Fifteen Are Killed In Texas Violence Over The Weekend

(By The Associated Press)

At least 15 people died violently in Texas during the weekend. Six were killed in a single traffic crash Friday night on a misty highway between Canyon and Amarillo.

The latest weekend death reported was that of George Brongel, 59, of the Oak Hill community near San Antonio. He was fatally injured when a car hit him late last night.

Two In Plane Crash

Two died in the crash of an airplane Sunday afternoon into Possum Kingdom lake, about 14 miles south of Graham. The weekend violent death toll begins at 6 p. m. Friday.

A. B. Outland, 20, student at Paris junior college, was killed Sunday night in a traffic accident four miles west of Rockwall.

The dead in the Friday night crash are:

Miss Dorinda Bond, journalism instructor at Amarillo high school; her mother, Mrs. Icie Bond; Robert Clayton Lacy, Amarillo high school senior; Carolyn Kelly, Amarillo high school senior; Audie R. T. Chandler of Plainview; and Earl James Bolton, also of Plainview.

In San Antonio a 28-year-old man was shot four times and bludgeoned to death with a can of tomatoes Saturday afternoon, police said.

The bullet torn body of Elbert Langston, 22, Houston, was found

Pickets Jeer Final Session In New York

Russian Delegate Says His People Want Only Peace

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 28 — With a promise to continue its work in the future and with a salvo of praise for Soviet "peace" aims, the controversial "world peace" conference has ended.

The three-day meeting of the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace closed last night. Some 18,700 persons jammed madison Square Garden to cheer its last session — but other thousands picketed and jeered outside.

Praise For Soviet

Speakers at the session, called a "unite for world peace" rally, struck a general note of praise for Soviet "peace" aspirations — asserting that leaders of the U.S.S.R. are anti-war and anxious for global peace.

Outside the Garden, a police-estimated crowd of 2,000 pickets milled about as the rally opened. They carried placards assailing the conference and chanted slogans charging it was Communist-dominated.

The U. S. State department had described the affair as a sounding board for Communist propaganda. Sponsors of the meeting, the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, have denied the charge.

Counter-Rallies Held

Counter-rallies and anti-Communist protest groups denounced the conference, and almost constant picketing went on while it held its sessions at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, Carnegie Hall and the Garden.

As the affair ended, delegates stamped approval on resolutions that call for strengthening the United Nations, cooperating with peace movements throughout the world and bringing to the attention of United States governmental arms the decisions of the conferees.

A special action committee was set up to consider specific recommendations to carry out the resolutions. Dr. Allen M. Butler, of the Harvard medical school, a member of this group, said it would meet today.

Wins Loud Applause

A. A. Fadeyev, chief Russian delegate and noted Soviet author, won loud applause from the Garden's capacity audience last night with an assertion that "our country, the Soviet union, stands for

Ministers Of Europe On Way To Washington

Italian Count In U. S. Week Early For Big Ceremony

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 28 — Count Carlos Sforza of Italy today led the parade of foreign ministers converging on Washington to sign the North Atlantic security pact.

Sforza flew to New York one week ahead of the time when 10 to 12 foreign ministers are scheduled to sign the treaty that would link their nations into a tight defensive alliance.

The foreign ministers of four other countries, Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg, meanwhile neared the United States aboard the liner Queen Mary to be on hand for the occasion.

A second batch of foreign ministers, headed by Robert Schuman of France, is scheduled to reach the United States by plane Thursday and Friday.

Has Confidence Vote

Sforza came to the United States backed up by a vote of confidence in the Italian Senate which yesterday voted 188-112 to permit Italy to join the Atlantic security alliance.

Sforza's early arrival time aroused speculation that he intends to discuss some strictly Italian problems with the State department. These would include Italy's oft-repeated desire to keep her former African colonies under United Nations trusteeship.

Joseph C. Satterthwaite, director of the State department's office of Near Eastern and African affairs, touched on the colony issue last night. He said in a radio roundtable that the U. S. believes Italy should be allowed to help administer one of these—Somaliland—under a U. N. trusteeship.

Extension For 15 Months Set By Conferees

Congress Is Given Go Signal Before Expiration Of Act

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 28 — Senate-House conferees agreed today on a 15-month rent control extension bill requiring a "fair net operating income" for landlords.

The agreement clears the way for House and Senate action on a new rent control law before the present law expires Thursday at midnight.

Quick Action Is Due

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, said the compromise bill will be brought up in the Senate as soon as a draft of the agreement is put in shape.

The provision requiring a "fair net operating income" for landlords is the one the Senate insisted on for handling possible rent increases. The House conferees rejected it Saturday. That caused a deadlock over the weekend.

Sections Tossed Out

Adoption of that provision tosses out:

1. The section in the Senate bill which provided for some rent increases up to 10 per cent.

2. The provision in the House bill which required the government to fix rent ceilings at a level to assure landlords a "reasonable return on the reasonable value" of their property.

The measure, as finally agreed on, is considerably short of what President Truman had asked for. He wanted a 24 months extension of controls and a tightened law.

Made No Criticism

However, congressional leaders said Mr. Truman made no criticism of the bill, as it was shaping up, when they had their weekly conference with him this forenoon.

The proposed compromise measure would extend federal rent controls 15 months through June 30, 1950. But it also contains a broad "home rule" decontrol provision. Under it, states, cities, towns and villages could junk rent curbs anytime if the state governor approved.

Revision Is Demanded

The Senate conferees were in an adamant mood in demanding that the House group agree to revise a section of the House bill designed to assure landlords a "reasonable return on reasonable value" of their property.

The senators want to provide instead for a "fair net operating in-

LEWIS ENDS WORK STOPPAGE

Coal Miners Begin Returning To Pits

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, March 28 — Nearly a half-million members of the United Mine workers east of the Mississippi began returning to the pits today.

They acted on orders of John L. Lewis, blunt-talking and quick-acting president of the UMW who called a two-week work stoppage March 14.

As the deadline for the return-to-work movement was reached at 12:01 a. m. (EST) today, the few mines having midnight shifts reported "operations normal."

By the end of the day all 463,000 miners who quit at Lewis' orders were expected to be on the job. Throughout the soft and hard coal fields UMW lieutenants were unanimous that Lewis' orders would be followed to the letter.

Wage Loss Estimated

Among the first major mines reporting midnight shifts coming in full-strength was the Isabella mine near Brownsville in Fayette county, Pa. A spokesman for Wierton Coal Corp., owner of the captive pit, said about 150 men—the normal working crew—showed up to earn their first pay in two weeks.

Throughout the coal-producing states the picture was the same at midnight. Mines which don't operate at night got ready for the early-morning shifts. Fire bosses and maintenance men went into the pits to check safety requirements. And, in some states including Pennsylvania, special safety inspectors had been completed.

Everything was ready for the miners to start earning money again. A spokesman for the Western Pennsylvania Coal Operators association estimated the miners lost $55,000,000 in wages during their two weeks of idleness.

Lewis called the stoppage as a protest against Dr. James Boyd's appointment as director of the U. S. bureau of mines. He also termed it a memorial to miners

Sad Sack Private Learns His Lesson

DALLAS, March 28. (U.P.)— There's a moral to this story but Pvt. J. M. Kirby of Camp Stoneman, Calif., wouldn't admit it today.

Kirby, on furlough, was waiting for a train at Union terminal when a tall man approached and asked him to "change" a large bill.

The soldier pulled 12 one dollar bills from his pocket and was counting out the "change" when the man grabbed the money and fled.

Kirby told police bitterly that he would never offer to "change" another large bill for a stranger.

Fire Damages Tech Building

A fire in the agricultural engineering building at Texas Technological college and two emergency runs this morning had given Lubbock firemen an exciting weekend.

The fire-fighting equipment was called to the college campus at 7:58 o'clock Sunday morning after a fire in the tool and supply room of the agricultural engineering building was discovered. Fire Chief Twitty estimated that the fire had burned two to three hours before discovery.

Emergency Runs Made

Fire damage was confined to the tool and supply room and the lumber loft above it, although smoke damage occurred in other parts of the building, said Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department. He estimated damage to machines and the building at "several thousand dollars" although a survey was still in progress to determine extent of damage to machines and wiring.

A midnight emergency run to Levelland was made by Fire Chief W. E. Twitty Saturday night to carry a respirator to Phillips-Dupre hospital and a heart-attack victim, R. S. Craddock. Levelland observers said that Chief Twitty arrived in Levelland, a distance of 30 miles from Lubbock, 21 minutes after the call for the equipment was placed.

Johnson New Defense Chief

WASHINGTON, March 28 (AP)— Louis Johnson was sworn in today as Secretary of Defense in the most elaborate installation of a cabinet officer the capital has ever seen.

Johnson, a 58-year-old Clarksburg, W. Va., attorney, succeeded James V. Forrestal, a New York banker. Forrestal had held the office since it was created by passage of the armed services unification act in June, 1947.

The swearing-in ceremony, colorful with military pomp, was held in the open five-acre center court of the Pentagon.

Oath Administered

The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Fred W. Vinson before a crowd estimated at about 15,000.

Mrs. Johnson sat in the front row of spectators, appearing very proud and smiling. She was clad in a blue suit, fur neckpiece and a pre-Easter bonnet of blue straw. She wore a single yellow orchid. With her was Mrs. Perle Mesta, well known Washington hostess, who worked closely with Johnson during the political campaign.

In the audience were members of the cabinet, including Attorney General Clark, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, Secretary of Interior Krug. There also was a large delegation from the American Legion which Johnson at one

Vicious Winds Spell Death To 29; Hundreds Left Homeless

(By The United Press)

TUPELO, Miss., March 28.— Tornadoes and windstorms that have turned the week-old spring season into a nightmare for states from the Gulf coast to Missouri today claimed a weekend toll of 29 dead and an estimated 150 injured.

Other hundreds were homeless. Property damage from the vicious, whirling winds ran into inestimable thousands.

The hopping, skipping storms began as early as Thursday night and by today had paid destructive, death-dealing visits to Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Missouri.

Highest Death Toll

Arkansas suffered the highest death toll. A dozen communities in the southern and east-central portion of the state, from England and Scott to Little Rock, were shaken by the storms. They left 17 dead and at least 65 injured.

The last and one of the most violent twisters hit Belden and Chesterfield, Miss., near here Saturday night, killing three persons and injuring 20. That brought Mississippi's total to nine dead and more than 50 hurt.

A thursday tornado killed six negroes in the plantation area near Greenville, Miss.

The general appeared a little pale and shaky.

Ike told reporters that when he feels better later he hopes to have the joint chiefs of staff come down for a weekend talk with him.

Youth Charged With Murder Feared Gossip About Affair

(By The Associated Press)

MILWAUKEE, March 28.—Milton Babich, 19, faced arraignment today on a charge that he murdered Patricia Birmingham, 16, about five weeks before he eloped with her sister.

Dist. Atty. William McCauley quoted Babich as saying Patricia was killed because he feared she would tell her parents that her sister, Kathleen, 17, was pregnant.

Chief Defense Counsel Arthur Richter said Babich will demand preliminary hearing and will plead innocent to the first degree murder charge.

McCauley said Babich signed a lengthy statement Saturday in which he admitted killing Patricia, Feb. 10, the day she disappeared on her way home from school.

Signing Denied

Richter said Babich told him he had made the statements attributed to him in the document, but denied he had signed it.

Babich and Kathleen were on the third day of their honeymoon, March 21, when Patricia's body was found by firemen who were dragging the Milwaukee river for a suicide victim.

The pretty, suburban West Allis high school girl had been shot twice through the head and a concrete building block was tied to her feet.

The statement released by McCauley gave this version of the slaying:

Babich picked Patricia up at a West Allis intersection the afternoon of Feb. 10. He drove to a secluded spot, and told the girl

Eisler's Case In High Court

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)— Gerhart Eisler, alien Communist, today brought to the Supreme court his legal battle to kill the House committee on un-American activities.

The committee called Eisler "The No. 1 Communist in the United States." Now Eisler wants the Supreme court to declare unconstitutional the law establishing the committee. Further, he asks a ruling that the committee has no constitutional authority to compel any witness to testify.

May Escape Sentence

If Eisler wins the Supreme court to his views, he will escape serving a sentence of a year in jail and $1,000 fine for contempt of Congress. He was convicted of contempt on a government assertion that he refused to be sworn as a witness when called before the committee Feb. 6, 1947.

The Justice department called Eisler's attack on the committee "preposterous."

Supreme court justices set aside two hours (during the afternoon) to hear arguments by attorneys for Eisler and by Justice department lawyers.

"Big Stink" Raised In Amarillo Today

AMARILLO, March 28. (U.P.)— Amarillo gas customers, apparently figuring that turnabout is fair play, set up an awful stink today with their utility company.

The gas company had done the same thing to the customers a short time before.

A malodorous substance was inadvertently turned into the natural gas mains serving the city. Housewives and industrial users alike "suffered" from stinking fumes whenever they turned on gas jets.

Telephone trunks to the gas company were overloaded with calls of protest. The utility firm took emergency radio time during the noon hour to assure its customers that the unpleasant odor would not harm them and that the obnoxious flow through the gas mains had been arrested.

Thefts Are Reported

Several thefts also were reported.

A light tan 1948 Chrysler New Yorker, license AT 1275, was reported stolen from the garage of Bill Mead, at 2801 Twenty-eighth.

C. E. Pendley of East Broadway said a chrome motor meter wheel and a side mirror, total value $8, were taken from his car.

Swaggering Holdup Suspect Charged

New York Man To Plead Self Defense In Fatal Shooting

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 28.— A swaggering holdup suspect, accused of slaying a policeman and wounding two others, told questioners yesterday: "I'm going to plead self defense. What the hell, the cops were shooting at me."

The prisoned, Dominick Sanantonio, 22, an unemployed shipping clerk, was charged with homicide, assault and robbery, and violation of the Sullivan (anti-weapons) law.

Later, Magistrate John A. Dwyer told the defendant in Queens felony court:

"The people will prosecute his case to the bitter end. You may wind up in the electric chair."

He is accused of slaying Patrolman Anthony Oethemer, 29, who was shot in a subway station. The two wounded policemen, both recovering, are Patrolmen Edward Gianattasio, 24, and Nicholas Maggio, 28.

Police say Sanantonio fired at Oetheimer when the policeman went to a subway station checking on a holdup alarm. Oetheimer was hit in the

Huge Omelet Would Fill Tech Stadium

More Than Four Million Eggs Received In City Each Week

If all the eggs consumed in Lubbock each week were to be made into one huge omelet it would fill the Texas Tech stadium.

More than 11,500 cases containing some 4,140,000 eggs are brought to this city each week, according to figures in the office of D. W. Sherrill, Lubbock county agent. These eggs are consumed in homes, cafes and for manufacturing purposes.

That tremendous number of eggs represents a lot of "hen-hours" of labor. For the mathematically inclined, it figures to about 62 eggs for every man, woman and child in Lubbock using recent population figures released by the Chamber of Commerce. So far none has been found who has claimed or eaten his share of the breakfast fruit although there are many who devour a large amount.

It would be safe to assume that Lubbockites are getting some help in stowing away all of these eggs and its a good indication of the trade enjoyed from the metropolitan area. Only 20 per cent of these eggs

Bills For Medical Schools At Dallas, San Antonio Pass House

AUSTIN, March 28. (U.P.)—Two proposals appropriating $4,500,000 to set up medical schools at Dallas and San Antonio were passed today by the House in defiance of a cautious spending policy voiced by appropriations leaders.

The action overturned an earlier stand by the House, when it refused to suspend rules necessary to bring up three spending measures.

The proposals passed by the House and sent to the Senate would appropriate $3,500,000 to create a southwestern medical branch of the University of Texas at Dallas, and a $1,000,000 bill to set up a similar branch at San Antonio.

Attempt Fails

But supporters of a plan to spend $1,000,000 to convert Lamar junior college at Beaumont into a four-year state Technological college at Beaumont failed in an attempt to bring up their bill for final action.

The vote on rules suspension for the Beaumont measure, 102-27, was only two votes shy of the four-fifths majority necessary to consider the proposal on final passage.

It was passed to third reading, and now stands ready for final action.

The House action on the two medical school proposals followed by less than an hour the lower chamber's refusal to put each of the three bills up for final passage.

Passage of the two measures represented a defeat for spokesmen of a cautious spending policy, who urged that each of the plans be postponed until the four major appropriations bills have been passed.

It was also a slap at Senate leaders who wish to trim all major appropriations in half and hold up action on other spending bills.

Vote on final passage of the Dallas bill was 113 to 21, and 117-20 on the San Antonio plan.

Man, 73, Gets His Last Wish With Band Playing At Funeral

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., March 28 (AP)—Albert W. Parsons got his last wish. A 22-piece brass band played at his funeral yesterday.

Before the 73-year-old grocer and real estate man died last Friday, he asked that his funeral be a time of happiness—not of sorrow.

He requested that a brass band play at his funeral. His widow, Clementine, carried out the wish.

As the Rev. Harry Grimes conducted funeral services in Central Congregational church, the band softly played "America The Beautiful," "Humoresque" and "Semper Fidelis."

Outside the church "The Thunderer" and other Sousa marches were played as mourners walked to their cars.

"Nearer My God To Thee" was played as the casket was lowered into the grave at Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Parsons said her husband had felt death meant he was going to a better world, and that he believed his survivors should be happy instead of sad.

New "Diplomat" Impresses Americans

British Worker, Unswayed By U. S. Luxury, To Return Home

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., March 28.—The British labor government's most successful post-war export to America goes back home this week.

She's a new kind of diplomat—Ada Fishburn, a 24-year-old factory girl, daughter of a coal miner.

We've had her here on a one-month swap for an American girl who traded jobs with her for that period. The idea of the American girl was that an exchange of factory workers would help international understanding.

Unswayed By Luxury

And it has worked with Ada, the first British girl to come.

"Ask me to come back again and I won't say 'no'," she said.

She has probably been the most feted English woman to visit these shores since her own Queen Elizabeth, but as she says:

"I 'aven't let it go to me head. I said I wouldn't and I 'aven't."

Unswayed by America's luxurious indoor bathtubs and its robust outdoor manhood, she is returning content to the land and the lad she left behind her.

The land is the mine-pitted county of Durham near the Scottish border. And the lad is Ronnie Lancaster, her boy friend for many months. She said he wrote "and said he missed me."

It would have been very easy for Ada, a girl never had been away from home overnight, to have lost her head. She got a 24-karat welcome. She worked days at her factory job, but her nights have been a round of glamorous entertainment.

Worker Is Praised

"England never sent us a better ambassador," said her boss, Walter Simpson, president of the Duro Test corp. "She hasn't become spoiled in the least by her reception."

One reason is the unshakable personal dignity of this small, blue-eyed, fair-haired girl. She has enjoyed her cinderella role and is reconciled to the fact that midnight always strikes for cinderella.

Ada got $40 a week here compared to $15 at home. She is a top worker and had no difficulty keeping pace in an American factory. But she isn't sure whether the higher salary here meant she could live better.

"The food is dearer," she said, "but clothing costs much less. And the rents—I couldn't live with me family here. And how much do you pay for a doctor?"

Ada will leave something behind her, take something with her when she goes—a fair and fine exchange in human understanding between ordinary people working in peace.

41 Injured In Flash Fire At Hiroshima

HIROSHIMA, March 28 (AP) — Forty-one Japanese were injured yesterday in a flash fire that destroyed 155 homes and shops in this historic atom bombed city.

A small hospital also went up in flames. The blaze was brought under control two hours after it started.

Six Australian soldiers on leave in this, the first city to feel the atom bomb in World War II, pitched in and helped save the city, police said. No troops are garrisoned here.

Hiroshima police said the fire raced through a small wooden railway hospital where most of the injuries occurred. Then it spread to nearby small wooden structures which have sprung up since the bomb virtually destroyed the city in August, 1945.

An earlier incorrect report said 700 buildings had been destroyed.

Daffy Income Tax Returns In Season

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—This is the season for daffy income tax returns and internal revenue collector Harry Westover entered this one today.

Written on the back of a cocktail lounge napkin and signed "Goldie, San Diego," it read:

"My total earnings last year were $620. Withholding tax was $1.10. Where do we stand?

"If I owe you anything, holler—if you owe me anything, forget it."

LIGHT PAINTING HERE

SAN FRANCICO (U.P.)—A new era of "painting with light" is just around the corner, the Illuminating Engineering Society reports. The new development is made possible by combining fluorescent light sources of different colors. It is expected to be used in both public buildings and homes.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 56, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us:

"I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 268 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

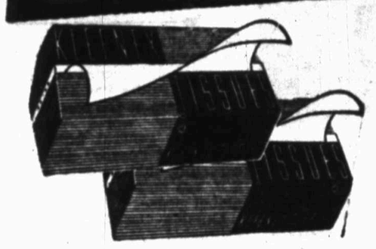

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 165 or 170 pounds."

Americans Aid Smuggling Ring In Operations Out Of Germany

By WILLIAM H. NEWTON
Special Correspondent

WIESBADEN, March 28 — A Huge smuggling ring has employed American soldiers and civilians to smuggle precision instruments, jewels and scarce metals out of Germany, according to high Air Force officials here.

Under arrest in Munich are seven Europeans charged with operating the racket there, although it "may have ramifications outside of Germany." One is a German, the other six are DP's.

In addition, some 35 Americans, including both soldiers and civilian employes of military government, are involved and about 15 of these are to be court-martialed.

Americans Escape

Several of the Americans involved have escaped to the United States. The Army apparently is powerless to bring them back to trial, lacking extradition authority.

One American government employe who is reported to have made over $40,000 in the racket now is living lavishly in Philadelphia.

The racket was worked largely by DP's who hired Americans to smuggle goods into France, Italy and Switzerland and paid them $500 a journey. American cars were fitted with secret compartments which were loaded with silver coins, cameras, precision instruments, ball bearings and other items.

The racket was discovered in January after an American Air Force sergeant reported to the air inspector general's office he had been solicited by members of the gang to carry contraband over the border in his car.

Disguised As Officers

Several American civilian employes disguised themselves as Army officers when they made illegal crossings. One civilian decked himself out as an Army colonel. A former Paraguayan diplomat offered his old diplomatic passport, called himself an ambassador and made several trips before he was caught. He claimed diplomatic immunity and escaped while his real status was being investigated.

High Air Force officials here say "we have only rounded up a few of the peanuts" in the smuggling gang, but they believed the arrests have broken up American participation.

"We think we know who the gang leader is, but we can't arrest him at this time," one official said.

The Army has evidence that the ring has international contacts and is well financed.

Even those Europeans who were caught red-handed in smuggling operations had their bail substantially reduced by military government courts in Munich and all are reported to be out on bail.

Cooperation Needed

"We are standing by with the evidence," an Air Force officer said. "When the trial is called—and if the culprits are still there—they will be convicted." He emphasized the word "if."

Many more could have been caught if United States authorities had been able to get co-operation from the Swiss. They refuse to disclose the names of persons who repeatedly have crossed the border from the American zone, or the names of several whose cars have been impounded by Swiss customs guards.

Absence of adequate regulations also makes a conviction difficult, authorities say. Now, new and stronger regulations are being written.

From now on, all allied nationals as well as Germans crossing the border will have their luggage and cars examined by German customs guards. Military personnel, formerly exempt, also will be required to submit to inspection.

Still lacking, however, is coordinated action by all of the many different allied agencies in Germany, real control of Rhine river traffic and direct authority over German customs police by American officers on the border.

Germans Given Authority

American authorities face a serious dilemma in the matter of authority over German police. The United States wants the Germans to run their own country in order to reduce heavy forces here.

So they have ordered the Germans to take over more and more functions of government and give them full authority. When the Germans fail, or are unable, to enforce their laws, then the Americans have to bring pressure on them by assigning military custom police with "advisory" and "observation" authority at border points.

The tangled situation is further complicated by the fact that many individuals and groups of individuals regard Germany as an enemy country and have no compunction about illegal acts against the German economy.

They engage in black market operations and openly defy arrest by the German police.

Cost of the vast smuggling operation, however, is borne not only by the Germans. It is borne by the American taxpayer who is footing the bill for rehabilitation of this war-wrecked country.

Irene Dunn Chosen To Receive Notre Dame's Laetare Medal

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 28. (AP)—Actress Irene Dunne has been chosen by the University of Notre Dame to receive its annual award as the outstanding member of Roman Catholic laity in America.

The 45-year-old film star will be the 67th American to receive the school's Laetare medal, first awarded in 1883. The 1948 medal went to Frank C. Walker, former postmaster general.

In announcing this year's winner, the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, university president, said:

Actress Is Example

"Miss Dunne is an example of talented Christian womanhood in a profession and community unfortunately publicized for the briefness of marriages and careers.

"She has never subordinated her conscience to her art, but from the outset of her career, has insisted on wholesome pictures.

"Through 15 years as a top-ranking star she has remained an exemplary wife and mother while winning the admiration and respect of high and low in the film industry and in the world at large."

Miss Dunne won last year's award by the National Conference of Christians and Jews for distinguished service to American brotherhood. She is the wife of Dr. Francis Dennis Griffin, a New York dentist. They have an adopted daughter.

Just Overwhelmed

"I'm just overwhelmed with this great honor," Miss Dunne said at her Beverly Hills, Calif., home. "It's such a magnificent award. I'll have a lot to live up to.

"I was completely surprised because the whole thing is kept very secret."

She said she thought the medal would be presented her at a ceremony in Los Angeles.

Cruiser Crew Sure Money Is Recorded

PHILADELPHIA, March 28. (AP)—The officers and crew of the USS Roscehter made sure their 1949 Red Cross contributions would be recorded before the campaign closes Thursday.

Yesterday from "somewhere on the high seas" a radio message was received from the Rochester's skipper, Capt. J. M. Worthington, announced the raising of $361.46 in a "shipdeck" drive while on maneuvers with the Atlantic fleet.

The Rochester, a heavy cruiser being used as a reserve training ship, is manned by men from various parts of the country, but because its home base is here, the donations were earmarked for the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter, Captain Worthington explained.

Mary Haworth's Mail . . .

Young Wife Aggrieved Because Husband Dislikes Her In Reproductive Role

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Jim's family didn't want him to marry and didn't come to our wedding five years ago. His mother is a "mom," his father a periodic alcoholic, and his sister — just out of college—would rather spend an evening at home than go out with a boy friend.

Unfortunately, we were stationed in their city during our first year of marriage, and at their insistence we had to spend every weekend and all our spare time in their home. When we told them I was pregnant they were very angry, and Jim's mother protested she was too young to be a grandmother. Later they rallied sufficiently to choose a name for the child.

Jim wasn't quite ready to welcome a first child, but I was rather stubborn about it, because I was slated to stay with my mother while he went overseas; and I thought I would be more useful caring for a child than going back to office work. Jim didn't return until Junior was nearly two years old; but they had no difficulty adjusting to a normal father-son relationship.

MAN ANGRILY SAYS HE CAN'T HELP IT

OUR second child will be born next month, and Jim's attitude towards me during this pregnancy has been one of revulsion to the function of child-bearing. He refuses to admit that his attitude is a problem or to seek help for it. When I try to discuss it he gets angry, says he can't help it, and that without doubt he will find me attractive again after the child is here.

Nearly two years ago I lost a child that we both wanted very much; so Jim isn't "rejecting" fatherhood. He seems to enjoy parenthood and hopes to have several children. But I can't accept pregnancy again if it is to be shadowed by shamed hurt feelings for me; nor can I love Jim wholeheartedly if, at the same time, I must "forgive" such humiliation. Am I unduly sensitive? Can you explain his attitude? Please advise me. Signed J. S.

MAN'S MORBIDITY REFERS TO "MOM"

DEAR J. S.: It occurs to me that Jim's involuntary revulsion to you in the child-bearing role may be a by-product of "buried" distaste for his own mother's Queen Bee personality, which is possessive and deadly in a self-centered way.

Perhaps unconsciously he feels that women, in the reproductive role, are noxiously self important or self sufficient, hence repellant to a sensitive, would-be husband-lover. Also, that these aggressive mother-types ruthlessly exploit men's romantic sentiments as a cunning means to an end, namely: the woman's achievement of her own satisfaction or "glory," in bland disregard of the male's aspiration to be lord of the union, as it were.

Or it may be that his love attachment to you is a shadowy duplicate, unconsciously, of his thwarted child-worship of his mother, who, being a "mom," seductively played on his heartstrings, of course. Thus when confronted by your pregnancy, which he co-authored, perhaps he feels guiltily revolted, unconsciously—almost as if instinct accused him of "violating" an innocent kinship.

WIFE'S ATTITUDE SOMEWHAT TACTLESS

PERHAPS that is the clem to his paradoxical behavior, the reason why (1) he "reasonably" accepts and seems to enjoy parenthood, after the fact is accomplished; and yet (2) why his emotions gag at the functional aspects of gestation, a biologic phenomenon "imaginatively" associated with sexual activity.

During this period he may feel shamed and self-damning, unaccountably; with guilt-tremors quickened by his mother's angry denunciation of the first pregnancy. And the humiliation he visits on you may be slight and incidental, compared to the neurotic mortification he suffers.

For advice: it's not "unduly sencitive" to deplore Jim's attitude; but your driving insistence on procreation may be a bit tactless, from his viewpoint. In my opinion, you both need psychiatric help—Jim to get rid of his morbid "mom"-attachment and its sickly consequences; and you to arrive at mature integration, which enables a matron to be a complete wife, primarily—and in consequence, an ample parent, which is the natural order of love's fulfillment. Tour Arrangements Being Completed By Club Today

Final arrangements for a three-day House Beautiful Tour, the current project of Lubbock Women's club, are being made today, according to Mrs. W. C. Wood, general chairman of the event. Purpose of the project, which will put 17 of Lubbock's homes on display, is to raise money to be added to a clubhouse building fund.

The tour schedule includes the showing of six houses from 2 to 5:30 o'clock Tuesday and Thursday and five houses from 2 to 5:30 o'clock Wednesday of this week.

Tickets will be on sale each afternoon in the homes to be shown. Sale of tickets each morning or the tour will be directed by Mrs. George Berry who may be contacted at 9205. Those making the tour will be served tea at the hour stated on their tickets at the following homes: at Mrs. R. O. Bennett's, 1901 Thirty-first, Tuesday; at Mrs. W. G. McMillan's, Levelland road, Wednesday; and at Mrs. R. H. Fulton's, Levelland road, Thursday.

In Sunday's paper, scenes from three of the homes to be visited were pictured. The Martin Leftwich home at 1716 Twenty-seventh was erroneously listed as the J. D. Leftwich home.

Auto Mishap Fatal To Man In Bexar County

DINNER TOR TEACHERS

Lubbock County Homemaking Teachers are to attend a dinner tonight at 6:30 o'clock at Hilton hotel. The program will be featured with a review by Miss Mabel Erwin of her book, "Clothing for Moderns."

Vows Read In Turkey

Miss Cleo Eudy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Eudy of Turkey, became the bride of William L. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Green of Slaton, in a ceremony read Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage in Turkey. Rev. C. W. Parmenter performed a dougle ring ceremony.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. For something borrowed, she carried a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Bert Degan; for something new, she wore rhinestone earrings; for something old, she wore a pin belonging to her grandmother; and for good luck, she put a penny in her shoe.

Miss Dorothy Wynn of Lubbock, maid of honor, wore a light blue suit with pink and navy accessories and a pink gardenia corsage. Jon Appling of Slaton served as best man.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Slaton where Mr. Green is employed by Santa Fe Railroad company. He attended Slaton schools and the Sparling School of Deep-Sea Diving in Wilmington, Calif., and he served two years in the Navy. Mrs. Green is a graduate of Turkey High school and attended Draughons Business college.

Out-of-town guests included Misses Chichi Meadors and Gloria Cagle of Lubbock.

Reds Asked To Free Soldiers

TEHRAN, Iran, March 28. (AP)—Iran has demanded that Russia release two Iranian soldiers reported wounded and captured by Soviet troops in a frontier incident.

The report indicated increased tension between the two countries. Iran previously banned the Tudeh (Communist) party.

A high military source said one Iranian soldier was killed in the border incident. He said the Iranian commander protested to Soviet authorities and demanded return of the prisoners. Negotiations for their release and payment of indemnity was reported under way over the weekend.

The scene of the incident was identified by the military informant as a border area claimed by both Iran and Russia in the northeast part of the country, adjoining the Soviet Turkman republic. He said 50 Russian troops were involved.

(The date was not stated in this dispatch, which passed through Iranian censorship.)

A military tribunal is now trying 14 members of the Tudeh party on charges of conspiring in an attempted assassination of Shah Reza Pahlevi. The king suffered minor wounds in the attempt Feb. 4.

(Informed sources reported at Lake Success last week that Russia had tentatively asked Iran to close her consulate at Baku in Russia and was considering closing three of her own in Iran. A delayed dispatch from Tehran spoke of a Soviet order regarding closing of the consulates. There was no information as to whether the consulates actually had closed down.)

Kansan Would Sell His Eye For Home

FORT SCOTT, Kan., March 28 (U.P.)—A middle-aged carpenter said today he wanted a home of his own so badly, he is willing to sell an eye for it.

C. I. Demoss, who has a wife and four children, said he got the idea of sacrificing one of his eyes from a recent news story.

"I just don't know any other way to get the money," he said. "I've got two good eyes and I've decided to sell one of them. There surely is someone with no eyesight at all who would be willing to pay for one of mine.

Demoss said he did not think $10,000 would be too much for one of his eyes.

Boost In Gasoline Use Is Predicted

SAN ANTONIO, March 28 (AP)—A tremendous increase in gasoline consumption by the motoring public during 1949 was forecast here today by J. C. Day, executive secretary-treasurer of the Western Petroleum Refiners association, which began its three-day 37th annual convention here.

"Good roads, more cars and the 40-hour week have an will increase the per capita consumption of motor fuel," Day said.

Prior to the war, some 35,000,000 cars used approximately 620,000,000 gallons of gasoline a year, he explained. During 1948 there were 5,000,000 more cars, and each used about 700 gallons, he asserted.

People have more time to drive now that the 40-hour week is spreading," he said.

Both were accompanied by Lawrence Ivy at the piano. Ivy also played a piano solo at the conclusion of the program.

The two singers were introduced by Pete West and Melvin Best, program co-chairmen.

Club members briefly discussed a proposal to sponsor a professional fight card here next month. A final decision on the project probably will be announced within the next week, Horace Gearhart, president, indicated.

One out-of-town guest, Joe Holmes of Amarillo, and two new members, Sonny Cato and Harold Hoppe, were introduced.

Weldon Gibbs presided, with invocation by Homer Hensley.

Spring Proms Will Be More Restricted

Catholic Girls Forbidden To Wear Strapless Gowns

MILWAUKEE, March 28 (U.P.)—The "demure look" will be the vogue among Milwaukee's Catholic high school girls at spring proms this year.

The most Rev. Moses E. Kiley, archbishop of Milwaukee, issued a directive that banned the wearing of strapless evening gowns, or any style of dress that bares the shoulders, at parochial high school dances.

The directive, issued yesterday, also set curfews on how late the dances may run, limited some of the expenses boys may spend on their dates, and established general rules for student conduct at the affairs.

The Rev. Edmund J. Goebel, superintendent of schools for the archdiocese, said the action was taken because of the "rise of juvenile delinquency" in the community.

As a result of the ban on revealing frocks, many girls hastened to exchange the dresses they had planned to wear to spring frolics. Some mothers, who already had begun work on their daughters' gowns, were seeking patterns to conform with the archbishop's ruling.

Violaters of Kiley's orders will be "dismissed from the prom."

Under the directive, boys are banned from wearing formal attire. They must wear business suits.

Goebel said the order was issued after parents, queried in a circulation of questionnaires, expressed concern over prom expenses. The directive was written by agreement of the principals of the 15 schools involved.

The order limited the price of admission tickets to $3 and advised that no boy should pay more than $1.50 for his date's corsage.

Instead of letting the students go to night clubs or expensive restaurants following the dances, Kiley recommended that parents provide for "modest house parties" in their homes. The parents had complained about a lack of suitable entertainment for the young people after the dances.

Dance hours were restricted to the period from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. No couples will leave the hall to sit out dances and "outside couples" will not be admitted.

The students were ordered to be home from proms by 1:30 a. m. unless their parents request an earlier hour.

Goebel said it was "the first time in the history of the high schools that such specific regulations proms have been formulated."

More than 100 members attended the District 3 meeting of the National Association of Letter Carriers and its auxiliary, held Saturday in the county courthouse.

Albert Ammonds, master of ceremonies, introduced Lyle W. Graham, of Dallas, state NALC president; Gay Carter, of Amarillo, state vice-president; Jack Bryant, of Abilene, state secretary; Amos Howard, Lubbock postmaster; Ernest Thaxton, supervisor of mails for the Lubbock postoffice; and C. K. Johnson, superintendent of mails at Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Merlin Willson, local auxiliary president, introduced Mrs. Lera McCulley, of Wichita Falls, state treasurer, and Mrs. Jack Bryant, of Abilene, state secretary.

Members of the cast of Texas Tech's Varsity show provided entertainment at the banquet. The group was under the seupervision of Dr. Boyle D. Jackson, with Joe Meador as master of ceremonies.

Buford Terrell, local president, opened the banquet program with a welcoming address.

Smiling Eyes Are Shining

There are many methods of reducing overbrightness, you can shade your eyes with your hand, you can squint and get wrinkles, you can wear eyeshades, sunshades, colored glasses, smoked glasses or goggles — but comfortable glare reduction is obtained by wearing Cruxite Lenses.

Cruxite Lenses reduce glare without reducing comparative visual acuity. In color these lenses blend with the normal skin, and are thus even more inconspicuous than clear lenses. Absorbing all harmful ultra-violet (the "sunburn") rays, Cruxite Lenses do not distort color values. You can get Crucite Lenses —ground to your correction in Tillyer Curves—set in a wide choice range of smart, comfortable frames or rimless mountings.

Red Sox Blast Out Victory Over Phils

SARASOTA, Fla., March 28 (U.P.)—First-Baseman Walt Dropo's big bat was playing a more important part today in the attack of the Boston Red Sox.

The big rookie drove in the two clinching runs with a double yesterday as Boston beat the Philadelphia Phils 5 to 1. Ted Williams drove in two runs in the same frame with a single, making up for his misplaying a fly ball into a triple to set up the Phils' only run.

The Phillies play the Yankees at Clearwater today.

EL PASO, March 28. (AP)—Ben Hogan, golf's mighty little man who was injured in a traffic crash last Feb. 2, is considering seeing a physician in New Orleans before returning to his home in Fort Worth.

Hogan expects to decide within a day or two when he feels mended enough to leave the hospital here.

Briefs From The Training Camps

Brooklyn Rookies Included On Tour

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 28. (U.P.)—Manager Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers today handpicked five of his brightest rookies to accompany the varsity on an exhibition swing through Texas.

Named to make the trip, and apparently with a good chance to make the team, were Pitchers Jack Banta and Clarence Podbelian from Montreal, Pitcher Morris Martin from St. Paul, First-Baseman Dee Fondy from Fort Worth, and Outfielder Cal Abrams from St. Paul.

Only four regulars will be left behind—Pitcher Preacher Roe, who is everse to flying; pitcher Elmer Sexauer, who has a sore arm, an Outfielders Marv Rackley and George Shuba.

Despite their 3 to 1 loss to the Philadelphia A's "B" team yesterday, the Dodgers were cheered by the showing of Pitcher Rex Barney. Previously futile this spring, Barney went the route and pitched a five-hitter, losing because Dick Fowler hurled a three-hitter for the A's.

PLAYER UNDER OBSERVATION

TAMPA, Fla., March 28. (U.P.)—Boston Braves' Outfielder Clint Conatser, who was beaned during yesterday's game here against Cincinnati, was "under observation" today in Tampa municipal hospital.

Conatser was struck in the back of the head by a pitch thrown in the seventh inning by Rookie Hurler Frank Fanovich of the Reds. He was not knocked unconscious, but was taken to the hospital for x-rays and observation.

Dr. Frank Metzer said the x-rays would be taken as "a precautionary measure." Conatser may be released from the hospital today or tomorrow.

The injury overshadowed the 13 to 4 defeat handed the Braves by the Reds. Ted Kluszewski's homer led Cincinatti as it tallied four runs in the fourth and five in the sixth. Phil Masi and Ed Stanky homered for Boston.

JOE DiMAGGIO OUT

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 28. (U.P.)—Joe DiMaggio won't be in the lineup when the New York Yankees tangle with the Philadelpnia Phils today, but he may be ready to play on Wednesday.

The famed "Yankee Clipper" said yesterday he will give his ailing heel another test when the Yanks clash with the Cincinnati Reds. He pinch-hit only a fly-ball out against the St. Louis Cards yesterday as the Yanks were blanked, 1 to 0.

The whitewash was skillfully applied rookie Kurt Krieger, and veterans Al Brazle and Ted Wilks, who scattered nine hits. Enos Slaughter's double and Ed Sauer's single produced the Cards' only run.

Today the Cardinals play host here to the Detroit Tigers.

A'S MEET TORONTO

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 28. (U.P.)—With their two victorious squads rejoined—plus two new players—the Philadelphia Athletics were set to play host today to the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International league.

The new players were veteran Infielder Gil Torres, a former Washington Senator, and 18-year-old Luis Garcia, a semi-pro outfielder. Both were picked up by the A's "A" squad which climaxed a brief Cuban tour yesterday by beating the Havana Cubans, 5 to 3.

Meanwhile, the A's "B" squad had Dick Fowler pitch a complete three-hitter to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3 to 1. Tod Davis, with three hits including two doubles, drove in two A's runs and scored the third.

PIRATES TEST BROWNS

PASADENA, Cal., March 28. (U.P.) — Veteran Righthander Hal Gregg and Rookie Southpaw Chet Johnson were set to toe the slab today for the Pittsburgh Pirates as they faced the St. Louis Browns again.

Yesterday the two teams played to a 12-inning, 7-7 tie at San Bernardino as relief pitchers Hugh Casey of Pittsburgh and Tom Ferrick of the Browns dueled. Homers were hit by Les Moss, Jack Graham, and Sherman Lollar of St. Louis and Ed Bockman of Pittsburgh.

Meet Playoff Slated Today

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 28. (U.P.)—Lloyd Mangrum, one of professional golf's finest putters, and Sammy Snead, who has most of his tournament trouble on the greens, will stage an 18-hole playoff today for the Greensboro Open championship at the Starmount Country club course.

The two veterans ended the regulation 72-hole contest yesterday with 276's. They will tee off at 1:00 p. m. (EST) to decide who will get the $2,000 first and $1,400 second place money. Each will also share in the gate receipts.

Deadlock On 18th

Mangrum, the slim defending champion from Chicago, appeared to have his second straight Greensboro title clinched yesterday when he shot a three-under-par 68 on the morning 18 to take a two-stroke lead Snead, however, also likes the local course. The White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., golfer has won two championships here and he put together a one-under-par 70 in the afternoon to deadlock Mangrum, who posted a 72 for the final 18.

Each had a 272 when they teed off for the last hole. Both holed out with birdie fours but Snead's putter cost him a chance to break the deadlock. His second shot stopped 18 feet from the hole and his putt was just two inches short.

Worsham, Stranahan Third

Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., and amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., finished two strokes behind the leaders with 278's. Stranahan, who set the pace in the first two rounds, dropped behind in the third when he shot a 73. Worsham had the best final round, a sizzling four-under-par 67.

Bobby Locke of South Africa, making his first 1949 appearance in America, shot a 279 to deadlock Dick Metz of Virginia Beach, Va. Locke was under par in each of the first three rounds but Faeded to a three-over-par 73 on the last 18.

Cary Middlecoff, who had dominated the PGA tournament circuit since mid-February, proved the biggest disappointment to the spectators. The Memphis dentist finished in a tie for 13th place with a 284. He had won three of the last five tournaments and finished second in the other two.

Cards Weak In Key Positions

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 28.—Word from the south as spring training reaches the point where you can tell something about the clubs is "don't be too optimistic about the Cardinals. Except for Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter and Harry Brecheen they're second division stuff." . . . The point seems to be that they have no reliable catcher, first baseman and center fielder and there's an iffy infield, depending on the health of Marion, Schoendienst and Kurowski. . . . The same observers aren't too high on the Braves, who haven't changed much since last year, and figure the youthful, hustling Dodgers are the team to watch . . . At least Branch Rickey has plenty of material at Vero Beach . . . They say the place now looks like a huge department store and the boys are wondering if Branch will adopt the slogan: "Six per cent off for cash."

Horses' Names Interesting

Names Dept:

An eyebrow-raising name for a two-year-old filly nominated for the Debutante stakes at Churchill Downs is Breachophomise. She's by Lovely Night out of Forgotten Lady . . . Another smartly-named juvenile is Greentree stable's Three and Two—by Shut Out-Wait For Baby . . . of course, any baseball fan should know that three and two is when you look for the cripple.

Monday matinee:

Bob Zuppke will be honored with a "day" by the Illinois "I Men's association" when the Illini play Michigan next fall. It will mark the 25th anniversary of Red Grange's big day against Michigan . . . Business Manager Ray Peebles of the Spartanburg, S. C., Peaches figures his field manager, Kerby Farrell, is the most popular guy in that sports-minded city. There's no other explanation why the Peaches, who finished seventh, drew 99,500 cash customers last season . . . The Metropolitan Basketball Writers' association voted Hank Iba the "coach of the year." It would be hard to pick a better guy for the honor . . . Since returning to Arizona after the finish of the Detroit Lions' dismal season, Fred Enke, jr., has made more than 30 appearances on the rubber chicken circuit . . . They'll be calling him stomach Enke.

Fulks Is Hurt

He oughta be canned:

The day before the Philadelphia Warriar's first playoff game, Joe Fulks went out, like any good husband, to empty a pail of garbage. But Joe skidded and fell down a flight of stairs . . . It wasn't until four o'clock the next afternoon that he decided he had been hurt and called boss Eddie Gottlieb to say he couldn't play . . . Eddie summoned a doctor, who took three stitches in a cut on Joe's hip and did what he could about a large bruise . . . That night Fulks played only a minute and a half against Washington and, for the first time in his pro basketball career, failed to take a shot . . . the moral is that an accident with a garbage can can make a lot of fans turn pail.

Phillies Stress Youth

Top Division Is Club Goal

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 28.—Things are looking up for the once forlorn Phillies. It is beginning to look like all the money young Bob Carpenter has poured into the club is going to start paying off.

Not in the form of a pennant this year, or perhaps next, but there is no doubt that Philadelphia's National league fortunes are one the rise. Carpenter and his manager, likeable Eddie Sawyer, will be well satisfied this year if the club finishes in the first division. It has a fighting chance to do that.

The Phillies are building on youth with a small mixture of veterans to help out the kids, but they figure to be stronger than next season and while they do not rate up there with the Dodgers and Braves in the pre-season forecasts, they definitely are out of the days when they were a league doormat.

The club is aggressive and ambitious. It has speed and hustle.

"If it didn't I would have other players," Sawyer said. "We are paying these men to play ball. If they don't give me the best they've got, then we don't want them around."

There isn't any indication that any of the players do not want to stick around. They are sold on Carpenter, Sawyer and the efficient Philly organization. They know they are riding with an eventual winner.

The acquisition of Pitchers Hank Borowy and Russ Meyer, Outfielder Bill Nicholson and first baseman Eddie Waitkus from the Cubs figures to work wonders for the Phillies.

"Nicholson will hit that long ball for us," Sawyer explained, "and there is no better first baseman in the league than Waitkus. And Borowy and Meyer are looking great and we expect big things of them.

For this year, at least, the Phillies are building around those four men, Outfielders Del Ennie and Richie Ashbourn, two kid pitchers, Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons and two rookies infielders, Puddin' Head Jones and Granville Hammer. They have some other kids on the club, too, who may come through, but to start the season they are the fellows Sawyer is back on.

Nicholson, Ennis and Ashburn, last year's National league rookie of the year, form the regular outfield trio while Hammer will be at short, Jones at third and Waitkus at first. That means shifting Eddie Miller, who appears to be a new player this spring, from his usual shortstop post to second base. In reserve it leaves the veteran Bert Haas and either Ralph Caballero, a ball of fire in the field but a weakling at the plate, or Bob Blattner, the former Giant whom the Phillies obtained from Jersey City. Dick Sisler, regular first baseman last year, may be traded. Three clubs, led by the Dodgers are bidding for him, and with Waitkus around Sawyer has no use for the former Cardinal. But he is insisting on a fair return and it doesn't look as if a deal will be before the season opens.

Meyer, Borowy, Roberts and Simmons, the latter two bonus ball players, will be regular starters along with veteran Schoolboy Rowe, Back of them are veterans like Syl Donnelly, Ken Heintzelman and Ken Trinkle, the veteran reliefer picked up from the Giants.

Odds Of 66-1 And 300-1 Are Paid

Few Persons Bet On Winning Horse In Rich English Race

By BILL MACKLIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

AINTREE, England, March 28—Who wins on those fabulous odds in the Grand National steeplechase?

Russian hero paid 203-1 on totalisator for his runaway triumph in the National Saturday over Aintree's 30 breath-taking jumps.

His starting price with bookies was 66-1.

Choice multiplying factors they were—if you had a few shillings on them. But who knew about this unsung underdog who shocked 300,000 spectators?

We found one woman with a win and place ticket to cash at tote. They would earn her 125 pounds ($500) for a total risk of one pound ($4).

She was Mrs. Bill Williamson, wife of the owner of Russian Hero.

Owner Bill wagered ten pounds ($40) several months ago at 300-1.

Aintree was a ghost track when the newsmen closed up their typewriters hours after the race and stepped into the paddock snow white with torn-up betting tickets.

Were there no winners beside Williamson? From a small bar came sounds of revelry. We peeked in and found Russian Hero fans singing the Volga Boatman.

A man in a ladies' hat, his lips kissed crimson, handed us a high ball.

"I won 3,000 pounds," he said. "Have a drink."

He was George Leech, a farmer neighbor of Williamson and he had backed Russian Hero and Fair Judgment, winner of the Lincolnshire handicap, on a "spring double."

He produced a pal, who had won the same sum. That made four winners.

Stewart Granger, British film star playing a Russian hero in a Tolstoy play at Liverpool, was on the winner. So were some of the "hunch-playing" cast.

In the totalisator "spring double" there were 30 winning tickets. The payoff on each is 986 pounds ($3,980). Tickets cost five shillings (one dollar) if bought before March 8 and ten shillings ($2) if bought from then until March 17.

But for most Englishmen there was no such happy outcome. They just ripped up losing tickets and, optimistic gamblers they are, began searching for a "dark horse" for next year.

News that The Avalanche-Journal would sponsor an annual all-district football dinner for the outstanding players in five districts certainly was timely. It also came as good news to a lot of coaches, who are used to little recognition and a lot of hard work. Many coaches are unrewarded for their steady plodding, while winning coaches are feted for a good year, but cursed for a bad one. The all-district dinner gives every chance to be on equal terms in the eyes of the guests and the district stars.

By this time, the 42 coaches who received letters telling them of the dinner probably are discussing the situation with their assistants, superintendents and, in some cases, the boys themselves. It's healthy that they do, for they probably will be the ones who select the 11 outstanding boys in their respective districts. It's particularly good for the players themselves. As Jay Fikes of Littlefield said, when he was told of the proposal, "That's the best news I've heard in a long time. It's a fine thing to do and it will sure be an incentive for the kids to play harder and better."

It will be an incentive, all right, for the paper is going to put on a first class feed and a first class program. A program is no better than the food and the food seldom is better than the program. The Avalanche-Journal isn't going to do a half-way job of it. It will either be great, or we won't have it. As a result, coaches can be certain that they will have the best here. It ought to make the boys in the various districts hustle a little harder and the recognition they receive will do them no harm. We're tickled to death to have the opportunity of holding the affair and we'll be looking forward to Jan. 8, 1950.

If you miss that inter-squad football game April 9 in Jones Stadium, you'll be sorry later. First of all, you're going to see some of the roughest, hardest football you've seen since Texas Tech last played Hardin-Simmons here. College players make the varsity in the spring and this all-out scrimmage may make or break several of the hopefuls. There won't be any brother acts on the gridiron that eventful Saturday night. Players on opposite sides of the line will be trying just as hard as if it were an intercollegiate contest. That will make it all the more interesting for the spectator who pays only a buck for the game.

We know that the football game should be enough to interest any true sports lover, but Tech officials behind the game wanted to give the public even more for its money. As a result, there will be the equivalent of a three-ring circus at the half. By that we mean there will be so many events going on that the spectator won't be able to concentrate on all of them. Most of the entertainment will be along athletic lines, but there also will be other acts featured. And for a short time, probably all of them will be put on in the center of the field, where everyone can see them more easily.

All in all, it will be fun with seriousness. Elmer Tarbox is going to do a special act for which he is famous and others will perform for the crowd that is expected. But primary interest still will be on the football game, where many of the high school stars of a year ago will be on display. Along with them, of course, will be some transfer students and lettermen from last year. Most observers this spring are inclined to think that the Red Raiders, come fall, will have one of the strongest teams in recent years. This should be a first class preview. We know that few football lovers will miss the game.

Over and above the entertainment and the game is the fact that the funds raised will be stowed away toward construction of a new athletic dormitory. Tech needs many things, but this is one of those which it needs most, along with a new gym. The present dorm long ago outserved its purpose. The college has grown, the dorm hasn't. Recently, conditions were so bad when visiting high school boys were here that some of the players had to sleep on cots in the halls. It's high time that conditions were rectified and the athletes given the same consideration as other dormitory residents. Your attendance at this game will be a long stride in the right direction.

GIANTS EDGE CUBS

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—That old New York Giant home run punch was making itself felt again today. Johnny Mize and Sid Gordon clouted four-masters for the Giants yesterday as they downed the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 6, although it was Gil Henley's single that drove in the two deciding runs.

Kentucky Retains Basketball Crown

SEATTLE, Wash., March 28. (AP) Thirty-six points just aren't enough to beat the Kentucky Wildcats any more, the Oklahoma Aggies ruefully admitted today.

Time was—back in the 1947 Sugar Bowl—when you could tally 36 points yourself, tie the Wildcats in knots and walk off with a 36 to 30 triumph. That's what the Aggies did the last time they played Kentucky.

But the same deep-freeze tactics didn't work quite so well this year. The Wildcats didn't get as many points as usual, but they still registered a 46-36 win over the Aggies in the finals of the NCAA basketball tournament on Saturday.

Coach Hank Iba, who taught his Aggies to become the country's best defensive unit, had hoped his Bob Harris could put the clamps on Alex Groza, Kentucky's six-foot, seven-inch scoring machine.

Harris couldn't manage the job and fouled out after only four minutes of the second half. That was the "tell" on the game and Groza went on to score 25 points—giving him an NCAA record of 82 in three games, busting the tourney mark set two years ago by Bob Kurland of the Aggies.

There was no hiding Kentucky's jubilation at having redeemed its defeat in the National Invitation tournament. The Wildcats felt, and everybody agreed with them, that they had re-established themselves at the top of the collegiate heap.

The only team that could dispute that at all was San Francisco, winner of the National Invitation.

"This is the one we've been waiting for," said Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp when the finale was over. "We've been playing steadily for almost two years and we're glad its over."

During those two years, the Wildcats compiled one of the most amazing records in the history of the game. Last year they won the NCAA tourney, sent five men to the Olympic games and had them tour Europe after their Olympic triumph. This year they had an overall record of 32 victories and two defeats.

Coach Iba had no excuses.

"We looked bad," said the master of the slow-down. "It was rugged—rugged and fast. We were hitting better than the other boys in the first half, but we just weren't hitting enough."

The game was witnessed by more than 12,000 fans, 116 of them members of the National Association of Basketball coaches, who Saturday afternoon concluded three days of discussion of the cage sport.

They forwarded a list of suggested rules changes to the national rules committee, which scheduled closed meetings yesterday and today.

Most of the coaches told the NCAA rules and research committees they were fed up with the battle royals waged during the dying minutes of games. They left more than a dozen suggestions on rules changes affecting the final 120 seconds.

The consensus was that something should be done to prevent a winning team from "freezing" the ball, forcing the opposition to resort to rough stuff in attempting to regain possession during the waning minutes.

One of the foremost suggestions was the substitution of the word "must" for "may" in the present rule saying an official may call for a jump ball when a closely-guarded player is withholding the ball from play. The coaches agreed the change would take the burden of decision from the referee's shoulders.

Feller, Paige Set For Opening Tilts

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28 (AP)—It looked today as if blazeballer Bobby Feller and the venerable Satchel Paige will be in shape to hurl at the start of the season for the world championship Cleveland Indians.

Feller gave up five hits in five innings, Paige two in four yesterday and the Tribe beat the San Francisco Seals, 4 to 2. Earlier in the day the Indians beat the Oakland Acorns, 1 to 0, on Dale Mitchell's home run.

Tyler Winner In Cage Meet

HUTCHINSON, Kas., March 28. (AP)—Tyler Junior college has topped off its most successful basketball season by carrying a national title home to Texas.

The Texas team beat Hutchinson, Kas., 66-64, Saturday night to win the National Junior college basketball championship.

The voctory gave Tyler a season record of 37 victories against one defeat.

Compton Gets Third

Hutchinson, the tournament's cinderella team, had a pre-tournament mark of eight victories and seven losses. The Kansans slipped into the tournament as a substitute for a district winner that failed to show up, but scored three upsets before bowing to Tyler.

In other games Saturday night, Compton, Calif., took third place by beating Grant Tech, 61-47, and Olympic Junior college of Bremerton, Wash., won fourth place by trouncing Dodge City, Kas., 61-53.

Grant Tech was given the sportsmanship award.

Hudson Hurls Nats To Win Over Tigers

ORLANDO, Fla., March 28 (AP)—Veteran Righthander Sid Hudson, who claims his arm troubles of last year are gone, submitted evidence of same today to the Washington Senators.

Hudson allowed only one unearned run in six innings yesterday as the Senators downed Detroit, 3 to 2. A 420-foot home run by Catcher Al Evans led the Washington attack against Rookie Marlin Stuart.

The Tigers play the St. Louis Cardinals today.

PADRES BEAT SOX

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 28 (AP)—The San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast league held two straight decisions over the Chicago White Sox today after a 5 to 2 victory yesterday. Pitcher Bill Wight was tagged for four of the Padre runs. One of the Sox tallies was a homer by Dave Philley.

Coalition Wins French Voting

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, March 28. — France's middle - of - the-road coalition swamped its De Gaullist and Communist opponents in the cantonal (county) elections which ended yesterday.

The parties making up the present government won 1082 seats to 389 for the De Gaullists and 37 for the Communists. Ninety-nine seats went to independents.

The election was for general councillors who help run the departments—roughly equivalent to American states. It has no effect on parliament or the cabinet, but was important chiefly as an indication of popular feeling. However, there was no voting in Paris, where the Communist vote is generally large.

Comparison Difficult

It is difficult to compare this balloting with the last cantonal election in 1945. At that time the Communists were included in the government and the De Gaullists had not yet formed their own party—the Rally of the French People (RFP).

Yesterday's voting was the second round in the election. The first was March 30. Between the two rounds many candidates withdrew. In numerous districts the issue simply became one of Communism and anti-Communism, have strictly limited powers — campaign on local issues.

In the first round an absolute majority of votes was needed to elect. On the second round a simple plurality of votes won. So the week between rounds was filled with scurrying among candidates and parties to make deals—principally at the expense of the Communists.

For Least Disliked

Voters in many districts therefore could not vote for the party they favored but only for the party they disliked least.

The four major groups making up the government bloc are the Socialists, the Popular Republicans (MRP), the Radical Socialists (moderates) and a small right-ist group. Radical Socialist Henri Queuille is premier.

The interior ministry ended its vote counting for the night with one district missing.

Atlantic Pact

lations timed to the signing of the defense treaty, the State department was arranging an informal British-French-American meeting on Western Germany. This may be held here some time next week, while British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman are still in town.

The senatorial argument about whether the U. S. should join the treaty—the Senate must ratify it to bind this country—went on over the week-end. Senators Knowland (R-Calif) and Baldwin (R-Conn) argued for the treaty and Senators Malone (R-Nev) and Jenner (R-Ind) argued against it in a radio debate yesterday.

State department officials said these eight countries now have officially given notice they want to join the United States in the alliance: Britain, Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Norway and Denmark.

Acceptance Expected

Italy's formal acceptance is expected momentarily. The way for Portugal to enter the alliance was cleared Saturday when Spain withdrew its objection.

The 12th nation, Iceland, is expected to send along its acceptance early this week after the Icelandic parliament considers the move.

The present schedule calls for the foreign ministers to hold a closed-door meeting Saturday to make final arrangements for the signing ceremony two days later in the government auditorium on Constitution avenue.

President Truman will be on hand for the signing and may use it as a form for delivering a major foreign policy address.

The body of one of the men killed in the plane crash was recovered Sunday evening. It was that of R. N. Anderson of Fort Worth. It was found in 22 feet of water. The other man, Kenneth Scott, was still missing.

Tech Fire

Nineteenth and Ave. N was averted by firemen at 8 o'clock this morning.

A gasoline supply truck's faulty hose connection allowed 100 to 150 gallons of gasoline to spill onto concrete driveways at Griffin and Eaton service station, 1502 Nineteenth, at 7:30 o'clock, just prior to the morning traffic rush on Nineteenth.

Firemen were summoned to wash the gasoline into sewers, and the danger was minimized within a few minutes, said O. F. Eaton, partner in the gasoline station.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 28 (AP) — Cotton futures moved lower in slow trading today. Scattered liquidation and hedging were absorbed through mill buying and short covering. Quiet conditions in spot cotton and textiles markets, the tendency to await the parity announcement scheduled Tuesday, and action on more ECA funds, restricted interest in futures. A 12-point decline in the mid-March cotton parity compared with the February figure was generally anticipated.

Futures closed 30 to 35 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

Initial selling came mainly from commission houses, represented a continuation which got underway Saturday and appeared to be based upon doubts concerning the government's wheat buying policy. Ex-Federal Employe Indicted For Treason

WASHINGTON, March 28 (UP)—Herbert John Bergman, former State department employe, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on charges of treason.

Bergman, a native of Hokah, Minn., broadcast over Hitler's nazi radio during the war.

The grand jury said his wartime activities amounted to treason. It listed 69 separate treason counts against Burgman.

Argentine Red Suspects Held

BUENOS AIRES, March 28 (UP)—Police sources said today that a number of suspects and documents had been seized in an investigation into an alleged nationwide Communist spy ring.

The probe was touched off by the arrest yesterday of Dr. Jan Matwieyev, 52, a Russian.

While Matwieyev was arrested on a charge of "suspicion of smuggling," he was reported to have had in his possession plans of the public works ministry, the national sanitation department and charts of the city's principal water mains.

Notebooks Reported

He also was reported to have carried notebooks containing writing in code.

Police sources said existence of the spy ring was disclosed following a battle last week between Communists supporting the Cominform and those supporting Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, who has broken with the Cominform.

Peace Meeting

peace and friendship among peoples, because we are first and foremost a state of plain people."

Other speakers echoed his theme.

Domingo Villamil, a Cuban scholar who said he is a Roman Catholic Communist, denounced those who he claimed "are encircling the Soviet union and hatching a third world war."

A Czechoslovakian delegate, Jiri Hronek, head of that nation's mass communications division, said Czechoslovakians "love the Soviet union, which they regard as a guarantor of peace, progress and national independence."

While the conference was ending its work, a rival group, the League for Free Russia held a counter-rally and adopted a resolution condemning the peace meeting.

Resolution Is Adopted

About 700 persons met at City Center Casino and adopted a resolution which said Soviet delegates to the sessions "have no right to speak in the name of science and culture since they are agents of states where unreard-of suppression and violation of the freedom of the sciences, the arts and all cultural values are being carried on."

The league, which said it is a coalition of various Russian exile groups in America, also assailed delegates "from free countries, who, for reasons best known to themselves, have joined the chorus of totalitarian slaves."

The Russian league was the second group to hold a counter-meeting in protest against the cultural and scientific peace conference.

On Saturday, Americans for Intellectual Freedom sponsored a protest rally before an overflow crowd at Freedom House.

Pickets who marched outside conference meeting halls often wore uniforms of veterans' organizations. Some pickets were attired in eastern European native clothes, and carried crepe-draped flags of "iron curtain" nations.

They carried placards saying "Exterminate the Dirty Red Rats" and "Russians — Breathe the Air of Freedom and Take It Home."

killed and injured last year.

Senate Okays Boyd

Hardly had the work stoppage gotten underway than the Senate's interior committee approved President Truman's nomination by a 10-1 vote. Then, a few days later, the Senate ignored Lewis—it confirmed Boyd by a 50-11 vote.

Lewis made no pretense of liking the action. Some thought he might not choose to order the miners back to work. But Lewis, remaining bitterly critical of Boyd's appointment and the defiance of the Senate, gave the miners an "executive communication" which said, in part:

"The present memorial period will terminate Monday, March 28. Production may then be resumed in all mines and all miners should make themselves available for work on that date."

That was all the miners needed. They had the word of John L. Lewis. They dusted off their water buckets and lunch containers and prepared to go underground.

A state-by-state survey indicatey coal production would be back to normal within a few days.

Questions Asked

All around the Pentagon headquarters of the frequently squabbling Army, Navy and Air Force, the brass and semi-brass were asking:

How tough will he be? Is it true that he intends knocking heads together? Will there be some new faces about the council table?

Those who know Johnson said he held no thought of belligerency or of immediate wholesale changes in the personnel of the national military establishment. But they advised strongly against any continuation of the interservice quarreling.

Locanon Fight Looms As Plans Are Made For Establishment Of Air Force Academy

WASHINGTON, March 28. (UP)—Defense officials plan to send to Congress soon legislation to authorize an Air Force academy.

A special committee is working to complete a draft of the legislation this week.

Prospects for congressional approval of an air academy appeared good. But a free-for-all fight shaped up over the location of the school.

Bills Introduced

Individual congressmen already have introduced bills calling for establishment of an air academy at 11 different places. They are Randolph Field, Tex., Enid, Okla., Clovis, N. M., Southern California, Sedalia, Mo., Tucson, Ariz., Wichita, Kans., Strother Field between Winfield and Arkansas City, Kan., Hutchinson, Kans., Salina, Kans., and the Altus and Frederick, Okla., area.

Defense officials are keeping it to themselves if they have any preference. It is said that a site selection committee eventually will be appointed to pick a

It appeared doubtful that an air academy ever would function as a purely one-service school like the Army's at West Point, N. Y., and the Navy's at Annapolis, Md.

Study Scheduled

After completing the air academy legislation, the service academy board will study possible ways of linking the three schools more closely.

Suggestions include rotation of students and making all three academies branches of an armed forces university, One purpose of such integration would be to counteract the present intense interservice rivalry.

Girl Back Home As Lost Money Found

CUSHING, Okla., March 28 (UP)—Nadine Fleming — the Healdton girl who hitchhiked to Texas rather than face her family after she lost $71 — has found the money that kept her away from home for a week while her frantic parents feared she was a suicide.

Nadine came home last Sunday, a week following her disappearance after inserting a "lost" ad in the Cushing Daily Citizen. The money she lost had been given her by a brother for delivery to her parents.

When Mr. and Mrs. Leo Myers of Oilton, Okla., visited Cushing relatives and read Nadine's story, they took her money to her home. Their four-year-old grandson, Gary Charles Punches of Pampa, Tex., had found it March 12, shortly after Nadine lost it, on the floor in a Cushing store. Mr. and Mrs. Myers had deposited it in a Drumright bank while they waited to find the owner.

Rep. Paul Brown (D-Ga) author of the House "resonable return" provision and a congress, reportedly took the lead at a Saturday session in objecting to the Senate proposal. At that meeting his House colleagues backed him up.

But afterward, Spence said he had decided to support the Senate group, and added:

"We seem to be splitting hairs over technicalities which have no substantial merit. It's no time to do that."

Another House conferee, Rep. Gamble (R-NY), said he had made up his mind for the Senate proposal, too.

Woman Puts Up Hard Fight To Save Home From Road Crew

HOUSTON, March 28. (UP)—Mrs. Cora Tantillo, 65, clung desperately to a bed in her small frame home for three hours today, shouting emphatically she wouldn't leave it to make way for Houston's new express highway, and then calmly walked out.

Her 59-year-old husband, James, a crippled victim of arthritis, told sheriff's deputies the same thing, but was promptly shackled and led off to jail.

Locked All Doors

Workmen, on orders to take out the furniture so the dwelling could be demolished, said Mrs. Tantillo, bed and all, would have been forcibly removed. They started immediately taking the couple's furniture into the street, telling crowds of the Tantillos' sympathetic neighbors, "we've got our orders. That's all."

Mrs. Tantillo, tall and gray-haired, jumped on the bed and held on after James allegedly swung at an officer and was taken away. No charges were filed against him.

She locked all the doors and windows to the five-room house, then hit the bed and refused to budge.

Entry finally was made when deputies kicked out the glass pane of a back door.

"Worse Than Russia"

Mrs. Tantillo wept softly as wrecking crews ripped off screens and doors, then calmly left her bed and walked out into the street to stand beside her furniture.

"It's worse than Russia," she said.

The city land acquisition department said Tantillo, a retired auto mechanic, was offered $9,350 for the property, and the money was placed in escrow. Work crews on the Houston-Galveston super highway are busy working within one block of the Tantillo home.

Out of his handcuffs at the city jail, Tantillo said he had "negotiated" with the city for the sale of his house, "but the mayor won't pay me enough."

The couple will live with relatives until they find a new house, he said.

Driverless Bus Rams Into Home At Dallas

DALLAS, March 28. (AP) — A driverless city bus today poked its nose into the bedroom of Mrs. P. L. Bean, 73. She was knocked down and slightly injured.

The bus came to rest in the bedroom after careening off an automobile, a truck and a telephone pole.

Police accident investigator W. F. Southard said the bus driver was knocked from his seat into the step well in the collision with the automobile. The car was badly damaged.

The bus plunged on to hit a parked delivery truck in front of a cleaners. The truck bounded against the cleaners, smashed a plate glass window and loosened bricks at the corner of the building.

The bus rammed on, snapped the telephone pole, jumped the curb, shoved its way four feet inside the house and knocked over Mrs. Bean's bed and a stove. Mrs. Bean was standing near a window when she was knocked over. She was admitted to a hospital for examination.

Babich Case

he "wished she would stop making all those remarks" about Kathleen's pregnancy.

Gizi Starts Laughing

Patricia started laughing, Babich placed a .22 calibre pistol he had purchased "ten days or two weeks" earlier on the seat between them and said, "Pat, we don't want you to do that."

The statement continued that Patricia laughed again and picked up the gun by the barrel. Babich said he grabbed for it, his finger hit the trigger and it went off.

McCauley said he asked Babich why the second shot was fired and the youth replied he didn't know the first shot was fatal.

Babich was quoted by the district attorney as saying he had hoped sight of the gun would frighten Patricia into not disclosing anything more or making any more remarks about her sister's pregnancy.

Gets Building Block

After the shooting, the statement added, Babich drove to a house under construction and procured a building block. Then he drove to the river, and tied the block to Patricia's feet with shirt and wire scraps.

He dragged the body to the river and dropped it in.

He returned home at 7:45 p. m. and fifteen minutes later got a call from Kathleen that Patricia was missing. He went at once to the Birmingham home and remained there until 2 a. m. "aiding in the search."

Babich and Kathleen eloped to Kalamazoo, Mich., where he said they were married March 18. They were found last Wednesday at Minneapolis and returned here the following day.

blow, and at Crowder, Okla., where two were killed.

There were numerous injuries and serious damage, but no deaths, at Troy and Mounds, Tenn., and at Oak Grove, La.

The shrieking winds, born of contracting pressure areas near the Gulf coast, zig-zagged as far north as Caruthersville, Mo., with destructive power.

Five were injured near Caruthersville, late Saturday, when heavy winds blew down three homes and knocked out the power supply for several hours.

Estimate Incomplete

Among the building casualties were churches, schools, store buildings and numerous homes. An incomplete Red Cross estimate placed the number of demolished dwellings at more than 300 in the seven states.

The Red Cross in Washington allocated $100,000 in emergency funds to aid the stricken areas and sent 15 national disaster workers into the section to help alleviate suffering.

Two Hurt In Station Blast

LEHIGHTON, Pa., March 28. (AP)—The cause of an explosion and fire at an oil company substation near Lehighton is a mystery today with the two people who might know the answer in critical condition at Palmerton hospital.

The blast, described by farmer David Green as sounding "like a rifle shot," ripped the frame roof off the substation of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Co. yesterday and destroyed machinery and pumping equipment in the building which was still under construction.

Pipeline Broken

It also broke open a pipeline carying gasoline from the company's plant at Paulsboro, N. J., to Binghamton, N. Y. Gasoline caught fire and blazed fiercely.

The fire started shortly before noon yesterday and was not brought under control for four hours. Embers continued to burn hours later.

Those injured are Louis Deci of West Seneca, N. Y., and James A. Nane, 27, Philadelphia. They were alone in the building when the blast occurred.

Green hurried to the building after thick, black smoke filled the sky. He took them to Palmerton hospital.

A. Earl Duffett, safety supervisor for Socony-Vacuum declined to estimate damage but said it was "considerable."

U. S. Army Testing New Wonder Drug To Combat Typhus Fevers

DETROIT, March 28. (AP)—Scientists have found a way to manufacture the wonder drug chloromycetin and the United States Army is putting the new product to test in Malaya.

Natural chloromycetin, derived from a mold in the soil, has been found effective in combatting killer diseases like epidemic and scrub typhus fevers and Rocky mountain spotted fever.

Now, the Parke, Davis and Co., has announced here, the recently discovered drug can be produced synthetically by a method much faster than the natural process.

Parke Davis research director Leonard O. Sweet reported the work done on artificial chloromycetin by two teams of research chemists means the drug "can be produced in sufficient quantities to meet all the needs of the medical profession."

The research workers, Dr. Sweet said, accomplished their purpose with the aid of dichloroacetic acid. In the past, that chemical has been used to remove warts.

Chloromycetin—a member of the drug family that includes penicillin and streptomycin—was the first substance discovered that was effective and satisfactory to use against a class of germs known as "rickettsiae." In size these bugs are about halfway between viruses and bacteria.

An Army research team is working in Maalaya to determine whether the synthetic drug works as well as the natural one in treating scrub typhus—which struck down thousands of American soldiers in the Pacific during the last war—and typhoid fever.

A favorable report on the tests, Army officers in Wasnington said, might open "vast new possibilities for the treatment of other febrile (fever) diseases caused by rickettsial organisms."

Freight Train Jumps Tracks At Panhandle

PANHANDLE, March 28. (U.P.)—Operations on the Santa Fe railway's main line returned to normal today, after 43 cars of a freight train jumped the tracks here early yesterday. The derailment blocked three tracks of the Santa Fe's main artery between Los Angeles and Kansas City until about 9 p. m. last night. Brakeman T. L. Pendergraft of Amarillo was injured slightly in the mishap.

Navy To Seek New Record With Rocket

BALTIMORE, March 28. (AP)—The Navy will soon be reaching into the inosphere with a rocket of its own to try to unravel some of the mysteries of space.

The Glenn L. Martin Co., in its annual report, disclosed today it is developing a new rocket, called the "Viking," with which the Navy hopes to reach 200 miles into the upper atmosphere. The report added the rocket was primarily a research instrument and not a weapon.

The Navy declined to say when the tests will be made. It said only that most information about the rocket is still restricted.

If the "Viking" attains 200 miles it will be a new record height for a single rocket. The present know height record for such a missile is 114 miles, made by a German V-2 rocket over White Sands, N. Mex.

A two-staged rocket, the so-called WAC corporal, reached a height of 250 miles at White Sands last month. The WAC corporal was carried part way by a V-2.

300-Hour Mark Is Passed By Fliers

MIAMI, Fla., March 28 (AP) — The California endurance fliers passed the 300 hour mark aloft today, circling endlessly over the greater Miami area.

Bill Barris and Dick Riedel continued their routine, refueling from a speeding jeep, eating and sleeping and flying slowly and steadily all the time.

A spokesman for the fliers said they planned to turn the nose of their tiny plane, the Sunkist Lady, toward Tallahassee on Tuesday, and then continue their leisurely trip back across the country.

The fliers still had not reached the halfway mark in their attempt to better the world record of 726 hours set in 1939.

Barris and Riedel took off from Fullerton, Calif., at 8:44 a. m. (11:44 a. m. EST) March 15 and flew slowly across the United States to Miami. They arrived here Tuesday.

Railroad Men Foresee Another Grain Embargo During Harvest

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP) Some railroad experts foresee possible need of another general embargo on wheat this summer to keep the big terminals from being overflooded.

They believed the railroads will get as much freight business as they can handle when the record-size wheat acreage is harvested.

Some railroad officials are irked at the government for turning thumbs down on their plan for easing the expected jam-up in wheat shipments. The scheme would have meant more business for the railroads during a slack time. But it might have been political poison for the administration.

The Association of American railroads asked the Agriculture department weeks ago to order farmers to "deliver" to the government immediately all the 300,000,000 bushels or more of wheat held under price support loans and purchase agreements. The idea was to move wheat off farms and into the big terminals before the new crop came in.

The loans and agreements mature on April 30. But the government can call them at any earlier time. The farmers then would have to deliver the wheat or pay off the loan.

The agriculture department was leery of the scheme. Suppose, argued some officials, that the government had called the loans in early March and farmer delivered the wheat. Then, suppose the price of wheat in April rose 10 cents a bushel above the support rate. The farmer would protest that the government had cheated him out of a profit.

"We could never justify it," one official said.

The basic cause of the wheat jam-up is the mechanical combines which in late May start threshing northward out of the Texas Panhandle, 24 hours a day around the clock.

"If we could carry the grain to market as fast as it's harvested, we'd have everp terminal in the grain belt filled up in 72 hours," the railroad officials said.

In July last year the railroads for seven days had to embargo all wheat shipments to Kansas City and Hutchison, Kans. At one time almost 10,000 cars were lined up in Kansas City or "set short" of that terminal because they could not get in.

The railroads finally set a general embargo against shipment of any wheat except that for immediate sale unless the shipper could prove he already had contracted for storage space. That embargo was against all points in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Texas, and Council Bluffs, Iowa, and East St. Louis, Ill. It ran from July 6 to Nov. 10.

Snow, Fog Hamper Search For Bomber

TOKYO, March 28. (AP)—Four to six feet of new snow and a fog today hampered ground parties in their search for the wreckage of a B-26 light bomber that crashed yesterday on the slopes of Mount Fujiyama.

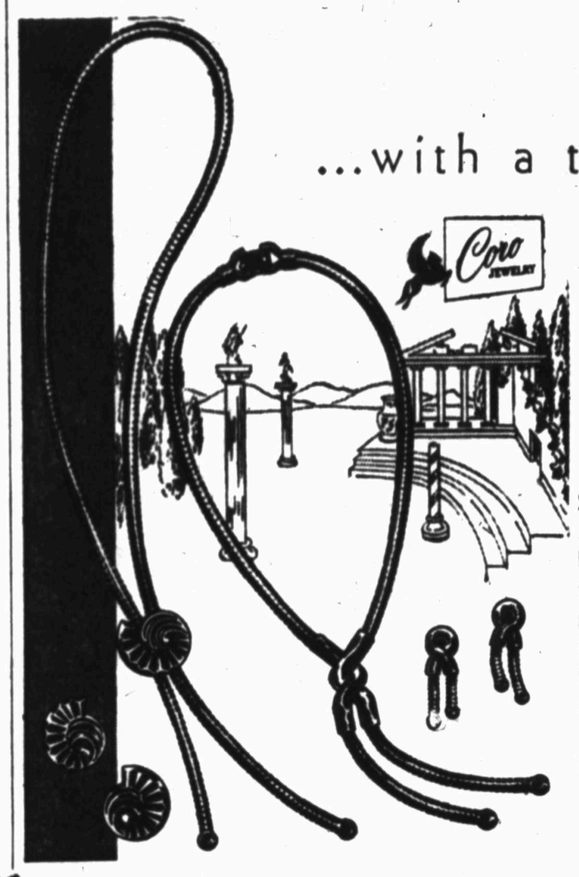

The plane carried a crew of four.

Wreckage was spotted by search planes. Four soldiers of the U. S. Third Rescue squadron were nearest the wreckage when the search was halted for the day. They were 7,000 feet up the 12,000 foot mountain.

11 Are Saved From Pacific

PEARL HARBOR, March 28 (AP)—Eleven survivors were rescued from a sinking Navy flying boat in the middle of the Pacific last midnight.

Navy LSM 448 picked up the airmen nine hours after they went down. Brief radio contact said merely the men were rescued. No further details were given.

The landing ship was ordered to take the survivors to Kwajalein in the Marshall islands, their starting point. The Catalina was ditched at sea with a dead engine 605 miles southwest of Johnston island, 700 miles southwest of here.

Life Rafts Dropped

After putting down on the rough sea the flying boat radioed it was leaking and could not stay afloat much longer.

The Navy rushed 15 other planes to the area. Life rafts were dropped. Some of them smashed in the rough seas.

An Air Force B-17 from Hickam field hovered over the bounding flying boat until the rescue ship arrived.

The LSM was 75 miles north when the twin-engined Catalina went down. The surface craft's radio operator had gone off duty but had left his receiving set on and got the relayed distress call from the Navy here. Seven minutes later the LSM was on its way.

The LSM is commanded by Lt. Floyd McDaniel Furr of Rockhill, S. C.

The spot where the Catalina went down is one of the loneliest in the Pacific. It was not far from where a plane bearing Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker was lost during the war. Amelia Earhart lost her life in the same general area.

BOUNCER TOO THOROUGH

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (U.P.)—It cost W. W. Stanfield $350 to learn how far his line of duty went as night club bouncer. Judge Edwin Jones fined him that amount after ruling it was not necessary for Stanfield to shoot a patron in the leg after tossing him out.

Lawyers Favor New Plan For Selection Of Higher Judges

DALLAS, March 28 (U.P.) — The state bar of Texas today made public the results of a referendum conducted among lawyers of the state to determine whether they favor an "appointive plan" for selection of appellate judges of Texas.

The tabulation showed 3,174 of the 4,793 lawyers polled favored the plan, with 1,453 opposed to it. There were 166 "indefinite" votes which were not counted.

The new plan for selection of higher court judges was submitted by a special committee of the state bar, headed by former Governor Dan Moody. The referendum was directed by the bar's annual convention in Houston last July.

The report of the organization declared that the present plan of nomination by party primary and general election for places on the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals and the court of civil appeals was unsatisfactory.

It stated that such appellate judges should be called initially to the bench by appointment and recommended an appointive system based on recommendations of commissions composed of lawyers and laymen for selecting the appellate judges.

Upon expiration of their terms, the judges would submit their records to the voters, and if the vote was in the negative, the office would be filled through the appointive machinery set-up.

R. G. Storey, president of the bar group, termed the expression of Texas lawyers on the matter "highly significant." He said the plan should provide more permanent tenure for a "good judge."

CAIRO, March 28 (AP) — The newspaper Al Misri said today that Israeli forces, including armored vehicles, are entrenched around Arab-occupied Hebron in southern Palestine.

Exhaustion Of Minerals Seen

WASHINGTON, March 28 (U.P.)—Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug warns that the nation's mineral wealth is being exhausted and impairing our ability to produce much of the amount needed.

"The cream of iron ore reserves is nearing exhaustion," he told the House appropriations committee. Crude oil production has barely kept up with demand, he said.

Krub's statement was made in testimony before the committee on the Interior department appropriation bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Ability Impaired

"In the face of a persistently expanding demand for raw materials," Krug said, "we find that exhaustion has impaired our ability to produce many minerals in the quantities required."

Lead production in 1948, he said, was 43 per cent below the 1925 peak; zinc was 20 per cent under the 1926 peak; copper was 24 per cent below the 1943 record, and mercury dropped to 17 per cent of its 1877 record.

"We must frankly face the realities of our declining mineral self-sufficiency and do something about it," he told the committee.

Seek More Research

Krug and Mining Director James Boyd asked for more intensive minerals research for industrial expansion and the stockpiling of critical materials.

Geological Director William E. Wrather told the committee the alternative to the expense of finding new ore and oil reserves is the even more costly prospect of using low-grade minerals, depending upon imports and a decline of the domestic mining industry.

Houston Rites Held For Ross Sterling

HOUSTON, March 28 (U.P.)—Last rites were read for former Governor Ross Sterling in the Christ church cathedral yesterday, as some 1,000 persons looked on.

Most of them followed the long procession to Glenwood cemetery for the burial, as skies became clear and a warm sun broke through.

The brief service, lasting about 10 minutes, was read by Bishop Clinton S. Quin of the Episcopal diocese of Texas.

Sterling, 74, had been under treatment in a Fort Worth hospital for a heart ailment since last Sept. 18. He died Friday.

A wealthy oil man, he served as governor from 1931 to 1933. He is survived by his wife, a son, three daughters, three sisters, a brother and nine grandchildren.

Pair Charged In Kidnaping

PUEBLO, Colo., March 28. (AP)—A contest over custody of a two-year-old child left two Texans in jail facing kidnap charges today and the mother and boy unharmed after their trip through Texas, New Mexico and Colorado.

Charged with kidnaping at Ozona, Tex., were G. K. Beeman and his brother, Horace. They were held in Pueblo county jail for Texas oficers.

Taken From Home

Ozona Deputy Sheriff Hearst Laws said they took G. K. Beeman's boy and wife, Barbara, from the home of Mrs. Beeman's parents there Friday night.

Highway Patrolmen Leon Fettinger and Ray Hamil arrested the men 10 miles south of here yesterday.

The officers, had been warned the men were armed, but they offered no resistance.

Woman Explains

Mrs. Beeman explained why her husband and brother were unarmed.

"I managed to get my husband's gun when he reached Carsbad, N. M., took out the shells and threw the gun in the back seat," she told reporters.

She said she wasn't forced to accompany her husband, but wouldn't remain behind after he took their child.

Ozona Sheriff Virgil O. Earnest said Mrs. Beeman was getting a divorce which would become final next week. Under it she would get custody of the child.

Child Born Although Mother Polio Victim

LOS ANGELES, March 28 (AP)—Willard Dare, a barber, got very excited when informed over the phone that he had just become the father of a baby girl. He had reason to be.

He said he shoved a dollar bill into the hands of a lathered customer he was shaving and told him to get the job finished down the street.

He rushed to the hospital to learn his wife and the six-pound four-ounce infant were doing nicely. He was much relieved. His wife, Virginia, 28, is a polio victim and has been in an iron lung since last Nov. 15.

Medical Bills Are Proposed

AUSTIN, March 28 (U.P.)—Three bills calling for a total expenditure of $5,600,000 for higher education in Texas were ready today for consideration by the House of Representatives.

Calling for spending the largest amount of the money was a measure which would appropriate $3,600,000 to create a medical branch of the University of Texas at Dallas. The bill is sponsored by Rep. W. O. Reed of Dallas.

Another bill ready for consideration in the lower chamber was one authored by Rep. O. E. Lattimer of San Antonio. It would appropriate $1,000,000 for a university medical school at San Antonio.

A third bill, by Rep. Jack Brooks of Beaumont, proposes an appropriation of $1,000,000 to set up a four-year Lamar State technological college. The Beaumont school presently is a junior college.

Meanwhile, Gilmer-Aikin legislation to abolish the post now held by state Superintendent L. A. Woods was expected to come up in the House Wednesday or Thursday. The plan is sponsored by Sen. James E. Taylor of Kerens.

Committees of both houses faced heavy dockets of legislation, as the 51st legislative session neared the end of its third month.

Tonight, a proposed constitutional amendment calling for issuance of bonds payable out of the permanent university fund, up to $40,000,000, for a building program for state colleges was set for hearing by the house school districts committee.

The Senate water rights committee was to hear discussion of a measure which would set up a board to control stream pollution.

The House appropriations committee was scheduled to consider a proposal for still a third medical branch of the University of Texas. The proposal, sponsored by Rep. Lamar Zivley of Temple, asks for a medical branch in Bell county.

Tomorrow night, the House state affairs is scheduled to hold a hearing on a bill to regulate and control lobbyists, and Wednesday, an anti-poll tax constitutional amendment by Rep. S. J. Isaaks of El Paso is to be heard by the House constitutional amendments committee. The amendments committee also will consider a proposal to make the state superintendent of public instruction a constitutional office.

The House committee on privileges, suffrage and elections will hold a hearing Thursday night on legislation which would keep Communists off the ballot. The measure is authorized by Sen. John J. Bell of Cuero.

Soviet Officer Claims Russia Would Invade Europe In War

BERLIN, March 28. (AP)—A Soviet army officer said today Russia would invade some western European countries in the event of a war.

The officer, Capt. A. Morosov, wrote in the Red army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau, that such an invasion would be undertaken only if it were "forced upon" the Russians.

He said the Russians would drive westward "in pursuit of the imperialist aggressor" — America and her allies.

Morosov contended that in a war between Russia and the West the Soviet could count upon Communists in western European countries to aid them. He cited recent statements by Communist leaders in the West.

The Red officer said his article —entitled "Just In Case"—was a reply to various hypothetical writtings in "warmongering" Western papers which speculated on the out-come of an East-West war.

He attempted to disprove that Russia and her satellites were industrially weaker than the West and that the U. S. has a monopoly of the atomic bomb.

He also denounced claims that the Russians never would have reached Berlin without the lend-lease arms and equipment given them by the U. S. and Britain.

Bishop Laurence J. FitzSimon of Amarillo was also a speaker at the banquet, attended by approximately 300 persons from an area extending from Amarillo to Odessa.

Teachers Are Saying

Under the guise of academic freedom, teachers in many institutions are saying there is no God and that the only people who believe in God are children and old people, Scoggins said.

"Christian people and God-fearing people have got to stop this trend; it's going to be necessary for them to save the world," he declared. "I have no fear for Christianity; I have no fear for the world. . . I may not live to see it, but my children will live to see the day when the iron curtain of Russia will be raised again."

In a world of conflict; in the rise of modern intellectualism, the challenge today to lay apostles of the Catholic church is in a different field than ever before in the history of the church, Bishop FitzSimon said.

Laymen Must Help

"The battle today is not so much with the sword as with the pen," the bishop told his listeners. "The call today is for all the people. The layman must help row the boat. . . trim the sails."

Miss Carolyn Schaefer, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Treadaway, sang three numbers during the program.

Paul G. Schaeffer, grand knight of the local council, was master of ceremonies. Address of welcome was by Rev. Wm. F. Blakeslee, pastor of St. Elizabeth's church.

A total of 45 candidates were initiated into the order during the day's ceremonies, staged in Blakeslee hall, adjoining the church. Degree teams were present from Amarillo, Hereford and Fort Worth in addition to members from a dozen or more towns of the area.

Funeral Set Today For Sundown Youth

SUNDOWN, March 28. (Special)—Funeral services for R. S. Craddock, 16, Sundown High school student who died unexpectedly early Sunday, were to be conducted at 2:30 p. m. today in Sundown High school auditorium.

Rev. C. C. Hardin, pastor of the Sundown Baptist church, was to officiate.

Burial was to be in Tech Memorial park, under direction of Plains Funeral home of Levelland.

The youth, who was to have been graduated from high school in May, suffered a heart attack Saturday evening in Levelland. He was taken to Phillips-Dupre hospital for emergency treatment. A respirator, brought to the hospital from Lubbock, was put to use, but the boy died at 6:04 a. m. Sunday.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Craddock; a sister, Barbara Jane; and a brother, David Alden.

Brownfield DeMolays Presented Degrees

First degrees on a newly-organized chapter of the Order of DeMolay at Brownfield were conferred by the E. Y. Lee chapter of Lubbock at the Masonic hall here Sunday afternoon.

Thirty youths from Brownfield presented themselves for initiation. They were accompanied by approximately 35 Masons and their Masonic advisers, Dr. Gordon E. Richardson, advisory council chairman, and Dr. W. A. Roberson, chapter dad.

Jimmy Kennedy, master councilor of the Lubbock chapter, presided in the initiation ceremonies.

DeMolay in Brownfield is sponsored by the Brownfield chapter No. 309, Royal Arch Masons of which John J. Kendrick is high priest.

Officers of the DeMolay chapter will be announced after the group's first organization meeting later this week.

Wisconsin Boy Admits Killing

FOND DU LAC, Wis., March 28 (AP) — District Attorney Jerold Murphy said yesterday that a 12-year-old boy has admitted he killed Michael Strobel, 2, by strangling last Wednesday.

Murphy said the boy, a relative to Michael, sobbingly related that he choked the child by twisting a belt around his neck and dangling him about the floor until the body became limp.

It all happened, police said the boy explained, because he had bumped his head as he tussled with Michael to get him into bed and "when I bump my head it makes me mad."

Admission Tearful

Police said the boy broke down and made his tearful admission as they rechecked his story in an effort to throw more light on the mystery. The boy's father, present during the quiz, also wept as his son poured out his story. (Wisconsin law forbids use of the name of a juvenile charged with a law violatoin).

The admission secured the immediate release of Michael's father, Urban, 33, who had been detained without charge since his son's body was found Thursday in the Strobel bedroom.

The boy faced a juvenile court hearing today.

Glenn Davis' Film Friend Is Learning Life Not Her Own

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, March 28. (AP)—Black haired, beauteous Elizabeth Taylor is finding out a movie star's life is not her own.

The cause of her discovery is her much-publicized romance with Army football star Glenn Davis. She's learning it's not fun to conduct a courtship with 150,000,000 people looking on.

Just returned from making "Conspirator" in England, Elizabeth's attitude appears to have changed. Before leaving, she could talk about little else but the all-American. Now her answers to questions are guarded. This does not necessarily mean the romance has cooled.

Davis Changes Mind

"Nothing is different," she said. They are not engaged; they still plan to wait until she is older.

Glenn went with his father to Catalina last Thursday and didn't plan to escort Elizabeth to the academy awards.

But when a rift rumor was printed that day, he rushed back to the event, thus robbing the tongue-waggers of an opportunity. When I saw Elizabeth that afternoon, she was hustling around MGM to find a tuxedo for the boy.

Reflecting on her recent trip, Elizabeth said she found English conditions grim, Paris fashions handsome, French pastry delicious and Florida sunshine soothing. The latter sounds treasonous to California ears, but she explained she was made a lieutenant colonel on the Florida governor's staff. Thus she outranks Lt. Davis.

"Believe me, that comes in handy," she added.

Pains From Broken Hip Just Too Much

LONG BEACH, Calif., Mar. 28. (AP)—The pain of a broken hip was too much for Frederick H. McMenamin, 78, a one-time Philadelphia businessman.

He had just moved into his new bachelor apartment last Thursday when he fell and broke his hip. The telephone was not yet connected and neighbors were too far away to hear him.

On Saturday night, Mrs. Marguerite Pack, a friend, went to the apartment. She found his body, fallen near the luggage where he kept his revolver. A note, scratched out painfully, lay nearby.

"I fell and borke my hip," it read. "I will this apartment to Mrs. Marguerite Pack." The note was dated March 24.

Police said there was one bullet hole in the old man's head. The gun was in his hand.

An average of 208 inches of snow falls annually on Mount Washington, N. H., highest peak in New England, with a height of 6,288 feet.

CIVIL WAR PAPERS TURN UP

BOSTON (U.P.)—Civil War documents, including correspondence between Gov. John A. Andrews and President Lincoln's military leaders, were discovered when workmen dismantled an old rest room in the State House. The 75 volumes of letters, missin for 32 years, were carefully packed in locked mahogany wall cabinets.

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—John W. Thomason, 3rd, 28, vice consul in Calcutta, India, whose mother lives at Terrell, Tex., was killed in a plane crash.

An official of the State department's South Asia division said the department received a cablegram last night which said Thomason "was killed today (Sunday) in an aircraft accident".

Thomason had been in Calcutta since his appointment to the consular service in 1946.

He was a son of Mrs. J. W. Thomason, Jr., Mrs. Thomason has lived in Terrell since the death of her husband in 1945.

He was a Marine corps colonel at the time of his death. Colonel Thomason originally was from Huntsville, Tex.

The younger Thomason was a major in the Marine corps before he entered consular service. During the war he saw service in the South Pacific.

Thomason and his wife, Ruth, had planned to return to the United States April 13 on a three-months leave.

An English teacher we know wants to discard the exclamation point because people aren't surprised at anything these days.

JOSEPH Houston Bryant, with whom we've been feuding these many years about peanuts, popcorn, hot tamales and blue plate specials in picture shows, came bustling in.

"I got sumpin," he said, "that'll make your old heart glad. I just contracted for a special showing of 'Hamlet' and one of the things the distributors insist on is that all concessions must be closed during the picture's run.

"So when 'Hamlet' comes to Lubbock you can come see it, serene in the knowledge that you won't smell rancid oil, won't be bothered by crinkling bags, or the slap-slap-slap of the lips of popcorn chompers!"

Well, personally, we'd rather be slapped in the face with a dead rabbit than suffer through "Hamlet," "Egglet," or any other picture in which bony actors wear tights, carry daggers and shout "forsooth!"

But the torture would be almost worthwhile to be able to go to a show again and not be bothered, in hearing or smell, by the theater's commissary department.

If Mr. Bryant will close up his combination hamburger heaven, cafeteria, soft drink stand and candy kitchen some time when Bing Crosby, or Wallace Beery, or Jimmie Stewart is emoting, we'll take him up on a seat.

Furthermore, we'll buy a ticket, happily eschewing use of the pass which he generously makes available to us on an annual basis!

INCIDENTALLY, Mr. Bryant tells us that in reluctantly contracting for "Hamlet"—which will not show in any theater where food or confections are purveyed—he did so mainly because he thinks some theater in Lubbock ought to present the feature.

The deal is one of those where a guy just rents his showhouse out and hopes to make some money on a 30-per-cent-of-the-gross basis. The Hollywoodenheads distributing "Hamlet" run the prices up to several times the usual take on the basis that the show is "art," "culture," etc., and a jolly, old, etc.

Mr. Bryant says he doubts if there are enough people here interested enough in Shakespeare to make the deal pay off, but he's going to give it a whirl, anyway.

We join Mr. Bryant in his doubts, especially since ducats will be jacked up to $1.20 and $2.40.

Maybe there are enough high school and college kids forced to study Shakespeare who'll lay that sort of dough on the line in order to avoid having to wade through a reading of "Hamlet."

Come to think of it, that'd be a bargain.

A GOVERNMENT survey recently showed that there are 25,000 different ways to make a living in this country today.

That is interesting.

It would be further interesting to know, too, how many different methods the various city, county, state and national governments have devised for getting generous slices of the income off those 25,000 different ways of making a living. The total must run into many thousands.

On its cover recently, the United States News showed just what the federal income tax, alone, means to the average worker. It showed that "everybody works for Uncle Sam," some to the extent that they might just as well quit working, live on their investments, or unemployment insurance.

According to the United States News, the average $2,500 per year man has to work 16 days each year in order to pay his $174 income tax. During those 18 days, he earns nothing for himself, nothing for his family—nothing for anybody else, except the Collector of Internal Revenue.

On the "graduated tax scale" under which the income tax is figured, here are some more average figures as shown by the United States News:

The fellow who makes $5,000 per year works 28 days to pay his $548 income tax; the $7,500 man works 33 days to pay Uncle Sam his $964 cut; the $10,000 man works 36 days to pay his $1,400 tax; the $15,000 per year man works 42 days for Uncle Sam to pay his $2,433 income tax bill.

Most of us don't worry much about the man who earns $100,000 a year. He doesn't have any worries at all—or so we think.

But the guy who makes 100 grand spends 104 days—or more than one-third of his working time each year—in order to satisfy his income tax bill of $40,067.

Why should he work that much of his time to pay taxes if he has something laid away to live on?

But here we've been discussing only federal income tax.

What about the other taxes? How big a bite do they take out of your income—and that of everybody else?

We don't know. Nobody knows. But if people generally did know, you can bet your bottom dollar there'd be some changes made!

It is not exaggeration to estimate that in addition to the $548 the $5,000 man pays each year in income tax, he pays another $500 to $700 in other taxes.

Most of that $500 to $750 goes into "hidden taxes"—the "painless" kind, because the guy who pays 'em doesn't realize it.

But "painless," or not, those taxes are there and we all pay them!

Is everybody happy?

RADIO COMEDIANS are always sure of a laugh when they refer to Alfred M. Landon, former governor of Kansas and onetime Republican presidential candidate who carried only two states in 1936. But maybe Mr. Landon isn't as dumb as the radio boys would have you believe.

After gauging the national tax bill and the aims of some of the wilder of the "Tru-Deal" boys to spend more of the people's money, Mr. Landon remarked:

"I am convinced that the Russian dictator of half the world is waiting for us to knock ourselves out through our own financial excesses."

He could be right.

BY DREW PEARSON: REDS MAY MOVE ON NORWAY AS TEST OF NORTH ATLANTIC PACT

A Test Of Alliance Could Bring War This Year

WASHINGTON.—This column probably will be greeted by Izvestia and Pravda with screams of "warmonger!"; while some people in this country won't like it, either.

However, here are some of the European trouble-signs the American people should keep a weather-eye on at a period when the Soviet Union is more than on the spot.

PEARSON

With the conclusion of the North Atlantic pact, two divergent reports reach Washington as to what the Soviet will do to checkmate the new alliance:

1. Foreign Minister Vishinsky will come to the U. N. meeting in New York to wage a new peace offensive aimed at marking the United States appear to be belligerant and the Soviet a peace-lover. The American embassy in Moscow is convinced this will happen.

2. After insincerely waving the alleged olive branch, the Red army will then march into one of the North Aaltnaic pact countries—probably Norway—in a move to break down the alliance before it has time to become strongly cemented. This could mean war this year.

Moscow of course would avoid the outward appearance of an invasion. A communist government might be set up by a minority of Norwegians in the northern part of the country, which would call upon Moscow for aid. Thus the Red army would have an excuse to march in.

Or again, the same thing might happen in Iran.

No matter what the country, the Soviet is almost certain to make a major test of Western strength this year, and the unpleasant fact has to be faced that this could lead to war.

Moscow's Viewpoint

Meanwhile some strategists in the Defense department believe the scales are so delicately tipped that there is greater danger of war than any time time since Dec. 7, 1941.

Two main factors are behind this pessimistic conclusion:

A.) With completion of the North Atlantic pact, two lines of fortifications will extend across Europe—the armies of the West on one side, the armies of the East on the other. Eventually they may clash. Therefore, it might be better from Russia's point of view to precipitate the clash before the Western line is organized and fortified.

B.) The politburo considers its main weapons to be people—plus the psychological and political practices that influence people. Recently the people of western Europe have been slipping from Moscow's gasp. Therefore if war is going to come eventually, from Moscow's point of view, it had beeter come now than later.

Meanwhile the Russians have already built their line of defense across Europe. Running from the Baltic to the Balkans is a series of Red army concentrations, munition dumps and air bases. Another from Vilna to Kiev, marks the beginning of Russian munitions factories. And important factories are being moved east of that line to further escape the range of allied bombers.

Opposite the first Soviet line, Moscow now knows that the North Atlantic pact countries plan to build up a new Maginot line, consisting of 35 European divisions armed with U. S. weapons. France is to organize 14 divisions, Great Britain 6, Italy 5, Belgium 3, Norway 2, Holland 2, with one each for Luxembourg, Denmark and Portugal.

These 35 divisions, standing watch on the Rhine, will take about three years to equip and organize. After they are organized, the Russians know that crossing the Rhine will not be the relatively easy job it probably would be today.

THE chief factor which should deter Russia from war is, of course, the atom bomb. We have it and the Russians haven't. However, they may argue—with some truth—that the United States would never drop the atom bomb in Paris, London, Rome, Oslo, Copenhagen. And once Red troops moved into those cities, it would take years to pry them out. Meanwhile, bombing the great open spaces of Russia is difficult. They are a long way off and Russian cities are spaced few and far between. Next to Africa or Australia, the atom bomb would be least effective on Russia.

But regardless of these pros-and-cons, it remains a fact that 15 divisions out of the 22 which the Red army has maintained in Siberia have recently been moved back toward Europe. It is a further fact that the Czech bank in New York was closed the other day, even though it was making money (Japan closed its banks here before Pearl Harbor); and that the Russian satellite countries ar conducting an inventory of all military supplies in order to fix one central command for the armies of Poland, Finland, Bulgaria, Hungary, Roumania, etc.

It also remains a fact that the Russians, being partly Oriental, are tremendously influenced by "face" or prestige. When they lose face, they move to recoup it. When the U. S. A. took over Greece, Russia immediately moved to take over Hungary. When we scored other gains, she took over Czechoslovakia.

Today, U. S. troops are in Greece, just a few miles from the iron curtain, which is comparable to having Russian troops in Mexico. Norway's new alliance with the U. S. A. has the same effect on Russia as an alliance between Greenland and Russia would on us, while the U. S. military mission on the banks of the Bosphorous might be considered comparabel to having a Russian mission at the Panama canal.

It's necessary and important to look at the matter through Russian eyes, because they are the ones who will finally decide whether to wait until the United States has built up its new Maginot line or to jump the gun this year.

All of which is not a pleasant prospect, and we hope it won't turn out this way. But in this world of hard-boiled realities there is no use playing ostrich.

If, on the other hand, three crucial year, 1949 can be passed without war, then the odds will be increasingly strong for a long period of peace—a period which the American people could use to penetrate the iron curtain with people-to-people friendship—the only guarantee of permanent peace.

"Lets Just Ianore It, Sam"

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

Army's Handcuff Volunteers Moaning Lower Than Is Usual

NEW YORK, March 28—Well, today, I am a handcuff volunteer in this man's Army, where the sergeants kiss the recruits a fond goodnight and watch over his moral welfare like a mother hen and if you will pardon the expression, I am so mad I could spit spikes.

Yessir, here I am in my little soldier suit, playing war like the Russians was going to march in tomorrow and it says right there, in black and white, that there ain't going to be no more draft til the durn thing dies in 1950. But it don't make no difference to Buster, because Buster is a [illegible]. Buster is in the Army, and Buster is going to stay a patriot until his term runs out. But what is Buster doing here?

RUARK

This will sit pretty sore with the average guy who listened to the bogey-boys in Washington tell how everybody between certain ages were going to get dragged into the great peacetime Army unles they run, do not walk, to the nearest recruit station. They register nine millions kids for the draft and then they hint gently that if you will get into the reserves or go willingly or dive in when you ain't old enough to feed yourself you can beat the old, hard, mean draft.

Time Too Short

If you're only 18 you can duck the old, hard, mean draft and just serve 12 months, and anybody knows you can't build a soldier in no 12 months, especially if he hasn't started to shave yet and his voice ain't changed. But they welcome you in anyhow, because a body is a body.

Then they auction off the 21-month tours with choice of service to the real candidates and so they all leap in without being called. So what happens is you finally only draft 30,000 guys out of nine million registered. Another 162,000 volunteer. Then they knock off induction for the duration and what happens to the other 8,800,000 candidates for distinction? What happens to the smart dudes who don't volunteer? What happens to the soulful objectors and the guys with high numbers and the dodgers?

FRIEND, I will tell you what happens to the other eight million-odd. They are sitting outside in tweed suits, laughing their heads off at us eager patriots inside. Because we, friend, are stuck. We are the great peacetime Army and we remain in same until we finish out the tour. Discharges ain't retroactive in this man's Army, and a man with a noble intent draws the same pay as the guy you had to hogtie to drag into the selective service center. Now I ain't going to play sucker and go over the hill or sass back to the sergeant or forget what is a muster, because 21 months or 12 months ain't forever and one of these days I am graduated. And like the man said, I am a happy patriot and I won't never, never have to be drafted again when and if the inductions are revived.

What Assurance?

But how do I know that? How do I know what they will do with this here fair white body? They tell you one thing and then go do just the opposite and maybe the next draft will be strictly postgraduate with nobody eligible except us alumni. How do I know what to believe? But if you think you got a happy Army now, you are just blowing smoke. Wouldn't you feel sore if they made a sucker out of you?

As I sit here on my GI cot, far from home and mother, and as I polish that gun and dubbin them shoes. I sit and think about civilians my same age and people in Washington who run a draft like it was some sort of girl's game, changing their minds every other week, while the eager heroes get stuck with the stick. What I think ain't printable.

A draft is a serious thing and when a man dreams up a draft there ought to be some sort of clause in the contract which says what will happen to one will happen to all.

The articles of war don't mention nothing about a dogface being able to change his mind.

No, don't expect us to go over the hill or shoot the supply sergeant because that is stupid and things are stupid enough already. But you won't mind if us handcuff volunters moan a little lower than usual, will you? Because, friend, the way they run this draft, with near blackmail and all to get us into it, is simply one helluva way to run a railroad.

COW SET PRODUCTION MARK

HADLEY, Mass. (AP)—A member of the nation's bovine aristocracy is Hartsbrook Inka Maude, a registered Holstein cow which has produced 109,802 pounds of milk and 4,087 pounds of butterfat in eight years. Her owners, E. P. and O. C. West say she is the 1,809th Holstein in the entire United States to produce more than 100,000 pounds of milk.

Woodpeckers rarely destroy a healthy tree and they destroy great quantities of harmful insects.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"WHEN men are friends or congenial business associates why can't their wives get along?" I as asked by a juzzled husband. He claims that when he suggests having the Browns and Smiths over for dinner his wife goes into a lot of feminine explaining about how the evening would be a total flop because "Mrs Brown and Mrs. Smith can't stand each other."

That man has a point all right. Too many women do refuse to make an effort to get along amicably with the wives of men their husbands find congenial.

MILLETT

That complicates social life needlessly and often results in a wife's cutting herself and her husband out of many a pleasant social evening because a hostess thinks they won't "mix" with the other guests she plans to entertain.

Furthermore, in some cases this becomes a distince business handicap to the husband. He may be held back in his job or profession by his wife's inability to get along with the wives of his associates.

So even though Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Brown might never have chosen each other for friends, they are probably making a mistake, in not making an effort to establish a pleasant relationship.

FRIENDSHIP UNNECESSARY

FOR it is never necessary for wives of good friend or close business associates to be intimate friends. All they have to do to keep from hurting the relationship their husbands have is to find some mutual field of interest and build their association on that.

If they are too unlike for real friendship, they can still manage to be friendly—if they are willing to make the effort. At least they can treat each other cordially enough so that other women don't hesitate to invite both couples over for dinner or an evening's conversation.

It's really a wife's job to be able to establish a pleasant social relationship with the wife of any man her husband wants to see socially, either for reasons of friendship or business.

And any woman with an open mind and charming manners won't find the job too difficult.

'Try And Stop Me"

TED LAWSON, co-author of "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," told me a fine story about Alex de Seversky, who, like Lawson, lost a leg as a flyer in wartime. Seversky one day was trying to cheer a disconsolate airman in a similar predicament. "The loss of a leg," he said with conviction," is really not so great a calamity. Look at me. I dance, I fly, I drive a car, I go everywhere.

"And another thing, if you get hit on a wooden leg, it doesn't hurt a bit! Here, try it!" The aviator took his cane and cracked it across Seversky's leg with terrific force. "You see," laughed Seversky. "If you hit an ordinary man like that he'd be in bed for five days! Cheer up, old man," he waived airily, and left the ward. In the corridor, he collapsed! The wounded aviator, of course, had hit him on his real leg!

AFTER the first act of an important opening, the author, sensing failure, was holding his head in the wings: "Cheer up!" roared actress Tallulah Bankhead. "After all, your four other recent plays were flops, too."

Today's Journal Editorial

DON'T BE A SUCKER!

The season when the door-to-door solicitations racket flourishes most is at hand. Typical will be youths "wokin' their way through collich" by peddling magazine subscriptions, usually operating in crews organized in Chicago or Denver. But they may be trying to obtain orders, with deferred deliveries, for any of many commodities.

They will have one thing in common. They will want "deposits" for whatever they sell, or pretend to sell. The individual who falls victim to their persuasiveness will take two big risks: first, that they'll never get what they ordered; and, second, it won't be what they ordered. There already have been some complaints of this nature in Lubbock.

So, there is just one course open for those solicited unless they want the brand of "sucker" placed upon them. It is to say a positive, "No!" to the itinerant peddlers and to patronize the local merchants who guarantee delivery and quality. This is the system which will be better, cheaper and more satisfactory in at least nine cases out of 10.

Australian Communist Charged With Sedition For War Pledge

SYDNEY, Australia, March 28. (AP)—The general secretary of the Australian Communist party was charged with sedition today for pledging support to Russia if Soviet troops should enter Australia.

The Communist leader, Lawrence Louis Sharkey, pleaded innocent at a special session of federal court. He elected to be tried by a jury.

Sharkey faces two charges—one of uttering seditious words and one of publishing seditious words on or about March 4.

Trade Unions Split

Opening of the case revealed a split within trade unions generally considered Communists-dominated.

Many thousand members of the militant longshoremen and coal miners union refused to protest the prosecution of Sharkey. Of 23,000 men in the wharf leaborers union, only 5000 obeyed an order of the federal executive to strike at the hour court opened. There were no other major work stoppages.

This, said the newspaper Sydney Sun, gave the Communist leaders one of thes greatest industrial rebuffs in years.

Statement Quoted

The statement quoted in the charges against Sharkey were made at the time Communist leaders in countries all around the world were stating their support for Russia in any future war.

Sharkey is charged, in part, with having said:

"If Soviet forces in pursuit of aggressors enter Australia, Australian workers would welcome them."

The hearing was unfinished when the court adjourned until tomorrow.

The magistrate will commit Sharkey for trial by jury before a judge if he believes a case has been established against him.

Postal Receipts In Texas Cities Gain

AUSTIN, March 28. (AP)—Postal receipts in 60 Texas cities last month rose 18 per cent over February, 1948, to total $3,394,580, the bureau of business research reported today. Receipts for February were 5 per cent under January's, however.

Dallas receipts totaled $860,360; Houston, $570,231; Fort Worth, $366,450; San Antonio, $314,469, and Austin, $160,934.

Towns having the greatest increases over February 1948 were McAllen, 131 per cent; Tyler, 52 per cent; Sweetwater, 49 per cent, and Jacksonville, 39 per cent.

Major gains over January were recorded by McAllen, 81 per cent; Austin, 31 per cent; New Braunfels, 21 per cent, and Sweetwater, 12 per cent. Borger, Lamesa, Jacksonville, Fort Worth and Longview registered smaller increases.

Brownwood's First Mail Carrier Dead

BROWNWOOD, March 28 (AP)—Gustave A. Hoffman, 72, Brownwood's first city mail carrier, is dead.

Funeral services for Hoffman, who died yesterday, will be held here today.

He retired in 1941 after serving under seven postmasters. Hoffman was a native of Fredericksburg.

Prisoner Walks Out Of Jail Unmolested

DETROIT, March 28. (AP)—The elevator operator at police headquarters recognized the prisoned he was taking down from the ninth floor last night. He asked the man where he was going.

"I'm going out for a drink, but don't tell anybody about it," answered George J. George, 34-year-old ex-convict being held as a police witness in connection with a hotel holdup.

The operator didn't tell anyone, thinking George must have been released. The prisoner strolled through headquarters lobby and out the main door to freedom.

Red-faced police who began a search for George puzzled as to how he managed to unlock two doors—one leading from his ninth floor cell block to the visitors' room and the other into the building corridor.

They theorized he must have picked up a master key during the confusion of Sunday visitors hours.

George was on parole from Marquette state prison when he was arrested Feb. 8. He was permitted considerable freedom in his cellblock because he gave police information in the $1,500 hotel robbery.

Seven American Fliers Saved From Barren Region In Arctic

EDMONTON, Alta., March 28. (AP)—A ski-equipped U. S. Air Force Dakota late yesterday rescued seven American airmen from the barren waste of Ellesmere island inside the Arctic circle.

The seven had crash-landed Thursday in a U. S. C-82 cargo plane while on a 1,100 mile flight from Frobisher bay on Baffin island to Resolute bay on Cornwallis island. Their plane was 700 miles off course when it ran low on fuel.

Names Not Given

Names of the rescued men were not announced.

Details of the rescue were lacking. Air Commodore Martin Costello, in charge of rescue operations for the Royal Canadian Air Force, sent a two-word message: "Evacuation successful." Earlier reports from the downed plane said the men were unhurt and well.

An armada of U. S. and Canadian planes poined in a search for the cargo plane after it reported by radio it was forced to land because of diminished fuel supply. The missing plane was first located Saturday.

Flown From Greenland

The Dakota which took the marooned men out was flown to the area from Thule, Greenland. The downed plane was on the coast of Ellesmere island on Smith sound between Baffin bay and Kane base.

There was no indication why the cargo plane had strayed so far off course. It was in the general area of the north magnetic pole, however, which influences the readings of magnetic compasses and thus makes navigation difficult.

The rescued men were to be taken to Thule and thence to Goose Bay, Labrador.

The Vandals conquered Spain in an invasion starting in 409.
