Eighteen Miles Terraces In 11 Demonstrations

Farmers Are Interested In Conserving Soil and Moisture

Eleven fields ranging from 16 to 60 acres each with an average fall of 30 feet to the field required a total of 18 miles of terraces in order to efficiently control erosion and conserve the moisture, is the report made by the county agent for January and February.

Never before in the history of the work has the effect of one demonstration so thoroughly sold the idea to the people of a county. Since the demonstration put on by A. K. (Dad) Short and M. R. Bentley, Mr. Homann has not been able to meet the demands of the farming people. This, we feel, is one of the greatest steps made by the farmers of the county and assures us that the progressive thinkers are planning on a safer agriculture.

Rain has prevented much of the work being done while small grain has taken a large acreage. Had it not been for these two factors the agent believes he could have spent each day in February conducting terracing demonstrations, and a good number of the 454 farms of the county would have been terraced.

STEWARDSHIP MEETING WILL BE HELD HERE

The Junction Presbyterian Church will have a stewardship conference in the Episcopal Church tomorrow, Friday, February 27, at two o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. L. E. Selfridge, Superintendent of Home Missions in Western Texas Presbytery, and Rev. A. V. Board, Pastor of the Beacon Hill Presbyterian Church of San Antonio, will lead the conference.

NEW FILLING STATION UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Work is under way on the St. Clair Filling Station on the O. S. T. just east of the Borden Ice Company. Mr. Carl Glossbrenner will be in charge of the station.

Mr. Glossbrenner announces that work will be rushed and that he hopes to open the station the last of March.

Mr. Leslie Winslett is building a new cottage that will cost approximately three thousand dollars when completed, in the Heyman Addition to Junction. Mr. Winslett was recently married to Miss Warren and they are starting right by building a new home.

Hon. Coke Stevenson Is Junction Visitor

Hon. and Mrs. Coke R. Stevenson were week-end visitors in Junction. It is their first visit home since the Legislature was convened in January. Coke had some business matters to attend to and stayed over until Monday to look after some legal business in the district court which opened on February 26 in Junction Monday.

Coke has been very busy since the Legislature was convened. He has written and introduced a highway bill that is being favorably commented on by men who have given highway matters much thought and consideration. As soon as the bill is printed we shall publish it in the Eagle. He is also interested in other bills that have taken up much of his time.

His advice and counsel in legislative halls is in demand. He returned to Austin Monday afternoon.

"Fifteen Cent Mohair" Is Dole To Struggling Rancher

"Fifteen cent mohair" is generally heard from ranchmen following the meeting in Washington which closed the first of this week when the mohair advance was decided upon. While an advance of 20 and 30 cents was decided upon, growers state that it will net them about 15 and 25 cents.

The following statement is taken from the San Angelo Morning Times:

"Representing what goat raisers believe is a good arrangement, conditions considered, the Federal Farm Board has fixed 20 cents for old hair and 30 cents for kid hair as the advance on mohair landed in Boston, following a four-day meeting at Washington between directors of the Wool Marketing Corporation and the farm board.

"The grower in Texas will net 15 cents on old hair and 25 cents on kid hair under this advance. The 1930 mohair will be held off the market, the farm board further agreed, until the spring 1931 mohair is sold. They then propose to deduct 10 per cent of the 1931 sale price, the deduction to be not less than three cents per pound, to create a reserve to cover possible loss on the 1930 mohair. After this deduction, the balance of the proceeds from the 1931 mohair sale will be remitted to the grower.

"Announcement of this arrangement was made yesterday by J. M. Lea, who represents the National Wool Marketing Corporation."

P.-T.A. Birthday Anniversary Is Celebrated Here

Cake Served as Refreshments To Audience At 10 cents A Slice

A good crowd was present Monday afternoon at the anniversary program of the local Parent-Teacher's Association. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. George Robert Pepper, president of the association. After the devotional and business meeting, Mrs. Conrad T. Holkamp was in charge of the program.

Miss Nellie Bennett led the community singing and Mrs. W. H. Baker sang a solo, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them." She was accompanied after the piano by Mrs. Guy Wynne. The words of the song were read by Mrs. Olney Patterson before they were sung by Mrs. Baker.

At each meeting the room with the largest number of parents present is awarded a book. The prize went to Miss Owen's room at this meeting. The ceremony accompanying the lighting of the candles on the anniversary cake was interesting. The cake was served with coffee at a small fee of ten cents a slice, the receipts going into the treasury of the Parent-Teachers Association.

The Segovia Sunday School will meet next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Segovia Schoolhouse. Immediately after the Sunday School hour, Rev. G. W. Crofoot, pastor of the Junction Presbyterian Church, will preach. Everyone is cordially invited to these services.

WEATHER REPORT

Showers last Saturday and Sunday mornings supplied Kimble County with the usual weekly moisture. A little norther the first of the week caused a little drop in temperature. It has been partly cloudy and damp all week with the lowest temperature this (Thursday) morning with frost and thin ice. It is so damp that it is not believed the frost will do any damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carpenter and little daughter were called to Kerrville last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carpenter's little three-year-old nephew, William Rawson Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris of Olney, Texas.

AIKEN, S. C.—B. E. Hair, city councilman here, whipped his line across a narrow pond and the singing reel told him he had cast too far.

With a hefty jerk, he reeled in and lifted from the tangled grass on the opposite side a large raccoon that had been hooked in the ear.

Calves, Goats Sheep and Poultry Will Be On Display

County Agent R. E. Homann announces that everything is in readiness for the second annual 4-H Club Livestock Show which will be held in Junction Saturday, February 28. With favorable weather one of the largest crowds ever seen in Junction is anticipated.

This has been a good winter on livestock and the demonstrations will reveal the nature of the work being done by County Agent R. E. Homann. The finest fat calves ever seen in Kimble County will be on display Saturday. Poultry, hogs, sheep and goats will also have their place in the show. This show will reveal what proper care and a balanced ration will do for a calf. The 4-H Club members will have 17 calves in the show weighing from 800 to 1,050 pounds. These calves have gained from two to three pounds a day since they were put on feed about the first of last September.

The show will be held on the Highland Chevrolet lot across the street from the postoffice. Mr. W. I. Marshall of San Angelo will make the awards and from Mr. Marshall's past record as a livestock judge it is believed that no better man could have been selected.

According to the county agent a list of handsome awards are in store for the boys and girls who have been active in their demonstration work this year as follows:

- 1. Registered Hereford heifer donated by Gordon Stewart.
- 2. Pair of show made boots.
- 3. 10-K Solid gold medal.
- 4. 10-K rolled gold medal.

Poultry, sheep and goats and hog awards will be the same throughout.

1. Sterling silver medal.
2. French bronze medal.
3. Bronze medal.
A beautiful leather show halter will be awarded the boy or girl with the best trained calf. All of the medals are beautifully finished with interchangeable steer, sheep poultry and hog panels, offset by cross-grain.

Cheap Eggs Reduce Poultry Profits Here

Four Kimble County poultry demonstrators with a total of 211 birds enrolled in the county contest were able to show a small profit in the month of January. One demonstrator lost $1.28 while the remaining three showed a profit from eggs sold. Eileen Reese, of the Tea Cup community, held the egg record for the month when her 31 Buff Minorcas averaged 16.5 eggs each. D. M. Stewart of the London community was a close second, receiving 12 eggs per bird from his 86 Brown Leghorns. All birds in the four demonstrations averaged 10.3 eggs which is 1.3 eggs above the standard for the state.

Watch these demonstrations and study the feeding methods employed, the equipment used, and the type of birds in the flock.

Only the first string of both teams played. Junction played a better game than Cedar Hill, but were not in as good training as their opponents.

The Senior Class and sponsor wish to express to the room mothers their appreciation for the delightful entertainment Saturday evening. The Senior Class, sponsor, and the high school faculty join in proclaiming this one of the most successful social events of the year.

This is the beginning of the fifth term. Fourth term report cards came out Wednesday. This may account for some of the doubtful looks seen around the campus.

FORD COMFORT

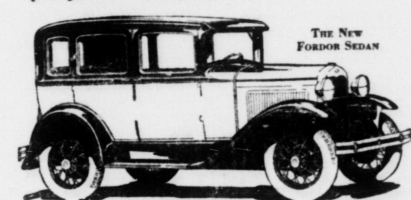

Every new Ford is equipped with four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers

ONE of the fine things about driving the new Ford is the way it takes you over the miles without strain or fatigue. No matter how long the trip, you know it will bring you safely, quickly, comfortably to the journey's end.

The seats are generously wide, deeply cushioned and carefully designed to conform to the curves of the body. Every new Ford has specially designed springs and four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. These work both ways—up and down. They absorb the force of road shocks and also provide a cushion against the rebound of the springs.

Other features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, Rustless Steel and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of the low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

LOW PRICES OF FORD CARS

$430 to $630

F. O. B. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at small cost. You can purchase a Ford on economical terms through the Authorized Ford Finance Plans of the Universal Credit Company.

World Cruise For Seniors By Room Mothers

Last Friday the Seniors received invitations to be on board ship for a cruise around the world taking off from the court house at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, February 21.

As passengers arriving at the dock they received passports to be filled and inspected before tickets were received from Captain Guy C. Moses. Passengers were assigned to their sections of the boat, in which they were to travel, and the ship left dock.

The first landing was made on the coast of Mexico, the home of Judge and Mrs. Roy King. The Mexican spirit was brought out by the decorations. The walls were picturesque with their knives, guns, hats and flags. The room was dimly lighted by a small Mexican lamp. The bar, tended by Senorita Teeny King and Senor Luzon Tinsley held much merriment for the guests.

The winner of the amusing contest was Mr. M. B. Bethel. He was awarded a ship vase, symbolic of the nature of the contest. Mexican chili and tortillas were served by Senorita y Senor garcons. Pipes and cigars of licorice bearing Mexican trade marks were attractive plate favors.

The next port to be visited was Japan, the home of Mrs. Lucy Motley. The flag of Japan was placed above the door. The festooning of fringe on the doors was of red and blue crepe paper. The lights were shaded with the same hues casting a pretty glow over the room. The guests were seated on the sofa pillows on the floor, a characteristic of the Japanese. Attractive open Japanese umbrellas further carried out the motif. Mr. Earl Bowers proved to be the winner of the contest held here and was awarded a Japanese basket filled with tea cookies. Misses Billy Goodwin and Bernice Lister were attractive little Japs and served the tea and tea cakes. Miniature Japanese umbrellas were plate favors.

The ship next set sail for China, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jordan. Audrey and Dick Jordan, dressed as little "chinese," greeted the visitors. The contest held here, which was to make as many words as possible with the two words, "Senior Class," was won by Leonard Dunbar, and he was awarded a Chinese incense burner. Rice served with cream and sugar was the refreshment in China. Small white bags labeled "China Rice" were attractive favors.

Scotland was the next destination of the travelers. This was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hubbell. Two Scotch lads were John Riley Gardner and James Hubbell. The refreshments, typical of Scotland, were red lemonade and oatmeal cookies. Pecan candy and fudge were also served. Many colored plaids were the favors of Scotland.

The ship next anchored at Denmark, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Farmer. Characteristics of the Danish people were fishing supplies and a stork's nest on the front porch and the flag on the front porch hung above the door. A life-saving contest was held. The winning side of this contest, which was Raymon Schneider's side, was awarded two packages of "life savers." Cheese and cracker sandwiches and buttermilk were refreshments served ed here. Small celluloid fish were plate favors. Misses Mary Farmer and Froggie Linn were attractively costumed as a Danish couple and added to the atmosphere of Denmark.

The next place was our dear United States, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schneider. Inspection port had to be passed to gain entrance of the United States. This port was just outside the coast. All passed the port and gained entrance to the United States. Red, white and blue paper on the chandeliers and red, white and blue hatchets and cherries further carried out the scheme of a George Washington birthday party. Miss Lenora Riley and George Robert Pepper were attractively costumed as Martha and George Washington. An original contest of putting Seniors last names as certain definitions was won by Miss Vernelle Tinsley. The prize awarded was a miniature hatchet tied with red, white and blue. Strips of paper bearing incidents of interest in the life of Washington were passed and read by the members of the party. Martha and George Washington served attractive plates of refreshments consisting of carrot-fruit salad topped with a cherry, saltine wafers, angel food cake iced in red, and hot chocolate. Candy wrapped in log green crepe paper with small hatchets stuck in them were attractive favors. The guests celebrated Washington's birthday a few minutes and then departed.

MARGARET HUBBELL

Margaret Hubbell, known as "Shorty" to the seniors, hails from Ft. McKavett. We do not know where Margaret acquired her nickname, because she doesn't fit it very well. Shorty is a decided blonde with wavy hair and greyish blue eyes. She was a member of the J. H. C. last year and the Junior candidate for May Queen. This year she is on the committee of the Senior Class and is jump center on the basketball team. She wants to be a beauty specialist.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Wednesday, February 11, the room mothers surprised the Juniors with a pink tea party. Miss Knight asked the Juniors to remain at 3:30, and then Mesdames Barnes and Motley came in with the refreshments. They consisted of pink cake and iced lemonade. Short talks were made by Eleanor Highsmith, president of the class, and Harry Witt, vice-president. The party was in honor of Blackie and Brownie Motley's and Maud Boone's birthdays. Every one enjoyed this surprise.

Country Correspondence

LONDON LOCALS

(By G. Lewis)

Mr. Joe Bissett was a business visitor to our town the evening of 18th. Joe is still making his campaign; doesn't seem to realize he was re-elected in November. He is just one who doesn't get over it. "The facts are Joe began life as a boy at the magnificent wage of $10 per month doing general ranch work, part of the time delivering cedar out of the cedar breaks. He worked at this job for one year, saving up some money from this small wage. His first wages with the Schreiner-Hodges Co. was $15 per month. Out of this amount he was able to buy a new necktie once in a while. His ambition to this firm was to render service to his employers and to their customers, never giving a thought to the matter of a raise in wages, leaving that altogether with his employers and giving his time strictly to business. He held this job for a number of years and never asked for a raise of wages, but his employers looked after that matter as fast as his increased proficiency demanded it. Joe got the raise even at times before he thought it justified. Just so it is business men realize the value of their hired help and are willing to pay for it. I would say to the young man beginning in life to do his part and do it well and don't forget that the man who is in the position to employ you knows your worth better by far than you do.

Miss Gussie B. Brewer and her mother were in from the farm Thursday. Miss Gussie says her sheep are doing fine.

Mr. G. W. Hardesty, our commissioner, is doing some good and much needed work on our roads. This work done now saves the roads and saves expense because to wait until the roads got worse would require more work and greater expense.

Dr. Fussell reported a fine catch of fish Thursday of last week. Howard Horn and French Cummins took the fish fever at once and were on their way to the river early Friday morning, returning in the afternoon with an equal amount of fish and fever. I know how to sympathize with the boys.

Miss Melba Walton was missed from school Friday afternoon. She and her father had business at Menard.

A. S. Adams was a business visitor in Brady last week.

Messrs. J. R. Smith and Tom Amberson are among those who went after the finny tribe last week resulting in success.

W. L. Amos had business at Menard last week.

T. E. Pearl invited us to go with him to San Antonio last Friday. Sorry that we could not go. It would have been a pleasant trip.

Mr. Frank Lifeste passed thru London Friday. He used to buy his supplies here; those were the good old days before the automobile, radio and bad checks. We will all get used to the change after a while.

Mr. W. W. Williamson of Menard County was meeting his friends in town Friday. Mr. Williamson informed us that his small grains were fine and had already saved him a feed bill. He also declares his pasture land in good condition and his livestock doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Walton and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Horn contributed to our table supplies this week. Say, can you blame us for thinking the worst is passed.

Mr. Lee Dodd of Menard Co. was in to see us Monday. Mr. Dodd informed us that he has a nice young orchard out and just beginning to bear. Mr. Dodd talks of his orchard as though he considers it a part of his farm needs and he is right.

Rev. W. A. Bentley of Abilene held services at the community hall for the Christian Church Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday morning. All who heard Brother Bentley say he is a clear reasoner and a good preacher. We were favorably impressed with the gentleman personally.

Brother Lewis Cooper filled his regular appointment at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening.

D. F. Draper of Ft. Worth was in town the last of the Dave never fails to call and shake hands with the writer when he comes to London.

The fine rains continue to fall and Kimble County continues to rejoice, and all should reverently give thanks.

NOXVILLE NOTES

(By Mrs. A. T. Whetstone)

Two of our popular young people surprised their many friends last week by getting married. The contracting parties were Mr. Theodore Sofge, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sofge, who have lived on the E. A. McCoy ranch for the past two years, and is a young man of sterling character. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whitworth. She was born and reared in this community and is loved by young and old alike for her blithe, happy disposition. We wish the young couple health, wealth and pleasure as they journey through life together.

Mr. Ed Cowsett has been in the Secor Hospital for the past few days receiving medical treatment. His host of friends are hoping for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Whetstone and daughter, Miss Alayne and Fred Whetstone and wife and children returned Tuesday from Brownwood where they have been visiting for several days with Fire Chief Rance Pettitt and wife and Mrs. G. A. Purviance.

A wedding of much interest to Noxville people was solemnized last week when Mr. Clarence Bierschwale and Miss Annie Mae Russell became husband and wife. Clarence is the son of our former neighbor and ex-commissioner, Mr. Henry Bierschwale. He was reared and educated in Kimble County. He is very popular among the younger set. He has ranched with his father in this vicinity for some years. His broad smile and warm greeting make him a favorite with all. The bride is assistant teacher at the Segovia school and is a sister to our neighbor, Mrs. David Schmidt, and is a young lady of charm and culture. We join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

IVY ECHOES

Our play and sale last Friday night was well attended and proved a success from both a social and financial standpoint. From the sale we netted $12. We are going to oil our school room floors and buy some school room equipment. Thanks to all who came and assisted us.

We got our week-end rain Saturday morning and Sunday morning. Everything looks favorable for an ideal early spring. Spring is always a welcome season, as there seems to be an inspiration in hearing the merry songs of the birds and watching the buds unfurl and the wild flowers bloom from every hill and dale. All this makes us say: "What a beautiful and wonderful world this is!"

Bill Gephart accompanied T. B. Pearl to San Antonio Thursday, returning Friday evening. Those who attended our play from London Friday night were Ave Dell, Loma, and Lester Pearl, Clara Bessie Herbst and Pauline Herbst.

$50,000 Cigarette Contest Under Way

A contest offering fifty thousand dollars in prizes has been announced by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, makers of Camel Cigarettes, with special announcements in practically every newspaper in the United States. Eight days are allowed for submission of essays, the contest closing at midnight on March 4.

Prizes will be awarded for the best answers to the question: "What significant change has recently been made in the wrapping of the Camel cigarette, containing twenty cigarettes, and what are its advantages to the smoker?" Answers are limited to two hundred words in length, must be written on one side of the paper only and are to be mailed to the contest editor, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

First prize is twenty-five thousand dollars, with second and third prizes of ten thousand dollars and five thousand dollars. Numerous smaller prizes will also be awarded. Judges of the contest are Ray Long, president of the International Magazine Company and editor of Cosmopolitan Magazine; Roy Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, and Charles Dana Gibson, internationally known artist and publisher of Life Magazine.

The contest is part of what advertising experts declare is one of the most intensive advertising campaigns ever staged. Practically every daily and county seat weekly newspaper in the country will be used as well as college periodicals and financial newspapers. This campaign is to be followed by an aggressive advertising drive through newspapers, magazines, radio and outdoor display.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY PARTY IS ENJOYED
BY EFFICIENCY CLASS

Thursday afternoon the members of the Efficiency Class of the Methodist Church and a few guests were jointly entertained by Mesdames G. H. House, Calvert Reid, and Clay Secrest, at Mrs. Secrest's residence, with a George Washington party.

Streamers of red, white and blue crepe paper were draped from the corners of the room. Small American flags further carried out the patriotic motif. A miniature cherry tree occupied the center of the floor. Bowls of violets and beautiful ionquill blooms were placed on the piano.

Mrs. Joe Ramsey, the class president, opened the meeting with prayer, after which a business meeting was held, following which an hilarious social was enjoyed.

Mesdames Olney Patterson, B. L. Smith, and Roy Blackburn were appointed leaders for the red, white and blue sides, respectively. A series of most entertaining and amusing contests followed. The white side won the most points and the leader, Mrs. Smith, was presented with a box of chocolate covered cherries which she shared with all.

A delightful little pantomime depicting the scene of George Washington chopping down the cherry tree was presented with Dicky Dane Emmons as George Washington, Mabel Hodges represented George's father and Mary Hal Holland played the part of George's mother. Dicky Dane wore a dainty little colonial costume with blue satin trousers and cape and white silk shirt and blue tricorn shaped hat. Mabel Hodges made a handsome colonial gentleman in her white braided trimmed with a white wig on her head. Mary Hal's costume was typical of the colonial period with a full skirt trimmed with loops of ribbon, which were caught with rosebuds, the basque waist and scoop bonnet completed her attractive costume.

At the close of the afternoon molded salad on lettuce with mayonnaise, pickled beets, tea and cherry tarts with whipped cream were served to Mesdames Alton Childers, Joe Ramsey, J. Holt Smith, E. R. Borden, H. H. Lawler, Lucy Motley, George Cavaness, Hal Holland, Walter Tinsley, L. E. Standifer, Dorothy Westmoreland, Howard Ragsdale, Bolton Boone, B. L. Smith, Odie Wright, Roy Blackburn, J. L. Hodges, Wright of Austin, A. W. Loeffler and the hostesses.

HIGHLAND STUDY CLUB

Her capable assistants were: Mrs. Ridenhower, Miss Elizabeth Hall, Miss Guinn, Miss Jane Bundy and Miss Mary Jane Ridenhower.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames Cowser, Tobin, Wright, Stewart, Ridenhower, Rieck and Misses Louise Marchman, Isabelle Guinn, Elizabeth Hall, Mary Jane Ridenhower, Jane Bundy and Marie Farris.

We were glad to have Mrs. Homer Mansfield, as a visitor. The election of new officers for the coming year are: Mrs. S. S. Bundy, president; Mrs. Aubrey Hill, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Omer Wright, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Earl Hill, secretary; Mrs. Gordon Stewart, parliamentarian; and Miss Marie Farris, publicity.

Ideals without sufficient stamina to back them up are useless.

Misses Mary Ellen and Sallie Blackburn had as their guest the past week-end Miss Elizabeth Kuykendall of San Saba.

IS HOSTESS TO MERRY

After the bridge games, the following prizes were awarded: A red decorated cake board and cover, Merry Wives prize, went to Mrs. Clay Secrest, A Hall's china tea pot, the Ladies Afternoon Card Club prize, was won by Mrs. A. S. Rieck. The guest prize, a bottle of perfume, went to Mrs. Frank Patterson. The honoree was presented with a handsome plaque. Sheep Branding Liquid

You will soon be using branding paints, and when you do, use only such paints that are manufactured for that purpose. Wool manufacturers expect the brands to come off in the scouring.

When the brands in the wool do not dissolve they must be clipped off by hand shears. This is a slow and expensive process and naturally the manufacturer holds it against the price of the wool.

Let everyone use every precaution in putting their wool up as required. And better prices will surely be the result. A neat package with contents nicely packed and clean brings a better price. Many allow their wools handled and sacked in a careless manner—too much trash—sticks—tags—Buck and Black is often found in some sacks with good wool and in consequence is classed No. 2 and even 3.

What little might be gained in weight is more than offset by the discount on the wool, consequently a loss is sustained if you permit your wool sacked in that manner. Every sack should be filled properly and carefully and properly sewed with regular standard twine. Don't use bailing wire. Wools are cheap enough as it is, so don't make them any cheaper.

We have here in stock a complete line of marking paints—twines and wool sacks, such as you will need and we gladly give any information you desire as to how to prepare your wools for the market to obtain the best results.

Sorrow

(By Dorothy Elizabeth Hull)

It was late one afternoon,
The shadows were deep and dark,
And around a little form they gathered
As if to share the sorrow of her heart.

Then down the road she trudged,
Weary from her hard day's work,
And her hands she filled with daisies,
That along the roadside lurked.

Then farther along the road she came Upon a freshly-made mound;
For there her elder sister lay,
Beneath the deep, cold ground.

It was there she placed the daisies,
And the sorrow of her heart unbound;
There the tears fell so freely,
And her sobs came in a more frequent sound.

As she stood there in the silence,
The sun with sadness set,
As he looked at the little one
Whose pale face was so wet.

It was not until the soft winds stirred,
And the birds' sweet singing was hushed
Did she think of her homeward journey,
And saw that it was dusk.

Then from the grave she turned
Her sad and tear-stained face;
And again trod the path alone
With a tired but rapid pace.

El Paso Plant To Slaughter 50,000 Horses This Year

During the present year 50,000 horses will be slaughtered in a plant at El Paso.

The flesh from these animals will not be used for human consumption, as is done in several countries of Europe, but will be manufactured into chicken feed.

The supply of horses comes from the range country around El Paso. In the mountains of New Mexico roam thousands of horses that are wild and of no value, except for slaughtering.

The El Paso plant from May to January, killed 10,000 head of horses.

There is a horse slaughtering plant in San Antonio that uses horse meat in the preparation of biscuits for dogs. It finds a sale for the products over the entire United States, also making exportations to Latin countries in Central and South America.

Large Fig Tree Has Spread Of Seventy-one Feet

The Department of Agriculture of the United States, declares that a fig tree, growing at Parlier, California, is the largest in the world. It is of the Adriatic variety which does not require capriciation as do other fig trees. It is about 45 years old, is eight feet in circumference at the base, and has a spread of 71 feet. Its tallest twig is 40 feet above ground.

Through the stouter branches in the center of the tree, bolts have been set from which wires have been strung to support other weak branches, as the wood of the fig is brittle. A wooden trellis, ten feet high, supports all the lower limbs. When I. N. Parlier, the owner, noticed that the tree was cramped for growing room, its limbs at one end being obstructed by his house, he tore down the back portion of his residence and reconstructed it.

This tree bears a large crop of fruit annually, and the figs have a delicious, nutty flavor. When in leaf, it is large enough for a public playground or a picnic underneath it. On the celebration of Mr. Parlier's golden wedding, three hundred guests were easily seated at tables under this famous tree.

COUNTRYSIDE BROADCASTINGS

By Rev. G. W. Crofoot
Pastor Junction Presbyterian Church

MANY COUNTRY people in this time of agricultural depression, re-adjustment and dwindling incomes, are tempted to discontinue the support of our country churches. We ought to put "first things first," and because of the ills of the times we should try to find a remedy. Difficulties are not things to run away from but to overcome.

THE FACT that the times in which we are living are out work the wisest and best of us should challenge us to methods for supporting a program of religion that will be adequate to meet the needs of the boys and girls, the young men and women, the fathers and mothers of our rural communities.

THE CLIFTON Presbyterian Church, at Maxwellton, West Virginia, has not only adopted the every member canvass and duplex envelope system, but the monthly budget plan. The pastor's salary and one-twelfth of the annual budget to benevolences are paid each month. They have been trying the experiment for two years, and the congregation has never come to the end of the month with a deficit either in pastor's salary or the benevolent gifts.

Because of the Scriptural method of giving and the Divine plan of financing, the Lord's work has not suffered. A SPLENDID congregation met in the Evergreen schoolhouse last Sunday afternoon to worship. We hear it said today that people are not interested in religion. These good people certainly did disprove this statement.

THE FOLLOWING pupils attended the Junction Presbyterian Sunday School last Sunday: Harold and Robert Taylor, Junior and Louise Bowers, Merle Jennings, Bill and Iona Goodwin, Morgan, Melvin and Marlow Taylor, and George and Elizabeth Crofoot. Some were absent because of sickness and other things.

Preserve the quietness and smoothness of your car by using a fuel of high anti-knock rating — and its compression, by using a motor oil that never leaves a moving part unshielded — whether the motor be cold or hot. Flashlike Gasoline and Velvet Motor Oil form the ideal combination. Flashlike Gasoline makes a motor start easily, develop full power quickly, and run smoothly for thousands of miles of added service-life. Velvet Motor Oil has the body and easy-flowing qualities to protect bearings at all driving speeds and temperatures. It holds compression — and increases power.

Being a vaporish review of words that pop into print

BANANA CAR . . . A car used to transport bananas from seaboard to interior markets. The bananas travel in bunches and each car has a gentleman chaperone. This is considered a crowd, so there has been considerable unemployment of late among banana chaperones. Maybe it was a skin game and some slipped up. At any rate bananas grow like fingers; we have them on every hand.

DOLE . . . The expression "to dole out" comes from "dole," to distribute in portions, to give or deal out in a charitable way, as alms. It is associated with smallness, dribble. Offshoots are "doleful," full of dole or sorrow; doldrums, a depressed condition of mind—the dumps.

The unemployment insurance in Great Britain is mistakenly called the "dole." It was launched and operated for several years as a business proposition, not as relief. However, due to the chaotic industrial conditions following the late war certain concessions and exemptions were made so that the plan assumed some aspects of the dole. For example: Men returning from the army, who, of course, had not kept up their premiums or contributions and therefore not entitled to benefits, were, if out of work assumed to have made the payments and were allowed the customary weekly benefit. This was a meager $8.00 and was nicknamed the "dole."

PULASKI . . . (pew-las'sky. Polish pew-las'sky) American Revolutionary general. The General Pulaski U. S. commemorative stamp was issued January 16, 1931.

Jugo-Slavia . . . (you-go-slah'v'ia) A state in south central Europe. Formerly Serbia. Capital, Belgrade.

Jugo-Slav . . . (you-go-slahv') A southern Slav. From Russian jugo, south. Larkin Miller says that people have gone modern, but it is a new wrinkle when You-go-slav.

IL DUCE . . . Italian, meaning "the leader, or commander." Premier Benito Mussolini is called "Il Duce."

The Italian pronunciation is "doo-chay," but Americans call it just plain "doose." V. P. Cannon remarked the other day, "Edgar, just between friends, don't you think our General Butler trumped his Partner's (Uncle Sam) ace when he played the Duce?"

Sheep And Angora Goats Will Be An Important Feature Of Fort Worth Fat Stock Show

TEXAS WOOL PRODUCTION

Texas produced last year 65,738,209 pounds of wool and mohair, the biggest crop it ever had, not excluding the big years in the 80's when sheep were as plentiful as snow flakes in a snow storm. The production is divided as follows:

12 months wool	32,576,509
8 months wool	9,173,412
Fall wool	8,342,625
Spring mohair	7,228,102
Fall mohair	8,417,255

44 STATES MAKING LAWS

State legislatures can always be trusted to enact a grist of new state laws.

A deluge of legislation is now being released in 44 states.

The one big subject for consideration is taxation. The net result of the various sessions will undoubtedly be more taxes instead of less in spite of all pre-election promises of economy and business administration of public affairs.

Exposition Will Be Held From March 7 To 15

The 1931 Sheep and Angora Goat Show at the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show, March 7 to 15, will again be one of the important features of the Ft. Worth Spring Show.

Premiums in the open classes in the Sheep and Angora Goat Department total $3,625. Liberal premiums are being offered on the following breeds of sheep: American Merino, B. type; Delaine Merino, C type; Rambouillet, B & C types; Shropshires, Southdowns, Hampshires; aside from the usual classification in the fat wether and car lot divisions.

A B type fine wool sheep is defined by the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show as one which carries three or more prominent neck folds, one or more of which extend over the top of the neck; one or more distinct folds on a front or rear of both flanks, and one or more folds on thighs, and around the dock or tailhead. A C type is one which is free from skin folds or wrinkles on parts of the body other than neck. A C type sheep may be entirely free from neck folds. Neck folds which do not extend prominently over the top of the neck are not objectionable.

A B type Angora goat defined by this Exposition is one that shows a preponderance of flat mohair locks. This Exposition shall recognize as a C type Angora goat one which shows a preponderance of spiral or ringlet mohair locks.

A special premium classification with premiums totaling $120 is offered on mohair fleeces. A $25 prize is offered for the best fleece 16 inches or over, shown on the goat. The premiums offered in the Angora goat and Mohair classes total $785.

J. V. Drisdale of Val Verde County will make the awards in the fine wool breeding classes, while C. A. Pepper of San Antonio will make the awards in the Angora goat division.

Those interested in securing additional information with reference to the entries in this division, should address a communication to J. B. Davis, Secretary-manager, Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Junction Trade Notes

(By G. G. Co.)

First clips of spring mohair arriving at Junction wool warehouses are forerunners of a fine shearing season. Shearing is now under full headway and warehouses will be filled in a short time. Shearing of sheep will follow a month later and it is estimated 75 per cent of wool clips in this section will be long wool. While the price of wool and mohair may be low in comparison with peak years, the prices of nearly every thing are low. In the grocery's stocks nearly all items are 20 to 30 per cent cheaper than a year ago.

In stock this week: Seed corn, Barley, Rye, Hegira, Kaifir, Wheat, Oats; prices in line. Gann Grocery Company. Beans, mudda onion plants, "Early Wakefield" cabbage plants, in limited quantity.

In New Mexico the "filaria" weed supplies abundant sheep feed in season. In January 1936 H. H. Farmer of Junction scattered several pounds of seed of the New Mexico variety on his range. This winter his range is covered with New Mexico filaria, and he is wondering if he has started something that he could not stop if he wanted to. It is noted that consumption of lamb meat is greater in other sections than where the lamb is produced. In San Francisco, for instance, people eat 26 pounds lamb per capita; in New England 11 pounds per capita; the average for the United States being 5 1/2 pounds, while in the producing section the average is about 2 pounds. A reasonable conclusion is that the producer is not averse to eating lamb meat, but realizes that when he butchers the lamb he stops the growth of its wool.

In stock: Oatmeal in bulk for baby chicks.

All kinds poultry and dairy feed, alfalfa hay. Gann Grocery Company. Choice Kimble County cabbage grown by A. C. Bowman of the fertile Llano Valley.

J. A. Wallace is in London this week engaged in carpenter work. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Gibbs, in from the ranch Saturday drove to Pontotoc for a week-end visit with Mr. Gibbs' parents, who are hale and hearty at the ages of 76 and 74. Miss Kathleen Watson and Miss Myrtle Davey of Watson Divide are in San Antonio for a visit of several weeks with relatives. Mrs. E. J. Carlyle left Saturday for San Antonio to visit a month with her daughter. Mrs. R. R. Lewis and Mrs. Lathrop of Houston are at the beautiful Aubrey-Lewis home on South Llano.

Since we must have vitamins there's no more delightful way to get them than in chilled tomato juice. We have in stock Triple AAA and Heinz tomato juice in tins and in bottles. Gann Grocery Company. "Epicure" the popular French salad dressing. Swift's boneless cooked hams in 1 pound sealed tins, with natural juices, suitable for luncheons, picnics, auto trips.

Saturday, February 28: 4-H Club exhibit in Junction, when some of the finest calves ever assembled in a county show will be exhibited. The splendid results of the 4-H Club work is a tribute not only to the boys and girls engaged in it, but to parents and others who have contributed thought and time to its educational advantages. The Methodist ladies of Junction will serve a Mexican dinner Saturday in the Chase building. And we will have a store full of "Cash Specials" for those who care for them.

A certain small restaurant was kept by a man who prided himself on his cooking. He was amazed to hear a young salesman criticize a pie one day. "Pie, young fellow? Why I made pies before you were born."

Wily Coyotes Dodge Wild Texans' Ropes

Texans who boast of their ability to rope and herd anything on four legs may now have to limit that boast to anything without a bushy tail and the yap-yap of a coyote. Five hundred Texans recently joined in a first annual coyote round-up on Padre Island in South Texas, while 1,000 onlookers and several movie newsreel photographers watched to see the wily coyotes herded into a large pen and duly roped. But they watched and watched and saw no roping. The coyotes refused to be driven, though an estimated 26 were slain.

AS OTHERS SEE US

A backwoods mountaineer one day found a mirror which a tourist had lost. "Well, if it ain't my old dad," he said, as he looked in the mirror. "I never knewed he had his picture took."

He took the mirror home and stole into the attic to hide it. But his actions didn't escape his suspicious wife. That night while he slept, she slipped up to the attic and found the mirror. "Hum-um," she said, looking into it, "so that's the old hag he's been chasing."

Next To Home And Business Comes The Car

Aside from their home and their business, an automobile represents the largest single investment made by most people. It is pointed out by the Motor Equipment Association, which is sponsoring the "Care Will Save Your Car" movement. This movement, which is built around a program of preventive maintenance, is represented in Junction by the Junction Battery and Electric Garage, Leonard F. Cowser, manager.

"In spite of the fact that their car represents such an important investment to practically all drivers, said Mr. Cowser, "less is done to protect and conserve that investment in most cases than in any other instance."

"An owner's investment in an automobile can be protected at no inconvenience to himself through our program of periodic inspection. Under this plan the expensive results of neglected wear and tear can be greatly reduced by making the necessary adjustments, replacements and repairs before they result in conditions that are costly to correct."

The Junction Battery and Electric Garage welcomes the 4-H Club Members to Junction Saturday. We endorse your work and feel that you are rendering Kimble County a great service.
