ICE STORM SWEEPS OVER STATE

Senate GOPs Back Tax Cuts

FINAL EDITION

Fate Of Budget Will Determine Size Of Slash

Leaders To Insist That Payment On Debt Be Provided

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Senate Republicans voted today to cut taxes but left the amount blank.

They decided, however, that any cut should leave $2,600,000,000 to pay on the national debt next fiscal year, Chairman Millikin (R-Col) of the Senate Republican conference told reporters.

To Aim At Budget

At the same time, the conference made up of all majority party members in the chamber talked of whittling President Truman's $39,700,000,000 budget but failed to set a target. Reductions of $2,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 were mentioned, Millikin said.

A decision on the amount to reduce taxes cannot be reached until "there is more information on the budget" and the amount of surplus is determined, he added.

In the House, the tax-writing ways and means committee agreed to vote tomorrow on the Knutson tax cutting bill estimated to chop $6,300,000,000 off income tax revenues. Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) predicted it will be passed by the House next Monday, then it would go to the Senate.

Seek To Meet Deadline

Millikin said the Republican senators decided Congress should "do the best it can" toward meeting the Feb. 15 deadline for setting a figure on how much to cut the President's budget. The amount must await the outcome of current studies by the Senate-House budget committee, he explained.

Knutson, author of the tax bill in the House, told reporters:

"The committee will approve my bill tomorrow. The House will begin debate Thursday and pass the bill next Monday."

Other Republican leaders agreed that Knutson's schedule is what they look for. They said the bill will pass the House with only two of three Republican votes against it and "substantial" votes for it from the Democratic side.

Little Doubt Of Veto

But they said they do not expect the measure to get the two to one margin which would be necessary to pass it over President Truman's disapproval. Mr. Truman has left little doubt he will veto the bill if it reaches him in its present form.

Fears Spread In Quake Area

MANILA, Jan. 26 (AP)—Another strong earthquake shook the battered city of Iloilo on the central Phillippines island of Panay at 10:12 p. m. tonight (8:12 a. m. CST) followed by secondary shocks which lasted four minutes.

The city already had been damaged heavily and 27 deaths were reported in a series of heavy quakes which rocked it over a period of four hours before dawn Sunday, followed by moderate shocks which continued up to noon today.

Residents Terrorized

The newest tremors terrorized a population whose nerves already were at the breaking point.

People rushed into the streets in night dress and huddled in public plazas.

The night was shrill with cries of separated mothers and children as thousands scampered into open spaces.

Many prepared to camp the remainder of the night rather than return to buildings where they feared shock-damaged walls might collapse.

Previously many of the city's population of 125,000 had fled to the countryside.

Some Are Hysterical

Describing the scene 12 hours after the first terrific shock, Manila Times Correspondent Jesus P. Ramos wrote: "A two-minute quake is rocking Iloilo. People

Law Offenses Are Numerous

A stabbing, alleged rapes, burglaries, thefts and other reported offenses were under investigation this afternoon by law enforcement agencies here.

Clint Allen, a negro, was released from a hospital after treatment of a six-inch knife cut on the neck, and another black was arrested in connection with the case after he had called officials and said he would wait at a hotel in the negro quarters for them to arrest him. The suspect is 23.

Suspect Is Named

The sheriff's office was informed that a 9-year-old negro girl had been raped. Name of a middle-age suspect was furnished by relatives.

Hike In Salary To $12,000 A Year Is Voted

New Executive Is To Take Over His Duties March 1

The city commission today appointed Marlin R. Smith, jr., Lubbock city manager at a salary of $12,000 a year, effective March 1.

The salary is $2,000 a year more than has been paid Homer A. Hunter, whom Smith will succeed.

Mayor C. A. Bestwick said Hunter has agreed to remain in Lubbock until Smith takes over. The two are to work together as much as possible during February, the mayor added.

To Enter Private Business

Hunter tendered his resignation last December so as to enter business for himself as a consulting engineer in Dallas, his former home.

Smith was city manager for nearly four years before he resigned Jan. 1, 1945, to become associated with the firm of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, consulting engineers. He was city engineer nearly 10 years prior to his appointment as city manager. He was reared in Lubbock nad is a graduate of Texas A. & M. college.

The reorganizatiee plan for the city government, the mayor said, also will involve the creation of the new position of director of public works. This step has been approved on Smith's recommendation as a means of relieving the city manager of some of the details of his work, Mayor Bestwick explained.

Smith is to select the public works director, subject to commission approval. The salary to be paid for the position has not been decided.

When Smith resigned as city manager about two years ago, the position carried a salary of $7,500 a year.

Mayor Bestwick said the commission was unanimous in offering the position to Smith an important factor in the decision, he added, is the new manager's familiarity with Lubbock municipal affairs.

Smith had been rumored for some time as the probably choice for the position. A definite agreement was not reached until this morning, the mayor said.

Members of the commission, additional to the mayor, are W. B. Price, Fred Childress, J. Ray Dickey and John Spikes.

ONE YOUTH KILLED IN CAR WRECK

Suspects Are Held In Local Robberies

Two Dallas youths who will be questioned in connection with two prescription store narcotics robberies here since Dec. 26 are held in San Antonio and have given statements in connection with robberies of a Houston drugstore Saturday, a San Antonio pharmacy Saturday night, it was announced this afternoon by the Associated Press from San Antonio.

The youths were arrested after their car was wrecked near Blanco early Sunday.

Companion Is Killed

They, 20 and 27, escaped injury in the wreck, which resulted in death of a companion, Billie Ray Williams, 22, also of Dallas, and injured a 19-year-old Fort Worth youth.

Williams died in a Blanco hospital of a fractured skull, and the injured Fort Worth youth was taken to a San Antonio hospital with a shotgun wound in the left shoulder suffered when the gun was discharged in the wreck.

Detective Sgts. C. A. Bartram and B. Long of San Antonio said the two Dallas youths would be questioned in connection with other recent robberies in San Antonio, Lubbock and Dallas.

Narcotics Are Found

A Blanco doctor, who treated the men after the wreck, reported finding a quantity of narcotics on the wreck victims.

Actress Gets Rich Alimony

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26 (AP) — Annabella divorced Tyrone Power today and won approval of alimony totaling at least $50,000 annually, less her earnings.

ANNABELLA

Their romance came to a formal end in superior court, when the French actress testified that Power often refused to talk to her, deserted parties in their home and went to his room to sulk, deserted parties elsewhere and forced her to drive home alone.

The settlement, made a part of the record, gives Annabella the minimum of $50,000, but provides that if his screen earnings exceed $310,000 in any one year, she will receive 17 per cent of the total.

Wins Palatial Home

Additionally, she won their palatial home, plus $291 monthly for support of her child, Annie, by a former husband. Power subsequently adopted the girl.

The actor also agreed to keep $67,000 insurance in force for her

PARIS, Jan. 26—France cheapened her money today, a step enabling her, in theory, to sell abroad at about half the old price.

She devalued her franc despite objections from Britain, which feared for the value of the pound, and from the international monetary fund, which saw danger of world competition in currency depreciation.

The devaluation threatened to boost prices in France and provoked opposition from fixed-income groups.

Takes Effect Today

The currency reform, worked out by French Finance Minister Rene Mayer, took effect today.

It was announced last night in Paris, in London and in Washington, headquarters of the international fund. The British Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps and Mayer had been talking it over in their capitals. The fund's board of directors had been discussing it in Washington.

The effect of cheapening the franc will be to make the dollar worth more in Paris—to foreign buyers, tourists and investors. More dollars in France would spur the country's export industries and enable her to buy badly needed imports.

The old franc had one official price in foreign exchange—roughly 119 to the dollar.

The new franc will have two prices. The first has been fixed by the government at about 214 to the dollar. The second will rise or fall with quotations on a new free-money market in Paris.

French automobiles, textile and perfumes now should become cheaper to buyers with dollars.

The little Renault car has been selling for 167,000 francs. Under the old system, that was $1,395. Under the new, it is $636. Its British competitor, the Austin, costs about $1,400.

A dress selling for 50,000 francs cost $400 before—at the new rate, it should cost about $200.

But rises in the franc prices at which exporters buy seem likely to impair their ability to cut the dollar prices.

Quality textiles, a French export leader, were up 30 per cent today from their last manufacturers' price to exporters. A tendency toward price rises has been noted also in other lines, where manufacturers have shown they intend to seek their share of the new profits.

Tech Student Will Join County Staff

George Elliott, who is to take his degree in animal husbandry at Texas Tech college Saturday, has been added to the staff of County Agent Dave Sherrill here, and is to assume his duties Feb. 9, it was announced today by W. N. Williamson, district extension service agent.

Elliott, whose home is at Spade, is assigned as general assistant in the office, including work on the johnson grass eradication program formerly done by H. P. Read, who resigned to enter private business.

Elliott is an ex-service man, having spent 38 months in the U. S. Marine corps during the war, of which about 27 months were spent overseas in the Pacific theater. Receiving his discharge in April 1946, he returned to school. He is unmarried.

Chicago Teachers Stage Sit-Down Strike

School Attendance Reported Normal As Paycheck Argument Enters Second Day

(By The United-Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 26 — Men teachers at high schools staged a sit-down strike today in a paycheck dispute which threatened to develop into a full scale teacher walkout.

Meanwhile, Mayor Martin H. Kennelly offered to mediate the dispute over the school board's budget, which provides wage increases for the teachers.

The city council's finance committee refused to approve the budget, and as a result teachers missed their first payday of the new year last Friday. They have not been paid since Dec. 19.

The finance committee met again today to discuss the budget. A teachers' strike tomorrow hinged on what the committee decides.

The Chicago Men Teachers' club, representing 1,100 of the school system's 1,500 men teachers, called its second sit-down strike today. At Lane and Tile Technical high schools, two of the city's largest, many of the men teachers were sitting at their desks but refusing to teach. Men teachers in some other schools took the same stand.

They said they would stay in class, maintain order and protect

Lovesick Abductor Faces Kidnap Charge

Frustrated Chemical Company Employe And 17-Year-Old End 18-Hour Journey

(By The United Press)

MERRILL, Mich., Jan. 26—The father of 17-year-old Joan Peloquin said today he would press kidnap charges against the love-crazed rejected suitor who took his daughter on a wild 18-hour ride before returning her unharmed.

William Mayer, 29, a Dow Chemical worker, was held in the Saginaw county jail pending filing of charges.

"If I can't have Joan," he shouted, "I might as well be in jail."

The kidnaping occurred Saturday night, according to Sheriff William Monroe, when Mayer went to the Peloquin home and found the girl preparing for a date with Robert Bigelow, 23.

Mayer broke down the door to the house and struggled with the girl. She fled to the bathroom. Mayer broke down that door and dragged her out, the sheriff said.

When Bigelow arrived for his date, Mayer ordered the couple to obey his orders, motioning with a hand in his pocket and threatening to kill, the girl told Monroe.

The jealous youth forced the girl to pack a suitcase and drive off with him in the Peloquin car, and they rode to Detroit and beyond, Miss Peloquin said.

"If you drive out of the state," she warned him, "you'll get 20 years on top of everything else you're going to get."

That was what decided Mayer to bring her back home safely, he

Schools Close, Travel Slowed In Wide Area

Many Accidents Are Reported On Icy Highways

A serious ice storm developed over much of Texas today—and the South Plains was one of the areas clutched in the icy grip.

Freezing drizzle began in Lubbock about 9:30 o'clock Sunday night. About midnight the drizzle stopped and snow grains began falling and were continuing at mid-morning along with a light freezing drizzle which had begun again at 5:30 o'clock this morning. The temperature was recorded at 19 from 5:30 through 8:30 and had risen only one degree at 9:30 o'clock, the U. S. weather station north of Lubbock reported.

Ice made highways slippery and dangerous for travel.

Large Sections Hit

Large sections of West, North, East and Central Texas were glazed over, the Associated Press reported.

Transportation was the main sufferer. Traffic accidents were numerous. On many highways traffic was almost at a standstill.

At least seven deaths have been attributed to the cold wave.

The ice started forming early today as a freezing mist replaced snow and bitter cold that gripped most of Texas over the week-end.

In Dallas, streetcars and buses were running far behind schedules. Traffic from Oak Cliff was at a snail's pace because bridges over the Trinity river were iced over.

Blocked By Collision

Traffic on the Fort Worth-Dallas highway, the busiest in the state, was practically blocked during the morning rush hours by a three-car collision on the Trinity bridge just west of Dallas' downtown area.

Freezing rain was reported at Abilene, Dallas, Waco, Texarkana, and Fort Worth. Pampa and Amarillo had more snow. El Paso was the only spot having a little sun.

Temperatures ranged from 17 at Amarillo to 42 at El Paso. Other readings: Pampa 18, Abilene 23, Big Spring 22, Fort Worth 28, Dallas, Houston, 34, San Antonio 31, Waco 29, Del Rio 35, Wichita Falls 25, Texarkana 30 and Beaumont 33.

Reports from over the state:

Hillsboro — Streets and highways covered with ice. Several traffic accidents.

Light Rain Freezes

Kilgore—A light rain was freezing as it hit the ground.

Odessa—A freezing rain was falling.

Plainview—The countryside was covered with ice, caused by a freezing mist.

Frigid Blasts Strike Nation

(By The Associated Press)

The third cold wave within a week moved into the north central part of the nation today as the death toll of the second, still gripping the south and east, reached 60.

A weather bureau forecaster said the new sub-zero air mass, which moved southeastward from Canada into the Great Plains — farther west than the first two—would keep the midwest and upper Atlantic coastal region frigid until at least midweek.

Lowest 27 Below

The new wave's effect was not expected to be felt in the southeastern part of the country, however, and probably will not bring lower temperatures than already have been experienced in the cold wave series.

Watertown, S. D., had the nation's lowest official temperature this morning—27 below zero.

Moderating of temperatures in the still chilly south was reported with Mobile, Ala., which recorded 22 above Sunday having a 34-degree minimum today. Milder weather was expected to reach the South Atlantic coast by Tuesday night.

Southern States Chilled

Another storm, developing in the southwest, had brought snow and freezing rain to Texas and was moving eastward across the southern states, already chilled by snow and subfreezing temperatures over the weekend.

Meanwhile, little or no relief was in sight for New England and

THE McMillans of Lubbock—Big Bill, Not-Quite-as-Big Bill, and Frances—have a swell show in connection with their African hunting adventure.

As they go around and about the U. S.—at least Big Bill's going to—showing pictures and lecturing, Lubbock is going to get a fine lot of publicity.

The Plainsman is no authority on African films, but he has never seen (1) as good outdoor pictures of dangerous and big game anywhere; and (2) has never before seen color films from the big game jungles.

The McMillan pictures and lecture are "the real McCoy," and one doesn't have to be a hunter, or an outdoor enthusiast to enjoy them fully.

Through the McMillan program, Lubbock will be given send-offs it otherwise couldn't get, so a salute to the two Bills and Frances for the job they're certain to do.

You can say this much for (or against) Henry Wallace: He doesn't play politics — he works at it!

Just about half of the West Texans who wax hottest over kicks in the teeth administered to this section by high state officeholders frequently fail to pay their poll taxes, or secure exemptions. Thus they are not qualified voters armed with what it takes to secure reprisals.

Let's don't let that happen this year.

There are many reasons why a citizen should be a voter, but out this way one of the best reasons is to be able to register dissatisfaction with people already in office and trying to stay in.

Lubbock county, for instance, could cast 20,000 votes this year IF all those otherwise eligible would secure poll tax receipts or exemptions. If we rack up three-fourths of that voting strength, we'll be lucky.

Nothing attracts the interest of a politician like votes. If a county, or an area, has the votes, it gets more sympathetic attention from the official.

South Plainsmen--all West Texans -- should have their maximum voting strength ready for application this year.

Get eligible to vote before midnight next Saturday!

For more than 20 years West Texans have been discriminated against by the Austin politicians, from governors on down, in the matter of representation in the legislature.

Even though the Constitution of Texas directs the legislature to re-district, legislatively, after every U. S. Census dictating such re-districting, the peanut politicans at Austin have refused to do so. No governor since Pat Neff has appeared on the scene with guts enough to call the solons into special session—and hold them there—to do that job.

The principal reason for this impudent nose-thumbing at the Constitution is because West Texans never voted in numbers they should vote, and also because they haven't stood together at the polls to punish enemies as well as to reward friends.

We have no one to blame for this unfair, unconstitutional situation except ourselves.

Back last August, when the U universal gang brazenly set out to expand the tax-supported country club and left-wing haven at the expense of the other colleges of Texas, the three top officials of this state took the stump for the "Universal-Building plan". They thought to do so would be good politics for them.

Governor Jester, Attorney General Daniel and Lt. Governor Shivers found out differently when the votes were counted, even though the slick plan -- now under court questioning--carried by a whisker. They saw West Texans standing together for the first time and it scared the pants off them. They've been afraid to come out this way ever since and they button-hole every West Texan they see these days to try to find out of it will be safe for them to campaign out here during the coming summer.

If for no other better reason, West Texans everywhere should make themselves eligible to vote this year--should be able to go to the polls and let "Beautiful Beauford," "what-Price" and "Golden Boy" know just how they feel about them.

Pay your poll tax by midnight Saturday. If you're eligible for exemption, get your exemption slip.

There will be city and school elections all over this area this year; there will be the Democratic primary and the run-off; there will be a Presidential and general election -- and in some cities and counties here-abouts there are sure to be some special elections not yet thought of.

Don't be on the sidelines when the polling place open up.

Be in there as a voter -- with a good, big, black pencil!

We hope no one will call on the phone, or take pen in hand, to tell us you've said all this before.

We have said all this before, and probably will say it is again --because it is something which should be said "a-gain and a-gain and a-gain," as Mr. Roosevelt used to put it in his best Groton accent.

Now that West Texans showed last August that they know how to stick together for the common weal, they should continue the practice.

We can't think of a better time than next July and August!

We see by the papers where a dress designer says women have adopted the New Look to hide their failure as wives and mothers.

We wouldn't know about that, but the New Look sure does hide a lot of other things, too!

Incidentally, some woman cracked the other day: "I don't care much for the New Look. I much prefer the Old Gleam!"

Vandals have been busy again, tossing bricks through windshields and windows of cars parked on residental streets at night. The police department says it's going to do everything it can to stop the practice and nab some of the miscreants. All well and good. Any such vandals caught should be given the works.

We should like to suggest to the police, however, that as they scour the streets for vandals they also remember Ordinance 575, Section 4, Article IV, which sets out that cars and trucks may not be legally parked on paved streets in Lubbock throughout the hours between 2 and 6 a. m. Only the personal cars of doctors on cases are immune from this ordinance.

Too many people in Lubbock are using the public streets as personal parking lots. Some people even park big trucks all night, and night after night, on residential streets -- some of them in the better residential areas. This is hazardous and a pain-in-the-neck to the fellow whose driveway is affected, as well as agin' the law.

Since the police are going to put on extra efforts to guard cars parked on residential streets from the assaults of vandals, it won't be any trouble for them to correct the all night parking on the streets at the same time.

Anybody with enough money to own and operate a car, or a truck, ought to have enough money to rent off-the-street parking space for night use.

BY DREW PEARSON: GM ALLIANCE WITH MELLON STYMIES LITTLE BUSINESS

Six Italians Hold Basic Patent For Atomic Work

WASHINGTON — Small manufacturers, at their wits' end for lack of steel and blaming their woes on the black market, should take a look at the new board of directors of General Motors. It might help them to understand where all the steel is going.

PEARSON

What happened was that General Motors recently elected Richard Mellon, of the famous Mellon family, to its board of directors. There was an interesting reason for this. General Motors manufactured the staggering total of 1,925,858 passenger cars and trucks last year — nearly half of all the automobiles produced in the entire U. S. A.

Obviously, General Motors had plenty of steel or it could not have hit this record production. But apparently it wants more. For Richard Mellon and family are the biggest stockholders in Bethlehem Steel. Also, the Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. runs the Jones and Laughlin Stteel Corp.

Thus, General Motors should have even more steel at its disposal for 1948. Thus, also, independent auto manufactures such as Kaiser-Frazer will have a tougher time. Also, there will be less steel for all sorts of other manufacturers, from filing cabinets to bicycles.

The General Motors-Mellon family move is typical of what is going on all over the country. Various big companies are either buying an interest in steel plants or maneuvering to put steel magnates on their boards of directors.

All of which is why allocation of steel becomes more and more important — if little business is not to be choked to death.

Incidentally, Richard Mellon happens to be a close friend of Secretary of Commerce Averell Harriman, the man who has been tearfully pleading with the steel companies to adopt voluntary steel allocations, but so far has refrained from getting tough.

Note — Dick Mellon is also a director of Gulf Oil, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Union Switch and Signal, Aluminum Corporation of America, Melbank Corp., Mellon Indemnity Corp., Pullman, Inc., Union Fire Insurance, Carborundum Co., Westinghouse Air Brake, and Koppers Co.

New England Humor

Senators Charles Tobey of New Hampshire and Owen Brewster of Maine, both Republicans, were questioning John Alison, new Under-secretary of Commerce for Air, plus Chairman Wayne Coy and Commissioner George Sterling, newly appointed to the Federal Communications commission. The questioning of Colonel Alison, an ex-army air corps pilot, was brief and disinterested, until the end.

"Just a minute, Mr. Alison," Tobey's sharp voice rang through the Senate Interstate Commerce committee room. "Where do you stand on the question of a chosen instrument for overseas airline operations?"

Alison gulped, returned to the table to face Tobey, who was acting as chairman. He could feel Brewster, leading congressional exponent of Pan American airways' chosen-instrument policy and great pal of Pan American, eyeing him. But he gave Tobey the answer Tobey wanted:

"I do not think at this time that the chosen-instrument policy is a sound one for our country."

Brewster remarked upon Tobey's straightforward questioning, but did not pursue the question so dear to the heart of Pan American airways.

Later, Senator Brien McMahon, Connecticut Democrat, was questioning FCC Chairman Coy about the rates radio stations charge for political programs, compared with the rates for commercial programs. McMahon said it cost one and one-half times as much to buy time for a political speech as for a soap opera. He added that he thought the rates should be equal.

Brewster interrupted here, with a sly glance at Chairman Tobey.

"If the chairman would consider this a fair question—" he began.

"Any question you asked would be a fair one," the gentleman from New Hampshire assured the gentleman from Maine.

"Well, then, what rate do you suppose a broadcaster would charge General Eisenhower at this time, Mr. Coy? A political rate?" Brewster asked.

Coy, an Indiana Democrat, passed the question on to Tobey, sponsor of Eisenhower's candidacy for the presidency:

"Whatever you charged him, he'd certainly be worth it. I'll tell you that," Tobey declared. Then he snapped: "These soap operas aren't worth a damn — and the same goes for political addresses, too — and I've made some myself."

ONLY a few people know it, but a basic patent for atomic energy was officially registered by six Italians with the U. S Patent office as early as Oct. 3, 1935. As a result, the Atomic Energy commission is debating how much Uncle Sam owes in royalties to these six patent owners for use of their basic patent.

The story goes back to 1930 in Rome where G. M. Giannini (no connection with the California bankers), Enrico Fermi, Edoardo Amaldi, Bruno Pointecorvo, Franco Rasetti, and Emilio Serge were schoolmates.

Together they evolved a nuclear reaction process which they called "process for the production of radioactive substance," and for which they filed a patent in Italy on Oct. 26, 1934.

About this time they decided to leave the realm of Mussolini, and all except Amaldi succeeded in reaching the United States where they again applied for a patent on Oct. 3, 1935. It was finally granted July 2, 1940.

As early as 1937, Giannini tried to form a company to produce isotopes, but couldn't find a backer. Later, Fermi joined the U. S. army's Manhattan group which produced the atomic bomb, and eventually it turned out that their patent, which no one would back in 1937, formed the basis for the bomb which astounded the world at Hiroshima.

At that time the army approached the Italians and offered to buy their patent. But before negotiations were completed, Congress passed the McMahon act, turning all authority over to the Atomic Energy commission and expropriating all atomic patents. The commission plans to compensate the owners for the patents seized.

Today, Giannini is in Pasadena, Calif., working on high-speed rockets and guided missiles for the government. Rasetti is a professor at Johns Hopkins, Segre is a professor at the University of California, while Fermi is professor of physics at the University of Chicago.

Dallasite Promoted To Rank Of Brigadier General In Air Unit

DALLAS, Jan. 26 (U.P.) — The Air National guard, an integral part of this nation's defense machinery in case of another Pearl Harbor, was one step nearer complete organization in Texas today with the promotion of a veteran air force soldier to the rank of general officer.

The newest step in moulding the air arm of the state's guard, a slow process following the disentigration of the nation's military forces after World War II, came from Austin with the promotion of Col. Harry Crutcher, jr., a Dallas broker, to the rank of Brigadier General.

Began In Ranks

Crutcher, who spent 15 years in the regular army air force after fighting his way up from the ranks, will command the 63rd Air wing of the national guard, with units stationed in New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. His headquarters will be in Houston, and he will commute by plane between his home and business in Dallas and the southeast Texas city.

The 63rd Wing is one of the first of the guard units in the nation to take shape, but guard officials said that within another year there will be 12 fighter wings operating in the United States with a total complement of 57,000 men and 2,800 planes.

In line with the army's plan of using the air arm of the guard, in case of attack, principal emphasis has been put on fighter wings. Of Crutcher's command, only one squadron — located in New Orleans — is a light bombardment unit.

Commands Three Groups

Texas units are the 136th fighter group and the 236th air service group, with headquarters located at Hensley field, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.

The 136th fighter group is broken down into four squadrons, stationed at Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and New Orleans. The 236th Air Service group, also headquartered at Hensley field, has squadrons in Houston, San Antonio and Dallas.

Crutcher's command also includes the 137th Fighter group of four squadrons, based at Norman and Tulsa, Okla.; Little Rock, Ark.; and Albuquerque, N. M.

Three new units — the 136th Aircraft Control and Warning squadron, a radar outfit, the 118th Radar Calibration detachment, and the 108th Aviation Engineer company — are scheduled for activation soon. These units also will be headquartered at Hensley field.

Once Speechless, Makes Singing Debut

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP) — A 16-year-old girl, who was left speechless six years ago after a tonsil operation, made her professional debut as a coloratura yesterday singing through an artificial throat on a radio program.

Jeannine McDonald, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Erwin L. McDonald, of Louisville, Ky., sang "Let My Song Fill Your Heart" on the nationwide (MBS) program "My Favorite Kid."

Scar tissue closed her throat after a tonsilectomy when she was ten years old, and for a year she breathed through a tube. Several more operations failed to restore her speech.

Recovery started five years ago when she was operated on by a Memphis, Tenn., physician who inserted an artificial throat.

She won high honors in the Kentucky annual state music meet last spring, and was chosen for the radio program as "a teen-ager who has overcome great handicaps."

The girl is to be auditioned tomorrow by the Metropolitan Opera company.

Transport Pilots In De-Icing Experiments

FORT WORTH, Jan. 26 (U.P.)—A Consolidated Vultee transport plane with experimental de-icing equipment stopped here yesterday after a flight from Pueblo, Colo.

While ice usually is a menace which fliers avoid, Convair pilots were looking for ice to check the de-icing apparatus operating on a principle of heated wings.

The plane left for San Antonio after the weather bureau reported icing conditions south of here.

Detroit Bus Drivers In One-Hour Strike

DETROIT, Jan. 26 (U.P.)—Some 1,200 bus drivers of the Detroit Street railways staged a one-hour sitdown strike today when one driver refused to operate a bus not equipped with a defroster fan.

The strike stranded thousands of work-bound persons in a bitter cold.

A company spokesman said the sitdown occurred in two of the system's eight terminals when a driver, Thalbert Reeves, refused to drive his bus without a fan.

The spokesman said the buses lacking fans were equipped with defroster vents linked to the heating system. He said drivers were persuaded to start their runs after an hour.

Drivers maintained that inadequate defrosting had been a continuing problem during the protracted cold wave. The railways employes 5,100 bus drivers and street car operators.

Forty Casualties In Holy Land Fighting

JERUSALEM, Jan. 26 (U.P.)—Reports reaching Jerusalem today said that 10 Jews were killed and 30 Arabs killed or wounded in a pitched battle yesterday on the highway to Tel Aviv eight miles west of Jerusalem.

These reports said the battle started when Haganah scouts discovered several hundred Arabs massed north of the village of Kiryat Anavim, near the hills of the Seven Sisters on the Tel Aviv highway.

Haganah scouts engaged the Arabs while others were sent for reinforcements. The battle started shortly before noon and blazed until dusk; with rifle and machinegun fire crackling through the hills.

Jewish sources said the Arabs intended to attack Kiryat Anavim at the same time that a Jewish convoy of 80 vehicles from Tel Aviv passed through.

New Home Cost Shows 104 Per Cent Rise

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—The selling price of the "average new house" reached $9,000 last November — more than double the price of $4,440 in 1939, a Commerce department report said today.

The department earlier had predicted that construction costs will be at least "moderately" higher this year.

While the selling price of the average house rose 104 persent between 1939 and November, 1947, costs of lumber increased 183 percent, said the report.

Lumber prices "are substantially out of line with other commodities," the report said, adding, however, that "sustained 'upward' pressures on prices will tend to prevail" throughout this year because "domestic consumption will continue to press production."

French Action Causes Unrest

LONDON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Government securities broke on the stock exchange today, reflecting fears that franc devaluation will damage the pound sterling.

The British cabinet was in emergency session.

Investors rushed to "get into gold." The demand forced up the prices of South African gold shares. These shares also opened strong on the Capetown market, indicating a belief that, sooner or later, the pound must be cheaper. It is now officially worth $4.02, but has sold down to $2.50 in uncontrolled markets.

Pound In Jeopardy

Most London newspapers declared the pound is in jeopardy.

Repercussions of the French move were heard throughout the sterling area, the world's largest trading bloc.

Directors of the Bank of Denmark went into closed session. In Capetown, where the Rand stock exchange opened active and sharply higher, market sources said investors obviously felt that devaluation of the pound must come sooner or later. The same trend was noted on the Cairo exchange. The exchange chairman, Emile Levy, said that pound sterling reaction usually follows franc devaluation.

Traders Nervous

In Singapore, a great international trading center, markets were closed for a Hindu religious holiday. However, financial sources said traders were nervous. Malayan money is based on sterling.

Price cutting in foreign markets was suggested in many circles as a means for Britain to protect the pound and her economic recovery program, with its emphasis on greatly increased exports.

The Daily Mail asserted "the devaluation of the franc is a victory for Russian Communism over the west." The devaluation "could lead to a currency war" among the western nations, The Mail said.

"Only one hope remains," the newspaper added. "It lies in swift and substantial aid under the Marshall plan."

Engine Runs Astray In Railway Depot

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26 (U.P.)—A diesel engine which hauls the Santa Fe streamliner, El Capitan, went into the shop today after breaking loose and plunging through a concrete wall to dangle 15 feet over busy Aliso street.

Crewmen in union station were disconnecting the four-unit power plant from the rest of the train when it suddenly lunged forward.

Twenty feet of it nosed through a wall and stuck out over the street for about four hours before a wrecker could pull the engine back into place.

No one was hurt and damage was negligible, a Santa Fe spokesman said.

Youth Given Three Year Prison Term

Robert Smithson, 19, pleaded guilty of forgery this morning before a 99th district petit jury of which Sam R. Pangburn was foreman ,and was sentenced by Judge G. V. Pardue to three years in the state penitentiary.

Judge Pardue, informed that Smithson also is under two three-year sentences from Wichita county, ruled that those sentences, believed pronounced to run concurrently, be added to the three years given here.

Lester C. Cruse, 31, a negro, pleaded guilty before the court of drunk driving, second offense—a felony—and was allowed suspension of two-year sentence. C. L. Harris was appointed by the court to represent the defendant.

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin, who represented the state, asked that the court forfeit bond of three other prisoners, Clarence Thornton, Ivison Brown, alias Pat Brown, and E. B. Barnes.

Barnes, 19, and Brown, 23, both negroes, came into court afterward and were ordered remanded to jail. Forfeiture action will be completed against Thornton, it was announced. Thornton is charged with theft over $50, the other two with burglary. Cases of all were called this morning for trial.

STOCKS TURN LOWER

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (U.P) — Stocks turned irregularly lower late today as Wall Street watched international reaction to devaluation of the French franc.

In New York, as in Johannesburg and London, gold stocks climbed sharply on the French action, but the rest of the local list slipped off as the close approached.

Gold stocks here had extreme gains ranging to more than 2 points in Homestake but mild profit-taking cut the gains late in the day. Homestake had a net rise of a point and McIntyre-Porcupine a similar gain.

Rails had gains ranging to a point in Union Pacific with Santa Fe up a major fraction. B & O, New York Central and C & O were up small amounts.

General Motors lost more than a point. International Harvester was lower. J. I. Case had a rise of more than a point. Allied Chemical lost more than a point. Phillips Petroleum and Shell Union Oil both turned more than a point higher and Standard (N.J.) strengthened. American Telephone, American Can and U. S. Gypsum were higher. Gypsum up more than a point. Goodrich lost fractionally.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP) — Cotton futures were reactionary in moderately active dealings today. Scattered liquidation was induced partly by the devaluation of the French franc. Most merchants saw no direct threat in the French devaluation since France was not considered a large producer of cotton goods and was believed to have little goods for export. Selling was also induced by fears that cotton distribution will fall because of the lagging export demand and the slow demand for cotton textiles.

Futures closed $1.35 to $2.05 a bale lower than the previous close.

Sam Rosenthal Dies

Authority at time of his death, former member of the Lubbock Board of City Development and had served twice as president of Congregation Shaareth Israel.

Mr. Rosenthal aided in organizing an American Legion baseball club and also was active in aiding a high school club. He helped organize a semi-professional baseball club in about 1936, when the first Hubber baseball park was constructed at the site of the present park on North Second.

In 1938, the West Texas-New Mexico league was formed, with the Hubbers having a working agreement with the Chicago White Sox. Different Lubbock residents were interested in and helped in the semi-professional and the later professional team which became inactive during war years.

In 1945, Mr. Rosenthal built the present Hubber baseball park as a solitary venture and games of the 1946 and 1947 seasons were played in that park. He had been president and owner of the club, which has had a working agreement with the Dallas Rebels the last two years and will have again next season.

Under Mr. Rosenthal's guidance the Hubbers have won three league flags since 1938. That year, with Hack Miller as manager, they copped in a playoff with Clovis. In 1939, with Salty Parker as manager, they beat out the Pampa Oilers. In 1947, with Jackie Sullivan at the helm, they won the Shaughnessy playoffs and then went on to defeat Kilgore of the Lone Star loop for the unofficial class C championship of Texas.

During the past season Mr. Rosenthal not only went "all out" to give Lubbock a winning team in the West Texas-New Mexico league—he gave his time and furnished much equipment for youngsters playing baseball here. He furnished balls and bats for the American Legion teams and also gave equipment to teams in the Lubbock Boys club league.

other eastern seaboard states where some points were digging out of an accumulation of snow measuring more than 20 inches.

Readings of zero or below appeared general in some New England states today with freezing weather as far south as Georgia, where Atlanta reported an early low of 28 degrees.

Snow In Louisiana

A snow storm which extended from New England to Louisiana, where Lake Charles received two inches yesterday, left an accumulation of 23 inches on the ground at Boston, and 30 inches at Hartford, Conn.

Chill weather also continued on the west coast, with temperatures generally in the 40's. Fresno Calif., had an early low of 44 today, and San Francisco 47.

The new cold wave moving across the north central states would moderate and have little to sting the Great Lakes region, the weather bureau said.

thur Burnett, about 19, a delivery boy employed at the pharmacy, to hand over at gunpoint approximately 400 grains of narcotics tablets, a quantity of powdered narcotics and $175 in money.

On the night of Dec. 26, the Prescription Lab, at 1629 College, also was robbed by narcotics hijackers.

"Give me your morphine and dilaudid," the most recent hijacker demanded.

After he had taken the narcotics and forced Lytal to open a safe and surrender its money, the young bandit walked out. His trail had not been discovered until today's message.

Man Wades Icy Creek To Rescue Ten Ducks

DALLAS, Jan. 26 (AP)—The little white duck trapped on the ice of Turtle creek in Dallas all day yesterday was rescued at 9 a. m. today.

Passing motorists, the police, fire and park departments of the city had tried for six hours yesterday to rescue the white duck hen and abandoned their attempts at 10 p. m.

This morning Arville Halloway, park department employe, waded out through the thin ice into water up to his waist and gathered in the duck and ten of her companions.

"They're pretty cold but they're gonna be all right," Halloway reported. He fed them bread crumbs and left them on the bank of the creek.

Law Offenses

cident took place in 1000-Block First, police were informed.

Trammel grocery, at Nineteenth and Ave. A, reported a hole knocked in a glass window five feet above the ground level, with a rock. It was not believed immediately that any property had been taken from the store.

Thefts Are Reported

E. Rose of 1401 Ave. R said a $20 fender skirt was stolen from his car.

P. S. Phillips of 2206 Nineteenth reported hub caps, gasoline tank cap and other accessories valued in total at $15 taken from his car.

Officials said they were holding a 49-year-old negro in connection with questioning into his carrying of a razor.

Police received a call in connection with the finding of two black pigs in 3200-block Ave. J.

Charge To Be Filed

Another charge of rape was to be filed early this afternoon. Mother of a 13-year-old white girl was complainant.

Police investigators early this afternoon had gone to 3120 Twentieth, to investigate the reported burglary of a servant's quarters at rear of the Foy Furr residence.

Police said "numerous wrecks" had been reported on city streets, some stretches of which had snow and ice on them, but that no one had been reported injured.

Slaton Junior High Singers In Program

The combined choirs of O. L. Slaton Junior High school, including the Songsters and Gleesters, under direction of Miss Imogene Webster, presented a program of song at the luncheon of the Methodist Men's club today at Hotel Lubbock.

Gerre Hancock was at the piano, and Bill Rogan was narrator, announcing numbers with a brief explanation of the song and the writer. Solo parts were sung by Carolyn Schaefer and Billy Stephenson.

After opening with "A Tribute to Song," the choir sang Stephen Foster's "Some Folks Do," the popular "Without a Song," Brahm's "Lullaby;" two spirituals, "Every Time I Feel the Spirit" and "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord;" the ever-popular "Battle Hmyn of the Republic;" A Russian air "The Vesper Hymn," and closed with "Now the Day is Over."

Ruel Martin was program chairman. Club President Clarence Whiteside was in the chair, with invocation by Ralph Brock.

Firemen Find Smoke, Can't Locate Fire

Firemen went to Lubbock National building about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, but found "much difficulty" in locating what was causing smoke.

Finally, they found that a steam pipe carrying steam at 227 degrees had overheated a board through which the pipe ran.

Such instances where a steam pipe chars lumber apparently are rare, but fire underwriter records show that 750 degrees of heat would set fire almost instantly to a board; sustained heat of 212 for a long period might cause fire, firemen said.

The trouble was located atop the old part of the structure, in a heating unit.

falling. Some of last week's snow remained.

Gainesville—Highways covered with ice and snow. Traffic slow. No interstate buses running through Gainesville.

Amarillo—Police reported all roads in the Amarillo, Borger and Pampa areas extremely slippery with ice. A trace of snow was falling.

San Angelo—Streets glazed over with ice. All schools were closed. Many minor accidents.

Ranger—Traffic was at a standstill.

Schools Are Closed

Wichita Falls—Streets sheathed in ice. All schools were suspended. Traffic barely moving.

Sherman — All interstate and intrastate bus schedules cancelled because of icy highways. City buses continued to run.

Bonham—A thin coating of ice covered the countryside. Many minor accidents.

Marshall—Ground coated with ice. A freezing rain falling.

Fort Worth—A freezing drizzle plus frozen slush from four inches of snow created an extreme traffic hazard. Numerous minor auto collisions. Hundreds were late for work.

Laredo—A light rain was falling. Four persons injured in the collision of an auto and a San Antonio bus, blamed on slippery pavement.

Austin—Slushy conditions after an all-night mixture of rain and sleet. Traffic moving slowly. Six persons injured in 13 collisions.

Tyler — A freezing mist later turned into rain and melted the remainder of Saturday's snowfall.

Palestine—Highways icy. Regular plane flights and one bus schedule cancelled. A three-way collision near Elkhart, but no injuries.

Port Arthur — Schools were closed because of a lack of water to supply boilers in the heating systems. The pressure in the city system was lowered after many users opened faucets to prevent pipes from freezing.

Little change in the weather was expected during the next 24 hours. The forecast called for rain or snow over most of the state with temperatures about the same.

again are running pell mell into the streets . . . A woman hysterically screams as she leads her child: 'More are coming! Oh, Mother of God, could this be the end?"

One unidentified American was reported among the dead.

Panay, Negros, Cebu, Leyte and Marinduque islands all were jolted, but Panay on the basis of early reports seemed hardest hit.

Falling debris from major buildings caused most of the casualties. One man died as he knelt in prayer in a church in Alimodian, an Iloilo suburb; and an American and four Filipinos were reported crushed by falling walls on a downtown street. Four men were buried in the collapse of a six-story cathedral belfry three centuries old, but rescuers dug them out alive after five hours' frantic work.

School attendance was reported normal. In many of the class rooms where teachers were on a sit-down students were at work with laboratory or shop equipment.

However, Hershel Scott, Lane physics teacher and president of the Men Teachers club, said he believed the pupils would respect picket lines if a strike is called tomorrow.

Most of his pupils said they would.

Seven Killed, Four Hurt In Plane Crash

PARIS, Jan. 26 (U.P)—Police said seven persons were killed and four others were injured late today when a plane crashed into a woodwork factory in suburban Romainville.

Police at Romainville, on the northeast fringe of the city, said they could not identify the type of plane involved.

They said casualties might run higher than the preliminary estimate, since initial confusion prevented any definite details.

The plane burst into flames, and Romainville firemen and police sped to the scene.

Bobby Locke Takes Honors At Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 26 (AP)—As stiff a golfing test as any he has faced was behind South Africa's Bobby Locke today as he departed from Phoenix on the winter golf tour with the $2,000 first money from the Phoenix open tournament in his pocket.

The cool headed visitor from Johannesburg yesterday went around the 6,578-yard Phoenix Country club course in 67-67 in the final 36 holes of the 72-hole test for $10,000 in prize money and earn the nod by a stroke over smiling Jim Demaret of Ojai, Calif.

Clips Off Two Strokes

Locke's 72-hole total of 268 clipped two strokes off the previous mark for the tournament held by last year's winner, Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who finished well back of the leaders this year. Demaret, last year's leading money winner on the PGA tour, made $1,400 while the $1,000 third place prize was taken by Lloyd Mangrum who stuck close to the other two stars throughout.

Demaret took a three-stroke lead over the other two at the end of the second round and maintained the torrid pace with a third round total of 198. But the pressure got him on the last 18 and he reported with par 71.

In fourth place, each receiving $750, were Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, who finished the first round at 65, to tie with Locke and Demaret, and John Palmer of Baden, N. C., each had 273.

Roberto De Vicenzo of Buenos Aires followed at 276, good enough for $600, and Lawson Little, Cleveland; Skip Alexander, Lexington, N. C., and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Little Rock, Ark., each took $450 for their 278's. George Schneiter, Ogden, Utah, had 280 for $350.

Will Go To Tucson

Grouped at 281, receiving $260 each, were Art Clark, Uniontown, Pa; Marty Furgol, Los Angeles, and Iverson Martin, Ft. Worth, Tex., followed by the 283's including Hogan, Leland Gibson, Kansas City, Mo., Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa.; Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Al Smith of Winston Salem, N. C. Each received $160.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, paced the amateurs with a 278.

From here, the golfers go to Tucson, Ariz., where the next tournament is slated to begin Thursday.

HOUSTON TOURNEY FEB. 17

HOUSTON, Jan. 26 (AP) — Two former champions, George Dawson of Chicago and Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., have indicated they will compete in the 13th annual Houston Country club Invitational Golf tournament opening Feb. 17.

Top Grid Powers Of 1947 Are Also-Rans In Basketball Race

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP) — A roll call of the nation's top college basketball teams today would find few of the recent football powerhouses answering "present" — proving the little guy can still throw his weight around in the cage sport.

Of the institutions that made up college football's first ten in the Associated Press final poll Dec. 8, only two — Texas and North Carolina—are still around enjoying the fresh air of upper strata basketball.

Texas Shows Lead

Texas, fifth in the football ranking, shares the Southwest conference cage lead with Arkansas and Baylor on a perfect record (3-0) and boasts one of the season's best overall marks—13 victories in 14 games.

North Carolina, No. 9 in the grid lineup, has five straight verdicts without a setback to occupy the Southern conference top rungs with N. C. State. The Tarheels have a season record of 13-2.

The other football top-flighters are basketball also rans while the cage campaign's dwindling list of unbeaten powers carries these names: New York U. (12-0), Duquesne (12-0), Columbia (11-0) and Fordham (11-0.)

Out Of Spotlight

Notre Dame and Michigan have dropped four games apiece on the hardwood and are out of the national spotlight. Others of the football first ten are struggling along with mediocre marks — Southern Methodist (9-6), Penn State (5-4), Alabama (8-5), Pennsylvania (4-6), Southern California (4-7) and Georgia Tech (4-7).

On the other hand, Kansas State, winless in more than 20 games in football, has captured 13 of 14 starts in the soft-shoe sport and is unbeaten in Big Seven competition to share the league lead with Kansas.

Other topflight basketball records are owned by Western Kentucky (13-1), Lasalle (11-1), Oklahoma A. and M. (13-1), Bradley (19-1), Illinois (11-2), North Carolina State (15-2), St. Louis (10-1), Bowling Green (16-2) and Depaul (12-3).

Jack Dempsey Thinks LaVern Roach Will Have No Trouble Beating Marcel Cerdan

BY WERNER RENBERG
United Press Sports Writer

Jack Dempsey, the old Manassa Mauler, thinks LaVern Roach of Plainview, Texas, who decisioned Tony Janiro recently in Madison Square Garden, can beat Marcel Cerdan, the middleweight champion of Europe.

Dempsey says:

"If Roach took Tony, he should have no more trouble with Cerdan."

Roach and Cerdan were signed to a Garden fight immediately after the Roach-Janiro slugfest. The date for the bout has not been set, but is believed to be early in March.

Spring Meeting Set

The Texas league holds its annual spring meeting in Houston Saturday and Sunday.

The confab will be devoted mainly to drawing up a schedule for the 1948 season, always a big job for Bill Ruggles, league statistician. Outside of that, baseball men and sports writers expect nothing important to take place at the meeting—except a banquet given by Allen Russell, president of the Houston Buffs, defending league champions.

To Lose Tall Boys

Doc Hayes, SMU basketball coach, pointed out at the Dallas sportswriters luncheon that the tall boys will be gone from Southwest conference basketball teams next year.

Playing their last year on conference courts are John Langdon, Texas; Bill Tom, Rice; Alvin Williams and George Kok, Arkansas; and Roy Pugh, SMU.

Hayes was quick to note that Baylor won't lose a single one of its starting five. With the other teams losing their star giants, Baylor probably will be up there again next year—and maybe wind up on top.

Golfers Get Ready

Texas golfers are polishing off the brassies as they get ready for a big season. The Texas Open is just around the corner, to be held Feb. 5-8 at Brackenridge park golf club in San Antonio.

The Houston invitational is scheduled Feb. 17-22.

Sandwiched in between the two for those who want to see how the big-timers do it is the Rio Grande valley open at Harlingen, Feb. 12-15. Sponsors of the links feast intend to serve orange juice at every green to acquaint the visitors with the pride of the valley.

Three Lead In SW Cage Race

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Three teams, Baylor, Arkansas and Texas, remained undefeated in Southwest conference basketball play last week as Rice dropped from the elite position with a loss to Baylor.

The Bears have won five loop tilts, Arkansas four and Texas three.

Baylor continued its string of conference victories by thumping Texas Christian, 52-48, and Rice, 61-41, last week.

Texas' defending champion Longhorns take on Southern Methodist in Dallas Saturday while Baylor meets A. and M. in College Station in the only two games scheduled this week.

Arkansas Is Idle

Arkansas, which lost one of its best men in Ken Kearns last week, is idle again in conference competition.

Kearns split a hand and may be out for the season.

Texas has a slight advantage on the basis of points scored in conference play.

The Longhorns have a total of 173 points in three games for an average of slightly over 57 per game.

Arkansas has an average of 55 points per game and a total of 220 in four played.

Baylor's average is just over 50 in five games and a 251 total.

The Deciding Point

But the Bears' schedule may prove the deciding point. They get Arkansas twice at Waco and Texas once, while the Longhorns have to make the long trip to Fayetteville, Ark., for both its games with the gangling Porkers.

Big George Kok easily held his lead in both season and conference scoring. He has 88 in conference to 55 for second place Bill Tom of Rice and 324 for the season against 215 for teammate Al Williams.

This week's schedule:

Saturday—Texas A. and M. vs. Baylor at College Station, Texas vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas.

Featherweight Champ Loses To Swingler

JUAREZ, Mex., Jan. 26 (U.P.)—After knocking down his opponent with a smashing left to the stomach, Pee-Wee Swingler, 123, slugging young negro southpaw from the Pacific Coast, last night knocked out Leonardo Lopez, 123, featherweight champion of Mexico, with a left cross to the chin in two minutes and 30 seconds of the sixth round.

The match was even through the fifth, Then Swingler dropped Lopez, who claimed a low blow. The Mexico Boxing commission took him from the ring to examine the damage. After 10 minutes Lopez returned to the ring and then the commission ruled that the blow was good, and Swingler took little time in knocking out his opponent.

Eisenhower Announces New Program To Bolster GI Morale

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The army is setting up a new food service program to keep up GI morale.

In a general order to all troops, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called for maintaining troop morale by serving palatable and appetizing food.

Special Ratings Offered

"High morale among troops is one of the greatest factors necessary in order to win battles," the army chief of staff said. "As an aid to commanders in attaining and maintaining this high state of morale, the food procured must be prepared and served in a palatable and appetizing form . . ."

His order amended a previous one ordering an improvement in the army food handling methods that was issued early in 1946.

The food service program will be handled by specially qualified officers and enlisted men, trained for their jobs. A food service career plan is now being organized.

In the meantime, 12 special ratings for enlisted men seek a food service career were outlined. They are: Food service technician, mess steward, assistant mess steward, first and second cook, food service apprentice and food service instructor.

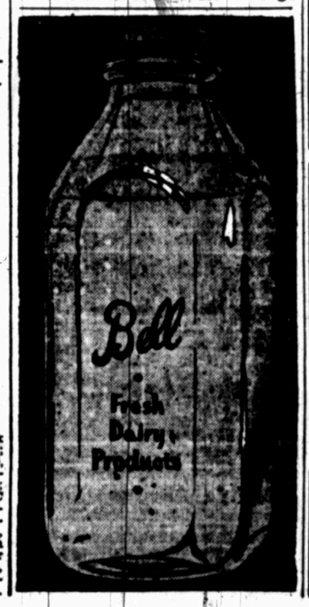

The top grades will have ranks equivalent to sergeant. Each will receive special training in army schools.

The program calls for food service supervisors ranging from a lieutenant colonel for a large overseas command to a major for an army, captain for a corps and division.

In general, the program calls for a major to supervise the feeding of 10,000 or more men, a captain for 5,000 to 10,000 men and a first lieutenant for 1,000 to 5,000. These officers must have special training in food service supervision.

The program calls for special food service schools. The Quartermaster General will be responsible for inspection of food service facilities throughout the army.

SPORTS ROUNDUP
by Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—When the Chicago baseball writers had a dinner recently, Zach Taylor, new manager of the St. Louis Browns, came up from Florida on a train that was 12½ hours late. . . . He walked into the gathering just as the show was breaking up. . . . One of the scribes immediately remarked: "Here come the Browns—last again."

Monday Matinee

Although Gerry Karver and Curt Stone likely will get more headlines during the winter track season, a third Penn State runner, Lanky Horace Ashenfelter, may turn out to be the hottest Olympic prospect. State Coach Chick Werner says Horace is the strongest and most durable runner he ever has known . . . Infielder Chuck Koney, who moves up from Louisville to the Red Sox this spring, is a nephew of Cincinnati's Bennie Zientara. . . . Unconscious (?) humor in a U. of Florida publicity release: "Sophomore Bill Pepper is not after the Southeastern conference 220 and 400 freestyle records."

Ready, Willing And Able

Story trickling in from the west tells how Michigan's Fritz Crisler attended a football luncheon at which Anse McCullough, star "T" formation passer from Chaffey Junior college was present . . . Fritz suggested that Anse might like to enroll at Michigan and McCullough protested: "But you use the single wing." . . . "We do," Crisler admitted, "and six other basic formations. We'll add another if you're interested."

Dates Set For Boys' Club Tournaments

WACO, Jan. 26 (AP)—Eight tournaments to determine state winners in various phases of boys' club work have been decided upon, Ronald Johnson, executive director of the Waco club, has announced.

Dates and sites for four of the tournaments have been set. These are: Basketball, Dallas, March 6; playground tournament, Waco, Sept. 18-19; swimming, ping pong and pool, Laredo, Sept. 10-11, and declamation, Fort Worth, Dec. 5.

Essay writing, craftsmanship, boxing and rifle marksmanship are the other tournaments planned.

Clubs which have announced participation in the meets are those at Waco, Fort Worth, Dallas, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Lubbock, San Antonio, and Laredo.

Ring Titlist In Return Go

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26 (AP) — Lightweight Champion Ike Williams is a heavy favorite to whip Freddy Dawson, of Chicago, tonight in their 10-round non-title fight but he may be glad his title is not on the line before his third encore against the Windy City mittman is over.

Dawson has won eight straight bouts—the last four by knockouts—and he's been no shrinking violet in predicting openly he'll set the champion for a lullaby.

All-Or-Nothing Bout

The last time the two fighters met on Jan. 28, 1946, Dawson held Williams to a draw in a bitterly fought battle. Recently the Chicago negro has whipped Vic Patrick, Australian lightweight titlist in 12 rounds; mowed down Eddie Miller, top down-under feather in two, and polished off Dave Andrews in two and Candy McDaniels in five.

He's well aware that a victory over Williams will necessarily bring him a shot at the lightweight title. So it's all or nothing for Dawson.

Williams holds his opponent in no little respect but the champion from Trenton, N. J., as usual is beset by the deadly calm that has spelled defeat for some pretty customers. Williams hasn't lost a fight since last Jan. 28 when he dropped a decision to Gene Burton, who he subsequently licked twice.

Physically fit from a 10 round win over Doug Carter and mentally in shape for his best battle, Williams figures to be more dangerous than in that last indecisive meeting with Dawson. He's undisputed champion now by virtue of his six round knockout triumph over Bob Montgomery and he has won six of his last 10 fights via the knockout route. That's given him new confidence which along with his natural fistic ability probably will be too tough a haul for Dawson to make.

Cardinal Grid Coach To Speak At Dallas

DALLAS, Jan. 26 (AP) — Jimmy Conzelman, colorful coach of the Chicago Cardinals, National Football league champions, will be the principal speaker at the annual Sports Achievement dinner here Feb. 14 at the YMCA.

High school and college teams of Dallas and Dallas county will be honored and outstanding coaches and officials of the state, selected by the Texas Sports Writers association for special awards, will be guests.

Major Loop Players Argue Salary Terms

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (U.P.) — A few mild beefs about salary ruffled the serenity of the major league baseball scene today as a scattering of players stalled off on signing contracts, insisting that their bosses come to the "dollars and sense" stage.

Although none would classify himself officially as a holdout, there was definite dissatisfaction among players on virtually every club.

The latest to voice reluctance at signing up included:

Yankees—Pitchers Allie Reynolds, Floyd Bevens, Frank (Spec) Shea, and Bobo Newsom; Catchers Larry (Yogi) Berra and Sherman Lollar; first baseman George McQuinn, and outfieldel Johnny Lindell.

Dodgers—First baseman Jackie Robinson; second baseman Eddie Stanky; shortstop Pewee Reese, outfielders Pete Reiser and Carl Furillo; third baseman Billy Cox; catcher Bruce Edwards; and pitchers Ralph Branca, Joe Hatten, and Hugh Casey.

Giants — Outfielders Bobby Thomson, relief pitcher Ken Trinkle, shortstop Buddy Kerr.

Cardinals — Shortstop Marty Marion; catcher Joe Caraglola; first baseman Stan Musial, third baseman George Kurowski; and pitchers George Munger, Harry Brecheen, Howie Pollet, and Murry Dickson.

Reds—Shortstop Eddie Miller; pitcher Johnny Vandermeer.

Athletics—First baseman Ferris Fain; pitcher Phil Marchildon.

Pirates — Rookie pitcher Bob Chesnes, up from the San Francisco Seals.

Wilkinson Hinted For Post At Navy

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 26 (U.P.)—Bud Wilkinson, head football coach at the niversity of Oklahoma, today was to fly to the U. S. Navy academy, possibly in connection with filling the head coaching spot there, a reliable source said.

The source, who declined to be identified, said Wilkinson was going to Annapolis at the invitation of naval academy officials. He said he did not know for certain whether the meeting was concerned with the coaching vacancy at the academy.

ACC Quintet Leading Conference Scramble

(By The Associated Press)

The Texas conference basketball race is strictly a one-team affair right now and it doesn't look as if the Abilene Christian Wildcats are going to be stopped.

The ACC five made it five victories against no defeats in conference play last week, downing McMurry, 44-35, and Austin, 61-55.

No games are scheduled this week, but when play resumes Feb. 3 the two foremost teams tangle.

Austin's Kangaroos, with three victories against two defeats, are closest to the Wildcats in the standing. And they invade the ABC court at Abilene Feb. 3.

McMurry and Howard Payne are deadlocked for third place, each with two wins and two defeats. Hardin and Southwestern are in fifth and sixth place respectively.
