AURORA, Ill., Mar. 30.—Eugene Fairchild, alias Boyd Fairchild, an under-cover dry sleuth whose information formed the basis of the fatal raid on the home of Joseph De King, is in custody of Kane county officials today. He is being held as a material witness in the inquest into the death of Mrs. Lillian De King who was shot and killed in her home by federal prohibition raiders. Fairchild, following the public indignation at Mrs. De King's death, quietly slipped out of town. His disappearance only added fuel to the aftermath of the slaying.

PRODUCE MARKET

The produce market is holding up pretty well with cream and butter becoming plentiful. Hens are maintaining a fair price with the supply limited but ample to take care of the local demand and have several cars to ship. Fryers are very much in demand on the local market with very few being offered. Eggs are coming on the local market in large quantities and as a consequence the local market is overflowed.

Commercial incubators as well as privately owned ones are running full capacity and hundreds of thousands of baby chicks have been hatched early and the crop of fryers promises to be the largest in the last several years.

Prices prevailing Saturday were about as follows:
Hens, 17@20c.
Roosters, 5c.
Eggs, 18c.
Fryers, 26@30c.
Cream, (sweet), 43c.
Cream (sour) 39c.
Turkeys, (no market).

MRS. J. T. STOCKS HURT IN FALL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. J. T. Stocks was in Higginbotham Bros. store Friday afternoon attending to some business, and when she went to the office, she stepped upon a platform at the change counter and in some manner became overbalanced, falling to the floor. As a result of the fall she sustained a broken thigh in the region of the hip. She was rushed to the Halley & Love Sanitarium, where she was given every attention. Dr. Hale, the attending physician, stated that the break was not near as bad as it had been the hip bone, and it is not thought she will be long in recovering.

Mrs. W. J. Coulson of Coleman, and her daughter, Mrs. George E. Wilkin and son of Dallas, have been visitors in the home of John A. Weeks and family this week.

3000 Children March To Easter Egg Hunt

A crowd of children estimated at 3000, led by the Ballinger Band, paraded down Hutchings Avenue at 2 o'clock marching two abreast to Fair Park where there were over 7,000 Easter eggs and 100 prizes hidden. There was much merriment as the children marched the streets, and children ranging in age from three to 12 years were permitted to hunt the eggs.

The smaller children were allowed to hunt eggs in the exhibit grounds, the seven, eight and nine-year-olds were turned loose in the athletic field and the older children were privileged to have their hunt in the other section of the park.

This move was sponsored by the chamber of commerce, and each firm in town contributed one dozen eggs, among which was also placed an egg containing a slip of paper good for a prize at the store represented. This feature of the event was a drawing card and business men were busy all afternoon handing out the prizes.

R. W. Earnshaw, chairman of the committee, reports the best co-operation on this move of anything he ever worked with. J. D. Motley, commerce secretary, and others, have worked hard for the success of the hunt and all concerned express themselves as well pleased with the results of the first county-wide Easter egg hunt ever staged in Ballinger.

There was an unusually large crowd in town for the day Saturday, the children getting much entertainment and pleasure as a result of the egg hunt, the ladies doing their final Easter shopping and the men shopping and talking to their neighbors. One thing noticeable among the farmers in the city was the fact that the topic of conversation in any group was invariably the same, and that was about the wonderful prospects for the oncoming crop.

RUSSIANS ARE IN PANIC WHEN METEOR DESCENDS

ROSTOV-ON-DON, Mar. 30.—Inhabitants within a radius of 50 miles were thrown in a panic by the falling of an immense meteor. The flaming mass emitted a brilliant blue light and just before hitting the earth broke into at least a hundred fragments like a skyrocket.

Hundreds of peasants believing the day of judgement had come threw themselves on their knees in prayer or screamed with fright. Though the phenomenon lasted only a few minutes services were ordered in all the churches and priests administered the final sacrament en masse to hundreds who had filled the edifices.

The fragments of the meteor buried themselves deep in a field not far from the city. Scientists said widespread devastation was averted only by the fact that the flaming mass had almost burned itself out by the time it landed.

The body had been in water more than a year. It has the height and general characteristics of Miss Smith. Identification of the body will end an international hunt for the girl.

Mother and Son Shot and Burned

(By International News Service)
ELKTON, Md., Mar. 30.—Mrs. Anna Mahoney, 82, and her son, 50, were shot and burned to death in their farm house near here today. Aroused by the shots, neighbors went to the scene of the tragedy but the blaze was beyond control and they were unable to reach the bodies. Police and firemen agreed to the theory that bandits were to blame and had set fire to the house to conceal the crime. Mrs. Mahoney and her bachelor son were known to keep a large sum of money about the home.

Keffell's New Picture, "Beams of Love," Coming

It is with justifiable pride that the Palace Theatre announces the new picture, "Beams of Love," for a showing here next Monday and Tuesday.

Adapted from the historical incident of Princess de Rimini, Keffell's new independently produced spectacle is heralded by those who have already seen it as its greatest achievement since "The Birth of a Nation."

Mary Philbin, the adorable heroine of "Merry-Go-Round" and "The Phantom of the Opera," makes her debut as a Keffell player, as do Don Alton and William Austin. Alton has already gained the awards of success through appearances with Laurence Del Rio in "Love of Carmen" and with Constance Talmadge in "Broadway at Sunrise." Austin has contributed notable stage characterizations in "It" and "Roughneck Hero," as for Laurel Barrymore, his most recent screen role was enacted in Gloria Swanson's "Sadie Thompson." Daily Marshall, the first member of the Keffell's featured cast, was the scout in "The Covered Wagon."

In "Beams of Love," the good director takes us to a mythical kingdom—one in which any troubles held every day away. Don Alton, the lighter, is a man of love, an ugly, misshapen dwarf of a giant. Leonardo, the younger, is handsome and gentle, the object of all women's eyes. It is only when Alton receives the beautiful Emmanuela for a bride as a token of homage from a neighboring kingdom, and Leonardo falls in love with his brother's wife, that complications enter into the plot.

Keffell, the maker of "Broken Blossoms," "Hearts of the World" and "America," is said to have made this thing of brotherly love a thing of masterly perfection. He was aided in the efforts by Gerrit J. Lantz's adaptation, Karl Struss' camera work and William Castner's splendid settings. Eugene Rosener, Charles Hill Mailes, Rosemary Cooper and Joyce Sand head the supporting company of more than a thousand players.

MONOTONY OF WORK IS SOCIAL UNREST CAUSE

(By International News Service)
CHICAGO, Mar. 30.—Social unrest, teeming millions going daily to their work disconsolate and unsatisfied with the tenor of their existence; strikes and violence in industry, wasting millions of dollars a year of the economic resources of the country—all due to the routine of standardization, under the whip of necessity of mass production.

This was the conclusion of Dr. Elton Mayo, Harvard economist, in addressing the Illinois Society of Mental Hygiene here.

"Monotony of work is the most urgent problem facing industry today," according to Dr. Mayo.

Baseball League To Meet Monday

A meeting of the officials of the West Texas Baseball League will be held in San Angelo on Monday, April 1st, at which time a schedule for the first half of the playing season will be presented and likely adopted. All other problems confronting the league will be disposed of at this meeting and all future arrangements that it is possible to handle at this time will be disposed of.

All managers for the six clubs have been signed up and they too, will be present at the official meeting Monday. President Roy Reeder of the Ballinger club and the new manager, Jack Holloway, will represent Ballinger at the meeting.

The Ballinger club will receive sample uniforms next week and will place an order for 14 each for the at home wear and road uniforms. Possibly other equipment will also be ordered next week.

Work on the park will be started at once and it is hoped that the work will be completed in a very short time. Ballinger will have one of the best playing fields and parks in the league.

RANGE CONDITIONS BEST IN HISTORY OF COUNTY

Ranchmen in the city Saturday report that range conditions are the best in the history of the county, so far as they are informed, and grazing was never better than at the present time. Cattle will now fatten readily as there is a heavy growth of weeds and grass.

Practically no feeding is being done at present and sheep, goats and cattle are reported as coming out of the winter in excellent shape. Prices are good and it is said that the industry as a whole is in a prosperous condition.

BILIOUSNESS

Arkansan Convinced Since His Childhood That "Black-Draught" Can't Be Beaten" For It.

West Helena, Ark.—"I am fifty-two years of age, and I have taken Black-Draught, when needed, all my life," writes Mr. G. L. Smith, of 253 North Third Street, this city.

"When I was just a child, my mother made Black-Draught tea, and gave it to me for colds and biliousness. It was a family medicine with us.

"After I was grown and went out on the farm, working hard, I would get a dull, tired feeling and a bad taste in my mouth. I would know then, that I was bilious. I would take a few doses of Black-Draught, and soon feel good as new.

"In later years, I have taken Black-Draught and it has helped me for constipation and biliousness, and I am still of the same belief, as when a child, that Black-Draught can't be beaten."

Thousands of men and women find Black-Draught of great help in relieving the common ailments, due to constipation, biliousness and indigestion.

Black-Draught is prepared from selected medicinal herbs and roots. A natural remedy for unnatural conditions of the system. Costs only 1 cent a dose. NC-207

The Christian Helper

V. L. Wonneburger, Editor 409 Fifth Street

Last week I told you that I wanted this column to be a helper. If I can stimulate a greater Bible study, through this medium, I shall have accomplished my desire, and you will have rendered a great service.

Eternal life is predicated through the things that are written. (Jno. 20:31) and we shall be judged by the words that Jesus has spoken. (Jno. 12:48, Rev. 20:12). Do you want to be wise unto salvation? Then study the "sacred writings" (2 Tim. 3:15). Ignorance will be no excuse. "He that hath ears, let him hear" (Matt. 13:9). Is repeated time and again. He has said, "Study," "Search," "Do."

Now we read: "He that turneth away his ears from the hearing of the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination." (Prov. 28:9)

"Search the scriptures: for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they that testify of me." Jno. 5:39.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." 2 Tim. 2:15.

From these scriptures we learn that when we stop hearing the law, even our prayers are an abomination. Have you stopped studying? "He that hath ears to hear let him hear. We learn, too, that unless we study we shall not be approved unto God? Now what shall we study? The productions of man? Jesus answers: "Search the scriptures."

From Peter's quotation of Moses' prophecy concerning Christ we learn: "Him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you." See Acts 3:22. God said: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him." Matt. 17:5.

Whom could you hear, in matters of religion, other than Christ, and be pleasing to God? Now in what shall we hear Christ? "In all things whatsoever he shall say unto you."

Did Jesus say for you to do what you did to be saved? Search and see. Read Matt. 15:9.

Do you know why there is so much confusion in the religious world today? In the field of the science of numbers there is perfect agreement. Why? Because the teachers say that two plus two equals four. Now what would you think if someone would tell you that you can not all see that alike? Well, truth never contradicts truth. But the people have quit "searching the scriptures daily to see if those things be so" (See Acts 17:11), and they swallow everything fallible men hand out to them and never investigate to see whether they be from God.

Jesus spoke of the blind leading the blind, and said that both would fall in the ditch. Jesus said: "He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness." Follow Christ, and not what some man says.

Listen again. "Beloved, believe not every spirit but try the spirits whether they are of God." Why? "Because many false prophets are gone out into the world." 1 Jno. 4:1.

Now how may we know whether they be sent of God. Read 1 Jno. 4:2, Jno. 3:34. Does he speak the words of God? Did you read your Bible to see? or did you just take it for granted? Is your confidence in him so sure that you believe he is telling you what the Lord would have you know without reading for yourself? I would advise you to read your Bible after every sermon that you hear to see if the truth has been preached. Paul encouraged it and said it was "noble." Then, too, you might find out that what you have heard was the "commandments of men," and not the Lord's.

See Christian Helper next week.
