A test demonstration of milo varieties north of Quail will be a stop on the county farm and ranch tour Monday, Oct. 6.

Rockets Travel to River Road Friday

Wellington Skyrockets met a completely new opponent, Class 3A River Road when they travel to Amarillo Friday, Oct. 3. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Skyrockets are coming off a respectable loss to the 3-A Childress Bobcats one of the top rated teams in their class in Texas—a game played in the mud.

River Road tied Clarendon 12-12 in the same kind of mud at Clarendon and was on the Broncho's two yard line when the game ended. River Road probably would have won on a dry field and might have won anyway if the game had lasted a little longer, head Coach James Williams speculates.

River Road went into the season with a losing streak, dropping their opener to Panhandle 20-13, then losing to Gruver 35-7 and Dimmitt 6-0.

They are not to be discounted, however, warns the Wellington Coach.

The Amarillo school has a large team on defense. For Linebackers, there are 210 pound Dwight King and 182 pound Clint Staddard.

defensive tackle weighing just under 200.

The left defensive end is 163 pound senior Perry Littlejohn. In the secondary, right halfback David Web is a 145 pounder; one safety is Duke Sanders, 127 and the other, Patrick Rogers, 169. The other halfback is Jeff Reynolds, 162. "Up front, they have size and experience. The secondary is younger," says Coach

Country Club Championships On the Line This Weekend

What Golf Pro Randy Cole calls "some pretty close rivalries" will be settled when the Wellington Country Club Championship Golf Tournament is held Saturday and Sunday, October 4 and 5.

These will be in both men's and women's divisions.

"In fact, some go back to Hay Camp Country Club days," Cole commented.

This is a 36-hole tournament, with 18 holes being played each day.

Women will tee off at 9 a.m. both days and the men at 2 p.m.

"We hope to have about 50 players with three flights for men and three for women, this will give beginners a chance to win in their flight," said Cole.

Par on 18 holes is 72, or 144 on the 36-hole tournament course.

This will become an annual event, and a traveling trophy will be awarded, with the names of the champion man and woman golfers.

It will be kept at the club house, and the name of the new champions will be added each year for 10 years. At that time the trophies will be retired for permanent display and new trophies selected.

Right now, Willie Gragson is the man to catch, being consistently the low scorer of the club.

In close contention are Mark Williams, John Coffee, Wayne Martin, Danny West, Teddy Martin, Lonnie Neeley, R.L. Mabery, Bill Long, Gary Brewer, Dick Pendleton, Grant Woodridge, Henry Sullivan and Cal Hurst.

Members are making a point to see that former club champion Bill Cole of Hollis is invited to come over and see if he is still able to outstrip Wellington players.

"The title is up for grabs and any one of these could win it," Cole commented.

In the women's division, the biggest rivalry just now

24th Annual Soil and Crop Tour Will Be Held Monday

The 24th annual soil and crops tour of the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program is planned for Monday, October 6, when farmers and business men will see how these experimental crops produce under stress conditions.

This may be the worst growing year the research demonstration program has experienced, and certainly among the worst two or three.

Five stops are planned during the three-hour tour, which will begin at 9 a.m. on the south side of the courthouse square and end in Ellison Park for the barbecue at 12:30 p.m.

Heading the tour are Extension agent Don Reeves; Ray Null, farm demonstration assistant of the NW Texas Research Demonstration program; and Tommy Powell, Soil Conservation Service district conservationist.

Directors of Salt Fork SWCD will host the barbecue.

Tour sponsors are the Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University and Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation Service, with Collingsworth County Farm Bureau providing the sound system.

Representing the Extension Service will be Dr. Frank Petr, area agronomist from the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center in Amarillo, and the district extension directors, Sue Farris and Paul Gross, Amarillo.

Wellington schools will furnish the school buses in which the group will travel, and FFA chapters from county schools will participate.

Two of Reeves projects are in the Quail-Marella area. Two cotton projects are north and east of Wellington.

One stop will be at the irrigated and dryland cotton variety cotton tests at the Tommy Coleman farm at Marella. "We will be looking for varieties with wilt tolerance that yield well. We know there is wilt, a soil borne disease in the land", said Reeves.

Another visit will be at the West Texas Utilities Co. Requests Rate Increase

West Texas Utilities Company has filed application for a general rate increase, Tommy Hudson, local manager announced.

The official filing was made Tuesday, September 30, with incorporated towns for retail customers within their jurisdiction and with the Public Utility Commission of Texas for an increase to customers outside incorporated towns.

The proposed rates would produce an increase in total revenue of $12,729,619.

This amounts to 8.27 percent based on revenues of $153,914,156 for the test period ending this past June 30.

The company requested that the new rates become effective November 4.

One of the basic reasons for the increase was cited as inflation.

"The cost of providing electric service continues to increase more rapidly than revenue," the manager said.

This rate adjustment would be only the second general retail rate increase in the company's entire history, which goes back more than 50 years. The other increase was in 1973 and amounted to about six percent across the board.

"We've managed to make

J.B. Wade, 61, Lifelong Area Resident Dies

J.B. Wade, 61, who had lived here almost his entire life, died in Collingsworth General Hospital at 6:26 a.m. Thursday, October 25. He had been ill for a number of months, although he carried on his regular activities until a short time ago.

The family home is 2003 El Paso Street.

Wade had also farmed here all of his adult life except for a few years, and he was considered one of the area's fine and respected farmers.

Born May 11, 1919, in Collingsworth County, he was the son of the late W.W. and Nora Dale Brewer Wade.

He was graduated from Wellington High School in 1938 and on December 24 of

Artist's Talent Helps Apprehend Criminals

Those who saw the western paintings of Celia Anderson Meadors, Amarillo artist, when they were shown here, left the exhibit with a feeling of satisfaction and pleasure.

Yet many were not aware of another part of her career, as for Celia Meadors is employed by the Amarillo Police Department to work as an artist with its forensic hypnotist, Jim LaFaver.

Her assignment is to sit quietly and make a composite drawing of criminal suspects from descriptions given by its victims or by witnesses to a crime while under hypnosis.

LaFaver questions the witness, who from time to time looks at Mrs. Meador's drawing and may ask for minor changes.

Wellington people, who have known Mrs. Meadors all her life, have seen many of her composite drawings without being aware of the artist. Her signature on each is tiny, but almost every sketch of a "wanted" person appearing in the Amarillo News or on any of the television stations is her work.

She has been called to work with LaFaver on almost all major homicides for three years.

Celia Meador's unusual work came to her by unhappy accident. Three years ago, a friend in her neighborhood became a rape victim and it fell to Celia to accompany her to the police station.

LaFaver handed Mrs. Meadors paper and pencil and suggested she draw the rapist as he was described.

"I think they wanted me out of their way," she laughs.

As LaFaver asked questions, the victim answered, and as she talked, Mrs. Meadors drew the face she described. When she had finished, her friend thought it showed the face precisely as it was. She was asked to go to work for the Police Department.

"Ninety five percent of all people I work with are under hypnosis," she says, pointing out that answers given under hypnosis offer more information. "It's amazing how much more detail you are aware of."

Occasionally one of these sessions may have its amusing points.

While working with a law enforcement agency outside of Amarillo, a pastor and his wife who had seen the couple sought for questioning in a murder case came in to be hypnotized. An officer tried to put the man at ease and told of another instance he knew about in which a witness, a quiet home-loving man, left after hypnosis and had what might be called "a night on the town."

Instead of being reassured, the clergyman was terrified. What if something like that happened to him? He made a poor witness. His wife, whom officers did not "reassure" was excellent.

There was irony in a New Mexico case.

A prominent man was working with officers to solve the brutal murder of his wife, which he said he witnessed. As he talked he described the murderers face in detail. It was his own face.

The grand jury considered this sufficient evidence to return an indictment.

Hypnosis, as Celia Meadors describes it, is "super relaxation-ultra-awareness."

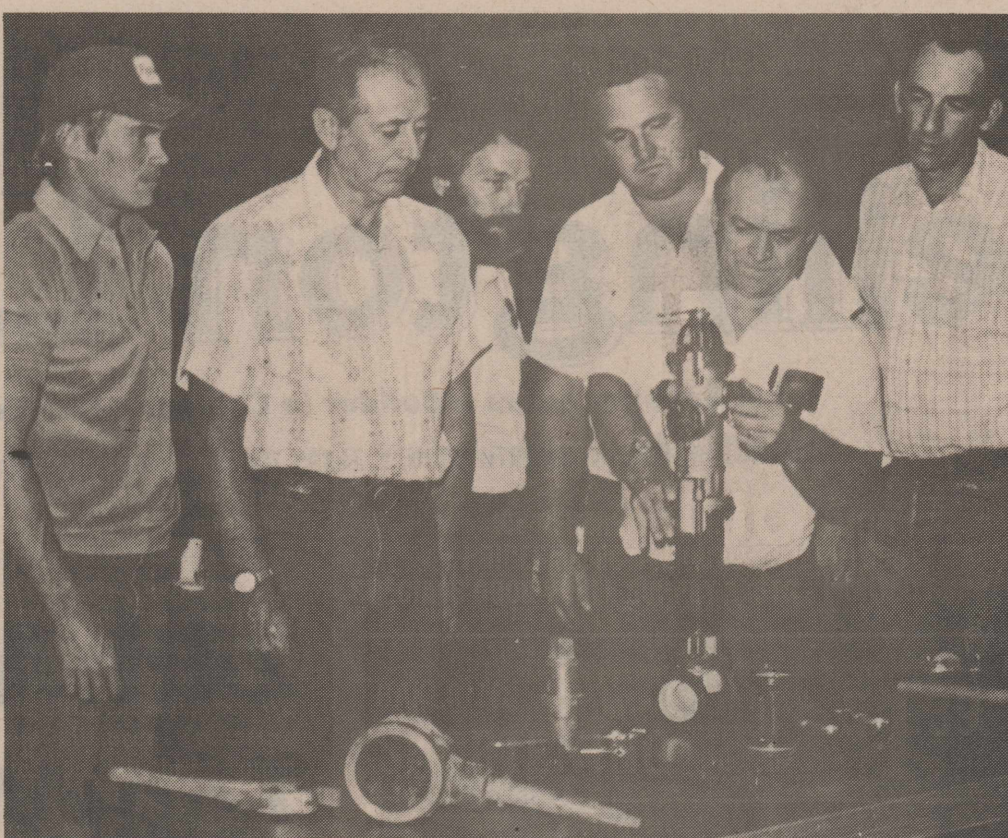

After working with witnesses exhibiting these qualities for several years, she says that she finds that she also responds to them as she sits at her drawing board.

Pain is no deterrent to cooperating with investigative officers while under hypnosis. Mrs. Meadors recalled a girl, victim of a hit and run driver, who gave excellent testimony. "She must have been in terrible pain," said the artist.

Sometimes hours of sketching are long. "I have worked as much as 8 hours straight through and never tired," she says.

The job is an ideal one for Mrs. Meadors, the wife of Ben Meadors and the mother of Ray Anne and Andy. It is not a full time one and leaves her time with her family and her painting.

At the same time, it is most satisfying work, for she knows a number of her drawings have resulted in the apprehension, and later conviction of criminals.

FIRE HYDRANT STUDY

Hale E. Scott, second from right, assistant training specialist with the Texas Engineering Extension Service, Arlington, instructs a group attending the fire hydrant maintenance school in Wellington this week. Men from left are Steve Ainsworth, Lloyd Luck, Al Neighbors all of Childress, Eddie Davis, Wellington water superintendent, Scott, and D.W. Ford of Wheeler. Scott is explaining a fire hydrant using a cut away model.

J.I. Morgan farm at Quail for a grain sorghum variety test. This plot includes 10 varieties. "Yield is what we are looking for," remarked Reeves. These are in large enough plots that they can be harvested with a combine and weighed at the elevator.

The Salt Fork SWCD is in this area, where tour visitors will look at critical area shaping on the Neil Davis farm located east of Marella.

Powell explained that critical area shaping relates to stabilizing areas around gullies to keep them from washing more. Davis shaped and smoothed the gullied area, about 16 acres in size, and from 6 to 8 feet deep. He then established a planting of weeping love grass.

Back at Wellington, the next stop will be at the Troy Thomason farm on the north edge of Wellington for a cotton variety demonstration. The test is duplicated twice in the field, and varieties were selected for yield and fiber quality.

The other cotton demonstration will be on Billy Langford's farm northeast of the Farmers Co-op Gin on the Mangum highway.

"We will use about the same varieties as on the Thomason farm but with a little different soil type. We have different planting dates on all three cotton plots. We'll be testing for fiber quality and yield there also," said Reeves.

Andy Henard heads the Collingsworth FU. Other directors include Dan Henard, Jr., Dan Langford, Doug Seal, Carroll Nunnelle, Garland Hightower, Troy Thomason, Billy Waters, Donald Langle, Joe Frank Knoll, Rudie Tate and Dennis Cudd, who is secretary.

Other officers, including vice-president and secretary-treasurer, will be chosen from the board at the November meeting.

A number of resolutions will be introduced and voted on by the resolutions committee.

Seventh Grade Drops Game To Shamrock

Wellington Seventh Grade lost to its Shamrock counterpart, 12-0, but except for two big plays, they held their own against their opponents Thursday afternoon, Sept. 25.

The two touchdown plays were the extent of Shamrock's offense against the Wellington defense, said Coach Bryan Hill.

The Wellington offense had a good drive on their first possession of the ball, then stalled on the 15 yard line.

They learned a lot from last week, and that's what I'm liking, they're learning and having fun," Hill continued.

The offense was unable to move the ball much in the second half, and they never did get good field position, but they tried. The defense was good all through the game."

Flag Football Tourney Set for Saturday, Oct. 4

It's going to get rough in Wellington Saturday. The Throat Dogs, Warriors, Stompers and others are going to battle it out.

A flag football tournament is scheduled to begin at 12 noon Saturday. The tourney final is scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

And a punt, pass and kick contest is on tap for fourth and fifth grade boys. The punt, pass and kick contest will be at 7:30 p.m., before the final game of the flag football tournament.

Individual trophies will be awarded to winners of the flag football tourney, and trophies will be awarded in each age group in the punt, pass and kick contest.

Don Beck is coordinating the punt, pass and kick contest and the Skyrocket

Booster Club will assist with the contest.

All events will take place at Powell Field.

Admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children 12 years old and under. The concession stand will be open.

All proceeds benefit the Satellite Center.

Copies of flag football rules, under which the tournament will be played, are available from Satellite Center director Cheryl Brown.

The schedule for the tournament is as follows:

12 noon Lone Star Gas vs Throat Dogs

1:15 p.m. Sweeties vs Dodson Nazarene

2:30 p.m. Warriors vs Animals

3:45 p.m. Penrod Roping Club vs Stompers

5:00 p.m. Winners of Game 1 vs winners of game 2

6:15 p.m. Winners of Game 3 vs winners of Game 4

7:30 p.m. Punt, Pass & Kick contest for fourth and fifth grade boys

8:30 p.m. Tournament final

Slover Brings Candidacy Here Thursday

Ron Slover of Amarillo, Republican candidate for representative from the 13th Congressional District, will be in Wellington Thursday, October 2, to meet with area voters.

David Baumgardner, Republican county chairman, said Slover is due to arrive here at 4 p.m. and he will visit around the square and with business people until stores close.

A reception for Slover will be held at the Heritage Room at 7:30 p.m. in order that voters from throughout the county may spend more time with Slover.

The public is invited, Baumgardner emphasized.

He said that Slover is now on a tour of the 13th Congressional District, traveling in his motor home.

Slover is opposing Congressman Jack Hightower.

Neither is the offense as large as the defense in the line. Probably the best of this group is Martin the 5'1" sophomore, and big fullback King, a senior. These two do most of River Road's running. Quarterback Patrick Rogers, 6'1", 169 pound junior, throws the ball well.

"We're looking for a tough game. We've got to travel and it's a long road trip," says Williams. He adds they are trying to get ready this week.

The Rocket head coach is proud of his boys in the Childress encounter.

"Our kids came together in the second half and played a real good game against Childress. I'm real proud of them. We were down 20-0 at halftime, and if they had given up, they could have beaten us real bad. But our boys played real well. Doug Gibson, Channy Wood, Joe Saldana, Paul Estes and Brent Long did an excellent job blocking. In Wet weather, Jody Coleman did a good job of quarterbacking. After playing the way they did against Childress, I'm anxious to see what they do this week against River Road," said Williams.

Of River Road, he commented: "They haven't won a game, but they're a larger school and we're going to have to play good football." Superintendent of River Road School is Wellington Ex-Student Aubrey Spear, and a member of the coaching staff is Ronny Glenn, a former Wellington coach.

Injury wise, Rocket Joe Saldana is having knee problems and did not work out Monday.

Tim Harris was injured in a workout last Thursday and did not suit up against Childress. Hopefully, he will be back in good form for the Amarillo game.

"We have had some injuries but we're trying to get them back," Williams added.

Looking a little farther down the road, Williams reminded that only two more non-district games before Wellington goes into its conference schedule.

Alan Hatch, Jennie Haughton Wed in Dallas Rites Saturday

Jennie Haughton of Dallas and William Alan Hatch of Lubbock were married in a ceremony performed in Grace Bible Church in Dallas Saturday, September 27 at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Haughton of Dallas.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Tim Hatch of Lubbock, and he is also the grandson of Mrs. F.A. Hatch of Wellington and the late Mr. Hatch, and Mrs. Tom Campbell of Lubbock, and the late Mr. Campbell.

The Tim Hatches and Tom Campbells formerly lived in Wellington.

The bride wore the formal gown, enhanced with lace, which the bridegroom's mother wore at her wedding. Designed by Priscilla of Boston, it featured a fitted bodice with lace sleeves that came to points over her wrist, and a full skirt that swept to a chapel train. The hip-length illusion veil was attached to a fitted headpiece. Her wedding bouquet was in cascade design.

Elizabeth Haughton, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Greg Lamb, and Louisa Haughton, sisters of the bride; Jane Haughton, a cousin; Alice Forde, Laura Sasser and Susan West.

The bridesmaids were gowned in taffeta gowns in wild cherry color. Michael T. Hatch brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and groomsmen were Les Hatch, another brother, Deane Lewis, Rick Sims, Kevin McKelvy, Ty Lovett and Larry Toon.

Ushers were Drew Johnson, Mike Guajardo, David Arterburn, Rob Moore, Billy Haughton, Frank Haughton and Greg Lamb.

Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Haughton were hosts at the reception and dance at Northwood Country Club in Dallas.

The bride graduated from Highland Park High School, Dallas and Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

A graduate of Coronado High School, the bridegroom also graduated from Texas Tech University, where he played football.

They will live in Lubbock at 5226 15th Street, where Mr. Hatch will be in business with his father in the Overhead Door and Ohedco Companies.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the City Club a top one Maine Place, Dallas.

Former Wellington residents present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Hatch of Eldorado, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gribble of Altus, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hatch of Pilot Point, and Dr. Peggy Riggs Wildman of Dallas.

Breedings Host Friends

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Breeding of Samnorwood entertained a group of relatives and friends at their Greenbelt Lake home Sunday through Tuesday, September 21 through 23.

Included were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Breeding of Miami, Mrs. Mary Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Breeding of Dozier, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Edna Bradley and Mrs. Stella Payne.

During the Middle Ages a person's social class could be seen by whether he sat above or below the salt at a table.

man Mrs. King, led the meeting in an opening prayer, then called a short business session. She called to the attention of the members the coming Annual Conference of the United Methodist Women at the First United Methodist Church, Plainview, October 7 and 8. For years Wellington Church has been represented for every annual meeting. There was a proposal that our unit might pay the expenses of the two delegates allowed us.

The study, "Live the Questions Now", was continued by Mrs. Gorman Owens. She presented short chapters written by women of faith both in the present and in the past. Some were famous, others were like women met every day. This revealed in an interesting way how these women developed their spirituality.

Others present were Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Leggett, Mrs. G.B. Hopper, Mrs. Holcomb, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Nita White, Mrs. Barney Glenn.

Thank You

We do not have words to express our deep gratitude to all of you who were so thoughtful throughout the illness and at the passing of our loved one. Each expression of your sympathy brought us consolation in our grief.

We are grateful for the care given by Dr. Holcomb and the hospital staff, those who sent food, flowers and cards and gave to the memorial funds, and for your words of consolation.

We thank especially the men who planted and worked the crop, harvested the wheat and cared for the livestock.

All that you did for us over so long a time has given us great comfort. If we have missed thanking any of you, please take this as our personal word of appreciation.

Put Up Or Shut Up

Despite the notion that more people probably will vote against someone, rather than for someone, in the presidential election in November, and despite our ideas that one candidate may be as bad as another, but in different ways, we do need to vote.

It's our responsibility to try to learn as much as we can about each candidate and to decide who will best serve the nation. That may be a difficult task this year, but as citizens of a republic it is a job that we have to take up along with our liberties that the republic insures.

We can't vote if we are not registered to vote. And Friday, October 3 at 5 p.m. is the deadline to register.

Anyone who isn't already registered should register in the tax assessor's office on the first floor of the courthouse in Wellington.

Even if the election doesn't go our way, we won't have the right to say "I told you so" after November if we didn't take the time to register and vote.

—Henry Wells

Energy Saving and Waste

While we fight the Battle of OPEC almost daily and in rather haphazard and feeble fashion make noises about new sources of energy, the sun and the sea, we continue to simply dump potential energy. Here we refer to the refuse that is collected by garbage men. No, not all of it can be made useful, but still much more than we realized.

Here again is another instance in which we might turn to the Japanese for example and instruction. They have been using all manner of waste for fuel and other necessities for many years.

A few days ago we read a report on altering such things as sawdust and peanut shells to an energy source. News of the former is no news to us. More than 30 years ago we visited a lumber plant in the Pacific Northwest. It was an amazing experience. Huge logs, often six feet in diameter were dragged from a pond to a flatbed rail car. The car roared down a track and the log was met by a saw which halved it. Going into reverse the flatbed met more saws and the log was quartered. All this in seconds. The process went on through out the plant. And finally we learned that the sawdust was used as fuel to power the plant, the rest sold to homes where sawdust furnaces were used. Also the dust was compressed into logs for burning in fireplaces. Absolutely no waste in that plant.

One wonders, how much wealth do we bury in the ground each passing day? The time is not distant, we predict, when there will be an end to all manner of waste. Who knows, we may even someday find the old garbage dump is worth of mining?

FROM HIS WORD...

One of the major shortcomings of the normal Christian life today is a true picture of ourselves as Christ sees us.

Paul the Apostle, states that "if we died with Him (Christ), we shall also live with Him." (2 Tim 2:11) "Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death? Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life." (Romans 6:3-4) "Even so consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus." (Romans 6:11)

Christ does not desire to see His people walking in the world, but He does see them as "bond-servants" following His leadership. If we could see ourselves dead to this life and alive to Christ, what different walk we would have!

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — In a surprise move that voters would probably like to see more of in state government, the State Board of Insurance commissioners last week voted against a hike in auto insurance rates.

The insurance industry had requested a rate hike that would raise consumer premiums by close to $80 million in Texas. And since the state board staff had recommended a $257 million increase, almost 19 percent, most observers thought the industry would come away with some gains.

But board chairman William P. Daves said the industry has enjoyed steady income increases from investments, and proposed to deny the rate increase. He was joined in the vote by Lyndon Olson Jr. and Durwood Manford.

Daves' denial was shock enough for the industry representatives attending the hearing, but chairman Daves, the former president of a bank and insurance company, had more to say.

Using his own calculations, he argued companies have benefited from a steady increase in income from their investments, and that because of drastic inflationary changes, a thorough review should be made of the approach to the methods of insurance rate-making.

Daves recommended creation of an advisory committee to study the subject of increased insurance company investment income.

Reduction Blocked

If consumers stand to gain on that front, they stand to lose on another one.

In the same week, a state district judge blocked a 14 percent reduction in credit life insurance rates granted by the board last March.

Officials put the potential drop in rates to consumers at between $20 and $40 million in Texas.

But Judge Jim Dear ruled the insurance board violated the Administrative Procedure Act last spring by not conducting the hearings as a "contested case." He also said the board lacked the authority to regulate credit insurance commissions.

Plutonium Leak?

State Sen. A. R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, asked the State Health Department to look into reports of a plutonium leak at Todd Shipyards in Galveston.

The shipyard is the storage site for controversial low level nuclear waste that has been building up in Texas for the past two years.

Schwartz has consistently spurred the shipyard to transfer its waste, but the removal has been slow. He called the plutonium report "the last straw" in a series of inept waste handling.

Gasoline Tax

One of the toughest issues before the next Legislature will be reduction of local property taxes and finding other ways to raise revenue.

Governor Clements and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby have considered raising the five cents-per-gallon fuel tax, currently the lowest tax in the nation, but last week Hobby rejected a tax hike on motor fuels.

He said he doesn't believe it will be needed because of unforeseen revenue increases in the sales tax and oil and gas severance taxes.

Hobby may be reading the mood of taxpayers at the same time he is reading tax reports. Motor fuels are always subject to price increases, especially at times of crises in the Mideast, and consumers are already angry enough at the rising cost. If the state were to add the burden of increased taxes, more than one political head would fall to outraged voters.

Clements has yet to back off the idea, but some observers expect him to follow Hobby's example.

Controversial Poll

A poll released last week showing President Jimmy Carter eight points ahead of Ronald Reagan in Texas has been praised, booed, respected and scoffed by many.

Clements says Reagan's own poll shows him leading Carter. The Carter folks say Reagan is dropping and the President is rising in theirs.

Both candidates will visit

Texas again before November, surely causing more chaotic polling results.

AG Briefs

Texas Atty. General Mark White, in legal opinions issued last week, ruled:

—For purposes of Section 21.301 (a) of the Texas Education Code, "current term" means the period beginning with the first day of scheduled in-service training and ending with the first day of scheduled in-service training the following year.

—Public school teachers may not be required to pay for substitutes necessitated by their absence while engaged in military training or duty.

Former City Man Injured

Rocky Hill, a former Wellington resident now living in Huntsville, had all fingers severed from his right hand in a motorcycle accident there Saturday, Sept. 27, according to information received by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill, 1405 15th Street.

The accident occurred at the apartment complex where Hill lived about 5 p.m. As he was preparing to ride his motorcycle he caught his hand in the chain.

Surgery was performed that night in Conroe Medical Center, Conroe, where he is still a patient.

Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill of Jacksonville, who have been with him.

He graduated from Wellington High School in 1973 and lived with his grandparents while he was a student here.

He is an employee of the Texas Prison System at Huntsville and attends Sam Houston State University.

Mary Deberry Promoted

ARMY/AIR FORCE HOMETOWN NEWS CENTER—Mary L. Deberry, daughter of Mary R.D. Booth of Wellington, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

Airman Deberry is a medical specialist at Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D. She is a 1973 graduate of Wellington High School.

Firecrackers Defeat Irish 8-0 Thursday

Wellington Junior High Firecrackers defeated their Irish opponents 8-0 in Shamrock Thursday night, Sept. 25, when James Benton scored early in the third quarter.

James Bergvall added the extra two points on a run.

"All the boys did real good. They got out there and hit hard," declared Coach Ray Bostick.

The first half of the game was a defensive battle, and Shamrock made its deepest penetration through a penalty, reaching the Firecracker 30. A stiffened Wellington defense held.

On the last play before the half, Shamrock punted and Jimmy Barber took the ball for a 70-yard touchdown run. The play was called back because of a penalty and the game was scoreless as the whistle blew.

Wellington tried an on-side kick to start the second half, then held until the young Irish had to punt.

With Bergvall and Benton doing most of the ball carrying, Wellington moved to the 5 yard line and from there Benton went over. Benton and Bergvall added the two.

The remainder of the game was a defensive battle for the youngsters. "Nearly the whole defensive unit played real good," declared Bostick. Jamie McKay made two saving tackles, as Shamrock broke loose.

"They tried to run alot of reverses and outside plays on us, but because of cornerbacks Greg Bowen and Benton, they didn't get yardage."

Bostick called it a team effort.

Medical advances have pushed the average age span to almost 73 years.

Farmers, Ranchers Offered Emergency Loans by FmHA

Emergency Loans for farmers, ranchers or aquaculture operators are available through county offices of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), Raymond D. Hodges, FmHA County Supervisor said today.

Mr. Hodges asked that those who need farm credit as a result of drought, extreme high temperatures or the tornado of May 30, 1980, make their needs known at the Farmers Home Administration office at 904 West Avenue, Wellington, Texas.

Applications for assistance in the disaster stricken counties will be accepted by Farmers Home Administration until June 18, 1981 for physical losses and production losses.

FmHA loans covering actual physical and production losses may be used to replace installations, equipment, or buildings (including homes), lost through these disasters. Funds may be used to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, livestock or to meet interest and depreciation payments on current real estate and chattel debts. Other loans, beyond actual losses, can be made for annual operating expenses or to make major losses, can be made for annual operating expenses or to make major adjustments in a farming (or ranching or aquaculture) operation.

"Funds can be used for essential operating and living costs," said Mr. Hodges.

Loans covering actual losses are made at an interest rate of five (5) percent and are scheduled for repayment as rapidly as feasible consistent with the applicant's reasonable ability to pay. Loans beyond actual losses have various maturities, depending upon the purpose of the loan.

To be eligible for an emergency loan, an applicant must have suffered losses from the disaster and be unable to get credit from other sources.

Emergency loans can be used to help the farmer restore damaged farm operations and additional loans based upon the emergency designation can be used to reorganize the farm for greater efficiency and better production.

Free Vaccine Clinic Oct. 13

Clinics offering vaccines that give protection against several childhood diseases are scheduled here October 13, from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Protection is against polio, diphtheria, lock jaw, whooping cough, measles, rubella and mumps.

There is no charge.

The vaccines will be given by Texas Department of Health nurses from Canyon in Collingsworth County Community Action center, 612 East Avenue, according to Jerry DeSha, Health Program specialist.

Skyrocket JV Downs Irish 12-0

Skyrocket Junior Varsity defeated the Shamrock JV 20-6 on Irish Field Thursday night, Sept. 25, with freshmen accounting for much of the game's action.

Regulars accounted for the scoring.

Bruce Alexander was first to cross the goal line, going from five yards out, at the end of a 40 yard drive. Try for the extra points failed.

An alert move by Tito Nevarez paid off late in the second quarter as he recovered a Shamrock fumble in the Irish end zone. The Shamrock had received a punt then fumbled it on their 5 yard line and the ball rolled into the end zone where Nevarez fell on it.

Try for the extra points failed, and the score was 12-0.

The Irish accounted for their only score early in the third quarter, on a 40 yard run. Some missed Wellington tackles enabled them to do this, according to Coach Mark Reasor. The score was 12-6.

The final Rocket JV touchdown came at the opening of the fourth quarter, as Shane Cobb scored on a 45-yard run. Wade Williams ran a quarterback keeper around left end for the extra points. The Rockets led 18-6.

"We played a lot of freshmen in this game and started several," said Coach Reasor. "They played real well. Shamrock never got past our 30 yard line in the fourth period, and we held them pretty good all the way except for the touchdown drive."

"As for the tackles, they (the Rockets) let them go a lot when we had them on major plays, but the blocking was the best of the season. Cited for excellent playing were Williams on offense, and defensively, Alexander and Ricky Martinez.

Childress Downs Skyrockets, 27-12, In the Rain Friday

Childress hit three home runs in the first half to put 20 points on the board before Wellington scored, but the Skyrockets put in a creditable performance against the state's sixth-ranked AAA team and wound up with a 27-12 game here Friday, Sept. 26.

The afternoon's drizzle turned into a rain as the game progressed, and the Rockets had stickier fingers than the Bobcats, intercepting two Childress passes and recovering three Childress fumbles.

The Rockets first score came on an interception. In the third quarter Tim Anderson hauled in a Childress pass, took off down the left sideline, put some fancy footwork on the Childress defenders and stepped over the goal for a 57 yard touchdown.

The Rockets other score came in the fourth quarter on a picture-perfect toss from Jody Coleman over the heads of the Bobcat rush to Darrell Thomas who scampers in from the 10 yard line.

Extra point runs after both touchdowns fell short of the mark.

Childress scored on the first play of the game. Bobcat quarterback Barry Johnson kept the ball around his left end and dashed 64 yards for a touchdown. The extra point kick went wide.

The Bobcats second score came in the second quarter when Donald Sims broke around right end for a 45 yard touchdown rush. Barry Johnson kept the ball for two extra points.

Childress third score came on another big play, this time a 70-yard pass from Johnson to Quentin Klepper (the first completed pass of the rainy night). The extra point kick failed.

Childress final score came late in the third quarter when Donald Sims scored from the 15-yard line and Ray Sharp's extra point kick was good.

Childress outgained the Rockets on the ground, but the Rocket defense was able to come up with big plays to stay in the game. Paul Estes recovered a Childress fumble at midfield in the first quarter. Randy Johnson and Doug Gibson caused and collected another fumble at the end of the third quarter that set up the Rockets passing touchdown. And Joe Saldana recovered a third fumble in the closing minutes at the Skyrockets' own 15. Lennie Archie, all alone with a Childress receiver, came up with a second quarter interception to stall another Childress drive.

IN THE RAIN

Wellington quarterback Jody Coleman eludes a Childress rusher in a rain which got heavier throughout the game Friday.

Bike-a-thon Slated Saturday, 10 a.m.

Riders for the Saturday, October 4 St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Wheels for Life Bike-a-thon are now asking Wellington residents to back their efforts by pledging a contribution for each mile their rider goes. "The money our riders earn will help continue St. Jude's life-saving study of childhood cancer that has become so important to children all over the world," said Bike-a-thon chairman Mrs. James Ingram.

The ride starts at 15th and Haskell Streets at 10 a.m. and will continue north along Haskell Street and Highway FM 1035 to the end of that road. The total distance is three miles.

There will be checkpoints at the end of each mile. Riders will then return to the sponsors to collect the pledge.

"Each rider will be given a lap card when they register at 15th and Haskell," Mrs. Ingram said. "Every time they ride through the check points, we'll initial the card. At the end of the ride we'll check it and sign it to show that the rider earned what the sponsor pledged."

"We'll be showing that we care about children by helping this cause," Mrs.

Ingram said. "Please support your rider with a generous pledge, and then help them get the funds to us as soon as the ride is over."

Riders can still obtain sponsor-registration forms at Lonetta's, 816 West Avenue.

White Gins First Bale In Donley

A bale of cotton grown at Quail was the first 1980 bale ginned in Donley County.

The cotton was grown by Delbert White on the Neeley Farm.

Twenty-five hundred pounds of seed cotton yielded a 620 pound bale with 1,000 pounds of seed.

The cotton was ginned at the West Texas Gin.

According to information released, the bale was ginned without cost and will be bought by Hedley Lions Club and given away at the Hedley Cotton Festival.

Services Here Monday for Dessie Owens

Graveside services for a former Wellington woman, Mrs. Dessie L. Owens, 58, 3800 East 16th Street, Amarillo, were conducted at Fairview Cemetery Monday, Sept. 29.

Mrs. Owens died Friday, Sept. 26. Services at Amarillo were conducted at 1 p.m. Monday in Blackburn Shaw Funeral Chapel with the Rev. J. Alan Ford pastor of Southwest Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was beside her husband, L.B. Owens, who died in 1966 with local arrangements by Kelso Funeral Home.

Mrs. Owens was an employee of Quality Inn., Amarillo.

She was born at Bobsville, Okla., and came here from Lamar County. She and Mr. Owens were married in 1938 and farmed here until they moved to Amarillo in 1950.

Survivors are four sons, L.B. Owens and Weldon L. Owens of Amarillo; Charles W. Owens of Hobart, Okla., and Donald R. Owens of Dallas; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Humphrey of Amarillo; Mrs. Alice Tabor of Lubbock and Mrs. Rose

James Richardsons Visit Over Texas

Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson spent part of last week visiting in Plano with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sweat and Michelle. From there, they went to Houston to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schuler.

The two couples visited in Anahuac where Richardson had gone to school. They also saw the Astros play in the Astrodome and attended the Windmill Dinner Theatre, where they saw Lana Turner in "Murder Among Friends."

They visited another sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Powell and sons in Round Rock. They went sightseeing in Austin and visited the LBJ Library

Their next stop was the Pitchfork Ranch, where they visited their other daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moorhouse, Amy and Keri. The two girls returned home with them

Cotton---see the newest next week.

Farmers Cooperative Society No. 1 in Wellington invites everyone to check out the new varieties of cotton in test demonstrations that will be featured on the Collingsworth County agriculture tour.

Cotton is our most important cash crop and at Farmers Cooperative Society No. 1 we're interested in everything we can do to improve our production.

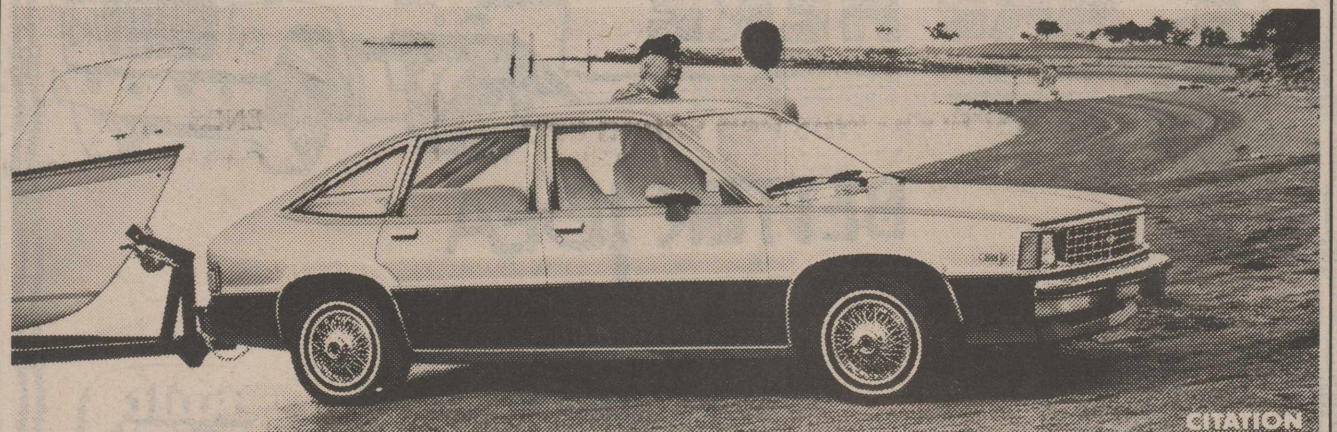

This year we're buying a new module truck that will make our operation more efficient. Every year we work hard to make improvements in the gin that result in long-term benefits for our customers.

So we urge everyone to take a little time on Monday, October 6 and see the newest test demonstrations in cotton. A better cotton crop means a better agricultural economy for us all.

CHEVY'S UP AHEAD FOR 1981

1981 is off and running at your Chevy dealer's now. So now's the time to come in and see a great new year of great new Chevrolet cars and trucks.

Like Chevy Citation, a proven car that has become America's best-selling front-wheel drive. And Chevy Chevette, the tough son-of-a-gun that's America's best-selling subcompact.

Come see the C10 Fleetside Pickup that's lighter and leaner than last year, yet with greater maximum payloads.

Then take a look at the beautifully new Monte Carlo, with virtually every inch reshaped, every line resculpted.

And for '81, there's a GM-developed on-board computer that continuously monitors and adjusts your car's performance to suit driving conditions... automatically! It's called Computer Command Control. And it's standard on every 1981 gasoline-powered Chevy passenger car.

So come on up ahead with all of the 1981 Chevrolets. At your Chevy dealer's now.

SEE ALL THE 1981 CHEVROLETS AT YOUR CHEVY DEALER'S NOW!

Mrs. A.R. Vaughan Now Convalescing

Mrs. Raymond Vaughan, who has been critically ill in a Lubbock Hospital, is now slowly improving at her home, 3516 30th Street, Lubbock, 79410. After Rev.

Vaughan retired from the pastorate of the Assembly of God, the couple continued to live here for a time before moving to Lubbock.

Old World wagtails, birds of a species related to the lark, get their name from their habit of jerking their long tails up and down.

Mrs. Bloodworth Dies Sept. 25 At Athens

Mrs. Lucy Campbell Bloodworth, 90, died Thursday, Sept. 25, at Park Highland Nursing Home, Athens, after a long illness. She and her first husband, the late T.G. Campbell, lived in Collingsworth during the 1930s and early 1940s. He taught in the Midway and Cross Roads Schools. His death occurred in 1948 at Spur.

Mrs. Bloodworth was the former Lucy Lee Peters, daughter of R.H. and Sallie Homes Peters and was born at Tolar March 25, 1890. She was a sister of the late A.J. Peters, Hunter Peters and Gordon Peters.

Later she married Elmer Bloodworth, who also preceded her in death.

She became a member of Trinity United Methodist Church while she was living here.

Services were held Friday at 2 p.m. in Monticello Baptist Church with the Rev. Randy Warren and Rev. J.D. Ellison in charge. Burial was in Monticello cemetery.

Pall bearers were nephews: Kenneth Parker of Dallas, Hershel Parr and Terry Parr of Mt. Pleasant, Joey Parr of Longview, Jesse Peters and Eugene Morrow of Wellington.

She is survived by one son, Harold Campbell of Malakoff; two granddaughters, Mrs. (Margie Lou) Joe Max Barclay of Lubbock and Mrs. (Melba Lee) Vernon Camp of Amarillo; a sister, Mrs. H.C. Parr of Mt. Pleasant, and a brother, Dabney Peters of Lubbock; six step children and 8 grandchildren.

A part of the service was the reading of an article which she wrote a few months ago, "What America Means to Me," for which she received a first place award.

October 5 Last Day to Register

There are an estimated 200 or more potential voters in Wellington and Collingsworth County who are not registered to vote in the upcoming general election, Ann Wauer, county tax assessor-collector estimated this week.

The deadline for registering falls on October 5. However, this is a Sunday, and those who want to register should come to her office not later than 5 p.m. Friday, October 3.

Mrs. Wauer said that if there is an emergency and the individual cannot register by that date, they may come to her house through Sunday and make arrangements to register.

Mrs. Wauer said that approximately 2800 voters are registered, and she believes that if all those who are eligible to register do so, the figure would reach 3,000. The usual number of registrants varies from 2,300 to 2,500.

A number of these registered prior to the May First Primary election. The county's usual voting strength is from 2,300 to 2,500.

New city and county residents were advised that they must register at the assessor-collector's office on the ground floor of the court house 30 days before the November 4 general election.

Mrs. Wauer emphasized that any voter who has moved and needs to change an address or precinct number must do this before the registration deadline.

"We cannot make these changes unless we are notified by the voter, even though we may know he has made the move," said Mrs. Wauer.

It is important to note that husbands or wives can register for their spouse and that parents can register for their children.

Young people who have become 18 years of age since the May primary, or who were 18 before that and did not register, must also meet the 30 day requirement if they want to vote in the presidential election.

Anyone who is 18 on or before November 4 will be able to cast a vote in the general election.

Federal law allows young people to register up to 30 days before they turn 18.

Come check the new varieties on the annual county ag tour.

Next Monday, October 6 the county extension service and Salt Fork Soil Conservation District will sponsor the annual county agricultural tour.

It's a good time to check the results of milo test demonstration plots with the experts there to answer your questions.

And it's a good time for non-farmers to learn a little more about agriculture.

So mark your calendar and come to the county ag tour-you'll be glad you did.

Miss Samnorwood Plans Completed

Plans are complete for the 1980 Miss Samnorwood pageant, sponsored by the Lions Club of the community Friday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m. This will be in the school gymnasium.

The six contestants are Sally Kincannon, Jona Stages, Crystal Breeding, Diana Alfaro, Glenda Bonner and Odilia Garcia.

The girls will first be seen in street clothes, according to Mrs. Kenneth Martindale who is assisting with the contest. Later they will appear in sportswear and finally in evening dresses.

Children in grades Kindergarten through six who wish to appear will be presented on-stage in their dress up clothes or sportswear.

Students in grades 7 and 8 will serve as escorts.

A musical program will be presented by Mrs. Kenneth (Terry) Wischkaemper of Shamrock, a talented pianist and vocalist from Shamrock.

She will also be the accompanist for the contestants and children.

Paper Drive Aids Library

Friends of the Library remind the public that their old newspaper drive will be held Thursday and Friday, October 2 and 3, with papers to be deposited in a trailer inside the yard of Wellington Lumber Company.

David Caison and Howard Murdock, company manager, are furnishing the trailers.

Mrs. George Porter, secretary, said that all proceeds from this drive will go to aid the county library.

WATERWORKS STUDY

Haley Scott, assistant training specialist, with the Texas Engineering Extension Service, Arlington, explains an altitude valve to a group attending the fire hydrant maintenance school here this week. From left, the men are Randy McGill, Doug Green, Michael Breedlove, John Green and Scott. The valve is used in transferring water in tanks with two different levels.

This Season

More Birds and Fines

The dove count is up in Collingsworth County this season and so are the hunting violation fines, a Texas Parks and Wildlife official said this week.

Four men have paid fines here of $207 each for hunting dove during closed season, and two men from Oklahoma recently paid fines of $55 each and court costs for trespassing and over-the-limit violations, Game Warden Dennis Thomas said.

Thomas said that no hunting violation cases were filed in Wheeler and Collingsworth County last year during dove season, but so far 30 cases have been filed this season, five of which were turkey hunting violations. Dove season in Collingsworth County runs from September 1 through October 30.

Thomas said he did not know why violations were up this year since the department is putting forth about the same policing effort as in past years. He said plentiful game this season might be a contributing factor. On the average, every hunter is getting his limit of 10 doves per day, he said.

Most violations are for unplugged shotguns or hunting without a license and those fines average $35 to $55, Thomas said.

Shotguns must be plugged to three shells for migratory birds, which in Collingsworth County include dove, duck and geese.

Fines for migratory bird hunting violations are from $25 to $100 per bird per person. That means that if a group of hunters has, for example, 20 birds between them and are filed on for a violation, they each are fined for 20 birds.
