78th Year, No. 12 BOGATA, RED RIVER COUNTY Thursday, December 29, 1988 25¢

Nichols Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

It's the last week of 1988. The end of each year is invariably a time for reflection, for contemplation on the past, and thoughts on the future.

A poem I ran across the other day brought home a valid point

The poem was "The Long Hill" by Sara Teasdale.

I must have passed the crest a while ago
And now I am going down-
Strange to have crossed the crest and not to know,
But the brambles were always catching the hem of my gown.

She makes her point quite well, I think. In our lives most of us spend our time thinking of attaining the "crest" of our lives, that elusive goal when we attain what we strive for, or that mystical point in our life when we understand something.

But most of us are so distracted by the little problems, the distractions, or pains that plague everyday living, the "brambles" that do, indeed catch at our clothing, that we miss the high points entirely if we aren't careful!

That little verse is a reminder of how easy it is to waste precious moments by allowing ourselves to be obsessed by the irritations and aggravations in our lives, instead of appreciating the joys and beauties that also fill the days.

There is a new year approaching, a year that will hold sorrow and joy, major events and minor.

The new year is another chance to look for those "crests" in life. It's a chance to work harder at ignoring the brambles that afflict every single person's life.

We all climb many hills along the way. And every one can reward us with a view to warm the heart.

Or we can find ourselves descending past the peak, stumbling on downward, without ever having noticed how lovely it really was.

All because of the "brambles".

Think about it.

We hope your New Year is wonderful, and free from brambles!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

1988 Held Higher Crime Rate, Drought, But Good Times Too

By Nanalee Nichols

Nineteen hundredd and eighty-eight was an eventful year, with elections, air crashes and unrest leading the nationl headlines.

Leading the headlines on a local level, things weren't too different. Each and every community was saddened by the loss of several citizens who had enriched the community with their lives.

Like people everywhere, watched in horror at the air crashes, traffic deaths and terrorism that seemed to be almost a daily occurance.

On the brighter side, however, the space shuttle program hit the news again, safely "getting off the ground" after the tragedy that set it back for nearly two years.

1988 began in this area with a massivie ice storm that griped the roads in a dangerous grasp. School children loved it, adults, mostly, hated it.

Shortly after the ice storm flu hit with dozens of students and teachers being too ill to attend class. It finally got so bad that schools had to close down for a few days.

Sadly, one of the most recurrent news items to run in the paper was that of a burglary report. The other most reported crime was arson. Burglaries seemed to become more and more common as the year passed, and arson was reported twice in one week!

Efection activity both nation-wide and locally heated up to boiling with stiff competition in commissioners races, and for sheriff in Lamar County, commissioners in Red River and Titus County.

Hopes for a correctional institute in Red River County léd to speculation that as many as 300 jobs could be brought to the area. While it didn't come to pass, it did get a group of Drought plagued farmers with one of the dryest springs on record...then broke with one of the wettest July's in recorded history!

The cotton crop was enormous, while soy beans and other earlier crops were poor.

Service organizations did wonderful work erecting flag poles, working on community centers, donating time and money to a wide variety of projects.

The historic pavilion in Bogata cemetery was restored, and the Bossom sixth grade began efforts to get one of the town's mineral wells reopened.

In Talco oil prices weren't so great, but economically things looked up with the construction of a new food store.

Deport held a Denver Pyle L Benefit Banquet that drew a capacity crowd.

On the more mundane side lots of big fish, big snakes and big vegetables were brought in for photographing, and lots of kids won awards and scholarships.

Postage went up, as did mlots of other things.

George Bush won the presidential election, and the fall of the year rolled around all too soon.

Yes, 1988 was pretty routine, some big things happened, but mostly little ones.

1989 is coming up, and if it goes as fast as the past year, most of us will be wondering where the year went.

Before we know it, it will be time for another century, not just another decade!

Senior 4-H Member Retreat To Be Held

By John R. Senter

Senior members will have the opportunity to participate in a statewide leadership retreat on January 13-15 at the Texas 4-H Center in Brownwood. The theme for the retreat is "Targets Worth Hitting" and will deal primarily, but not totally, with setting and reaching goals.

Recently, we were asked to make reservations and submit an approximate number of members that would be attending. The number of vacancies we have is 7 girls, 8 boys, 4 leaders and 2 or 3 agents for a total of 21 people. We will sign up members on a first come basis. The fee is $38 per person and this is due when you come in to sign up. No phone reservations will be taken.

Pests Hitchhike Into Homes

By Herb Brevard

Insects and other pests seeking places to overwinter find devious ways of entering homes.

"Stink bugs, wood roaches, wasps, scorpions, spiders and other unwanted pests hide in firewood, potted plants and other containers which might be brought into the house," said Dr. James Robinson, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "They also enter through cracks around doors, windows and other openings."

Firewood and other materials should be inspected, especially for scorpions, before being moved into the home. Most of the pests are nuisances rather than harmful. However, some will bite or sting if handled. Extra precautinos should be taken when young children are around.

Robinson says that no insecticides are labeled for use on firewood. If insects are found in the home, space sprays containing pyrethrin will give a quick knock down. Vacuuming will usually eliminate a small infestation.

To keep pests from entering the home through cracks, etc., Robinson suggests applying an insecticide barrier using Dursban or diazinon. Caulking cracks will eliminate many of the entry points.

Ambulance Drive Way Behind In Fund Raising

The December meeting of the Board of Directors of Red River Ambulance Service, Inc. revealed the membership drive now in progress is not generating the anticipated funds necessary to insure operation for the upcoming year. Expenditures for th eyear ended November 30, 1988, were in excess of $179,000.00.

Membership subscriptions last year provided approximately $42,000.00 in past years in excess of $60,000.00, but to date this drive has only generated a little over $18,00.00, according to Board President, L.D. Williamson.

The service has other sources of income such as donations, cash payment for services rendered, and has recently begun filing on insurance in an effort to increase the cash flow. Of course, income from insurance is only received if a call is made, the patient has insurance, and the ambulance transportation is approved by the insurance carrier. The service receives no funds through ad valorem taxes.

The membership subscriptions have provided the base of operation since the first year of service. Without the subscription income, the successful operation of the service is in jeopardy.

Memberships can be purchased throughout the county at the following locations: Cooper Butane in Avery, Travis Hale and Peoples National Bank in Bogata, Ambulance office at City Hall, Chamber of Commerce and First Federal Savings an Loan in Clarksville, Evelyn's Beauty Shop and City Hall in Detroit, and Wal-Mart Pharmacy.

Red River Ambulance Service, Inc. was established as a non-profit corporation on December 1, 1979, and continues to serve as the ambulance service for Red River County. The service is governed by a Board of Directors which includes representatives from all over the county. The day to day operations are directed by a manager who has been charged by the Board of Directors to see the ambulances are maintained, equipped and staffed 24-hours per day. The service maintains one 1983 Type II van, one 1985 Type III mini-modular and one 1986 Type III modular unit.

The Texas Department of Health certifies all ambulances and personnel and recognizes four certification levels of training and skills--the Emergency Care Attendant (ECA) and three levels of Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)---EMT-Basic, EMT-SS (Special Skills) and EMT-P (Paramedic). All EMS (Emergency Medical Service) personnel who respond on Red River Ambulance Service units are at the EMT level. The present staff includes three EMT's at Basic level, two EMT-SS and two EMT-P. The reserve staff consists of two EMT's at Basic Level and tow EMT-P. The service continually strives to increase the levels of certification and training of all personnel. In addition, recent approval has been given by the ambulance board and the Medical Staff of Red River General Hospital to implement a more advanced level of pre-hospital patient care.

All ambulances are based in Clarksville and the office is in the City Hall at 800 West Main Street. The service is dispatched by the Clarksville Police Department. The dispatchers are well trained in taking information on calls. The number to call in an emergency is 1-214-427-2911. For those on the Clarksville 427 exchange, the number is 911.

For general information the office number is 427-3834. The Board of Directors and staff of Red River Ambulance Service, Inc. appreciate your support.
