A better than expected 30 per cent of Mitchell County voters showed up at the polls Tuesday to put their stamp of approval on only seven of the proposed 25 constitutional amendments, and turned down both the referendum questions.

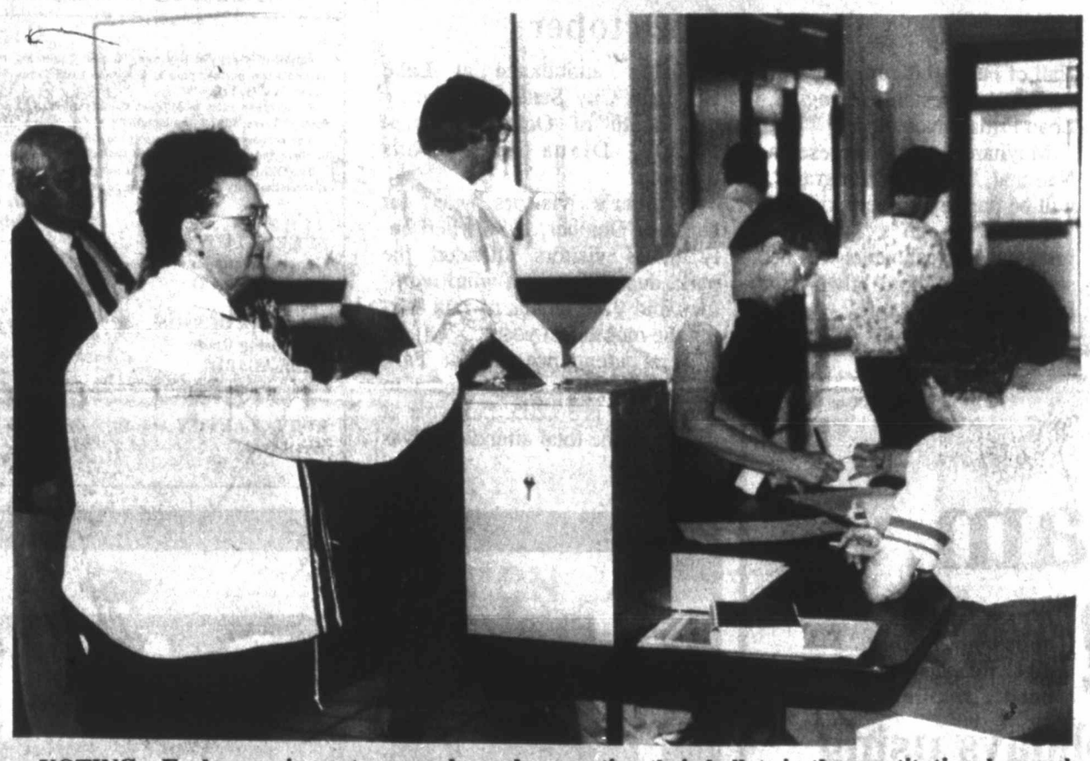

Of the 4470 registered voters, 1,333 cast their ballots. Referendum #1 on the appointed State Board of Education went down by a vote of 305 for and 962 against. Referendum #2 on parimutuel wagering on horse and dog racing was defeated by 534 for to 779 against.

VOTING—Early morning voters are shown here casting their ballots in the constitutional amendment election Tuesday at Precinct 1 at the Mitchell County Courthouse. The 485 voters at Precinct 1 were among the total 1,333 voting Tuesday, 30% of the registered 4,470 voters.

Political activity beginning to stir

The political activity for next year's election is underway with the first two candidates declaring their campaign treasurer appointments, County Clerk Joan Beach reported.

Wendell Bryant and Vince Ariaz, both candidates for the office of Mitchell County Sheriff, declared themselves as campaign treasurer.

The designations of candidate campaign treasurer appointment, with the County Clerk, is the first action required of prospective candidates, and must be done before they can formerly announce, make expenditures or receive contributions.

The filing with the party chairman will open on December 3 and continue through the filing deadline of January 4, 1988. The party primary elections will be held Tuesday, March 8, 1988, and the run-off election will be April 12, 1988.

The only other political activity thus far have been the announcements by County Commissioner, Prec. 3 Paul Hunter and State Representative Dick Burnett, that they will not be seeking re-election.

Dick Burnett will not seek re-election

State Rep. Dick Burnett (D-San Angelo) said Tuesday he will probably not seek re-election to a fifth term.

Burnett's district includes Mitchell, Coke, Sterling and Tom Green counties.

"I'm probably not going back for a fifth term," he said. "That's the way it is at the present time."

Burnett, 65, cited a number of reasons for his decision not to seek re-election. He said his age and the health of his wife are two factors that have prompted his decision not to run again.

"I'm 65 now and two more years (in the state legislature) wouldn't be that bad," he said. "But, I don't think an older person should hang on."

Burnett said as of yet, the Democrats have not found

Commissioners approve payroll

Mitchell County Commissioners' Court met in a called session Monday morning, mainly to approved the current two-weeks payroll, which amounted to $36,298.73.

County Treasurer Ann Hallmark also asked the Court for clarification on overtime pay. The Court ruled that in compliance with Fair Labor Standards Act, no part of sick leave, holiday, vacation or emergency leave may be credited toward overtime. Mrs. Hallmark also reported the beginning of a new procedure to keep better record of employee absences.

The Commissioners agreed to purchase a chair for the Treasurer's Office from Stephen's Office Supply, Snyder at a cost of $170, and also approved repair or purchase of a new chair in the Driver's License Office.

After previously nominating Commissioner Ed Roach,, the Court cast the county's 1,632.5 votes for Roach to serve a two-year term on the Mitchell County Appraisal District Board of Directors.

Judge Bill Carter reminded the Court that the Rural Fire contracts would be expiring December 31, 1987, and that new 3-year contracts are being repaired.

Commissioner Paul Hunter was absent, but all other members of the Court were present including Judge Carter, Commissioners Ed Roach, Johnny Shackelford, Billy Preston and County Clerk Joan Beach.

Court order stops HCFA recoupment

Mitchell County medicare patients who may have received a notice from Health Care Financing Administration seeking repaying of medical payments, are urged to disregard the notice for the time being.The Texas Medical Association has reported that last Thursday, Oct. 29, a Federal District Court Judge granted its motion for a preliminary injunction stopping the Medicare payment recoupment effort.

The preliminary injunction prevents the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) from recouping so-called "overpayments" on fees HCFA believes it made by mistake. This means that future patient and physician Medicare payments and patients' social security checks will not be affected.

Ray Mason, administrator of Mitchell County Hospital, said,

With the parimutuel wagering on horse and dog racing referendum on the ballot, again, last Tuesday there were the usual pros and cons expressed. Seems like we've voted on this proposition every two to four years since I started voting—and that's been a while, since I can remember when Studebaker went broke and the rainbow was in black and white. This year, however, the emphasis by the opponents seemed less on the evils of gambling and crime, but more on cruelty to animals—the dogs catching the rabbits, etc.

But it happens, even in Dear Abby's column, where the following story appeared:

Two little mice appeared in heaven and St. Peter asked them how they were getting along. They replied, "Fine, but heaven is so big, we are having a hard time getting around." So St. Peter gave them each a pair of roller skates. The next day a couple of cats appeared in heaven and St. Peter asked then how they were getting along.

They replied, "Great, we just love the meals on wheels you have here!"

Then on the gambling issue, is the story told by Pat Porter at the Farm Tour luncheon:

A teacher asked her fifth grade students to stand up, tell the class their father's occupation, spell it, then tell what he could do for us today.

The first youngster said, "My Daddy is a banker ... B-A-N-K-E-R ... he could give us a nickle."

The second boy said, "My Daddy is a baker ... B-A-K-E-R ...he could give us a cookie."The next student said, "My Daddy is an electrician ... E-L-I-C, E-L-E-K, E-L-I-K ..." Finally, the teacher asked him to sit down and think about it for a minute.

The next little boy said, "My Daddy is a bookie ... B-O-O-K-I-E ... he'll give you 10 to 1 odds that that last kid can't spell electrician.

"this is very good news to hospitals, physicians, and medicare patients alike. When we make a mistake, they penalize and dock us severely. But if they make a mistake they think all should be forgiven and be returned without question."

TMA said patients and physicians should not pay the amounts demanded by HCFA until further notice, as HCFA is enjoined from seeking payment until further order of the court. A full trial on the merits probably will be scheduled in the Spring of 1988. For those who have already paid, TMA will seek a refund of the amounts paid.

The alleged overpayments started July 7, 1985, when Texas Blue Cross-Blue Shield (BCBS), the state's Medicare carrier, adopted the federally required HCFA Common Procedural Coding System. Mistakes were made in the conversion from Texas' old system, resulting in alleged overpayments until April 1, 1986. Recoupment notices were probably received by those who received medical treatment between those dates.

TMA was joined in the suit by the Texas Ophthalmological Association, Texas Society of Internal Medicine, Texas Academy of Family Physicians, Travis County Medical Society, eleven physicians, one medical clinic, three Texas patients and the administrator of the estate of a deceased beneficiary.

Mason said, "it is good that those involved in medical care are banding together to dispute the often unfair demands of the health bureaucracy."

someone to replace him on the ballot.

During the last general election, Burnett outpolled his Republican challenger, Tim Weatherby of San Angelo, to win re-election.

However, Burnett said Tuesday that if it comes to the point where no Democrat can be found to seek election, then he will run again.

"I don't want to see a Republican get elected," he said.

Mitchell County was added to Burnett's district in 1982 and he credits the local Democratic stronghold for his continuing success at the polls.

"The folks have been good to me," he said, "Mitchell County has been with me all three elections."

Candidates may file anytime between Dec. 3 and Jan. 4.

PROCLAMATION SIGNED - Mayor Jim Baum signs a proclamation urging citizens to war Buddy Poppies in honor of veterans. Watching are Bonnie Story, president of VFW 9178 Ladies Auxiliary, and Audrey Wilson, auxiliary member.

Buddy Poppy proclamation signed

Mayor Jim Baum has signed a proclamation urging the citizens of Colorado City to wear Buddy Poppies.

The proclamation reads:

"WHEREAS, the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by the governmental leaders since 1922; and

"WHEREAS, VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans; and

"WHEREAS, the basic purpose of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is eloquently reflected in the desire to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living"; therefore I, Jim Baum, Mayor of the City of Colorado City, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies on the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of appreciation for the sacrifices of our honored dead.

"I urge all patriotic citzens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens."

Texas economy on 'up-tick'

By Governor
William P. Clements, Jr.

In many ways, today's economy in Texas reflects the adage that "the finest steel goes through the hottest fire."

The Texas economy has slumped in recent years, in part due to the plunge in oil prices, in part due to reckless spending in state government.

But that time has passed. While the Texas economy is still undergoing a profound transition--we're on the "up-tick."

Texas is beginning a recovery. Economic diversification and economic development are on the front-burner of business and are top priorities for our state government.

Our past actions speak loud and clear. Last January there was a collective realization among our citizens and our legislators that the Texas economy could be turned around, that our economy could be diversified and that our state budget could be balanced and economic recovery enhanced without horrendous tax increases that would stymie small business development.

We did all of that, and at the same time we preserved our pro-business and jobs climate that has made us the envy of the nation.

We have abandoned the path of unpredictability, uncertainty and instability for another stroll down the grand path of renewed prosperity.

That isn't just my perspective. You can find proof of that in a wide variety of respected business and economic publications and organizations from the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas and Salomon Brothers.

They are all predicting steady economic growth in Texas in the years ahead.

Let me give you an idea of some of the things we have done to diversify our economy and to keep things moving forward.

First, we have created a Texas Department of Commerce to develop a cohesive, unified approach to economic development, job creation and corporate recruitment.

Before the department opened for business two months ago, the task of economic development and economic planning was split among nine different state boards, agencies and commissions.

That was an inefficient use of state tax dollars. It was unproductive. And, quite frankly, it was a waste of a businessman's time.

We passed tort reform. We decided that allowing frivolous lawsuits to be filed scares businesses away from Texas instead of enticing them to our borders.

We decided that allowing extraordinary damage claims and virtually limitless judgments is counterproductive.

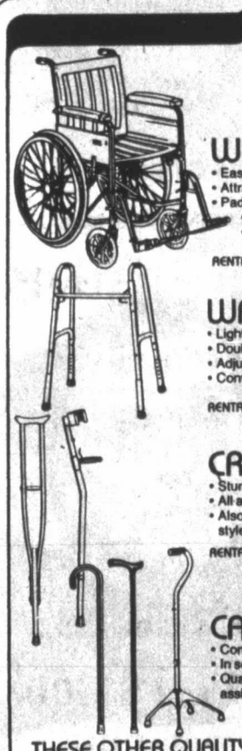

We realized that businesses provide jobs only when they are in business. When they are driven to the brink of bankruptcy, those jobs disappear.

But that isn't all we did. We restored fiscal discipline to state government.

We have re-established an operational audit program to review the efficiency of state agency operations to ensure that taxpayers are getting a dollar's worth of services for each tax dollar they give to state government.

We are moving toward uniform accounting practices.

This call by AMCEST's experienced operator reassures the patient that the "critical event" signal has been received and help is on the way. It also clearly identifies why the patient signaled the Response Center. All information is automatically recorded as a permanent record.
2 Once verified as a medical emergency, the experienced operator immediately displays the patient's latest medical history, medications and location particulars on the computer screen. This information, as well as the patient's doctor's name and hospital preference, is relayed to the appropriate responding agency.
3 A predesignated relative, friend or neighbor, entrusted by the patient with house or apartment keys, is notified of the medical emergency and response underway. This "Responsible Party" meets the responding agency at the scene and offers entry and additional medical information if the patient is disabled.

Wolves hoping for co-championship

Friday's 27-7 loss at Abilene Wylie eliminated the Colorado City Wolves from the hunt for a AAA state football playoff spot. That's not to say that tomorrow's final contest at Sonora has no meaning for the Pack.

Not only will it be the last time for 17 seniors to suit up for the Red and Black but the Wolves still have a chance to be recognized as district co-champions.

The win by Wylie left the Bulldogs and Ballinger tied for first place at 5-1. The Wolves, 6-3 for the year, dropped to 4-2 for third place. However, a win by the Wolves over the Sonora Broncos Friday and losses by Wylie and Ballinger to Clyde and Brady, respectively, would leave Colorado City, Wylie and Ballinger tied for the title.

Ballinger and Wylie would advance to the playoffs because of their wins over the Wolves but Colorado City would still be a tri-champion.

First things first, though, because the Wolves face another strong 5AAA team in Sonora.

"We sure would like to have a district championship," said Tom Ramsey-the head man for a Colorado High School coaching staff that guided the Wolves well past an expected seventh place finish.

"We're thinking it's still possible for a three-way tie for first place," said Ramsey. "Our immediate goal is finish 7-3. We can accomplish it if we go down there and play ball."

"Sonora's always tough," said Ramsey. "They're big. Everybody has a big football team in this district. They've got eight kids that weigh 200 pounds or better and get as big a 260. They have an excellent tight end, Mike Fullen. He's a blocker and a receiver. He's 6'3" 200. We've seen some good tight ends this year and he fits right in there with them."

"They're big, physical and come right at you." said Ramsey.

Sonora coach Jerry Hopkins enterèd this season as the seventh winningest active coach among all Texas high school football coaches-regardless of classification.

"They're very well coached," said Ramsey. "Defensively they play real good technique. As good as we'll face this year."

The Broncos, 5-3-1 and 2-3-1 are coming off a 32-7 loss to Clyde. "We thought Sonora would beat them but they had three key turnovers and Clyde converted them to touchdowns. Sonora lost 17-15 to Wylie on a last second field goal, lost to Ballinger 22-18 and tied Merkel. Their only really bad game was last week."

"The teams that have had a little luck are the ones winning," said Ramsey. "Wylie has been lucky but they haven't beaten themselves. The best teams don't always win, it's who plays best."

The Wolves didn't come up with their best last week-especially at the beginning of each half.

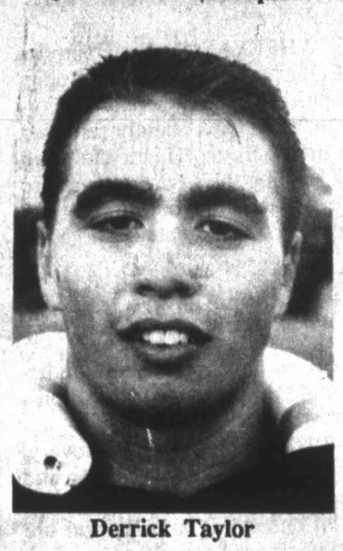

"I had a sick feeling(after the Wylie game) but I knew I wasn't sick," said Ramsey. "We had our opportunities early in the game. On the fourth play of the game they tried to give us the ball butwe didn't take it." The Wolves botched a Wylie punt and Wylie was then able to control the rest of the opening period.

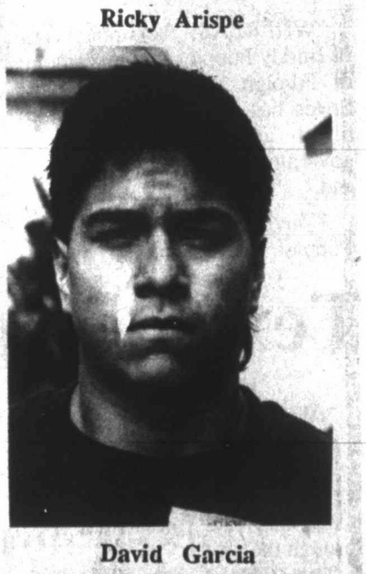

"Their coach said it was the turning point of the ballgame," said Ramsey. Wylie went all of 22 yards for it's first score after a personal foul call on the Wolves then went 24 yards for it's second score. 10 and 7 yard drives gave the Bulldogs their last 2 scores."We dug ourselves a grave in the first quarter," said Ramsey, "and another mistake in the third quarter forced us to change our strategy."

"Brady's playing the best ball right now," said Ramsey. "They could probably go farther in the playoffs but they're going to sit at home. Ballinger's liable to get some of it this week."

"We thought it was possibly our year to win district this year," said Ramsey. "It's been an enjoy-

Lady Wolves play today

Colorado High School's varsity volleyball team will be taking on the Breckenridge Buckaroos in a bi-district match at Clyde Thursday.

Today's match, which is scheduled for 7 PM at Clyde High School, pits 5AAA runner-up Colorado City, 8-11, against 6AAA champion Breckenridge.

The Lady Wolves lost both matches of a two out of three series against 5AAA champion Clyde, which received a bye into the area round of the playoffs. Breckenridge has beaten Colorado City in bi-district volleyball for the past four years.

"They're tough," said Lady Wolves coach Felicia Sanders, "but I'm changing up a whole lot of things for them. We're converting our offense and defense. We're going to give them a challenge."

Gary Marsh wins football jackpot

Gary Marsh of Colorado City was the big winner in last week's Jackpot Football contest sponsored by the RECORD and participating merchants.

Marsh missed the outcome of only two games to win $25 in Jackpot Football Bucks.

Dane Hoover of Colorado City also just missed two games but Marsh was closer to the tie-breaker score between Colorado City and Wylie. Hoover wins $15 in Jackpot Football Bucks for his second place entry.

Third place and $10 in Jackpot Football Bucks goes to Walt Staats of Colorado City who missed three games.

"We had some kids play very well Friday night," said Ramsey. "Offensively Derek Ramsey, Cory Flanagan and Brandon Fuller had excellent games. Defensively Victor Luera, Edwardo Melendez, Cary Ritchey, Mark Russell, Ricky Arispe and Chris Perkin had good games. Mark Russell makes it happen. He's a smart kid and he likes to play the game. We've had several kids that have been consistent. He's one of them. He likes pressure."

Seniors Ramsey, Flanagan, Fuller, Melendez, Ritchey and Arispe will be suiting up for CHS for the last time Friday along with Dwayne Jones, Bill Dossey, Ismael Silva, David Garcia, Joe David Rodriquez, Reese Moore, Derrick Taylor, Cary Redwine, Steve Smith, Carlos Pineda and Edward Garcia.

I want to take this means of saying thank you to each and everyone for the prayers and especially to First Baptist Church, while I was recuperating from the car accident.

Betty Selvera

To all the dear people of Mitchell County;
From: The Perry Mitchell Family

Words cannot express our heartfelt thanks for all the love, prayers and support we have received. Although Perry is still very seriously ill, we are just taking one day at a time, but every day brings more hope. We tell Perry of all the phone calls, cards and visits and he knows Mitchell County is behind him. Please continue to remember us in your prayers.

With all our love,
The Perry Mitchell Family

CARD OF THANKS

Veterans land tracts offered for sale

AUSTIN--Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro reminded Texans they have until November 16 to submit bids on land included in a special sale of 191 tracts of land offered to the public through the Texas Veterans Land Board. Information on the location, size and amentities on each tract can be obtained by calling 1-800-252-VETS.

"This sale is an excellent opportunity to pick up quality acreage with very reasonable terms," Mauro said. "Under this sealed bid arrangement, everyone has an equal chance to win. Let me urge you to get out as soon as possible, take a look at the tracts that interest you and get your bids in."

Located in 79 counties, the tracts range in size from about 10 acres in several counites to a 52-acre tract in Jones County. Mauro noted that the tracts are attracting attention from bidders who see them as an excellent investment opportunity, as a place for recreation, or as a future home site.

All tracts are open to bid from the general public as well as Texas Veterans. Bids are not restricted to Texas residents.

Winning bids from Texas Veterans will receive a special interest rate of 8.75 percent on these tracts. The interest rate for the general public will be 10.25 percent. Both will carry a 30-year assumable fixed-rate loan.

The Texas Veterans Land Board will finance the entire loan amount of all winning bids, less a 5 percent down payment. There is no limit on the amount loaned or on the number of tracts that an individual can bid on.

The sale will be by sealed bid only, with a minimum set by the Texas Veterans Land Board.

Details of the sale and a brochure describing each tract and its location can be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-252-VETS at the Texas Veterans Land Board Monday-Friday 7:30 a.m.-6 p.m.

Spooks alive!

Halloween brought out a haunted house full of spooks and other characters at the annual Kelley Elementary Halloween Carnival Saturday night.

Winners of the costume contest, by age division, included:

Under Kindergarten - Meredith Stinson, first; Evan Jones, second; and Brady Flock, third

K-2nd grade - Isabelle Soliz, first; Vickie Rivera, second; and Kyle Hammond, third

3-5th grades - Shea Ortiz, first; Lynn Boyd Jr., second; and Crystal Wood, third.

Three of the costumed characters - Isabelle Soliz, Evan Jones and Brady Flock - managed to escape to other parts of the carnival before our photographer could take their picture.
