Surveyor 2 Bound For Lunar Target

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Surveyor 2 spacecraft rocketed with apparent bullseyes accuracy toward the moon today, aiming to soft-land on the lunar surface Thursday and take pictures of a crater-pocked plain where U.S. astronauts may walk within three years.

Initial tracking data indicates Surveyor 2's path 'is at least as accurate a launch as Surveyor 1 and is well within the capability of a midcourse motor to bring it within the landing point," the flight control center reported three hours after launching.

Surveyor 1, a twin to Surveyor 2, rocketed with pinpoint precision in June and achieved America's first soft-landing on the lunar surface.

Officials cautioned, however, that several hours of additional tracking would be necessary to confirm initial reports.

A powerful Atlas-Centaur rocket raced against the clock and thundered away from Cape Kennedy at 8:32 a.m. EDT to start Surveyor 2 on a 63-hour voyage which project officials predict will be "a cliff hanger all the way." The booster got off the ground with less than one second to spare.

If all goes well, Surveyor 2 will reach the moon about 11:28 p.m. Thursday, and will settle gently onto the Sinus Medii—Central Bay—a flat but potentially rugged plain located in the center of the moon's visible face.

Once there, its revolving camera eye is to scout around the area to see if it is a good landing spot for Amercan astronauts.

The "cliff hanger" label was good right from the beginning as the Atlas-Centaur just barely got off the launch pad on time. Another seven-tenths of a second and the shot would have been scrubbed, the launch director, Robert Gray, said.

The crew had only a 36-minute period ending just after 8:32 a.m. in which to fire the rocket to achieve the proper course. A balky valve that refused to close had held up the count for almost the entire period.

After the rocket was a minute off the pad, the blockhouse lost all power because of a momentary electrical failure at a relay station in Sanford, Fla. Gray said had this occurred in the final moments of the countdown, the shot would have been postponed.

To adjust for any course errors, Surveyor 2 carries a small motor which can be triggered by gound command. The first firing, intended to zero in on a desired landing zone, was scheduled for about midnight tonight.

Tracking stations reported all equipment aboard the 2,204-pound vehicle was operating and that the craft was responding to commands. Its three padded touchdown legs and antennas extended as planned and the craft aligned itself on the sun for cruising reference.

"We're looking real good," the control center reported.

Agreement On Ambulance Service Near

The city and county apparently are near agreement on the type of subsidy which might be offered an independent ambulance operator here, although no final action has been taken.

County commissioners yesterday voted to approve up to $250 per month for this purpose. At the same time, the Snyder City Council, in special session, gave its approval to a joint committee's recommendation that the city acquire title to a minimum of three ambulances which could be leased to an independent operator at a token fee. The county's participation apparently would be in the same manner that it participates in expenditures for rural fire fighting and the county would have no direct relationship to ownership of vehicles, etc.

City officials expressed interest in city ownership of vehicles because it would give the city direct control over the type and age of such equipment used and also would assure that vehicles would be available in the event that there should be a change in operators.

Local funeral homes, which have provided ambulance service here for years, announced several weeks ago that they would quit their ambulance service effective Oct. 1. Since then a joint city-county committee has been working on proposals for providing ambulance service. The committee had determined that a subsidy in some form probably would be required, although both local government agencies prefer that the actual service be provided by a private, independent operator.

Harris County Democrats Stage Protest

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — The liberal Harris County (Houston) delegation, representing about one-tenth of Texas Democrats, bolted the state convention and marched on the Capital in protest today after a committee drastically diluted its representation.

The action by Houston liberals, taken in the shade of a group of oak trees outside Austin's Municipal Auditorium, blew peace and harmony off the schedule of the state convention which was supposed to spend most of its time boosting Waggoner Carr for U.S. Senate.

"To hell with John Connally and his whole group," shouted Mrs. David Carr, Houston, a member of the State Executive Committee who earlier made an unsuccessful plea before the committee for her delegation.

"Stay together. We're going to meet with the valley farm worker men down at the capitol. September is the time the people of Texas rise up and ask for justice. The farm workers didn't get justice and we didn't either."

Jakartans Continue To Protest

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)— Thousands of students demonstrated in Jakarta today against President Sukarno for the second successive day, and again the army did not interfere.

More than 8,000 students massed in the heart of the capital to hear Sukarno accused of masterminding the attempted Communist coup last October. Troops made no move against them but surrounded Sukarno's palace to prevent any attempt by the demonstrators to march against it.

"Sukarno must get out of the palace on his own, or the students will throw him out," leaders shouted.

Indonesia's military government has been trying to dampen the student demands for Sukarno's ouster, fearing a civil war between fanatic supporters of the president and his student opponents. A military source said the anti-Sukarno students would be allowed to demonstrate but not on the 100,000-person scale they had planned.

One top-ranking general said earlier this week that the army would no longer recognize the "parliament of the streets" — a reference to the demonstrations which were largely responsible for Sukarno's transfer of most of his powers to the army strongman, Gen. Suharto.

The demonstration today was organized by the high school student action front, Kappi. Several thousand university students demonstrated Monday.

Highway Dept. To Push Local Work

A Texas Highway Department project through Snyder will proceed on schedule, it was agreed Monday at a meeting of the city council and Highway Department officials headed by District Engineer J. C. Roberts of Abilene.

The conference was called so that the highway and city officials could discuss upcoming Highway Department projects here in relation to a possible downtown development program in the central business district.

Roberts said bids already have been requested for opening Sept. 27 on two projects which would provide new surfacing for U.S. 180 from the east city limits to Avenue Z on the west side of town, and on Texas 350 from the northwest corner of the square in Snyder to the end of the curbing in the Cogdell Center reggion.

The highway department proposes complete new surfacing on these traffic arteries, including an asphaltic concrete overlay on the brick paving on the courthouse square. Roberts said the projects in Snyder amount to an estimated $141,000 in contracts and are part of a new program involving over $900,000 to be spent in Scurry County, including the U. S. 84 business route to the north.

After considerable discussion, city councilmen decided that the improvements planned by the highway department would not be in conflict with any possible beautification and improvement project around the square. Roberts had asked for a formal decision, noting that he needed to pull those portions of the highway department proposal before bidders submit their quotations in the event the city had other plans for the area around the square.

City officials expressed interest in the "overlay" treatment for brick streets. Roberts said experiements had indicated that it was feasible and that the highway department had applied some at several points.

"If it doesn't work, of course we will have to come in and fix it," the District Highway Engineer said.

The city council, in special session, also opened bids on two pieces of mechanical equipment but did not immediately award any contracts.

Snyder Truck and Tractor Co. had the apparent low bid on furnishing a new truck for garbage collection, with a net quotation of $3,455.02. Key Bros. Implement Co. was apparent low bidder on a tractor with mower and shredder with a net bid of $2,451.72.

Minuteman Explodes

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A Minuteman 1 intercontinental ballistics missile which exploded shortly after launch today started several grass and brush fires on this base, the Air Force reported.

A spokesman descirbed the fires started by burning debris as small and said they were in a remote area at the northern end of the base.

Demilitarized Zone Hit 'Round Clock

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) The U.S. Air Force pounded the demilitarized zone with day and night raids Monday, while a few miles to the south U.S. Marines reported killing 53 North Vietnamese troops in an assault on a fortified village.

The Leathernecks also reported killing 10 more North Vietnamese while defending forward positions near the Marine mountain bastion called "The Rockpile."

Air Force fighter-bombers hammered at North Vietnamese troops in the six-mile-wide buffer zone with 11 raids. Giant B52 bombers followed these blows with a heavy night bombing.

Over North Viet Nam, Air Force F105 Thunderchief pilots claimed they knocked out a whole train 55 miles northeast of Hanoi on one of the main lines leading to Communist China.

The Air Force did not give the number of boxcars in the train, but Maj. Neil Eddins, 34, of Las Vegas, Nev., described the destruction as "total, with all cars exploding, on fire and derailed."

Eddins, who led the raid, said the area was "a complete holocaust."

Other Thunderchief pilots reported hitting a surface-to-air missile site 40 miles northeast of Hanoi, while carrier-based Navy fliers claimed direct hits on two missile sites 30 miles from Thanh Hoa.

The raids Monday over the North, totaling 116 missions, cost one U.S. plane. An Air Force Thunderchief was shot down and the pilot is missing.

U.S. fliers also reported damage or destruction to 11 bridges, 35 barges, 16 military supply buildings and several oil storage depots in North Viet Nam.

American planes showered more than 2.5 million progaganda leaflets on North Viet Nam's southern Panhandle Monday, a spokesman said. One drop called on Red soldiers to desert to the allied side; another warned civilians that prices would rise as the war continued and wipe out their savings.

Among the raids on the demilitarized zone, which separates North and South Viet Nam, Air Force bombers hit along the western edge close to the border of Laos. A U.S. spokesman said they dropped fiery napalm on North Vietnamese troop positions and storage areas and touched off secondary explosions and fires.

Gloom Grips UN Opening

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly opens its 21st session today in an atmosphere of gloom, with East-West relations seriously impaired by the Viet Nam war and with little prospect of progress on major issues.

The only bright spots were the decision of Indonesia to resume its U.N. membership after an absence of 18 months and an indication from U Thant that he might continue as secretary-general until the end of the year if no successor is found in the next few weeks.

Advance agreement assured the election without a floor fight of Afghanistan's veteran Ambassador Abdul Rahman Pazhwak as assembly president for the 13-week session. This will clear the way for quick organization of the 117-nation body.

Although the Viet Nam war is not formally on the assembly's agenda, it is expected to play a major role both in the general debate which begins later this week and in the discussions of disarmament, outer space law and other issues coming up later in the session.

In what could be a move to put the war before the assembly, Czechoslovakia proposed Monday that the assembly debate "the prohibition of the threat or use of force in international relations."

U.N. officials estimated that more than 80 heads of government, foreign ministers and other cabinet members would be present for at least part of the session. They will not only take part in the debates but will engage in behind-the-scene talks. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was among those expected at the opening session.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk already has arranged to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko on Thursday in an effort to improve U.S.-Soviet relations. U. S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said Viet Nam would be a subject for discussion, but in the past the Soviet Union has refused to talk about peace moves.

Thant told a news conference Monday that East-West relations had dropped to a new low, mainly because of the Viet Nam war, and that there had been a stiffening of the attitudes by all sides.

ADULT CLASSES ARE STILL OPEN

Due to requests of several who had conflicts last week, adults will be given one more opportunity this evening to enroll in typing, shop and art classes at Snyder High School.

Those interested have been asked to report by 6:45 p.m. Those who wish to take the typing course should report to Room 110, while those interested in art should report to Room 224 and those interested in shop should report to the industrial arts building.

Medicare's Delays Are A Problem

Medicare, as many large undertakings, has kinks that need to be ironed out and Cogdell Memorial Hospital has felt the pinch.

"Our greatest problem has been getting the money back," Cy Miller, Cogdell Administrator, said.

"Through the 14th of this month we have received about 1-3 of the money charged and when you are operating on a 50 per cent medicare patient load, things become a bit difficult."

Cogdell Memorial still has not received money on some patients admitted July 1 when Medicare went into effect.

Papers of approval are completed when a patient is admitted and are then sent on to the Dallas Blue Cross office. Blue Cross then checks with the Social Security office in Baltimore and if a patient's name is not found on the master tape, Blue Cross is required to wait eight days before checking again.

In the meantime Social Security personnel are constantly adding names to the master tape and with luck the inquired about patient's name will be on the tape when Blue Cross re-checks.

Such is not always the case. It has been as long as 30 days before Cogdell Memorial has received approval. Luckily, it hasn't happened but a patient could be dismissed before the hospital receives a 'not approved" slip from Blue Cross.

Teachers Strike Harlem School

NEW YORK (AP)—An integrated teaching staff struck a new $5-million model school in Harlem today to protest the replacement of the white principal by his Negro assistant.

The replacement of the principal, who said he volunteered to step aside, was made to appease Negro parents whose threat of a boycott had kept the school closed for a week.

Despite the strike, the school opened for the first time today as a few of the staff, augmented by other teachers, set up classes for some 500 pupils. The pupils are predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican.

Beryl Banfield, who had earlier balked at moving up to principal, agreed today to assume her duties, according to Murray Hart, school district superintendent.

After the board of education announced Monday that Stanley Lisser had volunteered to step down as principal to ease the racial tensions, Mrs. Banfield said: "I object to being chosen on the basis of color, not competence." She said she did not want the job.

Hart said 14 teachers were on duty at the school, including some regularly assigned there. "We are making every attempt to conduct a full day's education program," he said.

A group of teachers picketed the school carrying a sign reading "All of us or none of us." A second group marched in front of the board's offices in Brooklyn.

GRENADA CLASSES

Dr. King Leads Negro Students

By JOHN PEARCE

GRENADA, Miss. (AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King led 167 Negro pupils on a march to desegregated schools here today but stopped at a police barricade.

When the column reached the barricade at the schools, where state highway patrolmen have been turning back all but teachers, parents and pupils, Dr. King stepped aside to watch the children go by.

He and the officers did not exchange words.

Before the march started, King told the pupils and parents he had requested a meeting with city officials today, and was awaiting a reply.

He indicated new civil rights demands may be made, noting that Grenada Negro leaders had submitted a list of 53 demands to the city last July.

Earlier, Mississippi's grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan had vowed to bring Klansmen to Grenada if Dr. King stays "to create ill will and dissension."

E. L. McDaniel of Natchez, state chief of the United Klans of America, said Monday night, "I will come nonviolent, but will not be stepped on or pushed around."

The Klansman issued his statement as King spoke to a rally in a crowded church. After the rally, 650 civil rights demonstrators marched under heavy police guard to the town square.

King came to this racially troubled north Mississippi town Monday night. Some of his aides said he would leave today after marching with Negro children to integrated classrooms.

More than 900 persons crowded into the New Hope Baptist Church to hear King.

"I am disturbed about the white community," he told them. "There are still all too many white people in our country who will use violence to try to keep us down. There are still white persons who will murder and assassinate Negroes simply because they want to be free."

The boys, members of a music group, signed a contract that forbids their hair being cut short. (AP Wirephoto)

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last Saturday my [illegible] and I went shopping. One couple there had turned their three children loose. One child narrowly missed me with her flying foot, fluing out behind her.

She was just kicking her legs around for the sheer fun of it. Another child came charging toward me and stamped squarely on my foot. (I was wearing sandals and my foot ached half that night.)

"WHAT on earth is the matter with you?" his mother appeared horrified that I would use that tone on her child.

Why do people take their untrained, ill-mannered children in public places and turn them loose on the public?

B. E. K.

DEAR B. E. K.: Because the parents themselves are untrained and ill-mannered. The children are not to blame. They cannot be expected to know what they haven't been taught. And when they get into trouble for destroying property or for being disrespectful to teachers, parents blame everybody but themselves.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 and live with my grandparents because my mother is an alcoholic. She comes here once in a while and straightens up, then she goes out and starts drinking again.

Abby, I love my mother, despite all the heartaches she has caused our whole family. I have begged, pleaded, cried, and prayed, but it hasn't done any good. Mother says she loves us and would do anything for us, but she still drinks.

She has lost two husbands and four children from drinking. Dear Abby, can you help a girl who—

LOVES HER MOTHER

DEAR GIRL: Try to persuade your mother to seek the help of Alcoholics Anonymous. They are listed in your telephone book. Thousands of alcoholics have found this to be the only hope for sobriety.

There is also an organization called "ALATEEN" for teenagers who have parents with a drinking problem. Investigate it. Perhaps thru them you can learn how to help your mother. Good luck, honey.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I have a 13-year-old sister who is too clean. If someone sneezes near her, she will run out of the room or hold her breath. If someone touches her food, she won't eat it. She sterilizes her toothbrush everytime she goes to use it. She won't use a hand towel if anyone else has touched it. When we go anywhere, she won't touch doorknobs or railings with her bare hands. The whole family has told her she is being ridiculous. Is she?

SIS

DEAR SIS: Your sister should talk to a psychiatrist about her motions. Those who have a morbid fear of 'dirt" or germs are called "mysophobic," an emotional abnormality.

New Housing Continues To Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Housing starts—now at their lowest level since the 1960 recession—continued to decline during August but at a slower pace than July, the Commerce Department reported today.

It was the fifth straight month of decline in this key indicator of economic activity and the home builders look for an even further drop. They don't see any real upturn until next spring.

New privately owned housing starts dropped 2 per cent during the month to a seasonally adjusted annual role of 1,057,000 units. This was the lowest level since December 1960, when the rate was 1,048,000.

July's level was 16 per cent below June.

The August drop was concentrated in the South. Rates in the West and North Central regions increased while in the Northeast the level was substantially unchanged.

The department's monthly report hinted at possible further declines.

Building permits issued during August dropped 12 per cent from July to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 808,000 units, the lowest since the department began compiling this series of statistics in January 1959.

The number of new building permits issued in one month is normally a good indicator of the direction housing starts will take in the following month.

Market Takes Watch, Wait Attitude

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly lower early this afternoon in dull trading.

Wall Street seemed to be continuing a watch-and-wait attitude, receiving no new stimulus following the halt of last week's big rally.

Losses of one or two points by some pivotal blue chips depressed the average even while investment demand firmed several of the tobaccos, utilities and electrical equipments.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 3.12 at 807.73.

The trend was lower among motors, mail order-retails, electronics, chemicals, nonferrous metals and oils.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.2 at 290.7 with industrials off 2.4, rails off .3 and utilities off .4.

Down about 2 points were Du Point, IBM and General Motors.

Among 1-point losers were such stocks as Eastman Kodak, Woolworth, Zenith and Sears, Roebuck.

International Nickel, which has settled labor difficulties, bucked the downtrend with a 1-point gain. New York Central was up abont a point.

Eastern Arlines added a point or so in a scrambled airline section.

Moderate gains were posted by a varied assortment of blue chips.

Prices were mostly lower in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Test Planned For Electric Auto

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. will test a prototype electric-powered car in England next year and later introduce it in the United States.

Company confirmation of this came today in the wake of speculation last week that Ford had made a breakthrough toward a battery-powered car capable of meeting traffic requirements.

Ford is experimenting with a lightweight, sodium-sulfide battery and said it might prove more economical than a gasoline-powered engine.

A Ford spokesman declined to be drawn into speculation when a battery-powered car might become competitive or how far one battery charge would take it.

Other sources, however, speculated one charge might give the range of a tank full of gasoline and that the car might be competitive with today's gasoline-powered vehicles within five years.

"That's one of the things we hope for but we don't know yet," said one Ford source with reference to one battery charge being the equivalent of a tank of gasoline.

If this happened, battery stations might displace gas stations.

General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp., Ford's major competitors, are known to be experimenting with both batteries and fuel cells, among other possible new power plants. There has been at least one unconfirmed report GM is well along in development of battery-power and may have an announcement soon. GM declined comment.

Speculation regarding a Ford breakthrough developed after a speech last week by Ford President Arjay R. Miller at nearby Ann Arbor.

Discussing gasoline-powered automobiles and their relation to air pollution, Miller said in a speech at the University of Michigan:

"The ideal answer to this problem (of air pollution) would be development of a vehicle powered by a source that would not produce emissions. The most promising candidate at present appears to be a battery-powered electric car."

Autumn Weather Early In Texas

Comfortable autumn weather, a few days ahead of fall's official arrival on the calendar, spread over most of Texas today.

It was partly cloudy in West Texas and a few other spots, and a few light showers speckled the west part of the Panhandle. Skies were generally fair elsewhere.

Early morning temperatures ranged down to 56 degrees at Dalhart and 58 at Tyler.

Little change was expected. Forecasts promised a continuing pattern of mild readings during daylight hours and rather cool nights.

Thursday Showdown Vote Due On Powell's Future

By WILIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's future as chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee may be decided Thursday by the 10 Republican members of the committee.

As of today most of the GOP members professed not to have decided how they will vote — if they vote at all — in the showdown on a move to strip the controversial New York Democrat of most of his power and leave him with the empty title of chairman.

Spearheading the drive to clip Powell's wings is Rep. Sam M. Gibbons, D-Fla., who long has jousted with the Negro chairman and wants to split Powell's powers among an executive group of six subcommittee chairmen.

From 9 to 12 of the 21 committee Democrats reportedly are siding with Gibbons. If all committee members vote, Gibbons would have to have some Republican help to muster the 11 votes needed to win.

Gibbons expressed confidence he would come up with the necessary strength.

"I have the votes," he told a reporter.

"I'm going to lose," Powell said with equal confidence. "Did you ever see me lose one?"

Powell told the House Monday that under his chairmanship 55 major pieces of legislation have been brought to the House floor and passed. He said they include some of the most far-reaching educational measures in the nation's history.

The House Democratic leadership was taking a hands-off attitude. Speaker John W. McCormack told newsmen the decision on Powell's future was a committee matter.

Republicans said they had not been approached by the dissident Democrats and had not taken a party position. If they decide not to vote at the showdown scheduled for Thursday morning, Gibbons would have to muster 11 of the 21 Democrats to win. If the Republicans do show up and vote, most of them reportedly would side with Gibbons.

Not ruled out was the possibility of a compromise before Thursday's session.

Some members would just as soon put off the showdown until the new Congress convenes next January. The current move to strip Powell would be effective only for the remainder of the present session.

Behind it is dissatisfaction with Powell's private and personal activities, some members claiming his frequent absences from Washington and his office payroll practices have reflected on the House itself and have impeded legislation.

Lad's Five Rabbits Bring Good Price

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Honeywell, Inc., paid 9-year-old Mark Dearden $2.605 for five rabbits.

The boy raised two litters and agreed to sell five to a neighbor who is a biochemist at Honeywell, for research purposes. The agreed upon price was $15.

Mark had plans to buy a bicycle for a sister, and model airplanes when his parents told him to return the check.

Sen. Dirksen Pledges To Push School-Prayer Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate moves today toward a vote on Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's proposed constitutional amendment on school prayers, an issue which Dirksen declares "is not going to die."

"This issue is not going to be diverted or subverted. If we fail now, this resolution will be back," Dirksen said. "I mean to have it back."

The tone of his remarks indicated the Senate Republican leader had little hope he could muster the required two-thirds majority when the Senate reaches a vote, expected today or Wednesday.

With a two-hour speech, Dirksen brought his amendment before the Senate Monday by proposing it as a substitute for a routine resolution asking President Johnson to designate Oct. 31 as National UNICEF (U.N. Children's Fund) day.

The Dirksen amendment which would permit voluntary prayers in public schools quickly ran into opposition from Sen. Birch Bay, D-Ind.

Bay prepared a "sense of Congress" resolution he said was designed to encourage voluntary silent prayers in public schools. He said he would offer his resolution as a substitute for Dirksen's, meaning the Senate would vote on it first.

Dirksen's amendment, bottled up in committee since he introduced it in March, is aimed at Supreme Court decisions forbidding official prayers in public schools.

TAX ANSWERS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

• • •

Q — I just received a letter from the IRS service center about my return. Can the local office here help me with it?

A — Yes. However if the letter is sent from the service center, the requested information should be sent back to the service center unless other instructions are given.

When you call or visit your local IRS office, have the letter handy for reference purposes.

Q — An adoption agency just placed a child in our home. Can we claim her as a dependent now for withholding purposes?

A — You can if the child was placed in your home by an authorized adoption agency for legal adoption by you.

Q — I had a part - time selling job last summer that required the use of a car. I didn't get an auto allowance. Are my mileage costs deductible?

A — Except for commuting expenses, the costs of business use of your automobile are deductible. You may deduct the actual expense, or if you prefer, a standard rate of 10 cents a mile for the first 15,000 miles and 7 cents a mile thereafter. Related parking fees may also be deducted.

Q — I spend more than $50 every three months for a maid but I don't always use the same woman. Do I have to pay Social Security tax for my household help?

A — You are liable for the tax only when you pay one person $50 or more cash wages in a calendar quarter. If you spend $50 in any quarter but split it between several persons, you are not liable for the tax.

Q — One of your tax assistance people helped me prepare my return and now it is being audited. If you question the accuracy of my return why don't you check with the person who helped prepare it?

A — The function of our tax assistance personnel is to explain the requirements of the law and assist in filing a complete return. They make no attempt to verify the information submitted and have no way of knowing whether what the taxpayers tell them about income, deductions, and exemptions is complete and accurate.

A — My daughter is getting married next month. Does that mean I will lose her exemption?

A — You will if she files a joint return with her husband. However, if her husband files a separate return you may claim an exemption for her if she otherwise qualifies as your dependent. In that case, you, not her husband, get the exemption.

Q — My son earned over $600 this summer. Do we lose our exemption for him?

A — Not necessarily. If he is under 19 or a full - time student, he may earn over $600 and you may still claim the exemption if he otherwise qualifies as your dependent.

If any tax has been withheld from his wages he must file a return to obtain a refund. In any event, he must file a return when his gross income is $600 or more. In filing such a return he also claims his own exemption.

Q — My father died and I am the beneficiary of his life insurance. Will this be taxable to me?

A — Death benefits from life, accident and health policies are not considered taxable income.

Q — I just receved a letter asking me to mail in my medical expense records. Instead of that can I bring them in so that I can explain them?

A — Yes. Call or write the office that requested the information so that an appointment may be arranged.

Search For Radium To Cover 3 States

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — A passenger train bearing a scientist and electronic gear begins a three-state search tonight for a tiny radioactive capsule capable of inducing illness after 30-minutes contact.

The capsule of radium weighing .3 gram — there are 450 grams in a pound — was lost while being shipped from Fort Worth, Tex., to New York in August.

Bob Craig, 39, an Oklahoma Health Department engineer, said the special electronic gear could locate the radium if the train passes within 1,000 feet of the vial at 90 miles per hour.

The search will cover Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Four 3-AAA Teams Remain Undefeated

Football teams of District 3-AAA continue to hold the upper-hand against outside opposition. Last week's 4-3 mark against outside foes left the district with an overall 10-4 record after two weeks of play.

There are four undefeated untied teams in the league: Snyder, Lamesa, Littlefield and Brownfield. Each of these teams sports a perfect 2-0 mark. Lake View and Levelland are each 1-1 for the season while Sweetwater, with an 0-2 history, is the only team in the district that still is looking for its first win.

Last week, Snyder was impressive in its 19-0 triumph over Stamford, and Lamesa raised a few eyebrows with its decisive 13-7 verdict at Andrews—a team that Snyder shaded 14-13 the previous week.

Brownfield continues to display a rugged defense. The Cubs shut out Lovington, N.M., 16-0. Littlefield came out about as expected in its 21-3 decision at Muleshoe. Lake View fell a 0-15 victim to Brady, Canyon socked Levelland, 22-6, and Sweetwater lost, 0-27, to strong Abilene.

There will be further basis for comparison between Snyder and Lamesa this week as the Tigers take on Big Spring there. The Golden Tornadoes copped a 15-0 effort over Big Spring in its initial game. As of now, everything points to a "thriller" Oct. 7 when Snyder journeys to Lamesa to take on the pre-season favorites in their first district game. The winner will be favored to take the crown, although in a year in which four teams remain unbeaten at this stage of the season, it is too early to count anyone out. Although they were weaker last year, all of the teams were about equal and the title was not decided until the final week. It could easily happen again.

Littlefield holds a slight edge over Snyder in scoring, and Brownfield holds a similar margin over Lamesa in defensive honors.

Other games this week find Seminole at Lamesa, Lubbock Coronada at Littlefield, Sweetwater at Colorado City, Brownfield at Andrews, Levelland at Denver City and Lake View at Odessa Ector.

The record:

TEAM	W	L	T	Pts	Opp
Snyder	2	0	0	33	13
Lamesa	2	0	0	28	7
Littlefield	2	0	0	34	15
Brownfield	2	0	0	28	6
Lake View	1	1	0	30	15
Levelland	1	1	0	19	34
Sweetwater	0	2	0	0	40
TOTALS	10	4	0	172	130

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS — Snyder 19, Stamford 0; Lamesa 13, Andrews 0; Brownfield 16, Lovington, N.M. 0; Littlefield 21, Muleshoe 0; Brady 15, Lake View 0; Canyon 22, Levelland 6; Abilene 27, Sweetwater 0.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE — Snyder at Big Spring; Seminole at Lamesa; Lubbock Coronado at Littlefield; Sweetwater at Colorado City; Brownfield at Andrews; Levelland at Denver City; Lake View at Odessa Ector.

Giants Slide Further Back

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Weenie has the Herman Frank in hot water.

However, Hot Don could prove meatier than both.

The Weenie skinned the Frank for the second straight game Monday and combined with Hot Don to leave the San Francisco Giants dangerously charred.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, possessor of the rubber Weenie, whipped San Francisco, owner of the synthetic Frank, 6-1 in 11 innings and dropped the third-place Giants four games behind National League-leading Los Angeles.

The Pirates, in second place, remained 1½ games back when the Dodgers crushed Philadelphia 6-1 behind the five-hit pitching of Don Drysdale, who could turn out to be the most potent weapon in the last two weeks of the pennant race.

The Green Weenie is a green-painted rubber replica of a hot dog which Pirate fans have been using jokingly to hex the opposition this season. The Herman Frank, named for the Giant manager, was unveiled last week.

Manager Franks was seated in his office before a game when one of his coaches, Charley Fox, dropped an orange-colored, synthetic hot dog on his desk.

"What's this?" Herman asked.

"Read what's on it," Fox replied.

Herman read. The object said, "A Herman Frank."

Explained Fox as he handed them to the Giant players:

"That's our secret weapon to counteract the Green Weenie."

The Frank, though, hasn't done much counteracting. Monday's defeat left the Giants in such a position that if the Dodgers win just seven of their remaining 13 games, San Francisco, would have to win 10 of its last 11 to gain a first-place tie.

The Pirates are a lot better off than that, but it may not do them any good now that Drysdale apparently has regained the technique that shot him into the $100,000 salary class.

The Dodger right-hander, a 23-game winner last season, hadn't done much for the Dodgers this year until recently. Now in his last three starts he's allowed just four runs and 14 hits in 26 innings.

In the only other NL game New York edged Houston 1-0. Baltimore out-lasted California 11-9, reducing its magic number in the American League pennant race to four.

The Pirates' Bob Veale had a one-hitter through eight innings, but Willie Mays' run-scoring single in the ninth tied the game 1-1. Pittsburgh then won in the 11th on Roberto Clemente's leadoff home run and Bob Bailey's grand-slam homer later in the inning, both off Frank Linzy.

In gaining his 11th victory against 16 defeats and first complete game since Aug. 18, Drysdale was backed heavily by Lou Johnson. The Dodgers' brilliant clutch hitter drove in three runs with two homers and a single. His first homer, in the second inning, put Los Angeles ahead to stay.

Frank Robinson hit his 46th homer, a three-run blast, in the Baltimore fourth inning, then broke an 8-8 deadlock with a two-run double in the sixth. Paul Blair contributed five hits to the Orioles' attack and scored four runs while Jim Fregosi collected four hits for California.

Goalie Glenn Hall of the Chicago Black Hawks has been voted to the National Hockey League All-Star team six times.

Hobbs Has Perfect Mark

After two weeks of competition, Hobbs is the only one of the smaller area schools that still has an undefeated, untied football team.

Coach Boxie Weems' Panthers clouted O'Brien, 44-6, last week after taking a 22-0 decision over Lueders in the season opener.

Gail, with one win and one tie has the next best record. Hermleigh is 1-1, and Ira continues to look for its first win. Several clashes are on tap this week with Hobbs hosting Mertzon, Gail at Goree, and Christoval at Ira. Hermleigh enjoys an open date.

QB's Have Field Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quarterbacks lead the major categories of Southwest Conference football statistics as the race enters its first full week.

Mac White of Southern Methodist tops the rushers—something unusual for a quarterback. He grabbed off 111 yards on 17 carries against Illinois to take the No. 1 spot.

Terry Southall, the Baylor quarterback who threw for 229 yards in 14 completions in 28 attempts against Syracuse, still is the No. 1 passer. He also leads in touchdown passes with four.

Southall also is the total offense leader with 240 yards on 36 plays and is 55 yards to the good over White, who, however, has the best average. Southall made 6.7 yards per play, White 7.4.

Larry Gilbert of Texas Tech nabbed seven passes for 103 yards and a touchdown against Kansas and is the leading receiver.

Kenny Vinyard of Texas Tech leads the punters with a 47.8 average, besting Bill Bradley of Texas by 1.5 yards per boot.

Chris Gilbert of Texas is giving White a run in rushing. He gained 103 yards on 14 tries against Southern California.

John Scovell of Texas Tech is back of Southall in passing. Scovell has thrown 20 and completed 11 for 150 yards and two touchdowns.

QB CLUB MEETS

The Snyder Quarterback Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Tuesday) at the High School cafeteria to see films of the Snyder-Stamford football game.

They also will hear a scouting report on this week's opponent — Big Spring — and game reports from the various coaches.

Pass Gamble Fails, 'B' Boys Lose, 8-0

If they had been content to settle for a scoreless tie, the Snyder High School Junior Varsity footballers still would be unbeaten today.

But that's not the story, and despite the fact that it led to their initial defeat, the Snyder B boys were part of an exciting show in Tiger Stadium Saturday night as the Big Spring B team took an 8-0 victory.

The only score in the ball game came on a pass interception and 35-yard runback by Big Spring's Roy Lee Warren with just 8 seconds left to play in the ball game. John Patton passed to Claude Tucker for the two extra points and that was all the scoring in a ball game that had seen the Snyder boys pick themselves up several times to halt promising drives and protect their goal line.

Ironically, Snyder B made only one first down in the first half, yet with the slightest kind of "break" they could have been leading at intermission. Joe Greer intercepted a Patton pass on the Big Spring 25 and rammed it back to the 18. Snyder then drove to the 7 before losing the ball on a fumble. Later in the same period, Steve Holder boomed a punt from midfield that was fielded eventually on the Big Spring one-yard-line. The ball was mishandled momentarily and two Snyder lads narrowly missed a recovery right around the goal line.

That, of course, comes under the heading of "what might have been." What actually occurred was a hard-fought defensive football game that saw Snyder B rise to the occasion several times when it appeared that Big Spring might get a potent offensive in gear.

Jon Holdren turned in one of the early key defensive plays stopping Big Spring's first drive by recovering a fumble on the Snyder 12 yard line.

Another defensive gem in the third period gave Snyder its best opportunity to score. David McGinnis swiped one of Pattons' passes on the Big Spring 30 and lugged it back to the 5. However, the Big Spring team rose up in the trenches and the ball went over on downs a few moments later on the 4 yard line.

Later, McGinnis figured in one of Snyder's best offensive maneuvers when he nabbed a pass from Steve Holder and slithered to the 7 yard line, the play covering 25 yards. When their offense couldn't go, Snyder tried a field goal from the 9, but it was wide of the mark.

Greer dealt the Big Springers misery all evening. He recovered a Big Spring fumble and stole his second Big Spring pass in the fourth period. Such operatives and Lonnie Fisk, Alan Rasco and Jerry January were spotted making timely tackles that made the Big Spring offense sputter.

Big Spring's best offensive weapon was the Patton-to-Tucker pass. One of them covered 50 yards, carrying to the Snyder 16, but once again the Snyder defense was equal to the task and pushed back their foe to the 26 before taking over on downs. Tucker ran a punt back 78 yards early in the fourth period, but one of his mates aided with a fingernail block and the effort was nullified by the holding penalty.

Lubbock Pro Is PGA Champ

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (AP) —Gene Mitchell Jr., who slipped around the soggy Great Southwest Golf Club course virtually unnoticed for three days, is the new Texas PGA champion. He also is $1,000 richer.

The 28-year-old Lubbock Country Club professional, tied for sixth place at the halfway mark in the 72-hole tournament, shot a one-under-par 141 on the final 36 holes Monday, including a two-under 69 on the last 18.

His par 284 total was one stroke better than runnersup Earl Stewart Jr. of Dallas and Miller Barber, the touring pro from San Antonio. Barber closed with a pair of 73s while Stewart had 75-71.

Mitchell put a third round 72 with his 69, which equalled the lowest round of the tournament over the rain-soaked 6,989-yard course.

John Arreaga of Waco was probably the most disappointed of the Texas pros in the 46th annual tournament. He was four under par with a pair of 69s after 36 holes and had a one-stroke lead over Barber and Stewart.

His third-round 72 left him two strokes up on Barber, four ahead of Stewart and five in front of Mitchell. Then disaster struck. He finished with an 11-over par 82 and a 292.

This put Arreaga in a tie for eighth place with defending champion Buster Cupit of Longview and Earl Jacobson of San Antonio. Each got $296.

Boyle Learns Wives Are Hypocrites

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little mysteries is what a modern wife does after frying her hubby's breakfast in the morning.

If you ask her she first throws her pretty eyelashes and starts cleaning the house of course.

The other day while waiting to catch a bus to go to work I fell into idle conversation with a young diaper deliveryman.

"This job has wrecked me for marriage," he volunteered. "I'll never get married."

"That so? Why?"

"Because I've learned too much about women — I mean too much about what they really are."

"What are they really?" I asked.

"They're hypocrites. Believe me, I know. I see them when they are off guard, and 99 out of 100 are hypocrites."

"How that?"

"Well, you see that apartment house over there?" he said, pointing at a nearby building. "There are 120 families living in it. All the wives are sending their husbands off to earn them a living. But if the husbands came back half an hour later, what do you think they'd find their wives doing?"

"Why, probably cleaning up the house," I ventured.

"Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha. You make me laugh."

"Well, what would they be doing?"

"Everything but cleaning up the house."

"Such as?"

"Well, most of them have probably jumped right back in bed for another snooze. They think they've done their main work for the day when they give their husband a bawling out and a piece of burnt toast and push him out the front door."

"Well, how about the ones that don't jump back in bed?"

"They're even worse," said the young man.

"What do they do?"

"They dye their hair, and figure out what they can take back and exchange at the department store, and call up their bookies to make bets and—"

"Make bets?"

"Yeah, most of them are too lazy to go to the track."

"Do they do anything else?"

"Mister, you wouldn't believe the half of what they do. They put on a robe and gather at a neighbor's for a coffee klatch. And it ain't always just for coffee. They swill gin fizzes and laugh at what fools they've got for husbands."

The young man left to make a delivery, and reaching in my pocket I found I had left my money in another suit.

Back I went and rang the bell to my apartment. My wife Frances came to the door with the phone in her hand but she said it wasn't the bookie she was calling but somebody else. There was a delicious smell coming from the stove, but she said it wasn't for her, it was some liver she was warming for the cat.

"Are you crazy or something, Rover?" she asked. "Go on to work."

"Why?"

"Why?" she asked. "Why, so I can start cleaning the house, silly."

Well, I just don't know. Whom can a husband believe — the neighborhood diaperman or his wife?

Negro Rioting, Extremism Served To Kill Rights Bill

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1966 civil rights bill has been strangled in a Congress which passed civil rights bills in 1965 and 1966. Why was this one killed Monday? There are a number of answers, not just one.

Chief executioner was Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, Illinois Republican. President Johnson can be given some of the blame, even though it was his bill. Negro civil rights leaders are split on what they want and how to get it.

One of them, the most extreme, Stokely Carmichael, called the civil rights bill a sham and said early he would not support it.

Negro riots and the angry or shocked white reactions undoubtedly were elements in the defeat. This violence, and some of the Negro leadership's extremism, alienated white moderates and liberals and hardened even more the opposition of white segregationists.

The senators who killed the bill were conscious of all these factors. The mail of some of them reportedly had been running 40 to 1 against the legislation.

One thing is clear as 1966 heads toward a close. The civil rights movement in this country, because of violence and extremism, has lost momentum and support.

Johnson presented the bill late to Congress, April 28, which some think was much too late. Besides, he did not give the impression, as battle surged around his proposal, that he was making a very vigorous fight for it.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, said when he first saw the bill that its open housing section was unconstitutional. The House watered down this section before passing the bill and sending it to the Senate.

Then Dirksen decided he was against the whole measure. This was the finishing touch since the Democratic leadership needed his help in rallying Republican Senate support.

The reason the support was needed was that Southern Democrats were going to try to filibuster the bill to death. To shut off debate a two-thirds Senate vote was needed, meaning a combination of Republican and non-Southern Democrats.

On the showdown vote Monday a majority of the Republicans refused to vote to shut off debate. The majority of Democrats, joined by 10 Republicans, were not enough to make up the needed two-thirds. After the debate-ending move failed, the bill was shelved by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield.

As if to illustrate his lack of interest in the bill, Carmichael, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, had told a Negro audience to remain in Negro areas rather than moving to "white neighborhoods."

Carmichael, arrested this month in Atlanta on charges of inciting a riot, has made the slogan, "black power," his rallying cry. Earlier this year he told a Negro group in nonvoting Washington, D.C., "If we don't get the vote, you're gonna burn down this city."

He has been quoted as saying it was time "to smash everything Western civilization has created."

Another Negro leader, Floyd B. McKissick, director of the Congress of Racial Equality, had derided Johnson's civil rights programs and called Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey racists. McKissick also makes "black power" his main talking point.

A Junior Editors Quiz About X-RAYS

QUESTION: How were X-rays discovered?

• • •

ANSWER: Early experimenters found that if you had a sealed glass tube from which the air had been drawn, with wires in each end, an electric current could pass through it. One day a scientist, Wilhelm Konrad Roentgen, was experimenting with a screen painted with certain chemicals which could be made to glow or fluoresce. The screen was a few feet away from a tube such as we mentioned, and the screen glowed in the dark. Roentgen put a piece of metal between the tube and screen; the light still came faintly through. Then he interposed his hand, and to his amazement saw his hand's shadow with the bones clearly showing. The scientist realized that a new kind of ray was coming from the tube. He called these X-rays to show that their nature was unknown. It was a great discovery, since doctors could look through their patients' bodies. Nowadays, in an X-ray tube, the cathode or negative end is heated so it gives out a stream of electrons which are hurled at a tungsten target at the other end. The atoms in the target are then forced to emit powerful X-rays.

FOR YOU TO DO: Hold your hand next to a bright light and see if you see any trace of the bones inside. 9-20

Republicans Open Convention Today

By PAUL RECER

SAN ANTONIO (AP)— Texas Republicans, bracing for an all-out effort for Sen. John Tower, today.

Sen. Tower, who faces state Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in the Nov. 8 election, keynotes the convention, which is expected to break into a strong expression of support for the Texas senator.

State party chairman Peter O'Donnell set the tenor for the convention Monday at the business meeting of the executive committee when he lashed into Carr and predicted victory for Republican flag-bearers.

"I am convinced in my mind that John Tower is now ahead in his race and is going to win," O'Donnell told the committee.

Carr, he said, is refusing to discuss issues because "he doesn't want to say anything which might be used against him when he runs for governor in 1968."

O'Donnell called Carr a "six-months" senator who wants to use the U.S. Senate as a spring board to the governor's office.

The state chairman said he is optimistic about the chances of Republican candidates in four congressional races, including George Bush in Houston and Bob Price of Pampa.

"I'm very confident about those," he said. "We're living in a different political environment than in 1964."

Appearances Sunday of three Mexican-American leaders and a labor official before the GOP temporary platform committee apparently bore fruit Monday when the chairman of the committee told newsmen the state Republican platform would include a plank on a state minimum wage law.

Dick Morgan of Dallas, the chairman, said "there will be a plank on the minimum wage, but I can't say what its content will be...(it will include) acknowledgment of the problem, but how much farther we go beyond that I don't know."

"There is a public demand for one," he said, "and it seems to be the most pressing issue."

Representatives of Mexican-American groups and of the afl-CIO appeared before Morgan's committee Sunday to ask GOP support of a minimum wage. Several said they were Democrats and rapped their own party for not taking action on the minimum wage.

Tax Tipsters May Soon Be Put Out Of Business

By JOSEPH R. ROYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Computers may soon put paid tax tipsters out of business.

A bill on Capitol Hill would bar the Treasury Department from rewarding — with up to 10 per cent of the take — the tipsters who tattle to tax collectors about their neighbors or fellow employes.

Its sponsor, Rep. Richard H Fulton, D-Tenn., cited Internal Revenue Service computers as one reason for ending tips for tipsters.

Action this year on the bill is unlikely because of the little time remaining before Congress adjourns, probably next month.

The bill undoubtedly will be reintroduced next year.

The Treasury Department is now drafting its formal position. Even if it does oppose the bill, it is not expected to take a strong stand.

"We would rather have a lot of other bills passed first," said one Treasury employe who has been working on President Johnson's anti-inflation plans.

One source said today the government might hesitate to give up any legitimate tool for enforcing the law. But IRS figures show that only about one in every 20 tipsters actually claims a reward.

IRS has also placed great faith in its computers which beginning Jan. 1 will check every income tax return.

The service has said that fear of the computer is often enough incentive for an otherwise evasive taxpayer to come clean.

Rewards to tipsters are given only on request and only after IRS decides how much the informant's tip was worth.

During the year ended June 30, 1965, the service rejected 3,665 reward claims and paid 792 claimants $597,731, an average of $754.71 per successful tipster.

It credited $12.9 million in tax collections to "information furnished by informants," both paid and unpaid. The informants can receive up to 10 per cent of the recovered tax but the average payment is 4 to 5 per cent.

Some 400,000 new settlers cross California's borders each year. At present, some 19 million people — roughly one of every 10 United States residents — make their home in the Golden State.

Rains Again Slow Crops

AUSTIN (AP)— Rain again slowed Texas farming last week, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports. For some areas it was the seventh consecutive week of showers.

The department, in its weekly crop and weather report Monday, said the moisture interrupted harvesting of cotton and sorghum, plowing of sorghum stubble and planting of wheat and oats and other small grains.

Wet weather kept ranges and pastures in top condition, however, and missed the Lower Rio Grande Valley where citrus crops made good progress but vegetables planting was slowed by hot weather.

"Showers are causing concern in some areas where cotton has been ready for stripping for some time," the department said: "Clear skies and sunshine are needed to dry soils and allow catching up in delayed field work."

Seeding of the 1967 wheat crop advanced to 31 per cent completion, on schedule with last year. Oat planting was limited, reaching 12 per cent completion, slightly behind the 1965 schedule.

Cotton harvest reached 20 per cent completion, 8 per cent behind last year, while sorghum combining lagged behind 1965 48 to 55 per cent.

Corn harvest also trailed last year's pace, 75 to 84 per cent.

Fountains Installed

DALLAS (AP) — Joseph B Rocker, assistant general manager of the State Fair of Texas, said workmen were installing several cold water fountains in the Cotton Bowl today.

About 20 members of the Odessa High School band were overcome Sunday by what was diagnosed as heat prostration after playing at a football game in the bowl.

Band director Bill J. Dean voiced dissatisfaction of a lack of drinking water in the stadium but made no formal complaint. He said the student musicians were tired and excited.

Rucker said fountains to serve several persons at a time were being added.

"We've never had complaints before about there being no fountains in the Cotton Bowl," he said.

Expert Sees Slump In Auto Buying

HOUSTON (AP) — Texas bankers Monday heard a professor of finance predict automobile buying and auto loans will be among the first areas hit when business starts its downward trend.

Paul S. Nadler, associate professor of finance at New York University's Business Administration Graduate School, said he expects business to dip at the end of 1966 or early in the spring, barring unforeseen developments in Viet Nam.

"Car buying was never more postponable than it is today," he told more than 500 bankers attending the 14th annual meeting of the installment credit division of the Texas Bankers Association.

Nadler also warned banks not to desert consumer loans because of the present tight money situation. If banks do so, he said, it will be tough for them to get back into the field later when the money squeeze slacks off.

Savings and loan associations, he said, are becoming a strong threat to banks in the consumer credit field. The associations are aggressive and if they make a concerted effort will be strong competitors with bank consumer lending, Nadler said.

Another speaker Monday, E. F. Laux of Ford Motor Co., told the bankers that "to survive and prosper, business must adapt its products and services to changing market conditions."

For example, he continued, "as the youth market grows it becomes increasingly important for you to analyze carefully the characteristics and the total potential of that segment of your market."

Burleson Officers Probe Shooting Death

BURLESON, Tex. (AP) — An investigation continued today into the shooting of Charles Aubry Ingram, 24, whose body was found Monday night in a Burleson home.

Johnson County authorities said Ingram's bullet-riddled body was discovered by a friend.

Officers said Ingram moved to Burleson recently from Milan, Tenn. They said they believed he had been dead since Monday morning when a neighbor said she thought she heard gunshots.

Election Board To Replace Computer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Election Board in suburban Baltimore County has decided to de-automate, replacing its computer with 600 adding machines — the system used before the last election.

The county, the only one in the state to use a computer, was the last to submit its return, finished at 4 a.m. last Wednesday following the election.

Burglars Make Off With Store's Safe

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Burglars crashed a stolen tow truck through the front window of a food store recently and drove away with the store's safe dangling from the tow cable.

A witness told police the men loaded the safe into a pickup truck several blocks from the store. The tow truck was abandoned in a parking lot, police said. The store owner estimated his loss at $500.

Credit Counseling Service Fostered By Credit Surge

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK AP) — The tremendous surge in the use of credit during the 1960s is being accompanied by a related phenomenon: counseling services that advise or supervise those who can't pay bills.

The reception given a new counseling service here indicates there are a lot of people who thought they were basking in the good life only to have a tidal wave of bills submerge them in debt.

Said William J. Martin Jr., President of Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Long Island:

"We haven't publicized the service much but we have determined there is a definite need. People are banging down the door." Those seeking help are "confused, overwhelmed by their position."

Called by various names—debtors anonymous credit counselors, consumer counselors—they have the same goal:

To take the avalanche of bills you can't pay put you on a strict budget and, if necessary horsetrade your creditors into taking payments in smaller amounts.

Credit counseling services are available in at least 27 states and Ontario, Canada. Soon there may be one in Washington, D.C. and in the near future they are expected to appear in every state where laws permit.

The facts behind the phenomenon are these:

Consumer instalment debt has increased from about 48 billion in 1962 to close to $70 billion early this year. Personal bankruptcies, estimated at more than 140,000 a year, have had a similar increase.

Some of this results from illness and acts of God. Much of it however, represents the proliferation of charge accounts credit cards, easy-terms, and the buy-now-pay-later philosophy.

You may have noticed that the same person who fumbles, hesitates and then decides not to tip the shoeshine boy may flash his credit cards elsewhere as if there were no tomorrow. He doesn't know how to use credit.

At fault for the prevalence of this attitude are those who dispense credit. Admittedly, they have emphasized the ease and not the pain.

Any community can begin a credit counseling service if its merchants, doctors, lawyers, loan officials and bankers want one and are willing to pay the administrative costs. One procedure is to write the National Foundation For Consumer Credit, 1411 K Street NW, Washington, D.C.
