Demos Work To Keep Convention Harmony

By JACK BELL and HARRY KELLY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson's peacemakers worked backstage today in a new effort to shape the 1964 Democratic National Convention into an LBJ unity spectacular unmarred by Southern disharmony.

As part of this strategy to keep Democratic ranks intact, the President was reported hesitating over the possible choice of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as his running mate because of evidence of Dixie opposition.

As the convention went into a second day it still faced smoldering disputes over the seating of the Alabama and Mississippi delegations.

Johnson, who has said he wants all the people of the nation to unite under his tent, was trying to find a way of cooling off these two fires before they erupt into a floor fight and perhaps anger other Southern states.

The rebel Alabama delegates who refused to sign a pledge to support the party's nominees were told to surrender their credentials.

Only 13 members of the delegation — 6 delegates and 7 alternates — have signed the pledge but Monday night all the Alabamians brushed past guards and took their seats anyway.

When they returned to their hotel, a telegram was awaiting them from David Lawrence, chairman of the Credentials Committee, asking them to surrender their passes.

There was no immediate decision whether they would.

As the President held back on his decison on a running mate, one of the men he vetoed for the job — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy — announced finally and formally he was entering the New York Senate race.

At his side when he made the announcement in New York was Robert F. Wagner, the city's mayor, and the state's top Democrat.

Minnesota's Humphrey, who was everywhere, doing everything he could to prevent any incident that would mar the unity that Johnson wanted achieved, was the consensus choice by leading Democrats for the place. But individually and collectively they conceded they don't have an inkling of Johnson's thinking.

Some dissent to the choice of Humphrey had been communicated to Johnson, lending credence to reports that he still had not made up his mind despite the relatively late hour.

Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia, on whom Johnson has been leaning heavily in his efforts to salvage part of the South in the November election, said in an interview he had told Johnson at a White House conference Saturday he thought Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy might be a better choice from the South's standpoint.

"Understand me," Sanders said, "I raised no objections to Sen. Humphrey. But I said that I believed McCarthy was not as well known and his views were not as well known in the South and that he might be a better candidate."

McCarthy, a Roman Catholic, has been regarded as one of the top contenders for second place on the ticket. He and Humphrey have paralleling strong views in favor of civil rights, but Humphrey's have been well publicized and McCarthy's have not.

Every maneuver at this convention has pointed toward a Johnson effort to placate dissident forces and emerge with his first presidential nomination with a relatively united party behind him.

Tonight, the convention is expected to give shouting approval of what in its essentials is a middle-of-the road platform promising sturdy accomplishments toward peace and prosperity but detouring controversial issues such as civil rights.

The Mississippi fight between a white delegation chosen with the understanding it would oppose the national ticket and the Negro - dominated Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party remained to be settled, possibly by a floor vote.

But the flurry over the appearance on the floor at Monday night's session of members of the Alabama delegation who refused to sign a loyalty pledge was not regarded as likely to burgeon into any federal case.

The feeling among convention officials — and this applied to both the Alabama and Mississippi contests — was that there would not be any roll calls so what did it matter who was designated to cast votes that wouldn't be registered?

Seek Ousting Of Rebel Alabamans

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Democratic National Convention officials made a new try today to oust rebel Alabama delegates from their seats even as they sought a formula for seating Mississippi representatives.

The Credentials Committee had made a pledge of backing for the convention's nominees the price of a place on the floor, and most of the Alabamians had refused to sign. But they had obtained their credentials in advance. They sat in their places at the opening session Monday night despite repeated directions for those who had not signed to step aside.

Waiting for them when they got back to their hotels after the session were telegrams from David L. Lawrence, Credentials Committee chairman, asking them to surrender their credentials.

There was no immediate decision by the delegation on whether to comply or try again tonight.

The unpledged delegates — about 32 — said Monday night they would leave the hall if ordered to do so, but would not give up their seats. Nobody ordered them outside.

The first night of the convention ended without a member of the mostly Negro Mississippi Freedom Democratic party or the regular Democrats, an all-white group, taking delegate seats. Both groups were barred because the credentials committee had failed to resolve its most difficult problem.

The committee did give both groups guest tickets. Some of the Mississippi people used these to get into the hall.

No one with authority could say what would happen tonight when the Alabama delegates try to take their seats for a second session. No one seemed to know how the credentials committee would resolve the Mississippi dispute.

The Mississippi regulars feel the Freedom Democrats are a rump group that has no legal status.

Negroes claim the regulars exclude Negroes from their party and would not support the Democratic ticket.

Expecting Quick Platform Approval

By JOHN CHADWICK

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A middle-road platform that largely reflects President Johnson's desire not to rock the boat goes before the Democratic National Convention tonight. Approval is expected, with no floor fight in prospect over any of the planks.

Members of the platform committee finished their work late Monday, turning out a document that for the most part affirms present administration policies and promises to improve and expand them rather than break new ground.

On the three issues that Republicans battled over at their convention last month — civil rights, extremism and control of nuclear weapons — the Democratic platform drafters drew clear-cut issues for the coming campaign.

The Republicans, adhering to the wishes of Sen Barry Goldwater, their presidential candidate, were silent on "extremism" and control of nuclear arms. But not the Democrats.

"We condemn extremism, wnether from the right or left, including the extreme tactics of such organizations as the Communist party, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society," the Democratic platform says.

As for nuclear weapons, it declares that control over their use must continue to rest solely in the hands of the President.

On the divisive civil rights issue, the Democrats wrote a plank that the Southerners on the platform committee said they could go along with and that one of them, Pierre Pelham of Alabama, called "something of a victory for the South."

It declares that "the Civil Rights Act of 1964 deserves and requires full observance by every American and fair, effective enforcement if there is any default."

The committee chairman, Oklahoma Rep. Carl Albert, said this means that if the comprehensive antidiscrimination measure is not complied with, it will be enforced.

The Republican platform avoided use of the word enforce but pledged "full implementation and faithful execution" of the new law, which Goldwater voted against on the ground that two of its key sections are unconstitutional.

However, the Republicans promised to support improvements in existing civil rights statutes to meet changing needs and any additional measures necessary to prevent unlawful denial of voting rights. The Democrats made no mention of new civil rights legislation.

The Democratic platform strongly condemns lawlessness "whether used to deny equal rights or obtain equal rights" and repudiates use of racial quotas in employment.

Also pleasing to Southerners on the platform committee was the rejection of a plank calling for enforcement of the 14th Amendment's provision for reducing a state's representation in the House in proportion to the number of its qualified citizens denied the right to vote.

Blood Is Needed For Mrs. Bruns

A call has been issued for blood donors for Mrs. Lester Bruns, wife of a Snyder police officer.

Mrs. Bruns received a gunshot wound Sunday afternoon. After emergency treatment at Cogdell Hospital here, she was transferred to Hendrick Hospital in Abilene.

The Snyder police department this morning received word over the police teletype that her condition was "fair," and that more blood would be needed.

The hospital here can take donations which can be credited to her account both at this hospital and at the Abilene Hospital.

Anyone wishing to donate blood is asked to be at Cogdell Hospital at 8 a.m. tomorrow (Wednesday). Laboratory technicians have asked that the blood donors refrain from eating breakfast (black coffee is permissable) before giving the blood.

Any type of blood is suitable for repayment of blood used.

School Fee Dropped

AUSTIN (AP) — The School Board voted Monday to drop the $10 registration fee for evening school to encourage high school dropouts to get their diplomas.

Khanh Quits As President Of Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh gave up the title of president and his dictatorial powers today under the angry demands of students and Buddhists for an end to military rule. He was expected to stay on, however, as the actual chief of the U.S.-backed government.

The 37-year-old strong man may resume the premiership he dropped after the revolutionary military council elected him to the presidency 10 days ago. Or he might have himself re-elected president of a revamped regime. He retains command of South Viet Nam's armed forces.

Jubilant student leaders told The Associated Press that Khanh had agreed to hold a new election for chief of state and that the military council would then be dissolved.

Student leader Ton Thah Tue said he had been in telephone contact with Khanh at the presidential office building, and Khanh said he was willing to:

—Revoke the charter he promulgated Aug. 16 that gave him sweeping powers.

—Have the military council hold a new election for the chief of state — conceivably re-electing Khanh.

—Dissolve the council after the election, and set up some new form of government.

An aide in Khanh's office said that this version was essentially correct. It does not mean, the aide said, that Khanh has resigned his power as chief of Viet Nam.

The deputy premier for economy, Nguyen Xuan Oanh, told The Associated Press that the new move means Khanh no longer is either president or premier. The military revolutionary council will be called into an urgent session tonight, he said, to elect a new chief.

Khanh probably will be renamed premier, Oanh said. The junta then will dissolve itself, and a new junta, comprising civilians as well as military men, will be organized.

As the news came from the presidential office building, a cheer rose from a mass of demonstrators outside. They embraced each other and waved their banners wildly.

CHAMBER OFFICE CLOSED FOR RITES

The Snyder Chamber of Commerce office was to be closed this afternoon for the funeral service for Mrs. H. G. Towle.

The Chamber office will be open again for regular business hours on Wednesday.

Injured Girl Hidden To Cover Crime

DALLAS (AP) — Witnesses told police a car struck Cheryl Howard, 10, on her bicycle and two teenage boys hid the gravely injured girl in a clump of weeds before fleeing Monday.

The accident happened in a winding alley, marked "closed to through traffic, near the Oak Cliff home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Howard.

Jane Bowers, 14, a companion of Cheryl, told officers the car, a white compact station wagon, also sideswiped her bicycle. She escaped with bruises and scratches.

Accident investigator Hal W. Summers related these details:

Traveling about 60 miles per hour, the station wagon skidded 60 feet, hit Cheryl and knocked her 49 feet. Two teen - agers leaped from the car and tossed the bicycles of both girls into high weeds.

Then they pitched Cheryl, bleeding and semiconscious, into the weeds also.

Neighbors described the driver of the car as about 17, musular and "nice looking," with black curly hair.

This Romance Stood The Test Of Time!

VARNA, Ill. (AP)—A romance interrupted by the boy marching off to war is an old story.

But in the case of Charles L. Jeanes, 94, of Staunton, Ill., and Olive Bown, about 85, the story is around 66 years old.

The couple was married Saturday, fulfilling a courtship interrupted when Jeanes went to war—the Spanish-American War.

RFK Candidacy Now Is Official

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy declared his candidacy today for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate from New York, a nomination considered already in his pocket.

Kennedy formally began his first campaign for elective office at the side of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, the state's No. 1 Democrat.

The attorney general issued his long-expected announcement from Gracie Mansion, Wagner's official residence, and the mayor returned to the city from the Democratic National Convention at Atlantic City for the occasion.

Kennedy met head-on the issue of his residence.

"I shall devote all my effort and whatever talents I possess to the State of New York. This I pledge."

If New York Democrats nominate him next Tuesday, Kennedy said, "I shall resign from the Cabinet to campaign for election."

Kennedy seeks the seat occupied by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, a Republican who has announced for re-election. Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce has said she might run as a Conservative party candidate for the same office.

The attorney general's wife, Ethel, was with him as he announced.

"All that President Kennedy stood for and all that President Johnson is trying to accomplish, all the progress that has been made, is threatened by a new and dangerous Republican assault," the attorney general said.

"No one associated with President Kennedy and with President Johnson — no one committed to participating in public life — can sit on the sidelines with so much at stake."

Kennedy now lives in Virginia and maintains a voting residence in his native state of Massachusetts. He has negotiated for a home on Long Island to become a New York resident.

He cited past connections with New York state, but said he did not base his candidacy upon these connections.

"I base it on the belief that New York is not separate from the nation in the year 1964," he said. "I base it on the conviction that my experience and my record equip me to understand New York's problems and to do something about them.

"I base it on the fact that the greatest state in the union must play a leading role at the federal level in solving these problems. And I wish to play a part in that effort."

FULL BAND REHEARSAL

Full band rehearsals for all members of the Snyder Black and Gold band will begin Wednesday.

The first all-band rehearsal will be Wednesday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the band hall, and will be a playing rehearsal.

Thursday from 8 to 9:30 a.m. the band will practice marching, and from 4 to 6 p.m. will have another playing rehearsal. Friday the band will again practice marching from 8 to 9:30 a.m. The Friday playing rehearsal has been set for 3:30 to 5 p.m.

Melvin Montgomery, band director, urged all members of the band, including sophomores, juniors and seniors, to be present since the marching line-up and music for the first football game Sept. 11 will be determined.

Royal Job No Cinch!

LONDON (AP)—Two chauffeurs fired by Queen Elizabeth II's royal household complained today they had been treated like peasants.

One of the drivers, Alex Beard, 28, commented: "Working for the queen is no bed of roses. In fact, you can call it hell."

"It was car washing, driving royalty, driving guests, secretaries and equerries, fetching groceries, collecting laundry and more car washing from nearly sunup to sundown," said the other, Sidney Baker, also 28.

A royal household spokesman said the chauffers were fired because they deserted their jobs at Balmoral, the queen's retreat in Scotland.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I go with a guy who is real good in sports. I don't have much trouble with him (keeping him in his place, I mean), while he is in training, but when he is not in training he is a murder. He's as strong as an ox and won't listen to reason. How can I make him keep his distance without losing him?

JACK'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Take a course in judo and throw him off balance.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: If a man is left a widower, and decides to remarry after waiting a decent amount of time, must he invite the parents of his late wife to his second wedding? If not, must he inform them of it? This is an especially touchy situation because there are children by the first wife. Thank you in advance.

THE MAN

DEAR MAN: He should invite them unless they are the kind of people who would be saddened by the revived memories. In any case, he should inform the parents of his late wife of his intentions to remarry. And he should do it before someone else does.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My whole life changed two weeks ago when they brought my child home from the public playground and told me that he had had some kind of a "fit." We took him to the doctor immediately and, after several tests, the doctor said our son has epilepsy, but he didn't know how severe it was, or how often he would have seizures. I have cried and prayed and spent sleepless nights. We've never had anything like this in our family before, Abby. What causes this? Is it contagious? Will he outgrow it? Can it be cured? Someone told me that in some states epileptics cannot marry, and in other states they must be "sterilized" so as not to pass this on to any children. We are afraid our doctor isn't telling us the whole truth. Please help us.

DESPERATE PARENTS

DEAR DESPERATE: One out of every 100 Americans suffers from epilepsy. It is not contagious. Today, treated by modern medical and surgical techniques, 50 per cent of all persons suffering from epilepsy become seizure - free. Another 30 per cent enjoy a reduction in the number of attacks. For a free, informative booklet on epilepsy, write to THE AMERICAN EPILEPSY FEDERATION, 73 Tremont Street, Boston 8, Mass. When you know the facts, you'll no longer be desperate.

Gunfire Erupts In Georgia Town

MONROE, Ga. (AP) — Gunfire between a crowd of Negroes and several white persons broke out Monday night. Four Negroes were treated for shotgun wounds and police said the crowd later wrecked a service station operated by a white man.

Police Chief Jack Morris said a crowd of several hundred Negroes had jeered customers at the service station for nearly two hours.

Morris said they shouted, "Don't buy from that white man."

The station was damaged shortly before 3 a.m. today when several white men at the station departed, Morris said.

A car driven by Mrs. Tommy Cooper, wife of an operator of the station, was fired into as she drove into the station, Morris said.

Monroe is about 40 miles east of Atlanta.

The chief said he had been unable to determine why the crowd had gathered and that he had had no previous complaints of trouble in the neighborhood. The station had been open less than a month, he said.

Morris said the crowd caused extensive damage to the station and to two automobiles parked there.

Mishap Reported

The Snyder police department reported a two-vehicle mishap at 2:28 p.m. Monday on East Thirty-seventh Street and the Old Colorado City Highway.

Involved were a 1964 Dodge pickup driven by Allen Lynn Fenton, 1706 Thirty - seventh Street, and a 1951 Chevrolet driven by T. Orvel Kenner of Hermleigh. Damage to the truck was estimated at $100 and to the car at $125. There were no injuries.

Prof's Slander Suit Has Been Dismissed

BROWNSVILLE (AP)—Federal Dist. Judge Reynaldo G. Garza has dismissed a $100,000 slander suit filed by Dr. Hector Rojas against Pan American College, Edinburg.

Rojas alleged the slander occurred when he was dismissed from the college after an incident involving him and Paul Engal, both of whom worked in the college's astronomy department.

Luci First Johnson At Convention

By FRANCES LEWINE

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Luci Johnson made a whirlwind entry into the convention scene, dancing the frug, walking the Boardwalk and applauding the convention keynoter.

The first of the Johnson family to arrive here, 17-year-old Luci sampled lobster and frozen custard Monday and looked over the oceanfront home her family is to occupy.

She seemed to find everything satisfactory and decided to go to work today with friends at the headquarters of Young Citizens for Johnson.

The President's daughter told "Teen-Dems" and Young Citizens anything they could do from "licking envelopes to running errands" would help her father's campaign.

She said she came to pitch in, too, because she realized "my generation has responsibilities."

Luci put off the work for a while, though, to look over the sights.

She signed autographs, picked up LBJ buttons and went shopping in two stores along the oceanfront.

Her only purchase — a pair of $6.95 rope and leather sandals, size 6, medium.

They probably will come in handy on the campaign job today. A teen-worker advised the President's daughter to "wear flat shoes and a dirty dress" when she reported for headquarters duty.

Luci was supposed to wait until Wednesday to come here with her mother and sister, Lynda, 20. But she begged to come ahead and flew in to open the Young Democrats' headquarters and attend their dance, where she demonstrated her prowess in doing the frug, a version of the twist in which she excels.

Wearing coat and dress of pale blue to match her eyes, with a pert white bow on her black hair, Luci climaxed the day by taking a front row seat in the presidential box at the convention's opening session and applauding the speakers.

Texas Delegation Awaits Decision

By GARTH JONES

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Texas delegates to the Democratic National Convention waited today for a decision on the Mississippi seating contest before scheduling another caucus.

Gov. John Connally told the Texans Monday he would call another caucus and let the members decide the delegation stand if the Mississippi controversy generates a convention floor fight.

Meanwhile, Connally and his staff planned to spend much of the day polishing the governor's speech for Wednesday night when he and Gov. Pat Brown of California will place President Johnson in nomination for a full four-year term.

Connally spent most of Monday conferrng with national and state party leaders but took time off in late afternoon for a stroll along Atlantic City's famous boardwalk. Well wishers stopped him often to shake hands. On returning to his hotel he was stopped at the door by a swarm of autograph - hunting teen-agers. For nearly 45 minutes he signed autographs, sometimes chatting briefly with the youngsters.

The autographing ended when a Philadelphia housewife walked up and offered the light tan surface of her saddlebag-size purse for an autograph.

"You mean you want me to write on that good looking purse?" Connally asked.

"I sure do," said Mrs. Connie Calla. "I want my neighbors to know I met you."

The governor scrawled "John B. Connally" in two-inch script across the handbag, and disappeared inside the hotel shaking his head.

Members of the Texas delegation quickly adapted to the combination business-holiday atmosphere of this convention city. A few of the more energetic arose early enough to take advantage of the 6 to 9 a.m. period when bicycling is allowed on the boardwalk. Others spent time in the surf or sunning on the sand.

"I've been looking at that surf three days and I can't stand it any longer. I'm going swimming," said Miss Sybil Dickonson, a hostess in the Texas hospitality headquarters, on her way out the door.

"This is the way to politick," said Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr as he stretched out full length in a rolling chair being pushed down the boardwalk.

"I always stock up on salt water taffy," said Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., displaying a large paper bag after a walk along the beach front.

Delegates from Rep. Jack Brooks' district in the Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange area are giving a reception in his honor late today.

Rain Boosts Prospects In Texas Areas

AUSTIN (AP) — Rain has boosted range prospects in many sections of Texas, but the southern high plains and trans-Pecos areas remains critically dry, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported Monday.

Cotton harvest reached 14 per cent, five per cent behind last year's pace, the department said, while sorghum harvest showed 45 per cent completion, 7 per cent ahead of the 1963 schedule.

The harvest of corn lagged, showing 51 per cent completion, compared with 64 per cent at this time a year ago; rice harvest was 55 per cent complete, about the same as in 1963, and the combining of peanuts reached 6 per cent of completion, 7 per cent behind this date a year ago.

In its weekly crop and weather report, the department said soybeans and castor beans on the high plains are setting beans, and the planting of the 1965 wheat crop has begun in that area.

Depositions Taken

DALLAS (AP)—Warren Commission lawyer Leon Hubert of New Orleans was to take depositions today. The commission is nearing the end of its inquiry into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Drivers License Office Closed

The driver's license office is closed today and will be closed also on Friday, the other regularly scheduled days for the examiner, due to the Department of Public Safety's vacation schedule.

The office will again be open next week on the regular days of Tuesday and Friday to give both the written and driving tests.

New Rail Line Will Be Largest

WASHINGTON (AP) — An examiner has recommended that the Interstate Commerce Commission approve the unification of five railroads into the nation's largest system — nearly 25,000 miles.

The proposal approved Monday by examiner Robert H. Murphy calls for the merger of four lines — the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad and the Pacific Coast Railroad — and a 10-year lease on the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway.

If approved by the full commission, the combined system — to be known as the Great Northern Pacific & Burlington Lines, Inc. — would have assets of more than $2.6 billion and annual income of more than $775 million.

Murphy said the system would be the largest railroad in the United States in terms of miles of road and geographic distribution, and the third largest in annual revenues.

He recommended a number of conditions that would require maintenance of open routes, gateways and channels of trade; the opening of important new gateways to competing railroads; and protection of adversely affected railroad employes.

Murphy's recommendations were denounced in Cleveland, Ohio, by H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engine men, who called the decision "another victory for monopoly interests."

"The recommended merger," Gilbert said in a statement, "would be a surrender to the financial interests that seek greater profit from minimum service. Jobs will be cut by at least 30 per cent and many communities will find themselves with either no rail service or relegated to branch line status."

Scout Rocket Shot Aloft

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP) — A Scout rocket shot aloft today with a 92-pound package of electronics designed to probe the mystery of why earthbound radios black out.

The 28 by 32-inch satellite aims at circular orbit 300 miles high, is the latest launched in a three-nation attempt to map the layer of electrically charged gases called the ionosphere that surrounds the earth.

The Scout solid-fuel, seven-stage rocket streaked into the sky at 8:43 a.m.

Officials said it would take several hours to determine successful orbit.

Destruction of the ionosphere, so called because it is made up of tiny particles, or ions, knocked off in collisions of radiation in space. Trapped in the earth's magnetic field, they move along the lines of the field and set up a current strong enough to reflect radio signals.

Panel Rules Against Houston Refinery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Danaho Refining Co. of Houston was not harmed or threatened by imports of crude petroleum, the Tariff Commission said in a unanimous ruling Monday.

The company, which had operated a refinery at Pettus, Tex., until November, 1963, had applied for adjustment assistance under the trade expansion act of 1962. The company contended its business was injured from concessions granted on imports of petroleum under trade agreements with other countries.

The company said these concessions caused an influx of [illegible] market where, as it would not operate at a profit.

Texas Buses Seek Increase In Fares

AUSTIN (AP) — A Sept. 10 hearing has been scheduled by the State Railroad Commission on an application for a 10 per cent general increase in intrastate bus passenger fares.

Thirty-one Texas lines are included in the application filed by the National Bus Traffic Association, Inc. They include the Continental Bus System, Inc., and the Central and Western Divisions of Greyhound Lines, Inc.

The association also is seeking increased rates for charter coach, express and c.o.d. service.

Council Claims Gains For Backers Of States Rights

By AUSTIN SCOTT
Associated Press Writer

Spurred by spreading racial conflict outside the South, spokesmen for the Southern Citizens Councils say their states rights views are winning widespread acceptance in the North and West.

As proof, council officials cite formation of a Citizens Council for Greater Los Angeles, the hiring of full-time, paid organizers in California and Washington D.C., and "a lot of interest from the Pacific Northwest, Missouri, Wisconsin and Indiana."

"We have been flooded with cries for help," said Louis W. Hollis, executive director of the Citizens Councils of America, a coordinating group.

He said there are councils in "about 28 states," adding: "Our greatest growth has been since the beginning of the Kennedy-Johnson administration because of its liberal and racial policies. We have added field directors in some areas and are adding others. We expect to have someone in every state."

Hollis will not name the 28 states, and said there is no way to tell the total council membership, which he estimates at "between 80,000 and 100,000 in Mississippi alone."

"Our limitations are due to the size of our staff," he said. "We're in a second Reconstruction period and this one is spread all over the nation. We are receiving calls from Rochester (N.Y.) and other places where they've had trouble."

The Citizens Council movement, dedicated to what it calls "state rights and racial integrity," began just 10 years ago in Indianola, a Mississippi delta town.

Fourteen men met 62 days after the U.S. Supreme Court issued its 1954 school desegregation decision and formed the Indianola Council. The movement spread rapidly throughout Mississippi.

Officials assert that the local councils are autonomous, supported by local dues, with all policy coming "from the bottom up."

Many deny accusations that they are racist, but those in the South have consistently supported segregationist activities.

State and national council associations were formed in 1954 and 1955 to coordinate activities, and help organize new groups.

Their growth outside the South is attributed by Hollis to spreading racial troubles that have made other parts of the country realize, in his words, that they would have to do something to preserve "local self-government, home rule, and constitutional government."

Clyde Reynolds, a suburban San Marino insurance man elected president of the brand new Los Angeles Citizens Council, agrees.

"There are a lot of people who are liberals," he said, "who are worried about their private property. They may have certain general liberal views, but when it comes down to a man's house, to a man's apartment, to who do I live next door to, these people agree with us."

Houston Fears Major Epidemic

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Houston has recorded 179 suspected encephalitis cases and the city health officer says a possibility exists that a major epidemic may occur.

Seventeen deaths have been attributed to the disease in the last 30 days.

As the number of suspected cases grew, the geographical spread of the disease—carried by mosquitoes—widened over the city.

"There is nothing like the concentration toward the center of the city that we saw in the early reports," Dr. C. A. Pigford, city health officer, said.

Free insecticides were to be distributed to all citizens at the city's fire stations today for use on private premises. Spraying and fogging of public areas was stepped up.

Mayor Louie Welch asked citizens to take their own containers to the closest fire station for the free insecticide and instructions on how to use it.

The city also prepared to buy a new fogging machine. Reinforcement of mosquito-control crews arrived and Dr. Pigford appealed to the county's medical men for information on their cases of encephalitis, popularly known as sleeping sickness, and meningitis.

Dr. Pigford explained that the additional 79 cases, reported since the presence of the disease became known last Friday, were reported largely by private physicians.

In hundreds of letters, he asked the medical men to report all cases.

The information was requested so epidemiologists and analysts could determine the extent of the epidemic and track its course.

Medical experts warned that the peak has not passed.

Encephalitis cases were reported elsewhere. Health officials at Plainview, 600 miles to the northwest, counted 21 cases and one death. There also were reports of cases at Texarkana and Lubbock.

Nine Killed In Mishap Near Tyler

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Nine persons—five from Illinois, four from Texas—were killed Monday when a car and a pickup truck collided in a dark downpour near this eastern Texas city.

The sole survivor was an 8-year-old girl who lay in a hospital unaware her parents, two sisters and a brother died in the collision.

She is Gayle Redeker, who was termed in fair condition at Medical Center Hospital here.

Dead in the car were Gayle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Redeker of Route 2, Box 116, Milford, Ill.; two other daughters, Alma and Beverly, both 11; and a 16-year-old son.

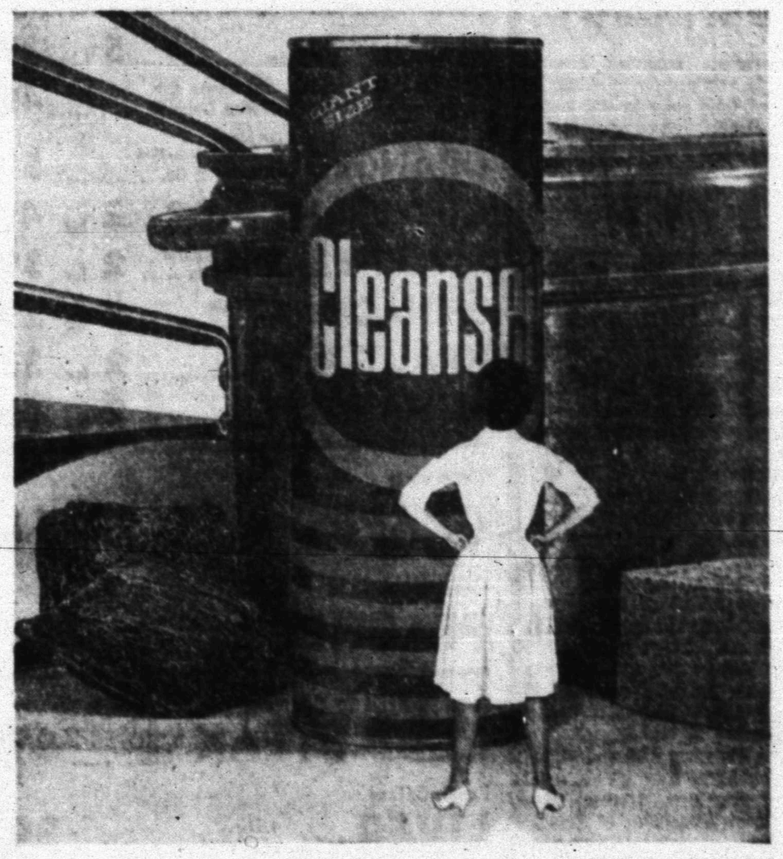

Killed in the pickup truck were William Frizzell, 24, Freddie Hammons, 19, Leon Ward, 43, and Louis Gill 28, all of the Tyler area.

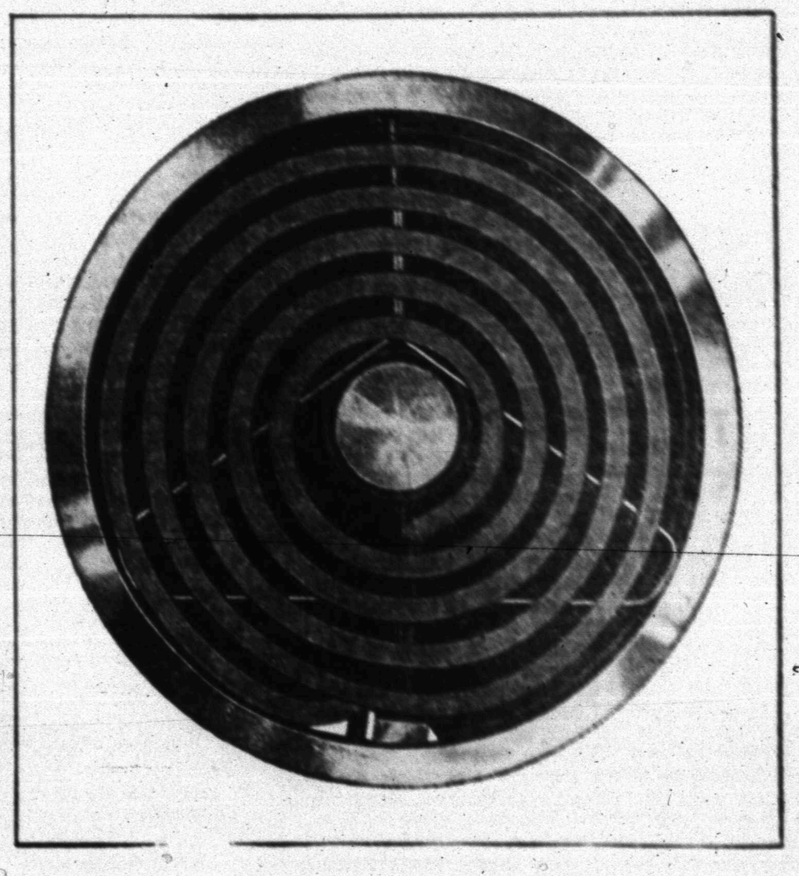

Redeker, 47, and his family were returning from taking another daughter, Dorothy, 23, to her first job as a school teacher at Giddings.

Capt. Glen Warner of the state police said one of the vehicles apparently started sliding on rain-slick Texas 155 about 18 miles southwest of here and slammed broadside into the other. The accident occurred just north of an intersection with Farm 134 and a few miles outside Noonday.

The bodies were badly mangled.

Cows were first brought to the United States by Virginia colonists.

Hot Line Should Be Party Line, Claims Goldwater

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today the Democrats "are misled by strange and unrealistic notions of appeasement and disarmament."

The Republican presidential nominee also said that if he is elected, U.S. allies in Europe will be invited to plug into the Washington-Moscow hot line.

In a speech prepared for the Veterans of Foreign Wars Convention he said that the United States must find a way to provide the North Atlantic Treaty Organization "with its own stock of small, tactical nuclear battlefield weapons—what may truly be called conventional nuclear weapons."

The weapons he is telling them about, Goldwater said, are "no more powerful than the firepower you have faced on the battlefield. They simply come in a smaller package.'

In New York City Monday, Goldwater met privately with business leaders.

"It's been a very good day," he said. "I'm well pleased with it."

An aide said the meetings were held to give the business community a chance to get acquainted with Goldwater and his views.

In his speech to the veterans here, the Arizona senator said President Johnson and the Democrats are undermining NATO unity.

"This administration must answer not just to the voters of this nation, but to history for its abject failures in foreign policy. And of these failures, none is more glaring than the lack of support for NATO," Goldwater said.

Too often, Goldwater said, this administration has bypassed our NATO partners to deal directly and unilaterally with the Soviet Union.

"Our hot line to Moscow is an unfortunate symbol of this. It suggests secret conversations, deals, unilateral negotiations in matters that concern and should involve all our partners in freedom," Goldwater said.

"I pledge that as president, our NATO allies will be given the opportunity to hook into our hot line, either directly or by diplomatic process.' '

Ruby's Lawyers File Papers To Prove False Testimony

DALLAS (AP)—Defense lawyers have added documents to the official records of the Jack Ruby murder trial to back their claim a key prosecution witness gave false testimony.

The documents were affidavits signed by Dallas and Fort Worth televison newsmen and lawyers. They supported defense claims that Police Sgt. Patrick Dean lied about his conversation with Ruby after the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy.

In bills of exception filed with Dist. Judge Joe Brown last month, defense lawyers said Dean testified he talked with Ruby in the city jail about 10 minutes after the former night club operator gunned down Oswald.

At the trial Dean testified Ruby said he thought of killing Oswald two days before the Nov. 24 slaying.

Affidavits submitted Monday said films of telecasts by KRLD-TV in Dallas and WBAP-TV in Fort Worth show Dean in the basement of the City Hall for 21 minutes and 23 seconds after Oswald was shot.

Filng of the documents represents the final local step in the appeal of a death penalty verdict returned March 14.

When court reporters finish transcribing the lengthy trial record, the papers will be sent to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Pan-Am Airlines Hit By Transport Workers Strike

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pan American Airways was hit early today by an AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union strike after a breakdown in negotiations aimed at averting a walkout of some 12,000 employes. A federal mediator said negotiations had reached an "insurmountable impasse."

Union members began walking off the job within an hour after negotiations between union and management leaders broke off. Picket lines were set up at Pan American bases on both coasts.

The company said in advance of the walkout that a strike probably would ground all its flights. Its planes carry about 17,000 persons daily.

The union is seeking a 15 per cent pay raise, improved vacations, a shorter work week and other fringe benefits for the maintenance, ground service employes and flight service personnel it represents.

About 1,100 to 1,200 employes walked off their jobs at 2:15 a.m. at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport, the union said.

About the same time, the union called 2,500 of its members off their jobs on the Pacific Coast and Hawaii. About 150 pickets marched in Miami, the union said.

Pan American operates no domestic flights but flies to points throughout the world from New York, Miami, Chicago, Washington, Seattle, Wash., Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Los Angeles and Houston, Tex.

The union said the 2,700 employes it represents at Cape Kennedy, Fla., would take no part in the strike. The union has a no-strike agreement with the federal government affecting missile site workers. The Cape Kennedy union members work on launching pads, fueling missiles and on maintenance.

Also unaffected, the union said, will be charter flights for the Military Air Transport Service.

The negotiations broke down after a new offer by Pan American which the union said "wasn't very good."

In addition to the wage increase, the union's demands include reduction of the work week from 40 to 37½ hours, three weeks vacation after five years service instead of the present 10 years service and improved insurance and pension benefits.

Average wages are now $3.31 an hour for mechanics, $2.55 for ground service personnel, $2.83 for port stewards who handle food and other provisioning of planes and $475 monthly for flight stewards, stewardesses and pursers.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — The local newspapers are coming out in defense of the "X" as used in Mexico and it's high time someone cleared up this point once and for all.

As if things aren't bad enough the matter has brought on some rather heated discussions in Spain's Academy of Language.

Mexico is defending itself rather calmly, it seems to me, by telling Spanish experts, "We have nationalized the language and have the right to use 'X' any way we see fit."

Spaniards have become so enraged at this attitude that often they cannot sleep well during their siestas and they seldom feel like playing the guitar.

To get down to points (in case there are any) the problem is this: Mexico has a rule about "X" and "J" sounding the same and they use it as the mood strikes them.

Spain, which claims to have invented the language, says Mexico should be spelled "Mejico". The Mexicans spell it their own way but pronounce it the same, claiming that since the country belongs to them they have the right to spell it any way they like.

There is a strange thing about the Rule of "X" however, and it is very similar to our rule in English of "I" before "E" except after "C". (The word feign is an excellent example.)

At any rate, in Mexico's Spanish "X" and "J" are both pronounced like "H". The name Javier or Xavier are both pronounced HAVIER and that should settle any further arguments.

A prominent Mexican named O'Hara is credited by several bartenders and a couple of barbers with having worked out the method of X plus J equals H on a slide rule in the 18th Century.

O'Hara, believed to be the Aztec God of Hardware Stores in disguise, was presented with a solid gold statue of himself as a token of esteem by the Duke of Phlimroy.

However, several months after the presentation, O'Hara had the statue melted and made into hundred peso bills and stayed drunk the rest of his life.

There were some rather interesting features which emerged from this revision of the language and some men of letters feel O'Hara slipped during his declining years.

For instance, someone named a street here "Xola." No one was quite sure of either the spelling or pronounciation so O'Hara was immediately consulted.

He reportedly muttered, "Call is 'Shola.' " Possibly he was in his cups at the time and couldn't say "Hola." Maybe he just didn't care.

The same thing happened to the town of Xochimilco. O'Hara drifted slightly from his rule and insisted it be pronounced "Sochimilco." A plumbing instructor at Harvard took issue with this alleged deviation and O'Hara promptly changed him into a small, green lizard, thus giving rise to the theory that he was an Axtec diety.

But as O'Hara later said to Daniel Webster, "The Greeks pronounce Zerzes as 'Zerkzees' and nobody fumes about that. Besides, everything comes out reasonably accurate on my slide rule."

Thus we have the unwavering rule here that "X" is pronounced like "J" which is pronounced like "H" — sometimes. Or am I confusing you?

Parochial Schools Begin Integration

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — Two of St. Augustine's Catholic schools started registering Negroes Monday for the fall term.

It will be the first integration of Catholic schools in the area. School officials would not comment. A third Catholic school, operated for Negroes, has been closed.

Carty's Bat Is Even Mightier Than Pen

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rico Carty of the Milwaukee Braves admits he was a bit over-anxious about breaking into organized baseball.

He signed with just about every club in the Dominican Republic. And with San Francisco And Cincinnati. And he had his runaway pen in hand, ready to sign with St. Louis, when Milwaukee protested.

But the Braves haven't protested since.

A 21-year-old outfielder making a bid for Rookie of the Year honors in the National League, Carty slammed five straight hits — a homer, three doubles and a single — as the Braves walloped the first-place Philadelphia Phillies 12-9 Monday night.

Carty has hit like that in the Braves' chain ever since they took his ink well away by appealing to the late George Trautman, then the president of the minors.

Seems that Carty — "I was just a kid and I didn't realize what I was doing" — had signed with the Estrellas club in the Dominican Republic before wielding his pen for the Giants and Reds. The Estrellas club had sold Carty to the Braves.

Against the Phillies, Carty doubled in the first, singled in the second, homered in the fourth and doubled in the fifth and the seventh, lifting his average from .312 to .323 with the spurt while bringing his home run output to 13 and his runs batted in total to 56.

The loss trimmed the Phillies' lead to 6½ games over the San Francisco Giants, who broke a tie for second place with Cincinnati by defeating the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2. In other NL action, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 5-1 and Houston blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, lost an opportunity to gain ground on American League-leading Baltimore, falling two games behind the Orioles after a 4-3 loss to Minnesota in the only game on the schedule.

Carty led a 16-hit Milwaukee attack against five Philadelphia pitchers. Hank Aaron chipped in with his 22nd homer and three runs batted in while Eddie Mathews collected three hits.

Wes Covington supplied most of the fireworks for the Phillies, driving in six runs with two homers and a pair of doubles. Clay Dalrymple also homered for Philadelphia.

The Giants put it away against the Dodgers in the first inning with a four-run outburst helped along by Tommy Davis' error on a Willie Mays liner that produced one run, a grounder by Orlando Cepeda drove in the second and Jim Hart finished things up with a two-run homer.

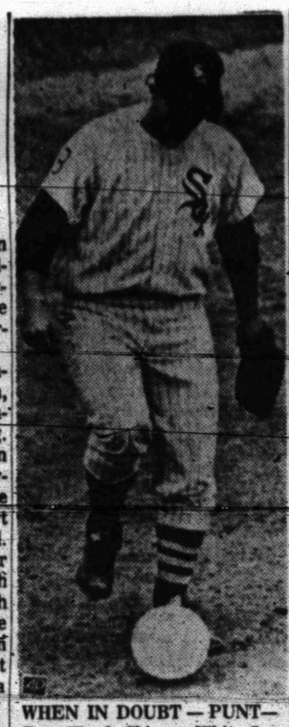

The Dodgers scored their only runs in the first on a homer by Willie Davis, then were shut out the rest of the way by Jim Duffalo. Duffalo, who hadn't pitched a complete game since his first major league start in 1961, allowed only six hits.

The Twins scored twice in the second inning against the White Sox with the aid of an error by Al Weis, and added two more in the third on singles by Rich Rollins, Tony Oliva and Zoilo Versalles. Then they held on as the White Sox muffed their opportunities.

The White Sox had the potential tying runs on in the sixth, but Jim Kaat picked Don Buford off first to end the inning. Chicago then closed to within one run in the eighth, but reliever Al Worthington got Moose Skowron and Buford on short flies with the tying run on third.

Bill White hit a two-run homer for the Cardinals in the eighth and Ken Boyer followed with another homer, taaking the pressure off Bob Gibson. Gibson was working on a 2-1 lead at that point and wound up with a six-hitter while striking out 12.

Pitcher Bob Bruce, who allowed only two hits, got the Colts winning rally started in the eighth inning with a single off Lou Burdette. Walt Bond's single and an error on the play by Billy Williams let both runs score. Hal Woodeshick pitched the ninth for Houston after Bruce hurt his back.

WHEN IN DOUBT — PUNT— Pete Ward, Chicago White Sox third baseman appears to be getting set to kick, rather than throw, the ball. Actually he is stomping an errant balloon that flittered on the infield during the first game of a twin bill with Baltimore in Chicago. (AP Wirephoto)

Fred Kizer Heads Quarterback Club

Fred Kizer was elected president of the Snyder Quarterback Club last night to round out the 1964-65 slate of officers.

Also elected were two directors, as the Quarterbackers made plans for several upcoming activities and established a new rule for club meetings.

Fred Bullard and Virgil Walton were elected to serve three-year terms on the board of directors.

Plans were made for the annual watermelon feed for local football players and fans and for the Pigskin Preview.

The watermelon feed will take the place of the regular meeting of the Quarterback Club next Tuesday night. All football players (high school down through junior high) and fans are invited to the event.

The Pigskin Preview has been set for the night of Sept. 8.

The Quarterback Club members voted that their regular meetings during the football season should be closed to non-members, except for invited guests. Admission to such sessions, at which films of football games will be shown and other activities will be presented, will be by membership card only.

The Quarterback Club's annual membership drive is now underway, and club officials hope to set a new record for membership. The membership fee is $5 per year.

Coach Horrace Bostick gave a brief report on the progress of football drills.

"Last Friday we looked terrible, but today the boys began to show some improvement," Bostick said.

The Tiger coach said his "big boys" were having their problems getting in shape, but predicted that every man on the squad would be ready physically by the time the first ball game comes up.

The Tigers have a practice scrimmage session booked here Friday evening with Odessa Ector High School. Another scrimmage a week later will be staged at Midland with the Midland High Bulldogs.

Non-Pro List To Be Pared

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament turns into its last week with 14 teams still in contention, although most of them have lost one game.

From now on the list in the losers' bracket will be trimmed rapidly.

Four teams were eliminated Monday and two will go out tonight.

Those ousted Monday were Indianapolis, with a 1-2 record, Milwaukee (2-2), Lubbock, Tex., (1-2) and Trenton, N.J. (2-2).

Ponchatoula, La., (3-1) beat Trenton 14-10, scoring seven runs in the first inning and five in the third.

Eureka, Calif., (3-0) beat Wyoming, Mich., (2-1) 5-3; Wichita Dreamliners (2-1) trounced Lubbock 10-4 in seven innings; Wichita Glass (2-1) defeated Indianapolis 7-3, and Kingsport, Tenn., (3-1) outlasted Milwaukee 13-12.

Tonight's games (CST):

5:15 p.m. — West Point, Miss. (2-1) vs. Gibsonton, Fla. (2-1).

7:45 p.m. — Fulton, Mo., (2-0) vs. Bellingham, Wash. (2-0).

9:45 p.m. — Brandon, Neb. (2-1) vs. Wichita Glass (2-1).

Third base coach Vern Benson of the St. Louis Cardinals began his career as a 1943 pinch hitter with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Top Players To Skip Dallas Meet

DALLAS (AP)—It's definite that the Dallas Open won't have five of the top six money-winners, including Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, but officials said they would have an excellent field and did not anticipate a drop in attendance.

Nicklaus, No. 1; Palmer, No. 2; Tony Lema, No. 3; Ken Venturi, No. 5, and Gary Player, No. 6, will skip the Dallas Open next week for a variety of reasons.

Nicklaus has something else to do, Palmer ran into a prior commitment, Lema will be in Denmark playing on the "Wonderful World of Golf," Venturi will be on an exhibition tour as the result of winning the National Open and Player is going home to South Africa for a visit.

The fourth leading money-winner, Bill Casper; the seventh, Chi-Chi Rodriguez; eighth, Mason Rudolph; ninth, Mike Souchak, and tenth, Bobby Nichols, the PGA champion, will be here from the top 10.

Billy Maxwell also will be on hand to defend the championship he won in 1962. The tournament wasn't held last year because of the national PGA in Dallas.

Earl Stewart, pro at the Oak Cliff Country Club, where the tournament will be run off, said he anticipated a good golf show and a good attendance. He added that the course, measuring 6,842 yards and a par 35-35—70, was in excellent condition since recent rains softened up the cracked roughs.

"It is in the best shape since 1960," said Stewart.

2nd Place Only Battle Left In TL

By The Associated Press

The only fight of any importance left in the Texas League race — for second place — had Tulsa in the driver's seat after Monday night's games.

Tulsa beat Albuquerque 5-4 to break out of a tie for the spot and take over, moving 6½ games behind leading San Antonio, which was whipped 6-3 by El Paso.

Albuquerque, in third place, is 7½ games back.

Fort Worth put another crimp in Austin's hopes of getting into the playoffs when the Cats edged the Senators 4-3.

The loss dropped Austin seven games behind fourth place El Paso with 14 games left to play.

Lou Vickery, Bobby Dews and Bobby Tolan hit singles in the last of the ninth to give Tulsa its triumph over Albuquerque. Mel Corbo had tied up the game with his 22nd homer in the top of the ninth.

Jerry Robinson hit two home runs and drove in four tallies to lead El Paso to its victory over San Antonio. Robinson ran his season total to 26 homers.

Chris Zachary suffered his sixth defeat. He has 16 victories.

Ellis Burton singled in the deciding run in the seventh as Fort Worth nosed out Austin. Bill Connors won his seventh pitching decision although Loyd Wallis had to help him over the fina. two innings. Wallis pitched hitless relife.

Tonight it's Austin at Fort Worth, El Paso at San Antonio and Albuuerue at Tulsa.

Burleigh Grimes' Wife Dies At 56

TRENTON, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Burleigh Grimes, 56, wife of the Hall of Fame baseball pitcher, died of a heart attack Monday at the family farm four miles southwest of Trenton. She had not been ill prior to the attack.

Her husband, named to the Hall of Fame last year, is a scout for the Baltimore Orioles.

Army's 1965 golf captain is Harry Joyner who comes from Wichita Falls, Tex.

Chuck, Ralston One-Third 'Home'

CHESNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley, the young men who returned the United States to world tennis supremacy, are one-third of the way home toward an impossible goal.

"Mission one-third accomplished," shouted the 22-year-old Ralston after he and McKinley had demolished the English duo of Mike Sangster and Graham Stillwell 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 Monday and captured their third National Doubles Tennis Championship.

"Our goals for the summer," Ralston said, "have been this — win the national doubles and retire the cups. Then Forest Hills."

That's where the quest becomes impossible.

"Naurally we can't both win the singles, but we'll both be trying," Ralston said. "One of us should win it.

"Then here's the Davis Cup. We've got to show that it was no fluke in Australia, by keeping it."

McKinley, 23, and Ralston, 22-year-old Southern California student, were the key factors in the United States' Davis Cup triumph a year ago and are the principal figures in the defense against the winner of the Sweden-Australia interzone match in Cleveland next month.

The ease with which they dispatched the Britons—the first English pair to reach the finals since 1903 — indicated they were ready. Neither lost his serve or was in danger of doing so.

It was the third doubles championship for the two—previous victories came in 1961 and 1963—and retired the silver bowl emblematic of the championship. The last duo to win three were Bill Talbert and Gardnar Muloy, who won their third title in 1946.

"Denny and I are at the top of our games," said McKinley, who plays out of San Antonio, Tex.

Their doubles triumph, engineered in just 50 minutes, completed a sweep of the titles for the United States and marked the first time in 10 years it had been accomplished.

The sweep was set up when the California duo of Billie Jean Moffitt, of Long Beach and Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of San Diego upset top-seeded Australians Margaret Smith and Lesley Turner 2-6, 6-2, 6-4 for the women's title.

Tickets To Tiger Games Are On Sale

Season football tickets for the five home games of the Snyder Tigers will go on sale tomorrow to the general public.

Those who had season tickets last year were given an opportunity to reclaim their stadium facilities earlier.

The season tickets sell for $7.50 each and they may be purchased at the school administration building.

School officials said inquiries indicated more interest than usual in the season tickets this year.

Racing Driver Dies

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — Jack McLaughlin, 30, of Thorofare, N.J., a well-known racing driver in the East, died Monday night in St. Luke's Hospital of injuries suffered Sunday in a race at nearby Nazareth Speedway.

JUNIOR HIGH PHYSICALS SET

Physical examinations for junior high school football players have been scheduled for Thursday and Friday.

Travis Junior High footballers will report to the Travis Gym at 7 a.m. Thursday for their physicals.

Lamar Junior High players will get their physicals beginning at 7 a.m. Friday at the Lamar Gym.

Youngsters who plan to play on the seventh, eighth or ninth grade teams at either school must have the physical examinations. Actual workouts for the junior high footballers will not begin until school starts next Monday.

Lou Groza Still Commands Confidence Of His Mates

By The Associated Press

There were 28 seconds remaining on the clock. Cleveland's Lou Groza calmly lined up his field goal attempt with the Browns trailing the Los Angeles Rams 28-27 in the National Football League championship game.

As Groza approached the ball for the all-important kick, on the sidelines, the Browns already were heaving their helmets in the air in a sign of victory.

That was 13 years ago, and Groza justfied the Browns' confidence, kicking the winning field goal.

Once again, Monday, the Browns expressed their confidence in Groza, now a 40-year-old veteran of 18 professional football seasons, by trading rookie kicking specialist Dick Van Raaphorst to the Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft choice.

There had been speculation that Van Raaphorst, a 10th round draft choice from Ohio State tutored by Groza, would replace his teacher as the Browns extra point and field goal kicker.

"I feel good this year and will play as long as I can," said Groza. "I never work on the principle of leaving.

"I'll probably be around until they sweep me out."

They may never sweep him out of the record books.

The alltime leading scorer in the NFL, Groza holds eight league records and his seniority as a pro dates back to the original Browns of the now defunct All-American Conference.

Groza will be shooting to hit the 1,000-point mark in his NFL career this season. He has scored 987 points on 176 field goals, 543 extra points and one touchdown.

The touchdown came on a pass from Otto Graham in 1950 on a since outlawed tackle eligible play.

One other trade was concluded during the day as the 22 pro football clubs trimmed their squads to get down to the 45-player limit by the Tuesday deadline.

The Green Bay Packers reduced their squad below the limit by trading veteran defensive lineman Urban Henry to the Pittsburgh Steelers for a future draft choice.

Cleo Veers, Heads For Cuban Coast

CLEO ON THE MOVE—Cross in solid arrow locates Hurricane Cleo 100 miles southeast of Port au Prince, Haiti. Open arrow indicates its path as it moves west and westnorthwest about 16 miles an hour. Next land area in its path is Jamaica. (AP Wirephoto Map)

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

Kingston, Jamaica (AP) — Gale force winds raked Cuba's Oriente Province and norther Jamaica today as Hurricane Cleo churned through the strait separating the two islands.

Seas raged and heavy surf battered shipping and coastal installations along Jamaica's north coast and Cuba's southeastern coast.

Winds were building to hurricane force from Santiago, Cuba, westward along the Sierra Maestra Mountains, where Fidel Castro began his drive to power.

The Jamaican Weather Office said reconnaissance planes reported the hurricane veered northward during the night and appeared headed more directly toward Cuba. Extent of the northward turn would not be known until additional observations were made by hurricane hunter aircraft.

Forecasters said Cleo appeared headed toward Oriente Province, which suffered a severe blow last October from Hurricane Flora.

Residents were evacuating the southern coast of Cuba's Oriente Province, Havana radio said, and the government was preparing to evacuate parts of neighboring Camaguey Province.

Fifty physicians and 50 nurses left Havana Monday night to work with emergency teams previously established in Camaguey, the broadcast said.

At 8 a.m., EST, the hurricane was centered about 35 miles south of Cuba.

The Miami, Fla., Weather Bureau said peak winds were about 110 miles per hour near the center and the storm was on a west-northwest course at 15 miles per hour.

Radar at the U.S. Navy base, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and reconnaissance planes were keeping watch on the hurricane.

There were no reports of the damage done in Haiti. Last year, Flora killed thousands there. Haiti's mountains slowed Cleo's 140 mile-an-hour winds but the storm was regaining force over the warm, open waters.

Full force of the hurricane skirted Jamaica and the principal danger was from above-normal tides and damaging surf, especially between Port Maria and Montego Bay, where most of the plush tourist hotels are located.

Jamaican weathermen said Cleo showed remarkable similarity to Flora, which lightly touched Jamaica and then hit Cuba, killing more than 1,000 persons.

Cleo hit Guadeloupe last Saturday, then skirted to the south of Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic before plunging across the southern tip of Haiti. She caused at least 14 deaths, injured 100 and did $50 million damage in Guadeloupe.

Drowns In Washtub

BROWNSVILLE (AP)—Freddy Ivey, 8-month-old-son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ivey, drowned in a washtub in the backyard of the family home Sunday.

Oil Production Records Increase

TULSA, Okla. (AP)— U.S oil production rose last week, largely on gains in Oklahoma and Kansas, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

The trade magazine's survey showed average daily production at 7,528,650 barrels per day, up 17,600 barrels daily over the previous week.

Gains included Oklahoma, up 9,600 barrels a day to an average of 555,600 daily.

Figures for other states, with the previous week's output in parentheses, were: Arkansas 73,200 (73,200); Louisiana 1,498,000 (1,498,000); New Mexico 306,500 (306,500); Texas 2,574,95 (2,574,95).

Valley Cotton Shows Production Increase

MERCEDES (AP)— The Valley Farm Bureau estimates that cotton production in the Lower Rio Grande Valley is almost 70 pounds per acre higher this year than in 1963.

The bureau estimated this year's yield on all cotton would exceed 400 pounds, compared to 330 pounds in 1963.

The valley had ginned 300,827 bales last week compared to 256,915 for the same period in 1963 and 419,619 bales in 1962.

Hey Kid, You Wanta Buy A Pack Of Hot Bubble Gum?

NEW YORK (AP) — Topps' bubble gum cards with pictures of baseball players may look like kid stuff, but a Federal Trade Commission examiner has ruled that the firm has a monopoly in them.

In a 13-page decision, examiner Herman Tocker proposed Monday that the company should limit the length of the contracts it signs with players.

He said that Topps — with annual sales of $14 million the largest of bubble gum makers — had by extensive missionary work in the minor leagues signed virtually every major league player.

A spokesman for the company said any adverse decision by the full commission would be appealed.

He also said that if many companies were to issue baseball cards, children would be frustrated in attempts to assemble well-ordered sets. Anarchy would afflict the market, he suggested.

The company announced that it would soon begin distributing gum with pictures of President Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater. "It's the first time we've ever used presidential nominees," said the spokesman.

In 1961 Topps had on its roster 446 of the 450 major league players. The young fans trade cards or buy more bubble gum to get the cards they want, and the progress of a player during the season can be charted by his value on the bubble gum card exchange.

Big stars, like the New York Yankees' Mickey Mantle and the San Francisco Giants' Willie Mays, can be traded for quantities of bench warmers.

Tocker accused the company of contributing to the "regimentation of the baseball-card buying public."

He said Topps' exclusive agreements with 6,500 ballplayers run for five years and are renewable before they expire. The ballplayers get $125 a year if ther picture is used. They are signed in the minors for a $5 binder.

Tocker proposed limiting the contracts to two years, limiting the firm's power of renewal, and voiding any existing contract after October 1966.

Tocker cleared Topps of most items in a long list of secondary charges made by its two chief competitors.

One of them, the Frank H. Fleer Corp., makers of Dubble Bubble, was accused by Tocker of using "subversive efforts and espionage to obtain copies of Topps' contract."

School Registration Reminder Issued

Snyder school students have been reminded that registration for elementary students will be held on Wednesday from one to four p.m.

All first grade students will attend a pre-school class from 8:30 to 10 a.m. Friday at the schools which they will attend. The first day of school here will be Monday, Aug. 31, and the school buses will make their first runs on that date and will pick up all eligible students on their respective routes.

Fireworks Explosion Takes 42 Lives

TOLUCA, Mexico (AP) — At least 42 persons were killed when a pile of fireworks exploded during a religious celebration near here Monday. Another 33 were injured.

Rescue workers, digging through debris in the village of Atlatlahuca in central Mexico, said the toll of dead and injured might go higher.

The fireworks exploded near several tanks of inflammable gas. Authorities said they had not determined what set off the fireworks.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Controlling Hand Apparent In New Democratic Lines

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The Democrats have laid down, in a speech and a platform, the main lines they will pursue in the 1964 campaign.

But the platform showed the controlling hand of President Johnson, even though he was still in Washington, as much by what it left unsaid as by what it pinpointed.

It's a compromise document plainly intended to prevent party-shattering splits. Particularly it tries to avoid alienating Negroes or Southerners, city-dwellers or farmers.

Yet, the very conscious, and apparently successful search for harmony here is going to make the Democrats' get - together even duller than last month's Republican convention, where the forces of Sen. Barry Goldwater completely dominated the show.

Here are those main lines voters can expect the Democrats to follow:

Americans never had it so good, and were never militarily so strong, as under the Kennedy - Johnson administrations. The Democrats claim the longest and strongest peacetime prosperity in our history.

2. Extremism will be a persistent Democratic target.

The platform condemned it, specifically naming the Communist party, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society. Pastore said the Republicans have been taken over by reactionaries and extremists.

The Republican platform avoided repudiating extremism and, while Goldwater later said he did not want the support of the Ku Klux Klan, he did not do the same about the Birchites.

3. The platform promised new programs — such as expanded aid to education and broader health facilities, to name a couple — which would mean even broader participation of the federal government in American life.

The Republican platform promised some new programs, too, but because of its heavy emphasis on less government help and participation it is basically different from the Democratic document).

It was on some very sore subjects that the Democratic platform was most cautious. For instance, civil rights.

It promised "fair, effective enforcement" of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This is the least it could do without alienating Negroes and Northern liberals. Because it was a minimum, it would not infuriate the South.

The best evidence that this was the language of political compromise is that Northern and Southern members of the Platform Committee acclaimed their work as a "unity" platform and a winner in November.

It said — but didn't attempt to promise, even if the Democrats are in control — that Congress should change its rules to end filibusters after reasonable debate. The filibuster is the Southerners' main weapon against civil rights bills.

And, for the first time since World War II, the platform omitted any demand for new civil rights legislation.

Even though Goldwater voted against the 1964 civil rights bill, the Republican platform on this subject seemed a little stronger than the Democrats.

While it promised "full implementation and faithful execution of the civil rights act of 1964," it went on to promise "such additional . . . legislative actions as may be required."

But the Democrats' platform entirely ducked — and here Johnson's hand was plainly at work — any mention of the problem of reapportioning state legislative districts on the basis of population.

The Supreme Court had ordered this to give all voters a more equal voice in their legislatures. It could wreck some present state political machines. There is a fight now in Congress to postpone or entirely block the court's decree.

Little Gems From Boyle's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Seven out of 10 American husbands die before their wives. But this has no connection with the fact that the nation now has 5,000 women life insurance agents, many of them highly successful.

The Tokyo Electric Power Co. of Japan now is the world's largest generator of electric power with a capacity of 7,170 million kilowatts. A U.S. firm, the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., is second.

Four American families have no trouble keeping up with the Joneses, at least numerically. They are the Smiths, Johnsons, Williams and Browns. Trailing the Joneses, who are fifth in number, are the Millers, Davis, Martins, Andersons and Wilsons.

Quotable notables: "Truth telling, I have found, is the key to responsible citizenship. The thousands of criminals I have seen in 40 years of law enforcement have had one thing in common: every single one was a liar" — J. Edgar Hoover.

Kids who go back to school next month might be interested to know that written exams were unknown prior to 1700.

Nature notes: You've got a pretty fast pet snail if he can travel more than two feet an hour.

Although the Soviet Union may be officially atheistic, Catholic Digest magazine reports that about 50 million of the Soviet residents — about a fifth of the population — are Christians.

Folklore: If someone presents you with a knife or other sharp-edged instrument, give him a penny or it will cut your friendship. When a child is born with stumpy fingers, that is a sign it will have to work for a living. Sneeze on Sunday and you'll be in the devil's power for the rest of the week.

We're getting to be more convention minded. As a matter of fact, this year some nine million Americans will attend 20,000 conventions at a cost of $2 billion.

The well-dressed U.S. male will look broader-shouldered and narrower-waisted next year, according to the Custom Clothiers Association. There is also a trend toward the one-button jacket.

Other woes may be piling up, but at least you're less likely to be killed by a tornado. Tornadoes took 552 lives in 1936, and only 31 last year.

It was Alfred Adler who observed, "It is easier to fight for one's principles than to live up to them."

Junior Editors Quiz on PLASTICS

QUESTION: How are plastics made?

• • •

ANSWER: 'Plastic' means able to be moulded, and since the first plastics were shaped by pressure, this name was adopted by the makers. Articles made of plastic are different from other man-made objects. Take a wooden log and you can make paper from it; but the paper is still wood pulp—wood in another form. But in making plastics, the basic raw materials are changed into something new and different.

Many plastics start with simple raw materials such as water, air, coal, limestone and salt. These are treated in different ways, by squeezing, heating, distilling and so on (suggested in pictures to right) producing other materials such as ethylene, ammonia, formaldehyde, etc. In the process, the tiny invisible building blocks of matter, the molecules, are rearranged in new ways; this process, called polymerization, is producing new products. Among them are the synthetic resins, such as those of the important urea, vinyl, phenolic and polystyrene groups. Taking these, the plastics manufacturer, by various processes of heating, casting, squeezing and so on, makes the amazing variety of light, waterproof, tough objects we all use today in our everyday lives.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Write down the variety of qualities plastics have. You will write 'hard' or 'tough', but then think of the plastic cheeks of Lisa's doll which she is pinching to make her purse her lips, and you will also have to write 'flexible.' Think of any others.

Cool Front Stirs Storm In Palestine

By The Associated Press

Another cool front with light thundershowers edged into Texas today. Showers fell over scattered parts of the eastern Panhandle and Northeast Texas this morning, keeping temperatures down, but the rest of the state was still gripped in muggy summer heat.

Whirling winds accompanying an electrical storm stirred up a fuss Monday evening in the East Texas city of Palestine.

Roofs were curled off many houses, an antenna system of radio station KNET was hit, and the roof of a church and awning atop a downtown drive-in were damaged. One man, Foots James, said he saw a funnel cloud during the storm.

Lightning set fire to several trees and two house fires were reported. The cool rain caused temperatures to plummet from 94 to 78 within minutes.

Far to the southeast, Hurricane Cleo headed for a brush with Jamaica and a possible collision with Cuba. The Weather Bureau said the hurricane would hit the Yucatan channel between Cuba and the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico within 48 hours if she remains on her west-northwest course, with 140-mile-an-hour winds.

More showers were expected to be touched off as the cool air mass rolled further into Texas.

Rain fell over wide parts of Central, North, and East Texas Monday afternoon and evening. Measurements for the 2 hours ending at 6 p.m. included Galveston .38 of an inch, Laredo and San Antonio .24, Houston .16, Victoria .15, Junction .07, Beaumont .05, Dallas .03 and Austin .02.

Temperatures ranged Monday from 85 degrees at Houston to 102 at Presidio. Today's readings were from a shivering 59 at Dalhart to 81 at Brownsville and Galveston.

Family In Baytown Is Found Shot

BAYTOWN (AP) — A Baytown man, his pregnant wife and their three children were found shot to death at their home Monday.

The man, Jose Gonzales, 34, was found clutching a .22-caliber pistol with all six shells expended.

His wife, Jo Frances, 28, and the three children wore night clothes.

Deputy Coroner Dr. Joseph H. Simmons of Highlands ordered an autopsy.

He ruled six deaths in the shooting because the woman was seven or eight months pregnant.

Police said the multiple slaying occurred about midnight Sunday. J. L. Blevins, Gonzales' father-in-law, discovered the bodies about 11:30 a.m. Monday.

Gonzales left three letters. One was addressed to a brother, Robert Gonzales, Robstown, Tex. Another was to the Houston Chronicle and the third, which apparently was a suicide note, was not addressed.

R. P. Merchant, Baytown detective, would not give newsmen full access to the letters, because, he said, they contained a great deal of personal information about Gonzales and his family.

Merchant said the letters were similar in content and they indicated that apparently Gonzales was despondent over a decision to give up his unborn child.

Most Banks Shying Away From Listing Of Stocks

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Stock Exchange figures there are about 50 of the nation's banks large enough to meet its requirements for stock listing. Only a few have shown interest so far, and only one has applied. For the time being, the stocks of most will continue to be traded over the counter.

Part of the roadblock is hesitancy by the banks themselves and part is a battle over rules governing trading in stocks of nationally chartered banks.

The reason the stock exchange thinks banks, as well as many other large corporations, may now seek listing is the signing into law last week of the Securities Acts Amendments of 1964. These require large firms to publish more complete financial information than most of these unlisted ones now do, and thus would bring them close to meeting rules laid down by the exchange itself.

Large unlisted industrial corporations from now on will have to file the newly required information with the Securities & Exchange Commission, banks with the federal regulatory agencies, and insurance companies with their home state insurance commissioners.

But comptroller of Currency James J. Saxon, before approving listing of national banks, wants the New York Stock Exchange to make exceptions in some of its trading rules to favor bank stocks.

One demand is for more disclosure of the activities of specialists making a market for bank stocks than is required of specialists in industrial stocks. He also wants banks stocks to be traded both on the exchange and over the counter. And he doesn't want trading in bank stocks halted temporarily to match orders, as in the case of industrial stocks in a trading rush, lest the delay alarm nervous depositors.

But Saxon's approval isn't a concern of state chartered banks. And the nation's state-chartered largest, the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, has applied for listing.

At present four bank holding companies and some savings and loan associations are listed on the exchange, but no commercial bank has been since 1954. In that year the only one, Corn Exchange Bank & Trust Co. of New York, went off the exchange to merge with an unlisted bank. The name has since been changed to Chemical Bank New York Trust.

Banks have been shy of listing for several reasons. One is the rule for information publication beyond that required by banking regulations. Another is that over-the-counter trading offers less publicity to the ups and downs of stock prices, and that bank stocks can be sold over the counter by both securities firms that are members of the exchange and those that aren't.

Area Masons Set Workshop

Officers and members of seven Masonic Lodges in this area have been invited to attend a workshop which will be held at 7:30 p.m., September 12th, at the Masonic Lodge in Colorado City. Snyder, Ira, Dunn, Hermleigh, Loraine, Roscoe and Colorado City Lodges are invited.

The workshop is being held to enable Masons to study common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations. It will be conducted by L. T. Harris, a Clyde rancher and chairman of the Masonic Workshop Area covering eight nearby counties.

The workshop is part of a statewide semi-annual program held for the quarter - million members of nearly 1,000 Texas Masonic Lodges. It has been authorized by John R. Collard, Jr. of Spearman, Grand Master of Masons in Texas. He urged all officers and members of the invited Lodges to attend and said other Masons are also welcome.

Historic Press Now Rests In Private Museum

By JACK RUTLEDGE

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A few drinks of tequila probably helped save America's first printing press for posterity.

The centuries - old wooden press, first to operate in the New World, was brought to Mexico in 1539 by Fray Juan de Zumarraga, first bishop of Spain and Aptonio de Mendoza, first viceroy.

The first printer was Juan Pablos.

The press is part of a private collection owned by historian Guillermo Echaniz. It can be seen in his home, which has been converted into a veritable museum.

Echaniz has received numerous offers from abroad but will not sell the historic press. He says he wants it to stay in Mexico.

In time he hopes the government will buy it and put it in a public museum.

In the story of how Echaniz found and got possession of the press, tequila played a part.

He found it just in time. The owner, not realizing what he had, was about to burn it along with other trash in his warehouse.

Echaniz said that about 35 years ago, he was looking for a set of wheels for his son's bicycle. He dropped into a little store which sold second-hand odds and ends.

The proprietor took him into a back room. Echaniz said was a mess—an accumulation of assorted oddities.

Echaniz noticed a long wooden screw of the type he recalled seeing in pictures of old printing presses.

The owner identified it as just junk, and said he was planning to burn the stuff shortly. But he wouldn't dig into the pile at the time "because it's too much trouble

Echaniz didn't insist. He went back a week later and bought a few items.

Two weeks later he returned again. This time he and the owner had lunch together. They began drinking tequila and pulque, that did it.

The owner said Echaniz could have the junk cheap if he would take it right away, so he could clean up his warehouse.

Echaniz wasted no time.

Most of the pieces were there and Echaniz had little trouble reassembling the old press.

Close checks by experts identified it positively as the original press. A major clue was strange letters branded into one of the boards: "Impo. mo. pr. ochte."

Experts said this means "impreso en Mexico por Pedro Ocharte." Ocharte was the son-in-law of Juan Pablos, who left Ocharte his belongings at his deaths.

How did the storekeeper get possession of the press? His store is on the site of the old printing shop.

New Surgery Is Described

WASHINGTON (AP) — Use of super-cooled probes to make inflamed tonsils disappear in virtually bloodless surgery was described today by two New York doctors. The tonsils are cooled to temperatures as low as 76 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

The doctors also told of other promising uses of cryosurgery — techniques involving use of extreme cold to kill diseased tissue, instead of just cutting it away.

The technique has been used in certain types of brin disorders, such as Parkinson's disease (shaking palsy), and in treating cataracts of the eye, diseased prostrate glands, and certain forms of cancer.

Dr. William G. Cahan of the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, and Dr Irving S. Cooper of the Department of Neurosurgery, St. Barnarbas, Hospital, told about the progress in reports to the first annual meeting of the Society for Cryobiology.

Austin Teacher Killed In Crash

AUSTIN (AP) — An Austin teacher, Mrs. Margaret Friend, died Monday night in a two-car collision near here. Her husband, Tullis Friend, 57, was slightly injured. Mrs. Friend was a native of Brownwood.

The other driver, John Chase, 20, received serious injuries.
