JUDGE ORDERS ARREST OF SMALL

LEGISLATURE ORDERS INVESTIGATION OF GOVERNOR'S CHARGES

TAKES ACTION FOR PROBE OF NEFF'S CHARGES AGAINST STATE EMPLOYEES.

EIGHT MEMBERS TO COMPOSE COMMITTEE

Resolution Adopted in the House Gets Prompt Action in the Senate.

AUSTIN, July 26.—An investigation by a joint committee of the legislature, composed of five representatives and three senators, of the charges of the "graft, irregularities and extravagance" in the departments was ordered today when the senate adopted the house concurrent resolution by Representatives Quaid and Satterwhite.

When the resolution reached the senate after adoption in the house, Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock urged that immediate action be taken thereon, declaring that "it is up to us to take cognizance of those charges."

Senators Witt of McLean, Page of Bastrop and Davidson of Harrison were named by Lieutenant Governor Davidson as the senate part of the legislative committee to investigate the governor's charges of graft, irregularities and extravagance in certain state departments.

The senate referred to committee on federal relations the house concurrent resolution by Representative John Davis of Dallas endorsing the motion of President Harding in calling a conference of nations to consider the question of disarmament.

A resolution adopted at a mass meeting of citizens of Washington county was read in which endorsement was given to the plan to abolish useless bureaus and departments in the state government.

Senators Haugh, Hertzberg and Witt were named on the part of the senate to arrange for the reception and entertainment of General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the eighth army corps, who arrives today in the legislature on American.

Senator Floyd of Red River introduced a bill appropriating $2,000,000 a year for the next two fiscal years for the rural schools.

A bill was introduced by Senator Witt of McLennan designed to prevent the reversal of certain judgments of criminal appeals on technicalities.

AUSTIN, July 26.—The house started the day by adopting a concurrent resolution by which the finance committee was authorized to investigate the mismanagement, misapplication of funds, graft and padding of expense accounts in certain state departments as indicated by Governor Neff's evidence, submitted to the finance committee, be investigated.

The resolution provides for five representatives and three senators to investigate thoroughly the graft and extravagance and report back to the present session. The committee is to be empowered with the authority of a district court. Witnesses are to be summoned and complete records and evidence taken.

The resolution now goes to the senate.

The house committee on agriculture has reported adversely the bills by Representative Stevenson proposing abolishing the department of agricultural experiment stations, and a warehouse, a favorable minority report being given. The bills would place these duties on Texas A. & M.

By vote of 54 to 33 the house passed to engrossment the Davis substitute to the bill repealing the suspended sentence.

The Davis substitute is practically identical with the suspended sentence law passed at the regular session of the thirty-seventh legislature, but vetoed by the governor.

LEGION MEMBERS URGE COMPLETION OF HOSPITAL

AUSTIN, July 26.—An organized campaign for pushing the completion of the Kerrick tubercular hospital for ex-service men was formulated at a meeting last night of the American Legion members of the legislature. An executive committee was appointed to investigate thoroughly why the work on the hospital has been held up and why no portion of the appropriation of $1,500,000 made at the regular session has been used to complete or equip the hospital.

It was brought out at the meeting that there has never been an official announcement of the opening of the hospital; that there are about ten ex-service men being treated there; that there is no physician employed to treat the men, and that the requirements for entrance are so strict that few ex-service men are able to enter.

The legion members organized an association to oppose reduction of the appropriation unless it is found that this much money is not needed at present. The reports which were termed false at the time they were made, disseminated that the hospital has received few applications for treatment.

It was countermanded and the real truth concerning the hospital was revealed to the ex-service men. It was brought out.

The executive committee is composed of Senators Witt, Hertzberg and Representatives Thompson of Harris, Beavers and Johnson of Ellis.

HUNTER WINS FIGHT WITH ENRAGED WOLF WHICH ATTACKS HIM

Wallace Kerr, a 47 year old hunter, had an experience Monday that he will never forget. While hunting near Call Field he came upon a stray wolf at which he promptly fired. He hit his object fair and only served to enrage the animal, which immediately charged him. Kerr thought the shot had taken effect and was heading over to pick up a shell which had dropped out of his gun when he noticed the infuriated beast approaching.

During the struggle which ensued at close quarters young Kerr's trousers were torn and his clothes were covered with blood. He managed to manage to push the animal far enough away to grab his gun and the wolf's death quickly followed.

Stinch and John E. Davidson, said they would report their findings to the labor party, of which they are members.

Both took occasion to deny predictions of American reformers that England will be dry within ten years, asserting there was little dry sentiment at least in the labor party.

CLAIM PART OF TURKISH FORCES ARE CUT OFF

ATHENS, July 26.—An announcement by the Greek official agency yesterday said the Turkish losses in killed, wounded and prisoners and missing amount to 75 per cent of their entire fighting strength in Asia Minor.

PRINCE ANDREWS' FORCES CONTINUE PURSUIT OF TURKS

ALLEGED FRIEND OF SPURGIN IS HELD BY THE AUTHORITIES

CHICAGO, July 26.—Miss Elizabeth Thompson, an alleged friend of Warren Spurgin, president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company, which was closed last week by bank examiners, was being held by authorities today in connection with the first arrest with the case.

Miss Thompson was held at the direction of Ben Neumann, chief investigator for the state attorney's office, after she had been questioned for four hours regarding her friendship with Warren Spurgin. Later she is said to have admitted attending dinner parties with Spurgin and to have told of other gifts entertained by him.

The nation-wide search for the missing bank president was continued today with authorities devoting more attention to the theory that he may be headed for the Mexican border rather than for the Canadian line, as was at first thought.

James Kelly, a director of the bank, who took the affairs of the trust company before Ernest C. Wright, acting state attorney, estimated the loss at $700,000 and which he may be able to pay only 60 cents on the dollar.

LESS ALARMING TONE IN OFFICIAL MESSAGES FROM MORROCCAN WAR

MARRAKECH, July 26.—Official messages filtering through from Morocco last night and early this morning assume a less alarming tone in telling of the fighting between Spanish troops and Moroccan tribesmen in the Melilla area.

Spanish reinforcements under command of General Navarro have left Melilla for Sidi-el-Driss, where a fierce battle is said to be progressing favorably for the Spaniards. In addition to these reinforcements, a brigade of Hussars has been sent to the troubled area from Spain.

An official communication issued last night says the total number of Spanish forces in the Melilla zone has been raised to 25,000.

The government has decided to establish a censorship over all war dispatches.

GRAIN CARS NOT TO BE DIVERTED FROM NORTHWEST TEXAS

By CHAS. N. HAYDEN, Washington Correspondent, Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—The car service division of the interstate commerce commission has agreed to lift the embargo which has been directed against the cars carrying grain into the panhandle of Texas. June P. Smith, president of the Fort Worth Mill and Elevator company, in company with Senator Thompson, conferred with interstate commerce commission officials yesterday, pointing out that a vast amount of grain would move no market, if cars were made available.

Under the order which had previously gone out grain cars were being diverted to Kansas and Nebraska. The commission, however, agreed to rescind these and assurances were given that cars would now be available for northwest Texas.

FEDERAL AGENCIES TO RELIEVE CONDITIONS IN SECTIONS OF SOUTH

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Federal agencies, acting at President Harding's direction, were working at emergency speed today to relieve conditions in a large section of the southern cotton belt, which are reported by the public health service to threaten a year state of pestilence coupled with a widespread epidemic of pellagra. Alarmed by the report of conditions, which are attributed to the economic drought and the depression resulting from depression in the cotton market, President Harding yesterday called upon the public health service and the American Red Cross to make an immediate investigation to ascertain the actual conditions and to lose no time in applying an effective remedy.

FAMINE NOT THREATENED IN THE SOUTHWEST

DALLAS, July 26.—Famine is not threatened in any section of Texas and that portion of Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arizona and New Mexico embraced in the eleventh federal reserve district, and neither is there danger of an epidemic of pellagra in any section, according to federal officials here.

"Greatly exaggerated," was the term used by Judge W. P. Ramsey, chairman of the eleventh federal reserve bank, when shown Washington dispatches indicating a possible incipient famine among cotton planters owing to low prices for the crop.

"Folk in the eleventh district are practicing economy amounting to real hardship or sacrifice, but there is no real famine," he said. "The cotton crop is not so low as it is reported to be. It is the eleventh federal reserve district, comprising Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona, that is the section in which the epidemic of pellagra in the district. Public health service in the territory, he said, has not been called upon for assistance in any section of the southwest. He said he had received no orders from Washington regarding the report of pellagra and famine situation.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26.—There is no pellagra epidemic in Louisiana, but on the contrary there are fewer cases than usual at this time of the year. NOTHING TO INDICATE EPIDEMIC IN GEORGIA

ATLANTA, GA., July 26.—From available reports, there is nothing to indicate an increase in the number of pellagra cases in Georgia. This year, according to the state health officer, James C. Garrison, state health officer, the number of cases is about the same as last year.

NO SEMI-FAMINE CONDITIONS IN MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, MISS., July 26.—Dr. W. S. Leathers, secretary of the state board of health, today emphasized there was no pellagra epidemic or semi-famine conditions in Mississippi. While there were 2239 cases of pellagra in the state last June, as compared with 1,922 for June of last year, Dr. Leathers said the number has been decreasing steadily.

NO REASON FOR ALARM OVER TEXAS SITUATION

AUSTIN, July 26.—There is no reason to be alarmed over the pellagra situation in Texas, Dr. Mantion M. Carrick, state health officer, said today. He pointed out that there has been a slight increase in the number of cases this year due to the financial depression. He further said that sickness usually follows such depression. The disease, he reported, is not reported in the health department but the reports that have been received show that there were 72 cases in the first six months of this year.

HARDING WANTS TO INVEST 500 MILLION IN R. R. SECURITIES

ASKS AUTHORITY FOR WAR FINANCE CORPORATION TO HANDLE DEBT.

ALSO INCREASE CREDITS AGRICULTURAL EXPORTS

President in Special Message Tells Congress Moral Obligations For Both.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—President Harding, in a special message to congress today, asked it to extend the authority of the war finance corporation to purchase securities probably up to $500,000,000 now in the hands of the railroad administration, so that the proceeds may be used for railroads.

"No added expense," said the president, "would open the way to 'early adjustment and relief' of the railroad problem. There was no thought, he said, of asking congress for additional money.

Railway claims, based on the "indefiniteness" of the war finance corporation, were to be waived for the present to hasten settlement without surrender of any rights in court. "No added expense," said the president, "would open the way to 'early adjustment and relief' of the railroad problem. There was no thought, he said, of asking congress for additional money.

That there were "moral" obligations upon the government to aid in both respects was stated by the president, who commended the war finance as an agency of great value in restoring economic conditions. Prompt action was requested, but the president did not ask that both features be contained in one bill.

Republican leaders therefore adopted the plan of dealing with railroad and agricultural conditions in separate measures. Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, introduced a bill drafted by Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce and the United States war finance corporation extending the powers of the war finance corporation to agricultural export financing. It authorized an increase in the corporation's revolving credit fund from five hundred millions to one billion dollars.

The Kellogg bill was offered as a substitute for the bill introduced by the war finance corporation with an authorized revolving credit fund of five hundred million dollars. Capital provisions of the Kellogg bill were struck from the bill by the House-Meyer provision before it was presented, and republican leaders planned to consider later the bill introduced by the war finance corporation.

"It is merely the grant of authority to the war finance corporation, an efficient government agency to use its available funds to purchase securities for which congress already has authorized an increase in the revolving credit fund of the war finance corporation ready to float them."

The contract covering operation provided that the corporation should be returned to their owners in as good condition as when taken over by the government, and the transportation department, which were morally and legally bound to fund, the government admitted owed the railroad companies large sums on various accounts such as compensation, depreciation and maintenance.

"The way would seem to be clear to very early adjustment and relief, except for the fact that the railway administration, through possessing assets, does not command the funds necessary to meet what will be its admitted obligations."

"There is no thought to ask congress for additional funds. Perhaps five hundred million dollars will be necessary. The railroad administration has or will have in the progress of funding, ample securities to meet all requirements if congress only will grant the authority to negotiate the securities and provide the agency for their negotiation."

"With this end in view you are asked to extend the authority of the war finance corporation so that it may purchase these railway funding securities accepted by the department of general railroads. No added expense is added to the government, there is no added liability, no added cost. It is merely the grant of authority necessary to enable a most useful and efficient government agency to use its funds to purchase securities for which congress already has authorized the issue and turn them into the channels of finance ready to float them."

"I can readily believe that so simple a remedy will have your prompt sanction. The question of our obligations can not be raised, the wisdom of affording early relief is not to be doubted, and the avoidance of added appropriation would be a most desirable result."

COMMITTEE AGREED AGAINST PROVISIONS FOR A SALES TAX

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Agreement among members of the house ways and means committee that in revision of revenue laws no provision will be made for a sales tax, was announced today by Chairman Fordney.

H. C. Kendrick, tax representative of the American farm bureau federation, appeared before the committee prepared to oppose this form of tax. He was advised to proceed with arguments.

"When Benjamin C. Marsh, representing the People's Reconstruction league, appeared, he was given only 19 minutes. Millionaires had been given an entire day," Marsh said, and Chairman Fordney replied:

"You are here to give information. If you insist on giving sarcasm, you are through."

Representative Mills, republican, New York, appeared to explain his bill, proposing a reduction of surplus taxes and imposition of taxes on the basis of personal expenditures. He declared that present tax laws were causing a maximum of damage to the business community and yielding a diminishing return each year.

Mr. Mills said there should be no tax exempt security.

NO DIVINE RIGHT OF KINGS IN ILLINOIS, DECLARES JUDGE

IN ORDERING ARREST OF GOVERNOR SMALL JUDGE REASONS FOR ORDER.

SMALL'S RESISTANCE WILL NOT BE PHYSICAL

Will Be Given Reasonable Time to Voluntarily Present Himself Under Order.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 26.—Judge Smith in his opinion on the arrest of Governor Small for embezzlement, held that warrants should be served upon the governor but that the executive should be permitted to make his appearance at his own pleasure, within a reasonable time.

The judge developed his opinion as follows:

1. That there is no such thing in Illinois as the divine right of kings and that the king has no counterpart in Illinois.

2. That it is beyond the scope of the governor's power to call state troops to shield him from arrest.

3. That Governor Small, despite his position as chief executive of the state is subject to arrest and prosecution for his acts as state treasurer.

4. That the statutes of limitations would expire through any prolonging delay in seeking warrants upon the governor.

5. That it is not the duty of the court to withhold warrants for the governor.

6. That Governor Small should be permitted to present himself voluntarily before the court.

Notification of Governor Small by telephone was the method of procedure decided upon by Sheriff Meier.

"I may as well for an interview with the governor later," Sheriff Meier said. "No attempt will be made to embarrass Governor Small. The order of the court explains how the matter will be handled."

Spectators began to arrive in the historic old court room long before Judge Smith was ready to open court. The judge, after the sheriff and Meier went to his private chambers. A large bouquet of gladioli occupied a conspicuous place on the judge's desk.

By 9 o'clock many of the seats in the court room were filled. A number of women were among the early arrivals. The court opened at 10 o'clock. Judge Smith called the early business and asked if there were any motions to be presented to the court. Former Governor Joseph W. Meyer, former Congressman James M. Graham and George H. Gillespie of Governor Small's counsel, took the same place which they occupied in the case of Governor Small. They argued the case for the governor.

"Are there any motions?" Judge Smith asked. "After a motion by Meier and a motion by the state attorney, the court then argued immunity for the governor.

"I notice some one has very kindly sent me a very nice bouquet of gladioli," the judge observed. "I hope after this they will be willing to let it remain." This brought a laugh from spectators.

Addressing himself to Attorney Fife, Gillespie called attention to the fact that the governor, Judge Smith began to read his opinion.

In his opinion, Judge Smith recalled that the case against Governor Small was well familiar with the laws governing procedure in criminal matters.

The opinion goes on:

"Len Small became governor of the state of Illinois in January, 1921, by winning a term of four years, and on the twentieth day of July, 1921, the grand jury of Sangamon county returned into this court three indictments against Len Small charging him with criminal offenses."

"The statutes make it the duty of the court, when an indictment is returned to fix bail and make it the duty of the clerk of the court to issue immediate process of capias directed to the sheriff for arrest."

"Appearing as amicus curiae to give the court friendly advice as to its duties and the course it should pursue, I am advised that the court should issue a restraining order enjoining the clerk of this court from issuing any writ of capias or other process against the defendant until after the expiration of his term of office, and that the court should suspend prosecution during said term."

"The king can do no wrong. No Kings in Illinois."

"In support of this advice it is urged that because of the high official position of the accused and the great disaster that would otherwise befall the state and in pursuance of public policy the defendant should be arrested and that the prosecution should be suspended. To sustain this contention the monarchial maxim 'The king can do no wrong' is quoted."

"The king can do no wrong" is an ancient doctrine, but in this republic it has never reached the application that an elected official can do no wrong. "We have been extremely fortunate in the character and conduct of elected officials, but there has never been an intimation or suggestion that they were not capable of committing crime before, during and after the term of office. Our governors are not born kings. They are not surrounded by a halo at birth that gives them immunity from the temptations and the frailties to which other humans are subject."

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 26.—Governor Len Small's resistance, if attempts are made to arrest him today on warrants charging him with embezzlement of state funds, will not be physical. It was said at the executive offices here today that the governor is prepared to say that as chief executive of the state, he refuses to submit to arrest.

JAPAN'S CABINET EXPECTED TO ACCEPT HARDING PROPOSAL

TALKS BETWEEN SHIDEHARA AND HUGHES HAVE CLARIFIED SITUATION.

DISCUSSION OF POLICIES BASIS OF CONFERENCE

Idea That Questions Affecting Two Powers Should Be Left To Them.

By Associated Press.

TOKYO, July 25.—Official circles tonight were disposed to forecast definite action by the Japanese cabinet (Tuesday) in acceptance of President Harding's suggestion for a Far Eastern conference. Apparently the talks between Ambassador Shidehara and Secretary of State Hughes in Washington have gone far toward clarifying the situation.

According to Japan's understanding of the American viewpoint, as given out here, America's idea is to make the basis of the conference a broad discussion of policies and principles rather than of specific topics, although each participant would have the right to introduce specific subjects if they were germane to the principle under discussion, and if the powers concerned should not be affected. The idea is said to prevail in discussions affecting two powers should be left, wherever possible, to the powers concerned.

The general position of Japan was summarized as follows:

Peace now prevails in the Far East, and the great aim of the conference should be to harmonize policies, and all participants in the conference should arrive to this end. Differences and misunderstandings should not be created by all warring participants to leave the conference with the feeling that action had been taken detrimental to his rights and vital interests.

INDEPENDENT OIL MEN ORGANIZE TO PROTECT INDUSTRY

TULSA, July 26.—The National Association of Independent Oil Producers, an organization composed of independent oil associations located in the various oil fields, was perfected here Monday afternoon at a meeting of 100 oil men from all parts of the American oil fields.

Judge W. S. Gray of this city was elected president; H. F. Steele, also of Tulsa, secretary, and E. M. Fox of Okmulgee, Okla., treasurer.

The executive committee will be composed of members selected from all the independent organizations, who will organize counties and states, concentrate on three things—traffic on foreign crude oil, freight rate adjustment, and an effort to obtain a federal law to prohibit pipe line companies and their alleged companies from acquiring oil properties and thus perfecting a monopoly.

The meeting was enthusiastic. Every speaker attacked the standard oil. President Harding was arranged severely in talks and in resolutions for alleged usurpation of the legislative powers vested in congress in urging the ways and means committee not to favor an oil tariff.

J. D. Farnell of Wichita Falls, president of the North Texas Independent Oil Association, and W. H. Sorrel of Sedan, Kan., of the Kansas Association, were active at the start of the meeting. Spraul was temporary chairman.

ALLIED SUPREME COUNCIL TO MEET IN PARIS AUGUST 4

LONDON, July 26.—The allied supreme council will meet in Paris, Aug. 4, according to an official announcement this morning. It is understood that the session will be brief, dealing only with the Silesian question.

Marquis Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs, and A. J. Balfour, lord president of the council, will represent Great Britain, as it is improbable Prime Minister Lloyd George, will be able to leave London.

The British experts who will examine the Silesian question before the council meeting already have left for Paris.

It is understood Mr. Harvey will attend the supreme council session in an advisory and unofficial capacity.

The call for this meeting of the supreme council comprises to a degree the differences between Great Britain and France over the procedure to be adopted in connection with Upper Silesia, where the situation, owing to continued German and Polish rivalries in the disputed areas, is said to be increasingly threatening. The action was forecast in a dispatch from Paris Monday night indicating that Great Britain had agreed to a meeting of the supreme council Aug. 4 and a preliminary examination into the Upper Silesian problem by a committee of experts, as France had desired. There are said to be divergences between the two governments, however, over the sending of reinforcements to Upper Silesia. France, considering this action necessary and Great Britain taking the opposite view.

MAURETANIA FLAMES CONQUERED AFTER 12-HOUR BATTLE

INTERIOR OF GREAT LINER BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE AND WATER.

WILL TRANSFER PASSENGERS TO OTHER STEAMSHIPS

Damage Not as Great as First Feared But Time Required For Repair.

By Associated Press.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 26.—After a battle lasting more than 12 hours the flames on board the Cunarder Mauretania, which broke out as she was lying at pier here yesterday afternoon, were finally conquered by the firemen early today but not before the interior of the mammoth liner presented a sorry spectacle from fire and water.

The damage is not so extensive as was feared at first, but it is serious enough and considerable time will be required to put the big vessel into shape. Meanwhile the passengers, booked to sail on the Mauretania will be transferred to other ships. No estimate of the damage in money is possible as yet.

The fire originated in a first class cabin on the starboard side of the deck, and so cabins on that deck, extending across the ship and forward of the engine room bulkhead for 80 feet, were destroyed. The flooring of the main saloon on the D deck was badly burned and buckled.

The priceless carved wood panelling in the saloon, for which the Mauretania was famous, is untouched except for a few scorched places.

Other parts of the ship were badly damaged by water.

Four firemen were sent to a hospital for treatment after inhaling smoke.

MEETS LODGE AT TOP OF MOUNT PROSPECT

LANCASTER, N. H., July 26.—President Harding will be far from the maddening crowd when he comes to the summer home of Secretary Weeks here next week. The Weeks lodge is at the top of Mount Prospect, 2,000 feet above sea level and 1,240 feet higher than this bustling little border town. It commands a view of all the principal peaks of the White mountains, and also of the Connecticut river with its right bank in New Hampshire and Vermont on its left. The view from the observatory which Secretary Weeks has set up near his lodge has been declared to be the most satisfactory in all the mountain country.

It will be no new scene to the president, however, as a fellow senator with Mr. Weeks, was a member of a party that came here from Washington several years ago and enjoyed a stay at the Mount Prospect lodge. In 1918 he came here again as a chautauqua lecturer and renewed his acquaintance with the peaks, Notches and Intervales.

At Secretary Weeks' place the president will have a change from the outdoor camp life which marked his last week-end. Instead he will find a lodge equipped at much expense to make for the comfort of its master and guests. Building his summer home in the town where he was born, Mr. Weeks set up a two-story structure atop the mountain, with seven chambers, dining room and kitchen on the first floor and on the second one large room with two fireplaces and four balconies.

He owns the whole mountain, except for a single estate on the east slope where former Governor Samuel

W. McCall of Massachusetts has his summer home. Up the side of the mountain the secretary built a modern road that gives ready access from the town, three miles distant, to his lodge. It is not only a summer place, but a farm center, the caretaker of the estate supervising dairy and farming operations at the base of the mountain on a large scale.

RAILROADS SUPPLY PLENTY GRAIN CARS

Greater Part of Panhandle Able to Move Crop Promptly, Railroads Report.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, July 26.—Grain growers of the Panhandle country in Texas, which produces most of the state's grain crop, in most sections are being supplied with a sufficient number of cars to move their products, although a shortage is reported in some centers, according to railroad officials. Undelayed movement of cars, however, is necessary for keeping up the supply, they said.

Railroads in the Texas grain belt are supplying all the cars ordered for the transportation of grain except in a few instances. Clarence E. Gilmore, of the state railroad commission, said: "The Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe, Missouri, Kansas & Texas and Texas & Pacific railroads, Mr. Gilmore said, are furnishing all cars ordered. Some of the smaller lines that depend upon the larger roads for their cars have a serious shortage, he said.

The railroad commission has promised to help procure the necessary cars and will insist that connecting carriers unload and return empty grain cars without delay.

Although the wheat movement is heavy on all the railroads in the vicinity of Wichita Falls, there is no danger of the roads being swamped and unable to supply all necessary cars, officials here said. The Fort Worth & Denver City railroad has about 400 cars available for this service at needed points.

The farmers and grain dealers of Hale county, of which Plainview is the principal market center, have been unable to secure a sufficient number of cars to move the 1921 grain crop as fast as desired, it was reported. It was estimated that 30 cars will be needed daily in Plainview for 30 days and from 15 to 20 cars for 80 days thereafter.

The wheat crop will be closely followed by a big maize and kafir crop which will demand from 16 to 20 cars daily for 90 to 120 days. Figures compiled by the Plainview grain exchange show that approximately 17.5 per cent of the 1921 crop has been moved in the first 20 days of harvest, or to July 10.

Heavy rains in West Texas have made the prospects good for unusually large maize and kafir crops, of which a large acreage was planted. Considerable Sudan grass, fetterite, higeria, cane and broom corn are being planted, farm bureau report.

FIRE MONDAY NIGHT ALMOST ENTIRELY DESTROYS KEMP CITY

OIL FIELD COMMUNITY IN K. M. A. DISTRICT PRACTICALLY WIPED OUT.

ONLY TWO BUILDINGS REMAIN—LOSS IS $15,000

Occupants of Buildings Receive Ample Warning And All Escape Without Injury.

Kemp City, oil field community of the K. M. A. field, was practically wiped out by fire Monday night, all out of two of the town's frame structures being destroyed.

No one was injured in the fire, all occupants of the buildings having ample warning. The loss is estimated at $15,000, with little insurance. The fire started about midnight, its exact origin being unknown.

Buildings destroyed included those occupied by the restaurant, barber shop, drug store, two groceries, a boarding house, garage and the ice house. A garage and an empty shack are the only remaining structures.

Kemp City came into being during the days of the K. M. A. boom, and was a very busy town. The shutting down of operations in the oil fields had depleted its population and caused removal of some of the buildings.

VARIETY OF TOPICS DISCUSSED TUESDAY BY UNIVERSITY CLUB

The American Legion, protective tariff and Ku Klux Klan were chief among the topics discussed at the regular weekly meeting of the University club in the Kemp hotel Tuesday night. The first two were discussed briefly by Maj. Joe Hatchitt and the last by Attorney Fred K. Spurlock and J. G. S. Howard.

Major Hatchitt pointed out the object of the American Legion, stating that it was to foster and encourage the spirit of obligation on the part of the citizen to the government, rather than the obligation of the government to its citizens. He also stated that the present protective tariff was one of the greatest menaces to the country today.

When called upon for a few words, Attorney Spurlock denounced the Ku Klux Klan in no uncertain terms, and said that it was up to members of the University club and such clubs to try to wipe it out.

Mr. Howard spoke voluntarily on the subject and stated that if the Klan is to be wiped out it is up to the people to get at the cause and wipe several of the unscrupulous laws, which are made by a minority, off the statute books. Until that time the Klan will flourish and will continue to increase in leaps and bounds, he said.

Dr. Curtis Lusser of Dallas spoke a few words on the work of the University club in Dallas.

MISSISSIPPI AND DAVIS HOSTENESS MONDAY PICNIC

Miss Rosa May Scott and Miss Helen Lewis were hostesses at a picnic and watermelon feast in Iowa Park Monday evening honoring Misses Sue King of Dallas, Miss Davis' guest, and Miss Vivian Chambers of Denton, guest of Miss Burch Murphy.

The watermelon feast was enjoyed there and they later returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge here for further entertainment. Those who enjoyed the picnic included Mrs. Rutledge, Misses Chambers, King, Murphy, Dorothy Ellis, Thelma Fern, Ruth Williamson, Jac King, Anna Keevil, Blanche Clark, Inez King, Leola Clark, Mary Spert Clark, Rosa May Scott and Helen Davis. # SEVERAL OPTIMISTIC FACTORS EVIDENT IN OIL SITUATION

BROKERS UNABLE TO FILL ALL ORDERS FOR CRUDE, EVEN AT PREMIUM.

OUTPUT OF REFINERS SOLD FOR WEEKS AHEAD

Further Decrease in Production Expected When Let-Up in Drilling Makes Itself Felt.

Here is the situation in the oil business in Wichita Falls today:

Brokers have orders for hundreds of thousands of barrels of crude at a considerable premium over posted prices which they are unable to fill. The refineries have their outputs sold for several weeks to come and some of them have orders that will keep them busy well into September, with many inquiries for both gasoline and fuel oil being received daily. Production in North Texas which has already shown considerable decrease, can in a few weeks be expected to show a heavy decrease when the effect of the let up in drilling begins to be felt.

While some oil men are still indulging in talk of a lower price for crude, there is a general feeling that the bottom has been reached and that there is good reason for viewing the situation with some optimism.

The contracts made with the sub-contractors who will pave the highway through Iowa Park and Electra were approved late Monday evening by the commissioners court. Bonds of both the contractors were approved and filed.

The McCollum Construction company of Fort Worth will pave approximately three miles of road through Electra and to the Wilbarger county line and G. E. Zimmerman, local contractor, received the contract for the pavement of the streets through Iowa Park, practically the same distance.

It is understood that the contractor will also pave several more streets in each of the towns while the machinery is set. According to the contract both jobs are to be completed by Dec. 1.

TOUSSAINT DEFENSE TO PLEAD INSANITY IN MURDER TRIAL

CASE OF YOUTH CHARGED WITH PATRICIDE TO COME UP FOR TRIAL WEDNESDAY.

EXPECT LEGAL CONTEST TO BE HARD FOUGHT ONE

State Will Ask For Extreme Penalty Special Verdict of 200 is Summoned For Jury.

Will Henry J. Toussaint hang for the murder of his father, Otto H. Toussaint, or will he be sent to psychopathic institution as in the case of Harry K. Thaw?

Was it a heart fatally bent upon mischief or a deranged mind that carried the accused, armed with a .32 Colt's automatic, to Avenue G and Monroe street on the night of February 8, 1921?

These are the two vital questions that will be carried to the jury by the defense and the prosecution, when the case comes to trial. One of the questions will be absolutely within the province of the jury to decide. The case will be called for trial Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock when the task of selecting twelve men from a special venire of two hundred will begin. Much preparation has been made by both sides and the entire affair gives evidence of a keen legal battle with some of the state's best criminal attorneys participating.

It is reliably understood that the state will not accept a jurymen who has conscientious scruples about the infliction of the death penalty when the nature of the crime warrants it, as the state will without a doubt ask for the extreme penalty.

The murder trial will be an entirely different one than those that have been tried in the local district courts. There will be no contest waged with reference to the identity of the man who shot and killed O. H. Toussaint. It is known that the defendant made a complete written confession which will be admitted, it is believed, without objection on the part of the defense.

After a brief submission of the corpus delicti, the body of the crime and the admission of the confession, the trial will simmer down to the vital question of "Was it a heart fatally bent upon mischief, prompted by a desire for earthly goods of a deranged mind, systematic in all ways, that carried the accused, armed with a .32 Colt's automatic, to Avenue G and Monroe streets on the night of February 8, 1921?"

BODY OF WICHITAN KILLED IN FRANCE EXPECTED TUESDAY

The body of Charles E. Hope, who was killed in action while in a front line trench in France, October 19, 1918, is expected to arrive in the city on Tuesday night from Little Rock, Ark.

It was recently brought to the United States with a large number of other soldier dead and was immediately started for Wichita Falls.

A telegram received Monday by H. M. Hope, father of the soldier, from the letter in which was known as Chaplain Albert J. Evans of Little Rock contained the information that the body left the latter point Monday evening. It will arrive here over the Katy from Dallas and will be taken to the Hope home, Second and Second streets. Funeral services will be held later Wednesday afternoon and counts will be in charge of Rev. J. E. Powers.

Mr. Hope lived in Wichita Falls for some time prior to his enlistment for Charles E. Hope was killed shortly after noon on October 19, 1918, according to a letter received by a brother, E. S. Hope, from Capt. William E. Longhart, Battery E, 22nd Field Artillery, A. E. F. The communication was written December 22, 1918, at Gosholm, Germany, and said in part: "Shortly after noon of October 19 your brother was serving as a communication sergeant during the barrage which we were firing for our own infantry. He was hit by a stray shell from a German 4.2 field piece. The Germans had been shelling very heavily a small town about a thousand yards from our battery, but at no time were any of our men in danger of that fire when, without warning, this one and only shell went astray and landed about 10 yards in front of the gun. Your brother was serving. A very large fragment of the shell struck him and he, along with two other men of the gun crew, was instantly killed. I personally went to the spot a few seconds after the accident and found your brother dead. The noise of our guns made it impossible to hear the usual whistle of the shells." The accident took place, according to the letter in which was known as Chaplain Albert J. Evans of Little Rock, at a short distance from Headquarters, which was a pivot point for the German retreat in progress at that time.

The body was buried in France, but later was exhumed and sent to this country. Mr. Hope lived in Wichita Falls for some time prior to his enlistment for Charles E. WITNESSES RAISE DOUBT OF IDENTITY IN ROBBERY TRIAL

After introducing one witness, Charles M. Dodgen Tuesday morning, the defense in the case of the State of Texas vs. Wiley Smith, charged with robbery with firearms, rested its case and the state closed. Judge H. F. Welton charged the jury with the law in the case at 11 o'clock and it was stated that arguments to the jury would be closed by 3:30 o'clock.

C. M. Dodgen took the stand and testified that Gerald Isler was a smaller man than the defendant; this evidence was presented to the jury following the testimony of Virgil Grissom who stated Monday afternoon that he could not positively identify the defendant as the man who held him up at the rear of his residence on the night of June 8, but stated that he believed at the time that the man was smaller in stature than the defendant.

Mrs. Grissom, wife of the man alleged to have been robbed, stated that she recognized the voice as that of Smith's when the alleged robber called to her to keep quiet when she appeared on the back porch and saw her husband being held up.

Taking of testimony was begun at 3:15 o'clock Monday afternoon in the 20th District court with Grissom and his wife as the first witnesses. They were followed by city officers who told of the arrest and the finding of 11 one-dollar bills and a five-dollar bill on the person of later who, it is alleged, was a partner of Smith's in the hold up.

J. O'Daniels, night clerk at the Argonne, testified that when later came into the hotel about 11 o'clock on the night of the robbery that the latter handed him a pearl-handled revolver with the remark, "If anything happens, I have been in my room all night." The witness stated that he was not positive whether the defendant on trial heard the remarks of later.

The chief deputy of the sheriff's office stated that when the defendant was placed in the county jail that an effort was made to get two marked coins that were introduced in evidence. The marked coins, a nicked half dollar and a foreign piece of money which, it is alleged, were taken out of a coat in the room occupied by the defendant, were identified by Grissom, the man who was held up.

George Hawkins, a member of the city police force, was the last witness of the state. He took the stand in order to fill out the missing link of the testimony with reference to the marked coins and how they came into the court room.

LAUNDRY MARKS ON CLOTHING RESULT IN P. B. M. THEFT ARRESTS

All but $600 worth of the merchandise stolen last Tuesday night from the P. B. M. company of this city has been recovered, according to reports of the store officials, who finished a check of the property Tuesday morning. A number of costly silk undershirts are said to be missing.

The recovery of the stolen booty was made Monday afternoon after it had been found under the Nunn Electric company warehouse on Pecan street. Two small boys, Fred and J. P. Dea, 162 Elm street, accidentally stumbled onto it while playing about the building. They immediately communicated with their father, J. M. Dea, who reported the discovery to city detective John Boone and Jack Miller.

Two negro men and a negro woman, said to have been employed at one time or other in the P. B. M. store, are now held in the city jail awaiting further developments in the case. They are alleged to have confessed to their part in the burglary but no charges have as yet been filed against them, officials awaiting the results of a search for another negro who is said to have engineered the affair.

Laundry marks on some old clothing found with the P. B. M. goods proved to be valuable clues to the two detectives and it was these which really led to the negro arrests.

The reward of ten per cent of the value of all goods recovered, which was offered by the P. B. M. officials, will be divided between the two Dea boys, police officials intimated Tuesday morning. A further reward of $50 each for arrest and conviction in the case has also been offered by the company.

By HENRY W. KINNEY United Press Staff Correspondent. TOKIO. (By Mail).—As a result of the tremendous number of graft scandals which have come to the light in Japan and her colonies during the past few months, a great cry for reform in official circles is being heard.

While some of the grafters are being brought to trial, including no less than 73 in the Tokyo municipality, bribery cases alone, among them numerous assembly men and members of the diet, it appears that some of the very biggest fry, men holding the most treasured decorations in the gift of the empire, such as are involved in the South Manchuria Railway and the Kwantung Province opium cases, will probably be let go by merely resigning. It is held that the prestige of the empire would suffer too much should such illustrious persons be placed behind the bars. The same rule holds here as in the United States and other countries.

Old Count Okuma, who never misses any sensations, has come forth with a public statement in which he deplores the loose morals of public officials of today, and claims that it is a sad sign of the time that much of the serious business of the state is being conducted in "getch" houses. The Kenseikai, or opposition party, is also greatly shocked.

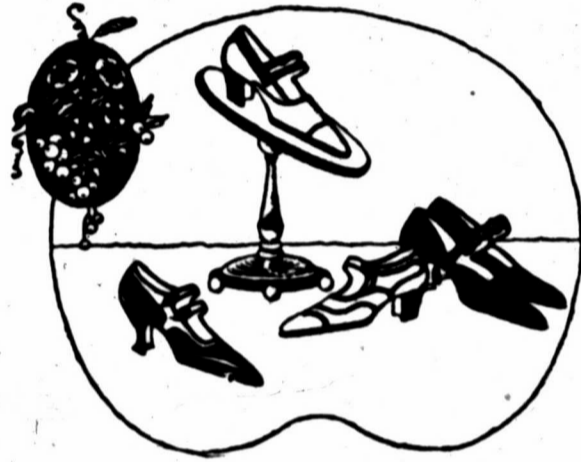

As a matter of fact, the public is hardly interested at all in the great scandals, sensational though they are. Graft is not regarded as heinous an offense here as it is elsewhere, and the common people look upon it much as on a necessary evil. In many cases the money stolen from the government appears to find its way to the coffers of the political parties, and even the newspapers which are the loudest in their demand that the grafters be ousted, admit that nothing much will be gained as long as they are generally understood to be as morally rotten as the other.

Maybe Worst Part Of Hot Weather Is Past—Yes, Maybe

At this rate, Wichitans won't need to chase themselves away to escape hot weather. For the past week, the mercury hasn't once attained the 100-degree mark, and it has been sticking around 90 for a good part of the time, dropping down to 80 and below during the night.

A little cover came in handy Monday night, which was one of the coolest in some time.

Ordinarily, Wichita Falls has her hottest weather in July. August usually brings some relief from the heat. Which may mean that the worst of summer is past for Wichitans.

Discrepancy In Vote Count Says New Police Chief

Police Chief R. L. Morgan thinks that there is a discrepancy in the election for police commissioner. Not that J. E. Pitts wasn't fairly elected, however.

On the face of the returns, Mr. Pitts got 964 votes. Since election day, no less than 1,287 people have applied to Mr. Morgan for jobs. And every one of them has declared that he voted for Pitts.

"There's something wrong somewhere," says the chief.

Unless some means can be found to overcome this objection it is not likely that the measure will receive consideration at the hands of congress, especially in view of the opposition to it of organized labor and the farmers of the country.

The Housewife's Economy Calendar

HOUSEWIVES used to dream of a time when co-operative housekeeping would be an established fact, to solve forever the petty annoyances of housekeeping in small groups. But this bubble has been exploded. We have to accept the probability, whether we like the arrangement or not, that the majority of families will still continue to live and eat and cook and wash clothes and mend and grow up under their own roofs.

However, it has proved helpful and quite workable sometimes to establish co-operative dining-rooms for the summer. You wouldn't like it all the year round, having to go out three times a day for your meals, and you wouldn't like not having the privacy of your own dining-room, or the thought of having to eat just what your next-door neighbors eat three times a day right through the year.

In one instance three large related families all decided to spend the summer in the same place. There was Mr. Jones and Mrs. Jones and the six little Joneses and Mr. Jones's brother's wife's sister, Mrs. Brown and her four children, and Mrs. Brown's unmarried sister, and Mrs. Jones's brother and Mr. Jones's maiden aunt. Or at least it was something like that—sixteen people in all not counting nurse-maids and other servants. Someone had to take in Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Brown's sister and Mrs. Jones's brother anyway. Then it occurred to the maiden aunt, who was young enough to be a more enterprising housewife than any of her married relations, that she would like to take charge of the dining-room. She was fond of planning and she had some theories about the proper way of cooking children's meals that she didn't want to air but would enjoy putting into practice.

She arranged to take over the dining-room and kitchen of the largest of the cottages in the group. She hired a cook and a college student in search of a summer's job and that constituted her staff of assistants. But really it is not a co-operative arrangement, though this was suggested. The simply charges so much a person for board and pockets what earnings she has over her expenses. So far the Browns and Joneses and their families are sending less than they usually do for servants and food, and Miss Jones is entirely satisfied with her earnings.

But these oracles do not look so favorably as do the majority upon a dream of killing a deer. That they assert, is a sign that the dreamer will be bounded by backbiters and slanderers. A considerable party of the mystics say that to dream of seeing a deer means gain for the dreamer and to see many deer, or to kill one, or to see a single deer roaming in the woods, means an inheritance coming from an aged person and triumph over weak and timid enemies.

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS: WHAT THEY MEAN

DID YOU DREAM OF DEER? A DEER seen in a dream is a warning of a great danger to which the dreamer will soon be exposed.

On the contrary some of the oracles assert that to dream of a deer is a sure sign of good news on the way and to dream of killing such an animal is a sign that you will inherit an estate before long. Others say—"Enemies will be vanquished and an inheritance won if you dream of killing a deer." All the oracles, except the gloomy one first mentioned, see in a dream of a deer a prophecy of good news for the dreamer.

One set of mystic interpreters assert that a dream of seeing a deer, besides being a good omen in a general sense, is especially significant of deep and sincere friendship for the unmarried and of much happiness in store for the married.

But these oracles do not look so favorably as do the majority upon a dream of killing a deer. That they assert, is a sign that the dreamer will be bounded by backbiters and slanderers. ## DEMPEY'S SOLILOQUY.

How can a dove endure 'em,
These gray days fixed by Fate,
Where there's no more to be Within Tex Rickard's gate?

Where fifty bucks a game
To see my bold advance,
Who is there to enter 'em
Since Carp sailed back to France?

Give ear unto my story,
Who've found in bitter mood
Alone now in my glory,
A block to be too good.

PROPER TEMPERAMENT.

"After all the discussion that has gone back and forth about certain temperaments in certain sports," writes L. H. G., "can you outline what you consider the best temperament for successful competition?"

Since different sports call to some extent for different temperaments only the broader essentials can be considered. As for instance:

1. Determination. The determined entry is never taken lightly.
2. Ability to accept bad luck as part of the game without permitting wrath or self pity to break through.
3. Ability to concentrate upon the main job at hand, the next play to make, without indulging yourself in any vain regrets for past mistakes.
4. Not much imagination and not too little.
5. Ability to throw off words.

There are other ingredients, but possession of above will carry one a long way in the direction of the promised land.

OPPOSITE TYPES.

There are Tilden and Johnston, who are calm and inclined to be nervous the other leaning more to a combination of grim serenity. But both have an undetermined determination to go there, even against rough odds. Johnston merely has a greater amount of the essential ingredients where temperament is concerned.

There are Hutchison and Ray—one a bundle of quivering nerves and jumping pith—the other as serene and stolid as a pine tree on a windless day. Yet Hutchison's nervous energy drives him forward, he is a determined battler to the finish and by experience he has learned enough to take the break as it falls upon him.

The three greatest golfing temperaments America ever gave the game belong to Tilden, Johnston and Johnston, who among them won a British championship, eight American amateur championships and two open championships. All three were members of the determined, unflinching type, capable of an enduring concentration, balance and poise.

MENTAL POISE.

When a competitor is tossed off his balance physically he is out of the play. When he permits his mental balance to be upset he is on the way to an even greater fall. It is in this section of the argument that the most important factor is considered. Leaving out the few lucky exceptions, his mental balance under fire can only be developed in the same way. We know at least four star contributors to the headlines, so far as physical excellence goes, who have never won a championship merely because they have never made any attempt to erect a mental balance and poise needed to keep them upon an unswerving line. They have never studied their own nerves, or else their nerves have blurred their better judgment.

THE ENTENDED OPPOSITE SEX.

You will find that Misses Leitch and Stirling, that Miss Lenglen and Mrs. Max Sutton Bundy all have unusually well-balanced temperaments in their various fields of competition.

They are all blessed with vast determination and they are not likely to become disconcerted over a bit of unfruitful luck.

No one of the four is beset with any fluttering nerves and you will never find any one of the four loafing or pulling up because she happens to be in front.

These four in particular have shown that a woman can carry a winning temperament and temperament that looks the vital spark is worth a quiet as highly wrought up because upon the average they go in more for fun than glory, more for play than for triumph.

Dempey and Carpenter, opposites in many ways, are temperamentally well suited for their profession. Willard would through a weakening mixture of timidity and conceit. No temperament that looks the vital spark is worth a dime. Willard, plus the flame of battle, would have been unbeatable for a decade.

SEARCH FOR MARRIED MINISTER WHO ELOPED WITH 16-YEAR-OLD GIRL

OMAHA, Neb., July 26.—Authorities today continued the search for the Rev. W. G. Harrell, 59, and a grandfather, pastor of a church in Homer, Neb., who is alleged to have eloped with Hazel Riley, 16, a farmer's daughter, after she had asked him to help her find work. The girl was returned to her father by a deputy state sheriff today. She said she had lived at the minister's home for several months and had come to love him.

"When I asked him to take me away," she told officials, "he said he would if it were for an honorable cause."

They are alleged to have left last Tuesday. Harrell is said to have left the girl at Hooper, Neb., rejoined his wife who had been ill in an Omaha hospital, and left for the south in an automobile.

"He would kiss me and tell me he liked me awfully well," Hazel told a deputy state sheriff last night. "I flat came to love him on our way home from a revival meeting several months ago."

She declared she had spent a week with Harrell, traveling in an automobile. She said they spent one night in the car near Fremont. On another night she said they stayed in a hotel in Omaha. Mrs. Harrell was ill in a hospital at Omaha, but he did not go near her, the deputy sheriff said the girl told him.

GERMANS PREPARING TO RE-OPEN STEAMSHIP LINE

WASHINGTON, July 26.—German steamship interests are preparing to re-enter the service between the Pacific coast of Mexico and Central and South American ports, in which they were an important factor before the war, according to a consular dispatch to the commerce department today from Salina Cruz, Mexico.

An agent for a German line, the dispatch said, is now in Salina Cruz, investigating the practicability of reopening service between Mexican ports and the Panama canal, and is to visit the more northern ports of Mexico, particularly Manzanillo, Mazatlan and Guaymas.

Positions That Pay Well, and Are Always To Be Had

The perfecting of typesetting keyboards has brought new and unusual opportunities in the printing business, the business that gives development to great minds.

Positions of this kind always have paid well and perhaps always will, and doubtless they will always be plentiful, because the printing business expands as civilization develops. Anybody who could learn to operate a typewriter can learn to operate a typesetting machine. If you want to learn how to do the work of a monotype machinist; if you want to learn to do the work of an Intertype or Linotype machinist; if you want to learn to operate any of these machines; if you want to learn the work of the business office—if you want to get into a work that will always pay you well, and if you can spare three to four months for preparation, write for Prospectus to American Publishers' and Southern Publishers'

BUGHOUSE FABLES

Old John Bull Found The Going Rough In Sporting World During Past Year

By CHAS. McCANN,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, July 26.—English sport is beginning to pick itself up, brush off its clothes, feel its nose tenderly and look around to see if the fight's really over.

It has been just one thing after another all summer for England's international sports teams.

Jack Hutchison won the open golf, the Meadowbrook team came across and took back its cup which England lifted in 1916. Tilden successfully withstood a fierce, if brief, attack on his title as tennis champion and last, and worst, an Australian team continued its devastating lessons in cricket.

The trouble started last autumn, when the all-England cricket team went out to Australia, to break a seven-year hiatus in the semi-annual matches and lost five straight games to a lot of red-faced young men with hands like hams, who had adapted the English national game and made it for them.

The amateur golf championship was weathered successfully. It furnished a lot of thrills, and a lot of groans from people who couldn't figure how any man with never enough to wear the golf suits some of the Americans endured could possibly fall in a game that consisted only in hitting a little white ball about.

And when a middle-aged gentleman from the local course at Hovlake blooded about over a week in a packing play and emerged amateur champion, it took quite a time for everyone to realize what had happened.

The open golf was a victory for the pessimists. Jack Hutchison, a native of the tough St. Andrews course, took back the cup to Chicago.

American Win Polo.
Then polo, where the American team rode circles around the English four and won two straight games for the series.

Tilden had a hard time in the challenge round of the all-overs tennis championships at Wimbledon, but he came out victorious in five sets, after dropping the first two.

Last of cricket, Australia again trimmed the English team in three straight games.

It has been a bad year, but it has had its compensations and has shown that English sport, though ailing, is not dead. It has done nothing else, the season in sport has shown that Englishmen are still capable of the four and a half years during which any young Englishman who went in the army or navy was leaving most of his time in a corner of the room every night when he went to bed.

The outstanding players in all international sports this summer, the men who put up the stiffest fights and won or lost laughingly, were either absolute boys or men who in the world of sport could be called "old."

The men also were those who usually shun the chaps of four or five years' experience just reaching blooded about over a week in a packing play and emerged amateur champion, it took quite a time for everyone to realize what had happened.

had won the first two sets handily when experience stepped in and tipped the scales Tilden's way.

The newspapers are still caricaturing English sports and suggesting international croquet and ping pong matches, so that England will have a chance to even up; but nobody is really worrying for they see ahead, even if they don't say so, new Yarbans and Rays and Leslie Cheapes leaping over the side of the cradle and calling for beef and beer.

Business Is Done With Credits

Credit Is Based on Confidence Confidence Is Built on Facts

When a merchant gets an order for a bill of goods he agrees to ship and render a bill, only if the buyer has a satisfactory commercial rating. Confidence in his ability and will to pay is inspired because facts have given the buyer a standing in the business world.

Why not decide your advertising contracts in the same way?

The Audit Bureau of Circulation is a statistical organization, organized to determine the facts about newspapers. It sends an auditor into the office of each member and he investigates the records.

He checks the net paid circulation.
He finds out how subscribers were secured.
He looks into the distribution of the paper.

The report then sent out from the Bureau's office is used by advertisers to determine the paper's suitability for carrying a campaign.

You can tell the complete actual circulation
Why people buy the paper.
What people read it.

The fact that a paper joins the A. B. C. means it has no secrets to withhold. All the cards are there for a showdown. A. B. C. reports are now demanded by most advertisers both as an evidence of good faith and as the most reliable statement of a paper's condition.

The Times is a member of the A. B. C.

Examine our A. B. C. report and know who will read your message. These are on file in our office, and we shall be glad to submit a copy if you desire.

NO NEW PAVING TO BE STARTED UNTIL CONDITIONS IMPROVE

COUNCIL AGREES TO WAIT AT LEAST SIX MONTHS ON SUCH IMPROVEMENTS.

FIGHT FOR REMOVAL OF SQUATTERS TO BE RENEWED

New Regulations For Eighth Street Traffic Proposed—No Action Taken on Tax Rate.

No further paving work will be undertaken by the city for about six months, it was virtually decided by the city council Monday night when members concurred in the suggestion of Councilman Curlee that it would be best to delay all new projects until prices come down.

This action will not affect Indiana, Ohio, Eighth, Fillmore or other projects for which contracts have been let. The city's effort to eliminate "squatters" in the river front district will be renewed shortly, it was decided Monday night, following presentation of a petition by residents of that section, asking that Front street be opened and graded. Front street is now largely occupied by ramshackle houses erected during the boom, and occupants of which are said to be openly defying the city or anybody else to move them.

A previous move on the city's part, inaugurated last winter, was held up because it became apparent that to enforce the removal order would work a serious handicap, in cold weather, upon the squatters.

The council received the report of the joint hospital committee, recommending purchase of certain portions of the Methodist hospital equipment. This report was to be considered Tuesday afternoon at a joint session with the county commissioners.

Eighth Street Traffic. Police Commissioner Pitts brought several matters before the council, in connection with his department, but the other aldermen seemed disposed to let him handle them as he deemed best. Mr. Pitts' suggestions included putting the desk sergeants under bond, establishing lights in downtown alleys, providing new rules for Eighth street west of Scott so as to relieve the congestion there and erecting of speed limit signs at points where the highways enter the city limits.

Members of the council agreed that something should be done to regulate Eighth street traffic, and the talk of widening the street west of Scott was revived. It is probable that a rule will be adopted providing that cars be ranked, instead of parked, west of Scott. At present, when cars are parked on both sides of the street, it is almost impossible for two machines to pass each other in the remaining space.

Mr. Pitts brought up another matter

A druggist who has successfully followed his profession for 55 years, says without hesitancy that "Sweet Dreams" is certainly a masterpiece.

which at first appeared to be serious, but which members of the council were inclined to think later was not. Mr. Pitts reported that a quantity of recovered stolen property, including two Ford cars, had been removed from the city hall just prior to his taking office. Other members of the council voiced the opinion that this had been done by persons who considered themselves responsible for the property, but agreed that an inquiry should be made.

A request presented by W. H. Redmond for a crossing at the junction of McCreger, Bridwell and Laurel streets was referred to the city engineer for investigation and report.

Tax Rate Not Considered. A. L. Ruolo, on behalf of citizens in the vicinity of Lee and Front streets, renewed the request for water service, and was given a tentative promise of relief as soon as the pipes are available.

Revision of assessments of the two oil well supply companies was recommended by Assessor H. J. Anderson, who said that the high figures had been fixed because of the attitude taken by the representatives of the companies, in refusing to furnish information to the council.

H. Hines' request for a filling station permit at the corner of Sixteenth and Lamar was granted, subject to the usual conditions.

August 15 was set as the date for the paving hearing for one block of paving on Fillmore.

The 1921 tax rate did not come up for consideration Monday night.

A proposition from L. E. Whitman, paving contractor, putting into effect the old agreement for paving north Indiana, was adopted by the council, it being shown that practically all property owners had signed, and that the state paving law could be invoked for the remainder.

WRONG PRISONER IS FREED BY DEPUTY, LATER RECAPTURED

Babe Palmer, an inmate of the county jail for the past month and a half, had been a fugitive from justice, took advantage of an opportunity which was granted him late Monday evening when a deputy sheriff turned him out of jail by mistake.

Judge H. F. Weidon granted Paul Bergfeldt, charged with arson, a $1,000 bail bond in order to have him transferred to the hospital for treatment. The bond was perfected and a deputy sheriff was sent to release the prisoner. Instead of releasing Bergfeldt, Palmer was released. The latter was taken to the hospital where he made his escape.

The prisoner was discovered shortly after the patient at the hospital was missed, and a search for the missing man was begun. Palmer was recaptured later in the evening about five miles from the city along the river and returned to the county jail.

Palmer is alleged to have broken jail at Graham early in the year, where he was being held on a charge of car theft. He was apprehended by Texas rangers and Charles Bebout here the early part of June.

KELL RELIEF PLAN MEETS FAVOR WITH CATTLEMEN MONDAY

The suggestion advanced recently by Frank Kell for providing relief for the cattlemen under a more beneficial plan than that previously framed by the government, received the hearty endorsement of the executive committee of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association at Fort Worth Monday when a meeting of the committee was held to consider the matter.

Mr. Kell was asked to accompany the cattlemen's committee to Washington and endeavor to secure adoption of the plan.

CELEBRATION AT ELIASVILLE TUESDAY, FOR FIRST TRAIN

The town of Eliasville, reached last Saturday by the Wichita Falls & Southern, was celebrating Tuesday the arrival of the first train from Wichita Falls. The train was expected to reach the present terminus of the Southern about noon.

Frank Kell, builder of the road, was Wichita Falls' official representative at Eliasville's celebration, and his address Tuesday afternoon was expected to be the principal feature of the occasion. A number of other Wichitans made the first trip.

From Eliasville, the road is being pushed rapidly southward toward Jimkurn, where it will connect with the road to Breckenridge and Ranger. It is scheduled to reach Jimkurn about Aug. 15.

DODSON KILLING USE OF CALOMEL

Says Drug Is Mercury and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.

Dodson is making a hard fight against calomel in the south. Every druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason, Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.

"Calomel" is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is necessarily guaranteed by every druggist. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't grip or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—adv

NORTH INDIANA MAY GET PAVING FIRST; SIGNING CONTRACTS

The north end of Indiana is not only to get paving, but it may win the race with the north end of Ohio for a connection with the county's highway. Most of the property owners on Indiana have signed contracts providing for paving under the original agreement with the council, and the contractor, L. E. Whitman, is ready to start work within a short time.

It was not certain Tuesday whether the Denver's suit against the city relative to the Ohio avenue paving would result in delaying the work on that street, but property owners are fearful that such will be the case. There has been considerable rivalry between Indiana and Ohio property owners to see which shall get paving first, as it is realized that the first street to be paved will gain something of an advantage over the other, in a business way.

There are ordinarily six or seven typhoons a year off the coast of Guaymas, Mexico.
