Amy's Nurse Reprieved

ATLANTA (AP) — Because of a White House request, the convicted murderess who nursed Amy Carter while her father was governor of Georgia has been reprieved so she can go to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue to resume her old job. Mary Fitzpatrick, 33, was to leave today for her new home, where she will be subject to the same supervision given inmates at the minimum-security facility where she has spent the last two years, state officials said Thursday.

Rich Kids Released

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Nearly half a million dollars was still in a Waco bank today while two teen-age boys who were picked up Monday with the money in the trunk of their $8,000 car were back in South Texas in custody of their mothers.

The pair, aged 15 and 16, were released Thursday after their mothers came to Waco and asked a juvenile judge to release them.

Gilmore Shirt Popular

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) — "Let's Do It" reads the T-shirt - the last words of executed murderer Gary Gilmore. And 23-year-old entrepreneur James K. Bozony says he can't keep up with demand for the $5.95 shirts, also emblazoned with a bullseye target over the heart.

"The fact that the execution became an event is a reflection of our taste as a culture. That's what is really absurd, not the shirts," said Bozony, a University of Massachusetts graduate student and writer who says he specializes in black humor.

No Mail Rate Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Postal Service is going to cancel its plans to increase mail rates this year because of improvement in the agency's financial picture, postal sources say.

The sources said Thursday the Postal Service is preparing to announce within a few days that it operated in the black during the last three months of 1976. That will mark the second successive quarter with a surplus after a deficits for every quarter since 1972.

Vance Tells Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance has outlined an ambitious negotiating schedule for his upcoming trip to the Soviet Union, planning talks on general arms reduction and a possible reduction in the number of weapons in each nation's nuclear arsenal.

Speedy Neiman of the Hereford Brand said he wanted all readers of his paper to heed this notice: "To stay informed about events in Hereford, please notice this notice on notices. You may have noticed an increased amount of notices in the Brand for you to notice. We notice that some of our notices have been noticed. On the other hand, some of our notices have not been noticed. This notice is to remind you to notice this notice and respond because some of our notices have been noticeably unnoticed. Please do not let this notice go unnoticed!"

That, we agree, should be notice enough for everyone to notice.

Jim Cornish of the Post Dispatch recalled that someone, sometime said "No news is good news."

"The guy who uttered those immortal words wasn't a newspaper editor who has a regular front page deadline to meet," declared Cornish."

He noted that there has been a news "drought" in Post, but also observed that it was pretty widespread, even among the big dailies. However, he predicted that "things will liven up again."

Grant Mabry of the Hood County News was commenting on taxation, and said that whenever he felt inclined to gripe about his taxes he recalled some "advice given us by an old millionaire from our sandhill days on the South Plains of Texas. 'Son, you might not like taxes, and I certainly am not fond of them myself, but in this instance I would rather be on the giving than the receiving end.'"

The trouble is, fewer and fewer people take that attitude today, and eventually it means that fewer and fewer people will be paying the taxes.—WACIL McNAIR.

Labor Force Decline Cuts Jobless Rate

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)— The nation's unemployment rate declined sharply in January to 7.3 per cent, down from 7.8 per cent in December, with the improvement largely attributed to an unexplained decline in the labor force, the government said today.

Labor Department analysts said the severe winter weather across much of the nation may be partially responsible for the decline in the labor force. But they said the full impact of the weather on the nation's job markets probably won't show up until the job figures for February are compiled.

Government estimates of the number of Americans forced out of work by the weather range as high as 1.5 million, but nobody knows for sure.

The January unemployment rate was the lowest since last May, when it also was 7.3 per cent, the lowest it's been since the 1974-1975 recession.

The Labor Department said the jobless rate declined for almost all categories of the nation's labor force, and gave the following breakdown for January:

-Adult men, 5.6 per cent, down from 6.2 per cent in December.

-Adult women, 6.9 per cent, down from 7.4 per cent.

-Teenagers, 18.7 per cent, down from 19 per cent.

-Whites, 6.7 per cent, down from 7.1 per cent.

-Blacks and other minorities, 12.5 per cent, down from 13.4 per cent.

-Household heads, 4.8 per cent , down from 5.1 per cent.

-Fulltime workers, 6.7 per cent, down from 7.5 per cent.

-Blue-collar workers, 8.4 per cent, down from 9.6 per cent.

Over-all unemployment declined by 560,000 to 7 million workers. Total employment climbed only slightly, up to 88.5 million from 88.4 million in December.

Gas Flowing To Areas Hardest Hit By Cold

By The Associated Press

Badly-needed natural gas has begun flowing toward homes in the areas most affected by bitter winter weather, but probably won't put much of a dent in the number of layoffs - now close to 2 million - caused by the cold. And emergency measures remained in effect in many areas.

Federal Power Commission chairman Richard L. Dunham said Thursday that under the emergency law enacted this week, some gas from the West had been diverted to eastern suppliers.

But because homes and hospitals have first rights to natural gas supplies, the effect on stalled businesses was expected to be minimal.

Some new snow fell overnight in the Great Lakes region and New England, but temperatures today were expected to be close to seasonable in most parts of the country.

Mayor Stanley Mikowski of Buffalo, N.Y., probably the hardest-hit large city in the country, tried to pull back from one of his emergency orders, but found the city wasn't ready.

Mikowski lifted the ban on non-essential driving, saying major employers wanted to resume business, but the traffic jams that resulted forced him to re-impose it, starting today.

In Maryland, Gov. Marvin Mandel said any business using decorative or advertising lighting would be prosecuted under his energy emergency order, and he asked citizens to watch for violators. His office said there were 250 calls Thursday.

The gas shortage still had Ohio's school system disorganized. Some districts are open full time, some part time, and some are thinking about closing for a month beginning Monday.

Pennsylvania dropped its prohibition against double-trailer trucks so that emergency supplies could get to Buffalo and Cleveland. But the ban was in effect on trucks going the other way, so many had to uncouple one trailer and leave it at the border on the return trip.

Valentine From House?

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Chairman Joe Wyatt of the House Ways and Means Committee hopes the House spends St. Valentine's Day considering a bill exempting residential utility customers from the state sales tax.

But Rep. John Wilson, D-La Grange says he'd like to take that exemption a step further by removing both city and state sales taxes from the utility bills of residential and commercial customers.

The Rev. James L. Kinsey will officiate, and burial will be in the Garden of Memories Cemetery. Masonic rites will be conducted at the graveside.

Mr. Brown died unexpectedly while working in the store he managed. He was a native of Merkel and attended high school in Sweetwater after moving there in 1926 with his parents. He had formerly managed Munden Stores in Sweetwater and in Eagle Pass.

Suit Filed Here In Dec. 24 Crash

A civil suit has been filed here in 132nd District court in connection with the Dec. 24, 1976 traffic accident south of Ira in which six persons were killed.

The suit was filed by Jerry Morgan in behalf of Joseph O. Morgan, an 8-year-old boy that was injured in the two-car collision. The suit names William Carroll Cunningham of Big Lake as the defendant.

The collision that claimed the lives of the six persons occurred Christmas Eve about one mile south of Ira. Involved in the mishap were a 1970 Pontiac Stationwagon driven by Ronald Langley and a pickup truck driven by Cunningham.

The Langley family, of which Joseph Morgan was a member, was enroute from Midland to Wichita Falls when the mishap occurred. Cunningham was traveling from Snyder to Big Lake.

The suit alleges that Cunningham "was negligent in failing to maintain an assured clear distance" between the two vehicles.

The suit also alleges that Cunningham "was negligent in failing to timely and properly apply his brakes and in failing to keep a proper lookout."

Cunningham and Morgan were the only survivors in the wreck and both received injuries. The six persons who were killed were members of the Langley family.

The plantiff in the suit requests that $85,000 in damages be awarded to Joseph Morgan.

The suit was filed in district court by the Wichita Falls law firm of Neely and Mason.

CHAMBER BOARD IS TOLD

Brighter Prospects For Housing Seen

Snyder Chamber of Commerce directors last night were informed that prospects have improved for additional housing here.

They also voted to offer rewards for leads that result in new industries locating here and set March 1 as the date for launching ticket sales for the annual chamber banquet scheduled for April 15.

Bill Henry, chamber manager, told the board that representatives of a large construction firm indicated a definite interest in developing additional housing units here, following a personal visit here several days ago. Officials of the firm are due to return soon to continue their studies of the community, Henry said. Under consideration are both multi-family and single-family developments.

In addition, the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) is looking into the possibility of sponsoring a housing development for low income families.

Ironically, first preliminary tabulations of the chamber's "Goals for Snyder" survey which directors saw for the first time last night, showed housing availability leading the list in the "poor" rating column.

Tickets to the annual chamber banquet will cost $10 each. Henry said the chamber office already has received orders for several blocks of tickets, which are to be filled as soon as the ticket sale begins. The banquet this year will be a special tribute to the late Mr. and Mrs. C.T. McLaughlin, who for many years were active in this and other community events in Snyder. A number of well-known personalities will be on hand, including Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who will be the banquet speaker, Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson, widow of the late President Lyndon B. Johnson, and board members of the Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City.

Also, it was reported that the Texas Cowboy Artists Association is interested in hanging an exhibit here on the date of the banquet. Details are to be worked out later.

The Texas Cowboy Artists Association will be invited to hold its annual show and sale here next fall, directors were told. Chamber staff members and city officials agreed on a proposal at a joint meeting the past week, during which the city agreed to underwrite expenses up to $1,000.

The chamber board voted unanimously to offer a $1,000 reward to anyone who provides a "lead" to the chamber or industrial foundation that results in leasing or sale of the Wickes building to an industry, or for a lead resulting in any industry employing 20 or more people locating here. Henry said that a number of cities have offered such rewards and that it has stimulated keen community interest in industrial development.

The board also approved unanimously a resolution supporting efforts to obtain Amtrak passenger train service on the Santa Fe line through Snyder. This segment of the Santa Fe is on a proposed route from Georgia to California which has been dormant for several months, but may be revived, according to recent reports from the office of Sen. Lloyd Bentsen.

Henry Clark, Chamber President, was instructed to name a committee to study some proposed traffic changes around the square. Director Ed Thrift said that the city and the State Department of Highways have agreed on a proposal that will provide a left turn lane at the College Avenue and 26th Street Intersection and have asked for input from the Chamber and from businesses on square traffic problems.

Henry was instructed to look into a proposal for the International Water Follies to appear here in the Scurry County Coliseum.

Kits for teaching the free enterprise economic system, which are now mandatory in the public high school curriculum and which will be required courses for graduation next year are being offered by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Dr. James Tully advised. It was proposed that the local chamber provide a kit for the local high school. However, Clark said that Texas Electric Service Co. would foot the bill for this material.

electoral change due

A change in our system of electing presidents has been a matter of conversation for several decades, but this year there appears to be enough support on Congress to get a serious effort off the ground.

The electoral college system clearly is the product of an era of primitive communication facilities, and it clearly has shown imperfections throughout its existence. But the 1976 election focused even more attention on its frailties. The fact that Ronald Reagan got a vote for president in the electoral college tally when his name was not even on the ballot last November has raised some eyebrows.

Members of the electoral college are not required to vote for the same people that the various parties nominate. Technically, they are charged only with the responsibility of electing qualified people to serve as president and vice president. Each state is entitled to electors equal to the number of U. S. Senators and Congressmen it has in Washington.

So, it is possible for a candidate to be elected president without getting a majority of the popular vote, even if all of the electors go with their respective party nominees. It has been estimated that a switch of some 10,000 popular votes could have returned Gerald Ford to the White House, despite the fact that he still would have been far behind Jimmy Carter in the popular vote.

But a popular vote may have its own objectionable features. What if 49 states should vote against a certain candidate by a margin of 10,000 votes each, but in the lone remaining state this candidate should win by half a million votes? One state could claim that it elected a president.

Thus, there may be no ideal way to elect a president, but obviously there should be a better way than the electoral college in these times. We hope Congress is able to find it.

your chamber in action

Interesting news was made public this week when the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Transportation Department announced a re-kindled flame concerning the possibility of passenger rail transportation through our area.

The proposed local service will be part of a proposal made by Congress later this year for Amtrak availability between Savannah, Ga., and Los Angeles. Since the new president's state is involved, it is likely the service will get favorable treatment.

The Texas route would travel via Missouri Pacific from the Louisiana line to Sweetwater and then on Santa Fe through Snyder, Lubbock, Clovis, and Los Angeles.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen told community leaders here last summer that he believed the route proposed through the South Plains was the best route for the Savannah to Los Angeles service.

A REAL NEED

The proposed service would serve a number of community needs stemming from our lack of intercity transportation means. With the exception of private airplanes and auto, there is no real viable source of intercity transportation. Accessibility to commercial air flights is well over an hour's drive.

The rail route would enable a businessman or tourist an alternative to general travel as well as connections to major airports without the hassle of worrying about auto parking and the return drive home.

Last, but not least, is the energy savings potential. Congress frowns on the way we Texans worship and overuse personal autos. What they don't realize, however, is things are a lot more spread out in this part of the country than in the Northeast. It's about the same distance from here to Lubbock as it is from Washington to Philadelphia and from Philadelphia to New York City.

Sure, we use a lot of gasoline. But what's the alternative? If adequate public transportation was provided, such as by train, the energy consumption would be reduced. A drastic reduction in gasoline consumption would not be seen right away, but we Texans would get used to public transportation in time and not rely on cars as much as we do now.

But until some alternative measure can be put in operation, Congress can't expect Texans and others in the less populated Southwestern states to cut gasoline consumption.

INTERESTED?

If you feel rail transportation could serve this area and are interested in seeing it become a reality, write Senator Bentsen and tell him. In fact, write President Carter himself and other members of the Texas delegation. If you'd rather, just send the letter to us and we'll forward the information to those involved.

Several chamber representatives also plan to be in Washington March 7 to participate in a reception being sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held for the Texas Congressional delegation. The Amtrak issue is certainly an area to be discussed.

If you're interested in attending the reception, just call the office for details. In this day and time when we see Washington taking more and more control of our lives, it's imperative we take time from our busy schedules to talk with these representatives. It should be the other way around, but that's just not going to happen. If you want your feelings known by our Congressmen, you're going to have to take the time to do it.

Perhaps the most frequently used line in the 1976 presidential campaign was the proclamation used by then-Democratic candidate Jimmy Carter at the close of virtually every stump speech:

"My relationship with the people is where I get my counsel, my advice, my support. I owe the special interests nothing. I owe the people everything."

Carter has sought to perpetuate that image of the "people's president" through the use of a handful of carefully selected, highly publicized gestures — sending his daughter Amy to a Washington public school, walking the entire route of the inaugural parade and stripping his White House staff of limousines of travel to and from work.

But with far less hoopla and fanfare, Carter has acquiesced to the wishes of the "special interests" of agribusiness in a matter of considerable more substance and import to the American people - selection of an Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Marketing and Consumer Services, the federal official perhaps most important to the country's consumers of food.

The holder of that title has direct responsibility for all meat, poultry and egg programs' establishment of standards, grades and classifications for a host of food products; implementation of marketing orders which affect the price of many foods; and administration of the food stamp, child nutrition and other supplemental food programs for the poor.

The Assistant Secretary's decisions affect every consumer whenever he or she goes into a supermarket. The amount of non-meat "filler" in a package of bologna, the level of chemicals allowed in a dressed chicken and the criteria for grading a slice of beef "choice" rather than "good" all are decisions in which that official is intimately involved.

The post has long been considered the virtually exclusive property of the nation's food growers, packers, processors and marketers, but Carter's transition staff considered breaking that tradition by appointing a representative of consumers of food.

The name which surfaced repeatedly was that of Carol Tucker Foreman, executive director of the Consumer Federation of America, the country's largest consumer group with more than 200 affiliated national, state and local organizations. "She was on almost every transition list as an ideal Assistant Secretary," said one knowledgeable government official.

Foreman was hardly a stranger to Carter. She was on a very select list of only a dozen people named by him less than three weeks after his election to advise the president-elect on the thousand of appointments he is required to make throughout the federal bureaucracy.

But two weeks before Carter was inaugurated, what one insider described as "the old boy network of growers and marketing people" began an unpublicized but intensive lobbying campaign to either deny Foremen the nomination or to strip from her position most of the functions which could directly affect their operations.

In one case, the Missouri Meat Packers Association wrote Sen. Herman E. Talmadge D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, to say that "we urge you to join Sen. Richard B. Stone, D-Fla., in opposing" the Foreman nomination. But Stone, although also the object of industry pressure, had not even taken a position on the issue.

Some groups are too embarrassed to discuss their behind-the-scenes lobbying. "You'll just have to go with a 'no comment,'" said a spokesman for the National Broiler Council, a major poultrymen's trade association, when asked to discuss his organization's opposition to Foreman.

Other groups whose members were involved in stop-Foreman campaign included the California and Florida citrus growers, National Cattlemen's Assn. and American Meat Institute. One of the people willing to candidly discuss the matter was AMI President Richard Lyng.

"Everybody in the food business was nervous because they've never had somebody like her appointed to this job," said Lyng. "I think it's kind of a knee-jerk reaction, but Carol Foreman has been very outspoken on consumer issues."

As a result of that pressure, Foreman was offered a fancy new title, Assistant Secretary for Nutrition and Consumer Services, but precious little authority over federal food programs. That power will go to a newly designated Assistant Secretary for Marketing Services.

Selected to fill the latter position was Robert H. Meyer, of Brawley, Calif., whose credentials were impressive to both the food industry and Carter, a fellow farmer-businessman. He is the proprietor of a large cotton farm in California's Central Valley and served as that state's chairman of the Food and Agriculture Committee for Carter during last year's campaign.

"The Carter people told the California growers months ago that they were looking for someone who was a producer or producer-oriented," said one Capitol Hill source who suggested that the "people's president" never was serious about placing a consumer advocate in charge of federal food programs.

NEW YORK (AP) — The uranium industry is warning, as the natural gas industry did in years gone by, that its reserves fall far short of the requirements being shedded for it by energy authorities.

As a result, at least one uranium producer, the Atlas Corp., is urging a crash program of exploration and development, financed in part by huge government loans, additional tax credits and depletion allowances.

Edward R. Farley, Jr., Atlas president, said an investment of at least $18 billion will be needed to meet the nation's uranium needs during the next 25 years, for exploration, new mines and additional processing plants.

"The uranium industry is in no position to supply that kind of capital," he said.

Atlas was one of the first U.S. companies to enter the uranium mining business more than two decades ago, and now has contracts to supply yellow-cake to a number of the 55 nuclear power plants in the United States.

He said the inability of his and other companies to meet requirements could result in serious social and economic dislocations, possibly resulting in power shortages, high electricity bills and slowed economic growth.

Under his plan, the federal government would put up a large part of the $18 billion he feels is needed.

Companies, individuals, partnerships, whatever they be, would have to prove "that on a property there was a reasonable prospect of a commercial ore body" before obtaining funds, he said.

If the explorers discover uranium they would be required to repay the loans, but if their efforts resulted in failure the loans would be forgiven.

The federal government has been conducting an airplane survey over a 700,000-square-mile area of the country in search of deposits. The information is fed into computers to pinpoint possible exploration sites for private industry.

Most uranium deposits presently are situated in the western part of the country, but known deposits exist in Tennessee and North Carolina, and a recent government survey suggests there may be ore in Pennsylvania and Maine.

Current, somewhat vague plans call for nuclear energy to provide about 15 per cent of the nation's electricity by 1985, about double the current level, with the percentage rising to 50 per cent or so by the year 2000.

Farley maintains the uranium reserves simply do not exist to meet that schedule, and that "the annual gap between our production of uranium and our needs is growing every year."

To The Daily News:

I would like to use this opportunity to voice my opinion on a subject that I know many people share with me. We all know that, commercial-wise, Christmas comes earlier every year and we all just keep right on buying earlier and earlier every year. Well, less than one week after Christmas I went into a local variety store and there was all of the Valentine's merchandise displayed everywhere. I made up my mind I was not going to buy any of it until closer to February 14, because, after all, it was still December, 1976!

The other day, I was back in this same store in January and most of the Valentine merchandise had been moved over and all of the Easter merchandise had been moved in! If the merchants think this is going to help their business, I hope they are wrong. The public doesn't want to buy candy that's been on the shelf for two or three months and we don't like to go in to buy close to a holiday and find everything already picked over and gone. I hope the merchants will take notice and give the public some time to breathe in between holidays. After all, Easter isn't even until April this year.

Today's North hand is a minimum raise. Just six high-card points, but there are three trumps to the queen and a five-card suit headed by the ace.

The raise worked out mighty well for North and South. Of course, North was decidedly nervous when his partner burst into Blackwood. Fortunately for everyone's peace of mind, or at least for North and South's peace of mind, South settled for six when North could not show a king.

There was no problem in the play. South won the trump lead, played one more trump to pull the defenders' last trump, played ace and one club — showed his hand with the announcement, "I'll ruff my last club."

If North had merely responded with a negative two notrump, the chances are that the partnership would have stopped at just four spades. At least, it would require a decided overbid on someone's part to get past game after that start.

Mrs. Charles Jones presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Joe League served as hostess.

The club decided not to stage a flower show in connection with Scurry County Fair in 1977. A fall garden show is tentatively set for Nov. 3, also a spring show in 1979 since the yearbooks are planned over a two-year period.

Mrs. Tommy Houf was welcomed as a new member.

Committee reports were given including a report from Mrs. Tommy Davis on the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Joe League presented a program on seed exchange. Participating were Mrs. Marshall Wilson, Mrs. Bertha Terry and Mrs. Paul Sizemore.

Art Guild Meets

The Art Guild Study Club meet Feb. 1, 7:30 p.m. at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. J.P. DeShazo and Mrs. Dan Martin as program leaders. They had chosen as their program "Hands Up."

Mr. Jim Saunders, local Juvenile Officer, was introduced and brought many interesting and helpful thoughts on "Crime Prevention in the Home." A film was shown and a demonstration was given on locks for the home. Mr. Saunders gave the advantages of using the safest of dead lock bolts. He emphasized the importance of neighbors helping each other in cases of being away from home by picking up mail and papers in the yard. He also told of the services of Snyder Police Department checking on homes when owners were on vacation. The police department offers this service if the home owners will call on them.

The hostess served refreshments to one guest and thirteen members.

Longet Waits On Remodeled Cell

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — Claudine Longet won't enter the Pitkin County jail to serve her 30-day sentence until after a cell is remodeled to provide "more suitable" accomodations, one of her attorney says.

"The Pitkin County sheriff expects by June 1 to have a newly remodeled female facility at the jail," said attorney Ron Austin.

Mrs. Weaver Hosts B&PW

Mrs. Amon Weaver was hostess for the February dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Lester Victor assisted in the creation of lovely center pieces and plate favors, which consisted of small red and white paper bicycles (built for two) holding Valentine lollipops. Four tables were laid with special decorated cloths, featuring pink, white and red hearts. Guests were the foreign exchange student, Inge Hefel, Jeanne McCormick and Mrs. Claude McCormick, Jr.

Frances Brown presided for the business meeting at which time it was decided to contribute the money, formerly used for scholarships, to the repair of the clubhouse, since the committee reported an abundance of scholarships.

Mrs. Clemmy Andress, treasurer, reported that all of the children's books donated by Mrs. Jimmie Cooper had been sold at the stand in the Lone Star Gas Co. building.

Members of the club gave a special vote of thanks to Lee Weaver and Eva Victor for representing the club on the board of directors of the Martha Ann Woman's Club for four and three years respectively. New members to represent the club are Faye McCollum and Frances Brown.

Program for the evening was brought by Inge Hefel, who showed slides of her beautiful homeland, Austria. The club presented her a heart and roses bracelet as the hostess gift.

Women's Clubs Urge Program Involvement

The General Federation of Women's Clubs through its Education Department urges its members to be actively involved in and supportive of education for all people. Pursuing its interest in education the Twentieth Century Club heard Dr. Thomas Scannicchio speak on "Inovative Instructional Programs of the Snyder Schools."

Early prevention of failure for kindergarten pupils involves several approaches to understanding the needs of each child. Tests in speech therapy, language useage, motor coordination, and vocabulary (bilingual if necessary) all contribute to identifying in the early stages whatever difficulties may be present.

The Corrective Reading Program in junior high and high school is an effort to correct difficulties, many of which it is thought might have been prevented by an effective kindergarten or early grades attention.

Federated clubs, in recognition of these needs has listed several goals it supports, most of which depend on reading primarily.

Mr. Scannicchio stated that schools should assure that each child is capable of these five basic skills: Be able to read at a literate level, handle the English language in written and spoken form, figure simple interest, understand the economic system called free enterprise, know something about and participate in the governmental process.

In one elementary school the Prescriptive Reading Inventory program places students in the reading areas in which he performs adequately. The ninety-one skills tests given to determine mastery in reading often results in placement of students in cross age programs.

The Advanced Placement Program enables high school students of high scholastic standing to work on the college level as he completes high school courses.

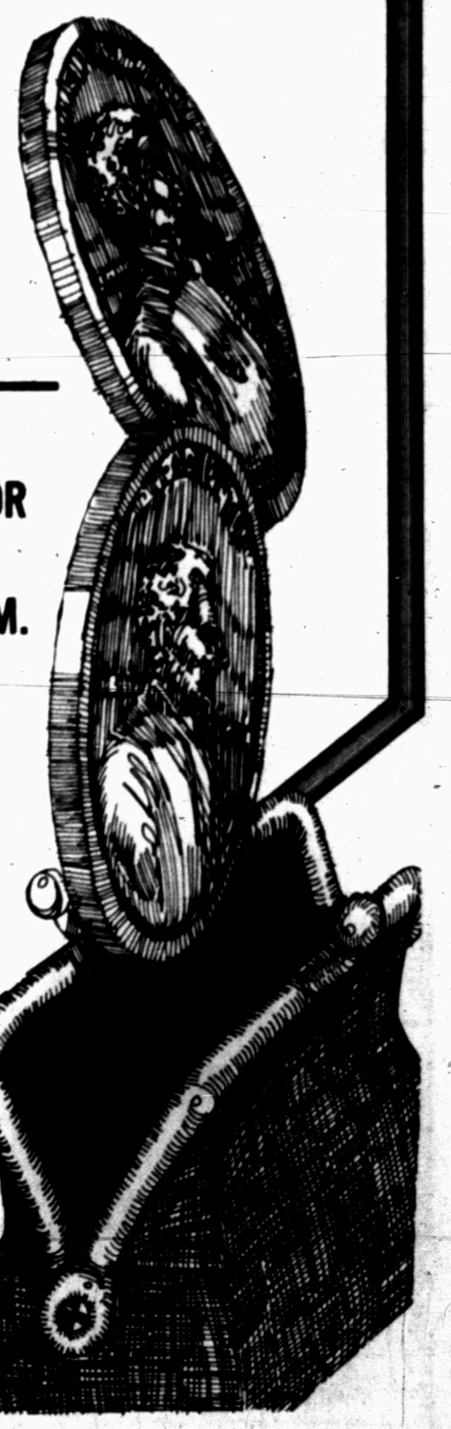

Increased interest in providing for gifted children is shown from the federal level to the individual school districts. Faculty and parents in Snyder are working toward some provision for the encouragement and development of this very valuable resource---our children. Teachers and parents, as well as the creative children themselves, have always searched for outlets in which talents may be developed into useful tools.

Dr. Scannicchio emphasized that parents be vigilant about what is going on in schools. The schools belong to the people and all need to be concerned. He mentioned also the Self Study that is being made during this school year in which all have been involved.

Twelve members who answered roll call with facts about New Zealand were Mrs. Lester Moore, hostess, Mrs. Bob Dupree, president, Mrs. Erdie Wissinger, Mrs. Chas. Tyer, Mrs. Art West, Mrs. Gil Fleer, Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Guy Stoker, Mrs. H.O. Beard, Mrs. Clara Scherling, Miss Margaret Miller, and Mrs. C.W. Key.

Dusters Triumph; Face South Plains

The Western Texas College Dusters remain at the top in the Western Junior College Conference standings, but they displayed little of the finesse that got them there when they entertained Clarendon last night in the WTC gym.

In a game that was loosely played and loosely officiated, the Dusters staggered to a 48-38 triumph.

The win left the charges of Dr. Sid Simpson with a 4-0 record in conference play and set the state for a showdown tomorrow night in the Scurry County Coliseum when the Dusters host South Plains. The winner of that game could be the conference champion.

The Dusters had their poorest shooting night of the year against Clarendon and were scoreless for the first seven minutes of the game. Fortunately, Clarendon was just as cold as the Dusters were and could score only five points during that stretch.

Debbie McIvor finally broke the ice for WTC with a rebound shot and free throw for her only points of the night.

Pam Tatum rolled in a jump shot nine minutes deep in the game to put WTC ahead by 9-8, and the Dusters clung tenaciously to a slim lead the rest of the night.

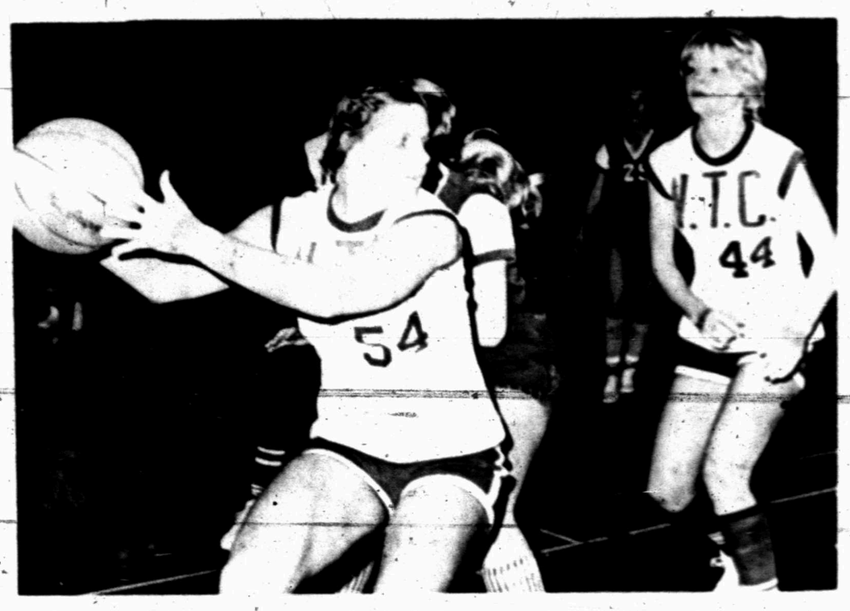

Terri Baker and Rosemary Scott led a surge that gave WTC a 26-15 half-time bulge. The Dusters out-scored Clarendon 23-22 in the second half.

WTC hit only 20 of 66 shots for 32 per cent, while Clarendon hit an equally cold 16 of 50. Rebounds were even at 49 each. Janice Verden and Annie Tillman led the Duster board work with 13 carroms each. In scoring, Verden had 11 points, while Tillman and Tatum had 9 and Baker 8. Denise Ashby led Clarendon with 13 points and 8 rebounds.

"It wasn't artistic, but I'll take it," was Coach Simpson's comment. "I thought our girls showed character in being able to win when we shot so poorly. I hope we do better Saturday.

CLARENDON (38) — Vincent 1-2-4; Rhoades 3-0-6; Oatman 2-0-4; Ashby 5-3-13; Stiles 3-0-6; Henderson 2-0-4; D. Heard 0-1-0; totals 16-6-38.

WTC (48) — Tillman 3-3-9; Scott 2-0-4; McIvor 1-1-3; Luttrull 2-0-4; Baker 4-0-8; Verden 4-3-11; Tatum 4-1-9; totals 20-8-19-48.

LOOKING FOR HELP—WTC's Barbara Denman (54) looks for a team mate as she is crowded by an unidentified Clarendon player in Thursday night's action in the WTC gym. Pam Tatum (44) comes up to lend a hand. The WTC Dusters took a 48-38 decision to keep their conference record untarnished at 4-0. They face South Plains tomorrow night in the Scurry County Coliseum in another crucial conference game. (SDN Staff Photo)

SHS Cage Teams Face Lake View

Snyder High School varsity and junior varsity basketball teams take on San Angelo Lake View teams to night in conference action.

The Tiger boys teams will travel to San Angelo where they will seek to hike their second half conference record to 3-0. The Bengals are 14-13 over all for the season.

Meanwhile, the SHS girls team will be hosting the Lake View Maidens in the high school gym. The tip-off for the JV game is set for 6 p.m. and the varsity game will follow at around 8 p.m.

The Snyder girls have won 7 and lost 20 games over the season and are 0-3 in district play. Tonight's action will conclude the season for the girls team.

Probable starts for the SHS girls are Debbie Newman, Jamie Hataway and Carrie Taylor at forwards, and Paula Grimmett, Marshal Parham and Patti Ayers in the back court.

The Tigers, meanwhile, will be matched with a team they defeated easily in their first encounter. The local took an 81-53 decision on Jan. 11 in the Scurry County Coliseum, and the local JV team also won by 77-67 on the same evening.

Likely starters for the Tigers are Lucious Jeffrey, 5-9 junior, and Anthony Lewis, 6-1 junior, at guards, Randy Courtney, 6-3 junior, and Tony Cobb, 6-2 junior, at posts; and Kirk Johnson, 6-1 senior at forward.

A victory tonight would keep the Tigers in the thick of the second-half race in District 3-AAA.

Frosh Girls Rip Coahoma In Tourney

The Snyder Freshman girls basketball team walloped Coahoma, 64-28, in the first round of the Midland Christian Basketball Tournament Thursday night.

Suzanne Fisher pumped 42 points through the hoop to lead the Snyder frosh to victory. Also scoring in double figures for Snyder was Kim Harlin, with 17 points.

The Snyder frosh will meet the winner of Midland Christian "A" and Amarillo "B" in a second round game at 7 o'clock tonight. Snyder took a 12-4 lead in the first period against Coahoma and was never challenged. They capped it off by out-scoring the Coahomans by 28-9 in the fourth period.

SNYDER (64)—Harlin 8-1-17; Fisher 17-8-42; Owens 1-0-2; Crow 1-0-2; totals 27-10-64.

COAHOMA (28) — Higgins 5-4-14; Poteet 0-2-2; Kennedy 1-0-2; Thomas 3-0-6; totals 10-8-28.

Doubleheader Set Saturday Night

A doubleheader basketball card is on tap Saturday night in the Scurry County Coliseum, with both Western Texas College teams scheduled to see action in conference games.

Coach Sid Simpson's Dusters hope to lock up the women's basketball crown in the Western Junior College conference when they tangle with the powerful South Plains Texanettes. Tipoff for that one is set for 6 p.m.

The second game, which will start at 8 p.m., will send the WTC Westerners against Amarillo College. The Westerners, now leading the conference, are favored, having waxed the Amarillo team at 85-69 at Amarillo on Dec. 11.

The Westerners, now ranked 4th in the nation in junior college basketball, have won 22 and lost only 2 over the season and are 9-2 in conference play.

Panel Disbands After Picking 9

NEW YORK (AP) — After naming nine top black stars to baseball's Hall of Fame, the Committee on Negro Baseball Leagues has voted itself out of business.

John Henry "Pop" Lloyd and Martin Dihigo were added to the Cooperstown shrine Thursday, then the committee announced that it has completed its job and will not meet again.

Created by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn in 1970, the special committee had previously named Satchel Paige, Josh Gibson, Cool Papa Bell, Buck Leonard, Monte Irvin, Judy Johnson and Oscar Charleston to the Hall of Fame.

Johnson and Irvin had served on the committee along with Roy Campanella, another Hall of Famer, veteran baseball writer Dick Young, longtime baseball executive Joe Reichler, and Frank Forbes, Eddie Gottlieb and Eppy Barnes, all of whom were on the scene when the best black players performed in the Negro Leagues.

Bennett Hopes To Revive Team Fast

ATLANTA (AP) — Leeman Bennett, who wants "to bring a winning team to Atlanta in the shortest amount of time," takes over as head coach of the National Football League Falcons with a five-year contract in which to complete his goal.

"I've seen poor programs and strong programs and I've learned the difference," said Bennett, an assistant coach for the Los Angeles Rams before getting the Falcons' job Thursday. "I'm convinced I know what it takes to get a good program going."

Bennett, 38, a former quarterback-defensive back at the University of Kentucky, was named coach by newly appointed Falcons General Manager Eddie LeBaron.

The amount of the contract was not disclosed, although it was rumored at $400,000 for the five-year period.

Reward For Attacker Of Coach Posted

DETROIT (AP) — A $100 reward has been posted for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a spectator who assaulted Kalamazoo Wings Coach Bob Lemieux during an International Hockey League game at Toledo.

IHL Commissioner Bill Beagan announced the reward Thursday.

"In all good conscience, I cannot discipline players and allow blatant and unprovoked attacks such as the one which was inflicted upon Coach Lemieux to go unpunished," Beagan said.

The individual responsible, when apprehended, will "walk the plank," the same as any other lawbreaker, Beagan said.

Smith Joins Charger Staff

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Jerry Smith, who coached the defensive line for the Baltimore Colts for three years, now will coach the San Diego Chargers defensive line.

Chargers Coach Tommy Prothro said Thursday that Smith will replace Rudy Feldman, who will become the club's co-club's co-coach of the offensive line.

In 1975, Smith's unit had the most quarterback sacks in the National Football League, 59. Last year, the Colts had 57 sacks. But for unexplained reasons, Smith, 46, was fired by Baltimore Coach Ted Marchibroda.

Speedway Sets 1977 Schedule

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Texas World Speedway has announced its 1977 schedule of four races, including a 200-mile Indy car race April 2 and the annual Texas 500 on June 5. Speedway President R.C. Conole said the schedule also will include a 200-mile U.S. Auto Club stock car race July 31 and the Texas 1000 kilometers 620 miles on December 3. Conole said the April 2 race will serve as a tune-up for the Indianapolis 500.

Lewis Sees Porkers As 'Legitimate' Top Ten

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — To hear Houston basketball Coach Guy Lewis talk, a listener would think the Cougars have no chance for victory Saturday in their Southwest Conference basketball showdown against 14th-ranked Arkansas.

"I don't think there is a team in the country with three better players than Ron Brewer, Sidney Moncrief or Marvin Delph," Lewis said, naming the nucleus of the Hog lineup. "They are a legitimate top 10 team. People have tried to zone them without success and others have used man to man without success. The press doesn't work and you can't slow them down."

The Razorbacks, with their 10-0 SWC record and 18-1 season standard, certainly will be formidable opposition for their regionally televised game but the Cougars definitely will show up.

It's quite probable they'll even make a game of it. The Cougars, currently in second place behing the Hogs with 7-2 SWC record, are 11-0 at Hofheinz Pavilion this season.

Houston survived a stiff test Tuesday with a 94-87 victory over third place Texas Tech at Hofheniz, marking the first time Houston ever had beaten Tech in eight series games.

Arkansas Coach Eddie Sutton recognizes the importance of the game.

"If we win that one, we'll almost have a lock on the league championship," Sutton said.

"If Houston wins, they'll still be in it-the championship will be decided on a game-by-game basis."

Lewis, whose Cougars have lost twice to top ranked San Francisco and once to UCLA this season, says he doesn't know if the Cougars are playing their best basketball.

"We may have hit our strike to play some teams but I don't know if we have for Arkansas," Lewis said. "I'm just glad we didn't have to play them two games early like Texas Tech did."

Of all his worries for the game, Houston's emotional preparation is the least of Lewis' worries.

Lewis said Thursday's drill would be a normal workout. "And by Saturday, I won't have to worry about them being ready. It's only tough to get them up for the weak teams."

Tom Watson In Position Again

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

HONOLULU (AP) — That man's in position again.

Bruce Lietzke performed some almost unbelievable heroics on the par-five holes - he played those four holes six under par - and Monty Kaser, the last man on the course, made the last stroke of the day a birdie putt for a share of the lead in the Hawaiian Open Golf Tournament.

But Tom Watson, the record-setting winner of his last two starts, was just one stroke back and hot in pursuit of a third consecutive victory.

"I'm hitting the ball solid enough, and I'm not making that many mistakes," Watson said after a four-under-par 68 in gusty, tricky trade winds that swept over the Wailalae Country Club course, stretching 7,234 yards beside the Pacific.

Kaser, who hasn't won since he joined the tour in 1966, pitched to within five feet and stroked in the putt - the last shot of the day - to finish off a 67 that tied him for the lead with Lietzke, a winner at Tucson three weeks ago.

Tied with Watson just one stroke back were Charles Coody, Larry Ziegler and Steve Melnyk. Mike Hill, Jerry McGee and Al Geiberger headed a big group at 69.

Defending champion Ben Crenshaw had a 71 in the 80 degree temperatures, but Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer could do no better than 73s, one over par.

"It wasn't a great round, but it wasn't a bad round," Nicklaus said. "I had one birdie, and that was on a two-putt. I had 36 putts for the round, just didn't make a one."

Johnny Miller, who usually starts his season with a couple of quick victories but has only $680 to show for his efforts this year, had to rally from a double-bogey seven on the ninth hole for a 72 that left him five strokes back.

Junior Girls Divide Pair

The Snyder 8th Grade girls Gold Basketball team downed the Rotan 7th grade team, 26-20, last night in the first game of a doubleheader here, and Rotan 8th defeated the Snyder 8th Black team, 48-26 in the second game.

Cindy Wood scored 10 points to lead Snyder Gold, while Pam Gray had 20 to pace the Snyder Black scorers.

The games last night concluded the season for the Snyder junior high teams.

ROTAN (20) — Ramirez 5-1-4, Gruben 2-0-4, Mann 1-1-3, Weathersbee 1-0-2; totals 9-2-20.

SNYDER GOLD (26) — Wood 4-2-10, Warren 3-2-8, Nicholson 4-0-8, totals 11-4-26.

ROTAN (48) — Lopez 7-3-17, Gentry 5-1-11, Tucker 3-1-7, White 3-1-7, Swafford 2-2-6, totals 20-8-48.

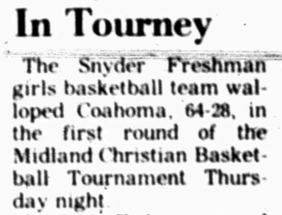

SNYDER BLACK (26) — Gray 7-6-20, Fritz 0-3-3, Beasley 1-0-2, Roberts 0-1-1, totals 8-10-26.

WEIGHED, MEASURED AND APPROVED!

The wood had been carried in for the big black stove in the kitchen so that grits, eggs, ham and biscuits could be served to the large family the next morning. Lessons came next, and after the usual grumbling and groaning and the usual cries for help were answered, we gathered around Mother and Dad to listen to the reading of some good books, and then the reading of the Bible.

When that was over (and I don't say I enjoyed it every time) we usually had a romp with Dad. Now and then my Dad would thrill me beyond measure with the words—"Come here, son, let's measure you again. I believe you've grown a foot." I would hurriedly back up to the door post where little black marks spoke of other measurements and I would stand as tall as I could stretch and hold my breath until Dad invariably said, "Yes, sir, you're going to be a man some day, sure enough!"

Well, I think of that scene of years gone by and I think of my church. I love my church with all my heart. I love everyone in it, and there's nothing that God could ask me to do for my church that I would fail to attempt for Him. Now and then I think God calls my church to the old measuring post, "Let's see if you've grown since we last measured," He says. And we stretch as tall as we can and wait for His verdict. Somehow I think I can see Him say, "Well done, my child, you are taller and stronger than you were before." Then I know it's all worthwhile.

Dear Abby

How to Get Kids To Visit Grandma

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1977 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I have a dear mother who lives about an hour's drive away. She's blind, but very cheerful and mentally alert. I phone her every day. She lives with a housekeeper and loves to have company.

When she had her sight, she couldn't do enough for my children. She sewed for them, bought them gifts and always made sure there were goodies in her house. Now the children are teenagers; and I have to beg them to visit their grandmother because it is so "boring" there, there's nothing to do there, etc.

My husband and I visit her as often as possible. We realize that our kids are involved with friends and activities, so we don't expect them to accompany us on every visit, but is it too much to expect them to visit her once a month?

They read your column daily, Abby. I can bet my bottom dollar that you'll agree with me, but if the kids hear it from Dear Abby, maybe they'll realize that Mom and Dad are right.

ASKING

DEAR ASKING: Your children are old enough to realize that it's a mark of maturity to do things (without whining) that aren't particularly fascinating but are well worth the effort because of the pleasure it gives others. Visiting grandparents falls into that category.

A suggestion for youngsters who resist visiting elderly relatives because it's "boring": Interview the old folks. Ask questions about relatives who preceded you, how things were back in the "olden days." You'll learn some interesting facts, and you'll find that those visits will be rewarding to you and the old folks.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 17-year-old girl and my problem is I'm flat. My mother thinks that if a girl is flat, she shouldn't wear a padded bra because it's like false advertising. I have a part-time job, so I bought myself a few padded bras, and when my mother saw them, she went berserk! She took the bras back to the store, said they were the "wrong kind" and got my money back.

Abby, being flat-chested really bothers me. When I can afford it and I'm on my own, the first thing I'm going to do is get silicone implants.

In the meantime, I'd sure appreciate if you would back me up and say that some girls wear padded bras so they'll look better in clothes and not as "false advertising." Thanks.

PLENTY OF NOTHING

DEAR PLENTY. I'm on your side. I'm also behind you concerning what you don't have in front of you. Lotsa luck.

DEAR ABBY: I am a directory assistance operator in Pittsburgh, and until I started working for Bell Telephone I didn't know there were so many rude, inconsiderate and thoughtless people in the world.

In the first place, wouldn't you think a person who wants to have a telephone number would have sense enough to have a pencil in his hand when he calls? No way. They call us FIRST, and then ask us to wait until they find a pencil.

Also when we ask them how to spell a name, they will say, "If I knew how to spell it, I'd find it myself!"

When we do find a number, do they say, "Thank you"? No, they just slam down the receiver!

One more thing, Abby. Will you please ask adults NOT to ask their very young children to call for them? One thing that drives a telephone operator up a wall is a kid who cannot be heard or understood.

Even if this doesn't make your column, it did me a lot of good just to be able to get this off my chest.

PITTSBURGH OPERATOR

DEAR OPERATOR: Glad to oblige. It's time someone gave a little recognition to that vast faceless army of unthanked heroes and heroines.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

By Bernice Bede Osol

For Saturday, Feb. 5, 1977

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Helping others sort out their problems is your forte today. Some of the benefits that result will return to you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) By all means fulfill your social obligations today, particularly if some newcomers are involved. You could meet someone very interesting.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) This is a good day to take on a do-it-yourself project, especially if there's a new product involved. You'll have a ball.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you have the impulse to contact someone today, by all means do so. Something extremely pleasant could result.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A person with whom you're intimately associated could come up with a tip that could make or save you money today. Heed what your friend says.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your spontaneous thoughts today are probably your best ones. Don't ponder over things too long, but react quickly to your inspirations.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) A pleasant surprise could be in store today — a reward for a good deed. It may come from someone other than the person you aided.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) When the chips are down today, your natural leadership comes to the fore. Your group will recognize this as you rise to the occasion and save the day.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You may be unsure of yourself today when the going gets rough. There's no need to be. You'll be there when you're needed, just like the cavalry.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be a better listener than you are a talker today. Even smatterings of conversation hold valuable insights for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) It is in your best interest to be on your toes today for signs that come to you from the actions of others. They could benefit you moneywise.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Heed the ideas advanced by your mate today. Even though they seem outlandish, they may be far more clever than you thought.

Your Birthday

Feb. 5, 1977

Don't turn a deaf ear to business propositions that appear to be a bit unusual this coming year, particularly if they're espoused by one with a proven track record.

Dr. Lamb

Sick brother in Russia

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I received a letter from my brother, age 62, who lives in the Soviet Union. He was hospitalized for 35 days in an emergency hospital. It was determined that he had lung trouble in his right lung. It was filling with fluid which was removed. He was sent home and stayed in bed for 10 days and then went back to work as a teacher.

He continues to have pain in his right side. When he comes home from school he goes straight to bed. It was diagnosed as "wet plevrite." He was told the only cure was medicine which is available in the United States.

My family doctor gave me a prescription for isoniazid. Since it is not permitted to send medicine to the Soviet Union, I found a friend who is going for a visit there and will deliver it for me.

What is the cause and what is the cure? There has never been this type of illness in our family. My father died at the age of 90 and my uncle is still living in the old country at the age of 88. I'd appreciate it if you would answer my question as I am very concerned about my brother.

DEAR READER — The term "wet plevrite" is not used in this country, but I assume from your description it must be wet pleurisy. This means an accumulation of fluid in the chest cavity surrounding the right lung. Fluid in that location or on the left side can be withdrawn with a needle which I presume is what you mean by being pulled out.

Fluid in the chest cavity may be caused by many different disorders including heart disease and even cancer of the lung. It can be associated with pleurisy—inflammation of the linings of the lung and chest cavity. The cause in some instances is never established.

Isoniazid is used to treat tuberculosis. I do not recommend taking it without close supervision of a doctor. It won't cure anything but tuberculosis and that could be the cause of your brother's illness. If so, he would again need careful supervision, not only for the isoniazid treatment but also of his progress in overcoming the disease. My guess is that your brother does not have tuberculosis. If he did I am sure the doctors in the Soviet Union would have treated him quite differently.

The soreness is no doubt from the pleurisy reaction and pleuritic pain is associated with muscle spasms involving the small muscles between the ribs. Binding the chest sometimes gives relief by preventing movement of the muscles. Heat applications may also help. The proper treatment, however, depends entirely upon what the underlying cause of fluid in the chest really is.

I am skeptical that there are any medicines we have here that are not available in the Soviet Union. Remember, the Soviet doctors can get medical information and medicines from most countries in the world and we have a fairly free flow of medical information worldwide.

To give you a better idea of how the lungs work I am sending you The Health Letter number 2-4, Keeping Your Lungs Fit. Others who want this information can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Just send your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. And, hope your brother improves.

Mexican Gas Quickly Shot In US Pipelines

By CHARLES GREEN
Associated Press Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Americans had a shot of Mexican gas in their pipelines today after a quick agreement between Presidents Jimmy Carter and Jose Lopez Portillo. Mexico began delivering natural gas to the United States Thursday less than 24 hours after Carter told the American public that Lopez Portillo had offered to help Americans fight their energy crisis.

A first delivery of 10 million cubic feet went into pipelines of the Texas Eastern Gas Transmission Co. at McAllen, Tex. A source within the U.S. Embassy said. The deliveries will be increased to 40 million cubic feet a day as quickly as possible, he said.

Mexico will also sell the United States 600,000 barrels of crude oil and offered two million barrels more if American ships can be found to handle the transportation.

The deal represents a mild stimulus for the stumbling Mexican economy. But more important, it was a gesture of good will just before Lopez Portillo goes to Washington, D.C., on an official visit Feb. 14. It was a gesture made by Lopez Portillo, who took office Dec. 1, to offset anti-American feeling generated under the six-year term of his predecessor, Luis Echeverria.

Petroleos Mexicanos Pemex, the government oil monopoly, will sell the natural gas at current intrastate price or at about $2.20 per thousand cubic feet, the embassy source said. The gas and crude sales over a 60-day period would represent about $40 million in fresh dollar income for Mexico.

The country has a serious balance of payments problem and allowed the peso to float on world money markets Aug. 31.

Pemex officials said the gas would come from strong new wells in production near Nuevo Laredo and Reynosa in Tamaulipas state. The oil would come from fields in the southwestern part of the country and be shipped from the Port of Vera Cruz.

Discoveries made in 1974 and exploited in 1975 have turned Mexico from a petroleum importing nation into an exporter. Pemex officials say they now have 11 billion barrels of proven reserves and more recent discoveries could double that. This would convert the country into a major exporting nation.

As recently as 1974 oil imports represented an important part of the country's trade deficit. Echeverria spent hundreds of millions of dollars on exploration and new refinery construction which caused a serious government deficit. His critics blamed the deficit on wasteful spending while his supporters said the money invested in the petroleum industry would pay off handsomely in future years.

Mexico had projected exports of only 153,000 barrels a day this year. About two-thirds of that was expected to be sold to the United States with much of the remainder going to Israel. Cuba also buys small quantities of Mexican oil.

Two Killed In Texas Air Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Two businessmen, from San Antonio and Midland, were killed early Thursday when their twin-engine airplane crashed in the brushy Hill Country northwest of San Antonio.

The plane's wreckage was scattered along a 350-yard-long path, the Bexar County Sheriff's Department said.

The dead men were identified as Roger H. Davis, 47, director of domestic sales for Swearingen Aircraft Co., San Antonio, and Ray Hodge, 55, vice president and co-owner of Aquila Inc., Midland, a Sweringen distributor.

Investigators had not yet determined which man was the pilot.

A spokesman for the Federal Aviation Administration FFA said the plane crashed into a brusy hillside about 1 a.m. during light drizzle and fog. The plane had disappeared from San Antonio radar screens moments earlier.

The wreckage was not found until 7:30 a.m. on a ranch in Northwest Bexar County.

The airplane was an eight passenger Merlin, owned by Aquila, and a spokesman for Swearingen here said the two men abroad were returning from a sales meeting in Seattle, Wash. Both were good pilots.

Both victims were thrown more than 30 feet from the aircraft fuselage, officers said. There was no evidence of fire. The plane apparently was ripped apart by the force of impact.

The turbo-prop plane was making its final approach to the San Antonio airport when it disappeared from the radar screens, the FFA said. An investigation was underway Thursday evening into the cause of the crash.

Rosalynn To Attend Benefit

DETROIT (AP) — Rosalynn Carter will be among guests at a memorial concert here March 29 for the late Sen. Philip Hart of Michigan.

The concert by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will benefit the Philip Hart Memorial Scholarship Fund at Lake Superior State College in Sault Ste. Marie. The scholarship committee has set a $250,000 goal for the fund.

"I guess Phil looked upon us as an underdog and we are certainly pleased that he did," said college president Kenneth Shouldice. "Our students do need all the scholarship assistance they can get."
