Mrs. Gandhi Arrested

NEW DELHI, India (AP)-Indira Gandhi, prime minister of India for 11 years until her election defeat last March, was arrested today on charges of misusing her position.

Eyewitnesses said a large squad of agents from India's central bureau of investigation took Mrs. Gandhi, 59, into custody at her New Delhi home.

Mrs. Gandhi was charged with acquiring 104 vehicles through misuse of her official position, India's national news agency reported.

A large crowd assembled outside Mrs. Gandhi's home as soon as supporters learned of the raid and while she was still inside. They chanted "Long live Indira Gandhi."

Shortly after the plain-clothesmen arrived, supporters of Mrs. Gandhi issued a statement in her name charging that the "arrest is a political one. It is to prevent me from going to the people. It is an attempt to discredit me in their eyes and the eyes of the world."

Hijackers Surrender

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)-Five hijackers who took a Japanese jetliner on a six-day journey of terror over two continents released their last 19 hostages and surrendered to Algerian authorities today, airline officials said.

PLO Push Blasted

By The Associated Press

Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan said the U.S.-Soviet declaration of principles for an Arab-Israeli peace agreement was another American attempt to push the Palestine Liberation Organization into the Geneva peace talks "through the front door."

Israeli leaders, Sen. Henry Jackson and George Meany sharply criticized the joint declaration while the PLO and other Arabs called it a positive step toward peace.

The declaration, issued Saturday as part of the effort to get Arab-Israeli peace negotiations in Geneva started before the end of the year, urged Israel to recognize the "legitimate rights of the Palestinian people" and give them a role in the Geneva conference.

Dayan, in the United States to negotiate with the Americans and indirectly with the Arabs told the newspaper Yediot Aharonot a meeting he is having with President Carter Wednesday would be "decisive. ... After that we shall know with virtual certainty whether there is any chance for a Geneva conference."

Kuznetsov Promoted

MOSCOW (AP)-The Soviet Union gave a major political promotion today to 76-year-old Vasily V. Kuznetsov, one of its top diplomatic troubleshooters. The move came at the start of a week of high-level policy meetings that are also expected to name a formal second in command to president Leonid I. Brezhnev.

Moscow radio announced that Kuznetsov, the top deputy to Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, was named one of eight candiate members of the Communist party's ruling Politburo. There are also 14 full members of the Politburo headed by Brezhnev.

Kuznetsov was once an exchange worker at the Ford Motor Co. in the United States and received a degree from the Carnegie School of Mines in Pittsburgh.

The promotion moves Kuznetsov, who has helped guide Soviet foreign policy on China the Cuban missile crisis, the Middle East and the 1968 Czechoslovak invasion, from purely government work to the top political arena.

Plan Cuts Red Tape

WASHINGTON (AP)-The government says red tape is delaying decisions on whether hundreds of chemicals suspected of causing cancer should be banned from the American workplace.

In a plan expected to have a far-reaching impact on business and industry, the Labor Department today proposed eliminating the slow, item-by-item review of suspected carcinogens it says has stymied its work.

Although 1,500 to 2,000 substances have been identified as potentially causing cancer, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration has completed regulatory action on only 17 in its five-year history.

The proposal by the Labor Department agency would set standards for identifying and regulating all potential cancer-causing agents, often without the need for lengthy hearings as now required.

"Trying to control carcinogenic substances on a case-by-case basis is like trying to put out a fire with an eye dropper," Labor Secretary Ray Marshall said in announcing the plan, designed to pick out those substances that need emergency action.

Filibuster Enters Into Third Week

WASHINGTON (AP)-The Senate deadlock on natural gas prices entered its third week today with leaders of a filibuster designed to keep price controls giving no signs of surrender.

The two liberal senators conducting the filibuster say they need the votes of only two senators to reverse two earlier tests which showed supporters of deregulating natural gas have the votes to win.

Deregulation for Sen. James Abourezk, D-S.D., said today, "We could go for another 10 days or two weeks."

Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., has said, however, he expects the stalemate to end Tuesday or Wednesday.

The last key test vote, lost by Carter administration supporters, occurred on Friday. Under Senate precedents the next vote would likely be scheduled Tuesday, although there was no assurance that tradition would be continued.

White House lobbyists have remained neutral on whether the filibuster should continue, but the President's principal consumer adviser today said she supported it.

Testifying at a Senate natural gas hearing, Esther Peterson, President Carter's special assistant for consumer affairs told the second filibuster leader, Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, she has "very strong support for what you are doing."

In calculating their chances for a victory, Abourezk and Metzenbaum are pinning their hopes on a tie floor vote.

Vice President Water F. Mondale would then have to break the deadlock by voting for the Carter administration's plan to continue controls.

In an important vote last week, supporters of deregulation won 50 to 44.

Big Rally Begins Thursday

Airstreamers Circulate $2 Bills Here This Week

If you see a lot of $2 circulating around town this week, it means the Airstream Trailers are in town.

Some three dozen of an expected 300 Airstream trailers had arrived at the Scurry County Coliseum grounds over the weekend for a regional rally.

Hosting the event is the Texas Big Country unit of the Wally Byram Caravan Club Interantional.

The trailers coming are from Region 9 of the club.

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce and Scurry County Board of Development extended the invitation for the Airstreamers to hold their regional rally here, and as the trailers arrive, the owners are changing their money into $2 bills. This will enable local business firms to get a pretty good idea of the economic impact that such an event has on the community.

The Airsteam owners and their families will pay for all of their purchases of goods and services with the $2 bills.

The rally actually is scheduled to begin on Thursday, but a few of the trailers began showing up at the coliseum grounds late last week and others arrived Saturday and Sunday. More and more are expected each day until the three-day rally's planned activities begin.

Registration will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday at the coliseum and a welcoming event is set for 7 p.m. Mayor John Fagin is scheduled to issue the official welcome to the city and the Women's Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the Gold Coaters, the local Airstream Committee and members of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program will be on hand to assist with registration and serving an old fashioned meal of stew and cornbeard. There will be a game night beginning at 8 p.m. Thursday in the foyer of the coliseum, with local merchants providing prizes.

On Friday, there will be a coffee and doughnut session at 8:30 a.m. at the coliseum followed by tours of the Diamond M and Scurry County Museums. Industrial tours will be held Friday afternoon and a covered dish dinner is set for 7:30 p.m. Friday, with Delbert Downing to be the speaker.

On Saturday, there will be a breakfast at the East Elementary School Cafeteria, followed by a directors meeting of the Airstreamers at 9:30 a.m. at the coliseum. A shopping tour is set for Saturday afternoon. A dinner theater presentation of "Airstream Follies," directed by Jerry Worsham, will be the closing feature Saturday night at the coliseum.

Import Oil Levy Is Considered

WASHINGTON (AP)-President Carter is considering a $5-a-barrel levy on imported oil if Congress scraps his plan to raise domestic crude oil taxes, according to his top energy adviser.

The import fee would raise gasoline prices five to seven cents a gallon the same increase envisioned by the President's original proposal, Energy Secretary James R. Schlesinger said Sunday.

"We are in this ludicrous position in which we are subsidizing every barrel of oil that comes into the country," Schlesinger said.

"That is the reason the domestic equalization tax was proposed. If Congress fails to enact that tax, the President must consider other alternatives."

Schlesinger said the President could raise taxes on imported oil under the Trade Adjustment Act without having to get congressional approval.

Schlesinger said the $5-a-barrel import tax would, by raising gasoline prices have the same energy-saving effect as a $2.50-a-barrel tax on domestic crude.

Schlesinger said the United States "cannot afford" to continue importing $45 billion worth of oil, the projected total for this year.

He said that while gasoline prices would rise under the import tax, consumers could be offered some form of tax relief. Carter has promised to rebate the $12 billion to $15 billion the domestic crude tax would generate to consumers.

Although the crude oil tax was killed by the Senate Finance Committee, an attempt to revive it is expected.

But Schlesinger said that the alternative uses the committee had considered for revenues raised by the tax would "give far too much to the industry."

Schlesinger spoke on ABC-TV's Issues and Answers.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., asked about Schlesinger's comments, said the question is not so much over the tax itself but what to do with the revenue it would produce.

"The fight will be over how do we spend the money and anytime you get $12 billion or $15 billion in a pot before the Senate you will get 12 or 15 different suggestions as to how it should be spent," Jackson said.

Annexation Plan On City Agenda

A recommendation by the Planning and Zoning Commission that the city's zoning administrator initiate proceedings to annex three tracts of land in Southeast Snyder and requests in connection with a proposed residential development in Southwest Snyder are on the Snyder City Council's agenda for its regular meeting this evening.

The meeting is set for 6:30 p.m. at the city hall. The Planning and Zoning Commission has recommended annexation of three tracts of land abutting the south side of 37th Street and east of Avenue E.

J.L. Moore has requests in for some paving in Park Place addition where he proposes to develop 55 lots.

Also up for consideration at the meeting is an application to the Traffic Safety Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for a $12,240 grant to fund a selective traffic enforcement program at high accident intersections in the city, and a request from Charles Anderson for installation of traffic lights at 25th Street and Avenue M and 25th and Avenue K.

The council will be asked to authorize the mayor to execute contracts for a

Judge Orders Bell Payment

SAN ANTONIO (AP)-State District Court Judge Peter Michael Curry officially ordered Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. today to pay $3 million in damages for slandering two former company executives.

Curry entered the judgement after denying a motion by Bell that he set aside the jury's recommendations in a five-week trial that ended Sept. 12.

Lawyers for the telephone company said they would, within 10 days, file a motion for a new trial, the next step in what is expected to be a lengthy appeal process.

The jury recommended Bell pay the damages for slandering fired Bell executive James Ashley and the late T.O. Gravitt who was the top telephone company official in Texas when he committed suicide Oct. 17, 1974.

The jury recommended that Ashley receive $1.5 million in damages and that Gravitt's widow receive $1.5 million.

Action On Bids Due Today

Scurry County Commissioners hoped to reach a decision this afternoon on a contract for a senior citizens office building.

Bids were opened last Thursday on the proposal to remodel the old Travis Junior High shop and band hall to provide some offices and facilities for a senior citizens center. The bids were considerably higher than expected, with the lowest of three base bids totalling $337,000.

Commissioners were conferring with County Auditor Jay Massingill on possible sources of funds. They were to go to Western Texas College at 11 a.m. for initiation of the senior citizens nurtition program, which will provide a noon meal for senior citizens. This activity will be moved to the senior citizens center downtown when it is completed.

10 Die In Amtrak Mishap

PLANT CITY, Fla. (AP)-Ten people - including seven children - were killed when an Amtrak train traveling 70 miles an hour slammed into a pickup truck they were riding in. None of the 40 passengers in the train was injured in the accident Sunday. Troopers said they thought the victims were migrant workers. They said it may be a day or so before firm identifications are made.

Ira Water System Gets Loan, Grant

Sen Lloyd Bentsen has advised that the Farmers Home Administration has approved a $31,500 loan and a $7,900 grant to the Ira Water Supply Corp.

The funds will be used to improve and expand storage facilities of the organization which supplies water for residences in the Ira area.

The Ira Water Supply Corp. purchases treated water from the City of Snyder.

The loan is being made under a special fund for rural communities eligible for assistance because of emergency drought designations, and it is a firm commitment by FmHA. The grant funds are due to be firmed up sometime this month.

The Ira Water Supply Corp. has seen its demands for service expand to the point that present storage facilities are inadequate, it was reported.

Britain, the sick man of Europe, if not exactly chasing the nurses through the corridors is at least sitting up in bed and feeling much better, thank you.

Consider these symptoms of returning economic health:

—A record balance of trade surplus in August of $550 million. This was the difference between what Britain sold to foreigners and what it bought from them.

—An inflation rate down to 14.4 per cent - still horrendous by U.S. standards but a vast improvement over the 30 per cent rate of two years ago.

—A bull market that has propelled shares of stock on the London exchange up by 270 per cent in 32 months.

—An official interest rate of 6 per cent, compared with 15 per cent a year ago, that is attracting foreign investors.

—A perky pound that is becoming so strong the government is debating whether to let it continue to rise in relation to foreign currencies. An appreciating pound would push up the price of British exports, but it would also cut the price of imports and help reduce inflation.

The basic reason for Britain's optimistic prognosis is North Sea oil, which is now flowing in at the rate of 800,000 barrels a day and will eventually go to nearly double that amount, promising to make Britain the only Western industrial nation completely self-sufficient in energy.

On the cautionary side, however, much of the country's newfound prosperity exists in the expectations of stock market speculators. Industrial production has been stagnant for a year, unemployment is at a postwar high and the trade unions, which agreed last year to curb wage demands, are becoming restive again.

But thanks to that North Sea oil, Britain has been given a new lease on life of perhaps 10 years' duration, enough time to put its economic house in order. As Prime Minister James Callaghan remarked the other day, rarely in history has a nation been given a second chance like this.

We trust the British will make the most of it.

surprising statistic

A lot of criticisms can be levelled against our crazy-quilt income tax system; but the claim that the burden falls disproportionately on lower-income people while the rich escape almost entirely simply doesn't stand up to inspection.

Total personal income taxes collected by the federal government came to $125 billion in 1975. Computations by the Tax Foundation, based on the Treasury Department's latest "statistics of income" report, show that 72 per cent of that total was accounted for by only 25 per cent of all taxpayers - those earning $15,898 or more.

The top 10 per cent of taxpayers - those with Adjusted Gross Incomes of $23,420 or more - picked up the tab for nearly half the total personal income tax bill; and 5 per cent of the taxpayers - those with AGI of $29,272 or more - paid more than one-third of the total.

At the extreme top, 1,149 taxpayers who reported incomes of $1 million or more in 1975 paid an average tax of $1,011,317, says the Treasury, or a total of $1.5 billion.

By contrast, the bottom 50 per cent of taxpayers - those earning $8,930 or less - accounted for only 7 per cent of total personal income tax collections, and the lowest 25 per cent - those with AGI of $4,044 or less - paid less than 1 per cent.

Also significant is the fact that the relative share of the income-tax burden on upper-income taxpayers has been increasing while the share paid by lower-income taxpayers has been shrinking. In fact, several million taxpayers disappeared from the tax rolls altogether between 1970 and 1975 because of changes in the law benefitting those with lower incomes.

The federal income tax is called a progressive tax, meaning that the more you earn the more you are supposed to pay. All in all, it seems to be working the way it was designed to work.

growing older

Old folks will remember. Back in our school days, so long ago, we had one hour of music once a week. Just before the last hour on Fridays, grades 3A to 4B would be assembled in a large room. We didn't have music books. The words and tunes were taught to us line by line, phrase by phrase. We got mixed up often, as in the case of "Ye Braids of Bonnie Doon" and "Maxwelton's Braids," which were also bonnie. In fact, most of the lyrics were confusing.

Most bewildering to me was "The Lord's Prayer." We Jewish kids were excused from this recitation. There was one kid in my class named Harold Horowitz who insisted that when the Christian kids said, "who art in Heaven, Harold be thy name," they were talking about him and Artie Goldberg.

My own amazement came from the statement that "surely good Mrs. Murphy would follow me all the days of my life." There was a Mrs. Murphy on our block. She never followed me anywhere. I figured maybe she followed Art or Harold, who were mentioned in the prayer.

One song, however, was a real favorite with all of us. It was about "The Miller of the Dee." The refrain of that song went, "I envy nobody, no not I — and nobody envies me." We didn't know what a "Dee" was. But the refrain could be bellowed out bravely, 28 treble voices squeaking as one.

The message in that song didn't become clear until I was much older. That jolly miller lived without envy. He seemed glad that nobody was jealous of his success. He was a happy man.

Many years later my wife Nikka, who was a teacher, brought home a songbook for children used by the school in which she taught. Leafing through it, I found the song "Jolly Miller." I hummed the verse and sang the refrain aloud lustily.

Then horrors! That "nobody envies me" was a lie. It seems that the king of the country was very envious of the miller's happiness. Doubts assailed me. Was the miller happy because he envied nobody? Or was he happy because he was envied by the king?

Oh, well, childhood fantasies about non-envious millers don't play much part in adult life. Nevertheless, the song brought back a remembered feeling. To live without envy of others is to be beautiful. To make others envy you is to be continuously "on the make." The men or women who gloat "Eat your heart out, you so and so" enjoy success comparatively. Only when others are jealous is the success complete.

Our generation, now seniors, grew up to measure our successes not by what we did, but by what we had. We called it the "rat race." And for many of us there was no way to get out of the pushing and shoving for more, more, more. The collection of material things had to be our aim in life. But no matter how much we made, there was always someone richer than we were. The game of envy was one nobody could really win. We felt that in some way, people who had more than we did were somehow better than we were. Therefore we had to believe that those who had less than we lacked some of the splendid qualities about which we ourselves could boast.

For us now in the old age bracket the whole structure built on envy falls apart. No one judges us any longer by the state of our bank accounts. Whatever money we have — well, that's it. There won't be any more produced by our own effort. If our Social Security goes up, so does everyone else's. If our expenses, our medical costs, or taxes go up, so do the expenses of our contemporaries. We no longer can be envied for our possessions or our finances.

The rules of the "envy" game are changed for the elderly. What we hope for now is admiration and respect. We need to be accepted as valid people by our children and grandchildren; by our friends and our associates. The rat race is for younger people. We will be judged by what we do for others rather than what we do to increase our wealth. Except for a very few of us, there's nothing we seniorагers can do to become wealthier.

Admittedly, it's a difficult question. Here we are. We spent our younger years trying to make a buck so that we could "keep up with the Joneses." What's left for us to strive for now?

Older persons will need to answer that question for themselves. Let me, therefore, speak for Nikka and me. We are now more than 10 years into senior citizenhood. We have won respect as senior activists. To us, improving life for ourselves and other older Americans is a cause, not a hobby. In close harmony, each of us chants with the Jolly Miller of the Dee.

"I envy nobody, not I;
And nobody envies me."

WASHINGTON (NEA)- President Carter has inadvertently brought to the fore an issue which long has concerned many federal officials-the quality of the FBI background checks of those in line for high government positions.

At the emotional press conference devoted to the announcement of Bert Lance's resignation as director of the Office of Management and Budget, Carter twice cited the FBI's report on its investigation of Lance as evidence of his purportedly unimpeachable character.

"I would hope that in the future the complete FBI report might be made available," Carter said. "I think that if any of you would read it, he would see that...all of the analyses of Bert Lance's character and ability were favorable. And I don't think any mistake was made."

Later in the press conference, Carter added: "If you examine the entire FBI report now...(and) if that was all you knew about him and had never seen Bert Lance before, you would agree that he was superlatively qualified to be a cabinet-level officers."

Few people have seen the report on Lance because, like other FBI "special inquiries" conducted for the White House, it is held in strict confidence. But the fact remains that Lance was forced to resign because other investigative agencies-not the FBI-developed evidence which raised very serious questions about the propriety if not the legality of his business activities and financial transactions.

The FBI's Special Investigative Division conducts a "full field investigation" of all men and women the White House plans to nominate for a presidential appointment, to determine both if there are any "skeletons in the closet" and if they qualify for the security clearance required for many positions.

But there are numberous problems with the system developed by the FBI over the past quarter century. Among them:

-The investigation often is geographically fragmented, with FBI field offices and resident agencies scattered throughout the country each responsible for only a small portion of the background check. The coordination supposedly provided in Washington sometimes leaves much to be desired.

-The pattern of questioning developed over the years by the FBI concentrates on items such as drug use, alcohol intake, sexual proclivities, political affiliations and potentially subversive tendencies. On the other hand, complex financial transactions, commercial fraud and other sophisticated forms of ethical or legal misconduct are deemphasized.

-"Applicant work," as it is known within the FBI, is one of the least favorite assignments among agents, even in the case of White House "SPIN" (FBI jargon for "special inquiry") requests, according to Sanford J. Ungar.

"As a result, the job is usually given to either the most junior agents or to the older guys who are serving their time until retirement," explains Ungar, author of "FBI," a definitive book on the bureau.

The unevaluated, unverified FBI reports were characterized by John Macy, a high-level personnel advisor to President Johnson, as the "most disjointed, irrelevant collection of gossip that could be provided."

Dan Penn, an aide to President Kennedy, likened the FBI reports to "Fibber McGee's closet-stuff just pours out." John Ehrlichman, an advisor to President Nixon, said he found the FBI reports to be "very poor jobs, very second rate efforts."

Instead of citing the FBI report as evidence of his friend's integrity, Carter would be well advised to seek a major overhaul of the FBI's archaic, unbalanced "vacuum cleaner" method of sucking up irrelelvant information on cabinet members, White House aides and others in the very elite group which presides over the federal government.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "Science is a great thing. Ask any scientist."

Jim: "It doesn't always work at the bridge table. Here is a hand from a team game where the helter-skelter bidder scored 690 points and the scientist wound up with minus 190."

Oswald: "No one can quarrel with either the one heart opening or the two-diamond response which started the action at both tables."

Jim: "There was a parting of the ways when the bidding got back to South. The unscientific South jumped to three notrump. West opened the three of spades and it didn't take South any time at all to run off seven diamonds, four spades and the ace of hearts."

Oswald: "At the other table South explored with a bid of two spades. North rebid to three diamonds and South closed the auction at three notrump. Warned away from all other suits, West opened a club and East cashed five club tricks."

Jim: "This hand is a good example of luck in duplicate. Give North one more spade and one less club and the man who did not bid spades would have lost a slam."

Ask the Jacobys

A Mississippi reader wants to know if small talk during the bidding and play of the hand is proper.

In the perfect state the only words to be heard during the bidding should be pass, double, redouble, notrump, spades, hearts, diamonds, clubs and the numbers one to seven. In our mundane sphere we have to suffer with small talk.

Thefts, Mishaps Keep Police Busy

Two thefts and a spate of traffic accidents kept city police busy during the weekend.

Barbara Scrivner, an employe of Furr's Supermarket, reported to police the theft of approximately $612.83 from a company money bag.

The money was discovered missing Saturday morning by store employes while preparing to open the supermarket. The theft is believed to have occurred either late Friday night or early Saturday morning, officers reported.

Officers also reported finding the emptied money bag in a trash dumpster outside the store.

A Snyder Daily News vending machine valued at $62.95 was reportedly taken from the Spanish Inn Restaurant, newspaper employe Carl Holmes told police. The vending machine is thought to have contained $7 to $10 in cash, according to police reports.

Police also reported questioning a suspect in connection with an auto burglary in which a scope-mounted .22 caliber rifle was allegedly taken from a vehicle parked at a local motel. The suspect is currently being held in the county jail charged with a separate burglary count. The rifle has not been recovered, officers said.

Also logged in police reports filed during the weekend were seven traffic accidents.

The city's first mishap occurred in the 2000 block of 37th St. about noon Saturday. The mishap involved a 1974 Mercury driven by Dorothy Glass and a 1971 International pickup truck and trailer driven by Audie Jones. Moderate damages were reported to the Glass vehicle while only minor damages were reported to the truck.

Minor damages resulted from the collision of two cars at Snyder High School about 12:50 p.m. Saturday. A 1976 Chevrolet driven by Ricky Fritz was in collision with a 1973 Plymouth driven by Joe Garza.

A vehicle is reported to have left the scene of a collision in the 2700 block of Ave. O after it collided with a parked 1973 Chevrolet owned by Drillers Equipment of Snyder.

The intersection of the East Highway and Apple St. was the scene of a collision in which a 1975 Chevrolet owned by Jose Alfredo Benitez struck a light pole owned by the Texas Electric Service Co.

The mishap resulted in damages estimated at $350 to the light pole and extensive damages to the car. The wreck was reported at 5:18 a.m. Sunday.

At 10:40 a.m. Sunday, two cars collided in the 1600 block of Ave. K. Involved in the mishap were a 1973 Chevrolet driven by Minerva Hernandez and a 1971 Ford driven by Emily Luna. Extensive damages were reported to each vehicle.

A 1968 Pontiac driven by Bert Herrley was in collision with a parked 1973 Toyota owned by Darrell Grimley. The collision occurred in at 2206 41st St. Sunday at 5:46 p.m.

The final mishap of the weekend took place at 806 24th St. when a gas meter was struck by a vehicle which left the scene of the mishap. The accident was reported at 7:31 p.m. Sunday.

Mishap Is Under Probe

Officers of the Highway Patrol reported questioning a subject who may have driven a 1975 Chevrolet that was destroyed in a one-vehicle traffic accident Saturday.

The officers also reported that their investigation of the accident is still incomplete.

The mishap occurred about one mile south of Western Texas College on the Roundtop Road. The officers did say, however, they believe the accident occurred early Saturday morning.

The vehicle was apparently traveling north on the Roundtop Road when it left the road and overturned.

'Pokes Pop Tampa Bay

DALLAS (AP)-The preliminaries are over for the Dallas Cowboys. Now they get down to some bare-knuckle family feuding in the National Football League East.

"You have to beat teams like St. Louis and Washington to win your division anyway," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry after the Cowboys went through the motions in a 23-7 victory over hapless Tampa Bay.

It was the 17th consecutive NFL loss for the Buccaneers, who play tough defense but own a woeful offense.

Dallas travels to St. Louis this week and hosts Washington the following Sunday. The Cowboys already have the lead in the NFC East and could really stretch it with a hot streak.

"It's hard to get up emotionally for a team like Tampa Bay which hasn't won a game," said Landry. "You just hope your team can do a good day's work."

Dallas linebacker Thomas Henderson certainly showed up for work.

He intercepted two passes, including a spectacular 79-yard return for a touchdown that he celebrated ala his "Hollywood" nickname by spiking the ball over the crossbar.

Hobbs Dumped By Blackwell

BLACKWELL --Blackwell fell behind in the early-going here Friday night, but came roaring back to post a 58-12 homecoming win over the Hobbs Panthers in class B six-man football action.

Blackwell's Kent Priddy and Bruce Holland combined to rip the visiting Pathers, who stand at 1-4 going into district play Friday. Blackwell notes a 4-1 record; their only loss (8-0) going to Hobb's next opponent, Hermleigh.

The Panthers scored first in the Saturday contest as Wayne Jones broke for a 27-yard touchdown run. The point-after failed.

In the second quarter Blackwell started clicking and Richard Sneed rushed in from 36-yards away for six points. Priddy kicked the points-after. Minutes later, Priddy passed to Bryan Andrade for a 26-yard TD. Again Priddy's PAT was good.

Priddy, playing a solid game, chalked up half-credit on the next Blackwell touchdown too, hitting Bruce Holland for a 42-yard pass-run scoring play. Priddy's points-after try sailed good.

Again it was Priddy in the third quarter, as he hit on a 24-yard field goal.

Hobb's Jeff Anderle combined with Don Denman to score on a pass play from 21 yards away minutes later. The PAT was no good, and closed out all the Panther scoring for the night.

Deep into the quarter, Holland passed to Mark Ely for a touchdown play that racked up 65-yards on turf. Priddy's PAT was fine, again.

In the fourth quarter local star Bryan Andrade picked up his second touchdown, scampering for 29-yards and paydirt. Priddy's kick was good. Blackwell cemented the homecoming win with two more TDs as Holland crossed from a yard out and Tony Zarnell ran in from short yardage before time ran out. Priddy struck good on one of the two attempts.

Snyder JV Falls To Permian Here

Snyder junior varsity Tigers dropped a decision to Odessa Permian here Saturday, 34-14.

Despite the loss, the Tigers racked up 326 total yards, including 124 through the airways. Bobby Degrate led the ground attack with 73 yards, followed by Lloyd Benson with 69. Tom Luera took hold of the passing attack, nabbing six tosses for 74 yards.

It was late in the game before Snyder scored, but Coach Winfred Shipp attributes the early moments of the second quarter as being the 'Cats downfall.

"We drove down to the one-foot line and they held us," he noted. "Then they drove all the way back down and scored. It took the steam out of us."

Snyder's initial score came from 15-yards out as Ricky Gambol raced in on a quarterback bootleg. The point-after missed, as Odessa led, 27-6.

The Permian team got another touchdown and PAT to bring it to 34-6, but Bobby Degrate went in from six-yards out later to whittle the lead. Lloyd Benson took in the two-point conversion.

"We did pretty good offensively," remarked Shipp, who noted some work will have to be done in the defensive ranks. He did point out several defensive standouts, however, including Travis Babcock, Corby Barrett and Rollen Nunley.

The junior varsity hosts Lamesa 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Golfers Claim Dual Match At Kerrville

KERRVILLE--Western Texas College golf team fired a 10-over 298 here Saturday to win a dual match over Schreiner Junior College.

The match, held at par 72 River Hill Country Club, was cut short when rains raked the course Sunday. Schreiner College finished the 18 holes with a 309, 21-over par.

Each school played eight golfers in the abbreviated match, and counted the four low scores.

Individually for WTC, freshman Mike Waller grabbed medalist honors with a par 72 and sophomore Terry Kendrick took runner-up with a 74.

WTC has won 13 and lost no dual matches against Schreiner in the past seven years.

Thursday, WTC will play an 18-hole conference Tournament at Midland. That play will be followed by another Conference Tournament Friday, in Odessa.

Snyder Wins Second Volleyball Tournament

SEMINOLE--The Tigerettes, under direction of Coach Joyce Elrod, pulled off their second tournament of the season here Saturday. Having won the Key City Tournament in Abilene a week ago, the district 3-AAA champs of 1976-77 edged out some top teams to take the Seminole Volleyball Tournament during the past weekend; boosting their record to an unofficial 18-3.

The Tigerettes, short but strong on power, outlasted a tough Pecos team late Saturday, 12-15, 15-7, 9-7 to cop the championship.

"We played Seminole a hour and 45 minutes (semi-final match) and it was hard to get going against Pecos," noted Coach Elrod. "In the first game they had us down 14-2 but the girls fought back and had them 12-14 before they (Pecos) got another point. I don't believe our girls had played under this kind of pressure since they started, but they proved they could in this tournament."

Snyder defeated Odessa Permian fairly easily in their only match Friday; 14-7, 15-3. From then on it was all head to head fighting.

Andrews fell to the Tigerettes in round two, 17-15, 15-7. It was the Seminole team however, 1976-77 AAA State Champs, that took most of the steam out of Snyder. They lost the first game 14-7, but fought back to tie the series at 14-16. The Tigerettes put on a surge in the final game however, and clipped the host team, 15-13.

That set up the final match against Pecos.

Named to the All-Tournament team from Snyder were Dana Flrod, Eva Rich and Katy Harrell.

"I would aso like to mention Shelly Nutt as having played an outstanding tournament," confirmed Coach Elrod. "She turned the tide for us in several matches and served excellent games all the way through the tournament to put us back in the ball game several times."

Snyder won their district opener in Snyder 15-7, 15-8 Thursday against Brownfield. Tuesday, they stage their second district contest with rival Lamesa.

"Lamesa has a pretty strong team this year," Coach Elrod noted, "and of course anytime Snyder and Lamesa get together it's going to be a pretty tough match regardless of what either team has."

That match will be played in Snyder at 7:30. Preceeding the contest, Snyder junior varsity will host Lamesa JV at 6:30. The Tigerette JV, who dumped Brownfield, 15-1, 12-15, 15-1, has yet to be defeated this year.

Pee Wee Football Set Today

Pee Wee football action surfaces tonight, with the Cowboys and Colts going against each other at 4:45. Following the contest, the Mustangs and Oilers meet at 6 p.m.

'Normal' range isn't best

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Which is more serious, sugar in the urine or sugar in the blood? I have been considered a diabetic and would like to know. I'm 70 and have never had any of the symptoms of diabetes that you hear about. My sugar count is within the normal range and I have no sugar in my urine.

DEAR READER — It sounds like you have nothing to worry about. The blood glucose (sugar) is normally higher in people over 50 and the normal range includes higher levels each decade. I'm not convinced this is good. Higher levels may be considered normal because they are common, but I would prefer that people continued to have lower levels as they get older — if they are to be in optimal health, not just normal in the sense of a frequent occurrence.

The blood glucose level has to be around 160 or 170 to result in spilling glucose in the urine. This is a higher level than you should have in the blood except as a peak value after ingesting a lot of glucose as for a glucose test. The blood test is really the most accurate indicator of whether or not you have diabetes but the urine test is adequate for home control of diabetes in most cases.

Many diabetics do not have symptoms when the disease is first diagnosed by blood tests or from sugar in the urine. As the disease advances the person may then experience fatigue, weight loss, frequency of urination, drinking lots of water and other symptoms.

To give you more complete information I am sending you The Health Letter number 3-11, Diabetes: Diagnosis, Prevention and Management. Others who want this issue should send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Sugar can occur in the urine without diabetes. This can occur after consuming lots of sweets or with stress or during pregnancy.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am a middle-aged woman suffering from the symptoms associated with an artificial menopause — hot flashes, headaches, insomnia, sweats, palpitations, etc. — resulting from the removal of healthy ovaries during a recent hysterectomy for fibroid tumors of the uterus.

How long does it take normally take the body to adjust to these conditions? The prescribed low dosage of Premarin has not helped alleviate the symptoms as yet.

DEAR READER — It is an individual matter. Some women produce enough female hormones from the tiny adrenal glands over the kidneys to avoid severe reactions and others do not. Then all the symptoms that people attribute to the menopause are not always caused by the menopause.

Hot flashes are one of the specific symptoms that almost all doctors agree can be alleviated by estrogen. Your doctor may need to increase your medicine for a while. Since your uterus has been removed the possible increased risk of cancer of the uterus from taking female hormones has been eliminated.

More recent studies confirm that the small risk of increased strokes or heart attacks or other vascular problems in women taking female hormones are particularly apt to occur in the women who take female hormones and smoke, too. The smoking is the big factor. So, I would advise you to stop smoking if that happens to be one of your habits.

Dr. Lamb answers representative letters of general interest in his column. Write to him in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Stop the 'blame game'

By Karen Blaker, Ph.D.

DEAR DR. BLAKER — My wife just found out about an affair I've been having for a couple of years, and she is furious. She is ready for a divorce, and she just can't forgive me.

She can't understand that she had so much to do with it. The problems we had were largely her fault. But she refuses to be responsible for my affair. How can I get her to see that it was largely her fault?

DEAR READER — You must take responsibility for your own actions. If you had an affair to escape from even the most horrendous marital relationship, you must realize that you chose that option from others available at that time.

Some of the other options that you might have chosen, like marital counseling, would have probably addressed the problems within your marriage more directly and therefore, might have had a more positive outcome. No, your wife is not to blame for your affair.

In fact, your urgency to blame your wife for all the problems in your marriage indicates that you might have a strong need to always feel you are in the right. If you found fulfillment in your affair as your marriage continued to deteriorate, why didn't you negotiate a trial separation from your wife?

Instead, it sounds like you might have let the secret slip "accidentally," thus provoking a blow-up and her request for a divorce. By blaming the affair on her you could end the marriage but make it look like she was the one who wanted out.

Many people are overinvested in making their marriage work. Even if it is an unsatisfying relationship for both partners they may feel as though staying in the marriage is proof of a successful like, whereas divorce equals failure. If you want to end your marriage, take responsibility for your feelings and end it. If you are unsure about such a drastic action, seek some professional help.

It could be that a neurotic element of your marriage has been your need to inflate your self-esteem by blaming all the problems on your wife. This doesn't mean that the problems are all your "fault" either. She of course participated in this interaction by allowing the blaming to occur. That might be evidence of her low self-esteem.

One can obtain the illusion of growing taller by chopping down those around him, or he can feel the gratification of true growth by accomplishing goals that make him proud to be the person he is. The approach is up to you.

If this is an accurate reading of your situation, you can see that your marriage is badly in need of help. It may even be too late to salvage the warmer, more tender feelings of the distant past. Stop playing the blame game and suggest something positive if you want to save your marriage.

Write to Dr. Blaker in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. Volume of mail prohibits personal replies, but questions of general interest will be discussed in future columns.

Snyderite In Music Group

ABILENE--Kyle Rosson, a junior at Hardin-Simmons University, has been selected to perform with Singers Ho! for the 1977-78 year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Renal Rosson of 2510 31st St., Snyder.

Singers Ho! was organized in 1967 by Dr. J.G. Martin, director of the group and head of the Department of Music Education at H-SU. The group performs a variety of types of music including pop tunes as well as hit songs from Broadway and movie musicals.

Students are chosen for Singers Ho! on the basis of their musical ability, stage presence, grade point average, and showmanship. Also taken into consideration is the student's ability to meet the rehearsal schedule, his ability to play a musical instrument, and his talent in an area other than music which would be of benefit to the group.

Basin's Rig Count Drops

There were 291 rotary rigs running in Permian Basin oil fields last week, a decrease of 13 from the previous week, according to Reed Drilling Equipment's weekly survey. However, this was an increase of 31 over the 260 units in operation during the corresponding week last year.

Eddy County, N.M., with 29 rigs running, and Pecos County, with 24, continued as the top areas in drilling activity.

Scurry County had only one rotary rig running last week, compared to three the week before. Figures for other area counties, with last week and the week before, in order: Borden 2 and 1; Dawson 5 and 5; Fisher 4 and 4; Garza 2 and 4; Howard 5 and 6; Kent 1 and 0; Mitchell 3 and 3; Nolan 4 and 3; Stonewall 2 and 2.

Marketbasket Prices Decline In October

By The Associated Press

Consumers hunting for grocery bargains found scattered price decreases last month, but the declines failed to offset earlier boosts particularly for coffee, an Associated Press marketbasket survey shows.

The AP drew up a random list of 16 commonly purchased food and non-food items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month.

Among the highlights of the latest survey:

—The marketbasket total at the checklist store declined during September in 10 cities and was up in three. The average drop was 1.9 per cent and the average increase was 2.9 per cent. On an overall basis, the marketbasket bill at the checklist stores was eight-tenths of a per cent lower at the start of October than it was at the start of the preceding month.

—The marketbasket total has increased steadily since the start of the year, up an average of 8.2 per cent in nine months at checklist stores. Coffee is to blame for much of the increase. When coffee was removed from the totals, the AP survey showed a 1.5 per cent increase in the marketbasket bill in the first three quarters of 1976.

—Savings varied from city to city. The items most frequently decreasing in price last month were pork chops, down at the checklist store in seven cities; coffee, down in six cities; eggs, also down in six cities; and frankfurters, dropped in five cities.

—On the gloomy side, orange juice prices continued to rise. The price of frozen orange juice concentrate increased at the checklist store in eight cities. The higher prices are due to last January's freeze in Florida, which struck hard at oranges grown for juice, sharply reducing their yield.

Government experts have predicted a 6 per cent food rise this year, followed by a 3 to 6 per cent increase next year. They say the increases can be blamed on rising costs for things like advertising, labor and packaging rather than on higher prices paid to farmers.

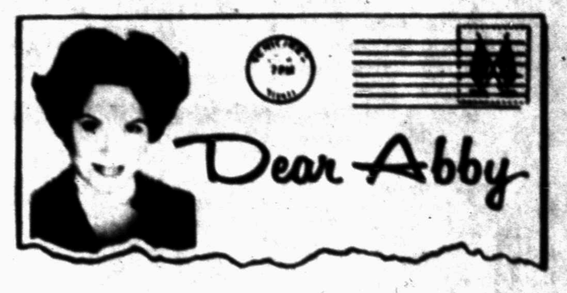

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, frankfurters and granulated sugar.

The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, R.I., Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Dear Abby

Mother's Massage Gets Down To Bare Basics

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1977 by The Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: We recently had my mother-in-law over for dinner. Afterwards she decided to show me how to give Virgil (my husband) a back rub because he'd been having some back problems.

I really wasn't in favor of it, but since Virgil didn't object, I didn't.

She ordered him to undress and lie face down on the bed with only a sheet over him. Then she massaged his neck and shoulders, and worked her way down his back. When she got to his lower back she removed the sheet and started kneading his bare backside! That's when I left.

She yelled, "You can stay. Nothing is showing," but I didn't return until I knew the massage was over. When she asked why I left, I told her I didn't think it was proper to watch while a 60-year-old woman gave her 40-year-old son a massage with no sheet on him. She insisted there was nothing wrong with it. Meanwhile Virgil didn't open his mouth, but after she left he said maybe he should have stopped her.

Now Virgil's mother is "terribly hurt" because I didn't stay for the demonstration. (She is not a professional masseuse or therapist—she's just a mother.) What's your opinion of this whole episode?

VIRGIL'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Virgil's mother probably meant well but she shouldn't have gotten down to the bare basics. Having told both her and your husband what you thought of the "demonstration," you should now forget it.

DEAR ABBY: My mother and I disagree on something we hope you can settle for us.

I am a beautician and own my own shop. My mother insists on paying me when I do her hair—in fact, she even forces a tip on me.

I feel that she shouldn't pay me unless she is taking an appointment I could have filled. We would like your opinion.

PROFESSIONAL

DEAR PRO: I would not accept money from my mother for a personal service. "Force" it back on her—tip included.

DEAR ABBY: For years I have been wanting to tell you this. A friend of mine has a 14-year-old daughter who became pregnant. The mother was so upset she nearly went out of her mind, and she actually considered murdering her daughter and committing suicide!

Then she read the following advice in your column: "It's easy to love those who always do as we wish...the difficult part is to love those who do not. The child who is the least lovable needs your love the most."

Her mind cleared and she came to her senses. The daughter had the child, went back to school and received her high school diploma. The mother and daugher cared for the child, and eventually the daughter met and married a fine young man, and she kept her child.

Of course this was nearly 20 years ago, but I thought you would appreciate knowing how far-reaching your advice is.
