Crippled Youth, Tied In Blazing Plane, Meets Death

Francis Phillips Is Helpless When Airplane Crashes

Twenty-One-Year Old Son Of Late "Queens Sewer Pipe King" Plunges To Burning Death

Passenger Killed

Two Hundred Persons Look On As Plane Overturns In Attempt To Land; Youth Conscious For Time

(By Associated Press)

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 26.—Held to a blazing plane by a safety belt, Francis Phillips, 21, son of the late John M. Phillips, so-called "Queens Sewer Pipe King," burned to death before 200 persons here today as his plane overturned in landing and caught fire.

Conscious for several moments as the flames grew around him, Phillips, a cripple, shouted instructions and then entreaties to mechanics and fliers making vain efforts to reach him.

Passenger Injured

Phillips' passenger, Henry R. Goldsmith, was critically injured and burned. He died late tonight.

The plane just had taken off and was about 35 feet in the air when its motor failed. Phillips apparently attempted to turn it to make a landing on a smooth stretch, but the plane nosed to the ground and burst into flames.

Phillips had been a non-commercial flier for several months. He gained considerable publicity last winter when he attempted to reach safe deposit boxes in Montreal banks to remove securities and papers of his father before state officials who had investigated the Queens Sewer scandals could have them impounded. Although he flew to Montreal as he thought secretly, the investigators had the boxes sealed.

Father Indicted

The elder Phillips was under indictment at the time of his death at Atlantic City last year.

The son inherited one-third of

Husband Faces Charges Of Poisoning Youthful Wife After Chemists Examine Viscera From Grave

(By Associated Press)

BOSTON, Texas, June 21. (AP) — Having as additional evidence a report of the state chemist that the stomach of Mrs. Ocie Nix, 17, contained poison, prosecuting attorneys here today were preparing for the trial tomorrow of the woman's 22-year-old husband charged with murder.

State Chemist Dr. S. W. Bohls, who made a three-day examination of the viscera, had informed District Attorney R. G. Waters yesterday that no traces of poison had been found. Additional tests today, he said, showed there was poison in the stomach.

Mrs. Nix died in convulsions shortly after her husband left their home last week to work in a field. Her body was disinterred and an au-

Youth Admits Robbery Five Years Ago At Waco

HOUSTON, June 26. (AP)—Robert Harrison, 26, walked into police headquarters, here today and surrendered for his part in a "stickup job" at Waco nearly five years ago. The youth said he wanted to make another start.

Harrison said he and his partner, Fred B. Mullens, held up employes of the state house hotel in Waco late in 1924 and escaped with $32. Harrison later was jailed and Mullens promised to get his pal out if he had to pull another job, the youth related. A short time later Mullens was killed in an attempt-

BROOKHART ARRIVES

Senate Patronage Probe Is Held In Hotel Rooms

SAN ANTONIO, June 26.—(AP)—Immediately after his arrival in San Antonio Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, joined the members of his senate patronage committee in a conference behind closed doors in their rooms at a hotel.

"There is very little I can say concerning our plans for the hearing except that we will start at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning," replied Brookhart to queries regarding the hearing the committee will conduct here in investigating charges of republican federal patronage in Texas.

Student Nurse Is Injured As Autos Run Amuck Here

Mary Collins Suffers Dislocated Foot And Other Injuries In Mishap On Broadway Last Night

Warned by Officers

Eighteen-Year-Old Girl Is Thrown To Pavement From Fender Of Moving Car; Others Uninjured

MISS Mary Collins, about 18, student nurse in the Lubbock sanitarium, suffered a dislocated foot and numerous minor bruises and injuries at about 9 o'clock last night when the car on which she was riding collided with another at the intersection of Broadway and Avenue M. She was taken to the sanitarium.

Miss Collins was riding on the front fender of a light roadster, together with two other young women, Misses Inez White and Marie Gwyn, when their car collided with a light sedan said to have been driven by Leo Moore. Will Thornton was said to have been driving the roadster. According to reports Miss Collins was thrown from the fender to the pavement, while the other members of the party were uninjured.

Motorcycle Officer C. E. Luce, of the Lubbock police department, had warned the young people a short time before the accident that the way they were riding was "a good way to get hurt," and, according to his statement, they laughed at him.

The Ford roadster, carrying the three young women, was coming east on Broadway while the sedan, driven by Moore, was headed west. At the corner of Avenue N the roadster suddenly swerved to the north as if to turn and when it did the two met almost head-on.

The cars were not seriously damaged.

DAMAGE SUIT TO END

Expect To Conclude Case In Court Here Today

The damage suit of Mrs. Clara McCallon vs. Lubbock sanitarium, which was opened Tuesday in the 72nd district court will be taken up again when court convenes this morning.

The taking of testimony will be continued and it was stated late last night that this probably would be finished today.

In this suit, Mrs. McCallon seeks $35,000 for alleged damages resulting from the death of her husband. She charges negligence after an operation caused his death.

Life Sentences Of Two Men Reversed

Cases Of J.W. Meyers And Ralph Taylor, Negro, Remanded By Court Of Criminal Appeals Wed.

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 26.—(AP)—Two life sentences were reversed and remanded by the court of criminal appeals today. It also granted rehearings, set aside affirmations and sent back for new trial two cases carrying long sentences.

The 99-year sentence of J. W. Meyers, Dallas, convicted of robbery with firearms, was reversed because of improper arguments before the jury, in which attorneys referred to a former conviction of the defendant, and on other grounds.

Meyer was accused of holding up W. H. Howards, manager of a

Shattered Romance With Chicago Millionaire Related By Divorcee

By Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 26.—Ann Livingston, young Oklahoma divorcee, completed her story today of her stattered affair with Franklin S. Hardinge, millionaire Chicago oil burner manufacturer.

This was the fourth day of her breach of promise trial against the 62-year-old defendant, in which she asks $250,000.

Her attorneys ended their direct examination and she went under cross examination telling much of her story—her first encounter with Hardinge on a train to Denver, his love making at her home in Tulsa, his success in persuading her to come to Chicago, the proposal of marriage ensuing difficulties and the final break.

She Felt Paralyzed

When she realized that Hardinge had deserted her on the eve of their wedding in January of last year she felt paralyzed.

"I felt that everything in my life had been taken from me," said Ann

"That he had broken all the vows he made to me.

"As it dawned on me slowly, I realized he had taken all in life that was precious to me—left me in a city alone with practically no money."

No mention was made during the direct examination of the offer of the pre-nuptial contract by which she was to accept $100,000 as her sole financial claim. Miss Livingston refused the contract and it was then that the wealthy Hardinge began to suspect that she liked his money better than she did him.

Controversy Over Tariff Rate On Sugar Is Taken To Sub-Committee

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 26. — The keen controversy over the tariff rate on sugar which has agitated producers and consumers for many weeks, was taken before a senate finance sub-committee today with witnesses demanding upward revision of the duties.

Although four sub-committees listened to testimony on various sections of the tariff bill passed by the house, the sub-committee considering the sugar question held most interest. The result of the day's activities found on the committee's desks a sheaf of requests for increased duties on sugar, wool, hides, iron and steel and a host of miscellaneous commodities.

Witnesses Examined.

At the sugar hearing witnesses were given a severe cross-examination and the senators indicated that they regarded this levy as one demanding more attention than any other in the bill. Heading witnesses was William M. Jardine, former secretary of agriculture under Calvin Coolidge.

Jardine, who said he was interested in helping the beet sugar grower, declared the house rate would permit an expansion in the growing of sugar beets, which he described as a non-surplus and good "rotation" crop, now produced by 100,000 farmers in 17 states.

Democratic committeemen declared production of sugar in this country had not increased since the high duties placed in effect in 1922.

Connally Questions.

Replying to questions by Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, the former secretary said the export debenture plan "was one way of making the tariff effective on surplus crops if you can guarantee benefits to the farmers," but that this guarantee, in his opinion, had not been assured. He thought the

Doctors Disagree In McKenzie Trial

Alienists Differ On Sanity Of Convicted Slayer; Spectators Crowd Courtroom As Doors Open

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, June 26. — Two alienists disagreed in testimony today on the sanity hearing of John M. (Pete) McKenzie, sentenced to death for the murder of Sam Street chief of San Antonio detectives.

Dr. C. H. Dittman, placed on the stand by the defense, declared that in his opinion McKenzie is insane.

Dr. W. J. Johnson, superintendent of San Antonio State Hospital, for the state, declared he believed the defendant to be sane.

Lays On Table

While the experts testified pro and con, McKenzie lay on a table, now and then smoking cigarettes. This brought a question from the state as to whether the defendant was exhausted and Dr. Johnson declared he believed McKenzie was feigning exhaustion.

Dr. Johnson said that he and other physicians examined McKenzie the greater part of Monday and Tuesday, returning him to the county jail Tuesday night, but there was nothing about the examinations to exhaust him. McKenzie had eaten well and slept well at the hospital Dr. Johnson said.

Just before the afternoon began a crowd of spectators stormed the doors to the courtroom. One crowd of women swept over a janitor who opened the door to the hall leading into the press room and poured in until the hall was jammed. Deputy sheriffs had difficulty in clearing the hall. Another crowd charged the main doors when they were opened and a glass panel in one of the double doors was smashed.

LOS ANGELES, June 26. (AP)—Two more film actors and a tax counsellor, Edward Hayden, were indicted today by the federal grand jury.

The two actors, Raymond Griffith and Raymond McKee, were charged with defrauding the government in their income tax returns for 1925 and 1926. Hyden's indictment was in connection with preparation of McKee's tax return for 1925.

Recent Visitors In City Surprised At Growth

"I was greatly surprised and greatly astonished. In my opinion you have the liviest, most up-and-coming town of less than 100,000 people in the entire Southwest," Wm. A. Smith, of the Alexander Drug Company, of Oklahoma City, writes in a letter to the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, referring to his trip here recently with the Oklahoma City trade boosters.

Smith was one of twenty-six Oklahoma City business men who wrote expressing appreciation at the hospitality shown the visitors on their visit here. Many other letters have been received by local businessmen.

Visitors Pleased

All the letters show that the trip was keenly enjoyed and that the Oklahoma City visitors were pleased with the South Plains. This large number of letters gives an index to the progressiveness and friendliness of the Oklahoma City business men and serves as a reminder that Lubbock business men can well copy this practice of writing courtesy letters after the trade trips this fall before the fair.

Glenn C. Kiley, district manager of the Oklahoma Gas and Electric company says: "Frankly I was somewhat skeptical about the possibilities of the South Plains country and Ed Overholser's appraisal. Since returning I have formed the conclusion that Ed's vocabulary was insufficient when he outlined the possibilities of mutual benefit."

Interested In Livestock

"We are interested in the movement of livestock from your territory to Oklahoma City, and I was amazed at the possibilities of your country in that direction." John B. Baker, vice-president, Oklahoma National Stock Yards, stated.

Louis F. Erler, manager of the Excelsior Stove and Manufacturing company says: "Now that we have started, I hope there will be many meetings back and forth."

T. N. Wells, vice-president of the American First National Bank, wants to make it an annual affair. "I have been on a number of trips of this nature and never in my life have I felt that we were more cordially received or more royally entertained," he said. "I enjoyed this trip so thoroughly that it is my sincere wish that we may go again next year."

"It has been a number of years since I have been in Lubbock." C. S. Dalby, with the Oklahoma City Hardware company, writes, "and I was pleasantly surprised at the way

Undisclosed Investors Buy Detroit, Toledo, And Ironton Railway To End Venture Of Car Magnate

DETROIT, June 26.—Announcement today of the sale of Henry Ford's Detroit, Toledo & Ironton Railroad to an undisclosed group of investors marked the successful termination of a motor magnate's venture in the railroad field.

Mr. Ford obtained the railroad in 1920 for a total investment of $5,000,000 after the line had struggled for thirty years over a path strewn with receiverships. In 1924, it was disclosed the railroad had earned $4,201,833, for its purchasers.

Clam Diggers and Game Wardens Stage Pitched Battle; One Arrest Is Made

(By Associated Press)

REVERE, Mass., June 26.—On the flats off point of pines in this city today 30 clam diggers and three game wardens engaged in a pitched battle. There is doubt as to who won, but of the clam diggers, two at least achieved notice. One was arrested and the other left the scene of battle wearing a pair of bracelits, the gift of one of the wardens.

Several weeks ago the waters of the section showed pollution. A ban on clam digging was applied by the health authorities. To the diggers this meant only that in addition to watching out for clams they had to watch for officers. This was apparently easy as the flats provided an excellent view of the mainland.

The wardens today, in some unexplained manner, reached the scene of operations. Their arrival was resented by the 30 diggers and the battle was on. Among the other unexplained happenings of the day was whether the diggers disarmed "the law." Witnesses said that they did; that rifles carried by the wardens were taken from them. John Gallo was the one representative of the diggers to make the trip to the Saugus police station with the wardens when they returned. The others, including the man with the manacles, did not wait to escort the wardens over the muddy flats to shore.

Seeks Freedom

"SCARFACE AL" CAPONE

Attempt Is Made To Gain Release Of "Scarface Al"

Attorneys Allege Trial Of Chicago Racketeer Was Prejudiced; Writ Of Error Sought In Petition

(By Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Alleging among other charges that the trial judge was prejudiced, attorneys for "Scarface" Al Capone, Chicago racketeer, today filed a petition asking for a writ of error in an attempt to bring about Capone's release or a new trial.

Capone and his body guard, Frank Cline, also of Chicago, are serving one year sentence for carrying concealed pistols.

Rumors had been current for several days that friends of Capone were about to attempt liberating him, and a week ago Lemuel B. Schofield, director of public safety, said he understood the gang leader had offered $50,000 to anyone who could obtain his release.

There was no reference to Cline in today's petition for a rehearing of the case. Judge Walsh set Saturday for hearing arguments on the petition.

Counsel For Both Sides Allowed To Argue Testimony

Attempt Of Grady Woodruff To Table Motion To Exonerate Land Commissioner Fails, 47-67

Debate Inspired

No Action Will Be Taker Until After Arguments; Testimony In Proposed Impeachment Trial Made

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 26.—After refusing to table a motion to exonerate J. T. Robison, land commissioner, of impeachment charges, the house of representatives late today amended it to permit counsel for both sides to argue the testimony before taking a vote.

A motion by Representative Grady Woodruff of Decature, who preferred the charges against Mr. Robison, to table the exoneration motion lost, 47 to 67.

Purl of Dallas proposed an amendment to preclude action on the motion until the attorneys had an opportunity to "sum up the evidence" in argument.

"Steam Roller Taetics" Charged.

Then the previous question was ordered but a number of members spoke on personal privilege, their appeals to forestall what they termed "steam roller tactics," and "preventing a free decision" beating down enough of the bloc that had moved to end the proceeding to put Purl's amendment over, 72 to 49.

The house found itself in a parliamentary sack, with Keller of Dallas contending that the motion as amended was inconsistent in that it provided the house should listen to attorneys argue the case and then vote to exonerate Mr. Robison.

Speaker W. S. Barron held that the effect of the amendment was that the house could not take action on the motion to exonerate the land commissioner until after attorneys had argued the testimony.

The house got itself out of the tangle by reconsidering the vote by

The Woman's Day

By Allene Sumner

Allene Sumner

I'm too much of a woman of the world to expect Jack to sit in his hotel room and never have any fun." So Mrs. Jack Dempsey is reported to have said when asked to comment on the supposed brawl of her husband and some other gen'man about some chorus girl.

And here's wagering that Mrs. Jack Dempsey is only "too much of a woman of the world" to show that world just what she feels. In no respect are the Judy O'Gradys and Colonel's ladies so akin as in submitting to the age-old femaleish tradition of jealousy. They may scoff at it all they please with their minds, but it's there just the same.

The Lady and 'Gator

A delegation of good ladies of Houston, Texas, called upon the City Council recently with a two-foot alligator in their arms. They appealed for better drainage in their section of the city, complaining that things were pretty bad when alligators gamboled about in their front yards.

In fact, their spokeswoman said, "When we saw that alligator we made up our minds right then and there that something had to be done about better drainage."

Not Even A Bead

That clothes—many or little—have little relation to morals unless the fewer the clothes the better the morals, is no new idea. But Dr. William Montgomery McGovern of Northwestern University, recently returned from a fourteen months' exploration of the Amazon River Basin, insists that the utterly naked native women of that region had morals "far stricter than those of bebustled, long-skirted ladies of the Victorian red plush era."

Which might be a handy item for those who take the negative side of that very popular modern debate, "Resolved, That Modern Woman's Scanty Dress Is Hurling the World to Destruction."

But if they give up that conviction, what will they decide is the root of all evil?

Maybe Duce Is Okay

Perhaps we're all wrong about our vague idea that the land of Mussolini is a hard land for women who want to do anything other than kitchen police work.

We have just heard that when an Italian telephone company recently dismissed all its married women employees, Mussolini forced the company to reinstate them, insisting that marriage should no more penalize the working woman than the working man.

And here's wagering that as many of those working married women were sorry for his intervention as glad. Our own national statistics prove that by far the majority of women work from necessity and not choice.

Decrease Seen In Canadian Liquor Export Into U. S.

Customs Return Will Show Significant Drop In Rum Flow Across Border, American Authorities State

WINDSOR, Ont., June 26. (Canadian Press) — Canadian customs returns for the current month should show a significant drop in the export of liquor from the Essex border docks, according to reports of the United States authorities.

Imports at the one-time notorious liquor depot of Ecourse have been cut to a fraction, according to customs patrols, while the occasional rum boat on the American side of the Detroit river is more or less of an oddity, these nights, they say.

Cannot Stem Tide.

Considerable liquor, however, is getting through below Ecorse on the Trenton front. The rum boats are shooting out from Amherstburg into the lake, and there are not government boats in adequate numbers to stem the tide.

But this situation is to be remedied as speedily as possible, according to the plans of the prohibition agencies, more than 50 boats of all descriptions are to be in service by July 1, it was reported, ranging in type from launches for use in shallow channels to the 70-foot speed boats, carrying one-pound guns.

The new rum chasing fleet is to be directed by radio from a secret headquarters down river, it said. Reports are to be submitted at regular intervals, day and night, from both American and Canadian sides of the Detroit river, and the government boats can get under way in pursuit of suspected craft as alarms are broadcast.

Littlefield Bond Election Passes

LITTLEFIELD, June 26—(Special)—An election was held at the city hall on Tuesday, the 25th voting on the issuance of $50,000 in bonds for the erection of a city hall and for the further street improvements in the city of Littlefield. The issue carried by a very large majority, and details for the sale of the bonds are now being worked out by the city commissioners.

REGAINS HEALTH AFTER 2 YEARS OF SUFFERING

Lubbock Farmer's Daughter Declares Orgatone Only Medicine That Ever Brought Her Relief

Any person suffering from stomach trouble learns to expect keen distress after a meal. Headaches and dizziness are common symptoms and as restless night follows restless night, the body becomes so run-down that the sufferer is exhausted by slight effort. This can be corrected by proper treatment as was learned by Miss Margaret Jones, living on rural route 2, Lubbock, Texas

"About two years ago I began to have spells of stomach trouble," she continued, 'I was operated on for appendicitis and ever since I have been so generally run-down that what food I ate bothered me, and I suffered from sour stomach and gas, and became so nervous that I couldn't sleep at night. I also had liver trouble and had frequent headaches. I had the 'flu' about six months ago and all this helped to get me in a more serious condition.

"A friend recommended Orgatone to me and I began the treatment. In a short time I could see some improvements in my condition and I continued taking the medicine until my tired exhausted feeling has disappeared and I have new ambition. I'm no longer troubled with indigestion, gas or sourness, but enjoy eating my meals. I sleep soundly and rise refreshed and rested in the morning. I have told some of my friends about Orgatone and they are taking it on my recommendation. Orgatone is certainly a good medicine and will do what they say that it will."

Genuine Orgatone is not a secret patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store who are agent laboratory agents. Adv.

GOP Judge Lenient On Girl Speeder

EVANSTON, Ill., June 26. (AP) When 16-year-old Belle Korshak was brought before Police Chief Freeman for speeding she wanted to know, first off, if the chief was a democrat or a republican.

"What difference can it possibly make?" inquired the police officer.

"Well,' said Miss Korshak, "my daddy's a master in chancery and a democrat. If you happen to be a democrat you might be lenient."

The chief happened to be a republican, but he said he would forgive her anyway.

Which impressed Miss Korshak as being quite sporting.

Queen Mary Given Lift By Motorist

LONDON, June 26. (AP) — Queen Mary had the unusual experience of being given a lift home by a passing motorist when the Royal automobile broke down today in the shipping district near Oxford street.

Her majesty was on her way to Buckingham Palace from shopping when it was found the starter of her car was jammed.

C. A. Harrison noticed the queen's plight and offered her the use of his car.

"Her majesty had been recognized and a crowd was beginning to collect," said Harrison.

"My car was very dusty, but the said that was all right and I took the wheel myself and drove her majesty to the palace."

Whitehead Gives Up WTCC Position

Publicity Manager Resigns To Become Assistant Manager South Texas Chamber Of Commerce

(Special To The Avalanche)

STAMFORD, June 26 — E. H. Whitehead, who has served as publicity manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the past four years, has resigned his position with the regional organization to become assistant manager of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce with headquarters at Corpus Christi according to an announcement made by officials here Thursday. Whitehead's resignation is to become effective July 10.

Reason given by Whitehead for his action in quitting the West Texas chamber was that he desired to gain a statewide view point of chamber of commerce work. The West Texas publicity man will have charge of an extensive advertising campaign on South Texas and the lower Rio Grande valley. He will also be in charge of organization work of the South Texas regional chamber of commerce being associated with Ray Leeman, general manager of that body, who was formerly assistant manager of the West Texas organization.

Change Considered

Whitehead has had the change in positions under advisement for several weeks, but due to the resignation of Homer D. Wade, as manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce the publicity manager's resignation was not submitted to A. M. Bourland, president, until the selection of a new head of the regional chamber, officials said.

TWO PERMITS ISSUED

Lubbock's Building Total Is Boosted $375

Only two small building permits were issued Wednesday totalling $375.

A $350 permit went to W. K. Dickerson for the erection of a sheet iron garage at 1601 Avenue K. The contractor is J. C. Meeks.

A $25 permit was granted Martha Sanmiguel for the moving of her home to First street.

The month's total valuations now stands at $120,024 while the year is $2,454,041.

French War Debts To Be Considered

Payment Promises To Be Principal Preoccupation Of Both Government And Parliament For Month

PARIS, June 26. (AP) — The war debts which France owes to America and Great Britain today seemed likely to be the principal preoccupation of both the government and parliament for the next four weeks.

Facing the long fight, the government found its position none too strong, for while winning on two votes of confidence on allied questions last night and this morning, its majority on one was the smallest in the cabinet's history. The first vote was 291 to 266, the second, 347 to 207.

Many Have Say.

It was increasingly evident that with the great number of politicians anxious to have their say on the subject, ratifications of the debt accords hardly could materialize more than a very few days before August 1. On that date, unless the debts accords have been ratified France will be obliged to pay the United States $40,000,000 covering the surplus war stocks bill.

Premier Poincare already has talked through four long sessions of the finance and foreign affairs committees on the debts. For the fifth session today he had prepared a review of the history of reparations, and it was expected he would need a sixth hearing to make a comparison of the Young and Dawes plans.

Company Leases Building At Turkey For Office

TURKEY, June 26—R. F. Hinchey president of the West Texas Gas Company of Amarillo, leased the Fred Lacy building, just west of the Enterprise building, which will be used for office and warehouse during the construction period of furnishing Turkey with natural gas. The franchise which was granted The West Texas Gas Company specifies that it must be completed by October 1st. Mr. Hinchey, stated that the pipe was enroute and that it would only be a matter of a few months until Turkey would be enjoying this convenience.

The company expects to buy property and erect their own office building in the near future.

Present Bill For Keeping Prisoners

HOUSTON, June 26. (AP)—Sheriff T. A. Binford today sent Warden E. F. Harrell of the state prison at Huntsville a bill for $72.05. The bill was said to represent what Harris county was "out" for entertainment of 44 state convicts in the county jail here one night during the Brazos valley flood. The convicts had been moved from the Ramsay farm:

"During that one night those birds were in here they tore up 11 mattresses and bent up and ruined 11 pans they were fed with," Binford said. "They also ate me out of house and home."

The bill for board alone was $22.

Fight Fans Assured Great Fight At Yank Park Tonight

Wichita Falls Spudders Take Lead In Texas League As Steers Go Down

Foreign Fighters Ready For Going In Fifteen Round Battle At Yankee Ball Park; Odds Give Paulino Slight Edge

Both Imported Too Recently To Know American Tactics Of Stalling; Bout Is Charity Affair

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 26.—A bundle of German T. N. T. wrapped in leather will search the armor tomorrow night of that Spanish chunk of concrete, Paulino Uzcudun.

The youngster who throws his right hand with such deadliness is Max Schmeling, Teutonic picture of the mighty, scowling Jack Dempsey, of 1919. Between them the German seaman and the burly Spanish woodchopper represent the greatest menace to American heavyweight supremacy since James J. Corbett crushed the Englishman Charley Mitchell, and the savage Dempsey battered down the hulk of Luis Angel Firpo.

Go 15 Rounds

These two gladiators will battle fifteen rounds in the big ballyard of the New York Yankees for the right to continue the quest for Gene Tunney's vacant heavyweight title. The winner may fight Jack Sharkey in September. They will fight in the name of charity, for Mrs. William R. Hearst's milk fund.

It may not be a pretty thing to watch, but it is certain to be a fight. Both have been imported too recently to have mastered the business methods of the more successful American gladiators. Neither likes to clinch and waltz.

The German weaves and bobs in the style Dempsey made famous, and punches fast and deadly from his right side. Upon his ability to absorb Paulino's ponderous smashes to the body and open the way with the left hand for those right hand lightning strokes to the head rests Schmeling's chance.

Paulino Sturdy

Paulino is the stolid, durable mauler, charging into action with body bent end arms criss-crossed about the head, wading in close to cut and slash to the body. His ability to absorb punishment and still keep coming on strongly so far has been unlimited.

At $50 top the gate may total $500,000 with the battlers sharing 40 per cent of the proceeds and waging their private war before 35,000 customers.

Because of lack of proof of Schmeling's ability to stand up under constant punishment, odds on the match today favored Paulino 6 to 5.

American Netters Continue Wins In English Meet

Coen And Mallory Are Only Yanks To Suffer Defeat At Wimbeldon; Tilden Is Invincible

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 26. (AP)—Scoring an even more decisive defeat of Jacques Brugnon today than of Francis T. Hunter yesterday young H. N. "Bunny" Austin was well on his way to being acclaimed England's leading tennis star.

The English Davis cup ace further tangled the British championship outlook as he eliminated the veteran Frenchman in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-0. As the result of his sensational victories over two of the United States and French stars in as many days the former Cambridge University student appears certain to be one of the semi-finalists.

The Americans continued their parade through the singles and doubles play, losing only Wilbur Coen among the men and Marjorie Morrill and Mrs. Mallory of the women invaders. The Kansas City youngster lost to Christian Boussus of France, 6-1, 10-8, 7-4.

Miss Morrill lost her second round match to Miss Eileen Bennett, British star, 6-3, 6-3.

"Big Bill" Tilden, displaying as fine form as he has ever shown at Wimbledon, had his German opponent, D. Prenn, at his mercy, as did Miss Helen Wills with her German girl opponent, Mrs. Schronburg. Tilden won, 6-0, 6-0, 8-6. While Miss Wills ran her wins to 24 consecutive games with a 6-0, 6-0, victory.

Defeat Avenged

Little Fraulein Aussem partly avenged the defeat of her fellow countrymen as she forced Mrs. Molla Mallory of the United States to taste defeat, 6-4, 6-1.

It had been 20 years since Mrs. May Sutton Bunday, California, played at Wimbledon, but none of her skill was lacking as she defeated Ermyntrude Harvey, Britain, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Wilmer Allison of Texas, disposed of J. D. P. Wheatley of England 6-1, 6-1, 6-1. John Hennessey eliminated J. D. Frowen, of Great Britain 6-2, 6-1, 7-5, and George Lott put L. Bonsi of Italy out 6-1, 6-0, 6-3, to complete the American men's singles triumphs. Tilden and Hunter paired to take their first doubles match from Alcoim and Robbin of England, 6-2, 6-2, 4-6, 3-6, 6-0.

Dallas Netter Is Victor In Match

KANSAS CITY, June 26. (AP) — James Quick, Dallas, and Fred Royer, Chicago, today were the first players in the Missouri state tennis tournament to enter the quarter finals in the matched singles.

Quick defeated Dean Parks, Columbia, Mo., 6-0, 6-1. Royer won from G. H. Boehmer Jr., St. Louis, 6-1, 6-1.

David Freedtrn, Tulsa, upset early predictions by defeating John Barr, Dallas, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Meet In 15-Round Bout Tonight

Paulino Uzcundun, left, hitherto punch-proof woodchopper from the Pyrenese of Spain, and Max Schmeling, Teutonic slugger with a Jack Dempsey scowl, are carded in the main attraction at the Yankee Stadium tonight in what promises to be a heavyweight struggle of entertaining possibilities. The young German has been picked the winner by the majority of the critics.

Chisum Aggregation Fails To Show Hustle Displayed In Early Part Of Season; Errors Numerous

The Hardware Dealers were complete masters of ceremonies at Merrill Park Wednesday evening, handing the Auto-Barbers a sound drubbing to the tune of 12 to 2 in one of the most ragged exhibitions played in the twilight loop this season.

Taking the field with a ragged lineup, the Auto-Barbers bore no resemblance of the team that led the city race here during the early weeks of the season. Throughout the six innings of the slow contest the losers played a listless brand of baseball, both in the field and at bat.

Hinson breezed along with little effort and held the Chisum outfit to three scattered hits while his mates were slamming the offerings of Crites and Smith for 13 base knocks. The Hardware nine scored in each inning.

Red Hill, Hardware backstop, continued his heavy clouting, leading the attack for the winners with a home run and a double.

"NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD"

Former Bandit Weds Sweetheart

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 26 (AP)—Reunited after 33 years of seperation, Jack Dalton, 60, former Oklahoma outlaw, and "Cattle Annie" Burke, his boyhood sweetheart, were married in an aerial ceremony here today.

Dalton drove here in a truck from Arizona, and the couple took out a marriage license. They were taken aloft in a cabin plane. The wedding servce was conducted by Justice of the Peace Ritt.

The story is told that when posses were scouring the country for the Dalton gang in 1896 after a jail break at Guthrie, Okla., it was 'Cattle Annie", young daughter of the west, who carried information and food to the hidden bandits.

Today Dalton related that lack of food would have put an end to their hiding "early in the game" if it had not been for the loyalty of the woman he married.

Later in the year of 1896 the entire Dalton gang was rounded up and sentenced to the penitentiary for participation in the robbery of a bank at Goffeyville, Kas. Dalton lost all track of the girl who had befriended him until a few years ago. Since then they have been corresponding.

Jack Dalton reformed, he said, after he was pardoned and released from the penitentiary. For many years he has been an ardent spokesman for law and order. His bride is a rancher in Arizona and the couple will return there, to make their home.

Intercollegiate Reduced to Eight

When the flying sand divots cleared away, Yale had three men among the eight survivors, Georgetown had two and Princeton, Oregon and Minnesota, one each.

The members of the "Charmed Circle" in the order in which they meet in the quarter-final round tomorrow are:

J. H. Reger, Georgetown, vs. Fred Bannerot, Yale.

Marshall Forrest, Yale, vs. Don Moe, Oregon.

Maurice McCarthy, Jr., Georgetown, the defending champion, vs. Tommy Aycock, Yale.

Lester Bolstad, Minnesota, vs John G. Jones, of Princeton.

OFFICERS DISMISSED

Federal Investigation Is Made Of Slayings

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 26. (AP) — A federal investigation of charges that five Phoenix policemen had slain two Mexicans and wounded a Nicaraguan in a "frame-up" of a drug store robbery here last January had resulted today in their dismissal.

The shooting was followed by complaints of the Mexican and Nicaraguan governments based on an affidavit of Rudolph Vieles, 19, Nicaragua, who said the officers gave him and his companions liquor, took them to the store in a police car and shot them down after forcing them to attempt a robbery.

Robison Trial

the previous question was ordered and recessing until tomorrow, when attorneys will sum up the testimony.

The resolution presenting the exoneration motion was proposed by Stevenson of Junction and 66 others. It recited that "After carefully considering the testimony, we are of the opinion that the evidence submitted does not show the commissioner of high crime and misdemeanors, and does not show any matters that warrant the penalties of impeachment," and proposed that all charges against the commissioner be dismissed.

Thompson, of Houston, rising to personal privilege, declared that the proceeding was unfair to Mr. Robison and that the matter should not be brought to an "irregular" end.

"I would not want any mob to clear me were I charged with such an offense as this," he shouted.

Hogg of Houston declared that he merely wanted to protest against the attempted action and put members of the house on guard "before you permit the steam roller to smash us to hell."

Others who pleaded for a chance for the attorneys to argue, declared they were inclined to vote to clear Mr. Robison of charges, but that they would be forced to register not voting on the pending motion. Some said they did not care to let some of his alleged indiscretions go unchallenged and preferred voting for a motion couched in language different from one that would absolve him of all blame.

The move to exonerate the accused state official came late, after both sides had rested.

recently enacted farm bill would go a long way toward easing the farmer's plight.

John A. Topping, of New York, vice-president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, recommended before the metals sub-committee a moderate revision upward of the rate on manufactured iron and steel products and removal of the duty of Manganese, a raw material used in steel making. The manganese duty, unchanged in the bill, was "enormously burdensome," he said.

Appearing before the woolen manufacturers, Franklin W. Hobbs, of Boston, told a sub-committee that the house rate on manufactured wool were considered fair by the industry, but warned that if the base rates were changed in any manner higher, compensatory duties should be provided on the processed goods.

F. E. Mollin, of Denver, representing the American National Livestock association, urged the sundries sub-committee to replace the house duty of 10 per cent on hides with a specific rate of 6 cents a pound on green and 10 cents on dried.

Mollin's plea was indorsed by E. D. Spiller of Fort Worth, who represented the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association.

Domestic exports of American industrial machinery last year were two and one-half times those of 1913.

Prohibition Pamphlet Will Be Studied By Doran

WASHINGTON, June 26. (AP) — Withdrawal from present circulation of a prohibition bureau pamphlet suggesting the teaching of prohibition subjects in the public schools was announced today by Commissioner Doran. The pamphlet was made public recently by Anna B. Sutter, director of the bureau's educational division.

Doran said it would not be issued until he had studied it.

The pamphlet was published, he added, while he was away from Washington. The commissioner issued a statement disclaiming any intention of the prohibition bureau to use the schools as a place to disseminate prohibition propaganda.

Dawes Striking At Royal Court

LONDON, June 26. (AP)—The simple dignity of the ordinary American evening dress worn by United States Ambassador Charles G. Dawes tonight made him a striking figure at the third royal court of this brilliant social season held at Buckingham Palace.

The dress he chose instead of the customary silk knee breeches prescribed by court custom and adopted by his two immediate predecessors was accentuated by the brilliant uniforms and glittering medals of other diplomats representing nearly every country in the world.

Eight American young women were presented by Ambassador and Mrs. Dawes.

Her Majesty stood in a beautiful gown of green and gold in the midst of the great ballroom in front of a single golden throne.

As at the first court this year the Prince of Wales walked at his mother's side in the procession from the drawing room to the ballroom and then took his place in the royal circle.

series of successful innovations. Instead of inaugurating a policy of rigid economy, he increased expenditures for maintenance of way, equipment and wages, and made the railroad pay handsome profits. Employes not only were paid wages above the union scales but were made actual partners in the undertaking.

The railroad formed an important link in the huge Ford production system.

When in 1926, the Interstate Commerce Commission placed a tentative valuation of $11,826,300 on the railroad, Mr. Ford protested, saying the proper valuation to be used for rate making purposes and "fair return," was $23,061,208.

MRS. CROSS AT LIBERTY

GREENVILLE, June 26. (AP)—Mrs. Oscar Cross remained at liberty today under a $10,000 bond. She was charged with fatally shooting Mrs. W. E. Reid on the streets of Cumby Monday. Yesterday she waived examining trial and the bond under which she had been free was reinstated.

After the shooting, Mrs. Cross said that the wrong woman was shot. The bullet, it was said, was intended for someone else. No intimation of who the person was, or what was the cause was given.

Jury In Trial Of Officers Completed

LAREDO, Texas, June 26. (AP) — The state's case against two suspended officers for the slaying of Harry Williams, Laredo newspaperman, still was a mystery today as the last juror was chosen for the trial of Tomas Hernandez and Raymond J. West.

Hernandez, former motorcycle officer, and west, former deputy constable, were arrested after Williams' body had been found in heavy underbrush on the bank of the Rio Grande. Williams had been the object of a vast search since his disappearance while on his way home. The state has not indicated on what grounds it would base its case, nor did interrogation of 150 prospective jurors from whom the jury was selected give any hint.

Defense counsel, however, asked talesmen today whether the fact that a man was intoxicated when a crime was committed would influence them.

Relatives of Williams in Muncie, Ind., the young reporter's former home, have employed special counsel to aid the prosecution. Galloway Calhoun, assistant attorney general, also has been assigned to the case.

Case Of 6-Year-Old Slayer Off Books

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 26. (AP)—The case of 6-year-old Carl Newton Mahan, slayer of a playmate, appeared today to have been written off the books with the boy back where he was before a jury convicted him and a judge sentenced him to remain in the state reform school until he was 21.

J. W. Cammack, state attorney general, to whom local prosecuting authorities at Paintsville, where the boy was convicted, left final decision on an appeal, announced today that his department has completed a study of the case. While Mr. Cammack made no further statement, it was understood on good authority that he will take no action.

TEXAS—

From the Red River to the Rio Grande —It's Black Land Prairie and Roads

THE Black Land Prairie of Texas is all one could ask for in the raising of crops. The land of agriculture.

Yet, impassable roads too often prevent marketing when prices are right.

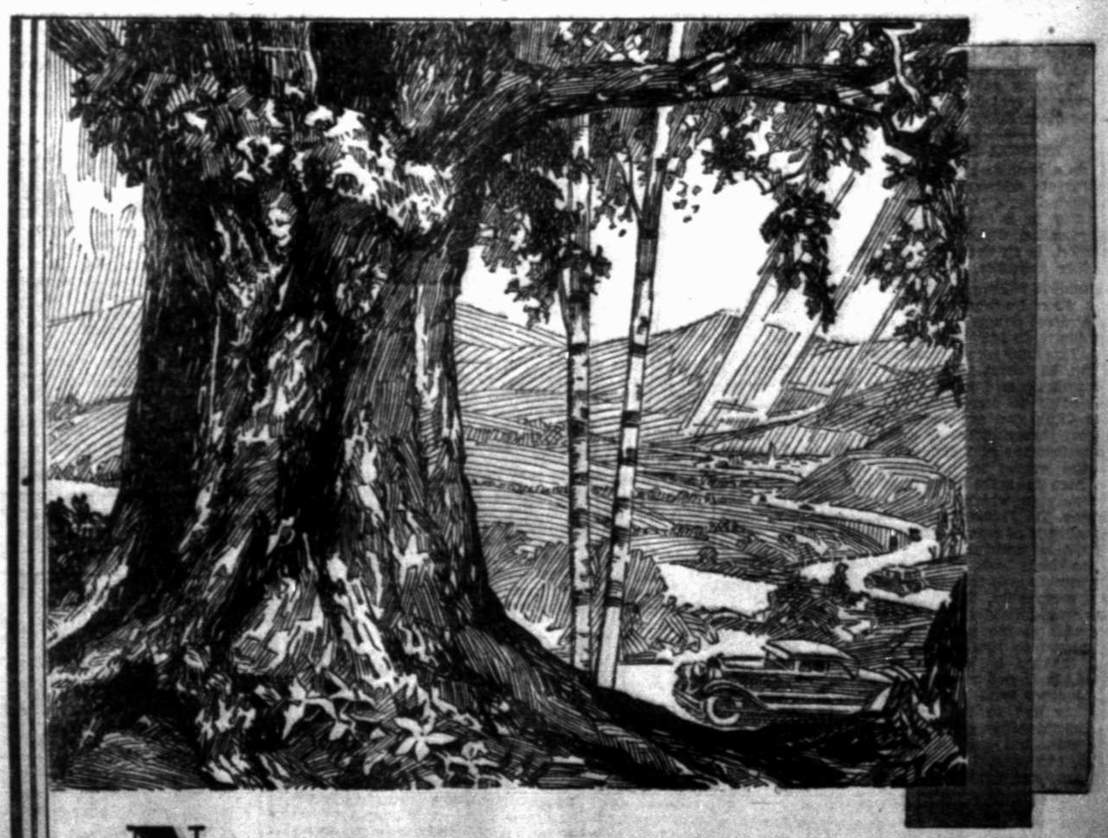

Shifting, creeping, waxy soil will put any road material but portland cement concrete to the test. Open to traffic every day in the year—portland cement concrete pavements permit daily marketing at a much lower cost of truck operation —a benefit for both shipper and consumer.

Through years of use portland cement concrete pavement retains its place—first in pavements where the land is blackest.

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

All things I have seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in wickedness.—Ecclesiastes, vii, 15.

THE MILK AND ICE FUND

ALTHOUGH far removed from the metropolitan class, Lubbock, like every other city, has its social and economic problems.

We have no slums, no factory problems. Aumsement for all types of persons doesn't worry us in the least. Out here on the wide, open plains there is refreshingly little class distinction. All in all, the measure of a man and his family is not closely associated with the dollar mark but is based, rather upon the kind of people they are.

But within the city,s confines there are people upon whom fortune has frowned. There are families which are needy—families whose members can be aided by other Lubbock citizens upon whom fortune has blandly smiled. The road lies open before us. There is no doubt concerning the direction we should take.

The Avalanche-Journal-Federated Aid societies Milk and Ice fund is a worthy vehicle for helping the needy throughout the summer months. There are little boys and little girls, right here in Lubbock, who need the body-building strength of plenty of good milk. There are care-worn mothers who do not know what it means to have ice in the summer. There are whole families whose health is endangered by lack of refrigeration facilities for food. The need in this regard is dire.

There is not a great deal of poverty in Lubbock. In fact there is probably less dire need than in average cities of this size. But, as Saint Mark quotes his Savior in the 14th chapter, seventh verse, "—ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good—" and this city is no exception to the rule.

The Avalanche doesn't know a better method of doing good through the summer months than by contributing to the milk and ice fund. If all of us will chip in just a little bit no one will be cramped by the gift while many will profit.

Bring the question home to your own family. Suppose your boys and girls didn't get enough milk and a milk and ice fund solved the problem. Suppose your food had to be endangered to spoiling because you couldn't afford ice. Wouldn't you feel good—way down in your heart—when a milk and ice fund organization stepped in and safeguarded the health of your loved one? You bet you would!

The next time you pass a bottle with a milk and ice fund card on it drop some change in it. Repeat the performance throughout the summer and you'll be doing good. Let's put the milk and ice fund over in real Lubbock style—and, incidentally, help the other fellow and his kiddies along!

INERTIA AND INDIVIDUALITY

It is a healthy sign of the times that so many baccalaureate addresses of 1929 stressed the dignity of individuality. Greater emphasis on the value of personality is a needed antidote to the spirit of standardization which, properly serving scientific production, is in danger of entering into academic and other activities, not always with such benefit.

President Hibben, of Princeton, put the case succinctly when he warned the graduating class that their greatest danger is in inertia. There is nothing so conducive to inertia as standardization and mass action. The man who is content to let others do his thinking, to accept the dogma of any group without examining and judging it, to govern his course in life solely to correspond with what others do or say or think, can not possibly develop individuality, any more than a picket on a fence.

Development of individuality is the road to success, the means to happiness, and the way for every man to make himself of maximum value to the society in which he lives and moves and has his being. Dr. Hibben rightly declares that a man's personality is of supreme value to him. To surrender it should be unthinkable.

The whole basis of the American theory of human association is to safeguard the integrity of individual personality. The constitution of the United States was devised to protect every American from the cradle to the grave, and even such rights as may accrue to him before he is born, and those which in turn he may convey to others after he is dead. It is not merely a man's duty to himself, but for every loyal American citizen it is his duty to society and to the government, to respect his own individuality, and the individuality of every other man and woman. Only by this scrupulous respect can Americans remain, in the broadest sense, free and equal.

ALL KINDS OF ADVICE

These are the days of commencement advice. And it is certainly interesting to note the wide variety. Here are a few current samples.

Dr. John M. Thomas, president of Rutgers University: "Don't be afraid of overalls, nor grease and grime. Don't take the easiest job that offers, but rather the hardest one you can find."

Dean Christian Gauss, of Princeton University: "Simply do the things that other people do better than other people do them. You don't have to worry about anything else."

Professor Robert E. Rogers, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology: "Be snobs. It is just as easy to marry the boss' daughter as his stenographer."

Senator Royal S. Copeland: "Don't be snobs. Don't try to mary the boss' daughter. God bless you if you are lucky enough to marry his stenographer."

Governor Morgan F. Larson, New Jersey: "An education means nothing if it is not put to use. My advice is to use the power you have gained through education by helping your home, your municipality and your state."

These meagre gleanings from the array of graduation counsel should be enough to convince the most ambitious moralist that the 1929 crop of seniors is being well cared for by our forensic philosophers. The assortment makes it possible for one to choose his favorite brand of ethics and walk confidently along any one of a dozen alluring roads to success.

A New York woman wants a divorce because as a husband her spouse is a philosopher. Well, there's something to be said for a little Aristotle in the home.

SOLONS LAUGH AS SENATOR ASSERTS CIGARETTES MAY EXCEED LIQUOR EVIL

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 26. — "An evil which promises to be greater than alcohol!"

Senator Reed Smoot overdid matters when he said that— of cigarettes.

He might have said it of dope and won a good many endorsements. Plenty of lawmakers speak with alarm of the drug habit's spread. A lot more education evidently will be needed to bring them to a realization of the danger in cigarettes.

The Utah senator's warning only got him laughed at the other day.

Nothing is more fatal to a cause in congress than to have the legislators treat it as a joke.

* * * *

Not only was it plain that his brother solons considered Senator Smoot's prediction exaggerated. They also seemed to think it funny, as coming from a prophet representing his particular part of the country.

Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina — a couple of crossed cigarettes would make an appropriate coat of arms for that commonwealth—chuckled audibly when I asked him his opinion of his Mormon fellow statesman's newly-launched crusade.

"Did you ever hear of Utah among our leading beet sugar states?" he inquired, grinning.

"A cigarette instead of a sweet!"

Again the senator gave that rich southern chuckle of his.

True, Senator Smoot denied that he was leading up to a demand for out-and-out prohibition.

He smokes cigars himself.

But then, some of Volsteadism's strongest standbys drink 'licker."

However, all the Utah lawmaker professes to be aiming at is to stop the "orgy of buncombe, quackery and downright falsehood and fraud which marks the current campaign promoted by certain cigarette manufacturers to create a vast woman and child market for their products."

* * * *

Quite a few members of congress say that their risibles might not have been so much tickled if Senator Smoot simply to denounce the touting of tobacco as a food, a drink, a tonic and a cure for all human ailments.

Nobody admits ridiculing him for invoking the pure food and drugs act to prevent misleading advertising, or for protesting against the encouragement of smoking by school children.

It is when he says—

"That American womankind has been passing during the last five years through one of those periodic crazes that have afflicted womankind since the world began is no secret—"

Then the cachinnation starts.

"Craze will be right, when American womankind has had time to digest that statement," as one senator remarked, between snickers.

* * * *

All the same, some congressmen believe that Senator Smoot had fired the first shot in what may develop into a vicious fight between sugar and tobacco interests—with the advantage distinctly in the formers' favor, because sugar cannot very well be prohibited, but tobacco can be, if enough of that kind of prohibition sentiment should be stirred up—and there are people who would like to see it stirred up.

Senator Overman refuses to be frightened.

"In my judgment," he ventures, "we have all the prohibition now that we ever are likely to have." But lots of folkh said that before the eighteenth amendment.

Your Health

COMMON FOODS LIKE EGGS AND STRAWBERRIES ARE THE CAUSE OF ILLNESS FOR SOME PEOPLE

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

When a person is sensitive to various protein substances he is likely to manifest that sensitivity by reactions in the way of various symptoms when the protein gets into his body.

Some people break out every time they eat strawberries. This does not mean that there is anything wrong with strawberries, but there is something special about the person who breaks out which makes him react to strawberries.

Among other symptoms resulting from sensitivity besides rash on the skin, there may be swelling of the lips or other portions of the body, shortness of breath due to contractions of the breathing tubes and filling up of the tubes with fluid. When a doctor is called to see such a case, he tries to find out first the nature of the substance to which the person may be sensitive.

Illnesses of the type described have resulted in some people from contact with milk, eggs, animal hair, feathers, flax, the dandruff of various animals, and all sorts of food substances. A person who is sensitive may be affected by an infinitesimal amount of the substance concerned in the attack. As much as one-tenth of a cubic centimeter of a solution of 1:10,000 parts of the substance may be sufficient to produce severe reactions in a sensitive person.

A man who was sensitive to some substance in connection with glue was injected under the skin with one one-hundreths of a cubic centimeter of glue and he had symptoms violent enough to cause worry as to whether or not he would live.

When a specialist tries to find out the nature of the substance to which a person is sensitive, he makes a skin test. In the skin test, a very small amount of the substance is put on a scratch which is made on the skin, and the reaction is compared with the amount of reaction on a scratch to which simple salt water or some similar substance has been added. In this way it is found that people are sometimes sensitive to a great many different protein substances.

After the nature of the sensitivity is determined, the next step is to desensitize the person, if possible. Unfortunately, it is not always possible to do this because of various conditions that exist in the body. If the symptoms are severe, the physician can relieve them by the use of various drugs which have the special effect of making the breathing easier and of relaxing the constricted breathing tubes, which are in spasm.

AL SMITH'S OWN STORY

News that former Governor Alfred E. Smith is to produce an autobiography will be scanned eagerly by many people throughout the world. Everyone who has the slightest idea of the governor's colorful career will concede that the forthcoming literary effort promises something distinctive in the field of political criticism as well as in the field of letters.

Al Smith's career has been chock full of the incidents which work for human interest. His rise from the sidewalks of a great metropolis, his youthful fling at the drama, his fish market days, his early experiences in the New York assembly, his steady advance in the Empire State democracy—these are aspects of the brown derby story which already have attracted international attention.

To have such gripping episodes related not by an outside observer but by the man Smith himself is a prospect which is enough to whet the literary appetite of the millions.

"MISSISSIPPI BUBBLE"

On June 27, 1720, the gigantic banking and commercial scheme, the "Mississippi Bubble," burst.

The scheme was projected in France by the celebrated Scottish financier, John Law, to resuscitate the French finances by removing some of the debt which followed the wars of Louis XIV.

Money was to flow into France by developing the resources of the province of Louisiana and the country bordering on the Mississippi—a tract at that time believed to abound in precious metals.

A company was incorporated in 1717 and started with capital of 100,000,000 livres. Two hundred thousand shares were placed on the market and eagerly bought up.

In 1719, the company changed its name and obtained a monopoly of trading to the East Indies, China and the South Seas and all the possessions of the French East India company. The brilliant visions opened up to the public gaze was irresistible.

Public enthusiasm became an absolute frenzy. A factitious impulse was given trade in Paris; paper currency to the face value of 2,700,000,000 livres flooded the country.

Many wary investors, foreseeing a crisis, secretly converted their paper and shares into gold. Scarcity of gold and silver in France becoming acute, a general run was made on the national bank. The government issued an order reducing the value of bank notes and shares in the company by one-half.

The final crisis came in 1720, when the bank stopped payment and Law was compelled to flee the country. A share in the Mississippi now brought with difficulty 24 livres.

Today's Poem

INTERLUDE

The days grow shorter, the nights grow longer,
The headstones thicken along the way;
And life grows sadder, but love grows stronger
For those who walk with us day by day.

The tears come quicker, the laugh comes slower,
The courage is lesser to do and dare;
And the tide of joy in the heart runs lower
And seldom covers the reefs of care.

But all true things in the world seem truer,
And the better things of the earth seem best;
And friends are dearer as friends are fewer,
And love is all as our run dips west.

Then let us clasp hands as we walk together,
And let us speak softly, in love's sweet tone,
For no man knows, on the morrow, whether
We two pass by, or but one alone.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox (1855-1919)

4-H Eliminations To Be Held Here

Elimination contests for the selection of the teams which will represent Lubbock county at the short course at College Station will be held for 4-H club boys and girls by County Agent D. F. Eaton and Miss Louise Baird, county home demonstration agent, next Saturday.

Poultry judging for boys and girls will be held from 9 till 12 o'clock in the morning, and grain judging will be conducted for boys at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Without argument, it will be admitted that since the World War agriculture has not come back to the economic quality with the rest of our people, either actually or relatively. Farm people constitute 25 per cent of our people, own 20 per cent of our national wealth, but their income is but one per cent of their total." — Representative Ketcham of Michigan.

"There are three inalienable rights in the Declaration of Independence—life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. There is no ambiguity to life and liberty. But the pursuit of happiness opens the door to difficult interpretations." — Charles R. Mann, director of the American Council of Education.

"We in the United States cannot 'rest on our oars,' nor allow ourselves to become overconfident because of the advantages which we possess."—Dr. Julius Klein, assistant secretary of commerce.

"In all my 35 years' experience, the greatest failures I have known in business have been educated chaps waiting for their ships to come in. There is no substitute for hard work; but education is the great shock absorber on life's highway."—Governor Myers Y. Cooper of Ohio.

Food Preservation Is 4-H Club Topic

Meeting of 4-H clubs to be held this week will hear the topic of "Food Preservation" discussed by Miss Louise Baird, county home demonstration agent.

Miss Baird met Wednesday afternoon with the New Hope club in the home of Miss Willie May Prather. Friday morning a girls club meeting will be held at County Line in the home of Miss Lucille Bourland, and another will be held Friday afternoon at Hardy community in the home of Miss Faustina Woodruff.

Home demonstration club women will discuss "Budgeting" at a meeting to be held at Union this afternoon.

Serves One Hour For Impression

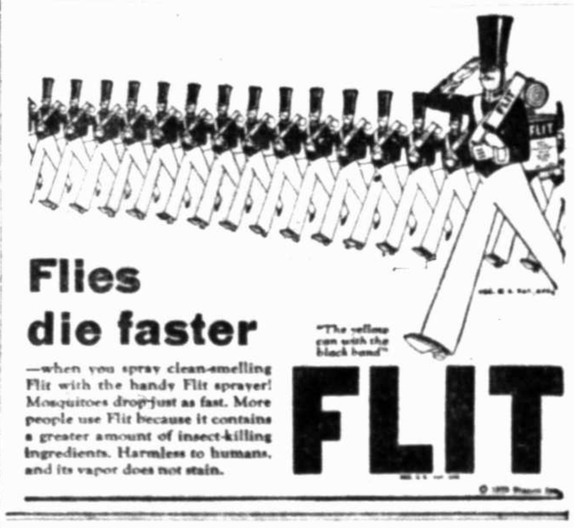

"Please suh, Mistah Judge, I don't wanta go ta jail—I ain't nevah been in that place. I ain't nevah did anything wrong befoah and I promise I nevah will again if you'll only let me go—I'll pay back evah cent of that money—honest I will."

Such was the plea of a young negro girl when she was brought before County Judge Robert H. Bean Wednesday afternoon on a charge of raising checks. Judge Bean delivered her a lecture on obeying the law and told her where her actions would finally land her should she continue to practice them. With this he had her placed in a cell for an hour to impress on her mind the gravity of what she had done.

Inspiring Environments

Youth becomes inspired through reading good literature which creates the desire to build a worthwhile life.

A bank and its officials may be an inspiration to the young folks to accomplish success financially.

We want parents to know that this bank wishes to be the right kind of an inspiration to the young boys and girls of this community. Many find our advice helpful, and parents are cordially invited to discuss the future plans for their boys and girls with us.

Strong Rallying Tendencies Seen In Stock Market

Railroads And Public Utilities Mount To Record High Levels As Industria Averages Are Lifted

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, June 26. (AP)—Strong rallying tendencies again developed in today's stock market, with railroad and public utility averaging mounting to record high levels and the industrial average was lifted to within five points of the peak established just prior to the May reaction. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, the day's sales aggregating 4,029,740 shares, as against a recent average turnover, of around 3,000,000 shares.

Credit conditions were unchanged —call money holding at 10 per cent.

Increase Expected.

Wall street looks for another large increase in federal reserve brokers' loans tomorrow, due not only to the revival of bullish activity this week but to the increase in borrowings made necessary by the expirations of stock purchase "rights."

Except for the publication of another series of favorable earnings statements, particularly by the class 1 carriers, there were few developments in the day's news to influence the price movement.

General Electric advanced to a new high at 317 8-8 and then dropped back to 313 1-4, up 4 1-4. U. S. Steel common crossed and then ceased to 188 7-8, up 4 points net. New high prices also were established by such widely assorted issues as Allied Chemical, Allis Chalmers, International Telephone, Public Service of New Jersey, Westinghouse Electric, Auburn Motors, Kinney Co., National Dairy Products and Timken Roller Bearing.

Cattle; calves, choice white face 11.00@12.00, good medium 9.00@11.00, common and dogies 6.00@8.50; yearlings and heavy heifers, choice 9.00@11.00; cows, choice 7.50@6.00, good medium 6.50@7.50, common and cutters 4.00@6.00, canners 2.00@4.00; bulls, heavy butchers 6.50@7.00; heavy bolognas 6.00@6.50.

Hogs; choice butchers 9.25@9.50; choice light weights 8.50@9.00; choice heavies 8.50@9.25; packing sows 6.75@8.50.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH June 26. (AP)—Slowness with a further reduction on cattle and calves featured trade; steers and calves declined while cows, bulls and yearlings about steady, but slow.

One car of plain steers sold at 8.00; bulls a little slow, but about steady; heavy bulls of better quality around 8.50; good yearlings at 14.60.

Cows very slow but about steady with the decline of the week. A few individuals sold at 9.25@9.50.

Calves a bit uneven with few load lots offered; early sales called 25-50c lower, vealers sold at 12.50; few heavy calves at 11.25.

Stocker cattle plentiful and values about steady.

Hogs very slow, early bids 10-15c lower; shorn fat wethers mostly 25c lower, other classes steady.

WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, June 26.—(AP)—After many rapid changes, down and up, wheat prices today closed under extreme tension but at almost the exact level of 24 hours before. Rains regarded as of much benefit to the spring wheat crop in Canada tended to pull values down, but on the other hand domestic wheat crop advices southwest and northwest alike were pessimistic and at times hoisted the market fast. Lowest estimates yet received were current as to the result of 1929 wheat production both in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Wheat finished nervous, unchanged to 1-2c lower, with corn 1-8 to 1 1-8c up, oats unchanged to 3-8c off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 12c.

Rotarians Discuss Agriculture Here

Agriculture as the foundation for all West Texas business was the chief topic for discussion at the regular weekly luncheon program of Lubbock Rotarians Wednesday.

B. M. Whiteker, head of the agricultural department of the West Texas chamber of commerce, and Col. C. C. French, livestock counsellor and representative of the Fort Worth livestock exchange, were the principal speakers of the [illegible].

President Robert J. Murray, presiding for the last time of his administration, made a few remarks. Jerry J. Clements is to take the president's chair at the next meeting.

[illegible] guests were present, including a number of directors of the Board of City Development.

Early Advances Are Followed By Irregularities

NEW YORK, June 26. (AP)—Early advances on reports of further rains or showers in eastern and central belt sections were followed by an irregular and reactionary market for cotton here today. Realizing evidently was promoted by a favorable view of the weekly weather review.

Going 13 points net lower, while July was relatively firm, holding well above yesterday's closing quotations. October closed at 18.52, with the general market closing steady net 11 points higher to 12 points lower.

Opening Steady.

The opening was steady at an advance of 4 to 5 points.

One private weekly crop review said correspondents were expecting an increase of about 2 per cent in acreage weather during the past week had been generally favorable although too wet locally in the Carolinas, western Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma.

Liverpool cables reported continental and Bombay buying. Port receipts today 2,001. U. S. port stocks 846,056. Ports today 3,962, making 79,439 so far this season.

Cotton Develops Downward Pace In Wednesday Mart

NEW ORLEANS, June 26 (AP)—Cotton developed a moderate downward tendency in today's trading, after an early gain on rains overnight in the eastern belt. Prices turned easier on a report from the Mississippi plant board showing diminished weevil infestation in that state, coupled with a favorable weekly weather and crop summary from Washington and prospects for fair weather in the western half of the belt.

While the decline carried July down only 14 points from the early high, new crop months declined 23 points. July, which at the close yesterday was 10 points under October, closed at the same price as that month today. October, after advancing to 18.64, up 3 points declined 23 points to 18.43 and closed at 18.42 or 14 points net lower for the day. The general market closed steady 5 to 16 points net lower.

Liverpool Lower.

Liverpool came in 2 points lower to 2 better than due and first trades here showed gains of 1 to 2 points.

Receipts 2,051; for week 9,279; for year 9,318,667; last year 8,417,477. Exports 3,962; for week 38,125; for year 7,665,291; last year 7,206,675. Stock 849,930; last year 914,581; shipboard stock 61,113; last year 69,575. Spot sales at southern markets 1,968; last year 10,481.

Chinese General Resigns For Tour

NANKING, China, June 26 (AP)—General Chiang Kai-Shek, so-called president of Nationalist China, today notified leaders of north-western China that General Feng Yu-Hsiang, erstwhile leader of the central China military opposition, had resigned from his command and had decided to leave China for a foreign tour.

Chiang said he appointed Yen Hsi-Shan, minister of interior and Shansi soldier and politician, to succeed Feng and henceforth administer the northwest provinces. Yen has been instructed to afford full protection to Feng's person and guarantee his safety.

President Chiang Kai-Shek's announcement places Chinese politics in an entirely new position as Feng for the past few months had represented the chief opposition to the central Nationalist government at Nanking.

HAVE WEEK TO DECIDE

Texas League Owners Must Act On Split Season

DALLAS, June 26. (AP)—Only a week at most remaining in which Texas League owners can make up their minds about a split season, at least four still are dead set against dividing the schedule. A majority is necessary to effect the split.

The four clubs that swore opposition to the move in a poll conducted today were Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and San Antonio. Unless one of the quartet changes its mind within the next six days there will not even be a meeting to discuss the matter.

The four other clubs, including the third place Shreveporters, declined to make a statement.

Church Meet Hears Plainview Pastor

Rev. Charles Harris, Jr., Speaks To Conference Of Episcopal Church In City Wednesday Night

The Rev. Chas. Harris, Jr., of Plainview, was the speaker of the evening at the Wednesday's meeting of the North Texas conference of the Protestant Episcopal church. Rev. Harris took as his subject "Social Service Work in Hospitals."

He emphasized the importance of cooperation between the church and the hospital in the handling of patients, stating that the church must recognize there is a psychological method of approaching a patient who worries and is naturally pessimistic.

"Tact is necessary in social service work," said Rev. Harris, "and Christ and not the church should be the motive of the work. Persons visiting patients in hospitals must realize and recognize the fact that they are subnormal and should govern their methods accordingly.

"The financial problem is found to be one of the greatest to worry a patient and I believe that there should be a series of state endowed hospitals for those who cannot pay their own expenses."

T.C.U. Journalism Head Visits Here

Playing the role of good will evangel among West Texans who have signified intentions of enrolling at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, J. Willard Ridings, chairman of the department of journalism of that institution, is confering with prospective students in Lubbock today and incidentally discussing the next meeting of the Southwest Journalism Congress, of which he is president and of which Texas Tech is a member.

"My visit to Lubbock is not primarily for the purpose of enrolling students, but to see Texas Tech, of which I have heard much favorable comment, and to discuss the next journalism congress meeting," said Mr. Ridings. "This college is sharing with Lubbock in doing things in a big way, and both the institution and the city are benfitting by the current comment over the state."

Diverting from the general topic, Mr. Ridings said that Texas Christian University is hopeful that Texas Tech will soon be admitted to the Southwestern Conference.

The average American home uses artificial light seven hours per day during December and only two and one-half hours during the month of June.

"We still chew our own food"

"WE sweep the floor, run the separator, churn the milk, wash the clothes, light the house and buildin's, run the grinder, pump the water and milk the cows with Delco-Light. We still chew our own food for the love of exercise, but there ain't much else we can do better'n Delco-Light.

"That ain't laziness or extravagance either. It's just plain horse sense. We save the price of two hired hands, git more milk and eggs, don't spend money anymore for Ma's back and my lumbago and git solid comfort to boot."

The Delco-Light user who said all those things put the facts plain and easy. And we can show you in black and white just what that farmer and lots like him actually do save by usin' Delco-Light.

ABERNATHY MAN HURT

G. B. Parrish Becomes Entangled With Combine

G. B. Parrish, of Abernathy, was painfully though not seriously injured Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock when his clothing became entangled in a combine, dragging him into the wheels and cutting him in several places. Parrish was running the combine at Monroe when the accident happened.

He was rushed immediately to the Lubbock sanitarium where reports stated his condition was not serious.

Iowans Dominate Omaha Tourney

FIELD CLUB, OMAHA, Neb. June 26 (AP)—Golfers from Iowa dominated the two opening match play championship today, four blasting struggles in the trans-Mississippi through stiff opposition to enter the quarter finals round.

Arthur Bartlett, Ottumwa, defending titleholder, headed the Iowa parade and was joined by "Bud" Maytag, Newton; Denmar Miller, Des Moines College student, and Bob McRacey, Des Moines, who chalked up the most stunning upset of an upset day by eliminating Art Tversa favorite from Minneapolis.

Four other states were represented among the survivors, Nathan Grimes, 21 year old medalist of Denver; Logan Van Zandt of Tulsa, Lee Moeller of Quincy, Ill., and Carl Mogenson of Omaha.

National Open To Get Started Today

MAMORONECK, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—If the country's best professional and amateur golfers are not ready for the open championship now they will not be this year, for the long 72 hole grind will start tomorrow.

Many of the stars remained away from the course today, resting, others spent their time in last minute practice sessions, and the rest feverishly galloped over the course, playing 18 and even 36 holes. Leo Diegel, suffering a lame back, was much better and had a 70 today on his last practice round.

Horton Smith said he was "around eighty."

There were five withdrawals and the list of starters tomorrow was expected to number 148.

Second Venire For Thomas-West Seen

LAREDO, June 26. (AP)—A second venire of 100 was the hope of attorneys today for the balance of the jury to try Thomas Hernandez and Raymond J. West, former Laredo peace officers, on charges of murdering Harry Williams, Laredo newspaper reporter.

Williams' body was found in the Rio Grande early this year almost a month after he disappeared.

Two jurors were chosen yesterday from a panel of 50, and deputies were ordered to have the additional 100 ready for court today.

The incident, read in court, charged Hernandez and West with choking Williams, hitting him on the head and throwing him into the river.

THE BEST PURCHASE

For some time now we have been telling the discriminating real estate buyer about that property up on Q, at 804 and reminding you that for a medium sized purchase there is nothing in Lubbock as good as this.

At $3150 it most certainly does afford the buyer a chance to make some real money. The lot is 55 by 148 and will carry three small stores of economical construction that will pay a better rental rate than high priced realty closer in.

Two Rackets Don't Mix Successfully

Ten Arrests Result When Bootleggers Hijack Rivals; Spurious Bills Are Taken From Men

MACON, Ga., June 26. (AP)—It appears rackets don't mix successfully.

For instance, when a gang of Miami, Fla., bootleggers decided to hijack a Jacksonville rival they neglected to find out whether the money they took from his coat was good.

With secret service men as well as prohibition agents on the trail, the result has been 10 arrests, five in Miami, three in Washington, D. C., and one each in Jacksonville and Macon.

W. M. Bolton of Goulds, Fla., was under $3,000 bond for the federal grand jury here today after his plea of guilty before a United States commissioner on a charge of passing two worthless $50 bills.

George Brodnax, secret service operative, today was authority for the statement that Knack Fields of Jacksonville was the man, hijacked at Miami and had $1,750 worth of spurious bills taken from him. He since has been arrested and placed in jail at Jacksonville.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD

SAN ANTONIO, June 26. (AP)—Funeral services for Otto Wahrmund, 74, pioneer San Antonioan and one time millionaire brewer, who died at his summer home at Kerrville Monday night, were held here today.

There is only one motor car in Spitsbergen, according to government statistics. Wonder if that fellow doesn't feel like taking a chance sometimes when he comes to a red light.

Slaton Will Make 5th Booster Trip

Delegation Of Fifty Will Make Good-Will Visit To Pleasant Valley Friday Night; Program Planned

(Special To The Avalanche)

SLATON, June 26.—The fifth of a series of good will visits to communities around Slaton will be made Friday night by a delegation of 50 or more Slaton people, it is announced by W. H. Smith, chairman of the public relations committee of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce. Pleasant Valley is the point to be visited.

F. H. Sharp, secretary of the Pleasant Valley school board, is in charge of arrangements there for the meeting. A program will be given, and the attendance is expected to reach 300 or more, local officials believe.

Attempts were recently made in England to relay over the radio the song of the nightingale from the upper waters of the Thames.

SPUR MASONS TO MOVE

Lodge Will Occupy Its Own Building After July 1

(Special To The Avalanche)

SPUR, June 26.—Spur Masons will move into their own building on the first of July, and the building that they now occupy will be made into offices that will be desirable locations.

The Wilson hotel is operating in their new building on East Harris street, and it is understood that the hotel will serve as a bus terminal.

The city commission of Spur has been consulting engineers relative to some paving that will be done immediately on Burlington avenue.

One Man Fight On Near Beer Starts

Former Chief Of Police In Iowa Claims Drink Is Malt Beverage, Included In State Pro Measure

DES MOINES, Ia., June 26. (AP)—A one-man crusade against the sale in Iowa of near beer was under full steam today, with John B. Hammond, former chief of police, furnishing the power. Hammond holds no official law enforcement position at present.

The 150,000 bottles of the beverage which were seized several days ago under a search warrant obtained by Hammond, were the subject of a court hearing today. It is Hammond's contention that near beer, being a malt beverage, comes under the intoxicating liquor restriction of the state prohibition law.

Letters have been mailed by Hammond to all railroad companies operating in Iowa warning them that legal steps would be taken to prevent near beer shipments into the state and "no quarter" would be shown.

FOUR CARS LICENSED

Only four licenses for new automobiles were issued from the office of County Tax Collector A. J. Clark Wednesday, three of these to persons living outside of the city.

The four included: A. M. Burns, Dodge coupe; E. D. Stell, Wilson, Ford roadster; Sallie W. Miller, Slaton, Ford sedan, and G. W. Bounds, Slaton, Ford sedan.

Omnibus and tram tickets issued in London each day total up to 7,000,000.

Sale Of Wheat On Protein Content Basis Is Advocated By Prof. Bower

Advocating through a letter to Al Hill, editor of the South Plains Farmer, the sale of wheat by the grower on protein content the same as he sells his milk and cream on butterfat basis, Prof. H. J. Bower, of Texas Technological college, quoted articles from state papers showing that premiums are being paid on wheat in other sections of Texas, in supporting his opinion that similar premiums should be paid throughout the South Plains.

Replying to an inquiry by the Morning Avalanche, Lubbock grain dealers, who have purchased about 125,000 bushels of this season's wheat say that wheat is not purchased locally on protein basis, due to increasingly high protein value of wheat in the northwest, creat'd by dry weather in that section. In other words, they claim there is not the formal outlet for protein wheat, and that wheat marketed in Texas at protein promiums was sold to special mills demanding high protein value.

Average Not High

"The average wheat marketed in Lubbock this season has not rated high enough in protein value to command a premium," is the explanation of George M. Roach, who says further, "unless it is some isolated portion we know nothing about. Wheat marketed here has tested about 12 per cent protein, and premium is offered on none testing less than 13 percent. A premium of one cent per bushel is offered on 13 per cent protein wheat."

One article referred to by Professor Bower was clipped from the Amarillo News and relates sale of a load of wheat at Friona, where a premium of 12 cents was paid to Brown brothers, who farm north of that town. "Wheat, which was in fine condition, was taken to the Santa Fe Grain company elevator where it tested 61 1-2 pounds, and the growers received $1 per bushel which was a premium of 12 cents over the regular price of 88 cents, "the article read. "I wonder why there is a premium of 12 cents per bushel?" Professor Bower asked in his letter.

Another article in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram concerned receipt last Sunday and Monday of 285 cars at the Fort Worth cash grain market. In part, the article read: "This is a record for early receipts of wheat,' declared Chief Federal Grain Inspector V. L. Nigh, 'and the beauty of it is that 75 per cent of this early wheat is grading No. 1 and carrying an average of 13 1-2 per cent protein'."

Kidnapped Man Thought Found

CHICAGO, June 26. (AP)—Police believe they have found the body of the man who a month ago was kidnapped from a taxicab at the point of a gun and whose last words before he was carried away were:

"Ernie, please don't shoot." The body was found in a strawberry patch near Crete, Ill., last night.

The man had been dead about four weeks. A belt was drawn tight around the neck. There was a deep gash in the back of the head.

The body answered the description of the kidnaped man. The "Ernie," police believe, may be Ernie Rossi, aligned with the Al Capone forces.

Presbyterians Of City Hold Revival

Dr. W. R. Hall, pastor of the Manhattan Presbyterian church, El Paso, last evening opened a series of meetings at the First Presbyterian church of this city. It is understood that the meetings will continue through Sunday evening.

Individual opportunities and personal responsibility will be dealt with in addresses by Dr. Hall. His messages will be mainly to members of the Presbyterian church, however, according to J. M. Lewis, pastor the general public of Lubbock is cordially invited to attend.

Bicycle Shop Is Entered By Yegg

No Loot Taken By Robber Who Searches Local Store Tuesday Night; Attempt To Open Safe Is Futile

Boring some 30 holes through a wall to make an opening about 18 inches square, a burglar Tuesday night entered the Lubbock Bicycle Shop, adjoining the R. W. Heim's Tin Shop, through which he made his entrance by a rear window, rummaged through the effects of the shop and made his exit without taking any loot.

According to Roy Lynch, manager of the bicycle shop, the offender tore open a cash drawer, containing only a small amount of money, and then made an attempt to open the safe. This fact was discerned from the unusual position of the combination dial which was customarily left in a certain place.

No merchandise was missing from either of the two shops, investigations Wednesday morning showed.

Bishop Seaman Is Speaker At Tech

"The Majesty of God" was the subject which Bishop E. C. Seaman of Amarillo chose in speaking before a convocation of Texas Tech summer students Wednesday morning.

Bishop Seaman in his address appealed to young men and women to measure up in self sacrifice for the world and for God to the opportunities offered for serving the world and glorifying God the King.

Announcements of school activities were made by Dean J. M. Gordon.

Davis Brothers Will Celebrate

Davis Brothers, local Frigidaire dealers, are this week and next celebrating the passing of the million users mark in cooperation with a nationwide cold control demonstration.

Specific information concerning the new model has been received by the local branch and will be used in showing the advantages of electric refrigeration.

Visitors to the store will be shown the actual operation of the new model which makes available six freezing speeds in the preparation of frozen desserts. Refreshments will be served and souvenir recipe books will be given all visitors, according to the management.

Norfleet Visitor In City Wednesday

J. Frank Norfleet, of Hale Center, known the nation over for his experiences in trailing a gang of "confidence men" several years ago who had swindled him out of a small fortune, was visitor in Lubbock Wednesday, enroute to Dallas.

It is understood that Mr. Norfleet will likely portray his experiences with the "confidence men" on the screen, in response to negotiations with a moving picture company. At this time the famed rancher and farmer is engaged mostly in detective work.

While in this city yesterday Mr. Norfleet was in conference with Sheriff Wade Hardy.

AVIATION'S GIFT TO MOTORISTS

ON the ground or in the air, -TP- Oils keep the engine running smoothly. This new type of oil was originally developed for aviation. Endurance tests soon demonstrated its superiority for airplane engines, and there was an instant demand for an oil that would offer the motorist the same advantages.

Now you can purchase -TP- Aero Oils in grades adapted to automobile engines. These oils are produced from pure, paraffine-base crude by a process for which patents are pending.

This process has marked advantages over other methods. It preserves all the lubricating bodies of the crude oil just as they occur in nature. It eliminates the necessity for blending light and heavy oils to produce various grades, and it positively removes all the paraffine wax.

In terms of performance this means perfect lubrication at all times, smoother, more efficient operation for your engine, longer life, reduced repair bills, and more mileage at less cost per mile. It is wise economy to pay 45c a quart for -TP- Oil.
