SCENE'S SCENE — The first signs of winter are well over a week old, and the contrast is evident between the wind-swept plains of the surrounding area and the much-used streets of the city. While the city streets are slowly being cleaned by the travel of various vehicles, the plains, traveled only by the small animals and an occassional human, remain unblemished. —Staff Photo

For Re-Election

County Officials Announce

Four incumbent county officials this week announced their intention to seek the Democratic nomination for re-election to their respective posts. The four are County Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams, County Clerk B. F. Cain, R. Donald Hicks, commissioner of Precinct 4 and Marcus Latham, commissioner of Precinct 2. Three of the officials will be seeking a third term of office while Hicks will be running for a fourth term. Two of the men were appointed to fill out unexpired terms of their predecesors.

Judge Williams, who resides at 308 West Eighth Street, will be seeking his third full term as county judge. Williams was appointed to the office upon the resignation of former Judge Don Zimmerman, who resigned that office in November of 1961. Williams served 1 year and 1 month of the unexpired term of Zimmerman. He was unopposed in 1962 when he ran for re-election, but in 1966, L. B. "Scat" Russell, a local school administrator, entered the race for the post. In a hotly contested race, Williams emerged the victor.

Cain, who will also be seeking his third term of office, was appointed in 1960 following the death of County Clerk Ralph Smith. Cain lives at 104 Elm Street.

Commissioner of Precinct 4, and a farmer who resides 20 miles north of Hereford, Hicks will be seeking a fourth 4-year term after taking office in 1955.

Commissioner of Precinct 2, and also a farmer, Latham will be seeking a third 4-year term to the office. Latham resides at 426 Western.

The Democratic primary will be held Saturday, May 2, 1970. Deadline for filing is 6 p. m. February 2. The four announced candidates were certified by the Democratic County Committee at a meeting Wednesday morning prior to the announcement. Other county officials are expected to file in the near future. Leo Witkowski is county Democratic chairman.

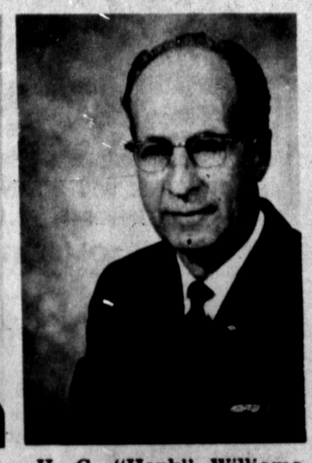

A check with Republican County Chairman Joe Shollenbarger revealed no activity to date on the local level. The Republican primary will also be held on May 2, with the deadline for filing the same as the Democrats. "As far as I know, no one is thinking of running on the local level," Shollenbarger said. "There will be district and state races, I'm sure," he said, "but we've had no activity on the locally."

Large Crowd Expected

Chamber Banquet Is Slated Friday

A crowd of about 750 persons is expected to be on hand Friday night for the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet at the Bull Barn at which Dr. Charles W. Jarvis, speaker and humorist from San Marcus, will be the featured guest.

The fete is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p. m. with the serving of the banquet meal which will be catered by G. D. Caison of the Caison House. Before and during dinner music will be provided by the 15-member Hereford High School Stage Band, under the direction of Ben Gollehon.

Invocation will be given by Father Simeon Heine and Virgil Marsh will serve as master of ceremonies.

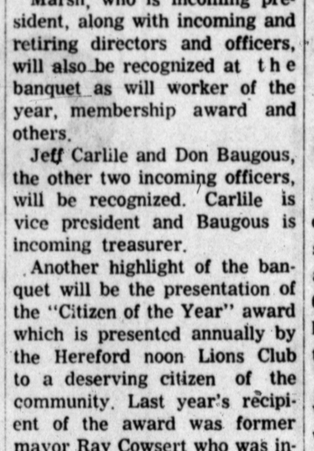

Marsh, who is incoming president, along with incoming and retiring directors and officers, will also be recognized at the banquet as will worker of the year, membership award and others.

Jeff Carlile and Don Baugous, the other two incoming officers, will be recognized. Carlile is vice president and Baugous is incoming treasurer.

Another highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of the "Citizen of the Year" award which is presented annually by the Hereford noon Lions Club to a deserving citizen of the community. Last year's recipient of the award was former mayor Ray Cowsert who was instrumental in the location of the Wilson and company meat processing plant now under construction. The award will be presented by Lions Club president, A. J. "Major" Schroeter.

Dr. Jarvis, who is nationally known as a fine humorist and speaker, will present the address for the banquet.

A former dentist, Dr. Jarvis is a native of Waxahachie. He attended Brady public schools before attending the University of Houston and Texas A & M University. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland and the University of Texas School of Dentistry. His professional affiliation includes Omicron Kappa Upsilon, National Dental Honor society.

Dr. Charles Jarvis

Dr. Jarvis began speaking professionally a few years ago after he had spoken at the San Marcus Chamber of Commerce banquet. Following his speech there, he was contacted time time again for dinner engagements that soon it became impossible for him to carry on his profession as a dentist.

Since the time of his first speech, Dr. Jarvis has been in such great demand as an after-dinner speaker that he averages over 150 addresses a year throughout the United States.

He has a national reputation as the most outstanding humorous speaker on the banquet and convention circuit with his talks that carry a spiritual message but are primarily entertaining. He hs considered by many as the Number One humorist in America today, and many local residents may remember Dr. Jarvis as he was the featured speaker at the annual Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association banquet last ycar.

Tickets will be on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office or from any of the directors, according to chamber officials. Tickets are priced at $4.50 each and persons who wish to call the chamber office to have some held for them may do so.

Livestock Show Set For January 29-31

The livestock situation gets its feet off the ground with a boom for 1970 when the annual Hereford Young Farmers Junior Livestock Show is held January 29-31 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

Plans have already been formed for the show which is expected to attract around 400 animals this year. Larry Dobbs and Lewis Block were named General superintendents for the show while division superintendents will include Jerry Don Glover, Tommy Sparkman and Layton Sawyer, steer; Dee Taylor and Joe Reinauer, barrow; and James Dobbs, Don Howard, Eugene Baldwin and Bob Hicks, lambs.

Entrants for the annual show are asked to get their entry forms in early. Entry deadline is prior to January 24, and all entries should be mailed to the Hereford Young Farmers Association, Box 1091, Hereford.

Several changes have been made in this year's show schedule and include three classes for steers, an upped minimum weight for all animals, a change in the steer's teeth rules.

In the past, there were only two classes for the steers--the light and the heavy classes--but this year a medium class has been added. This was done due to the large number of animals which were placed in the arena in the past, making judging very difficult.

Weights for all divisions have been upped from the previous minimum. The minimum weight for steers was hiked from 650 to 750 while barrow went from 180 to 190. For lamb entries, the minimum weight has been upped from 70 to 80 pounds.

Another change in the rules states that steers can have lost their milk teeth, but no signs of wear must appear on the permanent incisors. Rules of the past stated that milk teeth were required for the animals.

Judges for the event have been named wih the exception of the barrow division, which has not been confirmed. Ronnie Dennis, of Kress, was named judge for the lamb division while Dr. Woodward of Panhandle A & M was named steer judge.

Entry fees have been set at the rate of $4 per calf and $2 per barrow and lamb. The floor price will be set on all animals before the sale which is scheduled the final day of the show, Jan. 31.

Animals to be sold at the floor price which are not eligible to be auctioned will be moved from the barn to pens provided on the outside before the auction sale begins. Before an entry can be pulled from the sale or floor, the superintendent of the animal's particular division must be notified within one hour following judging of that animal.

Rules further state that all animals not pulled from the sale will sell and be delivered to the buyer, and that any infraction of rules will be subject to a $25 fine per animal.

Persons showing steers are reminded that steers entered in the show will be shrunk 3 per cent at the time of weigh in.

Additional rules state that each exhibitor entering livestock in the show gives permission for these animals to be used in the 4-H and FFA judging contest with the exception of the Grand Champion and the Reserve Grand Champion.

All barrows and lambs must be in place by 10 a. m. Wednewday, Jan. 28 and all animals will be tagged at the time they are weighed. All livestock entered in the show will have been owned by the exhibitor who under the supervised feeding of the County Agent or Vocational Agriculture teachers as follows: calves, at least six months; lambs, at least two months and pigs, at least two months.

Only two calves, two lambs and two pigs may be shown by one exhibitor in the Four County show with the same rule also applying to the county show.

Judging of barrows will be at 2 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 29 with lamb judging to be at 10 a. m. Friday, Jan. 30. Steers will be judged at 2 p.m. the same day as the lambs and on Saturday, Jan. 31, at 9 a. m., the FFA and 4-H judging contest will be held. The sale is scheduled to begin at 1 p. m. Saturday.

Booster Club To Begin Meetings

Ted Higgins, president of the Whiteface Booster Club, announced this week that the club will begin meeting again each Monday, effective Monday, Jan. 12.

Meeting time will be 7:30 p. m. every Monday night at the Community Center.

All previous meetings were cancelled following the 1969 football season due to the conflicts they caused, Higgins pointed out, but with spring sports just around the corner, it will be necessary to begin meeting again.

All members of the club are urged to attend the meetings.

Housing, Taxes Council Action

The increasing demand but insufficient number of adequate housing was discussed at length at the first meeting of the new year by the city commissioners, but no solution was arrived at here Monday night.

Commissioners, who have turned down several housing requests during the past few months, were faced with the issue that there is a more-than-ever immediate demand for housing in the Hereford area due to the opening of the Wilson & Company meat packing plant later this month.

At the present time, according to city manager Dudley Bayne, there are only a very small number of available homes for the incoming Wilson workers, and, with the addition of a proposed 180-unit mobile home project in north Hereford, the need is still present to house over 100 more families of the employees the company is expected to hire and transfer here.

According to city attorney Earnest Langley, with Wilson's people on the verge of moving in, and the possibility of other industrial businesses locating here in the future, the housing problem is far out of hand and the need for low-income housing projects is evident in addition to normal or average-income housing.

Though no definite answer was reached on the problem, the commissioners agreed to give the item a closer look.

In final action by the commission, a motion was presented by commissioner Roland Barton to have an election for a city sales tax sometime in the near future. Details and technicalities for the proposal will be worked out by Langley and announcement of an election for the tax, should there be one, will be given.

Cases Heard In District Court

Moses Diaz, 42, who was indicted by a Grand Jury for possession of marijuana, was given a 10-year probated sentence in 69th District Court which began hearing cases for the new year this week.

Diaz, who resides in the Buena Vista addition in west Hereford, was charged in connection with possession of marijuana which was found on his person and at his home last spring. He was arrested and 11 marijuana cigerettes were found on his person in addition to a salt shaker which was one-half full of marijuana.

He pled not guilty to the charge, but was found guilty by the jury and was assessed the probated sentence.

Another case involving marijuana which was heard, involved Daniel Perez, 19. Perez pled guilty to the charge of possession and was sentenced to six years and immediately gave notice for an appeal.

Perez was found guilty of the charge when he was arrested in November of 1968 and it was discovered he had a small tobacco can full of marijuana cigarettes along with one-half a cigarette in his pocket.

In another case, Ralph Terry Harper, 21, of Kentucky, was granted three year's probation for forgery and passing a worthless check. The charge stemmed from a $62 check in addition to several others that were written and worthless.

Weldon McDougal was granted a three-year probated sentence in District Court Tuesday in connection with forgery charges, and had just previously served a 30-day jail sentence and paid $200 and cost for impersonating a Texas Ranger. McDougal pled guilty to the charge of forgery and was then granted the probated sentence.

Cecil Messer, Hereford, was sentenced to three years in the Texas Department of Corrections for driving while intoxicated, second offense and another case heard this week was on Jorge Condarco, 20, for destruction of private property.

The charge on Condarco was reduced to a misdemeanor to which he pled guilty and was fined $50 and cost. Three other persons were involved in the same incident in which Condarco was charged, but were dismissed.

Condarco and the other three were accussed of breaking several car windows on Main St. in April of last year.

Sheriff's officials also reported that Ralph Pruitt, who was charged in the April 1968 hold-up of Jone's Texaco, and was later sentenced to ten years in the state penitentiary, had his appeal denied when the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the decision of the District Court.

Pruitt and a partner were charged in the armed robbery of the service station last year, and his partner did not attempt to appeal the case where Pruitt did.

Kervin Roper, chief deputy, reported that several additional cases are still set to be heard in District Court later this week.

House Destroyed In Monday Blaze

A Hereford family narrowly escaped with their lives in the early morning hours Monday when a fire was discovered in their house at 340 Ave. A.

The Charles Simon family and some visiting friends were in the house when the fire broke out around 2 a. m. A member of the family awoke around that time and discovered the house filled with smoke.

Four units of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department were summoned to the scene of the blaze, and when they arrived, they found fire blazing out of three of the windows.

Firemen fought the blaze for some time in the below-freezing temperatures before getting it under control. Damage to the contents and for replacement value was estimated at approximately $8,000 by fire officials.

The blaze was believed to have started somewhere under the floor in the kitchen area. Members of the family told firemen that they had retired about midnight and just before going to bed, they thought they smelled smoke.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Pasta With King Crab

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you like pasta as much as the tasters at our house, chances are you'll be delighted with this recipe. It rings a delicious change.

For this superb dish fettucine is cooked and drained; then butter, lemon juice and garlic are heated with canned or frozen Alaska king crab and mixed with the fettucine along with Parmesan cheese and parsley. So quick and easy to put together for a luncheon or supper dish for six pasta devotees. Or for a formal dinner, this Fettucine with Crab may be used as a first course; in this case the dish will serve 12. Fettucine with Crab is also a perfect dish to serve for a late-evening party supper after the movies, TV or theatre.

To complete the menu for any of these occasions, you need add only a crusty loaf of hot-Italian or French bread and a salad of tossed greens with an olive oil and wine vinegar dressing.

King crab, canned or frozen, is always tendon-free and needs only to be heated through. Its snowy-meat, edged in crimson, is both succulent and delicate.

Fettucine With Crab

2 cans (each 7½ ounces) king crab or 1 pound frozen king crab
2 packages (each 8 ounces) fettucine
¼ pound (1 stick) butter
Juice of one-half lemon
1 large clove garlic, crushed
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 tablespoons minced parsley
Extra grated Parmesan cheese

Drain and slice canned crab. Or if frozen crab is used, defrost, drain and slice.

In two large saucepots or one extra-large saucepot boil both packages of fettucine at one time, using the amounts of water and salt called for on packages; cook just until tender--this may be a few minutes less than package directions call for; drain.

Meanwhile in a sausepan over low heat melt the butter; add crab, lemon juice and garlic; heat gently; do not boil. Add to fettucine with the ½ cup Parmesan and the parsley; toss well. Serve at once; pass extra grated Parmesan.

Makes 6 main-dish servings.

Thinking Aloud

By BARBARA DRYDEN

I'm getting sick and tired of all this bad weather and I'm ready for it to clear up. If it's not my washing machine freezing up, it's my battery in my car. My tires were just about as slick as the ice I've been driving on so I bought me some new ones. I got some of the prettiest green striped ones. — I didn't know they came in colors. Think next time I'll get pink walled.

* * *

Speaking of ice, I took in a hockey game recently and I'm here to tell you, that was really something. Now, Scott-son has tried to explain it to me before, when we watched it on TV, but just about the only thing he cleared me on, was that it was called hockey instead of soccer.

It was a strange sort of game, played on a frozen basketb a l l court, with great big golf clubs and football suits.

Now if there was anything they needed, it was the padded suits, because every once in a while it got a little raunchy.

I really enjoy seeing a good ole hairy fight and I saw my share that day. They had t h i s funny looking thing called a puck that they were knocking around in the ice and both sides wanted it and I'm here to t e l l you, they fought over it!

They had great big basketball goals at each end of the court but they had taken the poles off of them so they could reach 'em — I guess — and they h a d strange looking little m e n guarding them. He must have been the pansy of the team because — talk about padding, he had it. They called him a goalie but he looked more to me like a ghoulie.

Now it was his job to keep the little black thing from going in his basket and when the other team got close to him, he just gave 'em a rap in the mouth with his golf stick. . .

Every once in a while, someone hollered "icee" and one or two of the players were sent to the corner and had to count to 60 before they could play again.

Another thing that I thought was strange was when they had a tie ball — I mean puck. . Now in basketball, when they tie the ball, they have to jump for it after the ref throws it in the air. Well in this game, they had a sneaky referee. He got 'em all ready to jump for it and then dropped it. Now, talk about a mad scramble, that was it! I've never seen so many cracked shins and fat lips in my life . . . then someone would get sent to the corner to count to 60 again.

Everytime it got real rough and you just thought they were going to kill someone, t h e y blew the whistle and everyone rested while a man in the balcony played the organ. T h a t wasn't all, tho, while they were resting, a big maintainer with rollers on it, came in and rode around on the ice.

They did this three times and then I guess they thought the game was getting too rough, so they stopped it after three quarters.

* * *

One time I was giving six-year-old Van-son a lesson in courtesy. "When someone compliments you," I said, "try to return the compliment." J u s t then my neighbor who was eight months pregnant waddled in the back door. "Why hello, 'Van," she said, giving him an awkward hug. "How nice a n d big you're getting to be."

He answered politely, "Thank you," and pulling away, he continued, "and so are you!"

Urbanczyk Will Be Honored At Dallas Meeting

Honors are due A. J. (Tony) Urbanczyk of Hereford for his selection as 1969-70 Dealer Advisory Council member, representing the Northrup King Sales Territory supervised by Robert Clark.

Urbanczyk will represent this area at the Dealer Advisory Council meeting to be held in Dallas on January 13, 1970. At that time he will meet with seven other Dealer Advisory Council members from the Texas-Oklahoma Region. One of these members will be selected as chairman of the group and, at a later date, he will represent this region on Northrup King's National Dealers' Advisory Council.

Both council meetings will serve as idea exchange sessions between the dealer members and Northrup King management. These meetings will also provide an opportunity for both the dealers and Northrup King to discuss and develop new ways to help increase both sales and farmer services on NK seeds.

Urbanczyk is to be congratulated for his outstanding sales and service achievements that have earned him his place on this year's NK Dealer Advisory Council.

The New York Yankees have never beaten Detroit Tiger pitcher John Hiller. He has beaten them five times.

The Veterans Administration's loan guaranty service guaranteed nearly one-quarter million home loans for veterans in 1969.

The Detroit Tigers turned in 20 shutouts last season, the most for the club since 1944 when they also had 20 shutouts.

Farmers To Get Census Forms

By JERRY ODOM
Staff Writer

Farmers of Deaf Smith County, along with their comrades nationwide, are receiving this month the 1969 Census of Agriculture through the mail. Wayne Mayfield, an official with the local Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service, said this week that all farmers would receive their census in January.

"We want to emphasize that the Census will be strictly confidential. Many people feel that the Internal Revenue may get hold of this but this isn't true. It is definitely against the law for anyone besides the Census Bureau to look at this," he pointed out.

Mayfield stated that the purpose of this report is so the people will get a sum of the entire nation's agriculture activities.

Letters released to the farmers emphasized the importance of the census report. Portions of it read as follows:

"Nationwide censuses of agriculture, taken periodically since 1840, have provided a continuing flow of statistical information, increasingly needed by government, business, and education.

"And the rapid changes going on in agriculture today make the 1969 Census of very special importance.

"Great changes are taking place in the use of farm machines, chemicals, fertilizers, and new plant varieties, and in the management of farms and ranches. These changes are having an enormous impact on farm people, running all the way from the varieties and amounts of crops and livestock you and your neighbors are producing, to the planning of Federal programs for both farm and nonfarm people.

"Agriculture and its problems must be understood if our agricultural people are to prosper. Decisions that will lead to improved programs and more responsible action must be based on reliable facts. Our farms and ranches — nearly 3 million independent businesses-are scattered all across the land of America. A nationwide census of all farms and ranches is the only means of obtaining an up-to-date and accurate inventory of our agricultural resources.

Signing the letter was J. Thomas Breen, Chief of the Agricultural Division.

A pamphlet entitled "How The Census Of Agriculture Helps You" also provided valuable information pertaining to the subject. It stated that facts about millions of farmers and their businesses will provide the census year with bright new statistics. Such statistics as how many farms there are and how much land is in farms, what is produced and the quantity, how they are fertilized and the type machinery and supplies used all combine to paint the picture of agriculture as it was in 1969 in the country as well as state.

During the time between farm censuses, the original color of the census information tends to age and fade. But the U.S.D.A. touches the picture with new information gathered each day, month, and year.

Long term trends of the past (census figures) up dated by present day information provided by USDA and others, points to future production, demand, and prices for the farmer's products.

The information provided by the overall censuses comes to the public in the form of outlook reports, articles in farm magazines, newspapers or newsletters, radio or television, farm programs, or from county agents.

According to Mayfield all persons concerned with farm interests such as livestock, poultry, fruits, vegetables, etc. will receive one of these forms.

The return deadline for the censuses has been set at February 15. All recipients are encouraged to meet this deadline. It is required by law that all recipients fill this out and mail it in. An addressed envelope is provided.

Max R. Sherman will announce his candidacy today, January 8, for the State Senate seat for the 31st Senatorial District, which includes the top twenty counties of the Texas Panhandle. It is an area larger than many states and has a wide range of interests.

Senator Grady Hazlewood has held this seat for many years, but he has indicated to many people that he will not seek re-election.

Cagers Drop Two To Hot Shooting Clovis Quintets

The Hereford Shorthorn cagers narrowly escaped with the only win of the road trip for the three local teams when they all journeyed to Clovis to encounter their teams. The varsity fell 70-59 and the junior varsity met defeat, 72-59 while the only winning score came from the B team, 62-60.

For the varsity quintet, the game was close throughout the first quarter with the host Clovis team holding only a four point bulge at the end of the stanza, 19-15. Seven players figured in the first quarter scoring with Percy Mays and Mike Wartes leading with three points each. Clovis extended their lead in the second quarter when they garnared 18 points to the local's 15 for a half time cushion of seven points. In that second period, it was senior Santry Rush who led the local scoring as he hit on two field goals and two free throws for six points.

Coming back for the breather at half time, the locals were only able to cut the host team's lead by one point as they registered 13 points to the Clovis team's 12, but in the final quarter it was all Clovis as they hit seven field goals and seven free throws for 21 points while allowing the Whitefaces 16.

Top scorer for the locals was Rush who accounted for 15 points while others included Gary Lemons with 10, Wartes, John Sparks and Loerwald got eight and Mays got seven. Dan Charest ended the night with three points for the Whitefaces.

Clovis' big gun was the fact that they had three players registering in the double figures.

The win brings the varsity record to 5-11 for the season and their next game will be Friday night when they host the Levelland teams in non-conference warfare.

For the junior varsity, the story was just about the same and the score read almost to the point as they fell victim to the host Clovis team, 72-50.

Clovis held a five point lead at the end of the first quarter, 15-10 and surged ahead in the second quarter to strengthen their lead to 37-23 at the half.

In that disastorous half, the locals were only able to hit on five field goals, getting the remainder of their points from the free throw line.

In the third period, the locals out scored the host team by one point, 14-13 and matched the oppositions scoring in the final stanza at 22, but were still on the short end of the stick, 7-59.

In commenting on the game, coach Bill Briscoe said that the team, even in defeat, played a very impressive game.

Billy Bob Taylor and Rudy Gonzales led the scoring attack for the Longhorns as they each netted 12 points while David Myers also registered in the double figure with 11 points.

The loss took the Junior Varsity's record to 6-7 for the year, including tournament play, and their next game will also be Friday when they play the Levelland team on the home courts.

After meeting defeat at the hands of several of their previous opponents, the Hereford Shorthorns came back with the only win of the night Tuesday by downing the host Clovis B team, 62-60.

Hereford led 15-12 at the end of the third quarter then went even farther ahead in the second, outscoring the opposition 19-12 for a half-time lead of 34-24.

Clovis came back revived in the third stanza to play inspired ball. They netted 16 points in the third period whie allowing the locals only 13 then garnared 20 in the final while giving up only 15, but the effort fell short, as the locals won 62-60.

Gage, Barrett and Allison all wound up the night in the double figures column with Gage getting 16, Barrett 14 and Allison 16.

Their next game will also be Friday night at the La Plata Junior High gym, beginning at 5 p. m.

Mrs. E. C. Hammett Is Named Woman Of The Year Candidate

Members of Progressive Home Demonstration Club elected Mrs. E. C. Hammett as their candidate for "Woman Of The Year" at a meeting Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Charles Gresham.

The Woman of the Year from this county will be selected by a committee from club nominees and honored at the annual appreciation luncheon scheduled Feb. 23.

In other business, yearbooks were completed for the coming year.

The program, given on choosing and buying beef, was presented to the group by Mrs. Argen Draper.

She explained that there are several different grades of beef and the best is Prime Beef or U. S. D. A. Inspected.

This is top quality meat produced from young and well fed beef type cattle.

She added that meat from such animals had liberal quantities of fat interspersed with lean and is juicy, tender and flavorful.

Mrs. Draper prepared meat fondue served with sour cream and creamy shrimp sauces at refreshment time.

The next meeting is scheduled Jan. 20 in the home of Mrs. Jacob.

CHECK PRESENTED — A check totaling $1100.00 was presented Sunday afternon to the Rev. Raymond Avidano, pastor of a mission in Jatai, Brazil by the Rev. Simeon Heine, pastor of Saint Anthony's Catholic Church and St. Joseph's Catholic Mission. Members of the parishes donated the money to Father Avidano for aid with the housing project in Brazil.

Brazilian Missionary Returns To Visit Hereford Catholics

A check for $1100.00, representing the donations of the parishoners of St. Anthony's and St. Joseph's Catholic Churches of Hereford, was presented to Father Raymond Avidano, a Graymoor Friar, for his mission in Jatai, Goias, Brazil.

Father Avidano, in his talks during the Sunday Masses, described his parish as being geographically about the size of the Panhandle of Texas. Established in 1963, this parish contains seven community churches within its boundaries. Father Bonaventure Koelzer, formerly of Hereford, Father George Ribeiro (who spent the summer of 1966 in Hereford, then known as Brother Armand), with the aid of Brothers William Martin and Leo Hall, assist Father Avidano in serving 40,000 Catholics, at the ratio of one priest per 12,000 people. In the United States, one priest ministers to an average of 900 persons.

Father Bonaventure Koelzer, formerly Superior General of the Graymoor Friars in Garrison, N.Y., moved to Jatai in 1967 and in 1968 conceived the idea of a housing project, whereby he built three low-cost houses with donations he had received from the United States. The ordinary houses in Jatai are "grass shacks." The housing project, "Homes of Christ Housing Cooperative," has since been formed by which 20 houses (costing $150.00 each) have been built, with 100 more projected. With the aid of two young Brazilians, trained in carpentry by the priests, a small factory and lumberyard have been established.

Jatai, located in central Brazil, approximately 150 miles from the newly formed capital of Brazil, Brasilia, has a population of 30,000. The economy of the area is provided by ranching and rice and bean farming. The vast ranches contain open ranch cattle, with no silage or other extra feeds provided. There are no paved roads or rural electricity in the area. Father Avidano's parish includes only 40 wealthy parishoners, ranch owners, whereas the majority of his parishoners are migrants working for the ranchers. The population of the area is 95 percent Catholic.

Sister Andre, Graymoor nun, operates the Children's Clinic in Jatai, named after Brother Julian, a Graymoor religious who died in Brazil while serving the missions in that area. Sisters Carmelita and Guadalupe conduct Catecatical classes, while the Spanish Augustinian Sisters from Madrid, Spain, operate the Catholic schools.

Father Raymond Avidano returned to New York City Sunday evening to visit his parents Attilio and Madeline Avidano before going on to Brazil Tuesday. Father Raymond spent the summers of 1965-67 at St. Joseph's Mission in Hereford. He is better remembered here as Brother Andre. For those wishing to communicate with Father Raymond, his address is Paroquia Sao Sebastiao, C. P. 77, Jatai, Goias, Brazil.

The Rev. Jack Allison Gray, North Texas Conference Evangelist, will present a week-long revival at the Wesley Methodist Church beginning Sunday and lasting through Jan. 18.

Services will be at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. each day.

Born in McLean in 1931, Rev. Gray attended and graduated from Denton before going on to North Texas State University where he received his B. S. in Education, majoring in psychology, speech and sociology in 1951.

Rev. Gray also attended Perkins School of Theology, SMU, receiving a Bachelor of Divinity Degree in 1954, and followed this with special study in 1961.

He has spent 17 years in the pastoral ministry. In 1951 he was with the Era-Spring Creek churches near Gainesville and in 1951-52, he was Associate Pastor, First Methodist Church, Grand Prairie. He served as pastor, in 1952 to 1955, at the DeSoto Methodist Church before going to the First Methodist Church, Lubbock, as Minister to Youth.

Rev. Jack Gray

He was at the Lubbock church until 1957 when he went as pastor of the First Methodist Church, Farmersville and then in 1960 he started as pastor at the Trinity Methodist Church in Denison. McCathern Will Have Stock Show Exhibits

FORT WORTH—Mike McCathern of Hereford will have 2 Charolais steers competing in the 1970 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Jan. 30 through Feb. 8.

Poultry, rabbit and pigeon exhibitors have until Jan. 15 to submit entries, but the entry deadline for cattle, horses, sheep and swine already has passed. Stock Show President-Manager W.R. Watt and the other officials now are busily tabulating the large number of entires.

"Early indications are that a fine, competitive show is shaping up, with high-caliber entires in every category," Watt said.

Watt said another great show is in store in the Stock Show Rodeo Arena. "We're delighted to have David Canary, 'Candy' on the 'Bonznza' TV series, as our special guest star," Watt said. "He has an engaging personality and he's a fine singer, too, with experience in Broadway musicals."

Other rodeo features include trick roping and riding, and Arthur Allen's Border Collies, performing shepherd dogs that have starred in Walt Disney films.

Mail order tickets for the 1970 rodeo are available from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas 76101.

Surge Marked In 60's For Nazarene Church

The relatively young Church of the Nazarene scored impressive gains during the decade of 1959-69, reports from denominational offices in Kansas City, Mo., showed this week.

During the 10-year period, Nazarene church membership and Sunday school enrollment increased 30 percent while giving for all purposes nearly doubled. Per capita giving was up 57 per cent. Highlights:

°World membership reached 471,846 persons — an increase of 110,202, or 30 per cent ahead of the 361,644 total in 1959.

Sunday school enrollment climbed 228,601, or 29 per cent, to a total of 1,013,724.

°Per capita giving hit a record $213.26 in 1969 — or $77.75, 57 per cent, more than the $135.51 figure in 1959.

°Giving for all purposes was $82,309,225 in '69 — an increase of $40,125,671, or 95 per cent ahead of the $42,183,554 given in '59.

The three new colleges started in 1967 and 1968 helped to raise enrollment at Nazarene colleges to more than 9,000 students in 1969. The denomination also had more than 9,000 young men serving in the Armed Forces and 73 gold stars on its Vietnam war memorial roll.

The statistical report came from the office of the general secretary Dr. B. Edgar Johnson

The Church of the Nazarene was organized in 1908. It holds to all the historic doctrines of the New Testament and has become the largest denomination in the United States that stands for scriptural holiness in the Wesleyan tradition.

It is affiliated with the National Holiness Association.

The local Church of the Nazarene, 16th and Blackfoot, has also made outstanding gains above the National average.

Per capita giving hit an all time record of $306.27 with church and Sunday School attendance more than doubling. The local church also made impressive gains in 1969 under the leadership of Rev. Bill Ray, pastor and Melvin Jayroe, Sunday School Superintendent.

Hereford Businesses, Residents Underwriters For Production

Many early supporters of the "Texas" production received a New's Year present this year. In 1964, about 200 of them from 22 counties signed agreements which obligated them to make up any deficits for the "Texas" production which were outstanding after 5 years.

This time was up at the end of the 1969 season and the documents were returned unused at the end of December with the grateful thanks of the Board of Directors.

This was the introductory statement on them: Persons concerned with the rich heritage of the Texas Panhandle are needed to insure the production of the great outdoor spectacle about the history of the Panhandle in the Pioneer Theatre in the Palo Duro Canyon. To acquire sufficient funds to produce this Paul Green spectacular, the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation may need to borrow from a lending institution. It is the Foundation's intention to use this underwriting as security for these funds.

The agreements did serve as collateral for necessary loans on several occasions in the formative years and made the production possible.

They were ready when needed for the opening years of "Texas," Paul Green's musical romance of Panhandle History which has played to large audiences in the past four years and is attracting wider national attention each season.

The generosity of the donors to the theatre plant and the willingness of neighbors of the Palo Duro Canyon to share the risks of opening a great outdoor theatre, created one of the outstanding attractions in the nation.

Underwriters for the "Texas" production from Hereford include First National Bank of Hereford, Hereford State Bank, Pitman Grain Company, Mrs. C. Wertenberger and James Witherspoon.

Four county officials have announced their intention to seek the Democratic nomination for re-election to their respective posts. The four are County Commissioners Marcus Latham and Donald Hicks, Precincts 2 and 4; County Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams and County Clerk B. F. Cain. Other county and district offices will be up for grabs this year also and we're expecting a number of announcements within the next few weeks.

By the way, if you're a newcomer to the area, or if you were not registered to vote last year, then you had better go by the tax office and qualify yourself. There will be a number of interesting races coming, particularly on the district and state level. Those who were registered in this county last year have already received a notice from the tax office and if they returned it as requested, have already received their registration receipts. However, only 3000 were registered here last year and there is a potential voter registration in this county of roughly 7000 persons, according to county officials.

There has been quite a bit of activity on the state level already, and it looks like there may be a hot gubernatorial contest going. Republican Paul Eggers, who carried the entire Panhandle in the last election, will probably be in the contest against Governor Preston Smith.

We've always heard that "everyone's automobile runs but the mechanics," meaning no doubt, the mechanic never has time to fix his own automobile.

However, the best story we've heard of recently comes from Lubbock and the family of Tanner Laine, author of COW COUNTRY, a book published by Pioneer Book Publishers, Inc. of Hereford.

The new book was released December 7 and since that time has been selling at a rapid pace in the Lubbock area. Laine, being a resident of Lubbock, had been on call constantly by the book stores to autograph books for customers. Naturally it's a labor of love with the good natured author, who was running hard and fast to sandwich the autograph sessions in between his duties as Regional Editor of the Avalanche-Journal and various other activities in which he has become involved. And Mrs. Laine is a rather understanding person, but one who is capable of taking drastic measures when necessary.

Mrs. Laine had been trying to get Tanner to autograph a book to be sent to a friend that no longer lived in Lubbock, but Tanner, always busy, kept putting her off. "I've got to go to this or that book store to autograph books," he would say, "and I'll get to yours later."

Finally, Mrs. Laine did what any wife would do under the circumstances. She knew that Tanner would be at Hemphill-Wells at a certain hour just before Christmas to autograph books, so she went to the store, purchased a book at Hemphill's book department, charged it to her husband, and stood in line with the other customers waiting for Laine to autograph it. He did. And she had the store mail the book a Christmas present to a long time friend of the family.

Joe Easley has been sporting a new mustache. It's looking pretty good by now, and if he doesn't get discouraged and lets it grow, in another month or so he may have a dandy.

Joe says that most people look at him, do a double-take and then look away, starting to talk about something else. He says he has met one honest fellow however. The guy took one look at the mustache and exclaimed: "What the h — is that on your upper lip?"

—HB—

Had a school teacher one time with a mustache and all the kids went around reciting poetry. You know the verse.

Twinkle, twinkle little hair,
How I wonder what you 'air?
Up on top that lip so brave,
Why the devil don't you shave?

Which reminds us that that little piece of verse, along with a variation directed at the bald headed superintendent almost got us expelled from school, plus getting the staff of the high school newspaper put on probation. And you've probably heard this one too.

Twinkle, twinkle little hair,
How I wonder where you 'air?
Up on top that head so bald,
Where the devil are they all?

However, as it turned out, the superintendent had a better sense of humor than did the teacher and everything turned out all right. It was touch and go for a while though.

Naturally we thought it pretty good verse.

Conservation Board To Award Special Farmers

By JERRY ODOM
Staff Writer

Members of the Soil and Water Conservation Board of District 143 are set this month to select the annual Conservation Farmer or Rancher and the Comeback Farmer or Rancher for 1969.

Hindered by wet fields and winter weather the five member board has been forced to postpone their selection, previously scheduled for January 5, till the fifteenth of this month.

Chairman of the board is F. L. Eicke and vice chairman is Clarence Betzen. Gerald McCathern is secretary-treasurer. Other members include Virgil Marsh and Clint Homfeld.

Three agriculturists are being considered for the conservation farmer or rancher honor and two for the comeback farmer or rancher.

J. C. Brown of the local conservation service stated Monday that the selections of the board will be based on conservation work the farmer or rancher has carried out in solving problems on his property.

Crop yield will not be a major factor in mind since in many cases it has nothing to do with advised conservation practices. What will be considered is such accomplishments by the agriculturist as changing cropland back to grassland and the building of terraces, stock waterlines or cross fences in pastures.

Brown said, "The board will attempt to base their selection on someone who would be a good example for others to look for in conservation guidance and who would well represent the district."

The three men who are so-called "nominated" for the conservation farmer or rancher are W. L. Edelman, Joe Reinauer, and J. R. Wheat. Edelman's land is a quarter section irrigated farm located three miles north of Summerfield.

Joe Reinauer is owner and manager of the 16,500 acre ranch which is under the name of Reinauer Brothers. This spread, located thirty miles west of town, is a combination of crop and ranch land.

The considered property of J. R. Wheat is a 7,800 acre leased ranch thirty-five miles west of Hereford.

Two farmers are in consideration for the comeback man. They are Bruce Coleman and R. H. Cowan Jr. Coleman farms 1400 dry land acres in the vicinity of Bootleg. Cowan's property is fifteen miles north of Hereford consisting of a section of irrigated land.

Brown commented that the comeback farmer or rancher is a selection of someone who has taken a place which has been abused and with an erosion problem and built it up over a short period of years.

Board members, if conditions permit, will make a farm to farm tour on the date of the fifteenth to make their best possible selection. If by the fifteenth this is impossible then the conservation service will provide them with information on the conservation practices of these farmers and ranchers.

From this information, the board will judge the five candidates.

The winner for the conservation selection will be presented with a plaque though no official kind of trophy will be awarded the comeback person.

At The Library

Joe Kennedy, The Forgotten Prince

The most revealing and exciting biography ever written concerning the nationally-known Kennedy family is available now at the Deaf Smith County Library.

THE LOST PRINCE
by Hank Searls

Time was running out. . . he became even less cautious. He flew, against orders, so close to the German-held island of Guernsey that he drew flak from the enemy, bringing back a partly perforated plane. . .

And now he had volunteered for a strange and danger o u s bombing mission. Of the first six pilots to try it during the past ten days, one had been killed, one had lost an arm, one had broken his back, and only three had escaped with minor injuries. . .

But the danger of the mission wasn't what bothered young Joe Kennedy. Worried that he had been supplanted in the public eye —and in his father's — by his younger brother's PT-109 adventures, Joe Junior courted the enemy with reckless abandon. He was determined to become the first Catholic President of the United States; he had to get his combat medal.

Joe Junior got his Navy Cross . . . posthumously. His younger brother, Jack, inherited t h e Kennedy family dream, and the Presidency. Since then, hardly a day has gone by when some member of the Kennedy family has not figured prominently in the news. Surprisingly, though, almost nothing has been told about the life, and strange death, of the eldest Kennedy brother, who was in many ways the most romantic and most remarkable of all the Kennedys.

In this brilliant, superbly written biography, Joe Junio r emerges as a complex, dashing, truly fascinating figure. An inspiration to those who followed him (Jack once said, "I'm only trying to fill his shoes"), J o e Junior was a man of paradoxes: in an archaic way almost as devout as Lancelot, and yet completely uninhibited; friendly and hot-tempered; unassuming at times, arrogant at others. Women found him irresistible; and he toyed with them. But when he finally fell in love, he fell hard. The woman, unfortunately, was already married.

In The Lost Prince, Hank Searls traces the origins of the Kennedy family's political ambitions and examines the sources of the Kennedy mystique. He probes beneath the united front the family always presents to the world and unveils a fierce competitive drive, in one of the most startling scenes in the book, causes Joe Junior to break down and weep uncontrollably, unable to bear any longer the praise being heaped upon Jack for his PT-109 heroism. Rich in intimate, unabashedly gossipy detail, illuminated by fresh, often profound insights, and presenting at all times the true picture, this objective study of the eldest Kennedy brother is both an exciting biography and probably the most revealing Kennedy book y e t written.

The Veterans Administration during 1969 administered government insurance programs totaling more than 5.6 million policies, with coverage valued at more than $38 billion.

According to the Veterans Administration, its direct benefits in the form of educational allowances amounted to $720 million in 1969.

Please God, Help Us!

In every man's life there is a moment when he is inadequate to the forces he faces. At such a time only his moral integrity will sustain him.

Those who have based their lives on their own strength inevitably will face the time and the place when that strength is insufficient to the necessity of the moment. They will crumble unless they know that they are never alone . . . that there is a power that can and will help them, no matter how terrible the times.

The man who has learned to rely on God can draw from this source of never-failing power and with resurgent strength face his future, unafraid.

Leaders Are Announced For Voter Registration

AUSTIN—Dallas, Midland and Montgomery counties are the early leaders in their voting population categories for having the highest percentage of voters registered, the State Democratic Executive Committee announced Tuesday afternoon.

Elmer C. Baum, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, said a survey of the 62 most populous counties indicated nearly 1,500,000 Texans already were eligible to vote next year.

"That is nearly half of all those estimated to be 21 years of age, or older, in those counties," Baum said.

The State Democratic Executive Committee is sponsoring a statewide voter registration program called "Operation: Everybody!"

Mrs. James A. McMullen III of Fort Worth is chairman of the voter registration committee with Mrs. Carol Vance of Houston as vice chairman. Other committee members are Mrs. Clarence Talley of Dallas, Mrs. Dale Stockton of Enloe, Mrs. Martin Baze of Fort Stockton, Mrs. Abbie K. Evans of Houston, Mrs. Austin Furse of Bay City and Mrs. Sammy Reeder of Harlingen.

"This is a twofold project," Baum said. "First of all, it is designed to encourage voter registration between now and the January 31 deadline. Second, it is to reward those counties which do an exceptional job in registering Texans."

Baum explained that all Texas counties have been grouped into 10 categories, according to registration quotas which represent 65 per cent of the voting population.

"The University of Texas' Bureau of Business Research estimates that 58.6 per cent of all Texans are old enough to vote," Baum said. "That percentage was applied to the 1968 estimated population--the latest figures available--to determine the voting population in each county."

A goal was then established for each county so that the total registration for Texas would exceed 4,000,000, Baum said.

The three top counties in each category which most exceed their quotas will receive gold, silver and bronze plaques at appropriate ceremonies, Baum said. He added that all counties which go over their quotas would receive certificates of recognition.

Dallas is the Group 1 leader, a 12-county category with quotas ranging from 61,700 to 584,715. With an estimated 290,000 voters already registered, Dallas has achieved 64.4 per cent of its 450,484 goal. Harris County is only a fraction behind with an estimated 375,000 registrants--64.1 per cent of its 584,715 quota.

Other Group 1 counties, ranked in order of their percentages, are Tarrant, 142,637; Bexar, 173,213; Travis, 45,000; Galveston, 25,000; Lubbock, 15,000; McLennas, 11,000; Nueces, 20,000; Hidalgo, 10,700, and El Paso, 13,533. Jefferson County offered no estimate.

With a percentage of 71.2, Midland is the early champion of Group 2, a 23-county grouping with quotas from 17,126 to 49,367. Midland has registered an estimated 17,000 out of 23,860. Brazoria is just a step off the leading pace. Brazoria's 26,500 registrants represent 68.3 per cent of their 38,791 quota.

Others in Group 2, ranked according to the percentage achieved of their quota are:

Gregg, 16,00; Taylor, 20,000; Ector, 14,117; Bowie 11,946; Smith, 15,000; Bell, 16,522; Collin, 8,000; Grayson, 8,568 Fort Bend, 5,263; Webb, 7,814; Ellis, 4,500, Randall, 5,000; Victoria, 4,900; Brazos, 3,900; Angelina,3,584; Orange 5,000; Potter, 7,250, and Cameron, 4,400. Wichita, Tom Green and San Patricio counties offered no estimates.

Montgomery leads Group 3 and all of the 62 surveyed counties with an 87.3 percentage. Montgomery has 14,820 registrants out of a quota of 16,980.

Group 3 is composed of 27 counties with quotas ranging from 10,137 to 16,980. Their ranking:

Lamar, 8,500; Howard, 8,100; Matagorda, 6,083; Anderson, 5,527; Harrison, 7,000; Coryell, 5,232; Hays, 4,200; Liberty, 5,200; Cherokee, 5,000; Kleberg, 4,400; Williamson, 5,000 Henderson, 3,600; Hunt, 5,100; Parker, 3,300; Hale, 5,100; Walker, 2,250; Jasper, 2,000; Johnson, 3,000; Guadalupe, 2,106; Hardin, 1,678; Jim Wells, 989, and Rusk, 500. No estimates were offered in Wharton, Nacogdoches, Navarro and Kaufman counties.

Baum said he hope to have early estimates from all counties in mid-January.

The industry, which has doubled its production in the past 10 years, will sell an estimated 4 billion yards of synthetic ribbons and pre-tied bows.

Concerning Veterans

Q —Can I use my dividends to pay my National Service Life Insurance?

A — Yes. You may authorize the VA to automatically apply your dividend each year to premiums. The VA will then take your dividend and apply it to future premiums. You may also tell the VA to keep your dividend as a credit to your account and use it to pay a premium in case you forget.

Q —How much would a VA pensioner with an annual income of $1,650 be entitled to under the new law?

A — A monthly pension of $51 is payable to such veterans who do not have dependents, and whose annual income ranges between $1,600 and $1,700. A veteran with dependents would receive $93 a month.

99-YARD TD RUN

MINNEAPOLIS — The longest scoring play of the season for a Big Ten football team occurred here this fall in Minnesota's game against Nebraska. Gary Hohman of Minnesota intercepted a pass and ran 9 yards for a touchdown.

He succeeded Gilbert L. Adamowski of Chicago last August.

WINS DESPITE ALLERGIES

CHERRY HILL, N.J. — Walter Blum, new president of the Jockeys' Guild, is allergic to horse hair and dust, has been for 10 years and takes two shots a month for the allergy.

At first he found himself the victim of chest congestion. At the end of long races he was gasping for air. After a series of tests it turned out horse hair and dust bothered him. However, Blum was national riding champion in 1963 and 1964 and still gets his share of winners.

Gladys Miller, Daughter To Give Book Review In Canyon Monday

The third in a series of Canyon Federated Club Council sponsored "book reviews" will be given Monday evening at 8 p. m. in Room 101, University Complex South, at West Texas State University.

The reviews are benefitting a library building fund project for the Canyon City Library, according to Mrs. Crews Henry, council chairman.

Tickets for the review are $1.00 and the public is invited to attend.

Monday's review will be given by Mrs. Jerry Jacobs, wife of the Canyon Public School superintendent. She will review the book "Junior Dear" which was published in 1968 with her mother, Gladys Miller of Hereford, as author.

"It is a fiction story based on fact and shows the Panhandle during the days of the depression in the dismal '30s", said Mrs. Jacobs. "It is a story of youth's triumphant faith in itself."

Mrs. Jacobs, who was one of five children, was raised near Dawn and attended the West Texas State demonstration high school and college where she earned the B. A. degree. She later took additional work at the University of Texas and is now working on her master's degree at West Texas State University. The mother of two, Mrs. Jacobs is employed as clinician with the Developmental Vision Reading Clinic in Canyon and previously taught "mostly in the grade school and as reading consultant". The Jacobs have served schools in Texline, Channing, and Lefors and taught five years at Edna (near Houston) prior to coming to Canyon.

Her mother, the author of "Junior Dear", has also written "Mama, the Preacher" which was published in 1969 and is presently working on her third book. She resides in Hereford.

Mrs. Miller related that her book "Junior Dear" shows that the people of the Panhandle had a bleak future with both the drouth and depression of the '30s--but that the people had faith in their country which couldn't be dimmed and now it is the salad bowl of this part of the country and among the fastest growing areas in the nation.

She came to the area in 1930.

TIES RECEIVING RECORD

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. — When Ernie Jennings of Kansas City, Mo., caught five touchdown passes against Utah State this fall he tied the NCAA record. He's a junior flanker with the Air Force Academy football team.

DUFFY IS A REALIST

EAST LANSING, Mich. — "How do you think an outstanding college team of today would do against a top team of 194, your senior year at Syracuse?" Michigan State coach Duffy Daugherty was asked.

"No doubt about it," replied the Spartan coach, "the current team would win easily. You've got to remember those 1940 guys are getting a little old to play football."

SPEAKS TO ROTARY CLUB — Milton Buff Morris, executive vice-president of the Opportunity Plan, from W.T.S.U., and Miss Ann Homer, a first grade teacher at Central Elementary School who was one of over 2,000 students sponsored by the plan, were guest speakers at the Rotary Club luncheon held Monday at the Chaparral Restaurant. They explained to the group how the plan works and expressed the desire to begin a division here. Around 100 Deaf Smith County youngsters have been sponsored by the plan who would have been unable to finance a college education otherwise. —Staff Photo

Concerning Veterans

Veterans and servicemen with GI life insurance policies issued during the World War I and World War II periods will receive some $264 million in dividends in 1970.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson, in approving the dividends, said 1970 payments will be $28 million more than last year.

The payments will go to 4,191,200 holders of U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) and National Service Life Insurance (NSLI). USGLI was issued during the World War I era and NSLI during World War II.

The VA chief said the increase in dividends was made possible because of larger interest earnings in the two funds, and that payments will be made throughout 1970 on the anniversary dates of the policies.

According to Mr. Johnson, 173,200 USGLI policy holders will receive $20 million in dividends, averaging a little more than $115 per policy. In 1969, the average was about $97. NSLI policy holders number 4,018,000 and they will receive $244 million in dividends averaging nearly $61 each, compared to $53 in 1969.

Mr. Johnson explained that since the dividend on each policy depends on the plan of insurance, age of the insured, age of the policy, and its face value, individual payments will range from a few dollars to hundreds of dollars.

He stressed that since the cash payments will be automatic, there is no need to write to the VA to receive them. The only exception is where the serviceman or veteran has indicated to the VA another disposition of his dividends.

It was also pointed out that dividends will not be paid on policies terminated by death or surrender, since these dividends are ordinarily paid at that time.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q — I will be discharged from the service this month. What must I do to establish entitlement to educational benefits through the VA?

A —You should apply immediately to the nearest VA office for a Certificate, present it immediately to the registrar of the school you plan to attend, or to the employer where you plan to receive on-the-job training or apprentice training.

Q — I am receiving a non-service-connected pension. When must my annual income questionnaire be returned to the VA?

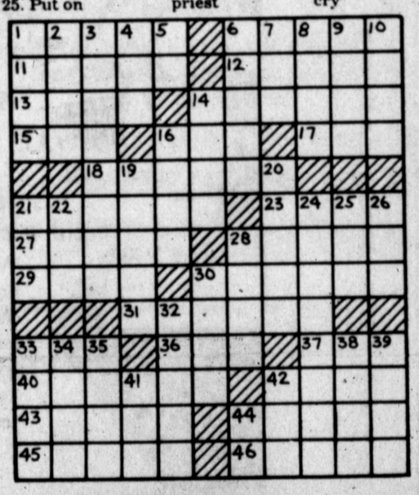

A — The deadline is January 15, 1970.
