Lillie - Salt Fork - Marella Communities to Hold Reunion

The Three Community Reunion, Lillie-Salt Fork Marella, will bring together more than 200 former and present residents of those communities and their guests Saturday and Sunday, August 9 and 10.

Bura Handley Community Center will be the location both days.

"The goal this year is to have a large crowd of people still living in Wellington and the county, who were once a part of these central-western communities," declared Judge Zook Thomas, president.

"When these people who used to live in one of the communities come back, sometimes from as far as California, and they want to see their friends who are still living here. When you are not there, they are disappointed. They ask about you and want to know how you are getting along. They want to visit with you.

"This year, we are making an all-out effort to get local people to the reunion," Thomas emphasized.

Registration will begin at 4 p.m. Saturday and those attending are to bring a salad or sandwiches. The meal will be served at 7, and a fun program will follow.

The all-day Sunday gathering will begin at 10 a.m.

A covered dish dinner will be served at 1 p.m. and those attending are asked to bring food.

Mrs. Ernest Harwell and

Mrs. David Peters will be in charge of the afternoon program, when new officers will be elected and gifts will be presented to the oldest person present, the one who came farthest and the one who lived in the county longest.

There will be lots of gospel singing, led by Clyde Ming of Pritchett, Colo., and Hugh Bledsoe. There will be plenty of time for visiting.

"Be sure to come and let your friends and relatives know about the reunion. Some of them will probably be able to make last minute plans to attend.

The three communities that have joined to hold this reunion were communities of small farmers, and there were lots of them," said

Judge Thomas, referring to the period that existed into the 1930s.

"When economic conditions forced them to leave, they scattered all over the country, with many of them going to California and the farming sections of Colorado.

These people love the communities in which they grew up, and that is one of the reasons they will want to see those who are still here."

Working on arrangements with Judge Thomas are Bledsoe, vice president; Mrs. Zook Thomas, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Harwell and Mrs. Peters, program committee; and Alvin Horton, immediate past president.

Preceding the regular registration, a special registration has been set for Wednesday, August 13, for any student who has moved into the Wellington Independent School district, or any student who did not attend school here during

$58,800 Must Be Raised Toward X-Ray Machine

Approximately $58,800 remains to be raised toward the purchase of an x-ray machine with fluoroscope for Collingsworth General Hospital, Morris Barcroft, administrator, revealed this week.

At the same time, Barcroft announced that he has been able to secure a tube stand with new warranty, which will cut the cost of the x-ray machine considerably. This was used only a short time in an Amarillo hospital.

So far, Wellington area residents have donated $17,000 toward the purchase of the x-ray machine, one of the most badly needed pieces of equipment in the hospital.

The present machine is both worn out and outdated, so that repairs are difficult, it has been pointed out by those associated with the drive, spearheaded by Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mrs. Ernest Harwell is coordinator.

Barcroft has called a meeting of the Collingsworth General Hospital Board for Wednesday, August 6, a 7:30 p.m. when he will ask that he be authorized to go ahead with

Randy Cole Country Club Pro

Wellington Country Club will have Randy Cole of Amarillo as its first golf professional.

Morris Barcroft, president, announced that a two-year contract has been signed with Cole, who will begin work September 1.

Most of the members already know Cole, as he works with Alan Johnson, WTSU golf instructor, and assisted Johnson when he gave lessons at the Wellington club a short time ago, said Mrs. R.L. Mabery, club secretary.

Cole is affiliated with Professional Golfers Association (PGA) and he will represent the Wellington Club at tournaments as well as at other occasions.

"We feel that he will represent all of Wellington, as well as the club," said Mrs. Mabery.

Cole will stock the club's pro shop, selling clubs, balls, and other golfing equipment.

In negotiations with the directors, Cole asked that he have responsibility for the care of the golf course, and especially mowing and other care of the greens. Some seasonal help will be needed for mowing the fairways and roughs.

The course is now ready to be groomed, and this will be one of his prime responsibilities.

As part of his agreement with the club, Cole will move his double mobile home onto the course, behind the putting green. He told directors that he wanted to be able to have lunch with his family each day. He and his wife have three children.

"He told us he didn't want to be a pro who comes and stays a year and moves on," Mrs. Mabery said.

In other changes at the country club, Wayne

Martin has resigned from the greens and grounds committee and Lonnie Neeley was named to replace him. Other members are Bill Long and John Coffee.

Ten new members have been added to the club roster in recent weeks: Mr. and Mrs. Orville Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Leamon Bawcom,

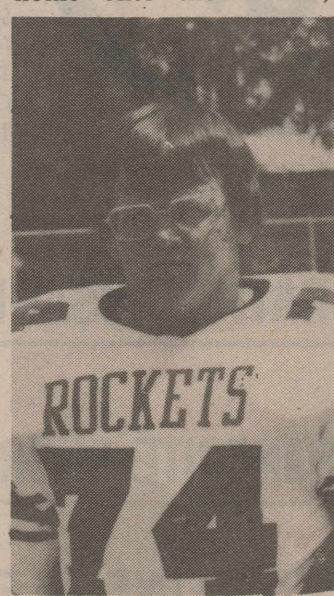

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams, Tony Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gulley and Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Warren.

Mrs. Mabery explained that non-member golfers may play by paying the green fee of $4 on week days and $5 weekends.

In addition, Cole will give golf lessons as they are requested, and this is expected to give club membership a boost. A spokesman for the club said he felt the club was fortunate to have available in Wellington one of the best young golf pros in the Panhandle.

Analyze Drouth-Stressed Feed If Cutting, Grazing

By DON REEVES
EXTENSION AGENT

Prolonged dry, hot weather has caused damage to most dryland crops and stressed irrigated milo in the area. Many producers are considering grazing out stressed crops or harvesting them for hay in order to salvage the crop.

Plants that have had their growth arrested by drought are more apt to have a high nitrate content than normal plants with the highest concentration in the stalk.

It is a good management practice to have the forage analyzed for nitrate prior to feeding it. Crops that are going to be grazed out should be analyzed prior to turning cattle into the field.

Forages that are high in nitrates can be fed if they are diluted with other forages low in nitrates or mixed with grain.

Young animals, old animals in poor nutritional status and hungry animals are less tolerant to nitrate than well fed animals on an adequate ration.

Nitrate poisoning occurs when large quantities of nitrate are absorbed into the bloodstream where it converts hemoglobin to methemoglobin to reduce the oxygen-carrying capacity of the blood. Symptoms develop rapidly. Labored breathing and nervousness lead to incoordination and bluish color of the mucous membranes and eventually death.

Plants of the sorghum group (Johnson grass, sudan, hybrid sudans and sorghum) has a high potential for prussic acid poisoning. These plants have cyanide-containing compounds which are converted to prussic acid when the plant cells are disrupted due to drought, hail, harvesting, frost, etc. Prussic acid is liberated in the rumen, absorbed into the blood and carried to the tissues where this toxin interferes with oxygen utilization. If absorbed rapidly, it can cause respiratory paralysis. Early symptoms are labored breathing, frothing at the mouth, irregular pulse and staggering.

Stressed plants should be checked for prussic acid before they are grazed. If prussic acid is detected, cattle should be removed until analysis shows the prussic acid has dropped. Delay feeding hay for 4-6 weeks to allow time for breakdown of the prussic acid.

Suspect forage can be checked for nitrate and prussic acid by taking one pound samples to your veterinarian.

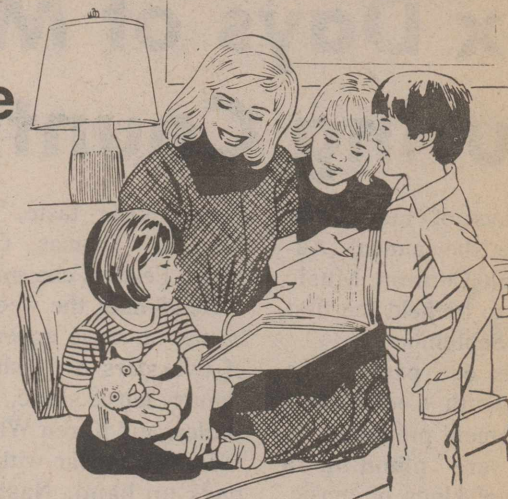

Help clean up Wellington.

Elderly Warned Of Child Thieves

Women living alone, especially older women, have been warned against letting children and young people who are strangers to them inside their homes after the youngsters asks to use the telephone or bathroom or something similar.

County Judge Bob Watson said he has had reports of incidents of this type in which the children also took money, purses, or other items and got out of the houses before the occupant was aware of what had happened.

Watson also cited an incident in which a Wellington woman was robbed of her purse when she got out of her car after returning home at night. "This type of thing is true in other towns around here also, and in fact there seems to be rings of children operating in this way in order to get into houses to steal," he said.

His warning, he added, applies to those women whose families are away from home temporarily as well as those who live alone. He urged that screens be kept latched.

Elsa Mendoza, Johnny Garcia Marry in Ceremony Saturday

Elsa Luna Mendoza of Las Vegas, Nevada and Johnny Garcia of Wellington were married Saturday August 2, at 2:30 in the afternoon in the large club room of Bura Handley Community Center.

Judge Bob Watson performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miguel O. Mendoza of Las Vegas, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Garcia of Wellington.

The background for the ceremony was an arch covered with foliage and blue carnations. At each side, baskets held arrangements of blue and yellow carnations. The satin-covered kneeling bench completed the arrangement.

Mr. Mendoza gave his daughter in marriage.

She chose a wedding gown in traditional style of lace and chiffon. The low rounded neckline was edged in a lace ruffle, and lace formed the long fitted sleeves. Tiers of lace ruffles extended the entire length of the full skirt and swept to a chapel train. Her illusion veil was edged with lace. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

The maid of honor was Ameria Mendoza of Las Vegas. Her off-white gown was designed with short sleeves and floor-length skirt. A narrow sash marked the waistline.

The couple's other attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sanchez, Mr. and Mrs. Refugio Sanchez, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Luna of Lockney, Gabriel and Carmen Fierros of Lockney, Gilbert Mendoza of Las Vegas and Maria Sanchez, Ralph Granados and Elvira Hinajosa, Joe Sanchez and Maria Granados, Lewis Molina, and Eva Molina of Lockney.

The bride's attendants wore floor-length blue dresses and carried bouquets of blue and white silk flowers.

The flower girl was Lucy Mendoza of Las Vegas and the ring bearer was Sammy Garza of Wellington.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNNY GARCIA

Following the ceremony, a reception was given for the wedding guests. Baskets of flowers decorated the rooms.

Dancing followed with music by Rudy Garcia and his group from Olustee, Oklahoma.

The bride graduated from Henderson, Nevada High School, while the bridegroom attended Wellington Schools. He now farms here and the couple will make their home in Wellington.

Fix-It Tip

A toilet that doesn't operate properly is noisy and wastes water. But repairs are easy for the average person.

If it fails to flush when handle is depressed, the lift rod has become disconnected from the rubber tank ball. The metal rod is threaded into the top of the ball. It passes through several metal guides first. Make certain it is properly lined up.

If water continues to flow into bowl, the tank ball is not seating properly. The tank ball wears out in time. Replace it. Turn off the water first or close the inlet valve by supporting the float with a piece of string tied to a stick across the top of the tank. Sometimes the guide rod might need adjusting. The lift rod passes through this. It is fastened to the overflow tube. Loosen the set screw that holds it and move it back or forth until the lift rod goes up and down in a straight line.

To keep foods frozen while you defrost the refrigerator, wrap them in several thicknesses of newspaper.

Of all salt produced each year, only about three percent is used at table for human consumption.

England once imposed a tax on windows. Some people built houses with no windows at all to avoid it.

Pamela Marsh, James Taylor Wed in Colorado Church Rites

The Littleton Church of the Nazarene in Littleton, Colorado was the scene of the recent double ring ceremony uniting Pamela Starlene Marsh and James Daniel Taylor. The Reverend James Butler, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Troy Marsh of Littleton and Mr. A.M. Saunders of Wellington is her grandfather. Parents of the groom are Mr. Jack Taylor of Taylorville, Illinois and Mrs. Phyllis Hunsley of Littleton.

Miss Barbara Taylor, sister of the groom, registered guests at a table covered with a white floor length cloth overlaid with gathers of sheer tulle and silk flowers.

The formal wedding vows were recited under an arch entwined with greenery, complimented on each side with 15 branched brass candelabras and pedestals holding huge baskets of yellow, apricot and white gladiolas, daisies and mums. Kneeling benches were of brass and white satin with white satin bows accenting the pews.

Traditional pre-nuptial selections from Bach were presented by Mrs. James Butler, organist. She accompanied Mrs. Jerry Neuschwager as she presented vocal selections. Lighting the candles were Barbara Taylor and Steve Marsh.

The bride entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father wearing a white formal gown with a Victorian neckline and empire waist with an overlay of appliques of Alencon lace accenting with seed pearls. Long fitted sleeves also had an overlay of full lace which was open from the shoulder to the fitted cuffs. The long chapel length train was overlaid with lace scalloped around the edges and trimmed with seed pearls. Her full length veil of illusion extended from a Juliet cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of tiny yellow rosebuds, stephanotis, lily of the valley, and baby breath accented with satin streamers. The bride also carried a white lace handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother and carried by her mother in her wedding.

Miss Brenda Michelle Marsh attended her sister as her maid-of-honor. She wore a yellow crepe with sheer overlay full length gown with a fitted bodice accented with a wide off the shoulder ruffle. The sheer overlay skirt was accented with a wide ruffle which was brought up and attached at the waist in the back forming a bustle effect. She wore a matching yellow picture hat banded by gathered tulle tied with a yellow silk rose and extending down the back. She carried three yellow long stemmed silk roses with satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Jan Miller, Patti Norwood and Lean Martinez of Casper, Wyoming. They wore apricot gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor with matching hats and carried a single apricot long stemmed silk rose.

Flower girl was Mandy Saunders, cousin of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of yellow taffeta and carried a white basket containing yellow rose petals. Ring bearer was Brook Manning of Littleton. He carried a white satin pillow covered with lace and seed pearls with satin streamers holding the rings.

The groom's brother, Gary Taylor, was best man. Groomsmen were Mike Pollmiller, Dale Price and Carl Eberhart, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Steve Wessler, and Steve Marsh of Mesa, Arizona, brother of the bride. At the end of the ceremony, the bride and groom walked through the arch to a lace covered table holding the unity candle directly below a large lighted cross.

The bride's table was covered with a white full skirted floor length cloth. It featured a flowing fountain in the center, with miniature bridesmaids and groomsmen on stairs at the sides. The cake was topped with a silk flowered heart outline centered with two white doves. The bride's bouquet and foliage with silk flowers and candles completed the decorations.

Music for dancing was furnished by Pat Campbell. Upon returning from a wedding trip to Matzalan, Mexico, the couple are at home at 10700 E. Drtmouth, Aurora, Colorado.

Out of town guests from points other than the Denver Metro area came from Tahuya, Washington; Dallas; Fritch; Follett; Amarillo; Mesa, Arizona; Scottsdale, Arizona; Ft. Collins.

Peppers Need Care for High Yields in Home Gardens

Weather sweet or pungent, long or blocky, hot or mild, the pepper is often the most finicky plant in the vegetable garden. Picking the proper variety and growing it right will help solve many problems.

Pepper problems for home gardeners seem to revolve around the problem of yield per plant, points out Dr. Sam Cotner, horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University. While squash and okra oftentimes overwhelm the garden basket, the pepper plant often stands proud, lush and barren, or at best produces only a small yield.

All peppers are somewhat particular about temperatures for fruit set, notes Cotner. And peppers fertilized with heavy applications of nitrogen or those not given adequate phosphorus may develop into great plants but will not produce anything to eat.

Cotner offers tips to Texas gardeners who will be planting peppers this year.

Soviets Cheating Again?

At last, the Carter administration is taking steps to see if the Soviet Union is illegally testing germ warfare.

The State Department recently revealed the Carter administration has decided to ask the Soviet Union for talks to determine whether Moscow has violated an international ban on producing and storing biological weapons.

Although the Russians deny it, there is still concern an outbreak of anthrax in Sverdlovsk was the result of an accident at a biological weapons plant.

Privately, the State Department officials say Moscow will be asked for permission to allow a team of American scientists to discuss the episode with Soviet experts.

Publicly, it is promised the administration will "continue to pursue this matter vigorously."

One would certainly hope so. Considering reports the Soviets have used illegal poison gas in Afghanistan, there is reason to suspect they also have been ignoring the 1975 convention prohibiting the storage and production of germ weapons. If they have, we'd best discover the cheating sooner rather than later.

Let Market Control

State banking commissioner Robert Stewart has come down firmly on the side of the free market by opposing a fixed ceiling on mortgage interest rates in Texas. In response to an inquiry by a legislative committee, Stewart noted that "...To facilitate the flow of home mortgage funds into the state and, indeed, funds for all types of loans, our banks must be competitive on a national scope."

Last winter's experience with skyrocketing interest rates should have convinced even the most confirmed doubters that artificial interest ceilings set by the state cause more harm than good. Because of the mortgage interest limit the Legislature adopted in 1979, Texas banks were not competitive in national markets for funds that went to other states. The housing industry and individual homeowners suffered because they couldn't sell their property when buyers weren't able to get loans.

It horrifies politicians to let the free market function — whether it be the money market or any other. But as we are learning, government regulations — either state, federal or local — that interrupt the free market do more harm than good.

FROM HIS WORD...

Are we guilty of original sin? Asked another way, are we inherently sinful? Some would have us believe this is true. Let us not take another's word, but let us go to God's Word.

Where did sin first come into the picture? The angels first rebelled against God's Law and willfully desired to set themselves over God. (Read: Jude v.6; I Jn. 3:4; Isa. 14:12-15)

What did sin do to man? It brought death (physical) to all men by the first Adam (Gen. 2:15-17: man is a recipient of the consequence of Adam's sin - physical death.) The consequence of sin, not the guilt, that is what is passed on from Father to Son, for each person is judged on his own deeds. (Obedience to God's commandments: I Jn. 3:4, Ezk. 18:1-4; (19:23; Rom. 14:14; Rev. 20:11-15), 20:11-15)

Just as surely as Adam brought physical death into the world, Jesus Christ, the second Adam, brought spiritual life. As surely as we all must die physically, all who will to obey God shall live eternally through the blood of Jesus Christ. (Rom. 6:3-12; 10:9-11; Mk. 16:16; John 3:16-21)

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas Democrats backing Mass. Sen. Edward Kennedy in the presidential sweepstakes are pressing this state's delegation to opt for an open convention in New York next week.

Kennedy forces around the nation are positing that President Jimmy Carter's low standing in the polls warrants a change in convention rules. Carter cannot win, they argue, and the Democrats should now release all delegates pledged to any particular candidate so that the party may easier nominate a winner against GOP nominee Ronald Reagan.

Carter has more than enough first ballot pledges to sew up the nomination, if the conventioners stick to those pledges.

Pro-Carter state party leaders are working to squelch the open convention movement which would give Kennedy a new shot at the nomination. Indications are that Carter will keep his pledges, and that even if the convention was "opened," he would still win the party's nod.

In this state, the struggle pits such party leaders as Texas Democratic Party Chairman Billy Goldberg, a Carter supporter, against National Democratic Committeewomen Billie Carr, a Houston liberal backing Kennedy. Carr says she has been told by several Carter pledges that they would switch to Kennedy if rules allowed.

A Code Word

A change in the rules at this late date "sounds good but an open convention is a code word for subverting the decision of 20 million Democrats who voted in the primaries and precinct conventions," Goldberg said.

Much of the new in fighting is regarded as just a rule or ruin fight by Kennedy, who was thoroughly trounced by Carter in the primaries, despite record inflation and home mortgage rates at that time caused by deregulation of certain sectors of the economy. If such is the case, Kennedy, who has effectively knocked off the rust from his national political machine, may be making bitter enemies who will keep him from the nomination in '84.

Brother Trouble

The Democrats are looking bad and they know it. Nothing stays the same in politics and their relief may be short-lived. Seeking tax revenues, Texas cities may make a raid on the sales tax and seek increases there. And the Legislature, which may be forced next session to raise presently low state taxes, had hoped to keep the sales tax hike option for itself.

College Desegregation

The U.S. Dept. of Education sent a letter to Gov. Bill Clements last week indicating Texas may lose millions in federal funds to higher education because of rampant segregation in state-supported colleges. State officials may soon learn they have 90 days to submit a corrective plan or face the loss of funds. Clements called the letter a political ploy.

AG Opinions

In a legal opinion issued last week Texas Atty. Gen. Mark White ruled Comptroller Bob Bullock may not deposit his employees' salaries directly into banks unless he sends a separate pay warrant for each employee to the bank. Bullock had wanted to save money, time and effort by sending a lump sum to the banks of his employees, but White ruled it must be sent by individual paychecks.

White also ruled the Texas Municipal Power Agency is not a public utility as defined in the Public Utility Regulatory Act. Carter is troubled by low poll ratings and scandal involving his brother Billy's role as a Libyan agent. While the Republicans work in unison and watch with glee, the Democrats know they must begin on Convention Day One to make intraparty peace and start catching up. The 1980 presidential election may well be won or lost on the first day of the convention.

State Property Taxes

One group of politicians breathing sighs of relief are Texas legislators who voted for tax relief measures last session. Now is the season for local governments—cities, counties, school boards, etc.—to prepare budgets for the coming fiscal year. Word coming in from around the state is that inflation and other factors are prompting many local officials to seek large property tax increases.

State legislators, who were secretly saying all along that the Proposition 13 tax revolt should have been aimed at local and federal officials, are glad that the heat is off their backs: the Legislature effectively wiped out state property taxes last session.

BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH

Bethel Methodist Church at Loco was nearing completion when this picture was made about 1917. Scaffolding is still seen on the roof. J.F. Gibson gave the land. A carpenter, he helped build the church. W.M. Durfee selected the three interior colors, for the wainscoting, the upper wall and the vaulted ceiling. Shown from left are Laura Gibson (Mrs. H.H. Shanks of Georgetown) Mae McFarland, Mary Gibson (the late Mrs. Earl Reynolds) and Lee Gibson (Mrs. John Bishop of Quail). The information was given and picture furnished by Mrs. James Gibson of Amarillo.

THOMAS' ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes Reported Each Week

WASHINGTON--

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes July 24 through July 30.

HOUSE

BILLY CARTER The House voted 233 for and 139 against, to uphold a temporary ban by the Democratic leadership on the one-minute speeches that some members customarily make at the beginning of the day's session. The effect of the party-line vote was to silence that morning Republicans who had been making brief floor speeches on the Billy Carter scandal.

Members voting "yea" wanted to muffle GOP criticism of the scandal.

Reps. Samuel Hall, D-1, Ray Roberts, D-4, Jim Mattox, D-5, Phil Gramm, D-6, Bob Eckhardt, D-8,

Jack Brooks, D-9, Jake Pickle, D-10, Jack Hightower, D-13, Joe Wyatt, D-14, Kika de la Garza, D-15, Charles Stenholm, D-17, Mickey Leland, D-18, Kent Hance, D-19, Henry Gonzalez, D-20, Abraham Kazen, D-23, and Martin Frost, D-24, voted "yea."

Reps. James Collins, R-3, Bill Archer, R-7, Tom Loeffler, R-21, and Ron Paul, R-22, voted "nay."

Reps. Charles Wilson, D-2, J. Marvin Leath, D-11, James Wright, D-12, and Richard White, D-16, did not vote.

SENATE GASOLINE RATIONING

By a vote of 31 for and 60 against, the Senate also rejected the resolution (HJ Res 575) intended to keep the standby gasoline rationing plan from taking effect (see preceding vote).

Senators voting "nay" favored the standby gasoline rationing plan.

Sen. John Tower, R, voted "yea." Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D, voted nay.

Burial Here Friday for J.W. Martin

Burial services for a former Wellington man, J.W. Martin of Crowell, were conducted at 5 p.m. Friday in North Fairview Cemetery. These followed services held at 2:30 at First Christian Church in Crowell. The Rev. David Wilson, pastor, officiated at both.

Manard Funeral Home of Crowell and Guy Owens Funeral Home were in charge of arrangements.

Martin died at 12:50 a.m. Wednesday, July 30, in the Crowell Hospital, after being ill for a short time.

He was a retired owner and operator of Martin's Automotive Garage.

Born April 6, 1919, at Munday, he was the son of the late John W. and Mattie Ruff Martin. The family came to Wellington in 1929 and Martin lived here until he moved to Happy. He also lived at Lockney before moving to Crowell 20 years ago.

He was a veteran of World War II and was married to Ella Mae Austin in 1946 at Memphis.

He was a member of First Christian Church, Crowell.

Pall bearers were Doris Gentry, Joe Smith, Bill Marlowe, Denny Prince, Jackie Brown and Jim Cash.

Survivors are his wife; three sons, Don Martin and Jamie Martin of Crowell, and Jerry Martin of Wichita Falls; two daughters, Mrs. Saunna Blacksher of Wellington and Mrs. Martha Cash of Crowell; a brother, Roy Martin of Odessa; and a sister, Mrs. Lucille Gilmore of Wellington. There are 6 grandchildren.

REPRESENT ARLIE-LOCO

These four were the oldest from their respective communities at the annual Loco-Arlie reunion Sunday, Aug. 3. Curtis Hall and Mrs. Silas Crawford, left, represented Loco; Mrs. W.E. Brewster and Harold McGinnis of Amarillo were from Arlie.

LOCO-ARLIE REUNION

OFFICERS

Mrs. J.L. King, left was elected secretary of the Loco-Arlie reunion for 1981 when that group held a meeting Sunday, Aug. 3. She succeeds Mrs. John Wolf, right. This is the association's only elective office.

50 Meet Sunday for Loco-Arlie Reunion

Approximately 50 former residents of the Loco and Arlie communities gathered Sunday, August 3, to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the organization of their reunion.

Most of the day was given over to visiting and reminiscing.

After the covered dish luncheon was served, members paid tribute to 17 of their friends who have died since the last reunion, then elected their traditional "king and queen" for each community and honored the oldest man and woman representing Loco and Arlie.

Mrs. John Wolf (Bethine Adkins) presided.

Those honored in the memorial services included Claude Savage, rural mail carrier serving the community many years. Ona Burton Black, James S. Gibson, Jesse Motsenbocker, Mrs. H.W. Stout, the Rev. and Mrs. J.S. Hansard (he was pastor of Loco Baptist Church many years), Emma Griffin Young, J.W. Cothern, who had passed his 100th birthday, and who was the father of Mrs. Tiffin Young, C.B. Carter, Paul Goodson, Ethel Wilks Carroll, Ralph Branum, Mrs. Frank Terry Glover, Mrs. Lillie Elbert Bounds, Cecil Elbert and Elmer Earl Shanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Shanks.

During the election, Red King and Mrs. Olean Bearden of Carey were chosen king and queen from Arlie, and John Wolf and Mrs. Ruby Lockhart from Loco.

Oldest former Loco residents were Mrs. Silas Crawford and oldest from Arlie were Mrs. W.S. Brewster who is 91 and the last person to operate the Loco Store.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Red King was chosen secretary for the coming year, succeeding Mrs. Wolf, who is completing unexpired term. This is the only officer, and reunion hosts will be named later.

Those who registered were Geneva Bearden, Dovie Phillips and Goldie Hillman of Hale Center; Tom Greer, Maurine Greer, Glen Thompson and Bertie Thompson of Morton; Gene Wolf of Borger;

Alice M. McGinnis, Leonard McGinnis, Addie Hazard Gibson, Ethel McGinnis, Neva Harrison, Nina Harrison Jackson, Harold and Thelma McGinnis, all of Amarillo.

Olean Bearden of Carey; Edith Copeland Carter of Hollis; the Rev. and Mrs. John Stout of Clarendon.

Registering from Wellington were Curt Hall, Loyd and Ethel Clark, Lorene Williams Morris, Floyd Clark, Lottie Hall, Mrs. Silas Crawford, Pauline Patterson, Bethine Adkins

Wolf, Pauline Wilks Masten,

Jennifer Bouchelle Havens and daughter, Doris White, Red and Gladys King, Mr. and Mrs. J.V. Emmert and grandson, Mary Scott, T.P. Belew, Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Mrs. Allene Reynolds,

Friends of Library Plan Fair Work

Plans for their Collingsworth County Fair projects were made by Friends of the Library during their meeting Thursday morning, July 31.

Through the cooperation of Judge R.L. Templeton, the Friends will sell copies of his newest book, due to come off the press only the week preceding the Fair. Like his other books, this deals with an early Texas episode.

Also, the Friends will have a large selection of good used books for sale. These include books from the library which are duplicates of titles already on the shelves, said Mrs. George Porter.

Members earmarked $300 for the purchase of Children's Books in the year ahead.

The meeting was held in the reading room of the Collingsworth County Library, with Miss Bonnie Willis, president, directing the meeting.

Others present were Mrs. Clara Mote, Mrs. David Caison, Mrs. Leona Elliott, Mrs. Erma Kersten, Mrs. Frances J. Martin, Miss Willis and Mrs. Porter.

The next meeting will be August 21 at 9 a.m.
