Teacher indicted for abuse

A Colorado City elementary school teacher has been indicted by a Mitchell County grand jury for injury to one of her students.

The indictment was returned Friday, June 24, but was sealed because Stewart was out of town and could not be formally arrested until this past Friday.

Stewart is a first grade teacher at Kelley Elementary School.

The indictment reads that "on or about the 12th day of May...did then and there recklessly engage in conduct that caused bodily injury" to a child "by puncturing the skin on his shoulder with her fingernails and throwing him onto a chair..."

Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant said the charge is a Class A misdemeanor which is punishable by up to a year's confinement in the county jail or up to a $2,000 fine or both.

Stewart turned herself into the sheriff Friday afternoon at which time she was arrested and booked. She was released on a $1,500 bond.

Asst. Supt. Don Nimmo said Friday that the administration and board is concerned about the situation and that they "will look at it accordingly with our guidelines".

Answer line...

Q. Why was baseball dropped from our high school athletic program? And what would it take to get it back into high school now that so many schools in our district have gotten it back?

A. Baseball was dropped in CHS in 1967 or 1968 when then coach Truman Nix felt that baseball interfered with track. Supt. Jim Ramsey said re-instatement would be up to the School Board with agreement by the coaching staff. Costs would have to be considered since baseball is the most expensive sport per student, number of students interested, etc. It would take about 18 months lead-time to enter district play.

Fourthfest scheduled Monday

26th Fly-in breakfast begins at 7 a.m.

The 26th annual Fly-In Breakfast will be held beginning at 7 a.m. Monday at Colorado City Northwest Jetstrip Municipal Airport.

The traditional July the Fourth event typically draws pilots and aircraft from a wide surrounding area, providing an interesting occasion for local citizens as well.

The Breakfast to be cooked and served on site at the Airport will be provided free of charge for all pilots and passengers flying in. The public can also eat breakfast for $3 per person. There is no admission charge and local residents are invited to go out to the airport, 5 miles northwest of town and watch the variety of aircraft come and go.

J. O. Dockrey, fly-in chairman said trophies will be presented to the pilot coming the longest distance, the oldest and youngest pilots, the most unusual airplane and the oldest airplane. Skydiver parachute jump demonstration is planned and airplane rides will be offered.

The fly-in will be a good way to start off the full day of activities being planned in observance of Independence Day in Colorado City and Mitchell County.

Two major mishaps, pair hit-and-runs

A couple of hit-and-run mishaps and two major accidents have been investigated by Colorado City Police Department.

Last Sunday, June 19, a 1972 Ford sedan owned by Barbara Monroe of Colorado City was parked in the 1700 block of College. About 1:30 to 2 p.m. her car was hit by another vehicle that left the scene. Later a 1978 Mercury sedan, believed involved in the accident was found in Loraine. The driver David Pades Garcia of Loraine was cited for failure to control speed, failure to stop and leave information and no liability insurance.

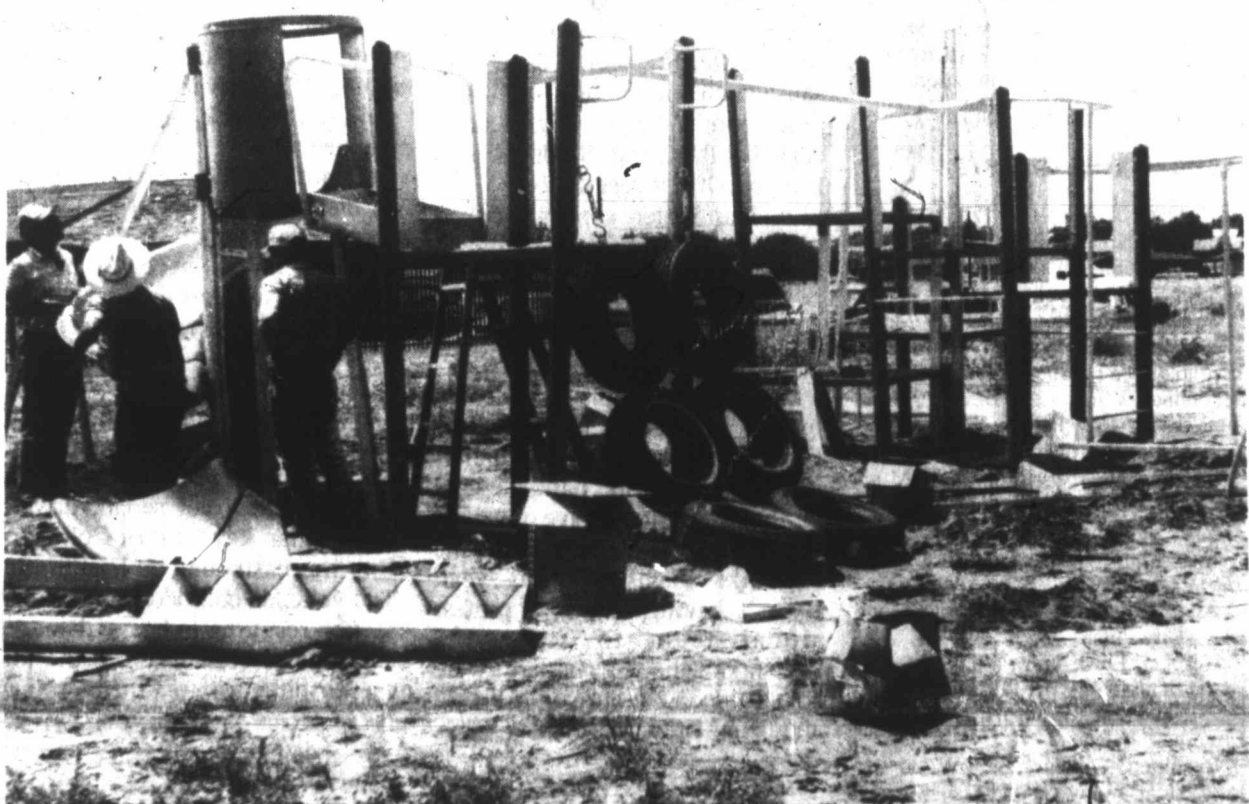

Wednesday, June 22 about 9:25 p.m. a car driven by Devon Lougee of Vista, Ca. was east bound on I20. The driver reported

Electricity out in Westbrook area

Electrical service was disrupted for about two hours, from 8 to 10 p.m. last Tuesday evening in the Westbrook area.

TU Electric manager Ben Lancaster said apparently lightning had struck a sub-station facility, during the electrical storm and rain.

NEW PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT - New playground equipment is currently being installed at Ruddick Park. The equipment is located in a central area adjacent to the swimming pool and is part of the overall park improvement program.

County buys new water tank

Mitchell County Commissioners Court accepted the lone bid submitted for a water tank transport at a special meeting Tuesday.

The only bid submitted was by Hash & Terry Welding Shop of Ballinger in the amount of $7,451.90. The 3200-gallon tank is for use in Precinct 3.

The Court also agreed to purchase 1,000 rounds of ammunition at a cost of $97.00, in order for the Sheriff's Deputies to be able to qualify to carry hand guns.

In other business, the Court:

- Accepted a settlement of claim in the amount of $4,956.15 from Liberty Mutual Insurance Group, in repayment of damages to water hoses, water use, etc. which occurred while fighting a large grass fire near Westbrook a few months ago.

- Approved a Right-of-Way easement to Grand Banks Energy Co. of Midland, allowing for boring under County Road 208, 3/10th of a mile north of FM 1808.

- Approved the current two-week payroll amounting to $39,264.53.

- Approved for payment current bills totaling $13,812.67.

- Accepted monthly reports from District Clerk Bill Erwin, showing income of $2,037 in April and $6,116.50 in May from fines, fees and services.

For the Commissioners' information, Judge Bill Carter reported that City Animal Control Officer Rick Caldwell cannot pickup suspected rabid animals outside the City Limits. He indicated that the County Trapper would pickup suspected animals, but did not want to interfere in the Sheriff's job in such matters.

Judge Carter also reported on the organizational meeting Monday night of the Emergency Planning for civil defense and hazardous materials that has been mandated by the Federal government. Don Webb has been named chairman and the local plan is to be completed by October.

All members of the Court were present including Judge Carter, Commissioners Ed Roach, Johnny Shackelford, Paul Hunter, Bill Preston, County Clerk Joan Beach; also Treasurer Ann Hallmark and Auditor Georgie Griffith.

Food, drink and fun booths will open at the park at 10:30 a.m. and musical entertainment will begin at noon.

Lemonade, cookies to be served

Fourth of July visitors to Colorado City and Mitchell County are invited to tour the historic Heritage House on Chestnut Street and enjoy lemonade and cookies.

The refurbished 19th century home, the first brick house to be built in Colorado City, will be open from 2-5 p.m. Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The house, a sesquicentennial gift to the city from Mrs. Marion Bassham has been furnished with turn-of-the-century items. Volunteers give tours of the house.

Visitors are also encouraged to view the memorial garden which was made possible through donations. Donations are still welcomed.

"Thanks to the people who have already donated and helped with our planting," said Mrs. Bassham, who also issued a special invitation to the Colorado High School graduates of 1968 who will be having a class reunion this weekend.

For The Record...

by M. Gene Dow, GM

FROM THE SCRIPTURES— "An army of men united under one banner, with ability to defend themselves and conquer their enemies; a banner being a sign of victory, as well as of battle and union." Cruden's Concordance.

With the celebration of our Independence Day tomorrow, July 4, there will be flags of the USA flying everywhere, on this the most patriotic of all holidays.

There is a code that contains many rules on when and how Old Glory is displayed. There are also rules to prevent any disrespect to the flag of the United States of America. Here are some of them:

- The flag should not be dipped to any person or thing.
- The flag should never be displayed with the union down, except as a signal of dire distress.
- The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water or merchandise.
- The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.

Gene Dow

- The flag should never be used as wearing apparel, bedding, or drapery and should never be festooned, drawn back, or up, in folds, but always allowed to fall free.

- The flag should never be used as a covering for a ceiling.

- The flag should never be used as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying or delivering anything.

- The flag should never be used for advertising purposes or attached to cushions, handkerchiefs or printed on paper napkins, boxes, etc.

- No part of the flag should ever be used as a costume or athletic uniform, except as a flag patch for certain organizations.

- The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.

THE LONE WOLF SAYS, "America is like a large, friendly dog in a very small room. Every time it wags its tail, it knocks over something."

DID YOU KNOW? Betsy Ross probably did not design or make the first U.S. Flag as our history books tell us. But if she didn't, she should have!

It's FIRST RATE. And for the first 90 days of your investment, you can earn up to a three percent bonus rate depending on which FIRST RATE plan you choose. It's simple. After that time, your earnings rate will revert to the current competitive rate established for one-year investments. With a two-year certificate, you earn two points more than the current competitive rate for the first 90 days. And a three-year certificate will bring back for the first 90 days the double-digit earnings rates you've missed so much.

Mrs. Pat Edgmon is transferred to Mitchell County FmHA office

Alton R. Pyburn, county supervisor for Mitchell County FmHA has announced that Mrs. Pat Edgmon has been promoted and transferred from Sweetwater FmHA to the Mitchell County FmHA office.

Mrs. Edgmon is a graduate of Breckenridge High School having moved to Snyder in 1955. She was employed by FmHA Aug. 13, 1973. Mrs. Edgmon transferred to the Sweetwater office in 1983.

Mrs. Edgmon has assisted Mae

Dunn, who has recently retired from federal service, in the Mitchell County office at various times over the past 10 years.

Pyburn said that the transition in the Mitchell County office should be easier with someone of Mrs. Edgmon's experience.

Pyburn also announced that Colorado High School senior Lisa Mendoza will be working on a full-time basis in the local office during the summer months. Mendoza recently represented Mitchell County at a Farm Bureau citizenship seminar.

Mitchell County is truly a great place to live year-round, but especially so in the summertime. Thank you to many Extension Homemakers who live at the lake who have been so gracious to invite me out for a swim or to sunbathe on the dock.

I was not fortunate to live near the water at anytime in my life. I am determined that for as long as I live in this country I should learn to like and be unafraid of the water.

Many people are now choosing to enroll their children in swimming lessons. Here are some ideas for helping your child so that they'll be more comfortable with water than I find myself to be.

WATER ADJUSTMENT IMPORTANT FOR TODDLERS

Swimming programs for toddlers and even infants have grown in popularity as parents want to "drownproof" their children. Not only is "drownproofing" a myth -- children still must always be supervised by adults when in or near water -- it has also led to some unfortunate excesses.

The American Academy of Pediatrics, the Red Cross and the YMCA all agree that forcing infants and toddlers under water for even a few seconds is extremely dangerous. The baby may swallow excessive amounts of water.

In its guidelines for infant swim programs, the YMCA states: "Forced submersion or dropping a child into the water from a height is strictly prohibited in this program." Their guidelines recommend that programs for very young children focus not on swimming, but on water adjustment.

Water adjustment and happy play are most important because that's how children of this age learn. Children must get used to how their bodies feel and work in water so they're comfortable.

Young children often believe their bodies disappear when they go under water. Some are afraid that if they go under they won't be able to come back.

It's most important for your child to feel safe and comfortable in the water. If your child looks forward to going, the program is probably accomplishing this goal.

CHILDREN AREN'T WATERPROOF

Most parents know to watch a baby in the bathtub. But as children grow, we tend to forget the ever-present hazards of water. And these hazards are even greater in the summer.

The National Safe Kids campaign warns that drowning is the second leading cause of accidental death of children. By all means, enroll your children in swimming lessons. But remember that lessons don't make your child "drown-proof."

Always watch your child by the pool, at the beach, by a lake. Beware of backyard pools and spas in the neighborhood. Your child could wander off and fall in.

Never let older children swim in unsupervised areas like quarries, canals or ponds. Older kids are at risk of drowning when they overestimate their ability or underestimate how deep the water is.

Teach your swimmers four key rules: 1) Swim with a buddy, never alone. 2) Don't dive into unknown bodies of water. Jump feet first to avoid hitting your head on a shallow bottom 3) Don't push or jump on others. 4) Be prepared for an emergency.

Should I or shouldn't I?
That's the thought that runs through my mind every time I start to gamble. Don't get me wrong, I don't gamble very often, maybe on the average of about once a month.
"After all, I don't have much to loose and just think of all the money I can win," I rationalize to myself.
Still, I do feel a little pang of guilt each time I try my luck at winning - it must be my Baptist upbringing.
But, 25 cents is 25 cents.
Twenty five cents?
Yep. I gamble a maximum of 25 cents every time I place a first class postage stamp on a subscription contest entry. I never order any of the magazines or books that the company is trying to entice me into ordering, but I hardly ever fail to send the contest entry back in, just in case.
So far, I figure I must have spent at least $20 on stamps during the years for the various contests. I haven't won a dime. Chances are I never will.
But the thought of winning big bucks is so tempting! And the companies try to entice you even more by sending fake checks with your name already printed on them. "Just think what your life will be like with $250,000 checks coming your way year after year," the brochure says, adding that "there's just a sampling of the 127 unbeatable deals on books, magazines, dust collectors, etc. you'll find"....
Gee, for only $10 a month, I can buy books that rate the movies, give me patterns for doll's clothes, tell me how to quilt and give me favorite brand name recipes.
Surely, they must be joking. They're not.
There are some contests that not only do I not order, I don't enter.
Those are the contests that tell me that I have definitely won a SUPER prize and that they'll send it to me as soon as I order something. They must think I just bounced off the back of a turnip truck or something.
The lure of big-time gambling did cost me some heavy bucks, once, on a family vacation to California that included a brief stop in Las Vegas, the neon light capital of the world and the gambling mecca of the United States.
I don't know if I should admit this or not, but my wife and I stayed up until the early morning hours playing the slot machines in the casino of the flashy hotel we were staying.
We had decided before we started that we would have a set limit and when we spent that limit, our gambling would be over.
Do you know how long it takes to lose $25 playing the nickel slot machines? It takes so long that by the time you lose that last nickel, even if you hit the jackpot, you'd be too tired to pick it up.
Still, we had fun and we got that gambling "fever" out of our system.
Now, if only I could only cut down on postage stamps.

Dad asked the man at the cashier's stand in Street's Grocery for a blank check. The cashier, in turn, reached into the bracket which held a different batch of checks for each bank, then tossed him the pad with the First National Bank logo.
Dad signed his name and waved goodbye as we made our way out the front door. The cashier waved back, then filled in the proper amount on the check.
We stopped off at Leslie's Sinclair on the way home to fill up our '41 Chevy. Leslie Russell was a grumpy sort, but his rotund wife, Ethyl, always made up for it by washing the windshield and filling us in on the latest gossip.
Her husband poured the gas, checked the oil, stuck the dipstick under dad's nose, put in a quart of 20-20, added water to the radiator and battery, and adjusted the air in our tires.
While we waited, Dad walked over to the pop box and dug two 12-ounce Pepsi's from the ice. He tossed Ethyl a dime to pay for each and promised to return the bottles in a day or two.
The gas bill was $3.04, and Ethyl could be seen writing it down on our account as we drove away.
Dad went to work and my mother took a nap. So Jimmy Morris and I decided to make a crank call to a guy named Donnie McQuarter. Only Beverly Crump, the operator down town, refused to put the call through. She also threatened to get in touch with my parents if we didn't put down the receiver right then and there.
Those were the dark ages of the early fifties - an era when the good life was still in its-embryo stage. Thank goodness, we have now advanced to a more sophisticated mode of living.
The last time my wife and I shopped at the 60,000 square-foot super market in the city, there were 37 people waiting in my line. Fourteen cash registers were sitting on counters waiting to be punched. With the high price of wages, though, and the home office's never-ending demand for increased profits, only three were in use.
Of the 37 people in front of me, 19 had coupons and 36 wrote checks. None came from a bracket sitting on the counter, either.
While standing in line for 45 minutes, I read the Inquirer, Globe, Sports Illustrated and Family Circle. Perhaps you read about doctors trying to keep a woman's severed head alive while standing in your own grocery line.
Of those writing checks, all were required to produce a valid driver's license with a valid snapshot for checkers to compare in case anyone was inclined to try something invalid. In addition, customers were expected to produce a credit card as a sort of credit reference - even though they weren't asking for credit.
A sign warned that returned checks would have to be paid, along with a $15 service charge. If need be, they were prepared to track you to the edges of hell to collect payments.
We'd been in the store so long we had forgotten where we left the Subaru. So a kid pushed our grocery cart up and down several rows of the parking lot in search of it.
We stopped off for some computerized gasoline on the way home, but a new corporation had bought out the old one and had installed new meters.
We didn't know how they worked, so we put the card into the slot with the magnetic strip on the wrong side. Once that was ejected, we were asked to punch in the mileage on the odometer of the Subaru, to tell the computer which tank number we hoped to be using, and to press the word enter. Twice.
Nobody washed the windshield and told us the latest gossip. We held the gas hose ourselves and hoped there was enough air in the tires and oil in the crank case to get us home. The price on the gas meter concluded its roll at $14.97 for our four-cylinders of transportation.
We stopped at a convenience store on the way home for two 10-ounce Diet Pepsi's. My wife tossed the clerk a dollar and sixty cents.
That evening I tried to make a telephone call but couldn't find the number. So I called an operator 140 miles away and asked her for assistance.
She charged 40 cents to my account and allowed a recording to do the assisting for her. Does a recording care whether you're a kid making crank calls or not?
I went to bed that night trying to remember if I had checked the oil in my car in the last five months.
They do still put the dip stick on the right side of the engine, don't they?

County Oil and Gas Report

Three new oilers with combined potential to yield 147 barrels of oil per day have been completed in the Mary Foster leases of Mitchell County's part of the East Howard-Jatan Field.

Mobil Producing of Midland is the operator.

All three wells are about nine miles southwest of Westbrook.

Designated as the Nos. 233, 234 and 235 Mary Foster, the wells pumped 58, 30 and 59 barrels of oil per day, respectively. Water production ranged from 40 to 170 barrels daily at the new producers. Oil tested at 29-gravity.

Production will be from San Angelo-Clear Fork perforations ranging from 2,442 to 3,335 feet into wellbore.

Drilling operations have been concluded at the No. 1 Kohler-Chaney, a Mitchell County wildcat located about three miles southwest of Westbrook. The well had been spudded on May 26 and probed to an undisclosed total depth. Kohler Energy, the operator, has disclosed no production prospects. Kohler is a Wichita Falls operator.

A completion rig has been called on station at the No. 1603 North Westbrook Unit in Mitchell County's Westbrook Field. With Chevron U.S.A. as the operator, the well was spudded on June 1 and probed to a 3,200-ft. bottom. Location is seven miles north of Westbrook.

Hrubetz Operating of Dallas is testing for potential at three developmental locations in the Turner-Gregory Field, Mitchell County. The wells in question include the No. 5 Powell "A," No. 3

Gospel Trumpet and No. 6 Gregory "A", all located about six miles northwest of Westbrook.

Spudded in February and March of this year, the wells are bottomed at 2,980, 2,945 and 3,240 feet, respectively.

Drilling operations have commenced at the No. 1 Brennan "C" in Mitchell County's Westbrook Field, about seven miles northwest of the Westbrook townsite. Total drilling depth is projected to 8,300 feet. Cass Oil of Midland is the operator.

Smith, Loving present program

Irene Ritchey hosted the Buford Extension Homemakers Club Monday, June 27, at 2 p.m. at the Wallace Center.

Club prayer was led by Geneva Killian. Following a short business meeting, two 4-H members who participated in the District 4-H Roundup presented the program.

Intermediate 4-Her Caasi Smith gave a presentation on "BYOB", bring your own bottle for doggie sheep. She said raising and caring for baby lambs is a first-hand experience as she helps with her family lamb operation. Many times, bottle feeding is the life saving method for very small lambs.

Senior 4-H member Tammy Loving presented "Children with AIDS", giving an overview of their risks and rights. She said that Americans must help children to maintain their rights - mentally, spiritually and physically - through education.

The hostess served refreshments of brownies, nuts and soft drink to seven members, Lucille Blassingame, Betty Boedeker, Bess Cooper, Geneva Killian, Teresa Loving, Nelma Ritchey and Fern Thompson and visitors Jan Blassingame, Cristi Ritchey, Coding Loving, Tammy Loving and Caasi Smith.

For the annual club picnic, the Buford Club will meet at "Our House" for the a noon meal on July 11.

Weddings

McAdams, Jones exchange vows June 25

Stephanie McAdams and Gregory Jones were united in marriage on June 25 at 6 p.m. in San Angelo at the Colorado and Jackson Streets Church of Christ.

Dr. Joe Marshall of Abilene Christian University, Abilene, officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Rick and Marsha Rickard and granddaughter of Mrs. H.H. Rowell of Lorraine. The groom is the son of Joan Jones of Austin.

Two gold candelabra tiered with 30 candles each and flanked with baskets filled with red roses and greenery decorated the altar area.

Given in marriage by her father, Rick Rickard, the bride carried a cascading bouquet of ivory roses accented with petite red roses, pearls and baby's breath. For her walk down the aisle, she wore a regal gown fashioned of palest ivory bridal satin, heavily adorned with hand clipped Venise lace motifs, Schiffli lace and hand sewn pearls. A Queen Elizabeth neckline featured a high portrait collar which framed the face and dipped to a deep decolletage. Leg-o-mutton sleeves poufed at the shoulder and tapered to a bridal point at the wrist. The fitted basque bodice was caught at the waist with a satin belt adorned with a lace motif and pearls. A full satin skirt and sweeping cathedral train were lavished with cut-out Schiffli lace.

Enhancing her gown as a floral bridal ring headpiece which boasted dainty silk flowers and satin rosettes wrapped in strands of pearls. A fingertip silk illusion veil was edged with a strand of pearls.

For something old she wore a gold and diamond nugget ring. Something new was her wedding dress; something borrowed was a set of pearl and diamond ear drops; and something blue was her gown. Wedding music was taped by the ACU Acappella

Chorus which included Sunrise Sunset, Speak Softly Love, More and Reveire by Debussy. The bride entered to The Wedding Song. The recessional was Mendelssohn Recession.

Maid of honor was her sister, Machele McAdams. Bridesmaids were Jana Britton and Julie Gilstrap, both of San Angelo, and Stacy Hamrick of Columbus, Ohio. Bridesmatrons were Debbie Line of Houston and Jeanie Parsley of Dallas. They wore tea length shimmery red, off the shoulder, dresses with black satin edged petticoats.

Flower girl was Rebecca Duran of Pacifica, Calif., cousin of the bride. Candlelighter was John McAdams of San Angelo, brother of the bride.

Best man was David Jones of Austin, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Scott Parsley, James Burk, Brad McIver and John McAdams, all of San Angelo, and Kelly Eaves of Germantown, Tenn. They wore black tuxedos with red cummerbunds, red bow ties and red rose boutonnières.

A reception followed by the church. The bride's table held a three-tier cake suspended over a flowing fountain and featured a centerpiece of black chocolate roses set in a grape vine swan basket.

The groom's table offered a silver service of coffee and featured a double layered German chocolate cake.

Members of the houseparty were Ricki Baker, Gini Harmon, Margie Alvarez and Pam Derby.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Lorraine High School and a 1987 graduate of Angelo State University. She is employed by Shannon Medical Center Emergency Room.

The groom is a 1982 graduate of Westwood High School, Austin, and attends Angelo State University. He is employed by Shannon Medical Center Emergency Room.

Mrs. Gregory Jones
...nee Stephanie McAdams

Mother of the groom hosted a rehearsal dinner at Zentner's Daughter in San Angelo.

Out-of-town guests registered from Amarillo, Wellington, Austin, Houston, Lorraine, Abilene, Miles, Rowena, Memphis, Tenn., Tallahassee, Fl., Pacifica and Union City, Calif., and Alabama.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

JULY 4th

Would our forefathers be proud if they could see what became of the nation they began? We think so. For the doctrines and ideals they set into motion 208 years ago have survived, and our cherished freedom still serves as our greatest strength. We believe that if they could see their handiwork, they would celebrate. And so, we celebrate, for their dream is our reality.

Dodgers lose to Yanks; beat Indians

The Freshman League Dodgers split a pair of games the past week to maintain a slim lead over the Astros.

The Dodgers, 11-2, lead the 8-3 Astros and 8-5 Yankees with one week remaining in the regular season.

The Dodgers entered last week's play at 10-1 and were on the verge of running away with the title until a setback against the third place Yankees Tuesday night.

Freshman League homerun leader Justin Zamarrappa provided the pitching and some of the hitting in a 9-1 upset of the Dodgers.

The Yankees scored one run in the top of the first inning Tuesday and never trailed in the contest. The Dodgers quickly tied the game at 1-1 but would not score again.

The Yankees loaded the bases in the third inning but Dodger right fielder Jarrod Epperson made a running catch to keep the game at 1-1.

Dodger infielders dropped a few throws the next time the Yankees came up to bat and the Yankees used the errors to score five runs for a 6-1 lead.

The Dodgers made it 9-1 during the bottom of the fifth. Zamarrappa, who pitched the entire contest for the Yankees, batted in two of the three fifth-inning runs with a homerun over the left field fence. The two run shot raised Zamarrappa's Freshman League leading homerun total to 11.

Losing pitcher for the Dodgers was Heath Mann.

Mann and the Dodgers bounced back Thursday with a 13-12 come from behind win over the upset minded Indians.

The Indians, 3-11, scored nine runs in the top of the third inning to take a 10-7 lead over the first place Dodgers.

The Dodgers tied the game at 10-10 in the bottom of the third inning. The Indians went back up 12-10 during the top of the fourth inning only to have the Dodgers score three in the bottom of the fifth for a 13-12 lead.

The Indians came up empty in their at-bats for the fifth and sixth innings.

Heath Mann came out of the bullpen to pick up the win for the Dodgers. Mann's win in relief raised his record to 9-1.

Mann has struck out 78 batters in 48 innings of pitching.

Mann hit a single, a double and a homerun Thursday night and scored four times. Mann has seven homeruns for the season.

The Dodgers got hitting from several players Thursday night. Scott Payne went 4 for 4 at the plate and scored two runs. Shane Jones went 3 for 4. Terry Simon went 2 for 4 with two runs scored and Jeremy Epperson hit two doubles and scored.

Simon and Jones pitched early in the contest for the Dodgers. Simon worked two and two-thirds innings and Jones pitched for a third. Greg Gaona took the loss for the Indians.

DATE: July 3, 1988

Dear Customer:

The City of Loraine has been notified by the Texas Department of Health that the water being supplied by our system exceeds the maximum constituent level for Fluoride established by the Department's "Drinking Water Standards" which were promulgated as required by the "Safe Drinking Water Act," Public Law 93-523 (U.S.).

The limit for this area has been set at 1.6 milligrams of Fluoride per liter of water. The samples of water from our system contained 1.9 milligrams of Fluoride per liter. There is no immediate health hazard for drinking water containing Fluoride at this level.

The excessive Fluoride content of the water may cause mottling of the teeth in children under 14 years of age. All dentists in this area are aware of the Fluoride level.

The City of Loraine has applied to the Texas Department of Health for either a variance or exemption from the Fluoride requirement while we search for alternate sources of supply and investigate available treatment techniques to lower the Fluoride to allowable levels.

Time to treat for cattle grubs

Cattle grubs are internal parasites and their damage is largely unseen, yet they cause greater economic losses to the U.S. beef cattle industry than any other insect pest.

While grubs are usually found on the backs of infested animals during the winter months, that's not the time for control measures since the pests have already done their damage. Feed efficiency and animal vigor are reduced in infested animals.

Grubs are the larvae or worm stage of heel flies and adult heel flies are active over most of the state from March through May, said Mike Mauldin, Mitchell County extension agent.

The time to control grubs is from now through August when grubs are small and before infested animals suffer stress, weight loss and decreased feed efficiency, Mauldin said. Considerable hide damage will occur if infested animals are slaughtered. Hide value has increased rapidly during the past year.

Heel flies cannot sting, have no functional mouth parts and cause no pain to cattle. Yet, they frighten animals, making them difficult to manage.

Heel flies lay their eggs on an animal's hairs in the lower leg region, glued in position. Tiny larvae hatch in a few days, crawl down to the base of the hair and burrow into the animal's skin, said Mauldin.

Then they begin a migratory course through the animal's body, congregating in the throat after a few months, and after eight to nine months, appear in the mature grub state on the animal's back.

If a producer has a history of grubs in his cattle herd, it's best to treat each animal over three months of age with one application of approved systemic insecticide or injectable treatment during the May through August period.

Systemic insecticides are absorbed directly through the animal's skin, circulate throughout the body and kill grubs while they are small, said Mauldin. Injectable treatments are circulated in the animal's body fluids to kill the invading pests.

These insecticides come in various forms - dips, sprays, pour-ons, injections and spot-on treatments. A listing of approved insecticides and methods for controlling cattle grubs is available at the county extension office. Ask for extension publication B-1306, which contains information on livestock pests.
