Boys 12 and 6 Years Old Break Into Store

Their Mother Says They are Often Hungry and Have Stolen Food—Older Boy Already Under Sentence to Juvenile Training School

Two boys, one aged twelve and the other his six-year-old brother are in the custody of the officers charged with breaking into Patterson's 10th street grocery last night and taking tobacco, candy, pencils, knives and other articles to the value of about ten dollars.

The burglary was committed at about 12:30 o'clock last night. The store was entered through a rear window. The prints of small bare feet in the dust under the window and dusty footprints on the floor of the store told that boys had been there. The two that were later taken into custody were suspected and when confronted by the officers confessed and led the officers to a grassy plot on Indiana avenue where the stolen goods were found hidden under the grass.

Both boys were already under the custody of the juvenile court and had been charged with theft on several different occasions.

Their father works sometimes as a bar tender, but has lately been intoxicated whenever he secured enough money to buy drinks. The mother has taken in washing and has done whatever work she could to provide for her children but says they have often gone hungry. When they are hungry, she says, her children have stolen things to eat and have broken into stores. The older of the two boys was recently sentenced to the Training School for Juveniles at Gatesville, sent once having been suspended under good behavior.

TAFT JOLLIES NEW YORK FARMERS

He Tells Ruralists at State Fair They Have Great Opportunity For Advancement.

By Associated Press. Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 16.—President Taft arrived here early today on his long westward trip. It is believed he will withhold his speeches on important policies of his administration until he reaches the West.

At the State Fair he discussed the opportunities of farmers for progress. He said the government was spending fifteen million dollars annually in maintaining the department of agriculture and while savings might be made by the more economic conduct of this department, nevertheless, "I am confident from looking into the future that an increase in appropriations each year for that department may be and ought to be in the interest of the government." He said new farming methods must be adopted within the next hundred years if this is to remain a self-sustaining country. He said it is proposed that trained agriculturists be paid by the county to be placed in every county in every state to make actual experiments on various farms.

1 DIES, 72 MADE ILL; SAILORS EAT CHICKEN

Cold Storage Tainted Meat On Battleship Michigan Causes Typhoid Poisoning.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 16.—Tainted chicken that had been in cold storage was responsible for the illness of seventy-one sailors and the death of another, William H. Starkweather, on board the battleship Michigan on the Southern drill grounds, according to Capt. Usher, when his ship docked at the Charleston Navy Yard today.

According to the story told by the officers and members of the crew, on Sunday, Sept. 3, the crew had chicken for dinner. This chicken it was stated had been bought fresh and had been placed in a refrigerator until cooked on that day.

Shortly after the dinner had been eaten some of the men began to complain of sickness and the number increased until there were seventy-two men in the sick bay, all suffering from what the ship's surgeon diagnosed as typhoid poisoning. The men were very ill and heroic measures were resorted to, but despite their efforts, on last Saturday William H. Starkweather, whose home was at Franklin Springs, N. Y., died.

The trip was made in a special car over the Northwestern, and a most enjoyable time was had by the entire party. The Wichita Falls team was awarded the $75.00 prize offered for the best drilled M. W. A. team, scoring 98 points out of a possible 100. The party was most royally entertained by the citizens of Grandfield throughout the day, and were treated to an elegant oyster supper before leaving for home on the ten thirty train last night.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 16.—Copy of a mortgage given by the Wichita Falls & Northwestern Railroad Company to secure a loan of $10,000,000 was filed with the Secretary of State yesterday. The issue is made to the United States Mortgage and Trust Company and Calvert Brewer of New York, payable in 1914, and to bear 5 per cent. The issue covers extensions of the line through Oklahoma.

GLASS MEN COMING HERE NEXT WEEK

Secretary Day this afternoon is in receipt of a letter from the Chanute Window Glass Company, in answer to a telegram of inquiry, to the effect that the Eastern stockholders of the company, accompanied by Mr. Bostock and possibly Mr. Hudson, will be in Wichita Falls by the 20th instant to finally close up the matter of the removal of the concern to this city.

The officers of the company have experienced considerable difficulty in getting the stockholders together as some of them live in Canada and others in Eastern States. At last all of them have been rounded up and it is expected that arrangements for the removal of the plant to this city can now be finally closed.

Cotton Pickers Needed.

Waco, Texas, Sept. 16.—McLennan county farmers are in sore straits due to a scarcity of cotton pickers. The staple is ready to be gathered, but a lack of help has resulted in serious conditions. Efforts are being made to secure laborers from other counties and officers are keeping a close watch for idle negroes on the streets, sending them to the fields as rapidly as possible.

New York, Sept. 16.—Having been requested by a citizen of Arkansas to find the latter a wife, Mayor Gaynor today replied to the correspondent and informed him that any woman is too good to wed any man.

"BILL" BALLEW KILLED AT ARDMORE

FORMER WICHITA FALLS RESIDENT SHOT BY COUNTY ATTORNEY IN COURT HOUSE.

WAS INSTANTLY KILLED

Dead Man Killed Farmer Here in 1893 and Killed Irb Foshee at Ardmore in 1907.

Special to the Times. Ardmore, Okla., Sept. 16.—James H. Mathers, county attorney who yesterday shot and killed "Bill" Ballew, a notorious character, in the court house in Mathers' office, will be given a trial here Monday in the district court. He will waive an examining trial and the case will go to trial Monday before District Judge Stilwell Russell, who will appoint a special prosecutor. It is generally believed here that Mathers acted in self-defense and that he will be acquitted as soon as tried. Mathers still refuses to make any statement regarding the tragedy.

Bill Ballew, the man killed at Ardmore yesterday, was a well known character in Wichita Falls a dozen years ago and had a reputation of being a bad man, which he lived up to after he went to Oklahoma.

Ballew shot and killed a man named Nolly here in 1893. The shooting took place in the country and the only witness was Nolly's little son. Ballew plead self-defense and was finally acquitted. Later he was indicted for stealing live stock but got out of that trouble also. About 1895 Ballew went to Ardmore, Okla., where in 1907 he shot down Irb Foshee, a distant relative of John Foshee of this city.

Although the killing of Foshee was generally believed to have been a cold-blooded murder, Ballew was never convicted. A few years later a brother of Irb Foshee's had a gun duel on the streets of Ardmore with Ballew in which young Foshee accidentally killed a bystander. A score of shots took effect in Ballew's body, but he survived.

Ballew is remembered here as a quiet man who had little to say, but who was ready to shoot on the least provocation. Yesterday, however, he met a man who was too quick for him.

It seems that Ballew had been worrying the county attorney for sometime over matters connected with the court. Yesterday morning Ballew is said to have told several persons that he would kill Mathers before the clock struck twelve. These reports had come to Mathers, so when Ballew asked him to step into a consulting room adjoining the court room the county attorney was ready. Once Mathers stepped into the room Ballew started to turn the lock, instantly Mathers sent two shots from a 45 Colts, crashing through his vital parts.

Bowie, Texas, Sept. 16.—At the Grand Theatre last night before a large audience with many ladies, Prof. J. B. Parish, a school teacher of Clay county, won a wrestling match from Dan Kelly of Dodge City, Kan. Kelly is a professional. Parish won the first fall in twenty minutes with a hammer and scissor lock and secured the second fall in four minutes with a scissor lock on head. A challenge has been issued by F. L. Holliday of Henrietta, who is managing Parish, for Parish to wrestle any man in the State of Texas under 170 pounds catch-as-catch-can style, on neutral grounds. Manager Stewart of the Grand Theatre will hang up a purse of $300 and 50 per cent of gate receipts.

Johnson, Ball, Rankin, Vaughan, and Gambrell Speak at the Morning Session.

BULLETIN—Dallas.—The pro sub committee recommends no contest in the court, but another contest before the people. The report was adopted.

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, Sept. 16.—Nearly every prominent prohibitionist in the recent election was present when the statewide executive committee met here this morning. During the morning many pros had been at work to insure harmony throughout today conferences as it had been reported the supporters respectively of Ball and Campbell, for United States Senatorship might clash.

WILEY CASE MAY HAVE SEVUEL VERY SHORNLV

Taft intimates He Or Congress Will Have More Work to Do.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Half a job well done, optimists the view here of President Taft's letter exonerating Dr. Wiley, the government's pure food expert. The other half of the job, of which there is an intimation in the President's letter that it also will be well done, is the removal of the McCabe Dunlap cabal, whose action to prevent effort or enforcement of the food act culminated in this attempt to bring about the removal of Dr. Wiley and his two assistants Drs. Kebler and Bigelow, who have been loyal to Dr. Wiley's efforts in behalf of the public.

Wickersham is Excused.

The letter completely exonerates Dr. Wiley and excuses Attorney General Wickersham on the ground that the complete record was not before him when he made his findings; that conditional punishment should be meted out to Dr. Wiley, and his associates. Not a word is said about Secretary Wilson, the head of the department.

As for Dr. Bigelow and Dr. Kebler, the charge of conspiracy to evade the law so as to permit the employment of such a high authority as Dr. Rusby is found to be well established, for they are booked for a reprimand—that reprimand, however, is softened in advice by the President that their acts grew out of over-zealousness in the interest of the service.

Shake Up Evidence.

It will appear that the present intention is to clean out of the Department of Agriculture the men who stand in the way of effective enforcement of the pure food law. In fact, the great victory for the public in the President's letter aside from the moral effect of the exoneration of Dr. Wiley, is that Mr. Taft's declaration of the enforcement of pure food laws should not be hampered by salary limitations in the enforcement of the statutes; which it is of the highest importance to enforce, and in respect to which the interests opposed to its enforcement are likely to have all the money at their command to serve their ends.

McCabe and Dunlap.

President Taft's action, should it not be followed by the elimination of Solicitor McCabe and Chief Chemist Dunlap, leaves the situation in excellent shape for action by charges in December. Opportunity for such action will come when the house committees which investigated this affair makes its report, and again it will come when the committee on agriculture makes up the agricultural appropriation bill in which Solicitor McCabe last time wrote the "joker" that took from Dr. Wiley practically all of the power that the pure food act conferred upon him to enforce that statute.

Election in Navarro.

Corpusaca, Texas, Sept. 16.—Navarro county is voting on local option today. Both sides are confident. The early vote was heavy.

JOHNSON AGAINST PROHI CONVENTION

SESSION IS HARMONIOUS

Johnson, Ball, Rankin, Vaughan, and Gambrell Speak at the Morning Session.

BULLETIN—Dallas.—The pro sub committee recommends no contest in the court, but another contest before the people. The report was adopted.

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, Sept. 16.—Nearly every prominent prohibitionist in the recent election was present when the statewide executive committee met here this morning. During the morning many pros had been at work to insure harmony throughout today conferences as it had been reported the supporters respectively of Ball and Campbell, for United States Senatorship might clash.

The presentation of the report of the statewide organization on the advisability of contesting in the courts was postponed until the afternoon session. Cone Johnson, Thomas Ball, George C. Rankin, Horace Vaughan and Dr. J. B. Gambrell made speeches at the morning session, declaring against the nomination of State or United States candidates today. Vaughan suggested a convention this fall for such nominations in which a straight prohibition ticket could be prepared. Johnson objected to any ticket which might bar the antis from voting with the pros.

PREPARES INFORMATION FOR ATTY GENERAL

At the request of Attorney General Lightfoot, District Clerk Eugene Brock, of Tarrant county is now preparing a report that will contain a storehouse of information relating to the trial of criminal cases in the three district courts. Among other things the report will show that since Aug. 1, 1910, 329 indictments have been returned on felony charges by the grand jury. The number of indictments found for misdemeanors will total 185.

The report will show how many of the cases have been tried, as well as the disposition of each case that has been before a district judge. In the event that the defendant has been acquitted of the charge the report will show a discharge; if the indictment has been quashed at the order of the county attorney that will also be noted.

At the end of the year the attorney general intends to publish statistics showing how many indictments were returned in Texas between Aug. 1, 1910, and Aug. 1, 1911, together with the number of convictions, acquittals or cases dismissed.

To prepare the report it will be necessary for District Clerk Brock to examine the criminal dockets of the three district court judges. Mr. Brock is being aided in the work by Deputy Clerk Ernest Walker.

Daughter Tells of Threats.

Brownwood, Texas, Sept. 16.—Viola the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Salie Brown, who was murdered here Saturday night, yesterday swore in the examining trial of the husband, George Brown, that she had heard Brown threaten to kill her mother. Dr. Tottenham, the first physician to examine the murdered woman after the tragedy, testified that Brown's statement to the effect that his wife sat up in bed and said she was hurt was an impossible story, because the blow struck had instantly rendered her incapable of that act. The examining trial will consume several days.

Preacher Drowned While Preparing for a Baptism

Making Soundings for a Suitable Place for Baptising. Baptist Preacher at Vera Gets Beyond His Depth and Loses Life

While wading over a tank near Vera in Knox county late yesterday afternoon, taking soundings to locate a suitable place for a baptising service Sunday, a young Baptist minister got beyond his depth and was drowned before he could be rescued. Details of the drowning could not be learned here this afternoon, owing to the distance to Vera.

The body was shipped through here at noon today for Fort Worth and the casket bore the name of Rev. W. C. McCormack.

Local Baptist ministers do not know of any Baptist preacher of that name.

ARMED BAND SEEN NEAR CUIDAD JAUREZ

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 16.—At 2:30 o'clock this morning about a hundred Maderistas crossed the river near the smelter and advanced on the western outskirts of Ciudad Juarez, with the apparent intention of attacking. They are heavily armed and their intention is believed to be to destroy the railroad tracks to prevent more troops arriving in Juarez this morning from Chihuahua. It is also reported that the real purpose of the mysterious move is an advance on the interior of Chihuahua where Maderista forces are reported organizing other liberals. They are reported to have crossed the line near Columbus, New Mexico, 60 miles west.

TO START CANVASS OF ELECTION RETURNS

Augusta, Me., Sept. 16.—Governor Plaisted has called a special meeting of the Governor and Council to be held next Monday, when the official returns from Monday's election will be opened and canvassed.

It may be as late as December 1, according to the provisions of the law in regard to constitutional amendments, before the official finding may be announced, but Governor Plaisted made it plain last night that there will be no unnecessary delay in determining just how Maine has voted on the prohibition amendment.

The figures of Secretary of State Davis were completed last night, and he announced that they showed a majority for repeal of 136.

750,000 PUPILS IN NEW YORK SCHOOLS

ESTIMATED THAT FULLY 70,000 CHILDREN WILL BE COMPELLED TO BE ON PART TIME.

GUN LAW COMPLICATIONS

Metropolis is to have school for Detectives—New Member of Munchausen Club.

New York, Sept. 16.—Another school year has begun for the 750,000 school-children of Greater New York and several hundred thousand mothers in the great city are breathing easier. It is estimated that more than 20,000 new pupils have been registered this year, and as the seating capacity of the schools has been increased by only 15,000 since the close of last year, it is estimated that at the beginning of the present school year fully 70,000 children will be compelled to be on part time. This is a sad state of affairs and the Board of Education will have to make heroic efforts to increase the school facilities, so as to provide adequate room for the constantly growing army of children.

The new gun law of which "Tim" Sullivan is the father, promises to cause a great deal of trouble and endless complications. Some law experts are of the opinion that the law which were already on the statute book before the Sullivan law was enacted were amply sufficient to protect the community if the authorities had only made a determined effort to enforce them. They also believe that the new law overshoots the mark and contains provisions which make it constitutionally extremely doubtful. Other experts, among them several judges, maintain that the law is perfectly constitutional and requires no additions or amendments. A test case has already been begun and the decision is awaited with a great deal of interest. In the meantime neither the citizens nor the police authorities know exactly what to do and what their rights and duties are under this radical new law.

The police authorities are highly elated over the arrest of Giuseppe Costabile, who was caught with a bomb ready for business in his possession and who is believed to be the head of the large band of terrorists and black mailers which has committed numberless crimes in this city during the last five years, under the name of the Black Hand. Whether the man is really the chief of the band remains to be proved, but this arrest seems to have had a wholesome effect upon the blackmailing fraternity of this city. Several of the alleged members of Costabile's gang have fled in great haste and others are hiding some where in the city, ready to skip at the first sign of danger. In the meantime the operations of the Black Hand have been temporarily suspended and the Italian residents of New York feel greatly encouraged.

New York is to have a school for detectives, fashioned after the system which has been in vogue in Paris and London for a number of years. Old fashioned people may consider a school for detectives a trifle odd, but why should not there be such an institution? There are schools of journalism, schools of domestic science and other similar institutions and one may even learn painting or music by the correspondence method; then, why not a school for detectives? The plan has not matured sufficiently in its details and it is not yet known whether the school will award diplomas and degrees or not. The time may yet come when it will be impossible to tell whether the D. D. behind a man's name stands for doctor of divinity or doctor of detection.

There was considerable excitement on Forty-second street the other day. Several days ago the owners of sidewalk fruitstands and the business houses along that street had been warned that the Bureau of Incumbrances of the city would enforce the law against encroaching upon the sidewalks by removing all signs, show cases and stands obstructing the sidewalk of that thoroughfare. Conditions were always bad on that street but had become unendurable when the sidewalks were made narrower by the recent widening of the road part. Apparently no attention was paid to the warning and when the crews sent out by the Bureau of Incumbrances reached Forty-second street they found considerable work to do. Fruit stands were demolished, electric and other signs taken off and confiscated and scores of show cases emptied of their contents and loaded upon wagons to be taken to the corporation yards. Thousands of people gathered in Forty-second street to watch the work of the wreckers and the police

THE NEWS FORECAST FOR COMING WEEK

DURING WEEK PRESIDENT WILL TRAVEL FROM DETROIT TO ST. LOUIS.

RECIPROCITY STRUGGLE

Closing Week of Great Contest Opens in Canada on Monday—Foot Ball Season Opens Saturday

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—President Taft plans to spend the first four days of the week in Michigan speaking in Detroit, Pontiac, Bay City, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette and from that city will go to St. Louis, where he will remain over Sunday.

In Canada the forces for and against the proposed reciprocity pact with the United States will enter on the closing week of the campaign Monday. Activity on both sides will be at the high water mark for the remainder of the struggle, which will end with the election on Thursday.

Of interest to society on both sides of the Atlantic will be the wedding of Miss Margaret Rutherford, daughter of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, and Ogden L. Mills, son of Ogden Mills of New York, and nephew of Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid. The wedding is to take place Wednesday at the chateau of the bride's mother in Normandy.

The football season of 1911, which is expected to be one of the most important in the history of the gridiron game, will be ushered in Saturday among the prominent eleven which will be seen in action on that day in Pennsylvania, the Carlisle Indians, Virginia, Lafayette, Holy Cross, Bates Western Reserve, University of Maine and Ohio Wesleyan.

Representatives of Southern exchange, commercial organizations, bankers and others interested in the handling of cotton will meet in conference in New Orleans Monday to consider the phases of the Liverpool bill of lading plan and to devise measures for the protection of the mutual interests of those engaged in handling and financing the Southern cotton crop.

Much interest is being manifested in the International Municipal Congress and Exposition, which is to open in Chicago Monday and continue until the end of September. It is believed that through this municipal exposition, making possible comparisons between various communities with reference to their systems of government, their notable accomplishments of the past and their plans for the future, there will be created a spirit of rivalry and civic pride that will do much for the advancement of municipal betterment in America.

Other important gatherings of the week will include the annual communication of the sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Indianapolis; the annual convention of the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents, at St. Paul; and the annual meeting of the International Association of Fire Engineers, at Milwaukee.

were kept busy maintaining order.

The Cedar Grove correspondent of a prominent New York daily is the latest aspirant for honorary membership in the Munchausen Club. The other day he sent to his paper a neat little story which deserves a place of honor in the realm of journalistic fiction. According to this yarn a Mr. Amos Kidder—that name was an inspiration—who is a dealer in chickens at Speakertown, N. J., was dry-docking some broilers for the New York market the other day, when a brilliant idea came to him. Without delay he proceeded to test this idea as to its practicability. He started the vacuum cleaner, which he had bought for his wife a few days before and taking up one of the broilers, began to rub the nozzle of the cleaner over it. The effect was marvelous. The suction removed the feathers so thoroughly that the singeing of the usually remaining down could be dispensed with. Then another brilliant idea struck Mr. Kidder. He tied a pillow case to the receiving end of the vacuum cleaner's tube and continued his feather-sucking operation. In a few minutes the pillow case was filled with feathers and all that was left to be done was to sew up the opening. Who can beat that?

Regular patrons of the Brooklyn bridge trains have been wondering lately at the large number of storky and invalid men gathered upon the platforms, waiting to ride to Brooklyn. SPUR FARM LANDS

A wonderful new farming country of rich valleys and uplands is being opened to actual home-seekers in the upper Brazos country, at prices from $12 to $18 per acre, one-fifth down, balance distributed over six years, payable on or before maturity. These lands produce as heavily and as reliably as high priced lands of Central and East Texas. No boll weevil, no hog cholera. Great cotton and feed crops are maturing this year—a bale to the acre will not be unusual. Several last year's purchasers will pay out their lands in full from this year's cotton crop. This is YOUR chance for a home in a reliable, productive country. Buy direct from us as owners. Considering price and production in a wide range of farm crops, there is no equal chance in agricultural Texas. Railroads through lands, thriving towns, fine healthful climate, altitude 2300 feet, good schools, good churches, good neighbors. We earnestly invite inspection of the wonderful yield while crops are yet in the field & large percentage of those who investigate are buying. Secure your home before prices advance. Economic Experts Figure On Cost of Food Stuff

They Say the Mov of Moderate Means Should No Suffer This Winter—Many Comparisons Have Been Made

(Dallas Times-Herald) Householders are asking: "Will this winter see a recurrence of conditions of 1909-1910 when the cost of living reached its apex and declined only after many so-called boycotts against meat and other high priced commodities were declared through out the land?"

To this question economic experts seen here today answer "no." Prices will be higher, they say in some instances above those of last winter but they add that the man who provides his table with plain every-day fare, avoiding fancy brands and near luxuries may await the approach of cold weather without undue anxiety.

It is pointed out that, generally speaking, with the exception of coffee, sugar, potatoes and a few canned vegetables, September began with conditions more favorable to the consumer than was the case a year ago. On September 1, mess pork was quoted at $19 a barrel wholesale, as against $24 the same date in 1910; the wholesale price of ham is a little more than 15 cents a pound as compared with 18 cents in the early fall of last year, western lard is selling at a fraction more than 9 cents as against more than 12 cents in September, 1910, and butter and eggs are both comparatively reasonable and a few cents cheaper retail than in last September.

Flour of good quality is selling at low retail prices, $5.95 a barrel, the same price that prevailed at this time last year, and bacon may be had at some places for 20 cents a pound as against 23 and 25 cents a year ago. The "average family" steak costs about 28 cents a pound as it did last year, though experts say that with all feeding crops short it is not unlikely that beef will go higher as the winter progresses. The cost of poultry will be largely determined by cold storage holdings.

Indications are that the shortage of potatoes is serious, not only in this country, but in Great Britain and Germany. In the fall of last year one could buy good potatoes in the field at 55 cents a bushel; today the prices range from 85 cents to more than a dollar. Canned peas, beans and tomatoes also will be higher, but rice remains cheap and unless there is a marked advance in pork, it is argued that the man of slender means can provide his family without serious strain for his family without serious strain.

Sugar and coffee are phenomenally high, but those who are studying the market predict that decreased consumption which invariably follows a prohibitive advance, will soon restore these two breakfast table necessities to a more normal level.

Number seven standard Rio spot coffee brought 33 5/8 cents a pound wholesale in New York Saturday as against 10 1/2 cents a year ago and the standard grade of granulated sugar was quoted wholesale at 6.07 cents per pound, the highest level since July, 1908. Failure of the European sugar beet crop and poor prospects for Cuba are given as the cause of the abrupt jump in the sugar market.

Many Wichita Falls people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer for no reason in danger when most all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly relieved by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Wichita Falls citizen's recommendation.

C. N. Harrison, 412 Burnett Ave., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "About two years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills when I had trouble with my kidneys, as this remedy had been used in my father's family and had been found to be very reliable. After I took Doan's Kidney Pills a short time, the lameness across my back was removed, together with the other symptoms of kidney complaint. I have had no trouble since."

MUNICIPAL PROBLEMS WILL BE DISCUSSED

Methods and Systems in All Departments of Municipal Government Will Be Discussed.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Official representatives of municipalities in all parts of the United States and Canada and a few representing large cities in several foreign countries are gathering here to attend the International Municipal Congress and Exposition which will open at the Coliseum next Monday. The congress, as its name implies of an international character, is planned upon a large scale and promises to be the largest and most instructive event of this kind ever held in this country. Experts of worldwide fame and known ability in matters pertaining to municipal government will be in attendance at the congress and will deliver addresses on any subjects of vital interest to municipalities generally. This congress is considered the most comprehensive attempt ever made to bring together the most intelligent and capable educators in all lines of municipal endeavor.

As to the exposition of municipal methods and systems, which will be held at the Coliseum during the two weeks of the congress, it is believed that by making possible comparisons between various communities with reference to their systems of government, their notable accomplishments in the past and their plans for the future, it will create a spirit of rivalry and civic pride that will do much for the advancement of municipal reform and betterment.

Many of the large cities of the United States have made special efforts and will be represented by special exhibitions, giving a complete and highly instructive presentation of the organization of each municipality, its system of administration, the scope and arrangement of its working plan, the methods employed to insure the greatest efficiency at the smallest cost and with the minimum of friction; the manner of keeping books and records, of collecting taxes and statistics and scores of other matters of interest to every large or small municipality, be it in the United States, in the Dominion of Canada or in some country across the sea.

The formal opening of the congress and of the exposition will be held next Monday noon at the Congress Hall of the Coliseum. There will be addresses by John M. Ewen, chairman of the congress and of the exposition; John MacVicar, commissioner general of the congress; Harry A. Wheeler, president of the Chicago Association of Commissioners; Mayor Carter H. Harrison of Chicago; Hon. Darius A. Brown, president of the League of American Municipalities and Mayor of Kansas City, Mo.; Hon. William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York City; Hon. John E. Heyburn, Mayor of Philadelphia and Hon. James Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston.

SHORT COTTON CROP IN OKLAHOMA.

The Oklahoman has persistently maintained that the cotton crop in Oklahoma will be short this year and has urged the farmers to hold for higher prices which we believe are bound to come in a few weeks. It has no reason to change its opinion. Talks with planters from various parts of the cotton region of the state fully warrant the expectation of a considerable shortage.

A. W. Roberts of Oklahoma City, who has considerable farming interests in the Washita Valley region, regarded the best cotton country in Oklahoma, has just returned from a summer sojourn at Maysville and gives it as his opinion that the Washita valley will this season average not more than one bale of cotton to six acres. Other farmers in other localities predict a bale of cotton to ten acres. Much will depend upon whether frost comes early or late this fall.

The planters should hold their cotton—Oklahoman.

JUDGE A. W. TERRELL FOR RAMSEY.

The Austin correspondent of the San Antonio Express, quotes Judge A. W. Terrell as follows:

Judge A. W. Terrell came out formally this afternoon for the nomination of Judge Ramsey as a candidate against Governor Colquitt. His interview was given out in the office of Attorney General Lightfoot by State Senator Earl B. Mayfield of Meridian.

In his interview Judge Terrell says: "I will not be in Dallas on the 16th instant, but I hope that friends who will go there to consult will practice the great virtue of self-sacrifice and agree and recommend to the people some one man who can defeat O. B. Colquitt in the primaries. It is best never to underestimate the strength of our adversary, and the man who thinks the whiskey and beer men will not spend another million of money to elect Colquitt deserves a medal of lead. That miserable plurality in nominating will make Colquitt strong and only one Democrat must oppose him. Who should it be?

"If we agree on any one man who has made himself conspicuous on the stump opposing Mr. Bailey, we should make a great mistake, for Mr. Bailey is a champion hater, and would not neglect that opportunity for revenge. I have said as hard things of Mr. Bailey as most men, but I was never so silly as to underestimate his wonderful intellect, or to lose confidence in all men simply because they stood for Bailey.

"I would vote for the Hon. Thomas Ball for governor as quickly as I would for any man, though he is a bosom friend of Bailey. I would like to see General Lightfoot Governor, but he has a great work before him. Texas needs him, and though Colquitt tried to cripple his office, Lightfoot cannot be spared now as Attorney General. We must think now of expediency, and let reason have its perfect way. The great necessity now is to save Texas from another term of Colquittism. Think of it! He is not on speaking terms with the State Comptroller, the Attorney General, or Commissioner of the General Land Office, except on official business, for he has tried to cripple each department by his official conduct and by his veto. The Comptroller by his veto was left without a dollar to enforce the anti-saloon law. We must agree on some one strong man, whose record would inspire confidence and strength.

"In my opinion, that man is Judge Ramsey of the Supreme Court bench. I do not know if he would run, but

WHAT WILSON HAS DONE.

Richmond Times-Dispatch.
What sort of a governor has Woodrow Wilson made in New Jersey? Has he made wood on that job? Has he accomplished anything? Questions like these are rife now when the attention of the entire country is turned toward the men who are considered, good lumber for the democratic nomination for the presidency.

Every one of these queries put above must receive, on the facts, a decided affirmative answer. Woodrow Wilson has made New Jersey a good governor. He has made good on that job. He has accomplished many things.

He has secured the passage of an election reform law, which requires direct primaries for all officers, including governor and congressmen. It also demands the election of delegates to national conventions and of state committeemen at the party primaries, as well as an expression of choice for president and vice president at the primaries. Further, under the new law, legislative candidates must say before those primaries whether or not they purpose voting for the candidates for United States senator endorsed at the primaries. This same act requires a Massachusetts ballot, with the names of all candidates grouped under the name of the office instead of in party columns. The selection of election officers by a civil service system, instead of by the party bosses, and a state convention of party nominees to write the party platform, are additional provisions of this law.

He has secured the enactment of a workmen's compensation law which wipes out the old defense of fellow servant's error, assumption of trade risk and contributory negligence, and provides that when an employe is injured at work the employer shall be responsible and shall compensate him for his injury and loss of time, regardless of what caused the accident or who was responsible for it.

He has secured the enactment of a corrupt practice act, which makes it unlawful for a candidate or politician to give a voter a cigar, to hire a carriage to take the voter to the polls or to hire more than two men to canvass for votes in an election district.

He has secured the enactment of a public utilities bill, which invites a state commission with the powers over state corporations and utility service and rates exercised by the interstate commerce commission over interstate utilities and rates, and authorize the commission to make a valuation of the physical property of the corporations or of the state as a basis for local taxation.

These constitute a record of consecutive legislative achievement in the direction of honesty in politics, fairness in business and uplift in the life of the people of New Jersey.

These laws make for square dealing and openness and frankness, reflecting the strong characteristics of Governor Wilson, who fights in the open and has nothing to conceal. These laws are honestly for the welfare of the plain people, just as Governor Wilson is, for he adheres to the old-fashioned idea that the people can be trusted and that they are not devoid of discriminating intelligence. There is no "side door" to the office of the present chief executive of New Jersey. Governor Wilson is not a whipsawing governor; talks right out and "front;" he is dignified, but he is incapable of wearing that expression of unfathomable knowledge worn habitually by your average politician; he frowns on an obnoxiousness and exclusiveness. In other words, he is a genuine democrat, using that word in its special and general sense, and a man who believes with all his heart in the plain people.

HYPOTHECATING VICE.

(Kansas City Journal)

The announcement that the plan to exploit Beulah Binford's notoriety in connection with the Beattie case has been abandoned reflects credit upon the business acumen of the moving picture men and theatrical managers, to say nothing of any of the moral aspects of the case. It may be assumed that the vigorous protest which was made by leading and representative women of New York had considerable to do with the announcement, if the latter is authentic; and in any event it is a foregone conclusion that the effort to hypotecate this conventional viciousness would not have resulted in much financial profit to the promoters. For the day has gone by when moral laxity can be coined into money contributed by decent people—and it must be conceded that the vicious elements of society are not the controlling patrons of moving picture and theatrical entertainments.

The Binford girl's protestations of a desire to "be good" may be sincere, but she is choosing the wrong place when she poses in the limelight and her very choice furnishes reasonable ground for doubt as to her actual sincerity. Nor can it be doubted that there are many managers sufficiently unscrupulous to negotiate her frailty if the public would make such a transaction lucrative for them. But the vogue of the Evelyn Nesbitts, the Nan Pattersons, the Beulah Binfords has passed and one may sincerely and hopefully profess financial disappointment for the coming "tour" of the paramour of a throneless king.

The American theatre-going public is starving immorial plays to death as a general proposition, and it will put a quick quietus on brazen attempts to cash the infamy of dissolute women whose only conceivable claim to drawing powers is the clinging slime of a shameful escapade or sensational "affinity" trial. The moral reins are being drawn more and more tightly about the moving picture business with the result that it is fast becoming a real factor in instructive and uplifting entertainment. The stage is getting cleaner and cleaner all the time and the moral standard demanded by patrons from their entertainers is constantly rising. There isn't much chance, under these conditions, for the affinity of a degenerate con-large intestines or descending colon.

While his team has come very near out of the American leagu standing and into Lake Michigan, the Ed Walsh has gone right ahead pitching as grand ball as you would wish to lamp.

The Athletics are wishing morning, noon and night that the Giants copy the National league pennant. They figure there is more coin in a world's series played in New York than in Chicago.

News From the Oil Fields

An important deal in oil property in the Electra field was made yesterday when Hillbury parties secured 80 acres out of the Schmelsler farm. This tract is about two miles out from the present proven territory and will probably be developed at an early date. The consideration has not been made public.

The Matthews Oil Company on the Electra Development Company tract about two miles out of the proven territory has made a good showing in the shallow sands. The hole is now doing a little over 500 feet, according to information received here and a good flow is expected inside of 800 feet.

Not so long ago while a party of oil men were enjoying a launch ride one of the party, who is prominent in the lumber business, leaned too far over the side of the boat and losing his balance plunged into the water. He floundered around in great style until he caught the anchor rope and pulled himself back into the boat. He wouldn't have his name get into the paper for anything.

Rainy weather the past week retarded new development somewhat in the Bighart pool, but drilling operations and development tend to prove that the sand is good and of uniform thickness. At Osage City, the average depth is 2,200 feet, but in the Bighart territory, the average is 1,700 feet, which predicated the extent of the great pool now being developed close by the townsite. The recent developments on the east side are self-evident and further confirmation is attested by the Penmar Oil company's development of 700 barrel wells on section 12 last spring about one-mile southwest of town. A most important indication is the beginning of independent individual operation by E. B. Foster, of the Illumination Oil Company and Theodore Barnsdall, who were here this week, and who jointly had two locations made Nos. 1 and 2 on 292 north-east of townsite. The Central Fuel Company have located No. 17 on 173. The same company have just brought in a 1,500 barrel producer on west end of Lot 172 on Dog Thrasher creek, offsetting Indian Territory Illuminating company's No. 4 a 293. Nos. 8 and 9 have just been located on 293. The working force now in this field includes eighteen string of tools—Bighart (Osage) Chronicle.

Drilling For Oil With Post Hole Digger For several weeks past there have been two oil lease men in this section securing leases, and it is said that one of them is representing the Standard Oil interests, while the other is representing a home company. We have been informed that there were several leases signed up last week, wherein it was stated that the promoters were to begin drilling for oil within 60 days, and that the promoters were to put up a big cash bonus guaranteeing that they would begin work within that time. It is expected that the first well will be put down on the leases a few miles east of town. Those who have leased their land are looking forward to some unusual activities in the situation within the next few weeks, as they think that the promoters have gone too far and spent too much money not to do something now.

It is said that we are in the same belt with the Electra oil field, and have almost identically the same oil, and experts say that there is oil underneath us without a question of a doubt. Should drilling begin, which is a certainty, and a new well field be opened up, it will mean everything for Davidson and this section; and we believe that the people are broad-minded enough to see it and will be ready to give the proposition every assistance that it needs. Promoters are already in the field in the Loveland country with their drills, and the excitement runs high. We do not know what reliability there is to the statement, but it is said that one farmer east of David, son has already begun a well on his own hook, with a post-hole digger, and that he keeps a record of the feet he goes down and is expecting every day to bring in a gusher. We would call him a promoter, whose operations are worth looking after, and we hope that he will bring in a big producer—he should have a prize for his energy.

The Clayco Company is reported to have brought in a good well on the Woodruff and Putnam lease this morning at a depth of about 1050 feet. The Red River Company—it is believed—will bring in two wells tomorrow and a number of other wells are expected in early next week.

Lease scouts have been watching the Bearbaum and Honaker wells east of Electra very closely for the past ten days. Both wells are now getting down where there ought to be oil and the vigilance of the scouts is redoubled.

Developments at Electra "E. A. S." writing in the Oil City Derrick under a Wichita Falls date line of September 11, says: The development at Electra has been very slow during the past few weeks, though several new wells have been started. Those that have been completed did not extend the lines of the field and it has begun to look like a 60-day proposition before there will be anything definite done.

A stray sand. The Magnolia Petroleum Co., formerly the Clayco Company, has a nice well in a stray sand, at 1,040 feet, on the Woodruff-Putnam land, where the first deep well was drilled. The well is being bailed out and will make a good producer, according to latest reports. The Magnolia only got a light shower in No. 1 on the Cross and Chapman land, just north of the Red River stuff. The well will make about 12 barrels as it stands, but it is in bad shape and with a thorough cleaning out should make a better producer. The Red River has finished No. 2 on the south 80 of the same place and it will make a 200 barrel producer, not nearly so good as the first well on the lease. The rig is being built for No. 4 and No. 3 is already drilling. Cuberson is down about 150 feet on the Woodruff.

The Electra Oil & Gas Company's well on the Gidrease, it is understood, is only making 30 barrels a day, pumping. This well made a good showing when first drilled in and was estimated at 200 barrels. Its staying qualities do not seem to be of the best. John Roy, of Tulsa, has started a rig on the Koehaan farm in section 24. Whitehill has a rig up on the Woodruff in section 226, Wagner survey. To the east a half mile W. C. McBride has a rig ready for the tools and also on the Sheldon tract in section 221. Matthews & Brannig has started on their test on the Woodruff farm in section 162. Bell, Benson & Little are moving in the tools for their test on the Douglas land and the Producers' test on the Marriott is shut down.

Rather a Mystery. The Producers test on the Beat land in section 255 is what might be termed in Oklahoma a "mystery," but seemingly that is the way they do things in Texas. The well is reported by the owner at 975 feet, while those who are watching it closely and get close enough to the rig say it is near 1,100 feet. The same company is drilling at 150 feet on the Tate land.

Bill Mowris' test southwest of Harrod is drilling at about 1,100 feet and nothing doing as yet. The well was shut down a couple of days last week but started up again Saturday. Mowris is also rigging up on the S. H. Fields farm, southeast of Harrod, between that town and the Electra pool. The Buerbaum test, northwest of Iowa Park, is drilling at about 800 feet. The same depth is reported for the Honaker well, several miles west of production. Overman & Neff are drilling at about 800 feet in their test on the Fluasche.

Benson, Little and Bell, who are already drilling in the well on the Douglas tract expect to start work in real earnest Monday.

A report came in from the field this afternoon that the Palmer Oil Company's well was ready to come in. Mr. Myers, manager of the company left for the field in an automobile.

AUTUMN MODELS ON RATIONAL LINES

SERGES, CHEVIOTS, TWEEDS AND HOMESPUNS IN BEAUTIFUL COLORING.

BUTTONS ARE IMPORTANT

Audacity of Reviving Color and Some of Schemes Are Really Quite Startling.

New York, Sept. 16.—The first installments of autumn models have arrived from Paris and those who had expected to see some radical departures in style with the opening of the new season, are disappointed. That does not mean that there are no novelties to be found among the new importations. There is no lack of them, but although some of them are rather weird, the majority of them are quite rational (modifying the characteristics of the summer fashion, without departing entirely from its main features).

Among the imported models shown at the fashionable shops there are many interesting and attractive specimens of tailored suits. Serges, chevots, tweeds, homespuns, satins, broad cloths and various boucle and ribe line finished woollens are to be found. For hard service nothing beats a severely tailored suit of tweed or homespun, and in the imported materials of this type there are beautiful colorings.

One of the handsomest models of that class seen was a mixed brown, tweed, a beautiful dark Havana brown flecked with warmer and deeper browns, perfectly tailored in the complicated fashion which tailored severity implies now, but absolutely without trimming save for the handsome tortoise shell buttons, which were used with some lavishness. The coat about thirty-two inches in length, had a rather large collar, and the sections in which it was cut gave a suggestion of high waistline in the back, though not in front. The sleeves were long and moderately close, the skirt of rational walking length and straight of line, yet with plaits let in under the edges of the straight front and back panels.

Buttons play an important role on the full tailored costumes and separate coats and the buttons supplied for such use are uncommonly handsome and effective. All of the modish colors are represented in them; the brighter tones usually in combination with black or some very dark shade. A black or dark blue or deep brown button may have a band of brilliant color in very high relief against its center or may be rimmed narrowly with bright color.

Big ball or bullet buttons made in finely cut crystal of dark tones are flattened on top and hollowed out so that they are merely thick shells, in an extremely deep purple such buttons were on a good looking Paquin model of deep blue double faced cloth, the reverse face being fine stripe of deep purple and black. The importer showed the same buttons and similar materials in dark blues and blue.

A tendency to audacity in touches of relieving color shows throughout the ranks of the imported tailored costumes, where these are not of the extremely severe kind, and some of the color schemes introduced are really quite startling. So extreme has this fact been lately that there has been a feeling against it during the last of the summer season, but in the new costumes one sees touches of surprising color flaming against dark or neutral backgrounds.

Purple seems to be extremely popular. It predominates wherever millinery or dress goods are exhibited, but in the tailored suits there are many purples that have no hint of the bright or striking deep, rich, soft shades, in plain cloths or in tweeds and other mixed effects where the purple is toned down even more by flecks of white or black or gray or dark blue.

Tonic lines of one kind and another, are much in evidence among the tailored costumes, with the lower part of the skirt below the simulated or real tunic either in the same material as the tunic itself or in contrasting material. A tunic skirt opening down the middle or left front and sloping away to reveal an inverted V of underskirts at the bottom is used with many slight variations, and black as a tunic frequently forms the underskirt even when the suit material is one of the soft woolly chevots or fatines.

Apron tunics with underskirts showing around the bottom and for the whole or part of the length on the sides are popular too. Among the strictly tailored costumes this arrangement is seen more often in connection with striped stuffs than with contrasting materials, the underskirt being defined by the direction of the stripes.

Tripes have a long and pronounced season of favor abroad and it seems likely that their popularity with the more fastidious public is waning, yet there are some good striped models from authoritative sources and there seems to be a decided liking for the plain monotone cloths faced in fine stripes and for stripes used as trimming.

Although it is too early to predict for a certainty just what fabrics will be the favorites during the coming season, no woman will go wrong as to style if she provides herself with a satin gown. Judging from the new importations of soft, lustrous satins that have recently come to our largest shops, and following the demand made for these shimmering, clinging materials, soft in tone and infinitely soft in texture, we shall see costumes made of it ranging from the severely tailored street suit on through the line of simple afternoon frocks up to the most elaborate of opera and ball gowns.

Not only is satin to be used in the building of gowns, but it will occupy a place in the entire outfit of milady's wardrobe. Satin petticoats, some plain, with only a scant ruffle or two to relieve them, others trimmed with lace and embroidery that a generation ago would have been considered quite elegant enough for the trimming of the handsomest party dress, will be worn. Satin "knickers," or scant bloomers, will match the color the gown. Princess slips of satin, for wear under the robe of lace and embroidery; satin trimmings of infinite variety; satin wraps embellished with gold embroidery and jeweled lace and dainty jewel-studded slippers of satin will be in vogue.

Hats of satin, caps of satin and lace, designed for the theatre; satin scarfs and satin muffs will all be seen in varying styles. Though not a new fabric, the wonderfully soft, fine weave and exquisite colorings found in these new satins that have just reached us from abroad make the material one to be desired above all others for the foundation, if not the whole, of the lovely costumes designed for the season.

There is a definite return to the vogue for bordered materials in dress-making, and some delightful effects may be obtained from the beautiful things just coming into the shops.

Skirts, especially on lingerie dresses, are showing more fullness. A sheer linen frock was richly embroidered in white and was trimmed with bands of emerald green mousseline de sole at the edge of skirt and sleeves. A green silk sash defined the waist.

There is some danger that the narrow French heel will supplant the safer and more sensible Cuban heel in fashionable footwear.

Negro to Be Host of Whole Town. Massillon, O., Sept. 16.—In celebration of the 48th anniversary of his release from slavery, Gilbert Porter, one of the best known negroes in Strat county, has arranged to give a monster barbecue tomorrow and Monday, to which he has invited all the people of Massillon and vicinity. Several oxen, a dozen sheep and pigs and countless chickens will be roasted to furnish free dinners to the crowd.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For need six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles."

Often, I couldn't sit-up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Detroit pitchers have gone to the bows, and the Tigers will be lucky to retain second place.

The Boston Rustlers look to be the only team that can get to "Rube" Marquard, the Giant bearcat.

Brooklyn fans are well pleased with the showing made by "Red" Smith, the new Superba third baseman.

Nothing loose in Pennsylvania for Roger Bresnahan this season, but his Cardinals threw a regular scare into the big boys at that.

Rubber underwear must have been the right number for Tommy Maden. The fat rascal is doing great work behind the bat for the Quakers.

Bill Settle, former player, umpire and promoter, is on his way to Honolulu and will bring back a college ball team composed of Chinese players.

Having failed to put over a sale for the Boston Nationals, it is said that Ned Hanlon is now trying to purchase an American League franchise.

Pitchers Dunbar and Dahlgren, of the Superior team, winners of the Minnesota-Wisconsin league pennant, both pitched no-hit games recently.

Jimmy Burke has hit Indianapolis Indians out of the cellar and is boosting them to hold a place in the first division in the American Association race.

MISS MYRTLE LEE DRESSER
Ward of Wichita Falls Masonic Lodge No. 625.

This young lady at one time resided with her parents in Wichita county, and her father was a member of the Masonic Lodge of this city. Leaving here, the family went to Oklahoma, settling on a farm near Chickasha, where Mr. Dresser died, leaving a widow and several children not very well provided for. He still retained his membership in this Lodge, and learning of the condition of affairs after Mr. Dresser's death, the Lodge caused three of the older Dresser children to be admitted to the Masonic Home, at Fort Worth, from which institution Miss Myrtle graduated at the age of seventeen years on June 28th of this year. Leaving the Masonic Home, she attended the State Normal and is now the possessor of both first and second grade certificates. Owing to the fact that she was not given a first grade certificate until about the middle of August, this prevents her from securing a position in a Texas school for this year.

In a letter to the Lodge she takes occasion to express her gratefulness to her "Dear Uncles" for the interest they have taken in her education and seems determined to fight her way through the world independently.

The local Masonic Lodge is very proud of this, has had her picture framed and placed in the lodge room.

YOUNG MAN

When you don the tall silk head-gear, the snow colored trousers and the coat that ain't all there and sally forth to worry the fair one with a line of conversation that would give a parrot the headache don't forget that the credentials for recognition is a box of ALLEGRETTI'S Chocolates fifty cents the pony and a dollar the pound. Don't faint. Adam paid more for apples.

Take a box with you. It's the only thing to do else it might be rumored in keen society that you did not belong.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

The ambition of every real woman, is more a matter of care than of luck. There are two things that go to make a woman's hair beautiful—quantity and quality.

No hair, however abundant, can ever be attractive unless it is properly cared for. The better it is taken care of the richer, softer and prettier it will be. On the other hand, no woman's hair can attain its full natural growth unless it is properly nourished and cared for.

We have every article of merit for the care of the hair.

Good Team at Colonial.

It is not often that a woman makes a good comedian, but Miss Florence Roberts of the Roberts & Fulton team at the Colonial this week is the exception that proves the rule. She is not only a clever funny comedian, but a good singer as well and the team give one of the most entertaining numbers had here in a long time.

Another good feature of the Colonial program is the piano work of Miss Anna Tomek. Miss Tomek came but a few days ago, but she has already demonstrated her ability at the piano and more than that, she has arranged her program so that she uses music in accord with the subject of the picture, so as to eliminate a common custom in picture shows of playing rag time at a death scene or a funeral dirge in the middle of a comedy part. She also uses the national airs in patriotic subjects, which greatly adds to the enthusiasm.

TWO PERFORMANCES BY SELLS-FLOTO CO.

In a day and age when the cost of living and the expense of amusing oneself has reached proportions which almost seem incredible, it is pleasing to note the advent of an attraction which has instead of pressing the limit, revised its scale of charges downward.

The Sells-Floto circus, which by the way, is a Western organization, owned and controlled by the newspaper men who are proprietors of the Denver Post and Kansas City Post, will arrive here on October 10, and is booked to give two performances on that date. It is an old story now how this good circus which is entirely outside the combined shows, popularly known as the circus-trust, for years fought for a meager existence. But the owners stand pre-eminent as giving more for the money than any show big or little, on the face of the globe.

The Sells-Floto circus comes here, fresh from a series of unqualified successes, both in the large cities of the coast and Middle West, as in those of the more Northern states and over the Canadian border. They are certain to be welcomed here and liberally patronized. The management stands for all that is fair and square in their method of dealing with the public. It might be added that this year they are offering many features which are unique and have heretofore been strangers to the world of big tents.
