New Pressure Is Brought On Small Nations

Russians Declare Sweden Plans To Offer Air Bases

(By The United Press)

LONDON, March 29—Renewed Russian pressure was directed today against Scandinavia, Iran and Italy, with Sweden accused of preparing to offer bomber bases to the U. S. in case of war.

Dispatches from Moscow, meanwhile, indicated, that negotiations for a treaty with Finland were drawing to a close. One report, carried by the British radio, said treaty talks had been concluded.

War Psychosis Charged

The attack against Sweden was carried in the Soviet army newspaper Red Star and broadcast by radio Moscow. It said that a "war psychosis" was being created in Sweden "just as in the United States."

According to Red Star, Sweden was obtaining large numbers of military planes in Britain and the U. S. Sweden was not receiving heavy bombers, Red Star said, because "in the event of war they will offer their air bases to American heavy bombers."

The article charged Lt. Gen. Helge Jung, commander in chief of the Swedish armed forces, with stirring up a war psychosis as a basis for demands for large military appropriations.

Refers To Trieste

Jung, according to Red Star, "went so far as to refer to possible threats from certain 'dangerous actions from the east.'"

The article said Sweden was planning to join the western European military alliance "jointly with the U. S." and accepting standardization of arms under U. S. auspices.

Dispatches from Tehran said Russia has sent a new note to the Iranian government protesting against United States military activity in that country.

Iran Reply Rejected

The note, published in the Soviet embassy bulletin, was in the form of a rejection of Iran's reply to the first Soviet note of Jan. 3. This note charged that American military advisers had assumed leading positions in the Iranian army in violation of the 1921 Soviet-Iranian friendship treaty.

The Russian note reiterated these charges. It also denied that Russia had tried to stage a coup

Stock Markets Are Picketed

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP) — Union employes began picketing the New York stock and curb exchanges today bearing notices from their union chieftains which said, "You are on strike."

The stock exchange announced it would open as usual. Both stock and curb exchange officials said they would try to maintain business as usual. The cotton exchange is not affected.

About 200 members of the AFL United Financial Employes local 205 began picketing the stock exchange shortly after 7 a. m. (CST). Picketing of the curb exchange began soon afterwards. The move followed several fruitless weeks of contact negotiations between the union and the two exchanges and several member firms.

Demands Cut

A spokesman said last week the union had scaled down its original demands for a union shop and wage increases of $9 weekly for employes earning less than $40 and $15 for those earning $40 or more. He did not elaborate.

Members of the union voted to go on strike several weeks ago. A spokesman said "when the strike comes it will come suddenly.'

The union has said it is negotiating in behalf of 850 stock exchange workers and 220 employes of the curb exchange. Union contractors with the stock and curb exchanges expire March 1. Contracts with member firms have various expiration dates up to

Mine Chief Ignores Order To Appear For Presidential Board Coal Strike Hearing

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29—John L. Lewis ignored a subpoena to appear at 2 p. m. EST today for a presidential board hearing on the coal strike.

Lewis was served with the formal order today after refusing a board invitation to testify voluntarily.

The hree-man board inquiring into causes of the strike went ahead without Lewis.

Its next step, if Lewis continues to hold out, is expected to be a request for federal district court to order him to appear.

The formal order was issued immediately after Lewis had turned down the board's invitation to explain the walkout of his 400,000 soft coal miners.

An hour later, two United States marshals emerged grinning from United Mine Workers headquarters and the marshal's office said that Lewis had accepted the subpoena. This occurred after the officers had experienced difficulty getting an elevator to take them to Lewis' office. The stairs were barred.

Shortly after the deputies left Lewis emerged with an unaccustomed smile. Asked by reporters if he will appear before the board, he answered "no comment."

Three minutes before a 9 a. m. (CST) deadline set for his reply, the United Mine Workers' leader fired at the board a reply to its invitation setting forth his "disinclination" to testify.

Lewis said he based this on (1) "law" and (2) "prejudice." He explained:

1. Neither he nor the UMW have done anything falling under the Taft-Hartley law, which President Truman has invoked in the dispute. He called this law an "infamous enactment."

2. Two of the three board members are "biased and prejudiced and in honor should not serve."

UNIONS CONFER ON WAGE HIKES

Railroads To Face New Pay Demands

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 29.—New wage and working rule demands on the nation's railroads appeared in prospect today.

While three operating brotherhoods summoned representatives to a Wednesday meeting to consider the 15½-cent hourly wage increase recommended by a presidential fact-finding board, two other unions met for talks on further gains.

There was a hint of disappointment with the fact-finding board's recommendation on the part of at least one official of the three unions involved.

Worse Off Now

D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said in Cleveland that the recommended wage boost "leaves us 15 per cent worse off than we were when the last wage increase went into effect in June, 1946."

He added that the "railroads themselves figured the recommended increase as one of 11 per cent, whereas the cost of living has gone up 16.6 per cent since June, 1946."

Robertson announced that wage and working rules committees of his union, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Switchmen's Union of North America, will meet in Cleveland Wednesday to consider the recommendation.

To Discuss Demands

At the same time, A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, announced representatives of that union and the Order of Railway Conductors had arranged a joint meeting in Cleveland today to discuss additional demands. Both those unions accepted the 15½ an hour wage increase last fall.

Whitney commented that the fact-finding board's recommendation of the same increase, retroctive to Nov. 1, was "what I had anticipated."

In addition to the wage boost, the board also recommended adoption of 37 changes in working rules sought by the railroads and unions.

Fire Razes Roaring Springs Warehouse

ROARING SPRINGS, March 29. (Special)—Fire of yet undetermined origin which was discovered by a night watchman about 4 o'clock this morning almost completely destroyed a cotton warehouse of the Panhandle Compress company here, with loss of an estimated 600 to 700 bales of cotton.

The estimate was placed by R. J. Harmon, company official, who said records were being checked at noon to determine exact amount of the loss. He would not estimate total loss pending further check of records.

Harmon said there was yet no indication as to origin of the fire, which was brought under control by mid-morning through combined efforts of firemen from three neighboring towns. Calls to Matador, Spur and Dickens resulted in equipment being sent from all three places, and the fire was confined to the one warehouse.

Tar, Feathers For FDR Statue Hinted

LONDON, March 29 (AP)—The London Star said today Scotland Yard has received telephoned threats that the statue of Franklin D. Roosevelt in Grosvenor square will tarred and feathered.

Scotland Yard denied story. "The statue was delivered about a week early, a yard spokesman said, "and the office of works, having no caretaker, asked us to place a constable on the site.

"We can trace no threats having been received."

The memorial to the late president will be unveiled by Mrs. Roosevelt April 12.

Strike Ban In Japan Is Set

TOKYO, March 29. (AP)—General MacArthur invoked a general strike ban today to halt rapidly spreading walkouts by Japanese government workers.

He specificially instructed Japanese officials to prevent a threatened strike by an estimated 400,000 communications employes. They spearheaded a quit work movement by nearly 1,000,000 government workers.

An Unfavorable Impact

Maj. Gen. W. F. Marquat, chief of MacArthur's economic and scientific section, declared in a memorandum the threatened nationwide communications strike, set for Wednesday, would have a "drastically unfavorable impact upon the economic recovery and public welfare" of the nation.

The strike, said Marquat, is subject to provisions of MacArthur's Jan. 31, 1947 ban which prevented a similar planned general strike.

Marquat's memorandum did not mention employes other than communications. All government workers have been demanding increased cost of living bonuses. Officials predicted that if the communications walkout folded, the others would stay on the job.

Some workers were due to lay off today. Indicating possible internal friction, only 3,000 of 5,000 communications workers in Ibaragi prefecture obeyed strike orders prior to today's ban.

Street car and bus operators in Tokyo have been on strike three days.

The communications dispute brought one anti-occupation incident. Toshio Yamaguchi, an official of the communications workers' union, was arrested by American authorities for refusing to restore Tokyo-Osaka telephone circuits. Workers had broken the circuit used by BCON, the British occupation forces newspaper.

Baruch Urges Prompt Draft

Financier Also Asks Economic Mobilization

Mustering Of All Resources Sought For Keeping Peace

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29 — Bernard M. Baruch today urged prompt enactment of universal military training and selective service legislation as a means of achieving "the stability in the world which lasting peace requires."

The financier and presidential adviser also called for an "economic mobilization plan," and said America's failure to muster all its resources now for peace would leave "no alternative but to mobilize for war" in the future.

Keep Constant Inventory

Testifying before the Senate armed services committee, Baruch suggested the appointment of someone to "watch the impact upon our economy of the partial mabilization we are entering upon and to maintain a constant inventory, balancing all our growing commitments against our resources."

Before Baruch spoke, Chairman Gurney (R-SD) declared that his armed services committee must conclude hearings on the military phases of President Truman's stop-Russia program by the end of the week.

"We simply can't take any more time," Gurney said. "By this weekend, we will have the complete story and all shades of opinion."

Problems Considered

Gurney's committee is considering (1) temporary revival of the wartime draft, (2) a permanent program of universal military training and (3) immediate expansion of the peacetime strength of the armed forces at a cost of $3,448,000,000.

Baruch told the committee:

"So terrible are the destructive potentialities of modern instrumentalities of war, it is no longer good enough to punish an aggressor after he has begun a war. Preventing war requires buttressing our national security before the crisis is upon us. Never again do we dare permit our own lack of preparedness to encourage any potential aggressor into attacking this country or into overrunning other peaceful nations."

He said that "in whatever we undertake, we must be guided by the necessity of not wrecking ourselves, for that would defeat all we attempt." He added:

Make Up Our Minds

"The greatest single necessity in the world today is for America to make up its mind where it stands, so that the other free peoples on earth know where to rally Unless we come to a decision among ourselves, we invite a scattering of our friends and another

Third Attempt Made On Official's Life

Canadian Police Seek Gunman Who Shot At U. S. Consul In Windsor

(By The Associated Press)

WINDSOR, Ont., March 29 — Ontario provincial police sought clues today to the stealthy assailant who fired two gunshots last night at John Bankhead, American consul here.

Bankhead said the shots, apparently fired from behind a tree, struck the rear door of his car as he drove up to his Riversde drive home. He was alone in the car.

Police found footprints between a post and tree at the driveway entrance.

It was the third attempt on his life in recent weeks, Bankhead said. He reported that poisoned liquor and candy had been sent to his home. On another occasion his car had been tampered with, he said.

The American consul has come to attention for his tight border restriction policy. He has attributed this to an effort to keep Communists from entering the United States by way of Detroit.

Last night's apparent attempt on Bankhead's life was made despite the presence on the premises of an officer of the Royal Canadian mounted police.

Sgt. William Fraser, head of the Windsor mounties detachment, lives in an apartment above the Bankhead garage. He dashed outside at the shots, got a shouted warning from Bankhead to return, and came back with his gun. The assailant meantime fled.

Export Control In Aid Bill Is Voted

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29—The House foreign affairs committee gave its backing today to a foreign aid bill amendment to put extra controls on exports of strategic supplies to Russia.

Rep. Mundt (R-SD), said the committee voted "overwhelmingly" to support his amendment to the $6,205,000,000 bill giving the foreign administration the right to veto any exports to Russia and her satelites when he considers it "in the national interest."

The committee acted shortly before the bill rolled into the showdown voting stage on the House floor.

Ask Additional Protection

Although the administration itself has clamped down on shipments of "war potentials" to Russia and other countries behind the iron curtain, Mundt and other congressmen have insisted that Congress provide additional protection.

His amendment still must be accepted by the House itself. Mundt said the vote on it may not take place until tomorrow.

The bill would use economic aid plus American military science in an effort to stem Communism in Europe and Asia.

Passage is scheduled for Wednesday at the latest.

As the foreign aid bill started running the gantlet of amendments, the man who holds the military purse strings in the House jumped to its support as a vital defense measure.

Must Be Prepared

Rep. Albert J. Engel (R-Mich) sized up worsening Soviet-American relations and said he had reached the conclusion that:

Conference To Open Tuesday

BOGOTA, Colombia, March 29 (AP)—The top-ranking diplomats of 21 nations assembled here today for tomorrow's opening of the ninth Pan American conference. Territorial disputes threatened to loom high on the program.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall is slated to arrive about noon. His plane left Washington at 9:02 p. m. (EST) last night.

Chile, Paraguay and Cuba have expressed an interest in having the conference take a stand against Communist encroachment in the Americas but there was no definite indication whether the topic would be taken up.

Colonization Opposed

Many of the nations are expected to level their guns against European colonization in the western hemisphere.

Provisional President Romulo Betancourt, chief Venezuelan delegate, said he would demand an end of such colonizalism.

Betancourt said his nation would demand that all colonies of foreign powers in the Americas be given the opportunity to free themselves by means of plebiscites.

Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia, who represents Argentina, said he would recommend an international parley to settle Antarctic sovereignty disputes of Argentina and other American nations.

Rights Are Claimed

Bramuglia added, however, that the question of sovereignty over

Vandenberg Or Martin Might Be Nominated

Republicans Trying To Avoid Taft-Dewey Deadlock In Party

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Friends of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft are reported agreed today that they will try to prevent any long deadlock at the GOP nominating convention.

It is said to be generally understood in both camps that if the two candidates lock horns so tightly that neither can pull away, they will sit down and try for a compromise.

None of the politicians who know both men can see either stepping aside for the other. The effort, then, would be to agree on third man acceptable to both and do it quickly enough to prevent a rank outsider from walking off with the nomination.

The two possibilities most frequently mentioned in such a compromise are Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan and House Speaker Joseph Martin of Massachusetts.

Indications are that neither Taft nor Dewey would be willing to go for Gen. Douglas MacArthur even if the far eastern commander shows wide strength in primaries.

The New Yorker and the Ohioan are essentially party men, and the

Rowland Takes Over As Coach At GWU

WASHINGTON, March 29. (U.P) —John H. (Bo) Rowland moved in today as head football coach at George Washington university, and school officials were hopeful that the former Oklahoma City university mentor "was here to stay."

Chauncey Simpson, backfield coach at the University of Missouri, accepted the job last Thursday, then resigned the next day when Missouri officials offered him a considerable pay raise.

Rowland, who is a graduate of Vanderbilt university, comes to G. W. U. "highly recommended" by Carl Snavely, head coach at the University of North Carolina.

Piggly-Wiggly Safe Battered By Intruders

Hole Is Chiseled In Concrete Roof To Gain Entrance

Burglars who smashed a gaping hole in a thick concrete roof Sunday night moved a 1,600-pound safe into a soundproof vegetable vault of Piggly-Wiggly store No. 16, at 3003 Ave. H, beat it apart and got away with $7,325 in money and checks, police announced this morning.

Capt. Pat Davidson of city detectives said approximately $4,125 of the amount was money, the remainder checks.

C. L. Godwin, store manager who supplied police with the loot figures, said the store had not been entered Sunday afternoon.

Hole Chiseled In Roof

A hole approximately two and a half feet in diameter had been chiseled in the concrete roof, which Davidson said appeared to be from four to five inches thick. A second layer of roof, of plaster and lathe, was kicked out.

Intruders let themselves down onto the vegetable vault, top of which is approximately five feet from the store ceiling.

"They missed only by a yard of opening the hole over a taller vault, which would have been even more convenient to their entry," Davidson said. "As it was, they only had to step off the vegetable vault onto shelving and a pile of sacks to get to the floor."

A heavy chisel and a light crowbar were left at the scene, and they were being studied to determine whether they would show latent fingerprints.

Inside the thick-walled vegetable vault lay heavy chunks of concrete and the outer metal case of the big safe, after the burglars had gone. The knob and combination of the safe had been knocked off, but the burglars apparently did not get into the safe proper, so removed it from its bulky steel and concrete encasement and carried it away with them.

A small hand-truck, such as is used by store employes in moving heavy boxes and sacked commodities about the store, was discarded on a vacant lot on the east side of the store. It was believed by detectives that the burglars' car had been parked there.

Position of the safe, or of the area where the burglars worked,

Italy Bets Against Communist Victory

ROME, March 29 (U.P)—Organized betting on the Italian election was against a Communist victory April 18 after an Easter warning by Pope Pius XII to Italian Catholics that they must shake off their political "blindness."

The betting odds in the government lottery indicated the Communist front would get a little more than 30 per cent of the vote.

That indicates a fall of at least 10 per cent from the consensus of forecasts about a month ago when some predictions went as high as 45 to 51 per cent for the extreme left.

Therefore, it is with more than a little sadness we learn that our New Mexico cousins are getting soft—just like we Texans did, beginning about 50 years ago.

You know, for a good many years they've played for keeps in politics in New Mexico. The whole state has been pretty much like our Duval county when it comes to casting—and counting—votes.

But now political righteousness has raised its head—and right in Alby-q-q, no less, where the biggest batch of votes is at.

It seems that during a city campaign a year or so ago, 7,000 pieces of election "litrachoor" couldn't be delivered by Albuquerque mailmen, on account of the recipients couldn't be found—although their names were on registration rolls and they were "legal voters." Now, with a big election era in the immediate offing, the New Mexico Registration board is looking through the Albuquerque lists to eliminate all "voters" who are dead, who have moved to Texas—or who, mayhap, never were at all.

'Stew bad, 'stew bad. First thing you know, New Mexico's going to be plumb civilized, and that won't be as good as it sounds!

IMAGINATION is a powerful force. So is habit. When the two hit head-on, it's sort of like a collision between an irresistible force and an immovable object.

Ever since we were a callow collegian, with bell-bottom pants and all the trimmings of that day, we have smoked a certain brand of cigarets.

We don't like other brands. Wouldn't even buy 'em during the war shortage, preferring, instead, to tramp all over town until we found our favorites.

Now we find ourself in what the boys call a 9-hole, which condition may only be charged against habit and imagination.

The other morning, 10 days ago, we swung out of bed and groped for a cigaret.

Automatically, we put it in our mouth, lit it — and something happened that had never happened before.

Half the cigaret disappeared in the flame and the taste was something like a combination of old socks, old gum boots and asafetida, boiled for six hours and then mixed with garlic.

Spitting and sputtering, we inspected what was left of the cigaret, suspecting that it might have been "loaded" by one of our dear little chums. But checking up resulted in our finding that such was not the case — the cigaret having been one of a package placed in the box the night before, after the young 'uns had either gone to bed, or scattered.

Closer inspection showed that where the tobacco was supposed to be there was a peculiar looking combination of tobacco and something that looked like the minute bits of sawdust left by termites after a hearty meal.

Our stomach turned a flip-flop.

EVERY time we have lighted a cigaret since, we've tasted—or thought we tasted—the same, old acrid, sickening concoction. Of course, we haven't really tasted it. We've just imagined it. But the fact remains we haven't really enjoyed a cigaret since the mishap. So much for imagination.

The obvious solution to our problem would be changing brands.

But we don't like other brands. Some of them taste even worse to us than the damaged cigaret—which was pretty awful. So we stick to the old brand, imagine the horrid taste. So much for habit.

We hope the hallucination will not continue throughout the rest of our life, which, we hope, will encompass quite a few more years. But if it does it can be blamed only on an unending war between habit and imagination.

Maybe one or the other will crumble!

Speaking of cigarets, we got to wondering the other day about the true basis of objection smoking fathers exhibit when their nearly grown sons take up the habit.

Do you smoking fathers object to the kids' smoking? Or is their objection less real and more psychological? In short, do the smoking fathers object to their sons' smoking because the sons are reaching maturity, hence exhibiting that they're emerging from the Old Man's control?

It's something to think about, because the objection might also be connected with a secret feeling on the part of the father that the son's emergence into manhood also is an indication that the father is growing old!

OUR eldest brat, a few months on the sunny side of legal age, recently started smoking and we found ourself resenting it.

We didn't say anything, for two reasons. First, we started smoking at an earlier age and have kept at it, energetically, ever since. Second, we knew it wouldn't do any good. Squawking, and accompanying disciplinary action, would, at its best, stop him smoking at home, but not outside, where he usually is, anyway. And, after all, in a few months he shall be presumed by the law to have sufficient judgment to function as a citizen, therefore, shall be presumed to know what he wants to do and why.

But we did get to thinking about the situation and from that thinking came some conclusions.

Our conclusions included:

1. Smoking fathers don't object to near-grown sons smoking nearly so much as they dislike admitting that the kids' acts indicate they're breaking out of the cocoon;

2. While smoking fathers realize that the habit is wasteful, unnecessary and costly, they also realize that there is considerable enjoyment connected with it and, in honesty, can't logically object to near-grown sons sharing in that enjoyment; and,

3. Most of the squawking smoking fathers engage in when near-grown sons begin the habit is done (A) because fathers are supposed to squawk under such conditions, the action being traditional; and (B) that is one way of showing their secret distaste for having to admit that they are fathers of near-grown sons, hence are becoming slightly ancient!

READERS should mark well that we are talking about the reactions of smoking fathers to the embracing of the smoking habit by near-grown sons. We are not talking about the reactions of nonsmoking fathers, or the reactions of smoking fathers of kids between 14 and 20 who may be dallying with the weed which soothes and consoles.

The essence of the question is the age of the youngster involved in the problem—as well as the psychological reaction to the thinking of the smoking father!

BY DREW PEARSON: COMPETENT LEADERS SHOULD CHART NEW DOMESTIC ECONOMY

Arms Program Means Inflation Or Rigid Controls

MEMO to Senator Taft:

While you and I are in frequent disagreement, I have considerable admiration for your courage and tenacity. May I therefore present for your consideration a problem of vital importance to all of us.

PEARSON

As you know, the administration is now planning to embark on a gigantic arms program including thousands of jet planes, new rocket launching guns, submarines that can carry rockets close to enemy shores, new airplane carriers which can launch bombers, fast merchant ships powerful enough to outrun submarines, and thousands of steel-consuming guided missiles.

In addition the National Defense department urges a lend-lease program whereby we would equip the armies of democratic nations in Europe.

While this program may not all be adopted, yet if only half of it—including the aviation program which you yourself favor—is adopted, it will result in the greatest inflation this nation has ever seen.

Already we face a steel shortage. Already our railroads are hard up for freight cars. Automobiles are still short in supply. The manpower shortage still handicaps many industries. Electric power is so low in the west that California is on daylight saving. Last week when the airplane industries learned they were to start a new building program their aluminum orders swamped the three lone companies in this country which make aluminum.

In other words, with the nation's economy already running at top speed, the Army and Navy have asked for 15 billion and are reported ready to ask for ten or eleven billion more.

Boom-Bust Inflation

According to the opinion expressed by many of your colleagues, a large part of this money will be voted. But even if the air program alone is voted, it will push the nation's normal peacetime economy into boom-bust inflation.

For on top of the tax reduction you are now voting, there will be more money to spend, more profits by those too recently on the gravy train, less goods to buy and further Skyrocketing prices.

In short we may witness all the tragedy of Europe, where money means little more than the paper on which it is printed and when a cup of coffee at times has cost a million marks.

I am not proposing that the United States shirk from any arms program that is necessary. No grea crisis has ever found this nation lacking, and with Russia on the rampage, a big air program undoubtedly is necessary.

AND though I have reservations about some of the other extravagant demands of the military, I have no reservation about the fact that if even a fraction of this arms program is to be met, the nation must once more subject itself to a rigid, unpleasant system of controls. Furthermore, we must act before our economy gets out of hand.

Without going into the whys and wherefores of who killed OPA, it remains a fact that prices have gone up ever since. But that rise is nothing compared with the skyrocketing sure to be touched off by the new arms program.

So if we are to have controls, let's not go through the same hodge-podge we experienced during the late war, the same jumble of gerry-mandered government agencies built up and torn down on a trial-and-error basis.

First we had the fumbling National Defense Advisory board—until it was superseded by the Hydra-headed Office of Production Management—until it in turn succumbed to the War Production board. Then there was the Supplies, Priorities and Allocations board; and the OPA; which started off with limited authority, because a short-sighted Congress withheld that authority. As a result, some prices were up almost 30 per cent even before price control was adopted.

This time, however, we can't wait. We can't afford a trial-and-error system.

Last November President Truman asked Congress to give him the power to control prices. His request, in view of the arms program ahead, was modest. But even this was not granted.

Now, I can sympathize with congressional reluctance to vote new controls, first because none of us like them, second because Mr. Truman's appointees are not noted for efficiency in administering them.

Nevertheless we are to build armaments, price controls and allocations of scarce materials have got to come. Furthermore, if you, Senator Taft, take the leadership which the country must expect of one who seeks to be elected to the highest office in the land, you should also receive certain advisory compensations. Senator Vandenberg, for instance, who has set such a fine example of bipartisan foreign policy, is consulted by the State department in the carrying out of that policy and the appointments made under it.

A Bipartisan domestic policy in this day of national emergency is fast becoming just as necessary as a bipartisan foreign policy. The two go hand-in-hand.

It takes a big man to admit his mistakes. And I note that you have been big enough to reverse yourself on federal education and are now leading the fight for the bill which four year ago you helped defeat.

A lot of Senators are going to have to be big enough to reverse themselves on price controls and tax reduction if we are to follow the tough foreign policy the majority of Americans seem to favor.

And I for one suggest that, as a start toward mapping out a sound domestic economy, we call in Bernard Baruch, Donald Nelson, Leon Henderson and the others who kept prices down and allocated war materials, and ask them to chart a new course to head off the oncoming hurrican of inflation.

In the last five years, life insurance ownership in the U.S. has increased 60 per cent while the population has risen 9 per cent.

Two Killed In Building Fall

JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 29 (AP) — A three-story brick building, occupied only by a family of five living on the top floor, collapsed in a cloud of plaster dust yesterday, killing both parents and injuring the three children. The building was located at 237 York street in the factory section of the city.

Daniel Lagaipa, 64, and his wife, Josephine, 54, were crushed beneath fallen timbers. Rescuers dug in the dusty debris with bare hands as well as shovels and axes for several hours before reaching the Lagaipa children — Joseph, 24; Anna, 18, and Joan 14.

Family Pet Unhurt

The family pet, a brown terrier, was found unhurt in the rubble.

The injured were treated at Jersey City medical center for shock, bruises and eye irritation caused by plaster dust.

Cause of the collapse still was undetermined but Theologos Athans, one of a family of six which moved from the second-floor apartment three weeks ago, said he had been ordered to vacate the premises because the building had been condemned.

Police ordered evacuation of 28 persons living in two buildings adjacent to the collapsed structure.

Blast In Corregidor Kills 21 Filipinos

MANILA, March 29 (AP) — "Booby trapped" ammunition exploded in the depths of the rocky island fortress of Corregidor, killing 21 Filipinos, and the Philippine army today blamed Japanese troops for rigging the devices during the war.

Fifteen Philippine soldiers and six civilian laborers were killed—none of whom had been authorized to enter the sealed tunnel in which the Saturday blasts occurred, Brig. Gen. Calixto Duque announced. One injured soldier was rescued. The tunnel, used as a shelter by U. S. naval personnel in early days of the war, was sealed after Americans recaptured Corregidor in 1945.

Investigators found "plenty of unburned powder from Japanese ammunition strewn around," and said it was too dangerous to explore the tunnel further.

Girl, 9, Leads In Prayers For Peace

VALLEY STREAM, N. Y., Mar. 29 (AP)—A nine-year-old girl stood on the stage of the high school auditorium last night and led more than 1,000 persons in a community prayer for peace.

A line at a time, they chanted after her:

"We beseech thee, O living Father, teach our minds to think, help our hearts to feel, make our bodies act, that peace shall prevail. Amen."

A Protestant clergyman and a Rabbi participated in the three-hour service, planned by various groups in this Long Island village of 20,000 as the start of a world-wide movement for peace.

Copies of the prayer were mimeographed in ten languages and will be sent to friends and relatives overseas.

Attempted Holdup At Church Is Failure

BERKLEY, Calif., March 29 (AP) The congregation at the Portuguese Assembly of God church convinced two strangers that an Easter service was no place for a holdup.

Six Named In Drunk Driving

Six charges of drunk driving were filed this morning in Lubbock county court, one of them mirroring a personal injury collision, officials announced.

In the meantime, police investigators said, they were still seeking to learn identity of the driver of a car in which Loyd Overbay, 19, of 220 Thirty-first was riding early Saturday night. The driver disappeared after the car had collided with a parked truck, causing injuries that required amputation of the right arm of Overbay at the elbow, then bounced off and struck another machine. Overbay's shock had not permtited them to ask him who the driver was, police said.

Charges Filed

O. M. Beck, 59, of Lubbock, posted $500 bond conditioning trial appearance on a drunk driving charge filed in connection with a Saturday night collision in which A. M. Hightower, 63, of Lubbock route 5, suffered three broken ribs. Beck pleaded innocent.

Clarence Bryant, a negro, also was placed under $500 bond on a drunk driving charge, after pleading innocent.

Fines of $50 and court costs were assessed against the following others, who pleaded guilty of drunk driving: Rubio Ignaicio, 35; Roy E. Newman, 18; Mary Grayson, 22, of Tahoka, and Hiawatha Bonner, 32, a negro.

A fine of $100 and court costs were assessed against Jack Baucom, about 40, charged with liquor law violation.

Tire Marks Are Slaying Clues

PATERSON, N. J., March 29. (AP) A series of fresh tire marks gave police their major clue today in the search for the slayer of attractive, blonde Mrs. Sarah Donohue, a Paterson policeman's wife, whose nearly nude body was found in a vacant lot yesterday morning.

Police said the tire marks were found on a little-used road near the lot where Mrs. Donohue's battered body was found by a railroad gateman walking to work. The body may have been thrown from a car into the thick underbrush, police said.

Husband Questioned

The slain woman was the wife of Radio Patrolman Timothy J. Donohue, 39. The husband said he last saw her at 8 p. m. Saturday when she left the house for a visit to her cousin, Mrs. Edna De Rosa. The cousin said Mrs. Donohue, who was 39, never got there.

Acting Detective Captain Charles McGrath said Patronmen Donohue was being questioned at police headquarters. McGrath said the questioning was merely routine.

The slain woman bore fingermarks around her neck, but McGrath said police were waiting for an autopsy report to determine whether she had been raped and how she died.

The Donohues, who had been married for 17 years, had no children.

Stock Market

TRENDS ARE INDECISIVE

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP) — Indecisive trends ruled in today's stock market with both bids and offers on the timid side throughout.

Scattered coppers and industrials made good headway. Prices inclined to edge forward here and there after midday. Gains of fractions to a point or so persisted at the close but losses of as much were widespread. Variations, on the whole, were small.

Dealings quieted at intervals after the opening. Transfers were in the vicinity of 900,000 shares following five successive full sessions in which the million-mark was topped.

American Tobacco "B" hit bottom for 1948. Laggards most of the time included Southern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, International Harvester, Pepsi-Cola, Reynolds Tobacco "B", Allied Chemical, Du Pont and Mission Corp.

Kennecott was an isolated strong spot, touching a high for the year. Resistant were Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Anaconda, Phelps Dodge, Boeing, Canadian Pacific, Deere, U. S. Gypsum and Eastern Air Lines.

Market operations were restricted to a certain extent by a strike of financial employes which had been long threatened. While both the stock exchange and curb were heavily picketed, brokers described the situation as "more or less normaly . . ."

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP) — Cotton futures were firm in active dealings today. Heavy trade buying in the old crop months featured the market, with the buying credited partly to export business, possibly for China and Germany.

Further short covering and outside buying were stimulated by prospects that the House would pass the foreign aid bill by mid-week and that the measure would be finally enacted by early April. There was a good deal of switching from May into later months, with certificated cotton stocks moving up to a new high of 99,838 bales.

Futures closed 90 cents to $2.60 a bale higher than the previous close.

BAYER ASPIRIN

RELIEVES ACHES AND PAINS OF COLDS

John L. Lewis

He named Mark Ethridge, publisher of the Louisville, Ky., Times and Courier-Journal, and George W. Taylor, who was chairman of the old War Labor Board.

Lewis added that Cyrus W. Ching, the government's top conciliator, "sees through the eyes of United States Rubber." Ching formerly was employed by that corporation.

Should Lewis ignore the subpoena, issued under authority of the Taft-Hartley labor law, the board may go to court for an order directing Lewis' appearance.

The soft coal operators testified last Friday on their position in the dispute with Lewis over pensions for miners. Lewis was allowed the entire weekend to reply to the board's invitation.

The invitation to testify was issued by Federal Judge Sherman Minton, chairman of the board set up by President Truman to investigate the walkout which is entering its third week.

A United States marshal was dispatched with the subpoena to the United Mine Workers headquarters, a few blocks away.

In his reply to the board, Lewis said in effect that the Taft-Hartley law, under which the board was appointed, had not been violated.

reasonable military preparations."

The pre-war military power of friendly nations must be restored, within five, 10 or 20 years, he added, so that "added to ou own it will spell defeat to any nation which dares to threaten the free government of any other nation."

Engel is chairman of an appropriations subcommittee through which all funds for the armed services are funneled.

The only military aid in the bill is $275,000,000 for Greece and Turkey and $150,000,000 for China.

For Economic Recovery

For 16 western European nations, there is a $5,300,000,000 economic recovery program. And there is $420,000,000 in economic help for China.

But supporters of the bill insist that Europe can't gain military strength until it gains economic strength, that once the 16 nations are sound and able to support themselves they can build up military power against the threat of Communism to the east.

In a speech prepared for House delivery today, Engel said he had come reluctantly and slowly to the decision that "our only chance for . . . immediate peace" is through restoration of the pre-war economic and military power of countries that believe in free government.

He said economic power that can't be defended by military power is not lasting.

Must Have Allies

The only possibility of war within 10 years is with Russia, he said, and:

"For America to win a war with Russia without European allies, European bases and European support approaches the impossible."

Engel put the manpower of the British, French and Belgian armed services at 1,883,500 on Jan. 1, 1947 and that of Russia at an estimated 3,650,000.

Methodist Men Hear Discussion Of Music

Outlining some of his experiences with music and its effects on people in varying circumstances, particularly nerve-wrecked and physically maimed victims of war, William A. Harrod, director of the Lubbock Symphony, spoke at the luncheon of the Methodist Men's club today at Hotel Lubbock.

His subject was "Music and Christianity," and he believes that music exerts great influence on an individual, if properly used. Regarding church attendance, Harrod believes that the individual must be in the attitude of "giving rather than receiving" to get maximum benefit.

Following his talk Harrod, accompanied by Mrs. Mamie I. Neal at the piano, played Adoration, Were You There When They Crucified My Lord, and The Lost Chord.

He was introduced by Clarence Whiteside, club president. Invocation was by John C. Reynolds.

Crosby Negro Freed In Liquor Law Case

CROSBYTON, March 29. (Special)—A county court jury of which H. W. Taylor, jr., was foreman, acquitted W. R. (Slim) Woods, a Crosby county negro, of liquor law violation, by a verdict returned Friday.

On an earlier trial of the case, Feb. 20, Woods had been adjudged guilty and fined $2,000 and ordered to serve six months in county jail. The state charged that he, when arrested Jan. 15, was in possession of seven cases of wine, nine cases of beer and one case of whisky.

S. P. Boling, of the Lubbock law firm of Smith, Cunningham and Boling, obtained a new trial after a motion charging reversible error on the part of the state. He represented Woods Friday.

Dep. Sheriff Foy Addison is expected to go before the next grand jury and give evidence of Woods' alleged offer of a bribe to the officer at the time of the arrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Goode will return to Prescott Wednesday.

White Wins Houston Invitational Title

HOUSTON, March 29 (AP)—Ed White held the Houston County club invitational golf tournament title again today, the result of a 1-up decision over John Barnum, Chicago, yesterday.

White sank a 30-foot putt on the 37th hole to win the title.

It was a repeat performance of the 1936 tournament when White won over Barnum on a 1-up decision in 20-holes.

Burglars

could not be seen from the outside of the store, police found.

Police and the sheriff's department were investigating several other weekend offenses, including another reported burglary, a negro stabbing case, a case wherein one negro claimed another doused him with lye water, thefts, and several reports of drunk driving.

Mrs. H. O. Jones of 511 Sixteenth reported that her residence was entered and that a watch and a camera were taken.

Negro Is Stabbed

Herman Mitchell, described as an Acuff negro, was stabbed. A negro woman, Leeana Walton, 33, and the mother of seven children, told officials the man, with whom she admitted "living with" since late November, advanced upon her in 400-block Seventeenth with a knife and that she cut him to protect herself. He was taken to two hospitals and then jailed, police said.

Thieves with an eye to beauty revisited Baker Bros. nursery Sunday night and took $44.50 worth of shrubbery, M. L. King reported. King said $26 worth of shrubbery had been removed there Wednesday night. A total of 14 shrubs was missing from the two forays, he told the sheriff's department.

Billfold Is Stolen

Mrs. Billy D. Stone of Amarillo said a billfold containing $30, a social security card and other properties had been stolen from a bowling alley here. Two suspects were described to police.

Amie McNeil, 38, a negro, was held for the county and a possible aggravated assault charge after Sam Davis, another negro, had complained of lye water having been tossed on him as he attempted to enter his residence.

A new tarpaulin valued at $54 and another "tarp" were reported stolen from Jim Rice of 2706 Twenty-seventh.

Police said they had surrendered custody of two Littlefield men, 22 and 34, to Littlefield authorities, who will investigate a car theft case.

Police said they had been asked to investigate the alleged "chasing of women who get off the bus at Fourth and Ave Q," by boys described as about 16.

MRS. MINNIE HOLLIS

WHITTIER HOME-OWNER THANKS RETONGA FOR REGAINED STRENGTH

Three In Her Family Have Taken Famous Medicine And Found It Grand, States Mrs. Hollis. Tells About Her Case.

"Three in our family have taken Retonga, and I think it's the grandest medicine I ever heard of," happily declares Mrs. Minnie Hollis, well-known home-owner of 140 South Redman St., Whittier, Calif., in adding her name to the thousands praising this famous medicine.

"I suffered so much I felt like going to bed and staying there," declares Mrs. Hollis. "Food just seemed to lay in my stomach for hours and form gas until I felt perfectly miserable. I didn't dare eat a fair sized meal, and I had to quit coffee, fried foods, and a lot of other things like Chile, cabbage, and vegetable salads. I felt toxic from constipation, I suffered from bad headaches, and a severe pain would often start in my fingers and run clear up my arm to my shoulder. Nearly every night seemed a week long because I couldn't sleep. I reckon I took a barrel of baking soda for sour stomach, and I felt so badly all the time I just wanted to sit down and stay there.

"My daughter got me to take Retonga, and in just a few days I felt greatly relieved. I don't feel any more discomfort from gas, sour stomach, or headaches, and I sleep soundly all night. The constipation and muscular pains are also relieved, and I feel lots stronger and have more pep. Retonga is grand."

The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, and combined with liberal quantities of Vitamin B-1. It is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Mark Halsey Drug Stores and all other good drug stores.—Adv.

Harbert Wins Open In Dramatic Finish

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 29 (AP) — When golfer Chick Harbert's second daughter was born 11 weeks ago her daddy stuck close to home, passing up several tournaments until all was well.

Today the 33-year-old Detroiter had pocketed his second $2,000 check in two weeks as further insurance that the young lady and her 17-month-old sister will be well supplied with things gals of that age require.

One Stroke Edge

The 1947 PGA championship runnerup with the silver-streaked hair won the $510,000 Charlotte open yesterday with a 70-71 finish for 273 and a one-stroke edge over Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn.

In one of the most dramatic finishes of the winter tour, the two, playing together in the last threesome of the final wnter event before next week's Augusta Masters, came down to the last hole with the issue in doubt.

They had started the final 18 all square at 202, two strokes ahead of Lawson Little, the Cleveland veteran. Little checked in with 276 for third place and the battle was strictly between Middlecoff and Harbert.

The long-driving Harbert, after pulling away to a three-stroke lead with an outgoing 35, one under par, lost two of those strokes on the next eight holes.

He Needed Birdie

As they teed off for the final time Middlecoff needed a birdie on the short 18th against a par for Harbert to tie for the second straight year. He beat George Schoux, Mamaroneck, N. Y., in a playoff last season.

Harbert's last drive overshot the green to the left of the pin, bouncing into the crowd and finally rolling down to within 10 feet of the edge of the green.

Middlecoff then drove a beauty to within 15 feet of the pin. He had his birdie set up. The next move was Harbert's.

Chick slapped the ball neatly to less than three feet from the pin and the pressure was back on Cary. His putt went for the cup and stopped — two inches and $600 away. He tapped it in for his 274th stroke.

Calmly Sinks Putt

Harbert then calmly sank the winning putt that gave him $2,000 and gave $1,400 runnerup money to Middlecoff.

Amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, muscled into a three-man group at 278. Professionals Clayton Heafner of Charlotte and Toney Penna, Cincinnati, joined him at that mark to win $750 each.

Tied for sixth money were Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago; Herman Keiser, Akron, Ohio, and Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa. Each had 279 for $516.66.

Official Play Starts This Week In SWC

(By The Associated Press)

Southwest conference baseball teams start playing for keeps this week and defending champion Texas is on the spot to repeat.

The Longhorns open conference play Friday with traditional rival Texas A. and M. at College Station. They tune up for this engagement with a pair of games with Oklahoma university at Austin today and tomorrow.

Baylor rates next best to the Longhorns and a duplicate of last year's race might be unfolded.

Baylor and Rice open the conference season Thursday at Waco. Friday these two teams meet again and Texas Christian tangles with Southern Methodist at Fort Worth. The second game of this series will be played Saturday.

Three teams — Baylor, Texas Christian and Texas—have the best records in non-conference play to date. Each has won five games and lost one.

Besides the five conference games this week there is a good share of non-conference tilts.

Rice plays Stephen F. Austin at Houston Tuesday and the same day Southern Methodist meets Nebraska at Dallas.

Baylor and Buffalo of the American association play Saturday at Waxahachie.

Decline In Wildlife Is Believed Checked

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The decline of wild ducks and geese in recent years apparently has been checked, the Fish and Wildlife service said today.

But sportsmen need not expect more liberal hunting regulations.

"The continental waterfowl population apparently hit the bottom of the decline and leveled off," said service Director Albert M. Day in a statement.

"It looks as though we have about the same number of birds this year as last year.

"Although the situation is encouraging compared wit hthe last three years, there is little hope of relaxing hunting regulations for 1948.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Manager Jackie Sullivan should be a little happier today, after the acquisition of two men who can help him. Chick Fowler is a smooth outfielder and valuable hitter, while George Schepps swears that Walker will be a better catcher than Mike Dooley before the season is half over. He readily grants that he will be inferior at first, but he also says that when Walker starts hitting, he will make fans forget the popular Mike. Walker is a line drive slugger and has one of the strongest throwing arms in the game. If he had had more experience, Dallas would have kept him this year.

Acquisition of Fowler strengthens the outfield to an extent where it may boast the most powerful array of throwing arms and batting eyes in the league. Frank Boothe from the Kitty League has been so impressive in spring training that even the usual taciturn Jackie has been voluble. Jackie believes that Boothe will come mighty close to being a second Bill Serena, which brings joy to this community. Of course the third fielder is not certain at this time, but it might well be Zeke Wilemon and enough is said.

We've had many inquiries about Bill Henderson and J. D. Kirkpatrick, the Levelland and Petersburg boys who turned professional not so long ago. We haven't heard from them directly, but Bert Kahn received his second letter Saturday and we're happy to report that they are both well and apparently beginning to work hard. After four days in the Hotel Edison in New York, the fighters finally moved to Cliffside Park, N. J., where they joined Manager Joe Vella's retinue of boxers on Thursday. They immediately began their training.

Bill, who is the writer for the two, says that they took time out to stop in Stillman's gym, while they were in the city. There they saw Sonny Horne, who fights Graziano April 6 in Washington, D. C., Beau Jack, Tony Janiro, Lou Oma, Harold Green and others, all of whom are "names" in the fight world. Bill, possibly with tongue in cheek, writes that they don't look like any supermen.

They also took in the Golden Gloves finals between the New York and Chicago teams, but fail to go into any detail about the bouts. Bill says he was looked at so much—and asked so many crazy questions—that he finally quit wearing his boots! He writes that one of these days he is going to spread a few tall tales in keeping with some of the questions he is asked. If any area sportsmen would like to get in touch with the two men, they may be reached at 698 Palisade Avenue, Cliffside Park, N. J.

THE ROUNDUP: Lockney is going to sponsor bouts there this weekend and a large turnout is anticipated . . . The Tech track team has recessed for the Easter holidays, but will be in Austin this week end . . . Only six nights from tonight and the Hubbers will open their home exhibition schedule . . . A good spot for some coach would be at Sundown, where Coach Hunt has resigned . . . That was a good crowd that Plainview had for the fights Friday and Saturday. And the bouts were in keeping with the crowd . . . Ken Kirkpatrick lost a final-round decision, but was balked in his effort to meet Jimmy Forbes of Brownfield, when Forbes lost his opening round fight . . . The Hubbers were strengthened by Odessa team members for their game Sunday with the Wichita Falls Spudders.

Player's Injured Knee Holds Fate Of Second Olympics Trip

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 29 —Ralph Bishop's chances of becoming the only basketball player ever to represent the United States in two Olympiads rested today on the damaged left knee of Vince Boryla.

Bishop, only collegian on the American team which won the Olympic basketball title in 1936, now coaches the Denver Nuggets, one of the two AAU teams left in the current Olympic tryouts.

The 32-year-old former University of Washington star would automatically be named U. S. Olympic cage coach if his team should win the tryouts at Madison Square Garden.

Two Tough Games

But the Nuggets have two tough hills to climb before they can achieve that distinction. In the first semi-final game at 7 p. m., tonight they meet the Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla.

Then, should they score an upset over Bartlesville, they would have to stop the winners of tonight's other semi-final game between Kentucky and Baylor in the Olympic final Wednesday night.

Right now, Bishop's major worry is the condition of Boryla's knee, injured in the last 20 seconds of Denver's 57-55 triumph over the Oakland Bittners in the quarter-finals Saturday.

Boryla, former Notre Dame star, who plans to return to South Bend next season, was the star of Denver's Saturday conquest, scoring 21 points before he hurt his knee in trying to protect a two-point lead.

The other semi-final tonight sends Kentucky against Baylor in a repeat performance of their final battle in the NCAA eliminations which Kentucky won, 58-42.

Close Baylor Decision

Baylor turned in a close 59-57 decision over New York university Saturday, with Jimmy Owen firing the winning basket only 45 seconds before the end if the game.

Kentucky sped into the semi-finals Saturday night, eliminating Louisiville, 91-57, in a game that found the champions of the Kansas City NAIB tournament completely outclassed.

The 14 players who will make up the U. S. Olympic squad at London will be selected after Wednesday night's final but may not be announced until the following day. Five players will be named from each team in the final, with two others to be selected at large from each of the two brackets in the tryouts.

Junior AAU Fights To Start Tonight

KANSAS CITY, March 29 (AP)—Ninety-seven amateurs weighed in today for the opening of the national junior A. A. U. boxing championships starting in municipal auditorium tonight.

The tournament gained two new teams last night in Amarillo, Tex., and Wichita, Kas. Both teams previously had been denied representation in the junior nations. The Amarillo and Wichita entries were approved by W. T. Downing, Lynn, Mass., national A. A. U. boxing chairman.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 29. (U.P.)—Paul Lehner, colorful outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, will be lost to his team for about six weeks as a result of an injury suffered in a pre-game practice, it was revealed today.

The Browns beat the Sox, 10 to 4.

INDIANS BEAT CUBS

LOS ANGELES, March 29. (U.P.) —The Cleveland Indians sported their sixth straight exhibition game victory today after posting a 7 to 5 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Richardson's Blow Wins For Dallas

DALLAS, March 29 (U.P.) — The Dallas Rebels have served notice on other Texas league teams that they will be tough this season.

The Rebels today were undefeated in spring exhibition games. They romped to a 9-to-7 victory Sunday over the Milwaukee Brewers at Dallas.

It took the Rebs 10 innings to keep their string intact. Trailing one run in the tenth, Dallas iced the game when pinch hitter Virgil Richardson hit a Texas leaguer to tally the leing and winning runs.
