HUGE BACON FACTORY

This monster is Crystal Spice, a Landrace hog which is on display at the stock barn in Towle Memorial Park during activities of the Scurry County Junior Livestock Show. Shown with the hog is Ronnie Smith of Arlington, caretaker for the W. L. Bridges enterprises of Anson and other cities. The Bridges family owns the only Landrace hogs in Texas. The Landrace was first developed in the Scandinavian countries and is a very long breed with heavy loin and compact shoulders. It is very prolific and has large pigs which develop rapidly. The Junior Livestock Show's judging will get underway tomorrow morning and will last through Saturday. (Lee Watson photograph)

Action On Gas Controls Left Up To Demos

By MARION BURSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans seemed ready today to let Democrats assume responsibility for legislation to exempt natural gas producers from federal regulation.

"If this is a giveaway, it's going to be a Democratic giveaway," Rep. Halleck, (Ind), assistant House Republican leader, told a reporter.

Rep. Harris (D-Ark) introduced the bill yesterday with the approval of House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex). Harris told the House his proposal was in line with recommendations Feb. 25 by President Eisenhower's Fuel Policy Committee.

Halleck indicated he would be for the Harris bill, having supported similar legislation in the past, but added:

"The laboring oar for this one will have to be carried on the Democratic side."

Referring to legislation passed by the last Republican-controlled Congress giving oil rich tidelands to the states, Halleck said some Democrats denounced that as a GOP "giveaway" although it had strong Democratic support.

"Now we have a Democratic Congress," Halleck said pointedly.

Harris told the House his bill was made necessary by the Supreme Court June 7, 1954 decision that the Federal Power Commission has jurisdiction over the production, gathering and sale of natural gas by an independent producer to an interstate pipeline company.

"If this policy . . . is allowed to stand," Harris declared, "it will destroy future exploration and discoveries of natural gas and thereby ultimately deprive the consumer of an adequate supply of this important fuel."

President Truman's veto wiped out a 1950 congressional attempt to remove independent producers from FPC jurisdiction. But the commission itself ruled later that it didn't have the power anyway.

The Supreme Court decision came on an appeal by Wisconsin and other gas consuming states from the commission's ruling.

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) sponsored the 1950 bill. Harris said his proposal differs from the Kerr bill in that the Harris bill would:

1. "Protect the consumer" by directing the FPC, in considering the pipeline's rates on "the reasonable market value" of any gas pipeline rate proposals, to determine whether they are based on a "reasonable market price" for gas in the field.

2. "Provide justice" for a pipeline company having gas of its own by requiring the FPC to base the pipeline's rates on "the reasonable market value" of any gas produced by it.

In effect, this would write into law an April, 1954, decision of the commission awarding the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. a rate increase based on the "fair field value" of its own gas.

Harris, chairman of a House commerce subcommittee on gas, announced hearings on his bill will be held "in the very near future."

Halleck said Congress intended to exempt producers from federal regulation when it wrote the 1938 Natural Gas Act and that for this reason he supported the Kerr bill.

Rep. Yates (D-Ill) termed Harris' proposal "a public be damned bill," adding in a statement that it "propose to return to the day when the American economy was ruled by the robber barons . . ."

Until the Supreme Court decision, the FPC set only the wholesale rates at which the pipelines sell gas to utility companies. The utilities' rates to consumers are set by state regulatory bodies.

Military Plane Crash Reported In Iceland

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP)—A four-engined Military Air Transport Service (MATS) plane crashed at 1:55 a.m. (EST) today while landing at Keflavik Airport, Iceland, the Air Force reported.

No fatalities were reported among the nine crewmen and 49 passengers. Neither the crew roster nor passenger manifest was available immediately.

Nor could the Air Force report whether there were any injuries.

The plane, a C118, similar to a civilian DC6, was on a flight between Westover and Iceland, normally a nine to 10 hour run.

Churchill Tells Of Retaliation Pact

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill said today United States planes based in Britain might launch a counterblow without prior consultation in the event of a surprise hydrogen bomb attack "on this island."

Churchill gave this answer to the House of Commons when Laborites demanded the "precise terms" of his agreement with President Eisenhower regarding American planes based in England.

Laborite Kenneth Robinson wanted assurances "Britain would not become engaged in war without prior consent of Her Majesty's government."

The Prime Minister referred to his statement of a year ago when he said use of American air bases in Britain would be a matter for joint decision.

Robinson pressed for more details.

"I suppose," snapped Churchill, "an immediate destructive surprise and treacherous attack by the hydrogen bomb upon this island might possibly be acted upon by our allies in the U.S.A. almost immediately, without further prior consultation."

It is on H-bomb defense policy, backed by Labor party leader Clement Attlee, that Aneurin Bevan is making a new bid to seize power in the party. He is leading a revolt against Attlee.

The Bevan challenge to Attlee's leadership coincides with a renewal of his attacks on Prime Minister Churchill. Bevan contends Churchill knuckles under to American leadership.

In a House of Commons discussion last night about the possibilities of a Big Three meeting, Churchill was led to disclose that in 1953 he suffered a paralysis which for a time put him out of action. Bevan thereupon assailed Churchill as not being "in robust enough health to overcome the objections of President Eisenhower" to a Big Three meeting.

Churchill said he wanted to explore the possibility of a "new look" in Soviet policy following the death of Prime Minister Stalin in 1953 but President Eisenhower held aloof.

Shortly after the Soviet premier's death, Churchill said, he thought he and Eisenhower should get together with Premier Georgi Malenkov.

Churchill said his illness caused him to give up the idea.

At present, he added, he is still trying for such talks—but at the right time. He has made clear he thinks the Big Three must reach some understanding that would free the world of fear of a hydrogen bomb war.

Bevan charged the United States was blocking efforts to arrange "peace" talks with the Russians. Bevan said the Prime Minister perhaps would like to meet with the Russians but "the United States will not permit him."

Churchill denounced this as a "wicked" suggestion.

Scout Circus Opens Tonight

A capacity crowd is expected in the Snyder junior high gymnasium tonight for the annual Scout Circus, which will begin at 7:15 o'clock.

Tickets have been on sale by members of local scout units. The tickets are 50 and 25 cents. The same show will be held tomorrow night in Colorado City. Boys from all over the Lone Buffalo scout district will participate in both shows. The district covers Scurry, Mitchell, and Borden Counties.

Theme of the circus is "building the men of tomorrow." The night's activities will open here with a concert by the junior high band under direction of Tim Dennis.

Included in events for the circus are a carpet race, first aid demonstration, Cub Noah's ark, bicycle drill, signalling, pyramid building, bull whip, scout games, and camping and pioneering.

Slowdown By Demos Seen On Tax Cuts

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A possible slowdown by the Senate Democratic leadership on the administration-backed tax bill threatened today to bring on a floor fight rivaling in bitterness that which preceded House passage.

Colleagues said Sen. Clements of Kentucky, acting Democratic leader, has let it be known he favors delaying the start of debate until March 14. His only public comment was that the bill would be handled "in regular order."

House Democrats, over the vigorous opposition of President Eisenhower, had written into the bill a $20 income tax cut for everyone effective next Jan. 1. The Senate Finance Committee struck out that cut, leaving in the bill only a year's extension beyond April 1 of present corporation and excise tax rates now bringing in three billion dollars a year.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va) of the Finance Committee, who led the fight there against the $20 income tax cut, said in a separate interview there would be "no justification" for delaying Senate action beyond the middle of next week.

"We are going to move to bring this bill up then, if it becomes necessary to do that," he said.

Ordinarily the majority leader schedules when legislation is taken up. But his timetable could be upset if the Senate voted otherwise.

With this in mind, Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, opposed a request by Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) to permit a Finance Committee minority to file a report "when written." Knowland and Kerr, who back the $20 tax cut, finally agreed at Byrd's suggestion on a Tuesday noon deadline.

Sen. Barkley (D-Ky) said the proposed $20 cut — which would cost the treasury $2,200,000,000 in receipts in a full year—would be offered on the Senate floor.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Republican Policy Committee predicted an almost solid GOP vote against it.

Egyptians Told To Retaliate

By ROBERT HEWETT

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Egyptian Premier Gamel Abdel Nasser announced today the Egyptian army has been ordered "to retaliate by force" against any future Israeli attacks.

The head of Egypt's military ruling group told cheering students at the Egyptian Military College, "If we enter war, we will give Israel a lesson it will never forget."

Nasser's warning to Israel came after 36 Egyptian soldiers and 2 civilians were killed in fighting with Israeli forces on the outskirts of Gaza Monday night.

It was also an answer to Israeli Premier Moshe Sharett's statement to his Parliament last night in which he said "it is up to Egypt to decide" whether the Palestine war breaks out again."

Refugee-packed Gaza, chief town of the small Egyptian-held strip of Palestine, was reported quiet today after two days of Arab rioting and attacks on United Nations' property which followed the clash with the Israelis.

The U.N. Security Council will meet in urgent session at its New York headquarters Friday to discuss Egypt's charges of Israeli aggression near Gaza.

Amnesia Victim Dies

WACO (AP)—A man identified as George W. Taylor, 88, died yesterday after a 4-year stay as an apparent victim of amnesia in a Waco convalescent home. Spokesmen for the home said Taylor never seemed able to remember who he was or where he came from after he was found wandering through Waco railroad yards.

JOVIAL FAREWELL

President Eisenhower enjoys a laugh with a morning caller at the White House in Washington. He is the former ambassador to Egypt, Jefferson Caffery, who retired a few days ago, after 44 years in the diplomatic service. Caffery reported on conditions in Egypt and the Near East during his farwell call on the president.

Beard Says Politics Led To Discharge

By ROBERT E. FORD

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—The fact that some teachers took part in local Democratic precinct conventions was blamed today by Irving's ousted school superintendent for his discharge.

"Looking back on it now, trying to find a reason, the deepest thing I can think of is that several teachers attended precinct conventions," said Dr. John L. Beard, "and the forces were so even, they swung the power against the governor (Gov. Allan Shivers). But the teachers had as much right as anyone else. They are American citizens."

School board members who fired Beard have refused to give a detailed explanation of the reason for the firing, saying they were not talking on the advice of their attorney.

Beard notified the board last night that he was appealing his discharge to the state commissioner of education.

Beard said that the president of the school board, Charles E. Young, received a number of telephone calls about the teachers' political activity and came to see Beard.

"Mr. Young was very nice and said some teachers had been to the party convention.

"I said, 'They have?'

"He said, 'They did.'

"And I said, 'Mr. Young, do you mean to indicate to me that they didn't have the right to go?'

"He said, no, he didn't think that, but thought it would cause trouble because of a little political clique that controlled things.

"I took no action. I casually mentioned it to one or two teachers. I paid no attention to it.

"The teachers had the right to go. They were urged to take part in politics by their own (State Teachers') association and others."

Beard said that Young did not mention the question further and gave any orders in regards to at no time made any threats or teachers in politics.

There have been several unconfirmed reports concerning the strike.

Beard quickly denied one. That was that he had sought to install a system of "progressive" education in the schools over the opposition of the school board.

The ousted superintendent said "progressive education" has been out of existence since the war and he has had no contact with persons who supported it.

He said his attitude toward education was "very very standard and middle of the road and based on the principles of good American citizenship."

"In fact," he added, "I am known in educational circles as pretty conservative."

Teachers continued their strike, or "discontinuance of work" as they call it today. Their places were filled by citizen volunteers and newly hired employes.

The school employes voted Monday to stay off the job until Beard is reinstated and relations between the board and the administrative staff are cleared up. They have repeatedly stated that stand.

The school board since has fired seven principals and two other executives. Yesterday, the board said, all employes who failed to report for duty or failed to say they were going to return, would be discharged automatically. This was modified later so all the absent employes could be notified.

Beggs Rites Held Today

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Methodist Church for William Dickey Beggs, 79, who died yesterday morning at his home at 3103 Avenue W.

The Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Charles R. Gates of Post. Burial was to be in Hillside Memorial Gardens under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mr. Beggs was born at Mt. Sterling, Ill., April 15, 1875, and moved to Texas 70 years ago. He married Nov. 10, 1908 at Welder, Tex., and moved to Wellington, where he lived until coming to Scurry County in 1926.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son and daughter, John William Beggs of Post and Dorette Beggs of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Lionel Bevans, Sr., Fort Worth; two brothers, George Beggs and J. E. Beggs, both of Fort Worth, and a grandson, John Dickey Beggs of Post.

Pallbearers were Weldon Johnson, N. R. Clements, Fritz R. Smith, Banie Smith, J. B. Turner, Jack Berry, Grady Wallace, and Wilbur Ellis.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy through Friday. Cooler Panhandle Friday.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy and warm through Friday. Scattered showers and few thunderstorms, mostly north. Moderate to fresh southerly winds on coast.

SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy and warm through Friday. Few showers northeast Friday. Fresh southerly winds on coast.

U. S. Pledge Reaffirmed

TAIPEI Formosa (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dulles told Chinese Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek today that Quemoy and the Matsus were not on the bargaining table for a cease-fire in the Chinese civil war.

But sources close to the secretary hinted the offshore islands might be abandoned to the Reds on two conditions:

1. That the abandonment would bring a guaranteed peace to Asia, and,

2. That Nationalist China would agree to the move.

The Nationalist may not agree under any circumstances. The islands are the last important outposts they hold off the Red mainland.

Dulles reaffirmed U.S. determination to defend Formosa and the Pescadores, as pledged in the mutual defense pact ratified earlier today.

Dulles left for Washington late in the afternoon, winding up a whirlwind tour of Thailand, Burma, Laos, Cambodia, South Vietnam, the Philippines and Formosa.

Thirty-seven minutes after he arrived today he signed the documents that brought into force the mutual defense pact between the United States and Nationalist China. Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh signed for China.

The treaty itself was signed in Washington Dec. 2. It commits the United States to defend Formosa and the Pescadores, gives the United States the right to dispose land, air and sea forces in and about the area, and binds the two countries to act against an armed attack in the west Pacific.

Dulles said:

"Increasingly through the world, free men have found it necessary to unite in the cause of freedom. Here, where Chinese Communist aggression threatens, we pledge our mutual effort in serene confidence that the cause of freedom will prevail."

Yeh said:

"This historic document will, I am sure, not only be a powerful deterrent to further Communist aggression in the west Pacific area, but also serve to strengthen the over-all position of the free world in its efforts to achieve lasting peace and security."

After the ratification ceremony, President and Mme. Chiang gave a luncheon for Secretary and Mrs. Dulles.

Other luncheon guests included Adm. Robert B. Carney, U.S. chief of naval operations; Adm. Felix B. Stump, commander of the U.S. 7th Fleet, and Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

In his airport statement, Dulles said the United States is committed to "closer and more effective cooperation for the defense of the treaty area."

He emphasized the lack of commitment to Quemoy and the Matsus in these words:

"It is not possible at this time to state explicitly how that defense will be conducted."

Election Set In Hermleigh

A city election has been called at Hermleigh by the city countil Mayor A. D. Higginbotham announced today.

The election will be held on April 5. Only one alderman's term is expiring this year, that of Frank Kubala. The election will be held at the city hall. D. Z. Hess has been appointed election judge, while O. B. Paty and John Crumley will be clerks.

Candidates seeking election as alderman may obtain necessary forms at the city hall to have their names placed on ballots, Higginbotham said. New candidates must file by March 24 in order to be placed on the ballot.

Other councilmen, whose terms do not expire until next year, are Alton L. Barfott, Tom Shelburne, Boyce L. Jones, and C. V. Clift. Higginbotham's term does not expire until next year.

No Change In Policy Noted By Knowland

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) said at the White House today that he sees no new policy in President Eisenhower's statement that this country is "not going to be a party to an aggressive war" to recover the Chinese mainland for Chiang Kai-shek.

That interpretation of the President's news conference remark took a place somewhere between these widely divergent views from other members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee:

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) — We can now write off any possibility of Chinese Nationalist return to the mainland.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith R(-NJ) — The President was telling the world that the Nationalist army is held ready to strike if the Communists break the truce in either Korea or Indochina.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, discussed the subject with newsmen after a breakfast conference with Eisenhower. He said the talk over coffee cups dealt with foreign policy and the congressional legislative situation generally, but he declined to go into detail.

In his meeting with reporters yesterday Eisenhower was told that Nationalist Generallisimo Chiang Kai-shek has said he is expecting U.S. moral support and help from the standpoint of supplies for an invasion of the Chinese mainland, now held by the Communist regime.

Asked whether this government has given the Chinese Nationalists any reason to expect such support, the President replied that he feels the whole matter has been discussed so thoroughly there can be no question of America's attitude on the matter. Then he added:

"The United States is not going to be a party to an aggressive war. That is the best answer I can make."

Bill To Abolish Rangers Set For Introduction In House

AUSTIN (AP)—A bill to do away with the Texas Rangers because they are a relic of the "horse and buggy pistol-whipping days" was ready today for introduction in the House.

Saying Texas doesn't need "a state gestapo any more," Rep. Charles Lieck of San Antonio filed with the House clerk his measure abolishing the Rangers.

Lieck referred to the Ranger force as the "horse and buggy" relic. His bill has not yet been formally introduced.

Meanwhile, a bill to make life easier for the old-time Rangers who endured hardships to fight Indians and drive two-gun rustlers out of Texas was under legislative study.

The Rangers—originally established more than 100 years ago under the Texas Republic—were set up as a police force to combat Mexican bandits, warring Indians and American desperadoes. They are now a division of the State Department of Public Safety, and deal with modern day lawlessness.

Lieck said he intended to press his bill although he said he didn't think it would survive committee test. Some of his friends were trying to get him to withdraw it.

The bill to pension Rangers was considered last night by the House state affairs committee. It was regarded as having a good chance at passage. With many legislators in Dallas for a $50 a plate conservative dinner. State Affairs was the only legislative committee to meet last night.

Lawmakers returned today for scheduled meetings of House and Senate.

The state affairs committee last night considered these bills.

1. Entitle oldtime Texas Rangers to a $125-a-month pension; their widows, $62.50.

2. Increase the Livestock Sanitary Commission from 3 to 9 members to give representation to most phases of the livestock industry.

3. Make state prison farms render their land for county taxes.

4. Empower county commissioners courts to condemn for right-of-way purposes inside a municipality with consent of the city.

5. Make sure funeral establishments operating within a cemetery are not exempt from property taxes.

Under an automatic committee rule, all the bills went to subcommittees for one week's study.

Rep. Obie Jones, Austin, urged approval of his pension bill for the Rangers of yesterday.

As amended, his bill would provide the pension for those men who served as Rangers for at least five calendar years—including their furlough time—prior to consolidation of the Rangers with the Department of Public Safety Aug. 10, 1935.

Rangers serving since that date are entitled to pensions under the State Employees Retirement System.

C. N. Avery of Austin, an oldtimer, spoke for the bill. He praised the early Rangers who "fought the Mexicans, the Indians, and took out the cow thieves and the outlaws."

"They did it the hard way, without complaining. These few who remain took their lives in their hands," he said.

Rep. Lieck called spokesmen for the livestock auction and commission business, milk producers, veterinary medical, and breeders assns., and the Texas Farm Bureau to endorse his bill increasing size of Dairymen said they are particularly interested in getting representation on the commission to help whip the problem of brucellosis.

Both Sides See Something To Cheer About In Shivers Talk

By CLAYTON HICKERSON

DALLAS (AP)—Both sides of the Democratic Party fence in Texas could find pleasure today in words expressed by Gov. Allan Shivers in a Texas Independence Day speech.

The governor, sometimes mentioned as a possible candidate for President, urged for Texans "the opportunity for great service to their nation and to the Democratic Party."

Shivers' staunch conservative followers liked it when he told the Hollywood - brightened $50-a-plate dinner crowd:

"I'm not making any pledge to support the 1956 (Democratic) nominees."

His foes within the party—those led by Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana and Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham—liked it when the handsome, warm-voiced governor asserted:

"The Democratic Party is a national party, made up of many diverse elements, all striving together x x x."

And both sides liked it when he said:

"Our loyalty is first to our nation. x x x I welcome the opportunity to meet with Mr. Butler as would anyone interested in the Democratic Party x x x." Butler is Democratic National Committee chairman.

Shivers made it plain, however, that he intends to take no loyalty pledge. "We cannot accept the idea that, in order to participate in the affairs of the Democratic Party, we must swear to an overriding loyalty to officials who temporarily hold the offices of that party."

"I'm not making any pledge to support the 1956 nominees," he told reporters before the dinner. But he added, "The Democratic National Committee at its last meeting in New Orleans said they would demand no pledge."

Shivers told the crowd that, despite his deflection to the Republican Party in 1952 when he led the state Democratic organization into the GOP fold, he had never left the Democratic Party. "I'm still a Democrat," he said, "and expect to remain one."

Both of the warring factions—the Shivers group who voted for Eisenhower and the segment which followed Adlai Stevenson—could read hope for peace as the governor said:

"We of Texas seek only to participate constructively in the shaping of the course of national destiny. Our state has made and is making a great contribution to the leadership of this nation, and I am sure this will continue. Texans—whatever their differences—treat with utmost respect and honor the opportunity to serve this nation and to exercise the privileges of self-government.

"I know of no Texan presently taking an active role in the governmental affairs of this nation who has not rendered valuable service on many occasions in holding this nation to a steadier course of progressive, conservative government." Those words sounded to friends of the pair like a salute to such men as Rep. Sam Rayburn and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson. Both have been steadfast party-line Democrats in the past.

And these words, if any of Shivers' conservative friends objected to the foregoing, sounded as if the governor was standing his old ground for states rights and a Democratic Party of moderation:

"It is regrettable that, because of their conscientious efforts to uphold reason and give representation to the will of the people of their state, Texans in such positions are denied the opportunity for great service to their nation and to the Democratic Party."

Most political observers agree that because Texas usually votes Democratic that a Texan, whatever his capabilities, has little chance of nomination for President or dominant positions in the national party.

"As Americans," the governor said, "first and last we have a high responsibility to participate in—not stand apart from—the mainstream of national life."

AREA OIL ROUNDUP

New Producer In Fluvanna Field

James H. Snowden and others have reported the completion of a new producer in the Fluvanna field at the No. 1 Florence Lanham.

The well pumped 125.69 barrels of 38.5-gravity oil in 24 hours on the potential test. No water was present. Production is through perforations at 7,869-872 feet, where 1,500 gallons of acid had been used. Top of the pay was at 7,869 feet, with total depth 8,216 feet. Gas-oil ratio on the completion test was 210-1.

Drillsite for the new oiler is 662.5 feet from south and 672.3 feet from east lines of 536-97-H&TC.

LOGS SHOWS

Stroube Central and others No. 1 Ralph Collins, southwest Fisher County wildcat four miles southeast of Claytonville, logged shows of gas and oil on a drillstem test from 5,404-500 feet.

The tool was open 30 minutes, with recovery 35 feet of slightly oil and gas-cut mud. Flowing pressure was zero, with 30-minute shut-in pressure 210 pounds. Hole was being made below 5,500 feet at last report.

This wildcat is in 52-Y-T&P.

MITCHELL LOCATIONS

C. L. Echols of Colorado City has filed applications to drill the No. 4 and No. 5 A. C. Mills in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field of north Mitchell County.

The No. 4 Mills is 330 feet from south and east lines of lot 18, C. A. O'Keefe subdivision, G. H. McGinnis survey. The No. 5 Mills is 330 feet from south and 840 feet from east lines of the same acreage. Both locations are about seven miles southwest of Dunn, and both wells are to drill to 1,800 feet with cable tools.

FIELD COMPLETIONS

Victor Salazar and Associates have completed the No. 1 Rogers in the North Coleman Ranch-Clear Fork field of Mitchell County.

On a 24-hour pumping gauge, the well made 506.25 barrels of 30-gravity oil plus five per cent water. Pay was topped at 3,023 feet. Production is from open hole from the pay top to 3,125 feet, total depth. That zone was acidized with 2,000 gallons.

The well is 330 feet from north and east lines of 85-97-H&TC.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. No. 2-D S. M. Swenson & Sons, SMS-Canyon sand field well in Kent County, was completed for a natural 24-hour flow of 146.10 barrels of 38.5-gravity oil. Production is through perforations at 6,186-201 feet, with no water present. Gas-oil ratio on the completion test was 491-1.

The No. 2-D Swenson is 660 feet from north and west lines of 22-2-H&GN.

DRILLING REPORT

Ada Oil No. 1 R. H. Odom, six miles northeast of Snyder, is drilling below 5,870 feet.

In Borden County, Choya No. 1 Canon is drilling in sand below 7,100 feet. Magnolia No. 1 Jesse York is drilling in shale below 7,407 feet.

Sunray and Seaboard No. 4 Spires, south Kent prospector, is fishing for drillpipe at total depth of 5,471 feet in shale.

Underground Blasts Loose Molten Lava

By ROY ESSOYAN

PAHOA, Hawaii (AP)—Massive underground explosions ruptured the scarred tip of eastern Hawaii Island anew, spewing a fountain of molten lava 200 feet into the air.

Burning rocks poured out of the ground along a half-mile strip, slashing a flaming path across fields of sugar cane.

The National Guard sent its trucks rumbling to the rescue of some 100 persons whose escape routes were threatened.

About 400 others already had taken from their homes.

Curtis Kamai was surveying road fissures yesterday afternoon when the earth burst open again.

"It was just like touching off a half-mile string of gunpowder," he said. "I heard the roar of lava underground. The earth was shaking.

"Then suddenly it went up like a powder train. In two minutes the whole half-mile stretch was blazing lava 100 feet in the air."

One eruption of red-hot rock landed only 200 yards from 13 plantation workers. All escaped uninjured.

The entire area was like a giant powder keg with dozens of burning fuses.

It was anyone's guess where one would erupt.

Yesterday's fissure had stretched out last night for a blazing mile of spurting lava which moved relentlessly toward desolate Kapoho village, occupied only by wary police and civil defense officials.

Fiery fingers spread northeast and southeast of Kapoho.

Into the night, lava fountains spouted up to 200 feet, spilled over, spread out on both sides of the flaming fissure, and pushed down toward Kapoho and the ocean at an estimated 350 feet an hour.

The main lava river spread 400 yards across.

From a knoll 300 yards above, the scene was amost unbelievable in its awesome, savage splendor. The whole corner of the island was lighted by the fiery glare.

Trying to breathe amid the choking sulphur fumes was like trying to smoke matches instead of cigarettes.

GREENE RECEIVES NEW GUIDE DOG

Jack Greene, center, 2108 Twenty-seventh Street, is shown with Queenie, a new guide dog he received from the Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., in San Rafael, Calif., last week. Queenie, the 17-month-old dog, is the third guide dog Greene has had since he lost his sight in an oilfield accident in Hobbs, N.M., several years ago. Mrs. Greene, also blind, has a 13-year-old dog to guide her footsteps. C. T. McLaughlin, left, financed Greene's two-weeks training trip to San Rafael, and Edgar Taylor, right, county judge, made all arrangements for the trip and securing the new dog. (Lee Watson photograph)

Soviet Government In Major Shakeup

By TOM WHITNEY

The Soviet government is in the middle of a major shakeup. It's all taking place, according to official Soviet announcement, "at the recommendation of" the new Premier, Nikolai Bulganin.

This week there have been 11 big changes:

1. Three members of the Kremlin's Big Nine—Deputy Premiers A. I. Mikoyan, M. Z. Saburov and M. G. Pervukhin—were promoted to first deputy premiers, the next rank below Bulganin.

2. Four men were leap-frogged into the high rank of deputy premier past officials senior to them in their own special fields. These promotions went to A. P. Zavenyagin, M. V. Khrunichev, V. A. Kucherenko and P. T. Lobanov. Kucherenko and Lobanov are little known outside Soviet political circles.

3. Zavenyagin also was named to replace Deputy Premier V. A. Malyshev as minister of medium machine building, the post believed to control Russia's atomic weapons program. Malyshev apparently retained his deputy premiership though and was named to supervise a group of "machinery ministries."

4. Two ministers—coal industry chief A. S. Zasyadko and state farms boss A. I. Kozlov — were fired in disgrace for unsatisfactory work. Zasyadko's deputy minister, A. N. Zademidko, was stepped up to replace his former boss.

5. Agriculture Minister I. A. Benediktov was demoted to the state farms post, but no successor was named to him.

The changes reflect the realignment of Kremlin political factions which resulted in the resignation Feb. 8 of Georgi Malenkov as premier and Bulganin's appointment to succeed him. Apparently they are—at least in part—really Bulganin's work, but the hand of Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev is also to be seen.

The implications are complex, with economic, military and political facets.

The new setup apparently revitalizes an important organ of the Soviet government which may have been moribund for some time—the Presidium of the Council of Ministers Cabinet of the Soviet Union.

The Council is huge, more than 50 members. The Presidium now has six members—Bulganin, the three new first deputies, and the two holdovers of that rank, L. M. Kaganovich and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Diplomats in Moscow reportedly think the Presidium may function from now on as a leading policy planning group. On the other hand, Mikoyan, Saburov and Pervukhin all were believed to have shared ex-Premier Malenkov's views on a number of major issues. Instead of getting real promotions, they may have been kicked upstairs from direct control of the ministries they previously supervised.

The promotion of new men to deputy premierships and the naming of a new coal minister appear to reflect political jockeying among Kremlin factions trying to recruit support for themselves. It is still too early, though, to judge how the factional lines are shaping up.

Bootleg Suspect Returned To Jail

James E. Riley, 52, of Snyder and Robert Lee, was back in the county jail this morning on a charge of bootlegging, having been released on bond Monday afternoon in connection with another bootlegging charge.

The most recent charge, filed late yesterday, was an "enhancement" charge — one alleging three previous convictions. The purpose of alleging previous convictions is to attempt to obtain enhancement of punishment in event of further conviction.

Punishment for bootlegging may be increased to two years in jail and a fine of $2,000 or both such fine and imprisonment if one previous conviction is proved. That is double the maximum allowed for a single conviction with no proof of previous conviction.

In event of conviction on a charge which alleges and proves two or more previous convictions, the punishment may be increased up to four times that for a single conviction. Thus, if Riley is convicted as charged, he may be sentenced to four years in the jail and fined $4,000 plus court costs.

One such conviction here netted Anderson Davis, Jr., Snyder Negro, a term of four years and a fine of $1,000 plus court cost. He served more than 22 months and was granted a remittance of the fine and a reprieve by the governor. The reprieve does not erase the sentence due to be completed but does place the person in a position to receive a pardon later if his behavior remains good.

Riley pleaded innocent this morning to the charge filed yesterday, and bond was set for him at $1,500. He had not been released on bond by noon. Monday afternoon, he was released on a $1,500 bond set in the other case.

Both charges allege sale of liquor in a prohibited area. The first of these two charges was filed Saturday and did not allege any previous convictions. The previous convictions alleged in the second charge were dated Sept. 9, 1952, Feb. 4, 1953, and Nov. 27, 1953. Riley has been convicted here more than a dozen times and has also been convicted of bootlegging elsewhere.

Electric Broiler Leads To Success

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Anybody can make money today who can show men a way to compete successfully with women.

At least partly because of this fact, Arthur O. Bregstein is reaping a fortune. He is doing it by operating on the theory that, while a wife may be at home on her range, there is no reason why a husband can't be a king in the family kitchen, too—if cooking is made so simple even his feeble masculine mind can learn how to do it.

Bregstein found the answer in the new rotisserie-type electric broilers which in just a few years have created a culinary revolution in America.

In 1950 Bregstein, who had begun his career as a representative for concert artists, was operating a small electrical firm that made sockets and switches in a one-floor Manhattan loft. One night, while watching chickens turning on a gas-fired rotisserie in a French restaurant, he mused:

"If a woman could do that at home, wouldn't it be wonderful?"

He investigated and found home rotisseries had been sold in this country at least since 1933, but had never caught on widely. For one thing, they were too complicated.

Bregstein put some engineers to work on the project. Two years later he had developed a simplified, portable electric broiler that cooked with infrared rays and had automatic controls and timing devices.

"We had to set up a factory to make our own slow-turning, fractional horsepower motor," he recalled. "But the most expensive problem was how to seed the market."

This is sales jargon for creating a customer demand. One of his ideas was to hire a home economics expert to write a cookbook giving hundreds of menus. The book now is in its second million printing.

"Hundreds of thousands of people had the cookbook before they had a broiler," Bregstein said.

The electric boiler industry had about nine million dollars in retail sales volume in 1951. Last year it was approximately 150 million, and Bregstein predicts it will reach 300 million in 1955. He estimates his own firm, the Roto-Broil Corp., largest of nine concerns in the field, does about 45 per cent of the total volume.

"One out of every 10 electrified homes in America now has an electric broiler," he said contentedly, "and the real market still lies ahead. The industry is growing as rapidly as television or airconditioning."

Bregsten himself was amazed at first to learn from surveys that the broilers had won as much favor with husbands as with wives.

"But it is easy to see why," he said. "Men hate to bend down. That's one reason they don't like stoves. Also they want a foolproof system of cooking.

"But they do like to cook, if it isn't too much trouble and they don't have a mess to clean up afterward. It makes them feel like a big shot.

'Nibbling' Is Recommended

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP)—"Scentific nibbling," or eating part of a meal between meals, may help control tendencies to gain too much weight, a food expert said today.

But the nibbling "must be a part of what would have been eaten at meals, not an extra," Dr. Frederick J. Stare, of Harvard University, said.

He was one of the main speakers at the National food Conference, which began today, sponsored by Swift & Co., as part of its centennial celebration.

Dr. Stare, chairman of the department of nutrition at Harvard, said in a prepared address:

"The aim is to decrease the number of calories eaten in a 24-hour period in order to lose weight. Scientific nibbling makes it easier for some people to do just that."

"Contary to popular belief this is not the healthiest country in the world—particularly for men in their prime," he said. American males past the age of 45 die younger than those in 10 of 17 comparative countries, he added.

"Food excesses may be far more dangerous than food deficiencies in a prosperous land like ours," he said, and pointed out that the death rate from heart and kidney ailments is 1½ times greater for overweight men than for those of normal weight.

Robinson Divorce Case Is Uncertain

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—She has sued for divorce, but Mrs. Edward G. Robinson Sr. says she and the actor are "very good friends" and that he is welcome any time at her Laguna Beach home.

She appeared at a party with Robinson Tuesday night, causing someone to ask if she planned to go ahead with the divorce.

"It was Disraeli who declared that nothing in life is final," she answered. "I can't tell you whether Eddie and I will go through with the divorce."

Sheriff Mixes Colors For Cruising Cars

OMAHA (AP) — Sheriff Patrick Corrigan's new paddy wagon cars are of a "baby blue" hue, a color matching the new uniforms of the deputies.

"But that isn't all," said Corrigan. "To take care of the guys who think they can spot a cruiser a mile away, we also will have red, black, brown and green cars."

Singer To Take Rest

LONDON (AP)—Rose Brennan, 24-year-old popular singer and recording artist, was ordered by a doctor yesterday to quit talking for six weeks. She promptly made arrangements to spend the time on the Spanish island of Majorca, where they speak Spanish—which she can't.

Rush To Buy Now Gaining Momentum

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A rush to buy—something most industries haven't seen for several months—is developing today in a number of industrial commodities.

Users of copper were among the first to put on the pressure. Now steel makers report a rush for some of their products. So do the synthetic rubber plants, still government owned. And the prospect for another big spurt in home building this spring is bringing orders for lumber mills and for makers of home appliances and furniture.

Except perhaps for copper, there is no real shortage as in the early postwar years. The urge to order, which apparently struck a number of purchasing agents at once, appears to stem in part from fears that prices may go higher or that labor troubles may mean work stoppages late in the spring.

But producers also cite another reason:

Hand-to-mouth buying policies, common from mid-1953 on, brought down inventories, as planned. The result was that the first show of demand—as when the auto industry started ordering metal for its big production race two months ahead of normal—stretched the time between ordering and receiving delivery. Companies which had been operating happily on a raw material supply sufficient for 30 or 45 days production, suddenly found this leeway too small for comfort.

This seems to be especially true in the case of most metals. Price rises in iron ore and steel scrap, and upcoming labor negotiations, also are interpreted by some steel users as meaning higher prices ahead.

A rush to stock up on synthetic rubber is reported by government agencies preparing to close the sale of the plants to private industry—barring congressional disapproval.

Some of the rush is believed based on fears that prices may rise under the new ownerships, or that the companies buying the plants might absorb most of the output for themselves.

The home-building boom—the vigor of which has surprised many observers—seems set for still another spurt with the coming of open weather. Easy financing is the foundation.

Glass Cells Feature Of Los Angeles Jail

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Prisoners in the new modernistic Los Angeles City Police Building, to be opened in May, will be in glass cells if they are arrested on misdemeanor charges.

The first floor, reserved for them, will be for the most part constructed of shatterproof glass. The booking sergeant, sitting on a raised platform, will have almost unlimited vision of the prisoners in their goldfish bowl.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Middle East Policy Now Under Review

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials are reviewing U.S. policies toward the Middle East to see whether greater political stability and military strength can be developed.

One possibility under consideration is the eventual negotiation of stronger security guarantees for Israel. Some authorities believe this could relax Arab-Israeli tension. The Israelis have long sought a U.S. defense alliance.

The policy review was initiated on the basic assumption that the Middle East is the most threatened important area on the flanks of the Communist bloc. It includes the one area—from the eastern borders of the Black Sea to the western tip of Red China—where the Soviet Union has no buffer satellites.

It is a region of tremendous difficulties, primitive industrial development, low living standards and knotty political problems, including the ill feeling between Israel and the Arab states.

The United States, Britain and France have several times declared an intention to preserve the balance between Israel and its hostile Arab neighbors. The Israeli government has termed this declaration insufficient.

At the same time, the United States has been trying to create different attitudes on the part of at least some of the Arab governments. Officials at the State Department have felt for a long time that hostility toward Israel by the Arab League—an organization of governments — is the source of weakness in the Middle East. It has prevented any effective system of alliances there against Soviet power.

Iraq's recent signature of a mutual aid agreement with Turkey despite violent opposition from its Arab League partner Egypt is regarded as an important step toward strengthening defenses against communism. Because of the split between Iraq and Egypt, in fact, some officials here thought the Arab League was doomed.

On the other hand, the outbreak of fighting between Egypt and Israel in the Gaza region early this week has worked in exactly the opposite direction. The assumption is that the Arab world will unanimously support Egypt, giving the Arab League a new reason for existence.

MRS. BARD PAUL

Mrs. Paul To Review Book Here Friday

Book reviewing has become an engrossing hobby for Mrs. Bard Paul of Dallas. She will make her first appearance in Snyder tomorrow afternoon when she speaks before the Book Review Club at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist Church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Paul was educated in Oak Cliff schools and was graduated from the Switzer School of Expression and Music there. She also attended the University of Texas. Her father, Charles E. Brown, was the civil engineer who laid out the original plot of Oak Cliff along with T. L. Marsalis.

After her marriage, Mrs. Paul became a member of the Pierian Junior Literary Club. Later becoming a member of the Senior Pierian Club, she served as president of that organization. It was through this club that she first served as a delegate to the federated clubs, and she was subsequently elected president of the Dallas Federation of Women's Clubs.

There are many clubs for whom she speaks often. The first such club in Dallas became the Mary Paul Book Review Club, named in her honor. There is also a Mary Paul Book Review Club in Sherman. She has other review clubs in Irving, and goes regularly to Temple, Odessa, Abilene and Gainesville to present reviews.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Baldridge

Mrs. Jim Baldridge was hostess for the Wednesday Contract Club yesterday in her home. Mrs. Baldridge, who is to move soon to Wink with her husband, was presented a farewell gift from club members.

Mrs. David Creichton won the prize for high score, with second high going to Mrs. E. B. Boone. Mrs. Garland Smith won low, and Mrs. Bill Ellis won bingo.

Mrs. E. B. Aldridge will be hostess to the club next Wednesday.

Rev. Hester Speaks

The Rev. Lennol Hester, pastor of the First Methodist Church, spoke on the "American Heritage of Freedom" to 12 members of the Altrurian Club in the club's meeting Friday afternoon at the Country Club.

Bake your favorite rich brownie recipe in a pie pan, cut in wedges and top with vanilla ice cream. Serve with a chocolate fudge sauce and listen to the applause

Homemakers Helps For

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5436.

Canned fruits can be the salvation of busy-day meals. Colorful and flavorful, they deserve a place on your emergency shelf as well as in the weekly menu planing.

A cherry topping for a Cherry Right Side Up Cake is just one of the many uses you'll find for that bright fruit.

CHERRY TOPPING

¾ cup maple syrup
2 tablespoons butter
¼ cup cherry juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1½ teaspoons red food coloring
2 cups (No. 2 can) drained red sour pitted cherries.

Select cherries packed in extra heavy syrup for this topping. Put the syrup and butter in a saucepan, then mix the cherry juice and cornstarch until smooth and blend in. Add the food coloring. Place over low heat and simmer eight minutes, stirring constantly, until the mixture thickens. Remove from heat and add cherries. Pour over warm cake.

A one-egg white cake goes well under the sauce. You might use a cake mix product, or try this recipe.

CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar
1/3 cup butter or other shortening
¾ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg, unbeaten

Sift together dry ingredients. Stir shortening just enough to soften and sift in dry mixture. Add milk and mix until flour is dampened. Beat 2 minutes at low speed of electric mixer or 300 vigorous storkes by hand. Add egg and beat 1 minute longer or 150 strokes by hand. Pour batter into a square pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches) and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) until done. Remove from pan and cut in squares to serve.

Mrs. Dow Hostess To Iota Psi Unit

Mrs. Sherrill Dow was hostess for a card party for members of the Iota Psi chapter of ESA Monday night. Rushees present for the evening were Mrs. Dick Dean, Mrs. Jim Pylant, Mrs. Jim Thomas, and Mrs. Dean Strack.

Mrs. Rufus Hart won the canasta prize. Mrs. E. E. Folk won high in bridge, with low going to Mrs. Steve Birdwell. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served 18 club members and the chapter sponsor, Mrs. Billie Youree, by the hostess.

Mrs. Art Dibble is to be hostess to the chapter next Tuesday night.

Local Student To Be Initiated

Madolyn Crow, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crow, Arab route, will be among the students initiated into Sigma Tau Delta at Texas Tech on March 15.

Sigma Tau Delta is a national honorary fraternity for English majors and minors. Miss Crow, a mathematics major, is minoring in English. The fraternity was organized to foster high scholarship and general culture, and to increase literary appreciation among English students. Miss Crow is also a member of Alpha Chi, a national fraternity for students whose grade-point averages are above 2.5.

Hot potato salad, topped with frankfurters that have been covered with boiling water and simmered until heated through, makes a fine dish for a family supper.

Bad News Is Coming Out Of Drill Camps

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

Baseball's spring training season has been under way only three days but already bad news, both physical and monetary, has started to seep out of the camps.

The physical bad news, for the most part, concerns players who were nursing ailments when the 1954 campaign closed. From a monetary angle the Kansas City Athletics absorbed the latest financial pains as punishment for disobeying baseball's law forbidding any form of organized practice before March 1.

Physically such well-regarded players as the Phillies' Curt Simmons, the Cardinals' Tom Alston, the White Sox's Cass Michaels, the Athletics' Wilbur Shantz, the Tigers' Ferris Fain and the Dodgers' Don Hoak caused their bosses concern. And the New York Yankees received the bad news that second baseman Billy Martin will not be available this year since he isn't slated to get out of the Army until Oct. 6. Originally, the Yanks had hoped to have Billy the Kid in uniform by early July.

Simmons reported his pitching arm, troublesome last year, is still bothering him.

Michaels was forced from yesterday's workouts at Tampa with an attack of dizziness. The veteran infielder suffered a skull fracture last August when he was struck by a pitched ball. He was advised to rest a few days.

Shantz, considered to have a chance to become the transplanted A's first-string catcher, complained of periodic pains in his side yesterday and was sent to Johns Hopkins in Baltimore. He may undergo surgery for removal of a growth between the ribs. If so, he'll likely be out of action at least two weeks.

The Cardinals are awaiting a physician's report on Alston, the club's $100,000 first baseman who was a disappointment last season. An examination was scheduled to determine if he has overcome a thyroid deficiency.

Hoak, Brooklyn third baseman, lost a nail on his right toe when he was hit by a batted ball during yesterday's workout at St.Petersburg and will be out a couple of days.

Manager Bucky Harris has waived regular training routine for Fain. The veteran first baseman's injured knee has been bothering him in early drills at Lakeland. Harris is going to let Fain be on his own for a couple of weeks.

Commissioner Ford Frick fined the Athletics $250 for violating the opening date rule and slapped penalties of $50 each on five regulars—Arnie Portocarrero, Charlie Bishop, Forest Jacobs, Louis Limmer and Wilbur Shantz. Rookie pitcher Bill Oster was fined $25 and club house man Yip Crompton $50 for making club house facilities available.

On Monday Frick fined the Milwaukee Braves $500 and 14 players a total of $625 also for starting the training season before the scheduled date. And Frick said his investigations are "far from finished." He didn't indicate what other clubs might be involved, but reports say the Detroit Tigers and Brooklyn Dodgers are likely to be hit with similar penalties.

The commissioner said he fined the Athletics less than the Braves because "Kansas City officials were not present at the workouts, they knew of no workouts and authorized no workouts."

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

James Cooper of Hermleigh, who will be a junior next year at Texas Christian, is No. 3 right end on the prospective 1955 grid roster.

Cooper is running behind O'Day Williams of Graham and Don Sanford of Beaumont. All three have one varsity letter.

The former Hermleigh star is 19, weighs 190, and stands 6-foot-2.

Buddy Goode of Snyder, Southern Methodist trackster, has been picked along with 45 other athletes from Southwest schools to compete against the U.S. Pan-American games track and field squad Tuesday.

The meet will be held in Houston and is actually a warmup for the Pan-Am team, which will be in Mexico City for the big event March 12-26.

Goode will run the 100 and 220-yard dashes in the Tuesday meet.

Goode, by the way, is a partner with his father, Homer Goode, in Goode & Sons Ice Co. here. He is also an insurance salesman and plans to remain in that business after his graduation this spring.

There seems to be a lack of seniors in spring athletic activities in the high school here.

Baseball has the biggest lack of them. There is only one senior on the Tiger baseball club. There are only five on the entire track squad.

Crop Of Independents Poor For NCAA Tourney Entry

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It might be just as well if the NCAA forgot about naming the two remaining at-large entries for the championship basketball tournament that gets underway next week.

The NCAA, which once had a nice, cozy eight-team playoff, runs a 24-team elimination now which matches 15 automatic entries (mostly conference champions) and nine at-large choices. Trouble is, the crop of still available independents is so poor, they might as well plow it under and hope for a better yield next season.

Right now, the NCAA must select two at-large teams to play each other in the Western regionals Monday or Tuesday. Oklahoma City U., Drake and Bradley are reported under construction. Those three have managed to win a combined total of just 25 games all season—including the results of five games played against each other.

It seems incredible, but Bradley, NCAA runner-up-last year, would seem to have the toehold despite a 7-19 record. The Braves, who closed out a 16-game losing streak Monday against Wichita, apparently won the "elimination" in their regular season finale by defeating Drake 90-73 last night.

Oklahoma City has 9-16 record. Drake is 9-12.

In the NIT, just one team is unnamed in the 12-club pairings, and that berth reportedly will be filled by the Missouri Valley Conference runner-up (either St. Louis or Tulsa). The champ goes to the NCAA.

The problems faced by the tourney selectors show up in a rundown of some of last night's scores: Syracuse 84, Canisius 68; Miami (Ohio) 77, Cincinnati 71; John Caroll 94, Seton Hall 90; Penn 85, Penn State 79; Seattle 73, Idaho State 69.

Every one of the losers is bound for either the NCAA or NIT.

There are a couple of sleepers in that list, however. Some of the games paired two tourney teams, so naturally one had to lose.

Miami, for instance, is the Mid-America champion and meets Marquette in the NCAA first round at Lexington Tuesday. But Cincinnati now has lost four straight since being picked by the NIT-which seeded the Bearcats No. 4 incidentally.

Penn State is scheduled to play Memphis State in the Lexington double-header and Penn could be the NCAA representative from a nip-and-tuck Ivy League race. And Seattle and Idaho, which played Tuesday night with Idaho State winning, meet again in the NCAA eliminations at San Francisco Tuesday.

Two tourney picks made out all right. San Francisco, No. 1 in the Associated Press poll and headed for the NCAA, won its 21st straight by whipping Santa Clara 73-61. And Lafayette, NIT bound, won its 20th in a row 101-69 over Rutgers.

Wayland Girls Are Leaders In Tourney

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Defending champion Wayland College of Plainview, Tex., and second-seeded St. Joseph (Mo.) Goetz lead the way into the semifinals of the Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament tonight.

Wayland outclassed Real Refrigerator of Milwaukee in posting a 57-28 victory last night in the quarterfinals. St. Joseph beat pine Sol Queens of Jackson, Miss., 38-25.

Tonight's schedule (Central Standard Time):

7 p.m.—Dawson Phillips 66 vs North Kansas City Jerry's (consolation semifinal).

8:15 p.m.—Wayland College vs Midland Jewelry (semifinal championship).

Schoolboy Tourney Is Underway Today

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN (AP)—The villages and towns so small it's difficult to find them on the map start the 5-way Texas schoolboy basketball tournament on its way today.

While the major classes, including glamorous AAAA with its mighty Dallas Crozier Tech and Pampa, wait until tomorrow to swing into action, the Class B, Class A and Class AA schools put on a session of eight games that will run from early morning until close to the stroke of midnight.

Bovina, with a 30-2 season record, and Rankin, which struggled to the state tournament with 12-12, opened the 24-game schedule of the big meet at 8:45 a.m., followed by Big Sandy (30-15) vs. Slidell (29-9), Medina (25-2) vs. Dilley (26-1) and Maud (36-4) vs. Avoca (41-1).

Class A takes over in the afternoon with Sudan (37-5) meeting Dickinson (24-8) at 3:10 o'clock and Plano (24-9) clashing with Buna (35-4) at 4:35.

Tonight the Class AA teams make their bow with Atlanta, the favored one, battling Seminole at 7:30 and Freer tackling San Marcos at 8:50.

The Class AAAA division, with Crozier Tech a faint favorite, plays its first round tomorrow night with Tech meeting Beaumont at 7:30 and Pampa, the defending champion, clashing with Waco at 8:50.

Crozier Tech was worried over the condition of its great center, All-State A. C. Black, who is favoring an ankle sprain. He took no part in scrimmage all week and found it painful to run. Coach Rosy Adkisson was hopeful he would be all right by game time but said, "If Black can't play at top speed we'll be badly handicapped." Tech will have a workout this afternoon here and may determine then just how much service Black will be to the team.

Tech enters the tournament with a 26-1 record while Beaumont, featuring its Erwin Turner, has 24-10. Beaumont beat strong Jeff Davis of Houston two games and that leads Adkission to believe the Purple will be a tough outfit for his Wolves.

Pampa, which has lost only four games in 95 and won the title two years in a row, faces a rugged customer in the opener. Waco has a 23-6 record and is likely to prevent a repeat of last year's final when Tech was beaten out by Pampa in an overtime game.

Class A's fvaortie is Sudan, with Atlanta ranked highest in class AA and Plainview the team to beat in Class AAA.

Class AAA opens play Friday afternoon with Plainview meeting French of Beaumont, another highly-rated outfit, at 3:10 o'clock and Kilgore and Victoria, the other two teams, getting together at 4:35.

Gola Leads All-America Cage Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Led by famed Tom Gola, the first to make the team for three consecutive years, players from LaSalle, Ohio State, San Francisco, Duquesne and Furman were named today to the 1955 Associated Press All America basketball team.

The 6-7 Gola, who led LaSalle to the NCAA title a year ago, dominated the voting from 323 sports writers and broadcasters. Regarded as the best current performer in the college game, the Philadelphia star polled 1,488 points on 294 first-place votes and nine seconds.

Robin Freeman, the pint - sized 5-11 Ohio State star, was second with 955. Big Bill (The Stuffer) Russell from San Francisco's No. 1 ranked team followed with 748. Next came Duquesne's Dick Ricketts with 725 and Furman's Darrell Floyd, who stepped into the shoes of Frank Selvy and was tops among the major college scorers.

Floyd earned his place on the first team by edging Indiana's Don Schlundt, 585 points to 577.

TOP BASKETBALL MEN

Here's the 1955 Associated Press All America basketball team. Players are: Tom Gola, La Salle; Darrell Floyd, Furman; Robin Freeman, Ohio State; Dick Ricketts, Duquesne, and Bill Russell of San Francisco.

City League Continues Its Tourney

Another team will be eliminated from play in the city league basketball championship tournament tonight as the tourney goes into its fourth night of play.

Playing in tonight's first game at 7:15 o'clock will be Brooks Oil Well Service and D&H Super Market. It will be one of those teams eliminated tonight in the double-elimination tourney, since each of the teams has suffered one defeat already.

Games of the tourney are being played in the Hermleigh gymnasium.

Playing in tonight's second game will be Hermleigh and Chuck Wagon, the only teams not yet defeated in the league. The winner of that game will advance to the tourney finals, while the loser will take on the winner of the Brooks-D&H tilt.

Brooks downed D&H 78-48 in the first round of the tourney and lost to Hermleigh 48-36 in the second round. D&H beat National Guard 50-39 in the consolation bracket.

Hermleigh had defeated Gail 87-49 before taking Brooks. Chuck Wagon, which downed National Guard 61-56 in the first round, drew a bye in the second round.

Ira Girl Cagers Go To Canyon Friday

Thirteen Ira girls, basketball bi-district champions of this area, will leave early tomorrow morning for Canyon to enter the Region I Class B tournament.

Their first game will come at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night against Bledsoe, champion of District 7B, which beat Flower Grove of 8B in a bi-district game 63-33. Ira downed Hobbs 58-41 for bi-district honors.

The tourney will get underway at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with Silverton meeting Stratford. Silverton, champ of 9B, downed McAdoo of 10B 44-38, while Stratford of 2B took Follett of 1B 53-52. At 4:30 o'clock, Rochester, of 14B will meet the bi-district winner out of the Panhandle districts 11B and 12B. Rochester downed Magargel of 13B 50-40. At 7 o'clock Roosevelt of 6B will take on Cotton Center of 4B. Roosevelt defeated Bula of 5B 68-65, while Cotton Center edged Lazbuddie of 3B 53-51.

Those games will complete the first round. If Ira wins tomorrow night, it will take on the winner of the Cotton Center - Roosevelt game at 11:15 Saturday morning. The winner of the Silverton-Stratford game and the game between Rochester and bi-district champ from districts 11 and 12 will meet at 9:45 Saturday morning.

Losers of the second round game will play in a consolation tilt at 7 o'clock Saturday night. The championship game will be held at 8:30 o'clock that night.

Ira, winner of three tournaments this year besides bi-district championship, is taking a 30-4 record into the game. Miss Betty Gandy and Bill Allen coach the team.

Girls to travel to Canyon are Baleria Eubank, Peggy Taylor, Jo Ann Ford, Dixie Lee Kimmel, Mary Turner, Nita Thomas, Genella Vinson, Olivia Vinson, Margaret Clinkenbeard, Barbara Martin, Darla Bryant, Mary Nell Mosley, and Jo Ann Brooks.

Dillon Holds 6-Team Practice Meet Here

A large number of candidates for places on the Snyder High School track team will face their first competitive tests of the year tomorrow afternoon when a six-team practice meet is held on the Snyder cinders.

Coming here to compete with the Snyder tracksters are those from Colorado City, O'Donnell, Stamford, Hermleigh, and Hobbs.

The meet will get underway at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, according to track coach Jack Dillon.

Most of these teams are practicing for their first regular meet, which will be the third annual Canyon Reef Relays in Snyder next weekend.

Colorado City and O'Donnell probably have the fastest track men of those coming here tomorrow. They are expected to give the others good practice competition.

Dillon will use every boy on the track squad in the meet to see what they can do with competition. The number of those to be entered in the Canyon event by Dillon depends partly on how they fare in tomorrow's running.

Those Dillon will place in events tomorrow are:

120-yard high hurdles, Berry and Fields.

180-yard low hurdles, Larry Dixon, sophomore; Bud Morgan, freshman; and Earl Rhoades, junior.

880 - yard run, Larry Mullins, freshman.

Those to be used in various relays will include Dyer, Crowell, Cross, Gary, Hill, Langley, Smith, Merritt, Shaw, Dean Staton, freshman; and Bill Jennings, freshman.

Pole vault, Harold Hooks, junior; Smith, and Dickie Martin, freshman.

Broad jump, Cross, Hooks, Langley, and Berry.

Discus, Doug James, senior; and Robert James, junior.

None had yet been chosen for the high jump.

Ten U.S. Golfers In National Mexican

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Ten U.S. golfers are included in the pairings for the $5,000 National Mexican Open Golf Tournament which gets under way Thursday at the rolling hill course of Chapultepec Golf Club.

All-Southwest Team Youngest In History

By The Associated Press

The all - Southwest Conference basketball team averages 6 feet 4.4 inches per man with a scoring average of 455 points.

It's probably the youngest team in history, carrying three sophomores, one junior and one senior.

Dick O'Neal, 6-7 TCU center, was the only unanimous choice of the seven coaches picking the team for the Associated Press, O'Neal, a sophomore, scored 676 points, a new season record.

Lacking only one vote of being unanimous was Jim Krebs, 6-8 SMU sophomore who was second in scoring with 521 points.

Senate Takes Look At Stock Market

By JAMES MARLOW
The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in more than 20 years the Senate today began a full investigation of the stock market. The cause: the market boom which has lasted 18 months. Prices are the highest in history.

The purposes:

1. To see if there is danger the boom may end in a bust like that of 1929. The last Senate investigation, 1933-34, grew out of that bust.
2. To examine market practices and operations under the government restrictions and regulations imposed since the last investigation.
3. To see whether new regulations are needed to protect both the national economy and the general public from excesses or disaster.

The inquiry, made by the Senate Banking Committee, opened on a soothing note. The chairman, Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark), emphasized he doesn't want to rock the boat — just look at it. A "friendly" inquiry, he calls it.

At least 20 top specialists in finance and industry, in and out of government, will appear as witnesses. After listening three weeks the committee will digest what it learned and then start again.

The scope of the investigation can be understood from Fulbright's statement that his committee sought as witnesses people qualified in these fields:

The general economic picture, business conditions, credit and tax policies, investment companies, pension fund and union fund participation in investments, equity financing and stock exchange member trading.

If it's Fulbright's hope calmness will pervade the inquiry throughout, it is a hope which may have been misplaced. With all those experts sounding off, heated conflict seems inevitable.

On Feb. 1 the committee mailed a questionnaire to 5,500 brokers, dealers, investment advisers, financial writers and economists. About 22 per cent replied.

In general the participants in the buying and selling of stocks expressed full confidence in the market. The economists as a group reflected, as Fulbright described it, a greater degree of caution.

Fulbright pointedly expressed some concern about the impulsive people who have money to invest and may make decisions on the basis of one day's testimony by one witness. He said:

"I want to suggest, merely as a cautionary reminder, that what may be heard on any single day from a high source may be attacked root and branch on the following day by an equally high source."

This was another way of saying: No matter what you hear from day to day, don't start guessing about the market until the full story is unfolded.

Soviet Press Alarmed Over Absenteeism

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press is lashing out against worker absenteeism from factories and against doctors who provide sick certificates to "drunkards and loafers."

This campaign is most significant now that the Soviet government is headed by Marshal Nikolai Bulganin as premier and with Marshal G. K. Zhukov as defense minister. If the factories are going to produce more under the direction of Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev, the Communist party leader, no loafing, malingering or fake sick leaves can be tolerated.

This is made plain in one of those satirical articles for which the Soviet press is famous. It is published in Trud, official organ of the Central Trades Union Council, and it charges that too many doctors are "protecting" workers fake bellyaches at the expense of the state.

Trud tells the story of "the patient P., who had drunk too much whisky and beer the day before and therefore did not go to work."

He went to a doctor—a woman doctor—and complained of a stomach ache, asking for a certificate to excuse him from work.

"But," relates Trud, "as the doctor examined him more closely her face grew stern and she said: 'Man, stop pretending and go to work.'"

Then P. demanded an examination by the health commission, which also found nothing wrong with him, though he now claimed to be suffering from grippe and infection. The health commission examiners recommended that he "go to work—that is your best remedy."

P. went to another doctor, complaining of sore throat and nose and ear infection. Refused again he went to a nerve specialist.

"The nerve specialist," complains Trud, "proved to be kinder than the others . . . Although she was an experienced doctor, she gave this 'patient' a sick certificate."

Meals Featuring Fish Give Chance To Build Recipe File

The Lenten season brings meals featuring fish to the front in many homes, and affords all cooks an opportunity to build their recipe file on fish dishes.

Briefly, here are the various cooking methods for fish, already cleaned and cut up. Fillets, thin strips cut from the sides of the fish, and steaks, thicker pieces sliced across the body of the fish, are the most common cuts.

BROILING: Dust fillets or steak with flour, dot with butter, and sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika. Broil fillets on one side only, for 10 to 15 minutes. Broil fish steaks on both sides, for slightly longer period. Baste with butter once or twice during broiling.

BAKING: Place fillets or steaks in greased baking pan. Add salt, pepper, and paprika and dot with butter. Bake in oven pre-heated to 400 degrees F., basting with butter or white wine, if desired. This requires approximately 20 to 40 minutes, depending on the fish. For more polish, marinate the fish before baking in French dressing or your favorite concoction of herbs and liquids.

DEEP FAT FRYING: This is an excellent treatment for fillets. Heat fat only to the smoking point. Blot fillets between paper towels. Dip in milk, then in cracker crumbs or use a prepared batter mix. Fry 5 to 7 minutes; drain on paper towels.

PAN FRYING: Blot fillets or steaks between paper towels, and dredge both sides lightly with flour. Heat to smoking point enough fat to cover bottom of frying pan. Fry over medium heat 10 to 15 minutes, depending on fish, turning pieces gently with broad turner when first side is done.

POACHING: This style produces a tender fish bursting with moisture and demanding a distinctive sauce. Use a deep pot with a tight lid, and a basket or rack to hold the fish. Boil water below the level of the rack. Wrap fillets or steaks in parchment or cheesecloth and place in rack. Cover pot and consult cookbook for required poaching, generally about 15 minutes for a pound.

SAUTEING: This process is a Continental favorite, involving simmering fillets or steaks in butter, herbs and wine or fish stock, and serving them in the liquid.

It is difficult to give exact cooking times since these depend on the kind of fish and the thickness of the pieces. Fish steaks, being thicker than fillets, require longer cooking time. Fish is ready to eat when it loses the semi-transparent look of raw fish and separates easily with a fork. But do not overcook. And serve immediately on pre-heated plates.

BAKED FILLETS IN PINEAPPLE JUICE

2 pounds fish fillets
Salt and pepper
½ cup pineapple juice
6 slices pineapple

Cut fillets into serving size pieces. If you are using frozen fillets, allow them to defrost only until they can be separated easily. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and place in shallow baking pan; pour pineapple juice over fillets. Arrange pineapple slices alongside fish and bake in a hot (400 degrees F.) oven 15 or 25 minutes, depending on thickness of fish. Makes 6 servings.

FILLETS BAKED IN SPANISH SAUCE

2 pounds fillets
¼ cup chopped onion
3 tablespoons butter or other fat, melted
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups canned tomatoes
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon sugar
Dash pepper
1 bay leaf
1 whole clove

Cook onion in butter until tender. Blend in flour. Add remaining ingredients except fillets and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Remove bay leaf and clove. Arrange fillets in a well greased shallow baking dish and cover with sauce. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 25 to 30 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Garnish and serve hot. Serves 6.

FILLETS A LA ORANGE

Cut fillets into serving size portions. Sprinkle with salt and white pepper. Cut peel from 1 orange, being careful to remove only a thin layer. Slice into thin strips. Cook about 2 minutes in boiling water. Drain. Finish peeling orange and slice; set aside for use as garnish. Melt 3 tablespoons butter in a frying pan. Add ½ small onion, minced, and cook until tender. Add juice of 1 lemon, juice of 1 orange and ¼ cup water. Bring to a boil. Add fish fillets. Simmer, covered, 10 to 12 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Remove fish to heated platter and keep warm until sauce is ready.

Cook liquid in pan until it is reduced to about ½ cup. Cream 1 tablespoon butter with 1 teaspoon flour. Stir into liquid and cook until thickened. Taste and season if needed. Pour sauce over fish fillets. Garnish with orange slices. Serve immediately.

RAREBIT STUFFED FILLETS

4 fish fillets
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ cup milk
½ pound Cheddar cheese, grated
¼ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
⅛ teaspoon red pepper
¼ teaspoon Worchestershire sauce
2 cups soft bread crumbs

Twirl fillets around inside of greased muffin cups. If necessary, trim fillets. Put butter or margarine and milk in top part of double boiler and heat. Set over hot water and stir in cheese and seasonings. Heat only until rarebit is smooth. Remove from heat. Stir in bread cubes. Spoon rarebit into fillet twirls. Bake at 350 degrees F. 20 to 25 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Loosen around fillet with a knife, carefully lift out with spoon onto hot plater. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

SWEET SOUR BARBECUED FISH

1 pound fish fillets
½ cup lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup salad oil
½ teaspoon black pepper
2 tablespoons granted onion
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons brown sugar

Mix all ingredients, except fish, well, stirring until sugar is completely dissolved. Place fillets in shallow greased baking dish and pour sauce over them. Broil about 2 inches from heat until brown and tender, turning once and basting frequently with sauce. Serve at once. Serves 3 or 4.

WHITING MEUNIERE

If frozen whiting fillets are used, thaw before using. If whole whiting are used, clean and open whiting, take out backbones and roll the fish in seasoned flour. Saute in butter or margarine in a shallow pan. After whiting is browned, sprinkle with grated cheese and brown under broiler heat. One pound whiting fillets will serve 2 or 3.

STUFFED FLOUNDER FILLETS

1 pound spinach
2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
4 flounder fillets, about 1½ lbs.
2 tablespoons fat
3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup finely diced onion
2 tablespoons minced parsley
¼ cup sour cream

Cook spinach. Drain well. Chop finely. Combine chopped spinach with bread crumbs, salt, pepper and mustard. Place a portion of spinach mixture on broad end of each fillet. Roll up and fasten with toothpick. Brush fat over rolled fillets. Arrange fish on heat proof serving platter. Combine contents of can of mushrooms and cornstarch in a small saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Pour around fish rolls. Sprinkle rolls with onion and parsley. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until fish flakes easily, about 30 minutes. Remove from oven, top fillets with sour cream. Place fish under broiler just long enough to brown slightly, about 5 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

SNAPPER SAN GERONIMO

4 pound red snapper
½ pound butter
1 sliced onion
2 large tomatoes
1 bay leaf
Olives, six cut in halves
½ green pepper
6 ounces rum

Simmer red snapper in the butter for abut 10 to 15 minutes. Add onion, tomatoes, bay leaf, green pepper, and rum. Simmer about 20 minutes more until onion and pepper are cooked. Season with salt and pepper and serve immediately. Serves 6.

POMPANO EN PAPILLOTE

4 pompano fillets
1½ tablespoons butter
3 scallions, chopped
1½ tablespoons flour
4 chopped mushrooms
2 tablespoons white wine
2 cups fish broth
1 egg yolk, beaten
½ cup crab meat
Salt, pepper and cayenne

Make a broth of the fish bones; strain, season and poach fillets in it 5 minutes. Remove. Melt butter, simmer scallions, including the center part of their green tops, in butter until they begin to brown. Add mushrooms. Stir in flour and simmer 5 minutes without browning. Slowly stir in wine and broth in which fillets were poached. Stir and simmer until sauce thickens. Season, take from heat, stir in egg yolk.

Have ready heart shaped buttered white papers, cut large enough to enfold fillets. Lay each fillet on its paper, put a pile of crab meat on it, cover well with sauce and fold the fillet over it. Then double the paper over the fillet, folding edges of paper together so none of the juices can escape — a few paper clips help secure it. Lay the paper packages in a butter pan and bake about 10 minutes in a hot oven. Don't open papers until they are on the plates at the table, when each person opens his own.

FISH PARMESAN IN SCALLOP SHELLS

1½ pounds fish fillets
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 medium conion, chopped
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
Dash cayenne pepper
1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Cut fillets into about 4 pieces and place pieces side by side in frying pan. Add enough water to make about 1 inch in depth. Bring water to boil. Turn heat down so that water simmers. Cover pan and let fish poach about 10 minutes or intil fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Drain water from fish and break fish into shreds with two forks.

Melt butter in a saucepan. Add onion and cook until onion is tender. Remove pan from heat. Stir in flour, prepared mustard, salt and cayenne pepper. Add milk and stir until well mixed. Return pan to heat and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and Parmesan cheese, reserving enough cheese to sprinkle on top. Stir in flaked fish. Spoon into 4 to 6 scallop shells or 4 individual baking dishes. Sprinkle tops with cheese. Brown under broiler and serve immediately. Makes 6 appetizer servings or 4 main dish servings.

FISH CHILI HOT POT

1 pound red kidney beans
1½ quarts boiling water
1½ teaspoons salt
1 cup rice
2 sliced peeled onions
2 sliced seeded cored sweet green peppers
1 minced peeled section garlic
2 tablespoons margarine
1 tablespoon chili powder
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 can tomato paste
1 pound fish fillets

Pour the boiling water over the beans. Add the salt. Cover and let stand 50 minutes. Then boil 1¼ hours. Add the rice, and cook together until both are almost tender, about 20 minutes. Meantime, saute the onions, green peppers and garlic in the margarine until they change color. Stir into the bean and rice mixture. Then add the chili powder and pepper and the tomato paste mixed with an equal amount of water. Simmer 10 minutes. Then cut the fish in ½-inch pieces and add. Simmer 20 minutes. Serve very hot in shallow bowls. Serves 8.

FILLET OYSTER STUFFING

½ cup chopped oysters
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
Juice of half a lemon
2 tablespoons chopped celery
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Combine oysters, crumbs, lemon juice, celery and seasonings. Moisten with melted butter. Wipe 1 pound fillets with a damp paper towel. Place half of fillets on a grased oven proof platter. Spread with stuffing. Cover with other fillets. Dot with butter or margarine. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 25 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Makes 4 servings.

LEMON DRESSING

4 cups dry bread cubes
3 tablespoons chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
4 tablespoons lemon juice
Sage or poultry seasoning to taste
Water to moisten, as desired

Combine bread, celery salt, pepper, and sage or poultry seasoning and add butter and lemon juice. Add sufficient water to moisten. Chopped parsley may also be added. Put mounds of this dressing on top of salmon steaks, make fish rolls, stuff fish steaks, or place steaks in baking dish with dressing between them.

CUCUMBER STUFFING

3 tablespoons chopped cucumbers
¾ cup celery, chopped
6 tablespoons butter melted
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon thyme, oregano or poultry seasoning
4 cups day old bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt

Mix cucumbers, celery and butter. Add seasonings and bread crumbs and mix thoroughly. If dressing seems dry, add 2 tablespoons water, milk or fish stock to moisten.

NEWBURG SAUCE

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 tablespoons flour
1¼ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
Dash cayenne
3 cups milk
3 egg yolks, beaten
1-3 cup dry sherry

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan; add flour and stir until blended. Add seasonings and milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly. Add sherry slowly, stir over low heat until smooth, being careful not to let the sauce reach the boiling point. Pour sauce over fish and return to oven with control at 300 degrees F. Bake for 10 minutes or until piping hot. (Fish has already been baked for 20 minutes at 400 degrees F.) With two pounds of fish, makes 6 servings.

Radiation Fall In Colorado Increases

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Ten times the amount of any previous radiation fell on Colorado after Tuesday's atomic test in Nevada, a University of Colorado scientist reports.

Ed Keller, professor of chemistry, said yesterday the fallout was still well under the danger mark. He said a strong high-altitude air current probably carried the invisible radioactive particles 600 miles from the test site near Las Vegas, Nev., over the Rocky Mountains to Colorado.

One For The Birds

CUMBERLAND, R. I. (AP) — Here's the report firemen turned in after extinguishing a minor fire yesterday in the peak of an abandoned house: "A bird had carried a lighted cigaret butt to its nest, setting it afire. Damage negligible."

NEW BORDEN LIVESTOCK PAVILION

The building above is the new Borden County livestock exhibit pavilion, built this year at a cost of approximately $10,000. It will be used for the first time Saturday to house the 1955 edition of the Borden County Junior Livestock Show. It is 40 feet by 125 feet, and is located just off the Borden County High School campus on two acres of land donated by Sid Reeder, county sheriff. The building replaces an old wooden structure as site for the county show. (Lee Watson photograph)

Funston Declares No Crash Indicated

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP)—The President of the New York Stock Exchange, G. Keith Funston, said today the 18-month-old boom in stock prices rests on firm foundations and does not foreshadow any 1929-type crash.

Funston was the first witness called by the Senate Banking Committee in a "friendly study" of the stock market—the first such congressional inquiry since sensational hearings of 1933 and 1934.

Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark), who applied the term "friendly" to the investigation, said in an advance statement its purpose is "education, not accusation." Fulbright said the committee wants to find out if changing government and business policies "have influenced the present behavior of the stock market for good or ill."

The committee's senior Republican, Sen Capehart of Indiana, spoke out in blunter language, declaring in an interview:

"My interest is to find out if there is any skulduggery or rigging of the market. I have no reason to believe there is, but I shall be watchful for facts or information to that end."

The inquiry opened with stock market prices already higher than in 1929 and still rising. The boom which began in September 1953 carried prices to the highest level in their history at the close of on the New York exchange yesterday.

The Associated Press averaged of 60 selected stocks rose to $162 yesterday, an increase for the day of $1.40.

Funston said in prepared testimony, however, that these prices can't really be compared with 1929 figures because, for one thing, of "the substantial decline in the value of the dollar in the past quarter century."

"The price inflation we have seen since 1929," he said, "would by itself mean that—in terms of purchasing power—prices will not reach 1929 levels until—in terms of dollars—they exceed 1929 levels by 50 per cent or more."

The stock exchange president went on to say there are "some similarities" between 1929 and 1954 but "it is the differences which are significant."

"We believe," he said, "that the market has been functioning in an orderly manner and that the present market level reflects the public's appraisal of present business conditions and prospects for the future."

To guard against "skulduggery," he said, the exchange has "kept a careful watch for excesses which would indicate unsound conditions in the sale of securities either in our own market or elsewhere."

"Despite evidence that some members of the public have, in certain instances, paid more attention to tips and rumors than was desirable, there is no indication that a generally unwholesome condition has prevailed in our market," he said.

He voiced belief that present regulation of the market adequately protects the public.

Church Wins Legal Victory

ROME, Italy (AP)—The American-led Church of Christ in Italy today won a broad legal victory upholding both its right to operate and to put signs on its places of worship.

A decision by Rome's Tribunal sharply criticized police for twice tearing down signs from the church temple here. It also said the small Protestant group was protected by provisions of the Italian constitution guaranteeing religious liberty.

Rome attorney Giacomo Rosapepe, who has represented the church in its long fight to gain full recognition from the Interior Ministry, said the decision represented a big step toward that goal.

The church has sought since World War II to obtain recognition from the ministry, which supervises non-Catholic sects. It would enable the group's ministers to operate freely and exempt their properties from taxes.

Several flareups have been reported between Italian authorities and the Church of Christ in recent years, including a brief ban on activities of the sect in September, 1952.

An informed Italian source said then that the friction arose over the church's missionary activities and efforts at conversions in this predominantly Roman Catholic nation. Other Protestant denominations, including the Baptists and the Methodists, have operated in Italy for years.

Cline R. Paden of Brownfield and Lubbock, Tex., said a third sign has been prepared for the entrance to the temple in the Via Achille Papa. Paden was one of the first organizers of the church in Italy.

Police removed the first sign in February, 1954. A 10-month legal battle resulted in a Public Ministry decision in favor of the church, which promptly put up the second sign.

Police clad in civilian clothes pulled down this sign less than 24 hours later. The church immediately appealed to the Tribunal.

Judge Accepts Plea And Grants Divorce

LONDON (AP)—Robert E. Want, 54, told a divorce court judge his wife had:

Packed his lunch with sandwiches made of mud;

Filled his lunchbox with broken glass instead of tea and included a note accusing him of having a secret love life;

Slammed the car door on his fingers;

Hit him with a poker;

Thrown a can of creosote on his suit;

Emptied two buckets of ashes and a pail of wet garbage on him.

Judge Henry Grazebrook granted the divorce.

Dancer's Camouflage Object Of Sabotage

LONDON (AP)—Fan dancer Coral Gaye blushingly reported last night an attempt to sabotage her camouflage.

She said she found—at rehearsal, fortunately—that somebody at the Camberwell Palace Theater had loosened the rivets holding the ostrich feathers on her two fans.

Miss Gaye, who dances clad only in the fans, told a reporter:

"If I had gone on the stage with them without noticing, they would have fallen to pieces."

Canadian officials report that average temperatures in their country are rising at a rate of three degrees every 70 years.

Ward Office Gets Plaques

Employes of the Montgomery Ward & Co. catalog sales office in Snyder received three plaques this week for sales championships.

The awards, made by the firm's territorial office, were for territorial sales championships for December and the fall season and for district sales championship for the same period. The awards were made on a gross sales basis.

The district covers West Texas and New Mexico, while the territory includes Texas, New Mexico, and southern Oklahoma. As a part of the award, Mrs. R. H. Bonner, office manager, represented the local office on an expense-paid trip to Fort Worth for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show and for a company banquet held in Fort Worth.

Employes with Mrs. Bonner in the local office are Mrs. Allen Davis and Mrs. I. D. Roberson.

Robinson Rites Set In Abilene

Funeral services for N. G. (Rob) Robinson, 70, of Abilene, the father of Mrs. Ford Kenner of Snyder, will be held at 10:30 tomorrow morning in the Kiker-Warren hapel in Abilene.

Mr. Robinson died about 10:30 yesterday morning in a Wichita Falls hospital where he was being treated for a heart condition. He had been there for two days before his death.

The Rev. W. C. Ashford, a retired minister and former pastor of the South Side Baptist Church in Abilene where Mr. Robinson was a member, will officiate. Burial will be in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Mr. Robinson moved to Abilene in 1907 from San Angelo. He worked for West Texas Utilities Co. and Lone Star Gas Co. for 34 years, retiring in 1947 because of ill health. Born on July 6, 1884, in Junction, Mr. Robinson married Effie Rhynes in San Angelo on April 14, 1907.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Kenner and Mrs. A. B. Jackson of Ovalo; three grandchildren, Janice Jackson, a student at Abilene Christian College, and Mike and Bruce Kenner of Snyder; three brothers, B. F. Robinson, C. M. Robinson and Luke Robinson, all of San Angelo; three sisters, Mrs. C. E. Oates and Mrs. Burns Yancy of San Angelo and Mrs. Johnny Hornbeck of Casper, Wyo.

Kiwanis Club Meets At Junior High School

Snyder Kiwanis Club members were guests of the Junior High School for their regular luncheon meeting Wednesday.

Immediately after the luncheon a brief business session was conducted and a program was presented by Herman Trigg, Junior High principal. Trigg called attention to teaching methods in the schools, and compared the curriculum with that of schools during earlier periods.

Lee Pitman, guidance counselor, explained some of the tests used here to measure various characteristics of students. The tests, he explained, are valuable aids to faculty members.

Strike Is Carried On With Dignity

By ROBERT E. FORD

IRVING, Tex. (AP)—For strikers, the 200 or so people who walked off their jobs in the school system here certainly are a revelation.

No pickets, no signs, no scowls or growls for newsmen. The strikers smiling and shaking hands with reporters.

And on the other side of the controversy are people who are approachable and pleasant.

That's the way the strike of school teachers and other school workers is being conducted here.

And such language!

The old fashioned, two-fisted strike leader would be lost in a tangle of semantics—the science of words which talk rough but sound smooth.

For instance, to hear William Ward, you would never know the workers hit the bricks or struck. They "discontinued work."

And as a group they're not workers. It's a "personnel group."

And instead of "We're ready to talk," it's, "The principal group has always been available for negotiation and consultation but the school board failed to utilize such services."

It's not only the strike group which knows how to use words. Listen to Act. Supt. Charles Langston, and some school board members who, instead of saying, "Let 'em sue," says, "Channels are provided for disposition of Dr. Beard's case."

A mass meeting of strikers yesterday at the Lions Club on the outskirts of town appeared to be a gathering of the country club set.

The strikers' spokesman, Ward, is a principal at Plymouth Park elementary school—or was until he, along with eight others, was fired Tuesday. He's a youngish-mature man of medium height and stocky build.

At school headquarters in an old red brick building set back into a playyard and surrounded by a standard school fence, matters are equally calm. A couple of policemen—there to prevent strike violence—had pulled chairs outside, leaned them against a building and were soaking up the warm sunshine.

Bearing the brunt of immediate problems there is Langston, named acting superintendent of schools when Beard was fired. Like Ward, he's cordial, but a rangy individual on the spareside.

In 1950, the official census gave Irving a population of 2,621. But in four short years, the city—it's that now—is claiming a population of 25,000. It's been done through a building boom and by reaching out and annexing territory in great gulps—before Dallas and Fort Worth on each side and other towns nearby could grab.

Whatever the merits of the respective sides to the controversy—and the merits do not appear to be very clearcut to anyone—the man and woman on the street hope for one thing:

The dispute must not harm the children.

The heart is among the strongest and must durable organs in the human body, says the American Heart Assn.

A whale's tooth once was the price of a bride in the Fiji Islands, says the National Geographic Society.

Parlays Pension Check Into Sizeable Estate

DENVER (AP)—A 66-year-old pensioner who worked as a night watchman for 80 cents a night parlayed his relief check into a $16,000 estate, court records showed today.

Fred F. Gilbert, whose general assistance pension averaged $30 a month for 15 years, died of pneumonia Jan. 2.

Administrators of his estate, swelled through oil stock speculation, were ordered to return $5,675 to the Denver Welfare Department. County Judge David Brofman held Gilbert "took advantage" of authorities in claiming the pension.

Marilyn Has A Date With Judge April 6

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Marilyn Monroe has a date with a judge April 6.

The blonde actress was due in Municipal Court yesterday on a traffic warrant issued No. 21 charging her with driving without a driver's license.

Attorney W. Claude Fields appeared for her and showed the court a letter from her in New York. He said he expects Miss Monroe here about April 6.

Morris Brown, of Champaign, Ill., a stranger, sent in the bond of $100 required to guarantee her court appearance. He wrote he did it as a "friendly gesture."
