Pure Oil Company Takes 10,000 Acres In County

Annual Rentals From Leases Net Large Amount

Major companies have been active in assembling large wildcat blocks in the northwestern part of Dawson county within recent weeks. The acreage is being taken checker-board and solid where acreage is considered the most favorable for production.

The Pure Oil Company has just acquired approximately 10,000 acres in Dawson county. A little over 800 acres to complete their holdings were secured through DuBose Prothers local brokers. Pure's spread covers a structure that was recently "shot" and practically all of the sections were in block 55 T-6N. It was the largest block taken at one time and has spurred others to secure holdings along the trend they had chosen.

The Texas Company has just acquired 4,408 acres of the F. M. Weaver estate, that was recorded in the County Clerk's office recently in an oil and gas lease from the Amicable Life Insurance Company, of Waco, to this company. The instrument covers all that certain tract of land situated in the counties of Dawson and Gaines, being all of sections 97, 104, 106, 128, the north half and southeast quarter of section 98, and west half of southeast quarter of section 135, all in block M, also all of tracts 10, 19, 26 and 38 in League 3 Taylor County survey land, and all south half of survey 1, block 3 D. L. Cunningham survey.

Other companies including Humble Oil and Refining Company have added considerably to their holdings in this

Local Paralysis

Victim Enters Dallas Hospital

Alvin Carey Entered In Institution For Treatment

Little Alvin Carey, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Carey, was entered in the Scottish Rite Hospital at Dallas last week, where he will receive treatment for infantile paralysis. He suffered an attack in the early fall.

Miss Gladys Wright, home management supervisor for the Farm Security Administration, stated this Security office has worked toward placing the child in the hospital for several months and now he will receive the best treatment available.

A portion of the money for the trip to Dallas, and to purchase braces was furnished through the local Infantile Paralysis fund. Medical assistance was secured through the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the State Department of Education for Crippled Children.

The boy's father and mother were residing in the Mungler community of this county, when he was the picture of health, prior to the attack that completely paralyzed his little body in October. It was feared he would not survive for several months and the family were forced to release their farm and move to Trent, where they reside at present. There is hope for recovery.

Local Residents Are Amazed With Fruit Crops In South Tex.

This office received a letter Tuesday from Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Collins who are vacationing at McAllen, expressing appreciation of a copy of the Courier. In as much as their many friends will be glad to hear they are enjoying themselves we are reproducing a portion of their letter, which is as follows:

The citrus fruit is in the midst of harvest, being gathered and transported to loading docks by truck as numerous as they were in Lamesa during the cotton season. Vegetables of all kinds are being gathered, but are so cheap that farmers do not realize much out of it. Cabbage is bringing from $6 to $8 per ton at the field. Oranges and grapefruit are bringing about $25 per ton.

We spent an hour at the Dr. Bennett home where he has 10 acres of citrus. The orchards are beautiful, the trees with the trees full of ripe fruit and blooms. The aroma of the blossoms permeate air completely as you ride down the road in your car. No wonder orange blossoms are a symbol of romance.

The letter stated they will be in McAllen for some time yet and was signed by Mr. and Mrs. Collins.

Lamesa People Plan to Hear Mrs. Roosevelt

Delphian Club Women And Husbands Will Represent City

Several Lamesa residents are planning to attend the lecture to be given by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the Lubbock high school auditorium next Tuesday evening, March 8, at 8:00. A brief survey from the local club leaders indicates that both women and their husbands are making arrangements to hear "A Typical Day at the White House," discussed by the First Lady of the Land.

Mrs. Russell Clark, president of the Delphian club, stated there was some discussion at their meeting on the subject Tuesday night and estimated there would be at least ten members representing the senior and junior groups.

Mrs. W. P. Avriett, vice-president of the Federated clubs of Texas, supplied the Courier with a list who had made early reservations, which included Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hull, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Matt McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Avriett. Early reservations also included those for Misses Inez Sharp, Carol Jacobs and Virginia Lindsey, who are members of the junior Delphian club.

Mrs. Roosevelt will arrive in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon from Wichita Falls by private car, accompanied by her son Elliott Roosevelt and his wife. Tickets were placed on sale early this week for $1.25 and $1.75 by the Avalanche-Journal, under whose auspices this lecture is being given.

After her lecture the First Lady will spend the night in Lubbock, leaving Wednesday for Amarillo to attend the Mother-in-Law Day Parade held in her honor. Governors from at least four states, and several thousand Panhandle Cowboys, will be on hand for this event which is to be one of the largest attractions offered in the Panhandle region in several years.

Dawson Farmers Called To Meeting Here Saturday

All Farmers Are Urged To Attend Mass Meeting

County Agent Joe C. Williams announces a mass meeting for Dawson county farmers and stockmen to be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 5th, in the District Court Room. The purpose of the meeting is for explanation of the 1938 farm program. The cotton referendum, which will be voted on March 12, will also be explained.

A bulletin in the form of questions and answers are printed in the Courier this week on the new Farm Act. These questions and answers should be studied carefully in order that each farmer will know the plan and will be able to vote intelligently in the referendum.

Light Ballot For $83,000 Issue Thursday

An unusually light vote was polled in the $83,000 Lamesa Independent School District election Thursday, considering the size of the bond issue, which was called for the purpose of issuing bonds for construction of two new school buildings. The votes were tabulated at 7 p. m. by M. Hatch and assistants and showed the election carried almost unanimously, 223 to 32, or approximately 7 to 1.

There are 876 eligible voters according to the list recorded in Leslie C. Pratt's office. Up until 3 p. m. only 109 votes had been cast. Interest began to pick up however, and by closing time the total of 253 votes had been cast.

So far as could be learned there was no outward opposition to the issue carrying.

Election officials included in addition to Mr. Hatch, Mrs. M. Q. Martin, assistant judge, Mrs. Dixie Kilgore, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs. D. W. Scott, Mrs. A. B. Heffernan, Mrs. W. B. McMullins and Mrs. W. L. Marr, clerks.

The bond election was one of the largest recently voted by local residents and was regarded by civic leaders as very urgent. Sixty property owners recently issued a signed petition asking that the election be called in order that the rapidly increasing school enrollment in this city could be properly accommodated.

One of the new buildings will be constructed before the next school term for primary grade pupils, and will be erected at some point near the elementary school building. The other is space for physical education and health training.

Lamesa recently went into the Class A rating automatically due to the large enrollment which has expanded to a total of 1,638 white pupils.

Dr. Wagner, accompanied and assisted by his wife, showed pictures and souvenirs collected on his two trips to the Yaqui Indian territory of the Gulf of California, Sonora, Mexico. The Yaquis are the only tribe of unconquered Indians on the American Continent. Dr. Wagner stated, their position being such that it is easily protected from invaders. These In-

YOUNGER SET PICTURES TO APPEAR IN GROUPS

In the future issues, pictures of children appearing in the Courier's Younger Set Column, will be grouped. Some issues will carry three, some four. This method was adopted to reduce the files. Many pictures were on file in the late fall, while scores of others have been added since January 1. In order to print the pictures within a reasonable length of time after they are brought to this office, it was necessary that a change be made in the method of reducing the files. There will be no deduction from the pictures. The pictures will be double column instead of single.

School Census Being Taken In All County School Districts

The school district census of Lamesa and other Dawson county districts is being taken during the month of March. Mrs. Leslie Pratt has been named census enumerator for the Lamesa district. The census officer will visit every home in the district in an effort to list every child in the district who will be six years of age on or before September first, and not over eighteen by that date. The State Per Capita apportionment is distributed to districts on the basis of the annual school census and for 1937-38, amounted to $22.00 per pupil.

The total census for Lamesa district last year was 1286 to which was added 108 transfers making the total 1394 on whom the State will pay to this district $30,662.00. The 1937-38 census report was the highest recorded, the next being that of 1925 when a total of 1266 was reached. Based on the enrollment local officials believe that the census for 1938-39 will reach a new high. The total for the county last year was 3744 children. The other independent districts enumerated numbers as follows: Ackerly 223; Hancock 84; Key 106; Klondike 166 and the common districts enrolled 1769.

Grid Practice Follows
Cage Game Finals

Spring football training will follow the basketball season, just closed, for those boys who are not coming out for track and field events at the high school.

Coch F. T. McCollum announces fourteen reserves on the Golden Tornado squad last season, were among the gridsters to receive uniforms next Monday afternoon when the spring practice got underway.

Roy Bedichek, director of the University Interscholastic League, has notified Lamesa school officials that there seems to be no other possible grouping for Lamesa's admission into Conference A football than that tentatively assigned. Lamesa has already arranged a football schedule with other members, namely, Plainview, Amarillo and Borger at those places, and with Pampa and Lubbock, on the Golden Tornado's home field.

The Littlefield high school has expressed a desire to be admitted to the Conference A district one, and, if admitted, the number of member schools will be seven then Lamesa will likely have a Thanksgiving Day game here in return for last year's game at Littlefield. This would give Lamesa three games at home and three away. A seventh game will be played with Bowie High, El Paso. The placement of Littlefield will be made known in the near future.

The elevation of Lamesa high school to Conference A football was automatic following the increase in enrollment to more than 500 pupils in grades eight, nine, ten and eleven.

It is reported that prospective team members are keenly interested in the competition to be encountered in the new assignment. The Golden Tornadoes recognize the serious aspects of the strong competition in their new Conference and every effort will be made for them to grasp the increased opportunity of the enlarged school contacts. They are looking forward to making some new history and establishing some other traditions next season.

To The Voters

I was reared on a farm in Johnson county, Texas. In 1912 I moved to Rio Vista, a small town, where I operated a grocery and market for eight years, which I sold in 1920. I then worked for John E. Quarles Lumber, Hardware & Undertaking Company for two years as assistant manager. In the fall of 1923 I came to Lamesa, Dawson County and bought a farm and some property here in town. In 1925 I went to work for J. S. Smith and Son, as manager of their gin here in Lamesa where I worked until the gin sold in 1928 to the farmers. In 1930 I went to work for Bureau Gin Co. of Texas Cotton Growers Gin Co. as manager till the gin sold in 1936. In closing my contract I received the following letter:

July 31, 1936.

Mr. J. C. Hart,
Lamesa, Texas.
Dear Mr. Hart:
We want to take this opportunity of expressing to you our appreciation for the loyalty and cooperation you have given to us. Especially does the writer feel grateful to you for the wholehearted support you have given to him during the past year and for your efforts to operate the properties economically. We certainly regret having to lose your services, but, of course, it is unavoidable where the properties are being sold. You leave us with a good record and with our best wishes for your success in any new undertaking.

Very truly yours,
J. B. POPE, General Mgr.
In closing will say that I do believe in Lamesa. With the great trade territory we have, the town will grow to be one of the best in West Texas. In spending the money I believe in doing substantial work and in getting the worth of every dollar that the tax payers pay out, and if elected to the place as your City Commissioner, I expect to make a hand that is worthy of his hire.
Respectfully yours,
J. C. HART.

IN MEMORY

On Tuesday, February 16, 1938, the Death Angel found his way to the Breckenridge hospital at Austin, Texas, and there claimed for his own, George C. Canon, the son of Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Canon. His father and mother, four brothers and two sisters preceded him in death. He leaves behind his wife of Lamesa, Texas, one brother, J. W. Canon of Jasper, Texas and one sister, Mrs. Sally Reed of Lubbock, Texas, other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

He was born at Cester, Polk county, Texas, October 5, 1885. Funeral services were held in the First Methodist church of Lamesa, Texas, of which he was a member and Stewart Friday morning, February 18, 1938 and was one of the largest attended funerals ever held in Lamesa. Services were conducted by V. H. Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist church of Austin, Texas, T. C. Willett, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lamesa, Texas, and E. F. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lamesa, Texas.

George Canon was a good man, a great Christian, a devoted husband, a true friend, a leading citizen, and an alert, successful business man. He was a great servant of humanity, following his Master's example. "He went about doing good." The world has been made better because he lived in it and truly it can be said of him, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

George made many friends but he not only made them, he kept them for he was a friend that loved at all times. How strange it seems that George is gone and that we will not see him again until he greets us in the Fathers House above, but while he is gone, he is never to be forgotten, his blessed memory will be as a sweet morsel under our tongue.

The following poem, by Edgar a Guest, so fittingly describes the life and service of George Canon:

He Who Serves
He has not served who gathers gold,
Nor has he served, whose life is told
In selfish battles he has won,
Or deeds of skill that he has done,
But he has served who now and then
Has helped along his fellow men.

The world needs many men today;
Red-blooded men along life's way,
With cheerful smiles and helping hands
And with the faith that understands
The beauty of the simple deed
Which serves another's hour of need.

Strong men to stand beside the weak,
Kind men to hear what others speak,
True men to keep our country's laws
And guard its honor and its cause;
Men who will bravely play life's game
Nor ask rewards of gold or fame.

Teach me to do the best I can
To help and cheer my fellow man;
Teach me to lose my selfish need
And glory in the larger deed

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE NELL DEAN SUTTON

The hearse was driven to our door,
It brought a coffin white as snow,
Such coffin we had seen before,
But never one concerned us so.

One precious to our own heart is gone
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

How we miss you little Nell Dean,
How we miss your smiling face,
But we know you will be waiting for us
Just inside the golden gate.

There we will meet you, precious darling,
There we will clasp glad hands once more,
When we meet to part no, never,
On that happy golden shore.

Then our sorrows will be over,
There no tears will dim the eyes
In that home of Heavenly beauty,
Where there will be no more good bye's.

Announcing the Opening of Lamesa Insurance Agency

AN OLD AGENCY IN A NEW LOCATION

First Door West of Lamesa National Bank

Featuring The

Hartford Fire Insurance Co.

The Hartford has been doing business honestly and successfully for more than one hundred and twenty years. It has passed through seven panics and periods of depression and five wars without having the goodness of its contracts brought into question.

The Hartford has repeatedly met the onslaught of hurricanes in Florida and in St. Louis and in Louisville and in hundreds of other localities and paid out millions to indemnify its policyholders whose property was destroyed by these storms.

The Hartford has successfully satisfied the often enormous claims resulting from every conflagration that has occurred in the history of the United States, beginning with Augusta, Georgia, in 1829, and continuing through conflagrations at New York in 1835 and later at Portland, St. John's, Chicago, Boston, Baltimore, Jacksonville, Milwaukee, San Francisco, and dozens of other cities of smaller size.

Once in the early days when the extent of its losses in a conflagration were as yet unknown and its directors feared that they might be more than the company could pay, those directors pledged their own private fortunes in advance so that there might be no doubt but that the Hartford would pay and it did pay and paid in full.

The New York conflagration in 1835 and again in 1845 bankrupted twenty-three out of twenty-six New York companies, but the Hartford paid. The Chicago conflagration bankrupted every Chicago company and more than fifty others, including seven Connecticut companies, but the Hartford paid. Its losses in San Francisco were larger than those ever incurred by one insurance company in any conflagration in the world's history, but the Hartford paid and paid in cash.

"No wonder the Hartford is well known! No wonder people ask for it! It has never failed to make good its contracts. It has kept the faith!"

If it is insurable we insure it. We have secured the services of Mrs. Hillman, who formerly worked for Jesse Carroll and she is looking forward to meeting her friends at the new location. Mrs. Hillman is experienced in Insurance of all kinds. It is to your advantage to see us before insuring.

States Senate in the closing days of the session last year. Upon its face it was an innocent resolution simply reciting that it was asserted that the United States Government owned title to certain submerged lands along the coast of the United States from which oil was being extracted, and which is potentially valuable for that reason; and it instructed the Attorney General to investigate title of the United States and file such suits as were necessary to recover same for the Federal Government.

The resolution passed the United States Senate, and there is no criticism on that account—none of us knew just how far reaching it was—but, of course, it failed to get through the lower house of Congress and was pending business at the beginning of this session.

When we got to Washington we found that those who were pushing the resolution stated that it was primarily aimed at California, which occupies a slightly different status from other states; BUT the trouble was that the resolution was so broad as to cast a serious cloud upon the Texas title and that of every other coastal state. Too, we found that the Navy Department had suggested an amended resolution which was worse than the original. The amendment asserted that the United States owned all of the submerged, or coastal lands under the waters on American shores; that there is possibly a serious shortage of oil reserves and that the President should be authorized to take over and set aside these lands as naval oil reserves.

The amended resolution did contain the statement that it was subject to the title of any state, or private individual or corporation which "may be established in the judicial proceedings hereinafter authorized." This was the worst joker in the resolution—that is, it would require Texas to establish in court a title which has been unchallenged for over a hundred years.

From the beginning of the Republic the Supreme Court of the United States has held in unbroken decisions that the State owns its coastal lands "and the soils under its navigable waters." In most of the states this extends out to the three mile limit, but in Texas, according to the position we took it extends for three leagues, which is about 10-12 miles.

We pointed out that when Texas won her independence the first Congress of the Republic passed an act asserting dominion over a territory which was described to begin at the mouth of the Sabine river and parallel the Gulf Coast of Texas at a distance of three leagues from land to the mouth of the Rio Grande river. This distance of three leagues from land was recognized in the treaty of peace between the Mexican Government, and the United States Government after the Mexican War. It was again recognized in the Gadsden purchase by the United States from the Government of Mexico.

Everyone conceded that Texas was probably in the strongest position of any of the states, but, of course, we don't want our title clouded and development of our oil land held up by the possibility of a lawsuit with the strong United States Government. The Attorney General of the United States now has the right to file a suit if the Government owns these lands, or any part of them. He doesn't need a resolution from Congress to authorize him to file the suit.

These parties asking Congress to pass the resolution finally admitted that they wanted this resolution for its moral effect and because it was a declaration by the Congress that the United States in fact owned the land. In other words, the resolution would be, in effect, an invitation by Congress to the courts to override the rule in this country for over a hundred years.

The Texas delegation in Congress was very actively interested in helping defeat the resolution. While I am fully convinced we could win it in court, we don't want a lawsuit, and I feel quite confident that the resolution will be defeated.

METHODIST NOTES

(Welch Charge)

Sunday was a full day at our church Sunday school, the best in many months. Seventy-eight present. Spirit fine. Several more for the preaching service. The afternoon program was good. Enjoyed by all present. It was a real fellowship service. Many thanks to all who contributed to make up the program. We especially are grateful for the ones coming from Lamesa. Come over and help us any time you can.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. O.

P. Clark will preach and hold the quarterly conference immediately thereafter. We want to make the Sunday school attendance one hundred and a house full to hear the great man preach. If you were not in Sunday school last Sunday you are not a member of some other school, please find your way to ours. Our superintendent, all officers and teachers are up to date. They will do their best to make it pleasant. Help us make our church a "Fellowship Church."

When you know of any sick, or in trouble any way, please let us know and we are ready to help in any way. We are setting out trees around the church this week. Pray for the pastor.—J. G. Walker.

The Questions On New Farm Act Answered

Committee Chairman Is Familiar With New Farm Bill

County Agent Joe C. Williams and his staff are familiar with the many questions dealing with the new farm act, and especially with the marketing quota. Those questions were recently answered by Geo. Slaughter, Wharton chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, in the course of a radio talk from College Station. The following questions and answers were released through the Extension Service and local agent's office and should be helpful to Dawson county farmers who are urged to familiarize themselves with the new farm act.

Among questions which have been bothering producers and which were answered by Slaughter, were: "If marketing quotas are approved on cotton, how will they be put into effect on individual farms?" and "Will farms producing cotton in 1938 for the first time in recent years receive allotments?"

To the question, "How do cotton marketing quotas under the new farm act differ from the quotas under the Bankhead Act?" Slaughter replied, "Under the Bankhead Act each cotton producer received a poundage allotment and paid a tax on all cotton shipped in excess of that allotment. Under the new farm act, each cotton farm will receive an acreage allotment and all cotton produced on these acres may be sold without penalty. In other words, the marketing quota places a premium on efficient production, while the Bankhead Act, in effect, penalized it."

Q If two-thirds of the farmers taking part in the cotton referendum vote for quotas, will they apply to states, counties, and communities where they are not approved?

A The cotton problem is a national one, and not confined to any one state or county. Consequently, the quotas if approved by two-thirds of the cotton farmers will apply wherever cotton is produced.

Q What are the commodities of which direct control is contemplated?

A Cotton, tobacco, rice, corn and wheat. Because of minimum production requirements, corn quotas will probably not apply to Texas.

Q How does the act provide control of these crops?

A After supplies reach certain levels, marketing of the crops is regulated through the imposition of quotas. While the act puts the quotas into effect, they are subject to rejection by a one-third vote of a producers' referendum.

Q How will this control surpluses?

A By providing penalties on sales in excess of farm quotas.

Q Will the marketing quotas be put into effect each year?

A They are put into effect whenever the supply of cotton exceeds the normal supply by more than seven per cent, unless quotas are opposed by more than one-third of the producers. The normal supply for 1938 is about 18,200,000 bales, and normal supply is defined in the act as a normal year's domestic consumption and exports plus 40 per cent as an allowance for a normal carry-over. The present supply of American cotton is almost 25 million bales, largely because of the record breaking crop of 18,700,000 bales in 1937.

Q If marketing quotas are approved, how will they be put into effect on individual farms?

A The national cotton allotment of 26,300,000 acres will be allocated to the cotton growing states on the basis of the production of cotton in each state during the preceding five years, and the acres diverted from cotton under previous programs will be taken into consideration. Each state's allotment will be divided among the counties on the same basis, but no county will receive less than 60 per cent of the sum of the acreage planted in 1937 and the acreage diverted from cotton under the 1937 program.

The county allotment will be divided among farms on which cotton has been planted in any of the past three years as follows: All farms which have not planted and diverted as much as 5 acres of cotton in any of the 3 years, will receive as their allotment the greatest number of acres planted and diverted in any of the three years.

All farms on which 5 acres or more of cotton were planted and diverted in any of the three years, will receive their allotment 5 acres and an additional amount which will bring the total allotment up to a percentage of the farm cropland (excluding acreages of tobacco, wheat and rice which will be the same for all farms in the county or administrative area.

Provision if made for a small county reserve which may be allotted to farms receiving from 5 to 15 acres under the above provisions.

Q Will farms producing cotton in 1938, but which did not produce cotton during the past three years, receive allotments?

A Yes, a reserve acreage will be available in each state to be divided among these farms.

Q Is there a limit to the acreage that may be allotted to a farm?

A No farm will be allotted an acreage greater than the cotton acreage planted and diverted during the past three years except in the case of new cotton producers.

Q What is the marketing quota of the individual cotton farmer?

A It is the cotton produced on his allotted acres, or the normal production on his allotted acres, which ever is greater. This means that he can sell without penalty all the cotton he produces if he does not exceed his allotted acres.

Q Who divides the county allotment among the farmers in a county?

A Community and county committees who have been elected by the farmers.

Q When will farmers vote on the 1938 cotton quotas?

A March 12, when the county committees will select a voting place in each community where cotton is grown.

and will select three local farmers to hold the referendum.

Q If the quotas are in effect as the result of the referendum, what happens to a farmer if he knowingly overplants his acreage allotment?

A He loses all soil conservation payments, his cotton price adjustment payments, and the opportunity to obtain a loan on the marketing quota for the farm. However, he may receive a loan on cotton produced in excess of his marketing quota of 60 per cent of the rate available to farmers who stayed within their allotment. In addition, he must pay a penalty of two cents a pound on the excess production sold, which will be collected by the buyer. This penalty does not apply to cotton produced on any farm which has received a cotton acreage allotment and on which the production is 1,000 pounds of lint cotton or less.

Q Will cotton loans be available under the new act?

A The new act provides for loans at the rate of between 52 to 75 per cent of the parity price for cotton on the basis of 7-8 inch middling cotton. However, the loans will be available only if the market agreement is declared in effect as a result of the referendum.

County Teachers Perfect Local Unit For State Ass'n.

Delegates Chosen For Annual Teachers' Conference

About thirty-five members of the Dawson County Teachers' Association met in the country court room Saturday morning and perfected a local unit to the state association by adding a second vice-president and treasurer. T. H. Bass will remain as president, F. T. McCollum, principal of the Lamesa high school, was selected second vice-president and publicity chairman. The treasurer's duties were consolidated with Mrs. L. W. West's duties as secretary. Mr. Bass, who is also the principal of the Wilson school, presided over the session. A change in the constitution provides state federation district organization and local units.

The president appointed V. Z. Rogers J. L. Chiles and W. C. McKenzie to draft the constitution and by-laws and to make necessary changes.

Announcement was made of the West Texas State Teachers' Association meeting at Big Spring, March 11-12 and delegates were elected to officially represent the county in the District Court of Delegates.

Dawson county has 77 teachers who are affiliated with the state association. Miss Pauline Bulsterbaum, county superintendent, announced that she would contact district trustees and ask them to declare a holiday in the schools where teachers desire to attend the district meet. She also stated that membership in the West Texas State Teachers' Association might be obtained by payment of a 50-cent membership fee.

TEACHERS MEETING

The largest educational meeting in West Texas will be held in Big Spring on Friday and Saturday of next week. The West Texas Teachers' Association will hold the annual meetings there for two days. The convention theme, as announced by Dr. R. E. Garlin, president, is "The Teacher and The New Curriculum". Dr. Garlin also states that two of the nation's outstanding leaders in teacher training, Dr. B. F. Pittenger, dean of the University of Texas College of Education and Dr. J. Paul Leonard of Stanford University, California, will be present and make several addresses before the convention and special sections.

The State Superintendent, several deputy State superintendents including Mr. G. D. Holbrook of Lubbock, and other will be there.

A copy of the program reveals that Messrs. F. T. McCollum, J. Henry Norris and Charles Hatchett of the Lamesa faculty will appear on the program. Misses Lucille Lillydahl, Eleanor Ragle and Mrs. Weldon Lind have parts on the program and Mr. Conway E. King has been invited to take part in the discussions regarding training of young pupils on wind instruments.

Dawson county schools will be represented at the meeting by teachers and many trustees.

dians are generally unfriendly to any foreigners but through certain contacts made with certain of their chiefs through the efforts of Dr. Holden, head of the History Department of Texas Technological College, admission was gained by this party of eight men and friendly relations were established with the Indians. They were permitted to take motion pictures and observe many things which white men had never seen.

Dr. Wagner gave an interesting lecture regarding the habits and customs of the Indians and presented several items which he had secured as surgical fees for various operations performed on members of the tribe. The party was allowed to make and affect certain conciliatory measures between the Yaquis and the Mexican government.

Mrs. N. H. Price, accompanied by Mrs. W. J. Beckham, pleased the audience with the rendition of a vocal solo, "Fly Away, Kentucky Babe."

Sandwiches, salad, pie, coffee and chocolate served in cafeteria style constituted the meal. Besides the Rotarians and their Rotary Ann, the following visitors were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Conley, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hollingshead, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beal, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Crawley, Mrs. Thelma Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Caryl Baldwin and Dr. and Mrs. Wagner and J. C. Duff.

Old Established Ins. Line Is Opened Here

R. S. Spraberry, who has been the rural agent for the Hartford Fire Insurance Company the past 23 years in Dawson County, announces he has opened a local office that will be known as the Lamesa Insurance Agency. He is located in the Roscoe Holton office, one door west of the Lamesa National Bank.

Mr. Spraberry announces the appointment of Mrs. Farline Hillman, formerly of this city, as secretary. Mrs. Hillman has been connected with local insurance agencies. She returns here from Vernon, where she has spent the past three years.

A large announcement in the Courier explains the many advantages offered by this old established line.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Braswell, Mrs. P. D. Gilbert, and Mrs. James Sumpter accompanied Braswell Gilbert to Lubbock Sunday where he attended Tech.

WEEK OF MARCH 20 NAMED BY ALLRED AS WILDLIFE WEEK

The week of March 20 to 26, was officially proclaimed by Governor James V. Allred as Wildlife Week in Texas. The proclamation pointed out that Texas wildlife resources are valued at $92,000,000.

In organizing each county to cooperate in the State Wildlife Week, T. O. Walton, State chairman of the National Wildlife Federation, has appointed county chairmen. J. E. Barron of this city, was advised of his appointment as chairman for Dawson county Thursday. Mr. Barron states he will set up an organization to cooperate with the National Wildlife Federation in observing Wildlife Week in this county.

The county committees, guided by their chairman, will arrange suitable educational programs at schools, luncheon clubs, civic organizations, churches and solicit the cooperation and activity of Garden clubs, the American Legion Women's clubs, 4-H boys, Scouts, Landowners' organizations, Sportsmen and others.

OIL---

immediate area within recent weeks. The latter company purchased 6,000 acres in an assignment in 1937 covering tracts in Taylor county school land around the Munger community. They are now credited with obtaining an additional 8,000 acres, which is in the process of being delivered through their agent. The present spread covers a portion of block 2, D. L. Cunningham survey and block 35 township 6 north.

The heavy play appears to be on acreage between Cedar Lake and the E. L. Wilson et al's No. 1, Lillian Scanlin. The Scanlin well was the second and most prolific producer for this county. It is approximately three and one half miles northwest of Dawson county's discovery well, drilled by Ray Albaugh et al's and carried as their No. 1 John Robinson. The latter test was taken over by the Atlantic Refining Company and at present is shut down, according to operators, while smaller pipe is being set at total depth of 5,038 feet. The production horizon was found from 4,944 feet to total depth. The Scanlin test proved a better well than the discovery, and gauged 34 barrels daily on the pump. The oil is of fairly high gravity, and local operators are of the opinion other wells will be discovered, which would probably result in pipe line outlets. At present production from the Scanlin well is being trucked to neighboring markets.

Play Brings Annual Income
Between $150,000 and $200,000 would be a conservative estimate of the income to Dawson county from delay rentals occurring from leases already made.

Among transactions since December in which majors have acquired holdings involve several major deals that Superior Oil Company, Texas Company, Pure Oil Company, Humble Oil & Refining Company, Continental Oil Company, all participated. Independents have filed numerous instruments since oil was discovered and there is no doubt that leasing is on the increase.

According to oil operators and lease men, and others experienced in this activity, the quickest and surest way to get development is not to require prohibitive prices for leases and rentals, since the operators must forego the expense of exploring the area and the total loss, in event of failure, however, in case of production the lessor and lessee both are winners.

Mother Of Local Man Dies In Oklahoma

Mrs. Elizabeth McHenry, 90, formerly a resident of this city, died at her home in Alma, Oklahoma, early last week from a brief illness that resulted from a fall in which she suffered a broken hip. She was the mother of Will McHenry, prominent resident of the Higginbotham community and also has other children residing in Dawson county where she spent a year during 1935.

Mrs. McHenry was well-known to several local residents and has held in high esteem by her many friends at Alma where she has spent many years.

T. F. Vaughn, co-owner of the Vaughn Chevrolet Company, and two local companions, Guy Weekes and S. B. Collins, were forced to extend their otherwise short visit over at Big Spring Tuesday night. Mr. Vaughn's 1938 town sedan was stolen on Main Street, shortly after they left it near the Big Spring Chevrolet Company. Mr. Vaughn put the key in his pocket and the trio went to a near-by cafe. When they returned a few minutes later the car had disappeared. They were forced to spend the night there and came in on the early morning bus Wednesday.

Those making the trip were: George Sturdivant, Herman Sandel, Pete Coon, Ralph Ranson, J. B. Gresham, Edwin Easterwood, Dalton Meyers, Clovis Bristo, Leslie Burkhart, Travis Kidd, Mason Costin, Jack Walker, the manager, Millard McDonnell and W. P. Witt, recreation superintendent.

Mrs. Ollie Jordan and sons returned Saturday from Corsicana where they attended the funeral of their nephew, Milton Crabtree, who passed away Sunday, February 29.

J. C. Sewell of Wink spent several days in Lamesa this week assisting in opening the new Wacker Store here. Mr. Sewell is manager of the G. F. Wacker Store at Wink.

State Department Of Education Will Show Series Of Pictures

The Morrey-Towse Dental Health Puppet Show will be given in the schools of Dawson county, Monday and Tuesday, March 14 and 15, by the State Department of Health, with the cooperation of the State Department of Education and the Good Teeth Council for Children, of Chicago. This piece of visual health education has been arranged under the approval of nationally known leaders in the fields of dentistry, medicine, and elementary education. It is dramatized with music, voice, and humor, bringing out four fundamental points in dental health in such a way that it is not only entertaining, but makes lasting impressions on the minds of the school children as to the value of dental health. It is presented by Wilson R. Cronewett and Mrs. Louise Griffith, both of whom are highly trained in dramatics and puppetry. The show was given last year in approximately forty counties of Texas

Membership Increases In State Association

Membership in the State Teachers' Association has increased rapidly since the first of January according to records in the County Superintendent's office. As of January 1, there were only 64 members. Present affiliated Dawson county members places the roll call at about 80. Miss Pauline Bulsterbaum announces membership in the West Texas Association can be obtained by paying the small fee of 50 cents. As there will be a district West Texas Teachers' Association meeting at Big Spring on March 11-12, it might be appropriate to list the county roll call. The following members are listed with the state association: Fay Anderson, Edith Murl Baker, T. H. Bass, Pauline Bulsterbaum, county superintendent; Mrs. Hattie Butcher, Flora Chaffin, J. L. Chiles, Cleaman Wardine, H. T. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Marie Davis, Monette Davis, Mrs. Cecil Devent, Marguerite Flaniken, Mrs. Lela Seal, William Gay, Bearnice Gilmore, Mrs. Mildred S. Gregg, Howard Humphrey, Thomas C. Martin, Ross B. Moore, Mrs. H. P. Morrison, Mrs. W. C. McKenzie, W. C. McKenzie Clara Page, Dora Lee Richey, C. L. Sharp, Pearl Lee Shillingburg, Olena Shillingburg, Mrs. Ben Sullivan, Garland Trice, Mrs. Loma Wright, Mrs. L. W. West, Mrs. P. K. Humes, Mrs. Nancy Johnson, Mrs. H. P. Morrison and A. W. Matthews.

to some four hundred thousand pupils, teachers, and parents, and is scheduled to cover an even larger portion of the State this year. It has been shown to several million children in other parts of the United States, and both pupils and teachers are loud in their acclaim of its value.

While the show is arranged to fit into the forty-minute school period and primarily for elementary school children, parents are invited to see it with the children and teachers. It is considered one of the best visual education projects ever presented in Texas.

Since there is a large demand for this show, the time given to each county is limited. Dawson county was allotted two days, with three showings each day. It was therefore necessary to make out a schedule that would place the show as nearly as possible within the reach of all schools in the county. Auditorium facilities had to be taken into consideration also. The schools in each precinct are urged to attend, if possible, the showing nearest to them.

The six showings allotted to Dawson county will be given as follows: March 14—Ackerly 9:00; Sparenberg 11:00; Klondike 2:00. March 15—Lamesa 8:45; Hancock 11:00; Fairview.

Musical Arts Series Of Concerts Will Be Climaxed on Mar. 12

Bringing to a triumphant close the Hollywood Musical Arts Series of concerts brought here this season by the Parent-Teachers Association, the concert Saturday evening, March 12, will introduce John de Blois, a new name to concert audiences. Mr. de Blois was born in London and has been educated both there and in America. He is an artist of education and culture. To his friend, John Charles Thomas, celebrated baritone, de Blois gives credit for his concert career. It was Thomas who sent him to Horace Moore, well known vocal coach with whom de Blois perfected his repertoire.

An interesting side light on John de Blois is the fact that for several summers, while at his summer home on Lake Champlain, he flew his amphibian plane—he is a licensed pilot—several times a week to the home of Oscar Seagle, singing coach, in the Adirondack Mountains.

De Blois spent a season at Cannes on the French Riviera, recently, and

The State of Texas and the Federal Governments, in recognition of the demand for practical education for adult workers appropriate money each year to provide instruction in evening classes. Thousands of workers are privileged to attend classes to prepare themselves to perform their work efficiently and to get ready for the job ahead, to the end that they will be happy and contented workers. Unemployment, the spectre which haunts all men, holds little fear for the workers who know all the details of their jobs and who, if occasion arises, "can double in brass."

It is a self-evident fact that the man who is versatile, and who can in an emergency do other people's work is a valuable asset to his employer. He will be one of the last to be laid off in dull times and among the first to be re-employed when business begins to pick up. His place will never be with the timid souls who, when asked what they can do, can only say "labor." With training available for the asking, every man is, to a large degree, "the master of his fate." His present outlook may not be bright, but if he is prepared, perhaps, some day his chance will come. The trained man wins; it is a slogan fraught with much truth.

Next Tuesday night, at the high school in Lamesa, an adult class will begin in salesmanship, and will be conducted each Tuesday and Thursday nights thereafter for a period of seven weeks. This brings us around to what is already being offered in the outstanding high schools of Texas, including the local school, of course. Practical business courses and training are offered to students in the high school upper classes when they are given credit for typing and shorthand.

Lamesa high was the eighth school in Texas to receive the new affiliated credits. Since the classes were started about two years ago hundreds of Lamesa and Dawson county students have received practical business training in typing and shorthand. The courses also offer industrial training and many are getting experience and training in the local banks, department stores and various offices.

The advantages of the present schools are being recognized by those of us who did not have the opportunity offered our children. Many from the rural areas have even purchased property in Lamesa and erected homes in order that their children can finish their high school training where these courses are offered. Others have rented and the advent of new permanent residents necessitated the construction of additional school buildings for which the qualified voters were called to the polls yesterday in an attempt to make the initial step toward obtaining two new buildings that appropriations of $83,000 will provide.

Local merchants and flower lovers were as happy over the few spring days that followed last week's snow as wheat farmers and stockmen were over the moisture. In the business area a revival was evident the past weekend as a large number of people were in town for the first time in several days. Local gardeners herald the approach of spring by working flower beds and planting flowers and gardens. Mrs. W. K. Crawley, who resides on North First Street, was seen supervising a large new beauty-spot for her lawn. A corner of the lawn was made into a triangle shape bed, was prepared and twelve additional shrubs of various types were placed in the spot. Other beautification work was noticeable throughout the city while vegetables were being planted to indicate that many are getting a touch of "spring fever." Tennis games, polo, and spring football practice were also among the sports noticeable to further verify the advent of spring.

A big reception is in the offing for Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, when she visits our neighboring cities of Lubbock and Amarillo and it would not be surprising if several of our local citizens were among the 200,000 West Texas spectators, expected at the Mother-in-Law Day celebration to be held at the latter city on March 9. Governors from Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas have already made arrangements while there is a possibility that others will be on hand. The theme is not exactly Western, but fifty High Plains Sheriffs, fifty highway patrolmen, Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band and hundreds of Panhandle cowhands, there for their annual convention, will take part in the celebration honoring all mothers with married children and particularly the first lady, Mrs. Roosevelt will be accompanied by her son Elliott and his wife.

The Governors will ride in the big parade, which will be twelve miles long. Thousands of mothers-in-law including thirty Indians and several hundred negroes, will ride in the parade. Mrs. Roosevelt will appear at the Lubbock high school auditorium, on Tuesday evening, when she will lecture on the subject "A Typical Day at the White House," for which tickets have already been placed on sale by the Avalanche-Journal, who are sponsoring this lecture.

Nelson Eddy, famous radio and film tenor will also appear at Amarillo soon on his tour of the country. Eddy has never failed his theatre friends who once helped him in getting his start, that eventually lead to stage, screen and radio stardom. From what we can hear he packs a great deal of weight among the feminine sex who have thrilled to his voice over the air and romantic scenes on the screen.

A major improvement in automobile road maps which encourages the motorist to think in terms of reasonable driving time between given points rather than mileage, is announced by the Conoco Travel Bureau at Denver. The new feature which will appear on the face of all their maps consists of the addition of actual driving time in hours and minutes from town to town. A footnote points out that the driving time was calculated for normal traffic conditions and dry roads, that allowances should be made by motorists who drive unusually fast or slow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Dopson, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bargar and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bargar of Lubbock spent the weekend here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dopson.

State Farm Leaders Urge Local Farmers Study New Program

College Station, March 3.—The Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, in the course of its regular monthly meeting of Texas A. and M. College went on record as urging farmers to make every effort to inform themselves as to the workings of the new farm act, according to Geo. Slaughter, of Wharton, chairman of the committee.

The referendum for the cotton marketing quota has been set for March 12. Slaughter pointed out "It is imperative that cotton producers make every effort to determine how the quotas, if approved, would affect them individually, and how they would affect other producers, consumers, and the country generally."

State AAA officers have attended a regional meeting at which the new act was fully discussed, and information as to the details of the program will be placed in the hands of county agricultural agents as soon as possible.

The state committee will cooperate with the Extension Service in an informational campaign which is designed to reach the greatest possible number of farmers Slaughter said.

County agricultural agents, their assistants, and county and community committeemen will hold community meetings at which the act in general and the cotton marketing quota in particular, will be discussed.

Articles explaining points in the act will be furnished to newspapers and a number of radio programs dealing with the cotton marketing quota have been scheduled.

A comprehensive list of questions on the act as it applied to cotton, with answers, is being prepared and will be printed, Slaughter said. Copies of list should be available for distribution to farmers early in March.

Mrs. W. T. Webb visited in Lubbock Thursday.

Soil Conservation Notes

Local officials of the CCC Soil Service are endeavoring to obtain the following described film story for the benefit of our local farmers.

The history of wind erosion and its control on the Southern Great Plains is graphically told in a film strip which has been made available to the public through the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture in Washington.

This film strip of 45 frames was compiled and arranged by O. T. Williams and D. A. Dobkins of the Soil Conservation Service in Amarillo in cooperation with the Extension Service. Actual photographs taken in the Panhandle area of the Southern Great Plains are used to illustrate soil erosion problems and methods of conservation.

The pictures show the plains in the days of tall grass when the period of good crops, followed by drought, the beginning of wind erosion and the resultant sand dunes.

Dust storms and drifted fields are shown, followed by illustrations of soil and moisture conservation practices used, including leveling of hummocks, emergency listing, terracing, contour farming, pastures furrowing, the growing of grain sorghums and the use of stubble, stock water ponds, tree plantings and other interesting features of wind erosion control measures as are practiced in our Lamesa Soil Conservation camp area.

Many farmers of the Lamesa area are planning to plant border strips along their fields this spring as protection against wind erosion and to provide food and shelter for wildlife on the farm, says Mr. F. A. Vestal of the Soil Conservation Service demonstration project located here.

JOINS HIGGINBOTHAM-BARTLETT COMPANY

J. Max Gray, a former resident, who has been at Benson, Arizona, operating a lumber yard, has returned to this city where he is the assistant manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett Company. Mr. Gray assumed his new duties Monday. In addition to other duties, he will have complete charge of the lumber department. Mr. and Mrs. Gray are at home at 502 South Flora Ellen Lindsey. Other members of the family include four boys.

Such borders usually represent areas which are especially subject to wind erosion, says Mr. Vestal. A narrow strip of Sudan grass or grain sorghums along the field borders will check soil blowing from adjacent fields or roadways and at the same time favor the development of desirable species of birds and animals.

The clean cultivation of large areas of farm land has been an important factor in the depletion of wildlife, and thus favored the increase of insect pests which native birds and animals on the farm tend to keep under control, says Mr. Vestal.

From a wildlife standpoint, the development of border strips of protective vegetation is more desirable than the same area of vegetation in a compact block, he says. Such strips provide travel lanes for birds and small animals and afford more extensive range into adjoining fields.

Gullies and other severely eroded areas also provide ideal sites for the use of plants and shrubs that will serve the dual purpose of controlling erosion and improving wildlife environment on the farm or ranch. Shrubs and vines which can be obtained locally for such plantings include the three-leaf sumac, wild plum, willow, Virginia creeper, the Soil Conservation Service technician points out.

Texas Retail Dealers To Meet At Dallas Latter Part of May

Retailers, credit managers and consumers credit bureau secretaries, will gather for their Thirty-Eighth Convention in Dallas, May 22, through the 25th, according to information received by the Lamesa Retail Merchants Association.

The most interesting topic to be discussed, and perhaps the theme of the convention, will be the problem of controlling consumer credit sales in keeping with fluctuating consumer income. Consumer credit, so far as the retailer is concerned, has come through all depressions perhaps better than any other part of business. Credit executives are to be congratulated upon their alertness in safeguarding credit in the field of retailing. Today more than ever before there is more retail business done on a credit basis and the percentage of credit to cash is going to continue to increase for several years to come.

In this convention, where credit problems are dealt with in great detail, each line of retail business will devote a full day to the discussion of their individual problems. Separate group conferences have already been arranged for the department store, wearing apparel and shoe stores.
