Tenacious Heat Wave Sets New State Records

Thirteen was an unlucky number for Snyder yesterday.

It was the thirteenth day this summer on which the temperature has reached or passed 100 degrees, and yesterday was the year's worst with a high of 105 degrees. That was two degrees above the former high mark of 103 degrees, and hot enough to put Snyder among the hottest cities in Texas.

The mercury dipped to 72 degrees early this morning but was back up to 85 degrees by 7:30.

By The Associated Press

Texas' burning summer heat wave reached for new records Tuesday after 80-plus temperatures at dawn presaged another day of scorching temperatures.

"You can smell the grass burning in the pastures," a Dallas County cowman said Monday night after the North Texas city went through its hottest day on record—110.3 degrees at 4 p.m.

At dawn, Dallas still squirmed under 83-degree temperature but Fort Worth reported 84 degrees and Waco 80 degrees at the same time. Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells had 79-degree thermometer readings at 5:30 a.m., and Lubbock and Marfa—with "cool" 67s—were the coolest points on the map.

Skies were fair except for a few clouds along the lower coast.

Tuesday was the ninth day in a row, the Weather Bureau said, that Dallas had temperatures in excess of 100 degrees. Monday's 110.3 was about half a degree hotter than the old mark of 109.7 recorded back in August 1936. Seven heat victims were admitted to Dallas hospitals. Water and electrical consumption zoomed with the mercury.

Weather Bureau men said Dallas could expect about 108 degrees Tuesday and 105 degrees Wednesday. No relief was in sight.

Forecasts still called for isolated or widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers. But they, as the forecasts indicated, were few and far between. Houston, with .12 of an inch, and San Antonio, with .31 of an inch, were the only places reporting measurable rain Monday. Thunderheads that built up before dark dissipated soon after nightfall.

A twister dropped out of a thunderhead in the San Antonio area. It knocked the roofs from a few farm buildings and scattered beehives of the farm of Alvin Friesenhahn, 16 miles north of San Antonio.

Friesenhahn said 3 inches of rain fell on his farm in 15 minutes.

Other high temperatures reported Monday included 109 at Cleburne and Fort Worth, 107 at Austin, 108 at Gainesville, 109 at Llano.

The Weather Bureau said you could expect the same thing Tuesday you had Monday if a stray thunderstorm didn't interfere to knock temperatures down.

And, the Weather Bureau emphasized, there weren't many of those thunderstorms or showers around.

Borden Test Finds Shows In Spraberry

Phillips Petroleum No. 1 Quartz (W. L. Miller), West Borden County wildcat, has found good shows of oil and gas in the Spraberry.

That formation was drillstem tested from 7,156-295 feet with the tool open two hours. Gas surfaced in 30 minutes and a strong blow of gas continued for the remainder of the test. Recovery was 90 feet of heavily gas-cut and slightly oil-cut drilling mud and 900 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut drilling mud. There was no free oil or water.

While the tool was being pulled the drillpipe unloaded oil and gas-cut drilling mud twice by heads.

The prospector has deepened to 7,395 feet and is now taking a drillstem test at 7,295-295 feet.

This wildcat, 14 miles west-southwest of Gail, is projected to 8,900 feet to test the Pennsylvanian lime. It is 1,976 feet from south and 1,981 feet from east lines of section 14-33-4n-T&P.

STONEWALL WILDCAT

Hack Drilling Co. and Wayne Petroleum Co. of Abilene have staked location for a 5,900-foot rotary wildcat in Northeast Stonewall County.

It is the No. 1 Walter L. Nanny. Drillsite is 1,580 feet from north and 2,540 feet from east lines of section 59, Sterling McGray survey. That location is two and one-quarter miles northeast of a 6,138-foot wildcat failure and two and one-quarter miles south of the Katz field. Operations are to begin immediately.

FAILURES ABANDONED

Exploratory projects in Northeast Stonewall County and East Nolan County have been ordered plugged and abandoned.

Three miles south of Nolan in East Nolan County, General Crude Oil No. 1 G. T. Cave was quit on total depth of 6,612 feet in dolomite. A core from 6,602-612 feet recovered nine and one-half feet, five and one-half feet of fair-grained gray dolomite sand with no shows and four feet of sand, slightly dolomitic with a sulphur odor.

The No. 1 Cave was one loca-

Lamesa Youth Killed When Hit By Truck

LAMESA, Tex. (AP)—A truck-trailer overran a bicycle on which three boys were riding last night, killing Charles York, 11.

Jimmy Paul Harris, 13, was released after treatment at Lamesa General Hospital. Alton Ray Latham, 11, remained in the hospital today but his condition was not considered critical.

Oliver Skipper of Paint Rock, who was driving the truck-trailer to Muleshoe for a load of hay, said he was blinded by headlights and didn't see the bike as he came up behind it until he was right on top of it.

The dead boy was the son of Charley York of Lamesa.

MYSTERY GIRL

Identity of Snyder's girl of mystery will be revealed shortly after 8 o'clock tonight at the high school stadium when the winner of the Rodeo Queen election will wear the royal crown and train. Modeled in this picture is the crowning ensemble made for the ceremony by Mrs. John Casebier. The nine-foot train is made of blue velvet lined with silver jewel cloth. The crown, which will be carried on a silver pillow, is a wire model of modern design decorated with sequins.

Queen's Coronation Opens Rodeo Slate

Rodeo activities get underway at 8 o'clock tonight when a rodeo queen will be crowned in the high school stadium.

This is the first of a chain of events in the rodeo week. The actual rodeo will start tomorrow night.

The queen will be one of a group of 11 candidates, to be chosen by vote from the amount of money contributed to a women's clubhouse fund, with each donation designated as vote for a chosen candidate.

Mayor Malven Stevenson will crown the queen, who will later be presented in the rodeo parade. Immediately following the coronation tonight, a queen's ball will be held at the Country Club.

The second major event of rodeo week will occur at 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon when the annual rodeo parade will begin. Leading the parade will be the American Legion color guard and the Snyder High School band.

At least three sheriff's posses will ride in the parade. They are the Colorado City 3-R riding group, Fisher County Sheriff's Posse, and Post Riders. Prizes of $100, $65, and $35 will be awarded the top floats in the parade. Entered in the float contest so far are Little League mothers, Kiwanis Club, Lucky 13, Cosmorama, Beta Sigma Phi, Acacia Study Club, Rainbow Girls, Snyder Beauticians Association, and American Legion and VFW auxiliaries. Trophies will be awarded the top posses in the parade.

The first night of the four-night rodeo will get underway at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, Garrett Harrell, president of the Scurry County Rodeo Association, said this morning that about 102 persons had entered various events in the show.

A total of $3,400 in prizes will be awarded the top contestants in the rodeo. Events will include calf roping, bareback and saddle bronc riding, steer riding, wild cow milking, wild mare race, sponsor's barrel race, cutting horse contest, junior steer riding, junior ribbon roping, and junior goat sacking.

Shows will be held at 8 o'clock nightly through Saturday. At about 9:30 o'clock each night, a dance will begin at the rodeo pavillion.

Parr To Get More Delays

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (AP)—Another delay arose today on starting a hearing on an assault to murder indictment against South Texas political leader George Parr.

Parr's attorney filed an amended motion challenging the prosecutor appointed by Judge Maxwell Welch to hear the case.

Judge Welch delayed opening of court to allow state's attorneys to study the amended motion.

So far attorneys for Parr have:

1. Filed a motion to quash the indictments arising from the Duval County grand jury's current investigation of Duval County matters.
2. Petitioned for a stay order on the cases.
3. Filed a motion challenging the prosecutor.
4. Filed an amended motion challenging the prosecutor.

In another Duval County matter, hearing was set for Thursday at 10 a.m. on a petition filed by the newly appointed county auditor, Donato Serna, asking that the commissioners court be restrained from interfering with his taking office.

Commissioner Quits In Martin County

STANTON, Tex. (AP) — Oliver Vaughn, commissioner of Martin County's precinct one, has quit and the acting county judge says the vacancy won't be filled until after the July 24 primary election.

Vaughn stepped out yesterday, less than a week after County Judge James McMorries resigned following criticism by the grand jury because the county was broke and couldn't meet its payroll.

Bruce Frazier, 65, a farmer, was appointed to replace McMorries.

Vaughn had been commissioner of precinct one for more than five years.

The grand jury went back into session yesterday to resume its investigation of the county's financial troubles.

The broadcast briefly summarized Churchill's report in the House of Commons yesterday on his talks with President Eisenhower.

Governors Ask Showdown On Highway Plans

BOLTON LANDING, N.Y., (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania proposed and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California endorsed today a plan for a showdown conference of governors with President Eisenhower on a projected 50-billion-dollar highway program.

In a point-by-point criticism of an Eisenhower proposal laid before the 46th annual Governors Conference here by Vice President Nixon, Fine told his colleagues.

"We want the federal government to get out of the gasoline and fuel oil tax field once and for all and now is the time to do it before we embark on any large scale highway program such as the President has suggested."

Eisenhower proposed that the federal government and states cooperate to build a system of roads aimed at providing transportation for an expected 200 million population by 1970.

The President's proposal was interpreted by Fine, a Republican supporter of the administration, as placing a "cloud" on the states' control of road building activities and as involving continued federal aid which a majority of the governors have opposed.

Fine said he thinks the states should "take advantage of the President's offer" only after a conference of the governors in Washington this fall where "we can determine once and for all what is meant by it."

Gov. Knight, also a Republican, supported the conference proposal—so long as the meeting is held after the November elections in which he is running.

But the Californian told his colleagues they are going to have to figure out how the states can take the gasoline tax away from the federal government and still build a system of interstate roads such as the President suggested.

Gov. Dan Thornton, Colorado Republican who is chairman of the conference, told a panel meeting Sherman Adams, chief of the White House staff, had authorized him to say that Eisenhower is asking the governors to come up with suggestions as to how to build the proposed system of highways.

Thornton said the President agrees the "primary responsibility" rests with the states.

Fine said he was glad to hear Eisenhower holds that view, but he added there had been "some things said that didn't convince me" on that point in Nixon's reading of Eisenhower's notes at the annual state dinner last night.

Eisenhower cancelled a personal appearance here after a death in his family.

So far as Pennsylvania is concerned, Fine said, "we want to continue to build our own roads unimpeded by any federal system because there is in our state—and has been for some time—a highway program that will take 12 years to complete."

Meet Called By McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) today called for a Senate Investigations subcommittee meeting Thursday which could produce action on demands for the firing of some staff employes.

McCarthy, the chairman, told newsmen he was calling the meeting specifically as a step toward his long-deferred investigation of alleged Communist infiltration on defense plants.

He said he will invite the subcommittee's members, however, to let him known in advance if they want to take up other matters. Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) said he will move to take up staff problems.

June 17, as the subcommittee wound up 36 days of hearings into the row between McCarthy and Army officials, Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) said he believed some firings were in order among employes on both sides.

MAIMED GIRL TESTIFIES

Celia Sanchez, 9, testifies in court that she was beaten and maimed by both her mother and stepfather during the trial of her mother, Mrs. Trinidad Vera, on charges of child beating. After the girl's testimony, her step-father, Jose Cruz Vera, also was ordered arrested on charges of felonious assault. Women jurors wept as the child, still wearing a cast on one arm, told of being beaten, crippled, knifed and half blinded in one eye. She was hospitalized for several weeks.

Approve Hiked School Budget

More than a score of tax consultants for various companies of the oil industry met with the school board here last night for the public hearing on the proposed school budget for 1954-55, which was adopted for a total of $1,724,882.

Without dissention, the proposed budget was adopted at an increase of $617,310 over the previous budget of $1,617,310.

The necessity of the increase was explained by Dr. Cecil L. Yarbrough, superintendent of schools, as the result of increased enrollment and population and an increase in services offered students and patrons.

It was explained that the enrollment at the end of the last term was about 250 more than at the beginning of the term and that present census figures indicate now that there will be about 500 more students in the schools here next year than there were last year.

BOND ISSUE

Because of the increase in population and expected enrollment, some of the representatives present asked board members if it were not likely that the school district would be forced to call for a bond election within the next year to build additional facilities.

The board affirmed that this was not only likely but almost certain. Just what facilities would be built has not been determined, but the board has agreed that any building program needed within the next few years should be provided by late this year so that building can begin early next year and be completed in time for use in the following term, the 1955-56 school year.

When the present elementary school buildings were constructed, they were designed and built in such a way as to be added onto. The only additions to the present buildings anticipated, however, would be for a slight increase in classroom space and a program room at each school.

Informal discussion of school leaders and architects has shown a general concensus that a new elementary school building is needed in Snyder.

Dr. Yarbrough explained last night that the high school facilities here are adequate for the next few years, provided the rate of enrollment and population increase remains constant.

The growing pains are beginning to occur throughout the elementary schools, however. The school system has never ceased to use at least some wooden buildings which were hastily built during the boom because of the sudden shortage of classrooms.

Tax consultants at last night's hearing expressed surprise that the proposed budget was not much larger. The relatively small increase, explained the superintendent, was due chiefly to a saving of about $63,000 during the last term.

$23,000 BALANCE

A year ago, school officials believed the system would end the 1953-54 year with an unavoidable deficit of about $40,000, even after paying all it could on past debts in an effort to minimize that deficit, which was then about $70,000.

Instead of the $40,000 deficit, the system ended the last term with no deficit and with $23,000 brought forward.

When this was mentioned at the

Conferences Are Set For Later Today

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived here today and said he considers that a collective defense organization for southeast Asia could help France get "just and honorable peace terms" in Indo-china.

Dulles flew into Paris aboard a U.S. Military Air Transport Constellation for a British-French attempt to convince him an "honorable" peace can still be won in Indochina—and that his presence in Geneva would help win it.

He is scheduled to talk with French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. Eden and Mendes-France left Geneva earlier today to be on hand for the conference.

In a statement, Dulles recalled he had come to Paris last April 13, before the Geneva conference started, to talk about forming a Southeast Asian defense pact.

At that time, he said, he felt such an organization would help France. "I still feel the same way," he added.

He went on to explain:

"The United States is not itself a belligerent and therefore not a proper party to many aspects of the problem which are the principal concern of the Geneva conference. However, we do have a great and continuing interest in collective action by France, Great Britain, the United States and other free countries to promote the peace and freedom of the area.

"This, as well as pressing European problems, will, I hope, be among the subjects of our conversations here, which are bound to re-emphasize to the Communists the futility of their efforts to divide us."

The reference to European problems indicated Dulles expects to discuss plans for the six-nation European army which France has delayed placing before its Parliament for ratification.

Dulles' flight here was in answer to an urgent appeal from Mendes-France. On leaving Washington last night, the American secretary emphasized that Paris was his present destination.

At conferences this afternoon and tonight, Mendes-France and Eden will outline the prospects for an Indochina peace settlement in an attempt to allay American fears that France is getting ready to surrender to the Reds at Geneva. Dulles' determination that the United States should not be saddled with responsibility for any such settlement resulted in his decision that neither he nor Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith would return to Geneva for the final round of negotiations.

Western diplomats at the Geneva conference viewed Dulles' trip to Paris as a strengthener for Mendes-France, who has only eight days left to make good on his promise to win an "honorable" Indochina peace from the Communists by July 20 or resign.

French and British diplomats were hopeful their bosses could convince the American secretary he or Smith should return to the conference table with them. A French spokesman in Geneva said Mendes-France would make a "lightning visit" to Paris, and would be back in Switzerland tomorrow or Thursday.

But Dulles in an airport statement in Washington served notice the United States might part company with her European allies over future policy on Indochina.

"It is not clear that the interests which we hold in common with France and Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia will necessarily be best served by idental action in all respects," he declared, adding:

"Therefore, my trip to Paris is without prejudice to the position previously expressed that neither I nor Under Secretary Smith have at the present time any plans for going to Geneva, where the United States is presently maintaining contacts with developments through Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson and his associates."

Candidates For Governor In Tiff Over South Texas 'Deals'

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Candidate for Governor Ralph Yarborough says it is Gov. Allan Shivers, not Ralph Yarborough, who has made a deal with George Parr, the South Texas political boss.

Yarborough made a television broadcast from Dallas Monday night while Shivers appeared in a filmed record of his accomplishments in office. The governor prepared for the final two weeks of the campaign by resting at his home in Woodville.

For weeks Shivers publicly has been asking Yarborough if he could deny that he had promised to "call off" the investigations in South Texas which the governor and Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd say will "clean up the Duval County mess."

Yarborough denied it Monday night and charged the governor with making "secret deals" himself for the usually top-heavy vote in the 79th Judicial District where the Parr family has held sway for decades.

Said Yarborough on his TV show:

"I hold in my hand a picture of a billboard recently put up in Starr County showing the candidates for the border bosses for public office. It shows the border bosses have endorsed Allan Shivers for governor, (C. Woodrow) Laughlin for district judge, and Archer Parr for state representative.

"While Allan Shivers is in North Texas denouncing border bossism, he has made secret deals for the 20-to-1 in South Texas again this year, and I call upon the people of Texas to repudiate this kind of double dealing. I have made no promise to George Parr or anyone else to call off anything."

Shivers, accusing Yarborough of "riding the fence," repeated Monday a statement that Yarborough was "evading direct questions as to his stand on segregation in public schools, the George Parr-Duval County cleanup, and Texas tidelands."

Shivers' Monday night television show included the repeated endorsement of Senator A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, who has been active in public school legislation, and a promise from the governor to continue to improve state services at minimum tax rates.

The show emphasized Shivers' role in the battle for the tidelands, improvements to school, prison and hospital systems of Texas, and other phases of state government during his tenure.

The governor's Austin headquarters Monday night said he would hammer at the Parr, tidelands and segregation issues as he stumped East Texas this week.

After an appearance at Center Tuesday night, Shivers planned speeches Wednesday at Marshall, Carthage, Longview, Kilgore, and Tyler, where an 8 p.m. rally is to climax his day. He plans a 6:30 a.m. radio talk at Tyler Thursday, then whips his campaign on to Nacogdoches, Rusk, and Palestine. His 8:30 p.m. address at Palestine will be broadcast statewide.

Friday, he hits Athens (10 a.m.), Canyon (1 p.m.), Terrell (2:30 p.m.) and then Dallas for another TV appearance.

Yarborough, too, planned a strenuous week, moving to Liberty, Baytown, Galveston and Houston Tuesday, to Austin for a TV speech Wednesday, and then northeastward Thursday for Gilmer, Mount Pleasant, Clarksville and a night television show at Texarkana.

Friday, Yarborough set appearances in Atlanta, Jefferson, and Marshall before another TV show that night in Dallas. He winds up the week with Saturday appearances at Carthage, Center, San Augustine, Jasper, Lufkin and Nacogdoches.

Senate Panel Reverses Its Stand On Foreign Aid Edict

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, yielding to State Department appeals, reversed itself late yesterday and struck out of its $3,100,000,000 foreign aid bill a proposed notice to France and Italy to join a proposed European army or forego U.S. help after Dec. 31.

With two top Republican leaders voting against the move, the committee substituted less stringent language already approved by the House in a move to prod the two nations to approve the projected European Defense Community.

Now the bill goes to the Armed Services Committee, perhaps for further changes. That group considers it because much of the overseas program is arms aid.

Voting on the losing side in the Foreign Relations Committee for the virtual ultimatum to France and Italy were Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, and Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

The votes of five Democrats and three other Republicans gave the administration the 8-5 margin which deleted from the bill wording which would have ordered a shutoff of all foreign aid, military and nonmilitary, to France and Italy Dec. 31 if they had not joined EDC or an acceptable substitute. The provision had been tentatively approved Saturday.

Contributing to the reversal were a hurry-up visit to Capitol Hill by Secretary of State Dulles before he departed for diplomatic talks in Paris, and a warning from Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Europe. Gruenther, telephoning from Europe, termed the Senate version "dangerous," a term Dulles also reportedly had used.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), Foreign Relations Committee chairman, said the reversal restored House-approved language which would allow delivery to the two nations of equipment and materials on order from the 1951, 1952 and 1953 foreign aid programs, but will deny them any share in funds from the 1954 and 1955 programs unless they join EDC, a proposed six-nation army including West German troops.

The allowable deliveries would keep the aid flow going to both countries for an undisclosed period.

Wiley announced that those voting for the milder language were Senators H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), Aiken (R-Vt), Wiley, George (D-Ga), Green (D-RI), Fulbright (D-Ark), Sparkman (D-Ala) and Gillette (D-Iowa).

Voting "no" in the closed session, Wiley said, were Knowland, Ferguson and Senators Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), Langer (R-ND) and Mansfield (D-Mont).

Pentagon Officials See Dress Review

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—The Army massed its elite outfit, the 82nd Airborne Division, for a dress review to show Pentagon officials today a mobile striking force.

To the approximate 17,500 men of the famous airborne division, the Army added several thousand supporting troops and some of its newest atomic age weapons, including a six-gun battalion of 280 mm. nuclear cannon, two batteries of the "Honest John" heavy rocket weapon and two tank battalions.

The review and demonstration was set up for top Washington officials invited to Ft. Bragg, among them Deputy Secretary of Defense Robert B. Anderson, Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens and the Army chief of staff, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, the latter a World War II commander of the 82nd. Secretary of Defense Wilson canceled plans to attend so he could go to the Detroit funeral of a former associate.

Only rarely is a full Army division assembled for a formal review, an occasion which takes weeks of planning and days of equipment polishing. It takes hours just to parade almost 18,000 men, their trucks, jeeps, weapons carriers, tanks and guns past a reviewing point.

But the Army plans were not confined to a mere formal parade.

They scheduled also an actual, capsule demonstration of the "vertical envelopment" technique of the modern battlefield, assigning a battalion (about 800 men) to stage a parachute drop of troops and heavy equipment.

The 82nd Airborne is virtually the only one of eight divisions in the United States at full strength and equipped for going into action immediately. With full strength and high mobility, it thus represents virtually the core around which would be deployed to any point in the world in a new and serious emergency.

hearing, Hershel Harrington of Houston, representing the Texas Co., commended the board for showing the balance in its budget proposal, thus minimizing the total amount needed for the next term. He also commended the board on the drafting of the budget and asked "what tax expert" prepared it.

Yarbrough said a tax specialist did not prepare the budget but that Hicks Allen of Snyder, manager of Scurry Area Canyon Reef Operators Committee (SACROC) sat with the budget committee in advisory capacity. The superintendent publicly thanked Allen and attributed the style of the budget to Allen's suggestions.

Several other representatives then spoke concerning the presentation of the budget, agreeing with Harrington that "its manner of presentation made it easily understood."

99 PER CENT COLLECTIONS

The balance brought forward, and the clearance of the deficit, were due primarily to savings in costs of operations, Yarbrough said. Also factors in the balance were lack of fulfilment of a few positions called for in the last budget, which was regretted, and also to tax collections exceeding the anticipated amounts.

The new budget was based on anticipated collections of 99 per cent of the assessment total. Several representatives spoke favorably of this high precentage. The budget last year was based on an estimate of 96 per cent collections.

Some of those speaking to the group briefly last night were Harry Smith of Dallas, representing Magnolia Petroleum Corp., Carlton Meredith, Jr., of Dallas, representing a large number of oil companies; and R. E. McBride of Houston, representing the Standard Oil Co. of Texas.

(Iced watermelon was served to the 35 persons attending the hearing and was furnished by Meredith who has made such the custom in all meetings since the discovery of oil.)

TO SET VALUATION

It was generally agreed that the tax rate of $1 per each $100 of total valuation would not be increased at this time. The total valuation of property in the school district has continued to rise since the discovery of oil. The current valuation is $136 million. The year before, it was $127 million. It is believed that the valuation to be set by the equalization board in its meeting today will be about $145 million.

One of the largest phases in the increase of the budget is that of insurance costs, which rose from $7,784 last year to $27,403 for the new year. This comes under the heading of "fixed charges," Yarbrough said, "and nothing can be done about it." Salary increases for teachers, increase in number of teachers, and resulting increase in supplies further enlarge the budget.

Budget totals from 1951 - 52 through the newly adopted one are $1,156,642, $1,464,051, $1,617,310, and $1,724882. The budget for the first term after the discovery of oil was only about $330000.

Those present last night were 21 tax consultants, five school board trustees and their secretary, the superintendent and assistant superintendent, and the three equalization board members. One trustee absent because of serious illness was J. B. Turner.

BUDGET BREAKDOWNS

Receipts anticipated are $23,000 balance, $8,800 federal funds on vocational education and cafeteria reimbursement, $232,525 per capita apportionment from the state, $2,776 county available funds, $1,435,600 as 99 per cent collections of tax assessments, and $7,500 other local receipts — total $1,727,101.

The old and new budgets, in brief and general breakdown, follow:

	1953-54	1954-55
Administration	$ 83,200	$ 88,304
Instruction, white:
Salaries	669,830	786,027

Getting Rescued From Flood Is Enjoyable

ERDING, Germany (AP)—An U.S. Army helicopter pilot aiding in flood rescue work in Bavaria, told this one today:

He plucked several marooned people from a farm house. Later he took a man from a housetop who looked vaguely familiar.

"Didn't I bring you out a few hours ago?" the pilot asked.

"Yes," replied the man. "I enjoy riding in a helicopter and so I went back by row boat."

Council Has Routine Meet

The city council handled mostly routine matters in a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the city hall.

The panel heard a report from the city tax equalization board, which was made up of L. A. McClanahan, H. L. Wren, and L. L. Lewis. The board reported an estimated assessed city tax valuation of $11,600,000 for the 1954 tax roll, a slight increase over the 1953 figure of $11,207,000.

The council agreed to let an agreement with one developer outside the city limits here cover possible future development. The city makes contracts with developers outside the city limits, allowing the developer to pay for original installation of utilities and repaying him over a period of years by revenues of that development on the 50-50 basis. Harrie Winston, who is developing the Colonial Hills addition, was the developer yesterday.

Representatives of the Snyder National Bank met with the council, and the council passed a resolution authorizing the installation of a drive-in banking window on the sidewalk outside the bank. It authorized Mayor Malven Stevenson to execute a contract with the bank for rental on the four parking spaces to be used by the bank at the rate of $344 per year for 10 years. The council had already made an agreement with the West Texas State Bank for its planned drive-in service.

A loading zone was granted for the 2600 block of Avenue S. It had been requested by Bud England of Bud's office Supply.

Search Party Hunting Raft

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Another search party sails out after the raft Lehi today — confident after air sightings and radio contacts she is still floating southward in the Pacific.

The Lehi, only about 20 miles off central California, refused a Coast Guard tow to shore yesterday.

Four of her five crew members still hoped she would change course and drift the 2,200 miles southwest to Hawaii.

The fifth, radio operator Don Smith, of Santa Rosa, Calif., repeatedly radioed from the 32-foot, boxlike craft:

"Get me off this damned thing."

He complained he was coming down with the flu and threatened to call the Coast Guard for help.

The motorless raft was toed out of the Golden Gate Friday with no provisions.

The amateur adventurers planned to live off the sea. They have caught one salmon and one small shark and made "a little water" in their solar still.

The accident occured in Borden County.

All-Negro Cast To Present New Play

DALLAS (AP)—A William Saroyan play never before produced will go on stage here Thursday night with an all-Negro cast.

Saroyan is in town and will be in the unsegregated audience.

The actors are members of Dallas' Roundup Theater, a Negro group organized last year.

They got a chance at the premiere of "A Lost Child's Fireflies" by accident.

George Allen, president of the drama group, hired a white director, Maurice Alevy, to produce three plays this summer. Alevy decided on a Saroyan festival. He wrote to the author for permission to use his plays and invited him to attend.

From California, Saroyan sent his permission, his acceptance and an offer to let the Roundup Theater introduce "A Lost Child's Fireflies," written in 1950.

With Saroyan's blessing, Alevy did some cutting. Saroyan suggested the play needed background music, so Alevy hired Alfred P. MacKenzie, a Dallas Negro composer, to write it.

Not much is known about the plot. Alevy said it can't be classified exactly as drama, comedy or tragedy, "It's just a play about everyday people and their emotions through life," he said.

Alevy said he believes "A Lost Child's Fireflies" is about the equal of such Saroyan works as "My Heart's in the Highlands" and "The Time of Your Life," two hits of 1939.

Roundup Theater's first production in 1953 was "The Walls Rise Up," based on a book by George Sessions Perry. Since then its productions have included Tennessee Williams' "A Streetcar Named Desire," Thornton Wilder's "Our Town," and "My Granny Van," another play based on a Perry book.

All its directors so far have been white and its plays have been produced on any stages available.

However, Allen said Roundup Theater will have its own $12,000 to $15,000 building, with 250 seats, ready by fall. Mary Louise Waldron, who majored in drama at Atlanta University, will become the permanent director. She is in the cast of "A Lost Child's Fireflies."

Although Dallas is a segregated city as far as buses, restaurants and schools are concerned, there is no state law requiring segregation in theaters. It's up to the proprietor. All of Roundup Theater's productions have been attended by mixed audiences. "A Lost Child's Fireflies" will be in Scott Hall, generally a white theater.

Mother Guilty Of Brutality

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A young mother of eight children has been convicted of prolonged brutality against a 9-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Trinidad Vera, 28, was convicted by a jury yesterday of six felony counts, including four of assault, one of mayhem and one of assault with a deadly weapon. That makes her liable for a prison term of from 6 to 64 years.

She had pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity. Trial of the sanity plea begins Thursday.

During the trial the child, Celia Sanchez, and other witnesses testified that two years of mistreatment resulted in permanent damage to her vision, two skull fractures, many broken arms, loss of teeth and other injuries. Her trice-broken left arm still is in a cast despite extensive treatment that started in April when her plight was discovered.

Celia's stepfather, Jose Cruz Vera, 43, an ex-convict, was charged during the trial with four counts of felonious assault against Celia and one count of child molestation. He was jailed in lieu of $10,000 bail.

The Veras have six children of their own. Celia and a sister were Mrs. Vera's children by a previous marriage. Juvenile authorities said the mother told them she could give no reason for the beatings. Investigation indicated the other children were not mistreated.

Louisiana Shrimpers Go Back To Work

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP)—Some 250 shrimp boats, breaking a six-day tie-up, were to put to sea from Louisiana ports today, a union spokesman said.

President Jack Johanson of the Gulf Coast Shrimp Producers Assn. said the tie-up at Morgan City, Berwick and Patterson was ending because of reports that Brownsville, Tex., and other Gulf ports had called off their tieups.

Johanson said he believed the tie-up should continue until action is taken in Washington to protect the Gulf coast shrimp industry. However, he said, it was useless to continue the Louisiana strike if other coast fleets were going out.

Johanson blamed "cheap foreign shrimp coming into the United States" for what he said was a $25 a barrel drop to local shrimpers since last year.

Jackson Will Address C-C Session Here

R. E. "Prof" Jackson, one of the best-known humorists in the Southwest, will be main speaker at the Chamber of Commerce summer membership barbecue in Towle Memorial Park.

The barbecue will be held July 29. Guests of the chamber at the dinner will be about 40 persons who became members recently.

Entertainment for the affair will be furnished by Webb Air Force Base at Big Spring. Included will be one airman who was Massachusetts state champion baton twirler in high school one year in a baton-tap dance number, another who is a baritone, and a third one who is a comedian.

The barbecue is being planned by the chamber's merchant's activities committee, headed by Jay Rogers.

"Prof" Jackson, professor emeritus of government at Texas State College for Women, Denton, retired in 1953 to devote his full time to public speaking after 35 years of teaching at the school. Before going to TSCW he was principal of Denton High School.

Born on a farm in Hood County, Jackson had his early education in Texas. He received his bachelor of science degree at George Peabody College for Teachers and a master degree at the University of Chicago. He also attended Columbia and New York Universities.

Jackson has spoken in several states.

Mrs. Thorne Wants Body Of Son Exhumed

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Marion Thorne, wealthy Chicago socialite, has agreed that her son's body should be removed from its grave for final efforts of medical scientists to fix the cause of his mysterious death.

"I want to get at the truth," her attorney, Bartlett Marimon, quoted her as saying.

The inquest in the case resumes tomorrow.

Coroner Walter E. McCarron said he will appear before Chief Justice Charles S. Dougherty in Criminal Court today to get legal authorization to exhume the body of Montgomery Ward Thorne, 20-year-old heir to a mail order fortune.

The request came from a panel of prominent pathologists who were unable to determine the cause of death after reviewing the findings of Dr. Harry Leon, coroner's physician who believes young Thorne met with foul play.

Thorne died suddenly June 19, nine days after he rewrote his will and left three fourths of his estate to his sweetheart, Maureen Ragen, 18, and her mother Aleen. His mother, who was sole beneficiary under an earlier will, was left a one-eighth share.

Thorne told his attorney, Jay Stough, at that time he feared he might not live until his 21st birthday in October. He asked that his death, if it occurred, be thoroughly investigated.

Dr. Leon attributed Thorne's death to the depressive breath-sleeping potion and wood alcohol. He opined a second person might have administered narcotics in Thorne's veins.

However, the panel reported Monday that "toxicological examination of vital tissues has not revealed poisons in quantity to cause death."

The panel members microscopically examined slides of tissue sections from Thorne's body and also studied new specimens they prepared from organ samples removed from the body before burial.

Atomic Sub Engine Could Circle Globe

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The land-based model of the world's first nuclear submarine engine "has already produced more than enough power to send an atomic submarine around the world, fully submerged and at full speed."

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee said so today in a report to the Senate and House recommending a series of changes in the basic Atomic Energy Act.

The engine, a land-based "prototype" of the atomic engine now installed in the USS Nautilus, is located at the Atomic Energy Commission's testing site in eastern Idaho.

Speaking of prospects for economic atomic power for industry, however, the committee said only that such an objective "is on the horizon, though not within our immediate reach."

The legislation which the committee recommended would generally carry out President Eisenhower's recommendations for changes in the 1946 Atomic Act to allow exchange of some nuclear secrets with Allied nations and permit private industry to enter the atomic power field.

The bill as a whole was unanimously approved by the 18-member committee, but some members expressed sharp dissents on some sections. The Senate may begin debate on the measure late today or tomorrow.

The bill would:

1. Authorize the negotiations of agreements with foreign nations in the area of peacetime uses of atomic energy. The committee said this would provide "a mechanism to implement the President's peacetime international atomic pool plan."

2. Permit the AEC to transfer to another nation participating in such an agreement atomic materials in quantities needed for the development or utilization of atomic energy for nonmilitary and research purposes.

3. Allow transfer to another nation, or to a regional defense organization, secret data concerning the tactical employment of atomic weapons—but not including any information on their design and fabrication.

The committee said such information would include "data necessary to the development of defense plans, the training of personnel in the employment of, and defense against, atomic weapons, and the evaluation of the capabilities of potential enemies in the employment of atomic weapons."

4. Permit the AEC to license private industry to possess and utilize atomic materials and to own atomic reactors or "furnaces" designed to produce and utilize such materials.

May Intercept Russian Ship

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) —Chinese Nationalist warships may attempt to intercept the 15,000-ton Soviet tanker Leningrad, which has cleared Singapore for Shanghai in Red China, a high Nationalist official indicated today.

There was no comment concerning three other Soviet ships reported heading northward — two toward the Siberian port of Vladivostok, and one for Red China.

But there was widespread speculation here that the Soviet merchant ships might rendeavous with a submarine escort for the dangerous voyage through waters patrolled by Nationalist naval vessels.

The Nationalists seized the 8,840-ton Soviet tanker Tuapse June 23.

An official with top-level contracts, when asked today if the same fate faces the Leningard, replied:

"We have not received any official information on the movements of the Leningrad, but perhaps we will take the same action as we did in the case of the Tuapse."

The Leningrad reportedly carries a cargo of kerosene and diesel oil for Communist China. The Tuapse's petroleum cargo, also destined for Shanghai, has been unloaded by the Nationalists.

Nearly half a million U.S. people work in banks, nearly double the number so employed in 1936.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Foreign Policy By Impulse Is Producing Doubtful Results

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign policy by impulse. That's Secretary of State Dulles' policy on Indochina. He could have foreseen the crisis and planned for it. He didn't. When it came, he rushed off to Europe, seeking a solution. He found none. Now, suddenly, he's off to Europe, again. Both trips were on the spur of the moment.

He had talked big. It produced no action. He had talked optimistically. It proved erroneous. The French may make a peace that will let the Communists take much of Indochina now, all of it eventually. Dulles seems helpless to stop it and apparently feels helpless. The record tells the story.

On April 18, 1953, three months after he took office, he said the "Communists in the Far East can no longer count on winning by shifting their strength and by focusing attack on one or another free world position that is isolated from the others."

That is precisely what the Chinese Communists did after they got an armistice in Korea in mid-1953. They began pouring supplies and advisers into Indochina to help the Communist-led Vietminh against the French.

On Jan. 25 began the conference between Dulles and the foreign ministers of Britain, France and Russia: Eden, Bidault and Molotov. Before arriving there Dulles said the conference would be a waste of time if all Molotov wanted to do was divide the Allies.

That's all the conference accomplished. Molotov used it to start the machinery for dividing the Allies. The main purposes of the conference — unification of Germany and an Austrian peace treaty—got nowhere. Molotov didn't bend an inch on them.

But he got agreement by Dulles, Eden and Bidault to meet with him and the Chinese Communist Premier, Chou En-lai, at Geneva in April to discuss peace in Korea and Indochina. The French, tired of fighting eight years in Indochina, were anxious for peace.

On March 29 Dulles suddenly said the possibility of Communist domination of all Southeast Asia should be stopped by "united action." Any step so momentous would seem to call for coosultation between Dulles and America's allies. Apparently he sprang it without consulting them. Five Allied ambassadors called on him the next day to find out what he had in mind.

Nevertheless, on April 5, he told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that while the situation in Indochina seemed "fraught with danger" there was no reason to question the French plan for winning in Indochina by 1955. This was at the very moment when the Vietminh were beginning to overwhelm the French at Dien Bien Phu.

Six days later, April 11, Dulles flew to London to get the British and French to join in "united action" to save Indochina. He had had almost 15 months to plan for such action in Indochina if crisis occurred. There is no sign he did any such planning. He began when the crisis arrived.

The British turned Dulles down, preferring to wait for the outcome of the Geneva conference before getting into a war in Asia. Dulles made it clear, in repeated statements, that this country wouldn't go alone into Indochina to help the French. The French, with no hope of American intervention, went to Geneva looking for peace.

The conference opened April 26. Dulles stayed seven days. He sat by while the French talked with the Communists about a truce in Indochina.

By May 11 Dulles, back home, was talking of the possible loss of all Indochina but thought it possible for an anti-Red coalition to hold the rest of Asia. He planned talks with Britain and other allies on this.

But the foreign ministers who met at Geneva all went home to talk things over and are back in Geneva now. Dulles, not wanting to give American blessing to a deal that might lose Indochina, did not plan to go near Europe. He apparently had no plans as late as noon yesterday. The French asked him to go to Paris, at least. He took off suddenly last night for Paris.

Miners To Get Health Checks

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Are uranium miners exposing themselves to radioactivity which could shorten their lives? The U.S. Public Health Service is going to find out, if it can.

The service, in cooperation with the Atomic Energy Commission and the health departments of Utah, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico, has sent two motor caravans onto the vast Colorado Plateau, heart of the nation's uranium boom, to gather the facts.

Actually begun in 1950, the study may take years more to complete.

The motorized medical teams are scheduled to visit 20 mining districts in the four-state area this summer. Officials said that more than 1,000 miners and mill workers have been examined in the last four years.

Rosemary Clooney Is Expecting In January

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer Rosemary Clooney and her husband, Jose Ferrer, announced last night on the eve of their first wedding anniversary that they are expecting a child next January.

The couple returned yesterday from New York, where Miss Clooney appeared in a television show. She hopes to appear in one or two more movies before the stork arrives.

Man Admits Firing Shot

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP)—Police said a man, found in the apartment building where a Battle Creek mother was shot yesterday, told them he killed her because she was "the biggest Communist in the world."

Robert Roscoe, 28, an unemployed door-to-door shoe salesman, was held by police. They said he told them "I'm an FBI agent and I've been after her for a long time."

Police said Roscoe was found in a hallway near the room where the body of Mrs. Beulah Pontius, 40, the mother of six children, was lying.

Roscoe, police said, told of also planning to kill the woman's husband, Chester, 42, because "they were both Communists."

Only minutes before the shooting, the husband had left for work at a Battle Creek bakery.

Roscoe, who lives in the same apartment building, was found by police standing in the hall with a .22 caliber rifle in his hands. They said he surrendered meekly, saying:

"It's all right, I just killed the biggest Communist in the world."

Police said the Pontius family had no connections with communism.

Dogs To Be Allowed More Barking Time

WATERTOWN, N.Y., (AP)—A barking dog's life, the City Council says, can begin an hour earlier each morning.

The Council voted last night to amend a recent ordinance that stipulated that dogs "are not permitted to howl or bark between the hours of 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. so as to disturb the neighbors."

Yielding slightly to the protests of dog owners who had trouble convincing their pets, the councilmen moved the morning curfew back to 7 a.m.

Court Rule Makes Embezzled Funds Subject To Taxes

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Embezzled funds are subject to income tax under terms of a ruling by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The court made the ruling yesterday in upholding the conviction of Arthur B. Marienfield of St. Louis, former president of the Mar Meat Co. He was sentenced to 15 months in prison and fined $5,000 in Federal District Court last year after being convicted for evading $23,968 in income taxes for 1946.

In his appeal, Marienfield contended the money which the government claimed was income and was used by him, actually belonged to the firm.

Appeals Court Judge Harvey M. Johnsen wrote:

"One who acquires funds by criminal means and uses them for his own purposes has no less measure of economic gain, value and enjoyment from them than the law-abiding citizen."

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Woman's Culture Club First Organized In 1925

The object of the Woman's Culture Club, as stated in its constitution, harks back to the original name of the club.

The first name was Mother's Culture Club, according to Mrs. J. P. Avary, who has been a member since the second or third year of the club's history.

For the first five years after the club was organized in 1925, it followed a course of study planned for mothers, and the object is still listed this way: "to promote the culture of its members and the mental, moral and spiritual development of the children."

After the five-year plan was completed, the group realized, Mrs. Avary said, that there were many desirable members who were not mothers and so the name of the club was changed.

There is now only one charter member who is active in the club. That is Mrs. E. J. Richardson, Sr., now serving as treasurer.

Mrs. W. W. Gross, president, has been a member of the Woman's Culture Club since 1945. The first president was Mrs. C. F. Sentell.

For its study courses, the club adheres to programs mapped out by the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Social events usually observed include a luncheon at the opening of the club year, a Christmas party and a breakfast near the end of the year in May.

Among civic projects undertaken by the group was the stone arch built over the entrance to the Snyder cemetery. This was built in 1932, during the presidency of Mrs. Avary.

The club also contributed to the building of a park formerly situated just west of what is now Snyder Junior High School.

Also as a group, the members contribute each year to drives such as the March of Dimes, Red Cross, etc.

Members who have come into the club within the last year or two include Mrs. R. L. Terry, Mrs. R. H. Murray, Mrs. N. W. Autry, Mrs. Will Murphree, Mrs. B. H Moffett and Mrs. Edgar Wilson.

Other officers serving now are Mrs. J. W. Clawson, vice president; Mrs. Henry Kelley, second vice president; Mrs. A. C. Martin, recording secretary; Mrs. S. L. Terry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Avary, club counselor; Mrs. Bernard Longbotham, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Murphree, reporter.

The club's motto is this: "Club life teaches us that there are many kinds of beauty in the world—the beauty of ideas, of knowledge, of sympathy, and used in any way for the general good."

Pantryshelf special: Mix a can of spaghetti in tomato sauce with a small can of salmon that you have broken into chunks, and spoon into a shallow baking dish. Top with buttered crumbs and heat in a hot oven. Serve with a green salad.

Dances Will Climax Rodeo Queen Race

A tea dance and rehearsal this afternoon at the country club will be a prelude to the coronation of the rodeo queen, which is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school stadium.

The dance, which is to take place from 3 to 5 o'clock, will be a favor to out-of-town duchesses from the princesses (candidates for queen of the Scurry County rodeo).

Four towns have indicated that they will send duchesses as representatives at the coronation. They are Gail, represented by Barbara Miller; Lamesa, Phyllis Emory; Sweetwater, Ann Lightfoot; and Anson, Malinda Lou Barlett. Miss Bartlett is the latest duchess to accept the invitation to attend the coronation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Bartlett and will be escorted by Bobby Wedekin.

Hostesses for the dance will be Mrs. Jack Bowden and Mrs. Clyde Hall Jr.

After the coronation the queen and her court, with other teenage friends of the participants, will attend a dance given by mothers of the queen nominees at the country club.

HEARTY SUPPER SALAD for a meal-in-one.

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5486.

Here's a real "man-size" rice salad that makes fine eating. It's an ideal main dish these warm summer evenings at the end of a busy day.

No cooking at all is needed because it's made with wonderful packaged pre-cooked rice. This fine fluffy rice has been "cooked" for you, so there's no fuss or bother at all. Hearty Supper Salad is a quick-easy dish you'll serve again and again.

HEARTY SUPPER SALAD

1 1.3 cups (5-ounce package) pre-cooked rice
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups boiling water
1 to 1¼ cups mayonnaise
1 teaspoon grated onion
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 cup slivered cooked ham
1 cup slivered Swiss cheese
1 cup cooked peas
¼ cup chopped dill pickle
1 or 2 firm ripe tomatoes, cut in wedges

Add packaged pre-cooked rice and ½ teaspoon salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.

About 1 hour before serving, combine mayonnaise, grated onion, teaspoon salt, and the pepper, mixing well. Combine ham, cheese, peas, and pickle in a bowl. Stir in the mayonnaise mixture. Then add the rice and mix lightly with a fork. Chill. Serve on crisp lettuce and garnish with tomato wedges. Serve with additional mayonnaise if desired. Makes 6 servings.

If desired, use 1 box (10 ounces) quick-frozen green peas. Cook as directed on package, drain, and cool.

ANOTHER SALT FLOWER

Another reader has called in a different recipe for making a salt flower. This one provides for a little more color, so we offer it too. Take four small lumps of coal and place in a glass bowl. Put in two tablespoons of salt, two tablespoons of bluing and two tablespoons water. At the same time the next day add the same amount of salt and water and two drops of mercurochrome. On the fourth day the flower begins to grow. As water evaporates, add more water and salt.

Add caraway seed or celery seed to a potato salad for good flavor. You'll need about a teaspoon of the seed to about four cups of cubed cooked potatoes. Serve the salad with boiled frankfurters, corned beef or sliced ham.

Railroads Making Bids For Increased Passenger Volume

By ED MORSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Chances are you'll be riding an ultra modern lightweight train one of these days. It's a new thrill in railroading.

It's also supposed to thrill the railroad budget balancers with its vast economies and revenue-pulling power. It's cheaper to build, cheaper to operate and faster.

These trains of the future are aimed at just one thing: slaying the dragon that has menaced the railroad industry so long—chronic passenger deficits.

To do that, they'll have to fascinate you and attract your patronage with their speed, convenience and easiness on your bankroll.

They'll have to sell you on the idea that it's smarter to take a trip by train than to pack your family into the car and bull your way through congested and perilous highways. For the railroad's top rival in the passenger business is the family car.

The railroads must wake up and revamp their passenger service according to the facts of life in this motor and airplane age, according to Patrick B. McGinnis, new head of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

By all means use your car, says McGinnis. But for a sizable trip—say the 229 miles between New York and Boston—drive it to a suburban railroad station of a type he envisions with a huge parking lot. Park your car. Ride the train in comfort to a similar station outside Boston on a swift, modern, low-slung, lightweight train.

This way, he says, you'll make the trip in 2½ hours instead of the four hours now required between the huge city terminals—and you can't park your car at those terminals.

Robert R. Young, now boss of the New York Central, for years has crusaded for a revolutionary, lightweight passenger train. While he headed the Chesapeake & Ohio he demonstrated what he called "Train X," a one-car experimental unit made by Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing Co.

ACF Industries, Inc., made a similar train called the Talgo, which has been operating for five years between Madrid and the French border.

It was a counterpart of this train that ACF has been showing these past weeks on the New Haven Railroad. It recently had a 157-mile demonstration run between New Haven, Conn., and Boston. During the trip McGinnis said this Talgo was just a "prototype" of a much-improved train he wants.

Because the Talgo floor is two feet lower than a standard train's, you merely take a normal step from a near-ground-level station platform. You enter an interior much wider, and lower-ceilinged than a standard railroad car. It seems more like an airplane. You sink into an airplane-type reclining seat.

The train accelerates easily. The faster you go the smoother it rides. It saves time taking curves at 87 miles per hour whereas the regular speed limit is 70. On a straight run it hits a peak of 102.8 miles per hour on a road where the legal limit is 79. The ride is steady and sure.

When will the train of the future arrive?

The Rock Island Railroad has already ordered two Talgo-type trains from ACF for delivery in December 1955. The train of the future was discussed by presidents of four Eastern railroads last week. Various car manufacturers talked with them.

A standard design for a future train is hoped for. That way the railroads can club together on orders in big lots and save money.

Country Folks Still Make Good In City

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—They say the big city is a place where a country boy can come and, by hard work, earn enough money so he can afford to live in the country again.

The saying holds true for country girls, too—for example, Martha Wright.

Martha, a farmer's granddaughter, first learned to sing by crooning barnyard lullabies back in Duvall, Wash. She hit the heights here, however, by "Washing That Man Right Out of Her Hair" through 1,048 performances of "South Pacific."

Today the blue-eyed farm girl with the tousled mop of red-blonde hair, who was glad to get $5 for her first radio appearance, now is in the $100,000-a-year-plus bracket.

But while she thinks Broadway is a great street to make a living on, she agrees with most out-of-towners that it's no place to live for anybody who ever liked to go barefoot. She gets her mail at a 10-acre rented country place near Westport, Conn.

"It was like going back to my childhood," she said the other day during a break in rehearsals for a TV show.

"I was raised on a farm, and used to love to ride farm horses. I don't have any horses now, but the place has two swans, a stray pigeon and a couple of black miniature poodles.

"No, I don't find it lonely. City tensions get me down. It is wonderful to be able to read a newspaper and relax—all by yourself.

"And I manage to keep busy. I do my own gardening and take care of the yard, too. My only romantic interest right now is the power mower at home."

Martha has retained the typical Westerner's preference for simple informal living. She has a breezy dislike for all forms of fuss and ceremony. She drives to and from work herself, and this summer she and her maid will take turns at the wheel on a motor tour to Seattle, where her parents live.

"About the only problem I have right now is this darned weight," she said, comfortably forking at a piece of chopped sirloin steak. "I don't have to fight weight hard—but sometimes I should fight it harder than I do."

Prison Seeks Title To New Mexico Land

SANTA FE, N.M., (AP)—You don't own any of the land the New Mexico Penitentiary sits on, do you?

Scads of other folks do—or their ancestors claimed they did—and the prison is suing those it knows about to prove they don't.

The whole matter came up in a preliminary step to clear title to the 100 acres of land comprising the 75-year-old prison site. It was part of an ancient land grant.

Attorneys representing the prison say the old records are incomplete and indefinite.

The list of defendants in the prison's suit to clear title totals 1,040 persons and companies. Of these, about 350 are living and their whereabouts are known. The rest have died, or can't be traced.

Landslides Take Toll

MEDELLIN, Colombia (AP)—At least five persons were killed and 60 injured by landslides near here yesterday. A search for more victims continued during the night.

The first landslide attracted many rescuers and onlookers. A second slide buried many in the crowd.

There are about 80 million motor vehicles in the world.

Ohio Vs. SMU In '58

DALLAS (AP)—Ohio State and Southern Methodist Universities will meet in a nonconference football game in 1958, it was announced yesterday.

The teams will clash Sept. 27, 1958, at Columbus, O. It will be their third game since 1950.

Neilson Greer, Sweetwater center fielder, gets one of his team's three hits in the Sweetwater-Lubbock Pony League game here last night. This was a single in the seventh, but the third out was made before Greer could turn the hit into a run. Lubbock won the game 12-2. Snyder downed Colorado City 17-0 in the second game and will meet Lubbock at 8 o'clock tonight here in sub-district finals. The catcher here is Akin Sanders. The ump is Gus Steiner. Major Players Now Have 'Association'

By JACK HAND

CLEVELAND (AP) — The major league baseball players have organized formally into an association with by-laws and a constitution but no dues. J. Norman Lewis, their lawyer, goes out of his way to insist this is no union.

Lewis will receive a reported 30,000 fee for services rendered in helping the players negotiate a new pension contract with the owners. His fee covers work through October 1954.

"There is no definite arrangement for the future after October," said Lewis. "We didn't discuss it. That is something that probably will be decided later."

Lewis' fee will come out of the central fund into which All-Star Game gate receipts and All-Star and World Series radio-television cash is placed. According to Lewis, the owners' committee already has agreed to the payment and the players followed suit yesterday. Pension payments also are paid out of the same central fund.

The 16 current player representatives, one from each big league club will continue in office until July, 1954 when a general election will be held. The term of office will be two years. In the past there has been no formal term. Two league player representatives also will be elected for two years in 1955.

There will be four regular meetings of the player representatives, the first week in April, All-Star week, World Series week and the first week in December.

The player representatives have been functioning without by-laws or a positive legal setup, since 1946 after the Mexican League threat when several players "jumped" to Mexico and Robert Murphy, Boston lawyer, tried unsuccessfully to organize a players' union.

To assist in handling the pension fund, Allie Reynolds of the New Work Yankees and Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs were elected to two-year terms. They will serve on a four-man committee with John Galbreath, Pittsburgh owner, and Hank Greenberg, Cleveland general manager.

A new player pension agreement, by which the pension fund will get 60 per cent and the owners 40 per cent of the All-Star Game and World Series TV will be drawn up by Lewis and the lawyers of the two majors, Ben Fiery of the American and Lou Carroll of the National. The present pension agreement expires with the end of the radio-TV contracts in 1955.

Midland Hurler Gets Rockets A Game Off

By The Associated Press

A Midland hurler who hasn't heard about the Roswell jinx on righthanders has dumped the Rockets a full game off the pace in the Longhorn League.

Romarico Soto threw a neat eight-hitter past the Rockets Monday night as Midland took a 13-3 decision. The loss, coupled with league-leading Artesia's 5-2 victory over San Angelo, put some light between first and second place. Roswell now trails by a full game and 16 points.

Other Longhorn action included Big Spring's 12-11 edging of Odessa and Carlsbad's 7-5 victory over Sweetwater.

Gil Hodges Is Finally Paying Traffic Fines

NEW YORK (AP)—The judge was a Dodger fan but that didn't help Brooklyn first baseman Gil Hodges escape a $50 traffic fine.

Hodges pleaded guilty yesterday to a two-year-old speeding charge. He said he had not appeared earlier because he forgot about the summons served on him April 12, 1952.

"Although I'm a Dodger fan myself, Mr. Hodges reached home plate here much too late," remarked Magistrate James E. Lo Piccolo as he fixed the fine at $50.

Tony Manero, who won the 1936 National Open golf crown at Baltusrol, recently scored an eagle on the par five 18th hole during a practice round.

Williams Puts Pampa In Win With Homer

By The Associated Press

The Pampa Oilers, involved in a major mid-season shakeup, needed a 10th inning home run by Sam Williams to edge the Borger Gassers 11-9 in a West Texas-New Mexico League game last night.

The victory enabled the Oilers to cling to second place two games behind league leading Clovis which had trouble bumping Plainview 6-5.

The Amarillo Gold Sox broke out of a tie for third with Abilene by splitting a twin bill with Lubbock while Abilene was losing 13-4 to Albuquerque. Amarillo won the first game 6-2 but dropped the second 6-4.

Pampa hired Hershel Martin, formerly of Borger, as manager to replace Doug Lewis, reported involved in another deal. Don Tierney and George Lambrinos were sent to Lafayette of the Evangeline League. Tierney an outright sale and Lambrinos on option.

The Oilers fought an uphill battle for their victory, rallying for seven runs in the ninth to send the game into overtime. The big blow of that rally was a three-run homer by I. B. Palmer with two out.

Clovis combined a double by Virgil Richardson and two long flies for its winning run in the eighth inning against Plainview as Red Dial picked up his 18th victory of the campaign.

Lubbock chased Eddie Locke with a five-run uprising in the first inning in winning the second game against the Gold Sox. Locke had fashioned a three-hitter in winning the opener but got only one of six men be faced in the second game.

Albuquerque came from behind with a seven-run surge in the fourth to overcome Abilene with the big blow a bases-loaded double by catcher Bobby Flores.

Dodd Is Promoted

WINK (AP)—J. L. Dodd, for three years assistant coach, has been named head foootball coach of Wink High School.

Dodd, a football player at Sul Ross College, coached one year at Uvalde before coming here.

Snyder, Lubbock Will Meet In Pony Finals Here Tonight

Snyder and Lubbock will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in Towle Memorial Park for the sub-district championship in Pony League baseball.

The two teams were winners in first round games last night. The games, played before more than 2,500 persons, lasted uhtil 12:25 o'clock this morning. Tonight the two teams will be playing for the right to meet the winner of a tournament among Big Spring, Midland, McCamey, and Crane for championship of this district.

Lubbock last night picked off Sweetwater 12-2, while Snyder shut out Colorado City 17-0. Neither team had mueh trouble taking the wins. Sweetwater held Lubbock close for four innings, but that was as long as the Lubbock ponies would be held.

Lubbock led its game 3-2 at the end of the fourth. Sweetwater had just made its two runs in the fourth when Neilson Greer doubled them in. In the fifth, Lubbock cut loose with six runs scored on four hits, three walks, and two errors.

Sweetwater changed pitchers at the beginning of the sixth, but that did not stop Lubbock. Darnell Moser, who had hurled the first five innings, allowed five hits and four walks while striking out seven. His relief was Bud McQueen, who finished the game and gave up one hit, walked one, and fanned two. During his time in the game, Lubbock got three more runs, one of them coming in on a double by Casey Wiley.

Winning hurler was DeWitt Weaver, Jr., who went the whole game to strike out 10, walk three, and give up three hits.

Snyder jumped ahead in the first inning of its win over C-City by scoring eight runs. Earl Burleson, opening batter, doubled, then the entire batting order got onto base and then went into the order again. Jimmy Allen and Maxey Carey both got doubles. Ronnie Baker brought in two runs with a single, while Mickey McGrew got one on a single. Carey brought in two.

In the second, McGrew and Roe Lashaway each knocked in runs, McGrew on a double. Gary Vice opened the third with a triple and later scored. Burleson knocked in one run in the fourth, and another came in on an error. The fifth saw McGrew double in one run and two more came in.

In all, the Snyder team got five doubles and one triple. James Vest had started on the mound for C-City. In one-third of an inning, he gave up three hits and on walk. He was replaced by Lynn Carpenter, who lasted two innings to give up six hits and walk one. Ronald Feaster, the team's best pitcher, took the rest of the game, striking out seven, allowing four hits, and walking one.

Winner was Ronnie Baker, who went three full innings to fan five, allow no hits, and walk none. During all Baker's time in the game, each inning was three up and three down. Dick Hayes took over for two innings to strike out six, give up one hit, and walk one. James Patterson finished, striking out three and allowing one hit.

Colorado City got only three on base during the game. One was on a double hit by Jerry Epperson. The team commited nine errors to Snyder's none.

Important Bout Is Set For Tomorrow

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The most important heavyweight bout to be fought the remainder of this year might well be the number scheduled here tomorrow night between Hurricane Jackson, a spectacular 22-year-old Negro from Long Island, and Nino Valdes, the Cuban speedster who has been yelling for a title shot ever since he defeated Ezzard Charles in a major upset last summer.

The bout, which will be televised nationally, assumes added sature because of the growing conviction that Charles will not fight Rocky Marciano again this year, if at all. There are men close to the game who are convinced that Ezzard, despite his protestations to the contrary, got more than enough of Rocky at Yankee Stadium last month.

Regardless of whether Charles is permitted to risk his life again, either this year or next, it is a fairly safe bet that the winner of tomorrow night's scrap will eventually find himself in the ring with the Rock. Valdes currently is rated the No. 2 contender, while the uninhibited Jackson is listed no better than No. 5, but the latter figure is misleading if we are permitted to deal in potentials.

Up to a night in April, when he ran afoul of a cutie named Jimmy Slade and caught a surprise licking, Jackson was considered the hottest thing in boxing trunks. Some thought he was a new Joe Louis, destined to win the championship in short order possibly without ever meeting defeat. Slade, the clever veteran, put an artistic crimp in these plans for the Hurricane, but the young Negro remains as remarkable a physical specimen as he ever was and it could be a grave mistake to count him out for good.

Jackson blamed his first setback on his mother, Mrs. Georgia Jackson, claiming she interfered with his training by keeping him home nights. Since then he has done his training at regular camps, like other fighters. He began his "comeback" by scoring a fast technical knockout over Charlie Norkus at the Garden late in May.

Valdes' chief claim to fame—until he sneaked up on a lethargic Charles down in Florida, was as the reigning heavyweight champion of Cuba. He since has cut a swath through Europe while waiting for officials of the International Boxing Club to say hello to him.

First Division Nines Take Sooner Losses

By The Associated Press

First division teams took it on the chin Monday night in the Sooner State League, with pace-setting Shawnee the sole member of the Big Four escaping defeat.

The Hawks expanded their margin over second-place Lawton with a 7-2 decision over McAlester.

Last-place Pauls Valley defeated Lawton 5-3 on Glenn Rediger's two-run homer in the seventh.

Seminole outscored Ada 149.

Ardmore and fading Gainesville split a twinbill, Ardmore taking the first 8-5 and the Texans the second 6-5.

New series tonight match the top two teams with Lawton traveling to Shawnee. Ardmore is at Ada, McAlester at Pauls Valley and Gainesville at Seminole.

New Flare-Up Along Border

JERUSALEM (AP)—Another flare-up on the tense Israel-Egypt border costing the lives of six Egyptian soldiers and one Israeli posed a new problem today for the U.N. Palestine armistice commission.

Reports of the latest incident came yesterday as the commission issued a statement blaming both Arabs and Jews for the June 30—July 2 shooting across the no-man's land dividing Jerusalem.

The commission is scheduled to continue its discussion on that fray today.

Both Egyptian and Israeli sources accused each other of setting off the new skirmish which broke out Saturday night near Gaza.

Egypt accused Israel of armed aggression at the frontier post of Deir Elbalah and demanded an emergency meeting of the armistice group. A detailed charge made in Cairo said besides the six Egyptians killed, four were missing and two wounded.

An Israeli spokesman said one Israeli soldier was killed and two wounded in an Egyptian attack on an Israeli patrol near the Gaza strip.

Commenting on the earlier shooting in Jerusalem in which nine persons were killed and 52 wounded, Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike, Danish chief of the armistice commission, said both Israel and Jordan had violated their cease-fire. But he added it was impossible to tell who fired the first shot.

RESTORATION PROJECT— Architect Werner March, left, and Protestant Bishop Gerhard Jacobi view model of war-damaged Kaiser Wilhelm Church to be rebuilt in Berlin.

Monarch May Call Landowner's Bluff

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran's rich and stubborn landowners, who balk at breaking up their giant estates because peasant buyers can't put up ready cash, may have their bluff called by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi.

High court sources say the sovereign plans to set up a fund of about 50 million dollars to pay off any landowner willing to follow the Shah's example of splitting up his holdings.

The Shah is convinced land reform is one of the best ways of heading off communism here. He will put up a major chunk of the fund. If the plan matures, the rest will be sought abroad, probably from the Export-Import Bank or from such American sources as the Point Four program.

So far the patient Iranian monarch is relying on persuasion and example in his determined effort to break the grip of big landlordism—especially absentee landlordism—on the nation's most fertile areas.

The Shah's land reform movement, supported to the hilt by American policy, started in 1951. It has met implacable opposition from Iran's rich owners.

In 1951, landlords accused the Shah of being a Communist for proposing to lift the nation's landless millions out of quasi-serfdom.

But the ruler pressed forward with distribution of his own vast crown lands and warned landlords to follow his example or face wholesale communism in the agricultural areas. His opponents dropped the "Communist" cry but claimed land reform violated the Korean.

Former Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, one of Iran's biggest landowners now doing three years solitary confinement for trying to overthrow the monarch, halted the program in 1953.

After Gen. Fazollah Zahedi's royalist coup last August, one of the Shah's first official acts was to resume distribution of his own lands. He put further heat under the still reluctant landlords by demanding the government follow suit and distribute millions of acres of government-owned lands. He warned the private landlords that for them, as well as the rest of the country, time was running out.

Since the end of World War II, Communist agents, have made deep inroads into the ranks of landless peasants and agricultural laborers. Since Iran's chief agricultural lands lie along the Soviet border, this constitutes a major security threat.

Soviet republics north of Iran are busily developing major collective farm setups and irrigation projects. To Iranian sharecroppers hopelessly in debt the pull to the left has been strong during the past two years.

The Shah, in cutting up 2,400 of his villages inhabited by a million people, lops 20 per cent off the purchase price as an outright gift to the buyer. The peasant buyer pays off the remaining 80 per cent over 25 years.

The Shah gets nothing out of the deal. The proceeds go into a separate fund earmarked for "the creation of productive resources and establishment of societies useful for peasants."

Heat Causes Problem In St. Louis Hospital

GRANITE CITY, Ill (AP)—St. Elizabeth Hospital nurses had trouble keeping their clinical thermometers down below 105 degrees because of the heat here yesterday.

The temperature in the hospital rooms was 105 degrees and it was a sweltering 109.3 in nearby St. Louis.

A hospital official said the thermometers maintain the temperature of the environment until they are shaken down. She explained an accurate reading could be taken by keeping the thermometer in cool water or alcohol and then putting it quickly into the patient's mouth.

One nurse took her thermometer into an air-conditioned room, ran cool water over it and cooled it to 98 degrees but by the time she got back to her patient the thermometer read 105 again.

Judge To Help Solve Robinson's Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I want to stop drinking but I can't," Edward G. Robinson Jr. told the Domestic Relations Court yesterday.

"I've had some experience in those matters," replied Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle. "I'll show you how."

So the busy judge, who handles more than 100 cases a day, offered to set aside his lunch each day for two weeks to talk to the actor's 21-year-old son, who has been arrested three times in recent months for intoxication.

Young Robinson's wife Frances, with whom he recently was reconciled, promised to help the judge. "I hope it works," she said. "It must work."

Police Have Trouble In Reuniting Couple

DETROIT (AP) — Eddie Tufford, 67, and his crippled wife Mandy have police in a quandary over how to reunite them.

The couple arrived in Detroit from Grand Rapids last Friday. They rented a room in the downtown area while Eddie went job hunting.

Since then Eddie has been trying to find his way back to the room. He told police yesterday he had been spending his nights in cheap hotels and the days trying to find Mandy.

His description of the area where he left his wife was of little help. Tuxford's worries mounted because his wife, crippled and needing care, had but $1 for eating money.

"Me and Mandy have been married 40 years," he told police, "and this is the first time we've spent a night apart."
