July 6th last day to view Bombsight

Museum exhibit highlights Norden Bombsight

The 'Wings over Texas' exhibit at the Heart of West Texas Museum has as its emphasis the history of the World War II training bases that were located in this area and the AT-11 type aircraft that were used at the facilities.

One of the highlights of the exhibit is the Norden Bombsight and will be at the museum through Tuesday, July 6.

Preston Burchard was able to obtain one of the bombsights which were used by the bombardiers during World War II, to be used in the museum's exhibit.

The Norden Bombsights were used from 1941, up until and following the bombing of Hiroshima, Japan.

These bombsights were classified as top secret throughout virtually all of World War II, said museum consultant Don Neumann.

An edition of a San Angelo Standard-Times - dated August 1, 1945, tells of the Norden Bombsight information being revealed 14 days before the end of the war and is included in the museum's display.

Preston Burchard said that many of the West Texas training locations trained bombardiers - and that the schooling they received was primarily focused on teaching the cadets how to use the Norden Bombsight.

Local man injured during disturbance

A local man was hospitalized and another arrested for disorderly conduct as law enforcement officers responded to a call reporting a disturbance, received by the Colorado City Police Department at 12:43 a.m., Thursday morning. Officers arriving at the scene -- in the 500 block of Vine -- found a large group of people gathered in the street and Randy Campbell who was unconscious, in the back seat of his car.

Campbell, 32, of 1436 Elm, was admitted to the Mitchell County Hospital for treatment and released later on Thursday.

Jesus 'Chief' Molina, 31, of the 1900 block of Vine, was taken into custody at the scene and charged with disorderly conduct.

Officials said that no one was charged with an assault, but an investigation has begun into the incident.

Law enforcement officers responding to the disturbance included Lieutenant Pat Taylor and Sergeant Tim Atkins of the Police Department, Deputy Mike Redwine of the Sheriff's Office and Trooper Frank Costabile of the Department of Public Safety.

Core samples being taken at Jetstrip

Steps are being taken for the Colorado City Jetstrip to be used by C-130 Hercules aircraft that are based at Dyess Air Force Base.

The City of Colorado City was approached recently by Major Norman, project officer at the Air Force Base (AFB), concerning using the local airstrip for touch-and-go training flights.

According to information which city officials have received from the Air Force, approximately 20 flights a day would use the local facility.

There are twenty-five of the Hercules aircraft assigned to the 463rd Airlift Wing at Dyess AFB, which are the same type as the one which took part in the July 4th Colorado City Fly-In.

City Manager Buddy Foster said that the Air Force contacted the city and noted the steps towards the aircraft using the local facility including a study of the space at the airport and work to take samples at the local airstrip.

A team of engineers from Odessa were at the Jetstrip last Wednesday, to take core samples at the runway for further study.

Buddy Foster noted that the runway was originally built to be used as a multi-use facility.

Dyess AFB officials have indicated to city officials that they would resurface the runway to meet the standards, if the core sample tests show a need for resurfacing.

Colorado City officials have not been notified yet of when a contract between the two organizations might be signed, or when the flights from Dyess AFB might begin.

TAKING SAMPLES: A group of engineers from Odessa were recently at the Colorado City Jetstrip to take core samples to be used in testing of the local facility. Dyess Air Force Base is discussing with Colorado City officials about the possibility of using the local facility as a training site to be used by C-130 Hercules aircraft.

Mitchell County residents fill variety of roles

Cawthron, Bain work at Price-Daniel Unit

TRAVIS CAWTHRON

Mitchell County residents fill a variety of roles as employees of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice's Price Daniel Unit, located in Snyder.

Local interest has been peaked into the jobs performed at a TDCJ unit, with the anticipated construction to begin this fall for a 1000-bed unit in the county.

Ted Bain and Travis Cawthron are two of the local residents who work at the Price Daniel Unit.

Lieutenant Ted Bain has been with the TDCJ for 12-years and serves the unit as the law library supervisor.

Due to a court order, it is a requirement that each inmate be able to go to a law library for 10-hours a week if they request to do so, Bain said.

The law library at the facility is kept up-to-date with the latest legal reference books, from which inmates may be able to find information pertaining to their needs.

At the library, inmates may be able to find information pertaining to their legal activities.

Legal counsel is also available to the inmates of the unit, many of whom have been at the law library to find information about the case which was filed against them.

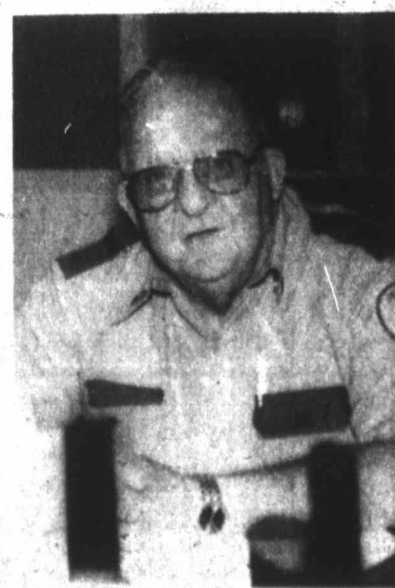

Travis Cawthron has served the Price Daniel Unit as a food service manager for the past 30-months.

In that capacity he oversees a group of 19 men including five cooks, four bakers and ten utility men who make, serve and clean-up for the second shift meal at the unit.

Almost 1000 meals are served supper at the unit including approximately 930 inmates and unit staffers.

Cawthron and his crew begin at 10:30 a.m. to prepare for the final meal of the day, which is served at 3 p.m. in the afternoon.

In next week's edition, information that was received from the TDCJ's director of personnel, James E. Bush, and the staffing plan for the Mitchell County facility will be studied.

Those attending the schools were required to take and learn the Bombardier's Oath, which is as follows:

In the presence of almighty God, I do solemnly swear and affirm that I will accept the precious trust placed in me by my Commander in Chief, the President of the United States of America, by whose direction I have been chosen for bombardier training.

I pledge myself to live and act according to the Code of Honor of the Bombardiers of the Army Air Forces.

I solemnly swear that I will keep inviolate, the secrecy of any, and all Confidential information revealed to me, and in the full knowledge that I am a guardian of one of my country's most priceless military assets, do further swear to protect the secrecy of the American Bombsight, if need be with my life itself.

The bombsight was used primarily by aircraft running bombing runs at over 2000 feet. They were used in all types of military bombers in all of the operating theaters of the war.

Also included in the exhibit is information about the AT-11 Beech aircraft which were used by the military extensively in the West Texas area to train bombardiers during World War II is included in the exhibit.

The vast majority of bombardiers who served in World War II were trained at schools which were located at Big Spring, Childress, Midland and at San Angelo -- and information about each of these training sights is included in the exhibit.

The museum's display centers around the story of the bombardier schools, information about the aviators who attended them and how the schools affected West Texas and the area.

Another part of the museum's July 4 presentation includes information about the Women's Army Service Pilots (WASP) and how their instrumental efforts and successes of World War II's air war.

The information about the WASP's is a part of a temporary exhibit from the Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce who are working to recognize the 50th anniversary of Avenger Field -- on May 22, 1993 -- with a dedication of a historic monument in Sweetwater.

From February 21, 1943 to December 7, 1944, WASPs were trained to fly United States Army Air Force planes.

The seven month course included 180 hours of ground school and 118 hours of flight training.

Those who graduated from the course advanced to fly every type of aircraft in use at that time.

The role of the WASPs included ferrying planes, towing targets, tracking missions, laying smoke, searchlight strafing and flying simulated bombing missions.

WASPs also performed missions including radio control, flight testing of aircraft and gave instrument instruction.

38 of the 1074 WASPs who won their wings sacrificed their lives for their country and in 1977 the women were officially recognized as veterans.

General Henry 'Hap' Arnold was originally against the formation of the WASP program, but later supported the organization and told a graduating class that, "Wing tip to wing tip, you fly with anyone in this man's Army."

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

DEAN WILLIAMSON

I think the heat index factor -- compiling the level of humidity and the high temperatures is bound to have something to do with everyone being mad!

But even before the summer heat hit, there were a lot of mad people running around.

People are demanding a change in our government. So many things have built up over time and people have formed so many factions -- that it sometimes gets hard to look through all the haze and see that we live in a country founded on the Declaration of Independence.

The people wonder about the equality is that is spoken of in the declaration.

It remains as elusive as the ideal of a 'popular' government which was sought by our founding fathers over 200-years ago, when this country was formed.

All is not well in our democracy! So why not call off the celebration?

This weekend when the traditional emphasis of events will be on barbecue and fireworks, we might pause for a moment and remember that a band of revolutionary colonists had enough of the British rule and the Continental Congress declared their independence.

All of us have heard the history that led to the colonist's decision. It began before the Boston Massacre of 1770.

And in 1774, the colonists held Boston Tea Party as a revolt of being told what to do -- in this case what brand of tea they must buy and the tax that was put on it.

In retaliation for the episode, the government of England decided that those living in the colonies, "Must submit or fight!" and issued what were labeled by the colonists as the 'Intolerable Acts.'

Several months later, British soldiers found out that the revolutionary colonists were gathering weapons and storing them at Lexington and in April 1775 they set out to seize the contraband.

The colonists found out about the raid and moved the weapons to another location before the troops arrived and as the troops headed back out from town and we know of Ralph Waldo Emerson's famous lines:

By the rude bridge that arched the flood, their flag to April's breeze unfurled, where once the embattled farmers stood, and fired the shot heard round the world.

That line of minute-men who stood waiting to fire those first shots at that spot in Lexington, Massachusetts, were untrained men -- who stood watching the Redcoats approach.

They chose not to submit -- but to fight for freedom, independence and liberty.

People died because of the decision that was made, and the course of history was changed!

And as we take time this weekend to try get a fire going in the barbecue pit, we'll take for granted the freedoms that we have as a birthright.

We'll sit down for the evening meal with our friends and families and laugh and talk -- and we probably won't spend much time thinking about the people around the world who feel that the freedoms we have are worth fighting for, to the point of sacrificing their own life.

When we stick a potato chip in the dip and try to get the ketchup out of the bottle, we won't be thinking about the over 7400 people who have died in fighting that has been going on since Bosnia-Herzegovina voted their independence from Yugoslavia.

It may be true that all is not well in our democracy, but as you slide into dessert at the end of your meal -- take a moment to realize that over 75-percent of the people in the world would love to be sitting at the table with you simply because you are an American and have freedoms that they can only dream of!

That spirit of the American Revolution and the sacrifices made by those revolutionary colonists -- who gave you the freedoms we take for granted each day -- is a spirit that we must cherish and keep alive!

PROPOSED LOCAL OPTION ELECTION FOR OFF PREMISES'S SALES OF BEER, WINE AND LIQUOR IN THE BOUNDARIES OF OUR ORIGINAL PRECINCT 2.

In 1985, the Commissioners Court requested to the State Department and received permission to combine precinct 2 and 3, and have one JP precinct. So for all purposes, the original 2 & 3 precincts are now one.

Exception: precinct 2 was dry and precinct 3 was wet when this action was taken. It remains that the portion of the new precinct that was old precinct 2 is dry and the portion that was precinct 3 is wet.

As residents of the old precinct 2, we feel our part of the new combined precinct should have the same laws and privileges as that of the old precinct 3 which is wet. We are now part of precinct 3.

In order to accomplish this, it will be up to the registered voters within the boundaries in the original precinct 2 before the combining of precinct 2 and 3. A petition must be presented containing 35% of the registered voters who voted in the last governors' election from the old precinct 2 and then an election called.

Please remember, this election, if called, will be for off premises sales only, no bars, no sales in our restaurants, etc.

The area involved in this proposed election consists of a portion on the east side of Colorado City lake and Westbrook. As we have many out-of-towners (Midland, Odessa, Lubbock, etc.) visiting our area, we feel this would be an additional boost to our economy plus possible future businesses in the area, should our original precinct 2 be wet as 3 is now.

If you are in agreement with the above, a registered voter in the original boundaries of the old precinct 2, we need your help on the petition and the election should it be called.

Petitions are available at the Sportsman Club and Smylers on I-20 or give us a call and we will bring one to your residence.

Thanks for your support,
Sincerely,
Olga and Dean Magee
