veteran, D.A.V. Sr. Vice Commander, and event organizer said.

The annual event is sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans O’Neal-Kunkle Chapter #47 as a way to honor the local heroes who have sacrificed their lives since the September 11 attacks.

“Today we remember the events of 21 years ago; we commemorate all those who lost their lives in the World Trade Center in New York City, the Pentagon, United Flight 93 that went down in Pennsylvania and all those who have given their lives since Sept. 11, 2001 in the War on Terror,” Edgar Meiser, D.A.V. Commander said. Freedom is not free. Not for the soldier and not for their loved ones.”

The ceremony was opened up by the presentation of colors by the Boy Scouts, Fire Department, Police Department, Young Marines and Sheriff’s Department. Members from the Big Spring High School Band played the National Anthem for the opening of the ceremony and during the ceremony the Big Spring Choir sang God Bless the U.S.A. and Amazing Grace.

This year’s special guest speaker was Christopher Dominques of the Big Spring Police Department and U.S. Army veteran. He was deployed as part of Operation Enduring Freedom and was stationed in Kandahar, Afghanistan for 11 months. After extending gratitude and appreciation for being able to be a part of the ceremony, Dominques shared his memories of the events of 9/11 and the impact it made on his future and decision to serve his country.

“... I don’t have any amazing battle stories, or tales of heroic acts or courageous moments to tell you. As a matter of fact I was only just a kid on September 11, 2001,” Dominques said in his opening remarks. “I remember sitting in class every-one crying as we watched on the TV as it showed the Twin Towers with monstrous clouds of thick, black smoke billowing from the towers. It was truly unbelievable.”

As he continued to recount memories from that day and the days following a somberness took over the room. He spoke of the uncertainty that existed at that time, fears, and the unknown that the nation faced at the time. As he mentioned, the attack was so far away, but yet had never felt closer.

“As Americans we all wondered on that day what would happen next. Was it going to be bad or was it going to be good. Nobody can know for certain what was ahead in the future and that day was no different for any of us,” Dominques said. “Nobody could have predicted the tragedy that took place on September 11, 2001; no one could have ever fathomed what happened on that day. All you can do now is try to be prepared.”

Dominques continued, “As I grew up remembering 9/11, my thoughts were always about the brave men and women involved. I knew I never wanted anything like 9/11 to happen again. I needed to do my part to help keep America safe. I wanted to help make America ready and strong. I decided to follow in my father’s footsteps and join the United States Army.”

As his speech drew to a close, Dominques recalled the bravery exhibited by the soldiers he crossed paths with and the willingness to lay down their lives.

“I am proud of this nation. I really am. Through all the struggle and tragedy we have not fallen; we stand strong in the face of the enemy. As Americans we refuse to be defeated no matter how hurt we are. Today, as we did in the days following September 11, 2001 we stand as one. We honor those who put their lives on the line and honor those that paid the ultimate price,” he said. “We honor those who took the fight to protect our freedoms. To the past and present military members we are proud of you and we salute you. To my fellow officers, have your six, and to everyone in this room and across the nation, 9-11 did not defeat us, it made us stronger.

As the ceremony drew to a close, the undraping ceremony took place. The nine Howard County veterans who have sacrificed their lives since Sept. 11, 2001 were honored, including: Steven Evrad, PFC Clayton Henson, PFC Kristian Menchaca, PFC Chad Metcalf, SPC Robert J. Volker, Staff Sgt. Clinton Newman, Cpt. Ellery Ray Wallace, SPC Braden Long and Sgt. Conrad Alvarez.

The ceremony was closed out with the playing of Taps by Mike Tarpley.

Pressure mounts on US railroads and unions to reach a deal

By JOSH FUNK
AP Business Writer

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Freight railroads and their unions are facing increasing pressure from business groups and the White House to settle their contract dispute before Friday’s looming strike deadline.

The pressure stems from concerns that halting railroad deliveries of raw materials and finished products that so many companies rely on would be, in the words of the head of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, an “economic disaster.”

The White House confirmed President Joe Biden is following the talks closely, and, for the second time in the past week, Labor Secretary Marty Walsh sat down at the negotiating table Sunday to urge the parties to reach a deal. Walsh postponed a planned to trip to Ireland this week to remain close to the talks.

A Labor Department spokesperson said Monday that it’s crucial that the parties remain at the negotiating table and come to an agreement because “a shutdown of our freight rail system is an unacceptable outcome for our economy and the American people.”

Suzanne Clark, the head of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said Monday that “a national rail strike would be an economic disaster — freezing the flow of goods, emptying shelves, shuttering workplaces and raising prices for families and businesses alike.”

The chamber joined a number of other business groups, including a coalition of 31 agricultural shipping trade groups, in sending a letter to Congress urging lawmakers to be prepared to step in and block a strike if the two sides can’t reach an agreement by the end of the week. The chamber said if it comes to that, Congress should impose the terms recommended by a Presidential Emergency Board that Biden appointed this summer.

The Association of American Railroads trade group put out a report last week estimating that shutting down the railroads would cost the economy $2 billion a day.

The coalition negotiating on behalf of the nation’s biggest freight railroads — including Union Pacific, CSX, Norfolk Southern, BNSF and Kansas City Southern — has announced eight of the 13 tentative agreements needed to avert a strike by some 115,000 rail workers.

The deals that have been announced so far have closely followed the Presidential Emergency Board’s recommendations that called for 24% raises over five years, $5,000 in bonuses and one additional paid leave day a year. But the two biggest unions representing conductors and engineers have been holding out because they want the railroads to go beyond those recommendations and address some of their concerns about strict attendance policies and working conditions.

The railroads have said they would begin curtailing shipments of hazardous materials and some other goods Monday in advance of a possible work stoppage at the end of the week. That would ensure that containers of those dangerous goods aren’t left stranded along the tracks.

The heads of the Sheet Metal, Air, Rail and Transportation Workers — Transportation Division union that represents conductors, and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Trainmen union that represents engineers, criticized that decision as a move to increase pressure on shippers and Congress to intervene.

The federal law governing railroad contract talks won’t allow a strike or lockout before Friday.

Howard County football teams keep their winning momentum up in week three

By PATRICK GONZALES
Herald Sports Writer

This past Friday night was a great night for all three Howard County football teams as each came away with a win in week three of Texas high school football action. It was homecoming for both Big Spring and Forsan this week, while Coahoma traveled to Kermit to take on the Yellowjackets. Big Spring pulled off a come from behind win to beat the Monahan's Loboes 24-20. Forsan hosted the Stanton Buffaloes for homecoming in the Battle of the Buffaloes. Forsan improved to 3-0 on the season with a huge win over Stanton. Coahoma got a huge win against the Kermit Yellowjackets as they put on an impressive balanced offense and defense to beat the Yellowjackets 51-21

BIG SPRING 24 MONAHANS 20

It was homecoming for the Big Spring Steers this past Friday night as they hosted one of their longtime rivals, the Monahans Loboes. The Steers were coming into the match-up 1-1 and coming off of a huge win against Lubbock High in week two, while the Loboes were headed into the game with an 0-2 start to the season.

The Steers were looking to pick up its second of the win of the season in front of the large home crowd at Memorial Stadium, while the Loboes were looking to spoil the Steers homecoming festivities and get its first win of the season.

Big Spring struggled offensively for the most of the game which was uncharacteristic considering the offensive stats the Steers posted in its previous two games. In this game, it was all about the Steers defense who kept the Steers in the game.

The Steers led the Loboes in the first half with a score of 9-6. However, in the second half of the game the Loboes got its offense rolling with Monahans leading 20-17 midway through the fourth quarter.

Thanks to the Steers defense making some key plays and the offense scoring a touchdown with a little under two and half minutes left in the game the Steers regained the lead for good and secured its second win of the season with the final score of 24-20.

With the win Big Spring avenged its 28-13 loss to the Loboes in last years matchup.

Steers quarterback, Gavin Padron finished the night completing 28 out of 43 passes for 268 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions for Big Spring.

Big Spring wide receiver Zeyire Franklin ended the night, catching 11 passes for 154 yards and a touchdown. Steers running back Kavien Ford rushed for 72 yards on 15 carries along with four receptions for 31 yards and a touchdown. Donavyn Hilario also had a touchdown pass on the night.

The Steers improved to 2-1 overall and will look correct its offensive struggles and keep the momentum going as they get ready to take on the Sweetwater Mustangs Friday Sept. 16.

FORSAN 34 STANTON 14

Forsan also hosted its homecoming this past Friday night as they took on the Stanton Buffaloes in the Battle of the Buffaloes.

Last year Forsan came away with a huge win over Stanton winning last years match-up 45-7. This year was no different as Forsan got the huge win again beating Stanton 34-14.

The Forsan offense keeps rolling on as they finished the night with 235 yards rushing. Forsan was led again by Kevin Kligora, who finished the game with 102 yards rushing and a touchdown on 12 carries.

Forsan's Grant Roman had 73 yards rushing and Brycen Cervantes also contributed a rushing touchdown for Forsan as well. Forsan's quarterback Cade Wallis completed 5 out of 9 passes for 53 yards, one touchdown to Weston Layman and one interception.

Forsan's Brooks Wright highlighted Forsan's defense as he returned a fumble 27 yards for a score.

With the win Forsan improved to 3-0 overall as they get ready to head to McCamey this Friday Sept. 16 as they look to go 4-0 on the season.

COAHOMA 51 KERMIT 21

The Coahoma Bulldogs kept its winning momentum going this past Friday as they came away with a huge and impressive win over the Kermit Yellowjackets this past Friday night in Kermit.

The Bulldogs offense was well balanced and the defense had a great night as they forced five turnovers on their way to a 51-21 win over the Yellowjackets.

The Kermit Yellowjackets scored first taking a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the start of the game. Any momentum or confidence gained on that first scoring drive would be short lived as Coahoma would go on to score 28 unanswered points to take a 34-13 lead at halftime.

The second half was the same as the first as the Bulldogs offense and defense continued to roll over the Yellowjackets for the huge win.

Coahoma running quarterback Boyd Cox finished the night completing 10 out of 18 passes for 188 yards and four touchdowns.

Coahoma wide receiver Tristan Guerrero caught four passes for 96 yards and two touchdowns, while Billy Bailey finished the night with 55 yards receiving. Freshman wide receiver Landon Wells also had a receiving touchdown for the Bulldogs.

Coahoma running back Isaiah Eleda had 75 rushing yards on the night and Austin Perkins finished the game with 50 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Jaidyn Vineyard contributed 62 yards rushing for the Bulldogs as well as a 2-point conversion.

In total Coahoma's offense out-gained the Yellowjackets 412-295.

Coahoma is now 2-1 on the season and will look to keep the momentum going as they get ready to make the short drive east to take on the Colorado City Wolves this Friday Sept. 16.

Opening lead — king of diamonds.
In the vast majority of deals, the defenders achieve their optimum result by working closely together as a team and guiding each other carefully toward their common goal — defeat of the contract. Consider this deal where thoughtless defense allows declarer to make four spades while thoughtful defense defeats it.
Let's say West leads the king of diamonds and East signals with the eight. When West obeys his partner by leading another diamond, the contest is over. South ruffs, draws trump and finesses the queen of clubs. East wins, but South takes the rest of the tricks, depositing his two heart losers on dummy's clubs.

Now let's suppose that East takes a bit more time to assess the situation before he plays to the first trick. For starters, he can easily deduce from dummy's high cards and his own that West almost surely has six diamonds for his overall, so continuing diamonds would serve no constructive purpose. This would leave hearts as the only real hope for the defense.
Accordingly, he overtakes the king of diamonds with the ace at trick one and shifts to the deuce of hearts. If South follows low, West wins with the jack and continues a heart, and declarer eventually goes down one, losing two hearts, a diamond and a club.
Once East appreciates the futility of a diamond continuation at trick two, he is forced to pin his hopes on the possibility of his side scoring two heart tricks. But since he is in a much better position to make this assessment, he should take command of the situation.
Overtaking the king of diamonds with the ace may appear overly dramatic, but under the circumstances, it is absolutely necessary.

Today in History:
September 13, Mother Teresa's funeral

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 13, the 256th day of 2022. There are 109 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On Sept. 13, 1788, the Congress of the Confederation authorized the first national election, and declared New York City the temporary national capital.

On this date:

In 1803, Commodore John Barry, considered by many the father of the American Navy, died in Philadelphia.

In 1814, during the War of 1812, British naval forces began bombarding Fort McHenry in Baltimore but were driven back by American defenders in a battle that lasted until the following morning.

In 1948, Republican Margaret Chase Smith of Maine was elected to the U.S. Senate; she became the first woman to serve in both houses of Congress.

In 1962, Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett rejected the U.S. Supreme Court's order for the University of Mississippi to admit James Meredith, a Black student, declaring in a televised address, "We will not drink from the cup of genocide."

In 1971, a four-day inmates' rebellion at the Attica Correctional Facility in western New York ended as police and guards stormed the prison; the ordeal and final assault claimed the lives of 32 inmates and 11 hostages.

In 1993, at the White House, Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and PLO chairman Yasser Arafat shook hands after signing an accord granting limited Palestinian autonomy.

In 1996, rapper Tupac Shakur died at a Las Vegas hospital six days after he was wounded in a drive-by shooting; he was 25.

In 1997, funeral services were held in Calcutta, India, for Nobel peace laureate Mother Teresa.

In 1998, former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace died in Montgomery at age 79.

In 2001, two days after the 9/11 terror attacks, the first few jetliners returned to the nation's skies, but several major airports remained closed and others opened only briefly. President George W. Bush visited injured Pentagon workers and said he would carry the nation's prayers to New York.

In 2008, rescue crews ventured out to pluck people from their homes in an all-out search for thousands of Texans who had stubbornly stayed behind overnight to face Hurricane Ike.

In 2010, Rafael Nadal won his first U.S. Open title to complete a career Grand Slam, beating Novak Djokovic 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

Ten years ago: Chanting "death to America," hundreds of protesters angered by an anti-Islam film stormed the U.S. Embassy compound in Yemen's capital and burned the American flag. New York City's Board of Health passed a ban on the sale of big sodas and other sugary drinks, limiting the size sold at restaurants, concession stands and other eateries to 16 ounces.

Five years ago: Firefighters who were called to a sweltering nursing home in Hollywood, Florida, where air conditioning had been knocked out by Hurricane Irma found three people dead and evacuated 145 others to hospitals; five others died later in the day. Former Republican Sen. Pete Domenici (doh-MEN'-ih-chee), New Mexico's longest-serving senator, died in Albuquerque at the age of 85. The Cleveland Indians set an American League record with their 21st straight win, a 5-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers. (The streak would continue to 22 before the Indians were stopped.) The International Olympic Committee officially awarded the 2024 Summer Olympics to Paris and the 2028 games to Los Angeles.

One year ago: School began for about a million New York City public school students in the nation's largest experiment of in-person learning during the coronavirus pandemic. Nearly all of New York City's 300,000 employees were required to be back in their workplaces, in person, as the city ended remote work; most were required to be vaccinated or undergo weekly COVID-19 testing. President Joe Biden surveyed wildfire damage during visits to Idaho and California; Biden sought to make the case that extreme weather events around the country showed the need for his play to upgrade aging infrastructure.

Feeling Your Feelings

Trying to avoid a bad feeling only leads to a more difficult moment of reckoning. Agree to the feeling instead. Let it happen. Negativity is neutralized with acceptance. Let it all wash over you, and within a few minutes you'll have worked it through. This public service announcement has been brought to you by a square of the Aries moon to Pluto.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Everyone wants to be right, and no one is -- not completely. So, be patient with those futilely trying to convince the world. You'll never regret being kind. Relatedly, you're now in a position to forgive and keep on forgiving.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). While you can't see the big picture of your own life, someone else's scene will inspire a mix of admiration and envy. You can have a version of what they have. Let your feelings help you determine a new direction.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). True, there are more hospitable environs for growing your talents, but with a bit of determination you can make your current situation work. The first step is to carve out the time and hold it sacred.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You're so easygoing and adaptable now that it may come as a surprise to you that certain people can't seem to deal when things don't go as they anticipate. Avoid the dynamic entirely by carefully managing expectations.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). At first, you thought you created a dream in your mind, but now you wonder if it was already there and you simply discovered it. Either way, your dream once belonged to you, and now you belong to it. It will lead you magically now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Traditions of the past can play a purposeful role. But a group that honors tradition without incorporating the ever-changing needs of the moment will go stagnant. With diplomacy and strategy, you can breathe life into a group.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Connecting with others won't be a logical experience, so you don't have to worry about how much you know about how to do this. Maybe the so-called experts don't really know what they're doing either. Relax into receptivity.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). While it's possible to talk to more than one person at the same time, you can't listen to more than one person at a time. You deserve to be heard. With careful timing, you'll give your message a fighting chance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Here comes the new thing. If you're going to add this to your life, something's got to give. Maybe let go of the idea of balance. Anything compelling is going to disrupt the equilibrium for a time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Just as your body needs a period of recovery after a hard workout, so does your soul require a rest after vigorous pressures. When was the last time you asked absolutely nothing of yourself? Make your life easy for a moment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). To change yourself will be demanding of muscle and mind. Changing your environment to support the you that you would like to become will be less draining of your will-power, and your chances of success will skyrocket.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You'll be in a social mood and you'll gravitate to the sort of interesting, accomplished and attractive people with whom you have much in common. Someone with a stellar sense of humor will steal your heart.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Sept. 13). The adventure unfolds according to your brilliant curiosity. Others see the magic trick; you'll look for the secret. Others see the risk; you'll look for the possibility. Others see the action; you'll look for the motivation. Your active, questioning mind will land you in the honey time and again this year. Just ask, relax and listen. Libra and Aries adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 1, 4, 44, 39 and 28.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: One Direction star turned solo artist Niall Horan draws from broad musical influences and has expressed his love for Frank Sinatra, Michael Buble, Oasis and Bon Jovi. In matters of art, Virgos have an affinity for those who can move them emotionally, and the lines of genre do not matter nearly as much as style and skill. Horan was born when the moon and Venus were in Leo, which is an indication of a natural-born entertainer.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
