BIG BUCK—Largest buck deer to be checked into the local locker plant this year was bagged last week by Fred Jaggars, who made the kill in Bosque County. The buck had six points and field dressed at 123 pounds. (Reed Photo)

Deer Kills Slowed During Past Week in Area

Local deer hunters have slowed considerably compared to the past two weeks, but a few bucks are still being brought to the local locker plant.

Pete Norwood killed a 7-point, 95-pound buck last Thursday, after five years or more of hunting. Pete was rather proud of the animal since he was next to the last one in his party to kill game. Wednesday of this week, Pete filled his limit of two bucks when he brought down a 108-pound, 8-point buck in Bosque County.

Roy French brought home a four-point buck from San Saba County last week end. He had hunted with his son, Charles, and son-in-law, Jess Askey, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Louis Chaney, Van Hooper, Shelby Hooper, Vernon Hooper of Wichita Falls, and "party" returned Sunday from a four-day hunt near Cherry Springs. Only Vernon was able to bring down his deer. The "party" reported getting a shot but missed.

Lusk Randalls, who hunted the first few days of the season at their lease near Marble Falls without any luck, "accidentally" stumbled onto a buck at his ranch near Fairy while out looking over the place last Sunday. The deer had three points.

Other hunters who have been trekking back and forth to the woods constantly, still report no luck.

Monroe-Olivier Team In Comedy "The Prince and the Showgirl" Sunday & Monday at the Hico

Laurence Olivier has played rogues and kings, thieves and lovers... he has waged wars, wooed beautiful women and murdered his way to a throne... but he has never before been made love to by the one and only Marilyn Monroe. This comes to pass in Warner Bros' technicolor presentation, "The Prince and the Showgirl," starring Marilyn Monroe and Laurence Olivier.

The film plays Sunday and Monday at the Hico Theatre.

Directed by Oliver "The Prince and the Showgirl" tells the story of an American showgirl visiting London at the time of the coronation who meets and falls in love with a roving-eyed prince, played by Olivier. The entire action of the story takes place within two nights and a day. Miss Monroe, as Elsie Marina, the showgirl, is invited to a private supper party at the prince's private Embassy apartment, and the resulting scenes are said to be among the funniest ever captured for the screen.

Laurence Olivier, as the stuffy prince, brings to the screen a role he created on the London stage opposite his wife, Vivien Leigh. The varying moods and characterizations of the Prince's rejuvenation from a stuffy, over-political, under-loved monarch, to a giddy, love-happy, champagne-silly Prince is an acting tour-de-force. His theatrical accomplishments could very easily fill the pages of a large book and the praises he has reaped several volumes more. He is respected in all quarters as an artist of the finest taste. This taste shines through throughout "The Prince and the Showgirl," and perhaps especially the Coronation ball, one of the freshest approaches to ballroom dancing ever seen.

It has been said that Olivier and Monroe are the new Bogart and Bacall, Boyer and Bergman. They are being called the happiest couple in the happiest comedy of the year. Dame Sybil Thorndike, the Grand Dame of the British stage co-stars in the film. Richard Wattis, Jerome Spenser, Esmond Knight and Paul Hardwick also star.

Marilyn is unquestionably the world's most beloved blonde. The actress-turned-producer has proven this in her own United States and in her travels to the Orient and again in her visit to England where she filmed "The Prince and the Showgirl."

The curvaceous presence of Miss Monroe in London reportedly created the biggest stir since the blitz. The beautiful wife of playwright Arthur Miller was given the distinction of being guarded from her over-zealous fans by 30 men of the 1st Battalion of the Queen's own Irish Guards, Britain's most colorful and highly-regarded soldiers. The guards helped to keep away the many anxious fans but they couldn't keep away the mails. Bundles of requests arrived daily. They varied in degree from judging a dog show to tea with a count, to attending balls and dances and requests for endorsements for vitamin pills, barbells and commercial ovens.

Miss Mamie Shaw Wed In Saturday Ceremony At Carlton Church

Miss Mamie R. Shaw, daughter of Mrs. S. B. Shaw of Carlton, became the bride of Preston Wisely of Paris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wisely of Sumner, Saturday evening, November 23, at 5:00 o'clock in the Carlton Baptist Church. Rev. John Foster, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated by the florist, Mrs. Dunn. She used white gladioli, white mums and fern. The mums were furnished by Mrs. Charley Proffitt of Carlton.

White and silver were the bride's chosen colors. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Carl Bine of Fort Worth. Her dress was pink satin. She wore a short veil and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's father was best man. The bridal gown was of white satin with net and nylon trim. Her waist length veil of net fell from a silver crown with pearls, and she carried a white Bible adorned with pearls and topped with white carnations. Her long gloves and slippers of white were trimmed in silver. Her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and ear screws.

Ushers were Royce Turney and Glenn Thompson.

The mother of the bride wore a frock of gray and a white carnation corsage. The mother of the groom wore a blue suit with a white carnation corsage.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by Miss Linda Harbour. She wore a dress of blue satin with a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Dan Kunkel Jr. sang "Because." Her dress was of blue satin and her corsage was white carnations. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Following the re-

"IT WAS A NICE TRY, BUT ..." seems to sum up public opinion about competitive cars attempting to equal the styling and features of the Swept-Wing 58. They tried to get as low, but had to lower the roof to do it. (Less headroom, same high, boxy, cooped-up look.) Their windshields got smaller, while ours got bigger. Most of them still don't have Total-Contact Brakes to assure smooth, even, safe stops when needed. Nor do they offer push-button TorqueFlite, the proven automatic transmission, and Constant-Confidence power steering that works full time—not part time as some other systems do. And Dodge no-sway, no-dip Torsion-Aire is standard equipment. (Bus-type air springs offered by some cars cost well over $100.00 extra.) So compare all the 1958 models with Dodge. We think you'll agree: Other cars are catching on, but they can't catch up.

HHS ANNUALS

The selling of Annuals and advertising space in the Annuals has begun. The Annual Staff has reported that payments have been coming in nicely.

We realize that the businessmen in Hico get tired of handing out their money for ads in our Annuals but we can't have one without their support. Bear with us and we promise to have a good advertisement section on our Annual this year.

SEEN' WHAT'S DOIN'

The Methodist Sunday School class under Mrs. Cynthia Goultly's supervision, were treated to a party at her home last Monday night. Everyone had a good time until they looked at their socks. Isn't that right, Kay?

The Youth Center has gained in its popularity. A large bunch has regularly attended its openings and all are enjoying themselves.

The holidays were enjoyed by all because everyone got to miss some school, and that makes everyone happy. There were some good television programs during the two-day leave including the Texas and Texas A & M football game.

By the way, has anybody seen some snowball hoodlums lately?

GUEST SOLIST AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Miss Janette Sowell of Howard Payne College, will be guest solist Sunday morning at services at the First Baptist Church.

Christmas Mail on The Move; Postmaster Urges Cooperation

"The mounting volume of Christmas mail makes it more important than ever for everyone to 'Mail Early for Christmas,'" Postmaster R. B. Jackson stated this week.

The postmaster explained that the Post Office Department would make every effort to move the largest volume of mail in history on time, but public cooperation will be a big factor.

If an even flow of the mail can be achieved, the public will benefit, the Postmaster declared, through better service and less cost.

The postal patron can cooperate in these ways, he explained. Mail early in the month and early in the day. Wrap packages securely with sturdy materials. Address plainly and completely, using zone numbers for addresses in larger cities. Always include your return address. Mail Christmas cards now.

The postmaster recommended sending cards with first class postage for preferential handling and where forwarding is desired. Christmas cards larger than 9"x12" or smaller than 2 1/4"x4" must carry first class postage because they require hand cancelling.

Mr. Jackson reminded local postal patrons that the windows of the local office would be open all day on Saturday, December 14 and December 21.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our friends for their kindness during the time of sadness at the death of our loved one. We are especially thankful to everyone who sent flowers, the good food, and for all the comforting words. May God bless everyone of you.

The Family of Mrs. Laura Clark.

The only difference was in the supplement.

One lot was fed cottonseed oil meal, the other was fed Purina Steer Fatena with stilbestrol.

After 110 days on feed, the Purina-fed steers averaged 2.61 pounds daily gain. But, most important, the Purina-fed steers returned $9.61 more, per steer, than the other group.

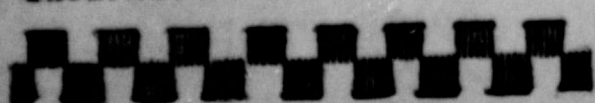

This is solid proof that a well-balanced supplement, like Purina Steer Fatena, produces fast, low-cost gains.

Ask us for the facts on Steer Fatena... then watch the fast gains when you put your cattle on Purina Steer Fatena.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SATURDAY FOR MRS. ABEL

A pall of sadness fell over this and surrounding communities late last Friday and early Saturday as news was circulated of the passing of a dear friend and neighbor, Mrs. John Abel. It came as a shock to some, who had not learned she had been returned to the hospital late Thanksgiving afternoon. Mrs. Abel had been ill of a heart ailment for several months and had spent a week or more at the Hico Hospital during the summer, returning at intervals for a physical examination. She suddenly became quite ill late Thursday. Her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant who live nearby, went over to take them some Thanksgiving supper and finding her very ill, rushed her to the hospital.

Mr. Abel had wanted to go for help, but she did not want him to leave her. The nearest home is three-quarters of a mile away and he would have had to walk, since he doesn't drive his car and there are no telephones in that vicinity. She passed away Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Abel had been burdened almost her entire span of marriage by an illness of the blood stream in her legs. She bore her affliction with much patient, enjoying the pleasures and activities of life as best she could. Mrs. Abel was a person of many friends, as she had lived here most or all of her entire life. She had been a dear friend of this writer for more than 50 years. She always wore a smile and will be greatly missed by all for she really was a true friend and neighbor. She was a dear lover of sacred singing and she and her husband have been regular attendants at the Tri-County and Woods Singing Conventions at Stephenville when possible for them to go.

Mrs. Abel was born January 10, 1891 to the late Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arrant. She was married to Mr. Abel in February of 1908. To this union one son and one daughter was born, namely Louis Abel of Grand Prairie and Mrs. Beatrice Clark of near Fairy.

She is survived by her husband, son and daughter; three grandchildren, Mrs. Dean Barnett of Amarillo, Milton and O. J. Clark of Grand Prairie; two brothers, Ted and Leslie Arrant of near Fairy; two sisters, Mrs. Ola Ammons of Stephenville and Mrs. Jet- tie Shephard of Big Spring; and a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives who deeply mourn her passing.

Mrs. Abel united with the Agee Baptist Church in 1908 and later moved her membership to the Fairy Baptist Church, where funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. Martin Duvall, pastor, and Rev. Richard Yancy of Fort Worth officiating. A mixed choir, with Audie Clark as director, conducted the singing. The floral offering was very beautiful.

Burial was in the Fairy Cemetery. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the beloved husband, daughter and son in the passing of one so dear. May God bless and comfort them in this dark time of sorrow.

Oh that sweet smile she wore, we'll never forget. Though she's gone from us, we can see it yet. Those kind words that she hath spoken. Shall ever be in our memory a token.

For we learned to love her, while with us here. She has gone to that home above. Where God will wipe away all tears. In the home that has been broken, she was the token.

That beckoned afar like a bright shiny star. Reunited at last our sorrows all past.

Hand in hand in a better land, We will be a glorified band. Jesus our Saviour and Friend, Guide, direct to the end, That we may safely cross the shoal To the hearts treasured goal.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Clark, formerly of Carlton, but who had made her home with two daughters in Cleburne for the past several years. She had been ill for several years, having suffered a stroke from which she never recovered. She was the mother of Mrs. L. D. Sow- ell, who formerly resided on the Frank Driver place.

Death has claimed several of our friends and acquaintances since our last writing.

We were very sorry to learn of the untimely death of Mr. Biri Havens of Clairette. Mr. Havens had delivered gas to our home and we had known him for a number of years. We would have liked so much to have attended his funeral but were unable to do so. Our deepest sympathy is extended to his family and other relatives.

We received a phone call from Mrs. Bertha Barbee at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hardy Parker of Hico that their brother-in-law, Tom Barnett of Hico had passed away at Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett had been visiting with their children in Fort Worth the past several months since his failing health. Mrs. Barnett is the former Miss Lottie Patterson of near Hico, cousin of our deceased husband, J. O. Richardson, and Mrs. T. L. Betts, Mrs. J. E. Blake- ley and Walter Porterfield, all of Fairy. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family and other relatives.

Funeral services for Mr. Natn Massingill of the Rock House com- munity near Hamilton were held in Hamilton last Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Burial was in the Littleville Cemetery. Mr. Massingill was the father of Arland and Albert Massingill of near Fairy. We understand Albert had been living with his parents since his father's failing health.

We were sorry to learn of the passing of Tennie Craig. He attend- ed Duffau school during the time we attended there. Our sympathy is extended to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allison enjoyed a Thanksgiving Day visit from the following children and families: Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pitt- man and Karon, all of Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hartgraves of Bish- oppy Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sell- heimer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Texie Allison of Fort Worth; Waynand Allison of Baytown; Mr. and Mrs. George Stringer and family of Goldsmith; Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Seago and Scherry of Waco; and Mr. John Chapman of Hewett.

All enjoyed a bountiful feast of delicious food, and the meeting and association of relatives. The All- sion reunion is held annually on Thanksgiving Day. One daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pat- terson and children of Dallas and one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Waynand Allison and two children were un- able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and daughter, Mrs. Pittman and baby visited a short while Sunday in the home of her mother and sister, the writer and husband and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Little of Oklahoma City visited from Thurs- day until Saturday with his moth- er, Mrs. Brittle Little. They vis- ited Thanksgiving Day in the home of her sister, Mrs. Willie Baldwin of Hico where they were joined by all of her brothers and sisters for a family reunion. In the afternoon they attended the funeral of Mr. Biri Havens of Clairette, a friend and long time acquaintance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellers and family of Hamilton visited Sunday afternoon in the home of his broth- er, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover left last Sunday week for Lubbock where they expected to go by train to Daly City, Calif. for a visit in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Hoover and children. They are expected to return home early this week.

The writer attended singing Sun- day afternoon at the Evergreen Baptist Church, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sumnerford from Hamilton. While in Hamilton we visited with Mrs. Minnie McCarty, Mrs. Alford and Mrs. Hoover at the rest home. Sorry to report Mrs. McCarty ill of a rash on her arm, but is some better.

We enjoyed fair weather during the week end. However the cool front which came in Friday drop- ped temperatures, with ice in evi- dence and a heavy frost Saturday night.

The Winfred Gardners took ad- vantage of the weather and butch- ered a hog. Mr. Leslie New assisted them.

The ladies of the Auxiliary Club of the Episcopal Church of Ham- ilton honored Mrs. Leon Springer with a pink and blue shower one day last week. The Springer fam- ily attend the Hamilton Church.

We forgot to mention last week that Lynn King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl King, had the misfortune of getting a front tooth knocked out in the Vernon football game last Saturday night week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Haire of Fort Worth visited a while late Sunday in the home of the writer and husband. Mr. Haire had spent several days the past week on the coast fishing and brought us some for the freezer.

Mrs. Nettie Parks moved to Hico Monday. It was a sad scene to this scribe to see her driving along be- hind the household things being conveyed in pickup trucks and trailers, leaving her farm home where she and her husband had resided for many years. It will be remembered that her husband, Ber- nice Parks passed away last Feb- ruary. Mrs. Parks purchased the Eugene Sengo residence near the Florist. The Kay brothers and their mother will move to the Parks farm. Mrs. Parks had no children and no telephone service available.

We feel she has made a wise de- cision and our best wishes go along with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sills and daughter, Jo Ann of Whitney at- tended church here Sunday at the Church of Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Sills were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rich- ardson. Jo Ann visited in the J. T. Jackson home with Gwen. In the afternoon the Sills visited at Hico with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brunson. Mrs. Sills is taking a course in nursing at the Meri- dian hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wood, Ron- nie and Charles spent Saturday af- ternoon in Wichita Falls with Mrs. J. W. Hastings, a former Fairy resident. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were en route to the Fairy-Vernon foot- ball game.

W. E. Goynne of De Sota is a

Fairy visitor at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanes, Martha and Mike spent last Sun- day with his mother, Mrs. H. H. Hanes of Jonesboro. All of the Hanes children were present, the occasion being in honor of the birthday of Mr. Hanes, which was Nov. 21, and a brother of Dallas, which was Nov. 30. The elder Mr. Hanes accompanied the Hanes home and visited until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family were Thanksgiving Day dinner guests of her mother, the writer and husband.
