Industrial Bonds Are Deemed Significant

Mitchell County may have found the needed inducement to bring industry to this area as a result of a meeting between representatives from area taxing entities and First Southwest Investment Company Monday evening.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform local leaders of the new industrial development Corporation Act of 1979 pertaining to industrial bonds," Chamber Manager Starr Greenblatt said.

Industrial bond issuance is not a new concept. It has been used since 1936. Almost every state in the union had enacted legislation providing for industrial bonds by 1960, she said.

Texas was the 47th state to enact this legislation.

The concept of the act is to give rural communities the chance to entice industry by providing long term financing at a low rate.

The development corporation act of 1979 has been lauded by many to be the most significant legislation affecting economic development in the past twenty years," Mrs. Greenblatt commented.

The act allows for the establishment of non-profit development corporations to carry out certain public purposes relating to the promotion and development of commercial, industrial, manufacturing, medical and research enterprises to promote and encourage employment, public health and the public welfare.

One governing body must register with the state department as regulators of a board which they appoint.

This governing body will meet once a year to review the board of directors.

The board will review any applicants (industrial prospects) to see that they meet the necessary requirements to apply for industrial bonds.

These requirements are quite stringent and closely regulated by the Texas Industrial Commission.

If upon review of the financial background of the prospective industry, it is determined they qualify, a bond company such as Southwest Investment Company would be contacted.

This company would then make arrangements with either a large bank, insurance company or other financial institution to finance the total project.

If at some point the industry should fail or default, local government would not be responsible for any financial debt. This would be stated in the original bond.

According to Southwest representatives all expenses would be borne by the investment company. Bonds would be paid out of revenues from the industry.

One question asked by Commissioner Paul Hunter during the question and answer session was, "Why would it be to our advantage to form this corporation now as opposed to waiting until we have a prospect?"

Southwest representatives explained, "It could mean the difference between the industry locating here or somewhere else."

The steps to forming the corporation are not difficult but the required paperwork would take from four to six weeks to process, he noted.

"This area needs this now because communities in surrounding areas have already established the corporations and this could cause the industry to locate where there would not be the additional prospect of delay, Mrs. Greenblatt said.

Hospital Loses Elevator Service

Root Memorial Hospital is without an elevator and will be for at least six more weeks.

Hospital Administrator Charles Root reported to Mitchell County Hospital Board Tuesday evening that a hole has formed in the underground casing of the hydraulic jack which controls the movement of the elevator.

The hole, caused by electrolysis, allows the oil to run out of the system (about 30 gallons in a five day period).

Patient movement up and down stairs is being accomplished by a team of emergency medical technicians who are on duty 24 hours a day.

This is an emergency situation. After trying to move one patient upstairs who weighed about 250 pounds with a five man team, Root noted, he contacted the company who installed the elevator about five years ago to investigate the possibility of using the elevator despite the leak.

It was determined this would be too dangerous because the small hole could cause the casing to break under the pressure and the elevator would fall.

Root offered two solutions to the problem. The company can place a liner inside the existing casing at a cost of $4,996, which would be a temporary answer, or a new casing made of a different material can be used to replace the existing casing at a cost of about $10,000.

Capacity Crowd Sees "Show Boat" Opening

The curtain went up Wednesday evening on the largest, single production ever attempted on the Colorado City Playhouse stage.

Director Coleen Palmer and a cast of 61 persons performed to a full house giving their rendition of "Show Boat." The play will be presented today (Thursday) through Saturday and again March 5 through March 8.

Advance reservations are still available by calling the playhouse box office at 915-728-3491 between the hours of 1 and 8 p.m.

Opening night was a complete sellout.

Over half the available seats for all performances have already been sold, however many good seats are still available, according to Bobbie Steakley, who is in charge of productions for the play.

A LEAK IN CITY WATER lines, causing a loss of an estimated 300,000 gallons of water a day, at a cost of about $180 a day to the city, was located Tuesday near the Lone Wolf Creek Bridge on East Second. The leak is more than 17½ feet beneath the surface and Mitchell County Utilities was contacted to help excavate the water line because city equipment could not reach the required depth. The leak could have been caused during the flooding last year, according to City Hall officials. About 21 inches of cast iron line were replaced stopping the leak.

"Show Boat" is set in the post civil war era of the Old South. It is a tale in music and words by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein based on the novel by Edna Ferber.

It is a story of romance and heartbreak, filled with light comedy. The story revolves around a troupe of actors who entertain on the "Cotton Blossom," a Mississippi River show boat.

The captain of the show boat, Cap'n Andy and his wife, Parthy, have raised a beautiful young daughter, Magnolia.

Magnolia wants desperately to be a stage star but Parthy considers actors "trash" and stands squarely in the way of any stage

New Location Set For V.A. Office

A quorum of county commissioners, consisting of Judge Bill Carter, Paul Hunter and Marcus Vest met in a brief session Tuesday morning to select a suitable location for the new Veterans' Service Office.

Mrs. Kidd was selected Feb. 20 by the court to serve as Veterans' Service Officer. She resides at 1482 Oak St. with her husband, M.R., who is a retired farmer. Mrs. Kidd formerly worked for Buford Gin. She was one of four applicants interviewed for that position.

Commissioners decided to utilize an office in the community service center building, 136 E. 3rd.

One large office will be partitioned and divided into two offices. Insulation will be used to help soundproof the room to insure privacy for both offices.

The new Veterans' Service Office is scheduled to open March 3.

Office hours are scheduled from 8 a.m. to noon five days a week.

Mrs. Kidd may be contacted by telephoning 728-2017.

During the meeting, a letter was read from A.C. Benson, owner of the scales used by the county and Texas Department of Public Safety to measure the weight of trucks traveling roads within Mitchell County. The letter requested a 50 cent increase per use of the scale.

"The scales are used on an average of 25 times per month Carter stated, "This would Music for "Show Boat" is under the direction of Kent and Betty Holder. Assistant Director is Kathy Wilson and sets and backdrops are created by Porter Richardson, George Womack and Brian Bassham.

Costuming is being handled by Lovess Curlee, Shirley Delaney and Donna McKinnon.

The cast of characters in order of their appearance are: Windy, Jim Hill; Steve, Gary Fuller; Pete, Mac McKinnon; Queenie, Regina Green; Parthy, Frances Deregibus; Cap'n Andy, Tandy Curlee; Ellie, Quin Thornburg; Frank, Don Chandler; Rubberface, Elmer Ward; Julie, Trina Taylor; Gaylord Ravenal, Monte Jones; Valon, Don Delaney; Mag-nolia, Kathy Terrell; Joe, Doug Johnson; Backwoodsman, Mel

The X-ray machine which the hospital purchased used at a cost of about $80,000 needs a new television system.

Root pointed out to the board that the X-ray machine would have cost $250,000 new and even with the $15,000 recently spent to replace a new tube and this additional tv expense of $29,800, the hospital will have only $130,000 invested in the machine. The machine will then have all new parts with the exception of a transformer.

The board voted to purchase the new tv system.

A bid from Dr. Pat Thomas was opened during the meeting. The bid was the only one offered for the medical building currently occupied by Dr. Thomas and owned by the hospital district.

The board accepted his bid for $97,500 subject to legal approval. Root told the board the amount of the bid would more than cover the money the hospital has invested in the building and equipment.

Two other bids will be advertised for by the hospital. A bid for materials to be used from lumber companies for the coming year and one for renewal of fire insurance will be published.

Root asked for a special meeting between staff members, board members and legal advisors. He indicated the need to discuss the malpractice laws. This date will be set after all involved parties can be contacted.

A notice of hospital board election will be published March 12. Currently there are two incumbent members, Bob Reily and T.C. Moore running for reelection. There are also five other announced candidates including Bobbie Steakley, Carroll (Bud) Hull, Jim Dockrey, Frances Deregibus and Ray Anne Carlock.

amount to an increase of about $12.50 per month. This amount will be paid out of fines," he said.

Commissioners voted to increase the amount paid to Benson.

In other business, Carter said he had been contacted by City Manager Ray Mason in regard to establishing a Metro type law enforcement agency within the county.

Carter noted the City Council was considering the possibility of going to the Metro type system combining the sheriff's office and city police.

Carter noted it would be impossible to institute such a system during the current budget year, however, commissioners could consider it and decide during the next regular meeting on March 11 if they wish to investigate the possibility.

Hunter said he believed the city would lose too much control and reports he had read showed crime rates climbed in areas using the system. He noted he was aware of only two such systems in use in the state. He stated he

Indictment Addresses Are Given
The grand jury indictments given in the Feb. 21 issue of the Record should have included the ages and addresses of the persons involved.

The ages and addresses are Linda Sue Wallace, 18, 1828 Locust Street, Colorado City; Carol Henry McKamie, 39, 201 N. Colter, Bryan, Tex. and James Howard Bender, 42, Colorado City.

"I have visited two recent meetings of the Hospital Board. My observation is that the administrator and administrative staff are most capable and responsible people. The complex and varied problems which are presented and the solutions are handled in a competent and business way," she said.

"I feel we, as taxpayers are well represented by the present board," she noted.

One of the most difficult problems facing the board in Mrs. Carlock's opinion, will be the choice of a successor for Administrator Charles Root.

Mrs. Carlock expressed her appreciation of the seven candidates who have announced for board positions.

"I have always been concerned that no one has placed his (or her) name as a candidate for the Hospital Board. Now there are seven of us anxious to contribute," she said.

"I feel my concern for and interest in the hospital, as well as my present and past civic participation, qualifies me for your consideration for a position as a member of the board," she said.

Three new dump trucks recently purchased from Frank Motor Company are creating a problem.

Although they are modified by Frank Motor Company to meet bid specifications so that the individual spring rated capacity meets and exceeds the specifications, they cannot be used to haul dirt.

Hunter indicated he had been in contact with the Factory Representatives and has arranged for a meeting with them on Tuesday.

Although the trucks are under warranty, the nearest place to have warranty work done is did not believe people really understand how the system works.

Vest stated it should be the people's choice and after it is examined thoroughly and the people still want it, then it should be instituted.

Carter stated the court should also consider the increase in revenues because the city had allocated $166,000 this year for law enforcement expenditures and the corporate court revenue was anticipated to be about $25,000.

Hunter brought another item to the attention to the court for consideration.

Snyder or Abilene. Hunter stated he had taken one truck to Snyder where it has been for over a month.

These companies will honor the warranty only after they complete all work for their own customers.

Hunter indicated the problem arises when the truck is loaded (25,000 pounds). The belts loosen and brackets bend under the weight.

The Treasure Chest Of Outstanding Offers And Opportunities

By Alan Shawn Feinstein

Because of our concern over the recent soaring gold and silver prices on Jan. 21, we bought a full page in the Providence Journal to write an open letter entitled "Beware of Gold and Silver! Now is the Time to Sell!"

Here is that letter: Dear Friend: We are under attack! Do you know how much soaring gold and silver prices are hurting you? Decreasing the value of your dollars, fueling our country's terrible inflation.

How? Millions of our dollars we pay for foreign oil are quickly exchanged by those oil producers for gold, weakening the value of the dollar. Then these same oil producers use the weakened value of our money as an excuse to raise their oil prices. Oil prices go up. Costs more dollars to buy it. Those dollars are traded for gold. Weakening the value of our dollars even more. An excuse for the oil producers to raise prices again. Round and round we go...

You know how oil prices have soared. The terrible effect it's having on us...

And now even some Americans are being sucked into buying and hoarding gold-supposedly as a hedge against inflation.

But buying gold today is no longer any hedge against inflation. It is actually a major CAUSE of it. Yes, feeding the very fires that threaten to engulf us...

What about silver? No better. Anyone who buys and hoards silver is helping to drive up the prices of dozens of important products that use silver, making them costlier to all of us, further fueling inflation and our economic woes.

If you have any gold or silver you bought hoping it will continue to rise in value, remember that. For as surely as they keep rising, our economy and the value of our dollars will go the other way.

Besides, if a collapse in this country ever did come, how much good do you think gold and silver would be here then? Millions of Americans would never accept it as payment for anything, knowing what it helped cause. Americans who would never knowingly join with anyone betting on our downfall.

If you know of anyone hoarding this stuff, let them know what it's doing. And if you own any now, at these crazy prices, SELL IT! For Good Hard Cash...

By selling now you are actually strengthening the value of our dollars and our economy... And fighting back at the forces attacking them!

Yes, there are far better things to own than gold and silver. Where you don't have to bet against your own country.

Sincerely yours, Alan Shawn Feinstein (The day after the article appeared, gold and silver plunged in value their greatest one day decline in history!) The Treasure Chest is a monthly syndicated feature.

Mrs. W.A. Taylor Presents Program On 'The Scandal In Public Schools'

The Athenaeum Study Club of Loraine was hosted by Mrs. Woodrow Pratt Tuesday, Feb. 19 with Mrs. W.A. Taylor, president, presiding. After business, Mrs.

Hal Bennett acted as program leader and the pledge of allegiance, followed by a roll call, "Did You Know?"

hands of rebellious students. Lack of respect for authority also added to teachers' frustrations.

She stated that many teachers are often made the scape goats when their supervisors or boards do not back them up. In the cities both teachers and pupils are fearful of being assaulted or robbed as they go to and from school. She went on to say, parents, teachers and the law must work together if the rights to an education are to be preserved for the forth coming generations of our land.

Mrs. Doyle Hester's article was on "Bilingual Schooling." The pros and cons were discussed.

One statement was "the most unifying factor in any nation is a common language" and America is known for its mercy and justice in assimilating the masses from all parts of the world. She added now it finds the demands that are coming from many groups that want to be taught in their native tongue are costly and frustrating. In San Bernardino, Calif., a demand for 108,247 ballots to be printed in the various languages to accommodate the local voters cost at the rate of $957 per voting person, since only 113 non English speakers voted. We must keep English as our basic language, especially in the primary grades.

Mrs. Pratt served refreshments to Mmes. W.A. Taylor, Doyle Hester, Glen Coon, C.R. Green, Hal Bennett, Floyd Coffee, Lily Bennett, C.H. Martin and Raymond Wheeler.

Meeting Is Set For March

Dr. Rex Johnston of College Station will preside over a public meeting in Lubbock on March 4 to discuss the direction future soil and water conservation programs of the U.S. Department of Agriculture will take.

The meeting, which will be held at the Lubbock Convention Center, will start at 9:30 a.m. and should end by noon.

Dr. Johnston is area director of the USDA Science and Education Administration - Agricultural Research.

Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station, will preside over a similar meeting at San Antonio at the Marriott Hotel on March 6.

The meetings are being held as a result of the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act of 1977 (RCA). Under the act, Congress directed USDA to appraise the condition of the nation's renewable natural resources and to propose programs to guide future conservation activities of USDA.

As a result of RCA, three documents have been published that can be reviewed at USDA offices. These include Parts I and II of the appraisal and a summary of the appraisal, national conservation objectives for selected resource areas and seven alternative strategies.

The purpose of the alternative strategies is to provide a selection of the best and most acceptable method of achieving national conservation objectives set by USDA.

Anyone interested in reviewing the documents before, or after, the meetings in Lubbock and San Antonio should contact local USDA Soil Conservation Service or Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices.

Written comments will be accepted at the meetings or they can be sent to the Response Analysis Center, P.O. Box 888, Athens, GA 30603.

Humphrey Vision Analyzer Is New Dimension In Vision Analysis

The Contemporary Fashions in Eyewear in Big Spring now offers a new dimension in vision analysis: the Humphrey Vision Analyzer.

You may feel like you have entered the mid-twenty first century with the darkened examination room, large metallic console arrayed with a variety of colored dials and blinking numbers and a round mirror sitting in a corner. It's not a spaceship but the new vision analyzer instrument.

"It is a real step forward in vision testing," Dr. Hamm, optometrist at the Eyewear in Big Spring, stated.

The Vision Analyzer eases testing for most vision problems, including Amblyopia (lazy eye), muscle imbalance, developing cataracts, astigmatism and near and far sightedness.

The doctors' Vision Analyzer is one of only 550 in use throughout the world and the next closest instrument is in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The Analyzer is the result of work by Dr. William Humphrey and Luis Alvarez, Nobel Prize winner in Physics. In 1962, Professor Alvarez invented the variable focus lens and a decade later Dr. Humphrey used the lens in the development of the Vision Analyzer.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and the club decided to give a $5 donation to the Woodland Activity Center.

"Make Me Laugh" was the manner in which way roll call was answered by each member.

Mrs. Pruitt led the program discussion about "Angels are for Real," the created spirit, to help take care of God's people.

She also spoke on the personal ministry of angels, stating a quote for I Corinthians, "When I was a child, my speech, feeling and thinking were all those of a child, now that I am a man, I have no more use for childish ways. What I see now is like a dim image in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. What I know is only partial; then it will be complete—as complete as

Wolves Ready For Lone Wolf Relays

One of the top sports events of the year in Colorado City, the Annual Lone Wolf Relays, are set to get underway Saturday morning at Wolf Stadium and this year there will be an added attraction, girls.

For the first time the relays will have a girls' division as well as a boys'. Coach George Martin has some 27 girls out for the team.

The starting time will be 9 a.m. for the meet preliminaries with the girls' 440 meter relay being the first event.

The times for the preliminaries are as follows: 9 a.m.-girls' 400 meter relay; 9:15 a.m.-boys' 400 meter relay; 9:30 a.m.-girls' 400 meter dash; 9:45 a.m.-boys' 110 meter high hurdles; 10 a.m.-girls' 200 meter dash; 10:15 a.m.-boys' 100 meter dash; 10:30 a.m.-girls' 100 meter hurdles; 10:45 a.m.-boys' 400 meter dash; 11 a.m.-girls' 800 meter relay; 11:15 a.m.-boys' 300 meter intermediate hurdles; 11:30 a.m.-girls' 100 meter dash; 11:45 a.m.-boys' 200 meter dash.

After lunch the field events will get underway and will run until 3 p.m. Their starting times are 1 p.m.-girls' shotput and long jump and boys' pole vault, high jump and discus; 2 p.m.-boys' long jump; 2:30 p.m.-girls' discus and high jump and boys' shotput; 3 p.m.-girls' triple jump.

Finals in the boys' events will begin at 4:05 p.m. with the 400 meter relay and will be as follows: 4:20 p.m.-800 meter dash; 4:40 p.m.-110 meter high hurdles; 5 p.m.-100 meter dash; 5:20 p.m.-400 meter dash; 5:45 p.m.-300 meter intermediate hurdles; 6:05 p.m.-200 meter dash; 6:30 p.m.-1,600 meter run and 6:55 p.m.-1,600 meter relay.

Coach George Martin has one letterman coming back from last year's squad who will run in the relays.

There will be eleven teams competing in the girls' division including Winters, Stamford, Anson, Abilene, Wylie, Hamlin, Roscoe, Rotan, Crosbyton, Clyde, Eastland and Colorado City.

Merkel was originally scheduled to compete in the relay but later withdrew.

Martin picked out Clyde, Hamlin and Rotan along with the Wolves as probably the strongest teams in the field.

See related story on the Colorado girls' track team.

The boys' division will include all of the schools competing in the girls' bracket plus Merkel and Slaton.

Coach Rick Robinson said that Hamlin, Rotan and Slaton would probably be among the stronger teams in the meet but that it was difficult to tell very much about any of the squads yet.

Robinson went on to say that he expected the pole vault, hurdles events and long jump to be the Wolves' best chance for first place finishes.

Mark Carter and Squeaky Hanks will be competing in the pole vault for the Wolves while Jay Green and Russell Noel will be competing in the long jump.

Noel, along with Lynn Williams, will also be competing in the 110 meter high hurdles and Green will be running in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles.

A further rundown of the various events for the Wolves is as follows: Hanks, pole vault, 1,600 meter relay and 800 meter run; Lupe Luera, 400 meter dash and 1,600 meter relay; Clay Hammond, high jump; Noel, 110 meter high hurdles and long jump and Britt Chaney, shotput.

Doug Johnson will be competing in the 400 meter relay, 100 meter dash and 200 meter dash along with Green, 400 meter relay, 1,600 meter relay, 300 meter intermediate hurdles and long jump and Carter, pole vault.

Other Wolves and their events are as follows: Carlos Olivarez, 400 meter relay and 100 meter dash; Arthur Reyes, 1,600 meter run; Williams, 110 meter high hurdles and Hammond, high jump.

Fred Salazar will compete in the 1,600 meter run while Stacey Tarter will run in the 400 meter relay and 400 meter dash and Tracy Tarter will run in the 1,600 meter relay and 1,600 meter run and will participate in the high jump.

Vandals Hit In Downtown Area

The Colorado City and San Angelo Police Departments are interested in three men who are charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle in San Angelo and who are wanted for questioning for the same offense here.

The Colorado City Police Department received a call at 1:20 a.m. Tuesday from the San Angelo Police Department that three men charged with auto theft in San Angelo were suspected of being here in town.

According to the San Angelo Police Department, the three men, Thomas Payseno, 36 of Colorado and Jerold B. Hayes, 37 and Randolph D. Lancaster, 31, both of Kansas had been released from jail in San Angelo a few hours earlier.

After their release they had allegedly stolen another vehicle which they had driven to near Silver and then abandoned.

From Silver they had hitchhiked a ride to Colorado City with a man who had let them off at the States Motel.

After picking them up the driver became suspicious of them because of a large bandage on one of the men's arms.

The driver then returned to San Angelo, contacted the police and from mug shots identified his hitchhikers as the same three men who had been released earlier.

After being contacted, the Colorado City Police Department set up a stakeout in the States Motel but the men had already gone.

At 7:45 a.m. the department received a call from Agri-Supply Company that a 1977 Ford two and one-half ton grain truck was missing. The vehicle was valued at $10,000.

The men are now wanted for questioning in that incident.

There has also been a rash of vandalism incidents in Colorado City the last couple of days.

At 5:40 p.m. Sunday, Officer Keith Ward arrested a 14-year-old male for shooting out lights at Wolf Stadium with a pellet gun.

There were 18 lenses broken for a total damage of $640.

At 10:20 a.m. Sunday, Glenda Stinson reported that two plate glass windows had been broken out of the Sears Store on 2nd Street. The damage was estimated at $600.

At 7:05 a.m. Monday, the Colorado Manufacturing Company reported a broken window at an estimated damage of $40.

At 8:05 a.m. Monday, L.C. Morris reported a broken window at L.C.'s TV & Radio Service at 277 Walnut. The damage was estimated at $120.

SEEK, From Page 1 still a bookkeeper for the Chrysler dealership, which is now Anderson Motor Company.

Her husband is also an air charter pilot for Colorado City Flying Service.

They have two children, Mrs. Dana Deemer of El Paso and Dr. Ed Deregibus of Abilene.

Mrs. Deregibus said that she filed for the board position because, "I have an interest in the community and especially in its health facilities. We have excellent health facilities and I would like to do my part in keeping them that way."

She also said that she thought that her many years of bookkeeping experience would prove useful to the board in aiding it in its financial affairs.

Wolves To Go To Andrews

Coach Walter Staats' Colorado varsity golf squad will hit the links for the first time in tournament action this year in Andrews this Saturday.

Staats will have three lettermen coming back from last year's squad which took the District 6-AA Championship.

Senior John Lowrance, Junior Trey Womack and Sophomore Dalton Maddox all lettered for the Wolves and will be leading the way again.

In addition to these three, Staats will have two other seniors on the squad, Chuck Claxton and Clay Burt, who is a transfer from Kermit.

Juniors coming back will be Sam Houston and Mark Piland and the three remaining Sophomores will be Jeff Hammond, Gaylon Low-rance and Dwight Staats.

Freshmen Tom Rees and Richard Ligon will also be on the squad.

Staats said concerning the team that they appeared to be further along than they were last year at this time and that they had been working hard.

He added that he had no doubt that he would have a very competitive squad by the time the district meet came up.

After Andrews, the Wolves will have the following schedule: March 4-5, Big Spring; March 10, Ballinger; March 14, Robert Lee; March 25, Colorado City and March 28, Reagan County.

The district meet will be at the Meadbrook course in Abilene on April 10.

"The is one of the most needed selling tools we have had in Texas in a great while," Mrs. Greenblatt said.

"I believe it needs to be done now so that when a prospect does come we will be immediately knowledgeable and able to offer this financial assistance," she said.

"If we are not prepared, I do believe it could greatly cost us in industrial growth," Mrs. Greenblatt noted.

Under the regulations set up in the legislation the industry must be located within the confines of the taxing entity that establishes the resolution to form the corporation.

Therefore, if the city establishes the corporation, the industry would be required to locate within the city limits (except under certain circumstances). If the county establishes the corporation, the industry would be required to establish within the county borders.

Each representative who attended the meeting will take the information back to their respective groups for discussion.

Johnson Discusses 'How To Keep Families Together'

The North Loraine E.H. Club met Friday with Mrs. Leona Lynam hostess. Two on the staff of the State Dept. of Human Resources brought the program entitled, "Why people are caught up in their environment."

Mrs. Effie Wheeler, president, called the meeting to order and suggested the guest speakers be presented first on the day's program and have the business session later.

Mrs. Edith Fuqua stated that we should be working harder to relieve the poverty situation instead of just seeking to remedy it, since so many factors contribute to the situation and working conditions.

She added that many trying to live on less than their pay, while 34 percent are unable to work if they could. True, there are those who prefer not to work, but lack of education handicaps many. She stated there are only 10 states with a higher poverty level than Texans. She told that all of us can help in many ways as individuals or as groups to help Texans help ourselves, and learn how and when by calling her office.

Pam Johnson, chairman for Mitchell County Day Care Center, gave an informative program on "Keeping families together" in looking into cases of abused and neglected children, which is more prevalent than most of us realize in our own county. She stated that help can come through individuals, clubs, churches and civic help.

The program was very informative and made those attending realize they can help in some form. Get in touch with Pam Johnson for more information.

Following the program, refreshments were served, after which Raymond Wheeler, president, called the meeting to order for the business session.

Mrs. Lynam read minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Roy Wells gave the treasurer's report. New business was discussed and the club voted to give $10 to the cause of helping on the program subjects they had just been told about.

Present were Mmes. Wheeler, Lola Fay Bennett, J.M. Templeton, J.E. Price, Roy Wells, Bud Shepherd, Rosie Hamrick, Buck Taylor and the two guest speakers.

Keep your home up and help keep electric bills down.

A large part of saving energy - and money - is simply a matter of cutting waste. In these days of "scarce" energy and inflation it's important to all of us to conserve. You can start by maintaining your own home.

Seal cracks around doors and windows with caulking and weatherstripping to stop heating and cooling leaks. Check to ensure that ductwork is well insulated and sealed. If this is not done right, much of the heating and cooling escapes into your attic.

Consider installing storm windows in your home. They save energy by creating an insulating layer of air between the temperature outside and temperature inside your home.

For the full story on saving energy - and energy dollars - get our Unhandy Person's Guides. Just call Texas Electric or ask for them on the comments section of your next electric bill. They'll help even the most unhandy person tighten up his home.

At Texas Electric, we want to help you keep your electric bill down.

HISTORIC HOME DEDICATION IS SET FOR SUNDAY

Lois Prude Bennett Home

By DONNA WATSON & LULU TURNER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rowe, 334 E. 4th, will be the scene of a lot of activity this weekend with an open house and dedication of a historical marker. It is the former home of the late Lois Prude Bennett.

You may feel you have stepped into the early 19th Century as you enter this two story brick home, with its iron grates and brass door knobs. But the storm windows, central heat and air and the indoor-outdoor carpet keep you in tune with the convenience of today.

As you enter the house, you may drift back to yesterday, transported by print wall paper, hardwood floors, Persian and Oriental tapestry rugs, hand painted china, stained-glass windows and brass, lots of brass.

The ground floor has hardwood floors with Persian tapestry throughout the house. The exception is the music room where there is an Oriental rug that was used when the house was first built in 1907.

In the entry hall there is a lovely antique halltree which Mrs. Rowe's father purchased at an auction for the price of $2. It is in French styling. Also included in the entrance is a Nantucket rocker and stool with red velvet seating and back upholstery. A stained glass window created by Mrs. Rowe which took approximately 120 to 150 hours of work and involved 226 pieces of glass graces the West wall. The fireplace which is one of seven located in the house, adds to the early 19th Century decor. The scene would not be complete without the white lace draperies adorning the front windows made by Mrs. Rowe and her daughter-in-law.

Draperies and sheer hanging throughout the house are hand made by this talented family.

Besides the Oriental rug, the music room has several collector's items, some of which are a French loveseat, somewhere between 150 and 175 years-old, two brass oil lamps and an organ. A majestic crystal chandelier and the hand carved oak and tile fireplace add the final touch to this lovely room.

The library features Early American Furniture with reproductions of famous paintings from an art gallery in Washington. There are 22 such prints throughout the home.

Most of the window frames are tiger oak and are restored with the original wood. There are two book cases filled with original English editions purchased from Mrs. Bennett.

The guest bedroom has a king size brass bed with a specially built headboard. The center of the headboard is a specially designed piece of brass work from Italy. Also in this decor is a pair of delicate handpainted French lamps which have been converted from oil burning lamps to electric lamps.

The cabinets and paneling in the kitchen were made from the oak wood paneling in the depot. The marble top counter is also made from material salvaged from the depot. The creation of the new kitchen took two years of planning, research and work. The oil lamp hanging in the kitchen belonged to Mrs. Rowe's mother. She is 93 years old.

Some material from the old railroad depot are used in the renovation of the home. The Rowe's have purchased the depot and are planning to reproduce the station in miniature in their backyard using material from the original building.

One window in the kitchen has been covered with a storage pantry. The door and shelves open extend and turn providing triple storage area.

The dining room table was purchased from Odessa's Red Door Antiques and has quite a history behind it. There is a huge antique German hutch with cut glass windows and an oak fireplace with unique beveled glass doors over the mantle.

There are paintings hanging on stairwell walls painted by Mrs. Bennett and her sister. A large stained glass window at the top of the stairs was put in the house when it was built.

At the top of the stairs is a sitting room decorated in cheerful mint green decor. Sheer priscillas curtains were made by Mrs. Rowe. She used about 65 yards of material on the one window.

A bedroom with a fireplace in the corner is highlighted with an antique white hand crocheted bedspread.

The entire decor of the house was created by Mrs. Rowe. The family assisted with the work and restoration.

The master bedroom holds a king size bed in modern designed. The little extra for this room is an antique ceiling fan.

The back bedroom features a white eyelet cover which provides a quiet soft setting. The bath has an original tub, completely restored and boasts decoupage sceneries on the side. Adding to the appearance are brass legs. Gold and yellow foil wall paper gives the bathroom an added touch of elegance.

The game room is not yet complete, but they plan to put a pool table and two game tables in this room. The fireplace is made of dark stained wood and trimming.

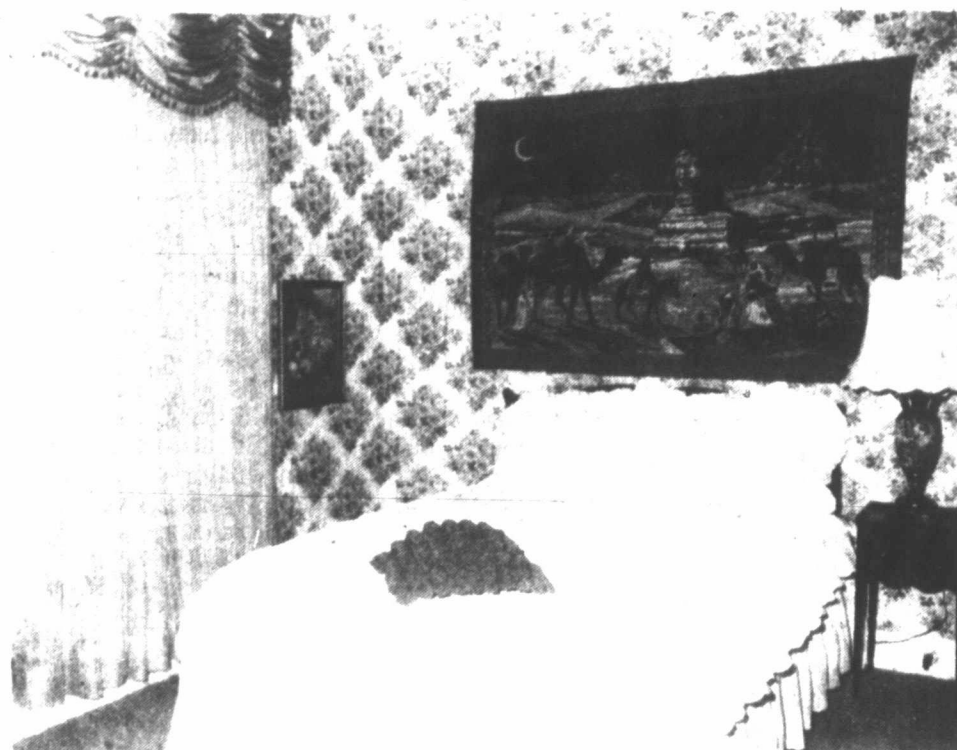

All restoration on the home have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Rowe and family. Their son, Walter Rowe and daughter-in-law, Debbie, of Arizona have been a big help in the renovations, Mrs. Rowe said.

Mrs. Rowe is a retired teacher from the Odessa schools. Mr. Rowe works the Amoco Oil Products out of Odessa.
