Week's downpours dump 6 plus inches

After slow, general rains brought from one-half to one inch of moisture the week before, the sky opened up last Wednesday afternoon and dumped more than two inches of heavy rains on the Twin Cities.

The Tribune crew had just finished making up the front page with its general rain story, when the deluge hit. Needless to say, the story was outdated before the paper hit the press and had to be scratched.

Total accumulation from August 6 through Monday of this week in the Twin Cities was 6.2 to 6.5 inches of rainfall.

Areas to the east, north, and south of the cities also reported about 6 inches, but Clovis to the west reported only 3.83 inches of moisture.

Lazbuddie received the most rainfall in the area with 8 inches reported during the past week.

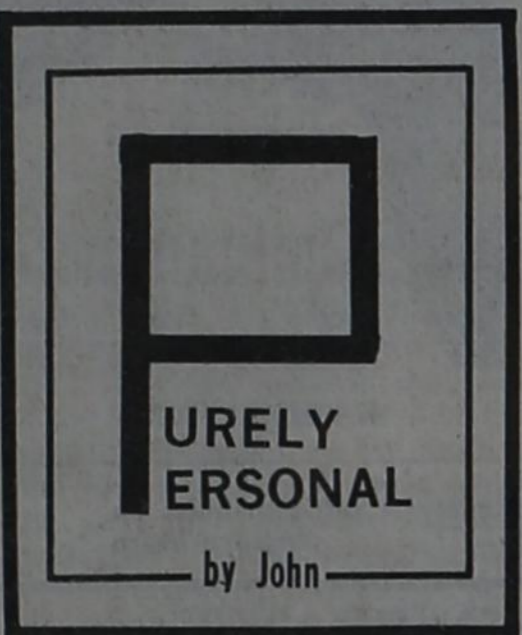

Although the rains have been an inconvenience to some of the farmers, the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages, especially to the dryland farmers, and have saved irrigation farmers probably thousands of dollars in fuel costs.

Taller than tall corn

Ted Engram of Farwell spotted this skyscraping careless weed from the cab of his tractor on Monday of this week. He got out in his corn field and retrieved the monster weed and brought it to town for measurement. The weed measured an inch over 13 feet from base to tip. Engram says that if there is a market for 13-foot weeds, he has a crop already grown. The plentiful rainfall recently has spurred the tall and thick growth of weeds throughout the cities as well as in the fields.

The rain picture in Texas has been turned upside down this year. The normally dry Panhandle has received adequate amounts of rainfall on a regular basis. The normally wet central and south Texas has been in a real drought. This has been a great help to the legislators from the Panhandle area.

For years, these representatives in the Texas legislature have been valiantly trying to get the Texas Senate and House to pass some sort of comprehensive water legislation. Heretofore, these areas have not been able to come to any agreement on water.

What has been acceptable to the water short Panhandle and West Texas has not been acceptable to east and south Texas, and vice versa. So as a consequence, not much has been enacted into law.

Aha, so mother nature takes a hand in things, and this year the normally water heavy sections are suddenly without water. This has made the process of a meeting of the minds amongst the various representatives much simpler.

We were able to talk to State Senator John Montford of the Lubbock area this past weekend. Montford holds out real hopes of the next session of the Texas legislature passing a comprehensive water bill that will significantly help the High Plains.

This legislation does not contemplate massive importation of water, but it will address water conservation measures that will significantly extend the life of the Ogalla and offer financial help in creating reservoirs for the retention and use of rainfall.

Finally, according to Montford, agreements between the lower Texas coast areas comprising bays and estuaries and the upper stream boys who control lakes and dams are in agreement on how to accommodate each other's needs and water requirements. These factors make a water bill almost a certainty next year. Fellas, it's about time.

At this time, of course, we have no idea how the future water supply of Farwell will be affected. Somewhere in this body of water law there needs to be provisions for municipal water for the smaller Texas towns. It must help small towns, and not allow larger cities to steal water from their areas.

Here is where voting comes in, friends. We suggested some action this fall in a local get-out-the-vote campaign. If the community does not vote, it may well keep us from adequate water in the decades ahead. Farwell needs to be on top of water legislation in Texas, or Lubbock may be under the water of Farwell.

So, Geraldine, your old man says not to publish his tax returns and financial affairs. Your rather flip answer that "well you know how it is being married to an Italian man" just won't get it. Do you mean to tell (Continued on Page 2)

NOMAL RENT

Lobby and restrooms are included in area rented. Payment in full for deposit and rent will be paid when building is booked. Refunds due to cancellations will be left up to the Board of Directors.

Rent will be as follows: Library, $20; Meeting Room, $20; Large Arena, $1.00 per person or $20 minimum; and Kitchen (to cook in), $50.

Civic clubs, sororities, and other non-profit organizations, if approved by the Board of Directors: May pay a $50 yearly users fee (calendar year) and pay 1/2 the normal rent.

The 4-H and Scout troops may rent free but are still required to put up the cleaning deposit.

All rental fees free to any school-sponsored function if contract is signed by a school administrator.

In addition to these guidelines, the committee also recommended to the City Council that a Board of Directors be appointed to handle and pass upon requests and circumstances not specifically covered by written regulations.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Joe Jones, general chairman, and Martin Chandler, ad hoc committee chairman, expressed pleasure with the input from the local clubs and groups, and said that they hoped these guidelines would be of help in planning community center operations satisfactory to the community as a whole.

Six Point Plan for Fair and Effective Farm Policy

Part 1

In my last column I talked about the regional meeting held by Agriculture Secretary Block to listen to farm representatives' views before writing the 1985 farm bill. I was invited to speak at the meeting and used the opportunity to tell the Secretary what I'd heard in my travels throughout the 19th district. I organized my message into six specific proposals for future farm programs. I'll discuss the first three in this column and the remaining points next time.

First, State and County ASC Committees must have more discretion and authority. National programs must be able to respond to local conditions. In the South Plains area, recent weather and a severe cost/price squeeze have created a situation in which only a flexible, responsive program can be administered fairly.

Second, farm bill sign-up should be extended until at least April 16th. This year the sign-up deadline was March 16th and the ACR program was binding. This does not allow farmers enough time to effectively consider price prospects, financing, weather and other factors. In contrast, the deadline in 1982 was April 16th and sign-up was non-binding. This allows farmers the opportunity to make the most intelligent decision and encourages greater participation in farm programs. The deadline for sign-up should be no earlier than April 16th.

And third, individual farm yield calculations must reflect true production capability. In recent years, weather has significantly reduced yields in the South Plains area. It is essential that these farms' individual yields are not calculated so low that their payment yield becomes out of proportion to their ability to produce. Some adjustments in the system have helped; however, the present mechanism does not provide a realistic picture of the individual farm. A more responsible method of calculation would lead to a stronger agricultural economy for the farmers and residents of the South Plains.

These three proposals ask for nothing more, or less, from Washington than a farm bill that is fair and effective for all farmers. If this is accomplished, more West Texas' producers will participate in the program and the nation's farmers and farm economy will benefit.

I want to hear your comments on these and other proposals for fair and effective farm policy. Write to me at 1606 Avenue X, Lubbock, 79401. We must make certain that the voice of West Texas is heard when Washington writes farm legislation for 1985.

Larry Combest is a fourth generation West Texan raised on a West Texas farm. He served as area President of the F.F.A. and received the Sante Fe Award at the National F.F.A. Convention in 1963. He served as legislative aide for agricultural policy for Senator John Tower and is a candidate for U.S. Representative, 19th District.

Commissioners court lets bids for graders

Parmer County Commissioners Court met in regular session on Monday, Aug. 13, with Commissioner Ernest Anthony presiding as chairman, in the absence of Judge Porter Roberts.

Bids for two motor graders, opened at 11 a.m., were received from Peek Industrial, Deckard Equipment, Plains Machinery, and West Texas Equipment.

Bids for Precinct No. 1 were considered first, and the Court accepted the bid from Plains Machinery, with a trade difference of $62,500. After considering bids for Precinct No. 2, the bid from West Texas Equipment was accepted, with a trade difference of $73,010.

In earlier morning action, Anne Norton, deputy in the license tag office, met with the Court and explained the duties that she and the other deputy, Bernice Pennington, were doing in the absence of Assessor-Collector Hugh Moseley, due to illness. The Court agreed to reimburse both women for travel expenses incurred in the operation of the office.

Sheriff Bill Morgan and Dispatcher Murlene Smith met with the Court to discuss the teletype in the sheriff's office. Mrs. Smith explained the problems and limitations of the present teletype and also explained the improved functions of a new one. Sheriff Morgan explained that the teletype is leased on a yearly basis and could be turned in for a newer model at approximately the same cost or less per year. The Court approved the trading of the old teletype for the newer model.

Sheriff Morgan also discussed with the Court about the ceiling in his department being damaged from leaks in the roof. The Court decided to wait until the roof has been replaced before considering these repairs.

The Court authorized Commissioner Anthony to cash in C.D.s in the Available School Fund maturing 8-15-84, and to issue checks to divide the money between the four schools in the county, and also authorized him to sign the Lateral Road Fund report.

Payment of the bill for the county's foster children care in the amount of $2,139 was approved. This amount will be reimbursed to the county by the state.

A proclamation designating August 1984 as "Child Support Month" was issued by the Court.

Chuck Addy, John McDaniel, and B.K. Buske of the Parmer County Industrial Development Board met with the Court and asked approval of a resolution for the sale of bonds. The Court approved the adoption of a "Resolution approving the issuance and sale of $3,000,000 Industrial Development Revenue Bond (Millard Warehouse project) by Parmer County Industrial Development Corp.," and authorized Commissioner Anthony to sign the resolution.

At 3 p.m., a hearing on Revenue Sharing was begun. Citizens had been asked by public notice to attend this hearing. Members of the Bovina and Friona Senior Citizens appeared before the Court, and each group explained the expenses they have and asked to be considered for help. The Court assured each group that their needs would be considered. No other citizens appeared during the hearing.

In final action, approval was given to the County Clerk to order a set of books on County Government. Appointment of election judges was tabled until a later date so that the county clerk could contact some of these persons.

DON'T KISS $8,938 GOODBYE

That's how much you could lose just on resale value if you don't buy a John Deere

Looking for a big discount when you buy a tractor? Don't get stuck with an even bigger discount when you want to sell it.

Always consider resale value when you price a field tractor. Because the differences among brands may sometimes be bigger than ANY purchase incentive.

Compare John Deere with our two leading competitors. According to the Spring 1984 Official Guide of the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association, the average 5-year-old John Deere 4440 sells for 106 percent of its 1979 list price. One leading competitor averages 87 percent of its 1979 list price. The other averages 73 percent.

What's that mean in dollars? Add the John Deere gain on original price to the competitor's loss. The John Deere advantage is as much as $8,938!

Is this only true of one model? No. Every 40 Series 90- to 180-hp tractor has an average resale price that's higher than its new price five years ago.

Is resale your only John Deere advantage? No. Don't forget the remarkable fuel efficiency of today's 50 Series

John Deere tractors. And don't forget our unmatched reputation for high quality and high reliability. See your John Deere dealer. He'll be happy to explain the big difference between a low-price tractor and a low-cost John Deere: 100-hp 4050, 120-hp 4250, 140-hp 4450, 165-hp 4650 or 190-hp 4850.

NOTE: Average resale prices taken from Spring 1984 Official Guide of the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association. Percentages calculated from best currently available information on 1979 list prices.

Local students enjoy trip with New Mexico Lions Band

by Leigh Ann Woods

Elva Whitesides of Farwell and Buck Gaddis of Texico recently returned from a trip to San Francisco, Calif., where they, along with approximately 103 other band students from New Mexico, were members of the New Mexico Lions Band who participated in the Lions International Convention parade.

Elva and Buck were selected for the trip by their school band directors, and were sponsored by the Texico-Farwell Lions Club. Members of the local Lions Club raised a total of $1,500 through their trap shoots this year, the cost of sending both students to San Francisco.

Elva, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitesides, will be a junior at Farwell High School this fall. Buck, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaddis, will be a senior this fall at Texico High.

As members of the New Mexico

Lions Band, Elva and Buck got their first chance to meet and perform with other members of the band in early June at the New Mexico State Lions Convention in Gallup. They had only one day in which to practice before performing for attendants at the convention and marching in the parade, under the direction of Jerry Hoover, Director of Bands at the New Mexico State University in Las Cruces.

Elva and Buck then traveled to NMSU June 27 for three days of practice before they boarded a bus for San Francisco and the International Convention.

Upon their arrival in California, the band members spent the night in Solvang, a small Danish community, and visited the beach before heading to San Francisco.

Once the group arrived in San Francisco, they juggled their time between practicing for the parade and sightseeing. "We usually practiced early in the morning," said Elva, "and had the afternoons free for sightseeing and shopping."

One of the main attractions in San Francisco was the Golden Gate Bridge. "We practiced every morning in the Golden Gate Park near the bridge," said Elva. "The bridge was really beautiful. So was San Francisco Bay. We watched the fireworks burst out over the bridge and bay the night of the Fourth. It was really spectacular."

Another attraction that the kids enjoyed visiting was Chinatown. "It's a whole different world down there," said Elva. "Even the buildings are Chinese." Elva confessed that until she visited Chinatown, she had never eaten Chinese food. "It really was pretty good," she said, "but some of it really does look strange."

While there, the students rode San Francisco's famous trolley cars. "They were fun," commented Elva, "although some of those hills were pretty steep."

On another jaunt, the students took a ferry across the bay to tour Alcatraz Prison which is now unoccupied. "The cells those people lived in were so small," said Elva, "it's hard to believe that prisoners actually lived in them."

One of the favorite tours that the group took was to Universal Studios. "We really got to see a lot of neat stuff," said Elva. "We saw the motel that was used in the filming of Psycho. We even saw Sherman Hensley, the man who plays George Jefferson on the television series 'The Jeffersons.'"

On another sightseeing venture, the students toured Hurst Castle, where Publisher Randolph Hurst used to live. "I couldn't believe how big that place was," said Elva. "Even the guest houses were bigger

Rate for 1984-crop soybeans issued by USDA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2--The U.S. Department of Agriculture today issued a preliminary loan and purchase rate of $5.02 per bushel for 1984-crop soybeans. This is the minimum permitted by law and is unchanged from 1983.

The loan rate is set by law at 75 percent of the simple average price received by farmers during the past five years, excluding the high and low years, according to Everett Rank, administrator of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. That law also requires USDA to issue a preliminary loan and purchase rate not earlier than 30 days before Sept. 1, the beginning of the soybean marketing year.

Rank said USDA would issue a final 1984 soybean loan and purchase rate no later than Oct. 1, by which time USDA will have figures on prices received by farmers for the 1983 crop.

All producers of 1984-crop soybeans will be eligible for loans and purchases since USDA does not require participation in production adjustment programs as a condition of eligibility, he said. Soybeans are ineligible for any reserve program or farm storage payments, Rank said.

Legal notices

NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE REQUEST AND STATEMENT OF INTENT

Notice is hereby given that BAILEY COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION ("The Cooperative") intends to change the design of its Irrigation Rate and its Cotton Gin Rate. The Cooperative is not requesting additional revenue from either of these two classification of service. The filing is to change only the method of collecting the annual revenue amounts presently approved by The Public Utility Commission.

The proposed changes in the Irrigation Rate are as follows:

The facilities charge of $7.50 per installed horsepower per year which is billed in twelve (12) equal installments will remain unchanged.

The present demand charge of $5.00 per operating horsepower for April through September is proposed to be changed to be $22.80 per installed horsepower during the on-peak season, which shall be billed in six (6) equal installments from April through September billing months. Customers shall have the option of requesting that the electric meter be disconnected for the entire on-peak season, in which case the customer will not be assessed the demand charge, provided that a written request is received by the Cooperative prior to the end of the customer's March billing month. The Cooperative will reconnect the customer's meter after the end of the on-peak season, if so requested by the customer, at no charge to the customer.

The present demand charge of $2.00 per operating horsepower for October through March is proposed to be changed to read "no demand charge for installed horsepower for the off-peak period from October through March billing months."

The present energy charge of $0.04234 per KWH per month is proposed to be changed to $0.04247 per KWH per month. It is proposed to eliminate the present energy charge of $0.0719 per KWH for non-irrigation usage.

It is further proposed to determine the installed horsepower to be the manufacturer's motor nameplate rating, but for billing purposes this shall not be less than five (5) H.P. for the three-phase service, and not less than three (3) H.P. for single-phase service.

The proposed changes in the Cotton Gin Rate are as follows:
For the Ginning Season (October - March)

Customer charge of $75.00 per month unchanged.

The present demand charge of $3.00 per KW of billing demand per month is proposed to be changed to no billing demand per month.

The present energy charge of $0.0531 per KWH per month is proposed to be $0.0645 per KWH per month.

The annual minimum charge of $15.00 per KW of peak demand and the non-ginning season (April - September) rates will be unchanged.

With these proposed changes, the date the irrigation and cotton gin meters are read will make no difference in the bills.

The proposed changes are applicable to all irrigation customers and all cotton gin customers of the Cooperative.

The classes and number of Cooperative customers affected are as follows:

IRRIGATION 2908
COTTON GIN 25

Implementation of the proposed changes is subject to approval by the appropriate regulatory authority. A statement of intent including the proposed revisions of tariff and schedules and a statement specifying in detail each proposed change is available at the general office of the Utility located at 305 East Avenue B, Muleshoe, Texas.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 tele-typewriter for the deaf.

Farwell duo wins men's partnership tournament

Fifty-six teams participated in the 15th annual Penny Anderson Men's Partnership Golf Tournament over the weekend, August 11 and 12, at Farwell Country Club.

Jim Berry and Jack Kirkland teamed up for a two-day total of 133 to win the tournament. This is the fourth consecutive year for the Farwell duo to take first place in their flight.

The tourney was played in the rain Saturday, but Sunday turned out to be a nice day. Each player was given a golf bag towel stamped with "15th Annual Penny Anderson Partnership," and all entry fees were returned to the winning teams in the form of gift certificates.

Saturday night, golfers and guests were treated with a barbecue meal provided by Walter Hughes and company. Members of the Ladies Golf Association prepared and sold hamburgers both days of the tournament.

Winners of the six flights were as follows:

FIRST FLIGHT: First, Jim Berry and Jack Kirkland, both of Farwell, 133; second, Mike Stafford and Bryan Nickels, both of Lovington, 135; and third, Ronnie Aldridge of Lamesa and Kent Finley of Midland, 139.

Steer power

The Farwell Steers started their two-a-day workouts this week in preparation for the fall football schedule. This is the first season for the Steers under new Head Coach Monte Barnes. Farwell will play in a Class A district which includes Vega, Lazbuddie, Kress, Happy, and Nazareth. The Steers open their season on September 7 at Wilson, and end the season on November 9 at Nazareth. Scrimmages are planned on August 24 here with the Plains Cowboys and on August 31 against the Bobcats at Dimmitt.

Wolverine wallop

Head Coach David Lynn instructs his Texico Wolverines in agility drills as they prepare for a new football season. The Wolverines won the New Mexico Class A state football crown last fall, and look forward to this season's grid battles. Texico will scrimmage Dexter here on August 30 and will open their season at Cloudercroft on September 7.

N. M. Lions Band . . . (Continued from Page 4)

than any house I've ever seen. The indoor pool was lined with solid gold as were the ceilings in all of the guest houses. It was really something.

On the day of the parade, Elva and Buck and the other members of the New Mexico Lions Band enjoyed marching and performing with the many other state bands at the convention. "The parade was fun," said Elva. "We all liked Mr. Hoover. He knew what he was doing, but he also made it fun. He had a terrific sense of humor."

At other times during their trip, the band members managed to combine a little performing and sightseeing. "We performed at Great America," said Elva, "which is an amusement park similar to Six Flags. We had a lot of fun performing, going on the rides, and eating."

The last stop on the trip for the students was Disneyland. "We really had fun there too," said Elva. "We marched around and all through the park, and then changed our clothes and enjoyed the rides until we left for home about 9 p.m."

"All in all, the trip was really fun," said Elva. "We had a lot of fun meeting all of the other kids and running around. I really appreciate the Texico-Farwell Lions Club giving me the opportunity to participate in both the state and international conventions. I will never forget it."

On parade

The New Mexico Lions Band, directed by Jerry Hoover, was one of many other state bands who participated in the parade at the Lions International Convention held in San Francisco this year. The New Mexico band is shown as it marches in the International parade. Hoover is Director of Bands at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces.

Watch out for school buses

It's that time of the year again, when vacations end and back to school studies begin. "Unfortunately this also means an increase in traffic accidents involving school buses and school children," said Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"Most of these accidents are caused by drivers who fail to follow safe operating procedures as well as laws pertaining to passing a stopped school bus," Major Cawthon added.

State law requires drivers on the same roadway as a school bus that has stopped to load or unload school children; to stop and remain stopped until one of three things happen. The bus driver signals you to go on by or they turn off the flashing red lights; or the bus itself goes into motion.

This law applies whether you are meeting the bus or whether you are going in the same direction as the bus. It also applies inside the city limit as well as outside the city limit.

The only exception to the law is that drivers on the other side of a divided highway (roadways separated by a physical median) are not required to stop. Motorists who fail to stop for a school bus could be fined up to $200.

"We, as drivers, should realize the dangers involved and do everything possible to prevent these needless deaths and injuries involving our school children," said Major Cawthon.

Texico lady spikers gearing for season

Texico girls who are hopeful of making the 1984-85 Lady Spikers varsity volleyball team have been working out in two-a-day sessions this week. Among the 17 girls trying out for the team are seven returning varsity members.

Returning players are Cheryl Scott, Loretta Gonzales, Kathy Harrison, Kelly Lynn, Helen Jo Boardman, Coy Jo Burk, and Tracey McDonald. Head coach for the Lady Spikers, Mike Littlejohn, says that these starters have now been together for two to three years.

The morning workout sessions have focused on practice and game plan, and the afternoon sessions have been primarily working with weight lifting and conditioning. Once school starts, the coach says that one practice will be held during school hours, and one hour will be scheduled after school.

Commenting on the upcoming season, Coach Littlejohn said, "We have the ability to do pretty well. Tatum will be our biggest competition, but overall the whole district looks tough."

The first outing for the Lady Spikers will be a scrimmage at Hobbs on Saturday, Aug. 25. The first games of the season will be tournament play on Saturday, Sept. 15, at Cloudercroft.

Other volleyball girls trying out for the team are Geneva Garcia, Codie Burch, Patty Cavallero, Twilla Longo, Angie Liggins, Sarah Cavallero, Robin Pierce, Leslie Steward, Terresa Thomas, and Danielle Chumbley.
