PUMPKIN HARVEST

Dan Langford holds two of a trailer load of jack-o'-lantern pumpkins that he harvested Tuesday and Wednesday near Plymouth. Langford planted 11 acres to pumpkins on June 17, irrigated them twice and sprayed them three times to prevent mold. Langford said the pumpkins range from 15 to 25 lbs. each. He is selling them to a broker for 4 cents per lb. and expects a yield of about 4 semi-truck loads.

Changes Proposed for 1986 Wellington Ex-students Reunion

Directors of the Wellington Ex-Students Association are placing before the school's former students a proposed change in format for the 1986 reunion.

The directors are asking for ex-student input and suggestions, including suggestions that may not be included in the proposal in its present form.

The directors met Monday night, Sept. 16, and worked out this tentative proposal, explained by Louise Peters, who was corresponding secretary for several years through the 1985 reunion.

The directors proposal calls for registration to begin in Bura

Handley Community Center at about 2 p.m. on Friday of the reunion weekend. Friday afternoon would also be a time for visiting, until about 7 or 7:30 p.m., when a catered dinner or banquet would be served.

Registration would continue on Saturday, but that day will also be given over to individual class reunions, concentrating in one day the class activities that were scattered from Friday noon until Saturday evening this year.

The possibility of entertainment at the Friday night dinner is being considered, and the business meeting will be moved to this time.

The Friday evening dinner could be a recognition event, in that the classes holding individual reunions will be recognized.

The large number who will not be attending a class reunion Saturday will meet at the community building for visiting, looking at year books and pictures. There may be a barbecue on Saturday evening, depending on the wishes of the ex-students.

The traditional alumni dance Saturday night will close the reunion, explained Louise Peters.

"We especially want to hear from the out of town ex-students concerning our proposal, for they are the ones who have to travel to get here," said Mrs. Peters.

Louise Whisenant Henard, recording secretary, also urged input from as many ex-students as possible.

Homecoming Activities Set at High School Fri.

Wellington High School Homecoming festivities will be held Friday, October 4, on a larger scale than at any time in recent years. They will begin Friday afternoon and close with the homecoming football game in which the Skyrockets meet the Hale Center Owls.

Honored guests at this year's homecoming will be retired teachers who have taught in Collingsworth County Schools. In between there will be coronation of the Football Queen, who is also the Homecoming Queen, and That Skyrockets Band King and Queen.

Wellington Independent School District will honor the teachers who have taught in Collingsworth Schools at a reception at the high school library from 2:15 to 3:15 p.m. Not only are all retired teachers urged to attend, but people of the area who want to pay tribute to them should be present.

At 3:15 p.m. the regular Pep Rally, colorful because of decorations and special events, will begin at the gym. Retired teachers will sit in a reserved section.

The WHS Football Queen will be crowned, surrounded by her attendants and football players as escorts. The queen and attendants are selected by members of the Skyrocket football team and names are not released until announcement of her identity is made at the pep rally. The queen will receive a football helmet with the Skyrocket logo for her crown.

That Skyrocket Band King and Queen will be crowned. Candidates are Neal Duncan, Kelly Goforth and Rudy Torrez. Queen candidates are KayLynn Bartlett, Kim Castleberry and Kristi Keller. The winners will not be announced until the time of the coronation.

A number by the Flag Corps is tentatively planned. Members are Julie Caldwell, Nicole Keller, Kristi Keller, Linda Lacy, Christi Whitten, and Penny Wilkins.

Cheerleaders giving spirit to the rally are Debbie Benton, head cheerleader, Ashley Williams, Leigh Ann Barton, KayLynn Bartlett, Margo Duncan, and Leslie Hammons.

Gay McAlister will be the announcer.

Red and white streamers, banners and clever signs in brilliant colors decorate the high school halls and the gymnasium.

There will be a reserved section for the retired teachers and this group will be recognized either before the football game or at half time.

Skyrockets Take On Hale Center In Annual Homecoming Game

Wellington Skyrockets will play their annual WHS Homecoming game against Hale Center Owls Friday, Oct. 4. This is always a home game and starting time will be 8 p.m.

Most of the homecoming festivities will have taken place at the WHS Pep Rally Friday afternoon, but the Homecoming Queen, who is always the football queen, is due to be introduced along with her court before the game starts.

Last week Hale Center played Lockney to a 0-0 tie.

The week before the Owls played Petersburg and lost 8-6.

In the second week of the season, Hale Center was defeated by Tahoka 25-12, and they lost their 1985 opener 26-25 to Lubbock's Cooper High.

"In the past, they have been a real outstanding team, going to the playoffs for the last four years. Once they went on to the state semi-finals and to the quarter finals year before last," Coach James Williams recalled.

"They're real outstanding.

"They're struggling a little early this season, but they are capable of beating any team on any given night," the Wellington Head Coach said.

As to size, Hale Center can be compared to Hollis. This is especially true of the Owls two running backs, Ronald Phillips and Mitch McBeth. Most of the backfield will weigh almost 200 pounds.

"If Hale Center has a weakness, Wellington Coaches believe it is in the line.

"Again, we are looking for another tough football game," Williams conceded.

"We have dropped two games in a row and we're trying to get back on the winning track," Williams continued. "Hale Center feels the same way and they are coming up here trying to win the football game."

According to the Harris Rating System, the Owls, who had a 7-3-1 record in 1984, came into this season with 7 lettermen and two offensive and two defensive starters.

The Skyrockets had a severe loss last Wednesday when Scotty Hale, offensive guard, defensive tackle and a member of the kickoff team, was badly injured when his motorcycle and a pickup collided.

There are no other injuries, but one after another Skyrockets are coming down with colds. So far, none has missed practice.

"We hope they are better by Friday night," said Williams.

"This is the homecoming game, and we hope our kids realize we still have a football game Friday night and they go out and do the job they are supposed to do," Williams concluded.

Cancer Unit Receives Quality of Life Award

Collingsworth County Unit of the American Cancer Society has received the Quality of Life Award, Texas Division, for service to cancer patients in the county, Edith Brown, president, told members at the regular meeting Thursday, Sept. 26.

Services included furnishing limited ostomy supplies, dressings, bed pads, wigs, walkers, crutches, beds, commode chairs. Transportation to treatment centers is also available. Treva Stallings is rehabilitation and services chairman.

Educational and informational programs are available from the Amarillo office.

"Under your leadership, your unit has served 33% of the potential number of patients and exceeded the division goal of 10% increase in the number of patients served last year," said Dr. Stephen S. Clark, chairman, Division Services and Rehabilitation Committee.

"The care and concern that is required to provide services is difficult to measure, but your unit accomplishments are an inspiration to your fellow workers."

Juanita Langley reported the unit raised $375 from its ice cream and cake booth at the Collingsworth County Fair.

The unit will sponsor a Food and Fiber coffee in November, in conjunction with the Great American Smoke Out.

The next regular meeting will be Thursday, October 24 at 7 p.m. in the Heritage Room of Wellington State Bank.

EXTENDED COVERAGE

by Betsy Lemons

When you close your front door, how secure is it from burglary? Are you and your belongings safe?

Sturdy locks at doors and windows are basic protection. Dead-bolt locks are advised; get the best, most pick-resistant lock cylinders your budget can handle.

Once you have locks installed, use them. Burglars need to get in quickly before they are noticed; your best protection is to make entry difficult.

Light foils burglars, too. Make sure that doors are well lighted at night. Trim shrubbery below window height, so there are no dark corners for thieves to hide in.

Top off the protection package with an electronic alarm system; have it installed professionally to avoid false alarms. Many systems will earn you deductions on insurance premiums.

Best backup for your home security plan: adequate theft insurance, just in case. We'll write it up for you at...

Skyrocket JV Takes Win Over Clarendon

Wellington Junior Varsity took a 20-13 win over the Clarendon Broncho JV on the Rocket's home ground Thursday, Sept. 26.

At the end of a 60 yard drive, Carter Nash took the ball over on a 5-yard quick pitch, but the try for extra point failed, but Wellington had the lead 6-0.

Clarendon did not score until the second period, when the player went across on a 50 yard touchdown pass. The try for extra point was good and the Broncos maintained this 7-6 lead at halftime.

Carter Nash scored again for the Rockets, this time on a 40 yard quick pitch, and Nash then ran the two-point conversion. Wellington was ahead 14-7.

Not so lucky the next time, the Rocket JV fumbled on its own 10-yard line and Clarendon capitalized on the mistake.

The Broncho JV missed the extra point, and the score was 14-13.

In the 4th period, Shawn Cobb ran the ball up the middle 5 yards for another Rocket score, but the try for extra point failed again.

This was the last touchdown for either team.

Defensively, Daryon Brown made a big play in the fourth by intercepting a pass, and this probably won the game for Rocket JV, said Coach Mike Bergman.

Also on defense, Raul Torres, Jimmy Carroll, Nash, Clay Holland, and James Reynolds all played a real good game, according to Bergman. Carroll, Reynolds and Torres each had a quarterback sack.

The Skyrocket JV does not have a game this week, as Shamrock, whom they would have met, does not have a junior varsity team.

Support the Rockets!

Germans may be paying a higher price than they realize for the freedom to hit the gas pedal. Exhaust fumes from speeding cars, traveling faster than 100 miles per hour on "autobahns," are now thought to be a leading culprit of acid rain -- killin' spruce trees throughout the fabled Black Forest in southern Germany. No government speed limits are yet in sight, and auto emission standards, in effect in the U.S., are still years away.

Firecrackers Defeat Clarendon Junior High

Wellington Junior High Firecrackers defeated Clarendon 18-0 Thursday evening at Powell Field.

Wellington finally won a toss, the first so far, and received the ball and ran several plays, then fumbled to Clarendon on the 30 yard line.

The Firecrackers held Clarendon and they had to punt. Wellington scored at the end of the first quarter with Jessie Castillo going over left side. The extra point was no good.

In the second quarter, Castillo scored a gain on a wedge play to the left. Score at halftime was 12-0.

In the fourth quarter, Castillo scored for the third time on the same play to the left. The try for extra point failed.

Jeff Thomas had two touchdowns called back on penalties.

Mike Maxwell caught a pass from Reggie Jones.

"We are playing pretty good. The kids haven't been scored on yet," said Coach Gano Wilson.

The Firecrackers play Shamrock Junior High there Thursday evening, Oct. 3. Shamrock has only one junior high team.

7th Grade Wins Over Clarendon 20 to 14

The 7th grade had an exciting game Thursday night with Clarendon pulling it out the last few seconds to win 20-14.

David Duncan made the first score with a 5 yard run. Wellington threw the ball and Clarendon intercepted, running 50 yards for a touchdown. They made the 2 point conversion, making the score 8-6.

Clarendon came back and scored on a sweep to the left, 14-6.

Belen Jaimes scored with a sweep to the right at 45 yards for Wellington and David Duncan scored the 2 point conversion. We came back with 2 minutes left and held them. The ball went over to Wellington. Belen broke to the right on a sweep for a 50 yard touchdown. The closing score was 20-14 in favor of Wellington.

"We were real pleased. The boys showed character in not giving up when we were behind, but kept on and made two touchdowns in the last quarter," said Coach Don Beck. The outstanding individual of the game was Belen Jaimes.

DON'T SHOOT AT POWER LINES!

NEVER SHOOT AT POWER LINES or the insulators that hold them, because the result could be a dangerous downed electric line. A severed line could cause a serious electrical outage, and the downed line itself could be extremely hazardous.

• Keep Children Away from Electrical Outlets
Don't let small children play near electrical outlets. A child could put some object in an outlet when you're looking away. A wise safety precaution would be to put safety caps in all wall outlets.

• Always Disconnect Cords by Pulling on the plug
When disconnecting electrical items, be sure to pull on the plug — not the cord! If you pull on the cord, you'll eventually wear it out and expose hazardous wires. Also, don't overload extension cords or outlets.

ADDITIONAL SAFETY TIPS:
• Use Power Tools Wisely
Be sure wiring is in good condition and all circuits are grounded. Never use electric tools in the rain or on wet surfaces. Also, when buying new equipment, look for the "UL" seal of approval from Underwriters Laboratories.

WHAT DOES A FATHER SAY TO HIS SON BEFORE HIS FIRST GAME?

This is your first game, son. I hope you win. I hope you win for your sake not mine. Because winning's nice. It's a good feeling. Like the whole world is yours. But it passes; this feeling. And what lasts is what you've learned.

And what you learn about is life. That's what sports is all about. Life. The whole thing is played out in an afternoon. The happiness of life. The miseries. The joys. The heartbreaks.

There's no telling what'll turn up. There's no telling whether they'll toss you out in the first five minutes or whether you'll stay for the long haul.

There's no telling how you'll do. You might be a hero or you might be absolutely nothing. There's just no telling. Too much depends on chance. On how the ball bounces.

I'm not talking about the game, son. I'm talking about life. But it's life that the game is all about. Just as I said.

Because every game is life. And life is a game. A serious one. Dead serious.

But that's what you do with serious things. You do your best. You take what comes. You take what comes and you run with it.

Winning is fun. Sure. But winning is not the point.

Wanting to win is the point. Not giving up is the point. Never being satisfied with what you've done is the point. Never letting up is the point. Never letting anyone down is the point.

Play to win. Sure. But lose like a champion. Because it's not winning that counts. What counts is trying.

There is much to be learned from "SPORTS" in the game of life.

Methodist Women Push Vol. 2 Cookbook Sales

Sometimes opportunity does come around twice.

Those who failed to get a copy of Vol. II of the Methodist Cookbook, "Shared with Love," do have another opportunity to buy one, according to Renee Vassey, a member of Pathfinders Group of United Methodist Women.

Women of 1st United Methodist Church published the cookbook, (as they did Vol. I), but this one contains a section of recipes contributed by men of the church--so it is indeed an all-church cookbook.

During this fall, women of the church are conducting a concentrated sales campaign, and they believe this may be their last. They are not planning at present to issue Vol. III.

A soft cover book, the cover is in rich blue with white filler. It follows the format of the first cookbook.

Pathfinders emphasize that this book is being sold at a time that is most convenient for Christmas gift buying, but it makes a lovely gift for any occasion, especially for wedding showers.

Some of the recipes are well-loved directions from older women of the church, but most are as contemporary as the women who use them.

Only a scant few recipes appeared in Vol. I, so those who bought copies of that book (in yellow cover) have a whole new batch of recipes.

Also scattered through the book are short scriptures and other quotations relating to a woman and her kitchen--or her cooking center, as today's homemaker would say.

Collingsworth County Agent Report by Nancy Janes

Reduce Gaps In Medicare Coverage

People age 65 and over who qualify for Medicare do not always get the greatest benefits from their coverage; however, there are steps that consumers can take to help reduce the gaps in their Medicare coverage.

Start by choosing doctors and medical suppliers who accept assignment. Assignment is the specified charge Medicare allows for a procedure. When a doctor does not accept assignment, the consumer or supplemental insurance must pay the difference.

Those with serious illnesses requiring extended care can ask their doctor to consider moving them to a skilled nursing home when Medicare coverage for hospital costs expires. Patients can also ask the doctor to consider home health service visits when the hospital and skilled care coverage are used up or if hospitalization is unnecessary.

It is especially important for patients to prepare their Medicare claims carefully. Keeping accurate records and filling in the claim forms completely will help you get the benefits you are entitled to receive. If you think your claim has been underpaid, you can appeal to the Medicare office. About half of those who appeal get at least a partial adjustment, so it is probably worth the time and effort.

Medicare does not cover all medical expenses. There are three different gaps in Medicare which must be paid by the consumers of their insurance coverage. They are deductibles and coinsurance payments; the difference between Medicare's approved amount and the actual amount charged; and items not covered at all by Medicare such as prescription drugs, private duty nurses and care in a custodial care nursing home.

For further information on making the most of your medical dollars, be sure to attend a "Making the Most of Your Medical Dollars" seminar on October 21, 1985 in the county courtroom located on the second floor of the Courthouse at 7:00 p.m. For further information, please call the County Extension office at 447-2313.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—With increased utility rates poised to become one of the figuring issues for the '86 elections, the Public Utilities Commission is drawing more and more scrutiny.

Last week, it was reported that top PUC officials and staff were taking expensive trips using state money and not documented with receipts.

Only a couple of days after the story broke, a Texas House subcommittee was formed to explore whether PUC commissioners should be elected instead of appointed by the governor.

Although the Legislature voted down such a proposal in '84, new pressures make the issue more attractive. A coalition of consumer groups want Gov. Mark White to appoint a consumer advocate as new PUC chairman.

The present chairman's term expired Sept. 1, and he is staying only until White names a successor.

Costly Trips

In the past year, PUC personnel traveled to more than 50 conferences, going out-of-state to both coasts.

Many of the hotel and meal expenditures were higher than the normal rate allowed for staff on state business. In several cases, some $100 a day for taxis and meals were claimed with no receipts.

More than $3,000 was spent by two staffers to attend a one-day seminar at a Palm Springs resort and country club.

Day Late

When PUC commissioners were asked why these practices were allowed to go on, each admitted they did not scrutinize the travel vouchers for the staff.

Commissioner Peggy Rosson said that when commissioners finally decided to ask the executive director to curtail his travel, he resigned a day early to take a job in San Francisco.

In all, the executive director spent some $10,000 in travel in 11 months.

Knuckles Rapped

What has particularly ruffled some is that recently the same PUC staff rapped the knuckles of the utility companies for charging ratepayers for similar expenses.

The commissioners tried to justify the numerous trips, but not necessarily the expenses, by saying they want the Texas PUC to build some "national visibility." One observer remarked, they've sure got visibility now, at home anyway.

College Reforms

Last week Gov. White announced the members of the new select panel to recommend major changes in state colleges. Named as chairman was Larry Temple, head of the college and university coordinating board, who said the panel is not designed to be a carbon copy of a similar committee which recently overhauled public schools.

But Temple said there will be "no sacred cows" and that everything is fair game, which made some wonder if that included dividing the Permanent University fund.

Other well-knowns placed on the powerful panel are former CIA deputy Bobby Ray Inman, developer and oilman George Mitchell, and Arthur Temple of the East Texas lumber fortune.

Prison Audit

A recent state auditor's report criticizes the beleaguered prison system for continuing to allow huge project overruns before getting approval from the prison board.

The report reveals little progress has been made to correct the overrun problem which has scandalized the prison system over the past few years. It cites:

Scoopin'

Frank Bond's speech is calm and well-delivered. But the situation he describes is full of turmoil. Economic storm and stress are sweeping over New Mexico today.

Frank Bond is running for the Republican nomination for governor of New Mexico. His speech is delivered on the patio of an old adobe ranch house north of Santa Fe.

Fifty people have gathered in the soft afternoon sunshine of the last weekend in September, 1985 to hear what Mr. Bond has to say about politics in New Mexico.

The three-foot-thick walls of the old house seem able to withstand any storm, and the beauty of the golden aspens in the mountains above the valley seems to belie any form of stress.

But New Mexico faces some tough economic days ahead, says Mr. Bond.

The state's revenues are heavily dependent on oil and gas and mining. All are in a severe slump. Farmers and ranchers are experiencing the worst times since the Depression.

Mr. Bond notes the high tech expertise of the national scientific laboratories located in New Mexico and hopes that the labs will spin off sophisticated industrial jobs in the state.

He says that improved public education is the key to new jobs and prosperity in the new economic era that seems to be unfolding. He says that reforms in education, which are already underway in New Mexico, should be encouraged.

A visitor from Texas experiences a sense of deja vu. He has heard it before, but not from Mr. Bond. From Texas politicians. Oil and gas and farming in a downturn. The need to lure high tech jobs to the state. Education to prepare for the new jobs.

The State of New Mexico and the State of Texas are both in a state of quandary. And so, I suspect, are the states of Oregon and Ohio and Maine and Georgia and Michigan.

The whole nation is experiencing what seems to be a transition from an old economic order to a new one. No one can say for certain what the new order will be.

But Mr. Bond and other observers across the nation are certain that the face of the new economy will have a very different look from the old.

---Henry Wells

—A jump in construction costs from $2 million to $9 million at the Pack 1 Unit near Navasota.

—About 394 items worth $193,000 written off as stolen or lost.

—Some $11.3 million worth of fixed assets are subject to loss or theft because of improper markings.

Two Polls

Two recent statewide polls reported 1) the number of self-styled Republicans in Texas is about the same as the Democrats, and 2) Texans don't trust government, particularly the feds.

One survey found the GOP in Texas to be 91 percent white, while the Democrats are 55 percent white, 24 percent Hispanic and 20 percent black.

Only 38 percent of citizens would say they trust government most of the time. Blacks were the least trustful, with only 17 percent approving most of the time.

Short Takes

State Treasurer Ann Richards says she will definitely seek reelection. A fundraiser is in the planning stages, with the first priority being to pay off her remaining $140,000 campaign debt from 1982.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby announced during a Sherman visit that he will seek a fifth term.

State Republican Party Chairman George Strake blasted the Texas Department of Community Affairs for shutting down phone service and sending employees home while the agency was moving.

A balloon launching will be held by children of the Church of the Nazarene in Dodson Sunday, Oct. 6, as part of a program to increase attendance.

The Rev. Al Mixon, pastor, said the launch will take place at the end of the morning worship, and every child will have a helium-filled balloon to send up. Attached to each will be a stamped self addressed card and request that it be returned.

The child whose balloon travels farthest, as indicated by the returned card, will receive a prize.

The churchwide attendance campaign has been under way several weeks with the theme, "Let them know." The theme for the children's launch is "Let the children know."

"Let the youth know" will be the theme for Sunday, Oct. 13. An activity is being planned.

"Let the adults know" will be the Sunday, Oct. 20 theme. Several members of the church will tell the congregation what Sunday School has meant to them.

The attendance campaign will close Sunday, Oct. 27, with "Let our world know." This will be Rally Day with a special program planned.

In another attendance contest, the red bandanas and blue bandanas will be in competition. The losers will host a barbecue dinner for the winners on Sunday, Nov. 3.

1st Baptist Begins Film-Study Series

A special film and study series entitled "Whatever Happened to the Human Race" will begin Sunday, October 6 at First Baptist Church. Continuing for 13 weeks, the film and study time will be at 6:00 p.m. each Sunday.

This film series is an adaptation of the book of the same title by Dr. Francis Schaeffer and features Dr. Schaeffer and Dr. C. Everett Koop. Dr. Schaeffer was probably the leading christian philosopher of the twentieth century while Dr. Koop is a physician who currently serves as Surgeon General of the United States.

"Whatever Happened to the Human Race" grapples with current issues from a christian perspective. Ideas which just a few years ago seemed unthinkable - abortion, infanticide, and euthanasia for example - have now taken root in American culture. The film series seeks to give an understanding of why this devaluation of human life has occurred and what actions must be taken by concerned individuals to halt the slide toward a secular humanistic world. The premise of Dr. Schaeffer and Dr. Koop is that these issues are not a moral political decisions but "strike at the heart of our most basic beliefs about God and man."

Following each film, a time of study and discussion will be led by First Baptist pastor, Keith Bruce. He says, "This film series is both timely and crucial. Every concerned, evangelical christian should see this series to gain a new understanding of where our culture is, where we are headed, and what must be done now."

All interested persons are invited to join in this special study. For further information, call First Baptist Church at 7-5353.

Panhandle Trips Up Skyrockets, 7-6

by BARRY LONG

The Panhandle Panthers slipped by the Wellington Skyrockets, 6-7, in their third game of the season Friday, September 27, at Powell Field in a defensive battle.

Defense was the key to the Panther's victory. The Rockets were held to 70 yards rushing and 58 yards passing, while the Rocket defense held the Panthers to 152 yards rushing and 28 yards passing.

The Rockets won the coin toss and elected to kickoff into a slight wind. Neal Duncan's 45 yard kickoff put the Panthers on their own 31 yard line for their first possession of the game. The opening drive ended when the Panthers' quarterback was sacked for a 10 yard loss.

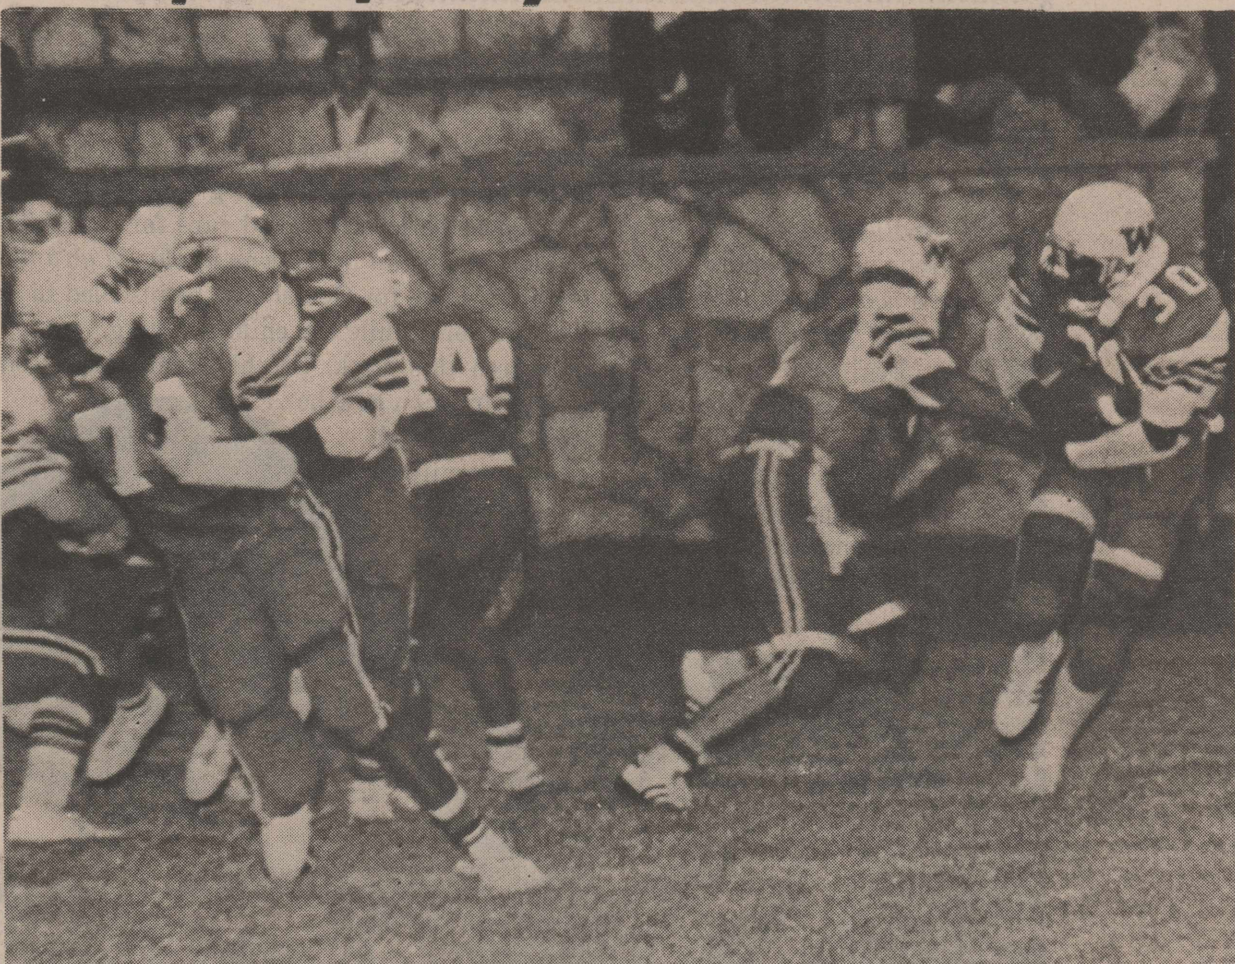

The Rockets ended their first possession after gaining only 3 yards, and were forced to punt. The Rocket defense then reciprocated and allowed the Panthers to gain only 2 yards before forcing them to punt.

The Skyrockets started their second drive with good field position on their 44 yard line. Nine plays later on 4th and goal to go, Johnny Nash ran in for a touchdown on a pitchout from quarterback Kelly Goforth. The extra point attempt failed and with 1:20 left in the first quarter the score was Rockets 6 and the Panthers 0.

Following a 50 yard kickoff from Kenny Peeks, Panhandle took possession on their 32 yard line. A deflected pass and a fumble frustrated the Panthers' drive and they were forced to punt after only 3 plays. A 40 yard punt by the Panthers put the Rockets on their own 28 yard line. The Rocket push was stopped at midfield and they were forced to punt.

The punt by Tracy Day rolled into the end zone and the ball was brought out to the Panther 20 yard line. The Panthers moved to the Rocket 36 yard line before losing the ball on a fourth down incompleated pass.

The Rockets took over on their 36 yard line and advanced to the 43 yard line before punting. The Panthers ran out the clock in the first half in five plays, covering 14 yards.

HANDOFF

Kelly Goforth, 12, center, hands off to John Nash, 30, behind the blocking of Shawn Davis, 74 and Michael Mackey, 44 against Panhandle Friday, Sept. 27.

The second half started with a 45 yard kickoff by Kenny Peeks. The kick was returned 25 yards to the Panther 40 yard line by Jimmy Hayes. The Panthers then started a drive that took 12 plays and ended on the Rocket 9 yard line.

A fumble by Panther quarterback Kent Nix was recovered by Rocket quarterback Kelly Goforth. The Rockets took possession on their 5 yard line and advanced to their 14 yard line before having to punt.

A 40 yard punt left the Panthers on their 44 yard line to start their second drive of the second half. The Rocket defense held the Panthers to 8 yards, forcing them to punt.

A 39 yard punt left the Rockets on their 9 yard line. After being pushed back to the 7 yard line, the Rockets punted on 4th and 12 to go. The 55 yard punt by Tracy Day put the Panthers on their 34 yard line.

On the first play of this series Panther running back Jimmy Hayes ran 56 yards on an end sweep for a Panhandle touchdown. The extra point try was good by Russell Johnson and with no time left in the third quarter the score was Rockets 6 and the Panthers 7.

To begin the fourth quarter the Panthers booted a 50-yard kickoff, which was returned 19 yards to the Rocket 29 yard line by Alex Johnson. The Rockets advanced to the 38 yard line before punting. The Panthers took the ball on their 39 yard line and moved it to their 42 yard line before being forced to punt by the Skyrocket defense.

The Panther 57 yard punt put the Rockets in the hole on their 1 yard line. The Panther defense held the Rockets and they were forced to punt. Panhandle took over on the Rocket 29 yard line and gained a total of 4 yards before giving up the ball on a failed 4th and 7 attempted run.

The Rockets took possession on their 26 yard line and advanced to their 36 yard line where a Rocket fumble was recovered by the Panthers on the Rocket 38 yard line.

The Panthers next series was plagued by two penalties totaling 20 yards. The finally forced to punt on 4th and 13 to go from the Rocket 41 yard line.

The Rockets took over on their 5 yard line threw three incompleated passes and gave up the ball to the Panthers.

The Panthers then ran out the clock and the game ended with the Rockets 6 and the Panthers 7.

Scotty Hale, 17, Injured in Vehicle Accident

Scotty Hale, of the Skyrocket football team, was injured about 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 25, when the motorcycle he was riding collided with a pickup at the intersection of 17th and El Paso Streets.

Scotty, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hale, was rushed to Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo, where he was in the intensive care unit several days.

His aunt, Mrs. Victor Garza said the 17-year-old high school senior is under treatment for head and neck injuries, and a specialist was to see him Wednesday to determine if surgery is necessary now or can be postponed for several weeks.

Mrs. Garza said that if surgery is not performed at this time, Scotty will be allowed to return home.

She also said that his doctors in Amarillo are pleased with the recovery he is making, and that he is now able to have some company.

A Child and His Pet

This boy loves his pet turtle. He feeds it, takes care of it, and loves it. He wants to be with it all the time. We're glad to see him growing up caring for and loving all kinds of pets. But does he love God and care for Him? The Bible tells us in Proverbs 22:6 to "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." Love for God should be instilled in every young heart and it should be done while the child is young.

Begin by bringing him to church this week. Let him learn how God loves him and cares for him. Let him learn how he can serve God and others. Don't leave church out of his young life. Let the whole family attend church this week and begin the habit that can influence them all for a lifetime.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Sisters Twirling Way to the Top

(This is an excerpt from an article about the daughters of two former residents, written by Jeana Littlefield, staff writer for the Canyon News.)

Flashy uniforms, glistening hair and big pageant smiles are evidence of the hard work and long hours that go into preparing for a twirling contest.

For Kelly and Allison Smith, daughters of Michael and Judy Smith, twirling is more than something to work on for a Friday night football game or band contest. It is a competitive sport as well as a display of talent.

Kelly, age 12, is an advanced twirler who has been practicing since the age of seven.

Allison is a seven-year-old intermediate twirler who picked up the slender silver baton at age four.

In 1982, Kelly was the beginner nine-year-old Texas State Solo Champ. She was named third-runner-up Intermediate Pre-Teen Miss Majorette of Texas in 1983.

The highlight of her career this far was in 1984 when she placed fourth in the Advanced Southwest Regional Strut.

This year, she was named third runner-up Pre-Teen Miss Majorette of Texas in the advanced division.

In the American League Championships, Kelly was 62nd of 96 girls.

In the World Open Championships held at Notre Dame University, she placed third in the two-baton competition, 15th in the strut competition, 23rd in the solo division and 16th in the flag twirling competition.

The Annual Miss Majorette of America Pageant is held at Notre Dame during the world championships contest. It is said to be a living monument to the beauty, grace, talent and dedication of majorettes everywhere. It features major-title competition in six age categories. To qualify for this pageant, a twirler must capture first at either regionals or state.

Last year, Allison won the Intermediate Tiny Tot Miss Majorette of Texas. This year she twirled her way to the title of Intermediate Tiny Tot Miss Majorette of the Southwest. This qualified her to compete for the title of Miss Majorette of America where she was named fifth-runner-up.

In the Open World Championships, Allison won first in the intermediate two-baton championships. She placed fifth in the strut competition, sixth in the solo division and fourth in the flag twirling competition.

Kelly said she has set a goal to be in the Miss Majorette of America Pageant at Notre Dame.

KELLY SMITH

ALLISON SMITH

"Another goal I have set is to be a college twirler," Kelly said.

"Two of my goals are to catch my three-turn and win my solo at Notre Dame," Allison said. "I also want to be a high school twirler."

Why twirl?
"I like feeling proud when I've done my best," Kelly said. "Twirling is something I can feel confident with, because it is something I'm good at."

"I like meeting people, traveling, working hard and having fun."

"I feel glad when I see my name at the top of the posting list," Allison said. "But sometimes when I am competing, I get scared."

"I like competing with other people."

But out of all those meets and trophies, which one means the most?

"My very first trophy means the most to me," Kelly said. "It was the second meet I ever competed in and it was novice."

"My tallest trophy means the most to me," Allison said. "I like big ones that are bigger than me."

Prior to a big meet the sisters work practice three or four hours a day.

Both girls have interests other than twirling; Kelly plays basketball, softball and plays flute and twirls in the junior high band, and Allison plays soccer and takes dance lessons.

If twirling ever does become an Olympic event, Kelly and Allison would like to be there.

"I would like to see all the other Olympians," Allison said.

"I think it would be an honor to represent my country," Kelly said.

Puffins do it differently. Unlike other diving birds which propel themselves through the water by kicking their webbed feet, puffins use their wings to actually fly underwater. After converting from a "plane" to a "submarine", puffins can move rapidly enough to catch fast-moving fish, such as herring.

MEDICARE. They pay. You pay.

Medical and hospital bills. They can be overwhelming if you're not prepared.

Medicare will pay a part of the bill and generally you are left with the rest. That's where WE come in.

Southland Life. We have a Medicare Supplement Insurance Plan to help cover those bills. We supplement your Medicare coverage. In other words:

They pay. You pay.

We pay.

With our Medicare Supplement policy, we help reduce the "You pay" portion. Call or write for details. There's no obligation.

Collingsworth County Agent Report by Don Reeves

ANIMAL HEALTH SESSIONS TO HIGHLIGHT CONFERENCE

Horse, cattle and swine producers in Texas will have the opportunity to hear about livestock health programs at the Texas Animal Health Conference slated for October 13-14 at the College Station Hilton Hotel and Conference Center.

The conference is being organized by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System and is aimed at livestock producers and veterinarians.

The session on swine health will open the conference at 1 p.m. the first day while sessions on horse and cattle health will run concurrently the second day at 1 p.m.

The swine session will deal with reproductive system problems, pig parasites, health programs for feeder pigs and environmental health of swine.

The horse session will feature discussions on feed related problems, broodmare management, immunization programs and common disease problems.

At the cattle session, speakers will talk about the management of incoming cattle, general ranch practices related to herd health, estrus synchronization, health of the breeding herd and controlled calving.

The conference also will feature a general session at 8:15 a.m. on October 14 that will include discussions on antibiotics in animal feeds and in food animals by two internationally known speakers. They are Dr. Thomas Jikes, a research biochemist with the University of California, and Dr. Lester Crawford, a director of the Bureau of Veterinary Medicine with the Food and Drug Administration.

Another keynote speaker at that session will be Lonnie 'Bo' Pilgrim of Pittsburg (Tex.) founder of Pilgrim's Pride chicken, who will discuss what it takes to succeed in the animal agricultural industry today.

Program details are available at the County Extension Office.

There may be as many as 30 to 50 million species of insects on Earth -- at least five times more than previously estimated, reports National Wildlife magazine. The census update is based on the results of the first survey of insects living high up in the trees of a tropical rain forest.

Eggs lose more quality in one day stored at room temperature than they would in one week if they are refrigerated.

If you could drive to the sun at the speed limit (55 mps) you'd get there in about 193 years.
