PHYLIS KAROL HICKS
AND MICHAEL RAINWATER

Hicks, Rainwater Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hicks of Amarillo announce the engagement of their daughter Phyllis Karol to Michael Rainwater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rainwater of Dougherty. The couple plan to be married May 24 in the First Presbyterian Church in Amarillo.

The bride-elect is a 1977 graduate of Canyon High School and is a senior majoring in elementary education at West Texas State University in Canyon. The prospec-ive bridegroom is a 1976 graduate of Floydada High School and attended West Texas State University. He is engaged in farming south of Dougherty.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. SoRelle Jr. of Plainview and Mrs. Wiley Hicks Sr. and the late Wiley Hicks Sr. of Amarillo.

The couple plan to make their home in Dougherty following their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacky Ward will make their home in Lubbock after they return from a honeymoon trip to San Antonio. The bride is the former Johnnie Lea Thurston.

The couple exchanged wedding vows Saturday, March 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Broadway Church of Christ Chapel in Lubbock. Rob Core, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the double-ring vows.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston of Floydada. The groom is the son of Mr. Doile Ward of Littlefield and Mrs. Carol Ward of Lubbock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of candlelight silesta jersey fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline edged with silk Venise lace and long narrow sleeves with inserts of lace appliques. The A-line shirt flaired from the empire bodice and swept into a chapel length train.

The headpiece was a Juliet cap of matching lace holding a walking length lace edged veil of illusion.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses accented with green forget-me-nots.

For the traditional something old, the bride carried an antique lace handkerchief from Germany. Something new was her wedding gown. The bride borrowed pearl earrings from her sister and wore a blue garter.

D'Lene Andrews of Lovington, New Mexico, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. Jo Thurston of Dimmitt, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Marja Swart of Abilene was bride's matron.

Bridal attendants wore seafoam green quiana formal length gowns and carried nosegays of spring flowers.

The flower girl was Alyssa Core of Lubbock, niece of the bride. She wore a three-tiered seafoam green chiffon dress with satin ribbon sash. Best man was Mike Calahan of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Dale Barron of Lubbock and Ken Wise of Wichita, Kansas, brother-in-law of the bride. Jeff Andrews of Lovington, New Mexico, nephew of the bride, was usher. The men were attired in black tuxedos. The groom wore a gray tuxedo.

A reception for the couple was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Rice bags were distributed by Alvssa and Ashley Core of Lubbock, nieces of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and Abilene Christian University. She is a teacher in the Lubbock Public Schools.

The groom attended Idalou High School and graduated from Estacado High School in Lubbock. He is a graduate of Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Florida, and is employed by United Supermarkets, Inc.

TOOLEY

Brad and Kristi Tooley of Slaton are the parents of a son, Kristopher Brad, born March 15 at 2:47 p.m. in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He weighed 7 pounds 8 ounces.

Grandparents are Wendell and Mary Tom Tooley of Tulia and Jerry and Andy Ford of Lockney.

Miss Kathy McCarter, Ronnie Hargis United In Marriage At Lockney

MRS. RONNIE HARGIS

Miss Kathy McCarter and Mr. Ronnie Hargis were united in marriage Saturday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the evening at the Church of Christ, West College and Third, Lockney. The double ring ceremony was conducted by Mr. John O. Peck, elder of the Garland Street Church of Christ, Plainview.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCarter of Lockney. The groom is the son of Mrs. Joyce Hargis and James Hargis of Lubbock.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a formal length gown of white organza accented by Venice lace. The dress featured a high ruffled neckline attached to a band of Venice lace, sheer yoke with lace sprinkles, full Bishop sleeves cuffed with lace and edged with a narrow ruffle. The full A-line skirt fell from an Empire waistline outlined with Venice lace and extended to a chapel length train headed with lace and a flounce ruffle. She wore a finger tip veil of silk illusion with Venice lace trim attached to a Venice lace caplet. She carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white silk flowers with white satin steamers. Something old and borrowed was a ring belonging to her maternal grandmother, Laura Manning, something new was her wedding attire, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

The couple recited their vows seated on a white wrought iron love seat flanked by white candleabra entwined with greenery and white tapers. A unity candle decorated with the wedding invitation of the couple centered the area.

Matron of honor for the occasion was Kelly Fortenberry, Lockney. Bridesmaids were Kathy Stanford of Lubbock, and Melanie Bixler, Weatherford, Oklahoma. Honor attendants wore floor length dresses of ice blue quiana, with full skirts and an accordion pleated ruffle accenting the low rounded necklines. They wore matching ribbon and flower necklaces and carried pewter lamps with blue candles and blue silk flower and ribbon accents. Best man was Terry Jordan, Lubbock. Groomsmen were Tommie Harendt of Abilene, and Don Moore of Idalou. Ushers were Jamie Mickler of Lubbock, and Barney Bill McCarter, brother of the bride. Male attendants wore blue tuxedos with white shirts and boutonnières.

Flower girl was Jennifer Fortenberry of Lockney. She wore a white dress fashioned like the other female attendants and carried a white lace basket filled with blue silk flowers. Jeffrey Sutterfield, Lockney, was ring bearer. He was dressed in a white suit with blue shirt and boutonniere matching the groom.

Judy and Jody McGowen, cousins of the bride, sang "You Needed Me" as the candles were lit by Barney Bill McCarter and Jan Glasscock of Dallas. Van Bradley concluded the musical selections with the "Wedding Song". Guests were registered by Paula Ellison.

A reception in the fellowship hall followed the wedding ceremony. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with a tiered blue silk flower arrangement. Cake and punch were served from milk glass appointments. Those serving were Christy Hasley, Lubbock, Dar Lee Pool, Canyon, Mitzi Glenn, Guymon, Oklahoma, and Jackie Cognasi, Lockney. Other members of the house party were Jan Mize, Linda Kidd, Dorothy Bradley, Mervean Carthel, and Sherrey Price.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, the couple will be at home in Lubbock where both are employed.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother and two sisters on Friday evening in the fellowship hall of the Main Street Church of Christ.

Flower Program For Il Penseroso

Mrs. Eleanor Schacht of Schacht Flowers gave a lovely program on flower arrangement to members of Il Penseroso Junior Study Club Thursday, March 13. Mrs. Schacht demonstrated the new "unarranged" look in flowers and the "oriental" arrangement, with the traditional three flowers representing, in descending order, heaven, earth and man. An arrangement of silk flowers used with a figurine was also shown.

Mrs. Schacht, a very gracious and popular lady in the Lockney area, was kind enough to answer questions from her audience on various plants and their care.

In regular business meeting, club members answered roll call by recalling times they had picked bouquets of wild flowers (in some cases, weeds mistaken for flowers) for their mothers.

Business was a discussion of future events that Il Penseroso will be involved with — a style show, a track and field playday for Lockney elementary students, and the selection of new officers for next year.

nos and Mr. and Mrs. David Leyva, all of Big Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Smith of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith Jr., all of

and Mrs. John Collings of Lubbock; and Danny Cristan of Los Angeles, California.

Both bride and bridegroom attended Lockney High School. The bride graduated in 1979. Bridegroom is an employee of Consumers Fuel Association in Lockney. They will reside in Plainview at 201 St. Louis.

Sylvia Tina Salinas and Glenn C. Smith pledged wedding vows Saturday evening in First Mexican Baptist Church in Plainview with the Rev. Glen Godsey, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A.Z. Salinas of Lockney and the late A.Z. (Ted) Salinas. Bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Glenn H. Smith of Lockney.

Maid of honor was Sonia Salinas, sister of the bride, and best man was Noe Blanco Jr., both of Lockney. Bridesmaids were Devra Baker and Mary De La Rosa of Lockney, Nancy Smith of Levelland, cousin of the groom, and Linda Escovedo of Plainview.

Groomsman, who also wore ushers, were Andy Castillo of Olton, Joe Smith of Lockney, brother of the bridegroom, Frank Escovedo, Plainview, and Kenneth Cox of Floydada.

Monica Castro of Lockney was flower girl. The ring bearer was Adrian Cox of Levelland, nephew of the bride. Candelighters were Roy Smith, brother of bridegroom, and Sulema Salinas, sister of the bride.

Ester Smith, sister of the bridegroom, registered the guests.

ORGANIST for the program of music was Cynthia Salinas sister of the bride. Soloists were Mrs. Santos Rodriguez of Plainview and the Rev. Troy Smith, uncle of bridegroom.

"Padrinos," or sponsors included Lockney couples Messrs. and Mmes. B.J. Sanz, Richard Luna, Joe Ortiz, Jose Peralez, Higinio Garza, Romualdo Chaviria, Mrs. Richard Castro and Miguel Padilla. Also Mr. and Mrs. Lupe Vega of Idalou, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox of Levelland and Mr. and Ms. Ruben Rodriguez, Plainview.

The altar of the church was decorated with spiral candelabra, white candles, and baskets of white gladioli and blue daisies.

PRESENTED for marriage by Teddy Salinas Jr., her brother, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with chapel length train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with caysalet scoop neckline and elbowlength, cape-effect sleeves. The A-line skirt with double flounced hemline extended into a chapel train.

Her illusion veiling, with chantilace trim was attached to a crown imported from Mexico. It was fashioned of handblown crystal flowers and teardrops. For something old she wore a sapphire bracelet handed down through generations in the family. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom, and she borrowed a white satin, lace-embroidered handkerchief from her mother.

Bride's bouquet was imported from Mexico. It was fashioned with white wax beads and handblown crystal flowers. It was adorned with daisies and satin streamers. She carried it atop a white Bible which was presented to her by the Baptist Young Women of First Mexican Baptist Church in Plainview.

MAID OF HONOR wore a candlelight, floor length dress of empire styling and short sleeves. The waist was defined with ribbon tie and white rose. She wore a white hat and carried a bouquet of small white daisies on a lace base with white ribbon.

Other attendants wore empire styled, baby blue satin-back crepe with matching Chantilly capes. In their hair they wore California poppies and satin streamers. They carried ox-eye daisies on a lace base.

"Madrinas" wore gowns of polyester organza with flocked border print in cornflower blue. Their headpieces were fashioned of large ox-eye daisies and blue nylon net and they carried matching daisy bouquets.

FELLOWSHIP hall of the church was the scene of the reception. Servers at the bride's table were Linda Mendoza, Mrs. Joe Mendoza and Mrs. Robert Maldonado.

Ofelia Lopez and Liz Lopez served at the groom's table.

Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Sanz hosted the reception.

With a blue linen liner, the bride's table was covered with a lace tablecloth imported from Rome. It was purchased by Linda Mendoza while on a tour of Italy. Blue and white daisies decorated the corners of the table. A five-branched candelabra with daisies formed the centerpiece. The groom's table featured a silver service.

THE REHEARSAL dinner was given by the bride and bridegroom's parents. Assisting with serving were Adela Franco, Corina Gallardo, Mrs. Rodolfo Blanco and Mrs. Robert Maldonado. Preparing the food were Modesta Villareal and Mrs. Noe Blanco, Mrs. Cuca Sepeda, Mrs. Pedro Vasquez and Mrs. Lutiro Rodriguez.

Researchers are pointing to an urgent need for parents to focus again on our role as parents -- who have major responsibility for transmitting values, attitudes and behaviors to our young. Remember, our children are not "just misbehaving," they're doing a great deal of learning. What they're learning is up to you, their parents.

The Ladies Fellowship of Victory Baptist Church met Monday evening in the fellowship hall of the church for their monthly meeting.

Barbara Hendrix opened the meeting with prayer, and after a brief business meeting, Betty Fuller presented a devotional on the subject of doubting one's salvation. A discussion followed.

Refreshments were served to Sue Hart, Cindy Clayton, Barbara Hendrix, Arlene Cleavenger, Penny Duvak, Betty Fuller, Sharon Quisenberry and Edna Cochran.

keeping with the child's age. 3) Help the child understand the consequences of his behavior. Listen to his point of view. Point out what might have -- or could -- occur because of his actions. 4) Help the child develop acceptable ways of handling his emotions. Remember that each child is an individual with his own set of personality traits. 5) Guide the child with love, consistency and with strong parental example. The greatest lessons parents teach are with the models they present. As society changes and life's pace intensifies, there is a greater tendency to rely on outside agencies -- including schools and churches -- to do some of our parenting.

The 20th Century Cotillion Study Club will hold their 18th annual antique show and sale the 28th, 29th, and 30th of March, at M.K. Brown Auditorium in Pampa, Texas. The show will be open Friday and Saturday from 10:30 until 6:00.

Tickets to the antique show and sale may be obtained at the door for $1.50 donation. Advanced tickets may be obtained for $1.00 until March 27th from Collectors' Corner in Pampa or from any club member.

Opportunity Plan, Inc. will receive all proceeds from the sale. OPI is a student loan program which assists students throughout the Panhandle area with financial assistance in continuing their education. Students attend the college of their choice. There are presently over 100 college and technical vocational schools attended by students participating in this program.

The offices of Opportunity Plan, Inc. are located in Canyon. OPI president, Mr. Milton (Buff) Morris, states that money used for operations of OPI are raised independently of the funds for student loans so that every dollar given to assist in this program goes to the students. As of March 1, 1980, OPI has a capital value of $1,300,000 and has assisted approximately 4,200 students. At present about 380 students are receiving loans. The 20th Century Cotillion Division of OPI has a capital value of over $30,800 and has supported 71 students through the plan amounting to loans of $186,956. Students from 27 area towns and 2 foreign countries have used funds from this division.

Our Pets

BY WES ADAMS

...Went fishing again the other day. Always hated to go alone. Then I thought about Jake Von Swoggle...

My German short hair pointer.

Jake don't understand English. I don't speak German, but we managed to get along. Jake was a good traveler. Slept most of the time. Snored. Kick his back legs but we learned to communicate. He would smack his lips, I knew he was thirsty. Driving along-old Jake standing up in seat looking straight ahead pointed on my right was a new Dairy Queen. I knew then that he was hungry. Pulled in-girl took our order. Says "Oh, what a pretty dog." Jake really fell for her.

She said, "You can exercise your dog out back," a place for poodles, large dogs, male and female. Sign on a rock said "Lassie wept here."

Jake was a good dog...had his good points, some bad...barked at night, howled, chased cars, other dogs. Stopped at a rest area. Let Jake out. I didn't see the bus coming, Jake did. You know, the bus that has the streamlined dog riding on each side. Yes, I hated to lose him. A barking howling dog is a nuisance.

I had a neighbor-his dog could sing. Everytime they left him alone he would sing to his girl friend up the street, to the tune of "Come on Down to My House, Nellie"...no one here but me. Ever try to sleep with a dog singing under your window? Off key. Ain't easy. Now, your take Georgia Boy (George)...that's his real name, although I have lots of other names I call him. Geo's mother was a southern belle, a Miss Georgia cracker. George barks with a slight southern drawl. He's kind of a southern gentleman, has about 40 little boy and girl dogs to his credit.

I love my dogs, but you can't depend on them. I had a friend out in the northwest had one of them big dogs that carried the jug around his neck. Had a bad snow storm that winter and a cave in at an old mining camp. The owner got the message. Said send medicine. Send alcohol. Send everything. He harnessed his up with a fifth around his neck. Said, "Go, Boy, hurry."

The old dog had to pass an all night saloon. Miners were singing "How Dry I Am." They found him the next day (You guessed it) dog drunk. I read in the paper few years back in New York City alone there was thousands of dogs living like people and vice versa.

The trouble and expense what we go through in order to keep our dogs. I read in the paper down in the bow and arrow state a few years ago where a little boy and his coon dog went hunting his dog. Got hung between rocks out. Would we all turn out to save our pet?

Are they a problem. No, not if we take care of them. The average mistake we make when given a dog, pure bred or mix breed pet or guard dog, is not having a place to keep one. When given a dog or pet, the average dog owner will say "What the Heck. I don't have anything to keep him in. I'll just turn it loose.

Neighbors won't mind. It will stay around the house." Neighbor across the street buys him a dog. Pays out good money. Builds kennel, keeps up because he has money invested. Although we have dog laws, leash laws, no barking laws. Are they expensive. You answer this one. Say you buy your child a pet. Pay $50. He lives (if he's lucky). Yes, counting doggie doctor bills, dog food, collars, leashes, ect. at the end of seven years he has cost you around $700. Is it worth it? Yes, the enjoyment you get out of owning a dog of some breed, whether a child's pet, guard dog, stock dog, seeing eye dog or an old man's hunting dog. I was down south a few years back. Coming through (Cracker State) kept seeing bill boards K9 City ahead. City Limit sign population one thousand people and thousand good dogs. Sign said "We love our children. We love our hound dogs. Drive slow. The dog you hit might be your own." Another sign read "These streets patrolled by doggie police or Visa Versy." Signs like "Hound Dog Hotel, Red Dog Saloon." Sign on doggie motel said "Lassie Slept here."

Pulled in to service station to get gas. I asked the attendant "Where is everybody." He looked at me and grinned. "Everybody's gone coon hunting. I'm the only one open today. The bank closed too. Yes, he said the bank owned the Hound Dog Hotel and the Red Dog Saloon." I thought to myself, "I would give anything just to hear some good old hound dog music on a hot coon track on a cold November night."

Floydada Care Center Happenings

The Free Spirit Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church decorated our home for St. Patrick's day. The residents have been enjoying the lovely wishing wells for table decorations, green hats for doors and lobby decorations. We appreciate each person for their love and hard work.

We didn't take the bus trip this week because of dust and high winds. However, Mr. Emmet Laurence and I went downtown to buy craft supplies Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. W.C. Cates won four games in bingo this week. Victoria Asher won two games and Francis Childs, Mammie Gray, Willie Stambaugh, Clara McNeely, Geneda Roberts, Ray Reed, Clara Williamson and Emmet Laurence won one game each.

Those enjoying bible study were: Mr. W.C. Cates, Francis Childs, Verna McSwain, Willie Stambaugh, Myrtle Roy, Ella Finley, Mollie Jones, Victoria Asher, Travis Corley and Clara McNeely.

Thursday, March 13 was our monthly birthday party hosted by the City Park Church of Christ ladies. We had fine happenings. Month: Mrs. Jewell Ethel Collins, Geneda Roberts.

Cake and punch served to all residents and employees. It was enjoyable afternoon.

Many thanks for this week: Shayla and Kayla Nova Evans, Miss Free Spirit Sunday Class, Wiley Roberts, Marver, Susan, Lois Jones, Mrs. Geneda Roberts.

Motley County Junior Livestock Show Schedule

The 40th annual Motley County Livestock Show will be held at the old FFA building in Matador Monday, March 24th, according to Joe Ike Clay, Chairman of the Motley County Livestock Association, sponsor of the show for 4-H and FFA members under the supervision of local advisors.

Steers, market hogs and market lambs must be weighed and tagged by 9:30 with weighing starting at 7:30. Rabbits and heifers must be entered by 9:30.

Market hogs must weigh 190 to 250 pounds, and can be either barrows or gilts. Steers must weigh 800 pounds or more, and must not have any permanent teeth that show at time of weighing. Sheep must weigh from 80 to 140 pounds and all milk teeth must be intact. An exhibitor may show up to 6 market hogs, 2 market lambs and 2 rabbits. There is no limit on steers.

The heifer classes are open living in Motley County, owning land in Motley County, or Jr.'s eligible to show in the Jr. Livestock Show. A maximum of 2 heifers, cross-bred or straightbred may be shown. They must be from 12 to 18 month of age.

The show starts at 10:00 a.m. and proceeds as follows: Light steers, medium steers, heavy steers, Grand Champion Steer. The following rule applies to steer, lamb and market hog classes. If 15 or more animals are shown, they will be divided into 3 classes; 9 thru 14 animals, 2 classes; 8 animals or less, 1 class. Class will be divided approximately equal depending on weights, but the same weight will not be placed into separate classes in each class. If weights of several animals are the same at the division of classes, all of the same weight will be placed in the lighter weight class.

The sale of the top 6 animals in the market classes will follow selection of the Grand Champion Steer. After the floor bids are auctioned, sale premium on animals (Dollars over floor bid) will start. All hogs must sell due to health regulations, but steers or lambs may be withheld from the sale if the exhibitor wishes. Billy's Grocer, Matador,

Wayland President Announces Retirement

Dr. Roy C. McClung, president of Wayland Baptist College since 1963, announced to the College's Board of Trustees Thursday his plans to retire from his position as chief executive officer.

In making the announcement at the regular spring meeting of the Board, McClung, 62, said his retirement would be effective on the day a new president is installed-possibly as early as July 1 (the 17th anniversary of his presidency) but no later than Jan. 1, 1981.

As a result of the announcement, a search committee to be appointed by Gene V. Owen, chairman of Board, will be established for the task of finding a replacement for McClung, whose relationship with Wayland began 21 years ago when he was elected to the Board of Trustees while serving as pastor of Plainview's First Baptist Church.

While explaining his decision at this time, McClung said, "The reasons behind the move, I think, are quite obvious. This is a very significant part of a personal, longstanding plan of mine. Mrs. McClung and I have made mental adjustments toward this end for at least seven years."

"Wayland Baptist College is at a major turning point in its history," McClung said. "We are seeing a real explosion of changes and opportunities for expanded services in the programs and general environment under which Wayland is operating. The future is opening in exciting ways, a whole new day is dawning, and this is the time for a new leader and new approaches."

Young Children, Developing Concern

Parents can influence even very young children to have concern for others — if their message of concern is forceful, according to Diane Welch, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

While traditional child development theories hold that young children are selfish, ego-centered and unable to show behavior before ages five or six, recent studies are providing different evidence.

How do we keep our oil from running out?

Although oil is used in Texas only as a standby fuel for electric generation, your member-owned electric cooperative supports the rapid development of alternate fuels such as coal and nuclear for complete petroleum independence in generating a more abundant supply of power.

This additional electricity can then be used to power a lot of things that presently run on oil. It can save our oil for the jobs that only oil can do and save you money.

"FACES"

The Face Of An Unhappy Marriage

THE FACE OF AN UNHAPPY MARRIAGE

A lonely man finds excuses to work late or to be out of town a great deal to keep from being home and facing a marriage that seems worn out. At his home a lonely woman drops into bed, worn out from the responsibility of the children, only to find she cannot sleep, and in the darkness tears roll down her cheeks.

What can be said that could generate a spark of hope in a man and a woman who have vowed "for better or for worse...till death do us part" but have found they are unable to communicate and unable to love?

A rebellious adolescent, a bed-wetting child, a bitter woman, and a distraught, frustrated man vividly portray an unhappy marriage that affects the whole family. The serious side effect of an unhappy marriage is children with no direction and no inner feeling that someone is in control. These children grow up and act out these hopeless feelings with a family of their own who will be headed in the same destructive direction. If this were the whole story the situation would be hopeless. But there is more that needs to be told. How little we hear about broken marriages that are made whole!

The word "hope" seems to have disappeared from the hearts of men and women who think the choice is "go on living like this" or "get a divorce". Most couples with serious marital problems believe that when they no longer feel love for each other the marriage is without hope.

NO marriage is without hope as long as both partners, or sometimes even one, will hope and work. The problems that ruin marriages go beyond money, sex, personality clashes, interfering relatives, or even unfaithfulness. These disruptions are symptoms of the real trouble rooted deep within the person.

The marriage of two people breaks down when the people break down. A marriage is meaningless when the partners have lost or have never found the true meaning of life. Marriages are mended when a man and a woman learn the secret of living beyond themselves, when each can project himself to meet the needs of the other. This takes deep commitment (a word too often omitted when talking about love and marriage), thought, confrontation, honesty, humility all of the depth of attributes that dwell inside a person but which too often lie dormant under the self life of rejection, manipulation, pride, and self gratification.

If you have a bad marriage it is really up to you to be honest enough to face yourself first or have your marriage become another statistic.

If you need help CALL US! "FACES" is a monthly presentation of the Central Plains MHMR Center, 2700 Yonkers, Plainview, phone 296-2726. The Floydada office is located in the court house. Phone 983-2584.

"Knowing how to use the Floyd County Public Library and the Floyd County Branch Library at Lockney would vastly increase the knowledge of Floydada and Lockney Area citizens," according to librarian Jackie Walls. "Relationships today are held together by person-to-person communication. Reading is probably one of the weak links in the chain. Many people spend about one-fourth of their time reading, not only reading poorly but merely glancing at what they are reading. Americans read at about 35 percent level of efficiency."

The 12,000 people in the Floydada trade area need to develop habits of reading materials which would go way beyond their interest levels. In this way, the citizen can have a more comprehensive way of understanding issues which confront the community, state and nation.

For example, the 200 section of the library covers religion. Proper use of this section will give a person a deeper understanding of his church and the person will develop a deeper spiritual sense of values.

The Floyd County Public Library is designed to help the citizens of this area to become better informed and better able to communicate with their fellow persons.

- CHARLIE NEEDS A CLOAK. 8 min. Color. 1977. Weston Woods. Pre-El. Based on the book of the same title by Tomie De Paola, an animated film in which a shepherd shears his sheep, cards and spins the wool, weaves and dyes the cloth, and sews a beautiful new cloak — despite the "help" of the sheep.
- CLOTHING AND FASHION: A HISTORY. 26 min. Color. 1972. Benchmark

Films. El-A. A humorous, informative study of the evolution of fashions in clothing from Egyptian times to the present. Creative animation throughout.

DISCOVERING COUNTRY AND WESTERN MUSIC. 24 min. Color. 1977. BFA Educational Media. Traces the development of country and western music through the recollections and performances of five different artists ranging in age from 16 to 77. Interesting and entertaining.

THE DOUGHNUTS. 26 min. Color. 1964. Weston Woods. El-A. Automation runs wild as Uncle Ulysee's labor-saving doughnut machine comes to Centerburg one peaceful night. Adapted from the book by Robert McCloskey, "Homer Price."

FRUSTRATING FOURS AND FASCINATING FIVES. 22 min. Color. 1953. McGraw-Hill. Adult. Explains and contrasts the behavior of four- and five-year old children. Takes up problems of discipline and shows what may be explained to a child of four or five.

GUNS: BE SAFE NOT SORRY. 14 min. Color. 1975. Universal Education and Visual Art. Upper El-SH. Examines the proper use along with the capacity for destruction of guns. This film helps to develop a healthy respect for pistols and rifles.

HAROLD AND THE PURPLE CRAYON. 8 min. Color. 1957. Weston Woods. Pre-El. An allegorical look at the creativity of the imagination of young children. Preschool children will love Harold's ability to create whatever he needs on his journey.

INCREDIBLE SCHOONER. 20 min. Color. 1975. Paramount. JH-A. Authentic re-enactment of one of the most memorable yacht races of all time, the first American cup in 1851.

IRA SLEEPS OVER. 17 min. Color. 1978. Phoenix Films. El Adapted from the children's book by Bernard Waker, "Ira Sleeps Over" is the story of a little boy named Ira, who is invited for the very first time to sleep over at a friend's house.

THE JOY OF ACHIEVEMENT. 15 min. Color. 1974. Dana Productions. JH-A. Portrays the satisfaction taken by people of all ages and races in the thrill of creating, both in work and personal interest situations. Lou Rawls sings film's theme song.

MANY MOONS. 13 min. Color. 1973. McGraw-Hill. El Adaptation of James Thurber's tale of little Princess Lenore, who demands from her father the moon. The simple wisdom of the child outshines adult cynicism about her wish.

PADDLE TO THE SEA. 28 min. Color. 1967. McGraw-Hill. Pre-El. A children's odyssey concerning a little Indian in a canoe, hand-carved in the northern forest and launched toward the sea in the spring. The film gives vivid impressions of Canada's varied landscapes and the life of its waterways. Based on Holling C. Holling book of the same title.

PIGS. 11 min. Color. 1967.

Churchill Films. Pre-El. Presents a day in the life of a herd of pigs and piglets, who eat and sleep, and explore their barnyard. An hilarious look at "piggishness."

THE PREDATORS. 26 min. Color. 1977. Stouffer Productions. JH-A. Beautiful and exciting photography showing some North American wild predators. Shows how they are a part of the balance of nature. Robert Redford narrates.

THE TRANS-ALASKA PIPELINE. 27 min. Color. 1975. Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. JH-A. Shows the challenges of construction of the 800-mile Alaskan pipeline, largest private construction project ever attempted. Sponsors stress the measures they took to minimize negative environmental effects.

WILDFLOWERS OF THE WEST. 12 min. Color. 1967. Barr Films. El-A. Follows the northward progress of spring, showing wildflowers of the Western desert, seashore, valleys, and mountains. Depicts the flowers' relationships to their environments and points out the problems of conserving our natural resources.

YOU AND OFFICE SAFETY. 9 min. Color. 1966. Xerox Films. Adult. So you thought that you were very safe in that quiet office! Here is a humorous portrayal of at least 101 ways that one can harm oneself and one's fellow employees around the office.

YOUR CHANCE TO LIVE: TORNADO. 12 min. Color. 1978. JH-A. Breath-taking odyssey of a tornado as it destroys a small town and threatens the lives of three people caught in the open.

Energy Saving Can Mean Tax Saving

According to the Internal Revenue Service installing insulation, storm windows, solar heating and other devices can reduce the energy used to heat and cool your home. These expenditures can also reduce your federal income tax bill if you qualify for the residential energy credits.

There are two kinds of residential energy credits available to individuals: a home energy conservation credit for money spent on equipment to conserve energy in your personal residence; and a renewable energy resource credit for alternate energy sources such as solar, wind or geothermal devices. These are available to both renters or owners of a dwelling, provided they actually pay for the items.

Probably the most common ways to save energy are to install storm or thermal windows and doors, insulate the roof, floors, walls, and then the outside of your hot water pipes and water heater. Or you might spend a little more money modifying your furnace to burn fuel more efficiently, or adding an automatic set back thermostat to save energy when you're not at home.

The money you spend for these types of components is eligible for the energy conservation credit. You are entitled to a credit of 15 percent of the first $2,000 you spend on these components — that's a maximum of $300. The credit is based on the cost of items installed after April 19, 1977, and before January 1, 1986. The $2,000 limit applies to each new principal residence. But remember, in order for your home to qualify, it must have been built or substantially completed before April 20, 1977.

Some persons might install alternate energy equipment, such as solar collectors, windmills, or geothermal devices which are eligible for the renewable energy sources credit. This is 30 percent of the first $2,000 and 20 percent of the next $8,000. Unlike the energy conservation credit, this may be claimed for equipment installed in your personal residence no matter when it was built.

Certain items are specifically excluded from the residential energy credit. For example, drapes, carpeting, wood paneling and exterior siding may have an insulating effect, but are primarily structural or decorative. Other items that are not eligible for the credit include wood or peat burning stoves, heat pumps, fluorescent lights, and hydrogen fueled equipment.

You compute the residential energy credit on Form

5696, "Energy Credits" and enter the credit on line 45 of your Form 1040. You may not claim the credit on Form 1040A.

For more information, see the free IRS Publication 903, "Energy Credits For Individuals." It can be ordered by mail using the order form in the tax package, or by calling the IRS number listed in the phone book. If more convenient, it can be picked up at most IRS offices.

Social Security Questions And Answers

Virginia DeWitt
Social Security Representative

Question: A friend of mine has a 17-year-old daughter who is retarded. Could the child get SSI payments on the basis of disability?

Answer: If the child is eligible in all other respects, a retarded child under 18 (or under 21 attending school) is considered disabled for SSI purposes and may be eligible for payments if his or her IQ is 59 or less. A slightly different definition applies to older retarded persons. A retarded child with a higher IQ also may be considered disabled, depending on whether the child has a physical or other mental impairment and the degree to which the child depends on others, or the child's ability to achieve developmental milestones. For more information, contact any social security office.

For further information regarding Social Security benefits please contact the Social Security office, 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview, Texas. A telephone call to the Plainview office may save you time and a trip.

Floydada Nursing Home Birthday Honorees

REST HOME FLOYD BIRTHDAY SET 228

March is such a frisky month
...To slow her down, NO way...
So let us have a party
And join her in her play!

We greet Geneda Roberts
...Who counts from 1908...
She always loves a party
And wouldn't dare be late!

Our Mrs. Hallie Bertrand
...Whose years are 86...
Is a very lovely lady
But STILL she keeps her "tricks".

Now Mrs. Ethel Collins
Is a lady nice to know...
She welcomes all her visitors
And hates to see them go!

Mrs. Artie Newell
Has been a special friend
To one and all who know her...
On THAT you can depend.

Our Mrs. Jewell Jackson
...Whose years are 88...
Knows much about the "early days"
And stories can relate.

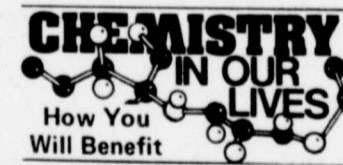

Let's join these ladies
With the HAPPY BIRTHDAY song...
So join right in the singing
And come out good and strong!

Thursday, March 13, was birthday time again at the Rest Home. The celebration was hosted by ladies of the City Park church of Christ. Residents were ushered into the dining room with the five honorees being seated at the "honor" table. Their places were marked with special birthday cards and the table was covered with a "birthday" cloth and centered with a lovely arrangement of silk flowers in spring colors.

The Hesperian photographer came for the picture taking, after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the "birthday" song. Mrs. Hallie Bertrand had as her special guests her daughter, Gladys Widner, and daughter-in-law, Laurita Bertrand. Seated with Mrs. Collins was her daughter, Mary Adams, and Dana Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Roberts, was her special guest. A beautifully decorated, chocolate covered birthday cake was served along with a delicious fruit punch. The next party will be Thursday, April 17, 2:30. You are invited to be with us and please make a special effort to be there if you have a relative or close friend being honored.

AN ONION A DAY?
Although it's probably premature to put an onion on your medicine shelf, scientists have found a substance in the humble vegetable that is known to lower blood pressure.

The new findings, reported at a meeting of the American Chemical Society/Chemical Society of Japan, marked the first time that one of the compounds called prostaglandins has been found in plants. Prostaglandin A₁ lowers blood pressure when injected intravenously. Whether the onion could actually lower blood pressure would depend on its untested ability to survive the digestive process.

Folklore has long held that eating onions could hold blood pressure down. Now scientists feel there may be some reasons to investigate.

Onions have been found to contain a substance that lowers blood pressure.

Gardening In The '80s

Despite the age of computers, it's unlikely that gardener's will be able to do all their chores by simply pressing a few buttons in the years ahead.

"Tilling the soil, hoeing weeds and spraying for bugs and diseases will probably be as commonplace during the 1980s as last year," says Dr. Sam Cotner, horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"One thing is sure, though—gardening will be even more popular in this new decade, more and more people are taking to gardening in an attempt to cut grocery costs as well as to simply grow things and get back to nature," he points out.

Gardening offers economical as well as psychological benefits, contends Cotner. In the age of computers and a "dog-eat-dog" world, gardening can be "just what the doctor ordered," a chance to "get away from it all."

At last look, some 31 million American households had gardens—all but the total, or one of a few families.

And gardening has come big business. Gardeners are spending $1 billion a year on garden equipment, food freezers and items. However, the dollars returns in the value of produce, notes the tourist. Gardeners about 11 percent of fruit and vegetables processed in the U.S.

Whether gardening is fun or profit or both suggests detailed selecting a site, drained site, and a small scale.

"Plant only what you can eat, have a surplus garden so that fresh vegetables round and not spring or summer."

"Gardening has a test of time and thing most people joy," contends Cotner. "It's real down-to-earth."

HERBISHIELD seed.
Safened sorghum seed, for effective grassy weed control.

Ordinary sorghum seed may be damaged by herbicides that control grassy weeds.

But now you've got a way to get top sorghum yields—plus effective control of grassy weeds. Because now there's Herbishield seed. It's safened by Funk's with a protective shield that lets you use new Milocep® herbicide to control grassy weeds while your sorghum flourishes.

Funk's Herbishield seed. The world's first safened sorghum seed. We've got it now, in hybrids just right for this area. Ask us about it.

CARDS OF THANKS

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our friends for the expressions of love and concern during the illness and loss of our loved one (wife and mother). All the prayers, cards, phone calls, food, flowers and visits were all greatly appreciated.
A special thanks to Rev. Smith, Clark, and all the Drs. God bless each and every one in our prayers.
