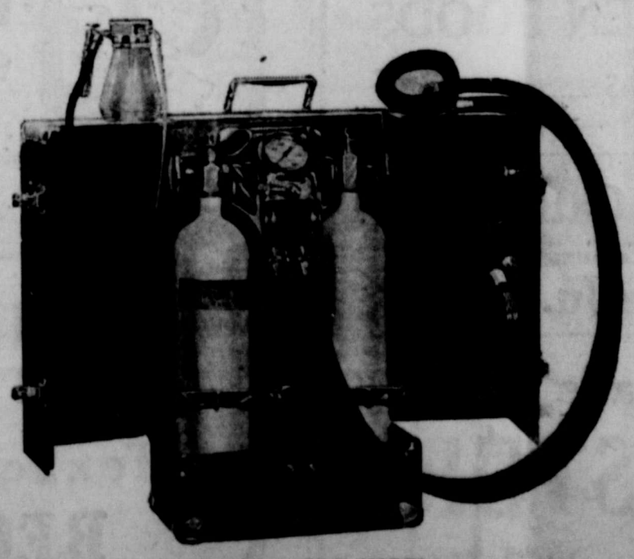

Members of the local department started the fund off Monday night by donating $95.00. The firemen contributed $50.00 from their fund, and individual members made the following donations: J. C. Prater, $5; L. J. Chaney, $10; Richmond Herrington, $5; Alvin Casey, $5; Fred Cooper, $1; Ernest Jacobs, $2; Sherman Roberson, $2; W. R. Hampton, $2; Fred Jaggars, $1; Milton Rainwater, $5; Andrew McFadden, $2; E. V. Meador, $5.

Chief Roberson said the model on display at the bank was one of the latest types offered for public use. Most of the fire departments throughout this section have purchased the resuscitators, the latest being Clifton, who bought the apparatus only recently following a drowning there.

In scope, the apparatus can be used in emergencies such as smoke suffocation, drowning, gas poisoning, electric shock, drug poisoning, carbon monoxide, brain tumor or concussion, alcoholic coma, new born babies, auto accidents, shock, heart attack, convulsions in babies, asthma, etc.

The resuscitator is easily operated with a self-explanatory control panel and with concise instructions on operation and maintaineous. It contains a special handle in order for the resuscitator to be carried while moving a patient without discontinuing operations.

Cost of the equipment is in the neighborhood of $500. The equipment will be maintained and kept in a Barrow-Rutledge ambulance.

Centennial Starts Tuesday With Unveiling Ceremony

Celebration of Hamilton County's 100th birthday gets underway Tuesday with the unveiling of the Ann Whitney Monument by Gov. Price Daniel at 10:00 a.m. On the speaker's stand when Gov. Daniel unveils the monument will be Miss America Texana Whitney, 84, and Miss Ida Vashta Whitney, 82, both residing near Comanche. They are nieces of Ann Whitney, Hamilton County school teacher, for whom the monument will be dedicated.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening judging and crowning ceremonies will be held in the Queen and Princess contests, followed by square dancing. The crowning ceremonies will be held at Kooken Field. Out of town judges will select the Queen and her court.

Entries from Hico in the Queen contest are Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, who is sponsored by Rainwater Garage, Mrs. Ruth Ganske, who is sponsored by Johnson's Produce, and Mrs. W. A. Moss, sponsored by South Hico Home Demonstration Club.

Four local girls will compete for the Princess title. Salmon's Dept. Store is sponsoring Kathy Higginbotham; Judy Griffitts is sponsored by The Hico News Review; Judy Moore is sponsored by Herrington's Grocery; and Reed Studio is sponsoring Kay Jameson; Representative from South Hico Home Demonstration Club is Clara Grace Hyles.

On July Fourth at 11 a.m. the huge parade will be held, followed by a barbecue at noon on the square, and other entertainment in the afternoon. Featured entertainment Wednesday night will be a quartet.

Thursday night a Country Jamboree and feature acts will be presented at Kooken Field.

Climax of the week-long celebration will be Friday and Saturday nights with the presentation of the Pageant.

Two historical episodes will be presented by Hico. Milton Dunlop is community pageant chairman. About 10 minutes each will be given for "The Iron Horse" and "Freighters, Mailhacks and Mud."

In 1881, after Hico had moved its business section on the railway right-of-way, by request, a great throng of people gathered to welcome the first iron horse in Hamilton County at Hico.

After the railroad was established there were regular freighter routes to outlying communities. The freight wagons were first drawn by oxen teams and later by horse and mule teams and suffered many hardships because of unpredictable animals and irregular weather conditions.

In 1904, horsedrawn mailhacks were authorized by the Post Office Department and joined the freighters on regular routes.

The "horseless carriage" made its appearance also in 1904 when J. C Rodgers of Hico bought a new Orient-buckboard.

In 1907, the second railroad in the county was built from Hamil-

Reunion Time Fast Approaching; Plans Progressing Well

Harold Walker, Reunion Manager, reported this week that 23 of the 28 available display booths at City Park had been placed for the 72nd Annual Old Settlers Reunion, to be held July 30 and 31, and August 1 and 2.

Walker was optimistic about placing the other booths, and urged anyone planning to have a display during the celebration to contact him at once. The booths sell for $25, and merchants using them in the past have declared them highly successful.

Other plans and developments of the Reunion are progressing satisfactorily, and a complete slate of entertainment will be lined up within the next few weeks.

Walker has urged that each merchant, and individual interested, to start thinking about the annual booster trip, which is scheduled July 24, and the parade which will be held on Wednesday, first day of the celebration.

G. E. Holladay Sells Registered Bull to Pleasanton Man

D. T. Perry of Pleasanton has purchased Covic Burke Alex 1234717, a registered Holstein bull rated as a Preferred Pedigree Sire by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, from G. E. Holladay of Hico and Joe C. Carrington of Austin. The coveted Preferred Pedigree rating is a part of the Association's Selective Registration Program. Based on ancestral achievement, it guarantees that a bull's parents have met rigid standards of both type and production in official breed improvement programs.

Preferred Pedigree is the highest rating awarded through the Selection Registration Program. Its high requirements limit the designation to bulls of truly outstanding ancestry.

An integral part of registration procedure, the rating appears on the bull's certificate of registry and all records of the Holstein Association.

Senatorial Candidate, Bill Blakley, Will Visit Hico Saturday

Bill Blakley, Texas' most versatile Senatorial candidate, will make a personal stop at Hico Saturday afternoon en route to Waco. Mr. Blakley will arrive here at 2:30 p.m.

The story of Bill Blakley is the story of Texas.

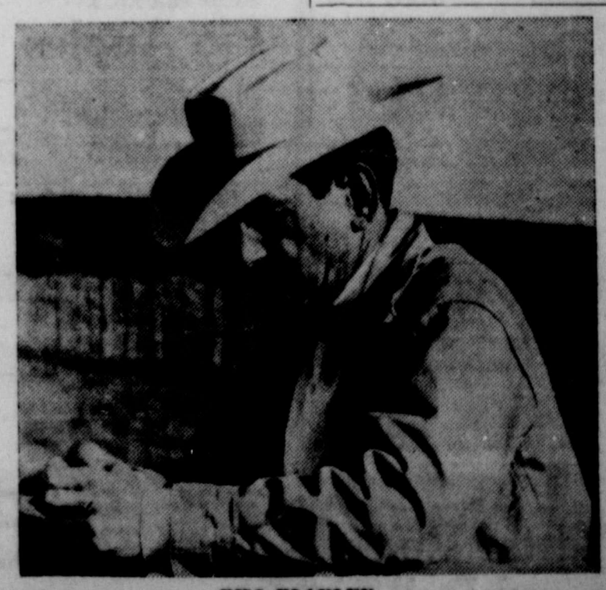

He was born 59 years ago while his parents were crossing the plains of Missouri on their way to homestead a quarter-section of land in Oklahoma territory.

During his boyhood in the Arapaho country he "worked out" and by the time he was fourteen, was earning a cowhand's wages.

This rugged existence instilled in young Bill a determination to educate himself—to have a career. On graduating from high school, he enlisted in the Army during World War 1.

After the war, he came to Texas and began earnestly to learn from the "books." He used the knowledge he acquired to become a certified public accountant and a lawyer—self-taught and self-made.

FAIRY

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We received about one-half inch of rain late Saturday which was accompanied by a cool front, dropping temperatures greatly.

Combines are running in a few fields this week for those who had to hire their grain combined, and were unable to run sooner.

We learned the first of last week that the mother of the 9-month-old infant who was accidentally drowned last Saturday week, was the former Betty Stone of Fairy. She attended Fairy Schools. The infant drowned while she was giving it a bath in the family home. She left the room for a few minutes and returned to find it had drowned. The couple were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Phears of Arlington. Funeral services for the baby were held in Hamilton last Sunday week, with burial in Oakwood Cemetery there. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents, their two children, and other relatives.

Mrs. Ralph Spencer and two small sons of Lubbock visited from Thursday until Saturday of last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover. Dickie had a case of three-day measles while here, and Don was recuperating from a broken arm, which he received when he fell from their play swing at their home.

The Lone Star Gas company is laying a new line through this section. They are presently at work about a mile southwest of Fairy. This is their second line through here.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lee Adams of Bowie were Fairy visitors last Saturday. While here they visited the Fairy Cemetery where their fathers, J. W. (Wig) Whitaker and Ellis Adams, and other relatives are buried. They also visited in the Hoover home, and while there left $2.00 for the cemetery fund. Mrs. Adams is the former Inez Whitaker. We sincerely thank them for their thoughtfulness. Bush is employed with a highway construction company and his work keeps them on the move.

Some of those who spent last Sunday week end here to attend the ex-student meeting whom we did not report were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prinz and family of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frederick of Venus spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham. The Prinz's little daughter, Karen, remained for a week's visit with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arrant and two children of Fort Worth visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon New and baby of Fort Worth spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New and Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Streater and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Turner and family visited during the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks.

Mrs. Ted Bankston and little daughter of Temple, Mrs. J. R. Oglesby of South Texas and Billy D. Blakley of Dallas visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakley during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers received word last week that his cousins' adopted son, Bruce Baize, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. U. Baize of Gatesville, had received second and third degree burns over his body last week when gas which he was cleaning parts with ignited. Bruce resides in Waco and is associated with a garage there with his father-in-law, Norman Bowen, who also is a cousin of Mr. Sellers. Bruce has been in a critical condition in a Waco hospital. However we received word today by radio that he is now past the critical stage and showing signs of improvement. Bruce is remembered by many in this section, many having known him since childhood. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ed Allison went to Goldsmith early last week to help take care of her two grandchildren, as their mother, Mrs. Geo. M. Stringer was in a hospital with a virus infection. She has been quite ill. We have not learned whether or not she has been released from the hospital. Mrs. Allison's sons, D. E. of Dublin and Texie of De Leon carried their mother to Goldsmith. Mr. Allison spent last week visiting with his sons and families and went to Waco last week end to visit in the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Seago and Scherry. We hope Mrs. Stringer is much improved by this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brooks of Midland have announced the birth of a little son, born in a Midland hospital on June 12th. The baby weighed 8 pounds and has been christened Milton Douglas. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Brooks of Raceland, La. and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Graves White of Evant.

Jimmy Oglesby, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. (Punch) Oglesby of Lanham, won a saddle, silver belt buckle and trophy cup, as all-around motor scooter champion of the 8th Annual Horse Show and rodeo at Fort Worth last Saturday and Sunday week.

CEMETERY NEWS

We notified Nona Brunson Wednesday of last week that we had some work to do. Since he had not came to work by Saturday morning we went to work ourself. We started on the west side hoeing all Johnson grass and any noticeable weeds and reached the west road by noon.

Also hoeing again Monday morning, completing about one half of the middle section. We hope to get over it soon, as the north portion will be ready to mow again by the last of the week. When we arrived at the cemetery Saturday about 8 o'clock we found one of our little former Fairy girls, whom we had not seen since she lived at Fairy almost fifty years ago. She was none other than Mrs. Ruby (Simpson) Filgo of Lancaster. With her were her son and a teenage daughter. She never seemed to remember us and we would not have recognized her had she not been at the Simpson lot and at that we didn't know which one of the girls she was as she had three younger sisters.

Ruby stated she had been a widow since 1952 and that her mother was still living. She stated she wanted to bring her next time. She asked about our little midget Fairy girl for which our town was named, Miss Fairy Fort. We told her she was buried in the Fairy cemetery. She also asked about the Brummett families, since the family lived near these folks when her father passed away in 1906. After the death of her father, Mrs. Simpson had a home built at the foot of the Fairy mountain on the east side. She later had the house moved to Cranfills Gap where it is still standing.

In looking over old time pictures during the ex-students meet we noted the Simpson house in one of the pictures of the town of Fairy.

While at the cemetery Mrs. Simpson left $10 for the fund which she specified was to be used for the benefit of the cemetery as a whole, which we highly appreciated.

Other recent donations are: Audie Parks and mother, $5; Bill Abel, $2.50. We sincerely thank each for their donation which will be used to the best advantage possible.

Other birthdays for June which we overlooked were Mrs. Marcille (Cox) Price of Austin, June 21, and Mrs. C. E. Jackson, Corpus Christi, June 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn, Jimmie and Janice, carried lunch to the Hico City Park Sunday and enjoyed a short outing there in the afternoon. They also visited a while in the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Jenkins and son of Hico while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Reubin Trantham and small daughter of Big Spring visited at the Fairy Cemetery Monday. Mr. Trantham's father, Rube Trantham, is buried here, and also other relatives.

E. M. Hoover and Herman Sills have been ill of back ailments, similar to pinched nerves, caused from overlifting during harvest. Mr. Sills went to the Baize Clinic in Gatesville Monday.

We learn that Ben Wright of Hico is a patient at the Hico Hospital with a similar ailment. Mr. Wright is a former resident of Fairy. Hope all are better soon.

Bosque County Farm Bureau Hears Agriculture Director

A. B. Jolley, Agricultural Director of the Dallas Times Herald and radio station KRLD, talked to the Bosque County Farm Bureau membership at their general meeting and supper in the Morgan High School cafeteria June 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Jolley began his speech by suggesting that all farmers be members in their organization and all business men in Bosque County should be members. "They are definitely tied to farming and its interest," he added. He emphasized how other organizations advertise to increase their sales programs and insure fair prices to them.

Three phases of economy in Bosque County are Industry, Consuming Public, and Farming people. Competition is keen in beef production, with meat-type hogs and with broilers.

Subject of Mr. Jolley's talk was pasture grasses—how good grass and good management go together. Man has never concocted any better feed than is already in good green grass, or in dry grass on through deep root system. Plants good soil that gives it minerals are the medium that transforms the minerals and vitamins into proper nourishment for meat cells.

Proper care for grasses consist of rotating pastures even at the cost of fencing, not over-pasturing, by culling out poor beef cattle to cut down on number of head, and seeding the adapted grasses of the particular section of the country.

Ways to tell if pasture is going down were listed by the speaker as follows: Decrease in number of key plants; short root lengths; baked condition of soil; many trails and bare spots; and poor livestock. Properly fed grass seems to flourish in spite of insects. Soil Conservation Service or County Agent ofices can supply farmer with Circular B 236 on "Range Plants in Texas."

The business meeting consisted of reading of last month's minutes and reports of committees. W. L. Gauntt, service agent, reported that he delivered a check for $2504.04 to Cranfills Gap schools for claim on storm damage to buildings. President W. B. Oswald appointed Mrs. Jake Seljos to select a committee to work on feasibility of a Queen Contest. He thanked J. F. Wheeler, director of the Morgan area, and Ivan Bearden, superintendent of school, for making arrangements for the meeting, which was attended by 82 members and guests.

July 15th will be a date for all political candidates for Bosque County to keep in mind. President Oswald announced that the [illegible] of July 15 will be reserved for candidates to meet the membership. Place of the July 15th meeting will be at Meridian State [illegible] Report

On the Home Range

By MRS. VIVIAN BLAIR
Home Demonstration Agent

One day last week I was out at the J. W. Adams place near Shive. Mrs. Adams is one of the 4-H Club Leaders there and the children were having a meeting at her home.

While there she showed me how she had used maps as a wall decoration and then had them readily available when a map was needed for reference.

She had used some 8 or 10 maps of different sections of the world. These had been mounted by clamping the top edges between two strips of molding, then hung on the wall in the children's room. They certainly were a most decorative wall hanging and saved time and energy when needed for use.

MEMO TO VACATIONERS

Planning a family trip? If so, put aside the road maps and travel folders long enough to place valuable household papers in order.

Loss of a valuable paper from theft, fire or carelessness could spoil your vacation. A safety deposit box at your bank is one of the best places for wills, stocks and bonds, insurance policies, family records of birth, marriage, citizenship, military service, deeds, leases, promissory notes and other documents.

A household inventory is another valuable record. Before leaving on your trip, make duplicate copies or bring existing ones up to date. One copy can be placed in the bank box and the other kept at home. You'll be glad you did if you have to settle a theft or fire claim.

Take with you a list giving the name of your automobile insurance and hospitalization insurance companies. Include the number of each policy and the names and addresses of the agents.

If you carry traveler's checks, don't forget to make one or more lists of check numbers to be carried separately from the checks.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

Dont' tempt fate in '58. Work safely and prevent farm accidents.

Carry Schoen, Pottsville 4-H Club boy planted several plots of small grains this winter. He had two that did pretty good, his Alamo oats and Rodgers barley. Some of the plots got too much rain and drowned out.

When using any of the preparations of 2, 4-D or 2, 4, 5-T caution should be taken to see that the work is not done while a strong breeze is blowing. Damage to cotton and gardens can result from the drift of these materials.

If your yard is like most, it has a good crop of goat-head weeds in it. This weed can be controlled nicely by using 2, 4-D. If you can, use one of the old-type lawn sprinklers to apply the material rather than a spray of some kind. A mixture of two to four tablespoons of 2, 4-D to a gallon of water sprinkled over the weeds will kill them in a week or ten days. This treatment is likely to have to be repeated after each rain for the new crop that will come on.

Jim Gray and Dr. C. M. Patterson of the Texas A & M College will assist with the Goat Selection meeting which will be held Monday, July 7. The meeting will be on the J. W. (Buster) Adams ranch over behind Shive.

Starting at 1:30 demonstrations will be given on selection of goats, grading mohair and control of internal and external parasites of goats. Every goat raiser is invited to the meeting

The Poultry Science Department of the A & M College has just announced the dates, July 9 and 10, for the annual Poultry Conference at Texas A & M. The poultry conference will center its interests around the breeding, care and health of Texas poultry. The conference is of special interest to breeders, hatchery and feed servicemen, related poultry industry, salesmen and commercial producers of eggs, broilers and turkeys. The staff of the Poultry Science Department and those who specialize on poultry in the Department of Veterinary Medicine will take active part on the program, along with several out-of-state speakers. If your interest is poultry you will find a hearty welcome and lots of worthwhile information at this conference.

Clarence Goredel, Route 3, Hamilton, got good results this spring controlling weeds in his fields with 2, 4-D. With the rains we had along about time of plowing, weeds got a good start and some were not able to plow them out. 2, 4-D will do the job well and Clarence is well pleased with the results he got and too, he says it is cheaper than plowing.

Research shows that it takes 16 to 18 days to get eggs to the consumer. Quality is deteriorating all the time so it is easy to see why it is so important to keep eggs cool. Does it pay to cool eggs? Research at A & M shows that return to the producer is much greater than the cost of cooling.

Just keeping eggs cool is not a substitute for frequent delivery Eggs should be delivered at least twice a week. Better still—deliver every day if possible.

A Few Decades Past . . .

A NEWSPAPER WAS A RARITY IN MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES!

Then—a newspaper was a thing to be marveled at —for memories of the Press' fight for freedom were fresh in mind. Although newspapers are common in our country today, their existence should not be taken for granted. It is a wonderful fact that almost all of our modern communities have their own hometown newspapers, freely edited by members of their own communities—spreading the news, stimulating the business of the community, and keeping their readers informed of important events elsewhere. It is well to keep in mind that a free press and a free people are an unbeatable team.

IT HAPPENED HERE OR NEAR—

Tribute Will Be Paid to County's Most Heroic Woman: Ann Whitney

By E. E. DAWSON

Hamilton County is now a century old, and like most centenarians is putting the big pot in the little one in the matter of celebrating its arrival at that good age. I's been a pretty long way to come, but with resolute citizens and the providence of Heaven it has arrived. And it has "arrived" in more ways than one. It is now one of the choice spots of this modern world.

Next week the big time comes off. On the first day of July the people will gather at the county court house and with the Governor of the State participating, will dedicate a monument to a very heroic woman: Ann Whitney, the school teacher who succeeded in getting most of her ten pupils to safety when the Comanche Indians attacked on July 9, 1867. I am more interested in that monument dedication than anything else in the big celebration. I mean to be there with bare head to give praise to a heroic pioneer teacher. I have written twice before this about Miss Whitney's deed of valor, so will not repeat this time. I find that some details of the story carry, as most old-time stories do. It is not to be wondered at that incidents reported by so many folks, and no all of them remembering well, and each perhaps desirous of emphasizing different particulars, would finally give several versions of the event. At any rate we do know, and in this there is agreement, that a noble woman did a golden deed and at the cost of her life. Doc Kerley, who died two years ago at the age of a hundred, saw that band of Indians as they passed his father's ranch on Resley's Creek, and hid from it.

A good story of Hamilton County appeared in last Sunday's Star-Telegram. It had pictures of the monument to Ann Whitney to be dedicated July 1, a picture of the oldest house in the county, which is a Indian Gap and known as the Hawley Gerrell house. I call attention to the house every time we happen to pass the place. It is an eight-room house, now ocupied by a fifty-nine-year-old bachelor named Thomas Vessel. On top of that mountain to the north of Indian Gap is a monument of marble and granite thirty feet tall over the grave of the builder of the old house just described, and the story is that Mr. Gerrell wanted to be buried atop the mountain, "For," he said, "that's as near to Heaven as I'll ever get."

Tradition has it that the first settler in what is now Hamilton County was Robert Carter, who came to a site near to where Evant is now. Mr. Carter was from Bell County. The date of his settlement is given as 1854. In 1855 came another pioneer settler named F. Marion Graves who took a herd of cattle to California and was gone two years on that trip and brought home twenty-five housand dollars in gold. He built a stone house at Hamilton that still stands, and in which his daughter now resides.

Hamilton County, unlike most counties in Texas, got its name, not from a settler or patriot of revolutionary days, but from Gen. James Hamilton, governor of South Carolina, whose sympathies were shown for the republic and then to the struggling state. Texans did not forget the comfort he gave the brave pioneers, and so when the county was put together from parts of Bosque, Comanche, and Lampasas counties, it was given the name of the South Carolinian.

Hamilton's first settler is said to have been Ezekiel Manning, who camped where St. Mary's Episcopal Church now stands.

Hico's first settler is said to have been Dr. J. R. Alford, out on Honey Creek, where Old Hico stood until the railroad came in the early 1880's.

Well, let's all get at least a bit of the Centennial Celebration, especially the dedication of the Ann Whitney monument. Then when it's all over and some of these disguised men and boys we have hiding behind a heavy growth of bushes on their faces get rid of that unnatural growth we can move down the street and call out, "Hi J. C. Where you been so long?" Or, "Hi Milton. Glad to see you back among us again." Or "Hi Killebrew. Good to know you've got back safely.

Sgt. Richard Garza of Hico, member of Company D, Stephenville National Guard, was awarded the coveted Expert Infantryman Badge during the two-week summer training camp at Fort Hood, which the company completed last Sunday. Five other members of the company also received the award after successfully completing required tests.

They are presently residing in Brownwood where they are attending summer school at Howard Payne.

ton through Carlton to Stephenville. Two rival companies were in competition by each trying to beat the other in building a roadbed for a railway track from Gatesville to Hamilton in 1911. The Cotton Belt beat the Temple Northwestern by about two miles.

Even though there are no Negro residents in the county at present, there were 26 slaves listed when Hamilton County was established. An ex-slave, Uncle Alex, will return from a 1500-mile cattle drive to California, and will be greeted by his sister, Aunt Mourn, a widow of Indian Bob, in one episode of the pageant.

The Roaring Twenties find Hamilton County enjoying prosperity. The Texas Rangers will raid a whiskey still but the gaiety of our forefathers will be reflected in the dance that has swept the country—the Charleston.

The Armed Service Veterans of all wars will be remembered in another episode with the actual Army Reserve staging a mock battle of Iwo Jima.

There will be about ten floats parading in the pageant showing the progress of industry.

All Hamilton County school children are invited to enter the Parade of Youth, showing school and community activities in the county. The pageant will be climaxed with the spotlight on the flag with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

The above is only the last half of the historical "Pageant of Progress," but the public can be assured of a full evening of entertainment.

The pageant information above was submitted by J. T. Butler, pageant director.

fields—accounting, law, farming, ranching and business—never caused him to forget his humble beginning or to lose his love for the saddle. The great out-of-doors still beckons him. During the spring and fall roundup at his "Rocker B" ranch west of San Angelo, he can nearly always be found putting in a full day's work with his cowhands.

Bill Blakley has never sought to attract public attention or acclaim. He has always worked quietly and unassumingly in behalf of worthwhile projects whose purpose is to improve the mental, spiritual and physical health of humanity. These have included organizations dedicated to medical, agricultural and educational research.

He is married to his high school sweetheart, whom he refers to as "My Bill."

Bill Blakley has been a Democrat all his life. Last year, when his vote spelled the difference between Democrat and Republican control of the U. S. Senate, he upheld the Democrat leadership and prevented a Republican majority from taking over.

The unanimous approval of his appointment by Democratic leaders in Texas and Washington and the widespread acclaim of his conduct in the Senate made him one of the most widely discussed personalities in Texas today.

In public speeches in various sections of Texas, Blakley has declared his belief in a strong constitutional government, founded upon state sovereignty and separation of powers in the national government.

He believes that a return to our traditional concepts of government is essenial if individual freedoms are to be maintained, preserved and passed on.

"I am more than willing to accept any arrangement which a majority of the people and the states of the United States may desire—if they understand the impact on their freedom and if it is adopted by a constitutional method," he said in a recent speech.
