HARRIMAN'S MANTLE TO FALL ON LOVETT

TEXAN SEEMS CERTAIN TO SUCCEED LATE CHIEFTIAN IS GENERAL BELIEF.

STOCK TRADING IS HEAVY

Market Not Yet Affected By Demise. Morgan Had Seen Harriman Just Before Death.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 11.—Harriman's mantle will rest, temporarily at least, upon the shoulders of R. S. Lovett, a Texan, who has heretofore been general counsel and vice-president of the Harriman lines. This is the prevailing opinion and it is believed to be in accord with what Harriman himself would wish.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 11.—Neither the tone nor volume of stock trading has so far felt any material effect as a result of Harriman's death, and there is little doubt that the conditions which all expected would exist following his demise, were imaginary.

By Associated Press.

Arden, N. Y., Sept. 11.—J. P. Morgan was one of the last men to talk with Harriman before the relapse Sunday. It is believed that at the conference plans were laid to support the financial market in the event of Harriman's death.

Harriman's funeral continues to remain the topic of conversation in this vicinity, and an immense crowd is expected, although the funeral is private.

Several witnesses to the shooting joined the posse in pursuit.

Obituary.

Robert Lee Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Osborne, was born February 6th, 1909 and died in the home of his parents at Thornberry at 4:50 p. m., September 9th, 1909, aged four years, seven months and three days. He was sick five weeks with typhoid fever and an abcess of the lungs.

He leaves a father, a mother and three brothers and a great number of friends among both, the old and young, to mourn his death.

Robert was so loving and obedient to his parents; to know him was to love him. It was often said of him, "What a good and loving child he is."

The funeral was held at the residence of Mr. Osborne at Thornberry by Rev. Edgar M. Wisdom at 9:45 a. m., Friday in the presence of a large company of friends and at 11 a. m., the procession started for Wichita Falls, where interment was held in Riverside Cemetery at 4:30 p. m.

May many join in prayer for this family that they will be submissive to God's will and be comforted.

The matter was turned over to the authorities and the arrest of Rowland followed.

STARTING OF STREET CARS IS A MATTER OF MINUTES

The beginning of the street car line operations is now but a matter of hours and in some ways but a matter of minutes. There is very little doubt that before sunset tonight the cars will have become a reality.

The line was actually in operation this morning shortly before noon, when Manager Van Brunt ran a car a few yards down the track from the barns. The announcement was made that cars would be down town shortly after noon, but at 3 o'clock this afternoon, as this is being written, they have not appeared.

J. A. Kemp was so sure that the line would start on time that he invited a large party of friends to be his guests on the first car over the tracks. The invitations were unanimously accepted, but the promises have not been fulfilled.

A very disconcerting rumor gained currency this morning that the engineer brought here to start the new machinery had found the engine unable to do the work and had refused to approve it. This has been declared untrue.

The Traction Company's franchise expires tomorrow and it is promised that Wichitans with church-going propensities can ride to the housese of worship on the cars tomorrow morning.

There will probably be no lack of patronage for the first few days, and if the operations begin this afternoon, they will be taxed to the limit of the cars capacity tonight.

Death of Mrs. J. Q. Morrison.

Word was received here this afternoon of the death of Mrs. J. Q. Morrison, which occured at Pauls Valley, Okla., at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Morrison was the mother of Mr. T. T. Reece of this city and widow of the late Col. J. Q. Morrison.

FIRE EQUIPMENT IS TO BE PURCHASED

CHAMER OF COMMERCE RECOMMENDS AUTOMOBILE ENGINE FOR CITY.

COUNCIL WILL PAY ALL

Raising of Half of Needed Sum By Subscription is Not Approved of.

The purchase of an automobile fire engine is now practically decided upon and if the city council adopts the recommendations of the Chamber of Commerce, the machine will be here by the first of next year.

The plan which was at first suggested, that the city and Chamber of Commerce should share the expense has been abandoned. The city will pay for the engine, the money being advanced by the local banks.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce met this morning and recommended the above plan. The idea of raising half of the needed amount among the business men was not favored, as many property owners who would share the benefits of the improved protection would not subscribe to such a fund, whereas, if the city paid for it, the expense would fall on all the property owners alike. The engine will cost about $7,500, and the city will pay $2,500 cash and the remainder in two years to the banks.

The cracker factory proposition was discussed and for reasons embodied in the report of Secretary Gohlke, who investigated the matter, it was deemed inadvisable to accept the first proposition. A counter-proposition of a $5,000 bonus was made.

The street paving question and the matter of a celebration at the lake on September 27th were taken up, but no final action taken.

Texas News Service Special.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 11.—When the police did not respond promptly to a summons on the burglar alarm, Mrs. A. F. Baker, living in the south part of the city, called out the fire department early this morning to arrest the intruder. The burglar, believed to be a white man, escaped.

When the fire fighters arrived they found Mrs. Baker praying in her bed room for protection. She was alone with her niece in the house and succeeded in frightening the burglar by a masculine ruse.

BRIDGE READY.

Denver Completes Rebuilding of Tacosa Structure.

The Fort Worth and Denver road announced today the completion of the rebuilding of the Tacosa bridge over the Canadian river, which was washed out Tuesday. At 6 o'clock Friday evening all trains for Denver left this city on time, and trains from Colorado are expected here early Saturday morning.

It is stated that the repairs would have been completed earlier in the day but for the fact that the river rose two feet early Friday morning, which delayed work for two hours.—Fort Worth Record.

Texas News Service Special.

Gainesville, Tex., Sept. 11.—According to many close friends of Senator J. W. Bailey, the latter will not meet W. J. Bryan when he speaks in Dallas, and Fort Worth next Tuesday. This is viewed significantly, as it is known an effort had been made to draw both statesmen out against each other.

Both Bryan and Bailey are reticent on the situation. Bailey is to speak at Justin tonight.

If he finds the corn doing nicely, he may remain here to harvest it.

Died of Typhoid.

Says Harriman Did Not Start Poor.

By Associated Press.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 11.—Rev. G. Monroe Royce, former pastor of the church at Arden, says that Harriman did not start life as a poor boy. His mother was cultured and wealthy and the father had a small fortune. Harriman started as a bank clerk and later established the Harriman Bros. Bank. The minister is an old friend of the family.

NEW CHARTER FOR THIS CITY PLANNED

DIRECTORS OF CHAMESER OF COMMERCE UNANIMOUS IN FAVOR OF IT.

WILL GET IT IN 1911

The Recently Adopted Constitutional Amendment Makes New Organic Law Possible.

Plans were laid at the Chamber of Commerce directors meeting this morning for a new charter for this city in 1911, when it is proposed to have a special law drawn up for this city's particular benefit. An informal poll of the members present was taken and the sentiment found to be unanimous. The directors present, were: Huff, Kell, Kemp, Taylor, Noble, Anderson, Moore, Bean, Bland, O'Reilly, Blair.

The fact that at the present rate of sixty-five cents on the dollar, which is the limit under the present organic law, it is impossible to make the needed improvements, is the principal factor in te demand for a new charter. It is also believed that a charter under which the paving of sidewalks and streets might be enforced would be very valuable to this city

One of the constitutional amendments recently adopted provided for the adoption of special charters of this kind by cities of over 5,000 population and it is under this provision that the special charter will be taken out. It is also believed that a charter under which the paving of sidewalks and streets might be enforced would be very valuable to the city

It cannot be done, however until the 32nd legislature has convened and enacted the necessary laws.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MATTERS OF INTEREST

J. L. Mittinger, who has been connected with the Fort Worth and Denver here for some time, has accepted the assistant secretaryship of the Chamber of Commerce, and will assume his duties on September 15th. He is an accomplished stenographer, and it is believed that he will make a good man for the position.

General Passenger Agent Glisson of the Fort Worth and Denver, has taken up the matter of changing the Wichita Valley schedule between Byers and Wichita Falls, as suggested by the Chamber of Commerce, and writes that he will probably arrange for a change in the time card so as to give citizens of Byers and Petrolia more time in this city between trains.

Secretary J. A. Arnold, of the Commercial Secretaries' Association, wants Secretary Gohlke to try out one or two young men who are ambitious to become commercial secretaries. Mr. Gohlke has not declared himself in favor of the "kindergarten" plan, although he appreciates the compliment.

"Town Development," one of the leading publications of its kind in the country, is shortly to have an article in it about Wichita Falls and the Wichita country.

A Card of Thanks.

We take this method of thanking our many friends for their abundant kindnesses that they bestowed upon us during the sickness and death of our little loving Robert, and especially the kindness of Miss Flora Price who came to our assistance in such a needy time. May God richly reward every one for your loving kindness.

It Was Grover Cleveland Who Uttered the Magnetic Sentence

"TELL THE TRUTH"

And Made It a Household Word all Over America

Rev. Thos. Bowman Says Dr. Fanning Saved His Wife's Life.

It was Grover Cleveland who uttered the magic sentence, "Tell the truth," and made it a household word all over America. When Cleveland said that it was applied in a political way, and has come to be regarded as a political axom. The phrase has no more necessity in politics than it has in everyday life. So when a man starts out in any pursuit of life and uses that for his motto, it will win him the richest jewels in the crown of fame—the love of his fellowman. With this in view, the Herald has always steered clear of anything that has had the savor of untruth.

Last evening a Herald reported called on Rev. Thomas Bowman, and from him and his estimable lady heard a most remarkable story of the ravages of disease, the breaking down of a system and the almost miraculous cure of Mrs. Bowman. To the Herald reported Mrs. Bowman said. "For several years I have been a victim of that dread conqueror, rheumatism. For five and one-half months I had been confined to my bed almost constantly. I had been unable to sit up nearly all the time, and totally unable to do anything in the way of physical or mental labor. My physicial nature was exhausted, and my nervous system was a compete wreck. I was treated by several physicians—in fact, all of them who resided at my home, Waverly, Tenn. They could do me no good, so I went to Nashville, and there I was treated by the most eminent specialist in the country, Dr. Savage of Nashville.

"After a long time I saw that I was but little improved and it was useless for me to contique his treatment. I returned home and tried every known remedy and medicine to get relief, but none came. Imade up my mind at last to go to Hot Springs, Ark., to try the benefit of the healing waters. I was persuaded out of this, however, by my friends, who thought the climate of Texas from that of Tennessee would be more beneficial to me than the Springs would be, and I concluded that it would be best to act on their suggestion. When I came to Texas, instead of improving, I grew worse, and sufferoing as I was from catarrh, rheumatism, and a complication of diseases, I was constantly confined to my bed, and all the time I suffered the most intense agony of body and mind. I was compelled to use opium nearly all the time to relieve me from the intense and agonizing pain I was suffering. Sometimes I would not sleep or rest for forty-eight hours, on account of the awful pains I was suffering. I could get no rest, and the pains in my body were so intense that I could scarcely endure it. I had almost given up hope and had begun to feel the sooner I was over with the agony of the flesh the better it would be for my family.

"About this time I saw the advertisement of Dr. Fanning and I decided to give him a trial. I told my husband that I was sure he could do my case good, but he, being a great skeptic on that line, tried to persuade me out of the notion, saying that there was nothing in the mode of treatment, and that I would as well not try it. I insisted on trying the treatment and finally I persuaded Mr. Bowman to have Dr. Fanning treat me. He saw the doctor and had him come to see me. When he came I was suffering worse than I ever had in all my life, and I felt as though death to me would be a great relief and blessed solace. I was suffering from rheumatism, and I was a complete wreck. I had rigors in my body from the severity of the pain—in fact, the pain was nearly unbalancing my mind. Dr. Fanning came in and began his treatment. In five minutes after he began all the pain had left me and I was resting perfectly easy.

"That night after the first treatment I slept well over half the night—something I had not done for many long weary days of sickness and despair. After the second treatment I was much improved, and felt that I would soon be sound again. The night after the first treatment I did not use any morphine when I awoke from my slumbers, because I feared it would ruin my chance for recovery. The next night, on the advice of Dr. Fanning, I took half the usual dose of the drug, and on his advise discontinued it altogether.

"Dr. Fanning treated me eight times, and I feel like an entirely new woman. I do my own work about the house, something I had not done before in many months. I have been visiting my neighbors, and feel as well and healthy as I ever did. I can retire at sundown and sleep perfectly sound until late in the morning, something I have not done in years before. I feel perfectly well and natural, and I consider my coming to Texas and my cure by Dr. Fanning an act of divine providence.

"It has been three weeks now since I was treated, and I have not felt a single symptom of the disease in my body.

"I am willing and anxious that you tell my whole story to the people, so that in the event there is anyone suffering they can profit by my experience and be healed. Anybody who doubts this, or has any misgivings as to its authenticity, will confer a favor on me by calling or writing to me at Greenville, Texas, or my husband, the Rev. Dr. Bowman."—Greenville Herald.

Dr. Frank Fanning will be in Wichita Falls on September 20th, and will remain for two weeks. If you are afflicted call and consult this wonderful healer, as it costs you nothing for consultation.

THE MAID.

Thunder of riotous hoofs over the quaking sod;
Clash of reeking squadrons, steel capped iron-sod;
The White Maid and the white horse and the flapping banner of God.

Black hearts riding for money; red hearts riding for fame;
The Maid who rides for France, and the King who rides for shame;
Gentlemen fools and a saint riding in Christ's high name!

"Dust to dust!" is written. Wind-scattered are lance and bow,
Dust the Cross of Saint George; dust the banner of snow,
The bones of the Ping are crumbled, and rotted the shafts of the foe.

Forgotten the young knight's valor; forgotten the captain's skill;
Forgotten the fear and the hate and the mailed hands raised to kill;
Forgotten the shields that clashed, and the arrows that cried so shrill.

Twenty-Fourth Legislature Of the State of Texas

Officers and Representatives of Twenty-Fourth Legislature Endorse Dr. Frank Fanning's Method of Healing, and the Wonderful Cure of the Hon. W. T. Armstead.

The doubting and incredulous should read the certificate below from W. T. Armstead, Member of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fourth Legislature, backed by the certificates of endorsement of that body. What better evidence is wanting? How could his power to heal and relieve pains and ills be made plainer, or worded in language more strong? The afflicted should carefully read, ponder well over the truths therein contained, doubt no longer, and go at once to Dr. Frank Fanning and be relieved from suffering.

To Whom It May Concern:

House of Representatives, 24th Ltgislature, Austin, Texas, April 2, 1895.—I had been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism, with swelling in my feet and knees. For three weeks I was unable to get out of bed, when Dr. Frank Fanning of San Antonio, treated me, and at his first treatment I got up, put on my clothes and attended the Legislature, and at his second treatment could put my feet on the mantel piece in my room and could walk without any pain or inconvenience except a little soreness. My cure was at least marvelous, if not magical. I take pleasure in commending Dr. Frank Fanning to all sufferers from aches and pains. When medicine failed he cured me in two treatments.

Sincerely,
W. T. ARMSTEAD.

I endorse the foregoing and know the facts to be correctly stated.
T. S. SMITH,
April 2, 1895. Speaker of the House of Representatives.

I was present and witnessed the above mentioned treatment and cure, and can testify to the truthfulness of it.
J. A. JACKSON,
Chaplain House of Representatives.

I endorse the foregoing statement and know the facts contained therein to be true.
CHESTER HALE,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

I endorse the foregoing statement and know the facts to be correctly stated, and commend Dr. Fanning most heartily.
L. T. DASHIEL,
Representative Leon County.

We, the members and officers of the House of Representatives of the 24th Legislature, hereby endorse the method of treatment exercised by Dr. Frank Fanning in curing Hon. W. T. Armstead of Acute Rheumatism.

CHESTER HALE, Cf. Clerk H. R.
W. B. PLEMMONS, Rep. 102nd District.
I. L. MARTIN, Rep. 96th District.
T. R. WATKINS,. Rep. 58th District.
W. M. PECK, Rep. 8th District.
L. I. RHODES, Rep. 100th District.
J. R. GOUGH, Rep. 14th District.
JEFF McLEMORE, Rep. 14th District.
P. S. POWELL, Rep. 99th District.

The genuineness and authenticity of the facts as above stated can not be questioned, and surely stamp Dr. Frank Manning as the most remarkable healer on record.

The rapid and permanent relief of pain and disease by his magical touch is indeed marvelous, mysterious, and the hand that performs such wonderful cures must indeed hold Nature's power of healing in a remarkable and miraculous degree.

Dr. Fanning will open offices in Wichita Falls September 20th. His cures of both, chronic and acute diseases, are truly wonderful. As his consultations are free, you should not miss this golden opportunity.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity —Tonight and Sunday, generally fair.

TWO KINDS OF LOSERS.

Wichita Falls regrets exceedingly the loss of the West Texas Normal, but her citizens are broad-guaged and are not envious of the winning candidate. Canyon City is an ideal place for the normal. In fact, there were so many choice places to pick from that it must have been an exceedingly difficult task for the locating committee to make a choice, but it did the work, and there is no doubt that it acted for the best interests of the state and also for the particular section which is to be served by this institution of learning.—Wichita Daily Times.

A good loser is worth of admiration. A long string of platitudes could be quoted in this connection, but one of the soundest, and one of the most comforting is that old saying, "In a fair, square fight somebody has got to get licked."—Dallas News.

There are as yet no aspirants for the site of the state's leper colony, one of the most desirable of state institutions. We nominate Abilene; she has tried to get everything else and has failed.

The government's plan to bar Texas cattle from the markets is just about as feasible and reasonable as would be a plan to bar Texas cotton; and the results would be just about as disastrous.

Nigger luck has kept Wichita Falls from a serious fire for a good many years. Get that new fire engine and add the strength of certainty to the good fortune we have been having.

The Times has received an offer to furnish a full column of editorial once a week, for fifty cents a month. They must be mighty good editorials to make that price a reasonable one.

It seems to be up to the next Congress to pass homestead laws for the newly discovered lands in the frozen north. How about pulling off one of those land lotteries up there?

Dr. Cook says the north pole is just about the size of a two-bit piece, which is pretty small for two to scrap over. The equator, however, is big enough to go 'round.

Senator Gore says he doesn't see how the democrats can fail to win in the next election. Being blind, the senator couldn't be expected to see such things.

Quanah is developing some very pronounced symptoms of railroad building. Go ahead, little one; Northwest Texas is big enough for us all.

Aeroplaning is to be a feature of the Dallas Fair. It will surprise many people for Dallas to admit that the sky scrapers there will allow any aerial piroquetting.

The Times today publishes a list of the railroad projects that are being consumated in West Texas. Glance it over. Those aren't paper railroads.

Today being Saturday, the boys and girls are ready to admit that going to school isn't so awful bad after all.

What a pity it is that all this North Pole discussion couldn't have come up when the weather was so hot.

The new glove factory would be a good thing to extend the glad hand to.

Turn About.

A young English student late one cold and wintry night found the door of his college locked against him. The young man outside argued with the doorkeeper inside, cajoled and entreated, but to no avail. Eventually he slipped half a sovereign under the door and was admitted. It was a financial deal wisely thought out on strict business lines. Once inside, he informed the janitor (falsely) that, unfortunately, after taking the half sovereign out of his purse he had dropped the purse itself on the doorstep. The attendant went out to secure it, but once on the chilly, wet doorstep the door was slammed. Then the deal was repeated, for the shivering mercenary was not allowed into his warm abode until he had slipped the half sovereign back again.

Thoroughly Prepared.

At a religious service in Scotland the late Lord Kelvin noticed a youngster accompanying his grandparents and sitting wise as a young owl through the sermon.

At the close of the service Lord Kelvin congratulated the grandfather upon the excellence of the young man's behavior.

"Och, aye," returned the veteran, "Duncan's weel threatened afore he gangs in."

Severe.

"I wish I had a fortune, I'd never paint another picture!" declared an artist to a brother of the brush.

"Well, there are lots of people who would give you one on that condition!"

The Similarity.

Why are some policemen like rainbows? Because they appear after the storm is over.

RACE FOR LIFE

Special Train Over the Southern Pacific Makes 71 Miles In 75 Minutes With a Sleet and a Norther for an Accompaniment.

GOT A COOL RECEPTION AT SABINAL

He Offered Fifty Dollars for a Four Mile Ride—Livery Stable Helper Told Him to go the Hot Place, but He Plodded Across the Prairie and Made the Four Miles in Two Hours.

A little after midnight Sabinal called San Antonio Western Union Telegraph office. It was sleeting and a norther. The wind howled, and the ice fell from the eaves of the buildings and limbs of trees. A bad night to be out. But the call was urgent, persistent, "For God's sake," flicked the instrument find Dr. Frank Fanning and rush him out on a special. Fannie is dying, but he can save her!"

It was a matter of but a few moments to start a messenger to Dr. Fanning's residence on Government Hill with the dispatch. I took longer time to get the special train over the Southern Pacific, however. Orders were fired out by the dispatcher to clear the way for a special, and at 1:24 a locomotive and one car pulled out, one passenger aboard. The water tank and the coal chute flew by and the car rocked and jerked as the engine picked up her speed—20 miles, 25, 35, 45, 50—60 miles an hour—whistle going, stack humming with the little exhaust. A long screech, brake shoes grinding and staggering of the car as the speed grew less. At 2:30 the train stopped Sabinal, 71 miles in 75 minutes.

It was a bad morning—cold sleet, wind. The lone passenger found his way to the livery stable and beat on the office door. "Go to ——; get away from here!" came the answer to a request for a team. The livery man was routed out of his home.

"Fifty dollars down for a team to take me to Boone's—four miles."

But he could not get a team. And so off across the prairie along an unfamiliar road the man who came on the special plunged. Sleet cut his face and beat his body; frozen branches of mesquite blew against him, and icicles thrashed him as they drifted down the gale.

Away across the prairie twinkled a light—a light in the house where death was striving to take away as fair a soul as ever dwelt on earth. It seemed hours, days almost, before the storm-beaten man reached the Boone home; it was 5 o'clock—two hours going four miles!

The following tells the result of the trip:

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Bexar.

Know all men by these presents: That four years ago this month, February, 1898, my daughter Fannie had typhoid fever and she was very sick.

To add to the horrors of her disease, she had a large abcess developed in her right side (ovarian).

Our local doctors said that she would have to be cut open to allow the abcess to discharge. They gave her up and so did the whole family.

Like a drowning person I was willing to catch at a straw, and as I heard of the wonderful cures that Dr. Fanning had made by his power of healing, which I now believe to be God-given, I telegraphed to him at once to come and see if he could save my daughter's life.

Dr. Fanning took a special train and came at greatest possible speed. It was a race between the grim monster, death, and one who could banish him from our home.

Dr. Fanning arrived in time to save my child. He arrived at Sabinal and got out to my ranch at 5 o'clock in the morning. My daughter was nearly dead. Her fever was 105 degrees, and we had given up hope.

We prayed that Dr. Fanning might arrive in time, and he did.

Life still lingered in her body, but it was only a spark.

Dr. Fanning at once began to impart to her some of his vital magnetism, and in twenty minutes she was in a healthy glowing perspiration.

The fever fell at once to 101 degrees.

Her improvement was wonderful. She was surely snatched from the yawning mouth of the grave and restored to her family.

She improved so rapidly that Dr. Fanning pronounced her out of danger in twenty-four hours.

He then left for San Antonio.

She was up and around the house in six days.

For over four years she has remained sound and well.

I will say in conclusion that she owes her life to Dr. Fanning's quick response to our summons, and his wonderful healing power.

Without his aid my daughter would have died, and we believe that he present good health is due to Dr. Fanning's treatment.

With all the gratitude that a mother can express, I say "We owe it all to him.

MRS. N. J. BOONE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Bexar.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 26th day of February, A. D. 1898.

E. B. JOHNSON,
(Seal) Notary Public, Bexar County, Texas.

The Great Healer, who performed the above wonderful cure is coming to Wichita Falls on September 20th, and will remain two weeks. If you are a chronic sufferer, call and consult Dr. Fanning, as it costs you nothing for consultation.

We are Going to Give Twenty-six People an Opportunity to Own Their Own Homes by Paying a Small Cash Payment Down and Payments Monthly Without Interest

The Wichita Development Company owns twenty six modern bungalows on Burnett, Bluff and Austin Sts., between Third and Sixth Sts., which we have induced them to allow us to sell on easy terms, Without Interest or Taxes, and on which they will carry the insurance until forty-eight monthly payments have been made.

These houses are well built; have concrete foundations; all chimneys built from the ground, and are all pleasing in appearance. They are close in. the property beginning six blocks from the First National Bank. The ground is the highest of any portion of Wichita Falls which lies in the valley, as shown by the statement of City Engineer, Hinckley, which appears in this advertisement. Cement sidewalks are laid over nearly all the property, and every house has a sewer running down alley in rear. The Gas Company has laid its mains down the streets. Each house is connected with city water. Free mail delivery and a school house within two blocks of the farthest house are among the advantages. The soil is deep and fertile and trees and lawns can be grown better than in most parts of the city. When these houses have been sold, as they will be, under these extraordinary terms, and the property is occupied by owners, who will be interested in its development, property values will double.

These houses are practically new, and rent from $15 to $20 per month, and at that, are the cheapest rentals in the city. On a house renting for $15 you double the rent for 48 months and own the house without payment of interest, taxes or insurance, by paying a cash payment down of but $100.00. On a house renting for $20 per month you pay a larger cash payment but add only $10 per month to your rental.

A buys the first house listed, he pays, in cash,...	$100.00	48 month's rent saved at $15 per month.....	$720.00
He pays 48 payments of $27 each	1,296 00	Net cost of house.....	$676.00
Total cost.....	$1,396 00

It is reasonable to suppose that with the growth of Wichita Falls the value of the property will have increased to $2000.00, in which event the purchaser will have made a net profit of $1324.00 on his investment.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 2, 1909.

The Wichita Development Co.,
Wichita Falls, Texas.

Gentlemen:

This is to certify that the property owned by your company, Blocks Numbers 121, 122, 123, 144, 145, 220, and 241 has an altitude of from 958 to 960 feet. The altitude of that portion of the city lying between Seventh St. and the Wichita Valley Ry., from North to South and between Lamar St. and Michigan Ave., from East to West, ranges from 951 to 957 feet; in other words, the property owned by your Company is from one to eight feet higher than any portion of the city, excepting such as is on the hill. Eor example, the altitude of Burnett and Third St. on your property is 960 feet. On the corner of 12th and Scott, which is in a good residence section of town, the altitude is 951 ft; consequently, should the city ever be inundated, the water would be 9 ft. in depth at the corner of Scott and 12th before it would begin to cover your property at Burnett and Third.

(Signed) L. C. Hinckley, City Engineer.

CHANGE OF HEART A CHANGE OF FAITH

There were no electric lights at the tabernacle last night on account of some trouble at the power house, but a few gasoline torches were used and the service went on as usual.

The theme was "The Change of Heart," and Evangelist Hamlin said, in part:

"In every conversion there are three distinct and divine changes take place—a change of heart, a change of life, or conduct, and a change of state or relation. Faith in Jesus Christ purifies the heart, Acts 15:9. Repentance changes the life or conduct, James 4:8; Baptism changes the state or relation, Rom. 6:3—Gal. 3:27.

"In speaking of the change of heart, Jesus described it this way: "For this people's heart is waxed gross and thine ears are dull of hearing and thine eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted, Matt. 13:15. Here Jesus places the emphasis on the understanding of the heart. There have been many queer notions about the location of the affection of the heart. Plato thought that the spinal chord was the seat of life; Aristotle taught that the brain had no function only to cool the blood and from over heating; The ancient Jews taught that the bowels were the seat of affections and hence the expression, "Bowels of Noren." The Japanese teach that the liver is the seat aof affection and a liver is supposed to lose fection, and a lover is supposed to lose his liver rather than his heart over some Japanese belle. Many people today think the physical heart the location of affections and love.

Physiology teaches that the seat of affections is in the mind and here the Bible and physiology agree. Jesus taught it this way when emphasized the understanding of the heart. What, then, are the feelings experienced in conversion? They are the result of the emotions of the soul. When we believe we feel; when we love we feel; when we will, we feel. Bad news put into the head causes bad feelings in the heart; good news received into the understanding causes good feelings in the physical heart. To see a snake suddenly causes fear to clutch at the heart, but a blind person would walk over the snake and fear nothing. Feelings are, then, results of what the mind experiences and are transmitted over the nerves from brain to heart. A complete change of heart as taught by the Bible, is a change of faith, love, will and life, a surrendering to God that brings the peace that comes from a faith that works by love."

Announcement was made that there would be a service tonight at the usual hour and the closing service of the revival would be tomorrow.

Dr. Hamlin says there is much fruit of the revival not yet gathered, but in deference to the Methodist revival, beginning tomorrow, he would close and give them a chance to use the big tabernacle. He urges his people to o-operate in this meeting as they have have been doing.

Does Prohibition Kill Towns and Will Prohibition Kill Business?

The towns and cities in one hundred and fifty-five counties in Texas say no.

Vernon went dry years ago and has grown to nearly 5000 people, Quanah has been dry three or four years and has put up many new buildings, is building a third railroad, and has just landed an overall factory. Memphis has been dry for many years, and has a $20,000 sewer system, oil mill, etc., and 3000 people. Childress took the Denver shops from Clarendon while Clarendon was wet and Childress dry. Clarendon is now dry and both are splendid cities. Amarillo has grown more under local option than ever before. Three years ago Munday had 700 population, now it has 2000. Stamford is a city of 7000 population and only seven years old. It has never had a saloon in all its existence. Anson is another good town. When Abilene went dry in 1902 it had 4000 people, it is now a modern city of 15,000.

Are Hillsboro, Paris, Waxahachie, Denton, Denison, Sherman, McKinney and over half the cities of Texas dead?

The man who thinks prohibition injures business and kills towns is badly mistaken. Every merchant and every bank in Wichita Falls would do a better business without the saloons. Prohibition creates thrift and men save money that now goes over the bar for whiskey. The closest saloons to us will soon be more than one hundred miles away. If we vote out saloons we will prosper just like our neighboring cities.

Mr. Fred P. McCord, the popular leading man with the McAdams big tent theatre which concludes a most successful engagement here after the performance tonight, was presented with a silver loving cup last night by the members of the company as a testimonial of their regard for him and in celebration of his tenth year in their association, and following the presentation, a chafing dish supper was served the contingent by Mrs. McAdams, the popular grand sachem of the beautiful tent theatre.

The McAdams tent theatre will conclude its engagement in this city after the presentation of the old time favorite story, "East Lynne," tonight. The play is said to be the best in their repertoire.

The Queen Bee.

The truth is that throughout all the wonder workings of the beehive the queen is little more than an instrument, a kind of an automaton, merely doing what the workers compel her to do. They are the real queens in the hive, and the mother bee is the real subject. The workers have made her for their own wise purpose, just as they make the comb and the honey to store in it. The egg she is hatched from is in no way different from any worker egg. If you take one from a queen cell and put it in the ordinary cell it will hatch out a common female worker bee, and an egg transferred from worker comb to a queen cell becomes a full grown queen. Thousands and thousands of worker eggs are laid in a hive during the season, and each of those could be made into a queen if the workers chose. But the worker egg is laid in a small cell, and the larva is bred on a bare minimum of food at the least possible cost in time, trouble and space to the hive, while when a new queen is wanted a cell as big as your finger tip is built, and the larva is stuffed like a prize pig through all its five days of embryo life until, with unlimited food and time and room to grow in, it comes out at last a perfect mother bee.—Van Norden's Magazine.

Coleridge's Imagination.

From his early youth Coleridge lived in a world of books and dreams, yet his favorite walk seems to have been the Strand, the last place in the world for a poet to lose himself in reverie. As he strolled down the street he imagined himself swimming the Hellespont, the feat of which other poets had written and which the poet Byron was to accomplish later. Once while the mind of Coleridge was thus far from the busy Strand he absently thrust his hands before him in the manner of one swimming. Suddenly one hand came in contact with a gentleman's pocket.

The gentleman, thinking to capture a thief, seized the hand and exclaimed: "What! So young and so wicked!" He accused the poor, poetic boy of an attempt at pocket picking.

With some fright and a few tears the boy explained, and we can imagine that words did not fail him who was to become the most brilliant talker of his age. The gentleman was delighted with Coleridge's imagination, which could turn the Strand into the Hellespont. The intelligence of the young Leander made the stranger inquire into Coleridge's tastes, and when he found the boy liked books he opened for him a subscription at the circulating library in Cheapside.—Westminster Gazette.
