Infant Mortality Rate Falls

BALTIMORE (AP) — Federally-subsidized family planning programs appear to narrow the gap between white and non-white infant mortality rates, according to a study by Johns Hopkins University.

The study showed that increases in the use of family planning services by poor women of the child bearing age were paralleled by decreases in non-white infant mortality rates between 1969 and 1973.

Non-white infant mortality in nine Maryland counties fell by more than 26 per cent during this period, while the use of family planning services by needy non-white women rose by 26 per cent.

Drs. Melvyn Thorne and Lawrence Green, who conducted the study, said the lower infant mortality rate cannot be accounted for by general improvement in the living conditions in the counties since they did not experience a pattern of higher incomes or improved social services.

The researchers said available data does not indicate that prenatal clinic visits, well-baby services, improved immunization or the availability of abortion accounted for the improvements in the non-white infant mortality rate.

Instead, Thorne and Green reasoned that the use of birth control reduces the infant mortality rate by reducing the number of high risk infants born.

Doctors associate infant mortality with poverty, very young and very old maternal age, short birth intervals, and with large numbers of children born to one woman.

In the base years of 1969 and 1970, the study showed that only 18 per cent of the needy, non-white women in the counties studied were making use of birth control services supplied by state and federal agencies.

In 1973 and 1974, 41 per cent of the target population was using the services. The number of active non-white users of public birth control facilities increased from 2,488 to 5,508 during the period.

The study, which covered counties where there were more than 10 non-white infant deaths during 1969 and 1970, showed the greatest decreases in non-white infant mortality to be in the counties which also had the greatest increases in the proportion of needy women using public family planning services.

In the two-year base period, Prince Georges County had 137 non-white infant deaths. In 1972 and 1973 after the expansion of federally funded family planning services, the county had 106 non-white infant deaths.

Non-white infant deaths in the county declined from 27 per 1,000 live deaths to 19 per 1,000 live deaths.

Only one of the nine counties studied experienced an increase in non-white infant mortality. St. Marys County had 15 non-white infant deaths in the first period and 17 in the second period.

The Hopkins researchers believe their study is the first to provide direct evidence that family planning programs can improve the health of populations served, although health planners have acted on the assumption for years.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, June 18th, the 170th day of 1976. There are 196 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1815, the British defeated Napoleon in the Battle of Waterloo in Belgium, ending the Napoleonic attempt to dominate Europe.

On this date:

In 1778, in the Revolutionary War, colonial forces entered Philadelphia as the British withdrew.

In 1812, the United States declared war against Britain.

In 1896, a Republican National Convention in St. Louis nominated William McKinley for President.

In 1940, in World War II, the Nazis captured the French port of Cherbourg.

In 1953, Egypt was proclaimed a Republic and Premier Mohammed Naguib became the first president.

In 1958, there was a controversy in Washington about gifts received by President Dwight Eisenhower'a executive assistant, Sherman Adams.

Ten years ago: South Vietnam maintained that the remnants of Buddhist opposition to the government were no longer a problem.

Five years ago: A federal sky marshal, disguised as a pilot, subdued a would-be hijacker aboard a Piedmont airlines jet at the Winston-Salem, North Carolina airport.

One year ago: The slayer of King Faisal of Saudi Arabia was publicly beheaded in front of the government palace in Riyadh.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, the Provincial Conference of Committees met at Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia to take action on a resolution of Congress to establish new governments in the colonies.

REUNITED WITH AMERICAN PARENTS

Former AFS Student Comes Farthest For Class Reunion

By KAY ELLINGTON

When Snyder High School's Class of '61 celebrates its reunion this weekend, Everett Carrlson will definitely "have come the farthest" for the event. Everett is a resident of Stockholm, Sweden.

In 1961, the Swede became Snyder's second American Field Service Student, residing with the Dan Martins. The Martins' son, Dick, was Everett's "brother".

Everett graduated from Snyder High in 1961 and returned to Stockholm. Upon his return, he enrolled at the University of Stockholm and eventually received a Civil Engineering degree. Since, then, the SHS alumnus has been an engineer.

As for the Snyder homecoming, "He has been planning it for over one and a half years.", explained his former American "mother", Mrs. Martin.

Carrlson flew from Stockholm to New York, landing there Sunday. From New York, he flew to Dallas. Dick Martin, who lives in Arlington, greeted the visitor and spent a few days with him.

Yesterday morning, Everett boarded a Greyhound bus en route to a year and a half dream. He arrived in Snyder yesterday afternoon.

A "mini-reunion" was held to greet the returnee at the bus station. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were on hand, as were Principal Horrace Bostick, Gary Roberts, the AFS president, Frances Wiman, a former classmate, Jimmy McFarland, a former classmate and Robert Patterson, a former classmate.

Rioting Spreads In South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — White-ruled South Africa's bloody racial upheaval spread to at least seven black African townships and to other parts of the country today.

Prime Minister John Vorster called the violence, with at least 58 persons reported dead, a determined effort to cause panic and divide the country's whites and blacks.

"We will not be intimidated and will maintain law and order at all costs," he said.

A senior police officer said that navy, army and defence force reserves had been placed on standby and were ready to take over key points.

Besides the dead, the violence has left 788 reported wounded. Reports of rioting and clashes with police over a widening area suggested the casualty figures were already much higher.

At least two persons were reported killed by police gunfire today at Alexandra, a black settlement on the northern fringes of Johannesburg.

Vorster told Parliament the maintenance of law and order in South Africa was more important than his scheduled meeting with U.S. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger June 22-23 in West Germany. But Vorster did not say the meeting had been called off.

Police Brig. J. F. Visser, declaring military forces had been placed on standby, said, "My patience is at an end. From now on we will use tougher methods. The riot situation is worsening, but is not out of control."

Police Minister James T. Kruger declared a ban on all outdoor public gatherings until June 29 under South Africa's Riotous Assemblies Act.

Police reported general calm was restored in Soweto township — the battleground in rioting Wednesday and Thursday — but said sporadic outbreaks of violence and looting were continuing.

The rioting began in Soweto when police tried to put down a protest by some 10,000 students against the mandatory use of the Afrikaans language in schools.

Afrikaans is the Dutch-derived language of the ruling white Boer faction, and many of the nation's 18 million blacks see it as a symbol of white oppresion. The students want to be taught in English, which they also feel is a more practical and universal language.

The violence took on the character of general uprising against South Africa's apartheid policy of strict racial separation. Adults joined the rioting and government buidings in Soweto were burned.

The deaths sparked press condemnation in black African nations and questions elsewhere on why police had to open fire on the early demonstrations.

IN HARMONIOUS MOOD

Texas Democrats Open Convention

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Writers

HOUSTON (AP) — Texas Democrats, in an apparent unusual harmonious mood, begin a two-day state convention today with their main task the selection of 32 more national convention delegates.

Jimmy Carter was expected to collect most of the new delegates, despite the fact he cancelled previous much-publicized plans to attend a party fund-raising dinner Thursday night in honor of National Democratic Chairman Bob Strauss.

Other big names who also cancelled Thursday night appearances after Carter's victorious last week apparently gave him a clear road to the nomination included Sens. Hubert Humphrey, Edward Kennedy, Frank Church and Morris Udall.

The only past and present candidate making an appearance was California Gov. Jerry Brown, who got a standing ovation.

A telephone call from Carter, who is vacationing in Sea Island, Ga., added a dramatic touch that brightened the "gala" which cost party faithful from $25 to $250 a seat.

Before the pre-convention party, Strauss told a news conference that he was not interested in another four years as national party chairman but would agree to serve if the nominee selected in July asked him to stay aboard.

"I have been thinking about winning strategy and would like for you to stay on as chairman," Carter told Strauss. "I believe we can have a winning team in the fall."

"Thank you, I will be glad to work with you," Strauss answered.

Kennedy and Humphrey also made telephone calls that were relayed to the delegates. Other speakers included Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., Lorne Green, movie and TV star, served as master of ceremonies.

Selection of the 32 delegates actually will be a two-day process. The 3,484 delegates will register their presidential preferences before the 6 p.m. opening of the convention tonight.

This delegate poll will guide the convention body in naming the 32 delegates on Saturday.

Carter had 92 delegates elected in the May 1 primary while Bentsen, as a favorite son candidate backed by Briscoe, got only six. Bentsen quickly released his delegates and at least one more switched to Carter.

Another major task of the convention will be to select seven new members of the Democratic National Committee, which governs the national party.

Briscoe, who will lead the Texas delegation to New York in July, will give the keynote speech Friday night.

Hays To Relinquish Panel Post

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne Hays, whose relationship with Elizabeth Ray touched off the Capitol Hill payroll sex scandal, said today he is stepping down as chairman of the House Administration Committee.

"The charges which have been made against me and the current state of my health make it impossible for me to devote time necessary to carry out my responsibilities as chairman of the House Administration Committee," Hays said in a letter to the Democratic leadership.

The three-paragraph letter was released by Hays' office shortly after House Speaker Carl Albert announced that Hays had told him he is relinquishing the powerful committee post.

But Hays, who is recovering in a Barnesville, Ohio, hospital from an overdose of sleeping pills, indicated he might try to regain the post later.

"I am confident that I will be vindicated as to any wrongdoing and when that occurs, I shall ask for a re-examination of my position by the (House Democratic) caucus," the letter concluded.

Sources close to the Democratic leadership said Thursday night that Hays will soon announce plans not to run for re-election in November. Hays previously stepped down as chairman of the House Democratic campaign committee which channels campaign funds to candidates.

In a one-line statement released along with the letter Hays denied that he is resigning from Congress.

Firing Squad Demanded For 13 Mercenaries

LUANDA, Angola (AP) — To cries of "death" from courtroom spectators, a government prosecutor demanded the firing squad for 13 white mercenaries captured in the Angolan civil war.

The defendants, 10 Britons and three Americans, "invaded our territory in uniform with weapons for money. Where did the money come from? From the coffers of imperialism," People's prosecutor Rui Monteiro declared in a three-hour summation Thursday.

Robert Cesner, a Midwest attorney arguing to save two Vietnam veterans from execution, pleaded the Geneva convention today in defense of all the mercenaries and blamed the FBI for allowing Gary Acker to sign on

"If Acker was permitted by the FBI to come here, how was he to know it was wrong?" demanded the attorney from Columbus, Ohio, in an hour and 15 minute summing up argumen.

Situation In Beirut Tense

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford today ordered the U.S. Embassy in Beirut to evacuate by convoy any American citizens in war-torn Lebanon who want to leave. The convoy — expected to head for Damascus, Syria — would be without protection from U.S. military forces.

The President canceled a political trip to Iowa because of the evacuation and the tense situation in Lebanon. He had been scheduled to attend a testimonial dinner for GOP Chairman Mary Louise Smith in her hometown of Des Moines. Iowa Republicans begin naming their Republican convention delegates tonight.

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Ford directed the U.S. embassy in Lebanon to aid in the evacuation of Americans "due to the continuing uncertainty of the situation in Beirut.

Nessen said the President met during the morning with his top national security advisers to discuss Lebanon. It was the such third meeting in as many days.

Moments after canceling his Iowa trip, Ford began a meeting with his Cabinet. Those attending included Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Rogers C.B. Morton, the President's campaign manager.

Nessen said the President will meet a U.S. military plane bringing the bodies of two American diplomats assassinated in Lebanon to Andrews Air Force base near Washington on Saturday afternoon "to pay his respets."

In Beirut, meanwhile, the embassy "strongly urged" Americans to leave, calling the advice one notch more urgent than a warning standing since October urging U.S. citizens to clear out unless they have pressing reasons to stay.

An embassy spokesman said 30 of the 1,350 Americans and their 470 non-U.S. dependents in Lebanon had signed up to leave Saturday with a British convoy for Damascus. The distinct impression among observers was that concern was higher in Washington than Beirut.

A Pentagon spokesman said today he did not know how the evacuation Ford ordered — expected to consist of a convoy of buses and cars — would be protected. State Department officials would not comment.

In Beirut, it was reported that the convoy organized by the British would be protected by Palestinian, Libyan and Syrian troopers.

It was not known when the convoy would roll, or where the cars and buses would be obtained, but a State Department spokesman said preparations would begin immediately.

The word from Washington was received at the U.S. Embassy in Beirut as its staff was busy arranging to send the bodies of U.S. Ambassador Francis E. Meloy Jr. and his economic counselor, Robert O. Waring, to Damascus to be flown from there to Washington. The two and their Lebanese driver were murdered in Lebanon Wednesday.

Girl Critical In Car-Bike Collision

City police recovered a stolen bicycle, subdued a gun-welding man at a cemetery and reported four traffic accidents, one of which left a 7-year-old girl in critical condition.

A car-bicycle collision left Deanna Hood, the 7-year-old bicyclist, in critical condition. Following the 8:57 p.m. Thursday mishap, she was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital and she was later transferred to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Late this morning it was reported her condition was slightly improved following surgery to correct internal injuries. She remains in the intensive care unit at Methodist Hospital.

The mishap occurred Thursday evening in the 2800 block of Thirtieth Street when the bicycle

Ford Cancels Trip To Iowa

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford today canceled a campaign trip to Iowa because of the American evacuation from Lebanon and the tense situation there.

Ford had been scheduled to attend a $25-a-plate testimonial dinner that would have marked the first time during the presidential campaign that the President and Ronald Reagan would sit down at the same table.

In announcing Ford would not make the trip, White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said the President directed the U.S. embassy in Beirut to aid in the evacuation of American citizens who wish to leave Lebanon.

In Beirut, the embassy "strongly urged" the remaining 1,400 Americans to leave in a convoy ordered by the President. The convoy was arranged after the murders of U.S. Ambassador Francis E. Meloy Jr. and his economic counselor, Robert O. Waring, and their Lebanese driver on Wednesday.

In a brief statement, Nessen said: "The President has cancelled his trip to Iowa because of the impending evacuation and the situation in Lebanon."

He said First Lady Betty Ford and the Ford's son Jack will go to Des Moines in the President's place.

The President was to have attended a dinner in honor of GOP Chairman Mary Louise Smith in her hometown of Des Moines.

Ford and Reagan had been expected to use the occassion to woo the 36 convention delegates that Iowa Republicans begin selecting tonight.

Right now, 960 convention delegates are pledged to Ford, and Reagan has 873, leaving Ford a precarious lead of 87 delegates. Some 1,130 delegates are needed for nomination.

There are 170 uncommitted GOP delegates and 255 yet to be chosen.

An Associated Press survey of delegates shows the number of uncommitted GOP delegates has increased by 18 since the end of the primaries. The poll shows small groups in scattered states are shying from previously stated preferences and joining the ranks of the uncommitted. At the same time, there is no apparent movement from the neutral camp to Reagan and only a trickle to Ford.

Iowa is one of the two remaining states really in doubt and has one of the biggest delegations yet to be picked.

It is the first time Ford has ventured a head-to-head confrontation with Reagan, although they have followed each other in convention appearances before.

It is a gamble for the President, but campaign aides say the stakes are too big to play shy. Reagan officials say he wouldn't commit his prestige to the test unless he expected to win, but there's some question that he could do otherwise.

Eighteen Iowa delegates will be picked tonight in district conventions, and 18 at-large delegates will be selected Saturday in the state convention.

Washington, the only remaining state with more delegates to be chosen, elects its 38 this weekend. Reagan is conceded to have the edge there and Ford isn't even making an appearance.

CONFISCATED MARIJUANA—Four persons were arrested and approximately 275 marijuana plants, plus an additional 1½ pounds of marijuana and a small amount of heroin, were confiscated in two police raids conducted yesterday evening.

GOP Uncommitted Delegates Rising

WASHINGTON (AP) — While pressure mounts on Republican convention delegates to choose between President Ford and Ronald Reagan, a survey shows the number of uncommitted conventioneers is actually rising.

The Associated Press poll of delegates shows small groups in scattered states are shying from previously stated preferences and joining the ranks of the uncommitted. At the same time there is no apparent movement from the neutral camp to Reagan and only a trickle to Ford.

The poll shows 960 delegates are now pledged to Ford and 873 are pledged to Reagan with 1,130 needed for nomination.

Because the President and his challenger are so close in their totals of committed delegates and the 255 others yet to be chosen, the pool of 170 uncommitted delegates is expected to hold the balance of power. Since the end of the primaries, the number of uncommitted delegates has increased by 18.

One of these fence-straddlers, former South Carolina GOP chairman J. Drake Edens, suggested that uncommitted delegates meet in a caucus.

"I think the time may come when we uncommitted delegates may need to get together, to help each other come to that conclusion — what is best for the country," he said. "That's just an idea of mine."

Marlene Zinzel of Missouri may typify the delegates slipping from one camp into the uncommitted category. She was listed on the Reagan slate when she was selected last Saturday during a state convention that drew the personal campaigning of both Ford and Reagan.

Multi-Media Musical To Be Presented

"The Sound Foundation," a cast of about fifty, will present "Backpacker's Suite", a multi-media musical drama at the First Baptist Church Sunday at 7 p.m. and again Monday at 8 p.m. "Backpacker's Suite" is written By Sonny Salsbery, and graphically depicts through music, drama and slide the evidences of God in the world He has created. It is one of the most unique musicals ever written.

"The Sound Foundation" is becoming well known in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado, for their quality programming of musicals and drama. A tour is planned later this summer to take the group to resort areas of Northern New Mexico.

The public is invited to attend this exciting production one, or both evenings. There is no admission charge for either performance. The group is under the direction of Jerry Neill, Pastor of the church is Rev. Ken Andress.

Four Held In 2 Drug Raids Here

Approximately 275 marijuana plants, plus an additional 1½ pounds of marijuana and a small amount of heroin, were confiscated by law enforcement officials here in two separate drug raids yesterday evening, Police Detective Lonny Payne announced. Four persons were arrested and were being held in county jail late this morning.

The first raid was conducted at 5:21 p.m. Thursday in the 3800 block of Highland Drive and netted approximately 275 marijuana plants plus an additional 1½ pounds of marijuana. The marijuana plants, which Payne described as mature and ready to be harvested, were found growing in the back yard of the residence.

Two persons, a husband and wife team, were arrested and each is being held on $5,000 bond. Charges are expected to be filed sometime today. Each was booked at the police station on felony possession of marijuana.

Small amounts of heroin and marijuana, and some narcotic paraphernalia, were confiscated in the second raid which was conducted in the 300 block of Twenty-eighth Street Thursday at 9:00 p.m. Another husband and wife team was arrested and booked at the police station on possession of dangerous drugs. Approximately an ounce of marijuana and several grains of heroin were confiscated, Payne said. Late this morning, each suspect was being held in county jail under $7,500 bond.

Police Detective Payne said that each husband and wife team had been under surveillance for several days following an informant's tip. Law enforcement officers from both the Snyder Police Department and the Sheriff's Office conducted the raids.

Scientists Find New Elements

By MARTIN CRUTSINGER
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Scientists at Florida State University say they have discovered three and possibly six new natural elements — the first new ones in 51 years.

Using a sophisticated particle accelerator, the team of physicists said Thursday that it found the new elements to be super-heavy, weighing more than uranium.

Elements, such as oxygen, copper and sulfur, constitute the fundamental building blocks which alone or in combination with other elements make up matter.

The new elements were found in minute quantities in clumps of mica rock discovered by Dr. Robert Gentry of the Oak Ridge National laboratory in Tennessee, the scientists said.

Dr. Alex Zucker, associate director at Oak Ridge, said it was too soon to confirm the findings.

"From time to time, this hunt looks like it's going to bag something. Usually these hopes turn out to be ephemeral," he said.

However, Dr. J. William Nelson, an FSU physicist on the team, said he was confident new elements had been found because the scientists had been able to photograph the structures using X rays.

"The X rays are the final court of appeal. We have the confidence in our measurements or we wouldn't have released them," he said.

Dr. Thomas C. Cahill, a visiting professor from the University of California at Davis, first announced the discovery Thursday at a scientific meeting in Quebec, Canada, and scheduled a press conference in Tallahassee today.

Cahill said he recognized that more work would have to be done before the scientific community would be convinced of the authenticity of the team's findings.

GIRL

the girl was riding collided with a 1974 Dodge driven by Buster Anderson.

Police officers also disarmed and arrested a gun welding man at the Snyder Cemetery northeast of town after the man had allegedly threatened to kill himself.

The man's wife called the police station and told officers that her husband, who had a gun, had threatened to kill himself and was headed for the Snyder Cemetery. Police later arrested the man at the cemetery shortly after 11 p.m. He was taken to the police station and booked on a charge of carrying a prohibited weapon.

A police officer recovered a stolen bicycle yesterday morning behind the fire station on Hidetown Drive. The abandoned bicycle was discovered about 10:30 a.m. It was reportedly stolen April 26. The bicycle, which had been repainted after the theft, was badly damaged. Officers said they are continuing their investigation of the incident.

Three minor traffic accidents were also reported yesterday.

One mishap occurred yesterday at 3:27 p.m. at the parking lot of the Smorgasbord House and involved three vehicles. A 1972 Ford driven by Ruben Morelock of Odessa was involved in a collision with a parked 1975 International truck owned by the Waner Corp. of Tulsa, Ok. and a parked 1972 Chevrolet owned by the B.H.M. Co. of Odessa. No injuries were reported, but the 1972 Chevrolet had to be removed from the scene of the accident by a wrecker.

Another minor mishap occurred in the 400 block of Thirty-fifth Street shortly after 2 p.m. yesterday. Involved in that accident were a parked 1966 Chevrolet owned by Margaret Fraley and a 1976 Ford driven by Ramona D. Pena.

The third minor mishap occurred Thursday at 2:07 p.m. in the 3500 block of Avenue D. Involved in that accident were a 1975 Ford driven by David W. Engard and a 1971 Chevrolet driven by Buddy W. Luce.

Embassy Urges Americans To Leave Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The U.S. Embassy here "strongly urged" Americans to leave Lebanon today following the assassination of the U.S. ambassador and his economic counselor.

In Washington, President Ford ordered the Embassy to evacuate by convoy any U.S. citizens who want to leave war-torn Lebanon but said the convoy would not have U.S. military protection. Ford canceled a political trip to Iowa and met with his top national security advisers for a third straight day.

A spokesman at the Embassy in Beirut said that its advice to Americans was one notch more urgent than a warning standing since October calling on U.S. citizens to clear out unless they have pressing reasons to stay.

Daughters 'Trapped' By Elderly Mother

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd. Inc

DEAR ABBY: My mother is 88 and lives with my sister. Every time my sister wants to take a trip, my mother insists that I stay with her. The problem is that it is not always convenient for me, but she absolutely refuses to have a "sitter," as she calls them.

Mother has over half a million dollars in the bank and investments that pay her a very handsome steady income, so she can well afford a live-in companion.

When we (her daughters) were growing up, she was far from a loving mother. She used to abuse us, physically and verbally, so we have very little love for her. (How could we have?)

My husband resents the fact that we are not free to make plans. We are both retired and have ample income, so Mama's inheritance means nothing to us. We just want to live our own lives. Please help.

TRAPPED

DEAR TRAPPED: Why are you trapped? If you feel that your mother's demands are unreasonable, tell her so. And if she disinherits you, she disinherits you! There is no price tag on your independence, unless you yourself place one there.

DEAR ABBY: I am 22 and now planning my wedding. I have three older sisters who are all married. The eldest is 27.

My problem is that I can't afford to have more than four attendants.

Everyone in my family (especially my mother) has been pressuring me to have my sisters in the wedding party, or at least to have my oldest sister as my matron of honor.

I love my sisters very much, and don't want to hurt them, but I think a wedding is the time to show friends how much you think of them. My sisters already know how much I care for them.

Also, my friends are much prettier and can add more class to my wedding than my sisters can. Is there anything wrong with my feeling this way?

WEDDING PROBLEMS

DEAR PROBLEMS: If you really want to show "class," ask your eldest sister to be your matron of honor and your other two sisters to be bridesmaids. And select one friend to show her how much you care for her.

DEAR ABBY: IOWAN wrote: "The man who wanted to sue his parents for having circumcised him as an infant is lucky he wasn't living in the 18th century. In those days they castrated young males to combine the power of the adult male singer with the high range of the female alto or soprano."

You replied, "That's news to me."

Abby, in my teens, I heard one such singer. He was called a "castrato," and it was common knowledge how the effect was created.

I have been singing for about 75 years, but when I was a lad in my teens and had just started taking voice lessons, the Vatican choir came to my town on tour. One of its members was a portly man in his middle years who sang with a pure soprano voice and again, everybody knew how he could do so.

I was told that he was one of the last to have had the castration operation before it was outlawed.

W. MADISON TAYLOR,
SAN PEDRO, CALIF.

Exercises Tone Up Teenagers

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Teenagers may seem constantly in motion. However, too many do not get enough exercise, especially during the winter and spring doldrums. As a result, many teens tend to put on weight or lose tone, which affects muscles, skin, even hair.

Julie Ann Forsee, 1975 Junior Miss, keeps in shape year-round as a gymnast, ballet dancer, swimmer and tennis player. However, she follows exercises to keep limber and points out that exercises are good for keeping trim, too. Julie suggests you start by doing five basic exercises just a few times each day and work up to 25 or 50 times for each over a period of two weeks. Try to exercise at the same time every day so that it becomes as much a part of a daily routine as brushing teeth. She believes it is a lot better to exercise 10 minutes daily, regularly, than half an hour twice a week.

Julie ends her routine with 50 pushups. But she feels each teenager should learn the correct and safe way to do pushups before doing these.

One trick she has learned while traveling as Junior Miss is to make her limited free time do double duty. For example, she washes her hair, puts her hair up on a damp rollers and begins a series of exercises. Her hair usually is dry by the time she finishes her routine. As a starter warm up to your routine by bouncing up and down in place - up on toes, then down. Start with 10 – work up to 100.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

TODAY'S TREASURES

1946 — a golden year seen through '76 eyes

By Jean Barnes

Thirty years ago seems like a lifetime ago to some of us but to others of us it's only yesterday. Which is just a way of leading into the fact that we've been indulging in a lot of nostalgia in recent weeks. High school reunions, Memorial Day services in our small hometown, our church's centennial celebration and a visit with parents complete with a review of the family picture albums.

We also indulged in a bit of financial nostalgia the other day as we browsed through the ads in a 1946 Hobbies magazine. We'd like to share some of the prices with you.

For instance, a 50 X 32-inch gold-leaf fire screen, highly ornamented with a watercolor painting on silk in the center, was available for $100. An oriental specimen in "proof" condition was priced at $75.

Doll collectors were offered bisque nead jointed dolls, 10 to 14-inches for $10 and the Bye-Lo baby could be bought for $15.

A Hobbies writer reported the auction price of $40 for a collection of 130 miscellaneous autographs including a portion of a document signed by John Hancock.

Art glass fanciers could have added a four-inch Sandwich peachblow base with fluted top to their collection for $8.50 or four matching Burmese tumblers at $8.50 each.

A pair of Cathedral Waterford decanters were listed at $55. By today's standards, Tiffany was "dirt cheap," with a Tiffany candelabra, ornamented with green stones and tulip shaped candleholders selling for $30. A case, signed L.C.T. Favrille was $12.50.

For $25 a collector could buy a miniature portrait on ivory in a gold jewel case or a mahogany Lincoln rocking chair in perfect condition.

Porcelain was inexpensive, too. A small Sevres plate was advertised for $2.50 and a set of 24 Moss Rose china plates in assorted sizes for $15.

In those days there was still a wealth of pressed pattern glass both clear and in colors. In fact, it was still possible to assemble a complete table service in the pattern of your choice.

There seems to have been a wide selection of furniture from which to choose. A John Henry Belter etagere, 10-feet tall with 12 mirrors and white marble, was advertised for $1,250, and a large, rosewood settee could be purchased for $125.

BRASS STAND—advertised in 1946 was priced at $10.

Of course, these prices make 1946 sound like collector's heaven. Then, we remember that our weekly paycheck as a telephone operator was $30 and today's prices are seen in a different perspective.

Notrumpitis is not confined to rubber-bridge players. A virulent strain attacks match-point duplicate players as well.

Somehow or other match-point players have found that if they make a lot of tricks at a three-notrump contract, they get a good match-point score even if the notrump contract was a poor one.

Six clubs wheels in and is an easy contract to get to if South just makes his normal response of two clubs to his partner's spade opening. If North and South play in spades the declarer will make 11 tricks.

Nothing like that appealed to South. He wanted to play notrump and started proceedings by responding two diamonds. North rebid his spades whereupon South jumped to three notrump.

If West had led a diamond, South would have been set. But when West opened a heart, South was able to take 11 tricks. He beat all the spade bidders, but still wound up with a poor score. Somehow or other a lot of pairs reached the club slam.

Ask the Jacobys

A Canadian reader wants to know what is meant by saying that a hand has a poor body.

This means that its spot cards are low ones. ♠ A 5 4 3 2 ♥ 4 3 2 ♦ A 2 ♣ K 3 2 has a very poor body. Change the spades to A K 9 8 7 and clubs to K 10 9 and the hand has good body and is far stronger.

Dr. Lamb

Cheese affects lactose intolerant

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am 46. For the past 10 years I have been troubled with nausea, gas and spasm of the stomach. During this period it cost me plenty for specialists, tests and prescriptions. All tests proved negative. I have stopped coffee and cigarettes, but to no avail. I was going crazy for an answer. Every night while watching TV my wife would bring me a saucer of cheese. I love cheese of every commercial kind. An elderly relative told me to stop eating cheese. He claimed that it irritates the stomach lining. That was six months ago. Now I feel terrific. How about a run down on cheese and its effects. I would think there are thousands of readers who have the same problem with their stomachs.

DEAR READER—The probability is that you have intolerance to lactose, milk sugar. Your letter prompts me to emphasize that one of those milk products is cheese. Commercial cheeses contain large amounts of lactose. Individuals who cannot break down the double sugar cannot absorb it and it acts like a chemical laxative. It produces exactly the same kind of symptoms you have described. You can probably tell if this is true or not by your reaction to other milk products.

About two-thirds of the people who have lactose intolerance can't utilize even one glass of milk without having at least minor symptoms. The usual tests of the digestive system, including X rays, will show nothing at all that the doctor can use to make a diagnosis. There are chemical tests which are done to identify people with this problem but their use is not yet that widespread.

The best method of determining whether or not a person has this problem is to eliminate all milk and milk products, including cheese, just as you have done. If the symptoms disappear the problem is usually lactose intolerance.

The dairy industry could use Lact-Aid to form low lactose milk and market cheese, yogurt and products from this milk. The practice of adding dry milk solids to thicken yogurt makes it high in lactose.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 7-2, Milk Products: Good and Bad, to give you a more complete understanding of this probelm. Others who want this information can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Address your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 326, San Antonio, TX 78292.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Some time ago you said to protect the face from crow's feet and facial wrinkling do not smoke. I had always thought this was an old wives' tale. Is there medical evidence for this? I have several friends who would probably stop smoking if this were true.

DEAR READER—I wouldn't have said it if it were not so. A study has been made of grading the facial changees in people without knowing which ones smoked or how much. These were then compared to their smoking habits. The results show that cigarette smokers, particularly the heavy smokers, tend to have faces that appeared 10 years older than non-smokers. Crow's feet wrinkles were especially apt to be deep and prominent in heavy smokers. So, tell your friends if they want to avoid facial wrinkles that make them appear older they should stop smoking. Incidentally, the study was published in the Journal of the American Medical Assn. in recent times. It is quite valid.

Coaches All-American Football Game Toss-Up

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Don Dufek of Michigan is on the scene for the 16th annual Coaches All-America football game because he has decided against professional ice hockey as a career.

"The Detroit Red Wings drafted me, but I've decided to pursue professional football because I would probably have an extensive tour in the hockey minor leagues and I don't want that," said Dufek, who will play for the expansion Seattle Seahawks in the National Football League.

The 6-foot, 190-pound Dufek, a linebacker in college, will play strong safety for Navy Coach George Welsh's East squad Saturday night in the nationally televised joust with the West.

Dufek was a left winger on the Wolverine hockey team and caught Detroit's eye even though he could not hit the ice until after football season.

"I scored about 10 goals a year in 14 to 20 games," said Dufek. "I really enjoy hockey but I'll sign with Seattle just as soon as I get back home. We've come to an agreement."

Dufek said his attorney wasn't overly excited about his participation in the All-Star classic, but Dufek added "I'm a ball player. I wanted to have some fun, meet some people and see a different part of the country. You can get hurt just walking down the street."

He said, "Nothing is really on the line in this game but personal pride and that's why you will see every player give 100 per cent. You don't really have any emotions playing in the game ... you just do the best you can."

The West squad will be coached by Frank Kush of Arizona State and the game is rated a tossup with some 30,000 fans expected in Texas Texas's Jones Stadium.

Kush is as serious as he can be about the all-star contest. He considers it a threat to his 12-game victory streak last year as his Sun Devils finished No. 2 in the country.

"We still don't have enough mental intensity," Kush grumbled. "I don't think it's possible to get a team as intense as I would like in this short of time."

Kush has tried. He held the first scrimmage in this game's history earlier in the week.

"There sure was a lot of griping going on but I kind of liked it," said Oklahoma linebacker Jimbo Elrod.

The West holds a one game edge over the East in the all-time series eight games to seven. The East was victorious 23-21 last year.

Cubs, Indians Win In LL

The Cubs blasted the Yankees, 14-4, in Little League action last night.

James Caldwell had the big bat with a single and a Grand Slam home run. Trey Harlin rapped 2 singles, and Britt Vincent, John Overton, David Raschke, Ricky Howard, Danny Eckert and Mark Cypert cracked singles.

For the Yanks, David Rios clubbed a homer, and Paul Erwin, Tommy Gressett, Gordon Gonzales and Joe Garza chalked up singles.

Ricky Howard was awarded the Cub victory, and for the Yanks, pitching chores were divided between Joe Garza and Tommy Gressett. Gressett was charged with the loss.

Propelled by the arm and bat of Curtis Gafford, the Indians steamed by the Athletics, 10-4, in the second game.

Gafford twirled a two hitter, slashed two singles and smashed a double to aid the warriors.

The two hits Gafford yielded were big ones, though. Bart Moran blasted both hits, fourth and sixth inning home runs.

For the Indians, Tracey Neves, Casey Peterson, David Nicholson and Kyle Freeman ripped off singles.

Pitching duties for the Athletics were shared between Jeff Wesson and Ronnie Rosas with Rosas being handed the loss.

Patriots Sign 3 Wide Receivers

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Three wide receivers drafted by the New England Patriots have signed with the team on one-year contracts, the National Football League club announced.

They are David Quehl of Holy Cross, who caught 63 passes for 959 yards last season; Ricky Feacher of Mississippi Valley State, who snared 54 passes for 1,062 yards over two seasons, and Bernard Coleman of Bethune-Cookman, his school's top receiver.

Register Now For Tourneys

Competition in invitational badminton, volleyball, and pingpong tournaments will be open to anyone registering before Tuesday, June 22, at the Travis Gym, Marcia Shields, a co-director of the Scurry County Summer Recreation Program announced.

Fee for the badminton and pingpong tournaments is $1 for high school aged adults and 50 cents for junior high aged children.

Western Texas College will host the badminton and volleyball tournaments while the pingpong matches will be held at the Travis Gym.

More information concerning the summer recreation programs can be obtained at the Travis Gym. All equipment for the tournaments is furnished.

Bears, Angels Are Winners

Michelle Killian and Tina Romero went 3 for 4 as the Bears bit the Bobcats, 18-11, in girls' minor league softball last night.

Killian and Romero each clouted two singles and one double in the winning effort.

For the losers, Susan Brim was effective with the wood. She batted a single and clubbed a home run. Renee Fulford cracked a single while Mary Warren clubbed a double for the Cats.

Jackie Parham and Crissy Natividad racked up singles for the Bears while Natividad came up with a double.

Jackie Parham was on the mound for the Bears and was credited with the win. Susan Brim was handed the loss.

Connie Weber fired nine strikeouts as the Blue Angels tripped the Red Devils, 7-6, in girls' major league softball last night.

In the Angels' hitting department, Vicki Chandler, La Ronda Cain, Sharon Halford, Ann Beverlein and Weber grabbed singles for the winners.

For the Red Devils, Suzy Fisher and Sherry Stewart led hitters. They collected two singles and a double each. Billie Owens and Kim Harlin nabbed singles.

Suzy Fisher hurled the ball for the Devils and received the loss.

FL Cubs, Indians Win

Despite the Yankees' third inning eight run rally, the Cubs walked past the Yanks, 17-16, in Farm League play last night.

The Cubs jumped out to an early 6-0 lead and the Yanks never seemed to recover.

For the Cubs, Tim Sconyer threw the sphere and was awarded the victory. For the Yanks, Darren Jackson was given the loss.

Ken Davis twirled a one hitter to lead the Indians in a 10-2 raid over the Athletics in the second game.

Willie Steele's fifth inning single was Davis' only flaw.

For the Indians, R.D. Stansell, Jesse Zamora, Jimmy Brook and Davis knocked out singles, while Cary Gunset blasted two one baggers. Danny Brook clubbed a double, and Jesse Zamora sliced a triple.

Roger Pavlik was charged with the loss.

The Athletics resume play Monday night going up against the Braves, and the Indians are in action Tuesday night facing the Cardinals.

Royal Glint To Run

BOSTON (AP) — Royal Glint, 19th in the all-time list of money winners, will start in the 42nd running of the $100,000 Massachusetts Handicap on Sunday at Suffolk Downs.

The 6-year-old gelding, owned by Dan Lasater, will be ridden by Jose Tejeira.

Royal Glint passed up the $75,000 Hazel Park Handicap to run in New England's richest race.

Finley Defends Sales Of Stars

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Oakland A's owner Charles O. Finley, lashing out at a baseball system that has "no stability and no permanence," said he had no alternative but to sell three of his star ballplayers because he couldn't make a trade for them.

Finley appeared with representatives of the New York Yankees, Boston Red Sox and player union head Marvin Miller at a hearing with Commissioner Bowie Kuhn Thursday, and said the current system of player-management behavior is "wrecking the sport."

In a matter of hours Tuesday, Finley sold Joe Rudi and Rollie Fingers to the Boston Red Sox for $1 million each, then sent left-hander Vida Blue to the Yankees for $1.5 million after signing the pitcher to a three-year contract. Kuhn, prohibiting the purchased players from reporting to their new clubs, had ordered the hearing because of questions that arose in his mind over Finley's clearance sale.

"The issue is whether the assignment of the three contracts is appropriate or not under the circumstances. That's the issue I have to wrestle with," said Kuhn. "I have to consider these transactions in the best interest of baseball. I have the inherent power to do what I feel is in the best interest of baseball."

His decision regarding Finley's action was expected some time today.

The maverick A's owner had the explanation of his moves well prepared. "Clubs don't want unsigned ballplayers," he said after Thursday's hearing, referring to the fact that the three athletes sold were among seven Oakland players who had not signed contracts for the current season. "I wouldn't want one either. It was only the Red Sox and Yankees who said, 'We'll take these ballplayers, even if they're unsigned.'

"I didn't want to sell them. We had made every effort for two months to make trades — to no avail," said Finley, dressed in a grey plaid suit with a yellow golf shirt and matching hat.

"We were trying to make trades, but when we got to within six hours of the (trading) deadline, we had no alternative" but to sell the athletes.

Kuhn apparently wanted to be made sure of that, and called the hearing. Though neither would comment on what had transpired in the 90-minute session, Finley explained, "He wanted to know the reasons I sold and they bought."

Finley made it clear he felt he was right in making the deals and that "I frankly think he (Kuhn) was satisfied with the information we presented him."

Buffs Win, Mackey Aids Oilers Cause

On a seven run outburst in the fifth stanza, the Buffs toppled the Dodgers, 11-7, in Teenage League baseball last night.

For the winners, Gary Martin and Richard Crayton picked off singles. John Davis grabbed two singles. Gerald Snyder and Billy Stephens nabbed doubles.

Bryan Vincent, Billy Hall, Scott Crenwelge, Bobby Ford and Steve Tate rapped singles for the losers.

Jay Hammond was the winning pitcher, and Richard Crayton received the loss.

The Oilers, or, rather, the Mitch Mackey crew, stifled the Braves, 10-1, in the second game.

Mitch Mackey was instrumental in the victory. He pitched a no hitter, fanning 11 and giving up one walk for a near perfect game on the mound. At the plate, Mackey cracked a single, clubbed a double and smashed a triple.

The Braves' sole score came in the bottom of the last inning on an error by the left fielder.

Keith Bryant used the bat pretty well for the winners, grabbing three singles, while Wes Partain, David Lee and William Robinson came up with singles.

Sid Everton was charged with the loss.

Lee's, Wadleigh Win

Lee's 66 downed Snyder Well Service, 4-3, in an extra inning thriller in Men's softball last night.

Frankie Grimmett smashed a triple to bring home the winning tally in the ninth stanza. Marvin McClanahan slashed a triple and double to aid 66.

For Snyder Well Service, Warner and Brent Terry cracked singles, while Hopper and Stenett blasted a single and a double.

Bill Terry was the losing pitcher, while Tommy Hester picked up the win.

Wadleigh captured the second game over N.T. Lee due to a forfeit.

The next Men's softball league action will be Monday night. Lee's 66 will go up against N.T. Lee, and Ira will face Snyder Well Service.

THWARTED

"PLEASE, DADDY, LET'S GO"

A little girl with shining eyes,
Her little face aglow,
Said "Daddy, it is almost time
For Sunday School. Let's go!
They teach us there of Jesus' love,
Of how He died for all
Those who on Him will call."
"Oh, no!" said Daddy, "no today,
I've worked hard all week;
I'm going to the creek,
For there I can relax and rest,
And fishing's fine they say.
So run along, don't bother me.
We'll go to church someday."

Months and years have passed away
But Daddy hears that plea, no more.
"Let's go to Sunday School."
Those childish days are o'er.
And now that Daddy's growing old,
When life is almost through,
He finds some time to go to Church.
But what does Daughter do?

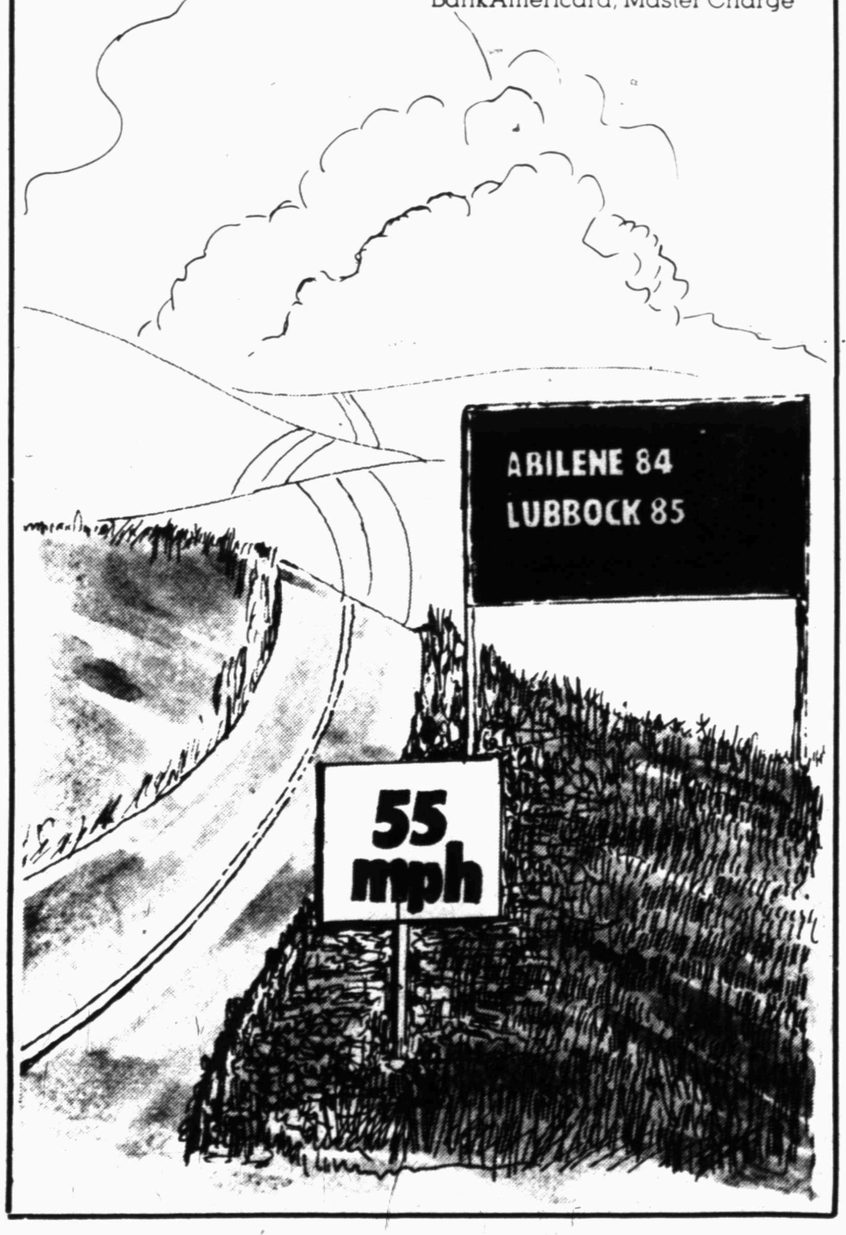

She says: "O Daddy, not today
I stayed up almost all night;
I've just got to get some sleep.
Besides, I look a fright."
Then Daddy lifts a trembling hand
To brush away the tears,
As again he hears the pleading voice
Distinctly through the years.
He see a small girl's shining face
Upturned, with eyes aglo,
As she says, "It's time for Sunday School
Please, Daddy, won't you go?"

MY PRAYER

Oh Lord, my God, these few small things I ask of you today;
To walk calmly
in the midst of the mad crowd,
To feel serene
in the presence of chaos,
To be quiet
in the din of clanging cymbals,
In a world that argues,
let me express joy,
In a world that is suspicious,
let me honor truth,
In a world of heartbreak,
let me be compassionate
Teach me to share with grace,
To care
with tenderness,
To be sufficient
over to find a quiet place and kneel before you for forgiveness.
