Spirits On Stand Get No Hearing

MEDIUM LOSES CASE DESPITE AID FROM "SPIRIT" WORLD

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, April 20. — Spirits on the witness stand get no hearing in the court of Justice McCardie of London.

The justice granted a verdict yesterday in favor of the London Daily Mail which was sued for libel by Mrs. Meurig Morris, a spiritualist medium, because of an article in which Mrs. Morris was advertised as "a trance medium found out."

Goes Into Trance

Mrs. Morris went into a trance on the witness stand at the close of the trial and purported spirit voice began to roll forth over the court room.

The judge was in the midst of his address to the jury. The woman stood up suddenly with her eyes closed and a deep voice boomed: "Hearken to my voice, O brother judge!"

The judge stopped his reading and ordered the plaintiff to be seated. "Let her speak!" someone shouted. The court then ordered the woman removed, but when the usher approached the deep voice boomed again:

"Do not touch her" it said, "until I have left her body."

The removal process went on, however, and the judge resumed his reading. "I don't like such cases," he said, as he began again.

"I hope I have not hurt the feelings of anyone unnecessarily," he remarked, "but as a judge I care not for all the incarnate or disincarnate spirits in the world and as long as I remain on the bench I shall resolutely seek to reach for the truth and shall ask the jury to do the same, even though there may be 10,000 million disincarnate spirits around us."

Friends said Mrs. Morris remained unconscious for some hours. Her attorney said she would appeal.

RAP ECONOMY AT COST OF DEFENSE

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — Urging the Hale and Vinson bills for navy building before the continental congress of the D. A. R., Mrs. Fred C. Morgan, today pronounced economy at the cost of protection "a wanton lack of judgment."

Mrs. Morgan, legislative chairman of the daughters, said congress was so engrossed in budget-balancing that other measures were delayed or forgotten. She catalogued a long list of measures sponsored by the D. A. R. that had gotten nowhere. Great Britain and Japan, she said, had been building up to London treaty strength while the United States navy was being allowed to "go into obsolescence."

MAN ARRESTED FOUND TO BE JOHN KERNS

SUSPECT UNDER PEN SENTENCES FOR BURGLARY

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, April 20. — Identification of a man arrested at Hobbs, N. M., Monday after a gun battle with officers, as John Kerns, sought since he escaped from the Erath county jail at Stephenville February 4, was made here this morning.

Fingerprints of the man arrested, who said he was known as "Oklahoma Blackie" and who gave the name of Ownes, were identical with those of Kerns, the local police department bertillon expert said. Kerns drew prison sentences totaling ten years in Taylor county last fall. He was convicted here on eight burglary charges and a case of car theft, receiving ten years in each case, to run concurrently.

Shot In Chest

The man identified as Kerns has a bullet wound in the left chest, received when five men opened fire on three police officers as the latter attempted to question them in connection with the recent holdup of a bank at O'Donnell, press dispatches said. A special officer also was wounded.

Two men escaped in a coupe and three men and a woman escaped in a sedan. When the sedan was being hard pushed about nine miles out of Hobbs, the wounded man was shoved out of the car. The men in the coupe later were arrested in Littlefield.

At Stephenville, Kerns drew a two year term for a filling station burglary. With another prisoner he escaped from the county jail by means of a key they had made in their cell. They were awaiting transfer to the penitentiary. Kerns also is under a ten-year sentence for burglary of the Jean State bank.

PRESBYTERIAN RITES MARK SESSIONS

REV. W. J. COLEMAN OF MIDLAND DELIVERS SERMON TODAY

Two simple, impressive rites, the celebration of the Lord's Supper and the ordination of a new minister, marked the Wednesday morning session of El Paso Presbytery at the First Presbyterian church here. They followed the delivery of a sermon by Rev. W. J. Coleman, new minister of the Midland church.

The service in which both presbytery and the women's presbyterial joined, began at 11 o'clock as a joint session and closed shortly after noon. The main auditorium was well filled and Rev. Jack M. Lewis, host pastor, presided. Rev. G. C. Bissell read the scripture lesson and Mrs. V. L. Doughtie sang a solo. Rev. C. L. Aultfather, Fort Stockton, led in prayer.

At the close of the sermon Rev. S. J. McMurry, moderator, called W. George Pagan, of El Paso, who has been elected pastor of the Eastminster Presbyterian church, to the front of the church, where he propounded stated questions of the church to the applicant for ordination. Rev. Jack M. Lewis, Rev. Thalmers G. Lohg, Rev. Aultfather and the elders of the El Paso church, laid their hands upon the head of the new minister during the ordination prayer by the moderator. Members of the presbytery, elders and ministers, stood grouped about the communion table.

Ministers assisting in the communion were: the moderator, Reverend Lewis, Rev. W. M. Elliott and Reverend Coleman.

Wets Push Proposal For A Tax On Beer

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — Organized house anti-prohibitionists today seized upon what they termed England's intention to repudiate war debt payments as another reason why the United States should raise $500,000,000 from a tax on 2.75 per cent beer.

Representative O'Conner of New York, secretary of the Democratic wet bloc, said repudiation by other nations simply would mean that the American treasury would have to bear the additional burden.

KILLER OF KANSAS GIRL LYNCHED

"You are lynching the right man," said Richard Read, former Colorado convict, as an infuriated mob of western Kansas farmers dropped the noose around the man's neck. Then they hanged him from a tree. Read was taken from his jail cell at St. Francis, after the sheriff had been overpowered, and rushed to a spot near McDonald where he was lynched. He said he was intoxicated when he kidnaped eight-year-old Dorothy Hunter from her home at Selden, attacked her and then killed her. Read and the young Hunter girl are pictured below.

Women Promise To Elect Dry President This Year

PAPERS CALLED BEST MEDIUM OF ADVERTISING

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Newspapers are called the dominant advertising medium in the United States by Kenneth Collins, executive director of R. H. Macy & Company, in his book, "The Road to Good Advertising," published today.

"Few business ventures in America requiring the stimulus of advertising could live without the newspaper," said the department store executive.

"In it we spend more than one-half of the entire budget for all forms of publicity. We do so rightly."

He held that advertising could help greatly in ending the business slump by the use of absolute frankness as to conditions and showing how values are the greatest in many years.

Mr. Collins said newspaper advertising had not produced results to the full extent of its capability only because of "fearful mishandling of advertising by the advertiser." He emphasized that newspapers of today are much better than those of other times and called upon advertisers to take advantage of the superior facilities now offered.

PREDICT DEFEAT FOR PARTY WHICH HAS WET PLATFORM

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 20 — A warning that wet planks in both party platforms this year would cause prohibitionists to get together and elect a dry president was issued yesterday from the woman's national committee for law enforcement.

Mrs. Leigh Colvin of New York made the statement before the women's convention, at the same time claiming definitely that President Hoover is a supporter of prohibition. She predicted his defeat, however, if the party adopts a wet plank.

The dry women turned today to congress to lay their opposition to modification or repeal before a senate committee. Three such were in session yesterday considering proposals ranging from the legalization of beer to stiffening the penalties of prohibition enforcement acts. Equally wide was the diversity of views garnered, with Bishop James Cannon, jr., advocating that the purchaser of liquor be "branded as a criminal," and Matthew Wolt of the Federation of Labor warning of a potential revolution unless the beer industry is revived.

CONDON MAKES SECRET TRIP IN A BOAT

LINDBERGH EMISSARY QUOTED AS SAYING MESSAGE RECEIVED

(By The Associated Press)

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 20—One of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's emissaries in the attempt to get kidnaped Charles A. Lindbergh, jr., back was recovering today from a soaking in chilly water.

Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafsie" who paid $50,000 of the colonel's money to a man who represented himself as an agent of the kidnapers, went rowing in Pelham bay, off the Bronx, New York, in an apparent attempt to make another contact.

His boat capsized at a dock as he returned and he was thoroughly wet before he scrambled ashore. The New York Daily News quoted him as saying "I got a message."

A large red airplane from Kansas City landed a man at Princeton and he departed for the Lindbergh home. Later he returned and flew away, saying: "If I'm lucky I'll be back." The plane is owned by Walter C. Taber of Kansas City, who was not in it.

CURLY LOCKS FORM KIDNAPING CLUE

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—A special dispatch to the Brooklyn Eagle from St. John, New Brunswick, Canada, today said the curly locks of a child which had been seen there have been sent to Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in Hopewell for possible identification.

A beauty parlor operator saved the locks several days ago when she cut the hair of the child.

Represented As Girl

The operator said a woman brought the child in, representing it as a girl, and said she was on her way to her sister's home in England from western United States.

While the beauty operator cut the child's hair, the woman retired to a booth to have her hair dressed. The beauty operator then discovered the child was a boy.

When the woman was about to leave the beauty operator made known her discovery, whereupon, she said, the woman became flustered and fled with the child.

The operator said the child looked like the kidnaped Lindbergh baby.

"Pretty Boy" Floyd Hunted At Houston

HOUSTON, April 20 (AP)—Police today kept an eye out for Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, though they were inclined to doubt the accuracy of a report that the Oklahoma desperado was here.

The tip that Floyd had "holed in" here was brought to Detective Lieutenant Anthony Margiotta early this morning by a man whose name was withheld, who said the desperada had threatened him.

TROUBLE SEEN IN MINE ROW

FRESH DISTURBANCES BREAK OUT TODAY IN OHIO AREA

(By The Associated Press)

CADIZ, O., April 20—Fresh disturbances broke out today in the eastern Ohio coal fields where miners are on strike in protest to wage reductions.

A mysterious explosion shook the village of Jewett, 10 miles north of here, about 1:00 a. m., but apparently did no damage.

Sixty miles to the south, in Noble county, nearly 200 strike sympathizers, a few hours later, attempted unsuccessfully to prevent 200 non-strikers from going to work at the Caldwell mine near Caldwell. The strikers were dispersed by Sheriff Clayton McKee and six deputies with a machine gun although no shots were fired.

A group of strikers was reported earlier on the march in Guernsey county, but authorities there were unable to locate them.

Six Shots Fired

Six shots were fired near the Tasa mine, a short distance from Jewett, but national guardsmen at the shaft reported no one was hit. They were unable to discover who did the shooting.

The explosion was possibly a short distance outside the village. Its exact locality was undetermined, but a check of nearby mines showed none of them were touched.

The national guard troops had anti-aircraft guns in position in the Cadiz sector today to prevent any attempts of an airplane bombing of the mines. These weapons were set up after an unidentified plane flew low over the Somers mine, scene of recent rioting, and dropped an object near the tipple.

He said members were especially urged to attend.

BRUTALITY OF ATTACK WILL BE BARED

ASSAULT VICTIM WILL SEEK FREEDOM FOR HER HUSBAND

BY WILLIAM H. EWING

HONOLULU, April 20. (AP) —Mrs. Thalia Massie, unwilling player in the drama of passion and homicide that has shaken Hawaii politically and socially, was chosen to strike the final blow for the defense in the Joseph Kahahawai lynching trial today.

Clarence Darrow, promising to end his case today, announced he probably would call the blonde 22-year-old assault victim to the witness stand in the effort to free her husband, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, and three other persons accused of the killing.

To Detail Brutality

A direct story of the brutality suffered by the young woman in the assault of last September was expected as the defense sought to reinforce the testimony of Lieutenant Massie, who admitted holding the pistol that killed the young native.

Despite efforts of a belligerent prosecution, Dr. J. Thomas Orbison and Dr. Edward Huntington Williams, Los Angeles alienists, insisted in their testimony that Massie was insane at the moment he faced Kahahawai with drawn pistol and heard the athlete allegedly confess attacking Mrs. Massie.

The announcement by Darrow, head of defense counsel, that Mrs. Massie would be called was taken to mean none of the other defendants, Mrs. Granville Fortescue, mother of the attack victim; Albert O. Jones and E. J. Lord, navy enlisted men, would take the stand.

Let Story Stand

The defense previously had considered calling Jones because of prosecution hints that he was the real killer of Kahahawai. It was learned, however, the defense had decided to let Lieutenant Massie's story stand as the only direct account of the killing.

Dr. Orbison termed Massie's ailment as "delirium with ambulatory automatism," which he reduced to plain "mental derangement" when Darrow asked him for a simplified definition.

Barry S. Ulrich, assistant prosecutor, sought an admission that Orbison's opinion was based on the assumption that Massie's story was true.

"I would still believe he was insane whether I believed him or not," replied the witness.

The alienist expressed the belief that a fit of anger had not caused Massie to kill Kahahawai "because in this case the man's whole idea was to get a confession, and it was unlikely he would kill the person from whom he expected to get this confession unless his reason was unbalanced."

"Did you approach this case intending to learn if the witness were telling the truth?" demanded Ulrich.

Dr. Williams said his observation was that Massie had fallen into mental tension.

BLAMES POLITICS FOR BONUS FIGHT

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Demands for payment of the two billion dollars outstanding on veterans' bonus certificates were blamed today by Colonel Benjamin Castle of New York on "a lot of self-appointed political leaders."

He made the statement in a brief hearing by the house ways and means committee, saying he represented the veterans' committee for reducing the cost of peace.

Friends Of Marrs Gather For Rites

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—Friends of S. M. N. Marrs, state superintendent of public instruction for ten years, gathered here today from many parts of Texas to pay last tribute to the educator with whom they worked over a long period. Marrs died in College Station Monday night.

Arrangements were completed for the veteran official's body to lie in state in the senate chamber of the capitol building this afternoon. Funeral services were set for tomorrow.

Transandine Line Abandoned Today

MENDOZA, Argentina, April 20 (AP)—The world famous Transandine railroad, which links the Atlantic and the Pacific over the Andes, two miles above the sea, was abandoned today.

Tariff walls which have sprung up between Argentina and Chile, each struggling to maintain its business in times of economic distress, have halted the trains over the 150 miles of narrow gauge track and have terminated a 60-year battle of engineering against the forces of nature.

IT TAKES FIRECRACKER TO INTERRUPT STREET GABBING BUT MAN IS CHARGED

Soothsayers and sages of the patches-on-the-pants school of thought were gabbing as usual Tuesday afternoon at the southwest corner of Broadway and Avenue H. It is not unusual for several nondescript fellows, most of them middle aged or past that mark, to assemble there and rub shoulders without ceremony, drawn by a common interest in somebody's version of the flood, a secret chapter in Republican history, or something equally vital. The florid speakers are interrupted without apology and, with all the perspiring, there are answers and answers. A two-inch firecracker stopped the answers Tuesday afternoon and so Joe Murphy will be tried this afternoon in justice court for disturbing the peace.

Some persons, however, seem not to appreciate a gathering as philosophical as it is spontaneous, and are unable to appre-

"WITCH-CHILDREN", EDUCATED FROM BABYHOOD FOR ROLES, DISCOVERED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 20.— "Witch-children," specially educated from babyhood to be witches, have been reported by a scientist to exist among the Cherokee Indians of North Carolina.

These 30th century witches are "made not born," says Dr. Frans M. Olbrechts, Belgian ethnologist, in a report issued today by the Smithsonian institution. Children, preferably twins, selected for a career as witches, are put through an initiation supposed to endow them with supernatural powers.

"If twins are born and their parents intend to make witches out of them," Dr. Olbrechts reports, "no mother's milk is given them for 24 days. They are fed with the liquid portion of corn hominy, which must be given them only during the night. They must be kept rigidly secluded from all visitors during the same 24-day period.

BETCHA THAT TONY WILL BE SORRY NOW, HUH?

BY DALE HARRISON

NEWARK, N. J., April 20 (AP)—Like a paper-wad from a rubber band, Tony Misiak's $32,917 bankroll shot back today to smack him—wham!

Mrs. Misiak showed up; Mrs. Misiak who for a quarter of a century worked in laundries to pay the bills so Tony could save his money.

Preceding and accompanying Mrs. Misiak to the jail house where Tony is held for mendicancy and liquor toting, were numerous legal papers, all boding no good to Tony.

Mrs. Misiak, confronting her husband, said:

"Aha! I betcha you'll be sorry, huh?"

Tony was taking no wagers. His funds were in escrow. The term was strange to him, but the import was apparent. It simmered down to the fact that the $32,917 he had had in his pockets when arrested Monday for begging was no longer in his pockets.

Tony made no secret of the vexation the legal papers caused him. One set announced bluntly that he was on the receiving end of a suit for separate maintenance and alimony. In connection with this, his cash was automatically tied up.

This circumstance was especially unfortunate. It prevented his posting $5,000 bond to guarantee his remaining in this country while the legal actions are pending.

At the same time the Essex county tax board indicated it would have a look at the Misiak situation. A personal tax on the Misiak monies

For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure, vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless. DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

As almost every reader of this column knows, The National Congress of Parents and Teachers, known locally as the Parent-Teacher association, has made better parenthood its major purpose. In the judgment of the writer no other organization in our country has made so valuable a contribution to the greater happiness of our homes and families. Because so many of my readers are active members of the PTA, and because practically all those who read this column wish to improve themselves as parents, I am going to quote a resolution:

"The Board of Managers of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers believes that universal education for parenthood is of supreme importance to the highest development of our civilization. It urges:

"First: That colleges give special attention to problems of parenthood and homemaking.

"Second: That directors of summer schools make special provision for classes in parent education as rapidly as suitable instructors are available.

"Third: That teachers' colleges include special training to prepare their graduates to lead parent education groups in local communities.

"Fourth: That graduate teachers' colleges provide for the training of teachers to present parent education in undergraduate schools.

"Fifth: That extension and correspondence study departments of colleges and universities develop courses in parent education.

"Sixth: That every elementary school principal take courses in parent education or encourage some other member of the school faculty to do so.

"Seventh: That visiting teachers be properly equipped to do individual and group work in parent education.

"Eighth: That public libraries feature special collections of books, pamphlets and periodicals on homemaking and parenthood.

"Ninth: That state and city school officers look forward to bureaus of parent education as a permanent part of their regular staffs.

"The Board of Managers of The National Congress of Parents and Teachers stands ready to co-operate with agencies working for a trained parenthood. It commends the United States Bureau of Education for its activity in this field, and urges further development of its service to the cause of parent education."

This resolution was drawn up and passed in 1928. Since then, virtually all the recommendations have been in effect, to a small degree at least, in a few places. Within the next ten years we shall witness great strides in these directions. With many of my readers I hope to share at least a small part, since this column is devoted to the cause of better parenthood and happier homes.

It must be apparent to my readers why I have such unbounded enthusiasm for the PTA. You know, of course, that it is a wholly unselfish organization, that its officers from the national president down to the local chairman serve without pay, that its national organ, Child Welfare Magazine, and the PTA bulletin of each state are non-profit making instruments, that they are edited, and that subscriptions are taken, by members, without any compensation whatsoever.

I happen to serve as an associate editor of the national organ, and have frequently written for its pages, never having received a penny from it. No volunteer work has ever netted me greater pleasure.

Of course the Tinies didn't know that Duncy had agreed to go along with all the skinnies out of curiosity.

So, when they saw him disappear within the house, they felt a fear that he was in real trouble. They were worried as could be.

Said Scouy, "Are we going to stand outside the house and lend no hand?" "Of course not," answered Windy. "But, what is there we can do?

"If we break in and make a fuss, those skinny men may capture us. Just trying to fight is foolish. We must think of something new."

"Oh, I'm not scared," brave Copsy cried. "Come on, let's force our way inside. We're bigger than the skinnies. If they want to fight, we will!

"How many times must you be told that I'm a p'liceman, brave and bold? A friendly little skirmish would be naught more than a thrill."

"Hey! Wait a minute." Scouty said. "A good plan's popped into my head." And then he pointed to a log that lay upon the ground. "That is as hollow as can be and broken on one side, you see. We'll stick our heads inside it. Then toward the house we're bound.

"We'll look just like a dragon. Gee, 'twill be a funny sight to see. I'm sure we'll scare the skinnies, though we'll do it just in fun. We'll wiggle as we walk along and then, unless my plan goes wrong, all of those little men will turn upon their heels and run.

They carried out the plan real well and shortly there came forth a yell from all the funny skinnies. This pleased Scouty Tinymite. Said he, "That was a happy hunch. Just see how we have scared that bunch." It wasn't long till all the skinnies scampered out of sight.

DETROIT TIGERS QUALIFY AS SENSATIONS OF EARLY SEASON

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Bill McMillan urges that Meadowbrook Golf club members report to the course this week and put their best efforts into playing eighteen holes of golf. When one plays golf one usually puts his best efforts into it, but one is requested to be particularly careful when playing the Meadowbrook this week. The idea is for every member to play and record the medal score so that a ladder or handicap standings may be arranged. From this will be picked the team to represent the club on South Plains league play.

The South Plains league opens its season next Sunday with six teams operating. Lubbock will be represented by two teams—one from the Lubbock Country club and the other from the Meadowbrook. There's nothing hoggish about that. Lubbock is a bigger town than any other in the loop and it is justified in having two teams. The other teams are at Slaton, Littlefield, Tahoka and Post. They will tangle in a schedule beginning next Sunday and ending sometime in August that is due to see much good golf in each of the towns. The schedule will be arranged so that every team plays on every course at least twice.

Lubbock Country club has already started its ladder tournament, which is a thingamajig by which the best players graduate to the top of the handicap standings and from which eight members will be chosen to represent the club in league play. Meadowbrook will follow the same plan. The idea is not original with either club, but they both used it last year. Meadowbrook called it a "trophy" tournament and awarded gold and silver golf balls to the top eight men. If a man not in the top division challenged a holder of a ball he assumed the importance and appropriated the ball formerly held by the opponent, provided he won. Thus the team may vary from week to week, depending upon the versatility and ability of the membership.

Organization of the South Plains league should serve more than one purpose. It should provide enough competition between the clubs to promote gallery interest, and it should serve to draw out full memberships to compete for team honors. Each individual club should profit and each player should profit. The contacts made and the golf played should benefit individuals and clubs.

The Post club is one of the strongest in the circuit. Charles Quails, West Texas champion, and the Samson brothers, veteran golfers, are members there. Post won the Cap Rock league cup for two years in succession, relinquishing it this fall when it withdrew from the league to join the South Plains organization. Post plays the Lubbock Country club here Sunday, and there should be some interesting matches. The local club will miss the services of Gib Payne, club and city champion, who has moved to Dallas, but in Jo Dick Slaughter, Ross McWhorter, E. T. Daniels, John Edmisson, V. D. Jennings and others the Country club is fairly well fortified. The above mentioned men and J. O. Smith, Lawrence Bacon, and Marvin McClarty probably will constitute the team which meets Post here Sunday.

The local golf clubs are in mighty fine condition just now. We have never seen them any better. Careful administration during the winter toward greens and fairways has made them that way. The turf is more sound and the greens more uniform than they've ever been. Out at the Country club they've set out young saplings which are calculated to grow into trees someday and when and if they do, our grandchildren will have a beautiful course over which to chase balls. They are set at intervals and in bunches on the fairways, and already a few of the tender limbs have been bruised. They'll be good hazards thirty of forty years from now.

It has not been our pleasure to play the courses in the South Plains league, that is, three of them. Roland Anderson escorted us over the Santa Fe course at Slaton the other day and that, mates, is an up and coming little 9-hole layout. It has been improved about 100 per cent during the past winter and spring and the turf is getting better. At first glance it's a rather simple layout, but just try hitting par all around the first time you play. Not near so simple as it looks. Nobody is going to have a snap beating the Slaton golfers, either. They're getting tougher all the time over there.

CATS AND BUFFS ARE TIED FOR LEAD

TAKE FIVE OF FIRST SEVEN HOME TILTS

TIED WITH SENATORS FOR FIRST PLACE IN AMERICAN

BY GAYLE TALBOT,
Associated Press Sports Writer

After two lean years, Manager Bucky Harris appears at last to have a pretty slick combination at Detroit.

Tied with Washington for the leadership of the American league after winning five of their first seven starts at home, the Tigers easily qualify as the sensations of the early going. So far they have enjoyed the finest pitching in either league from Earl Whitehill, Vic Sorrell, George Uhle and Whitlow Wyatt and their hitting has been both hard and timely. One of their two defeats last week was charged to Sorrell, and on a day when he allowed the St. Louis Browns only three hits.

Win Three In Row

Rightfielder Roy Johnson has supplied the big batting punch so far with 14 hits in 32 trips for an average of .438, but the club has been hitting right down the line. Charlie Gehringer drove three runs across with a double and triple yesterday as the Tigers made it three out of four from the Browns, 8 to 0.

The Washington Senators continued their heavy cannonading to lick the Athletics, 7 to 4, and square the series at Shibe park. Rube Walberg yielded 14 hits in eight innings.

The Yanks and Red Sox divided their Patriot's day doubleheader at Boston, the Sox scoring their first victory of the year in the morning tilt, 6 to 5, and the Yanks unlimbering their long-range artillery to take the second encounter, 6 to 3.

Willis Hudlin hurled Cleveland to a 4 to 2 win over the White Sox, allowing only five singles, while his mates jumped on Sad Sam Jones for all their runs in the last three frames.

Win In Thirteenth

Wally Berger's triple with two on in the thirteenth enabled the Boston Braves to nose out the Giants, 8 to 7, and shove the McGrawmen further into the National league cellar. Bill Terry, Giant first sacker, sent the game into extra innings when he connected with one of Ed Brandt's shoots for a home run with two on in the last of the ninth.

With Hack Wilson on the bench, nursing a leg injury, the Brooklyn Dodgers caught a 10 to 2 beating from the Phillies. Ray Benge pitched steady ball all the way, allowing only five hits, but was robbed of a shutout by Glenn Wright's homerun in the sixth.

Only the two games were scheduled in the National.

WESTERN LOOP WILL START THURSDAY

MANAGERS PIN HOPES ON NEW TALENT IN PENNANT CHASE

KANSAS CITY, April 20 (AP)—Managers of western league clubs generally will pin their pennant hopes on an assortment of new talent as the circuit swings into its thirty-third annual campaign tomorrow.

Working agreements and connections with both major and minor league clubs have contributed heavily to the rosters this season and the revamping has resulted in considerable speculation as to the finish next September.

Des Moines enters the race with only half a dozen of the players who aided in winning the 1931 pennant, Tulsa, back in the league after a two year absence, is given a good chance to win its sixth pennant, especially with such a pilot as Art Griggs.

Teams which finished way down the list in the last campaign are making spirited bids for first division berths. There is the cellar occupant, Omaha, which has a hard-hitting outfield. Manager Fred Luderus of Oklahoma City is banking one one of the youngest crews ever assembled in the league.

St. Joseph is looked upon as being all the contender it was last season. The Wichita club, transplanted from Topeka, has drawn upon the coast league, most of the infield jobs going to Los Angeles players.

Denver has the goods for a strong finish with ten veterans and a supply of likely looking players from the St. Louis Cardinals. The Pueblo club, which finished in the first division last season, is built around a fast, smooth working infield.

About five ounces of down is the usual yield per nest each season from eider down ducks.

CINCINNATI AND BROOKLYN HOLD UP ATTENDANCE

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—A revival of interest at Cincinnati and the great drawing-power of the revamped Brooklyn Dodgers have contrived to keep National league attendance close to normal this season despite frigid weather, but the American league has suffered losses.

The National has averaged about 12,560 spectators per game this season compared with 13,400 over an approximately similar period last year. The corresponding average in 1930 was 12,850.

The American league has averaged only 9,450 fans per game compared with about 20,000 last year and 12,500 in 1930.

Two factors contributed heavily in this situation. The weather this year has been extremely cold, forcing many postponements and cutting heavily into attendance at games that have been played despite the chill breezes.

Then the averages for this year were reckoned before two of the biggest money-making clubs in baseball—the New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs—had played a single home game. In the National league the excellent attendance at Cincinnati and Brooklyn has served to counteract the losses suffered with the Cubs on the road. In the American no substitute has arisen to shoulder the burden of the Yankees in this respect.

Champions Battle In Tennis Tourney

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 20. (AP)—The annual Mason and Dixon tennis championship had developed today into a "battle of champions" with Ellsworth Vine and Gregory Mangin drawn as quarter-final round opponents.

These two stars hold the two big national singles titles. Vines won the turf court crown at Forest Hills last summer. Mangin defeated Frank Shields for the national indoor championship recently.

PANTHERS WIN FIVE IN ROW TO ADVANCE

HOUSTON DROPS GAME TO BEAUMONT AND DALLAS WINS

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Running their winning streak to five straights, the Fort Worth Cats changed their address yesterday. Instead of getting their fan mail in the second apartment down, the Pennant ladder, the Cats today were receiving their messages of congratulation in first place. Of course, the Houston Buffaloes occupy the same place but that is not bothering the Cats.

While Fort Worth was going into a tie with Houston for first place with five wins and two defeats, Dallas moved into undisputed possession of third place. Wichita Falls, Galveston, Beaumont and San Antonio are tied for fourth place. Shreveport owns the cellar key.

Spuds Lose Again

Manager Dick McCabe, of the Cats won his second game this season when he beat Wichita Falls yesterday, 6 to 4. He allowed eleven hits but kept them scattered. Lester White held the Cats to nine hits but they were bunched.

The Buffaloes were on the short end of a 4 to 3 game with Beaumont, Houston had the Exporters 3 to 2 in the last of the ninth when Frank Reiber, Beaumont catcher, knocked one out of the park with Fox on base. Hamlin, for Beaumont, struck out nine and limited Houston to eight hits.

Shreveport errors, three of them, and Jimmy Minogue's startling home run with two runners on, gave Dallas a 7 to 6 victory over the Sports and third place.

Big Zeke Bonura, Dallas first sacker, with two out in the ninth and Langford on second base and the score 6 to 6, punched a double through second that scored Langford with the winning tally.

Tom Estell and his spitball won the San Antonio Indians a 5 to 4 victory over Galveston. Estell got away to a bad start when he was touched for three hits to give the Buccaneers three runs to lead in the fourth inning, but then he steadied down and pitched unbeatable baseball while his mates staged a two run rally in the seventh inning to win the second game of the series.

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Earl Whitehill and Charlie Gehringer, Tigers—Former blanked Browns with six hits; latter drove in three runs with double and triple.

Tony Lazzeri, Yankees — His seventh inning homer with two on beat Redsox in second game of double-header.

Willis Hudlin, Indians—Stopped Whitesox with five hits to win, 4-2.

Joe Cronin, Senators—Assaulted Athletic pitching for homer and two singles, driving in three runs.

Wally Berger, Braves—His triple with two on in 13th beat Giants.

Ray Benge, Phillies—Held Dodgers to five hits.

Mexico Idol Step Nearer Fight Title

LOS ANGELES, April 20 (AP)—Baby Arizmendi, Mexico's fighting idol, was a step nearer the bantamweight championship of the world today.

In 10 slugging rounds with Young Tommy, champion of the Orient and claimant to the Pacific coast title, Arizmendi edged out the decision over the Filipino at the Olympic auditorium last night.

OWL EXTRA

40% BOOSTED BUYING POWER

330,000,000 ARE SOLD IN NINE MONTHS

America's Answer to Cigar Finer Than Its Price

Always above nickel cigars when it sold at higher price, the same identical White Owl, sold February, 1931, at 7 cents, is still above them when sold at 5 cents. 330,000,000 sold in nine months proves that thousands realize it.

WHITE OWL AT 5-CENTS LIFTS VALUE OF NICKEL

SAME IDENTICAL CIGAR SOLD AT 7-CENTS FEBRUARY, 1931

When sold at 7 cents in February, 1931, White Owl had to be better than nickel cigars. The identical same cigar, sold at 5 cents, means 40% boosted buying power of the nickel. 330,000,000 White Owls sold in nine months proves that wise buyers recognize the cigar better than its price mark.

ROBERTS WINS IN ELECTION

CROSBYTON MAYOR IS RE-ELECTED BY 4 VOTE MARGIN

CROSBYTON, April 20.—(Special)—E. L. Roberts was re-elected mayor of Crosbyton by a margin of four votes Tuesday in a second city election. Roberts and Chester Huddleston, a contractor, tied with 172 votes each in the first election, April 5.

A record number of voters went to polls today, 203 supporting Roberts, and 199 Huddleston. Three mutilated ballots brought the total to 405.

No Controversy Expected

Because both candidates agreed before the election not to contest the result, no controversy is expected. A close check by the city commission when the returns are canvassed is expected.

Unofficial count after the first election indicated Roberts was elected by three votes—171 to 168. Huddleston's supporters secured a recount. Five mutilated ballots, four for Huddleston and one for Roberts, were ordered accepted—and the tie resulted. A total of 346 voted April 5.

Increase in the total votes was attributed largely to voting by persons above 60 who had not exercised their exemption privileges previously. There were no major issues in the contests.

STREET IS SURE CARDINALS SOUND

ST. LOUIS, April 20 (AP)—Despite a left-footed start which saw his world champion Cardinals lose four straight games in the first week of the season, giving them undisputed possession of seventh place, Sergeant Gabby Street is convinced his team is still "fundamentally sound."

"No one expects the teams that started in the first division of the National league to stay there," Street asserted as the Cards departed on their first road trip.

Although he didn't say it in so many words, it was also apparent the sergeant hardly expected his boys to maintain their almost unprecedented percentage of .333. Never since Street took over the reins have the Redbirds ranked so low in the list.

"Position in the race at this stage doesn't mean anything," Street opined. "My confidence in the Cardinals is unshaken."

SEEK ANNULMENT OR DIVORCE HERE

Annulment of the marriage of Travis A. Gililland to Mrs. Bonnie Orieta Nichols Gililland, nee Weedimier, nee Brigance, is sought in a suit filed by Gililland, 19, and his father Tuesday in 72nd district court here. As an alternative, a divorce is asked.

The petition sets out that Gililland, who while a high school student in Abilene Christian college academy, first met Mrs. Gililland, was "trapped into a purported marriage" July 23, 1931, at Walters, Okla. It is alleged that Mrs. Gililland, 25, had secured divorces from Weedimier and Nichols, and from the latter after having met the youth. B. F. Suter, Cotton county, Okla., clerk, also is named a defendant.

An affidavit that Gililland was 21 was sworn to before the license was issued, the petition sets out. The two purportedly separated April 2, this year. E. Gililland is the second plaintiff.

ROYAL RUSSIAN CHORUS AND DANCERS TO APPEAR IN TWO CONCERTS IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM HERE ON FRIDAY

Great interest is being evidenced in local musical circles over the appearance of the world-famous Royal Russian chorus at the high school auditorium on Friday afternoon and night, April 22, under the auspices of authorities of Texas Technological college. The chorus is being brought here as an added attraction to the college artists course but regular season tickets to the course are void for the concert.

The chorus is now making its second American tour under the direction of Walter Lowe, the well-known Pacific coast impressario. The singers are conducted by Princess Agreneva Slavianshy, one of the few internationally recognized women conductors, and in addition to singing a remarkable program of choral selections, ranging from the severely classical, to the light, and humorous folk songs, and presenting half a dozen clever Russian, Hungarian, and Gypsy dancers, they will display several brilliant soloists, each acclaimed as a gifted artist.

Delightful vocal combinations will also be presented, in duets, trios, quartets, and in both male and female choral numbers, making up a program of remarkable versatility, and most delightful entertainment, all given in gorgeous costumes.

Princess Mara—Soprano

Chief among the accomplished soloists, will be Mademoiselle Mara Slavianshy, (daughter of the regal conductor of the chorus,) who in addition to being a geniune Russian princess, with a historic background, is a remarkably beautiful young woman, with a rich, and brilliant dramatic soprano voice. Several critics have said they like her voice, and vivacious stage presence better than Mary Garden's, while others have called her a "bewitching personality, with a florious voice, and a fascinating pair of eyes." Altogether she is one of the most attractive and gifted singers, now before the American public, and musical circles here can be assured of a very enjoyable experience, listening to her rarely beautiful voice, when the Royal Russian chorus appears here on Friday night, at the High school.

Tickets for the concert programs are on sale at the college under the direction of Prof. W. R. Waghorne. Popular prices prevail for both the afternoon and night performances.

INSTRUCTOR DIES IN CAR ACCIDENT

AUSTIN, April 20 (AP)—W. H. Avery, instructor of agriculture at the Luling High school, was killed instantly and four of his pupils were hurt, one seriously, in an automobile accident about 25 miles from Austin on the Houston highway yesterday.

The party was returning from College Station, where it had attended a stock judging contest.

J. D. Seay, 17, was unconscious when brought to an Austin hospital. Other pupils hurt, but not seriously, were Glen Ussery, 15; Calvin Cochrane, 16, and Merel Beaverdorff, 14, all of Luling.

Occupants of another automobile said the Avery automobile apparently struck loose gravel when it ran off the pavement at a turn, causing it to overturn.

Slaton Students To Present A Pageant

SLATON, April 20.—(Special).—Children of the Slaton schools and four rural schools will be presented in a pageant, "Texas Under Six Flags," at 8 o'clock Thursday night on the school campus here as a part of the annual San Jacinto day celebration.

David Lemon, principal of the high school, is director of the pageant.

"About 1,000 children will take part in the pageant," A. R. Ellis, superintendent, said in telling of the pageant. "We have invited children from McClung, Union, Posey and Wilson school to take part in the pageant.

"Each school will represent one of the eras in the history of Texas. Besides the out of town schools, there will be two schools in town that will have parts."

The public is invited to attend. Superintendent Ellis says that he is expecting a large number of people from the country to attend. "We also invite Lubbock people to come down and join with us," he added.

Challenge Sounded By Joseph France

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., April 20 (AP)—A challenge was sounded here by former United States Senator Joseph I. France, seeking the Republican presidential nomination, to President Hoover to meet him in Maryland in "a courageous and manly fight."

"Upon Maryland's free soil Hoover makes his last desperate stand," France said at his home here and added: "What he represents is repugnant to the great traditions of this state, to which my ancestors came in 1640."

"Mr. Hoover has complied with the law in filing and I hope he and his supporters will carry forward an honorable campaign."

Thought For Today

My punishment is greater than I can bear.—Genesis 4:13.

* * *

Brief is sorrow, and endless is joy.—Schiller.

The Miracle

When it was announced the other day that a little 5-year-old boy, at Fairmont, W. Va., had spoken for the first time in his life, following his 97th operation, a great many parents suddenly wakened to the lilting beauty that comes in children's voices.

Their happy, haunting words are taken as a matter of course. They form a rhythmic background to the conversation which older, wiser people make. It usually takes some sort of contrast with another's sorrow or disappointment to reveal something unusual in the uncommon common.

Medical science scored a distinctive victory when it opened the constricted larnyx of little Frankie Powell and give his thin, compressed little voice a chance to break its bonds. It took perseverance. Most of us would have given up somewhere along the chain of surgical work. We expect sudden wonders, not slow and effective growth.

We forget that it takes more than an hour for dull ears to catch the rhyming beauty of April rains; that closed eyes, opened after a long, long time, can't find sunlight and stars and colored flowers all in a minute. It requires time. And 97 operations were necessary before a little boy could speak.

Parents naturally grow weary, occasionally, because of the countless questions which small boys and girls are always asking. But fathers and mothers caught their breath as they thought of the frightening stillness that would come if round red lips never appealed to them for answers which children can't possibly known.

Rooms that have known children's laughter would be strangely lonely if merry voices didn't play hide-and-seek in their corners.

Sometimes it takes another's sorrow to show us how fortunate we are. Contrast with another's unhappiness has revealing power. Sometimes it takes a miracle. And that, in a way, is what the surgeons accomplished when they released a little boy's voice.

Round The World

Among the things we would like to see in the papers, but never shall, is an interview with Short, a dog owned by a radio engineer in Schnectady, N. Y.

Short, as you may remember noticing, happened into his master's laboratory the other day while they were testing a round-the-world radio circuit. Short barked, and his bark went whizzing around the world and emerged from a nearby loudspeaker, a fraction of a second later, unimpaired.

Thinking that he was being mocked, or something, Short barked again, and again the bark went around the globe and came back at him. In fact, it all lasted quite a while; and some enterprising reporter ought to find out about the mental and emotional reactions of this, the first dog to hear his own voice after it had travelled 25,000 miles through empty air.

From the past history of American diplomats in Europe, we hope that Stimson bought a round trip ticket so he can at least get back home.

Ten years of excessive taxation have brought us to the brink of ruin, an economist says. And the politicians at Washington think 10 years more will bring us back!

The man who built a two-car garage in 1928 was foresighted after all. He keeps the car on one side and lives in the other.

The best sign of returning normalcy in Europe is the fact that Greece and Austria have applied for new loans.

The Philippine deficit was only $8,500,000 last year. No wonder they think they're entitled to independence.

That Girl on Broadway says her father doesn't mind hearing her sing; then he can't hear her mother talk.

Hollywood bridegrooms are now paying the preacher by check. Then if their actress wives don't suit they can stop payment.

ONE of the saddest things is to encounter an old man, without friends, without family, nearing the last mile—alone, practically helpless.

And the worst part about it is there's a lot of old fellows like that—old fellows hardly worth their keep, ofttimes guarding their past, their names and their one-time connections.

Some kind-hearted soul is supporting them; giving them food, lodging, tobacco and maybe a little change now and then in exchange for the few labors they are capable of offering.

The Plainsman ran into an old fellow like that just the other day.

Crippled, aged, he's a good hearted soul—surprisingly happy for his plight.

Yet lurking in behind his faded eyes there is a wistfulness that is readily apparent.

ANOTHER PUPPY NEEDED

And now The Plainsman is looking for another puppy—this time for little John Gamble.

John marched into the office a day or two ago and despite the fact that he's little more than a baby, transacted his business like a man.

"I wanna dog", he said, "Any kinda dog, just so it'll be a big dog some day".

So The Plainsman is looking for a dog for John. Anybody having a gentle pup please call The Plainsman or Miss Atcheson at 13 or 14 any time during the day.

He realizes that he's next thing to a helpless old shell—marking, time until it's over.

He won't tell his name or whence he came.

He'll talk about anything under the shining sun—except himself.

Just a pebble cast upon humanity's beach to be beaten down by the waves of what Shakespeare would call "outrageous fortune".

Once upon a time, mayhap, he was affluent.

Now he's through—and he knows it.

* * *

SOMEBODY said in effect one time that whenever you loaned money to a friend you lost the friend. Never having had any spare change, The Plainsman knows next to nothing about the truth or fallacy of that statement, but he thinks of another one which might be interesting at this time. That is:

"Never tell the truth to a candidate unless it's what he wants to hear. You'll only lose a friend".

SPEAKING frankly and personally, The Plainsman would greatly dislike being a candidate for anything. You never can tell how folks are going to vote by the way they talk to you and hundreds of people will kid a poor candidate right down to the ballot box—and then vote agin' him.

The other day The Plainsman happened to run into two fellows opposing each other for a certain office—he met them no less than 20 minutes apart. To both he said:

"Hello, Blank. How's your campaign coming?"

Both answered almost word for word the same.

"Just fine. I've been all over the country talking to voters and it's looking mighty good—it's looking mighty good".

Of course, it could be that both were running strong—but The Plainsman doesn't think so.

It looks more like the folks have been stringing the boys along, raising their hopes and letting them build air castles on sand foundations.

It must be tough being a candidate and never knowing just what the voter really thinks of you by what he says.

DOWN at Abilene there is considerable agitation for institution of the city manager plan of government, and, as was the case when the discussion came up in El Paso, proponents feel that there is some magic in a city manager's pen and pencil.

We in Lubbock can tell our friends in Abilene that the mere switch to city manager government won't automatically solve all the city's difficulties; that a city manager is no magician and it takes brains and hard work to run a city's business, just as it does a private concern.

As long as a city has a good city manager—like we have at the present time—the city manager form of government is "all to the mustard".

For the benefit of over-enthusiastic Abilenians, however, The Plainsman has seen times in Lubbock when the city manager form of government didn't look so hot.

(Personal message to "A Taxpayer Of Lubbock" who threatens to stop his paper if his letter is not printed: I got a kick out of your note, especially when you said you didn't suppose I'd print it because I'd be "afraid it would hurt my standing".

Your letter will be published if and when you will sign it.

A rule governing correspondence to The Plainsman has been printed many, many times and sets forth that writers criticizing individuals, groups or organizations must sign their communications. I am holding your letter until I hear from you. Incidentally, I agree with much you said. The Plainsman.)

THERE'S a story going the rounds in army circles concerning our old friend, General John J. Pershing.

The general recently had some of his teeth pulled and a few days later was terribly mortified to learn that they were being sold in a novelty store, at $7.50 each, as souvenirs of the commander-in-chief of the A. E. F.

Accordingly, General Pershing immediately dispatched his aides to go out and buy all of his teeth they could find.

Three went out and returned in a couple of hours with 125 teeth!

Shrewdness And Cleverness Of Professional Politicians Often Exaggerated In Public Mind; Strategy Is Divided

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 20—The shrewdness and cleverness of professional politicians has often been exaggerated in the popular mind, but some politicians are smarter than others.

Dutcher

It is not easy, however, to decide where the honors for superior strategy should be awarded as between the pro-Roosevelt politicians and the anti-Roosevelt politicians in the Democratic pre-convention campaign.

They have been taking turns at out-smarting each other and if there is anything left of the stop-Roosevelt movement at Chicago the convention may produce one of the swellest exhibitions of out-smarting in political history.

A Guileless Crew?

One has often tended to suspect many of the Roosevelt leaders as a somewhat naive, guileless crew not too difficult to out-maneuver and to think of the anti-Roosevelt as a more practical, experienced, hard-boiled crowd, which, other things being equal, would be rather sure to come out on top.

For instance, hardly anyone would contend that Roosevelt's manager Jim Farley, Homer Cummings of Connecticut or Senator Cordell Hull was as politically slick as Al Smith, Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City or National Executive Chairman Jouett Shouse.

Yet, the record shows that each group has taken turns at out-smarting the other and at being out-smarted itself beyond any possibility of doubt.

That Early Start

For instance, Roosevelt and his friends started a couple of years ago to round up party leaders in every possible state, virtually sewing up hundreds of delegates far inadvance of the convention. There is nothing smarter in party presidential politics than getting a lot of delegates, if you can get enough of them.

And, if you are out to beat a man, there isn't anything dumber than to let him get them. Week after week the Roosevelt fellows shake their tree now and the nice ripe apples fall into their sack. The fruits of the anti-Roosevelt campaign look more and more like crabapples. The anti-Roosevelts started too late.

On the other hand, no outer specific bit of out-smarting has been observed than what the anti-Roosevelts did to the Roosevelts when the arrangements committee, selected by Chairman Raskob and Chairman Shouse, met at Chicago and recommended Senator Barkley of Kentucky as convention keynoter and Shouse for permanent chairman.

Raskob Pulls a Good One

When the Roosevelts saw the list of the arrangements committee they were pleased no end, for there was a majority of Roosevelts on it and they immediately realized they could pick the temporary chairman, or keynoter, which was the most important task at hand.

They decided that Mr. Shouse, as an anti-Roosevelt, couldn't be keynoter and that they would recommend Senator Barkley as a reward for withdrawing his favorite son candidacy and becoming a Roosevelter himself.

Behind closed doors at Chicago they suddenly found that eight of the Roosevelts on the committee had been secretly pledged by Mr. Raskob to vote for Mr. Shouse, at a time when the Roosevelts didn't know they would be supposed to support Barkley. Mr. Raskob had tied them up before the identity of the members was generally known.

You may be sure that the Roosevelt leaders became very sour at that and the best they could get out of it, after Hague, Farley and Roosevelt himself had threshed things out rather acrimoniously, was to let Barkley be temporary chairman and Shouse permanent chairman.

The Extent of Victory

The extent of the out-smarting is indicated by the fact that a permanent chairman is much more important than a keynoter, whose brief and only job is to make a rousing speech and get himself favorably thought of as a possibility for vice president. The permanent chairman makes imperiant rulings and has the power of recognizing the speaker. In a close, doubtful contest it will be no fun at all for the Roosevelts to have an anti-Roosevelt in the chair.

Shouse has yet to be ratified as permanent chairman by the full national committee, however, which gives the Roosevelts a chance to out-smart the anti-Roosevelts by having him turned down at that time if they can.

DISCOVERY OF BUTTER

THE YOUNG MAN was about to get on his pony when he remembered he might be hungry on the long journey. This was long ago, long before the depression or the war, before that longest of all depressions, the Middle Ages, before the glory that was Greece, or the grandeur that was Rome—when mankind was young, in the great fertile, pastoral plains of the Aryan cradle land.

Dr. Clendening

So the young man filled a goat-skin with some milk. The milk was a little sour because the young man thought it more refreshing that way. He did not fill the goatskin full, because it would be too heavy, and slinging it on his shoulder he leaped upon his shaggy little pony and galloped away. The pony had a choppy little stride and the goatskin on the young man's shoulder joggled and the milk splashed about inside, and one of the great and glorious accidents that have befallen mankind was preparing to occur.

For when the young man dismounted and opened his goatskn and looked at the contents; lo and behold, a strange new substance had appeared. Golden masses were sticking to the sides of the goatskin. The young man gingerly put one into his mouth—that is another way much progress in civilization has been made, and many useful citizens killed off. It was delicious. The young man ate some more. Butter was born.

Whether that is the way it happened or not, we do not know. Drs. Samuel Crumbine and James Tobey tell the story and I copy it from them. But to this day many peoples make butter by hanging up goatskins filled with sour milk and beating the goatskins with sticks.

What a boon that anonymous benefactor of mankind conferred on us—that young man on the pony with the choppy trot—when he discovered butter. Three thousand calories of energy to the pound, rich in vitamin A—the growth vitamin—the best appetizer on earth—and we consider it as just a side issue of a meal. Its digestibility has a coefficient of 98 per cent.

It must have been that same young man who discovered cheese. This time he put his milk into a half dried sheep's stomach for carrying purposes. When he opened it, he found that milk had changed to a flocculent mass of curds. The rennet in the sheep's stomach had curdled the milk or, in fact, made cheese.

Another milk product, ice cream, is about as old as the United States. In 1774 the chef of the Duc de Chartres prepared a mold of ice cream with the ducal coat of arms imprinted on it as a surprise for his master. In 1777 the New York Gazette and Weekly Mercury printed that "Ice cream may be had almost any day."

Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, wife of the first secretary of the treasury, introduced ice cream to Washington dinner tables.

The British say that ice cream is indigestible and hurts the stomach. This is a vile canard. It is one of the best invalid foods available. As part of a diet for ulcer of the stomach it is unsurpassed.

The fact is the British like only two things cold—tea and bath water.

From Caviare to Cabbage

NEW YORK, April 20.—In a currently popular musical satire, The Astors, Goulds and Vanderbilts are shown dining at an Automat. Another scene reveals luxury shops in such panic that barkers are employed to drag in customers.

All of which is good natured spooting of the depression's presumed effect on the rich and socially prominent New Yorkers.

But it happens that these rich and socially prominent Manhattanites have seized upon the tightening times as a motif for their smartest affairs.

They had just about run out of novelty ideas and 20-piece bands were getting commonplace, when along came the good old depression to help them out. Rarity was just around the corner!

For several months the society columns have reported the smartness of hostesses who served corned beef and cabbage or frankfurters and sauerkraut. Just a few weeks ago, one of the finest Fifth Avenue residence was the scene of a county fair with hundreds of Blue Book ladies going shopping for vegetables and fruits. There have been many more gestures in the same direction.

Some Fun, Eh?

BUT the ultimate, it seems is still to come. A certain grand dame with a reputation for great originality promises to stage a depression party to end all depression parties. The plans include a hurdy-gurdy—or, several hurdy-gurdies—instead of the usual society jazz band. Bryant Hall, where economics are discussed and workers' parties held, might be hired, and guests would be catered from an Automat or a Childs.

One of the requirements, say advance reports, will be that each guest give up a favorite luxury for this occasion.

However, none will ever be able to nab the party laurels from Elsa Maxwell, who is swandom's pet originator and cut-up. Miss Maxwell spends most of her time abroad among the wits, sophisticates, artists and salon crowd.

Her various visits home are usually followed by some novelty that keeps society chatting until the next one comes along. Last year Miss Maxwell's invitations insisted that each guest come as somebody else. There were imitations of actresses and dancers and even of each other.

But when someone satirized the "royalty yearnings" of Mrs. Vanderbilt—oh my dears!

Mrs. Fiske's Fancies

MEMOIR sleuths and biographical researchers, now engaged in tracking down material concerning the late Minnie Maddern Fiske, are turning up vastly interesting sidelights and anecdotes.

Her attitude toward the world's dumb animals is fairly well known. She refused to wear furs and would eat no meat. Several times, fur-coated young actresses have faced her wrath and several learned that if they wanted her favor they had best leave their fur wraps at home. One prominent society woman received a ten-minute tongue lashing.

One time, during rehearsal, everything seemed to have gone wrong, and Mrs. Fiske seemed to be wilting from fatigue. A member of the company urged her to rest. Mrs. Fiske waved her aside with:

"No, this is just one of those occasions when the best-lifted faces fall."

ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF DURING WORLD WAR ANSWERS CRITICS IN NEW BOOK

WASHINGTON, April 20, (AP) — General Peyton C. March, chief of staff of the American army during the World war, has written a book of memoirs, answering his critics with "gloves off."

This phrase in regard to his treatment of wartime controversies and the men involved in them was used in advance notices of the volume, a 95,000 word manuscript entitled "The Nation at War," now in the hands of publishers.

March is the last of the important war leaders to put his own story on paper. It is a story he had not intended to write until he read recently published memoirs of General John J. Pershing. This book, March's friends say, he considered did not give the war department a square deal.

Two chapters describe in detail the differences between General Pershing and the department. They show that the commander in France sometimes was overruled emphatically by March and Secretary Baker.

Another section of the March book deals with the relations between congress and the war organization. Backed by Baker, the chief of staff paid no attention to demands of legislators for special favors. The advance notices say that relatives of senators or representatives were given no commission without training, nor were they exempted from the draft if March could prevent it. Favoritism was taboo.

FIRECRACKER

iate the tobacco juice and harsh words that contribute to the olor and drama of so serious an occasion.

The curbstone wisemen and their disciples had been asked before Tuesday afternoon not to block the sidewalks, making it difficult for pedestrians to find their way into safes and shops. Besides, some passer-by might be attracted by the glitter of strange prophecies and forget all about the tie or cup of coffee he wanted. But those gathered in the shade of an old frame hotel and beyond, paid no heed to such requests.

Somebody decided to disperse the motley assembly. A firecracker, about two inches long Assistant County Attorney Williams H. Evans guessed, was lighted and tossed into the bunch. It was dispersed. Old legs became young again. When the offended ones had regained their composure, they sent a sizeable delegation to see the assistant county prosecutor. Murphy an employ in a cafe, was accused of exploding the firecracker. He denied it. Arrested, he posted $50 bond Tuesday afternoon.

Murphy was to be tried this afternoon in Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter's court. Firing of a cracker in the business district is a law violation, Assistant County Attorney Evans said this morning, but opening of traffic on a public sidewalk is a City problem.

During the morning session of presbytery, church reports were made by elders and ministers, committees were named and books of session, clerks were examined.

At 10:30 Rev. W. K. Johnston, D. D., in charge of mission work, made an address on evangelism.

Reports of the home mission committee, the foreign mission committee, ministerial relief and Sunday school, were to be made during the afternoon. General assembly reports also are to be considered.

Reports featured the meeting of the auxiliary. Mrs. O. W. McCleary welcomed the visitors and Mrs. Paul Berman of El Paso responded. The afternoon program was a continuation of the morning program.

Tonight at 6 o'clock a supper will be served at the state experiment farm east of town. The party will leave the church in cars for the farm.

At 7:45 a joint meeting will be held with Miss Mabel Hall of Highland Institution, Guerrant, Ky., a mission training school, giving the main address. This will be followed by special music by the young people's choir and a birthday party. "Twenty Years of Fruit Bearing" directed by Mrs. E. L. Robertson, of Lubbock.

Registration and attendance increased Wednesday as a number of nearby churches reported with leaders and delegates.

Man Arrested Here On Threat Charges

Hollis Taylor was arrested this morning and subsequently released on $300 bond as a result of a complaint by C. F. Drexel filed in county court Monday. Taylor is charged with threatening to take the life of another person.

Drexel charged that Taylor, Saturday, knocked him down with his fist and threatened to take Drexel's life. William H. Evans, assistant county attorney, said Drexel related that he and Taylor formerly had been in business together, that a man on whose automobile Drexel held a mortgage had agreed to return the car, and had taken it to Taylor instead of Drexel. Drexel asked Taylor for the machine and the alleged attack followed, the assistant prosecutor said Drexel reported.

WHEN IT COMES TO MOVIE HEROINES, FARMERS FAVOR THE CORN-FED CURVES

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 20.—When it comes to movie heroines, farmers favor those with corn-fed curves and they want big husky he-men heroes.

This has been determined by the photoplay staff of the American Farm Bureau federation which each month produces a silent motion picture to be shown free by rural county agents in thousands of farm communities over the country.

And in fan mail addressed to the federation, C. L. Jordan, scenario writer, and Bertram G. Bates, director, the farmers have set forth what they want and what they don't want in their photoplays.

First of all they want their movie characters dressed as farmers actually do and not after the fashion of the traditional "hayseed." And a colored tablecloth in a farmhouse kitchen will bring in kicks from farmers' wives everywhere.

Each picture must have a happy ending with the villain getting his just reward. The fade-out must be a farm scene with everybody happy. If the hero has gone into the city, he must see the error of his ways and return to the farm before the finale.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 20 (AP) — The cotton market had a quiet but steady opening. As cables came in better than due, first trades here showed gains of to 3 points. The market improved after the start on the good cables and July traded up to 6.22 and October to 6.45, or 2 to 3 points above yesterday's close. Prices then ease doff slightly on execution of overnight selling orders and May dropped to 6.0, July to 6.20 and October to 6.4, or 2 to 4 points below the highs. Near the end of the first hour the market rallied slightly in sympathy with a better opening of stocks and prices went up 2 to 3 points from the low to levels 1 to 2 points above yesterday's close. Trading was very moderate.

Nervous condition of the stock market and erratic fluctuations in wheat discouraged trading toward noon and left the market dull with little trading and no selling pressure. Prices failed to change from the early range except for July which gained slightly and traded at 6.22, or 4 points above yesterday's close. Traders regarded the weekly weather and crop report as favorable but it indicated a late start of crop culture.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, unchanged to 2 points higher on trade buying and covering, influenced by the steadiness in cables. May sold at 6.68.

There was a constinuance of May liquidation and while trade interests were buyers of that position, prices sagged off slightly after the initial demand had been supplied. May reacted to 6.66 and October to 6.45, making the market about net unchanged to 1 point lower, but there was enough buying to absorb the moderate offerings at these figures and give the market a generally steady undertone.

The weekly report of the weather bureau was considered about a standoff and had little apparent effect on the market. Liverpool cables reported covering on the easier ruling of sterling and said business in Manchester was restricted with buyers cautious.

Trading continued quiet later in the morning but the market showed a generally steady undertone on some further trade buying attributed partly to Liverpool and the continent and covering. At midday the tone was quiet and steady with active months ruling about 2 to 4 points net higher at 6.68 for May, and 6.47 for October.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—The stock market was unable to decide today whether to follow an upturn in the rails or a moderate decline in a handful of industrials.

Liquidation showed further signs of drying up but buying interest remained at low ebb Midweek business statistics were a shade more favorable but were not sufficiently cheering to interest traders in trying for a rally.

In the first hour, advances of about 3 points were recorded by Santa Fe and Union Pacific and leading rails generally advanced a point or so, including New York Central, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, New Haven, Chesapeake & Ohio and Baltimore & Ohio. These gains were not fully maintained later on. American Can again was a soft spot, sagging 2 points to a new low before meeting support. U. S. common lost a fraction, but the preferred dipped a couple of points to a new low since 1904. Gillette, Allied Chemical, North American and American Trisphone also encountered pressure.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—Grain prices tended downward early today, influenced by comparative dearth of speculative buying. Winnipeg messages told of good export demand overnight, but chiefly for Canadian wheat. Opening unchanged to 1-4 off, wheat later sagged all around. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 up and subsequently declined.

WITCH-CHILDREN

The twin witches, even in babyhood, are supposed to have remarkable powers. The Cherokees believe they can fly through the air, dive underground and walk on the sun's rays. They can assume all kinds of human and animal shapes and even when they are only a month old "whatever they think happens."

The youthful "witches," according to Olbrechts, are believed by the Cherokees to go and play with the mithical "little people," although these are invisible to everyone else.

"When they are grown up," says Dr. Olbrechts, "they are most annoying individuals to the Cherokees. They always know what you think and you could not possibly mislead them. What is worse, they can make you ill, dejected, love-sick or dying merely by thinking of you in that condition."

Ten Days Remain To Ask For Crop Loans

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — Farmers have ten more days to apply for 1932 crop production loans and there is still more than $10,000,000 in the original fund set aside for them.

The agriculture department loan officers have approved loans totaling $39,364,000 to date. These loans average $126 each to $311,155 farmers. April 30 was fixed as the last day for filing applications and thus far there has been no indication the time will be extended.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen Bishop, a four-year-old son, Errett and a sixteen-months-old daughter, Mary Catherine.

Mrs. Misiak had something to say.

"He is a good man for working and for saving money—but for me he is no good."

She said that throughout their married life she had supported the two of them to permit him to save his money, with the understanding it was to be "their" money, not his. She even gave him 25 cents a day for spending money. Tony therefore was able to bank his $10 a week salary as porter, plus whatever sums he might acquire as a now-and-then mendicant.

"You put me out of the house at night," Mrs. Misiak said to him, with accompanying gestures. "Now the court has your money. Pretty soon the lawyers will get it. I betcha you'll be sorry."

GUN VICTIM

berry suspects escaped Monday afternoon at Hobbs, N. M., was at a standstill so far as could be learned here at noon today. Two men and a woman arrested later Monday at Littlefield still were in Lubbock county jail today.

Interception of a message from Clovis to the two men in jail here was the principal development in Tuesday's investigation in this region. The message, sent to Littlefield where confederates evidently believed the pair still to be free, led peace officers to believe the men held here and those sending it are affiliated with the group which escaped at Hobbs. An attempt to connect the men arrested at Littlefield with the shooting in which an officer and a member of the band were wounded, had failed.

Seeks Treatment

A man who gave his name as "Racehorse" Baker, alias J. Kearns of Littlefield, sought medical treatment at Hobbs early Tuesday and was arrested. He was taken to the Lovington jail. J. B. Baker, alias J. C. Owens, who was seriously wounded, also is held.

A woman appeared at Littlefield yesterday with a message for the men held in Lubbock. The sheriff's department here reported she said she represented a man named "Baker." The message, for the men to come to Clovis, was relayed to Lubbock by a man whose identity was not given. "Racehorse" Baker is purported to be a brother of the woman arrested with the two men held in Lubbock.

Missing Boy Found On A Fishing Trip

DALLAS, April 200. (AP)—Robert Marshall Hurt, 10, for whom an extended search was made in the belief he might have been kidnaped, was found this morning at White Rock lake near Dallas where he had gone fishing. He was returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hurt.

Committee To Talk Farm Bureau Meet

A chamber of commerce committee was to meet this afternoon at chamber of commerce offices to discuss plans for a Texas Farm Bureau Federation convention here May 5 and 6. Douglas Pounds of Acuff is chairman.

The Lubbock county four-H club council will meet at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the courthouse. A one-act comedy, numbers by the county four-H club stringband, and songs will be presented.

THREE CONVICTED IN MORTON CASES

MORTON, April 20.—(Special)—Eight years of suspended sentences and a four-year penitentiary sentence were imposed in 72nd district court here Monday and Tuesday.

Dave Carter, who pleaded guilty of a charge of burglary of a Whiteface store, was given four years in the penitentiary. After Carter, from the witness stand, denied connection with the burglary, Judge Homer L. Pharr ordered that Carter's plea be changed to not guilty.

A five-year suspended sentence was given L. Bud Arnold, convicted of pro-law violation. Doyle Townsend, 18, was given a three-year suspended sentence for forgery. Trial of A. C. Hunsucker, charged with burglary and theft, continued because of absence of witnesses, said District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley.

ing."

"His mind was disturbing to most of us. He had phenominal information. He was informed on national and world affairs and how did he do it—that remains to me yet somewhat of a mystery. His toleration for people who differed with him was one of his marked traits. He was big enough to be both tolerant and tenacious. And I believe that it was through these two balanced traits that he was able to hold such a faculty together in such contentment.

Dr. Cunningham delved at length into the admirable characteristics of the former president and told how he "literally burned his energies up for the college.

Outstanding Trait Sympathy

"His most outstanding trait was his sympathy," Dr. Cunningham continued. "Malice was absolutely foreign to him. I think it's difficult to combine a brilliant mind and a rare sympathy such as he had without violence to either. I don't wonder that those in charge will experience distress in selecting his successor."

Senator Cowell spoke briefly, paying tribute to Dr. Horn and to Lubbock for its support of the school. He was one of the members of the college locating committee. "I'm sure," he said, "that the board will select a man who will carry on."

Dean Gordon read a short article written by Dr. Horn only a short while before his death.

Col. Boles also paid a tribute to Dr. Horn and declared that the "folks over in New Mexico appreciated his work more than you know".

Besides Col. Boles and Senator Cowell, other out-of-town visitors at the luncheon were: H. H. Thomas, Snyder; F. L. Stevenson, Whiteboro; E. F. Howard, Big Spring and Bill Beene, Amarillo.

Young Woman, Man Held After Chase

KAUFMAN, April 20 (AP)—A man and a young woman were in custody of county officers today after they and a man companion had led pursuers over southeast Kaufman county yesterday. The second man escaped.

The trio used their feet, two mules, two automobiles and pistols in an effort to make a getaway. They had been discovered burglarizing a store at Mabank early yesterday.

SENATOR COWELL, MEMBER OF TECH LOCATING COMMITTEE, SAYS HOPES OF GROUP FULFILLED BY LUBBOCK

"The past nine years have fully demonstrated the necessity of a large state college in West Texas and they certainly have justified the selection of Lubbock by the locating committee as site for the school", former Senator S. B. Cowell of Whitesboro, one of the two surviving members of the committee, declared this morning. Senator Cowell is on a business trip to Lubbock, the first time he has been here since August 28, 1928 when the eventful Tech jubilee was held.

"Lubbock has done her part and she has enjoyed the cooperation of the entire section in the development of the school," he said. "I believe if the 36 towns which applied for the school would express themselves today, they would say that Lubbock should be the site for the Tech."

Is Now Retired

The former senator whose eyes are dimmed through years of service for the state of Texas is now retired and has been inactive since 1926. He served in the senate from 1913 until 1917 and then in 1920 he was appointed chairman of the Board of Control, a position which he held until 1926. He was also chairman of the board which built the American Legion hospital at Kerrville and was instrumental in its sale to the United States government.

Only one other member of the college locating committee, Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of Oklahoma university, besides the senator is living now since the death of S. M. N. Marrs Monday. Other members of the committee who have died were: Dr. F. M. Brawley and Dr. W. S. Sutton.

Pays Tribute To Dr. Horn

Senator Cowell expressed regret at the death of Dr. Paul W. Horn, and declared that he was "the most important educator in the southwest." He said the board of directors would have a difficult task in selecting his successor.

"I imagine that the size of the school makes the board seek the man rather than the man seek the place," he said.

The senator declared he "never was much in politics. I was just a business man" when questioned regarding the present political situation and the election year. He said he was definitely out of all activities.

He paid a tribute to the work done by the faculty of Texas Tech and declared it was headed by as capable a group of men as any school in the southwest.

"B. C." Relieves Your Headache In 3 Minutes

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B. C.," 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B. C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quiting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. All courts in Amarillo were ordered adjourned during the funeral hours. Masonic bodies planned to participate in the ceremonies.

SENTENCE REVERSED

AUSTIN, April 20 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded a life sentence against Cecil Smith, convicted in McClennan county for the slaying of Ernest Holmes last Aug. 9.

Fat Girls! Here's A Tip For You

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses and does it SAFELY and HARMLESSLY.

In the morning take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

"It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat" and "brings that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

But be sure for your health's sake that you get Kruschen. A bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but little. You can always get Kruschen at Mark Halsey Drug or City Drug and money back if not satisfied with results after first bottle.—Adv.

Local Men Return From Fishing Trip

Ending a five-day fishing trip, seven Lubbock men returned Tuesday from the Rio Sabine in Coahuila, Mexico.

Exceptionally good fishing was reported, and the Lubbock men brought home proof of their success. Will H. Rodgers, city manager, said he caught between 25 and 30 pounds of bass.

Other members were Mayor J. J. Clements, Commissioner George E. Benson, City Attorney E. L. Klett, Alfred Parrack, Dick Smith and C. D. Swift.

Field Day Will Be At Spur On Friday

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce has prepared letters calling the attention of Lubbock livestock feeders and feed companies to a field day at the state experiment sub-station at Spur, Friday.

Last October, 100 steers were put on feed in 10 different lots, each lot being on a different ration, and the experiment will end Friday.

Persons interested in attending are asked to telephone the chamber of commerce at No. 2083.

DIES OF WOUND

In the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas.
In the matter of Claude Adrian Bruner, Bankrupt. No. 186, in Bankruptcy.
Office of Referee, Lubbock, Texas, April 18, 1932.

Notice is hereby given that Claude Adrian Bruner, of the County of Lubbock, and district aforesaid, did, on the 18th day of April, 1932, file in the Clerk's office of said Court, at Lubbock, a petition setting up that he has been heretofore duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1898; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debt provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

BURNS PROVE FATAL

MEXIA, April 20 (AP)—Burns received in the explosion of an oil drum caused the death of Frank Yandell, 50, and his son, Albert, 26. They were injured while cremating a dead cow near Mexia. They had poured oil on the carcass and lighted it. The drum from which they had poured the oil became overheated and exploded.

A majority of mounts used by the Pony Express were half-breed California mustangs.

CITY COUNCIL TO ORGANIZE

ILLNESS OF SLATON CITY COMMISSIONER DELAYS ACTION

SLATON, April 20.—(Special).—The new city commission has not organized for the fiscal year, because of the illness of O. N. Alcorn, one of two commissioners elected at the annual spring election, according to Mayor T. M. George.

"Mr. Alcorn has been ill with rheumatism and confined to his home for more than a month," Mr. George explained. "The other new members, H. G. Sanders, with T. A. Worley and F. B. Tudor, have felt it best to wait until Mr. Alcorn is able to attend meetings, before we organize for the coming year.

"I am hopeful that Mr. Alcorn will be well enough to attend our next meeting. He told me that he was feeling much better and was making rapid improvement."

The commission after it organizes, will work out the budget and make plans for the handling of business.

The city is on a cash basis at this time and no deficiency warrants have been issued so far, Mr. George said.

"We have paid salaries and all bills and I hope that we will be able to do so right along," the mayor continued. "As soon as we saw how things were going we began to cut our expenses and I believe Slaton will be able to continue on a cash basis."

"Of course the city has a large amount of delinquent taxes, as all other cities do. The commission has not pressed very hard on people for payment of these delinquent taxes."

TRIBUTE IS PAID JUDGE RANDOLPH BY LUBBOCK BAR

The Lubbock County Bar association Tuesday afternoon at the courthouse here paid tribute to Judge Hal C. Randolph, 71, veteran associate justice of the seventh court of civil appeals at Amarillo, who died Tuesday morning.

A resolution adopted by the association is signed by Tom Garrard, vice president; Tom Duggan, secretary-treasurer; and Charles C. Crenshaw. The group sent a floral offering and a delegation will attend the services.

The resolution read:

"Whereas it has pleased the Supreme Architect of the universe in his wisdom to call to his final reward the Honorable Hal C. Randolph, associate justice of the court of civil appeals; and

"Whereas, in his death, the bench of the state has lost a distinguished jurist, and the bar a sympathetic and sincere friend and counselor; and

"Whereas, the state has lost an upright and honorable citizen, and the church a faithful and devout worker;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Lubbock County Bar association that in the death of Judge Randolph the state has lost a distinguished jurist and the bar a personal friend; and that we take this means of expressing to the public and to his family our appreciation of him as a man, a lawyer and a judge, and out sympathy with his family in this their hour of sorrow."

CHILD IS KILLED

CHILDRESS, April 20 (AP)—J. W. Hatley, 9, died yesterday of a gunshot wound suffered when his 12-year-old brother, playing with a gun, pulled the trigger. An older brother had laid the gun down while cutting wood and the 12-year-old boy picked it up, aiming it at J. W. The Hatleys live 15 miles southwest of Childress.

CONTROL OF MANCHURIA SOUGHT YEARS BY JAPAN, MARSHAL CHANG DECLARES

BY JAMES P. HOWE

PEIPING, April 20 (AP)—Japan for years has sought to bring Manchuria under some such control as she now exercises there through the new federated government of Henry Pu-Yi Marshal Chang Hsiao-Liang told me.

The Japanese plans go back as far as the rule of his father, Chang Tso-Lin, he said, and the "open hostility" dates back more than three years to the time when he himself had the nationalist flag of the Kuomintang hoisted over Mukden and other principal cities.

Warnings Given

The raising of the Chinese nationalist flag, signifying his decision to unite the Manchurian government with that of the national government of Nanking, took place, he said, in the face of specific warnings from Japanese army officers.

It was the first interview the young marshal has given since the League of Nations inquiry commission arrived in China. Since the commission has been here, Marshal Chang has been the chief witness at its sessions, detailing the incidents which led to the seizure of Mukden last September and the subsequent Japanese campaign.

"The Japanese have long cherished a desire to set up in Manchuria a state similar to the one they are now trying to establish," he said. "Had I agreed to be their figurehead I could easily have been in Manchuria still.

Loved Manchuria

"Not only that, but had my father, Chang, Tso-Lin, cared less for Manchuria and more for his life he could have been alive today, for the Japanese had endeavored by numerous means to bring father within their grasp so he would abide by their decisions in matters vital to their interests.

"His tragic death by a mine explosion while he was traveling in a train on the outskirts of Mukden in June, 928, is a matter of history. If he had played the Japanese game I venture to say there would have been no work here now for the League of Nations, although Manchuria itself, by this time, in all probability would have been almost a part of the Japanese empire without the world at large having realized what actually had taken place."

SALE HALTED BY ORDER OF JUDGE

Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court Tuesday granted the City of Slaton an injunction halting a purported auction sale of stock and fixtures of the White grocery at Slaton. The city seeks payment of taxes allegedly delinquent.

Defendants are J. N. White, "who formerly resided in Slaton and whose present residence is unknown to the plaintiff," H. C. Burrus of Lubbock county, H. O. Wooten Grocery company of Abilene, J. P. Wooten of Abilene and S. S. Forrest of Lubbock county.

It is alleged that White surrendered keys to the store to the Wooten grocery and made an assignment to J. P. Wooten, who, it is claimed, refused to act as assignee and executed an assignment to Forrest. Forrest, the petition set out, had planned to sell the equipment at auction April 21. Back taxes and penalties totaling $116.80 purportedly are unpaid.

FELT HATS TO BE TABOO HERE AFTER FRIDAY

Felt hats and other winter headgear is taboo after Friday, the day straws are scheduled to make their annual debut here.

And so, now that spring has arrived safely and naturally being in a pleasing mood, merchants of Lubbock are striving to satisfy the fancies of young men and old as well—in the matter of straw hats.

So they have designated Friday, April 22, as official straw hat day in Lubbock.

Their stores are being stocked with the latest styles, shapes and colors of 'straw kadies' and they're going on sale early Friday morning.

Ads carrying details of the latest styles and sizes as well as prices will appear prior to Friday's official opening.

Author's Paradise

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia — A playwright's paradise is what Belgrade is getting to be. Because the Belgrade Illustrated Weekly said Velomir Yankovich's new play was "incompetent twaddle," a judge sentenced the paper's owners to five days in jail. The judge thought it was hard enough to make a play without critics butting in.

Has Big Ideas

NEW YORK—A bridge game with cards 20 feet high is one of the things promoter James Johnson plans to put on in a 80,000-seat stadium here. The players would press buttons and a derrick would play the cards in such a way that the lads in the back row could see them.

Used To Luxury

LONDON — Warrior, a war horse, is going to have a birthday party Thursday. He rates 21 candles. Warrior carried Maj. Gen. J. E. B. Seeley all through the World war without a scratch. He's used to luxury. Once, on the western front, his master stabled him in the drawing room of a French villa and he ate corn off a table.

Yeggs Thoughtless

BOSTON—"I won't bother to dock my automobile," said Garrett F. Burns to himself, "because there's nothing in it but an empty bag." When he returned thieves had ripped a hole in the top of the car to get the bag. They didn't know the doors were unlicked.

He CALLS it "ACIDITY"

... but it's really

SELF POISONING

If you have pain in your stomach, or gas, acid taste, etc., call it "acidity" if you wish. But too often "acidity" is a warning symptom of a more serious condition.

Thousands of people who complain of "acidity" are really suffering from self-poisoning. Poisons from putrid waste in the intestines have been absorbed into the blood. The polluted blood in turn affects the stomach, causing acidity, indigestion, etc.

If the trouble you call "acidity" keeps returning in spite of everything you do, it's time to suspect self-poisoning, and use the right remedy. Here is a little experiment that will help you learn the truth.

AN AMAZING TEST

For the next three nights take B-L Tonic. If your case is like thousands of other so-called "acidity" sufferers, this remedy is exactly what you need. The distress in your stomach will disappear rapidly. Your system will eliminate a startling amount of foul-smelling poisons. You will feel healthier and happier. But that is only a promise of the reward to follow. Continue taking B-L Tonic every night for three weeks. You will thereby keep the poisons from regaining a foothold in your blood. Meanwhile the stimulating properties of B-L Tonic will sharpen your appetite, improve digestion, and thus help build up a more robust resistance to disease. Nine chances out of ten that's all you need to get rid of your "acidity." B-L Tonic is sold at
