Mitchell County to get prison facility

A new era for Mitchell County began as quickly as word of the Austin announcement spread!

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) accepted Mitchell County's $6.2 million proposal which was submitted by the Board of Economic Development (BED).

The effort has resulted in bringing 317 new jobs and an annual payroll of over $6 million to the county.

Efforts which were once considered by Mitchell County citizens to be 'the dream,' of bringing economic life back into the area - became a reality at 12:42 p.m. on Friday, April 10, when the Texas Board of Criminal Justice gave the nod to the local proposal and approved the construction of a $28 million dollar/1000-bed minimum-medium security prison facility.

BED members submitted a $6.247 million package to the TDCJ which included over 800 acres of irrigated farmland, the Sequoia building, an on site warden's home, office space and overwhelming community support from the citizens of the county.

"I am pleased for Mitchell County," said State Representative Rob Junell moments after the announcement. "The county can be proud of the excellent proposal that was submitted to the board."

"A lot of people spent a lot of time and effort in preparing the proposal," he said, "and I offer them my congratulations."

Junell who assisted the BED's efforts and offered guidance with the proposal said that the efforts of other legislators including State Senators Bill Sims, Temple Dickson, Steve Carriker and John Montford as being instrumental in getting the local package to the TDCJ.

The TDCJ board selected a total of 23 sites on Friday, to locate prison beds which were approved by the voters on the November 5 constitutional amendment ballot.

The sites were selected from the original list of 67 that were submitted to the TDCJ by 63 communities on January 15.

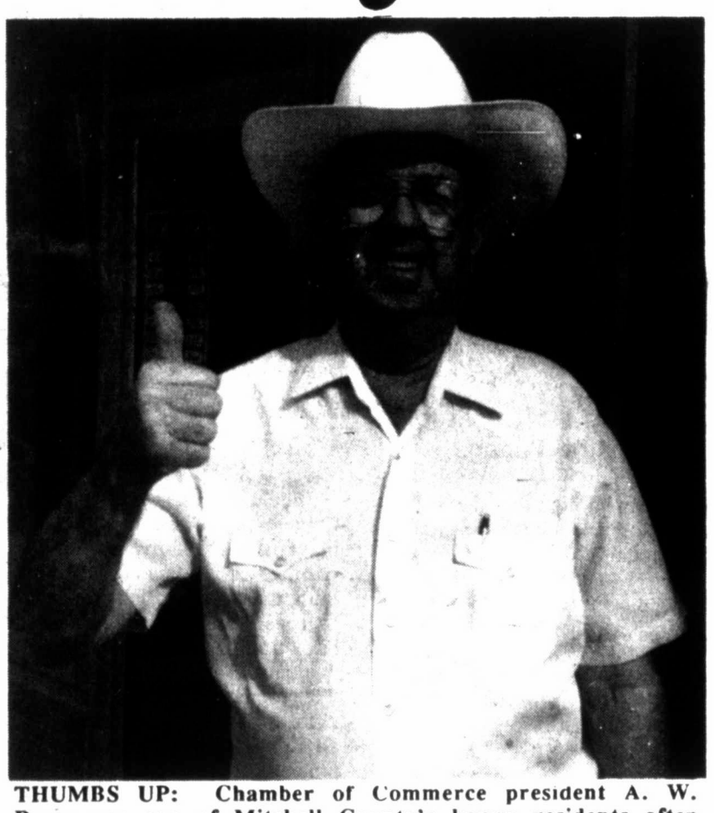

The Department solicited proposals for sites for the location of various TDCJ facilities including three 2250-bed maximum security prisons, six 1000-bed minimum/medium security prisons and 12,000 substance abuse felony punishment beds.

On March 16, Mitchell County was one of the 51 sites in 47 communities which were announced as composing the 'short list.'

The 23 sites which were announced by the board at Friday's meeting in Austin included four 1000-bed and ten 500-bed substance abuse felony punishment beds.

The TDCJ board also approved the purchase of six existing private facilities which are located in Martin County, Lufkin, Tulia, San Saba, Fort Stockton and Cotulla to be used as drug and alcohol treatment centers.

A 550-bed psychiatric unit was approved to be located in Lubbock.

THUMBS UP: Chamber of Commerce president A. W. Rowe was one of Mitchell County's happy residents after hearing that the Texas Department of Criminal Justice has accepted the community's offer and will be locating a unit in the county.

Sheriff run-off set Tuesday

The Democratic run-off election to decide the Party's nominee for the office of Mitchell County Sheriff will be decided at the polls on Tuesday, April 14.

Acting Sheriff Patrick Toombs and David Ginkinger, were the two candidates who emerged from the 7-man field of Democratic contenders in the 'Super Tuesday' elections and will appear on the run-off election ballot.

Over 70 people voted at the Courthouse in the early voting period which ended on Friday.

Toombs received 1072 of the 2408 votes cast in the primary election held March 10 and Ginkinger received 332 votes in the local election.

The candidate winning the run-off election will be opposed for the office in November's general election by Republican candidate George A. Oliver.

Holy Week services begin Monday

The Mitchell County Ministerial Alliance continues its annual tradition of hosting noon Holy Week services at the First Baptist Church in Colorado City.

Ministers of different area churches will lead the week long series of half-hour services.

The theme of this year's services will be, "Jesus said, 'I Am...,'" based on passages from the Gospel of John.

Scheduled events are:

--Monday, April 13

Rev. Frank Swindle of All Saints Episcopal Church will speak on, "I Am the Bread of Life," at the service.

The greeting and invocation at the service will be offered by Dr. Ted Spear of First Baptist Church.

David and Dawn Shaw will present the special music for the service.

Rev. David Shaw of First United Methodist will offer the benediction.

Monday's meal will be served by the membership of First Baptist Church.

--Tuesday, April 14

Hospital receives good Medicare inspection

A good report was given to the Mitchell County Hospital by the State Board of Health, who conducted the annual Medicare Survey this week.

"The inspection report was good," said Hospital Administrator Wendell Alford. "The facility is well within the compliance guidelines of Medicare rules and regulations."

State examiners survey all departments of the hospital including the Home Health Agency as part of the inspection.

No deficiencies were reported by the inspecting team on the Home Health Agency, which Alford noted was rare.

Alford said that the hospital is in compliance with the Medicare rules and regulations and will begin take action on the items listed in the report.

State Health examiners will visit the hospital after a 60-day period to see that measures have been taken by the hospital to ensure that the policy and procedures are in total compliance with regulations.

"We received positive feedback from the inspection," said Alford, "especially regarding the hospital's quality assurance program."

Polling places listed

Registered voters who voted Democratic in the March 10, 'Super Tuesday' election, or who did not participate in either the Republican or Democratic elections held on that day are eligible to vote in the run-off election to be held on April 14.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday.

Six polling places have been designated for the Democratic Party's run-off election. These sites are the same locations that voting took place for the 'Super Tuesday' election.

Those casting ballots in the Democratic run-off election should vote according to the Precinct number which is listed on their voters registration card with the January postmark.

The voting precincts and the polling locations for the election are:

--Voting Precinct 01: The polling location will be held at the Colorado Independent School District Administration Building, 534 East 11th Street, Colorado City.

--Voting Precinct 02: The polling location will be held at the Westbrook School Building, 799 Bertner, Westbrook.

--Voting Precinct 02-5: The Residents speak out on prison

Bob Reily

"Hallelujah!"

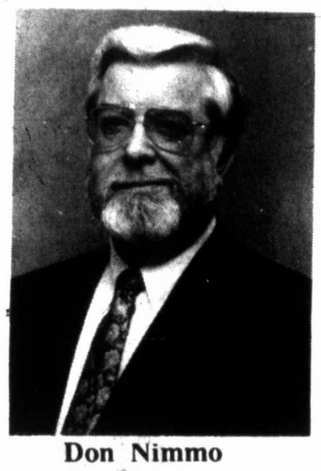

Nancy Sullivan

"I knew we could do it!"

Mac Morris

"It's the culmination of a long, hard battle and hard work. I'm very pleased for the county. It will be the 'shot-in-the-arm' for our local economy!"

Don Nimmo

'Great! We are looking forward to the future and the schools will do everything possible to work to help build a promising future for Mitchell County!"

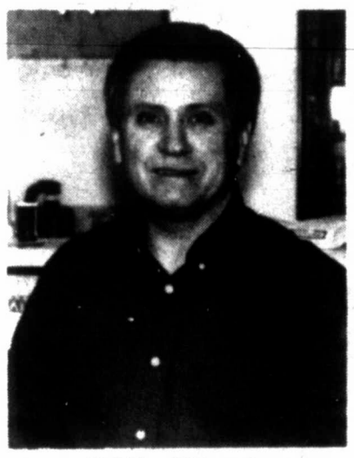

James McSwain

"I'm looking forward to one of the most significant positive influences to hit Colorado City and Mitchell County in years!"

Ann Hallmark

"We got it! The correctional facility will be very beneficial to Mitchell County and provide much needed jobs and improvement to the economy. The Board of Economic Development deserves our gratitude, along with every citizen who supported this project."

Eddie Piland

"I am thrilled that the TDCJ has chosen Mitchell County as a site for a 1000-bed unit. I am grateful to the county, schools, hospital and cities of Mitchell County for their united effort to bring this to our county and especially to the Mitchell County Economic Development Board for their tireless efforts. We should all be thankful! What many thought could not happen has happened!"

Ray Mayo

"It's a great day for Mitchell County! A 1000-bed state prison in Mitchell County will help stabilize our economy and will bring many needed jobs for our citizens. None of this would have been possible without the dedication of the Economic Development Board and the citizens of Mitchell County -- all of whom have backed this project from the very beginning. Everyone deserves a pat on the back for a job well done!"

Dorothy Shurtleff

"It's a marvelous thing to happen, new and different for our county, and will give us a chance to grow and to stay alive!"

Jim Baum

"The biggest economic news for Mitchell County since the discovery of Mitchell County oil, 72 years ago!"

1st United Methodist plans special Palm Sunday service

Several special activities will highlight Palm Sunday worship at First United Methodist Church.

The service will begin at 10:50 a.m., with the Children's Procession and Distribution of the Palms, during the singing of the hymn, "All Glory, Laud and Honor," as has been traditional for Palm Sunday since 820 A.D.

The first gospel narrative of the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, will be read by the congregation in dialogue form.

The second gospel, the passion narrative from Luke 22 and 23, will be presented as a dramatic ready by twelve members of the congregation.

The Chancel Choir which is directed by Alex Martinez, will present a portion of their Easter cantata, "Hosanna." Pastor David Shaw will preach a sermon entitled 'That Palm Sunday Riot' and palm leaf crosses made by African villagers will be distributed to all worshippers.

At the 6 p.m. evening vespers, the pastor will continue leading a study of 'Issues Facing General Conference '92," looking at proposed new programs of Hispanic and Native American ministries.

On Thursday, the institution of the Lord's Supper will be recalled as the entire congregation is gathered around tables in Fellowship Hall to experience with the disciples the great event in the Upper Room.

This year First Methodist is hosting the ecumenical service at 7 p.m., co-sponsored each year by the memberships of First and St. Luke's United Methodist, First Presbyterian and First Christian Churches.

At 7 p.m. on Good Friday, April 17, the Chancel Choir will present their Easter cantata, "Share the Good News! He Is Risen," by Allen Pote, in the church sanctuary.

Soloists include David Jones, David Shaw, Tandy Curlee, Marie Jackson and Margie Martinez.

The public is invited to all services and a nursery is provided for pre-school children.

Loraine homemakers met Mar. 18

The regular meeting of the North Loraine Extension Homemakers Club was held on March 18 at 2:00 p.m. at the Loraine Senior Citizens Center. Hostess was Wanza Graham.

The meeting wsa called to order by President Margaret Brame.

Roll call was answered by "My favorite flower" with fifteen members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurers report was given.

Discussion was held on the Three E Tour to be held on April 21.

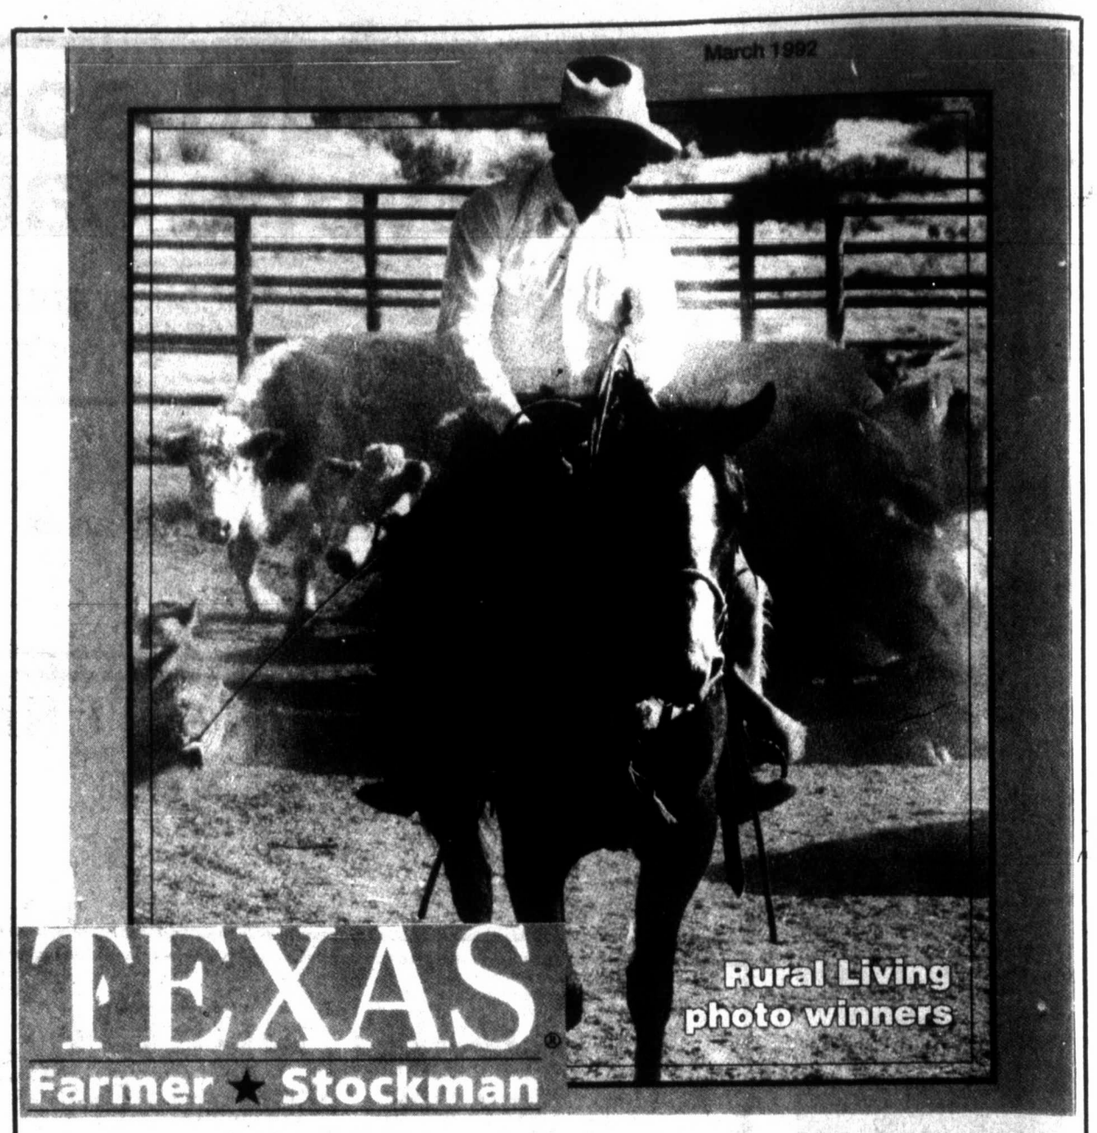

Tickets have been printed and are on sale for the Sunday dinner that will be held on April 12.

Recreation day will be on June 5.

The program was presented by Dorothy Johnson at her home. The group was greeted by Mrs. Johnson dressed in her Oriental attire. She delighted the group with a very interesting presentation on the Orient and displayed her Oriental moments for everyone to view and discuss. Her presentation was enjoyed by all.

Members present were Veida Gage, Wanza Graham, Nina Meadows, Jimmie Jacks, Eva Wells, Blondie Hamilton, Doris Henderson, Mildred Rose, Margaret Brame, Rachael Singleton, Bessie Ann Vaughn, Elaine McMichael, Billie Ruth Abernathy. Guests were Zelma Crenshaw, and Pat Carter.

Pesticide collection program successful

Lubbock-- Farmers and ranchers in the Texas South Plains and nearby West Texas counties set the pace during Texas' Second Waste Pesticide Collection program.

Producers who lined up March 5 at the O'Donnell Co-Op Gin south of Lubbock turned in some 80 tons of the 197 tons of agricultural waste pesticides collected at four sites across the state.

The Texas Water Commission, Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas Department of Agriculture sponsored the four collection days on Feb. 24 in Edna, Feb. 27 in Elsa, March 2 in Munday and March 5 in O'Donnell. More than 270 private pesticide applicators, representing approximately 800 Texas farms and ranches, took part in the free, no-questions-asked collection effort.

About 10,000 clean, properly rinsed metal and plastic pesticide containers also were turned in at the four sites. Collected by the state's contractor, SCT Environmental, Inc., they will be used exclusively for manufacture of recycled pesticide containers.

At O'Donnell, producers began lining up at the gin yard well before the 8 a.m. starting time. The line was terminated at 3 p.m. and unloading of trucks in line at that time continued until 5:15 p.m. Producers from as far away as Amarillo and Stanton brought materials to O'Donnell.

Wilcox said the obsolete and unusable pesticides collected included 23 tons of arsenic chemicals, many of which were banned from use during the 1980s. Also turned in were approximately 8 tons of parathions, including ethyl parathion, a chemical banned in 1991; 3.9 tons of DDT, canceled from use in 1972, and 2.5 tons of chlordane, banned from use in 1990.

The waste chemicals were examined at the collection sites by the state's contractor, Chemical Waste Management, Inc., Baytown Technical Services. They then were packaged for transport to the company's permitted hazardous waste disposal facilities.

In addition to CWM, three other Texas industries are providing disposal services. Texas Ecologists, Inc., a subsidiary of US Ecology, Inc., will provide free disposal until May 8 at its permitted hazardous waste landfill in Robstown. Dow Chemical Texas Operations has agreed to destroy 850 drums or 85,000 pounds of the waste at its incinerator in Freeport.

Products bearing Dupont labels will be disposed of at Dupont's Sabine River Works facility in Orange. Representatives from E.I. Dupont de Nemours and Co. collected 122 20-gallon drums of its own products during collection days in Texas. Thirty drums of these materials were gathered at O'Donnell.

Vote Tuesday, April 14 for David "Gink"

Ginkinger

Sheriff of Mitchell County

During my campaign, I have expressed an absolute desire and need for having deputies living in the Loraine, Westbrook, and Lake Colorado City areas. I feel with the number of citizens living in these areas that it is justified. I want deputies who are going to live there and become a part of these communities. I want them to be a neighbor and a friend, not just a peace officer. I strongly feel that this is a good way to win the confidence and trust of the people.

I offer this as a goal and a commitment if I am elected Sheriff of Mitchell County.

I would like a public comment or a statement, preferably in the newspaper, where Mr. Toombs stands on this very important issue, involving people who live in the rural communities.

I know that Reserve Deputies are living in these areas, but they have FULL TIME JOBS and are not as available to the public as regular paid deputies are.

I know that Mr. Toombs lives in the City of Westbrook. If he is elected, will there be a deputy to take his place that will live there?

After all, it is your TAX DOLLARS that are paying for this Law Enforcement Protection and You should be entitled to it.

Your vote will be greatly appreciated.

During my campaign, I have been asked what my goals and my directions would be for the Sheriff's Dept. I have already expressed my goal and commitment for having deputies live in the rural communities of Westbrook, Loraine and Lake Colorado City areas.

Another goal that I would like to see implemented in Mitchell Co. involves our schools and local governments in bringing a much needed alcohol awareness program to our area Jr. High and High schools. We currently have our D.A.R.E. program in the elementary grades that deals mainly with drug awareness. This is a tremendous program that has taken hold and will prove worthwhile as these youngsters grow in the school system.

But we need to focus on our age group from 14-19 years old in our schools and community, about alcohol awareness. We need to educate our children in the area of how drinking can and will affect their social and civil lives. How many children know exactly what a DWI can cost them and their families? Not only can it mean the loss of their driver's license, but a cancellation of the family insurance or a higher premium, or when they apply for employment, most company's refrain from employing persons with DWI's.

As a deputy, a police officer and a parent, I am aware of these problems. I have had to deal with them. But I have tried to deal with them now from an educational standpoint than from a punishment point of view.

I would greatly appreciate your support and vote on April 14, 1992 for Sheriff of Mitchell County.

When experience and knowledge of Mitchell County count.....

Dawn Butler is award winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Dawn Butler has been named a United States National Award winner in Business Education.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Dawn Butler, who attends Loraine High School was nominated for this National Award by Paul Harrel, a Business Education teacher at the school. Dawn will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

Dawn Butler is the daughter of Danny and Pam Butler. The grandparents are Kennith and Juanice Butler of Loraine, Texas and Marion and Verna Hughes of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Homeownership helps taxes

Washington -- In the days just before the traditional April 15 tax filing deadline, U.S. Senator Phil Gramm noted that homeownership is a boon for middle class taxpayers.

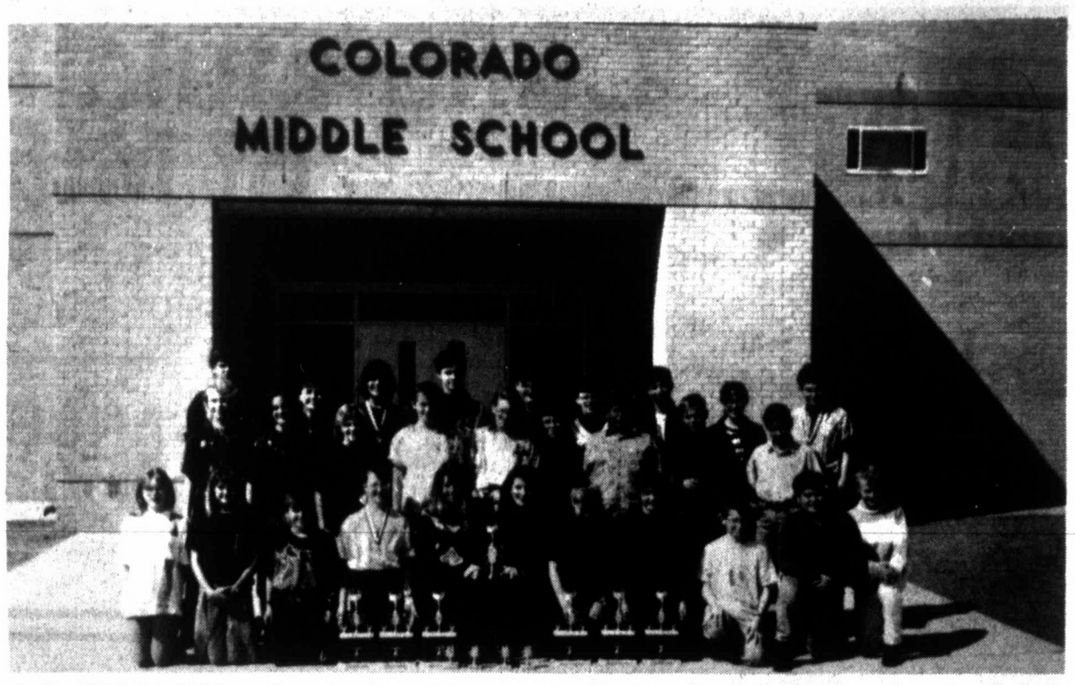

"Remember, every penny of interest you pay on your mortgage can be deducted when you file your tax return," he said.

He also noted that mortgage interest on a second home is often deductible, too, and that the interest paid on home equity loans can be deducted.

"If you're buying or selling a residence, don't forget that you can deduct the 'points' you pay, which are considered mortgage interest by the IRS," the senator said.

Gramm also pointed out that homeowners aged 55 or older can take advantage of a one-time chance to exclude as much as $125,000 in profit from the sale of their homes.

For more information on these and other tax issues, the IRS offers toll-free assistance to all taxpayers. The number to call is 1-800-829-1040.

CMS INVENTORS: Twenty-nine Colorado Middle School students recently attended the 'Invent America' contest held at the Region 14 Educational Service Center in Abilene. The students brought home seven trophies and three individual awards from the Gifted and Talented program competition.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

DEAN WILLIAMSON

Do you ever hate new technology!

It seems that everything that comes in our lives -- in an effort to make our lives easier -- ends up costing us more money and only makes life much more confusing!

I once loved VCR's.

They say that a VCR can record a show so you can watch it later.

It doesn't work for me.

On Monday, I had a meeting to attend. Of course the thing I really wanted to do was go home and watch the Final Four Championship.

The recorder was set and I went to the meeting in Sweetwater.

On the way home I listened to tapes so that some announcer wouldn't ruin the game for me by announcing the score of the game.

All was going fine.

I got home and re-wound the tape.

Everything was going fine.

I popped some popcorn and got ready to watch the game.

During the first half of the game, Michigan was playing with great intensity and coming through with some great slams.

The VCR was being praised.

I was pushing the fast forward and whipped through the commercials and the time outs.

Then with a time out with two minutes left in the first half and the score balancing back and fourth between the teams -- it happened.

I reached to push the fast forward button and by accident brushed my finger against the stop button.

There was Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski and center Christian Laettner standing with smiles on their faces and the trophy in their hands.

It ruined the rest of the game.

Once you know the end result, the thrill is gone.

Another new invention is the fax machine -- and for those of you who have questions, the following 'Guide to Safe Fax' was forwarded to me anonymously.

Q: Do I have to be married to have safe fax?

A: Although married people fax quite often, there are many single people who fax complete strangers every day.

Q: My parents say they never had fax when they were young and were only allowed to write memos to each other until they were twenty-one, how old do you think someone should be before they can fax?

A: Faxing can be performed at any age, once you learn the correct procedure.

Q: If I fax something to myself, will I go blind?

A: Certainly not, as far as we can see.

Q: Is there a place on our street where you can go and pay for fax? Is this legal?

A: Yes, many people have no other outlet for their fax drives and must pay a 'professional' when their needs to fax become too great.

Q: Should a cover always be used for faxing?

A: Unless you are really sure of the one you're faxing, a cover sheet should be used to insure safe fax.

Q: What happens when I incorrectly do the procedure and fax prematurely?

A: Don't panic. Many people prematurely fax when they haven't faxed in a long time. Just start over, most people won't mind you trying again.

Q: I have a personal and a business fax, can transmissions become mixed up?

A: Being bi-faxual can be confusing, but as long as you use a cover with each one, you won't transmit anything you're not supposed to.

Health care reform plan announced

Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-TX) and members of the Conservation Democratic Forum (CDF) recently announced the preliminary details of a plan outlining a new approach to health care reform. The CDF reform plan builds on the positive aspects of the current American health care system while introducing significant changes.

"We feel it is important to let people know there are alternatives to health reform other than those which have been discussed to this point," Stenholm explained. "Rather than nationalized plans which destroy our private market system, or 'pay or play' plans which put people out of business, we believe we can retain quality and choice while improving accessibility and affordability."

The main principle behind the CDF plan is managed competition, in which useful information on the quality and costs of health care services is provided to health care consumers, who then are better able to choose providers with the most effective and efficient care. Managed competition will require insurance companies, physicians and hospitals to pool together to form cooperative organizations which will offer health insurance and health care as a single product.

"We're already spending over $800 billion a year on health care in America -- more than 12% of our GNP -- but we're not getting our money's worth," said Stenholm. "I trust that, given the chance and enough information, private sector consumers and providers can do a lot better job at cutting the waste out of our current system than an army of bureaucrats can do."

The CDF plan also seeks to control costs through malpractice reform, paperwork reduction and administrative simplification. A strong emphasis will be placed on preventive health care services as an effective means to reduce the cost of illness and injuries.

Details on the CDF health plan are still being developed. The bill, with financing recommendations, is expected to be introduced in the House of Representatives by late spring.

Loraine PTO talent show still open

Loraine PTO still has openings for adults, seniors, juniors, and midget divisions in our PTO Talent Contest. Everyone in the surrounding area is invited to sign up by April 15th. Contact Gloria Lucas (737-2635), Regina Gage (737-2902), or Debbie Finley (737-2623) to get an entry form. Entry fee is only $1.00 per person.

The contest will be held in the Loraine School Cafeteria on Saturday, April 25th at 7:00 p.m. We will provide a stereo system, speakers and 2 microphones. Contestants will need to provide their own music or props and will have 5 minutes to perform. Prizes will be awarded in all 4 categories and judges decisions will be final.

Our contest was a great success last year and wonderful entertainment! We ask for your support again this year!

Green named "Who's Who"

Dianne Green of Colorado City, has been notified that she is one of the 59 students nominated by Howard College for inclusion in the 1992 edition of 'Who's Who Among Students In American Junior Colleges.'

She will be honored at the annual Howard College Awards Convocation which will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, April 14, at the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum in Big Spring.

The award is conferred annually upon outstanding student leaders who are recognized institutions of the American academic community.

Selections to the edition are made by campus nominating committees and are based on decidedly above average academic standing, community service, leadership ability and potential for continued success.

Dianne Green

Her recognition will appear in the twenty-sixth annual edition of the 'Who's Who' publication.

Butler named award winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Krystal Butler has been named a United States National Award winner in Home Economics.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Krystal Butler, who attends Loraine High School was nominated for this National Award by Kelly Keiker, a Counselor at the school. Krystal will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

Krystal Butler is the daughter of Danny and Pam Butler. The grandparents are Kennith and Juanice Butler of Loraine, Texas and Marion and Verna Hughes of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

On Saint Patrick's Day, 5 miles west of your city on the freeway, our truck and trailer jack knifed, causing both vehicles to overturn. We were relatively unhurt, but without transportation for awhile. We were strangers in Colorado City for four days and we want to thank all the people who were so kind and helped us during this time.

A special thanks to Nurse Becky, Dr. McAnally, Officer Redwine, Terry and Jerry from the wrecking yard, Dockrey Motors and the ladies at the Villa Motel front desk.

Thanks, Colorado City, Texas !!
