The City of Rotan will begin collecting fees for dumping at the Rotan Landfill beginning on Monday morning, June 22nd, according to Joe Dickson, Rotan City Manager.

Gate Fees Outlined

The gate fees are $5.00 minimum, $3.00 a cubic yard for dump trucks, $6.00 for a 1/2 ton short bed pickup, $7.50 for a 1/2 ton long bed pickup and $15.00 for a 16 ft. trailer stacked one foot. Dead animal charges are $3.00 for a small animal, $6.00 for medium and $12.00 for large animal. The tire fee for whole tires is $1.00 for auto and pickup tires, $2.00 for truck and $10.00 for tractor. Appliance dumping fee is $5.00 for refrigerators, water heaters and stoves.

The landfill rules can be found in an advertisement in another section of this paper.

Telephone Right-Of-Way

The Rotan City Council tabled action on renewing a 'Right-Of-Way' ordinance with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company until next month. The right-of-way ordinance renewal rate, set by the City of Rotan, could produce a substantial amount of money. In 1991 the annual feed amounted to $2,322. Under the proposed ordinance if the City of Rotan passes a $.48 rate the City of Rotan realizes $5,900; if a $.59 rate is passed the annual feed to the City of Rotan jumps to $7,200 and to $8,500 for a $.70 fee.

Currently, phone residents are charged $.19 a month on their bill with ATTENTION GRABBER: "I'm just nearly dead", was the comment he made, but it failed to arouse even a raised eyebrow.

A classic example of how we as friends and neighbors fail to listen.

We have probably all done it. "Hi, Mrs. Smith, How are you?" Not really wanting a detailed response from Mrs. Smith. In fact, hoping that Mrs. Smith would just say "Fine, Thanks" and go about here business.

I fell in behind L. D. McGrew at Thriftway recently. I was on a detail to pick up a head of lettuce on my way home from the office for lunch.

"Hi, L.D. How are you doing," I said.

I really don't remember L.D.'s reply. He said something like. "I guess I'm doing pretty good." Or "I'm doing a lot better than most."

It was the story after that stuck with me.

Right there, blocking the way out, L.D. proceeded to tell me a story.

"I remember several years ago going to the grocery store and passing a man pushing my grocery cart. He asked me how I was doing and just to get his attention I said. "I'm about dead".

As the man passed the tuna fish section, and wheeled around the corner, he said "That's good L.D., nice to see ya."

L.D. McGrew said that he has never forgotten that incident.

A man told me a similar story about a college professor that would meet students in the hall and smile, greeting each one with the same, "Hi, how you doing?", "Hi, how you doing?', Hi, How you doing?"

Two guys, sick and tired of the phony greeting, day after day, decided that the next time he greeted them, they would have a proper response.

A day or so later, Mr. College Professor passed the two, blurts out his standard greeting, "Hi, how you doing?" and to that one responds. "Not so good, I'm pregnant".

Mr. College Professor never slowed down, just kept on greeting students, "Hi, how you doing?, Hi, How you doing".

In Fisher County in particular, in West Texas in general, we are not immune from becoming insensative. Hopefully, we never get so callous as to fail to respond to a "I'm nearly dead" or "Not so good, I'm pregnant", without putting on the brakes and taking the time to really hear the other person.

MAIL ORDER TAX: Texas could add about $150 million a year to state coffers by collecting taxes on mail-order sales, according to Lt. Governor Bob Bullock. So - let's get after it. We need the $150 million a year. Texas retailers need the business. My guess is that more Texas folks will shop locally and at Texas stores versus shopping at L.L.Bean, Freeport Maine; or Eddie Bauer or Spiegel's as a result of the tax. The final hurdle is having the United States Congress approval for Texas to tax out-of-state catalog companies.

THE TRUTH: Mark Twain wrote it in a notebook in 1894. "If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything."

LITTLE OLD LADY: I have a little old lady who calls me every 3 or 4 months to ask my opinion on things. She asks me who I am going to vote for, and

AUSTIN — Texas Democrats flexed their political muscle in Washington and Austin last week, combining to kill a proposed balanced-budget amendment and caucusing to retain leadership of the Texas House.

Proponents of the amendment, which was sponsored by Rep. Charles Stenholm, D-Stamford, fell nine votes short of the required two-thirds majority in a 280-153 roll call vote.

Republicans in the Texas congressional delegation were aided by several Democratic colleagues, but a group headed by Reps. Jack Brooks, D-Beaumont, and Albert Bustamante, D-San Antonio, prevailed in defeating the proposal. Bustamante was one of eleven cosponsors who abandoned the measure.

Meanwhile in Austin, House Democrats convened their caucus and, in a show of unity sparked by fears of growing Republican influence, agreed to endorse one of their nine candidates after the November election, rather than risk divisiveness before the session begins in January.

Republicans Uncommitted

Only the week before, the House Republican Caucus met but failed to endorse a single candidate, all of which are Democrats.

Their strategy is obvious: with a heavier-than-usual turnover expected in the fall elections, they will count GOP heads after the election.

If they are short of the necessary 76 votes, they will determine which of the candidates is still standing and is most likely to share committee chairmanships and other plums of power.

Demo Party Purity

The second alternative is what has House Democrats alarmed; the pattern for victory for past speakers Bill Clayton and protege Gib Lewis has been to win by rewarding Republican allies.

Last week's meeting was apparently a maneuver to stop two frontrunners, Pete Laney and Jim Rudd, from doing that.

Some Democrats confessed worries that Republican gains might spawn a GOP candidate who could swap plums for votes from disgruntled Democrats.

Others fear that the Democratic party purity pledge will only inform Republicans that they have nothing to lose by fielding their own candidate earlier than planned.

Rockefeller Endorsed

At the Democratic Party convention, state chairman Bob Slagle said he wants West Virginia Sen. Jay Rockefeller to be the party's candidate for vice president.

The likely nominee, Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton, picked up several uncommitted delegates, and Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro, his friend since the 1972 George McGovern campaign, said Clinton was gaining "real momentum."

Temple Backs Perot

But another long-prominent Texas Democrat, Arthur Temple Sr., who has contributed to Mauro in the past, said he was backing Ross Perot, a serious blow to Clinton in East Texas.

Both Temple and Perot grew up in Texarkana, four blocks from each other with a 10 year age difference. Temple's father sometimes drove Perot to school.

Meanwhile, Arthur's son, former legislator and gubernatorial candidate Buddy Temple, said he may also abandon the Democrats to support Perot.

Lottery Officials Charged

Criminal charges have been filed against the fired supervisor of Houston's Texas Lottery claim center and a state comptroller's employee working there.

Authorities said claim center supervisor Mark Thierry, 27, and Burke Stutes, 20, a comptroller enforcement officer, admitted they stole 2,000 lottery tickets.

Thierry is charged with tampering with a government document, a felony. Stutes was charged with misdemeanor forgery.

Finance Master Sought

Property-poor school districts asked a state judge last week to have a hearing by the end of June on their request that a court master be appointed to write a constitutional school finance plan for 1993-94, in case lawmakers fail to do so.

Al Kauffman, representing the school districts, made the request in a letter to state District Judge Scott McCown.

The Texas Supreme Court this year for the third time struck down a school funding law.

Other Highlights

- Highway officials this month will change the signs on U.S. 59 connecting Houston with Laredo, renaming it the U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen Highway.
- Bentsen had less luck with his request that President Bush nominate Texan Oveta Culp Hobby, the first commander of the Women's Army Corp in World War II, to brigadier general on the retired list. Bush declined.
- University of Texas regents approved the system's 1992-93 budget of $3.6 billion for the next school year.
- U.S. Rep. Jake Pickle, D-Austin, said he would vote for his party's nominee if the presidential election were thrown into the House of Representatives — unless someone else was the clear-cut favorite in his district.

Support For Physician

Just a passing thought.

The members of the Fisher County Hospital Board named Dr. Mira Tomasovic, M.D. to the medical staff last Monday night. She has been practicing her profession in Aspermont and wants a change. She will begin practicing at the Doctor's Clinic at Fisher County Hospital on August 1st.

The residents of Fisher County have a grand opportunity to make this physician feel welcome. She is from Yugoslavia and is not real proficient is West Texas drawl. In fact, like many other transplants to West Texas she still carries a strong Yugoslavian accent to her dialect.

Never the less, we need to feel fortunate that she is willing to practice medicine in Fisher County. We need to feel fortunate that she is willing to move to Fisher County and we need to feel fortunate that the un-ending search for a permanent physician is over.

I hope the residents of Fisher County utilize Dr. Mira Tomasevic, along with Dr. C.M. Callan for the first call on medical needs.

Our county appreciates the confidence Dr. T. has placed in us.

Welcome, Dr. T. We hope you call Fisher County home for a long time.

About a month ago she called wanting to know what I thought of this Fella Ross Perot? That's a tough one I told her. I want to like Ross Perot. I want to believe that he is serious. I want to believe that his down home colorful way of speaking is real and that he has some concrete answers and solutions for some of the problems this country faces in the close of the twentieth century. I think we should wait on this one, I told her. Let's give Ross Perot some rope and see if he hangs himself or ties it in a knot and offers to save us. I think he hit the nail on the head when he said we've got to go get the shovel and clean out the barn.

It is going to be most interesting to see just exactly how long he can keep his cool, when the Eastern media begins pinning him down on specific issues. Defense spending, abortion, gay rights, gays in the White House, national health care. Be interesting to see how he holds his tongue. I predict that H. Ross Perot will lash out at reporters, get mad and resent being asked specific questions requiring specific answers. He's been his own boss and has been used to giving orders too long to sit back and be pinned down by a New York Times liberal reporter interested in knowing how many gays he intends to put in the Department of Transportation.

I want to like him, but I think we ought to toss him the rope and let him do something. Lots of time to make up our minds on Ross Perot. Thanks for calling - you make my day.Call again.

FILLING FATHER'S SHOES

"Clop..clop..clop; this is kinda' fun, walking in Dad's shoes, but how does he do it all the time? They are so big and heavy! Will I ever be able to fill them, even in a million years?"

From this young boy's perspective, it seems an impossibility. Yet, nourished by his father physically and spiritually, it is possible that one day he shall be able to fill his father's shoes.

A father possesses great power. Acts 7:51 states, "as your fathers did, so do ye." This Sunday, as we honor fatherhood, may all fathers realize their power, and use it for good; and may their children respect that power so as to grow in the knowledge of their father's wisdom and love.

Let us ultimately remember the power of our Heavenly Father as we worship Him this Father's Day. No one will ever fill His shoes.

Dr. Mira Tomasovic New Fisher County Physician To Begin Practice At Doctor's Clinic On August 1st

The members of the Fisher County Hospital Board appointed Dr. Mira Tomasovic to the medical staff at their meeting last Monday night. The new Fisher County physician is to begin practice at the Fisher County Doctor's Clinic on August 1st.

Board members also met with representatives of Bell Medical concerning a prime vendor program to be initiated utilizing their equipment. Mark Bell, of Bell Medical, made the presentation. Bell Medical is to pay the Fisher County Hospital a fee for placing the equipment in the homes of patients needing rented equipment after dismissal from the hospital. The board voted to study the agreement until the July meeting and vote on accepting the arrangement with Bell Medical at that time.

Board members established hospital business hours from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. with an hour for lunch. This will put the hospital business office and general hospital business hours in line with the clinic, lab, x-ray and all facets operating on the same time schedule.

The board voted to turn $9,861.88 in delinquent accounts over for collection. The delinquent accounts represent approximately 30 former patients who have either become 90 days or more past due or have failed to pay on prior past due accounts after setting up a structured pay plan with business office personnel.

Board members reviewed $53,217.33 in bills and did not have enough cash to pay all bills. The board left the priority payments of bills schedule up to administration.

Board members met in closed session for approximately a half-hour to discuss a personnel matter. No action on the matter was taken in open session.

Several representatives of Methodist Hospital in Lubbock were present last Monday night to visit with board members. The board was re-assured by Methodist representatives that they (the board) faced the same problems that any other hospital in a rural community faced - (1.) money, (2.) personnel and (3.) physicians.

Methodist Hospital is assisting the Fisher County Hospital under a management agreement at the present time. Board members asked representatives to look into switching the agreement to an affiliation agreement. Methodist representatives are to study the affiliation and report back to the board at the August meeting.

Breast Cancer Detection Unit In Rotan

Breast cancer cannot be prevented, but early detection can save many lives. Breast cancer will strike one in nine American women. The American Cancer Society predicts that about 44,000 women will die of breast cancer this year. Experts estimate that if every woman had regular mammograms according to guidelines established by the American Cancer Society, nearly a third of the women who die of breast cancer would survive. The guidelines are:

A) Begin mammography by age 40
B) Age 40-49 mammogram every 1-2 years
C) Over age 50 annual mammogram
D) Monthly breast self-examination
E) Regular breast exams by a physician

Mammography is the best means for early detection of breast cancer.

Transamerican Diagnostic services has been accredited by the American College of Radiology since 1989. The American College of Radiology Program is voluntary and designed to insure women receive optimum quality mammographic examinations. The accreditation is done through evaluation of the facility's staff qualifications, (technologist, radiologist, and physicist), equipment, quality control, quality assurance, image quality, and breast dose. Transamerican Diagnostic services is also approved by the Texas Department of Health to accept self referred patients and is approved by Medicare as a provider to the Medicare Mammography Program.

Transamerican Diagnostic Services, recently has been contracted by the Texas Department of Health to be an official provider for low income women.

Transamerican Diagnostic Services will have a Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit available to local women on Thursday, June 18th.

The Unit will be parked at Fisher County Hospital, Roby Highway 70, Rotan, Texas. Appointments may be made by calling 735-2256. For more information you may call Transamerican Diagnostic Services, Inc. at (915) 561-8888.

TAX PLANNING
by Gerald Rodgers, CPA
REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW BUSINESSES

If you're a new entrepreneur, we would like to welcome you to the business community and wish you every success in your new venture. We would also like to offer some guidance to help you navigate the new and sometimes confusing area of small business reporting and recordkeeping.

All businesses need a federal taxpayer identification number. Corporations and partnerships must file form SS-4 with the IRS to receive an Employer Identification Number (EIN). Unincorporated businesses whose only workers are its owners may use the owner's social security number to identify the business instead of filing form SS-4.

Businesses paying wages to any individual will be required to withhold income tax and social security (FICA) tax. The states and the IRS also require unemployment tax reporting on a quarterly basis. Ask the IRS to send you Circular E, which describes the filing requirements for employers. You should also call your state's tax office to request information about unemployment taxes.

Dealing with the myriad of local, state, and federal taxing authorities is often confusing. However, complying with these requirements from the beginning can save time, money, and frustration in the long run. We can assist you in registering your new business, applying for the appropriate identification numbers, and setting up your books and records. Call our office for assistance.

NEED MONEY FOR COLLEGE OR VOCATIONAL SCHOOL?

Do you have plans to go to college or vocational school? If you do, my company can help you search for financial aid.

Last year over $75 billion dollars was awarded to students through scholarships, grants, awards, fellowships and private gifts.

THE PROBLEM IS: Most students don't know where to look to find the money. In fact, $6.6 billion dollars went unclaimed last year alone.

• My firm has the largest computer database of scholarship information in the U.S. We have over 259,000 awards available for student aid worth over $30 billion dollars.

Money is awarded to college/vocational students each year that does not have anything to do with your high school grades, SAT or ACT scores.

As a general rule, you will receive 25 to 50 different sources of aid that you may apply for. We can match your unique characteristics with criteria established for scholarships about which you may be unaware. We will also show you HOW and WHEN to apply.

"Third Saturday" Musical To Be Held In Anson, June 20

A barbecue on the courthouse square will lead to music at the Opera House for the "Third Saturday" musical this Saturday, June 20, in Anson.

Serving begins at 5 p.m. for the dinner of barbecued brisket, beans, potato salad, dessert, and tea. Price is $4, at the barbecue on Northwest Court Plaza in front of the Opera House, or tickets can be purchased in advance at Smith's Leather Shop and from Opera House board members.

The musical will follow the barbecue at 6:30 p.m., featuring the return of the crowd-pleasing Country-Bumpkins. This group includes Erick McClintock and Zach Thompson, 12-year-old fiddle and guitar players from Clyde and Cisco.

A new band from Hamlin also is expected to perform, as well as many of the favorite regular musicians.

Admission to the musical is free, as usual. All concession sales and "pass the hat" donations go toward maintenance and continued renovation of the historic Opera House.

All bands that would like to play are invited to come. Musicians volunteer their time and talents for this community entertainment event, scheduled at the Opera House on the third Saturday of each month.

For more information about the musical or the barbecue, contact Marlon Smith, master of ceremonies, at 915-823-3542.

Pack Meets On Sheriff Deputies

Fisher County Democratic Sheriff nominee, Gene Pack, at the request of the council, met concerning the deputy coverage Rotan could expect if Pack becomes the Fisher County Sheriff on January 1, 1993. Pack and the council discussed two basic points of contention. First, two deputies residing in Rotan and second, the money Rotan is paying Fisher County.

$58,000 A Year Paid

At the current time Rotan City pays Fisher County $58,000 a year to provide protection in Rotan.

Pack assured Rotan Council members that he will provide the best protection possible for Rotan but indicated that the $58,000 was out of his jurisdiction. The money is an agreement between the Rotan Council, Commissioners and Judge Bennett.
