Indians Score 6-0 Victory in Hard-Fought Grid Duel

COYOTES' BRAVE DEFENSIVE BATTLE ERASED WHEN TRIBE SCORES TOUCHDOWN ON BREAK

By AL PARKER
Times Sports Editor

It was a great little party, that which dedicated the school stadium Saturday, with the minor exception that the Quanah Indians scored six points and the Coyotes none whatever. A crowd estimated at 4,500 saw the Quanah district champions win the verdict strictly on a break, as juicy a break as any team ever fell heir to, but there was none in that big crowd, one of the biggest ever to witness a football game here, to deny that the better team had won. The Indians clearly outplayed the Coyotes at all stages of the game, and there never was any good reason to believe the Coyotes were not the second best team on the field.

Nevertheless, it was a heartbreaker for the home cause. After holding the Indians at bay in the first half, the unhappy turn of events came in the third period when Burns McKinney, back to punt from the shadow of his goal posts, kicked the ball into the back of his halfback mate, Preston Thompson. The oval spun along the goal line, Buddy Mitchell, Quanah end scooped it up, and fell across the goal line for the only touchdown of the day.

Colorful Battle

It was a close and exciting football game, with the Indians' superiority never showing at any stage in the shape of points or touchdowns. In fact, both teams threw up defensive bulwarks that all but annihilated the attack of the enemy, Quanah scoring only seven first downs and Wichita Falls three less.

The dedication ceremony, the big crowd, the pep squads and bands, plus two fighting football teams, made it an occasion long to be remembered, and all in all, it was a more exciting game by far than such defensive duels usually are. Quanah had sent 201 fans on a special train and several hundred others had made the trip via automobile to whoop 'em up for the Indians. The west grandstand section was jammed, but its twin across the playing field was no more than half filled.

The Coyotes found their chief weapon harmless when Coach Dan Stallworth's defense concentrated back of the line and thwarted every effort of the home team to unloose the passing attack which had kept its head above water in the two games played previously. The Indians presented a five-man line, with the remaining six backing it up and covering Wichita Falls' pass receivers perfectly. Only one of 15 attempts was completed and that only after the ball had been batted into the air by a Quanah player. The futility of the Pack's running game is reflected in its ability to gain only 87 yards through and around Quanah's five-man line.

Tight Defense

Wichita Falls' defense was almost as tight, the Indians being held to a gain of 143 yards, and nearly all of that represented in the hard driving of Fullback Eugene Jones, who accounted for 97 yards—10 more than the entire Coyote team. Even his gains that usually resulted from spinners through the middle or slashes at the tackles, were not consistent. Quanah had only one Jones; Wichita Falls none.

Quanah's defense reached its height in the fourth period when the Coyotes made their only serious threat. Quanah had bagged its six

HOOVER DENIES CHARGES MADE BY DEMOCRATS

Says Statement as to Origin Of Depression Absolutely Untrue

PROTESTS ALLEGED PLAN OF OPPOSITION CAMPAIGN

Outlines Policies and Measures of Administration On Employment

CLEVELAND AUDITORIUM, Oct. 15. (AP)—Asserting directly that Democratic statements as to the origin of the depression "can be proved absolutely untrue," President Hoover tonight asked for a comparison of the two major parties based upon "actual performance—not upon promises."

ZELIENOPLE, Pa., Oct. 15. (US)—President Hoover was annoyed when he stepped to rear platform here today to see an idle factory painted with a huge sign reading:

"Vote for Hoover for famine and starvation."

"Three days work in three years."

Standing in the same edifice in which Calvin Coolidge was nominated in 1924, the president time after time launched out directly at statements he attributed to "the Democratic condidate" Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Then, turning to his own personal record, he described as "calumny" a statement from a "copy of instructions issued by the Democratic national committee" to its speakers. He said the statement implied he had "engaged in the slavery of human beings" through contracting cheap Chinese labor in his early engineering days. He denied having employed such labor in the South African mines.

Declares Statement Withdrawn

"I happen to have in the files in Washington, from the .an who first penned those lines," he said, "a statement under oath, humbly and abjectly withdrawing them.

"Such contemptible statements in a political campaign would be ignored were it not that they were issued by the authority of the

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 15. (INS)—In a message destined to bring joy to the hearts of unhappy married couples, the government announced today that a new 15-day divorce law will go into effect in the federal district and Lower California on Nov. 1.

Mutual consent is all that will be necessary for dissolution of the marriage bonds, and obliging officials will make no charge for the unshackling. Divorce will not be granted, however, to couples with children.

The law provides that parties anxious to cast off matrimonial bonds must make personal application at the civil registry office.

Captain Courson Faces Sentence of From One To 20 Years

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 15 (US)—Former Guard Captain George Courson was found guilty of manslaughter and his prison camp aide, Sol Higginbotham, was acquitted by the jury today in connection with the "sweatbox" torture death of Arthur Maillefert, young prisoner from New Jersey.

Courson, acting warden of the Sunbeam prison camp when Maillefert died June 3 after being shackled and chained in the "sweatbox" by his neck, faces a sentence of from one to 20 years in state prison.

The verdict was returned at 4:25 p. m., a little less than two hours after Judge George C. Gibbs had placed the case in the hands of the jury outlining five possible verdicts.

Return Verdict Twice

The jury had to return the verdict twice because when the judge first came in and the foreman presented their findings the judge ruled that it had been improperly

VICE PRESIDENT IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH SLIGHTLY INJURED

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 15. (AP)—Vice President Charles Curtis, suffering from a strained right shoulder resulting from an automobile collision while he was en route here today from Ogden, Utah, entered upon a program which included attendance at a football game this afternoon, dinner this evening with Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot and a public address in the Mormon tabernacle later.

The vice president's injury occurred when the car in which he was riding with Senator Smoot, Ernest Bamberger, Republican national committeeman for Utah, and Col. Sherman Bullock, his aide, collided with a machine driven by Mrs. M. Pechart, 67, of Wendover, Utah. Mr. Curtis, sitting in the rear seat was thrown violently forward and his right side and shoulder were hurt.

A physician who examined him after his arrival here said the ligaments were strained. Although the injury was pronounced painful, it was declared not to be serious and save for handshaking, was not expected to interfere with the remainder of the vice president's program here.

ARCHER WILDCAT WELL MAKES 800 BARRELS IN TEST RUNS SATURDAY

Tests made Saturday revealed a production of at least 800 barrels for Wayne King and Krahenbuhl's No. 1 Ray one mile northeast of Archer City which came in late Friday afternoon at a depth of only 1,100 feet.

This well, which is one location east and two north of the discovery well in the Kork Kelly pool, assured the field and was drawing widespread interest among the oil fraternity.

It was a rank wildcat and struck a paying sand at shallow depth which greatly enhances the possibilities of the Archer county area.

CRUDE ADVANCE ADDS $100,000 DAILY INCOME

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 15. (UP)—Crude petroleum today flowed through mid-continent pipe lines, bringing operators about $100,000 more a day than it did yesterday.

More than 85 per cent of mid-continent crude purchasers at 7 a. m. raised their posted prices for oil from 10 to 12 cents a barrel as a reward to producers who voluntarily accepted drastic curtailment programs to stabilize the industry's price structure.

The other is 15 per cent, headed by the Standard Oil company of Indiana, stood out in defiance to the price increase. This group, including the Standard Oil company of New Jersey interests, described the price hike as unwarranted.

A unique industrial battle was imminent.

Shortly after the Texas and Oklahoma regulatory bodies had slashed daily crude production in their states more than 125,000 barrels a day, Sun Oil company announced it would increase crude prices as a reward to producers. One by one, independent purchasing companies fell into line. Yesterday, the holdout major company ranks wavered. Magnolia Petroleum company, a Socony-Vacuum subsidiary, and the Gulf-Gypsy interests, agreed to the new price, placing a top quotation of $1.12 a barrel for Oklahoma, Kansas and North Texas crude and $1.10 a barrel top on East Texas production.

HIJACKER SHOOTS FORMER GRID STAR AT LUBBOCK STORE

LUBBOCK, Texas, Oct. 15. (AP)—Robert Tharp, 24, former McMurry college football player, was gravely wounded by a hijacker at a grocery store here tonight.

Two men entered the store a few minutes after Tharp, assistant manager, had been tipped by employes of a grocery store nine blocks away, that two men had held them up.

Tharp was returning to the front of the building after placing the cash in the back.

When an empty cash register was displayed, the bandit shot Tharp through the abdomen with a gun described as of foreign make. Police tonight were searching for the bandit pair who ran from the store and, presumably escaped in an automobile.

Tharp, known as the "Gallopin' Ghost" when he played football on the McMurry Indian team, had been an employe of the store three years.

ALBIE BOOTH DRAWS FIRST POLITICAL SALVO FROM DEMOCRATIC CAMP

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 15. (AP)—Albie Booth, campaigning in President Hoover's behalf, has drawn his first political salvo from the Democratic camp.

Town Chairman David J. McCoy charged the former Yale football star has never been made a voter although eligible to vote in the last three elections.

"The exponent of 'the spirit of young America" has not demonstrated the spirit to take the three minute walk from the campus and the five minutes of time necessary to be made a voter," McCoy said.

Booth, with three other football stars, visited President Hoover this week to pledge the support of "young America" to the Republican cause.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt and the man he termed the "Happy Warrior"—Alfred E. Smith—will share the platform in democracy's closing campaign rallies in New York.

The standard bearer of the Democrats and his predecessor at Albany—who effected a reconciliation at the state convention two weeks ago—will headline programs at the Brooklyn Academy of Music Nov. 4 and at Madison Square garden Nov. 5.

Aside from the Roosevelt rallies, former Governor Smith, his office announced late today, will make the following tour after an address Oct. 19 at Tammany hall:

Oct. 24, Newark, N. J.; Oct. 27, Boston and Providence; Oct. 29, Buffalo; Nov. 2, Troy:

The Newark and Boston addresses, Smith's office said, will be broadcast over a nation-wide radio hookup. The former, it was indicated, would be in the nature of a reply to Calvin Coolidge's recent New York address.

In his speeches, Smith is expected by party leaders to give a complete endorsement of Governor Roosevelt's candidacy.

The 1928 presidential nominee also will address a dinner Oct. 26 in honor of Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, president of the women's organization for prohibition reform. This will be a non-partisan affair.

WANT GARNER TO MAKE TOUR STATES WEST

Democratic Leaders Pleased With Reception Radio Address

SPEAKER EXPRESSES DOUBT NECESSITY OF SUCH TOUR

Will Spend Week-End in Capital Gathering New Material

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—Democratic chieftains desirous of further campaigning by Speaker John N. Garner, awaited today a decision from the vice presidential nominee on a proposed tour of the West.

Saying their desires had been enhanced by the reception of the speaker's address last night, the strategists have urged the nominee to head west through the corn belt to the Pacific coast.

Already, the presidential nominee, Gov. Franklin Roosevelt, has carried westward the cause of democracy.

Before the speaker returned to Washington, close associates revealed he expressed doubt as to the necessity of such a tour.

"While he wants to do everything possible for the success of the ticket," said one of the speaker's associates, "Mr. Garner feels there is no need for such an extended tour. Should the speaker decide not to go West, he will surely make several more addresses in the eastern half of the country. These will probably be announced some time early next week."

Many Appeals Received

The national committee headquarter said many appeals for the speaker's appearance in all parts of the country were received late last night and today.

This address, touching as it did on government finances and budget-making, was regarded by the Democratic committee and by the con-

Eight cases of diphtheria were quarantined in Wichita Falls by the city health department during the past week. Two deaths were reported from the dread malady. Dr. R. B. Minority Leader in Senate Says Election of Governor Roosevelt Would Be Mandate for Legal Beer

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Oct. 15. (UP)—Election of Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency would be a mandate upon congress to legalize beer, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas, minority leader of the senate, declared today.

The senator, who came to Hyde Park to confer with the Democratic nominee, said "the only difficulty on agreement would be the alcoholic content permissible under the constitution."

He predicted beer would be brought back at either the ensuing short session or the next regular session.

Will Cooperate

"I will cooperate with the party to that end," he added.

He told newspaper men, prior to talking to the nominee that he believed the Democratic party will be swept to power in both houses at the November election.

"Governor Roosevelt's election would insure the return of beer," he said.

Governor Roosevelt, who replied last night to campaign charges that he advised investment in German securities in 1922 by quoting a Republican attorney, worked today on his remaining campaign speeches one of which is expected to discuss the bonus and veterans relief.

The governor had been accused of advising the German security investment when he was president of the United European Investors Limited. The charge was denied in a letter written by Atty. Edward S. Paine of New York.

"Although I am a Republican and intend to vote for President Hoover, I believe that fair play requires that I write you my understanding of the situation," Paine wrote.

"It is therefore inaccurate, in fact totally incorrect to charge that the investors lost money in the transaction."

Wichitans Uninjured As Armstrong Lands Plane in River Bed

As a thrilling climax to the stunt in which the football used in the Quanah-Wichita Falls High school football game here Saturday afternoon was tossed from a low-flying airplane, Fulcher Armstrong, manager of the Municipal airport and pilot of the Stinson cabin job, stalled the ship into the bank of the Wichita river to prevent a serious crash.

With Miss Edith Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Brown, Oral Jones and Jean P. Montgomery as passengers, Pilot Armstrong had just flown over the stadium and the pigskin had been tossed out when the accident occurred.

Flames were drawn under the plane's "belly," setting the ship afire, when the cabin door was opened so that Miss Brown could throw the ball to the gridiron and Mr. Armstrong was forced to "flip" the ship to extinguish the flames.

Flames caught the rudder cable, partially severing it, and the "flip" augmented the breakage.

Because of the danger of fire, Mr. Armstrong was forced to land at once, and he picked the north side of the Wichita river, just south of the Electra road, as a safe spot.

The plane was landed safely, but rough ground bounced it back into the air and it was then that Mr. Armstrong realized that the ship was without rudder control.

With the ship rudderless, Armstrong had no alternative but to "stall" the ship into the river bank. The ship, squashed into the bank, was a total wreck.

None of the passengers was injured, other than one face scratch suffered by Mr. Armstrong.

"I told them the ship was afire, but to be quiet and we'd land safely; so they didn't say a word," Mr. Armstrong said in telling of the actions of his passengers.

Actual cause of the blaze is not certain, he said, but it probably originated in the electric wiring. Mr. Armstrong will continue his investigation Sunday.

Incidentally, the football toss that started the football game missed the gridiron 100 yards.

Swindling Charge Against Former Banking Department Employe Only Development in Probe at Austin

AUSTIN, Oct. 15. (AP)—W. E. Stiles, formerly an employe of the Texas state banking department, and William T. Tuton were charged in a justice of the peace court here today with swindling the state.

The Stiles complaint alleged that he had obtained $308 and the Tuton charge involved $108. Details of the transactions which caused the filing of charges could not be obtained.

Rangers who signed the complaints and state officials who helped with an investigation in connection with them, refused to give out any information.

That was the only development in "mystery day" of investigations at the state capitol for newspaper reporters, after hours spent in chasing clues. The correspondents were set off on their "hunt" by a tip from Gov. R. S. Sterling that a "big story" was in the making.

In their search for the "scoop" they heard reports that a plot to rob the Texas state treasury had been frustrated. Charley Lockhart, diminutive treasurer, laughed about a reported elaborate plan to loot the state strong box. Lockhart is 45 inches tall.

Officials Secretive

"Guess they would have bound me up with hay wire or something," he said, when told the report was that those who concocted the scheme to raid his place of business planned to swoop down on the capital city in airplanes, scoop up the money (if they found any) and fly to a haven in Mexico.

Governor Sterling said that the "mystery" investigation was initiated at a conference held in his office late last Thursday night. He dropped the tip when a newspaper reporter asked him about lights burning in the chief executive's office that night.

He would not divulge the nature of the investigation, other than to

Democratic national committee, and they would be of no interest to the American people except that it is proposed that a political party shall be placed in power over 120 millions of people on the basis of votes secured in this manner."

At the outset, the president said his address would be devoted largely to employment and wage questions. He outlined in detail 12 policies and measures which he described as the record of his administration on this score.

Discusses World Economics

But before reaching this section of his speech, he turned directly to a discussion of causes of world economic strain.

"Our opponents," he began, "have been going up and down the land repeating the statement that the sole or major origins of this disruption and this world-wide hurricane came from the United States through the wild flotation of securities and the stock market speculation in New York three years ago, together with the passage of the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill, which took place nine months after the storm broke.

"I propose to discuss this assertion.

"First: Because it can be proved absolutely untrue.

"Second: Because the United States did not bring this calamity upon the world. The United States is not the oppressor of the world.

"Third: Because it can be demonstrated to be founded upon a complete misunderstanding of what has happened in the world.

"Fourth: Because any party which exhibits such a lack of economic understanding upon which to base national policies should not be trusted with the fate of 25,000,000 American families. They should not be trusted to command the battle against the most gigantic economic emergency with which our people have ever been confronted, and to bring that battle to victorious issue in the re-establishment of the functioning of our economic machine."

LAUNCH MOVE LEGALIZE BEER BY CHRISTMAS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. (INS)—A fight for congressional action to legalize beer and light wines before the Christmas holidays, so that state legislatures can amend local laws to permit their sale, was launched today by Representative Celler, Democrat of New York, a member of the house judiciary committee.

Declaring that it now is a foregone conclusion that congress will favor modification of the Volstead act to permit sale of light wines and beer, Celler said that prompt action is important.

"More than one-half the state legislatures will meet this winter, many from January to March," he said. "In some of these states it will be necessary to pass enabling acts after congress modifies the Volstead act.

"If congress legalizes light wines and beer before the Christmas holidays, the legislatures will have time to set their systems into operation."

Celler, as a member of the judiciary committee, said that he would demand action by the committee immediately after congress convenes the first Monday in December.

Garner, it was understood, would spend the week-end in the capital gathering material for further addresses—a task that also occupied the presidential nominee at his Hyde Park home.

Arriving last night from Paris aboard the Berengaria, another Democratic campaigner, Gene Tunney, prepared a second tour in behalf of the Roosevelt ticket.

"The whole world is looking to Roosevelt," said the former heavyweight champion, "and I think Hoover will be the worst defeated man in the history of the Republican party except Taft, who carried only two states in 1912.

"The Hoover myth has completely exploded."

Norris to Philadelphia

As Senator George W. Norris, independent Republican of Nebraska, headed for Philadelphia for an address Monday night in behalf of Roosevelt, Senator Huey Long, in Washington, announced he would tour the Northwest.

The Louisiana "kingfish," a leader in the nomination of Roosevelt at Chicago, will take along his sound truck—now famous in his native state and in Arkansas—where he stumped the state for the renomination of Mrs. Hattie Caraway.

The senator, who met Roosevelt for the first time this week, plans to meet his caravan at Bismarck, N. D., next Thursday. An address is also planned for Lincoln, Neb., Saturday.

The conductor of the investigation climaxed by the resignation of James J. Walker as mayor, Seabury discussed briefly the mayoralty fight in New York City and said "The Republican organization in New York county (Manhattan) is only the tail to the Tammany kite."

WIFE SEEKS ARREST OF HOKE SMITH OF B. E. F. CHARGING ABANDONMENT

DOUGLAS, Ga., Oct. 15. (INS)—Arrest of Hoke Smith, leader of the bonus expeditionary force delegation that visited President Hoover this week, was sought today by local authorities, through Washington, D. C., and Uniontown, Pa., police, on charges of abandoning his wife and child here three years ago.

A warrant for Smith's arrest, sworn by a woman claiming to be his wife, was forwarded by Sheriff R. C. Relham of Coffee county to authorities in those cities.

TONG HEADQUARTERS AT SAN FRANCISCO BOMBED

France Not Expected to Agree to Holding Four-Power Arms Parley In Any Other City Than Geneva

PARIS, Oct. 15. (AP)—Characterizing Germany's refusal to take part in a preliminary four-power arms conference at Geneva as an affront both to France and to the League of Nations, a government spokesman indicated today that France was unlikely to agree to hold the meeting in any other city.

The selection of Geneva was made when Premier Edouard Herriot saw Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald earlier this week in London. Italy, the fourth power that would participate in the meeting, agreed with the French and British that Geneva be the place for the conference.

The French spokesman expressed satisfaction that the British "apparently realize now the real portent of Germany's demand for equality in armaments—namely, complete rearmament and the creation of a new army."

The newspaper Le Temps urged that the powers proceed with the Geneva meeting despite Germany's attitude. The military position of the reich, the paper argued, is fixed by treaty anyway.

Le Temps laid on Germany sole responsibility for checking Prime Minister MacDonald's plan for a four-power meeting to take up the German arms equality demand. Both Great Britain and the United States, the editorial said, already are disturbed by the revival of a military spirit in Germany "which raises the threat of a new armaments race."

State's Attorney Charles M. Durrance in his final arguments asked the jury to find both defendants guilty of first degree murder without any recommendation of mercy. This would have made death in the electric chair mandatory.

But Judge Gibbs read the list of alternate verdicts and the jury decided upon the lightest possible verdict of guilty for Courson and complete acquittal for Higginbotham.

The freedom of Higginbotham had been more or less expected for during the trial the prosecution's most damaging evidence was directed not against him but against Courson.

Courson's jaw dropped slightly when he heard the verdict and his lawyers prepared to seek an appeal. Higginbotham was overjoyed and grinned broadly as his friends came over to shake his hand.

PUT PRICE ON HEAD JAPANESE IN MANCHURIA

Scale of 'Bounties' Quoted For Death or Capture Of Officers

DOCUMENTS PUBLISHED BY MILITARY LEADERS

Said to Emanate From the Peiping Headquarters Marshal Chang

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Oct. 15. (AP)—A scale of "bounties" for the killing or capture of Japanese officers, soldiers and civilians in Manchuria is set forth in documents published here by Japanese military authorities. Japanese officials declare the price scale emanated from the Peiping headquarters of Marshal Chang Hsiao-Liang, former warlord of Manchuria whom the Japanese ousted.

The price of the head of Gen. Nobuyoshi Muto, the emperor's commander in chief and ambassador in Manchuria if the authenticity of these documents is to be accepted, is 30,000 dollars Mexican (about U. S. $6,500). That sum is promised his assassins. From this "top" the "bounties" range down to a mere 50 Mexican dollars for the capture of an American or European in Manchuria, which the Japanese assert their Chinese enemies seek to bring about to embroil Japan with other powers.

Use Name "Salvation Army"

The offers are made in the name of the "Anti-Japanese National Salvation Army." The Japanese say they have been circulated among the guerrilla and volunteer forces which are harrassing the Japanese army throughout wide areas in Manchuria, allegedly with the encouragement and actual help in money and supplies of Chang Hsiao-Liang.

Any Chinese who kills 10 or more Japanese will, according to these documents, receive $1,000 Mexican cash. For the capture of a rifle the prize of $100; for a machine-gun $500; for a field gun, $2,000; for an airplane $5,000. All awards are in Mexican.

For assassinating a Japanese full general (General Muto being the only one in Manchuria) a reward of $30,000 is posted; for a lieutenant-colonel or major $7,000.

For the capture of any member of the Manchukuo cabinet, composed of Chinese who accept the tutelage of the Japanese army, $20,000 is offered.

Any village which resists the Japanese will receive the remission of three years' taxes.

Asked who would pay these rewards Japanese military officers replied "Nanking," meaning the national government of China.

DEMOCRAT VICTORY ASSURED IS BELIEF OF W. D. M'FARLANE

Firm belief that a Democratic president and congress will be elected in November was expressed by Senator W. D. McFarlane of Graham, Democratic nominee for congress from this district, during a visit in Wichita Falls Saturday.

"I have closely watched the progress of the national campaign, and am certain that Mr. Hoover offers no reason for the retention of the present administration in control of the government," Senator McFarlane declared.

"Our nation was not devastated by the world war. At its close we were the creditor nation of the world and our people all employed at good wages. The Republicans have brought about an era of extravagance and maladministration that is the direct cause of the present deplorable condition, and faced by this situation last December, it has done nothing to better conditions. It is a grave situation. It will take heroic measures to bring about a readjustment that will bring relief, but it can and must be done. I hope and believe that the Democrats elected will have the courage and capacity to achieve this result. It will not be easily or quickly brought about, but with courage and persistence it can and must be done.

"I bespeak for the incoming administration the confidence and loyal support of the people. Relief must first be found from our grievous tax burdens, the toilers must be permitted to use their meager earnings for the support of their families first. This will aid readjustment. Other economic conditions must be aided by readjustments of our tariffs to broaden markets for our surplus products. Producers should consider gravely world, as well as local markets, produce such comodities as will find a market and not add to congestion, particularly of cotton and wheat, of which commodities the world has a depressing 'carry-over.' Consider first home needs. The man can wait whose family is provided with the necessaries of life."

HENRY FORD TO SPEAK ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT WILL BE BROADCAST

DETROIT, Oct. 15. (INS)—Henry Ford next week will join the ranks of the Republican campaigning orators.

The motor magnate, breaking his precedent of years, will deliver a 15-minute radio address over the National Broadcasting company chain, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., eastern standard time, according to Howard A. Coffin, chairman of the Wayne county Republican committee.

He will speak from his office in the Ford administration building at Dearborn.

NEW MACHINE CLEANS SPARK PLUG RAPIDLY

A revolutionary new machine that will clean a spark plug in four or five seconds has been added to the modern equipment of the United Electric Service company.

"There has long been a need for an efficient spark plug cleaning machine because dirty or badly worn spark plugs not only reduce car performance but causes a loss of one to 10 gallons of gasoline," Syd Gaines, manager of the service station, said.

"In installing the new device we feel that we have made another distinct contribution in the interest of an important service for our customers," Mr. Gaines declared.

NOTHING ACCOMPLISHED ANGLO-IRISH CONFERENCE

LONDON, Oct. 15. (INS)—The Anglo-Irish conference, called to end the dispute over land annuities broke down completely today.

The negotiations broke up at 5:45 p. m. after two days of almost constant discussion between President Eamonn DeValera of the Irish Free State executive council and members of the British cabinet.

A brief government communique told of the utter failure of the meeting.

"It was unfortunately found impossible," the statement read, "to reach an agreement and the negotiations came to an end."

FAIR VISITORS CROWD OUT DEMO HEADQUARTERS

DALLAS, Oct. 15. (AP)—Those who customarily walk nonchalantly into the quiet, serene headquarters of the district Democratic committee here were a bit non-plussed when they were greeted with bits of feminine attire today.

A grinning negro maid helped them get their bearings:

"Them headquarters done been run out," for the week-end, she explained.

And th hotel management had solved a problem of obtaining extra rooms to accommodate crowds here for the Texas-Oklahoma football game.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL ADVOCATES CHANGE IN ELECTION LAWS

DALLAS, Oct. 15. (AP)—M. N. Chrestman, president of the Texas judicial council, told the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants today that his organization would recommend revision of the state election laws at the next session of the legislature.

He said the council, a semi-official body created by the legislature to study a system of judicial procedure and recommend reforms, would recommend abolition of the primary as a means of nominating candidates for certain judicial offices. Nomination by convention would be substituted.

Other candidates would continue to be chosen by primary, which, Chrestman said, is largely responsible for the decline in quality of government that has occurred in the last quarter century.

The accountants ended their three-day session at noon.

J. A. Phillips of Houston was elected president, H. W. Goodson of Dallas, vice president and C. F. Milledge of Houston secretary-treasurer.

"I am reasonably certain he did not take his own life," the mother said.

Davidson was found shot to death in his apartment Tuesday. Several notes which indicated he planned to take his own life were found. Mrs. Constance Smith, formerly of Dallas, Texas, was in the apartment when Davidson killed himself, she said.

REALTY FIRM CLAIMS BANKRUPTCY SOUGHT TO VOID VALID LEASES

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—The Court and Montague Realty corporation of Brooklyn has obtained a federal court order returnable Tuesday requiring the trustee of the United Cigar Stores Company of America to show cause why the bankruptcy should not be set aside.

The petition for the order, which was consented to by State Superintendent of Banks Joseph A. Broderick as liquidator of the Bank of the United States, charged the bankruptcy had been sought for the sole purpose of voiding valid leases and that the company is and always has been solvent.

Broderick's consent was necessary because the Bank of United States holds a mortgage on a piece of Brooklyn property owned by the petitioning realty company.

WOMAN KILLS UNCLE AS CLIMAX TO QUARREL AT EAGLE ROCK, CALIF., HOME

EAGLE ROCK, Calif., Oct. 15. (INS)—After a breakfast table quarrel, Mrs. Bernice Rutherford, 30, today shot and killed her uncle, Francis H. Ring, 82, wealthy retired Indianapolis lumberman, at Ring home here, police said.

Mrs. Ring, wife of the aged man, had left the table to go into the kitchen, according to police, when Mrs. Rutherford followed her uncle into the front room and shot him through the heart.

The STORY OF SUE

By Margery Hale

Phil strolled to the fireplace and watched the flames for a minute, after the others had left the room. Joan, studying the clean-cut profile, the easy grace of the long, strong body, had a sudden sense of loneliness. She would miss Phil, would miss him frightfully, if he went away!

But he wasn't going away . . . She relaxed. He would still be there. She was the one who could not make up her mind. If she found that her Venetian romance was just a dream whose romantic colors hadn't faded quickly enough there would still be Phil!

"Stop being a fool," she told herself, blue eyes on the man's firelighted profile. "If you want Phil why don't you take him?"

But she couldn't. Not with the persistent ghost of a memory hovering in her mind. Not with half-remembered words running around her heart again. But suddenly she had a feeling, now that reality was coming, that David Harter didn't matter as much as she had thought that he did.

But she had to be sure! Perhaps it was the excitement of thinking that maybe he had tried to find her that was giving her this new confidence. If she learned that he hadn't, she might be haunted by old memories again. But her eyes shone with a brighter, gayer blue, and her voice was a little more vibrant.

Phil turned from the fireplace.

"Going to marry me, Joan?" his voice was curiously detached.

"Asking me again, Phil?" she said. "I can't answer yet. I don't know."

"Of course. Just as you say." He even smiled a little. "But it's a thing that one usually knows."

"I know it is. But I'm not like other people then. I honestly don't know! I like you loads. I even love you—but I'm not sure if it's enough. Oh, I don't know. I'm just not swept away."

"Don't be so mourful about it, Joan. After all, it's no crime. Because somebody else gave you a few more romantic thrills, you're waiting for the grand tumult to start all over again. Is that it? Well, it's your problem."

"Give me another week, won't you, Phil?" she asked. "After all, You've waited around ever so long now, a few more days one way or the other can't matter?"

"Another week?" His mouth was set and his chin was stubborn. "It would be the same old story. Either you want me or you don't. And you should know."

Joan sat thinking quietly. She did want him—dreadfully—but she wanted some one else, too. And when you could want two people you probably didn't care enough for either of them, she told herself. But she might as well play safe. It would be dreadful to wake up, and find that Phil was gone forever, just when she discovered that he mattered rather dreadfully.

He was safe, secure, devoted. He wouldn't let her slip away. He would come after her. And it had been a long time since that rainy night in Venice. It had been a long time since a man had received the words of the song. But maybe something had happened to him—

"Phil . . ." she began "I can't be engaged just yet."

Next: Phil Rogers goes away.

RULE, Texas, Oct. 15.—Teachers from four counties, Haskell, Knox, Throckmorton and Stonewall, will hold a two-day institute in Haskell, Oct. 27-28. More than 400 teachers from the four counties will attend. The services of three prominent school men and women have been secured for Thursday's session. They are Dr. J. F. Kimball, vice president of Baylor School of Medicine, Dallas; Dr. A. W. Evans, head of the department of education, Texas Technological college, Lubbock, and Miss Nancy Moseley, supervisor of the primary division of the Dallas county schools.

PROMINENT FIGURE IN OHIO DIES FROM INJURY RECEIVED IN CAR CRASH

WARREN, Ohio, Oct. 15. (AP)—One of Ohio's most prominent figures, Col. Ralph D. Cole, state commander and one of the founders of the American Legion, died early today of injuries received in an automobile accident. He was 57.

Colonel Cole, who served three terms in congress before entering the world war, was injured Tuesday when an automobile skidded into a ditch near Parkman, Ohio.

Enlisting in 1917, Cole served as a lieutenant colonel in the world war, directing military police work in France.

At the close of the war, with about 20 other veterans who met in a Paris hotel room, Colonel Cole helped found the American Legion and thereafter was active and widely known in its work.

FARMERS' ARMY CAMPS AT WINNIPEG TO ENTER PROTEST AGAINST TAXES

WINNIPEG, Oct. 15. (AP)—A farmers' "army," 400 sturdy men from northern and eastern districts of Manitoba, was "camped" here today.

They are members of the Farmers' Unity league and some had tramped nearly 100 miles. All were intent upon placing a protest before Premier Bracken on Monday against taxes and other economic ills.

Cuff Link Worn Thin By Caressing Fingers Tells Old Love Story

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—An old gold cuff link, worn thin by caressing fingers, told better than words today why Miss Annie Teller, descendant of President John Quincy Adams, chose to live and die at 92 in a hall bedroom on the humble east side.

She died yesterday of gas that leaked from a heater hose. When the neighbors heard of it, they crowded into the dingy halls, weeping, wringing their hands and saying: "Mother is dead." They said she had been good to them.

They were awed when told her story: That she was the descendant of the sixth president; that her grandfather, William Teller, was killed by Hessian troops while carrying a message for George Washington from Peekskill to Newburgh; that her father, Elisha Teller, served on the frigate Constitution when it bombarded the Pirates at Tripoli.

Relatives said that almost three-quarters of a century ago, when she was a girl, she met a young man and he proposed marriage to her as they strolled among Westchester county apple trees fragrant with blossoms.

She rejected him—and found, after he had married another woman, that she had made a mistake. Relatives said the pain of it lingered with her.

Deserted Relatives

As a school teacher she went from place to place, teaching in old Harlem, in Jamaica, in Huron county, Ohio, in Groton Falls, N. Y., Bedford Station, N. Y., and elsewhere.

She became an old woman, doddering about in rusty black gown and straw bonnet. But always she refused to live with her kin in Westchester, which was a place of memories for her. For 20 years she dwelt among the poor of the east side.

Once every year, though, she would go to Dobbs Ferry, in Westchester county.

"I must see about the interest on my bank account," she would tell her kin, but they were not deceived. They noticed she always came in apple blossom time.

Mrs. Joseph Nickerson of Dobbs Ferry, and Mrs. Hana D. Barrett of Dobbs Ferry relatives, say that her body and the old fashioned trunk in which the cuff link was found will be taken to Peekskill, Westchester county, and that she will be buried there in the land of her apple blossoms.

The old cuff link was worn to paper thinness as if from constant handling. Presumably it once belonged to the man whose proposal of marriage she had rejected and friends said its condition indicated that Miss Teller, alone with her memories, frequently took it from the old fashioned trunk.

'HOOVER PROSPERITY' BLAMED FOR SUSPENSION OF HOUSTON GARGOYLE

HOUSTON, Oct. 15. (UP)—Allen V. Peden, editor of the Houston Gargoyle, announced today the weekly magazine, established five years ago, has suspended publication.

"Hoover's brand of prosperity finally proved too much for us," said Peden in a formal statement.

The Gargoyle was patterned after The New Yorker and was devoted largely to satiric reviews of current events.

Jake the Barber Ordered Back to England for Trial

CHICAGO, Oct. 15. (AP)—John "Jake the Barber" Factor was ordered by the U. S. circuit court of appeals today sent back to England for trial on a charge of defrauding British investors in mining stocks of $7,000,000.

By a two-to-one vote the appeals court reversed the decision of U. S. District Judge George A. Carpenter who had held the specific office not extraditable.

The one-time Chicago barber was accused with his associates in the Broad Street Press, Ltd., of London, of manipulating the prices of mining stocks to the benefit of himself at a tremendous loss to the buyers.

Through his counsel, Factor has already made partial restitutions to the complaining investors by settling all pending claims in United States court for $1,300,000. This settlement recenly ended civil litigation by which it was sought to attach a $3,000,000 trust fund Factor had established in a Chicago bank for his wife and son.

TOM SLICK ESTATE TO BORROW $1,000,000 TO MEET OBLIGATIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 15. (UP)—The estate of the late Tom Slick, "king of the wildcatters," will borrow $1,000,000 from the Guaranty Trust company of New York to meet obligations in the Oklahoma City field. Permission for the transaction was given executors of the estate by County Judge C. C. Christianson.

In their petition for the loan, the executors placed blame for their difficulties on proration regulations. When Slick died, he had 70 wells drilling.

'COYOTE EXES' ELECT STAYTON NEW PRESIDENT

One Hundred Fifty Former Students High School Attend Meeting

FIFTEEN DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED FOR NEW YEAR

Nearly Every Class From 1892 to 1932 Represented Saturday

Burton Stayton was elected president of the Wichita Falls Ex-Students association Saturday when more than 150 members attended the home-coming meeting at the high school building. Other officers elected were Ray Bland, first vice president; Mrs. Maggie Brothers Dunn, second vice president; Orion Daniel, third vice president; Mrs. Maud Matheney Walker, secretary, and Carter McGregor, treasurer.

Fifteen directors were named as follows:

Several short talks were made during the business meeting in which the spirit of the organization was lauded and William E. Huff, retiring president, received general commendation for having taken the lead in organizing the former students of the Wichita Falls High school. Most of the classes from 1892 to 1932 were represented at the meeting, and Mr. Huff announced the organization included members of all but one graduating class since 1892. Graduates attending were introduced as the roll call of classes was conducted by the president.

H. D. Fillers, superintendent of schools, expressed the appreciation of the faculty, student body and board of education for the interest shown by the former students and declared the association can render a real service in making the school program function more smoothly.

Gerald Coffey asserted it was the duty of the ex-students to implant loyalty in the high school students through cooperation, not only in athletic events but in all branches of school activities. Other speakers included William B. Ward, retiring vice president, and Dr. F. R. Collard.

A solo by Miss Ruth Pruitt, accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruby Murrell, and numbers by the high school band supplied the musical part of the program. Following the meeting a chicken barbecue luncheon was held in the school cafeteria.

Awker Asks for Trucks to Haul Cotton Pickers

A plea for trucks to haul cotton pickers to nearby cotton fields was issued Saturday by Harry J. Awker, manager of the federal emergency employment agency here.

Orders for cotton pickers are received daily, Mr. Awker stated, and there are many applicants for work, but it is impossible to transport the laborers to the fields.

The pickers cannot afford to purchase transportation, nor can the field owners supply it.

"We could fill all orders within a few minutes' notice," Mr. Awker said, "if we could only find a means of transportation to the fields. Only this morning there were 18 applicants for week-end work and we had the jobs, but there was no way to take them out on location. However, some of the men walked as far as six miles to county fields."

Mr. Awker asked that any person or business concern who would be in a position to aid the bureau by supplying a truck or trucks please notify him at once. The cotton pickers will be able to drive the trucks and will return them each evening.

"By helping solve the problem of transportation, public-spirited Wichitans can do much to relieve poverty in this territory," he declared.

PLANS BEING MADE TO REBUILD KEMP CITY GIN DESTROYED BY FLAMES

IOWA PARK, Texas, Oct. 15.—Plans were being made Saturday to rebuild the Kemp City gin, which was destroyed by fire here early Friday morning. The plant, which was owned by the Kemp City Gin company, was valued at $25,000 and loss was estimateld at approximately $15,000. The cotton and seed houses were saved from the flames.

TWO FIRES CAUSE SLIGHT DAMAGE HERE SATURDAY

Fire engines were called to 1675 Dayton street shortly after 7 p. m. Saturday when an electric iron set fire to a chair at the home of Mrs. Ethel Griffith. Damage was limited to the two articles named above, according to fire department officials.

Early in the afternoon a grass fire called the engines to 2222 Brook avenue. No damage was reported.

Athletic Stadium Is Dedicated to Schools Saturday

The Wichita Falls athletic stadium was formally dedicated in ceremonies preceding the Coyote-Indian football game Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Felix R. Collard, representing the Kiwanis club which sponsored the move to build the stadium, was master of ceremonies.

The program opened with a bugle call, "Reveille," played by a Boy Scout. Dr. Collard then unveiled a large sign at one end of the stadium which reads "Athletic stadium, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, erected by citizens and dedicated to the Wichita Falls Board of Education."

The scout buglers played the bugle call for the raising of the colors and an immense American flag was slowly hoisted to the peak of the stadium pole. After this the Quanah and Wichita Falls bands played the Star-Spangled Banner.

Pep squads from the two schools formed the letters "Q" and "W" on the gridiron and the ceremonies ended with school songs by the two bands.

A highlight of the program was the impromptu stunt pulled by a snare drummer with the Quanah musicians who fell sprawling in the middle of the gridiron while the band was marching across the field.

Baering Down on News With 'Baer'

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY

Got to hand both campaign managers unlimited credit for optimism of the finest table brand.

The Republicans claim it is in the burlap. Meaning the widely advertised bag. They say the whale is pounding his flippers on the beach and all they have to do is throw the harpoon.

But there's two sides to every story and six sides to dide. The Democrats say they have 41 states tagged and indexed. And options on the other seven.

That's a conservative estimate when you figure we have only 48 disputed territories in all. We're inclined to believe the Democrats because the Republicans are wrong about Nov. 8. They think it is going to be an election when it is actually going to be an indignation meeting.

And it all goes back to changing hosses in midstream. Anybody in a fix like that must have either stepped off a wharf or crashed through the guard rail of a very wide bridge.

SPECULATE ON EFFECT HIRAM JOHNSON REFUSAL TO VOTE FOR PRESIDENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15. (UP)—What effect the open refusal of Senator Hiram Johnson to support the re-election of President Hoover may have on other western progressives was a matter of speculation in the councils of both parties today.

Democratic leaders were jubilant at the California senator's announcement that he could not endorse Mr. Hoover's re-election and predicted his action would assure a bourbon victory in not only California, but other western states as well.

Johnson's statement brought forth a laconic statement from California Republican leaders. Mark L. Requa, leader of the Republican campaign in Mr. Hoover's home state, declared Johnson's announcement "is not news."

HEAD OF CARNEGIE INSTITUTE TO CAST DEMOCRATIC VOTE

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15. (AP)—Samuel Harden Church, president of the Carnegie institute and a lifelong Republican, tonight announced he will vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt for president.

Characterizing President Hoover as "silently dry," and Vice President Curtis as "vociferously dry," Church said a statement that his switch to the Democratic nominee is based on his opposition to the national prohibition.

"I am making this choice not as a Republican or a Democrat," Church said, "but as a liberal. Washington warned his countrymen over and over again, in the farewell address, to disregard the claims of a party when the interests of the nation were at stake.

"For 12 years I have been fighting for the repeal of the 18th amendment. When that movement began the way was long and very lonesome, but now all signs indicate that a large majority of our people are in favor of repeal."

HUNT FOR SLAYER STARTS AFTER BODY FOUND IN CELLAR

DENVER, Oct. 15. (UP)—Police of a half dozen states today searched for Harry Ross, of Caldwell, Idaho, after the discovery here of the body of Erwin C. Thompson, 32-year-old electrical engineer, encased in a concrete shroud buried in a tunnel beneath the home which both men had occupied.

Mrs. Stella Ross, wife of the Caldwell man, was held by Denver police. She had been brought here last week by detectives in an effort to clear up the mystery of Thompson's disappearance.

Both Ross and his wife had twice been arrested in Caldwell in possession of Thompson's automobile, but had been released each time after satisfying police with their stories. After his second release Ross disappeared.

Last night, D. R. Wessling, of Des Moines, Iowa, Thompson's brother-in-law, who had come here to aid in the search for Thompson, opened a trap door in the house, which led to a tunnel. He entered the tunnel and dug into the earth, striking the concrete in which Thomnson's body had been cast. A portion of the cement gave way, exposing a part of the body.

Thompson's sister, Mrs. Cora E. Wessling, was sitting in an automobile in front of the house when the gruesome find was made.

THE SCHOOLS AND THE DEPRESSION

The dangers that confront Texas children by reason of shortened school terms and lower school salaries were discussed recently by Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon, president of the Texas State Teachers association. He fears that economic, moral and political security will be destroyed by the retrenchment policies now being pursued, and believes that education is more important, in these times, than in normal ones.

One may agree heartily with all that Dr. Hill says and still find some stubborn facts facing him. One is that retrenchment is imperative, in view of existing conditions. Another is that it is better to do away with some of the frills and fads that have adorned the state's educational system than to impair efficiency in teaching fundamental things.

We believe Texas schools generally would be faring better today if, when the depression first came upon us, educational authorities had faced these facts. Many of them took the position that there must be no retrenchment in the schools, that any reductions would impair standards and that economy first must be exerted to the limit everywhere else. It was not a question of avoiding retrenchment. It was a question of retrenching in the least damaging way. It would have been splendid if the schools could have been continued on a good times basis, but it was impossible.

The problem for educators to face today is not that of avoiding the economy ax, but of seeing that it falls where it will do the minimum of damage to fundamental things.

BLAMING THE LAYMAN

One reason for the ills that beset the administration of justice in this country is the failure of the layman to do his part to improve matters; so says Guy A. Thompson, retiring president of the American Bar association, in a recent address to that body. Unless the layman cooperates with those members of the bar who are trying to mend matters, Mr. Thompson says, the task is well nigh hopeless.

It may be in order to set down some of the reasons why the layman doesn't bestir himself in this undertaking. One is that he clings to the hope that the legal profession itself will accomplish something. He knows that it should take the lead; he knows that with congress and practically every state legislature composed principally of lawyers, it could take the lead. The undertaking is in a field that is unfamiliar to him, and while he is willing to help, he is at a loss to decide how he may do so.

The trouble is that the layman cannot do anything and the legal fraternity will not. When the American Bar association meets, we read a great deal about what its leaders want to do, but seldom do we see any of these desires translated into action by legislatures. The sad truth is that the American Bar association is not representative of the legal profession as a whole. Its membership comprises a small minority of the country's lawyers. It comprises very few of the lawyers that go to the legislature. These not only remain aloof from it, but often actively oppose the measures it advocates.

Undoubtedly, the layman is to blame for the fact that the legal profession is in such effective control of national and state law-making bodies. To that extent, Mr. Thompson's complaint is just. But by far the greater blame rests on the legal profession itself.

THE FAIR'S AGRICULTURAL PICTURE

The most impressive feature of the very successful Wichita County fair just held at Iowa Park was the effective presentation of the "live-at-home" doctrine. That sort of thing gets down to the bedrock of agricultural economics. The extent to which Wichita county has developed is largely due to the pressure of existing conditions, it is a by-product of the depression, but it holds a lesson that must not be forgotten when good times return.

Wichita county, the fair revealed, is not very far from being a self-contained unit so far as its subsistence is concerned. If we think of it as being shut off from the rest of the world by an impassable wall, it could keep on feeding itself indefinitely. It would lack some things that we have come to view as important in our bills of fare, but it would continue to eat and to live pretty well. It would have to do without coffee and tea and it would have to use long sweetening instead of sugar, but it wouldn't starve. And it would partake of great variety.

Livestock raising has made noteworthy progress in this county in recent years, but not as much as it should. This season, with feed crops bringing prices so low that the railroad that hauls the feed gets more than the farmer who raises it, the marketing of feed on the hoof instead of on a truck should receive more attention. There are far fewer hogs in the county than there should be, with just a very few farmers engaged in hog-raising in a systematic way. We would run low on pork in a short time if this county were shut off from the outside supply.

By and large, the fair presented an agricultural picture that has many pleasing aspects, but which shows much room for improvement.

THE ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR AMENDMENT

One of the constitutional amendments on which Texans will vote Nov. 8 authorizes consolidation of the offices of county tax collector and county tax assessor.

The voter should keep this proposal particularly in mind when he marks his amendment ballot. There is no open opposition to it, so far as we are aware, but there is enough quiet opposition to defeat it unless the taxpayer does his part. It is being attacked under cover not only by the collectors and assessors themselves, who are directly affected, but by many other county and district officials who hope, by defeating it, to head off other efforts to merge public offices that may involve them.

A sizable and well organized bloc of opposition votes is thus assured. Indifference on the part of the taxpayers may easily result in this proposal's defeat.

In cities, school districts and other taxing entities, the two offices are already combined in the interest of economy and efficiency. The business man who maintained two separate departments, one for bookkeeping and one for making collections, would be branded an incompetent; yet that is just what Texas counties do, by having the offices of collector and assessor conducted separately. It costs more, with no possibility of greater efficiency, to maintain the two offices. By every rule of good business and of common sense, they should be consolidated. Just now, when counties are straining every nerve to economize, adoption of this proposal is imperative.

The fact that the opposition is working quietly does not mean that it isn't formidable. The taxpayer must resolve to vote for his own interest; that is, for adoption of this amendment.

THE CONTEST IN TEXAS

The campaign in Texas, so far as the governor's race is concerned, is at a stage where it cannot be allowed to rest without endangering Democratic prospects. Mr. Bullington, while repeatedly declaring that he runs as an independent rather than as a Republican, is getting the well organized and well financed support of the Republican organization. That organization is headed by R. B. Creager, an experienced politician. A systematic campaign is being waged in every part of Texas.

The Democratic campaign, on the other hand, has never gotten effectively under way. There was a long delay occasioned by the Sterling contest and it has been difficult to get the party organization to functioning while that case remained undecided. With Texas admittedly safe for the Democratic national ticket, there is the danger that indifference on the part of Democratic voters will prove costly.

It is the clear duty of every voter who entered the Democratic primary to support the ticket from top to bottom. The pledge which such a voter has taken enters into that duty, despite all that has been said to the contrary, but there is an obligation aside from that imposed by the pledge. That obligation is to keep Texas strictly Democratic. The election of Mr. Bullington would mean, regardless of his pose as an independent, that Texas had a Republican governor. It would be hailed everywhere as a Republican victory, even though it could not come to pass without the votes of thousands of deserting Democrats. We do not believe that Mr. Bullington himself will say that he would, as governor, forget that he was a Republican or fail to acknowledge his obligation to R. B. Creager and the Republican machine in Texas.

All of the old arguments will be dusted off and presented. So far as Democratic voters are concerned, those arguments became null and void when Mrs. Ferguson was declared the Democratic nominee. Every question that might be raised about proxy government and such matters was answered by the second primary. The objective of every real Democrat now must be Democratic victory.

Contemporary Comment

AGAINST GASOLINE TAX INCREASE

Legislators have discovered within the last few years that the motorists are easy prey of the tax collectors and consequently have placed numerous taxes on the heads of automobile owners. There is a tendency, however, for the automobile owners to rebel, as was the case in Maine recently when the proposal to increase the state gasoline tax was defeated by a vote of 8 to 1. In other states, too, there is a feeling that the tax paid on gasoline is too high and constitutes unfair taxation of one group of citizens.

Oil companies have long realized the increasing tax burden that they must pass on to their customers in the price charged for gasoline and oil, but only recently have these companies endeavored to show their customers just how much they are paying to the tax collectors. The Standard Oil Company of Indiana is circulating a cartoon showing a motorist at a filling station with a group of tax collectors, waiting to get their share of the motorist's dollar. They represent the state gasoline tax, the federal gasoline tax, the lubricating oil tax, the state inspection tax, the state license fee, the real estate tax, the income tax, the pipe line tax, the oil production tax in addition to the normal ad valorem taxes and incidental costs of doing business, all of which are hidden in the price charged the motorist.

The motorists of the nation have been taxed on the theory that ownership of an automobile is an admitted luxury and those who can own automobiles should bear a good portion of the taxes. Now, however, with practically every family owning an automobile, high taxes on this group represents a rather unfair type of taxation. The farmer who uses his automobile and truck in his business pays as much or more for the operation of his vehicles as the wealthy property owner who has a car only for occasional trips.—Denton Record Chronicle.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Lift not up your horn on high; speak not with a stiff neck.—Psalms 75:5.

Arrogance is the obstruction of wisdom.—Bion.

ROUGHLY SPEAKING by John Gould

The Pessimist

A coach must be a gloomy cuss,
Full of predictions dolorous,
A pessimistic prophet.
He thinks his team can't make a score
And when the next day's game is o'er,
He's certain of it.

He says his team has not a chance
To halt the other side's advance,
That they won't fight.
And when the last pass has been thrown,
And the last whistle has been blown,
We find he's right.

Greece may protect Insull, but we bet it doesn't let him organize any utility companies.

The Menace

One of the reforms we have often urged is the abolition of the wire coat-hanger. It is a menace to our civilization. It is a wrecker of homes. It is a destroyer of happiness. It is subversive of good conduct and morals. It spares no one. Young and old alike are the victims of its unfathomable perversity. Just one thing can be said for it: like the rattlesnake and the model T Ford, it always rattles before it strikes.

We have long hated this device with a soul-staining hate. Recently we had an experience with it that deepened our hatred and strengthened our determination not to cease our crusade until the last one of these vicious contraptions has been destroyed.

Somebody had hung a garment on the family clothes-line with a coat-hanger. The garment had been removed when dry, but the coat-hanger remained. We saw it when we began doing some chores about the yard and knew that we would have trouble with it, but our mind was on something else and we didn't pay much attention to it. It hung there, quietly and peacefully, giving no hint of the evil heart within its bosom, or rather the heart that it would have if it had a bosom. We watched it warily as we worked, knowing its sinister nature. But presently, as we became interested in our tasks, we forgot all about it.

By chance we passed within a foot or two of it, and it struck, fiercely and almost without warning, but missed. That should have convinced us of our danger, but we paid no particular attention.

It let us alone for a while, contenting itself with a sullen rattle every time we happened near it. But our mind was on other things.

The Attack

The afternoon shadows lengthened, but it was still light enough for one of our industrious habits to continue working. We had started mowing the grass and were deriving some amusement from the way in which the clothes-lines, suspended over the lawn, kept playfully frolicking with us. To one whose sense of humor is as highly developed as our own, the way that clothes-line has of coyly whacking one on the ear or under the chin, or knocking one's hat off, is a most laughable thing. We can even laugh at the way it has of suddenly dropping down and grabbing one by the ankle when one is in a hurry.

That kind of sense of humor is a great blessing, and we wouldn't take anything for it. Development of it began when we were a mere lad, stumbling inadvertently one day into a yellow jackets' nest. Later when we sawed a limb off a tree, while standing on the wrong end of the limb, it was developed further. In one way and another, by hammering thumb-nails when carpentering, by cranking a car that was in gear, by striking a match to look for a leak in a gas pipe and in various misadventures of the kind, it has become a constant source of joy to us, adding much to the zest and the richness of life.

And so we were immensely enjoying the clothes-lines' pranks and not noticing particularly where we were stepping, when presently we walked square-dab into that coat-hanger. It had been waiting its chance to do us foul and now it made the most of it with a vicious lunge that caught us full in the face.

It did not make us mad. If anger rose up within us, it was more because of our own carelessness than in any feeling of animus toward the coat-hanger.

It was in sorrow rather than in anger that we disengaged it from the clothes-line and hurled it from us.

Perversity

Somewhat chastened, but still cheerful, we resumed our lawn-mowing. To get our mind off the incident, we thought of extraneous matters. We got to thinking of Al Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt and about the former calling the latter old potato and how distressing it would have been if there had been a slip of the tongue and he had called him cold potato, there being nothing more devoid of grace and cheer and appeal than a cold-boiled potato, and how fortunate it was that he chose his vegetable wisely and didn't call him old cauliflower, or old turnip or old spinach.

On a sudden our reverie was interrupted. The lawn-mower had encountered something it couldn't digest and it stopped with a jerk that nearly dislocated our bridgework. Even before we looked to see what the obstruction was we knew what had happened. You have guessed it, gentle reader. It was that clothes-hanger. When we threw it away it struck the fence and bounced back into the grass, where it had waited, biding its time until the mower came, and probably smiling evilly to itself at the grief it would cause. It seemed to leer up at us as we bent over it, as much as to say, "How did you like that one, you big son of a gun?" or words to that effect.

With the calmness of perfect self control we unsnarled it from the mower, took it carefully out into the alley, piled some rocks and brush upon it, and left it there. But there was a sense of hopelessness oppressing us as we did so. We knew it was all in vain. That presently it would be back, seeking new opportunities to annoy and injure us.

When we encounter it again, we wonder if our sense of humor can prevail once more. After all, we are only human.

Mr. Coolidge says he must appeal to the country's common sense, but probably doesn't expect it to show as much as he did when he didn't choose.

By WILL ROGERS

Well all I know is just what I read in the papers and what I hear over the Radio, and brother if that old Radio aint getting a beating. The Politicians are giving that poor little old microphone one of its toughest seasons since its birth. I was just sitting listening in like millions of you have been all Fall.

When the Country ought to be working its just listening. Even us that are fortunate enough to have a kind of a job, why we knock off to listen. Well one I remember was Ogden Mills. Ogden took over the treasury when Mr. Mellon took over the business of introducing "Debutantntees" to George and Mary.

Men in America live, hope and die trying to become Presidents. If they cant make it they accept the booby prize and go in the Senate. But women just live, hope and die happy, if they can be presented at the Court of St. James.

Well as I was saying before, one of the ones I tuned in on the other week was Ogden Mills. He was out our way sprinkling some tacks in the Democratic road. Ogden is the first man I ever made a political speech for, and the last one. When I got through it he was running for Congress in New York City and the audience couldent tell if I was talking for Ogden, or Aimee McPherson, so they pronounced my speech pretty much of a bust. But they elected Ogden, the only Republican candidate elected to Congress from the great City of New York. (And there is dozens of em from there). At the time I made the speech I dident know that he was running on the Republican side, but young Teddy Roosevelt asked me to go say a few words for Ogden, and I have always been glad I did, for he has made good. I always feel that he is one man that I sponsored that lived up to it.

He was awful rich and got an awful nice wife, and she is a good fellow. She comes into Jack Garner's office and we had a political kowtow. Mills is a wealthy man and always has been, but he really tries, and does render some fine service to his country, and especially to his party. Even the Democrats say that he has made a fine Treasury, not that the Democrats know much about handling money but Mills has impressed em tremendously. He can count the Treasury money without looking at it longingly.

Well he come out to California a few weeks ago and I wanted to see him and Mrs. Mills, but the Republicans were around him so thick, that I knew I would be disinfecting myself for days afterwards, so I dident get to see him, and I dident have a Republican registration card so I couldent get in even to hear him. But I went home and got him on the Radio. I missed 15 minutes of him, for Amos and Andy was on, but the minute Amos stopped singing "Is I Blue?" why I went right over onto Ogden. He is a mild mannered man in private life but when he gets on that diving board in front of that microphone, why he goes hog wild. If you dident know who it was, and just heard him, you would think it was a Southern Democrat. He orates, then he superorates, then from then on he just gets louder.

They used to call em Spellbinders. They ought to call em "Airbusters" now. But he had a lot of facts mixed in with the noise, and a lot of facts between growls. But here was the strange thing, he had the same things in his speech that Mr. Hoover had in Des Moines three days later. Now who copped who's act? We used to have that a lot on vaudeville. Some bird would get in the week ahead of you and do your same jokes. Well thats what Ogden had done with Herbert. He did his act the week ahead of him, all that stuff about the Gold Standard.

But it may have been Mills, for that was up his alley, that finance stuff. But he is a very capable man, and can make a lot more speeches if he will just take it easy. The fellows that rant have to do it to cover up ignorance. Ogden dont have to do that.

By the way you know the best speaker of all of em I heard so far this fall? Well it was the wife of Bob Shuler, that preacher that is running for the Senate out home. Most womens voice is not so hot over the Radio, but I tell you hers is the most natural and shes got a lot of plain good facts.

McAdoo looks like he ought to win out there. He has really done things. But old Bob getting in there messing it up for both the others, why thats liable to make a difference. Well it wont be long now! Just two more weeks to Alibis.

Inter-County Federation Will Observe 'Achievement Day' in Program at Clubhouse Wednesday

Nine counties will be represented at the inter-county federation meeting to be held at the Forum clubhouse all day Wednesday. This will be the second fall session of the organization and the program and attendance promises to equal all others. The federation, which is composed of Wichita, Wilbarger, Clay, Archer, Montague, Jack, Baylor, Young and Knox counties, is unique of its kind in Texas, being the first so organized.

Wednesday's program has been designated "achievement day." It marks the entering upon the second year of work for the organization as well as the accomplishment of unusual types of work in the various county federations. These will be brought out in the programs and other features of the day.

Mrs. E. E. Davis of Arlington, past home demonstration agent and talented club woman, will speak on "The Average Woman and Everyday Citizenship." Mrs. Davis is a writer of ability, having twice won the short story contest in the Texas Federation of Women's clubs. She is also a most interesting and instructive speaker, it is announced.

Mrs. R. E. Buchanan of Fort Worth, prominent club woman of the first district and Texas Federation of Women's clubs, will also address the convention. Her talks are always full of inspiration and help not only to club members but to all organization workers. Mrs. Buchanan is a parliamentarian of note and will bring vital facts of parliamentary law into her discourse.

Mrs. John Barbour of Iowa Park, first president of the Wichita Falls County federation, will welcome the guests to Wichita county, and Mrs. E. H. Trigg of Archer county will respond. Mrs. C. R. Seals, authority on art work, will talk at the afternoon session on "The Art of Hooked Rugs." The hooked rug has been adopted throughout the counties as one of the major projects by many demonstration clubs, and the women will welcome this message from Mrs. Seals, who has made a study and taught the hooked rug work in one of Wichita Falls' leading stores. She will illustrate her talk with various models.

Afternoon Session

A feature of the afternoon session will be the conducting of an "Achievement Round Table," by Mrs. Grover C. Johnson and Mrs. St. Andrew Myers, member of the state child welfare board, will be present and will present facts concerning her new work. Each representative will present the achievements in her county in reports and the method of presentation is left entirely with the counties and their presidents. Often these reports are given in a unique manner that lends variety to the program and they are looked forward to with much interest.

Mrs. P. P. Langford, state chairman of music, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will conduct a singsong.

The session will open promptly at 10 a. m. and luncheon will be served at noon.

Out of town members are requested to notify Mrs. Ben G. Oneal for their reservations and town people to notify Mrs. O. W. Harvey. Already reservations have been made by members of four counties.

A cash prize will be given the county having the largest number present and will be awarded at the beginning of the afternoon session. Clay county has been winner of this prize at all other meetings.

All women of the nine counties are invited to the meeting whether affiliated with a club or not. They are urged to come and help their county win the prize, it is announced.

Luncheon will be served at a nominal price.

AGAIN the time has rolled around for the grinning jack-o'-lanterns, the spooks and black cats—the time when, the witches reign supreme and gates and porch furniture are missing. That's the spirit of Halloween. Do you remember the old poem with the refrain, "The goblins'll git you if you don't watch out!" Unusual Attendance Marked at Zundelowitz P.-T. A. Meeting

Vivid enthusiasm marked the first meeting of Zundelowitz P.-T. A. Thursday when 189 mothers registered for the program held in the school auditorium. Due deference was paid to Mrs. H. M. Campbell, program chairman, for the subject interest of the afternoon. A mixed chorus under the direction of Miss Minnie T. Baker, opened with three splendid numbers, "Ocean Wave," "O Sole Mio," and "The Hunting Song." The devotional was the Lord's Prayer said by the entire assembly.

"The Theory of High School Education" was the theme on which T. W. Brumbalow, principal, based an unusual talk. He explained the three school levels, elementary, junior and senior high and enumerated the five principal duties of the junior high as first, a program of intellectual guidance through supervised study; second, vocational interest through an effort to help the student learn what he should specialize in when he enters high school; third, the development of citizenship through school activities; fourth, the teaching of health through gymnastic and athletic activities, and fifth, a faculty that understands the child between the ages of 12 and 15. Mr. Brumbalow said that Zundelowitz is very fortunate in having such a faculty and in conclusion stated, "We feel that junior high school will develop a fine, healthy body and an intellectual mind for your girl and boy."

Teacher Talks

A discussion on necessary requirement of junior high pupils was given by Miss Bennie Works, who said in part, "I shall give a series of explanations regarding the procedure and regulations in our school; knowing how we handle certain matters and what we expect of your boy and girl, will bring about a clearer understanding between you as parents and us as teachers." She stressed regular attendance as a requisite in classroom work and stated there were three ways a pupil might catch up with his group after a necessary absence: First, remain after school for individual help; second, secure a special assignment, or third, if his classes take him into classes where larger units of work have been assigned, to do that part which has not been done the day before. "This very thing," she said, "is a strong argument against the recitation plan and in favor of the modern idea of assignments in larger units." Old-fashioned and modern methods of "Home Help" were discussed, stating that formerly the parents had done the work that should have been done by the teachers, but that teachers today are striving to reverse he procedure. "We are making workshops of our classrooms," she said, "where learning takes place under the direction of a specialist in her field."

A short business session followed the program, with Mrs. G. C. McGown, president, in charge. With approximately 25 mothers interested in the formation of a study club, it was announced the time and place of organization will be announced later. Reports were given by chairmen and the teachers and sponsors were introduced by Mrs. Harry Thornberry.

Mrs. H. M. Campbell distributed the yearbooks and called attention to the excellent program to be given Nov. 10 when national book week will be observed.

AND then according to Mrs. J. M. Crain of Claude, state publicity director of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, Wednesday will mean much to the 58,323 members of the congress, because the many yearbooks coming into the state office have listed special programs for the observance of the 23rd birthday of the Texas branch. Mrs. Crain says in part:

"Birthdays are interesting occasions and parent-teacher workers will commemorate this birthday during this month by informing themselves of the origin and growth of the organization in Texas as well as the ideals and purposes of its founders.

◇ ◇ ◇

"ON Oct. 19, 1909, at the old First Methodist church in Dallas the Texas Congress of Mothers was organized by Mrs. Ella Caruthers Porter. Many representative mothers, educators, pastors and others interested in the welfare of Texas children came to this meeting and participated in the formation of this organization.

◇ ◇ ◇

"MRS. PORTER is oftentimes honored on this special birthday celebration and rightfully she should be because she not only organized the Texas branch but she has also given so freely of her money, time and energy for the development of the movement which she has so ably pioneered. She served as president of the organization for the first three years and to her boundless enthusiasm and loyalty throughout the major portion of these 23 years can be attributed a long list of actual accomplishments in behalf of the welfare of Texas children. She is a charter member of the national congress, national honorary vice president and national chairman of thrift.

◇ ◇ ◇

"AS THIS 23rd birthday of the Texas branch is celebrated, it is fitting that each local and council pay special tribute to the beloved founder, Mrs. Porter, and the other state presidents who have all carried out the ideals and purposes of the founders until today the welfare of every child in Texas has been recognized, improved and uplifted," writes Mrs. C. J. Farrell, Vernon, state chairman Founders Day and Birthday of Texas Congress. Mrs. Farrell continues: "So light a birthday candle for these leaders of child welfare in Texas: Mrs. Ella Caruthers Porter, Dallas; Mrs. Chalmers Hutchison, Fort Worth; Mrs F. W. McAllister, San Antonio; Mrs. A. E. Watters, Fort Worth; Mrs. S. M. N. Marrs, Austin; Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, Ranger; Mrs. Noyes Darling Smith, Austin; and Mrs. A. F. Wood, Athens.

"LITERATURE for celebration of this birthday may be secured from the state office; two pageants are available, one written by Mrs. Porter and the other by Mrs. W. F. Doughty.

The free-will offering taken for this occasion will go into the endowment fund, the interest of which is used for extension of child welfare in Texas."

◇ ◇ ◇

THIS is also the month to set the stage for happy home life this winter. Of course the home is your stage and the living room the set that is used oftenest for pleasant family drama. Julia Blanshard, NEA Service writer, says that the biggest single trouble with most homes is that there simply isn't a comfortable spot for everybody to read in, play solitaire in or do a bit of mending that needs a good strong light for efficiency's sake, not to mention the avoidable eye strain.

◇ ◇ ◇

SHE suggests borrowing ideas from ships' reading rooms and hotel lobbies. A modern penthouse apartment has a modern table with four chairs placed at two sides of a perfect lamp to light the whole. "Here," she says, "the children could study in peace, and no one would have an alibi that he hadn't a place. Here two people could compete in double solitaire, letters could be written, magazines could be read or mending done."

◇ ◇ ◇

AND I could write on and on about this and that, and one thing and another, but fearing that you are perhaps tired of reading ere this, I will close and sign off with—

Y.W.C.A. Work for Past Year Shows Splendid Accomplishment

By ERMA SCHNELLE

As we endeavor to interpret the work of the Y. W. C. A. it becomes evident that the particular, and perhaps unique, value of the Young Women's Christian association lies in its totality and not in any one program, activity, approach, method or point of view. Including in its fellowship as it does, a cross section of the girlhood and womanhood of this country and of the world, the Y. W. C. A. works on the assumption that individuals of many different life experiences can be associated together through a common religious motive and through a desire to make more effective the Christian ideal of life in local communities, the nation and the world. Against this background of objectives we need today to see the Young Women's Christian association not only in its wholeness as an international Christian movement of women and girls but also as an effective social agency in the local community.

The Y. W. C. A. is a "big sister" to the thousands of girls and women who enter its doors. The place where the girl with a job finds congenial and reasonable recreational and educational advantages. The girl without a job may come for shelter, warmth, protection, friendliness and encouragement.

Under conditions of economic stress, the work done by the character-building organizations is even more necessary than in prosperous times. If human relations cannot be kept secret, if the protection necessary to childlife through wholesome home surroundings cannot be maintained, society cannot go forward; and a society that does not go forward inevitably goes backward.

Through the employment department of the local Y. W. C. A., 311 applications for work were made last year and approximately 667 interviews were given to girls seeking employment and advice in personal, financial, business and family problems. Daily hospitality of parlors, lounge with cots, rest room, loan library and kitchenet are enjoyed by from 10 to 30. A list of desirable living places is kept on file and 27 women and girls were assisted in finding congenial accommodations.

Girl Reserves were organized in 12 schools with 14 volunteer sponsors, the keynote being health, knowledge and spirit. The total membership for 1931-32 was 1,224 which is the largest in the Southwest for a town of this size.

Through the business girls department, three clubs are active. Programs consist of educational courses and constructive use of leisure time. The membership is 61. Weekly gym classes are being offered this fall to the business girls for the first time and over 30 are taking part.

The building is used by 39 different organizations and a total of 808 meetings had a total aggregate attendance of 6,845 for the past year. The personnel of these meetings consists of employed people that do not have access to a club or building with adequate space for their meetings or entertainments.

Yet figures can never tell the stories of vital, personal contacts; the lives touched, the help and encouragement given.

HEAD OF TEXAS U.C.V. HERE TO PLAN FOR MEET

Gen. M. J. Bonner of Fort Worth, commander of the United Confederate Veterans of Texas, was in Wichita Falls Saturday to make preliminary arrangements for the annual reunion, which will be held here in October, 1933. Confederate veterans from throughout Texas are expected to attend.

While here General Bonner conferred with Judge Edgar Scurry of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, who will hold their state meeting at the same time. It is possible that the state convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will also be held here then.

General Bonner, who was a scout with the confederate forces in the civil war, is able to be quite active despite his 86 years.

He is the owner of one of the world's most valuable violins, a Stainer, made in 1632. He learned to play on it when he was 9 years old and one of his diversions is to take part in old fiddlers' contests. Judge Scurry referred to him as a violinist, but General Bonner corrected him, saying he was a fiddler.

Four Directors Added to Board For 1933 Chest

Four directors of the community chest have been added to the list announced Friday following the annual meeting. The new directors are C. J. Coffey, Ray Puckett, J. M. Spoonts and Dr. Felix R. Collard.

Committees were appointed as follows:

Nominating committee: C. E. Basham, John F. O'Donohoe and Mrs. Charles R. Hartsook.

CAMP FIRE SPARKS

The Camp Fire guardians met at local headquarters Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank W. Michaux, chairman, presiding.

The following officers were elected: Chairman, Mrs. Maude Bartholomew; vice chairman, Clarice Clark; secretary, Mrs. Michaux, and treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Gregory.

Plans were discussed for the making of cloth toys for unfortunate children for Christmas.

A copy of Miss McIlheran's resignation as executive secretary was read. Miss McIlheran expressed her appreciation to her guardians for their faithful service and urged them to continue their good work with their groups and to cooperate with whomever might succeed her.

Mankilo Group

Members of the Mankilo group had an interesting visit to the Acme Brick company on Wednesday afternoon. They were shown through the plant and were very interested in the process of brick making. The company has offered to furnish brick for the outdoor fireplace to be built by the group in the Camp Fire corner on the Crockett school grounds. Next week the work will be started in the beautification of the groups.

Tanokiwin Group

Mrs. C. F. Gregory, guardian of the Tanokiwin group, went with members for an outdoor supper on Friday afternoon. Mildred Lightfoot and Kathryn Borden, candidates for fire maker rank, planned and prepared the meal which included Venetian egg, crackers and fruit. After the meal was completed the girls enjoyed hiking near the river.

This group plans to build bird baths on the Austin and Reagan Junior Hi grounds.

HANBURY FIELD PRODUCER GOOD FOR 200 DAILY

Well Resumes Flow After Being Shut Off for Relining

WILDCAT MAY OPEN NEW POOL IN GRADY COUNTY

Nice Well Added to Extension of Tatums Area In Carter

DUNCAN, Okla., Oct. 15.—A. E. Trowbridge and associates are nearing completion of their No. 1 Price, in the SW NE NE of 30-2n-9w, new producer in the old Hanbury field, about midway between Lawton and Marlow.

The well came in 10 days ago, flowing, and later was "killed" while a liner was reset to case off about 100 feet of open hole just above the pay sand, which is from 2050 to 2080 feet. After the liner had been set, the well was bailed out and began flowing again. It looked good for an initial production of between 150 and 200 barrels a day, but whether it would hold that production is a question puzzling field men watching the well. Previous producers in the district made good flows at first but declined rapidly.

Operators were running tubing to place the well on production. Trowbridge is scheduled to drill a second test on the lease soon.

Whether the English Drilling company opened a new pool at the No. 1 Heenan and Coe, in the NE SE NE of 32-3n-7w, wildcat two miles north of Marlow, but in southern Grady county, was in doubt at the close of the week. The well started off pumping about 70 barrels of oil daily but began making considerable salt water.

Operators believed this trouble was explained because the three-inch liner is set on top of the sand at 3266 feet with a packer and the packer probably is leaking. The tubing was being pulled and is to be cemented on the sand.

Stephens and Carter counties got one new producer each during the past week. Stephens county got one new location.

Good New Producer

A nice producer was added in the southeast extension of the Tatums field of Carter county when the Paul Robb and associates No. 3 Burton, in the NW SW NE of 21 1s-2w, swabbed 361 barrels of oil in 12 hours and was shut in for tankage. The Tatums sand series was found from 2235 to 2390 feet, with total depth 2420 feet in blue shale.

Forbes and associates had the top of the sand series from 2270 to 2291 feet in the No. 2 Trahern, in the SW SE NW of 31-1s-2w, and cemented the 8-inch casing at 2270 feet to complete.

Frank Lundy was rigging up for his No. 1 Majors, in the NE SE NE of 25-1s-3w, between the old field and the extension.

Page & McFarland were drilling at 2314 feet in the No. 1 Brooks, in the NE SW SW of 13-1s-3w, just north of the old field.

Paul Turner and associates were shut down at 995 feet at the No. 1 Sparks-Carter in the SW SW NW of 13-1s-3w, three locations north of the field.

George Y. Pace's No. 2 Caldwell, in the NW NE SW SE of 21-2s-7w, on the southwest edge of the Watkins county completion for the week, is estimated good for 100 barrels on the pump. Sand is from 1714 to 1721 feet. The same operator's No. 2 Bunch, 300 feet north, is on the pump for 135 barrels. Sand is from 1713 to 1719 feet.

Pace made location and was drilling at 300 feet in his No. 3 Caldwell, 300 feet south of No. 2.

Swabbing to Complete

The Curtis Oil company drilled plugs and was swabbing to complete the No. 5 Dare, in the NE NE NE SE of 2-2s-8w, five miles south and two west of Duncan, in sand from 1457 to 1470 feet.

Farther west, on the south edge of the old Empire field, the No. 1 Doss of Mrs. Julia A. Linson, in the NW NW SW NW of 4-2s-8w, was being swabbed to test oil sand from 2216 to 2219 feet.

J. C. Chambers and associates still had 21 feet of cement to drill out to test sand from 2106 to 2111 feet in the No. 1 Dolen, in the SW NW NW of 15-1s-8w, four miles west and one and one-half south of Duncan. Operators have been attempting to test this sand for more than six weeks but have been delayed by pipe and cementing troubles.

Carl Wilie and associates still are shut down for water at his No. 1 Cates, in the SW SE NW SW of 15-1s-8w.

Louis Sikes is rigged up and shut down for water at the No. 3 Furst, in the NW SW SE NW of 16-1s-8w.

Pace was drilling at 2008 feet in the No. 3 Branch, in the NE SW SW SE of 1-2s-8w, southwest of Duncan.

P. L. Gilbert's No. 4 Green, in the NW NW SE NE of 2-2s-8w, is rigged up and shut down.

H. J. Brown was coring at 1500 feet in the No. 1 Donham, in the NW SE NE of 11-2s-8w.

The English Drilling company No. 1 Nigh, in the SE NE NE SW of 11-2s-8w, is a rig.

Pace was drilling at 2064 feet in the No. 5 Allen, in the NE NE NE of 3-2s-8w, after failing to find oil in sand from 1907 to 1911 feet.

E. D. Gillette and associates are out of water and shut down at 60 feet at the No. 1 Cooley, in the NW NW SE NW of 17-2s-8w, a scheduled 4500-foot wildcat three miles south of Empire City.

The Stone & Cunningham No. 1 Toney, in the NE NW of 27-2s-7w, southeast of Comanche, is a location.

The McKeon & Dingee No. 1 Toney, in the SW SE SW of 15-2s-7w, is a location.

Joe Ray was shut down and is expected to abandon his No. 1 Johnson, in the SE NE NW of 6-3n-5w, a wildcat northwest of the Carter-Knox field of southern Grady county, where a show of oil was found in sand from 2809 to to 2820 feet.

Donald Brothers were coring oil sand at 2198 feet in the No. 1 Wilson, in the NW NW NW of 6-2s-9w, just east of the Walters field of Cotton county.

SHRINE BALL TO HAVE GOOD MUSIC

The famous Doc Ross 12-piece orchestra, which will be brought here direct from the Hotel Del Coronado at Coronado Beach to furnish the music and part of the entertainment for the Shrine dance at the Wichita club, Thursday night, Oct. 20.

The committee headed by Past Potentate Guy Rogers which is in charge of Maskat Temple's big dance and entertainment to be given at the Wichita club next Thursday night, Oct. 20, has reported to Potentate Sydney A. Gaines that the temple's reputation for outstanding social affairs will be fully sustained, as the success of the dance is now assured.

After considerable effort Noble Eli Morgan was able to secure the famous Doc Ross 12-piece orchestra which will come here direct from the exclusive Hotel Del Coronado at Coronado Beach, near San Diego, Calif.

As a Victor recording orchestra and one which has been heard many times over the national radio hookups it is well and favorably known from coast to coast. They will not only furnish the dance music but as they have a number of individual performers of the highest merit they will also supply a part of the entertainment features.

Wally Barrymore, feature singer and saxophone soloist, formerly for two years with Ben Bernie and his band at the Roosevelt hotel in New York City, and who is a personal friend of Rudy Vallee, will direct the orchestra and will give several individual numbers.

In addition to Barrymore there will be McFee, the accordion wizard, the Barrymore trio, and the aeolian string trio of national radio fame, all of whom will perform during the evening.

The entire Wichita club will be turned over to the Shriners and their guests on the night of Oct. 20. There will be two ballrooms with complete loud speaker equipment so that there will be plenty of room for the dancers, despite the large crowd which will be present. The balconies and upper rooms will be arranged for playing cards, dominoes, and other games and those who prefer such diversions to dancing will find enjoyment there.

The dance on Oct. 20 will be the first of a series which will be given this fall by Maskat, but each will be different from the others in many distinctive features.

PANHANDLE RAISES CRUDE PRICES HERE 10 CENTS BARREL

The Panhandle Refining company announced a 10-cent raise in the price paid for crude oil, effective Saturday morning at 7 a. m. The announcement from President Roy B. Jones follows:

"Although tank car prices of refined products do not at this time justify the increase in price of crude oil made effective today by a majority of the major purchasing companies, we are hopeful that such prices will improve and therefore:

"Effective 7 a. m., Oct. 15, 1932, we will pay for crude oil which we are purchasing, one dollar ($1.00) per barrel delivered at our plant (that is the pipe line charge whatever it may be will be deducted from the $1.00) instead of the 90c price, which we have been paying during the first half of this month.

"We will continue to follow the policy adopted sometime ago of paying producers for their oil all we can realize from it until our price reaches the posted price of major purchasing companies."

MID-CONTINENT OUTPUT CUT TO GET PRICE HIKE

Most Companies Follow Lead of Sun in Making Crude Advance

WENTZ DISCOVERY WELL HAS TO BE DEEPENED

Meeker Wildcat in Lincoln County Expected Come In This Week

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 15.—Mid-continent oil men were smiling today at the knowledge that they were to receive more money for the oil that they were to produce, even though they were to produce less crude during the remainder of the year.

The 12 cents a barrel increase in crude prices which was posted for the five-state oil province by different independent and major oil purchasers became effective at 7 a. m. today in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, North Louisiana, Arkansas and New Mexico, while in the Panhandle field of Northwest Texas the raise was 9 to 11 cents a barrel.

The sweeping advance, purchasers were frank to say, was made in appreciation of the willingness of producers to sharply reduce their output so that the oil structure might strengthen and improve. Recommendations of operators to the several state regulatory bodies were accepted and the advances followed.

The Sun Oil company of Philadelphia, but operating in Texas and Oklahoma, took the lead by advancing East Texas crude, and then Sinclair-Prairie Oil Marketing company followed by meeting the Sun's advance in East Texas, and applying the 12 cents a barrel advance to North Texas, North Central Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. The Barnsdall Refineries, Inc., followed suit in Kansas and Oklahoma, and Phillips Petroleum company's subsidiaries came along in Kansas and Oklahoma, and with slightly reduced increases in the Panhandle.

The Continental Oil company made the 12 cents a barrel hike effective in Kansas, Oklahoma and North Central Texas, and the Texas company in the five states it serves, and in effect was the most sweeping of the increases.

Others Follow Suit

Other purchasers, large and small, then followed suit, and mid-continent oil leaders now expect the move starting in Texas and Oklahoma to sweep to the Eastern, Central West, Rocky mountain and California fields.

Interest in Oklahoma outside of the change in prices continues to be centered upon wildcats.

The L. H. Wentz and associates' No. 1 Wolf, in the center of the southeast of the northwest of 17-20-2w, the discovery well in the Wentz pool, near Perry, in Noble county, while proving the existence of a great area there, must be deepened, as it fell off sharply when started upon a 10-day potential test at 5194 to 5197 feet. The first 24 hours it made 1,721 barrels and 1,318 barrels the next and the tools were then moved in to deepen.

Leasing in the region has slowed up, as most operators appear to have satisfied their needs. Two tests are starting, one northwest of the new well and one southeast, while rumor has it that tests will start soon to the southwest in Logan county and west-southwest in Garfield county, all being on the so-called Nemaha mountain ridge, a structure extending from Kansas to the Arbuckle mountains.

The coming week will reveal the outcome of the Meeker wildcat in southern Lincoln county, where the Sovereign Oil corporation and associates at No. 1 Flower, in the southwest of the southeast of the southeast of 14-12-3e, are nearing the Wilcox sand. It was reported as below 5616 feet, having had a small show in a stray sand that was at first thought to be the Bartlesville sand. This Meeker structure has been mapped, written up and otherwise worked by more geologists than any other geologic feature in Oklahoma and yet has escaped drilling for years until the Sovereign test was begun.

Oklahoma's Output

Oklahoma's output for the last half of the month and possibly for the remainder of 1932 will be as follows: (In barrels a day)

District.	New Period.	Sept. Oct.
Class A	24,864	24,652
Class B	118,290	130,488
Class C	14,700	15,707
Oklahoma City	72,750	75,720
Wildcats	1,050	800
Strippers	150,136	150,347
Totals	381,790	397,715

A stronger undertone was reflected in the mid-continent refinery market as a direct result of the sweeping reduction of output which brought about a sharp increase in the prices of crude oil. Gasolines, which were quite weak at the close of the previous week, took an immediate advance of one-eighth to one-fourth of a cent a gallon in tank car prices and as the week ended this had soared to one-half to three-fourths of a cent. Other petroleum products also strengthened.

SHOW PAYS FINE FOR UNLICENSED TRUCKS

QUANAH, Texas, Oct. 15.—A dog and pony show which came to Quanah recently left $218 here in the form of $98 in fines, and $118 for license tags for the trucks carrying their show. Two traffic officers charged them with driving seven unregistered trucks, all loaded overweight. The trucks carried Utah and Indiana licenses, and the traffic officers had warned the show people several times to attend to the matter at the next town—which it was stated they had promised to do. Their failure to keep the promise cost them both fine and license fee, which had to be paid before they were permitted to proceed.

WASHINGTON DECIDES TOMATO IS VEGETABLE

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 15. (AP)—The perplexing problem of whether a tomato is a vegetable or a fruit, has been solved for the Minneapolis office in the internal revenue bureau. It's a vegetable.

John A. McHardy, in charge of the local bureau, had requested a ruling from Washington on whether tomato juice was taxable under the new federal law which imposes a tax of 2 cents per gallon drinks made from fruit. McHardy was advised that a tomato is a vegetable and is not taxable.

Harold Lloyd in 'Movie Crazy' Is Featured Attraction at Majestic 'Okay America' at State on Sunday

It's been two years since Harold Lloyd last treated his fans to one of his films. That's a long time to wait to see a Lloyd picture, and yet, as "Movie Crazy," with Constance Cummings, the film to break the long silence, unwound itself Friday before a howling, guffawing audience at the Majestic, it seemed that a Lloyd picture is worth waiting two years to see. The picture is current at the Majestic with its last run Monday.

To say that "Movie Crazy" is the best picture Lloyd has ever produced sounds like the utmost extravagance. Yet the soberest consideration points to that conclusion. It is chock-full of brand new gags and of some of the old ones dressed up as new and funnier than ever. It has a good, consistent story, a strong supporting cast, and Lloyd himself tops every previous characterization. Something has happened to the comedian in the last two years. He is subtler, more mature, and generally a better actor, and gives the impression that he could carry a story by the force of his personality even if it were not gagged to the hilt with mirth-provoking situations.

Constance Cummings, in the role of the girl, proves about the best leading woman Lloyd has had since Bebe Daniels. Her role is not the usual purely decorative variety, but requires an actress of genuine ability.

The short features include an Our Gang comedy entitled "Choo Choo" with Hal Roach's Rascals, another Mack Sennett adventure entitled "Sea Going Birds," and Majestic talking news.

"American Madness"

One of the most compelling screen dramas of the 1932-33 season will make its bow to Wichita Falls next Tuesday when the Majestic presents "American Madness."

Walter Huston, whose reputation as one of the greatest actors on the American screen is unquestionable, has the feature role of a strong, clear-thinking banker whose courage and faith in people leads him successfully through a run on his bank, and an attempt to break up his home. "American Madness" has a superb supporting cast, headed by Constance Cummings, who pleased you so well in "Movie Crazy." Pat O'Brien, who made the role of Hildy Johnson in "The Front Page" an unforgettable one, plays the part of an ex-convict whom Huston has given a chance to make good in his bank. Kay Johnson, noted for years as one of the most popular stage acresses on the west coast, is cast as Huston's wife.

As a special added attraction to this program the Majestic has been successful in securing exclusive motion pictures of the recent Walker-Schmeling fight. These most unusual pictures of this prize fight will be exhibited on this program only. Other short features include a cartoon entitled "Chinatown Mystery," and Majestic talking news.

"Down to Earth"

Will Rogers' newest comedy, "Down to Earth," comes to the Majestic next Friday for four days. The story was written by the author of "They Had to See Paris" and it fits the star's talents perfectly.

Dorothy Jordan and Irene Rich carry the featured roles.

In conjunction with this laugh riot, Majestic will present the latest in animated cartoons and screen novelties.

"OKAY AMERICA" AT STATE SUNDAY FOR THREE DAYS

Lew Ayres, seen as the peeping-Tom reporter in the latest "gossip" columnist attraction, "Okay America," comes to the State Sunday for a three-day engagement. "Okay America" is one of the most timely, colorful and revealing attractions to show in Wichita Falls this season. It crystalizes the thoughts of a nation as no other picture has ever done. It's power lies in its graphic portrayal of modern journalism, the menaces of the underworld and the kidnaping activities which have been terrorizing prominent Americans.

It's story portrays vividly on the screen the activities of a metropolitan newspaper "gossip" columnist and broadcasting reporter who gathers his uncanny news from various unorthodox sources. Scorned by his fellow journalists he is given an opportunity to break his biggest story and to perform a benefit to the nation in apprehending the kidnaping underworld gang which has baffled police in the kidnaping of the daughter of a nationally prominent family.

"The Man Called Back"

Wednesday for two days only the State offers, "The Man Called Back," featuring Conrad Nagel, Doris Kenyon, Juliette Compton and John Halliday. Nagel, one of the first actors to be selected for talking pictures and largely responsible for their success, will be seen in the role of a young English surgeon, whose disgrace is followed by a terrific battle against temptation to regain his prominent place in society.

"That's My Boy"

Following a recent announcement from the State for a two-day attraction on Friday and Saturday of each week at greatly reduced prices, the second attraction under this price policy to open on Friday will be "That's My Boy," featuring Richard Cromwell, Dorothy Jordan and Mae Marsh. "That's My Boy" is a fiction story of modern football.

The price policy under which this attraction will be featured on Friday and Saturday will be 25c for adults, both matinee and evening. Admission for children on these two days will remain 10 cents.

Bancroft Stars With Gibson in 'Lady and Gent'

Two "wise eggs", who were too wise . . .

That in brief, is the story of "Lady and Gent," George Bancroft's latest starring picture, which opens Sunday at the Gem theater.

Petite Wynne Gibson, latest Hollywood "find," who is soaring to stardom in her own right, plays opposite the virile Mr. Bancroft, and Charles Starrett, James Gleason, John Wayne and Joyce Compton have other leading roles.

Bancroft and Miss Gibson are cast as a couple of self-styled "big timers" who dwell on the shady side of Broadway, battling merrily with each other and with any one else who crosses their path.

The uneven tenor of their lives becomes even more uneven when Bancroft's best friend suddenly dies, leaving a 12-year-old son alone in the world. Just what their responsibilities to the lad are they sit down to consider.

And they reach a conclusion that produces results as whimsical as they are radical.

"Lady and Gent" was written especially for Bancroft by Grover Jones and William Slavens McNutt.

Morgan Wallace, James Crane, William Halligan, Billy Butts, Frank McGlynn Sr., Charles Grapewin and Frederick Wallace appear in minor roles.

TUNNEY SAYS HOOVER FACES CERTAIN DEFEAT THAT 'MYTH' EXPLODED

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (INS)—President Hoover will be one of the worst defeated candidates in the history of the Republican party, according to Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion of the world, who was back today from a trip to Paris.

"The whole world is looking to Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt," Tunney said on landing last night.

"The Hoover myth has completely exploded. The people have found out that he is not a miracle worker."

Tunney said his wife, the former Polly Lauder, was nearly recovered after an operation in Paris on her right ear. She and their son, Gene Jr., he stated, will come to join him at Stamford, Conn., in a week.

He will again take up his campaign speech-making in Connecticut or wherever the Democratic party may need him, he said. Tunney was undecided whether to accept an invitation from Mayor Anthony J. Cermak of Chicago that he make a speech there.

Internationally Known Baritone to Appear in Concerts at Three Local High Schools in First Part of Week

John Valentine, baritone, who is to give four concerts in Wichita Falls high schools Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mr. Valentine will appear under the auspices of the public school music department.

Entertainment more or less unique in the concert field is to be offered Wichita Falls public school children, and their friends, in the appearance here next Tuesday and Wednesday of John Valentine, internationally known character baritone, in concerts at the three local high schools.

Daily press notices and musical publications accord Mr. Valentine a position of eminence among the world's concert and operatic baritones. Performances throughout this country, and in many other nations, have borne out the promise given by the exhaustive training accorded a voice of thrilling natural qualities.

Mr. Valentine's tour of the western world is quite as unique as the program which he presents. He is a one-man glee club, opera company, a dramatic troupe in that his varied program numbers are dramatized and are linked with a spoken continuity provided by the singer himself. Humor is pleasantly blended with authentic settings of the chosen songs to construct the Valentine program.

Acting as his own tour manager, and appearing usually in the public schools of all cities visited, Mr. Valentine has sung his way through many of the states in this country, and has filled extensive concert engagements also in England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany Canada, Australia, the South Sea islands, and is to spend a large part of the winter in the West Indies.

John Valentine's unusual capacity for dramatic expression occasioned his devotion of the early part of his professional career to the stage. Since turning his major attention to voice, however, he has sung leading roles in "White Cargo," "The Student Prince," "Rio Rita," "The Merry Widow," and other light operas. Between operatic and concert engagements, he has recorded for the Columbia company, and has appeared frequently on radio programs from studios in the country's larger cities.

Part in Costume

Part of the programs to be given in Wichita Falls will be in costume, adapted to the presentation of songs of the sea, cowboy songs from the cattle ranges, and American negro songs. Within the limitations of a repertoire of several hundred songs, requests of the audience will be complied with at the conclusion of announced programs.

Mr. Valentine's accompanist is Marshall Elder, concert pianist and accompanist from California. The two artists presented a series of concerts in Amarillo last week, and are to fill several engagements in Fort Worth after their Wichita Falls appearances.

The concerts here are to be given under the auspices of the public school music department, in charge of Miss Erma Nale Voss. Net proceeds of he entertainments will accrue to the public school music funds. The following schedule has been announced for the Valentine Marshall concerts:

Tuesday, Oct. 18, 9:30 to 10 a. m., Wichita Falls high school and junior college.

10:45 to 11:30 a. m., Zundelowitz Junior High school.

Wednesday, Oct. 19, 10:45 to 11:30 a. m., Reagan Junior high.

3:45 to 4:30 p. m., Junior college auditorium, for elementary grade pupils and the public.

Strange Case of Boy Nobody Wants Still Undecided

WEWOKA, Okla., Oct. 15. (UP)—The strange plight of the 8-year-old boy "that nobody wants" was further from solution today than ever.

The state lost the first skirmish in its fight to prevent cancellation of the adoption of William Joseph McWhirter, late yesterday in district court.

Judge Orel Busby, Ada, heard the plea by the foster parents that University hospital at Oklahoma City be required to take the boy again, because of danger to them from the effects of a chronic disease which the child showed after adoption.

State Senator Al G. Nichols, attorney for the foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols, asked the district court to take jurisdiction in the case, declaring there is no law providing for cancellation of the adoption and the case would have to be determined by a court of equity. The county court, which granted the adoption decree, would have no power to give relief, he argued.

Assistant Attorney General George Fagin asked dismissal of the suit against the hospital, contending the child will be homeless if adoption is set aside.

Judge Busby, however, overruled the dismissal motion and ruled the case should be heard on its merits. No date was set.

QUANAH DEFENSE SMOTHERS COYOTE FORWARD PASS ATTACK

This is not only the time of the year when old and young alike get the old school spirit and whoop it up for the old football team, but the same gentry that goes in for the grid sport in such a way has to divide its attention with another sport. These cold mornings bring a feeling into the bones of the duck hunter that can be engendered in no other way; nor can its counterpart be found in the feelings to which the human being is susceptible. It starts with the first chilly morning and gains in intensity as the thermometer descends. It doesn't reach its apex until the hunter, frost bitten ear, feelingless nose and all, is huddled into a blind straining every fiber in his body to remain still while the flock of quackers circles overhead. If you don't feel exactly as if a fully charged storage battery was connected to each of your ten toes at this exact moment, then you are not a duck hunter and can spend your time more profitably pursuing the wily bass or the rocketing bobwhite, or, perhaps, chasing the little white ball around the golf course.

It is not the meat they take that makes hunters and fishermen. It is not the thrill of accomplishment, nor even the invaluable benefits that are derived by getting out into the open. It is that thrill that sends the tingle up the spinal column when game is in sight; that thrill of expectation that sends one tramping hour after hour uphill and downhill for the privilege of being scared half to death by a covey of quail shooting out from under his feet. It matters not that the dog has pointed that covey of birds and you know exactly where they are. If you are a quail hunter, a novice or a veteran of years' experience, you get that same thrill time after time. It is the same that charges the duck hunter from boot soles to cap button when the lone mallard drake wheezes his sorry excuse for a quack as he cuts figure-eights over the blind, too wary to accept the spread below without more thorough inspection.

Even that thrill plus the meat in the bag plus the physical and mental advantages of getting out in the open do not tell the full story. What hunter or fisherman does not enjoy thoroughly the job of getting ready for the trip to the woods, lake or fields? Pawing over sporting goods, assembling grocery lists, patching the leaky hip boots, re-painting the delapidated wooden decoys, setting up the tent to see if its okeh after having been out of use for many months, planning with comrades the campaign when the blinds are built or the dog is loosed! All fit into the picture and help to make the sport what it is.

With fortunate others, hunting and fishing means more than that. There's Judge C. M. McFarland, for instance. Nobody likes his hunting and his fishing any better than he, but Judge McFarland combines a hobby with his sport and gets thrills that are forbidden those of us not so lucky. A few years ago, in fact, soon after Lake Kemp came into being, McFarland brought his handiwork into play to build a boat. Who can say he received more real pleasure from the hunting and fishing trips he has taken in that boat than from building it with his own hands? Later he came into possession of a fine piece of walnut. The old Ithica double gun that had been in use for more than 30 years still was a good gun, but Judge McFarland put in many hours making a new stock for it. It is doubtful if the gun shoots even a trifle better than it did before he spent hour after hour cutting that stock just as he wanted it. But who can say that he did not receive fully as much pleasure making the stock as he ever will receive from shooting the gun?

Just enough of the walnut was left to make a duck call. There's no record of the hours Judge McFarland spent in carving, turning and finally polishing that duck call. But it is a pretty good guess that he will never have more real enjoyment out of luring in the ducks with that call than he had in making it. We doubt seriously if he is prouder of his boat or the gun stock than he is of the simple duck call. Any sporting goods house could have supplied a duck call that would have served the purpose just as well for a mere matter of five dollars or so. But no store-bought call ever will take the place of that one. And, honestly, it is a thing of beauty. We are quite sure that it could not be duplicated from the stock of any sporting goods store. But the main thing is that its maker could not have received the pleasure from buying a gross of duck calls as he did in making that one from a block of rough walnut. Yes, sir, the bag is a small item in the sport of the hunter or the fisherman.

It won't be long for the duck hunters. The North Texas season opens two weeks from Tuesday. Those who couldn't wait had their sport on the Red river Sunday morning, Oklahoma's season having opened Oct. 16. For the northern part of Texas the boys still have a couple of weeks to wait. One thing that has been worrying some of the duck hunters is how they are going to distinguish between species in flight. The new federal regulations place a limit of 10 on redheads and canvasbacks, while the maximum remains 15 for mallards, pintails, teals, and other species that are regular customers hereabouts. It simply becomes the duty of the hunter to see that he abides by the limits, and those who cannot distinguish between the species will have to be more careful than ever before. The new limits permit a mixed bag of 15, so long as there are no more than 10 redheads or canvasbacks. The federal statute places a closed season on wood ducks, but hunters need not lose sleep over that provision. If one hunted in these parts regularly every week-end, he might encounter a wood duck every 10 years.

Chicago Beats Knox

CHICAGO, Oct. 15. (AP)—Chicago came through with three rapid fire touchdowns in the final period Saturday to defeat Knox college, 20 to 0. The game was scoreless through three periods.

Punt Goes Astray To Enable Tribe To Win by 6 to 0

Only 11 First Downs, One Complete Forward Pass, In Entire Contest

points and the home forces were in dire need of a touchdown. The break came when Hawthorne got off a fine punt that Willis fumbled and Farris Johnson, Coyote reserve guard, pounced on the ball on the enemy 20-yard line. Hawthorne had gone into the game only a few minutes before and he almost played the Merriwell role when he advanced the ball all the way to the two-yard line before the drive ended in a mass of unyielding Quanah forwards.

J. McBride picked up a couple of yards on the first play from the 20-yard stripe. Hawthorne took the pass direct from center, found no pass receiver and went around Quanah's left end for a 6-yard gain. Hawthorne then hit the other side of the line for 5. McBride and Hawthorne parked it two yards away on two plays. On the next Hawthorne was stopped with a gain that could be measured only in inches. He took the ball again, on a double reverse this time, but met a surging mass of Quanah players. The ball went over and the golden moment had been lost.

Penalty Helps

The Pack was in trouble early in the first period when a poor punt by Thompson gave the Indians the ball on Wichita Falls' 30-yard line. Jones clicked off nine. Wheat's fumble at the 20-yard line was recovered by Thompson, but Quanah retained the ball and took a 15-yard penalty, a malady that handicapped the Quanah attack all afternoon, and the Indians were backed out of danger.

Neither team could gain in the first period, each getting but one first down and Wichita Falls being aided by a penalty in scoring its lone first down.

In the second quarter the Coyote defense had to rise to its height. Page of the Indians recovered J. McBride's fumble on Wichita Falls' 9½-yard line, but Jones' three plunges and one by Hall could gain only 6 yards and Thompson punted out to midfield. Just before the gun, the Coyotes, led by Powell punted and J. McBride, came through with a 25-yard drive for two first downs, the only time in the game the team could put together two first downs.

Pass Play Fails

The old favorite "hideout pass" play was brought into use when the Coyotes received at the start of the half. McKinney stayed out on the sidelines, headed down the field unnoticed and was open for the pass, but J. McBride's toss was short and was grounded.

After an exchange of punts, Jones broke loose for the longest run of the day, 22 yards, to the Coyote 35-yard line. A 15-yard penalty against the Pack and two plays made a first down 17 yards away. Here the Coyotes stiffened again and the ball went over after J. McBride had knocked down a pass and Hall had been stopped on a double reverse.

One running play and McKinney dropped back to punt. The kick bounced off Thompson's shoulders and rolled parallel to the goal line for a few yards until Mitchell gobbled it up and fell across the line when tackled for the only six points of the day. Jones' placement kick for extra point was wide.

Quanah threatened again, but once more found the Pack's line defense too stalwart. C. Creecy's poor handling of the kickoff enabled him to return only to the 10-yard line, and McKinney's kick spun off the side of his foot out of bounds on the 18-yard line. Jones made it first down nine yards away on two plays. A Quanah substitute talked 15 yards' worth to help the Coyotes no little and the threat perished at the 14-yard line, Hill kicking out of danger.

Bob Barnett, Quanah's fine center and defensive kingpin, brought his toe into play in the fourth period to keep the Coyotes deep in their own territory. Punting had been mediocre on both sides until that stage, but after Quanah had stepped into its six-point lead the young man took out splendid insurance in the form of his accurate kicks out of bounds.

The Coyote threat, featured by the life Hawthorne instilled into the backfield, was about all that punctuated the final period, and Barnett's kicking was so good that the Pack had few chances to turn loose except from within its 20-yard line.

The game was a freak in that only one forward pass was completed, a fourth period attempt of Jimmy Hill that a Quanah forward batted into the air and into Captain Greenwood's arms. Wichita Falls tried 15 and two were intercepted. Quanah tried but four and all were incomplete.

Wichita Falls could not produce an outstanding back, but it did put some mighty linemen on the field, none showing to better advantage than the reserve, Johnson, at guard when he received his belated chance. The forwards as a whole, led by Captain Greenwood's fine play, produced a wonderful defense in turning back the Indians when their goal line was threatened. Blue, Barnett, Bolton, F. Gregory, Page and Richardson of the Indians were powers in the line.

The defeat does not eliminate the Coyotes from the district No. 5 race, but it all but obliterates their chance.

Coach Ted Jefferies' simple statement after the game was: "The better team won."

Oklahomans Loose Desperate Aerial War Late in Game

Hilliard Takes Play Away From Veteran Stars in Intersectional Game

By FRED DYE
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 15. (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns, victors last week by 65 to 0 over Missouri, were forced to the extreme of their power and weight Saturday to eke out a 17 to 10 victory over the lighter but faster Oklahoma university eleven. The game was a feature of the Texas state fair and was the Texans' sixth consecutive defeat of the Sooners. Bohn Hilliard, Longhorn halfback, was the bright particular star of the game. He stole the spotlight from his more experienced playmates, the mighty Ernie Koy and Harrison Stafford, although they, too, shone brilliantly with their power and drive.

Bob Dunlap, the Sooner quarter, probably saved a more severe drubbing by his team by his brilliant kicking and forward passing to Ab Walker, halfback.

At the end of the game Hilliard's teammates elevated him to their shoulders and carried him off the field while the spectators in the stands cheered him to the echo.

They tell a tale that upon Hilliard's first football appearance as a freshman he walked up to his high school coach at Orange and asked if he might try out. The coach assented and Hilliard, wearing tennis shoes, ran rings around the first string regulars, scoring four touchdowns.

The Sooners scored first Saturday. Assisted by perfectly executed passes, they worked the ball down the field to the Longhorn's 15-yard line. Line drives there failed and Dunlap dropped back 10 yards and sent a goal from placement between the uprights.

Longhorn Power

Texas came back with its power and drive, however, and alternating Hilliard, Koy and Stafford, pushed the ball straight down the field to the 27-yard line. There Koy took the ball, passed laterally to Stafford, who, upon being cornered, heaved a basket pass to Hilliard. Hilliard wiggled through most of the Oklahoma team and fell across the goal line. Blanton converted.

The second Texas touchdown was a 95-yard run by Hilliard, who caught a 60-yard punt by Dunlap while on his own 5-yard line. Displaying an amazing drive, sidestepping ability and a powerful straight arm he ran away from his interference and then distanced all the Sooners. Again Blanton kicked successfully from placement. After that Texas sent in a string of substitutes and the Sooners began a drive that would not be denied by the second-stringers. Three successful passes in a row put the ball on the Texas 1-yard line. There Texas lost a penalty of one-half the distance to the goal for being offside, and, on the third buck, Dunlap lugged the ball over, and then kicked the goal. That ended the Sooner scoring, although passes, Dunlap to Walker remained a constant threat throughout the remainder of the game.

Open Up Passes

Late in the fourth period, the Longhorns worked the ball down the field with passes and drives at the line to the 10-yard stripe. There Blanton, Texas tackle, whose goal from placement last year beat Oklahoma, 3 to 0, kicked a field goal from placement from an almost impossible angle.

In the last few minutes of the game Dunlap tried for a tie by desperately heaving tremendous forward passes, but the Longhorns spread their secondary and easily broke up the aerial attack. Texas made 19 first downs to seven for the Sooners. Texas tried 11 forward passes, only four being good. Oklahoma, with a better combination, attempted 12 and completed seven.

Dunlap outkicked Hodges, Hilliard and Burr for Texas, his 10 punts averaging 40 yards and the trio of Texas' average being 34 on eight tries.

AUBURN WINS OVER GEORGIA TECH, 6-0

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15. (US)—A touchdown in the closing minutes of play gave Auburn a 6 to 0 victory over Georgia Tech here Saturday. Fleet Auburn backs, slowed up by a sloppy and muddy field, broke loose in the final period and marched 36 yards to the only touchdown of the game.

A long Auburn punt was downed on Tech's 8-yard stripe. McArthur returned the punt to Hitchcock, who ran the ball back to Tech's 36-yard line for a 10-yard gain. A pass and a run gave Auburn a first down.

The Georgians drew a 5-yard penalty and the ball went to the 19-yard mark. Phipps lost 5 yards on an around end run and a pass was incomplete. On third down, Phipps tossed a pass to Grant for a 15-yard gain. On the next play, Phipps went around left end for the touchdown.

Frogs Use Breaks to Defeat Aggies 17-0

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Oct. 15.—The educated toe of Otha Tiner, the line ramming of Richard Oliver, and the pass catching of Dan Salkeld gave Texas Christian university a 17 to 0 victory over Texas A. & M. Saturday on Kyle field, which many fine teams have invaded only to suffer defeat, but few as hard fighting as the Christians were Saturday in a successful attempt to annex their second consecutive Southwest conference victory.

The day was ideal and a estimated crowd of 5,000 saw the Purple and White Christian warriors get a stubborn battle but uncovered enough of their own power to completely smother the Aggies.

The Christians seized the breaks of the game and scored their first 10 points. A couple of forward passes, one for 29 yards and the other for 21 yards, scored the third touchdown from midfield.

It was a magnificent football spectacle between the powerful lines. For the front walls it was an even battle. On the Aggie line, the beautiful defense work of Charlie Cummings and Bud Nolan spelled disaster many times for the Christian ball luggers, and the same can be written for Capt. Johnny Vaught and Ben Boswell, gladiators of the Texas Christian line. The flashy Frenchy Domingue, who was touted to go places and score touchdowns through the Christians' senior line, went a few places, but when he got into touchdown territory his progress was completely stopped, and Domingue was the only ray of hope that blossomed for the Aggies Saturday. The Aggies' best scoring threat was a sweep into the Christian's 13-yard line, where they were stumped by the solid Christian wall.

Frogs Take Breaks

The Christians played for the breaks. They waited for the miscues by the Aggies, and they reaped a victory by taking full advantage of each mis-step.

The Christians scored three points in the first quarter when Domingue fumbled on the Aggies' 36-yard line. John Kitchen grabbed the ball for Texas Christian. Buster Brannon down. Then on a guard around and Red Oliver swept for a first play, Capt. Johnny Vaught gave the Aggies a surprise by galloping to their 12-yard line. Here the stalwart Aggie line bolstered and held Spearman, Oliver and Brannon. It was then that Otha Tiner, a midget, rushed into the game and booted a field goal from the 18-yard line to give his team a lead. Tiner left immediately after kicking the goal, but returned later.

It was an even fight through the second quarter, but the Christians got a grand break in the third chapter when Ted Spencer received the ball from center and made a lateral pass to Frenchy Domingue, who missed the ball. Hardly had the ball bounced on the ground before Dan Salkeld pounced on it, giving his mates the pigskin on the Aggies' 12-yard line. The Christians got a first down on four plunges at the Aggie flanks, putting the ball on the 1-yard line. Richard Oliver carried it over on the second down behind mass interference. Otha Tiner galloped in, kicked goal, and ambled out again.

Final Touchdown

The final touchdown saw the Christians uncover a passing attack that bewildered the Aggie secondary. With the ball on the 50-yard line, John Kitchen shot a 29-yard pass to Jack Graves. Then Kitchen followed with a 21-yard pass to Dan Dalkeld, who caught the ball and fell across the goal line for the final touchdown. Then Tiner rushed in, kicked the goal, and madly tore out for the bench again.

The Aggies finished with an aerial attack that took off with good intentions but fell in wreckage before the alert Texas Christians secondary.

SUL ROSS TEACHERS BEAT M'MURRY, 6-0

ALPINE, Texas, Oct. 15. (AP)—The Lobos of Sul Ross Teachers college romped over the McMurray college Indians, 6 to 0, here Saturday afternoon.

Bridges made the touchdown for the Lobos in the fourth period, breaking loose from a spectacular 35-yard run to make the only score of the game. The Lobos failed to convert.

Both teams fought stubbornly for the first three periods but the Indians never once threatened the Sul Ross goal line. The Lobo backfield fumbled several times and lost chances for touchdowns.

Bridges and Sharp led the Sul Ross attack and C. Smith and Wadseck were mainstays of the McMurry defense.

MICHIGAN OUTDISTANCES OHIO STATE BY 14 TO 0

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 15. (AP)—Michigan out-tossed Ohio State before a crowd of 42,000 persons Saturday, scored two touchdowns in the first half and then went on the defensive to hold the Scarlet scoreless. The final score was Michigan 14, Ohio 0.

It was Michigan's aerial attack that caused Ohio's downfall. On yards gained from scrimmage Ohio outshone the visitors but deadly heaves by Harry Newman, one in the first period to Regeczi and the other in the second to Captain Williamson, spelled defeat for the Bucks.

Surprise Attack Wins for Ponies In 16-6 Contest

Syracuse Set to Stop Aerials Victims of Strong Running Game

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 15. (AP)—Southern Methodists' wild Mustangs scored a 16-6 victory over Vic Hanson's Syracuse football team in their game here Saturday after a first half ending in a 6-6 tie. Syracuse got off to a fast start, Wamsack, at center, snatching Baccus' second pass and racing 40 yards for a touchdown in the first few minutes of play. Syracuse had been preparing all week for just such an aerial attack.

The Texans, dropping their passing attempts, went into a series of off-tackle thrusts, and Baccus pushed the ball over for the touchdown that tied the score before five minutes had ticked off.

Passes Fail

In the second period both the visitors and the Orange took to the air with dismal results. Each tried that route six times. Four of Syracuse's passes were incomplete, one was intercepted, and one got across to no advantage.

The Texans hurled three incompletes, two were knocked down, and one got through. Not once was there a threat of a score.

Southern Methodist had the edge in the first half, registering eight first downs to two for the Orange and forcing that team into the defensive in its own territory most of the time.

A punting duel opened the third period. Soon afterward the Hansonmen began what looked like a march for a score, Fishel, Dinunzio and Moran being largely responsible for three straight first downs that put the ball on the Texans' 17-yard mark. Fishel's long pass to Moran, however, was incomplete on the 3-yard mark and Syracuse surrendered the ball.

Final Touchdown

The Mustangs' spectacular drive, in which Baxter and Hearon made 55 yards in two plays, getting them to the Orange 7-yard mark, was spoiled by a similar incomplete pass that Hearon shot toward Baxter.

In the fourth, after the Methodists took Dinunzio's punt on the Orange 43 stripe, Baxter got away, shaking five tacklers, to a touchdown. Soon afterward another drive by the Mustangs enabled Baxter to make a field goal.

OWLS RECEIVE STUBBORN FIGHT FROM EMBATTLED LOYOLA

Strong Rice Team Held After Going Into Early Lead

Birds Score in First and Second Periods and Then Knock Off

HOUSTON, Oct. 15. (AP)—A band of stout fellows from Loyola of the South at New Orleans held the Rice Institute eleven, one of the Southwest conference favorites, to a meager 14-7 victory here Saturday.

Rice, heavily favored to win, cuffed the Wolves about rather vigorously in the first half, scoring in both the first and second periods, but found the going much heavier and was outplayed in the last.

Loyola came out in the fourth period with a thrilling passing attack and finally pushed over a touchdown, Dennis Miller, a reserve taking it over. In the attempt to kick for the point the Rice tackles broke through, but Tom Caillouet snared a high, wavering pass that served the purpose.

Owls Use Subs

Coach Jack Meager of Rice, used a wide variety of men, accounting probably, in part, for the closeness of the score. In the first two periods the Wolves seemed almost wholly unable to figure out the Rice running attack and were likewise unable to find material success offensively.

The feature of their fourth period passing game was Caillouet's 35-yard run right down to the Owl 2-yard stripe. Here the institute line, which wass all but impregnable nearly all afternoon, gave fractionally and Miller finally went over from the 6-inch line.

Wallace Scores

Rice scored late in the first period, Fullback Tom Driscoll going over in an 18-yard run and kicking goal. Bill Wallace, the sophomore pride of the Institute, twisted through for 8 yards and the second touchdown. He took a pass over for the extra point.

The lineups:

LOYOLA (7)	Pos.	RICE (14)
H. Carey	L.E.	McKinnon

Gene Sazaren Plays In Exhibition Here

"The champion of champions," as Gene Sarazen often has been called since he captured the British and U. S. open golf championships in the same season, makes his first appearance in Wichita Falls Friday afternoon in an 18-hole exhibition foursome with the best talent that can be uncovered in Wichita Falls.

Sarazen is on an extensive barnstorming tour of the land and is being brought to the Wichita Falls Golf and Country club by club officials in belief that Wichita Falls golf followers will cherish the chance to see the noted Italian in action over an 18-hole stretch. Sarazen, since his double conquest, has been given top rating in the golfing world, and he undoubtedly ranks as the greatest attraction available for exhibitions at the present time.

The noted pro will team up with Wichita Falls' newly crowned amateur champion, L. T. "Bobby" Burns against the professional duo of Bill Strachen of Weeks park and Polly Gebert of the country club. They will play a best ball match at 18 holes and the public is invited to follow the play. Tickets will be placed on sale Monday at $1 each at the country club and at Weeks park.

TULANE AND VANDY IN TIE ON SLIPPERY FIELD

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 15. (US)—Tulane and Vanderbilt battled to a 6-6 tie in a hard struggle on a slippery field Saturday.

With Felts and Payne out of the game, Zimmerman, as the only remaining Tulane backfield star, halted the attempts of the Commodore artillery, consisting of Fortune, Roberts and Burton, to upset the Green Wave.

Tulane's score came in the second quarter when Zimmerman received a punt on his own 44-yard line and passed through the Vanderbilt team for a 56-yard run with good team blocking.

In the third quarter Tulane drove to the 12-yard line but lost a pass by interception. In the fourth Tulane drove to the 20-yard line where Zimmerman's place kick for field goal failed.

Vanderbilt scored at the opening of the fourth period, when Burton went over on second try from the 11-yard line. Their drive in the third failed on the Tulane 19-yard line.

Navy Team Beaten

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 15. (AP)—A hard-hitting bunch of Bobcats from Ohio university Saturday pushed the Navy Tars back for a 14 to 0 win. Fumbles hurt Navy while the Green and White displayed a skilful knowledge of the aerial game, both on offense and defense.

Quanah Victory Play-by-Play

Barnett kicked out of bounds on his own 46-yard line.

J. McBride lost a yard on a wide end run, Mitchell tackling him. Hall intercepted Hawthorne's pass, being downed on the 43-yard line.

Fletcher for Hawthorne, Wichita Falls.

Jones went off tackle for seven yards. Hall gained two on a reverse play. Willis failed to gain at the line.

Barnett kicked out of bounds on the Wichita Falls 13-yard line. A long pass by Rice to Hurd failed. Richardson went through to block McBride's pass and the Coyotes were penalized five yards. Hill on a fake play gained nine yards at his left end. Hill kicked to Willis on Wichita Falls' 45-yard line. Willis again fumbled, Harper recovering for Quanah.

Harper gained six at right end but the Coyotes were penalized five yards for offside. Hall gained seven yards to make it first down on the Coyote 30-yard line.

Hall made three at his left tackle, but it was erased by a 15-yard penalty on Quanah.

Thompson for Fletcher, Wichita Falls.

Hall on a cutback over tackle gained five, but Quanah drew another 15-yard penalty.

Jones failed to gain at his right tackle. Barnett's kick was gilled by Mitchell on the 10-yard line.

A pass by Hill was ruled complete for a 6-yard gain. Another pass attempted failed. Hill tried another pass which failed, and a 5-yard penalty was assessed on the Coyotes.

Hill kicked to his own 47-yard line where Johnson killed the ball.

Jones gained two at center, as time was called.

RAY MORRISON'S SON OUT REST OF SEASON

DALLAS, Oct. 15. (INS)—Jack Morrison, son of Ray Morrison, head football coach at Southern Methodist university, probably will not play football for the remainder of the season, it was announced here Saturday, due to a fractured skull which he sustained while practicing with the Highland Park High school football team. He held a regular fullback berth on the high school squad.

The prison population for each 100,000 persons decreased from 119 in 1880 to 95 in 1932.

Razorbacks Pull Upset With 20-6 Win Over Baylor

Arkansas Finishes Strong to Score Surprise Victory Over Bears

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 15. (AP) Displaying a dazzling running attack, the University of Arkansas Razorbacks sprang a surprise here Saturday by trouncing the Baylor university Bears of Waco, 20 to 6.

After a scoreless first period, the Razorbacks opened a furious attack and put over three touchdowns, the last of which was scored by Ralph La Forge, left halfback, on an 86-yard run through the Bears.

Except for the lone touchdown made in the third period by Jones, Baylor substitute halfback, the Bears were able to penetrate into Arkansas territory only three times. These incursions bore only one threat and that was turned into La Forge's touchdown when Arkansas blocked all but two of the Bears' secondary defense moves and these chased the fleet halfback only to the 30-yard line.

Arkansas kept the ball in Baylor territory a good part of the first half by virtue of punting by Murphy and La Forge.

The Razorbacks scored first in the third period with two superb lateral passes, La Forge taking the ball from midfield to the Bear 15-yard line. Three plays failed and on the fourth, an attempted pass, Arkansas was given the ball on the Bear 2-yard line because of interference to the receiver. Biddle then took it across and Geiser converted with a place kick.

Baylor made its touchdown a few moments later. Abandoning most of their passing attack, Kroney, Jones and Freels plunged through a Razoback line that previously had turned back all assaults, carrying the ball to the Arkansas 10-yard line. Jones then went around right end for the score. Rucker blocked Seley's attempted place kick.

The lineups:

BAYLOR (6)	Pos.	ARK. (20)
Petty	L.E.	Nations
Weatherby	L.T.	Erwin

FORMER TEXAS LEAGUE PITCHER PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE AT AGE OF 37

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15. (AP)—A college president at 37, D. Homer P. Rainey of Bucknell university wonders Saturday just what might have been his fate if he had followed the baseball career that beckoned so enticingly back in the early twenties.

A promising pitcher with the Houston team of the Texas league after his graduation from Austin college, Dr. Rainey chose, he retold Friday night, an educational career instead. He doesn't regret his decision, he added.

He hurled four years for Austin, several years for Sherman in the Texas-Oklahoma league and had shown promise with the Houston club. It is a coincidence that one of his idols was the late Christy Mathewson, a graduate of the very college Dr. Rainey now heads. Dr. Rainey went to Bucknell in 1931 from Franklin college in Indiana.

Pitt Team Whips Cadets in Heavy Scoring Contest

Passing Combination of Heller to Skladany Upsets Army's Defense

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 15. (AP)—In a thrilling, desperately fought football battle, Army's hard-charging forces had the answer for everything the Pittsburgh Panthers offered except the combination of Warren Heller, versatile halfback, and Joe Skladany, elusive end. Pitt won, 18 to 13.

The two stars combined to produce three touchdowns and offset the Cadets' spectacular comeback, giving Pittsburgh its fourth successive victory of the season.

Heller pierced the Soldiers' defensive twice in the first half and then engineered the counter-thrust that put the Panthers back in the lead to stay, in the last half, as Army's gallant rallies twice fell short of their objective.

The crack Pitt halfback romped 54 yards for the first Panther touchdown, in the longest run of the game. He twice passed nearly half the length of the field to Skladany, once over the goal line and later, in the critical third period, for a 48-yard gain that enabled Isadore Weinstock, plunging Pitt fullback, to go over for the deciding touchdown.

Army not only regained the lead in the third period, 13 to 12, after spotting Pittsburgh two touchdowns, but missed scoring a third time by only a yard, and, in the closing moments of the game, passed twice to within a dozen yards of the Panther goal.

The lineups:

ARMY (13)	Pos.	PITTSBURGH (18)
King	L.E.	Daily
Lincoln	L.T.	Cuba

MEXICAN RECOGNIZED AS FEATHER CHAMPION

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 15. (UP)—Baby Arizmendi, Mexico, claimant to the world's featherweight championship, cleared the first hurdle in his fight to secure official recognition when his claims were endorsed by the California boxing commission.

The commission, which is not affiliated with the National Boxing association, then recognized the Arizmendi-Newsboy Brown fight here next Tuesday night as a titular engagement.

The commission's action precipitated a split in national boxing circles as the New York commission this week recognized Kid Chocolate as the titleholder by virtue of his battering victory over Lew Feldman.

The California commission decided that the Mexican battler was entitled to the crown because of his victory last month in Mexico City over Tommy Paul, the N. B. A. titleholder.

Physical Training Classes at Texas Attract Students

Two Thousand Take Advantage of Courses Offered at School

AUSTIN, Oct. 8.—Approximately 2,000 men students at the University of Texas are engaging in some form of sports through the university physical training classes, according to L. Theo. Bellmont, director of physical training for men. The majority of these are freshmen and sophomores, since physical training is compulsory only for these groups of students. To these 2,000 men are open 11 fields of athletic endeavor from which they may make their choice, including handball, basket ball, swimming, weight lifting, boxing, wrestling, fiddle, baseball, tumbling and gymnastics, tennis, cross country and fencing.

"Although a university rule makes it necessary for each student to register for physical education his first two years, these courses are made as attractive as possible in order that the student may enjoy them to the fullest extent," Bellmont said. "In these classes we are attempting to make the student forget his scholastic worries in the joys of sportsmanship.

"At the end of each semester students are encouraged to change courses. This allows a man to obtain a general working knowledge of several sports before he leaves the university," Bellmont explained. "When the average student has finished his school work, he is unable to compete in such strenuous sports as football and baseball, but by learning the general rudiments of some simple sports as handball, tennis, boxing, wrestling and swimming, he is able to maintain by exercise the healthy body which is so essential today."

Besides the physical training department for those who are physically able to compete in all sports, there is a corrective class which takes care of persons who are physically unable to take part in these divisions, Bellmont pointed out. This includes persons with weak hearts, physically deformed body parts, injured arms or legs or otherwise deficiencies which renders them unable to take strenuous exercise. These students receive personal attention. There are from 40 to 75 in this department each year.

The accomplishments of the correctives department are many. Last year a student paralyzed from his waist down, was enabled to use these deficient limbs and finally taught to exercise them. Other almost miraculous results of this type have been performed and are constantly being done by this department, Bellmont said.

BRATTON PLANS TO ANNOUNCE DECISION ON CALL THIS WEEK

Although the call has been taken under advisement, the Rev. W. D. Bratton, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, will make no immediate decision regarding the invitation to become rector of Grace Episcopal church in Memphis, Tenn.

"I plan to reach a decision regarding the call sometime this week," Mr. Bratton stated. He also stated that the matter has been taken under advisement.

Mr. Bratton returned from Dallas Saturday afternoon after attending a supper for laymen of the diocese of Dallas Friday night. He had gone to Memphis earlier this week to confer with leaders of Grace church, at which time he asked time to consider the assignment.

Mr. Bratton is a son of Bishop Theodore Dubose Bratton of Mississippi. He came to Wichita Falls five years ago from Houston, where he had successfully conducted a parish after his return from France where he served as a chaplain in the A. E. F. Mr. Bratton has been particularly successful in directing young people's work in his parish and is a veteran minister of the Episcopal church. He is a graduate of the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn.

FOUR STRIKERS FREE ON BOND

Charged With Riot, Assault And Robbery

McALESTER, Okla., Oct. 15. (UP)—Four strikers, charged with riot, assault and robbery in an attack on a special state officer guarding a non-union mine, were released from jail today under $5,000 bonds each.

This development, with Gov. W. H. Murray's speaking and inspection trip in the strike area, were the only reported incidents in the controversy between coal companies and members of the United Mine Workers of America today.

Peace Justice A. C. Sewell held the four strikers, Bill Alexander, Arthur Morris, Lee Morgan and Albert Magralene, without bond at their arraignment yesterday. But District Judge Harve Melton granted them bond after a habeas corpus hearing. They were released at midnight.

The four were accused in the almost fatal assault on John Deller Oct. 1 and the theft of his pistol.

MORE THAN 50 PER CENT FAMILIES NOT ON FARMS RENTING THEIR HOMES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. (AP)—More than 50 per cent of America's 22,854,935 non-farm families were reported by the census bureau today to have been renting their homes in 1930.

The count showed 12,351,549 families rented homes while 10,503,386 were home owners. The median monthly rental of all rented non-farm homes was given as $27.15; the median value of the owned homes was reported at $4,778.

In the rental group, the largest number of families—25.8 per cent—paid for $30 to 50; in the group of owners, the largest number—22.3 per cent—had homes valued from $3,000 to $5,000.

Of the 12,351,549 renting families, 1,191,435 paid rents from $30 to $49 while 1,563,952 paid less than $10 a month and 45,750 paid $200 or more.

REPORTS SHOW SLOW, STEADY IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS

Increases in Steel Output and Electricity Production Lead Way In Business News for Past Week

By OTTO E. STURM
United Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A slow, steady improvement in general business conditions was reported from most sections of the country again this week.

Increases in steel operations and electricity production high-lighted the business news. There were some signs of reviving operations in the building industry. Bradstreet's reported that September building contracts were up 10.4 per cent over August, the first rise since November, 1930.

Introduction of new models at the lowest prices at which the respective manufacturers ever offered their wares, was interpreted by some as indicating manufacturers' faith in a return of the country's purchasing power. Others held that the lower prices indicated belief that only a bargain would lure buyers, and that a price war was imminent.

Meanwhile, reports of men going back to work came in from all over the country. Reports of the kind are more persistent than at any time since the depression began.

Cotton Mills Busy

The relatively fast recovery of the cotton textile industry was reflected again this week by a report of the census bureau at Washington placing the amount of cotton consumed in American mills during September at 491,655 bales, the highest since April, 1931.

Retail trade was helped by the advent of colder weather and a consequent quickening of demand for heavy wearing apparel.

In the wholesale lines further improvement was shown by the shoe and leather trade. Hardware, paints and electrical goods also were in good demand as dealers replenished stocks. Some points reported increased retail sales.

Manufacturing industries were featured again by the textile mills, many of which reported enough orders on hand to keep them going until the end of the year. Wage increases were granted by several cotton mills. Good activity was reported by business machine manufacturers.

Crude oil prices advanced 10 to 12 cents a barrel in the mid-continent area, giving rise to optimism from that quarter.

WHEAT DROPS TO SEASON'S LOW IN SELLING FLURRY

CHICAGO, Oct. 15. (AP)—Collapse of speculative buying power led to a flurry of stop-loss selling in wheat today, and December contracts outdid the season's bottom prices record.

Rural marketing of wheat in Canada was again heavy, and advices at hand said the Winnipeg market was upheld solely by government support, big quantities of wheat being offered at a 16th of a cent over the government limit. Traders here who looked to the New York stock market for a new buying incentive switched to the selling of wheat when securities became easier after a steady opening.

Wheat closed nervous, ⅛@1c under yesterday's finish, corn ⅛@⅜c down, oats ⅛@⅛c off, and provisions varying from 7c decline to 5c advance.

Selling pressure on wheat increased with ...-cent break until the market had fallen 1¼c. Then a fractional rally ensued, owing for the most part to demand from traders who earlier had sold and were in position to collect a profit. It was generally conceded that so far as prices themselves could be a factor, wheat bulls had an advantage, but that some striking new development, such as a notable reverse for southern hemisphere crop prospects, appeared necessary to stimulate widespread sustained buying.

Reports that 8,000,000 acres of domestic winter wheat was in serious need of rain failed to bring about price upturns of any consequence.

Reports that 8,000,000 acres of domestic winter wheat were in serious need of rain failed to bring about price upturns of any consequence. On the contrary, a few showers in Kansas served to emphasize bearish sentiment. Another weight on the market was an estimate circulated that Canadian farmers had already delivered about 190,000,000 bushels of wheat at country stations this season, and still gave little sign of holding wheat back.

Corn and oats displayed stubborn resistance to selling pressure, and received good support on price dips. Word of 500,000 bushels of corn having been taken for export was a steadying factor.

Provisions had a rather firm tone, with moderate buying and offerings light.

Although majority of the fed steers offered were of light weight, there was an increased movement of weighty short fed steers. Chicago early in the week scored $9.85 on finished heavy steers, but on the close $9.50 stopped best offered. Bulk of fed natives ranged from $6.50@8.25. Lighter weights from $7.00@8.00 showing the effects of considerable grain. Short fed western steers bulked at $5.00@6.50 with plain grass steers selling to $3.00 and below. UNDERTONE STEADY IN QUIET SESSION OF STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—Stocks had a steady undertone today, finishing a little higher on balance, but trading was dull and the market failed to disclose much of a trend.

Net changes were largely fractional, as is frequently the case in a routine week-end session. Transactions amounted to 593,510 shares.

Rails tried to anticipate a favorable car-loadings statement in the first half hour, but the actual statistics on freight movement for the week ended Oct. 8 were somewhat under Wall street's expectations and traders took profits. Carriers steadied again with the general list later.

Losses averaging half a point by American Telephone, Case, Harvester, United Aircraft, American Tobacco "B", American Can and Baltimore & Ohio were more than offset by moderate gains in Woolworth, North American, Westinghouse, New York Central, Allied Chemical, U. S. Steel preferred, Eastman and some of the metals and oils.

The freight traffic figures were subject to favorable interpretation since they represented an upturn of 3,561 cars over the previous week, making another new high total for the year, whereas volume frequently begins to taper off early in October.

American Telephone's financial statement for the first nine months showed that subsidiaries had failed by $18,000,000 to cover dividends paid by them, most of which go to the parent company.

The rate of steel production is expected to show little change for next week, for automobile companies and other large consumers are still not in the market on any substantial scale and the industry is depending on the small orders which have provided virtually all its lift so far this autumn. Government loans for construction work and railroad repair jobs have yet to be translated into sizeable steel orders.

Dry Goods Market

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—Cotton goods were quiet, and easier in gray cloth sections today. Concessions on finished goods consist of extensions of discounts from last list prices. Rayon fabrics show growing price irregularity. Fancies and checks, as well as plaids, are gaining in style favor in men's wear. Silk continued easy with silk goods quieter. Burlaps for spot delivery are firm.

SELLING CHECKS OPENING ADVANCE IN COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. (AP)—A slight opening advance in cotton was checked by southern selling and realizing and prices eased off from 6.53 to 6.40 for December contracts. Closing quotations were the lowest for the day, with the market barely steady at net declines of 5 to 8 points.

Prices opened 3 to 6 points higher, then eased off on southern selling and week-end realizing or liquidation. March contracts eased off from 6.66 to 6.55, closing at that figure.

Southern selling here was in small lots, but persisted during the entire morning. In some quarters this was attributed to an increasing demand for October commitments, and no easing was reported in the basis. Houses with European connections were among the early buyers here, while there was a moderate demand from the domestic trade as well as more or less covering for over the week-end in view of the weather outlook.

Liverpool cables said that some liquidation in that market had been absorbed by trade calling together with continental and Bombay buying.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15. (AP)—Cotton was rather a quiet affair today and prices tended downward closing steady at net declines for the day of 6 to 7 points.

The opening was steady and Liverpool cables came in 5 to 8 penny points better than due. Private cables said there was continental and Bombay buying and trade calling but also liquidation.

Manchester cabled there was further good cloth buying by South America and a fair turnover in yarns. First trades here showed gains of 5 to 6 points, in sympathy with Liverpool. These opening prices proved the highs of the day with December at 6.53 for the market soon turned easier owing to more or less hedge selling.

M'FARLANE SPEAKS FOR DEMO TICKET IOWA PARK FAIR

Congressman-Elect Urges Support for Party In November

THOUSANDS AT LAST NIGHT'S FAIR PROGRAM

Final Awards in All Departments Announced Saturday

IOWA PARK, Texas, Oct. 15.—A crowd estimated at 2,500 heard Congressman-elect W. D. McFarlane of Graham speak in behalf of the national Democratic ticket at the Wichita County Free fair, Saturday. Mr. McFarlane's address was the closing event of the four-day fair, which officials describe as the most successful ever held here.

Mr. McFarlane predicted the success of the Democratic party in the November election, scored the Republican administration and urged support of Democratic voters in the campaign for funds now under way in this section.

Hundreds of other fair visitors continued to visit the exhibit halls and midway Saturday night and the grounds were crowded until the hour of closing.

Traffic Well Handled

Traffic was handled with ease by C. L. Bradford of Wichita Falls, assisted by Walter Willard and Walter Cherry of Iowa Park. Will Detlefs, city marshall, was assisted by Gradey Wigley, former peace officer, and Mack Gregory.

Exhibits in the domestic art department, under the supervision of Mrs. Scott Ralston, superintendent, compared favorably with similar exhibits of previous fairs. Among entries receiving first awards in this division were a beautifully embroidered dresser scarf made by Mrs. Joe Ellison, Iowa Park, which was a conventional design developed in blended shades of rose and tan; a display by Mrs. Tom Boyd, Burkburnett, including satin stitch pillow cases, and scarf, developed in blue, rose and orchid; a daisy design display entered by Mrs. N. E. Waldie, Iowa Park; a beautiful appliqued apron, poppy design, by Mrs. T. Boyd, Burkburnett; a lovely lace handkerchief with crocheted center, by Mrs. Wallis Cornforth, Iowa Park; cross-stitch centerpiece of beautifully blended colors, by Mrs. Anna M. Myers, Wichita Falls, and dainty linen scarf, conventional design, of rose, blue and yellow, with crocheted edge, by Mrs. R. R. Brubaker, Iowa Park.

School Exhibit

The educational exhibit of the Wichita county schools was bigger and better than any previous school exhibit, according to J. B. Golden, superintendent of this division. The competing schools of the county were Iowa Park, Valley View, Cobb, Rocky Point, Friberg and Clara. The various school booths were attractively decorated in school colors and entries were made in all departments open to students.

Additional attractions where the Wichita Falls and Electra booths. The Electra trophy case, which included trophies, cups, medals, won by Electra school students within the past 12 years attracted much attention and favorable comment. These loving cups, won by Electra in interscholastic league contests, undeniably proved the prowess and talent of Electra students. Ward school and high school art entries by Electra pupils, made an attractive background for the trophy case.

A large display of decorative design handiwork craft done by primary, intermediate and high school students of Wichita Falls, reflected great credit upon the art department of their schools, and were a center of attraction in the educational building.

The Iowa Park general display booth won against competing schools, and held many interested visitors during the fair.

Merchants' Booths

Beautifully decorated booths added to the atraction of the merchants and manufacturing building, with each exhibitor busy explaining his wares, his department was a scene of interest as well as the educational center of the show.

Among exhibitors in this building were Waggoner Refining company; County Lions club, including Burkburnett, Electra, Wichita Falls and Iowa Park Lions; space of six booths occupied as restroom and paid for by business men and civic organizations of Electra; Northern Texas Utilities company, The Famous store, Duncan Coffee company, Harley-Davidson company, J. C. Wooldridge Lumber company, Star-Micks Furniture, Bebb's Flowers, Van Lumber company, Young Upholstering company, Barbour-Park Implement company, J. I. Case Machinery, Ball Brothers, Humble Booster club, Wichita Falls Clearing House association, State-National bank, J. A. Tanner Hardware-Undertaking company, Saul's store, Rexall Drug company, Sanitary bakery, P. B. M., Perkins-Timberlake, Overbey-Troutman Dry Goods, Morgan Oil company, Gold Medal Flour, Wichita Mill and Elevator company, Wichita County Lumber company, Model tailors, C. A. Spragins Jr. & Co., Texas Electric Service company, Red and White Stores, Panhandle Refining company, Bradford Hardware company, Pure Ice Cream, R. F. Finance company, Diamolene Motor Oil.

A miniature replica of the irrigation canal system, populated with miniature people and livestock, and all farm animals proved an attraction.

Dairy and beef cattle entries were smaller than at previous shows, due to many entries now being entered at the Dallas fair, but Judge J. W. Ridgeway pointed out some very fine individuals.

R. O. Harvey, Wichita Falls, had a nice group of Herefords that attracted universal attention and admiration, though not entered for competition. Quality Guernseys were exhibited by Ed F. Riley, and Francis & Drake, Wichita Falls. All other exhibitors showed Jerseys.

Poultry Show

The poultry show, though smaller than at previous fairs, according to Judge Frank E. Buck, Oklahoma City, exhibited some very fine specimens in several varieties. Several fine pens and individuals intended for entry at this far, are now on display at the Dallas fair, owing to conflicting dates. The sweepstake bird of the entire show, a black Cochin bantam, is owned by T. A. Crosbey, Wichita Falls. The best water fowl of the entire show was a gray duck entered by James Long, Wichita Falls.

"For the same reason that grass won't grow on a busy street," he answered. "You know why now, don't you?"

"Sure," she replied, "It can't get up through the concrete."—The Humorist.

CHEST DRIVE IS READY TO BEGIN OFFICIALS SAY

Group Solicitations Body Has Full Quota of Twelve Majors

NATIONAL FIRMS GROUP STARTS DRIVE MONDAY

Sales Army Team Leaders Listed and Meetings Start Friday

The community chest campaign army is rapidly forming into line ready for the intensive drive for funds to support the work of the eight relief and welfare agencies for another year, according to General Chairman Roy B. Jones.

"It is indeed gratifying to see the way the citizenry is responding to the call for service in this campaign," Mr. Jones said. "It convinces me that everybody realizes the critical conditions to be faced this winter and that every one feels a responsibility to help. This attitude of mind is just what is required to assure success in this drive.

"It should be understood that these 300 workers for the unfortunate people of Wichita Falls are not receiving one cent for their services. And more than that they pay for their own lunches at the meetings. A few people do not seem to know this fact and they should get themselves informed about the matter."

J. S. Hargett, colonel of the group solicitation division, already has a full quota of 12 majors in the field lining up, "keymen" in the various firms to conduct the solicitation of employes. Mr. Hargett will meet with these "keymen" and majors Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Wichita club to complete preparations for the canvass which will begin Wednesday.

Majors of the group solicitation division are Judge Irvin J. Vogel, Alfred M. Miller, Burton A. Stayton, Kenneth Bebb, Lamar Fain, D. L. Fritz, P. B. Flynn, J. F. Luke, W. E. McBroom, Dr. G. T. Singleton, Henry Ford, H. D. Fillers.

E. M. Crump, colonel of the sales army, has reported a full quota of majors and captains and teams will be completed this week and instruction meetings will start Friday.

The team leaders are as follows:

Work of Chest Bodies Noteworthy, Reports By Leaders Indicate

Two examples of the types of problems the agencies of the community chest are called on to meet, and how they are handled, were illustrated in two reports to Roy B. Jones, general chairman of the chest campaign now under way, made Saturday by Mrs. R. P. Willis, executive director of the Family Relief association, and Mrs. Harley Snyder, executive director of the Children's Aid society.

"A respected citizen of our community," Mrs. Willis said, "had worked for several years in one of the factories. One day he became one more in the ranks of unemployed in our city. His family was of the average size. One child was practically an invalid, which necessitated doctors and medicines. Consequently he had been able to save very little to tide him over in case an emergency arose like the one he was now facing.

"At first he was hopeful of securing some kind of employment, since he was willing to do anything honest to support his family. Days went by, then weeks and months, and still he was unemployed. His savings were gone, he had sold everything he could dispose of; he had borrowed from friends until he was ashamed to meet one, but still no work. Then some one suggested that he go to the Family Relief association for assistance. He admitted he had thought a great deal about it but that what he wanted was work, not charity. Finally in desperation he came to the office. There he found a great many waiting. He stood around a while, lost courage and went home without having talked with the worker. But something had to be done, he could not see his family actually hungry, especially the sick child. The next day he came to the office again and this time put his case before the worker. It was an easy matter for the worker to verify each statement he made," Mrs. Willis continued.

Gets Permanent Work

"During the time he was assisted, he continued to search diligently for work. He went to all farms within a day's walking distance. He began going farther, would be gone three and four days. At last after one of these trips he reported to the office, saying he had secured permanent work on a farm; but how was he to get his family and household goods there?

"Here was the opportunity the family relief was looking for, to assist this man in getting back to where he would be self-supporting. Arrangements were made immediately to move the family to their new home. How happy this family was, they were looking forward again, making plans, trying to forget the past months as a bad dream. Yet how grateful they were to the people of this community who had given generously to the community chest in order that people in their unfortunate situation could be taken care of and then be assisted in such a manner that they would become self-supporting again."

"Recently a family of five children ranging in age from 3 to 10 years was reported by neighbors to the Children's Aid society as being without food and clothing," Mrs. Snyder said. An investigation was made and the children were found in a one-room shack all piled in one bed to keep warm. Each child's wardrobe consisted of one garment unspeakably dirty and ragged, in fact so ragged that they could not be taken from the car to obtain others. Their bodies were caked with dirt and they had had nothing to eat but bread and gravy for days. They were covered with sores. Their mother had deserted, their father could find no work and would leave them alone day after day as he went about searching for employment. These children were received by the Children's Aid society and after they had been given proper food and clothing, together with medical attention for a short time, five finer youngsters could not be found.

Colorful Career Precedes Bulgin's Work in Ministry

The crowds are increasing nightly at the evangelistic meeting that is being conducted under the leadership of Dr. E. J. Bulgin of Portland, Ore., at 607 Scott, it was reported Saturday.

Dr. Bulgin stated that he was reared in the mountains of North Carolina and did not know what it meant to wear a pair of shoes until he was 14 years of age. He stated that he worked many a time nine days for one bushel of corn.

"Talk about depression, poverty and hard times, the people of this day don't know what hard times are," he declared. Dr. Bulgin walked all the way from North Carolina to Missouri, where he entered school and fought his way to the top. He completed his course in the university and won the degree of Ph. D.

For many years Dr. Bulgin was an infidel, until through the prayers of his mother he was induced to unite with the Presbyterian church, and for the past 40 years he has conducted evangelistic meetings in every state in the union and many foreign countries.

It was announced by Evangelist Albert E. Davis Friday night that Dr. Bulgin would speak at the tabernacle, 607 Scott, Sunday morning from the subject, "Saving Faith," and Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock an interdenominational rally will be conducted, when Dr. Bulgin will preach from the subject, "Hindrances to Religion Removed." Sunday night Dr. Bulgin will speak from the subject: "Is the Bible Inspired, or Will the Old Book Stand?" All this week Dr. Bulgin and "Radio Charlie" Clark will have charge of the "Church of the Air" services and also have charge of the services at the tabernacle each night at 607 Scott.

HIGHWAY ORDERED SURVEYED THROUGH FOARD AND KNOX

QUANAH, Texas, Oct. 15.—Paving of highway 16 across Foard county, connecting at the bridge across Pease river and the paved highway across Hardeman county through Quanah, is in prospect, according to a copy of letter recently received here by officials. The letter had been written by State Highway Commissioner Ely authorizing State Engineer Gilchrist to order District Engineer Nabors to survey highway No. 16 through Foard and Knox counties. This highway is one of the direct routes north and south across Texas, and it is believed that paving will be done at an early date to give a direct connection with the new free bridge across Red river north of Quanah south on all paved highway.

No. 16 was formerly state highway No. 1 across Hardeman county, but the number was changed at the time the road was paved last year.

A. M. M'Pherson Is Honored National Society Engineers

A. M. McPherson, local consulting engineer, has just been notified by the American Society of Civil Engineers that Oct. 3 he was elected a member of the society.

The American Society of Consulting Engineers, which was founded in 1852, is generally conceded to be the world's leading association of engineers, although not the largest in point of numbers due to the very high technical attainments required of candidates before they can be admitted. In addition to the technical requirements the applicant must secure the endorsement of at least five corporate members. Mrs. McPherson had the endorsement of 12 of the leading engineers in various part of the United States.

Membership in the society is world-wide as the engineers of all nations recognize the leadership of the American engineer and are desirous of becoming connected with the society and of receiving its publicaitons which give the details of the most modern engineering practice. President Hoover has been a member for 20 years.

Mr. McPherson is a graduate of the University of Idaho and built and managed a number of irrigation projects in the West before coming here 13 years ago commissioned by a western capitalist to buy a million dollars worth of land at a price not exceeding $10 per acre under the then proposed irrigation project. Upon being informed by Mr. Kemp that such lands were then selling for thousands of dollars per acre for the oil rights alone he decided his efforts were futile and as the oil boom was on and the town prosperous he decided to locate here and has maintained an office ever since.

For many years Mr. McPherson was employed by the Record News and the Times to write technical articles covering mainly irrigation and drainage.

WHEN BUSINESS MEN SAY WHAT THEY THINK

"Let's not forget to count our change"
"We're very far from being all spent. What have we left? A lot.
"Our natural resources are intact. Better management has been developed in all lines. Never before was there so much life insurance in force. Total savings deposits are 62% ahead of ten years ago. The per capita income in the United States is greater than in any other land.
"Isn't that plenty to go ahead with?"
