

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Have you ever been standing in a grocery store checkout line and noticed those "National Investigators" and "Comets" (no, not the actual titles of the publications)?

Sure you have, it's hard to ignore headlines such as "Two Headed Woman To Have First Child" or "Aliens Land In New York Streets".

It's almost impossible not to buy one, just to satisfy the old curiosity. Invariably the stories are less exciting than the headlines. Example: One headline screamed that movie star was "In Danger of His Life Every Night". The gist of the article turned out to be that he slept with his pit bulldog in the room with him...and pit bulls are notoriously dangerous.

Well, it seems to work so well for the papers, we got to speculating on what would happen if we did it. Her's some of the headlines we came up with...technically truthful, but obviously ridiculous.

Try this one: Editor Narrowly Escapes Death From Angry Attacker. The story? Last Weekend I disturbed a red wasp at its nest building... It attacked and stung me...and I am allergic to them.

How about Bloody Accident Claims Life of One, Victim's Family Can't Identify Body? Story? Well, there was this possum that tried to cross the highway last night....get the idea?

There is a world of possibilities here...consider the "Scandal" possibilities.

Local Businessmen Seen In Clandestine Meeting. That could be any group of people in business having lunch together at the same table.

The Truth Behind The Kiwanis Club, Bitter Facts Revealed At Meeting. Bitter facts could qualify as "We need to raise more funds" or "It's time to pay dues again".

Obviously this type of journalism could go on and on. The Amazing Story Of How One Family Changed Their Lives could refer to a family remodeling their house or even moving to a new town.

Where Are Our Children Heading? could be used to accompany a Vacation Bible School announcement!

Mayor Says 'It's Time To Clean Up This City' would be perfect for a scheduled community cleanup day.

Local Citizen Deals Drugs Openly could be as obvious as the pharmacist selling his perfectly legal prescriptions...they are, after all, drugs.

The list goes on and on. Technically truthful but blatantly ludicrous statements could be affixed to ordinary stories.

One thing about it, it sure would be different! But for now, I think we will stick with our same old headlines...a little boring maybe...but at least not rumour starting!

Tax-Small Towns Down, Overall Improves

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that Texas cities can expect handsome increases from their local sales taxes as the Texas economic recovery continues to pick up steam.

This month's city allocation checks showed a 23.5 percent increase over June 1987, a growth rate too high to attribute to the broadened sales tax base.

"Local governments will continue to see a healthy increase in revenues from their sales taxes as the state's economy mends and consumer confidence grows," Bullock said.

Checks totaling $65.1 million were sent to 878 cities that collect local option sales taxes at either one or one and one-half percent.

Since January, the state has sent $465.9 million in local taxes to cities across the state, an increase of 10.3 percent over last year's allocations during the same period.

Bullock projected that local sales tax revenue statewide will continue to increase at an average rate of more than eight percent a year through 1991.

Bogata received $1,020.57 for a 4.60 percent increase over 1987 payments to date. Clarksville received $14,445.51 for a 6.39 percent increase.

Detroit received no payment for this period for a 100.39 percent change. Blossom received no payment this period, marking a 4.83 percent decrease over the 1987 payment of $896.10.

Deport received no payment for this period, for a 9.38 percent change from last year. Paris received $156,374.09 for this period for an 8.26 percent increase.

Mt. Pleasant received $77,834.26 for this period for a 9.03 percent increase over the payment of last year, while Talco received $1,331.10 this period, marking a 0.06 percent decrease over last year's payment of $1,485.41.

Houston saw the greatest increase in revenue this month, their check of $11.2 million was a whopping 35.6 percent increase over last year's June payment.

The MTA's and the CTD should continue to see an increase in revenues along with the cities and counties, Bullock said.

Brooks-Blakenship Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Susan Karene Brooks and Vincent Eugene Blankenship were united in marriage at 4:00 p.m. June 18 in the First Baptist Church of New Boston.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brooks, Jr., of New Boston. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R.K. Carr of New London and Mrs. F.H. Brooks of Kemp. The bride is a 1981 graduate of New Boston High School and a 1985 graduate of East Texas Baptist University in Marshall.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blankenship of Bonham. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Herrington and Mrs. Mary Evans, all of Irving. The groom is a 1981 graduate of Bonham High School and a 1985 graduate of East Texas Baptist University in Marshall.

Dr. Frank Brooks, father of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony in a lovely setting of candelabra and ferns. Altar railings held arrangement of ivy and votive candles. The baptistry featured a lighted cross and a large arrangement of ferns. Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Suzan Harrison of Shreveport, LA registered guests from a lace covered table decorated with greenery and the bride's throwaway bouquet.

Guests were seated by Walter Davis, Whitehouse; Randy Duncan, College Station; and the bride's brothers, Jay Brooks of Marshall and David Brooks of College Station.

Mrs. Sheryl Messer, pianist, provided many lovely pre-nuptial selections. After the mothers were seated, Eric Blankenship, brother of the groom, accompanied by the groom, sang "Let It Be Me" and "What a Difference You've Made In My Life." After these songs, the groom's father, Jack Blankenship, read selected passages from Ruth and 1 Corinthians. Mrs. Dianna Melton, organist, then began the processional music of the traditional Bridal Chorus and Wedding March as the wedding party entered.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white bridal satin designed with a pearl and crystal clustered fitted bodice accented with a Victorian neckline outlined in pearl strands. The long tapered sleeves held hand-clipped motifs of Venice lace medallions which extended onto the hand. Her full flowing circular skirt, edged with scalloped Venice lace and silk embroidery trimmed with pearls and crystals, fell gently into a semi-cathedral train. She chose a Juliet headpiece covered in matching laces, clustered with pearls and crystal attached to a veiling of silk illusion which extended fingertips. She carried a bri bouquet of cascading roses, accented with baby's breath and Rosario alstroemeria.

Attendants of the bride were: Matron of Honor, Mrs. Rhonda Barfield, New Boston; bridesmaids, Mrs. Amy Branson, New Boston; Miss Casi Blankenship, Bonham, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Candace Pierce, New Boston. The bridesmaids wore rose-colored two-piece dresses. The full lace skirt with handkerchief hem was attached to the spaghetti-strapped slipdress. This was covered by a long-sleeved lace top which was gathered at front waist with a rhinestone pin. They carried a single burgundy rose accented with baby's breath, greenery and ribbons of burgundy and white.

The groom's attendants were: Best Man, John Hubbard, Denison; Groomsman, Eric Blankenship, Greenville, brother of the groom; Stan Anderson, Bogata; and Damon Ward, Grand Prairie. The groom wore a black Pierre Cardin tuxedo with tails, a white wing-tip collar shirt, black bow tie and cummerbund and black shoes. His boutonniere was a white rosebud accented with baby's breath and alstroemeria. The groomsmen wore gray Pierre Cardin tuxedos with tails, white wing-tip collar shirts with rose cummerbunds and bow ties. Their boutonnières were burgundy rosebuds.

After the bride was given in marriage by her parents, Joel and Kathy Allen of Dallas sang "As For Me and My House." The couple then exchanged wedding vows and rings, and everyone was asked to join in prayer as the Allens sang, "This Is The Day". Dr. Brooks then introduced his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Blankenship, and the reception began.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brooks chose a pale aqua silk outfit with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a lovely teal silk outfit with matching accessories. Both fathers were attired in black Pierre Cardin tuxedos with black accessories.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony. Those serving at the bride's table were: Mrs. Sharon Brooks, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Donna Addington; Mrs. Wallie Crawford; Mrs. Jeanita McIntyre and Mrs. Vicki Wiggins. The groom's table was attended by Mrs. Rhonda Blankenship, sister-in-law of the groom, Mrs. Beth Hubbard and Miss Lori Holman.

The bride's table was decorated with a lovely white gathered floor length cloth and a beautiful silk arrangement of rose, mauve, burgundy and blue flowers in a crystal bowl. The three-tiered white cake was decorated with cascading roses and scalloped edging. The top was a white ornament adorned with doves and wedding rings. Several ladies of the First Baptist Church, organized by Mrs. Helen Rolf, provided strawberry-banana punch, nuts and mints for the reception. The groom's table was covered with a rose floor-length cloth. His cake was a chocolate cake in the shape of a grand piano. A beautiful silver service held coffee, cream and sugar. During the reception, Miss Mindy Morris, niece of the groom, handed out rose-colored rice bags.

For travel, the bride chose a white dress with pink and blue floral design and white accessories. After a wedding night in Dallas, the couple will fly to Hawaii for their honeymoon. Upon their return, the Blankenships will reside in Bogata where Vince serves as the Minister of Music and Youth for the First Baptist Church.

A Rehearsal Dinner was held following the wedding rehearsal on Friday, June 17. Hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blankenship, the dinner was held at Country Boy's Restaurant in New Boston. The wedding party and their families attended as well as a few special friends. Mrs. Blankenship and Casi, the groom's sister, decorated the dining area in a musical motif. The bride and groom chose this time to hand out gifts to their attendants.

Amy Craddock Receives Doctorate

A doctor of philosophy degree in sociology was conferred upon Amy Craddock by the University of North Carolina recently. Her dissertation concerned the classification of prisoners in state and national penal institutions.

Dr. Craddock is the daughter of Gladys Craddock of Paris and the late Rex Craddock. Her grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Craddock of Bogata and Mr. and Mrs. F.M. O'Brien of Paris. She is the niece of Ruth Wood of Bogata.

Her undergraduate degree is from the University of Colorado and her master's degree is from Southern Methodist University.

She is employed as a research sociologist by Research Triangle Institute of North Carolina. Her present project concerns drugs and runaway children.

Lions, Lionesses Have Fish Fry

The Bogata Lions, Lioness and their spouses met at the Community Center on June 9 for a fish fry dinner and joint meeting, with 50 members and guests present.

The meeting was called to order by President Tommie Corbell. Prayer was given by Rev. Billy Daniels and the pledge was led by Judge Watson.

A meal of catfish with all the trimmings was prepared and served by Johnny Ragsdill, Jeerrel Vickers, Travis Hale, David Rozell and Russ Woodall. The club voted to support a drug dog program to be handled by the Red River County Sheriff's Department.

The Rivercrest Cheerleaders volunteered to set on the dunking vat seat on Frontier Day. Frontier Day T-shirts are available through any Lion or Lioness Club members. Mary Joe Porterfield presented a check for $540.77 to the Lions Club from the Lioness Club to be used for maintenance and improvements on the Community Center and park. J.C. Watson, chairman of the new snow cone concession, reported that a free snow cone would be given to any child that brought him a pair of used eye glasses or hearing aide. He also stated that there would be a silver dollar prize in some of the snow cones. John Paul Cooper donated the use of the lot across the street from the Cooper home for parking space during Frontier Day.

The next meeting will be Thursday, June 16. Tommie Corbell will be in charge of the meal.
