Potential Test Of New Water Well Tomorrow

The initial check on the new city well, located on Avenue Z, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Streets, showed a flow of 480 gallons per minute, according to W. J. Ramsey, city water superintendent.

A double check on the well is slated about 2 tomorrow afternoon to determine the size of pump needed to care for the normal flow of water into the city water main, Ramsey said.

The water is exceedingly cold and clear and of fine quality, it was pointed out by Ramsey.

The well was drilled to 253 feet. Indications are that this will be the best city well drilled to date, Ramsey said.

The need for the additional water supply is indicated in the increase of water connections during the past two months. During June a total of 142 connections were made, while to date in July 106 applications were received, with a week to go for this month.

Air Force Will Increase Its Night Raids on North Koreans

TOKYO, July 25. (AP) — American and Australian planes today destroyed or damaged 21 Red tanks, 15 bridges and an armored car and raked enemy supply lines in stepped up activity.

Ten tanks, dispatches from Korea said, were destroyed. A far East Air Forces spokesman in Korea sadi 11 more were damaged.

The 64 air missions in 191 sorties were in close co-ordination with operations of the U. S. First Cavalry Division on the Taejon-Yongdong highway front. The planes ranged also to Kwangju, deep in Southwest Korea, where Red forces ranged unchecked by token forces of South Korean police.

NIGHT WORK

At the same time it was announced the Fifth Air Force would step up its night operations against the Communists, who have been moving men and tanks in long columns under the cover of darkness.

"We've got to pin them down at night as we have them pinned in the day," said Maj. Gen. Earl E. Partridge at Fifth Air Force Headquarters in Korea.

He said the Reds were able to maintain steady ground pressure because of night operations.

Last night two Mustangs caught a truck column west of Yongdong in bright moonlight and strafed it. Partridge said the invaders have been moving motorized columns 25 miles long at night with lights on.

NORTHERN RAID

Two North Korean planes struck back in a retaliatory raid on American and South Korean positions, field dispatches said Tuesday.

B-29 Superforts ripped holes in a network of 12 to 15 strategic railroad bridges used to move Communist troops and supplies to battlefronts.

Attack bombers and rocket-blazing fighters attacked along Korea's western coast line as far north as Seoul, then swung eastward to smash marshalling yards at Chechon 70 miles inland from the east coast.

Civilians Are Banned As Spy Precaution

AN AMERICAN ADVANCE POST IN KOREA, July 25. (AP) — All Korean civilians have been ordered out of the fighting zone southeast of Taejon.

The order was aimed at stopping infiltration behind American lines by Communist soldiers and saboteurs dressed as civilians.

Commanders have directed Korean police to steer all Koreans from villages that may become involved in the fighting and to send them to points far behind American installations.

In an area once cleared of civilians, anyone in civilian clothing may be shot.

The order to clear villages likely to fall in the battlezone was given Sunday.

It followed almost two weeks of harrassment by snipers, saboteurs and spies, who filtered through combat lines disguised as civilians.

All Koreans, North and South, look alike to the Americans.

Soldiers sometimes pot shot at suspicious white clad figures.

The situation grew worse when South Korean troops were moved to other sectors and the Americans were left alone to fight the hordes of Reds swarming toward them.

South Korean police, almost as badly disorganized as the South Korean army after the surprise invasion by the Reds, proved unable to cope with the situation. They tried to screen refugees but failed.

Veterans Ask Support In Pool Project

Co-operation of the city, county and civic organizatoins of Snyder will be sought in the recreation program of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Hilton Lambert, commander of the Kite-Layne Post No. 181, said at its meeting last night.

"The project, which we are undertaking on the joint Legion-V. F. W. site, is not only for veterans of Scurry County but for the entire community," Lambert said.

Included in the present plans are a large swimming pool for the public, beautification of the entire plot of 32 acres, picnic facilities and a place of relaxation, it was pointed out by Lambert.

"Our main purpose in this project is community service and we want the support and co-operation of everyone," he said.

A pool on the site was once started but never finished.

A joint meeting of members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars has been set for next Monday night, when this matter will be discussed.

Wilbur Ellis was named post finance officer, succeeding Ivan Hill, who resigned and Marcel Josephson was elected service officer.

Fire Station No Information Booth

At 1:30 o'clock this morning the telephone rang loudly at the fire station.

G. L. Autry, fireman on duty, leaped from his bed and grabbed the phone, ready for action.

A voice excitedly called, "Is this the fire department? Say, where is Route 3?"

Fireman Autry heaved a sigh of relief and told the voice "I don't know" and went back to bed.

Sawyer States More Controls May Be Needed

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sawyer said today the economic control powers the administration is asking may not be enough. He declared greater powers will be needed if military spending is increased. These include powers to parcel out scarce materials to industries, to say how these materials shall be used, to stop production.

Some members of Congress already are balking at such a grant of power. At the same time there has been growing sentiment for a sharp increase in taxes with the idea that this would (1) put defense costs on a pay as you go basis, and (2) hold down inflationary pressures, lessening the need for controls.

A rise in taxes is certain since the administration—as well as some critics of its controls program—is urging higher taxes.

There also is some sentiment for an even bigger military expansion than the $10 billion-plus asked by President Truman.

In a House speech today, Rep. Vinson (D-Ga) called for an all out defense effort. He said Russia outnumbers the United States 7 to 1 in tanks, 17 to 1 in military manpower, has a "vast air force" and some 300 submarines.

SPLIT GROUP

Those calling for an immediate tax boost included some who opposed, or at least questioned the requested controls, including Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of the Senate GOP policy committee.

President Truman already has promised the nation and the lawmakers a request for higher taxes. He may present some details Wednesday when Congress gets a report from his economic advisers.

Truman Expected to Ask Five Billion Dollar Tax Hike Today

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) said President Truman will ask Congress today for legislation to boost taxes about $5 billion immediately.

George, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, told reporters this after a meeting with Secretary of the Treasury Snyder.

George said that the proposed bill would just about repeal the tax cuts made by the Republican-controlled 80th Congress in 1948.

That would mean the American people would be asked to shoulder once again the tax burdens they carried during World War II.

The 1948 cut is the only one that has been made in wartime taxes.

Earlier, Secretary Snyder had told reporters that higher taxes probably would take a bigger bite out of wage earners' pay envelopes before the end of the year.

George said he understood the proposal is to raise the basic income taxes on corporations to 45 per cent, compared with 38 per cent under present law.

Snyder, leaving the conference with George, told reporters that he hoped Congress would go to work on the bill immediately and pass it "awfully fast."

The cabinet member said he understood that George's finance committee would consider President's proposals in revising a House-passed bill to cut excise taxes about $1,000,000,000.

The Finance Committee shelved the House bill shortly after the outbreak of the Korean war.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), a member of the Finance Committee, said the President's proposal as outlined by George "is about in line with what I have been thinking."

"We ought to make the increase effective as of last July 1," Johnson added.

Snyder told a news conference he is "sure" President Truman will ask Congress this week to raise individual and corporation taxes. The money would go to pay costs of defense and to meet Communist aggression in Korea and elsewhere.

Congressional approval would mean bigger witholding taxes from employee paychecks.

Snyder said Mr. Truman's request would be for an "interim" tax increase to go into effect as soon as possible.

He indicated the President will send a more comprehensive tax request to Congress later on this year, including a proposed tax on excess profits.

The secretary said he is in accord with congressional leaders that no excess profits tax on corporations should be included in the interim bill because the measure should be passed quickly. He said excess profits tax proposals are so complicated they would mean extended and delaying debate.

Snyder also endorsed proposals to hold excise (sales) taxes at their present levels, close "loopholes" to up payment of corporation income taxes.

Bill Freezing Enlistments is GivenApproval

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The House today passed and sent to the White House a bill freezing all military enlistments for one year beyond their normal expiration date.

The measure, already passed by the Senate, received House approval by a unanimous voice vote. Only President Truman's signature is necessary to make it law.

The legislation extends the term of service for nearly 300,000 men now in the armed services whose enlistments are due to expire in the coming 12 months.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services Committee, estimates it will affect 145 000 men in the army, 62,000 in the navy, 88,000 in the Air Force.

Another bill before the House would lift the lid on the size of the Armed Forces.

Before passage of the enlistments measure, Republicans sounded embittered demands for an accounting of responsibility for U. S. reverses in Korea. They also called for a "house cleaning" in the state and defense departments.

Hospital Reports Simon Quiros In Better Condition

The condition of Simon Quiros, 19-year-old Mexican who was shot by Don Moss, city policeman, at the Old Rodeo grounds late Sunday, is improved, attendants at the Snyder Hospital reported this morning.

Quiros was shot once in the left thigh following a disturbance at a baseball game.

Today the Scurry County grand jury is investigating the shooting More than a score of witnesses were called this morning.

Rocket Data Is Secret; Test Saturday

By E. V. W. JONES
(Associated Press Staff)

LONG RANGE PROVING GROUND, Cocoa, Fla., July 25.—Another giant two-stage rocket will be fired here Saturday in a second horizontal test flight of guided missiles.

The first such successful flight was made yesterday when a 14-ton German V-2 rocket with a 700-pound missile on its nose rose in a climbing turn miles out over the Atlantic.

The V-2 reached 10 miles into the air, then curved downward and was exploded by remote control. Its debris fell into the sea 48 miles from the launching platform. It reached a speed of 2,700 miles an hour.

TERRIFIC SPEED

The smaller missile, known as a WAC corporal, sped on, attaining a speed of perhaps 5,000 miles an hour. Its performance is a military secret.

Col. Harold R. Turner, safety officer and former commandant of the proving ground at White Sands, N. M., said the intended range of the WAC corporal was in excess of 175 miles.

The two rockets measured 60 feet high and rose in a burst of flame and the sound of a sharp thunderclap. Power was on in the V-2 only a minute and it burned up 10 tons of liquid oxygen and alcohol in that time.

Pay Final Bills For Remodeling Of Courthouse

The commissioners court yesterday authorized Central Investment Co. to make the final payment of $22,000 for the remodeling of the courthouse. The investment company, which bought the bonds issued by the county for the project, had previously paid $100,000 of the remodeling cost to the Von Frellick Construction Co. of San Angelo.

The court also authorized the balance of $6,328.87 of the architect fee of $7,328.87 (6 per cent of the contract price) to be paid to the Buford & Feinberg Co., of Dallas, who designed the remodeling and let the contract.

Kelley-Snyder Outpost Finds Production

Skelly Oil Co. has completed its No. 1 L. M. McClammy, northwest outpost to the Kelley-Snyder field.

The new producer flowed 2,738.52 barrels of 43.9 gravity oil a day through a one-inch opening. Flow was natural. The potential was based on a natural four-hour test. Casing pressure was 775 pounds, and tubing pressure was 200 pounds. Gas-oil ration was 807-1.

Pay was topped at 6,845 feet, plugged back total depth of the well is 7,001 feet. Casing was perforated from 6,852 to 7,001 feet.

The exact location is 467 feet from east and south lines of the lease in section 298, block 97, H&TC survey.

That is eight miles northwest of Snyder.

DUAL PRODUCTION

A dual producer has been completed in the North Snyder-Strawn field in North-Central Scurry County.

It is Claude Hammill's No. 9 Sentell, 467 feet from the south and east lines of the lease in section 26, block 1, J. P. Smith survey.

It is producing from the B and C zones of the Strawn.

The new dual producer potentialed for 1,022 barrels of 39.6 gravity oil and no water daily through a choke of unreported size. Gas-oil ration was 880-1. Pay was topped at the B zone at 7,370 feet. Total depth is 7,508 feet. Five and one-half inch oil string was set at 7,508 feet. Production was through perforations at 7,377 to 7,408 feet.

The C zone flowed 1,016 barrels of 42.5 gravity oil and no water daily through a three-eighth inch choke. Gas oil ration was 1,002-1. The C zone was topped at 7,490 feet.

Both zones were treated with 500 gallons of acid.

Republicans Ask Accounting; Vinsons Warns to Be Prepared

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Republicans raised an embittered demand in the House today for an accounting of responsibility in Korea and called for a "housecleaning" in the State and Defense Departments.

In advance of House action on bills to lift the lid on the size of the Armed Services and freeze military enlistments, GOP members repeated the demands "who's responsible?"

Rep. Short (R-Mo) ranking GOP member of the House Armed Services Committee, bitterly assailed the "dust settling" policy of the State Department and what he called the impression of "false security" created by Defense Secretary Johnson.

"Who's responsible for all of this?" he demanded.

"We've appropriated $50,000,000,000 for defense in the last four years. What have we got to show for it?"

"Who's responsible for this 'too-little-and-too-late?'

"Who's responsible for this miscalculation?"

Earlier Rep. Vinson (D-Ga) called for the House to "get down to business," adding that "the grim and unpleasant truth is that a global war is a real and distinct possibility at any time."

Vinson, chairman of the Armed Services Committee, made the statement in a speech prepared for House delivery in support of a bill that would add a year to the service period of enlisted men now in the armed forces.

A House vote was expected later in the day.

The enlistment "freeze" already has passed the Senate.

The House also expected to take a vote later on legislation to lift all limits from the size of the armed forces.

SPEEDING UP

On a speed up schedule, it may vote next week on giving the armed forces the $10,486,976,000 in additional money asked for them by President Truman.

Vinson said the United States is "seriously short" at present in "standing military strength" and he questioned whether the expansion program the administration has begun will be enough.

He said he is not satisfied with the plans for increasing the size of the Navy and the Air Force "for I believe there is too much conservatism in the program."

Vinson said Russia outnumbers the United States 7 to 1 in tanks, more than 17 to 1 in military manpower and has almost 300 submarines and "a vast air force."

U. S. ASSETS

On the U. S. side of the military ledger he said there are these assets:

"Governmentally, we are far stronger than our potential enemies. . . In any long term effort . . . our system can outlast and surpass the dictated, regimented system of the Communists. Our industrial potential. . . is the envy of the world.

"Our seapower is vastly greater than that of Russia and her satellites. Our strategic air power is unmatched anywhere in the world. We are still far ahead in the atomic arms effort and will probably stay ahead for some years in the future."

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Wednesday, July 26. (AP)—American ground forces abandoned Yongdong Tuesday, withdrawing under frenzied Communist attacks on that center position of the narrowing American defense perimeter in Southeast Korea.

Elements of the First Cavalry Division, which had stood up throughout the day against wave after wave of enemy assaults along the Taejon-Yongdong highway, finally quit Yongdong for new, undisclosed positions.

Gen. MacArthur's early-morning operational release today conceded that the North Korean invaders were continuing their pressure despite heavy losses and severed communicatios.

ANOTHER

This release said "further withdrawals may be necessary," but did not include the withdrawal from Yongdong late Tuesday, which field dispatches already had reported.

Far to the southwest, American and British carrier planes made a surprise attack on the Red troops who had swept virtually unopposed to the south coast of the Korean Peninsula.

The air strike was mounted in 24 hours by U. S. and British carriers just returned to an unnamed port after operations north of the 38th Parallel along Korea's east coast.

Their objective, on such short call from U. S. ground forces, was targets of opportunity, said a headquarters announcement. Results of the raid were not reported.

TURN TO PUSAN

The rampaging Communists sheared off all the western and southwestern side of the peninsula. They siezed the southern tip of Korea and turned eastward toward Pusan, U. S. supply port on the southeastern tip of the Peninsula.

Yongdong is 20 miles southfierce daylong fight. Most of the U. S. troops got out safely. But troops on the flanks were trapped and battered by Communist roadblocks, snipers and guerrillas.

Yongdong is 20 miles south east of abandoned Taejon, on the important Ameridan rail supply line leading from the southeastern port of Pusan.

SEEK TRAP

Air observers saw many Korean soldiers moving north and south of the city in a pincers movement aimed at trapping these U. S. soldiers in their first major engagement with the Communists.

There were indications snipers and guerrillas had got behind the Americans.

Of growing concern was the continued Communist seizure of strategic points in Southwest Korea. The Reds completed a sweep of the west coast and turned east toward allied communication lines stretching inland from Pusan on the southeast corner.

Pentagon officials in Washington indicated that the Americans might be backed up into the southeastern corner. A briefing officer said it is becoming increasingly difficult to hold against hordes of North Koreans with units of three U. S. divisions and the smaller, more lightly-armed South Koreans.

TAKE HAENAM

The Reds captured Haenam, near the extreme southern tip of the peninsula and more than 230 airline miles from the 38th Parallel —over which they had plunged to begin the invasion one month ago.

Another Communist column swung northeast of captured Kwangju and occupied the southwestern railway junction of Namwon. Also seized—with only small forces of national police resisting —was Kurye, 15 miles south of Namwon and midway between the rail center and the southern port of unchon.

Plan To Rid Ships' Crews Of SubversiveSeamenAgreedUpon

By JOSEPH C. GOODWIN
(Associated Press Staff)

WASHINGTON, July 25. — Management and unions of the maritime industry have agreed on a security system for barring Communists and subversives from American ships.

A voluntary pact under which the Coast Guard will do the actual policing was worked out yesterday by representatives of ship operators and workers meeting here with federal officials.

In a statement issued after the meeting, they pledged that "no ship will be delayed" because crew members are found to be bad security risks by the military.

ONLY WAY

Secretary of Labor Tobin said the meeting was called because voluntary agreement between management and labor was the only way disloyal crewmen could be taken off American ships. He said the Coast Guard, the FBI and naval intelligence already are taking steps to spot Communist and subversive seamen.

Tobin said some Communist and subversives have sailed on American ships but he is confident that only loyal Americans will be found in the crews in a short time.

"The hope is that every seaman aboard will be a loyal American and not loyal to any foreign power regardless of his union," Tobin said.

Capt. H. T. Jewell, Coast Guard representative at the meeting, said the policing system should be operating within a week.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Considerable cloudiness this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with scattered thundershowers except partly cloudy in the Del Rio-Eagle Pass area. Not much change in temperature.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with a few scattered thundershowers in extreme east and extreme north portions. Not much change in temperature. Gentle to moderate south-easterly winds on the coast.

Kelley-Snyder

County wildcat, plugged and abandoned.

This prospector drilled to a total depth of 7,805 feet in the lower Pennsylvanian shale. It did not log any shows of oil or gas in commercial amounts.

The only solid Pennsylvanian lime encountered made salt water.

Top of that lime was at 7,290 feet. Datum on that point is minus 4,996 feet. Location is 1,931.1 feet from the south and 660 feet from the west lines of section 76, block 20, Lavaca Navigation survey.

It is 18 miles southwest of Snyder and 1.7 miles north of Standard Oil Co. of Texas No. 1 Dunn, Pennsylvanian lime discovery in Northwest Mitchell County.

PLUG WILDCATS

Two wildcats in Northwest Scurry County have been plugged and abandoned.

Deeper of the two is the Superior Oil Co. No. 10 G. H. Morley, located 16 miles northwest of Snyder, was abandoned at a total depth of 8,467 feet.

This failure was drilled tight since it was spudded in April. It possibly was abandoned in the Ellenburger.

Location was two miles northeast of the one-well Winfield Mississippian pool. Exact location was 2,046 feet from the east and 1,985 feet from the south lines of section 600, block 97, H&TC survey.

Coronado Oil Co. and J. A. Humphrey trustee, of Tulsa, No. 1 Shannon Fee wildcat four and one-half miles northwest of the west portion of the Kelley-Snyder field, was plugged and abandoned at a total depth of 7,515 fet.

It developed no possibilities of production in any section drilled.

Drill site was 660 feet from north and east lines of 337, block 97, H&TC survey, and one and one-fourth miles southwest of Dermott.

GARZA WILDCAT

H. H. Coffield of Rockdale and others have staked an Ellenburger wildcat in the extreme Central-North Garza County, 12 miles north and slightly east of Post.

The slated 8,500 foot venture will be Coffield and others No. 1 Lillian Schneider, located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 2, J. B. Cotton survey.

The drill site is two miles south of the Crosby County line.

The proposed venture is on a farmout from Seaboard Oil Co. of Delaware. The drilling contractor is Standard-Fryer Drilling Co.

GARZA FAILURE

G. P. Livermore Inc. of Lubbock No. 1 Doyle Justice has failed to extend the Dorward San Andres field in Southeast Garza County, one and one-half miles to the west.

The No. 1 Doyle Justice was abandoned in the San Andres at a total depth of 2,665 feet. This failure is 2,310 feet from the south and 330 feet of the east lines of section 3, block 6, H&GN survey, and four miles southeast of Justiceburg.

IN ANDREWS

Union Oil Co. of California is to start operations at once at an 8,000-foot wildcat in extreme Southwest Andrews County.

The prospector is to try to develop production in the lower Permian on the outside of the proven area of the Dollar Hide multipay field.

It will be Union's No. 9 E. P. Cowden and is located 657.5 feet from east and 1,981.5 feet from south lines of section 15, block A-25, psl survey. That makes it 10 miles east of Jal, N. M., the closest town.

The Union exploration is about one mile south of the same company's No. 1-H Cowden, a Devonian producer. It is approximately two and one-half miles south of the nearest lower Permian production on the north side of the Dollar Hide district.

ABANDON WELL

Danciger Oil & Refining Co. of Fort Worth has temporarily abandoned its No. 1 Hubert Cook, 7,000-foot wildcat in North Hockley County, at 7,503 feet in the Permian.

The No. 1 Cook is four and one-half miles southeast of Whitharral and eight miles northwest of Smyer-Glorietta sector. Exact location is 440 feet from north and east lines of labor 2, league 729, State Capitol land.

On a drillstem test in the Clear Fork at 7,343-75, with tool open two hours, the project had a slight blow of air for five minutes and died. Recovery was 31 feet of mud and no shows. Samples from the zone covered by the drillstem test had some slight signs of oil.

An east edge well to the Salt Creek Canyon field in West-Central Kent County has been completed. It is the Caroline Hunt Trust Estate No. 4 J. W. Young.

The new development potentialed 345.20 barrels of 39.2-gravity oil per day, through a 16-64-inch choke. No formation water was found.

Pay was topped at 6,382 feet. Total depth of the new producer is 6,584 feet. Seven-inch oil string was set at 6,490 feet. The producing horizonn was treated with 4,500 gallons of acid.

Tubing pressure was 535 pounds and casing pressure was 275 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was reported to be 648-1.

The No. 4 J. W. Young is seven miles northwest of Clairemont. Exact location is, 660 feet from east and 2,100 feet from south lines of section 166, block G, W&NW survey.

Run-Off Is Expected Between Mrs. Clark and Walter Rogers

(By The Associated Press)

With an estimated 600 votes still out, unofficial returns indicate that Mrs. Altavene Clark of Amarillo and Walter Rogers of Pampa will make the run-off race for Congress in the Panhandle's 18th congressional district.

Mrs. Clark had been at the top in tabulations since Sunday. In the latest tabulation last night from the Texas Election Bureau, Rogers was 2,000 votes ahead of the third and fourth men in the race. Returns from all 28 counties in the district were in, 24 complete. The bureau estimated that only 600 votes were out.

TO FACE GUILL

The winner in the Aug. 26 run-off election will run against Rep. Ben Guill of Pampa—Texas' only Republican congressman — in the November general election.

The latest tabulations showed: Mrs. Clark, 17,029; Rogers 15,793; LeRoy Lamaster of Perryton 13,795; J. Blake Timmons of Amarillo 13 736.

Rogers gained strength in Monday's tabulations when he picked up 2,200 votes in completion of boxes from Gray County, his home county.

The bureau's latest report showed no change in other statewide and district races.

Gov. Allan Shivers' lead over Caso March in the seven-way governor's race was still lopsided. Pierce Brooks of Dallas held his lead over Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, who will be his run-off opponent in August.

OTHER RUN-OFFS

Other run-offs will have J. E. McDonald of Austin, agriculture commissioner since 1931, facing John C. White of Wichita Falls; Rep. Ken Regan of Midland facing Judge Paul Moss of Odessa in an effort to hold his 16th Congressional District seat; Robert A. Lattimore of Dallas and W. A. Morrison of Cameron contesting for court of criminal appeals; Will Wilson of Dallas and Fagan Dickson of Austin running for Supreme Court, Place 1; and Mead Griffin of Plainview and George Harwood of Dallas contesting for Supreme Court, Place 3.

An official state-wide canvass of returns from the primary will not be made until Aug. 7. Official results probably will not be available until Aug. 8.

Carnegie Tech Professor Paints Schematic Mural

AIR AGE DESIGN—Prof. Robert Lepper shows how.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — A professor of design at Carnegie Tech really found himself over his head on his latest job. It was an arched ceiling mural with an industrial theme, believed by Prof. Robert Lepper to be one of the few of its kind.

The colorful aviation symbolism is painted on the concave ceiling of the new million-dollar terminal building at the hilltop Kanawha airport.

It involved hours of necktwisting and arm-stretching labor from the uncertain perch of a rolling scaffold. And it represents a judicious combination of imagination and some 50 shades of oil and water colors.

Lepper calls the mural "schematic design — the application of an industrial theme to a painting." It's the basis of advertising art but is highly unusual for a ceiling decoration.

The 80 by 21-foot painting literally takes a person on a complete air trip. Scene 1 shows a projection of the world, with Charleston pinpointed. Scene 5, the last, represents the end of the journey—the layout of an airport with symbols of an instrument landing system. Between are an aeronautics chart, cloud formations, and a theory of aviation design.

The crown of the arched ceiling is about 16 feet from the terminal floor. This posed the creative problem of a mural designed to be viewed from the hight of an average person.

Lepper was assisted in the project by Eugene Myers, a recent graduate of Carnegie Tech and one of Lepper's former pupils.

Take Prisoners From Here to Huntsville

Transportation officers of the state penitentiary in Huntsville were given custody of five men here this morning to take them to the prison where they will serve terms of felonies committed in this county.

The prisoners are Cornelius Cook, 25, of Rush Springs, Okla., sentenced to two years for theft; Joel Blackwell Webb, of Snyder, sentenced to two years for passing a forged instrument; Grover Leon Bibb, 32, with a two-year sentence for swindling with worthless checks Ross Lee Slater, 35, sentenced for five years for assault with intent to murder; and Julius James, 23, Snyder negro, with two 2-year sentences for forgery.

Two others are waiting to be conveyed to Huntsville pending motion for new trial. They are Leonard H. Dickerson, 36, of Snyder, sentenced to seven years on conviction of sodomy; and Willie Thomas Bates, 34, Snyder Negro, sentenced to serve a year and one day for assault with intent to murder Anderson Davis, Jr., in February.

Counting Money Kept Wife Awake

LOS ANGELES, July 25. (AP) —His income ran well into five figures and he insisted on staying up nights totaling it up on his adding machine.

Mrs. Lotta M. Briggs testified yesterday that her husband Walter M. Briggs, 42, wealthy operator of downtown parking lots paid no attention to her when he stayed home, and "the noise from his adding machine kept me and the children awake most of the night."

She won the divorce—and $1 million in community property.

For an exotic combination, net and ermine perhaps holds more allure and can carry you through a special winter party with more grace than can any other designer's dream. Ruth Hancock, a leading model, poses in the ever-useful black dinner frock, low-cut to enhance a pearl necklace. The ermine stole is one of lasting beauty. A stole, of course, may be purchased in any of lesser furs. Mink is hardly less priceless and appealing to the feminine vanity, and, then, there follow muskrats, fox, leopard, and even, our Texas Jack Rabbit! This year, forecasts from fashion leaders picture stoles of all types of fabric and material, also. A Highland plaid can add a filip to a somber colored woolen frock.

TALK OF THE TOWN

BY FRANCES BIOW

Glittering by night with myriad lights, the Shamrock Hotel in Houston left a bright thread for MRS. HOMER GRAHAM to spin into her loom of recollections. Fresh from a holiday there and elsewhere in southern Texas, she brought back to me a gay little souvenir she acquired in the Emerald Room of the Shamrock Hotel. Mrs. Graham met Glenn McCarthy, opulent financier who built the huge hotel. Dignitaries from far and near step off planes and say "Shamrock" to the taxi driver; big business deals go forth in smoke-choked suites, rich carpeting sinks under the most famous heels in the country, and Mrs. Graham saw it all. Able to extract fun from most any occasion, this memory will top them all, and her friends are still hearing the stories she has to tell.

WAYNE PITNER is a quiet-spoken, rather serious young man who by day is assistant manager at J. C. Penney's, but by night pounds out some of the fastest piano down beat that a musical lineup of tap dancers could possibly step to. This dual personality manifests itself at night at the busy rehearsal room at 1805 Twenty-seventh Street where MRS. HILTON LAMBERT runs the girls through their clogs, two-steps, and novelty routines while Pitner accompanies. Further versatility is found in him when he plays the organ beautifully for a church choir. . .And, yet, over the ties, shirts, wearing apparel and household goods in the store he's earnestly the well-trained, obliging clerk-manager.

Explains UN Mission To South Koreans

TOKYO, July 25. (AP) — A United Nations spokesman said last night the UN is defending South Korea "to protect the freedom of the country which suddenly had become the victim of a surprise attack."

Gochez Marin of El Salvador, chairman of the UN commission on Korea, broadcast an appeal to Koreans from Pusan, the big southeastern port.

He urged all Koreans to support the cause of the United Nations. The commission, Marin added, will remain in Korea and be ready "at any time to assist and lend its good offices in achieving the desires of the Korean people, namely peace, unity and prosperity."

Marin said the UN commission had tried vainly for three years to establish a united central government in Korea.

He said it was blocked becuase it never was given a chance to contact North Korean officials and "all attempts to achieve peaceful unification were spurned."

Once the "vicious and sudden" North Korean invasion began, Marin said, the UN had no choice but to aid South Korea.

Rites Yesterday For Victim of Oil Field Accident

No Security Check on News On Korea Front

TOKYO July 25. (AP) — Correspondents covering the Korean war no longer have to submit their copy for a security check by the U. S. 8th Army's public information office, an 8th Army memorandum said today.

Newsmen, may, however, have their stories checked by the PIO if they want to protect themselves against unintentional security violations.

News dispatches from the field must be submitted to the 8th Army PIO to be transmitted over the signal corps teletype at Tokyo, the memorandum said. But the stories would not be checked for security unless the correspondent specifically asked for it.

The 8th Army also said it would check copy that correspondents in Korea telephone to Tokyo—if newsmen so desire.

Telephone connections with Tokyo were promised daily between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m. (11 a.m. to 1 p.m. EST) of the preceding day unless there was an emergency. Telephone time would be divided among the many correspondents.

Asks Attention Be Given To Spring Sports

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS, July 25. (AP)—The Texas Coaching School, world's largest in size but just beginning to scratch the surface in scope of service, opens Sunday in Austin. It bids fair to surpass anything ever tried along this line and undoubtedly will renew talk of doubling the period in which it is held. It now runs five days and should be ten.

It still is too much football but it is enlarging its facilities. In time it will give the proper attention to baseball, track and other sports. Basketball now is doing well in the clinic.

The coaches again have passed up the opportunity to offer real service to spring sports. Just why they do not want a—top professional baseball player and teacher the same as football and basketball is more than we can understand, what with some 600 high schools now playing baseball in Texas.

The Texas League or the major leagues would be pleased to furnish such a personality, undoubtedly without cost. What wouldn't Tris Speaker or Rogers Hornsby or Branch Rickey add to the school?

Also, Texas high schools now are playing golf as a regular, authorized sport. Wouldn't Byron Nelson be an attraction at the coaching school?

The Interscholastic League this year also inaugurates girls basketball. Knowing how attractive this sport can be and its crowd-getting potentialities, we predict there will be 1,000 schools in girls basketball in three years. Wouldn't it be worthwhile to have a top coach of the feminine cage game on the faculty of the school?

* * *

THESE VIEWS PROBABLY will ire Jinx Tucker the ancient sports editor of the Waco News-Tribune. Tucker is all football and to heck with the other sports.

Jinx, in commenting on our printed opposition to spring football training, says: "He takes the most assinine view of high school athletics of any grown man in the state today. He wants all the rules and regulations to hurt high school football, and if it were not for high school football there could be no high school baseball, tennis, track and golf—football has to pay the way."

We have heard quite a few say Jinx was assinine, too, but hadn't mentioned it before in deference to his age. The fact that Tucker is so much older than we are just makes it worse: he should have learned more.

* * *

WHAT HE MEANS BY OUR proclivity toward all rules to hurt high school football not only is too deep for us but probably for the readers he has, if any.

When we came to the Associated Press 15 years ago, the first thing we did was start the present system of high school football coverage in Texas—weekly articles in which the schedules, results and standings were carried. The Interscholastic League has said quite often that this was a major factor in making high school football in Texas what it is today.

We have no desire to hurt football; we do want football conducted in its own realm and not to injure the other sports. The way it is now baseball, track and the other spring sports have little chance to develop into money-making spectacles also.

What is the need for spring football: Texas high schools are not competing for the national championship. If none have it doesn't that meaon all will be equal? If spring football were conducted properly it would be all right but it isn't. Boys are pushed into football to the detriment of baseball and track. Some schools not only take a month in the middle of the spring season for football but add a couple of more months of football with the "dodge" of having football study halls, etc.

* * *

TUCKER SAYS FOOTBALL HAS to pay the way and if it were not for football the other sports wouldn't survive. For his information, track was the first sport sponsored by the Interscholastic League. In those days football was a losing proposition. How was it that they had track, baseball, tennecessary for the sports program, that, if football was absolutely nis and basketball in those days?

Tucker maes the statement that it is silly to have high school baseball at all since the real baseball season does not start until school is out. What's that? Our impression was that baseball started training in March and playing in early April. The development of a baseball team before school is out is hindered by spring football.

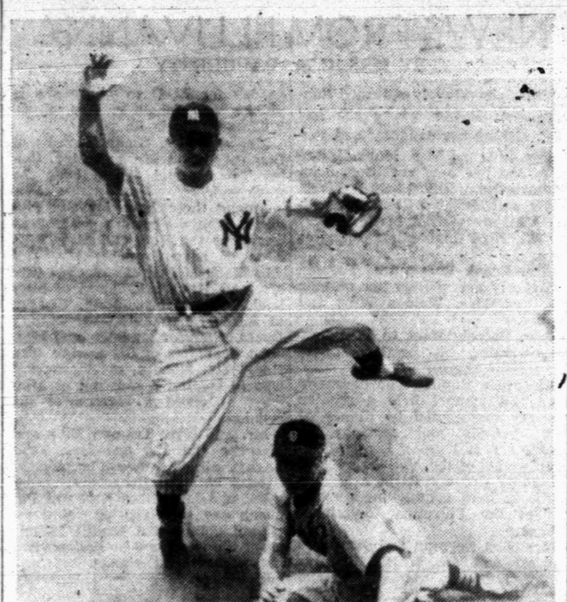

Tucker says there is not time to have a state championship play-off in the proper way, involving a series for bi-district play and on down the line. What is it they have been holding? There has been a state championship play-off for two years conducted on the same basis as football — district championships, bi-district series and a state tournament.

JINX SAYS IF A BOY DESIRES to play football nine months of the year or baseball nine months of the year he should be allowed to do so. How can he if football is played most of the time? Football starts in September and runs through Christmas. There is a month in the early spring for training. That's five months, not counting the "dodges." Baseball runs three months at the most, which is, however, sufficient. But football should not gouge a month off of that.

Speaking of baseball, Rogers Hornsby, the greatest righthand hitter in the history of the game, received a letter from a man who was boosting his son for pro ball.

Hornsby, manager of the Beaumont team in the Texas League, read this somewhat untactful approach:

"He's a greater hitter than Hornsby—"

HIGH BRIDGE—Gerry Coleman, New York Yankees' second baseman, steps high as he whips the ball to first to complete a twin killing in the first inning of the Detroit New York game at Yankee Stadium in New York. Shortstop Johnny Lipon slides into second in vain. Tigers' George Kell, who started the action with a grounder to Yanks' Phil Rizzuto, was out at first to complete the double play. (AP wirephoto).

Weather Costs Philadelphia Pivotal National League Game

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Staff)

The fuzzy cheeked Philadelphia Phillies may have cause to remember Monday, July 24, 1950, to their rocking-chair days.

It was on that day that the flashy Whiz Kids of Philadelphia lost a heartbreaking game—and perhaps a pennant with it—the victims of a one-in-a-thousand episode.

The box score of last night's Philadelphia - Pittsburgh game shows only the cold figures that the Pirates defeated the Phils, 2-1, in a six-inning game terminated by rain.

What it fails to show is that the Phils actually were leading the Bucs, 3-2, when the rains came down.

How come they lost? Because Pittsburgh, the home club, was deprived of a chance to bat in its half of the seventh inning. Under the league rules, the game reverts to the previous inning if the trailing home club does not get a chance to bat.

The Bucs, behind rookie Bill MacDonald had a 2-1 lead when the Phils came up to bat in the top of the seventh. With two out and pitcher, Bob Miller on base, Eddie Waitkus smashed a home rut to put his team in front. Then came the showers. The Phils trail the St. Louis Cardinals by two percentage points. Brooklyn, in third place is a game and a half behind. Boston's fourth place Braves trail by two games.

Judging by the tight pennant races in recent years, the Phils-Pirates game could turn out to be the pivotal one in the National League. Stranger things have happened in baseball.

The triumph was MacDonald's fifth, four of which have been over the Phils. Pittsburgh got off to an early lead when Bob Dillizk tripled to open the first inning. He scored on a long fly by Ralph Kiner. Another Pittsburgh run crossed the plate in the second when Waily Westlake singled, Danny Murtaugh walked and Ray Mueller hit a single.

The Phils' lone official run came in the third when Richie Ashburn slammed his 11th triple of the season to score Mike Goliat. The defeat was Miller's second against eight victories.

Weissmuller Agrees On Alimony Payment

LOS ANGELES, July 25. (AP) — Actor Johnny Weissmuller has agreed to pay his third wife and their three children $1,500 a month in current and back alimony.

The former swimming champion also agreed, in Monday's court approved settlement with Beryl Scott Weissmuller, to keep up payments on $10 000 life insurance policies for the children. Weissmuller now is married to golfer Allene Gates.

Of the $1,500, $500 goes for support of the children, $500 goes for U. S. savings bonds and $500 applies to $12,500 back alimony.

Flam Defeats Shroeder In 3 Straight Sets

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—It might be well for the Davis Cup committee to note that 21-year-old Herb Flam has come of tennis age and that 29-year-old Ted Schroeder may be over the hill.

Flam, a crew-cut wearing senior at CLA and the national intercollegiate champion, yesterday handed Schroeder one of the worst trimmings of his career in the finals of the National Clay Courts tourney. Flam also shared in the doubles championship.

In just 50 minutes, Flam virtually cut Schroeder's heralded game to ribbons, polishing off the nation's top amateur—as of late 1949, that is—in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Schroeder wasn't much of an improvement in Monday's clay court doubles finals as he and Trabert faltered and lost to Flam and clowning Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., 6-3, 6-1 4-6, 2-6, 4-6.

The women's phase of the tourney ended Sunday with Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., winning the singles crown and teaming with Shirley Fry, of Akron, Ohio, to win the doubles.

Snead Muffs Putt, Ferrier Wins St. Paul

ST. PAUL, July 25. (AP)—Big Jim Ferrier today had the $2,600 first prize money in the St. Paul Open and the No. 2 spot as a money winner among golf professionals thanks to a six-foot putt that Sam Snead missed.

Snead missed the putt on the 21st hole playoff Monday, still all even the two of them finished Sunday's round of the 71-hole event tied up at 276—12 strokes under par.

They finished the scheduled 18-hold playoff Monday, still all even after Snead put up a stiff battle, and were forced into a "sudden death" affair. They remained even for two more holes.

Ferrier's $2,600 prize money bosted his winnings for the summer professional golf association's tour to $16,246.66 and pushed him into the No. 2 money-winning spot behind Snead.

Snead's $1,900 second place money gave him a total of $25,111.34.

Big Spring, Vernon Battle for Fourth Place in Longhorn

(By The Associated Press)

The only crucial fight going on in the Longhorn League is for fourth place.

Big Spring is a game ahead of Vernon but the Dusters are pulling up.

Monday night they beat Big Spring 4-0 with Cotton Russell pitching a five-hitter. Not a single Bronc runner got past second base. Vernon made all its runs in the second and third innings.

Leading Odessa used a couple of unearned runs in the seventh and ninth to nose Midland 2-1. Ebelio Ortega singled in the winning run in the ninth.

Sweetwater shoved over five runs in the third to beat Ballinger 6-5. Gene Jarech hit a two-run homer in the vital outburst.

Roswell trimmed San Angelo 13-2 on Hugh King's four-hitter. San Angelo helped Roswell along by making nine errors, five of them by Jack Smith.

Official Cow Boy Artist Of Texas Is Dead

WICHITA FALLS, July 25. (AP)—John Marcellus (Tex) Moore, 84, onetime trail driver and Indian scout and the official cowboy artist of Texas, died here today.

Moore was well known for his vivid landscapes and his colorful past. He was a cowboy, Indian fighter, gold miner, stage-coach driver. He lost a fortune in the great blizzard of 1887 in Montana. He even ran a dude ranch once, in Colorado. And over the years he painted hundreds of pictures that carried his signature to all sections of the United States.

OFFICIAL ARTIST

By resolution, in 1935, the Texas Legislature made him the state's official cowboy artist.

He had continued painting in his last years the great scenery of his former days—the wild lakes and mountains of Montana and Wyoming. But he always called Texas his home.

He had been ill for months.

He died at his home here.

Moore was born Nov. 24, 1865 on a ranch near Fort Worth. His father opened a cattle trail from Fort Worth to Abilene, Kan. Young Moore ran away from home at the age of 15 and went to work on the great Goodnight ranch in the Texas Panhandle. Later he worked with outfits of John Chisholm of Chisholm trail fame.

STRIKE CLAIM

At 19, Moore went to Montana and met a man named Steve Dillon who became his partner. The two found a gold placer claim, sold it for $40,000 and bought 2,000 head of cattle. They wintered the cattle in Judith Basin, Montana.

It was 1887, the year of the great blizzard. For three days and three nights the temperature stayed at 62 degress below zero. Dillon and Moore lost all their cattle.

The two cowboyed in Montana long enough to get a stake, then headed southward for Texas. In Mexico, near El Paso they hunted gold with five other men—and found it.

A party of 150 Apaches raided the camp. The seven men stood off the Apaches for awhile. Finally the five companions of Tex and Steve were killed and they escaped on horseback. "I rode with the reins in my teeth and with 45's smoking in both hands," Moore recalled later.

RANGER

In 1888 Moore was a Texas Ranger at Temple, Tex. Next year he scouted Indians in Arizona for Gen. George Crook in the Geronimo campaign against Apaches. In the campaign, an Apache bullet creased Moore's head. Finally he opened a dude ranch in Colorado.

All his life he had made sketches for his friends. On his ranch, he began painting. He painted a picture of a cowboy caught under a fallen horse. An easterner bought it for $150 and sold it for about $2,000. "He was the dude and I was the dupe," Moore laughed. But the incident resolved his career. From then on, he painted.

Trans Pecos Deer Season Nov. 6-11

AUSTIN, July 25. (AP) — The deer season west of the Pecos begins Nov. 6 and continues through Nov. 11, with hunters limited to one white and one black-tail deer, the Game Commission said today.

All quail except Mearns may be hunted west of the Pecos throughout December. Bag limit is 12 a day, and no more than 24 may be had in possession.

Driving Charges Against Two Men

Two persons were charged in county court this morning with operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating beverage. They were G. W. Wempkin, about 55, of Hermleigh, and Troy Wilkinson, about 28, of Snyder.

Both men weer arrested in Snyder yesterday by Homer Whisnand, deputy sheriff.

The Markets

COTTON

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP) — Noon cotton prices were off slightly from the day's best and were still 75 cents to $1.25 a bale higher than the previous close. Oct. 38.01, Dec 38.04 and March 38.00.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP) — The stock market grudgingly yielded ground today in fast trading.

Losses amounted to around $1 a share. Heaviest pressure focussed on the steel, auto and rail groups.

The decline in the carriers broke an 8-day winning streak which has carried the rails on average to the highest level in nearly two years.

Millionaire Oilman Helis Dies At Johns Hopkins Hospital

BALTIMORE, July 25. (AP)—William G. Helis, the 63-year-old millionaire oilman with an intense love of good horseflesh, died early today at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

He underwent an operation for a respiratory infection May 20 and was discharged. He was readmitted July 12 and his condition since then grew progressively worse.

The foreign-born Helis — his friends long ago tabbed him the "Golden Greek" — came to this country when he was 17, virtually penniless.

He learned the oil business from virgin field to gusher. He went to California and was one of the developers of the vast fields there.

He soon stacked up a fortune through his knowledge of the black gold. But sudden reverses dumped his money back where it came from—in oil—and in 1930 he went to New Orleans to begin all over again.

It didn't take long. Robert Maestri, a former mayor of New Orleans and state conservation commissioner, backed him, and Helis struck it rich in developing the first big field in Louisiana.

In 1941 he backed a syndicate to take over the old fairgrounds race track at New Orleans "purely for the civic standpoint," he said. He was "not interested in making any more money."

BOUGHT HORSES

That sparked his interest in horses. In 1942 he bought his first race horse and the next year paid $55,000 for Attention, the horse that had beaten the mighty Whirlaway, triple crown winner in 1941.

The same year he bought Pericles, a yearling marked as the horse of the century, for $66,000, the third highest yearling price on record.

But Pericles, though still tops in the bloodline, didn't come through on the turf. In three starts, he won once.

His racing holdings expanded. He became owner of a large thoroughbred breeding farm at Jobstown, N. J., and was part owner of the Tanforan track at San Francisco, as well as continuing his connections with Fairgrounds.

Helis married the former Miss Bessie Felch, a native of Germany, in 1908. In addition to Helis, Jr. they had three daughters, Mrs. Virginia Droulia of New Orleans and New York, Mrs. Paul Henry of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Mal Malvin of New York City.

Atlantic Pact Nations Asked To Rearm Quickly Against Reds

LONDON, July 25. (AP) — The United States called on her Atlantic pact partners today to rearm quickly for the sake of world peace, warning that the West must not again be caught napping by Communist aggression.

It was learned that Charles M. Spofford, U. S. member, told the first meeting of the Atlantic Alliance Council that Korea has shown Communism would not hesitate to pass from subversion to armed aggression. He called for western vigilance and a quick increase in military strength.

SECRET MEET

The meeting was secret and only a non-committal communique was issued at the end of the session. It reported merely that, for reasons of military security, the deputies work would be conducted behind closed doors.

Spofford, a New York lawyer, was named chairman of the 12-nation permanent civilian high command. The council was created in May by the foreign ministers of the 12 countries, who had called for "tangible results" by fall.

Prodded by events in Korea, the delegates mapped a program to cut a four-year rearmament schedule to two years.

OTHER IN

The session opening today is expected to last four or five days but the council is subject to recall at any time. U. S. Delegate Spofford was expected to be named council chairman. The membership also includes representatives of Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, Iceland, Denmark, Norway, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Canada.

Britain's cabinet meanwhile met today to polish plans for expanded defense and to decide what further aid should be sent to the Korean fighting. The labor government made a final check in preparation for tomorrow's full-dress debate in the house of commons on the readiness of British defenses to meet any aggression.

Strict Enforcement Of Traffic Laws Ordered by Police

"The honeymoon for traffic violators in Snyder is over," Chester Barrington, chief of police, said today.

Effective at once new traffic tickets, both for still and moving traffic, have been issued to all policemen in the city, with instruction to enforce strictly all motor vehicle regulations on the city books, Barrington said.

One of the new traffic books covers illegal parking parking meters, double parking, blocked alleys and red zones, which call for a fine of $1 for each violation, if paid at once; $2 after 5 days, and if a warrant is issued that it will be $3 for each ticket, he pointed out.

The other new ticket covers all rolling traffic violations, namely, speeding, running a stop sign or red light and reckless driving. Costs in this category run from $14 up to $100.

"The public continues to disregard our traffic laws, and we are going to try to stop it," the chief said.

All the tickets are numbered. If a ticket is thrown away or ignored, further action will be taken by the police department, he said.

"There will be no exceptions to the traffic rules" he added.

Commercial production of safflower seed is under way in Nebraska, Colorado, Montana and North Dakota, according to the National Geographic Society.

Shawneetown, Ill., on the Ohio River, was almost completely moved to higher ground three miles back after the flood of 1937.

Bad Leg Takes Citation Out Of Race, May End His Career

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—Citation, world's leading money winner, definitely is out of Saturday's $75,000 Arlington Handicap and he may be all through with racing.

Trainer Jimmy Jones said Monday that Citation, who has earned $938,630 in his career, pulled up lame after a workout at Arlington Park after the fifth race last Saturday. The trainer said the five-year-old son of Bull Lea-Hydroplane II has a filing low behind the left foreleg, which was bothered by an osselet more than a year ago.

"He's definitely out of Saturday's Handicap," said Jones. "We're going to walk him for the next few days and maybe put a saddle on and ride him later. We'll try to bring him back, but it's certain that we won't race him unless he returns to his true condition."

"I can't say for sure that he's all through," Jones added. "But it looks like it. He's a little better now than after Saturday's workout. I would certainly like to hit the million-dollar mark with him, but I wouldn't want to break him down trying."

BRILLIANT CAREER

The Calumet standard bearer won 29 out of 38 races and finished second nine times in his brilliant career. He has never finished worse than second. In 1948 as a three-year-old he won 19 of 20 starts, winning 709,470—a record for one year.

However, even with Citation out and the No. 1 handicap performer of them all, Mrs. Charles Howard's Noore, remaining aloof, Arlington's patrons are assured of a worthy race Saturday when the meeting comes to a close.

Jones said that Calumet Farm will be represented by Ponder, winner of last year's Kentucky Derby. This colt has been allotted top weight of 128 pounds.

Four challengers from the east are expected to be among the contenders in the mile and a quarter handicap. They are Cochise and Greek Song, the Brandywine pair; Loser Weeper and Three Rings. The latter was a loser Saturday in the Monmouth Handicap.

Other horses which might show up to guarantee a spirited race are Volcanic, Oil Capitol and King Ranch's Curandero.

Britain To Send Small Ground Force Into Korean Fighting

LONDON, July 25. (AP) — Informants in touch with the government reported today Britain has decided to offer a small ground force to the United Nations for use in Korea.

They reported this after the British cabinet met in special session, apparently to discuss a number of major changes in the nation's defense policy.

I consider this an expression of your continued confidence in me and I am sincerely grateful. Also, I want to thank my two opponents for a fair and clean race. My association with them, and with you, during this campaign has been pleasant in every way. To those of you who did not vote for me, I wish to say that there is certainly no ill will. Your consideration is appreciated and with the change of circumstancees, I solicit your support in the coming election. It is my intention to see each voter personally within the next few days. In the meantime, will you be thinking of me as your next Commissioner? And again I say Thank You Very Much. Jones Chapman.

HANEY SAYS THANKS. I want to thank the voters of Precinct No. 3 for their vote in Sautrday's election. I will continue to be a commissioner for everybody and not just a few. Your friend, Ted Haney.

We want to thank our friends and neighbors for their thoughtful expressions of sympathy in our grief over the loss of our beloved wife, daughter, sister and daughter-in-law, Veda Mae. We are deeply grateful to each of you: for your kind deeds and words of sympathy. Lewis Gore, Mrs. W. S. Cuble, Willis, Fay, Othel and Bobby Cumble and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gore.

Military Spending May Not Disrupt Nation's Economy

By T. E. APPLEGATE
(Associated Press Staff)

NEW YORK, July 24—There's an even chance the nation's business boom can absorb the $10 billion miliary spending program without critical disruption of our standards of civilian life.

It depends on how well inflation can be avoided. Price boosts would reduce the amount of goods—military or other—that a dollar will buy. And this could make the whole program much more costly.

Today no one knows to what extent present purchasing power of the dollar will be maintained.

President Truman warns there will be repercussions on our domestic economy. But he also has a plan aimed at keeping them in reasonable bounds.

SOME TO SUFFER

From an economic standpoint some persons and some businesses are likely to suffer, at least temporarily.

As consumer production is cut back, some workers will be out of jobs. But output of military goods will call for added manpower in other industries, such as aircraft and shipbuilding.

Here are ways in which nearly every one will be affected:

Your taxes—both individual and business—will go up. If the controls the President asks become effective, you'll find credit terms a little stiffer when you bo to buy an automobile, television set or almost any other article.

The government's problem is: To spend $10 billion without stirring an inflation that could open wide cracks in the economy.

Considerable steel, aluminum and other materials will be diverted to military use. No one yet has said how much of each will be needed. As they are diverted there will be less for civilian use.

This means less raw material to build houses, automobiles and a variety of items such as refrigerators, kitchen cabinets, radio and television sets.

UPSET BALANCE

Reduced suply of these could upset the balance that keeps business stable, unless demand declines at the same time.

To put a checkrein on wild demand is the aim of the President's program. He seeks authority to control such main props of the business boom as consumer credit, construction and steel consumption.

The theory is: The nation's output of goods and services is at an annual rate of nearly $270 billion. If some 4 per cent of demand for these goods and services could be restrained, it would balance the military spending, even if the $10 billion is spent in a year.

The President called it "substantial redirection of economic resources."

Obviously some industries will supply more than others to the military program. Tanks, airplane engines, ships will require large tonnages of steel, for instance.

To assure such supplies, the President wants direct authority to establish priorities, to allocate materials, and to limit the amounts used in nonessential manufacture.

DISAGREEMENT

Many businessmen and industrialists disagrees over the means of accomplishing this.

They say: Tell us what the military needs and we'll provide it. They contend voluntary industry controls worked well in the latter days of World War II and should be used again, instead of turning the job over to a government agency. They say that priorities bogged down early in the war when federal agencies issued them without regard to total supplies available.

In the housing field, where the government has moved to tighten mortgage terms, a move toward voluntary controls has been initiated.

The National Association of Home Building this week urged its 17,000 members voluntarily to cut back their starts on new homes, which it said reached the record high of 142,000 in June.

Industry is turning out goods at a pace never before equaled. The demands of the civilian population also are at a record high. But a moderate belt - tightening could make a vast amount of productive capacity available for the military program.

GREAT EFFECT

Producers of basic materials—steel, building materials — will maintain their present high-speed manufacturing pace. Whatever cutbacks occur will effect the fabricators of the materials who will have less to work with, after military allocations are met. And many of these manufacturers got into war production before and may again.

There will be inflationary pressures resulting from the military program. "Scare buying" and hoarding at any level, from consumer to manufacturer, could put such a squeeze on prices that severe cost increases would result.

If this happens, the President has warned he will not hesitate to recommend price control and rationing.

C.I.O., A.F.L. Heads Talk Unification

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—For the first time in more than three years, AFL and CIO leaders begin today a series of meetings to discuss the unification of labor.

No merger of the big rival organizations is expected in the immediate future. But since their last unity talks in May, 1947 they have steadily increased their co-operation in the international field, and to some extent in domestic matters.

The new talks—in the opinion of men on both sides—could lead to a great increase in that co-operation.

Foreign Sub Spotted In Sea of Marmara

ISTANBUL, Turkey, July 25. (AP)—An unidentified foreign submarine has been spotted in the Sea of Marmara, Defense Minister Refik Shevket Ince said today.

An intensive search for it is underway.

The Sea of Marmara lies between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea where Russia is known to have an undersea fleet.

Ministerial Student Shoots Wife to Death

FORT WORTH, July 25. (AP)—A ministerial student shot his estranged wife to death on a downtown street last night.

The victim was Cleo Frazier, 26.

The student, Charles B. Frazier, 31, told police he shot his wife "because she left me—she didn't want to lead the kind of life I did."

Pleasant Weather Over Most of U. S.

By The Associated Press

July's pleasant weather continued over most of the nation today.

The southern and eastern states were getting some warm and humid weather but not a full blast. From the Great Lakes region westward to the Rockies, skies generally were clear and temperatures seasonal. Readings also were near normal along the Pacific Coast.

There were a few wet spots. Showers hit parts of the northern New England states. The Central Plains and northern Rockies reported showers and thundershowers over some areas. There were local heavy thundershowers in Kansas. Falls measuring more than three inches in six hours were reported in Hill City, Kan.

Japanese Artist Gets Death in Poisoning

TOKYO, July 25. (AP) — A mild mannered Japanese artist was sentenced to death yesterday for the poison slaying of 12 persons in a $456 bank robbery.

The painter, Sadamichi Hirazawa, muttered "frameup." His attorney filed an appeal.

Witnesses testified:

Hirazawa walked into the Teikoku Bank in Tokyo Jan. 26, 1948, and told the bank workers he was a health official. He insisted they drink some "medicine" he put in their teacups. The "medicine" was potassium cyanide.

Sixteen workers drank it. As they collapsed, writhing, Hirazawa made off with 164,400 yen (about $456).

Four of the stricken workers recovered.

Ruling Gives Graves First-Round Knockout

AUSTIN Minn., July 25. (AP) — Jackie Graves of Austin was credited with a first-round knockout Monday night over Jackie Blair of Dallas.

Blair was not actually knocked out. After two minutes and 40 seconds of the first round, Graves landed a blow to the Texan's head. Blair went down on one knee, and the judges ruled he didn't get up until just after the 10-count. Blair protested he didn't hear referee Johnny De Otis, Minneapolis, call "10."

Threatened Invasion Of Quemoy Is Ended

TAIPEI, Formosa, July 25. (AP)—The threatened Chinese Communist invasion of Quemoy Island off the China coast opposite Formosa ended today—at least temporarily.

The defense ministry said that Red junks seen approaching the 50 square mile island did not strike.

Pilot Killed as Jet Crashes Near Church

VIENNA, Ga., July 25. (AP)—Second Lt. James R. Greeson of Hawkins, Tex., was killed yesterday when his jet aircraft crashed into a country churchyard.

The plane narrowly missed the church, filled with 75 persons.

Steps on one side of the church were sheared off and several autos parked nearby were damaged.

The plane was from Turner Field, Albany, Ga.

PLENTY OF KENNEDY

NEW YORK — (AP) — It's going to be mighty confusing for football opponents of the New York Yanks next fall when the coach says: "Get in there and watch that Bob Kennedy!" Coach Red Strader of the Gotham club has Washington State's Bob Kennedy, 1942 Pacific Coast rushing champion, and North Carolina's Bob Kennedy on his roster.

WHERE REDS THREATEN U. S. SUPPLY CENTERS—Broken arrows indicate threat of possible Communist pincers drives on the U. S. supply centers in South Korea. While North Korean frontal attacks (solid arrow) have maintained pressure on American defenses astride the Taejon-Yongdong road, Red columns to the southwest have slashed almost to the tip of the peninsula. Here the Reds are in position for a flanking drive east toward Pusan, and the ports of Mokpo and Yosu (underlined) are nullified for U. S. use. Northeast of Taejon Reds have built up pressure for a possible drive south toward Taegu, vital rail center. The broken line is the approximate front. (AP wirephoto map).

Rail and Telephone Lines Cut By Belgians Opposing Leopold

BRUSSELS, July 25. (AP) — The main railway line between Namur and Brussels was dynamited in two places today.

The explosions occurred near the towns of Genval and Lessine in French-speaking Walloon—the section of Belgium where opposition to the return of King Leopold III to the throne has been strongest.

Telephone lines in the district also were cut during the night.

Since Leopold came back last Saturday there have been a series of minor bombings.

MESSAGE DUE

Today's dynamiting, which put the rail line out of commission for several hours, happened shortly before parliament was to convene to hear a message from the monarch.

Instead of following the customary procedure of delivering the message personally from the throne, Leopold last Saturday gave it to the presidents of the chamber of deputies and the senate. Made public then, it pledged the monarch to forget past disagreements and maintain close relations with the legislatures.

NO HELP

Leaders of the Anti-Leopold forces meanwhile went ahead with plans for "total non-co-operation and active resistance" toward the king and his adherents. A nine-man national action committee of Socialist, Trade Union and co-operative leaders announced they were setting in motion measures prepared "for the days and weeks to come."

Socialist leaders already have announced plans for a spreading wave of strikes but have indicated they do not plan yet to call a general strike.

Leopold's statement said he would "keep in contact with all those leading elements of the country in such a way as to allow confidence to be re-born and reconciliation to be realized."

DALLAS, July 25. (AP) — Virginia Lanford, 18, injured in an auto accident near Borger Sunday in which one person was killed and four others hurt, was flown here last night for treatment.

Miss Lanford was brought to Baylor Hospital in a private plane. She was reported in critical condition.

New Zealand Official Has Praise for U. S.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, July 25. (AP) — "Thank God there's a U.S.A.," Prime Minister Sidney G. Holland said today.

Holland, a conservative, said that while he is a strong supporter of New Zealand's commonwealth partner, Great Britain, "America is standing in precisely the position today that Britain stood in two previous wars."

It was also the first time this year that Blacky won two games in succession.

Baptist Manifesto Scores Lack of Religious Freedom

CLEVELAND, July 25. (AP)—The Baptist World Congress today warned that at no other time has Christianity been in greater danger of "losing sight" of its principles and ideals.

The warning was in a manifesto prepared by a 19-member commission on religious liberty headed by Dr. Stanley I. Stuber of New York, N. Y. It bore the approval of the Baptist World Alliance Executive Committee as an official pronouncement.

The manifesto said:

"The principle of separation of church and state in some areas, even in places where it is now practiced, is seriously questioned; officers and members of churches have been arrested and imprisoned on an increasing scale both in Communist countries and others where the Roman Catholic church is dominant.

LEGAL DISABILITIES

"Moreover we regret to note that in a few nations, where there are established Protestant churches minority religious groups are sometimes subject to legal disabilities."

The manifesto asserted that ". . . not only do Communists imprison Roman Catholics and Protestants; Roman Catholics are ready to persecute Protestants, and certain Protestants to a lesser degree deny Roman Catholics and others full liberty."

"We as Baptists now reaffirm our historical position and pledge ourselves to seek for all men the right of free and unhindered access to God and the right to form and propagate opinion in the sphere of religion without interference by civil and religious powers."

APPEAL TO REDS

The manifesto appealed to rulers of Communist lands to "cease their policy of discrimination against religion," asked all Baptist churches to "lead in the proclamation and practice of religous liberty," and called upon the United Nations to "apply the principles of Universal declaration of human rights to nations and territories now under the domination of any one particular religious force . . ."

Dr. Culbert Rutenber of Philadelphia, Pa., declared at a Congress session today that the presence of world totalitarianism makes politics the chief business of Christians.

Shivers Seeking To Bury Animosity

AUSTIN, July 25. (AP) — Digging a deep grave for political animosities is the first post-election job Gov. Allan Shivers recommends for Texas.

"Pulling at cross purposes we can accomplish nothing," he said in a statewide broadcast last night.

Shivers said he plans to continue taking serious problems of the state government to the people through his weekly statewide broadcasts.

Army Freezes Commissions Of Reservists

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The Army has frozen reserve commissions expiring or about to expire, a spokesman said today.

These are five-year commissions held by officers who are not now on active duty.

A large number of these five-year commissions were signed by officers who in September and October of 1945, in the months immediately following the end of World War II, left active duty and signed up for the reserves. Now these commissions are beginning to expire, just as the Korean crisis grows more and more acute.

ISSUE ORDER

Therefore, the Army has issued a freeze order.

The Air Force said it has been unable to freeze commissions of its reserve officers. The explanation, a spokesman said, is that the Air Force commissions were issued under a later law than that used by the Army. Legislative action would be required to keep five-year commissions in the Air Force in effect, it was said.

There is no problem for the Navy and Marine Corps. Their reserve commissions run "at the pleasure of the President." There is no expiration date.

NO MOVE

The Army and Air Force may order up some reservists who are not on a drill-pay basis, but the Navy and Marine Corps contemplate no such move at the moment.

The Army, now calling up smaller-than-divisional organized units, says that some volunteer reserve officers expert in radar and communications are being called up as individuals and units.

The Air Force says it may call on volunteer training units for specialists if such reservists are readily available and their skills are critical.

The Navy expects to get all the men needed from its organized reserve and fleet reserve, made up of those put on inactive duty after 20 years' service. The Marines, likewise, do not contemplate any involuntary recall of volunteer reservists.

Members of the Reserved Officers Training Corps (ROTC)—Army, Navy and Air Force—are exempt from the draft during their junior and senior years in college. The exemption then ceases unless they accept their commissions and go on active duty for two years.

Monroney Vs. Thomas Today In Oklahoma

By the Associated Press

Democrats in four southern states are holding primaries today, with national interest centered primarily on a senatorial race in Oklahoma. There, Sen. Elmer Thomas chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, is trying to hold off the bid of Rep. Mike Monroney, who has been in the U. S. House 12 years.

Monroney led Thomas in the first primary July 4 but lacked a clear majority.

MONRONEY STAND

Monroney has campaigned in the second go-around with the argument that Thomas, as chairman of the Senate appropriations subcommittee handling military appropriations, is partly responsible for the plight of U. S. forces in Korea

Thomas has challenged Monroney's stand on farm legislation.

The other states, in brief:

Arkansas—There is a national angle in the race for the nomination for governor, between Gov. Sid McMath and former Gov. Ben Laney. Laney is a leader of anti-Truman Democrats while McMath has supported much of the Truman program.

LOUISIANA

Louisiana—the main race here is for the Senate, between Sen. Russell Long, son of the late Huey P. Long and two opponents: Malcolm LaFargue, Shreveport lawyer endorsed by the major groups which oppose the Long faction, and former Rep. Newt Mills of Monroe.

South Carolina—Most statewide races were settled in a first primary July 11 but two congressional district nominations are being decided. Rep. Hugo Sims of Orangeburg faces former Rep. W. J. B. Dorn of Greenboro.

More Charges By McCarthy

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) declared today he has air-tight proof that an important State Department official—a Moscow-born "Mr. "—is a Communist.

The proof, McCarthy said in a speech prepared for delivery in the Senate, is contained in the department's own loyalty file on the man.

He said his evidence was furnished by "an FBI agent, an undercover agent, (who) joined the Communist Party in 1937 at the suggestion of the FBI."

McCarthy described the case as one of the 81 covered by the State Department loyalty files which were examined by a Senate foreign relations subcommittee which investigated McCarthy's Communists in government charges.

A report last week by the Democratic majority of that inquiry group labelled McCarthy's accusations "a fraud and a hoax." The three Democrats on the committee said there was no proof whatever in the 81 files to back up McCarthy's contentions that those the records deal with were—variously—Communists, fellow travelers or security risks for other reasons.

In his prepared text today, McCarthy said he was submitting to the Senate a photographed copy of "Mr. X's" State Department file. He did not hand out the copy in advance.

Junior Chamber Plans Social Meetings To Be Held Each Month

A committee was named to make arrangements for a monthly social meeting when the Junior Chamber of Commerce met last night at the Country Club, according to Jack Kennedy, secretary.

On the committee are Jack Riggs, Gene Harper and Clyde Hall, with Ray Perkins as ex-officio member.

The Junior Chamber also commended Myron Fenton for his work in connection with the recent rodeo parade.

Delbert Randolph was the unlucky member last night, for when an absent name was drawn from the pot, it fell to his lot to take care of the Junior Chamber's goat, "A. W. O. L." until the meeting next Monday night. The goat was delivered to Randolph today.

Hotel Employees Get Wage Boosts

NEW YORK July 25. (AP)—Thirty-three thousand A.F.L. employees of New York City's major hotels will get immediate wage boosts of from $1.80 to $4 a week under an award from an arbitration commission.

Edward P. Mulrooney, impartial chairman of the city's hotel industry, announced the award yesterday.
