

Masked Youths Sought In Negro Attack

EXCAVATING FOR A LAKE — J. E. Derryberry, 2800 Forty-second Street, watches from his newly resodded back yard as bull-dozers and dirt movers scoop out the area around the Towle Park lake. Plans are to excavate 10 feet in the pond, raise the dam by five feet and raise the spillway level by three and one-half feet. The excess dirt is being used to raise the level of several areas in the park and to raise the backyard level of houses on the north side of the park. Derryberry said the county would level the dirt and put good topsoil on it even with the dam. He is pleased with the project, mentioning that about three years ago the entire row of houses was flooded and had yard dirt washed away.

Negroes Claim One Victory

By The Associated Press. Negro demonstrators claimed a victory in North Carolina today as the growing anti-segregation campaign entered its sixth week and spread into the eight Southern states.

Students seeking equal eating facilities at traditionally segregated lunch counters were served white seats in two North Carolina cities Monday. Apparently it was the first time that had happened in the state where the current wave of sit-downs started.

The first demonstration in West Virginia took a new form. Students paraded at a motion picture theater protesting segregated seating arrangements.

In Houston, Tex., the sit-downs spread from drug stores to a supermarket lunch counter. Service was refused and the counter area roped off. No trouble was reported.

Eleven Negroes were arrested for trespassing in Petersburg, Va., after they occupied a section reserved for white persons in the city library and refused to leave.

Some 750 students at Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala., planned a one-day boycott of classes today as an expression of sympathy for nine Negro students expelled from Alabama State College at Montgomery for taking part in demonstrations.

At Winston-Salem, N.C., 75 placard-carrying students staged a two-hour demonstration climaxed by signing and a brief prayer service in front of City Hall. Police warned a repetition would result in arrests on charges of staging a parade without a permit.

After the demonstration some of the participants were served hot dogs and soft drinks while sitting in a combination hardware and variety store.

Later however, a store spokesman said the demonstrators were not in the store.

Group Puts Ks On Chest

MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Four masked white youths hung a Negro man from a tree by his heels Monday night and scratched two series of KKKs into his chest and stomach after beating him with chains, the Negro told police.

Felton Turner, 27, said he freed himself when two ropes around his ankles and wrists staggered to a nightwatchman's shack and telephone pole.

A doctor at Jefferson Davis Hospital said Turner was treated and released this morning.

The six Ks ranged from 1 1/2 inches to 3 inches in length and went from Turner's chest to his stomach, the doctor said. Rope marks were on the Negro's wrists and ankles.

Police said Turner told them he was walking near his home in a Negro residential area at 10:15 p.m. when two masked white youths leaped from a car and grabbed him. They carried guns and forced him into the back seat of a sedan.

Two other masked white youths were in the front seat, Turner told officers.

Turner said he struggled to free himself but the youths gagged him and beat him to the floor with chains.

They took him to a wooded area where he was tied and hung from the tree by his heels, he said. There they beat him with chains and rope cut off his jacket and shirt and scratched the Ks on his stomach and chest with a knife.

As the white youths were leaving one of them told Turner that if he tried to escape one of them would kill him, the Negro said.

Turner worked the ropes off his feet and hands and made his way to a nearby nightwatchman's shack.

Police Lt. Breckenridge Porter said Turner's wounds could not have been self-inflicted.

Turner, who is unemployed, told police that a red-haired youth in the front of the car told him they were hired to do a job because of publicity Texas Southern University Negro students received over sit-ins at a lunch counter at Houston in the past few days.

Houston schools have 170,000 students. About 50,000 are Negroes.

An integration suit is pending before U.S. Dist. Judge Ben Conally but he has given no indication when he would hand down a decision.

The sit-ins were in stores near the university on the opposite side of town from where Turner was beaten.

Turner, who has a 3-month-old son, is not a student at the university.

A doctor at the hospital said Turner suffered one bad cut on his head, and bruises and minor cuts on the lips, right shoulder and across the chest. These were in addition to the Ks on his chest and stomach.

Turner told police he thought the youths were 18 or 19 years old. One of them told him, Turner said, that they would call the newspapers so pictures could be taken of him hanging from the tree. A check on local papers showed that no such calls were received.

Clarence Laws, field secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said in Dallas that "the president of the United States has been selling democracy, peace and brotherhood to South America, which is all well and good."

"However, I hope that he can find the time and the heart to bring some of this democracy, peace and brotherhood to South U.S.A. where these have been in critical supply for too long now."

In a statement to reporters after he left the hospital Turner said each of the men in the back of the car "had a gun at the side of my head."

"They told me they were going to take me out but not kill me unless I hollered or yelled," Turner said.

"They just said they were getting paid to do a job and they were doing it," he added.

Turner told newsmen he aged as if he had passed out after they scratched the Ks on his body.

New Hampshire Has Huge Vote Turnout

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — New Hampshire voters lined up in unexpectedly large numbers in several cities today as the nation's first presidential primary election of 1960 got under way.

A surprise snowfall that started shortly before dawn apparently was having no effect on the balloting.

Reports from the cities of Nashua, Claremont and Berlin all described heavier than usual voting. Cities and towns open the polls at different hours, ranging from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Two tiny communities—with a total of 10 votes—have already cast and counted their ballots.

In Millsfield, the four voters, all Republicans, gave their votes to Vice President Richard M. Nixon. They wrote in the name of New Hampshire Gov. Wesley Powell as their choice for vice president.

In Hart's Location, the electorate gave Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Democratic principal in the election, four votes. The other two went to Nixon. There were no writins.

Nashua, the state's second largest city, saw almost 1,000 voters cast in the first three hours after the polls opened at 7 a.m. In the 1956 primary, the city's total ballot was 2,518. Nashua usually votes Democratic and the heavy voting today appeared to be in the Democratic way.

In Claremont, however, the longest lines of voters were in two of the Republican wards.

Observers in Berlin said the vote there was heavy as the polls opened but there was no indication as to party preference. The snow storm dumped five inches in the area.

PRINCIPAL IN GUN COMPLAINT — Richard Juergens, 11-year-old son of Col. R. E. Juergens, wears a U. S. Army lieutenant's uniform, holds an army raincoat, swagger stick and nose pad used during a recent "inspection" in Munich, West Germany. The Army is investigating GI complaints that Juergens took his son on an official inspection tour and the boy hauled out a soldier about his uniform. since it involves improvements to a county road.

Five bids were received. They ranged from the low of $70,461.14 to $87,962.49.

Movers Supply Co. of Lubbock was awarded a contract to furnish the city 4,000 feet of 6-inch water pipe and 7,500 feet of 3-inch water pipe. The Lubbock firm's bid, which was the lowest of eight received, was $8,375 for the 3-inch pipe and $6,360 for the 6-inch pipe, less a discount of four per cent for payment within 10 days after delivery.

Irving Youngkin of El Paso, representative of a firm distributing an encyclopedia, appeared before the council to discuss the city's anti-peddler ordinance. Youngkin said his firm desired to assign a crew from Lubbock to make house-to-house sales here and that the company believed the ordinance here is unconstitutional.

Mayor Harold Bennett told Youngkin that the council had been advised that constitutionality of the ordinance is questionable, and that the city plans to revise the ordinance with hopes of "coming up with something as tough as possible, but legal."

In the meantime, the council indicated that it planned to leave the present ordinance on the books. Bennett estimated that it would require from 60 to 90 days to revise the ordinance.

At the request of the West Texas State Bank, the council voted to call for bids for a city depository. Bids will be asked for a period to run until Sept. 30, 1961, which will end a city fiscal year.

Johnson Makes Proposal To Break Off Marathon Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas offered today to cease round-the-clock sessions of the Senate if Southerners would agree to a series of votes on civil rights legislation.

Johnson, in a bristling exchange with Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla.), denied he was trying to wear down Dixie senators or was risking their health and lives by the continuous sessions.

He predicted that eventually he would not guess when a majority of the Senate will force a vote on the controversial issues.

At 4 o'clock this morning Johnson had put over on a 53-47 roll call a seven-minute adjournment of the Senate which had been in practically continuous session, except for Sunday, since the previous Monday.

Johnson said at the time he was serving notice on absentee senators that business issues might come up at any time.

But Holland interpreted the action as amounting "to throwing in the sponge" by Johnson and Dirksen leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

"We are getting nowhere," Holland taunted Johnson, adding that supporters of civil rights legislation could not even agree upon what bill they wanted.

If they could, they would vote to limit debate by cloture, a move requiring 67 senators' approval if all 100 voted.

"The senator from Texas (Johnson) does not throw in the sponge," Johnson said grimly to Holland, adding that eventually the Florida judge had begun a speech at 9:46 a. m. with a reminder that he had warned leaders that round-the-clock sessions were dangerous to the health and lives of senators, many of them past 60.

Holland, white-haired former Florida judge, had begun a speech at 9:46 a. m. with a reminder that he had warned leaders that round-the-clock sessions were dangerous to the health and lives of senators, many of them past 60.

Johnson said supporters of the civil rights bill are not responsible for the quorum calls at odd times during the night and early morning.

He said he was ready for a vote on the pending amendment and would ask one if Holland would quit talking.

Holland rejected Johnson's invitation, saying he planned to speak several hours.

The parliamentary situation would make the amendment official under consideration the easiest issue to bring to a quick trial.

That proposal, offered by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-NC) would cut down the penalties in the first section of the administration civil rights package sponsored by Dirksen.

During the early morning hours the filibusters had stepped up their attack on the sleep of civil rights advocates by demanding quorum calls every hour.

Earlier, Johnson said he was appraising the controversy hour by hour and expressed hope for some vote to clear the air.

Hertel Issues Tart Protest To Accusations Of Castro

By GEOFFREY GOULD WASHINGTON (AP) — In blunt language rarely heard in the polite world of diplomacy, the United States has accused Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro of "extreme provocation" and "irresponsible" charges against this country.

The angry protest was in answer to Castro's accusation Saturday that U.S. officials may have been responsible for a European munitions shipment March 4 in Havana harbor.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter called this "baseless, erroneous and misleading."

Hertel delivered the dressing down personally to the Cuban Charge d'Affaires, Enrique Patterson, and immediately made the text of his remarks available to newsmen.

The Cuban, clearly upset by the 20-minute session in Herter's office, left the State Department hurriedly. He said he would report Herter's statement to Castro without comment.

Hertel wound up his statement by saying "This government finds itself increasingly obliged to question the good faith of your excellency's government with respect to a desire for improved relations between our governments."

In Havana, Cuban TV commentators read Herter's remarks on the air in mocking tones, smiling at certain passages and then adding the editorial comment that the United States is an aggressor.

One source of friction was removed when Cuban police released Donald Chapman, 26, an American photographer who had taken passage on the French freighter that blew up, Chapman had been questioned for days, but was released Monday.

Exhausted Ike Is Preparing Report

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON, AP—Back at the White House from an exhausting tour of South America, President Eisenhower today appeared to be preparing to report to the people what he saw and learned.

All major radio and television newscasters arranged to broadcast the 15-minute report tonight at 7 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Eisenhower gave quick attention to a prime problem here—how to get an informal receipt from the people on what he saw and learned.

Because of his speech tonight and other matters, Eisenhower is not planning to hold a news conference this week.

Eisenhower's 15,000-mile swing around Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay ended Monday with his mid-afternoon arrival at Andrews Air Force Base.

There were stops going and coming in Puerto Rico.

By all odds, it was the most arduous, punishing trip taken by Eisenhower in his seven years in the presidency.

But for a man of 68, Eisenhower has amazing resilience. He soon bounced back after arriving exhausted in Puerto Rico last Friday.

Burnished by three days of sun and ocean breeze, the chief executive looked fit and full when he stepped from his jet airplane.

The temperature was a frosty 27 degrees and an icy wind swept across huge patches of snow on the airfield.

But Eisenhower pulled off his hat and went grinning and hunched down an informal receipt from the people on what he saw and learned.

That included Vice President Richard M. Nixon, members of the Cabinet, the diplomatic corps and Congress.

Completing the lengthy series of greetings, Eisenhower mentioned Nixon into a White House limousine and the two drove together to the White House where they continued their conference in Eisenhower's office.

Officials At Angelo Meet

Scurry County's four commissioners are attending the West Texas County Judges' and Commissioners' Association meeting in San Angelo today.

T. B. Knight (Precinct 1), Bill Herring (Precinct 2), Pat Moore (Precinct 3), and J. C. Massingill (Precinct 4) had discussed attending the convention at a meeting recently and decided that the trip would be most beneficial in helping them understand county laws and the best method of putting them into common practice.

The Association's resolution committee Monday announced several subjects to be put before the general membership today. Among them are: 1) opposition to re-districting of counties by state legislation; 2) favoring renewal of the state farm-to-market road program which will expire in 1966; 3) asking that present requirements, providing that any trailer weighing less than 4,000 pounds for farm use only does not need to be registered or tagged, be repealed; and 4) favoring legislation permitting the county judge to give opinions directly from the state attorney general rather than through the county or district attorney.

The meeting will continue through Wednesday.

County Buys Two Trucks

In regular meeting Monday morning the Scurry County Commissioners Court voted to accept a bid by Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. for two two-ton trucks to be bought for Precinct 1. The bid was $7,038.80 with $1,300 allowed for trade-in.

Other business conducted by the court included allowing Sundry Mid-Continent Oil Co. to have pipe line crossings at designated points across Emory Creek and Lloyd mountain roads. They also voted to enter into a letter agreement with the Texas Pipe Line Co. to make utility adjustment at crossroads on U.S. Highway 44 between the Mitchell County line and Hermaligh.

MRS. HORTON W. SMITH State Chief Of LWV Is Due Here

Mrs. Horton W. Smith, State President of the League of Women Voters of Texas, will be here today for a coffee Wednesday morning at the Martha Ann Wynn's Club.

Mrs. Jack Bowden will host the coffee starting at 10 a.m. for the purpose of making plans for reorganizing the League of Women Voters in Snyder. All persons interested in voters education are invited to attend.

Mrs. Smith, known to her friends as Cookie, has been president of the League of Women Voters of Texas since March 1956. She has served on the state board since 1951—as state public relations chairman, Family Courts chairman, Jury Service for Women chairman and editor of the Texas VOTER.

Before being elected president she was serving as chairman for Texas Constitutional Revision.

Mrs. Smith currently is serving as Second Vice Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee on constitutional research, a project of the Texas Legislative Council authorized by the Legislature in 1957.

In January of this year the Governor commissioned Mrs. Smith as a member of the Texas Committee for 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth, on which she is serving as a member of the Standing Committee on Welfare.

In April she received a commission as Admiral in the Texas Navy—First Auxiliary.

During her 8 years on the state board of the League of Women Voters of Texas she has written many League publications, including "A Better Court for Children," a jury service pamphlet titled "Well Honestly" and "Texas Constitutional Review," which has gone into its second printing and is being widely used in schools and colleges as a textbook on the Tex-

PUBLIC RECORDS Candidates In School Busy

Political campaigns are getting hotter as candidates for precinct constables to be president of the United States vie for the election.

With democratic primaries getting under way, political machines get in high gear for the push to the top.

However, about the hottest campaign going now is the one for officers of the Snyder High School Student Council.

There is not a space to rest your eyes in the halls of old SIS with its banner, bold and flagrantly announcing that someone is running for office.

You have to, one candidate when you get a drink, you look at the weather outside though another candidate's bid for a vote personally I doubt if the weather can be determined solely from the fly spaces left for peepholes to the world outside and you cannot even gaze peacefully at the ceiling without encountering some engineer's effort.

On Tuesday, the voting boxes will open and victors be proclaimed one hundred per cent voting as expected, and win or lose, they have put in their all to play the game.

Paar Returns, Censored Again

By SYLVIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar, main attraction in his NBC television show Monday night, returned to the air after a two-week absence. Paar, who had walked out of the show after the network had cut off a taped broadcast, returned Monday night.

Paar, who returned last week from a trip to the Orient, said as he walked up: "Walter Winchell, this silly old man—who under oath could not admit under oath that he writes his own columns completely sometimes days go by and he doesn't write them—has never said a word about me in a year and a half when I was here to defend myself."

As soon as I left and he thought I was not returning, he started all kinds of vicious innuendos about the show, about morals, about my virility. As a moral man, Mr. Winchell, my virility is only known by my wife."

At this point, the screen and sound flickered past the censored part and picked up again as Paar continued: "I have found that behind every commercial censor, every commercial moralist, there is a lecherous mind."

Paar went on with attacks on his press critics and the Hearst press. In Hollywood, Winchell said in reply: "The other day Paar told the New York press that I'm a single old man. Now he says I'm a bachelor. How could he both?"

Winchell said that soon after Paar began his TV show, he wrote of the show: "Jack Paar's delightful nonsense is always welcome over at this typewriter."

Winchell added: "I have a feeling a lot of people are going to think this in the nature of the old clown feud between Max Baer and Walter Winchell. But I've never met Paar. I don't know him."

Asked about Paar's comment concerning the writing of his columns, Winchell said: "We all get a lot of contributions. A lot of help from press agents and what have you."

Hundreds of Paar fans turned up at NBC to welcome back their

Some were "Welcome Back Jack" buttons and carried placards. Paar himself seemed pleased and pleased, and he finished his walkout as a "tantrum" and "childish."

"I will still raise more hell. I'll raise more hell than anybody else in a TV show," he promised—and he soon was doing exactly that.

Later in the show he denied again ever being involved in payola or any deals, and offered to testify before a congressional subcommittee interested in his recent purchase of some Florida real estate. "The property I bought I bought when I have no money," Paar later commented.

Paar closed the discussion after an hour by stating: "It was not freedom of speech I was fighting the network about. I wish they had informed me. But I do not wish to go down in history as the defender of a water closet."

"I don't really need enemies when I have no money," Paar later commented.

Man Accepts Big Sentence

By SYLVIA LOWRY

PHENACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Ervin Wimp Joseph, 42, with a 20-year police record, was sentenced at city jail to life-in-matrimonial-homes.

Wimp has a police file more than two inches thick. It contains a record of arrests, primarily for drunkenness, dating back to 1932.

"This is the best sentence I'll ever get," Wimp said.

Wimp got out of jail and got a job with a plumbing contractor. "I haven't touched a drop in six months," he said.

Monday he and a long-time friend, Mildred O'Neill, were married in the city jail. A number of police officers attended the ceremony.

Grateful Graduate

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—A West Virginian who attended Harvard with scholarship aid is reciprocating with a pledge of ten million dollars to the university's scholarship program.

William J. Maier Jr., Charleston lawyer and businessman, class of '23, was disclosed Monday as the benefactor who made the pledge anonymously a year ago.

Maier said he would have preferred to remain anonymous but President Nathan Pusey thought publicity would attract more applicants for scholarships. The fund now stands at $322,000. It will be increased annually through a foundation set up by Maier.

Maier said he established the fund only in partial payment for the value of those "college" years.

Law Of 1766 Is Invoked By Judge

BOSTON (AP)—A colonial law of 1766, still on the books in Massachusetts, empowers a court to send back to a former residence anyone on public welfare who is not a citizen of Massachusetts. Municipal Court Judge Jacob Lewiston invoked the law Monday and ordered Sonya Lightfoot, 19, to return to Georgia. An attorney for the City Welfare Department told the court the girl came here in December from Milan, Ga. She has been living in a city home.

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

A side-wise scrutiny of the old desk calendar reveals that Spring is well nigh upon us. Old Man Winter has been putting up a valiant last stand, do-or-die effort, granted, but well-founded rumors would have it that he has just about run the gamut and should die an ignominious death soon, soon, soon.

Which is beginning to take its annual effect on the sports scene. For the wacky, carry-over season has arrived. Basketball breathed its final dying gasp this past week down in Austin, as a surprising band

Okay, Boids, Where Is You??

BUT, AS MENTIONED, the pendulum has swung to spring sports, now, with track and baseball beginning to hog the spotlight. First of all, an early-season track and field spectacle will be unveiled here Saturday with the running of the eighth annual Canyon Reef Relays. This meet represents the high point of the local season in that particular sport, and a fine array of teams will be on hand to shoot for the laurels.

Tigers Could Roar

COACH JIM STEHLEY'S host Tiger team cannot be counted out, as they have showed up well thus far in the aforementioned meets and should be double tough on their own stomping grounds. Then outside of Snyder and Midland there are no less than 20 entries which will swell the list. Making up that entry list are San Angelo Lake View and Central, Sweetwater, Lamesa, Colorado City, Big Spring, Odessa High and Permian, Lubbock Monterey and Tom S., Levelland, Plainview, Pampa, Borger, Amarillo H. H. S., Palo Duro, and Taseosa, Littlefield, and Artesia (New Mexico). There will no doubt be a wealth of talent wrapped up within the above teams, and with cooperation

Big Daddy Making Wrestling Splash

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN Associated Press Sports Writer CHICAGO (AP)—"I'm a good-natured, peace-loving guy and if they ever try to make a villain out of me, I'll quit 'em." It was mustached Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb speaking. The 275-pound tackle of the Baltimore Colts is up-staten in 37 matches in his net off-season occupation as a mat monster. His manager, John Swenski, says Big Daddy is wrestling about five times a week, receives 8 per cent of the net gate and could make more than $60,000 this year.

ACC Distance Man Follows Elliott Diet

PORT WORTH, AP—An Angelo Christian College half-miler who has been emulating Herb Elliott's diet, may be the stellar attraction at the Southwestern Recreation Track & Field Meet here Saturday.

Edwards is the Australian runner who call the "egg's greatest mile" runner.

The ACC half-miler is Jarrell Edwards, who emulated Elliott's training habits last summer while working on Padre Island, off the coast of Texas.

He did his road work plodding over sandy beaches and up and down ankle-deep dunes. He ate fruits, fish, nuts and vegetables, all raw except the fish which he cooked himself.

Coach Oliver Jackson of ACC said Edwards improved himself. He predicts the lanky runner, 6-5 without his track shoes, may hit 1:50 in the Southwestern's 800-yard run.

"Jarrell looks much better," Jackson said. "He fought off Drew Dunlan of Texas and Richard Menchaca of North Texas State for 220 yards to win at the Border Olympics in Laredo Saturday night."

Edwards and Menchaca meet here again Saturday night and Jackson is diplomatically saying "Jarrell may have to run around 1:50 to beat Menchaca." The ACC star holds the Recreation record at 1:51.7.

If Edwards can pull it off, Abilene Christian will be favored to take the university title here. Texas is not defending this year. Baylor, North Texas State, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian, Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons complete the university field.

Northeast Louisiana State, led by its great Strong twins, Don and Dave, are strong favorites in the college division. But East Texas State, dethroned at Laredo's Border Olympics by Texas Southern, the Negro college at Houston, may be a strong contender.

Tiger Thinclads Look To Canyon Reef Meet

By JERRY JACKSON Daily News Sports Editor

Fervish preparation is the order of the day for Snyder's Black and Gold tracksters, who will be the host team in Saturday's 8th annual Canyon Reef Relays to be held here.

Coach Jim Stehley's charges number 29 as of a recent inventory, and several top prospects have been making their presence felt in two meets entered thus far.

Their initial competitive binge found them nailing down third place laurels in Fort Stockton's Comanche Relays, with speedsters Jimmy Maroney and Stanley Woolver playing the biggest hands in their success there. Woolver, veteran hurdles and dash performer, capped the only Tiger first place for the day, as he stepped to a 14.6 second finish in the 120-yard high hurdles event, a mark which equaled the meet and division record which he had established the year prior.

He also skipped to a second place finish in the 100-yard dash.

Maroney put on an awesome one-man show in plugging up the highest point total of any participant, as he personally accounted for 23 points in placing second in the broad jump, third in the 100-yard dash, second in the 220-yard dash, and was also on the fifth place 440-yard relay team composed of the Jesse Crawford, John Weaver and Perry Culwell.

Once again, Woolver was the sole first-place finisher for the Bengal boys, as he whisked to a 20.5 second finish in the 180-yard dash. He also grabbed off the third place spot in the 120-yard high hurdles to cap off his day's work.

Maroney ran fifth in the 100-yard dash in that meet, while Snyder's 440-yard relay team breezed to a fourth place finish in that event.

In the upcoming Canyon Reef dash and through the remainder of the season, Woolver looks like the best bet to bring the Tigers their share of points, as he represents a menace to the opposition in both the low and high hurdle events, while in addition being the team's most promising high jumper and one of the mile relay stalwarts.

Maroney should be pressing him for honors, however, by being a top competitor in the 100-yard dash, also, with Berry expected to make a lot of static in both the high and low sprints along with Woolver. In addition, Berry is also a mile relay man and high jumper.

Crawford is another veteran stepper who should pick up points in a variety of events including the 100-yard dash, the low hurdles, and the 440-yard relay.

Mintie Top Shot Putter

Chief weight man for the Tigers looks to be Tommy Mintie, a shot put performer. Reg. Carstensen is slated to get the most points in the discus heavy, backed up by a number of other likely prospects in that area of activity.

Other performers, along with their specialties, are listed below: Weaver—100-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 400-yard relay, 220-yard dash.

Mantle Waits For Yankees To Call

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

You'd think between them the wealthy New York Yankees and howling impresario Mickey Mantle could spare $1.71 for a phone call that might lead to strike a compromise over the slugging outfielder's salary demands.

The breach between the two parties, however, seems to be getting progressively wider with no immediate hope of either putting through the call between Mantle's Joplin, Mo. home and the Yankees' St. Petersburg, Fla., spring training camp.

Mantle, continuing firm in his high wage, threw the meet over and a pitcher, probably Paul Foytack, to New York for infielder Gil McDougald and a first baseman, either Kent Hadley or Frank Leja.

Right-handed relief specialist George Zaverick, who has kicked around the majors for a number of years, is getting a trial with the Yankees last week. Mantle has said he would not call them or go down there to talk, I meant it," he said.

Mantle's meaning was clear. He said he wasn't "fooling" or trying to "bulldoze" the Yankees but "when I said I wouldn't call them or go down there to talk, I meant it," he said.

If you're going to buy a low price car...be sure you get the better one!

Many people figure that since the car they are considering has historically had a "low-price" name it must be, in fact, a low-price car.

This, at one time, was true. But today the names of cars, as you may know, have very little to do with their prices. Many cars with traditional low-price names cost more than Mercury—a name you have always associated with higher price cars. Our point is this:

A Mercury Monterey, with deluxe appointments, is now priced $31 to $66 less than any of the best selling Fords, Chevrolets, and Plymouths (the V-8 powered Galaxies, Impalas, and Furies). Yet Mercury offers you far more of everything you want in a car.

Moffettmen Meet Abilene There Today

Coach Speedy Moffett and his 1960 edition of Tiger baseball players were to have left at noon today for Abilene, where they will engage that nine in their initial diamond outing of the year. The game will be played in Abilene's Teenage Park and will begin at 3:45 this afternoon.

The Tiger nine is the defending champion of District 3-AAA; as it fended off Lamesa to take the district crown, then dropped a best 2 out of 3 series to Mineral Wells in the initial playoff round.

Norman Gladson, veteran three-letter chunker, will be on the mound in the non-conference curtain-raiser, while another tried performer—Ronnie Wylie—will complete the battery.

Holding down the initial sack will be either Barry Walker or Bennie Greenfield, both of whom are lettermen at that position.

Second sack duties will be handled by soph letterman Steve Free, while Bubba Fleming will be at third and Spencer Dyer at short. Both of the latter are one-time mound winners, also.

An all-lettermen outfield will also be in evidence, as Roger McKennomy is also a letterman. (AP Wirephoto)

Scott, Lenox Prime Choices For All-State

AUSTIN (AP)—George Scott, who dumped in 43 points in one game for McAdoo, and Bennie Lenox, who set a Conference AA free throw record, headed the Conference AA. A and B all-tournament teams announced today.

The Texas Sports Writers Assn., in announcing the 13-man squad, reported that Lenox of Clear Creek and Scott, of the Conference B champions, were the only unanimous selections.

Class AA champion Linden-Kildare landed two men on the team, George Hargett and sophomore John Beasley, a 6-foot-6 star.

Huntington, repeating in Conference A, placed three men, Jerry Treadway, Byron Smith and Frank Williams, all seniors.

Conference AA all-tournament selections include Richard Inman of Belton, Hal Ratcliff of Dimmitt, Lenox, Hargett and Beasley. Lenox hit 16 of 17 free throws to break the old division record of 14.

Conference A all-tournament choices are Jesse Slaughter of Llano, Ray DeJard of Sunray, Treadway, Smith and Williams. Slaughter missed being a unanimous choice by one vote. Williams also was an all-tourney selection last year.

MERCURY—the better low price car

Q. "Do you mean Mercury is now a low-price car? Did you reduce prices?"

A. "Yes. Monterey prices are now $174 lower, and include many extras that are now standard equipment."

Q. "But in your price comparison, aren't you talking about a 'striped' Mercury—with rubber mats, plain interiors, no equipment, no glamour?"

A. "No, we're talking about a deluxe-appointed Monterey with beautiful nylon interior and deep, thick carpeting. The comparison is fair."

A. "Yes, within a few dollars. It's the most amazing value story ever offered. Just read below."

Daily Crude Flow Drops

TULSA (AP) — Declines in Texas and Oklahoma were largely responsible for a drop of 122,900 barrels to 7,209,640 barrels in daily average domestic oil production during the week ended March 8, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Texas fell 68,875 to 2,727,350 barrels and Oklahoma was down 15,800 to 551,900.

The best gains were in New Mexico, up 6,775 to 311,373 barrels, and Louisiana, up 5,050 to 1,094,800.

The Journal estimated 1960 production at 470,263,700 barrels compared to 461,386,000 a year ago. Arkansas was down 75 to 84,475. Colorado was up 700 to 130,700.

Rep. Powell Goes On Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-N.Y.), controversial Negro congressman from Harlem, went on trial today on an income tax evasion charge.

Powell is charged with preparing a false 1951 tax return for his wife, pianist Hazel Scott, also a Negro, and of evading $3,000 in a joint return in 1952.

The Scott woman, who has been living in Paris during recent years, is not a defendant.

If convicted, Powell could get up to 15 years in prison.

The trial has been postponed on numerous occasions because of Powell's health.

The indictment was returned May 8, 1958. A few months later Powell easily won re-election to his congressional post, which he has held since 1945.

Pre-Summit Session Set

LONDON (AP) — Foreign ministers of the Western Big Three and West Germany are reported planning a mid-April meeting in Washington to prepare for the summit talks with the Soviet Union.

Informants Monday night said the American, British, French and West German ministers will meet in an effort to unify their policies on the main topics to be discussed at the parley with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev opening in Paris May 16.

The topics, now being discussed in Washington by working parties from the four Western governments, include:

1. German reunification and the future of West Berlin.
2. East-West relations in general.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brandtano will not attend the summit sessions, but their government is an equal partner in the formulation of Western policy.

The Western foreign ministers also will review Western ideas on disarmament, expected to be a major topic of discussion at the summit conference.

We Have A Budget Plan To Suit Your Needs!

Publications Head Picked By USCC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Election of Arthur H. Motley, president of Parade Publications, Inc., New York, as the next president of United States Chamber of Commerce, was announced today by the chamber's board of directors.

Motley will take office May 1 at the chamber's annual meeting here, succeeding Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor. Canham will become chairman of the board.

A vigorous advocate of businessmen's participation in public affairs, Motley, chairman of the chamber's political participation committee.

Favorable business trends "despite the political uncertainties of an election year" were forecast by Motley.

He predicted national output would approach the rate of 525 billion dollars annually by the end of this year, about 40 billion higher than in the last quarter of 1959.

The 39-year-old president-elect declared his support for President Eisenhower's balanced budget and for removal of the interest ceiling on federal bonds. Motley is a native of Minneapolis and a graduate of the University of Minnesota. He and his wife, the former Helen Bishop of New York City, live in Larchmont, N.Y.

Phoenix police said the victim was Ira Lee Hardison, 55, a skid row character.

Apparently he was killed Feb. 21, the same day Whitney killed another Phoenix man, Spencer Frazier, 40, Negro, and stole his car.

Whitney, who shot a Hialeah housewife to death last Friday, earlier had killed two Dade (Miami) County gas station attendants and wounded a third in holdups, police said.

The day after his capture he admitted a slaying in Victorville, Calif., the killing of Frazier, and a slaying in Tucson, Ariz. The string of murders started Feb. 12.

In Los Angeles, the boy's father, Ralph Whitney, described Dennis as a quiet boy whose main interest was art.

"I don't know what to think. I have no idea why he would do it," said Whitney, an inspector in the Curtis-Wright engine overhaul plant at North Hollywood.

"I don't know what to think. I have no idea why he would do it," said Whitney, an inspector in the Curtis-Wright engine overhaul plant at North Hollywood.

Phoenix police said the victim was Ira Lee Hardison, 55, a skid row character.

Apparently he was killed Feb. 21, the same day Whitney killed another Phoenix man, Spencer Frazier, 40, Negro, and stole his car.

Whitney, who shot a Hialeah housewife to death last Friday, earlier had killed two Dade (Miami) County gas station attendants and wounded a third in holdups, police said.

The day after his capture he admitted a slaying in Victorville, Calif., the killing of Frazier, and a slaying in Tucson, Ariz. The string of murders started Feb. 12.

It's Anybody's Guess When Senate Filibuster Will End

BY INEZ ROBB
WASHINGTON — Even a grunted taxpayer, viewing a Senate filibuster, must surely feel that there are better ways of conducting the legislative branch of government than by endurance contest.

The equivalent Washington question of "How old is Anne?" is "How long do you think a filibuster can last?" People thus addressed reach into their respective hats and come up with a wide variety of answers, including:

- (1) When the public lets Congress know it's fed up with the shenanigans.
- (2) When some member has a bad heart attack.
- (3) When Lyndon Johnson finally works out a compromise.
- (4) When the anti-civil rights boys have talked themselves out and made a record for the home paper.

(5) When the opposition decides that fair is fair, and the anti-civil rights have had enough time and rope.

(6) When Perle Mesta gives a party for the Senate and invites everybody.

(7) When some Senate wife calls up another and says, "Don't you think it's time Buster came home?"

As a critic of the performance in the Senate, I am obliged to say that a filibuster is much better done on stage, screen and television. In actuality it is a mauling, small-paced affair, lacking the excitement and oomph of the stage filibuster.

Even quorum calls, when the pro-civil rights brigade must be routed out of bed and report, is strong, to the Senate, are sluggish affairs. Senators arrive, sleepy and fuzzy around the edges, to answer "here" to roll call, and then feel their way out of the chamber and back to bed or office cot.

I have yet to hear of one who perked up the script by arriving in his pajamas. None, in his haste.

as far as I know, has ever forgotten any essential item of apparel. All arrive adequately togged, no matter what the hour, although a few may still be knotting their ties. The sly hope that a few of the older solons might arrive in old-fashioned nightshirts has never materialized.

The other day I crossed paths in a Senate corridor with Mrs. Lyndon (Lady Bird) Johnson, wife of the Senate majority leader and Democratic Presidential candidate. I asked this very pretty woman in bright canary yellow if she were on hand to look after her busy husband.

"No," she said softly. "The Lord is doing that." Apparently other Senate wives have left that task to Him, too, for I have encountered no Senate wives bearing vitamins and chicken soup to the Hill. That good bean soup in the Senate restaurant is famous for its flavor and restorative powers, and gallons of it is consumed daily.

My record of missing all great public spectacles is still intact. I was asleep at the switch the other night when Sen. James O. Eastland (D., Miss.) asked the only theatre to the drooping anti-civil rights argument by the use of language so vulgar it was finally cleaned up before printing in the Congressional Record. I also missed Arthur Godfrey firing some unfortunate

No Payola Yet, But Offer Sought
POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP)—"It seems to me that every issue you appear to mention the same men," a reader complained in a letter to The Pointer News, inmate publication at Utah State Prison.

"Are you one of those horrible men that accept payola?" the letter asked.

Editor Quay Kilburn's reply: "What is your best offer?"

Somebody goofed on this trip. An exploratory party, which preceded Eisenhower to South America to make arrangements, decided it was too hot and strenuous for Mrs. Eisenhower to undertake. So she stayed home.

But the schedule worked out for the President was so terribly fast, and in such overpowering heat, that even the reporters and aides who accompanied him felt the fatigue, too.

In December Eisenhower visited Asia, Europe and North Africa. The pace was slower, the heat less intense. He stood up well.

In mid-May he has to go to Geneva for a summit meeting. Any trip to the Soviet Union would have to follow that.

Success In America Now Goes In Twos

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The great American dream today is to have two of everything.

You aren't a success unless you have twin beds in your bedroom, at least two baths in your house, and a two-car garage.

There are probably fellows now who even dream, faintly, of a silver future in which they can afford a two-wife home.

Mine, however, is a simpler dream. All I pine for is a simple two-desk office. One desk is to work on the other desk is simply to let things pile up on.

One desk is to please the boss. The other desk is to please me. I have this feeling particularly about this period of the year, for now is the time when across the land thousands of memo-pad Neros and file cabinet Caligulas issue a stern edict:

"This office is getting to look like the city dump again. Everybody clean off his desk by Friday—or else."

These ten-penny tycoons never say what the "or else" means. But the implied threat is that if you don't instantly make your desk look as clean as a baptismal font you will be strung up by your thumbs, drummed out of the regiment, or ridden out of the office on a rail.

Actually, a clean desk is no true indication of either efficiency or real mental order. It is only a sign of conformity on the part of the desk's occupant. He hasn't cleared his desk for action. He has merely hidden the rubble where the boss can't see it.

Look around you in your own office. Aren't the men with the neatest desks also the most neurotic employees in the place? Don't they also include most of the hypochondriacs, the chronic false-ulcer victims, and the fear-ridden decision dodgers?

It is also a business truism that most embezzlers—and potential embezzlers—are fastidious about their desks. In their case the neat desk is the sign of a guilty mind.

Junket Gives Ike Physical Beating

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower took a physical beating on his South American trip, and showed it at times. He is 69, is he going to put himself through the wringer again this year with a trip to the Soviet Union perhaps in June?

It's a question which no doubt will get plenty of consideration by his doctors and advisers.

Somebody goofed on this trip. An exploratory party, which preceded Eisenhower to South America to make arrangements, decided it was too hot and strenuous for Mrs. Eisenhower to undertake. So she stayed home.

But the schedule worked out for the President was so terribly fast, and in such overpowering heat, that even the reporters and aides who accompanied him felt the fatigue, too.

In December Eisenhower visited Asia, Europe and North Africa. The pace was slower, the heat less intense. He stood up well.

In mid-May he has to go to Geneva for a summit meeting. Any trip to the Soviet Union would have to follow that.

Four such trips in seven months time would be tough on anyone, but particularly on a man of Eisenhower's age who in five years has had a heart attack, an intestinal operation and a slight stroke.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, always anxious to put the best possible light on Eisenhower's activities, insisted Eisenhower was, feeling fine throughout his South American journey.

But there were times when the President looked worn out to reporters with him.

After Eisenhower's return here Monday Marvin Arrowsmith, Associated Press White House reporter who has covered Eisenhower since 1953, revealed that some of those who accompanied Eisenhower knew for a fact that his doctors were deeply concerned at several points on the tour.

Arrowsmith said it is doubtful the President's doctors would have given a go-ahead for his South American journey if they could have foreseen how it exhausted him at times. A slower pace with more rest would have been recommended, he said.

Junior Editors Quiz on CUSTOMS

QUESTION: What is meant by smoking the peace pipe?

ANSWER: The Indians were among the first people to smoke tobacco. They often smoked for pleasure only, but when the pipe was used in religious rituals, smoking was then a sacred and solemn thing.

At tribal councils, pipes were smoked to seal bargains and ratify treaties. The pipe would be lifted to the sky and burned in four directions. It then was passed to a guest as a sign of friendship and mutual respect.

French settlers who observed this custom were impressed by it. They gave the French name "Calumet" to the peace pipe. So important was the peace pipe among Indians that when men had a temporary disagreement the sign of reconciliation was known as "smoking the peace pipe." This is the meaning that continues today.

FOR YOU TO DO: Can you name five products, besides tobacco, that the white man obtained from the Indian?

Nixon Trying To Crash Into South

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is making an all-out effort to crash into the South in the November election.

With the Republican presidential nomination all but wrapped up, Nixon already has under way a campaign pointed at Texas, Florida and Virginia as key states.

The 46 electoral votes represented in those three states could be decisive if New York's 45 votes go to the Democrats.

Nixon hopes that differences with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller have been patched up. But he isn't sure.

Rockefeller has warned somewhat, but not enough to be entirely reassuring, since the New York governor withdrew as a potential rival for the presidential nomination with a blast at the GOP Old Guard.

As a precautionary measure, Nixon has been stepping to cash in on the South's dissatisfaction with the Democratic presidential nomination, these have grown out of the current controversy in Congress over civil rights legislation.

The theory in the Nixon camp is that Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate majority leader, will have been forced to vote for civil rights amendments and motions.

But the Nixon camp's view is that Stevenson is fading. They agree with many other professional politicians that the Democratic race now is between Kennedy and Johnson.

For this reason they are happy to report the results of polls that they say indicate only Johnson could beat Nixon in Texas and Virginia. In the same breath they express the opinion that Johnson won't be the opposing nominee.

Nixon's supporters hired professional pollsters to operate in Virginia. They came up with the forecast that Nixon would beat Kennedy 52-48, take Stevenson 54-46, dispose of Symington 53-47 but lose to Johnson, 54-46.

In Texas the Nixon supporters depend on Johnson's own poll. It shows that of all the Democratic hopefuls, the Senate majority leader alone can defeat Nixon in the Lone Star voting.

Eight Killed In Crash Of Car, Train

BERLIN, Conn. (AP) — Eight persons were killed today when a passenger train collided with a station wagon.

The train, headed for the station wagon, "plunged" with seven children and a woman into a five-foot-deep lake beside the unimproved grade crossing on quiet Norton Lane.

Police reports first said three persons were dead and five unaccounted for. A few minutes later the New Haven Railroad reported that eight persons had been killed, all occupants of the automobile.

Apparently the children were being driven to school when the New Haven Railroad's train No. 97, bound from Springfield, Mass., to New York, crashed into the station wagon.

The accident occurred at 8:33 a.m. at the border of Silver Lake, a body of water in the area of the Meriden-Berlin border.

The dead were not identified immediately. None of the train passengers was reported hurt.

Couple Still Set To Give Up Baby

LUTON, England (AP) — Rejected a tearful plea from his mother, Leo Moore says he and his wife will go ahead with plans to give their unborn baby to an American couple for adoption.

"We can manage our own affairs," said the 40-year-old bus driver after his mother, Ellen Moore, appealed to him and his wife, Yvonne, to drop their plans.

Mrs. Moore, 62, who made the 150-mile trip here from her home in Manchester, urged the Moores to let her raise the child if they did not want it.

"She came in here crying and making a scene," said Moore. "I'm not a child. I wish my mother had not interfered."

His 29-year-old wife leaves by plane Wednesday for the United States. She expects the baby here first in mid-April. It will be adopted by William and Billie Prescott, a childless North Charleston, S.C., couple.

They are paying Mrs. Moore's travel expenses and will take care of her until the baby is born. Mrs. Moore said earlier "I'm giving the baby away simply because I don't want it."

whipped in a storm of criticism from neighbors and Moore's co-workers.

"The Moores said they still think they have made the right decision. In Charleston the Prescotts, who together have three healthy children, said the criticism is unjustified.

"They can't afford the baby and don't want it," said Mrs. Prescott. "We can afford it and we want it very badly. God never saw fit to give us one of our own."

"I don't know why people are criticizing Mrs. Moore. She sounds like a very unselfish person to me."

Disclosure of the adoption plans.

FFA GRASS JUDGERS—This is the Snyder FFA Chapter's No. 1 grass judging team, which placed second in a field of 71 entries in the Houston Fat Stock Show last week. From left are Franklin Gilbert, Gilbert Merritt and Richard Robinson. The team scored 1,106 points of a possible 1,200, and Merritt was sixth high individual with 387 of a possible 400 points. Jerry House, another Snyder FFA member, caught a calf in the calf scramble at Houston. He was awarded $150 to purchase a beef heifer which he will show at Houston next year.

'Colossal' Strike Seen In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A star-studded actors' strike went into a second day today with both sides predicting a long, costly and—as they say in Hollywood—colossal battle.

At the heart of the dispute was an old movieland bogeyman: television.

The 14,000-member Screen Actors Guild wants extra pay for television showings of post-1948 films.

The strike has shut down production at seven studios. Among the 5,000 workers idled: Marilyn Monroe, Fred Astaire, Bing Crosby.

by Elizabeth Taylor and Alan Ladd.

Like this tinsel town itself, the strike had its uncommon aspects: no picket lines, no demonstrations and some production continued.

Some, like Frank Sinatra and Tony Curtis, were two hats—producer and actor—and backed the strikers. Their independent companies have signed contracts with the SAG.

Other actors, Debbie Reynolds and Glenn Ford among them, oppose the strike.

Photographer Tells Of Quiz By Cubans

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A freelance photographer who said he was heckled and relieved of his cameras and films by Cuban authorities hoped today to enjoy once more the tranquility of his Nebraska home.

"They"—including Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro—"didn't accuse me of anything," Donald Chapman said on his return to U.S. soil.

"There was no physical cruelty. You might call it mental anguish. That police-state operation has you on edge."

Chapman, 26, said he stopped at Havana only because that was a port of call on the itinerary of the French freighter La Coubre. The ship, bringing munitions to Cuba, blew up Friday at a Havana dock with loss of more than 70 lives.

Apology Is Offered By Paul Butler

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler has apologized for saying President Eisenhower has "something to answer for" to the wives and children of Navy handsmen killed in a plane crash at Rio de Janeiro.

Butler told a news conference Monday he had not meant to imply that the President was "in any way responsible for the tragic deaths of the Americans."

The subject came up in a debate Butler had with Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) Sunday night at Worcester, Mass. Butler questioned the use of part of the Navy Band during Eisenhower's tour of South America. The 15 handsmen killed were en route to Rio to play for the President and Brazilian officials.

Scott jumped up and told Butler "this attempt to put blood on the hands of the President is not very creditable."

Butler retorted: "I don't put blood on the hands of the President. We Democrats never attacked Eisenhower with such cruelty as the Republicans attacked Franklin D. Roosevelt. We never questioned Eisenhower's loyalty."

Apparently thinking better of it the next day, Butler again raised the subject at a news conference called to announce plans for some Democratic party public hearings.

"For any such inference that may have been drawn," he said, "I want to apologize to the President and to the American people."

Negro Admits Rape Count

NEW YORK (AP) — A 21-year-old Negro admitted today he raped and robbed a Presbyterian minister's wife in a midtown Manhattan subway station, police said.

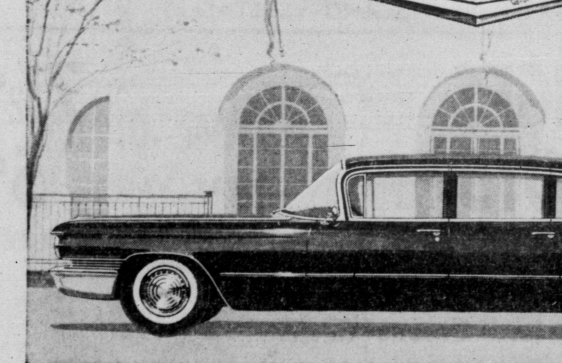

Doris Hostetter, 46, who is white, picked Anthony Durant from a 12-man lineup Monday in Brooklyn Felony Court.

Mrs. Hostetter was shown the lineup after police noticed a resemblance between Durant, a robbery suspect, and a police sketch based on the woman's description of the rapist.

"That's him," Mrs. Hostetter said on seeing Durant. Police said he was questioned all day and into the night before he finally admitted the rape. They said Durant also admitted six robberies of subway change booths in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Hostetter said she was attacked Feb. 24 in a station near Madison Square Garden while returning from an art lecture.

Police said Durant told them: "I lost my head." He was charged with rape, assault and robbery.
