New Plans To Solve Berlin Crisis Sought

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Oct. 27.—The western powers today gave the neutrals on the Security Council—and Russia—an open invitation to make new proposals for settling the Berlin crisis.

That appeared to be the primary meaning of a British-French-American announcement which said the three powers are still ready to accept a settlement which would be "guided by the principles embodied" in the six-nation compromise resolution vetoed by Russia Monday.

The western power announcement was issued after a 70-minute meeting attended by Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

Reaffirm Charges

In a mildly worded and carefully drafted communique, they said they had decided to leave the Berlin issue on the agenda of the United Nations Security Council where they have repeatedly charged the Soviet blockade of Berlin imperils world peace.

By deciding to leave the issue in the hands of the Security Council, they tacitly reaffirmed their charges and at the same time made it known that they were not ready yet to take the problem to the General Assembly for judgment by the 58 member countries.

The meeting of the western foreign ministers followed a meeting earlier in the day between Marshall and Bevin at which Bevin formally notified the secretary of state that the five members of the western European union had voted yesterday to ask the United States and Canada to join a North Atlantic defense alliance.

Greece, U. S. Lashed

These developments came as:

1. Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler delivered a three-hour speech in the assembly's 58-member political committee, attacking the Greek government, the United States and western policy in general. The committee rejected 45 to 6, with two abstaining, a Polish motion to invite a representative of Greek guerrilla leader Markos Vafiades to participate in UN debate on Greece.

2. The administrative and budgetary committee unanimously approved a recommendation that the United States continue paying 39.89 per cent of the UN's estimated $33,469,587 budget for next year. The U. S. paid on that basis this year but had asked that its share be reduced to one-third

Reds' Argument On Safety Rules Rejected

U.S. Warns Soviets Air Lift To Continue

By OMER ANDERSON
INS Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—The United States rejected tonight Russia's contention that the four-power safety rules for the Berlin air corridors are invalid and served notice the Allied air lift will go on.

As the safety problem was being added to the general East-West deadlock, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, suggested that a four-power evacuation of Germany is the only way to end East-West differences in Germany.

But he warned before such a move is undertaken, the West would have to receive guarantees against Communist domination of the country.

Clay Turns Down Reds

Gen. Lucius D. Clay and American officials in Berlin turned down the Russian contention that the air safety rules are invalid because they were not confirmed by the Allied Control authority.

The American military governor said in Munich "obviously, a four-power agreement can not be broken by one power." He added:

"The United States will continue to give advance notice of all flights through the air corridor."

Clay, who is on a brief visit to Bavaria, told newsmen:

"The air corridor is the safest air lane in the world. We intend to keep it that way."

Soviets Argument Attacked

Clay said the air safety rules were set up by the four powers and therefore the United States would abide by them. He added:

"There is no crisis in Berlin."

In Berlin, Capt. Vincent Gookin, chief controller for the U. S. military government, also attacked the Soviet argument.

He said the Allied control authority had delegated jurisdiction over air safety regulations to an air directorate which unanimously approved the current regulations.

He added these regulations had been further confirmed through usage.

The Russians meanwhile notified the air safety center that they intend to conduct target sleeve firing practice at several points in the Bickeberg air corridor, including the Perleberg, Elstahl and Kyritz areas.

Six Injured When Ill-Fated Ambulance And Truck Collide

(By The Associated Press)

ALICE, Oct. 27.—Six persons were injured, two critically, when a speeding ambulance collided with a truck in downtown Alice at 3:20 p. m. today.

Critically hurt were Mrs. Truitt Shipley of McAllen, and Mrs. Herman Lynch of Harlingen.

The accident in Alice followed another accident 29 miles north of Alice.

These were the circumstances:

Truitt Shipley, jr., 19-year-old ambulance driver of Mercedes, went to San Antonio to get his mother who was recovering in a hospital there following an operation. He intended to return her to her home in McAllen.

Falls From Ambulance

Shipley was accompanied by his sister, Patricia, of McAllen and by Mrs. Lynch, a nurse.

On the return trip, Shipley had to make a sudden stop 29 miles north of Alice. Mrs. Lynch fell out the rear door of the ambulance onto the pavement and was seriously hurt.

Marion I. Keeler of Salina, Kans., motoring along when Mrs. Lynch fell out, climbed into the ambulance to assist in getting her to a hospital. On the outskirts of Alice, Shipley stopped the ambulance and picked up a man named Pete Fuentes in order to get fast directions to a hospital.

The accident in Alice occurred at an intersection. The ambulance collided head-on with a truck, witnesses reported.

Shipley, jr., Patricia Shipley, Keeler and Fuentes all were seriously cut and bruised.

Mrs. Lynch was not expected to live.

Dies And Taylor Talk Here Today

State Sen. James E. Taylor and ex-Congressman Martin Dies will be speakers when the South Plains chapter of the Texas Manufacturers association holds an annual dinner meeting at 7 p. m. today in the Hilton hotel ballroom, Edgar G. Lewis, chapter chairman, announced Wednesday afternoon.

Reservations have been received from 100 members and invited guests of the chapter, which embraces 18 South Plains counties.

"The program will be of interest to those interested in good government, good employer-employe relations and the preservation of the American way of life," Lewis said.

Two Talks Slated

Sen. Taylor, public relations director for the Texas Manufacturers association, will discuss "State Expenditures, Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

Dies will speak on his work as former chairman of the committee on Un-American activities.

He is to arrive by plane in Lubbock today.

Other officers of the South Plains chapter are Harold Hinn, Plainview, vice chairman, and William D. Hord of Lubbock, secretary.

Wholesale Prices Of Butter Again Slip On Chicago Mart

CHICAGO, Oct. 27 (AP)—Wholesale butter prices slipped again today. Prices dipped to 59½ cents a pound. The lowest point since April 29, 1947.

In sympathy with the one to two cent drop in the wholesale trade, the futures market on the Chicago Mercantile exchange showed declines of ¾ to one cent a pound, the November delivery closing at around 58½ cents.

HST's Foreign Policy Scored

(By The Associated Press)

GOVERNOR Dewey accused the Truman administration Wednesday night of failing to understand the Communist threat. At the same time, President Truman declared he had fought Communism at home and abroad and will "never surrender."

The Republican presidential nominee pitched into the Truman foreign policy record in a speech at Cleveland. Three years after the war, he said, we have no security and no peace.

The administration, Dewey said, "did not seem to understand the nature of the Communist threat. One day it seemed to believe in appeasement and the next day it seemed to stand firm. It made tragic concessions . . ."

"Old Joe" Scored

"We shall not achieve peace," Dewey counseled, "by conducting these desperately important matters on a happy-thought basis or by jovially remarking that we like good old Joe." (Mr. Truman has said he personaly liked "old Joe" Stalin, whom he pictured as under the power of the Soviet Politburo.)

Mr. Truman, outlining his handling of Communism before a Boston audience in his first New England speech of the campaign, declared:

"As an American, as well as your President, I resent the contemptible Republican slur that charges me with being 'soft' where Communist tyranny is concerned."

Reds Said Aiding GOP

"Under your Democratic administration," he said,, "the people of the United States have thrown themselves wholeheartedly into the support of freedom and democracy against the predatory pressures of Communism."

The President asserted that the Communists "will never forgive me" for America's stand in Greece and Turkey, the European recovery program and other anti-Communist measures.

The result is, he said, "the Communists are doing all they can to defeat me and help my Republican opponent." He declared that the Communist party is supporting "a third party candidate" to that end, and that the Republicans "in state after state" have worked to get that candidate on

Temple Demands Name On Ballot

Mohler D. Temple, Republican nominee for congressman of the 19th congressional district, acting for himself and Republican nominees for two other offices, has addressed a request to the secretary of state in Austin that prompt instruction be made to county clerks in four counties of the district to place the nominees' names on the general election ballot.

Temple, of 2424½ Fifteenth, addressed his request to Secretary Paul Brown, acting for himself and for Fred L. Parham, nominee for state senator of the 30th district, and Frank Parris, nominee for state representative of the 119th district.

Four Counties Named

He enclosed an affidavit to effect that ballots printed for the Nov. 2 election in Howard, Dawson, Dickens and King counties do not have the name of Temple printed thereon as nominee for congressman; that neither of the counties lists on its ballot the name of Parham as nominee for senator; and that Dawson county, located in the state representative district, does not list on its ballot the name of Parris as Republican nominee for state representative.

Temple swore that he had examined the official certification made by the secretary of state to each of the four counties and that in each instance the affiant's name, as well as that of Parham, appears. Further, he said, he found the name of Parris certified to Dawson county.

"Affiant respectfully requests the secretary of state to promptly

DEFENSE PACT TALKS COMPLETED

U. S. Studying North Atlantic Alliance With Western Europe

By GEORGE DURNO
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Acting Secretary of State Lovett said today the U. S. is now considering the defense pact which would ally this country and Canada with England, France and the low countries.

Lovett's statement was made to a news conference a few hours after the western European five-power alliance announced agreement on inviting the U. S. and Canada to join.

Lovett pointed out that this government is bound by the Vandenberg resolution, passed 64-4 by the Senate, to "associate" itself in regional defense pacts under United Nations authority and after Senate ratification.

Lovett also:

1. Announced that Great Britain and France have agreed to stop dismantling and shipping German plants to their homelands as war reparations pending a study of need for the plants in the European recovery program.

2. Said he had been advised of President Truman's decision Sunday to issue another statement on

35 Fires Reported Burning In East Texas Timberlands

LUFKIN, Oct. 27 (AP) — The Texas Forest service reported that 35 fires in East Texas timberlands were being fought today.

M. V. Dunmire of the forest service said the worst situation was around Woodville where seven fires destroyed 6,600 acres yesterday, and where 28 fires raged today. Nearly 9,000 acres were destroyed by 42 fires yesterday.

State and volunteer fire fighters battled the blazes.

In the Conroe area 12 fires destroyed 1,188 acres yesterday and 14 fires burned today.

Civil Service To Face Test

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Validity of the state firemen and policeman civil service law will be tested in the State Supreme court.

The court today accepted for review a Fort Worth case involving constitutionality of the civil service statute, and took these other important actions:

Refused to grant Herman Marion Sweatt's motion for rehearing his effort to force University of Texas officials to admit him as a student.

Accepted for review a case in which the legal role of juvenile courts and county judges in adoption cases will be determined.

Section Held Invalid

Refused to take jurisdiction in a direct appeal of a city zoning law dispute.

In the civil service case, a statute passed by the 50th legislature will be tested. It provided for elections in cities of more than 10,000 population on the question of putting policemen and firemen under civil service.

The suit contesting its constitutionality was brought by the city of Fort Worth. The trial court held all of the act constitutional but section 18 which provides for appeals from Civil Service commission acts to a district court. This action, the court said, was invalid because it imposed administrative as well as judicial functions on a court.

Appeal of Sweatt Case Seen

The second court of civil appeals affirmed the trial court ruling and both the city and the firemen asked for a supreme court review.

In the Sweatt case, the court's

Mexican Navy Reports Storm Heading For Yucatan Area

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Navy department tonight reported that "a cyclonic disturbance of mild intensity" is moving north-northeast toward the Yucatan peninsula.

It warned coastal vessels in the Yucatan canal area to take precautions. The disturbance was reported this morning as north of Cisne island.

The department said its report yesterday of the disturbance "was misinterpreted." It said it did not order the ports of Veracruz and Tampico closed, though local storms in the gulf area are interrupting shipping.

Truman Holds Slight Lead In Area Poll

THE Truman-Barkley ticket, as thoroughly embattled in this section as over most of the country, continued Wednesday night to cling to a slight lead in The Avalanche-Journal's Presidential "Straw Vote."

In second place, by virtue of a spurt on Wednesday, was the Dewey-Warren team. Close behind, and still showing more strength than expected in this area, were States Rights Democrats Thurmond and Wright.

Clearly forgotten in South Plains political circles is the Wallace-Taylor entry which got four votes in the first batch counted and has failed to scratch since. No one expected the Moscow-blessed "Progressive" team to win any favor out this way, but a scattering of votes was anticipated and may be forthcoming before the "Straw Vote" ends Friday night.

Tabulated thus far is a total of 314 votes. They were cast as follows:

TRUMAN-BARKLEY	116
THURMOND-WRIGHT	94
WALLACE-TAYLOR	4

Peculiarly, more than 50 per cent of those in favor of the election of the Truman-Barkley slate do not expect their favorites to win but, instead, opinions on the Tuesday voting outcome who are "straw-voting" for the other three tickets are unanimous in forecasting that Dewey and Warren will take over in Washington on January.

"Straw Voters" offering opinions on the outcome of the election are divided, as follows, in picking the Dewey-Warren team to win:

REPUBLICANS	100
STATES RIGHTERS	88
TRUMANITES	62
WALLACEITES	2

Clear skies and cool temperatures were forecast for the annual Amarillo - Lubbock football game here Friday afternoon.

The weatherman said "it looks like pretty good weather for the game. By that, I mean it ought to be cool and clear as there are no uncomfortable temperatures in sight right now."

For the Rice-Texas Tech game Saturday afternoon in Jones Stadium the weatherman became more cautious. "It probably will be good

Duval County Votes Missing

(By The Associated Press)

THE U. S. Senate Wednesday extended its gathering of ballots from the contested Texas Democratic senatorial race into counties pointed out by Rep. Lyndon Johnson, the nominee.

Previously it had gone only into counties where former governor Coke Stevenson charged he had been defrauded in the voting in the Aug. 28 Democratic runoff primary.

The FBI also moved into the picture. It was learned that FBI field men had been sent into South Texas to make a preliminary investigation of handling of the election in that area.

Early Probe Not Expected

Reports from Washington said the FBI agents were understood to be concentrating their efforts in the general vicinity of Houston.

Aides of the Senate subcommittee on elections said in Washington they had seized what they thought was an ample number of ballots from the primary to conduct a thorough probe into charges of fraud.

But Nelson B. Derenian, chief counsel for the group, said he would be surprised if the committee met for an investigation until after the Nov. 2 general election.

Stevenson, in his complaint to the committee, named five South Texas counties, including Duval, where it was learned Wednesday that the ballots of that election have been burned. The Democratic state convention accepted a report that Johnson received 4,622 votes in Duval county to Stevenson's 40.

In a letter Tuesday to Senator C. Wayland Brooks, chairman of the Senate's Rules committee, Johnson said that any recount should take in all of the state's 254 counties. The investigation is being conducted by a subcommittee headed by Senator William F. Jenner, Indiana Republican.

Johnson stated in his letter that the vote might have been affected in eight other counties in which there were local contests, changes made in returns and other evidence.

Swisher County Case Reversed

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—Because the trial court judge failed to instruct the jury to consider a defense plea a five-year sentence for murder without malice in Swisher county was reversed and remanded today.

The Court of Criminal Appeals said Harold Long, convicted in the death of Mrs. Mattie Rogers in an automobile accident Jan. 18, 1947, near Tulia had been denied right to a defense plea to which he was entitled no matter if it was "so weak no jury would have believed it."

Mrs. Rogers and her husband, Walter J. Rogers, were returning to their Lubbock residence after attending a church convention on the North Plains when their car was struck by the heavy automobile of Long, a Lubbock negro. She died several hours later.

Lubbock Man Recovered

Rogers too was seriously injured, but recovered.

Long's testimony denied that he was intoxicated at the time of the accident and that the accident resulted from a mechanical failure of his automobile.

The judge's charge to the jury instructed it to find Long guilty if it found beyond a reasonable doubt he was intoxicated, or to find him innocent if he were not intoxicated, court records showed.

"Intoxication at the time and proof by the state . . . that there was a death will not in that abstract form support a conviction . . . Death must be the result of the intoxication," the appeal court's written opinion said.

PREPAREDNESS HAILED AS INSURANCE FOR PEACE

Nation Bluntly Warned Of 'Acute Danger Of War At Any Time' By Admiral Leahy In Navy Day Talk

By GEORGE MOISE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27—President Truman's chief of staff declared today that "there is an acute danger of war at any time."

But he softened his warning with the personal view that war will not come "in the near future."

The statements were made by Adm. William D. Leahy, whose speech in Indianapolis was a storm signal during nationwide celebration of Navy day today.

Across the nation, however, other leaders of the armed forces took occasion to emphasize that the Navy is cooperating with the Army and Air Force under the unification act to protect the U.S. from aggression.

They repeated the oft-spoken statements of top government officials that the U. S. has no imperialist aims and that military preparedness is the best insurance for peace.

In virtually all speeches, attention was focused on unnamed "aggressors." But it was Admiral Leahy who talked in the bluntest terms.

He noted that aggression "takes many forms." He specifically mentioned the recent fall of the Czechoslovak government to "a minority directed from without." He added:

"The spotlight is now on Germany, but this does not preclude the possibility of a similar situation breaking out in almost any other country, as part of a ruthless and diabolical plan for ultimate barbarian domination of the world."

Other speakers of the day included Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan in Akron, O., and Chicago; Army Secretary Kenneth C.

COURT SAYS WAR NOT OUTLAWED

13 High German Military Chiefs Are Acquitted Of Plotting War

By GEORGE BRIA
Associated Press Staff Writer

NUERNBERG, Germany, Oct. 27.—An American war crimes court today acquitted 13 high German military commanders of plotting war but convicted at least three of them of war crimes.

In a 330-page judgment, the court handed down a blanket acquittal of all 13 defendants on the charge of plotting aggressive war and struck out a charge of conspiracy. It then started to pronounce judgment on each defendant on two remaining counts of war crimes.

By the end of the day, it had dealt with four of the individual cases.

Field Marshal Acquitted

Field Marshal Hugo Serrle, 62, was acquitted on all counts and ordered freed. He commanded the aerial fleet which blitzed London in 1940. Sperrle first gained fame as commander of the German "Condor Legion" in the Spanish civil war.

Field Marshal Karl Friedrich Wilhelm von Duechler and Gen. Herman Hoth were convicted of carrying out Hitler's order for the summary execution of Communist commissars who fell into German hands. They also were convicted of crimes against civilians.

The judgments of the three-man court were arrived at during a nine-month trial of three field marshals, five generals, an admiral and four lieutenant generals. The verdicts on the remaining nine will be read tomorrow, when sentences also are expected to be pronounced.

In acquitting the German military leaders of plotting war, the court held they were not policy makers.

"Somewhere between the dictator and the supreme commander," said the court, "there is a boundary between the criminal and the individual engaged in aggressive war.

"The world has not arrived at the state of civilization such that it can dispense with fleets, armies and air forces," the court continued, "nor has it arrived at the point where it can safely outlaw war under any and all circumstances and situations. Inasmuch as all war cannot be considered outlawed then armed forces are lawful instrumentalities of state which have internationally legitimate functions."

The court is composed of presiding Judge John C. Young of Colorado Springs, former chief justice of the Colorado supreme court; Judge Winfield B. Hale of Robersville, Tenn., and the Tennessee court of appeals, and Judge Justin W. Harding of Franklin, Ohio.

Russian Leaps From Cab In San Antonio As Visa Questioned

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 27. (AP)—Mathieu Tolstoy, Russian citizen, leaped from a taxicab in downtown San Antonio early today after immigration officials began an investigation of his temporary visa to enter the United States.

Tolstoy, who flew in from Mexico last night, had been sent to a hotel by immigration officials who placed him in a cab with an airlines agent. In downtown San Antonio, Tolstoy leaped from the cab and ran into a cafe.

Al Garcia, the airlines agent, and the cab driver followed him. Unable to persuade the Russian to return to the cab, Garcia said "Well, I guess I'll have to call the police."

Russian Calls Police

Instead, Tolstoy called the police and six arrived on the scene. They took Tolstoy into custody and held him for immigration officials.

Later, immigration officials set up a special board of inquiry to study Tolstoy's case.

Federal officials said he had been in the United States previously and had gone to Mexico City last spring.

Tolstoy explained through an interpreter that he jumped from the cab because he was afraid after Garcia informed him he would have to appear in federal court Wednesday. He was also afraid of Garcia, he said.

Tolstoy described himself as a recent resident of Paris, France, and an interpreter at the war trials at Nuernberg, Germany.

U. S. immigration officers challenged his papers although they had been cleared by Mexican authorities.

Missing Colorado Hunter Blames His Troubles On Bear

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 27. (INS)—Michael Torick, Trinidad hunter who spent three cold nights in the wilderness, turned up safe and sound today, and blamed his misfortune on a big brown bear.

Torick, reported missing in the Monument lake district west of Trinidad since Sunday, said he was "never really lost."

He said he spotted the big brown bear, took one shot at it and missed, then started to follow the bruin. He lost his footing on loose rocks and fell, injuring his right knee.

He spent the three days in hobbling over the North Fork canon trail, and reached the highway this morning.

Famous Heiress Makes No Settlement

Doris Duke Given Divorce From Her Husband In Reno

RENO, Oct. 27. (INS) — Doris Duke won a Reno divorce today from her second husband, Porfirio Rubirosa, Dominican Republic diplomat, on grounds of extreme mental cruelty.

The famed heiress to the Duke tobacco millions entered the Washoe county district court in Reno at 3:15 p. m. today and half an hour later was granted her divorce.

Rubirosa, whom the heiress married in Paris Sept. 1, 1947, was formerly Dominican ambassador to Argentina.

Miss Duke returned to her home in Reno three days ago after extensive travels in a private plane through Europe, South America and a recent visit to her fabulous "Shangri - La" home overlooking the Pacific in Hawaii.

The heiress established her home in Reno several years ago prior to obtaining a Reno decree in 1943 from her first husband, James H. R. Cromwell.

Cromwell contested that decree in New Jersey courts, claiming that her real residence was in New Jersey rather than Nevada.

A maid in her Reno home was her only witness today when she obtained the divorce decree from Rubirosa. The decree was granted by Judge William McKnight.

Miss Duke's attorney announced that the heiress has no plans for the future other than "remaining at her home in Reno."

Cromwell, at the time the heiress filed for her Reno divorce from him, obtained an order from the New Jersey courts forbidding the Reno judge from awarding the decree. He obtained it on the grounds that she was properly a resident of New Jersey, not Nevada.

The Reno judge, however, ruled her a Nevada resident.

Cromwell two years later obtained a limited degree of divorce in New Jersey, and later filed suit for an absolute divorce.

Miss Duke's Reno attorney William Woodburn, said the case was a "routine" divorce proceeding except for an unusual amount of time consumed in establishing the legality of her Nevada residence.

The twice-divorced Miss Duke, once tagged as America's "poor little rich girl," maintains a lavish western type home overlooking Reno's municipal golf course.

Woodburn refused to comment further on the divorce proceedings after saying that no property settlement was involved in the sudden divorce action.

He said Rubirosa and Miss Duke separated in France only recently. The attorney added:

"She will retain her maiden name."

When Miss Duke married Rubirosa in Paris in 1947 she retained control of her vast estate, part of which was an outright inheritance of $30,000,000.

Shortly after the marriage, she was reported to have bought her new husband an Army surplus B-29 for his own personal use.

Rubirosa's history as a diplomat has not been too smooth. In 1947 he found it necessary to deny assertions by a Madrid jeweler that he had "mislaid" jewels entrusted to him during the civil war in Spain in 1937. He is the former husband of French film actress Danielle Darrieux.

Before his marriage to Miss Duke, Rubirosa had been charge d'affaires for the Dominican legation in Vichy during the German occupation of France.

Rubirosa met Miss Duke in Paris where she was working as a fashion editor for a brief time following the end of World War II.

The Woman's Angle

"IT IS NOT at all too early to begin thinking about Christmas," is the way an article sent from an agency begins.

We didn't read on, because we disagree. We think it is too early to begin thinking about Christmas; too early to plan for it and become excited in anticipation when it is almost two months away.

TO SANTA

A SMALL lad who lives in Lubbock lettered a note: "Der Santa Clause: I have been a good boy all year but Donald and Kenneth have bent two of my tracks. Not me. My name is Malcolm."

Oh, now Malcolm, watch that! Is it nice to snitch that way? We don't know whether Santa will understand better than we whether it was toy train tracks or Malcolm who was bent by the two boys named.

MOST SENSITIVE AGE

WE SHOULD think that every parent of a seven-year-old child would be interested in the statement by Dr. Arnold Gesell, noted child psychology authority of the School of Medicine, Yale university, that the child of that age is especially sensitive to praise and blame and will never afterward be so deeply influenced by the actions of his elders as at that age.

Here are some other discoveries revealed by the good doctor at a symposium on feelings and emotions held in Chicago:

At the age of two and a half, a child normally exhibits extremes of agressive and recessive behavior but within the next six months improves both as to expression and as to posture. Instability again sets in at the age of three and a half when the youngster's voice sometimes quavers and he begins to have frightening dreams or nightmares.

BY THE TIME a child reaches the age of four, he becomes boisterous and boastful, Dr. Gesell discloses, and by five regains his poise. At six he may be excitable and given to contradictory actions and speches. Seven is the sensitive age and eight is the beginning of interest in the world outside himself.

While our only contact with children is through our friend's youngsters and on rare occasions when our young nephews visit, we are interested in what goes on in a child's mind. Hope you mothers who may have read the above paragraphs check your Johnnies and Marys and find they measure up to the norm.

WELL, since our writing seems to be on children today, we will conclude with a little essay on blocks.

According to Frank Caplan, a New York toymaker, the best thing a parent can buy the child is a set of plain, unpainted unit blocks. Children will use and enjoy them from age 18 months to nine years, he says.

Well, we aren't going to argue with Mr. Caplan, but most of the nine-year-old boys of our acquaintance want baseball uniforms, motor scooters and beg to be allowed to go for airplane rides. They might consent to a block building spree once in a while, but mainly to show up a younger brother who is the owner of the blocks.

If it is actually true that children prefer blocks, perhaps dads should avoid the toys that they like; such as tanks and airplanes, bats and balls and other toys parents hold dear.

Grand Conductress Election Highlights Eastern Star Meet

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27 (AP) — Tomorrow's election of an associate grand conductress—initial step on the route to worthy grand matron—paled today's activities at the state Eastern Star convention at Will Rogers Memorial auditorium.

Interest was running high in the four pronged race which will come to a head at 1 p.m. when voting gets underway in the auditorium.

With a candidate needing a majority to win, the final result was not expected to be known until late afternoon—after, perhaps, three or four ballots.

All other offices below worthy grand matron and worthy grand patron will advance a rank automatically. Mrs. Esther Baldwin of Wichita Falls and Dr. T. G. Rogers of Decatur will succeed Mrs. Cheba Dewees, Fort Worth and Pat H. Boone, Littlefield, as heads of the grand chapter of Texas, OES.

Installation ceremonies will take place beginning at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Will Rogers Memorial coliseum.

The race for associate grand patron, stepping stone to worthy grand patron, appears to be cut and dried, with the possibility that Dean Gauldin of Dallas, former Dallas county district attorney, will be the only candidate. Gauldin at present is grand sentinel.

This afternoon, Mrs. Pauline Smith, Lubbock, and Mrs. Thelma Lee Huffman, Fort Worth urged a united effort and a pooling of funds to make a "substantial contribution" to OES welfare work in cancer research, sponsorship of a small rural school in America, sponsorship of a child in China and Europe and providing kits and layettes for needy mothers.

Tipped Bottle Ends West Virginian's 30 Nights In Barroom

By RODNEY GUILFOIL
United Press Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Patrick J. Fleming's 30 nights in a barroom were over today.

Fleming's month-long cocktail party came to a close when he was flushed from an attic hideaway above the Bond bar on Market street. He lived there for 30 days on ham sandwiches, hard-boiled eggs and the best bonded bourbon in the house.

When he needed small change, police said, he helped himself to the hard boiled egg money or pried open the jukebox.

Had Good Booze

The proprietor, 230-pound Tom Sullivan, didn't know he had a boarder until yesterday when a customer in the washroom was astonished to see little drops of bourbon trickling down from the ceiling.

The customer called Sullivan who shouted at whoever was up there to come down, and right away.

Fleming, a 23-year-old West Virginian, lowered himself through the trap door. Dressed in blue jeans, white sports socks and moccasins, he congratulated Sullivan on his excellent grog.

"You sure had good booze," he said. "It was all right."

Spent Nights In Bar

Confident that Sullivan, another Irishman, would not prosecute him Fleming told of his month's visit. He said he would enter the bar 15 minutes before closing time, order a ham sandwich and then disappear into the washroom. After the bar was closed and the help went home, Fleming came down from his attic roost, and helped himself from the pantry the bottle shelves and the cigar boxes.

About 11 a. m., he would rise, lower himself to the washstand and shave. Then he slipped into the bar and mingled with the customers. He spent the rest of the day elsewhere. He always returned to the bar in time to make sure of a nightcap.

"Once or twice I saw him go back there, and I didn't see him come out," said Sullivan. "But when I shook the place down before closing, I looked everywhere but upstairs."

Mrs. Leah Dover, who operated the food bar in the rear with her husband, Al, said "Al was accusing me of slicing the ham too thick."

The bobcat differs from the Canadian lynx in that it is somewhat smaller and has a longer tail. Also the tufts on the ears are more pronounced.

Strain Of Flying Berlin Route Now Telling On Some U. S. Pilots

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (INS) — The strain of flying the Allied air lift to Berlin week after week has begun to tell on some of the American airmen.

Newsweek magazine reported today that "some of these airmen are now becoming both weary and fed up."

The magazine quoted one pilot as declaring:

Feared "Crowding Luck"

The crash of the C-54 that killed three American airmen near Frankfurt Oct. 18 was found by Newsweek to have caused many of the fliers to feel "we are crowding our luck."

One pilot, referring to the engineer who died in the Frankfurt crash, was quoted as saying, "This whole air lift isn't worth that one kid."

Another pilot, according to the magazine, insisted that the "whole thing is a lot of Air Force propaganda for recruiting." The same pilot reportedly wondered "how long our economy can stand up under this kind of business."

Newsweek added that Maj. Gen. William Turner, air lift commander, recently told public-relations officers at Weisbaden that "pilots completing 300 to 500 Berlin flights needed a continuous selling campaign on the value of the operation."

He served in Texas parishes at Abilene, Groom, Pilot Point, Wichita Falls and Scotland, Texas.

Funeral services will be held Friday. Solemn high mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Herman Redder, Scotland, the very Rev. Vincent Wolf Dean, Tyler and the Rev. Joseph Vann, Clarksville.

Public Bored With Shows Or Politics

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 27. (INS)—Apparently the public is either becoming bored with give-away shows or with politics.

Keen observers at a GOP rally last night in Colorado Springs noted that only 800 persons turned out for the affair, although a wide assortment of door prizes was offered. The gifts ranged from a $100 cabinet sink to 10 boxes of candy.

Republican onlookers also noted that a number of persons in the audience were quite indifferent to the speakers. The observers theorized that those who refused to applaud were Democrats, attending the meeting for purely mercenary reasons.

'Man Of Many References' Is Held For Passing Hot Checks

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—Police today were questioning a suave 31-year-old man who gave Gen. Lucius B. Clay and Sec. Gen. Trygve Lie as character references, in connection with the passing of bad checks to four Fort Worth stores.

He identified himself as Stephen A. Morgan, 31, of Denver, a former Army major and graduate of UCLA.

He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Ed Weatherford, manager of the Merchants Protective agency, two hours after Weatherford had posted the description of a hot check artist with local stores.

In addition to Clay and Lie, the man gave symphony conductors and United Nations officials as character references.

He said he played saxophone in pre-war years with Glen Gray, Ben Bernie, Ray Noble and Anson Weeks.

He told reporters of his G-2 record in the Philippines during the war and said that he was connected with the U. S. consul in Berlin after the war. He added that his knowledge of French, German and Russian made him useful to the consulate in "playing nursemaid to visiting officials from the Soviet zone."

Morgan said that he resigned from the United Nations in August and that he had been unemployed since that time. He said he passed the checks "because I needed some money."

Students At Brownfield High School Vote On Grid Queen

Diplomats Find Formula For U. S.-Western Europe Alliance

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

The diplomats seem to have found a formula for a defense agreement between the United States and western Europe which will not violate our traditional antipathy toward ironclad military alliances.

It is expected that the proposed treaty will not automatically commit the United States to war if one of its partners is attacked, but will merely provide that such an attack will be "considered" in the same light" as though it were a direct attack.

Congress Holds Power

Under the present conception of western Europe as a vital part of America's defenses, this may seem a highly technical reservation. But it preserves the right of Congress to determine when the United Stated shall go to war. It guards against future discovery that we are committed to a line of action which might not be compatible with a changed situation.

The wording of any treaty, of course, is meaningless unless taken in conjunction with a true evaluation of the will and ability of its signatories.

Allies Are Limping

Right now the Allies, arching toward the establishment of a balance of power which they hope will forestall war, are dragging one leg. The limp is not so serious as it was a few months ago, but still obvious.

The U. S. proclaimed military help for nations threatened by Communist aggression — the Truman doctrine—several months before the Marshall plan for economic help. Greece and probably Turkey have been saved, so far, by this program.

But Washington reports that plans for a mutual program of military help in Europe are progressing slowly.

If the western Allies place preparations for conventional war ahead of internal strengthening against fifth columns they may awake to find they have made one of history's greatest mistakes.

Woman Hitch-Hikes Across Nation To Be With Husband

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (INS)—A young, pregnant wife from Fresno, Calif., who hitch-hiked across the continent to be at her prisoner-husband's side, had a brief, tearful reunion with him today in Queens county court.

The wife, Mrs. Jacqueta Gilliam Bokum, 18, sobbed as her husband, Paul, 21, was arraigned on charges of taking part with others in an armed holdup of a Flushing real estate office.

One of the alleged bandits was killed in a gun battle with police, and Bokum was wounded.

He was ordered held in $10,000 bail for trial Nov. 10.

State Divisions Ask Funds Hike

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (AP)—The four divisions of state government have asked the board of control to recommend an increase of more than $86 million in their operating funds for the next two fiscal years.

The board — state budgeting agency—today announced total requests of $207,806,531 from the judiciary, state departments, higher educational institutions, and eleemosynary institutions.

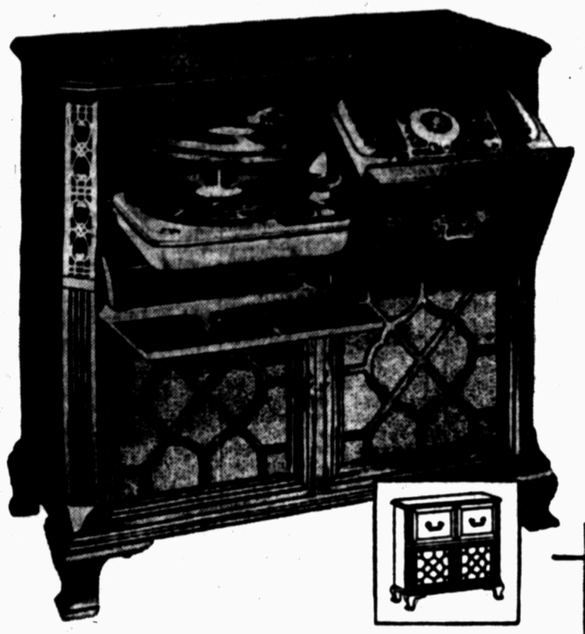

Hall Logan, board chairman, said it was not yet ready to announce what it would recommend. The fund would be appropriated by the 51st legislature for the two fiscal years starting Sept. 1, 1949.

Similar requests before the legislature met two years ago came to $146,513,417. The legislature appropriated $121,788,227 — considerably more than the control board recommended.

The requests by the major branches of state government do not include such big expenditures as per capita and rural public school aid; junior colleges; deficiency funds or emergency requests; or the anticipated request of $4,000,000 for reconstruction of the prison system.

Lockney To Battle Floydada; Levelland Tangles With Post In Non-Title Clash

Longhorns Risk Top 3-A Record

Lockney risks its undefeated record again Friday night in the top game in District 3-A conference football, going to Floydada for a battle with the Whirlwinds that probably will settle once and for all the conference race.

Floydada currently is tied with Spur's Bulldogs for second place and a defeat would drop them behind Spur. But a victory would knot Floydada and Lockney, each of whom would be ahead of Spur.

In other top games, Crosbyton's fourth-place Chiefs travel to Matador for a game with the cellar-dwelling Matadors and Ralls' fifth-place Jackrabbits go to Abernathy for a joust against the sixth-place Antelopes.

Lockney appears to be in little danger of losing its Friday night battle. The Longhorns have weight in the line, speed in the backfield and Curtis Kelley to coach them. They have only a 13-13 tie with Kress against their record and boast six wins.

Title Depends On Games

Floydada has the inferior record, with four defeats and only three victories, all of them conference games. But Coach L. F. Greshem will have his boys up for this game, knowing that the conference title depends on it.

Lockney defeated Tulia 20-6, a team that beat Floydada 19-12. The Steers beat Abernathy 26-0; the Whirlwinds beat them 20-6. Lockney beat Ralls 20-0; Floydada beat them 39-6. It should be a close game tomorrow with the edge going to Lockney.

The Abernathy - Ralls game might be much closer than the average bystander would think. Neither has been a title threat this year, but both have showed signs of having coming ball clubs. Ralls has played the tougher season and should have learned more, but the Antelopes have shown plenty of ability in spots.

On comparative scores, Floydada beat Abernathy 20-6, while they edged Ralls 39-6. Lockney beat Abernathy 26-0; the Steers beat Ralls 20-0. It should be rated as a toss up, with a slim advantage to Abernathy.

Chiefs On Rebound

Crosbyton's Chiefs, sidetracked from the title last week by Spur, are expected to rebound at the expense of the Matador Matadors. Coach Fred J. Cunningham, in his first year with the Chiefs, has turned in a good performance to date and he expects to pick up from the point at which he was shunted aside last week. But Coach Rafe Nabors at Matador has other ideas and when the two collide tomorrow, it should provide spectators with a good game.

There's only one game on the schedule to use as a comparison. Spur romped over Matador early in the season 40-0; the Bulldogs nosed out the Chiefs 13-8 last week. It could be a tight game, but Crosbyton should gain the revenge that they want.

Paducah and Spur have a week end of rest before returning to conference games.

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 27. (Special)—Members of the Brownfield Quarterbacks club will be hosts to the South Plains Coaches and Officials association at a meeting at Veterans Hall at 8 o'clock Monday night.

A program, expected to include motion pictures of two Texas Tech football games, is being arranged, according to H. M. (Dube) Pyeatt, treasurer. A barbecue dinner will be served.

Bettye Mims White Defeats Mrs. Winger In Kilgore Play

Tomorrow Mrs. White will meet Mrs. H. T. Williford of Sherman, who defeated Mrs. Robert Wood of Longview today, 7 and 6.

Amarillo Features 'Michigan Shift' Offense

Westerners Face High-Scoring Golden Sandie Attack Friday

Lubbock and South Plains football fans will have an opportunity to see one of the two top schoolboy grid machines in the state in action here Friday afternoon at Jones stadium, when Amarillo's powerful Golden Sandies battle the Lubbock High Westerners in a feature District 1-AA encounter.

The undefeated, untied Golden Sandstorm is ranked as the No. 2 team in the Texas Interscholastic league setup by all the major polls and grid ratings, with only Port Arthur's mighty Yellowjackets getting more votes. The Sandies have probably their best eleven since the 1940 season, when they won their fourth state championship.

Heading the Sandies' "Michigan shift" offense is a 158-pound triple-threat tailback, Marvin McNeil. McNeil, running from the left half slot on the "T" and the tailback post when the secondary shifts into a single wing formation, has been the spark of the Sandies' running and passing attack in every game. He has carried the ball more than any other Sandie back, and he handles most of the passing chores.

The other half of the Sandie offense is James Garner, 165-pound letterman end and team captain. Garner has snagged six touchdown passes this season, calls the offensive and defensive signals for the Amarilloans, plays linebacker on defense and carries the ball on end-around plays. Garner is extremely fast and shifty and is rated as the Sandies' top candidate for all-state honors.

Other gridders certain to see plenty of action for the Sandies Friday afternoon are Charlie Priolo, swivel-hipped wingback; Claude Fox, 176-pound line-smashing fullback; Charles Sieber, 180-pound center; and Bobby Hudgins, 160-pound guard.

The Sandies hold a big advantage over the Westerners in experience, since five of the Amarillo starters are lettermen and four others were squadmen in 1947. Only two of the Westerner regulars—Backs Donald Decker and Charley Williams—won letters in '47 and there are only three other squadmen.

Amarillo's gridders boast an impressive record in six games this season. The Sandies drubbed Childress, 39-6, in the opening tilt of the season, then rolled to a 14-0 triumph over Abilene. The Sandies pounded out a 21-7 win over strong Paschal of Fort Worth, then amazed West Texas grid fans by humiliating the Odessa Broncos, 33-6. The Woodrow Wilson eleven of Dallas was the next Sandie victim, 28-12, then last week the Sandies took a 21-0 win over Brownfield.

Westerner Record

The Westerners have an in-and-out record this year, with two victories, one tie and three defeats. The Lubbock schoolboys tied Odessa in their opener, then lost a 21-13 decision to San Angelo. The Westerners bounced back to edge North Side of Fort Worth, 21-14, but were blanked by Austin the following weekend, 13-0. Lubbock shaded Childress, 21-14, in the final non-conference tilt, and lost a 20-14 district encounter with Borger.

Approximately 3,700 reserved seat tickets for the Westerner-Amarillo game are still available at the Senior High school athletic office, E. J. Lowrey announced Wednesday night. The ducats will be on sale until noon Friday, when ticket booths at the stadium will open.

Special tickets are also available for Tech students who want to see the Lubbock-Amarillo setto, Lowrey announced, but he emphasized that he does not have any type of tickets for the Tech-Rice game Saturday. Bleacher seat ducats will be sold at the stadium.

PENN LEADS IN BLOCKED KICKS

Georgia Tech Leads Deep South In Resisting Offensive Plays

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—The deep south, led by Georgia Tech continues to put up the only noteworthy resistance to the hell-for-leather offensive type of football which is sweeping the nation's college gridirons.

Tech, which meets Duke on Saturday at Durham in one of the week's big games, has yielded an average of 125.8 yards per game in crushing five opponents to lead the defense array.

North Carolina State climbed into second place with an average yield of 140.2 yards and North Carolina remained third at 159.6. Two other southern teams, Mississippi State and Tennessee, climbed into the first 10 by strong defensive showings last week.

Penn's undefeated and untied Quakers not only stand third in defense against enemy rushes, but they have done a notable job in blocking opponents' punts. Through their first four games they have blocked six kicks.

Wolverines Rank Ninth

Michigan, voted the nation's top team in the Associated Press weekly poll, isn't so much defensively. The Wolverines rank 9th in defense against ground attack, having yielded 450 yards in five games

The 10 leaders in each department:

Total defense — Georgia Tech, 125.8 yards average yield per game to rushes and passes; North Carolina State, 140.2; North Carolina, 159.6; Northwestern, 160.8; Villanova, 162; Miami (O), 166.2; Army, 167; Mississippi State, 169.6; Tennessee, 169.8; Detroit, 171.6.

Rushing defense—Georgia Tech, 53.8 yards average yielded per game; North Carolina, 69; Pennsylvania, 69.5; Minnesota, 76.0; Miss. State, 84.4; West Virginia, 86.2; North Carolina State, 87; Detroit, 89.2; Kansas, 90; Michigan 90.

Passing defense — Brown, 41 yards average yielded per game; Montana State, 47.8; Northwestern, 50.2; Villanova, 50.2; Maryland, 52.8; N. Carolina State, 53.2; Brigham Young, 54.8; Utah, 55.5; Clemson, 56.8; New Mexico, 59.

Punting — North Carolina, 43 yards average per punt; Duke, 42.4; Furman, 42.1; Santa Clara, 42.1; Yale, 41.8; Marquette, 41.8; V.M.I., 41.8; Texas Mines, 41.3; Virginia Tech, 41.2; Montana State, 41.

General Admission Ducats Available For Tech-Rice Tilt

The reserved seats for the Texas Tech-Rice game in Jones Stadium here Saturday afternoon have been gone for three weeks, Athletic Director Morley Jennings said yesterday.

But there will be between 2,200 and 2,500 general admission tickets placed on sale Saturday morning from 8 until 10:30. There's one rub for townspeople; the tickets will be sold during that two and a half hour period only to alumni and former students. At 10:30 a. m., if there are tickets left, they will go on public sale on a first come, first served basis.

Jennings said that a top crowd of 19,000 persons would see the game. The college has sold 16,500 grandstand seats, including student seats, and the additional north and south end zone general admission tickets will bring the crowd up to 19,000.

Temporary bleachers already are in the north end zone and additional bleachers are being set up in the south end zone. In addition, a few more temporary seats will be made. But Jennings emphasized that there would be no standing room only tickets sold.

Pep, Saddler Work Out For Title Fight Friday Night

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (INS) — Willie Pep, featherweight champion, and Sandy Saddler, challenger in Friday night's title fight in Madison Square Garden, completed training today well under the division limit of 126 pounds.

Pep boxed four rounds at Hartford, Conn., and Saddler went a like distance at his Summit, N. J., training camp in their last drills before their 15-round clash.

Cowhands Meet Amarillo Eleven

Lubbock High's undefeated Cowhand gridders will renew their old feud with Amarillo High's Yannigans when the two teams clash at 8 o'clock tonight at Chapman field.

The Cowhands, coached by Mentors Joe Bob Foster and Pat Farris, have chalked up impressive victories in three games this season, but will face their toughest foe of the year in the Yannigans. The Cowhands opened their 1948 slate with a 31-13 win over the Seagraves Eagles of the south half of District 4-A, then drubbed the Plainview "B", 33-0. In the third tilt the Cowhands beat Class A Slaton by an 18-0 count.

Amarillo's Yannigans, coached by wily Rudy Gamblin, were defeated by Boise City, Okla., 32-0, in the first encounter. The junior Sandies bounced back to blast Matador, 39-6, however; then chalked up a 27-12 win over Texhoma. The Yannigans beat the Plainview "B" by an 18-0 score before losing to Price college of Amarillo, 6-0. In their last outing the Yannigans trounced the Perryton "B", 12-0.

Cowhands Favored

On the basis of comparative scores the Cowhands will enter the game as two-touchdown favorites, although the team has been weakened in recent weeks by the shift of four stellar linemen up to the hard-pressed Westerner squad.

The Cowhands use a modified single wing attack to push across their touchdowns, with Backs Mack Taylor, Donnie Rawls and Jimmy McCowan sharing leather-lugging duties. The Yannigans use the famed "Michigan shift."

The Cowhands won the last encounter of the two teams, scoring two second-half touchdowns to beat the Yannigans last year on Butler field.

The probable starting lineups

COWHANDS	POS.	YANNIGANS
White (150)	LE	Isaacs (150)
Bradford (200)	LT	Hibbs (150)
Hensley (140)	LG	McCarty (140)
Cobb (146)	C	Reyman (155)
Craig (145)	RG	Baird (135)
Hill (185)	RT	Gibson (175)
Day (145)	RE	Farmer (170)
Took (150)	QB	Raines (135)
McCowan (135)	RH	Beverly (155)
Taylor (155)	LH	Davis (140)
Rawls (150)	FB	Hanna (160)

Littlefield And Sundown Clash

Only nine grid battles are scheduled this weekend in districts 4-A and 5-A—four conference tussles and five non-title settos—but the slate makes up in quality what it lacks in quantity.

Probably the feature tilt on the South Plains will be unreeled at 8 o'clock Friday night at Levelland, when Coach Truett Rattan's Lobos tangle with the undefeated Post Antelopes mentored by Bing Bingham. Since the Lobos are leading the north half 4-A title chase, and the Antelopes are far out in front in the south half 4-A loop race, the clash looms as a pre-view of the play-off game for the district championship.

A high-scoring grid duel is predicted when the two elevens meet, since both teams boast powerful offenses and a crew of hard-running backs. Both teams use the quick-breaking "T" formation, although there is some variation in the Lobo T-attack and the Antelope "T" setup. Post has chalked up impressive wins in six consecutive games, while Levelland has had an unmarred record since the opening loss to Class AA Lamesa.

One important north half 4-A conference tilt is carded Friday night, with Littlefield's Wildcats invading Sundown to battle the powerful Roughnecks. Littlefield has a record of two wins and no defeats in district competition, but the Sundown eleven has lost only to Levelland's loop-leaders.

Coach J. S. Fikes' Wildcats were hit by their old "injury jinx" again last week, losing stellar Fullback Jiggs Walker as a result of a broken arm in scrimmage, and the 'Cats will enter the tilt as one touchdown underdogs. Heading the Roughneck attack will be two of the best backs in class A ranks, Bill McCulloch and Doug Ethridge.

In a non-conference setto Tahoka will journey to Morton. Both teams have lost tilts with top teams, but will be shooting for a non-title victory.

Only one game is scheduled in the south half of 4-A, where Slaton's Tigers tangle with the O'Donnell Eagles in a conference clash. Slaton was upset by Seagraves last week, but Fullback Tom Smith and his Tiger crew will attempt to keep their district hopes alive with a win Friday night.

Two conference battles will be unreeled in District 5-A, with surprising Kermit invading Monahans and Wink journeying to Pecos. Kermit holds a win over Andrews and a narrow 20-19 loss to undefeated Seminole, and the Panthers may give the 5-A leaders one of their toughest tilts.

In non-conference clashes Seagraves will go to Denver City, Fort Stockton plays host to Marfa and Crane travels to McCamey.

19,000 May See Homecoming Game

Underdog Owls Are Tough Raider Foe

Rice Institute's Owls, trampled four successive week ends and rated the underdogs against a light but fighting team from Texas Tech, will be on the comeback trail here Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 19,000 Homecoming fans.

And Coach Jess Neely, the canny grid master at Houston, intends to make the day an unpleasant one for the Red Raiders. He has considerable respect for his former assistant, Coach Dell Morgan, but he also believes that this is the point where his Owls begin to move.

He might not be wrong for, despite their four beatings, the Owls have power and depth. One of the better omens from the Rice standpoint is the fact that three injured players are responding to treatment and should be ready Saturday. They are Quarterback Tobin Rote, Center Joe Watson and Tackle Ed Parker, one of the Rice captains.

Aerial Duel Seen

Indications in the middle of the week were that fans would witness an aerial duel, since both Tech and Rice are spending the working hours on passing. At Houston, Vernon Glass and Harmon Carswell took over Rote's duties and filled the air with pigskin. In Lubbock, any number of Raider backs heaved the ball downfield.

The Owls that the Raiders will face Saturday aren't as strong this year as they were when they rolled up a 41-7 victory over Tech. They lost by graduation and the scholastic deficiency route, such players as George Walmsley, Virgil Eikenberg, Dick Hoerster (who caused so much Tech trouble last year), Carl Russ, J. W. Magee, Henry Armstrong, Don Anderson and N. L. Nicholson.

But the Owls, as might be expected, have come up with players to take their place. Bobby Lantrip, five feet, 11 inches tall and 190 pounds, has made them a top flight fullback, with John Kelly a capable understudy. Lantrip is one of the leading runners and packs a lot of power.

Harold Riley at right half is another topnotch back at five feet eight and 185 pounds. He is hard to knock off his feet and is a consistent line plunger. Huey Keeney at left half needs no introduction. His booming punts always hurt the opposition and he is a clever broken field runner.

Rote Will Pace Rice

Rote at quarterback fits the T like a glove. He is a top forward passer and a clever quarterback who calls signals well. On him depends much of the Rice attack, while Charley Easter, who also performed well against Tech last year also is back again.

In the line, Watson was All-Conference at center and shows no sign of getting any worse. Last week he was picked as Lineman of the Week on the Associated Press poll. He handles his 235 pounds with amazing ease and definitely is All-American caliber.

The tackles probably will be Ralph Murphy and Billy Wyman, 210 and 220 pounds respectively. Both are hard-charging, hard-to-move men who have starred on both offense and defense.

The guards are expected to be S. J. Roberts and Tom Parsons, 190 and 210 pounds respectively, both of whom played a lot of ball last year. Roberts was outstanding all season, while Parsons lettered principally playing as a reserve.

The ends don't need much introduction either, with Froggy Williams at one wing and Jack McBride at the other. Williams has glue for fingers offensively and is also strong defensively, using his 197 pounds to good advantage. McBride is a 190-pound lad who also has been a stalwart in the Rice line.

RALPH MURPHY
Dangerous Rice Tackle

Idalou Will Test Ropesville Team

District 4-B conference football moves into another week of play with the undefeated Idalou Wildcats confidently looking ahead to Friday, when they meet the fourth-place Ropesville Eagles in the feature game of the conference.

The Wildcats so far have done everything asked of them and appear to be on the verge of winning a district championship. Against Ropes they expect to increase their average and fatten up the lead they have over New Deal, the second place club and nearest challenger.

Only one other game will be played in the conference, with Frenship moving to Whiteface for a game that brings together the fifth and sixth place teams.

Easy Win Seen

Idalou shouldn't have much trouble with the Eagles. They have only a 13-13 tie with Kress (exactly what the Lockney Longhorns of District 3-A boast) to mar their record. Otherwise they have rolled over all opposition.

Idalou licked Cooper 46-0; Ropes beat them 18-0. The Wildcats nosed out New Deal 7-0; the Lions roared to a 38-13 victory over the Eagles. Idalou trounced the Frenship eleven 28-7; Ropes beat them 14-12. Idalou slammed a 33-0 victory over Meadow; the Broncos beat the Eagles 13-0.

The Whiteface Antelopes, with a .500 mark in conference play, should build it a little at the expense of Frenship. The Antelopes of Coach L. S. Salser are coming along in fine shape and have played a tougher schedule than the undermanned Frenship eleven.

Cooper, Meadow and New Deal have a week of rest before going to the firing line again.

Dimmitt In 3-B Tilt With Anton

Both Dimmitt and Hale Center go under fire again this week in District 3-B conference football games, their perfect slates little more than clay pigeons at which Anton and Springlake will fire.

The Bobcats take their 4-0 record into a game at home against the Anton Bulldogs, currently in seventh place, while the Owls carry the same record to Springlake, where they face a surprising third place eleven.

In other games on the conference blotter, Amherst, in seventh place, goes to sixth-place Petersburg and cellar-dwelling Whitharral goes to fifth-place Friona.

Owls Have Tough One

Hale Center faces the toughest foe this week end in Springlake's Tigers, who have compiled a 4-1 record. The Owls, though, sport a more impressive victory skein and have played a tougher schedule. But Springlake is in a position to make the Owls like defeat.

In comparative scores, Hale Center beat Anton 27-7, while the Tigers won from the Bulldogs 31-12. Hale Center beat Friona 13-6, while Springlake ran over them by the same margin, 7-0. It should be a tight game and one of the best in the conference.

Dimmitt ought not to have to work up even a qualm over Anton, whom they play in Dimmitt. The strong Bobcats have compiled an undefeated season, with crushing victories over every foe. The Bulldogs have won only one game, that over last place Whitharral.

Comparatively, Dimmitt beat Amherst 53-0 and they, in turn, beat Anton 6-0. Dimmitt beat Springlake 45-12, while Springlake licked Anton 31-12. Dimmitt swamped Whitharral 45-7; Anton nosed them 14-6.

Buff Win Forseen

Petersburg, which has won one game in two years, appears about ready to make it two victories this season. The Golden Buffaloes play host to Amherst and it should be a Buff victory.

Olton beat Petersburg 14-0, then added Amherst 48-7. Petersburg beat Anton 18-6, while Amherst beat them 6-0. Friona licked Petersburg 19-13 and Amherst, 20-12. And both teams lost to Hale Center, Petersburg by 32-0, Amherst by 43-0.

Friona shouldn't have too much trouble with a Whitharral team that is building and is at least a year away. The Chiefs appear to be at least a two-touchdown victor on the basis of one common game, Springlake. Friona lost 7-0, but Whitharral was thumped 18-0.

Olton has an open date this week.

Wilson Lutheran Church Wins Track, Volleyball Tournament

The Wilson Lutheran church won a combined track and volleyball tournament Sunday, with Lubbock's entries failing to take one of the top three positions.

Wilson's team won the track title and both the boys and girls volleyball squads won their competition, giving them a clean sweep in the athletic tournament. Sparenberg was second and Amarillo placed third.

The meet, sponsored by the Walther League of the Lutheran church, attracted teams from Lutheran churches located in 13 Panhandle cities and towns to Farwell.

'Ringer' Case Is Disclosed By TRA

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (INS) — Spencer Drayton, chief of the Thoroughbred Racing Association today announced the year's second "ringer" case concerning a horse which twice before—in 1946—was involved in similar charges.

The case involves the horse Don't Delay which ran as Lid in a Montreal race last August, defeated a field of 12, and left the post at 5 to 1 after having opened at 15 to 1 in the betting.

Drayton said the case has been turned over to Canadian authorities and that TRA became concerned with the case because both horses currently are stabled in the United States.

The TRA investigation included seven states and, according to Drayton, brought an admission from Don't Delay's former owner—Robert A. Edwards of Smithfield, Va.—that the horse had been shipped from Rhode Island to Montreal to run as Lid.

Lid is a ten-year-old gelding which retired to a Massachusetts farm last July and has remained there.

Don't Delay figured in 1946 "ringer" cases at Charles Town, Md., and at Bel Air, Md.

Davis Leads H-SU's Ground Offensive

ABILENE, Oct. 27 (AP) — Wilton (Hook) Davis, Hardin-Simmons' great running back, has carried the ball more than a mile in his collegiate football career. And he's only a sophomore who has participated in 14 games.

Davis, 1947 nation's leading ground gainer, passed up the mile mark against New Mexico university October 16 when he accumulated 175 yards from scrimmage, including a 90-yard touchdown gallop.

Davis accounted for 1,173 yards over the Cowboys' regular 10-game season in 1947, grabbed 236 against San Diego in the Harbor Bowl January 1, and has personally carried for 428 in the first three 1948 games—a total of 1837 yards in 14 games. This is an average of slightly more than 131 yards per game. He has now travelled 1.04 miles.

Davis is the leader of the Hardin-Simmons offense. He has played most of every Cowboy game since he reported as a freshman in 1947.

Most of the area and state schoolboy grid teams followed the form charts last week, giving us an average of 76 per cent on approximately 40 predictions. FORMER COACH GOES TO OAKLAND

Yankees Rehire Bill Dickey As Mentor; Dressen Gets Release

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (INS)—The New York baseball Yankees completed the overhauling of their 1949 coaching staff today by hiring their former great catcher, Bill Dickey, and releasing Coach Chuck Dressen so he can manage Oakland in the Pacific Coast league.

The football division of the Yankees also entered the picture with a "vote of confidence" announcement that Red Strader will be retained as head coach and general manager of the gridiron Yankees in 1949.

But the real news is Dickey's return. The long-legged backstop left the Yanks and major league ball a shaken man in 1946. He had assumed control of the Yanks in mid-season of that year only to be deposed by Larry MacPhail, then Yankee president.

Dickey, who joined the Yanks in 1928 and played on eight pennant winners, joins an "All-Yankee" coaching staff composed of men who have played baseball in a Yankee uniform. Frank Crosetti, infielder, and Jim Turner, one-time relief pitcher, previously had signed as 1949 coaches.

There was no announcement of salary terms but the Yanks did reveal they gave Dressen a "settlement" on his $20,000 contract, which had another year to run. General manager George Weiss refused to divulge the amount of the settlement but it was the general opinion that Chuck was awarded close to $15,000.

Dressen previously has denied that the Yanks made any arrangements with him regarding disposition of his 1949 contract.

Chuck came to the Yanks in 1945 from Brooklyn with MacPhail. His release was expected following the appointment of Casey Stengel as new Yankee manager. Oakland, where Dressen will manage in '49, was led to the Pacific Coast pennant and playoff championship by Stengel.

It had been rumored that Dressen was angling for a coaching job with the New York Giants and his former boss, manager Leo Durocher. Dressen also had conferred recently with Detroit Tiger officials but apparently a proposed deal fell through.

The reappointment of Strader, who succeeded Ray Flaherty in mid-season this year when the football Yankees lost three straight, is a routine gesture and was anticipated. The Yankee coach said he was happy to retain his post and added that next year the Yankees probably will have a new system and new players.

In addition to personnel announcements, the Yankee "high command" also sought to clarify reports of discord in the Yankee front office.

Dick Trout Wins Grapple Feature

It took Rod Fenton's every ounce to pull himself off the mat last night at Sled Allen's arena, but the effort was in vain, Referee Jimmy McEuin awarding the deciding fall to Dick Trout because Fenton refused to break.

Both men had stood in the ring for almost five minutes in the last fall, pounding away with fists to the jaws. Fenton finally dropped and Trout dropped on him. At the last count, Fenton squirmed loose, threw Trout over and clinched him against the ropes. At the end, McEuin ruled that he hadn't broken as ordered and gave Trout the deciding victory.

Mobley Wins Bout

In the preliminary, Rex Mobley turned back Olan Boynton in the fast time of 13 minutes, using an alligator clutch. It was a quiet match in comparison to those that followed.

Benny Trudell came up against more than he could take in the semi-final, losing to Jack Steele, the former Masked Marvel, in two out of three falls. Trudell won the first fall in 12 minutes with body slams and a smother, dropped the second to Steele in 17 minutes on a series of knee stomps and smother and was unable to answer the bell for the third fall.

In the final match, Fenton won the first fall from Trout in 11 minutes with a reverse toehold, but dropped the second in eight minutes, when Trout applied an airplane spin and body smother. The final match was given to Trout on a decision.

Next week there will be a wrestle royal, with Vic Weber, well-known here in the '30s, as referee.

Navarro Leads In Junior Title Play

(By The Associated Press)

Ranger, Hillsboro, Navarro and Wharton set the pace in the battle for the Texas Junior College Conference football championship.

There are two zones of play and one of them—the north—has two divisions.

Ranger and Hillsboro are tied for the lead in the north zone west division with two victories each.

Navarro county is undisputed leader in the east division of the north zone but has played only one game. Henderson county, in second place, has two victories and one tie.

In the south zone, Wharton is out front, having won three straight conference tests. Last week this team crushed Texas Lutheran 34-8. Tied for second place are Southwest Texas, Edinburg and Brownsville, each having won two games and tied one.

Olympic Titlist, Arthur Cook Wins National Rifle Tourney

Reeves scored 2,611 out of a possible 2,700. Cook won the rifle title with 3,150 points out of a possible 3,200.

Seven Were Former Lubbock Hubber Players

Chandler Rules Ten Detroit Tiger Players Free Agents

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 27. (INS)—Ten players originally signed by Detroit Tiger scouts were declared free agents today by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

The Tigers and affiliated clubs were enjoined from dealing with any of the ten for a three-year period under the terms of Chandler's ruling, which cited the Detroit club for violation of an earlier ruling handed down by Commissioner K. M. Landis in 1940.

In 1940, Judge Landis freed 91 players in the Detroit farm system and ordered the club to pay nearly $50,000 in damages to 14 others.

The Detroit team was not fined today by Chandler. His emphatic ruling declared, however, that "beyond doubt these players were handled contrary to baseball law and procedure."

The Detroit team, a lengthy statement by Chandler declared, had been exercising full rights to the players' services via its farm system, even though the Tigers "had no right . . . except the right of selection."

Based On Agreement

This rigrt of selection was based on a working agreement between Detroit and the Dallas team of the Texas league. The agreement was first drawn up in 1945 and was ended, upon the mutual consent of the two parties, last December.

Chandler's decision pointed out, however, that subsequently the Detroit and Dallas teams continued their agreement on an oral basis in defiance of a Landis ruling of eight years ago. That ruling specified that all working agreements must be deeded and carried through on a written basis, and it was on this ruling that Chandler based his decision today.

The players involved were:

Oswald Kolwe, a pitcher called up by Detroit; Clem Cola, most recently with the Little Rock team of the Southern Association; Clifford Dooley, Flint, Mich.; Paul Hinrichs, Buffalo; Jerry Ahrens, Flint; Bill MacDonald, jr., Flint; Jim Moran, Little Rock; Donald Myers, Little Rock; Bill Serena, Buffalo, and Ernest Wilemon, Flint.

No club in baseball can deal for their services for ten days, at which time their free agency becomes effective.

Some Ex-Lubbock Players

All of the players, at one time or another, were with the Dallas or Lubbock, Tex., teams which had had working agreements with the Tigers.

The situation began to come to light last April when Julius and George Schepps sold their Dallas assets to one R. W. Burnett. President Alvin Gardner of the Texas league, in reviewing the sale, informed Burnett of the situation regarding the Detroit-signed players, five of whom were then with the Dallas team.

The original Detroit-Dallas working agreement was signed by Jack Zeller, Detroit general manager who was succeeded by George Trautman. When Trautman became baseball's minor league chieftain, Billy Evans moved into the general manager's job at Detroit. Of Evans, Chandler said today:

"He mistakenly undertook to exercise rights to these players which Detroit did not have and never acquired."

TIGER MANGER SAYS ACTION IS SURPRISE

DETROIT, Oct. 27. (INS)—General Manager Billy Evans of the Detroit Tigers expressed "complete surprise" tonight at Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler's action in declaring 10 players originally recruited by Detroit as free agents.

Evans said in a formal statement that "we accept this decision as final, but we thoroughly disagree with it."

The Tigers' boss explained:

"When we severed our working agreement with Dallas in December, 1947, all players involved simply moved to other clubs in the Detroit system, under usual baseball procedure."

Evans pointedly observed also that "all Detroit players involved in the final ruling had been placed with the Dallas club prior to my Detroit connection."

TEXAS MINES FIRST IN RUSHING

Nevada Is Leading Offensive Team With 498 Yards Per Game

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—California, Notre Dame and Army have strengthened their positions among the leading offensive teams on the nation's collegiate gridirons but they still have a long way to go if they are to overtake high-flying Nevada.

The Nevada Wolfpack, with the help of a great passer and a so-so schedule, rolled merrily along at the head of the offensive standings released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, leading all other teams in both forward passing and total offense.

Nevada maintained its lofty position on the spectacular passing of Stan Heath, who is virtually certain to rewrite the record books with his aerial game before the season ends.

In winning all five of its games to date, Nevada has piled up 2,940 yards by rushing and passing, an average of 498 yards per game. Of that total, 1,439 of Nevada's yards have come through the air. Miami has averaged 422.6 yards per game, California 401, Notre Dame 395.2 and Army 389.

Nevada is followed in the passing department by Georgia Tech, William and Mary, Columbia and Navy. But Georgia Tech's average of 190.8 yards per game is far behind the Nevada average of 287.8.

Meanwhile, Texas Mines pushed into first place in the rushing department, dropping Army to second place, with Notre Dame third, Oklahoma fourth and California fifth. The Texans are averaging 343 yards per game on the ground, compared with Army's 340.6 yards.

Among the ten leaders in each department are:

Total offense (gains rushing and passing)—Texas Mines, seventh, 388.6 average per game.

Rushing offense—Texas Mines, 343 yards, first, average per game.

Passing offense — Southern Methodist, 165.8 average per game, eighth.

Mrs. Sampson Wins Low Gross Tourney

Mrs. T. L. Sampson won the 18-hole low gross tournament and Mrs. T. E. Patterson won the 18-hole low putt tournament at the Lubbock Country club yesterday.

In the 9-hole tournament class, Mrs. M.M. Brown won the low gross match and tied with Mrs. Tobe Foster for the low putt title.

Herb Schroeder, Country club pro, left yesterday for Wichita Falls, where he is entered in the West Texas Pro-Amateur Golf tournament. Schroeder made the trip alone and will be paired with a pro at the tourney.

Owners Offer Paris Franchise For Sale

PARIS, Oct. 27. (AP)—A three-man Big State league appraisal committee was here today to set a price on the Paris franchise.

Owners Homer Peel and Fred Kirby have announced they will offer the club for sale first to the people of Paris if the appraisal is high enough. If Paris people do not buy within ten days after the club is put up for sale, the owners will have the right to move the franchise, subject to approval of the league.

The Rocket owners admit wanting to move the club to another location. Corpus Christi was mentioned as the most likely place but the class-D South Texas league was organized with Corpus Christi as a member, thus ending speculation that the franchise would be taken to the south Texas city. No other towns have been mentioned.

FBI Agents Start Investigation As More Boxes Seized In State

clerks in eight counties today, directing that ballots of the election and all other records be kept intact, subject to further orders from the committee.

The telegrams were received in Dallas, Harris, Galveston, Brown, Eastland, Wharton, Clay and Chambers counties.

Jester Asks Change

In Austin, Governor Beauford Jester said he would ask the next legislature to give the state power to investigate charges of election fraud and irregularities.

Texas' attorney general, Price Daniel, noted in a statement that prosecution of county clerks for failure "to keep securely any ballot box" is now the exclusive duty of county and district attorneys. He said he would ask the legislature to give the attorney general authority to act in such cases.

Most of the county clerks who received the order from Jenner said they would comply with it. Wharton County Clerk F. L. Kral said he was unable to comply, since his office has nothing to do with the election. He added, however, he was informed that P. L. Marquess, county Democratic chairman still has the ballots and records.

Election Records Burned

In Dallas county, voting is by machines instead of ballots and County Clerk Ed H. Steger said the totals already have been cleared from the machines by court authority. He said, however, that records have been kept of the totals.

Destruction of the Duval county ballots and records was disclosed after Arthur E. Broer, chief investigator of the Jenner subcommittee, went to the county late Tuesday to impound them. Campbell King, chairman of the Duval county Democratic committee, told W. H. Mason, Alice newspaper man that they had been burned. He said "I had nothing to do with it." Broer had no comment.

The Duval county grand jury recently commended county officials on conduct of the election and said it found no evidence of any irregularities.

Janitor Makes Mistake

W. S. Johnston of San Diego, Republican county chairman in Duval county, said he learned that the ballots were burned Oct. 20. He said he was told that a janitor had destroyed them by mistake—through a misunderstanding as to the time they were to be destroyed.

Broer and Joseph Langan, another committee investigator, have collected available records in Jim Wells, Zapata, Starr, and Jim Hogg counties—four of the counties named by Stevenson. The records will be shipped to Washington.

Stevenson appealed to the Senate after the United States Supreme court stopped a federal investigation ordered by District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson. The former governor went to court after the Democratic state convention certified Johnson as the nominee, in an effort to keep Johnson's name off the ballot.

Could Deny Johnson Seat

The Senate could deny Johnson a seat if he were elected, if it so chose.

The FBI inquiry was started at the request of Assistant Attorney General Alex Campbell, in charge of the Justice department's criminal division, to determine whether any federal statute was violated in the primary.

Under Texas laws records of the runoff could be destroyed after midnight Wednesday, unless ordered preserved.

Derenian confirmed that the ballots already had been destroyed in Duval county. He said committee investigators found the ballots had also been destroyed in precinct 13 of Jim Wells county.

It was in that precinct that Stevenson charged 202 votes were added, most of them for Johnson, after the returns had been reported.

Statewide Probe Not Planned

Derenian said ballots were sought by the committee only in counties specifically mentioned by Johnson and Stevenson, adding:

"If we subpeona all the records in Texas, it would have to be on the theory that there was fraud in every county of the state. And I don't think anyone believes there was fraud in all of them."

Of Duval county, where the ballots were destroyed, Derenian commented: "That's a violation of Texas state laws."

Asked to clear up questions about the statute requiring that primary election ballots be kept for 60 days, Daniel issued a statement saying that "where no contest is pending, county clerks and county judges should not destroy the August 28 primary ballots until tomororw, Oct. 28."

"Any wilful destruction of Aug. 28 primary ballots prior to Oct. 28 indicates possible violation of article 3128 of the civil statutes and article 249 of the penal code," Daniels said.

The attorney general quoted the penal code statute as follows:

"'If any county clerk shall fail, neglect or refuse to keep securely any ballot box containing tickets of election committed to his custody by the presiding officer of any election precinct, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and, in addition thereto, he may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months.'

"Under the present statutes, prosecutions of such offenses are left exclusively in the hands of county and district attorneys, but I shall ask the legislature in January to give the attorney general authority to act in such cases if local officials fail to do so."

Jester said he had refrained from making any comment in the controversy between Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson because Texas laws "neither grant the governor power or impose on him any duty to initiate any investigations of alleged fraud and irregularities.

"Not being fully informed of the facts, it was only proper that I have avoided even the appearance of taking sides in a partisan matter," Jester's statement said.

Confidence Shaken

"However, this controversy has now passed the stage of a partisan squabble. There have been charges and counter-charges, rumors and counter-rumors; there have been calls for impounding of ballots of both Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Johnson.

"The confidence of the people of Texas in their elective processes having been shaken, there can be no reasonable quarrel with any attempt to determine the truth."

"If the United States Senate is going to investigate this election, Texans should welcome the action—even if it means impounding every ballot box in every county in Texas.

"At the same time and as to this matter, it would have been more satisfying to Texans if this investigation could have been undertaken by a legally-constituted agency of the Texas government.

"I shall recommend to the next legislature that our election laws be revised so as to give complete assurance that our elections shall be honestly and fairly conducted and provide legal authority and machinery for the investigation of charges of election fraud and irregularities."

Admiral Leahy Warns

Royall in Baltimore; Rear Admiral William S. Parsons, Navy director of atomic defense, in San Diego, Calif.

Gen. Omar Bradley, Army chief of staff, in Des Moines, Iowa, and Admiral Louis Denfeld, chief of naval operations in Worcester, Mass.

Sullivan, in a prepared radio speech, said that the Navy "together with its two partners, our fine Army and our splendid Air Force, constitute the military forces responsible for national security."

Preparedness Needed

Later in a prepared address at Chicago, he declared that the Navy's "workings mesh with the other services and other agencies to form what we might call a high voltage battery, in which the potential of the nation is stored.

"All of us understand why we as a nation must keep ourselves strong. We are living in uncertain times. We are struggling to build order in a world where men and nations are still bruised and bleeding from one war, and frightened at the prospect of another one."

Royall explained the philosophy of preparedness when he said:

"During the postwar years I have ever been optimistic about peace. I have always believed—and said—that war does not seem imminent.

"But this confidence of avoiding conflict is based on our continuing—and other nations' knowledge that we are continuing—our military strength and our military potential."

She took her physical prior to entering the Marine Corps a second time in July of this year in Dallas.

Tech Student Remains In Hospital After Accident

Miss Elizabeth Yeary, Tech student from Fort Worth, was reported by an attendant at Lubbock Memorial hospital Wednesday night to have "a very sore leg," after receiving minor abrasions of the left leg below the knee as the result of an accident in 1400 block on College Ave. about 1 p. m. Tuesday.

Miss Yeary and a companion, Miss Jan Riley of Wichita Falls, were crossing College Ave. going west toward the college campus, when they "walked into" the side of a car being driven north on College Ave. by Weldon F. Gaston, 21, of Lubbock, also a Tech student, according to police reports. Miss Yeary underwent X-ray examinations at the hospital to determine injuries to her leg. Miss Riley suffered only a slight injury of her left arm, and was released from the hospital.

Burning Cotton Is Hot Problem For Firemen, Police

City firemen, the driver of a truck and city policemen were wondering for a time last night just what to do with 15 bales of cotton which were discovered to be on fire.

The cotton, all on the truck from Daniels gin at Carlisle, was discovered to be on fire while in the 2300-block Nineteenth street about 7:15 p.m.

Firemen finally unloaded the bales on a vacant lot at Thirtieth street and Ave. J, wetting it down with a hose from a hydrant nearby. No. 3 fire station is about a half block from the lot.

The cotton was still smoldering last last night, and firemen estimated that loss would be about 50 or 60 pounds to the bale.

Slight damage was done in a fire at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday in the kitchen of Hilton hotel, Manager Art Griffith reported.

Grease on the kitchen ranges became ignited just as the luncheon dishes were being prepared, a heavy smoke poured from the alley ventilators. A meeting of Rotary club in the main ballroom was cancelled and the hotel coffee shop was closed during part of the afternoon.

Two fire runs about 8 p.m., both reported cab fires, entailed no serious damage. One booster truck was unable to find a reported taxi on fire at Santa Fe depot, and the other taxi fire in front of Senior High school was out when firemen arrived.

Defense Plan Studied

Palestine. The presidential statement, supporting partition, seemed to vary from Secreatry of State Marshall's recommendation that the holy war be settled on the basis of the Bernadotte proposals, which would give Israel less territory than the partition plan.

3. Indicated that a note from Chile and one expected from Argentina rejected the U. S. recommendation for internationalization of the Antartic.

Lovett said the preliminary exploratory conversations which began last July 6 on the defense pact have now been completed.

GOP Leaders Informed

Development of a specific treaty or agreement will require careful consideration, first by the affected executive agencies, then by congressional committees and political leaders. During recent months Republican leaders have been kept informed of conversations at Brussles, London and Paris.

Lovett said a great deal of time had been saved by this spade work. He added that as yet there has been no formal communication from the five Brussles pact signatories other than a copy of their communique of yesterday prposing the North Atlantic alliance.

Stand On Antartic Given

On the war plants issue Lovett said this government obtained a compromise with London and Paris giving the industrial advisory committee of the Economic Cooperation authority a few weeks more to review the status of these plants in the European rehabilitation scheme.

In event of dispute over any unit, further talks will be necessary.

Chile and Argentina in the past have taken the position that all land in the south polar area is merely an extension of the Andes mountains and therefore subject to the Monroe doctrine.

Other nations involved are the United Kingdom, Norway, France, Australia and New Zealand. The U. S. has never made formal claim to Antarctic territory but has always reserved the right if the issue arose.

Spraying Of Southland Area In Fight On Polio Set Today

Three fogging machines, operated by the Plains Fog service of Lubbock, today will begin an anti-polio campaign in Southland, spraying all public schools, churches, business houses and residences, as well as alleys and vacant lots.

The program is an outgrowth of a mass-meeting of Southland citizens Tuesday night to end polio deaths in that community. Spokesmen from the community Wednesday contacted Lubbock officials concerning use of the city spraying truck, but were informed that the vehicle is not at present in working order. The Plains Fog service company then was contacted.

Officials of the company said Wednesday night that spraying would not necessarily be limited to the town of Southland itself, but might possibly be carried to outlying rural residences also.

The officials said that they plan to offer the spraying service to towns in the area that are financially unable to purchase spraying equipment. The equipment is built onto jeep trucks.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has forbidden the importation of European rabbits for fear they will become a serious economic pest, as in Australia. All the "rabbits" found in the United States are hares.

Five Years Given In Forgery Case

W. C. Humphrey, 23, of Killeen, entered a plea of guilty of forgery before Judge Dan Blair of 72nd district court, and was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary.

An indictment charged that Humphrey passed a forged check for $1,020 April 12 to S. E. Cone Grain and Seed company, for a load of grain.

$1,000 Bond Set

Bond of $1,000 was set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, in binding over to grand jury investigation Charles Rayborn Howell, who had been charged Monday with burglary.

Donald Newton Hull, Olden man who had been placed under five-year probation in a felony action tried in the 99th district court last week, was returned to Odessa, where he faces at least one other felony charge, the sheriff's department said.

Theft of a sun visor from the truck of H. K. Moore of 2413 Fifth was reported to the sheriff's department, theft of four hub caps from Mrs. Don C. King of 1602 Ave. K to the police.

Two Persons Post Bond

Bond of $500 each had been posted by two persons charged with drunk driving, the sheriff's department said.

They were G. W. Heath, 27, listed by police as living at Ralls and Lubbock, and A. P. Spence, 47, of Lubbock.

Both pleaded innocent, Spence Tuesday, county court officials said.

A minimum fine of $100 and county court costs were assessed against Niles Richard Thompson, about 28, Lubbock county man who allegedly had 54 cases of beer when arrested by officials of the liquor control board. County Attorney John Steele said he recommended a fine of $500 and costs. It was a first offense, Thompson informed the court.

Heath, police said, suffered lacerations of the head and numerous bruises when his car struck a parked truck at 2:45 a. m. at 100-block East Broadway. Officials said Betty Wilson, of Tulsa, was with him in the car and that she was treated at a hospital for a cut over the left eye, a broken right foot, a slashed middle finger of the left hand, and bruises. They were taken to the hospital in an ambulance, officials said.

Fender skirts and hub caps, total value $32, were reported stolen from Charles Armstrong of dormitory 4 at Texas Tech.

Ronald Mason of 2714 Second said his bike, valued at $25, had been stolen.

Other bikes stolen were reported by Mrs. W. R. Guinn of Avinger addition, and Donald R. Johnson of 1606 Twenty-third street. The latter vehicle was valued at approximately $58, police were told.

Reuben Dwain Merrett, charged with violation of check law, entered a plea of not guilty before Justice of the Peace C. E. Lynn, and $1,000 bond was set by Lynn.

The complaint, sworn to by Chief Deputy Sheriff George Eubanks before Assistant District Attorney A. W. Salyars, accused Merrett of passing a $27.50 forged check to Oliver S. Cates on October 16.

Bill Abell of dormitory 3 at Texas Tech told police that two sun visors valued at $16 had been stolen from his car doors, and that clamps valued at $3 were also taken.

District Attorney Lloyd Croslin and Deputy Sheriff Eubanks went to Slaton late Wednesday evening to investigate a reported "serious" stabbing.

They found that Jimmy Hawkins, 35-year-old Slaton negro, had been treated for a minor stab wound in the left side and released from the hospital.

The wound was reported to have been inflicted by Willie Porter, 70, another Slaton negro, after the two men had become involved in an argument. Hawkins was said to have been pistol whipping the old man when the knife wound was incurred.

Officials said that only misdemeanor charges would result from the incident, providing charges of any kind are filed. It was believed that the matter would be dropped by mutual consent of the parties involved.

Rites Set Today For Child Killed When Run Over By Car

Funeral services for Harry Lupton, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lupton, jr., of the Pep community on route 1 out of Shallowater, are to be held at 10 a. m. today in the Pep Catholic church, with the Rev. Fr. Comisky officiating.

The child was crushed to death about 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when the father accidentally ran over him in backing the family car out of the driveway at the home. He was rushed to St. Mary's hospital here, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. Other details were not learned at the hospital or at McDonald Funeral home.

Burial will follow the service in Pep cemetery, with McDonald Funeral home in charge.

Survivors in addition to the parents, include a brother, Walter Ray; two sisters, Catherine and Elizabeth Ann, all at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lupton; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J Greenor, all of Pep.

HST Defends Record

the ballot.

Mr. Truman assailed as "a malicious falsehood" what he termed the contention of some Republicans that "your government is endangered by Communist infiltration."

Dewey said there must be "much better" handling of the problem of securing peace. He asserted:

"We urgently want a national administration that will meet these threats to the peace calmly and patiently. We want a steady administration working day and night to build up the strength of the cause of freedom and to build it with everlasting confidence."

Dewey said he and his running mate, Governor Warren, presented "fully and in detail the issues of this campaign." He said they have advanced peace by advancing unity and will win "by clean and decent methods."

United West Europe Urged

Dewey said his administration would "deal with the representatives of all nations in a spirit of good will and friendship," but America will not "be bullied or blurred."

Dewey spoke out again for a united western Europe to be "a bulwark of peace." He said that China has been neglected and "is in grave peril." He promised that if he is elected his administration will "renew and strengthen" friendship with China.

Mr. Truman earlier slugged at Dewey as a "vicious" critic of school teachers.

The presidential drive picked up heat as the major party candidates hammered at each other.

Predicts Rent Hike

Mr. Truman lost no opportunity to address the voters. A Hartford, Conn., audience heard him predict that rents will shoot up 20 per cent or more next March if the Republicans win.

At Pittsfield, Mass., he pictured the Republicans as favoring "labor baiting, union busting, open shop, yellow dog contract policies."

He brought out his school teacher punch at Springfield, Mass. He declared that Dewey has said "the teachers' lobby is more vicious than the power, or real estate, or oil or liquor lobbies of the country."

Dewey has denied making the statement.

A group of midwestern farm leaders met with Dewey before he left Chicago. It was a closed session. He again follows the President tonight to Boston. Both have appearances programmed this week at New York.

Senate Fight Tough

The woman senator-elect from Maine, Margaret Chase Smith, declared the fight for Senate control is a tough one.

A Republican, she told a Denver audience that "we are in great danger of losing control of the Senate."

J. Strom Thurmond, States Rights presidential candidate, declared at Shreveport, La., that the movement will go on "until the Democratic party has been reclaimed for the principles for which it has stood these hundred years."

Henry Wallace, campaigning last night at New Haven, Conn., returns to New York today for 33 appearances in three days. He said at New York Tuesday night that his Progressive party has "stopped the cold war" and that there will be no war.

weather, possibly partly cloudy and cool, but that is a long range forecast and the weather can change mighty fast this time of year."

A mild cold front is slated to move through Lubbock at noon today, he said, but little change in temperatures is expected to follow the front. The maximum this afternoon is expected to be 65 or 70 degrees as compared to 75 degrees Wednesday. The minimum was 40 degrees.

Early today rain was threatening as lightning and thunder crackled over Lubbock.

The weather station reported a "little squall line" moving into the South Plains area from New Mexico. Showers were reported at Amarillo, Roswell, and other New Mexico points Wednesday afternoon. The weatherman said that this area might receive showers today, but that fair weather generally followed cold air masses.

The forecast for today is partly cloudy skies, little change in temperatures, and scattered showers.

The Associated Press reported mildly cool weather prevailed over Texas Wednesday. The highest temperature was Brownsville's 85, the lowest maximum 68 at Marfa.

The Dallas weather bureau reported that a line of thunderstorms moved into West Texas from New Mexico late in the day.

SLATON, Oct. 27. (Special)—Funeral services for Otto Schilling, 91, a resident of the Slaton area since 1919, will be held at 9 a. m. Friday from St. Joseph's Catholic church here with the Rev. Fr. T. D. O'Brien officiating.

Schilling, who was a farmer, died at 9:45 p. m. Tuesday night in a Slaton hospital.

Survivors include his wife; five daughters, Mrs. L. H. Steffens, Mrs. John Steffens, Mrs. B. H. Bollinger, all of Slaton, Mrs. John Zipp, Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. A. J. Erdman, Hereford, and a son, H. F. Schilling, Slaton.

Temple Files Demand

instruct the county clerk or proper officers having charge of the printing of the official ballot in each of said counties referred to herein to: (a) Have said official ballots reprinted promptly so as to correct the errors called to attention; or in the alternative (b) to instruct said county clerk and/or election officials to place said names on the official ballot by using a rubber stamp therefor, in which latter event no questions will be raised by affiant or by Fred L. Parham and Frank Parris with respect to the legality of said official ballot, if their names are affixed thereon with said rubber stamp in the appropriate space therefor in the column as nominees of the Republican party for said office."

The letter, signed by Temple's counsel, Vickers and Vickers, Lubbock law firm, pointed out that:

Earlier Omission Recalled

"Rather than file a mandamus proceeding which would cause too much expense to the counties in reprinting the ballots, these parties (Temple, Parham and Parris) are agreeable to having such omission cured by having their respective names inserted on the ballot with a rubber stamp. Of course, the clerks will not act unless they have instructions from you to do so, since the certification comes from your office."

The attorneys further said:

"Two years ago Mr. Temple was Republican nominee for Congress and his name was inadvertently omitted from the official ballot in seven counties in the district. He took the matter up with the then secretary of state, who instructed the county clerk in each of the (seven) counties to print (his) name in with a rubber stamp. Mr. Temple accepted such instruction without question.

"Now, for the Nov. 2 election of this year, four counties have made the omission, not only for Mr. Temple . . ."

Court Action Possible

Secretary Brown was requested to "advise us promptly what you have done, so that we can be guided accordingly. Time is an important element; therefore, it should be attended to at once. No doubt the attorney general will tell you that the rubber stamp idea is the least expensive way of curing the error in the four counties."

As indicated in the letter of his counsel, Temple's alternative to failure of the secretary of state to so instruct county clerks, or remission of the clerks after receiving such instruction, would be to petition through the courts for writs of mandamus forcing names of Republican nominees on ballots of the four counties.

The petitions would be drawn by Vickers and Vickers and Gordon Treadaway, another Lubbock attorney, Temple said, and would be filed with the presiding judges of judicial districts embracing the four counties.

Asked whether he would seek to restrain the counting of absentee ballots (absentee balloting commenced Oct. 13 and will be concluded as of Friday's close of business in county clerks' offices) Temple said he was uncertain.

Wants Only Fair Play

"I only am asking that the mandate of the secretary of state to the county clerks be followed," he said. "That is the provision under the law—a law that was conceived for fairness to all political parties.

"My insistance in fair political play has nothing to do with the evaluation of my chance, or that of Mr. Parham or Mr. Parris, for election. I have no wish to resort to mandamus action and the expenses that action would entail, and would do so only if the alternative were forced on me."

Temple, who said he had polled 11 per cent of the district's vote for congressman two years ago, said his recent campaigning over the district had convinced him that "large numbers of Democrats will bolt Nov. 2 and will vote the straight Republican ticket."

The Dewey - Warren ticket grows stronger each day in Texas, he said, and the Republicans expect to make such local inroads as to elect officials in some Texas counties.

Temple's communication with the secretary of state was by airmail. If clerks are not instructed today to "cure the ballot defect or if there is no compliance by them after such instructions then I will file petitions in the courts Friday," the candidate said.

MAN ROBBED OF $40,000

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 27. (AP)—An Evansville oil pipe broker told police tonight that four men robbed him of about $40,000 last night. The broker, Pat Markey, 28, reported the men held his wife prisoner for four hours, threatened to kill her and forced him to get the money from a hotel vault. Then they bound him, his wife and his brother, and fled.

Rites Set Today For D. B. Pope

Funeral services for D. B. Pope, 45, secretary-treasurer of Hanna-Pope and company department store, will be held at 2:30 p. m. today at St. John's Methodist church, Fourteenth and Ave. X.

Rev. Alsie H. Carleton, former pastor who is now pastor at Big Spring, will officiate, assisted by Rev. H. H. Bratcher, pastor.

Pallbearers will be Stewart Bailey, W. J. Culp, E. Wheeler, H. M. Fields, Joe Murrell, Carl Morrow, W. C. Wooliver and Paul Payne.

Mr. Pope, widely known in West Texas business circles, died at 3:30 a. m. Wednesday as a result of a heart attack at his 2012 Main street home earlier in the night.

Actively associated with the department store here for the last 14 years, in cooperation with two brothers, Ernest T. Pope, company president and manager of the store, and L. T. Pope of Amarillo, vice president, Mr. Pope had also been active in various church and civic affairs. He was a member of St. John's Methodist church here.

Born at Quanah Oct. 7, 1903, he had grown up in the atmosphere of a department store. His father was in business in Quanah and Clarendon for years, and he was more or less active in the business during his schooling and early manhood. He attended school at Clarendon, and played football with Clarendon college in the early 1920s.

The brothers then operated a department store at Clarendon for several years before coming to Lubbock about 14 years ago, where they have built a business rated among this city's top mercantile stores.

Mr. Pope had been under treatment at various times during the last five years for high blood pressure, and doctors had warned him recently that undue excitement or physical effort would be hazardous. He had continued active in business affairs, however, and was at his accustomed post in the store yesterday.

The store, located at 1111 Broadway, which was closed yesterday, will remain closed today.

The body is at Sanders Funeral Home, where it will lie in state today until time for the service.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Lynn Pope; a daughter, Carol Lynn; two brothers, Ernest T. of Lubbock, and Lee T. of Amarillo; and three sisters, Mrs. Rex Sullivan of Quanah, Mrs. Willard Bumpass of Midland, and Mrs. Kennon Hillyer of Houston.

UN SANCTIONS TALKED IN PALESTINE DISPUTE

PARIS, Oct. 27. (AP) — Britain threatened tonight to raise the question of sanctions against defiers of UN authority in Palestine.

This was after Israel had rejected an order of the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, to withdraw her forces from positions occupied during a solid week of fighting with the Egyptians in the Negev despite the truce. The Israeli reply said the Security Council order for a cease-fire in the Negev provided only for negotiations on a withdrawal and was not an order.

A British spokesman said his delegation was studying the possibility of invoking sanctions with the aim of forcing dissidents to obey orders of the UN truce administration.

He said Britain may offer a resolution to the Security Council tomorrow, when Bunche submits Israel's reply to the council, asking that a special commission be set up to study details of applying chapter 7 of the UN charter, if necessary.

This chapter permits military action or other sanctions after the council has investigated.

"The authority of the Security Council is at stake," the spokesman declared.

The council meeting tomorrow was called on the complaint of Egypt that Israel has been violating the cease-fire order of Oct. 19.

Area 'Straw Vote'

ued to draw most of their support from people who normally vote Democratic, although a handful of "independents" are listed in each camp. On the other hand, no voter normally Republican has voted for the Truman-Barkley ticket, indicating that for once, Republican "solidarity" is more solid than Democratic "solidarity" in this normally, overwhelming Democratic section.

Fair Play' Is Urged

Chas. A. Guy, editor of The Avalanche-Journal, pointed out last night that "no 'straw vote' can ever be as accurate a gauge of public opinion as a scientifically conducted poll, such as those headed by Dr. George Gallup and Archibald Crossley. A 'Straw Vote' is always subject to the enthusiasm of individuals who gather up papers and send in several ballots each," he said.

The editor said, however, that he hoped enthusiasts would "play fair" and not attempt to "stuff the ballot box," and that extreme care is taken in counting to control such effort."

"In one mail yesterday," he said, "we caught six ballots, in as many different envelopes, which had been addressed in the same hand and in envelopes of exactly the same material. These votes all were cast for the Thurmond-Wright ticket, for which I will vote on Tuesday. However, since 'stuffing' was certain in this instance, five of the six ballots were not counted."

The editor said that the "Straw Vote" is just in fun, doesn't mean a thing, but gives people something to read and talk about at a time when politics is the No. 1 topic of public interest.

The "Straw Vote" will continue through Friday afternoon's Journal and complete results will be announced in The Avalanche-Journal of Sunday, October 31.

Court Test Approved

action was probably the last on the state level. The court recently refused the Houston negro's plea to force his admission to the university, and Sweatt's attorneys have indicated their next legal try would be in the U. S. Supreme court.

Sweatt contended he was denied admission to the university solely because he was a negro. The state claimed its law school facilities for negroes are equivalent to those for whites. Sweatt disputed this.

In the juvenile case, the court will determine whether or not the consent of juvenile and county courts in adoption cases is incidental. The second court of civil appeals had ruled that adoption is a function of the district courts, and that juvenile authority participation is incidental.

The court, refusing to consider the zoning case from Amarillo, said it had no jurisdiction in the direct appeal because it did not involve constitutionality of a state law, nor was the case one stemming from a state agency, but an agency of the city.

20-30 Club Discusses Ticket Sales For Stage Play Here

Plans for the ticket sales campaign for the 20-30 club-sponsored presentation of "Voice of the Turtle," which achieved fame as a Broadway stage production, were discussed at length last night at a meeting of the club in Hotel Lubbock.

Tickets will be placed on sale Nov. 1 and the club will issue "exchange" tickets as well as reserved seat tickets. The "exchange" tickets, purchased from club members, may be exchanged by the purchaser for the reserved seat tickets, which will be on sale at Adair Music Co., Wylie's Drug, and Mark Harsey Drug at Broadway and College, it was explained.

President Charles Nelson presided at the meeting which was followed by a session of the board of directors. Thirty persons attended. The club holds its next meeting at 7:30 p. m. in Hotel Lubbock next Wednesday.

Gideons Distribute Bibles To Students In Lubbock Schools

The Gideons, whose Bibles travelers the world over are accustomed to finding wherever they stay, are represented in Lubbock by a group of 29 members.

Their latest distribution of Gideon Bibles was in O. L. Slaton Junior High school Wednesday, where Lester Ericson, president of the Lubbock camp, presented a Bible to each home room during an assembly program.

Though their Bible has become a familiar part of hotels, tourist courts, hospitals, jails and schools, the work of the Gideons is not generally familiar to the public, members explained. The Gideons International is a non-sectarian group of businessmen of many denominations which has as its function the distribution of Bibles and Testaments.

The presentation of 36 Bibles at the school Wednesday morning added to the total of 5,000 Youth Testaments and 1,000 Bibles, King James version, which the Lubbock group has distributed since its formation at the beginning of the war.

Monday they placed Bibles in the negro schools of Lubbock and in the Chatman hospital for negroes.

Trips At Own Expense

They have made trips, always at their own expense, to many South Plains towns for the purpose, reaching as far as Spur on the east, Farwell on the west, Plainview on the north and Lamesa on the south.

Ericson and Earl Burnett, secretary, explained how the projects are financed. The Gideons at the invitation of churches will present a Sunday morning service explaining their work. Free will contributions are accepted, but no pressure or salesmanship is exerted.

Every penny collected goes toward buying Bibles. The organization has no administrating expense. One paid representative in Texas is financed from the pockets of Gideons.

Have Own Printing Plant

The Bibles are obtained from the Gideons' own printing establishment in Chicago. Each local chapter, or "camp," pays $1.15 each for the Bibles and about 35 cents for the New Testaments.

Since the organization is nondenominational, the Gideons rarely find any but the most hearty welcome, Ericson said. Only once on the South Plains have they been refused permission to place Bibles, and that occurred at a school in a South Plains town a few weeks ago.

With a membership of 13,000 or more in the United States and Canada, the Gideons have grown from a small beginning. At the O. L. Slaton program Ericson reviewed their history briefly.

History Is Reviewed

In 1898 two traveling men were forced to share a hotel room in a small Wisconsin town. One, having promised his mother to read a passage from the Bible each night, did so and found his companion to be interested in the Bible also.

They discussed forming an organization of Christian traveling men, and agreed to call a meeting for that purpose to be held at Janesville, Wisc.

However, when the meeting was held, only three men were present. They were John Nicholson, Will Knight and Sam E. Hill. After prayer they took the name of "Gideons" from the Book of Judges.

For ten years they distributed folders before they were able to purchase and distribute Bibles.

Symbol On Cover

Each Gideon Bible is distinguished by the symbol of the Gideons on the cover—a pitcher with a flame, taken from Judges 6-7. There is no other difference between it and any other King James version.

The Gideons have distributed more than 2,500,000 Bibles and 9,000,000 New Testaments during their history.

Other officers of the Lubbock camp are A. L. King, vice president; L. C. Ellis, treasurer; O. D. Peden, chaplain; A. N. Gamble, church assignment secretary; W. L. Hester, associate church assignment secretary; Troy Edwards, Bible secretary; and J. C. Leech, associate Bible secretary.

Present at the O. L. Slaton school ceremony were Ericson, Burnett, King and Gradie Bownds.

Church Bells Will Remind Voters To Exercise Rights

CHICAGO, Oct. 27. (INS)—Church bells are destined to become "liberty bells" next Tuesday and call voters to the polls.

A group of clergymen headed by Dr. Ernest F. Tittle, of the First Methodist church of Evanston, and Rabbi Louis Mann, of Mt. Sinai Temple, Chicago, announced today that the bells and chimes in churches and temples will ring to remind voters of their franchise.

More than 2,500 churches and temples will be urged to co-operate by ringing out at 10 a. m., 12 noon and 4 p. m., on election day.

Federal Judge Delays Sentencing Of Dallas Real Estate Man After Wife's Unusual Plea

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP)—U. S. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson today postponed sentencing of a Dallas real estate man convicted in a veterans housing case after the defendant's wife made a dramatic plea before the court for her husband and asked that she be indicted, also.

Judge Davidson said he would withhold sentence of W. O. Barnard until the real estate man is tried on another case—next January.

Wife Addressed Bench

The jurist made this decision after Barnard's wife walked to the bench where she said: "I am Mrs. Barnard. I want to request that I be indicted. If anyone is guilty it is me, not my husband."

A federal jury yesterday found Barnard guilty of making false and fraudulent statements to the Veterans administration here concerning the sales price of a house sold to an ex-serviceman.

Government attorneys charged that the house, sold in December, 1946, to Ralph E. Coffman, was reported to have cost $6,275 when the actual price was $7,500.

Today, Barnard was up for sentence. Judge Davidson inquired of Prosecutor Clyde Hood the maximum penalty in such a case. Hood advised the judge it was ten years in prison and a $10,000 fine or both.

Mrs. Barnard came before the bench.

She was in tears.

"I want to request that I be indicted," she said. "If anyone is guilty it is me, not my husband."

Swamped With Appeals

She added that her husband's firm was swamped with GI appeals for homes in 1946.

"My husband didn't want to deal with GI loans," she declared tearfully. "He advised me against it. But these boys had to have houses. They had no place to live. I felt sorry for them. The government prosecutor told the jury my husband was trying to hide behind my skirts. Well, now I am asking to be indicted. In federal court I had always thought the court would listen to the reason why something had been done. I always thought that justice . . ."

Judge Davidson broke in: "You're being heard now . . . speak on."

Mrs. Barnard then said she was proud that she had acted against her husband's advice in selling their houses to veterans.

"The court is impressed with what you have said," Judge Davidson commented: "I recall that once my own wife had 11 veterans at one time in our own home."

Judge Davidson then announced he would withhold sentence until the real estate man is tried on another case next January.

Government prosecutors said Barnard is named in three other veterans housing fraud indictments and that the Veterans administration is working on some 20 additional cases against him for presentation to the grand jury.

Judge Frowns On Chicagoan's Taste For Eggs In Beer

CHICAGO, Oct. 27. (AP)—The price of eggs is high enough for everybody but for Reginald R. Reagan they'll cost $1,000 if he insists on plunking them in his beer.

Reagan adores eggs in his beer. His wife, Elaine, 41, thinks his tastes are awfully expensive with eggs at 90 cents a dozen.

Mrs. Reagan told Judge Mason S. Sullivan in police court today that she had her husband arrested when he wouldn't let her cook eggs for last night's dinner and insisted they go into his beer.

"From now on eat your eggs in a more conventional manner," Judge Sullivan told Reagan in agreeing with the wife. The court dismissed a disorderly conduct charge brought by the wife and placed Reagan under $1,000 peace bond.

Jennifer Jones And James Mason Are Given Starring Roles In Two Important Movies

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 27 — No doubt in the world that Jennifer Jones will play "Tribly" after all. You see, James Mason was signed today by Pandro Berman to play Gustave Flaubert and do the commentary in "Madame Bovary."

So that means James won't be free to play Svengali to Jennifer's Tribly, for Jesse Lasky, until the lady finishes "Bovary." Get what I mean? Fancy juggling on the part of somebody.

Aside from that, Mason is a darned good actor. He'll be a valuable addition to the cast and MGM realizes that.

I've often wondered why someone didn't make a picture about Da Vinci's dramatic painting, "The Last Supper," probably the most famous canvas in the world. Now comes word from Milan that Charles Riesner and his partner, Franklyn Damore, are going to do just that.

Even more interesting is the fact that the original painting, now at Santa Maria Delle Grazie, will play a big part in their plan.

The story, adapted by Riesner from galley proofs of the Emilie Russell novel, will concern both the present time and the late 14th century, with the Da Vinci masterpiece the motivating theme of the action. Riesner will shoot the picture at the Icet studios in Milan with English-speaking Italian actors.

Now I am more convinced than ever that Lilli Palmer and Rex Harrison are not coming back. I have just heard from Paris that they have signed to do a French picture together next year.

They have accepted a mystery story by Vladimer Pozner, to be produced by Andrew Sarrut.

If Rex and Lilli feel as bitter about Hollywood as Lilli's actions indicate, they will feel happier in Paris.

In my office we all deserve a medal for deciphering Dorothy Manners' handwriting. She wrote a newsy letter, but it took us practically an hour to translate it.

Dorothy says the English have taken Gracie Fields back into their hearts. She even broke Danny Kaye's record.

Dorothy met Eddie Mannix at Elstree studios, where she had luncheon, and says he is looking great. She visited Denham, and saw Jean Simmons and Stewart Grainger start their first day shooting on "Adam And Evelyn." They will not admit they are engaged to marry, but that's the talk in London, and was when I was there. They are certainly in love.

I have had many letters from my readers complaining that "Nanook Of The North" was released without any explanation that it is an old picture.

The advertisements stated that it is about Alaska. The theaters did a big business because many of our boys served there, and are interested in seeing a movie with an Alaskan locale. Since it has nothing to do with Alaska of today, those who paid admission felt cheated.

I think this is unfair. Old pictures should be labeled as reissues. It's bad for the theaters, bad for the film companies, and certainly unfair to the customers.

Motions Are Filed To Quash Indictments Against Dealers

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Oct. 27. (INS)—Motions were filed today in Edwardsville to quash the confidence game indictments against southern Illinois automobile dealers Robert L. Knetzer and Arthur F. Kramer.

Circuit Judge Edward Bareis set 11 a. m. Friday for a hearing on the motions.

The two dealers were scheduled to be arraigned today on the charges but the motions supercede the arraignment.

An affidavit from Knetzer in support of the motion claimed he was not served with a search warrant for his records and "did not voluntarily surrender such books and records for the consideration of the (Madison county) grand jury."

Knetzer claimed also that newspapers and radio stations had made "false accusations and prejudicial and inflammatory statements" which prejudiced the grand jury.

Attorneys for the pair said the men will plead innocent if the motions to quash are overruled.

Amarillo Fans To Throng City Friday

LUBBOCK MORNING AVALANCHE

Lubbock, Texas, Thursday, October 28, 1948

Special Train Will Be Used

Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm, backed by an estimated 1,000 rooters, is all set to roll into Lubbock for Friday afternoon's Sandie-Westerner schoolboy grid classic—and Lubbock, in return, is ready with a rousing welcome for the "friendly" invaders from the north.

A "Sandie Special" train, carrying at least 500 Amarillo grid boosters, will touch off festivities Friday. Upon its arrival in Lubbock at 12:30 p. m. Amarilloans will stage their customary downtown parade, prior to the 2:30 o'clock kickoff in the traditional football encounter at Jones stadium.

Others Coming By Car

In addition to the estimated 500-train passengers, at least an equal number of Amarillo fans are expected to travel to Lubbock by automobile Friday, and a number of these will also take part in the parade, whose route will be westward down Main to Ave. G, one block south to Broadway and westward again to Ave. K. There the parade will turn north to Main again, and return via that street to Sandie "headquarters" at the Hilton hotel.

In preparation for Amarillo guests, Lubbock school officials are working on a plan to provide "courtesy cars" for Sandie rooters. These automobiles, furnished by local volunteers and adorned by "Welcome, Sandie" stickers, will transport Amarillo fans to the game from the Hilton Friday and back to the hotel following the contest. Floyd Honey, principal of Lubbock Senior High school, today urged all persons interested in volunteering for participation in the "courtesy car" program to pick up the windshield stickers at Lubbock High school Thursday.

Honey announced that Senior High school classes will have a short schedule Friday, to enable all students to meet Amarillo's special train at 12:30 p. m. Students of elementary and Junior High schools who have tickets to the game and their parents' written permission to attend will not be counted absent, he said, provided they return to their respective classrooms after the noon period Friday, and are then picked up by their parents.

Courtesy Cars Planned

Assistance of the Lubbock citizens was being asked by Principal Honey of Senior High school and the students in providing courtesy cars to transport Sandie fans from the Hilton hotel to Jones stadium. Honey said they were in need of volnteers to provide cars, and that he hoped that each car would make at least two trips from the hotel to the stadium between 1 and 2 o'clock. "Welcome Sandie"

Special features of the fair include livestock, homemaking, and agriculture exhibits. Merchants of Seminole and Gaines county will operate commercial exhibit booths. The Seminole Home Demonstration club and the Seminole Study club also will operate concession booths in the building.

Midway of the fair, which lasts through Saturday night, is directed by the Seminole Lions club. The Rainey Shows are on the midway.

A hippodrome event will be staged in front of the grandstand of the High school football field Thursday night. A free barbecue, sponsored by the Fair association and various Seminole merchants, is scheduled for Saturday noon, after which a "kid pony" contest will be judged.

Judging will begin Thursday and will continue each day of the fair.

During this year's fair, a permanent fair organization will be set up, it was announced. Officials of this year's fair association include L. G. Daugherty, president; and Kline Morris, L. H. Fair officials said tonight that response has been extremely good, and that exhibit entries have come in in large numbers.

Parade To Highlight Program Saturday

Final Plans Pushed For Homecoming

Final plans for Texas Tech's annual Homecoming, which gets underway with a huge pep rally and bonfire Friday night on the college campus, were being made Wednesday and officials looked forward to one of the most colorful and successful such events in the school's history.

A student reception committee to greet Rice Institute Owls when they arrive about 1:30 p. m. Friday are included in late plans for the program. The pep rally will be broadcast over Station KSEL.

To Meet Team

The reception committee, under the chairmanship of Jack Noyes, will be composed of two members of each class and the president of the Student Council, Clint Formby. Its duties will be to meet the team when it comes in, direct the team and its coaches to their quarters, and see that they are well cared for.

It has been announced that all classes after 10 o'clock Saturday morning will be dismissed in order that students who so desire can participate in the giant homecoming parade at 10:30. The library will close at 10 a. m., but will reopen from 1 until 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon to allow students to check out books for the weekend.

D. M. McElroy has reported that additional requests for places in the parade have boosted the number of floats entered to approximately 50, which will string the line to approximately six blocks longer than it has ever reached before. The procession will start at Main and Ave. M, from where it will proceed east to Texas Ave., south to Broadway, and then turn west to the college, where it will go around Memorial circle.

Ticket sales at present indicate that almost 7,000 ex-students will return to take part in the activities, and that approximately 12,000 other fans will be out to see the Red Raiders and the Rice Owls tangle on the gridiron at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Also on the schedule for Homecoming weekend at the college are numerous social and academic club functions in honor of returning graduates and ex-students, a dance and meeting of the Texas Tech Alumni and Ex-Students association.

A luncheon, honoring returning students, will be given Saturday at noon in the Tech gymnasium by the Texas New Mexico and Oklahoma coaches.

Seattle Man Wanted Absentee Ballot, Clerks Finally Decide

SEATTLE, Oct. 27 (AP)—"Please send me my Apson T. Ballard. I am unable to be home to vote."

Clerks in the voters' registration bureau knitted their brows over that request, sent them by a Seattle resident temporarily living in San Francisco.

But they finally figured it out. They mailed the man an absentee voter's ballot.

'Dead' Boy Has Police On Run

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27. (INS)—An excited man telephoned Kansas City police late today with a grim message.

"There's a dead boy about three years old in the rear of a locked car. He's not breathing. I couldn't get to him."

Two policemen sped to the scene.

The two officers pried open the door and grasped the figure lying on the rear seat.

The "dead boy" was a ventriloquist's dummy.

Dallas Auditor Found Stabbed To Death Near Union Terminal

DALLAS, Oct. 27. (AP)—John C. Woods, 49, a Dallas insurance firm payroll auditor, was found stabbed to death today in Ferris plaza, across the street from the union terminal here.

Justice of the Peace Tom King returned a verdict of suicide.

Woods was found during the noon hour by two boys. He was sprawled on the steps leading to the plaza with the handle of a kitchen carving knife protruding from his neck.

Officers said there apparently were no witnesses to the stabbing.

Fellow workers in the insurance company office said Woods had been in ill health for some time.

Barber Is Well Paid For Aiding Stranger

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 27. (AP)—The bread he cast upon the waters 44 years ago paid off a thousandfold for Pasquale (Pat the Barber) Iorossi today.

It was back in 1904 that Iarossi found a starving and penniless stranger seated on the front steps of his home.

Instead of telling him to beat it, he invited him in, gave him a meal and a haircut.

The stranger was Charles H. Marion. He was down on his luck, he said.

Iarossi helped him get a job at a cigar counter and lent him $40 to buy some new clothes.

Before long Marion was running the cigar store. Then he bought a restaurant. Then he became a well-to-do real estate operator. He never forgot Iarossi, often dropped in for a haircut.

The 62-year-old Marion died last Wednesday. When his will was probated yesterday it was learned he had not forgotten the barber who had staked him. Iarossi was named as principal beneficiary of the estate that was estimated at upwards of $20,000.

"Iarossi," the will explained, "was my good friend through life."

HOUSING SHORTAGE NO PROBLEM

Former Rancher Tours America In Donkey Drawn Covered Wagon

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

"Housing shortage?—Phooey!" says Jack Ratliff. It doesn't bother him any.

Not only that, but his covered wagon is about the most self-sufficient contraption seen in Lubbock lately. He has nearly everything he needs outside of a few of Lil Abner's shmoos.

The grizzled, middle-aged former rancher from Pritchett, Colo., passed through Lubbock Wednesday afternoon and intended to camp overnight just south of town.

Tour Underway Eight Years

Accompanying him were his wife, four donkeys with the fetching names of Katy, May, Judy and Lady; two dogs, Clovis and Chihuahua by name; a rooster named Little Ben; and assorted laying hens and milk goats who, being producers, get pullman compartments in the rear of the wagon.

Idaho, another goat, Clovis and Little Ben make their travels on the backs of the three donkeys that pull the wagon.

It's a sort of prolonged Cook's tour of this country that Ratliff and his wife are taking.

They've been at it eight years now—ever since Ratliff had a severe attack of pneumonia, followed by lung complications and tuberculosis.

Border-To-Border Twice

Ratliff said he has been from Canada to Mexico twice, and has passed through most of the Western states—all at the "rapid" pace of two and one-half miles an hour.

Strangely enough, his wagon is adorned with the motto, "See America Fast."

And oncoming motorists will see the sign in bold, optimistic letters: "Here comes Jack."

"My laying hens furnish eggs, the goats furnish milk. We've got a stove and a bed. What more do we need?" Jack philosophizes.

And he goes on to explain that they raise a little cash, when necessary, by appearing at rodeos and the like, and by selling souvenir postcards with a photograph of the wagon and retinue.

They are now on their way to Brownsville and other points in South Texas to spend the winter.

"We've been spending our winters in Arizona, but we thought we'd try South Texas for a change," Ratliff explained.

STATES' RIGHTERS MAKE CLAIMS

GOP Seeks To Make Most From Demo Feud Raging In South

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Oct. 27 — The South's one-party system appears to be dead; sacrificed, many say, by President Truman on the altar of civil rights.

Even as two factions of the Democratic party in the South struggle over the remains, the Republicans are acting as chief beneficiary.

The extent of the Republicans' legacy, and the validity of their claims, will be determined in the Nov. 2 general election.

In bitterness, the South claims it was knifed to offset the desertion of many liberal elements from the party to the Progressives of Henry Wallace and to appease northern negroes.

Four States In Revolt

But whatever the reasons, the solidly Democratic South ended when President Truman proposed to end racial segregation and the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting, making lynching a federal offense and set up a Fair Employment Practices commission.

The Democratic body has split asunder, giving birth in the process to the States' Rights Democratic party which claims that the proposals invade the field of authority relegated to the individual states.

This party now claims it can muster with certainty 100 electoral votes to revenge the South and defeat President Truman.

The States' Righters real strength, however, seems to be concentrated in four states—South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana. These states have 38 electoral college votes.

As for the other votes, the States' Righters say they have excellent chances of carrying Florida and Tennessee; possibly Virginia and Arkansas, and fighting chances in Texas and North Carolina. Georgia is on the doubtful list.

GOPs Making Bid

The Republicans, meanwhile, are campaigning as they haven't since the days of reconstruction.

They are working hard in Virginia, Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Just how deep their strength goes is highly problematical, but Florida, Tennessee and Virginia have gone Republican in the past.

What worries the Democrats, both factions, are the strong efforts the Republicans are putting out on the congressional and state house levels.

In Texas, former Gov. Coke Stevenson, who lost the race for Senator recently by only 87 votes, has endorsed Republican senatorial candidate Jack Porter.

There is a strong possibility that Republicans may capture three House posts in Virginia. Kentucky is certain to have one Republican in the House, maybe more. The GOP candidate in the Ninth district is unopposed.

Thirty-two feature motion pictures and 11 tropicals were produced in Bengal, India, in the last year.

More Than 200 Visit Naval Center Here

Between 200 and 250 persons Wednesday visited the new Naval Reserve Training center, completed recently on the Texas Tech college campus, in observance of Navy Day in Lubbock.

The visitors were uniformly complimentary of the new building, said Lt. R. L. Gillis, USN, inspector-instructor stationed here. "We are very pleased with the number of visitors and their complimentary reactions to the building," he added.

The men stationed at the armory were dressed in blue dress uniforms for the day. Wednesday was the first opportunity for public inspection of the building, built at a cost of $150,000 and containing equipment valued at more than $750,000.

Sen. Taft May Resign Post On Senate Labor Committee

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27. (INS)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio), said tonight he probably will drop one of his Senate Committee chairmanships in January.

He indicated he will retire as head of the Labor committee. Taft told newsmen aboard Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's special train that his "present" inclination is to remain as chairman of the joint economic committee because of its importance in dealing with the threat of "any depression."

Taft said he is "optimistic" about chances for a Republican senate.

The Senate leader, who lost out in the convention fight for the GOP presidential nomination, declined to say whether he also wanted to retain his chairmanship of the Senate Republican Policy committee.

DRUGGISTS, Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Mineral Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize its priceless value.

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite when your eyes lack that bright spark and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

Read What They Say!

"We have sold Geo-Mineral for the last six months and it has been one of the best selling drug items we have ever handled"—say Porter Bros., pharmacists of Concord, N. C. "Users report amazing results in many instances, and we personally believe Geo-Mineral is a good medicine for purposes as indicated, and recommend it to sufferers who have tried other medicines with little if any results. They may discover that Geo-Mineral is what they have probably been needing and looking for — we unhesitatingly recommend it."

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

"CANNONBALL" OVERCOME

BREMEN, Ind. (U.P.)—The cannon at the Breme fair boomed and the crowd watched expectantly for the "human cannonball" inside to shoot through the air into a net 185 feet away. Minutes later, attendants found Hugo Zacchini unconscious inside the cannon. They said he was overcome by powder fumes. The charge wasn't powerful enough to lift him into the air.

Games Of Chance To Be Eliminated From School Carnivals

Principals and heads of Parent-Teacher association groups of all schools in Lubbock conducting Hallowe'en carnivals have been asked by Supt. R. W. Matthews to eliminate any games of chance from their evening's program.

"It is my understanding that games of chance are a violation of the law," Supt. Matthews said. "We are attempting to teach good citizenship. If we intend to teach it, we must live it.

"Games of skill, I am told, are perfectly legal and there are plenty of games of skill that we can put into our carnival programs such as throwing darts, tossing baseballs at targets, that are both wholesome and entertaining and involve no element of chance."

Co-Operation Is Pledged

Bingo games will be permitted in the carnivals where no prizes are offered winners, Matthews said.

Matthews said he had received a pledge of co-operation from every parent connected with the carnivals regarding his request.

Matthews was invited to attend a meeting of the Lubbock Ministerial Alliance last Friday at which gambling on football games and the games of chance in the school carnivals were discussed.

Sunday, at least two Lubbock ministers, Rev. C. J. McCarty pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, and Rev. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church, made reference to the gambling and the carnivals in their sermons.

Carnivals are to be staged in the Cottage, Chris Harwell, Central Ward, Sanders, Thirty-sixth and K. Carter schools Friday night, Supt. Matthews said. Geo. R. Bean school has already conducted its carnival.

Car Hop Booked For Suspicion In Slaying Of Her Husband

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.(INS)—Blond Betty Ferreri, 26-year-old car hop, today was booked on suspicion of murder for combining bullets and a meat cleaver in the killing of her husband.

She claimed Ferreri "tried to kill me."

Jerome Howard Ferreri, 32, was shot three times by handyman Allan Adron, 51, a boarder in the Ferreri's $40,000 mansion. Adron told police he fired after hearing Mrs. Ferreri's screams for help.

As Ferreri lay on the floor, his wife struck him several times on the head with a heavy meat cleaver.

She said days of violent quarreling were climaxed Tuesday night when "Ferreri attempted to kill" her with a poker.

Adron told officers he heard Mrs. Ferreri scream, ran to the pantry where Ferreri was attempting to kill his wife, and fired three shots at him.

Adron said Mrs. Ferreri gave him the revolver Tuesday with the request he protect her in the event of another attack.

Australia has cut gasoline rations.

Reds Admit Dewey Has Lead In Polls

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—The Moscow radio says victory in the American presidential election is going to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

While the Soviets keep urging support for Henry Wallace, a broadcast recorded by American government monitors said:

"It is foretold on the basis of various canvasses of opinion that the election will put the Republicans into the White House."

New York City Transit Workers Defy Union Back-To-Work Order

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—The rank-and-file revolt continued against union back-to-work orders in New York's biggest bus strike today, further jeopardizing transportation for 3,500,000 daily riders.

About 1,200 drivers employed by the Third Avenue transit system voted overwhelmingly at a mass meeting to stay off the job. The Third Avenue is the largest of the seven privately-owned lines involved.

However, the men later agreed they would abide by the result of a secret vote to be taken tonight on the back-to-work question. This vote, ordered by the union, will involve all of the Third Avenue's 3,900 workers and will be supervised by the Honest Ballot association, an outside organization.

The tieup began yesterday as a planned four-hour demonstration of 8,500 drivers but got out of control of union leaders.

Service throughout the city was spotty today as some drivers refused to carry out directions to go back to their jobs issued by Michael Quill, president of the CIO Transport Workers union.

At the mid-afternoon mass meeting, the 1,200 drivers were urged three times by a leader of the rank-and-file to resume work. They eventually voted to accept the secret ballot outcome.

The leader, Austin Hogan, president of TWU local 100, told the men bluntly at the mass meeting:

"My analysis of the picture is that you are not going to win this strike due to the sellout and the confusion."

stickers which will donate courtesy cars are available in the office at Senior High.

It was Honey's sugegstion that these cars come on Tenth street to Texas Avenue, then go down Texas to the east entrance of the Hilton Hotel to pick up the Amarillo fans. If these cars would follow the following route it would facilitate traffic, Honey said. Go down Main or Broadway to College, and at College get in the outside lane and drop their passengers even with the Jones stadium. Then return by going down Fourth Street would be the best way to take the visitors back downtown. The Sandie special is scheduled to leave Lubbock at 6 p. m.

DEBRIS IN TRAIL OF CRASHED PLANE—A C-47 plane which crashed in a fog near Chanute Airbase, Illinois, rests amid its own debris and leaves a trail of rubble where it took the roof off one barracks and demolished another (nearest plane). Three Dead, 11 Hurt In Train-Truck Crash

UHRICHSVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 27. (INS)—Three persons were fatally injured today and 11 others hurt in the collision of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train and a steel-laden truck near Gnadenhutten, Ohio.

The train's engineer and firemen were killed instantly. The truck driver died several hours after the accident.

The dead were identified as Engineer Gordon C. Aley, 64, of Pittsburgh; Fireman Charles Darr, 46, of Ingram, Pa., and truck driver Gregery Karabanic, 27, of Glenshaw, Pa.

The engine and first eight cars of the train, No. 202, jumped the tracks. Three sleeping cars on the east bound train remained on the tracks.

A bus driver, Arlow Lewis, 29, of Pittsburgh, said the crash occurred in a dense fog. Lewis said his bus was following a short distance behind the truck.

Voters To Be Confronted With Big November Ballot

AUSTIN, Oct. 21. (INS)—A ballot bigger than the front page of a newspaper will confront voters in the general election Nov. 2.

A preview of the ticket here, shows it to be twice as large as the November ballot two years ago and a third as large as the last presidential ballot.

It has eight columns, one each for the Democratic, Republican, States' Rights, Prohibition, Progressive and Socialist Parties and one for the Independents. Each column lists 40 positions, from president to constable.

Woman Says $132,000 Missing After Friend Leaves On Trip

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27. (INS)—A wealthy San Francisco widow today reported the disappearance of $132,000 in cash and a grand theft warrant was issued for the arrest of her former house guest.

Mrs. Louella Peterson, about 60, told police a strange story of how her missing friend induced her to withdraw the cash from banks and hide it in a basement filing cabinet in her lakeside district home.

Mrs. Peterson reported that the friend, identified as Mrs. Wilma Jackish, 55, left "on a trip" last Sunday morning, that shortly afterwards she discovered the money had disappeared.

Talked Into Leaving City

Mrs. Peterson said the cash was mainly in bills of $1,000 and $100 denominations.

She said that her friend had persuaded her to withdraw the money from banks with the arguments that she should leave town for her health and that money wasn't safe in San Francisco banks because the city was liable to be bombed at any time.

Mrs. Peterson said she also sold a home she owned in San Mateo county to get more cash.

According to the story, Mrs. Jackish had persuaded Mrs. Peterson that the San Francisco climate was bad for her health and that they both should go to Florida. Mrs. Jackish was supposed to have inherited a lavish estate in Florida.

Warrant Is Issued

Mrs. Peterson said she first met Mrs. Jackish about eight months ago. She invited the other woman to come and live with her recently after Mrs. Jackish's husband died.

Mrs. Peterson said her missing companion was about five feet four inches tall, weighing 200 pounds. She said Mrs. Jackish customarily wore a Russian-cossack type hat.

Mrs. Peterson told the police she was not completely destitute because of the loss of the cash. She said she owns a $400,000 interest in a lumber company founded by her late husband, Edwin T. Peterson.

After telling her story to police, Mrs. Peterson signed a complaint against the missing woman and a grand theft warrant was issued for her arrest by municipal Judge Mathew Brady. Bail was set at $100,000 bond or $50,000 cash.

Barrow Is Named Chairman Of Humble Company's Board

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—L. T. Barrow, vice-president since 1938, today was named chairman of the board of Humble Oil & Refining Co.

Barrow succeeds the late Harry C. Wiess.

Hines H. Baker, Humble president, in announcing the election of Barrow, said the new board chairman's "contribution to the progress of the company, particularly in the field of exploration, have been outstanding and a primary factor in the favorable position Humble occupies as a holder of crude oil and gas reserves and as a producer."

Barrow, a native of Manor, Travis county, has been with Humble since 1924 and a director of the company since 1937.

Following his education in Austin, Barrow was an instructor in geology at the university until joining the Humble staff. Since 1937 he has been in charge of the company's exploration activities.

Supreme Court Refuses To Study Amarillo Zoning Case

AUSTIN, Oct. 27 (AP) — The supreme court today refused to take jurisdiction in an Amarillo zoning dispute.

It said it could not consider a direct appeal in the case because it did not involve an act of a state board or the constitutionality of a state law.

F. C. (Fred) Teichman had obtained a temporary injunction in 47th district court to restrain Ben McGraw from proceeding with construction of a business building on a lot admittedly within an area which had been zoned for residences and apartments.

The permit under which the building was started had been issued by the Amarillo board of development. This could not be called a state agency, the high court ruled in declining to accept the case on appeal.

Swiss Oust Texas Rodeo Troupe After Taking Horses, Guns

MOILLESULAZ, Switzerland, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—The "Texas rodeo troupe" of promoter Larry Sunbrock traveled through France today wtihout its horses, steers, guns and other props, which were confiscated by Swiss authorities.

The company, reported to be broke, was escorted to the Swiss-French border near Lake Leman yesterday and told to leave Switzerland.

American consul Harry L. Troutman followed members of the company to the border and handed their passports to French border police who permitted them to enter France.

Expelled After Riot

There were 19 men, seven women and one child in the company.

Only their 10-gallon hats, chaps and high-heeled boots distinguished them as rodeo performers.

The troupe was expelled from Switzerland as a result of a riot Sunday night in which the performers allegedly took on Swiss police and the audience at the Palais de Expositions in Geneva.

Henri Michaud, a young Swiss tenderfoot, accused the troupe of refusing to pay him $230 prize money for riding one of the troupe's broncos. When the spectators backed Michaud in the dispute, a free-for-all followed.

"I have been in this game for 35 years but never have had such a raw deal before," said James Hawk, a 63-year-old Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma City. "I have been convicted and sentenced without being allowed to open my mouth."

Mrs. Katherine Carnegie, estranged wife of socially prominent Thomas M. Carnegie, jr., said the Sunbrock company was broke as a result of a 1,000 Swiss franc ($230) fine and confiscation of its stock.

The beauteous blonde from New York City said her divorce suit from the great-grandnephew of steel king Andrew Carnegie was pending in New York City.

The company also included Bob Richard of Paul's Valley, Okla.; Jimmy Steel of St. Louis, and Jim Murphy of Dallas.

DEMOS, GOP DISAGREE ON ELECTION TURNOUT

53,000,000 Americans Out Of Over 63,000,000 Registered Expected To Cast Votes On Nov. 2

By FREDERIC TUTTLE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Last-minute figures from across the nation indicate today a probable total registration of over 63 million potential voters of whom fewer than 53 million actually will cast ballots Nov. 2.

Republicans and Democrats agree on the likely registration total, which still is rolling in from some states.

They disagree, however, on the probable size of the total vote which actually will be cast for President Truman, Gop presidential candidate Dewey and the States' Rights and Progressive parties.

Demos, GOP Disagree

The GOP estimated that the total vote would not exceed 52 million.

Republicans based their calculations on the records of past elections, in which fewer than 85 per cent of the total registrants actually went to the polls.

The Democrats expect the vote to reach 55 million, and perhaps go beyond.

They said that Mr. Truman's "get-out-the-vote" campaign which has carried him on a 30,000-mile drive to all sections of the country and established a new White House record, will boost the number of ballots.

Democratic leaders expressed confidence that the President's extensive back-platform and whistle-stop campaign has "aroused" the people as never before to the "necessity of voting."

Republicans Want Big Vote

A highly placed Republican spokesman scoffed today at the President's charge that the GOP is trying to "lull" the voters into indifference and keep the vote down.

The spokesman said that the Republicans wanted the "greatest turnout at the polls in history." He declared:

"With every pollster predicting a smashing, landslide Dewey victory, we do not want Republican voters to assume the election is in the bag. Their votes are needed—every one of them.

"Another big factor is the farm vote. In the past, bad weather has often kept more farmers away from the polls than city registrants. The farm vote this year is more Republican than ever, and we want every farmer to get out and vote for the Dewey-Warren ticket."

The Republican national committee reported today that a preliminary spot check on registration has been completed for California, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington.

GOP figures also were made available for key cities and counties in Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Oregon and West Virginia.

Registrations Increase

The GOP reported that registration in these state and city-county areas is about 31 million as compared with 27,980,000 in 1944, an increase of three million, or 10.8 per cent.

Registrations in California are up 833,699 over the 4,885,441 figure in 1944, a 20 per cent increase for a population boost of 22 per cent.

Florida registration, where the Truman-Barkley and Thurmond-Wright tickets are expected to split the Democratic vote, is up nearly 250,000.

Registration in Illinois is up about 439,000, or 9.6 per cent, with a 3.5 increase in Chicago and Cook county, and a proportionately larger jump downstate in traditionally GOP territory.

In New Jersey registration is up about 307,000, or 14 per cent.

Final figures received from New York state show a decline of 168,421 or 2.3 per cent, even though there was an increase of 15.7 per cent in the voting population.

The loss was confined entirely to New York City, which fell off 242,857 or nearly 7 per cent. Upstate New York registration showed an increase of 73,436 or two per cent.

Registrations in the state of Washington increased 272,000, or 26.6 per cent.

Tech Receives Sheep For Use In Projects

The animal husbandry department at Texas Technological college has recently received 105 grade Rambouillet lambs and a Southdown ram, all of which will become a part of the breeding and feeding projects at Tech.

The Rambouillet lambs, bought from the Midwest Feed yards of San Angelo, will be used in feeding trials this year, Ray C. Mowery, head of animal husbandry said. In the trials, Martin Milo maize will be compared with Plainsman Milo to determine which variety produces the most gain per pound on sheep. Tests will also be made on the practice of harvesting milo with lambs. The trials have been conducted in two previous years, and this year will complete them.

This years trial will require approximately 112 days for completion, Mowery said. Carroll Wilson, a graduate student of animal husbandry, will conduct the work under the supervision of Mowery and use the material gained in his thesis.

The ram is a gift from Thomas B. Poe, Southdown breeder of Clint, who is a former Tech student and is now quite prominent in Southdown breeding circles.

Lewis Suggests Truman Act To Halt Shooting Of French Miners

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—John L. Lewis proposed today that President Truman step in to halt "the shooting of French coal miners who are hungry."

The United Mine Workers chief made his suggestion to AFL President William Green "as one miner to another." He asked Green, who is supporting Mr. Truman in the presidential campaign, to use his influence to get the President to intervene in the 23-day-old French mine strike.

Several strikers have been killed or injured in clashes with police and troops.

STILL SOMEWHAT OF MYSTERY

Common Cold Proves To Be One Of Most Costly Items For Man

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Some learned man of medicine once said of the common cold that if a sufferer was given the finest care the world could offer he'd be rid of the cold in three weeks. But, the learned man added, if the sufferer just ignored the cold he'd recover in 21 days.

The cold still ranks near the top of the unsolved mysteries of the human body and its failings, though thoughtful medical men dating back to the dim era of the witch-doctor and his seething caldron have been attacking it.

World's No. 1 Disease

It is, of course, the world's number one disease. What it costs the human race each year is incalculable, but the U. S. statistics are available at many sources, including life insurance companies, the U. S. public health service and such interested firms as the rubber manufacturers assn.

Colds cost Americans as much each year as was spent on the costliest and most historic scientific and engineering adventure ever known—the development of atomic energy and the A-bomb. The cold tolls cost the nation $2 billion a year.

The 140 million Americans catch 500 million colds each year. On any single day you could pick out of this coming winter's calendar there will be 20 million Americans suffering from colds. Two out of three people have at least three colds a year. Two out of eight have four a year.

Cost Is Enormous

A three-day cold costs the average person $25 in treatments and loss of income. Labor strikes are the standard headaches of management and production, yet colds cause five times the production losses caused by strikes.

The war might have ended perhaps a year sooner, with an attendant saving of life and property, if the common cold could have been mastered. For colds caused more than half of all the absenteeism in U. S. war plants—a million and a half man days a year throughout the conflict.

The common cold can lead to pneumonia, tuberculosis, sinusitis, meningitis, pleurisy, mastoiditis, bronchitis, empyema, rheumatism, heart disease and nephritis. But it took medical science until 1947 to isolate the first cold virus, and scientists are constantly at odds with one another as to the best method of tracking down the bugs and finding a method of destroying them.

The virus-trackers agree, however, on a number of aspects of the common cold. They know that one strong sneeze can send 20,000 infected droplets into the neighboring air at a speed of about 120 M.P.H. After half an hour at least 4,000 of the cold-bearing droplets are still floating around in the air that took the impact of the sneeze.

Easy To Catch

You can catch a cold from a friend two days before the friend notices that he or she has a cold. Getting so cold to the skin or chilled to the bone doesn't give you a cold. Such things simply lower the body's resistance to cold germs, who may or may not move in. Women catch more colds than men. The only other living things susceptible to colds are chimpanzees.

One heavy cold doesn't immune you. You can pick up another the moment after the first quits you. Colds move around an office, schoolroom or any other gathering place only in concentric circles, so it is theoretically possibly to step out of the path of one by changing your seat, desk, loitering point.

People who worry a lot catch more colds than happy-go-lucky souls. Medieval man lived and died convinced that colds were caused by decaying leaves, comets, cats and face-powder.

What to do? Well, avoid people with colds. Sleep more. Keep your feet warm and dry. Stay out of drafts. Eat light meals, with plenty of water, fruit juices, soups. Stop blowing your nose (just sniffle) and call a croaker. He won't know very much, but he'll know all of the little that is known.

Ah . . . ah . . . ah . . . Chooooo! Par'n me.

Restaurateur Offers Plan To Make Wives Better Cooks

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—Get your wife a hunk of clay and some oil colors, take her from the stove into the great outdoors, and she'll be a better cook.

So said George L. Wenzel, Austin, food expert and speaker at the Oklahoma Restaurant association convention.

Wenzel said housewives should paint pictures, model clay and take the children for walks. All this helps them to become better cooks, the expert declared. He added that eating out in a restaurant more often gives women "inspiration" to cook better in their homes.

Wenzel spoke last night at the convention, which will close Thursday.

The expert also said "jitterbugs make the best waitresses. They are extroverts and enjoy being with people. They have excellent co-ordination. They are good judges of distance, whether it's in swinging a partner or a tray."

Talking about the shortage of waitreses and cooks, Wenzel said "what a lot of high school boys and girls don't know is that many waitresses make better pay than some stenographers do. And chefs frequently make more money than doctors do."

Latin's 2,000 Mile Trek To Join U. S. Army Ends In Jail

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—Carlos Echeverria, 23, was out of jail today on $250 bond, not in the least disillusioned about his aims to "join the American Army and see the world."

After walking the 2,000 miles from his home in El Salvador, smallest Central American country, to Raymondsville, Echeverria's troubles started.

They culminated in his arraignment yesterday on a charge of illegal entry into the United States, some 22 months after he crossed the Texas border in January, 1947. It was a four-month journey from El Salvador.

When Carlos found out he would be kept out of the Army because he wasn't an American citizen, he headed north, picking cotton and working in restaurants along the way, he told federal officers.

He hit Houston a month ago, and got a job as pin boy in a bowling alley.

Attorney Lawrence Arnim spoke for Carlos in court, since the Central American doesn't understand English.

Out of jail, but with his status still undetermined, Carlos was undaunted. Speaking quickly in his native tongue, he told Arnim, "I still want to join the American Army and see the world."

Brownfield Churchman Plans To Do Mission Work In Italy

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 27. (Special)—J. R. Chisholm, an elder of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, will be among a group of about 12 missionaries who will sail for Italy January 1. These workers will be sponsored by various congregations of the church.

The local church is also sponsoring C. R. Paden, former minister of the church, and Mrs. Paden in missionary work in Italy, and is assisting in sponsorship of a boys' home being built at a villa near Rome.

Chisholm, who will oversee the early missionary work of the group leaving January 1, plans to be in Italy about three months.

Test Is Taken On Scurry County Well; Additional Drilling Is Set

A one-hour drillstem test at 7,424-46 feet has been taken at American Republics corporation No. 1 Koonsman, 15 miles northeast of Snyder, in northeast Scurry county, and 2,115 feet from north and 3,290 feet from east lines of section 240, block 2, H & TC survey.

There was a slight blow of air for a part of the period. Recovery was five feet of very slightly oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no signs of water.

The venture will drill 330 feet deeper and try another drillstem test.

No Indications

Top of the Ellenburger is called at 7,410 feet. Derrick floor elevation is 2,172 feet. That formation has not shown any indications of production up to now.

McAlester Fuel Company No. 1-A Gesell, southwest Scurry County venture, six miles south; west of Snyder, and 662 feet from north and 2,080 feet from west lines of section 154, block 97, H & TC survey, ran a 42-minute drillstem test in the Ellenburger at 8,050-81 feet.

No Show Of Oil

Recovery was ten feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The exploration is making more hole.

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 2 Lee, slated 10,600-foot venture, in southeast Dawson county, 15 miles southeast of Lamesa, and 440 feet from north and east lines of section 47, block 34, TP survey, T-5-N, had reached 10,256 feet in lime and shale, and was drilling ahead.

Up to now it has not reported having encountered any possibilities of petroleum production.

Soil Practices Are Studied At Meeting

State officials of the Production and Marketing association (PMA), and PMA county committeemen and administrative officers, along with county agents, from the 16 area counties in the South Plains district of the PMA, today will hold second-day sessions of their two-day district meeting at Hotel Lubbock. Soil practices and other PMA projects for 1949 are being discussed at the sessions.

The Wednesday session started at 10 o'clock, with John Gamble, PMA district field man in charge. The group discussed the general program of soil practices and conservation as outlined for PMA administration next year.

Among PMA officials attending are Howard Kingsbery, vice chairman of the state committee; J. R. Adams and Vic L. Cade, state committeemen; Fred Rennels, assistant state director; P. C. Colgin, state committee loan specialist; and Otis Cowsert, state auditor.

County agents from over the district, who work in cooperation with the PMA program, are among the 50 or more attending the sessions.

BEAR COMES TO TRAPPER

COMPTON, N. H. (U.P.) — A few hours after Willis Merrill set a trap for a bear he suspected was in the vicinity of his woodland home, the bear appeared outside the house, dragging the trap in which one paw was caught. Merrill went out and shot the bear.

Farm Subsidies Seen As Possible Move

CHICAGO, Oct. 27 (INS) — William A. Orton, professor of economics at Smith college, declared tonight that after 1950 the concept of parity "will have to be abandoned in favor of an undisguised policy of farm subsidies."

These, he told a University of Chicago lecture audience, will be subject at all times to congressional review.

Orton termed price-pegging in agriculture and farm subsidies "an outstanding case of coercive redistribution of private income."

He also denounced the concept of parity "as reactionary and romantic" when contrasted with the free market. He added:

"We have reached a stage at which practically all basic industries are trying to plan for a world market.

"The dogma of unrestricted price competition is no longer compatible with the universal demand for economic stability. Nationalistic state controls are out of line with the possibilities of world development and modern technology.

"The genius of the American people is, on the record, economic rather than political. It remains to be seen whether a nationalistic politics, or a supernational economics, will determine their decisions.

"The choice is a difficult one."

Court Again Blocks Negro's Effort To Enter Texas U.

AUSTIN, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—The Texas Supreme court today declined to review the case of a Houston negro who seeks entrance into the University of Texas law school.

In denying the motion of Herman Sweatt, Houston negro letter carrier, for a rehearing of his application for a writ of error, the court blocked off his last avenue of legal action in a Texas court.

On September 29, the Supreme court refused Sweatt's application for a writ of error from the third court of civil appeals here, which had denied him relief in his suit against university regents.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and to aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Dewey Has Substantial Lead In 18 Of 24 East, Midwest States

By GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 27—With less than a week of the 1948 presidential campaign remaining, the Institute's semi-final state-by-state roundup of political sentiment shows this picture for the 24 states in the New England, Middle Atlantic and Mid-West sections:

Governor Thomas E. Dewey holds a marked popular vote advantage in 18 of the 24 states.

GALLUP

President Truman has a substantial lead in one, Rhode Island.

In five other states, where the lead of one candidate over the other is not marked, Dewey leads in four and Truman in one.

Henry A Wallace, Progressive Party candidate, does better in New York than in any other of the states reported today. His next best states are Connecticut, New Jersey, Minnesota and North Dakota.

In this semi-final roundup all voters who still are undecided on their presidential choice have been eliminated from calculation of the vote in each state. Two states, Connecticut and Maryland where previous Institute findings showed neither candidate with a substantial margain, now give a marked lead to Dewey.

Delaware has shifted into the marginal category, whereas in the previous poll Dewey held a long lead. In Missouri the latest samplings put the state in the marginal column, whereas earlier surveys gave Truman a substantial lead.

In GOP Section

It should be emphasized that these 24 states cover the areas of the country where Republican voting strength usually is greatest. The second half of the states include the Western, Pacific Coast and Southern sections where Democratic candidates normally poll their biggest backlog of votes.

The second article of this semi-final roundup next Friday will report on the other 24 states and give a nationwide political scoreboard with the standings for individual states. Field interviewers across the country are now conducting final surveys of representative voters on which the final Institute report next Monday will be based.

The political scoreboard for the New England, Middle Atlantic and Mid-West sections follows:

Las Vegas Beauty Scores New Yorkers For 'Ignorance'

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 27. (INS) — Peggy McCarthy, 22, scolded Manhattan's wolves and New Yorkers in general with scathing terms today in a telegram of protest to Mayor William O'Dwyer.

The pretty lass, who was "Miss Las Vegas" at a recent Madison Square Garden rodeo, derided easterners for their "uncivilized treatment" and their "general ignorance and discourtesy."

Peggy returned home Tuesday with a head cold and a low opinion of some New Yorkers. She said they treated her like a "barbarian," and she explained:

"Grown-up men yelled and whistled at me on the streets like schoolboys. Women asked if I'd ever worn high-heeled slippers and silk hose. Souvenir hunters tore the tassles from my western blouses."

Miss McCarthy, a graduate of Washington State university, complained that radio announcers and newsmen were disappointed that the western girls attending the rodeo were not all hicks." She added:

"They wanted us to talk through our noses and say 'padner' in every sentence. The waiters seemed surprised that we didn't pour our coffee out in saucers to blow on it."

Peggy said she was surprised that New York "rolls up the sidewalks at 2 a. m. instead of staying open all night like Las Vegas."

Major Companies' Refusal To Meet Oil Price Hike Scored

HOUSTON, Oct. 27. (AP)—Major purchasers' failure to meet the 35-cent-a-barrel increase in crude oil prices puts the squeeze on domestic production in favor of imports, two independent oil men said here yesterday.

Phillips Petroleum company made the increase recently. Several other companies followed, but a few went back to the old price.

"The major buyers' holdout against higher prices is detrimental to the best interests of independent purchasers, royalty owners and general public," Guy Warren, Corpus Christi, president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners association, said.

Warren spoke at a district meeting of the association.

Deadlock In West Coast Strike Ending

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27. (AP)—The deadlock in the 54-day-old West coast oil workers strike apparently was breaking up today.

Shell Oil company said in a statement that "an orderly resumption of operations is expected tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock at Shell Chemical corporation's Pittsburgh plant, where 450 workers will return to their jobs."

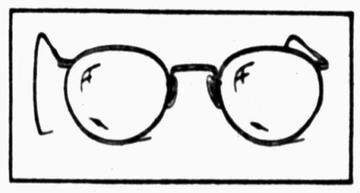

Woman Demo Leader Switches Her Support To Johnson

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 27. (AP)—Mrs. Claude Hudspeth, vice-chairman of the state Democratic executive committee today switched her support to Lyndon Johnson in his race for U. S. senator.

Long a supporter of Coke Stevenson, defeated candidate for the Democratic nomination, Mrs. Hudspeth repudiated his endorsement of Jack Porter, Republican candidate, at a meeting of Democratic party nominees here last night.

"I haven't switched from Stevenson," she said. "He's switched from my party. Stevenson has been a friend of my family for years. I still like him very much. I just don't like his leaving the party."

THE AMENDMENTS:

We View Them Thus

THE AVALANCHE-Journal has received from readers many requests for explanation of the eight proposed amendments to the State Constitution, which will be voted on in the general elections on next Tuesday, November 2.

The Editor and an assistant have made careful study of the amendments and offer, herewith, explanations and opinions concerning them. In offering the opinions, we do so simply on the basis of study, and the application of that study to what we consider to be the best interests of the state as a whole.

Here goes:

The most important amendment by far is No. 2 on the ballot, which guarantees the regular redistricting which would insure equal representation for all Texans in the Legislature. Regardless of what they do about the others, all Texans should support this amendment. This will be discussed in more detail before election day.

Now, taking the others in the order they appear on the ballot:

No. 1 provides workmen's compensation insurance for county employes. This seems fair, just and deserving of support.

No. 3 puts the stamp of further legality upon community property income tax returns by husbands and wives. It deserves support.

No. 4 provides for gubernatorial succession if a governor-elect dies or is disqualified before taking office. It is a sensible safeguard against confusion and controversies which otherwise could arise.

No. 5, the homestead exemption amendment, is linked with No. 7 and will be discussed with it.

NO. 6 WOULD substitute salaries for fees as compensation for sheriffs and numerous other officers. Its merit is too obvious for discussion. Voters should say "yes."

No. 7 would abolish state ad valorem taxes and allow counties to raise their maximum rates by 30 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation. Most qualified authorities say the amendment is desirable. But, if approved No. 5 also will require passage, according to authorities, to maintain the present $3,000 tax exemption on homesteads. We would vote "no" on both No. 5 and No. 7, in keeping with the principle that all Americans are equal citizens and should be taxpayers in direct ratio to the amount of their holdings.

No. 8 would authorize pensions for district and higher court judges. Opinion seems more divided on this than on any other amendment. On both sides are people of sound judgment and unimpeachable integrity. An argument for it is that the judges now are denied social security protection. Against it is the argument "why pension only judges?" Certainly, if judges deserve a pension after long public service, so do all officeholders of long tenure and the fact that the judges have a stronger lobby doesn't entitle them to any greater consideration than other public servants. We will vote "no" on the judges' pension bill, but, frankly, would vote "yes" on a similar proposal to cover all worthy public servants of long duration.

NOW, in summary:

BE SURE to VOTE FOR Amendment No. 2, which will assure fair legislative representation to all of Texas.

We urge, too, votes for No. 1, workmen's compensation; No. 3, community property; No. 4, gubernatorial succession, and No. 6, fee system.

We think disapproval of No.'s 5, 7 and 8 is logical, not so much because of what they stand for, but because their approval doubtless will be swiftly followed by efforts to broaden tax exemption on the one hand, and pension one group of public servants while not similarly pensioning others fully as worthy.

Down Memory Lane

(From the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche of Oct. 28, 1928.)

The political front in the county was aflame with dissension as Democratic leaders scrapped over the Al Smith-Herbert Hoover issue. Members of the county Democratic Executive committee, in a called session, voted "allegiance to Frank E. Wheelock as its duly elected chairman," and went on record as "opposing the nomination of Alfred E. Smith as the presidential candidate of the party." The resolution as approved also "absolves the voters of Lubbock county from any allegiance to the said Alfred E. Smith as the presidential candidate of the party." The meeting was reportedly called by James H. Goodman, and ten members attended, one of whom held proxies also for 11 others. J. H. Snyder and F. W. Day voted against the resolutions. Others present were F. E. Wheelock, L. C. Ellis, J. H. Teague, J. F. Vance, L. W. Wilke, A. R. Shipp, N. C. Dixon, and Jno. L. Ratliff the latter holding proxies of W A. Fincher, J. M. Sherrod, J. L. Brabham, S. C. Marrs, F. B. Tudor, D. B. Williamson, W. J. Baker, E. R. Davis, J. B. Reid and W. E. Ballew.

Tryst

By ELSWYTH THANE

Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Dying in the Indian desert, British secret agent Hilary Shenstone feels a desperate need to get back to England and to Nuns Farthing, his family home. He doesn't know the house has been let and that dreamy, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. Hilary does return to England and to Nuns Farthing—after death. When he sees Sabrina, he realizes she is the girl he would have loved if he had lived. Hilary's room is locked after George, his brother, brings word of his death. Sabrina broods. Hilary tries to persuade Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper—the one person aware of his presence—to let Sabrina into the room again.)

IT seemed to Sabrina a long time since she had first picked the lock of Hilary's room. Did his being dead now made all the difference between a room you could break into and a room you must leave locked? It was still difficult to think of him as dead . . .

Slowly she groped her way to illumination. In the room he wasn't dead. Something of him was there, would always be there, waiting for her. Slowly the conviction grew that since George's visit—was it just her imagination?—since a little before George's visit Hilary had seemed nearer than during the spring, while he was still alive. It was as though Hilary dead was nearer.

Wandering aimlessly along the border one morning with Muffin, a new kitten, under her arm and the warm July sun glinting on her fair hair, Sabrina began to see daylight in darkness. Why, then, it wasn't going to be so bad, after all. He was not entirely lost just because his thick-headed, thick-skinned brother drove up out of the blue to say he had been killed out in India . . .

She had come to a standstill, gazing blindly at the dark red Richmond roses, which were a little heavy on their stems in the hot sun. There ought to be Richmond roses in Hilary's room . . .

"I don't think I care whether his mother likes it or not — and anyway, she needn't ever know," she said aloud, and Muffin purred against her side like a small warm dynamo. "We'll try the lock again this afternoon while Aunt Effie is at Wells. And we'll open the windows, and clear away the dustsheets."

AN hour later Sabrina was still on her knees outside Hilary's door, hot and discouraged. The lock would not give. Hilary was sitting on the top step, and Muffin lay on his back slapping at the air with soft, ineffectual paws and giggling as kittens can—for he was being deliciously tickled in the ribs by Hilary's invisible fingers, and loving it. The roses were wilting on the floor nearby.

Sabrina stopped to listen guiltily, motionless, her head turned over her shoulder towards the stairs. Someone was coming up.

It was Mrs. Pilton. Sabrina, already flushed and rumpled with her failure at the lock, got still redder.

"I—I only wanted to air out the room a bit—" she began inadequately, and broke off, staring at the key in the housekeeper's outstretched hand. "Oh, Mrs. Pilton, it is nice of you!" She scrambled to her feet and took the key, and then, bending from the top step, put her arms round the woman's shoulders and kissed her cheek. "I can never thank you enough!"

"I may be wrong to let you have it," said Mrs. Pilton. "But he doesn't want you to be shut out."

"Oh — how do you know?" gasped Sabrina.

"It's hard to say, sometimes, how you know things."

Mrs. Pilton turned back down the stairs. Sabrina caught up Muffin and the drooping roses. The key turned in the lock and the door swung back under her hand.

For a moment she seemed about to cry out after Mrs. Pilton.

She herself had seen George at the window drawing the curtains while the dust-sheets glimmered eerily in the sudden twilight. But now sunshine flooded the window seat as usual and the shrouds had all been removed from the furniture and laid in a neatly folded pile in the corner.

"Sorry," said Hilary with real contrition "My first mistake."

He slipped past her into the room.

SHE came in very slowly and shut the door and stood against it. Her eyes were unusually wide and blue, but she didn't look at all afraid.

"Hilary," she whispered, holding tight to Muffin and the roses. "Where are you? I can't see you—I can't hear you—but I know you're here in this room. But how do I find you?"

"You can't," he said, standing still by the mantelpiece, watching her. "Not yet."

"Hilary—" (From where he stood half way across the room he could see the tiny pulse which beat in her thin throat.) "Hilary—who are you?"

"I am the man you would have married, if things hadn't gone wrong," he told her simply.

But her eyes went past him and her next words took no notice of his.

"Can't you talk to me?" she begged.

"Eventually, not yet," he said, and wondered why, when they were already so close.

"Hilary, I'm afraid!"

"Not of me."

"I'm afraid of losing—if you're dead. They'll always try to separate us."

"They can't do that. Nothing can."

"What did you say, Hilary—say it again. I mean—heard—"

She flashed back suddenly at the door behind her. Mrs. Pilton, who had given her the key—he doesn't want you to be shut out. . . . Then Mrs. Pilton must know.

(To Be Continued)

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

IF you are a regular reader of this column you may say "For Pete's sake, is this going to be a political column from now on? Don't we get enough politics without that fellow Brandeis, who knows nothing about politics, trying to be a Sokolsky or a Pegler or a Luppmann?"

In the first place, if you read my political columns—I have a reader who writes me very often and always interjects "ha, ha!" which would be quite apropos right here—you'll realize that they have nothing to do with politics as such, but only with the people who are in politics or who have politics thrown at them.

BRANDEIS

In the second place, this little incident which I am about to relate is so typical of America that I simply have to tell it to you.

Last night we had a caucus meeting here in our little Connecticut town.

Our next-door neighbor is a dyed-in-the-wool Republican, and the fellow with whom he is in business is running for our State Legislature.

Last night's caucus was to nominate the various Republican aspirants, and naturally our neighbor and his wife were going to the meeting to cast their votes for their friend.

About an hour before the meeting the neighbor's wife called up my wife and they had a little chat.

She told my wife about going to the meeting and my wife asked her how she could get away from the house with two babies in the family.

"Oh, that's all right," said our neighbor. "Helen has promised to come over and sit with the children. I do the same for her when she goes out."

What's the point? What's so typically American about that?

Well, ladies and gentlemen, Helen, who lives across the road, is the candidate for the State Legislature on the Democratic ticket, engaged in an active campaign against the friend and associate of the neighbors who are going to vote against her.

Politically they are bitter enemies, socially and neighborly they are the best of friends.

That is America.

HERE is another little incident that may interest you.

The typewriter man was in to fix my machine.

After he was through we chatted for awhile.

He works for one of the largest manufacturers of typewriters in the world.

But he is going to quit. He is going to open a little shop of his own and service the several hundred writers and business people in this vicinity.

I asked him why. "Don't you get good money, and aren't you taking a big chance by going in for yourself?"

Yes, he is getting good money. But he doesn't like the working conditions. The place is a ramshackle old building, they have no hospital insurance, he never gets a smile or a kind word from the bosses.

"If I go in for myself," he said, "at least I know I am a human being."

It's too bad that the machine age has made machines out of so many human beings.

NEW HOPE NEEDED

Demos Look To Future

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Although the Democratic high command is striving desperately to offset a Truman defeat by recapturing the U. S. Senate, inside strategy is admittedly concentrated on the election of three Governors as possible 1952 white hopes. Should they fail in this move, they will be in desperate shape for a presidential nominee four years hence.

The trio consists of Adlai Ewing Stevenson, Frank J. Lausche and Chester A. Bowles. They are seeking gubernatorial victories, respectively, in the states of Illinois, Ohio and Connecticut.

TUCKER

At last reports they have a 50-50 chance to win, and a triumph for any of them in the face of a prospective Republican landslide would place them in the front ranks for 1952. Their friends plead guilty to such hopes, although they cannot make public admission because of the embarrassment it would cause President Truman.

LIBERAL: All three, ironically, have been associated with the so-called liberal and Rooseveltian wing of the party. Messrs. Stevenson and Bowles held key posts in various regulatory agencies during the New Deal regime.

In winning the primary nomination, Mr. Lausche defeated a hostile, conservative, state organization. In their present contests, they have had the full support of the left-of-center wings represented by Leon Henderson, Eleanor Roosevelt and other survivors of the New Deal.

DEARTH: Anticipating a Truman defeat, political long-shotters at Democratic headquarters have been appalled by the utter dearth of future prospects for such high offices as the presidency and the vice-presidency. From the robing chamber of the Supreme Court to the cloakroom of the House of Representatives, they see no man who could command national prestige or support.

The only possibility on the Supreme Court is Justice William O. Douglas, and he is persona non grata with party leaders and the "liberal" faction for refusing to accept the vice-presidential nomination at Philadelphia. Nor has he the kind of personality or reputation that would kindle public imagination.

There is no outstanding figure in the Cabinet. Even if there were, they will go out of office next January, and disappear from the political horizon.

BEREFT: Although both major parties have drawn their presidential candidates from gubernatorial rather than senatorial chairs since the G.O.P. named Warren G. Harding in 1920, defeat of Messrs. Stevenson, Lausche and Bowles would leave the Democrats utterly bereft insofar as tapping a Senator is concerned.

New England's only Democratic representative in that chamber, for instance, is Brien F. McMahon of Connecticut, and he would be out of the picture if Mr. Bowles wins the Governorship. Moreover, it is doubtful if Mr. McMahon will be sufficiently well known four years hence, despite his excellent work in framing an atomic energy program.

Like Mr. Lausche, he is a Roman Catholic. And although good people deplore the association of a man's religion with his possible political preferment, the boys in the nominating backrooms always take these considerations into account. They cannot forget 1928.

SHOPWORN: The Middle West will have no presidential offering from the Senate, unless Professor Paul Douglas surprises the nation by defeating Senator Wayland Brooks in Illinois. There is Senator Scott Lucas of the same state, but frequent mention of his name for the vice-presidential office has placed him in the shopworn class.

New York, a breeding-place of Presidents and presidential nominees, has only the ailing, 71-year-old Robert F. Wagner on the Democratic side. He may have to retire soon, and if Mr. Dewey's first two years in the White House turn out well, the G.O.P. may carry this seat in 1950.

CHAIRMAN. Democrats have not turned to Pennsylvania for a presidential candidate since the days of James Buchanan in 1856.

The state can present the name of Senator Francis J. Myers in 1952, provided he wins reelection in 1950, but a Republican sweep there two years hence is not unlikely. Moreover, Southerners will not forget that Mr. Myers served as chairman of the platform committee at the Philadelphia convention.

Although he opposed Mayor Hubert Humphrey's extreme Civil Rights plank Mr. Myers' role in that clash would not help him in Dixieland. Needless to add, the Democrats have no prospects in Governor Earl Warren's Far West.

COMEBACK: Thus a Truman debacle will be far more than a personal loss for him. It will leave the Democrats as disorganized and as leaderless as the Republican Party was after Herbert Hoover's disastrous showing in 1932. And it has taken sixteen years for the G.O.P. to make a comeback to high places.

For these reasons the politicos and the public generally should watch the returns in the Connecticut, Illinois and Ohio gubernatorial races next Tuesday night.

CONFIDENT: The Dewey camp's confidential estimate of next month's presidential lineup gave President Truman an electoral total ranging from a maximum of 167 to a minimum of 90. The victorious requirement in this popular numbers game is 266.

The Albany forecasters believe that the Thurmond-Wright ticket will roll up from 29 to 49 ballots in the political college. They give Henry Wallace not a single piece of the important, collegiate paper. They place the Republican presidential nominee's popular lead at betweenn 3,000,000 and 5,000,000.

In their "low" moments, they figure that Governor Dewey will show up on election night with 317 votes. In high gear, they give him 402.

PREDICTIONS: In making these predictions, the Albany spokesmen explain that they are trying to be generous in their computation of presidential strength. In other words, they don't want to delude themselves into overconfidence for fear of the reaction on field workers. As Paul E. Lockwood, Mr. Dewey's executive aide, says:

"We are operating on the theory that it's enough if you win by one vote."

Incidentally, these estimates were compiled before news of President Truman's Vinson-to-Stalin play, Memphis Boss Ed Crump's declaration for the States' Rights slate, Coke Stevenson's announcement that he would support the Republican Senatorial candidate in Texas, and other anti-Truman developments.

Where a man is concerned the foolish age is liable to be any age.

A warped mind sometimes results from a man having too many wet ideas.

An Eastern college is now offering a course in baby-sitting. It should be a howling success.

STATES' RIGHTERS IN CONTROL

South Carolina Is Stronghold

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

COLUMBIA, S. C. — There is about South Carolina today the atmosphere of a conquered province.

It is in almost complete subjugation to the States' Rights movement, for which, of course, it has the self-supplied leader in its own Governor J. Strom Thurmond of whom, however, it has seen little of late. He has been chasing his will o' the wisp, the presidency, all over the South, while his supporters handle things here at home.

Things are well in hand.

Historic parallels are never exact, nor are historic roles. However, in the States' Rights group of today there is something of a mock and shabby replica of the "red shirts" of the 1870's who threw off carpet-bagger rule, except Governor Thurmond, of course, who is no Wade Hampton. The tragedy of it all is that this sham revolution should happen in the middle years of the Twentieth century when the slogans and oratorical flourishes of 85 years ago have such a hollow sound.

STOKES

Group In Complete Control

South Carolina truly has been led back to the past: And the States' Rights "red shirts" of today are just as sternly righteous in their attitude, just as over-weening in their arrogance, just as ruthlessly hostile to the free spirit of Democracy as were the carpet-bagger regimes of reconstruction.

You have the collaborationists of today, just as there were collaborationists then with the Yankee generals and carpet-baggers. These are the supposed Democratic leaders of the state, topped off in candidates for Congress, who are playing neutral between the now hostile Democratic factions here, afraid to speak out against the hypocrisy and demagoguery of their governor and his states' righters, and afraid even to whisper the name of the leader of their party, Harry S. Truman, who happens to be President of the United States as of today, and as he has been for over three years.

The movement for President Truman here is reminiscent of an underground, such an underground as Wade Hampton's lieutenants maintained in the seventies, with all the frustrations and anxieties of an underground movement. Such as it is, it is unofficial in character. It is headed by Ashton H. Williams, Lake City attorney, chairman of the Truman-Barkley slate of electors that was chosen by a citizens committee. Headquarters, in a single cramped hotel room here, is directed by Maxie C. Collins, ordained Baptist minister currently without a pastorate, who is the contact with Democratic National headquarters in Washington.

This group has hopes of becoming the recognized Democratic organization in South Carolina and the nucleus of a reorganized progressive Democratic party in this state. It has virtually no money with which to carry on its campaign.

Election methods here smack of those imposed upon a subjugated people. South Carolina has no secret ballot. The ballots are separate, and the voter has to ask for the ballot he wants when he enters the polling place. Ordinarily in the past he was handed the regular Democratic ballot, unless he specified otherwise. At the coming election there are four ballots—States' Rights, Regular Democrat, Republican, and Progressive party (Wallace). There is, however, no identification of the heads of the national tickets, only the names of candidates for Congress and the names of electors.

In the situation today in the state, with the states righters in command, it can be seen how the lack of secrecy can become a species of intimidation. It is feared also that at some polling places the States' Rights ballot may be the only one offered the voter.

A bill setting up the Australian secret ballot passed the House of Representatives in the last legislature, but failed of final enactment. Governor Thurmond declined to call a special sesion to institute it, as he was urged to do.

Court Bans Move

South Carolina, as is well known, has gone through a recurrent series of attempts to re-establish the "white primary," that was outlawed by the Supreme Court. The last was stopped by a federal judge at Charleston, J. Waties Waring, who has thwarted others. This was a pledge to be required of every voter in order to qualify, that he was for segregation, patently unconstitutional. This pledge, which the federal judge wiped out by a temporary injunction, had been adopted by the state Democratic convention.

Some 35,000 negroes voted in the primary. Some 50,000 to 60,000 are reported to be eligible to vote in the general election November 2. There have never been any restrictions about negroes voting in general elections, only primaries which have been real elections in this one-party state. A preponderance of the negro vote will go to President Truman, with some for Governor Dewey. There is a separate negro Democratic party—headed by John McCray, negro newspaper publisher of this city.

Grain
CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, Oct. 27 (AP) — Purchases of cash corn by the Commodity Credit corporation spurred buying in corn futures on the board of trade today.

Private trade sources were authority for the news that the CCC had bought the yellow grain, first purchases of the current crop season.

Other sections of the grain market were firm although December wheat met some selling after reaching a new high on the current advance at $2.30¼ in early dealings. Deferred contracts held steady on official weather bureau reports of dry surface soil in Kansas and Nebraska.

Wheat closed ¾ lower to ⅜ higher. December $2.29⅛-⅜, corn was 1⅛-1¼ higher, December $1.39½-⅝, oats were ⅞-1⅛ higher, December 78⅛-⅜.

Wall Street
MARKET HITS SNAG
NEW YORK, Oct. 27. (AP)—The stock market operated in lower price territory today despite half-hearted attempts to pull ahead.

Final prices were off by fractions to around 2 points. Most of the damage was done soon after the opening bell and the rest of the day was sent trying to recoup. The widest losses were trimmed in many cases and a fair number of key issues ended a bit higher.

Selling became a little more insistent during the last hour of business.

Offerings centered on the steel group, largely because a widespread rumor failed to pan out. Many of Wall Street's experts had figured that U. S. Steel Corp. would come out with a special dividend after the directors meeting late Tuesday.

Big Steel's board, though, voted only the usual $1.25 quarterly payment. Steel common dropped on the West coast following the news but it was not until this morning that the New York market had its say.

National Steel lost 2¾ points at one time but came back to end 1 down at 111. Youngstown Sheet at 89 and Wheeling Steel at 57¼ were a trifle higher. Bethlehem, Republic, and Jones and Laughlin lost fractions.

Closing lower were Goodyear, U. S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, Schenley, Texas Pacific Coal and Oil, Western Union, International Telephone, American Smelting, Westinghouse Electric, Allied Chemical, American Woolen, Sinclair Oil, Pacific Western Oil, and United Air Lines.

Motors finished as well as any other group, with plus signs in front of General Motors, Chrysler, Graham-Paige, and Studebaker.

Also higher were Montgomery Ward, Spiegel, Deere, American Telephone, Commonwealth Edison, Phelps Dodge, American Can, Du Pont,—American Tobasso, and American Airlines.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped 2 of one point to 70.6, the second average loss this week. Of the 1,023 issues which appeared on the tape, 522 declined while 259 advanced.

Cotton
NEW YORK REPORT

Nearby December steadied on a reduction of 1310 bales in the certificated cotton stocks and totaled 44,213 bales. There was some transferring of hedges from nearby December to later months.

GOP Solons Warn U. S. To Take Lead In World Trade Program

By FELIX COTTEN
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 — Two Republican congressmen warned today that the International Trade organization project would "collapse" unless the United States takes the lead in putting it into effect.

Rep. Fulton (R) Pa., and Javits (R) N.Y., declared that this would mean the failure of the effort of the world's free nations to set up a policing system to reduce trade barriers and promote world commerce.

Would Halt Aid Plan

The promotion of commerce, in turn, they said, is essential to the success of the program for Western Europe.

Fulton and Javits, who comprise a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on the ITO project, urged in a 25,000-word report that the Dewey administration—which they assume will come into power in January—adopt the ITO as part of the bipartisan foreign policy.

They appealed for approval of the ITO charter by the 81st Congress, which will convene Jan. 3. That would be an unprecedented demonstration of the strength of the bipartisan foreign policy, they said, since there is no instance in American history where an important treaty undertaken by an outgoing administration has been carried on to completion by an incoming one.

May Leave To Dewey

Indications are that if President Truman is defeated next Tuesday, he may not submit the ITO charter to Congress, but leave it for the incoming President to handle.

Still undetermined is whether the charter, signed by 54 nations at the conclusion of the Havana conference last March, will be presented to the Senate for ratification as a treaty, or to the entire Congress for adoption in resolution form.

The project was not presented to Congress last spring because the legislative calendar was jammed and congressional leaders advised delay.

Fulton and Javits conceded that the charter was "a pattern of compromise," and that it had many defects. They added:

"But the crux is not how this proposed charter compares to the perfect formula but how it compares to the situation that will obtain if the charter does not go into effect. . .

"It is a step in the right direction. Insofar as it may be an inadequate step, it is susceptible of improvement by amendment. The charter is the outcome of the long effort to establish a broad formula to bring about expansion and stabilization in international trade. It is the only such proposed proposal now before the world."

The congressmen declared that U. S. leadership in world trade was so predominant that other signatory nations would make no move to put the charter into effect unless this country acts first. If it approves the project, they added, the other countries will follow suit within a few months.

That would mean participation in the ITO by nations representing 85 per cent of the world's trade, they said, even with Russia, Soviet satellite countries and Argentina remaining aloof.

Texas Man's Confession Of Illinois Murder Backfires

GREENVILLE, Oct. 27. (U.P.)—Lowell Edward McCurdy's confession of an Illinois murder "because he was tired of living" backfired today.

The 28-year-old Commerce, Tex., man admitted under questioning yesterday that he falsely confessed to the murder of Bernie Shelton, a former prohibition era gangster, because he wanted to be electrocuted. Shelton was killed July 26, 1948, in Peoria, Ill.

Sheriff Fayt Clifton said McCurdy's story did not agree with the true facts of the crime in any detail. Finally, the sheriff said, McCurdy admitted all he knew of Shelton's death was what he had read in the newspapers.

The Commerce man, an ex-convict, was being held here awaiting trial on several forgery counts.

Mexico To Lift Some Import Restrictions

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27. (AP)—Import restrictions for border towns will be relaxed shortly but with lots of stumbling blocks in the way.

President Miguel Aleman in an order published Oct. 23 authorized the treasury to permit certain imports of "refrigerators and household furniture" in border customs ports. All these were prohibited by the July 11, 1947, embargo issued to halt the flow of dollars from Mexico.

Under the new order, which the treasury may issue soon, individuals may bring in refrigerators and household furniture by paying customs duty in advance and with considerable red tape.

The individual must make written application to the customs administrator giving details of the articles desired, telling where they are for their own use and will not be moved outside that town.

If the request is approved and the articles brought in an inspector must visit the house to see them in use and the administrator must report monthly to the customs department of the treasury here, certifying to the facts in all such cases.

Although nothing is said officially about smuggling, officials here have said that some of the prohibited articles are being brought across the border. The treasury decided to make smuggling less profitable by enabling people to get some of the prohibited articles honestly and at fair prices rather than patronize a black market. At the same time the government would get some revenue from a traffic it could not stop entirely.

Communist Party Is Claimed Active In Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27. (INS)—A charge that the Communist party has a stronghold in Los Angeles "second only to New York City," was made today by Mayor Fletcher Bowron.

"The Communists are following a definite pattern in Los Angeles by attacking law enforcement agencies and hampering their work. They are particularly hard at work trying to embarrass the police department."
