Italy Sends Warships to Albania Port

Reservists of Small Adriatic Kingdom Prepare to Battle

ATHENS, April 6. (AP).—An Italian cruiser and two destroyers arrived at Durazzo, Albania, today as Albania feverishly discussed reports of imminent Italian occupation. Many Albanian reservists had been mobilized. People in the streets freely expressed a desire to resist any military occupation. Plan service from Tirana to Italy was cancelled. Practically all Italians in Albania returned to Italy.

ITALIAN ACTION SEEN AS THREAT TO OTHERS.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, April 6. (AP).—Informed sources here today said the impending Italian military occupation of Albania was meant as a warning to Yugoslavia and Greece to stay out of the Anglo-French anti-aggression bloc. Italy's action may involve only occupation of Albania's coastline for the purpose of hermetically sealing the Adriatic, the same sources said.

BRITISH POLES FORM PERMANENT AGREEMENT.

LONDON, April 6. (AP).—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced to the house of commons today a "permanent and reciprocal" agreement would replace the present unilateral agreement between Poland and Great Britain for mutual defense of the two countries. Previous to Chamberlain's remarks, home secretary Hoare announced the government was taking steps to deport members of the German secret police and other Nazi organizations.

Shell 1 Mann Given Initial Potential of 1,087 Barrels a Day

BY FRANK GARDNER.
Shell Oil Company, Inc. No. 1 Mann, second well in the Seminole pool of central Gaines to penetrate to the deep pay recently discovered by Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 2 T. S. Riley, has been completed for 24-hour flow of 1,087.36 barrels of 37-gravity oil, through 2 5/8-inch choke. A satisfactory gas-oil ratio of 1,500-1 is secured by stop-corking the well when it is restricted to produce its daily allowable. It is bottomed at 5,248 feet in line. At old total depth of 5,064, when originally completed nearly two years ago, No. 1 Mann had flowed 490 barrels daily following a 2,000-gallon acid treatment. Deepening to 5,248 feet, a pay section identical to that found by the Amerada well, with formation from 5,242-48, the total depth, reported hard and barren. Location is 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 220, block G, W. T. R. R. survey.

Osage Drilling Company and A. S. Everest, No. 1 Dr. E. H. Jones, northwestern Gaines wildcat located in section 20, block A-7, public school land, is standing after cementing 7-inch casing on bottom at 4,800 feet in line with 250 sacks. It will be drilled in with cable tools.

To Waddell On Test.
On test at 5,977 feet, several feet above the point at which it is believed Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, will be encountered, Gulf Oil Corporation No. 10 W. N. Waddell et al, in the Sandhills pool of western Crane, is showing high gas and some distillate from the Simpson, middle Ordovician. Drilling mud was displaced with clear water, and the well cleaned itself at 5:30 this morning, blowing an estimated 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Fifteen minutes later, gas had increased to approximately 14,000,000 cubic feet. Flow was to be turned through separator for a four-hour test of distillate and gas production.

In the same area, Gulf No. 16 J. B. Tubb reamed core-hole to 5,940 and now is coring ahead at 5,962 feet in Simpson shale and lime. Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company et al, No. 3 Tubb-Community is drilling at 4,826 in brown lime.

Further northeast, Gulf No. 5 McKnight is drilling unchanged at 3,482 feet in line. It is showing some oil from upper pay at 3,412. Crockett's Ordovician wildcat, Humble Oil and Refining Company No. 1 Ozona-Barnhart, is drilling at 4,800 feet.

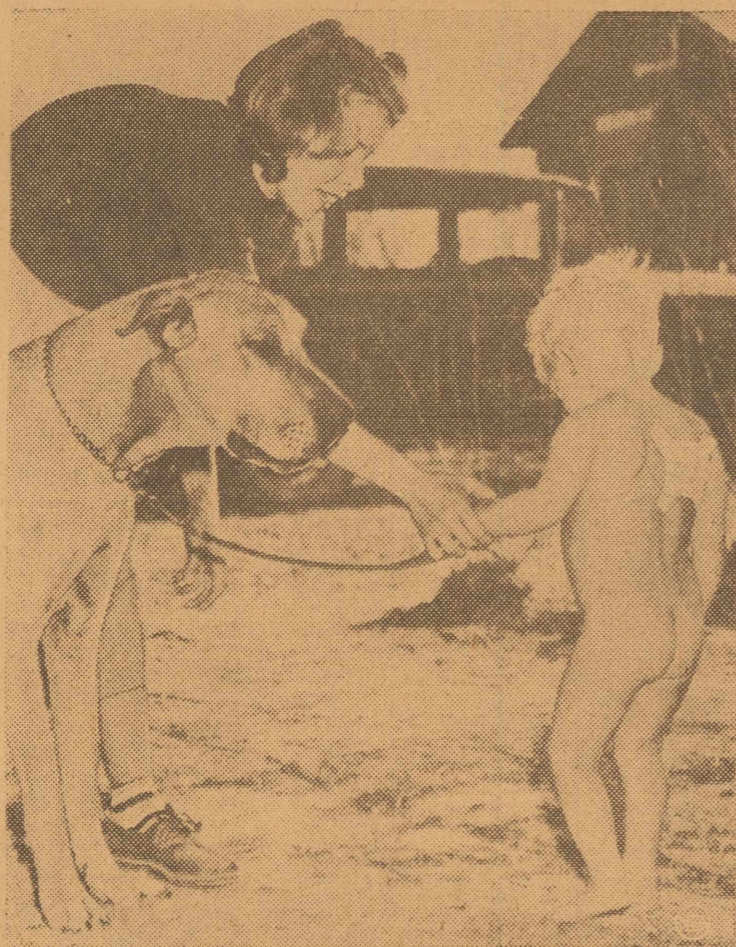

In the Masterson pool of Pecos, Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corporation and Monte Warner No. 1 M. I. Masterson, an Ordovician test, this morning had reached 3,147 feet in line.

Swabs And Flows 100 Barrels.
Extending the Emma pool of southern Andrews a location east, Sinclair-Prairie No. 5 Mrs. Emma Cowden swabbed and flowed 100 barrels of oil through casing during the past 24-hour period. It is drilling ahead today below 4,214 feet in line, carrying 1,000 feet of oil in the hole. Pay thus far encountered has been from 4,178-82.

Magnolia No. 1 TXL, northwestern Ector wildcat northwest of the Cummins area of the Goldsmith pool, is drilling past 3,875 in line

Tiny Target in Nude Feud

Bandage marks the spot where 27-month-old Arlen Clarke, young nudist, was nicked by a sniper's bullet as he frolicked in the rav at the "Land of Moo" nudist colony near Lancaster, Calif. A possible guerrilla warfare on nakedness was investigated by police after Jack Mojonnier, 22-year-old rancher, admitted firing the shot. The wounded child is shown with his 21-year-old mother, Mrs. Beesse Kimbell, and the family Great Dane dog, Adonis.

Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company in Convention Here

A three-day convention composed of employees of the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line was opened here this morning with 57 persons registering. The convention is being held in the Crystal ballroom of the Hotel Scharbauer, and A. L. Bumann, personnel head of the Texas Company, New York, will be in charge throughout. He will be assisted by Harry Wittington, Houston head of the personnel department for the state.

The convention was opened this morning with introduction of all at the conference. Bumann then explained the purpose and plan of the meeting. Following a review of charts with material on them at ten o'clock an intermission was called and work started again at 10:30.

This afternoon, those present heard addresses on the Causes of Good Qualities and Poor Qualities in Men and "Analysis of Qualities that are Desirable in Men." Other technical questions of interest to members of the company were discussed.

This evening at eight o'clock a series of motion pictures depicting industrial progress of America will be shown.

The convention will get underway again at nine o'clock in the morning and most of the day, until five o'clock, will be spent in discussion of technical problems and plans of the company.

Final session of the convention will be held Saturday morning, adjournment coming at 12:30 p. m. Employees of the company from all of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico are in attendance. Those attending include: A. L. Bumann, New York; Harry Wittington, Houston; R. Bodemuller, Fredericksburg; R. E. Caswell, Ozona; F. H. Cox, Junction; E. T. "If We Die, Let's Die at Home," Advice of General Smedley Butler

Breaking into spontaneous applause time and again, what is probably the most enthusiastic audience to hear a Town Hall speaker here this season listened to General Smedley D. Butler, retired marine officer, declare his conviction that American forces should never be sent to fight on foreign soil and that the only way the United States should wage should be one of self defense against actual invasion on its own soil, in an address before Town Hall club members and their guests at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening.

Introduced briefly by Leonard C. Thomas, Town Hall president, the General won his audience immediately with a humorous introduction of himself, explaining that he is a Pennsylvanian by birth but a Texan by inclination and that he is a Quaker. Quakers, he enlightened his audience, are "first class horse traders and don't believe in war."

His military career began when "William Randolph Hearst of Hollywood fame got up the Spanish-American War" and he enlisted and went to Cuba to "defend his mother." Throughout his address, he was bitterly satirical of the "defend your mother" propaganda which induced young men to enlist in wars that he considered unnecessary.

He does not believe that there will be any invasion of America by foreign forces.

"I assure you that you are no more in danger here in Midland from invasion from the Germans or anybody else than you are in getting the oil ratio fixed" he said.

As to invasion from Mexico, he humorously declared that invaders would "have to walk across Texas first" and "10,000 wild cats live there."

Speaking more seriously he cited facts of tonnage, of vessels available, and of equipment required for men in war time to show that it would be impossible for a foreign power to establish a base outside its boundaries and conduct an invasion of this country.

As to Hitler's using a base in the Argentine for operations against the United States, he pointed out that the Argentine is approximately 7,000 miles from Germany and another 7,000 from the United States, while European Germany is only 3,500 miles from the United States.

Why should Hitler take the longer route, he wanted to know.

For a sea trip of 3,000 miles, nine months' supplies have to be carried for military expeditions, he said.

As an example of the enormous task of supplying an overseas force, he declared that, even with nine months' start in preparation, if the Axis had not been signed in November, American forces would have had to start home from Europe in the following January because of lack of ammunition for World War.

"Every military man knows we're not going to be invaded by anybody," he summed up.

So far as the much-talked of Guam is concerned: "If you see the island, you'll pay the Japs to take it!" he flashed. And as to the Philippines, the fiery speaker insisted that we "never get anything from them" and they cost us $30,000,000 every year. "The General was in the force that put down the Philippines." Suspect in Odessa Case Is Released

Crowley Unable to Identify Woman as One Being Sought

ODESSA, April 6. (Special).—Sheriff Reeder Webb, Police Chief Hugh Ratliff and Justice of Peace J. B. Crowley returned here today from Vernon where they had gone to view a woman suspect in the murder of Buford Armstrong, Odessa baseball pitcher, slain last Friday night here.

Crowley, who had seen the woman who fled the scene of the slaying last Friday, failed to identify the woman held in the Vernon jail. He declared there was no doubt about her not being the woman who appeared at his house and ordered a taxi in which she fled the murder scene.

Sheriff Webb today said the case was "wide open" again after the Vernon suspect went unidentified. The woman held in jail at Vernon had wired a friend in Pecos asking that some clothes for her be sent to her and she was picked up by Vernon officers and held as a suspect after they learned she had inquired at the express office over whether or not the clothes had arrived.

VERNON, April 6. (P).—A slight dark-complexioned woman was arrested here Wednesday for questioning concerning the slaying at Odessa of Buford Armstrong, semi-pro baseball pitcher.

Chief Deputy Sheriff B. J. Woodington said the woman was held for Odessa officers after she had inquired at an express company for clothing she said had been shipped from Odessa.

The woman told another person she had telegraphed to Odessa for her clothing, Woodington said. She told officers conflicting stories regarding her recent movements.

En route from Odessa were Sheriff Reeder Webb, Police Chief Hugh Ratliff and Justice of the Peace J. B. Crowley. Crowley has seen the woman suspected of shooting Armstrong.

A small woman has been sought since Armstrong's body was found Friday in a tourist cabbie. Ector county officers also said she fitted the description of a person sought in the slaying near Van Horn of Mrs. W. G. Frome and her daughter, Nancy, last year.

Germany Denies Any Aggression Threats Regarding Poland

BERLIN, April 6. (AP).—The German Foreign Office monthly publication, Deutsche Diplomatisch - Politische Korrespondenz, expressed astonishment Wednesday that alleged threats of German aggression against Poland could form the basis for conversations Polish Foreign Minister Joseph Beck is having in London.

At the same time the controlled press, exceeding even its previous abuse of the democracies, attacked Tuesday night's statement of Earl Stanhope, First Lord of the British Admiralty, as a deliberate provocation made to increase tension, to further Britain's aims to encircle Germany or to impress Poland with British preparedness. Lord Stanhope had said anti-aircraft guns of the British fleet were manned to be ready for anything.

Of the British-Polish negotiations, Korrespondenz said: "That there is to be a threatened state will undoubtedly be viewed as a settled fact after the strong suggestive English propaganda work which certain Polish forces will bring to the fore."

"The question remains open whether the alleged threat against Poland was regarded exclusively from the West or whether perhaps also the Eastern neighbor could emerge from its present passiveness."

"For that reason the question also plays a role in whether England is ready to join against every attacker of Poland, or only against Germany."

"That the insinuation that Germany was considering an attack against Poland could in general become the serious basis of discussion for Polish and foreign statesmen, now as before, must appear all the more astonishing and strange when every alarming report regarding alleged German preparations long since have been disproved."

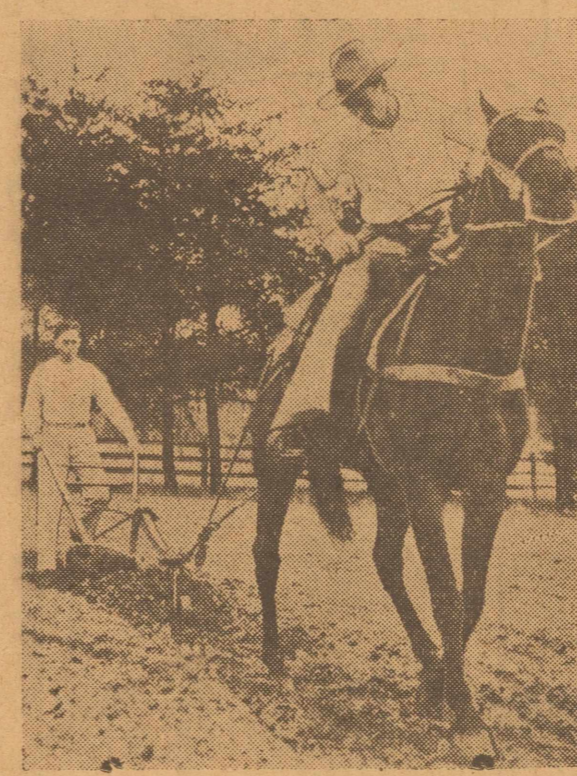

Chancellor Adolf Hitler, meanwhile secluded himself at his Bavarian mountain retreat at Berchtesgaden to rest until April 18, when he will return to Berlin for a monster celebration by Nazis honoring his fiftieth birthday two days later.

Baruch Urges Sale Of Arms, Munitions To Belligerents

WASHINGTON, Apr. 6. (P).—Bernard M. Baruch, Wall street financier and advisor of President Wilson, endorsed today a proposal by chairman Pittman, democrat, Nevada, to sell arms to belligerent nations on a cash and carry basis.

Testifying before the senate foreign relations committee, Baruch asserted if this nation does not supply weapons to belligerents "other nations will."

Baruch expressed belief economic war against aggressor nations might lead this country into military war.

Allowables for West Texas Upped By Latest Order

AUSTIN, April 6. (P).—The railroad commission yesterday announced increases in allowables of approximately 80 Texas oil fields which will bring the basic daily allowable for all the state in April to an average of 1,386,000 barrels. Increased totaled 132,967 barrels.

The state basic allowable for April will be approximately 50,000 barrels more than average production during the last week of March but 26,000 barrels less than the federal bureau of mines estimate of market demand for Texas crude.

The adjustments, announced by Commissioner G. J. Jerry Sadler, followed sharp protests from oil operators and members of the legislature against an order of March 30, which drastically slashed production of wells in Southwest Texas, West Texas and the Gulf Coast.

The increases will be retroactive to April 1. A few fields were excepted from Sunday shutdowns, otherwise applicable to all Texas fields, because they would be materially damaged if closed, but in those excepted, daily production must be cut one-seventh.

Charge 2 West Texans in Three Robberies

ABILENE, April 6. (P).—Charges were filed in federal district court here Wednesday against Dave Walden, Abilene, and B. R. Smith, Coleman, in connection with a recent series of robberies of post offices in three Central West Texas counties.

Walden was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Ida M. James and his bond was set at $10,000. Smith had not been arraigned but he was in custody of county officers.

Walden's charge named him in only one offense, the robbery of the Bradshaw post office safe on the night of Feb. 22. The safe was dragged outside of town, broken into and a loot of cash, stamps, cards and envelopes valued at $182.25 was taken.

Smith was charged in connection with the robberies of the post offices at Bradshaw, Goldsboro in the Coleman county, and Sylvester in Fisher county. He is charged as an accomplice with Walden in the Bradshaw job. The Goldsboro post office was entered on the night of March 13, one of five robberies and attempted robberies in Taylor and Coleman counties on that night. The loot at Goldsboro was $44.50 in cash and stamps.

Two Dozen Firms Aid Parent-Teachers Amateur Contest

Varied entertainment by amateur performers is promised those who attend the "amateur contest" at the high school auditorium Friday evening, a glance at the program, today showed. Sponsored by the Junior High School Parent-Teachers' association, the performance will feature 24 youthful entertainers, principally school children.

Each one who will appear on the program will represent some Midland firm or business institution.

Opening at 7:30 p. m., the contest will be divided in two sections, Fred Wemple acting as master of ceremonies for the first twelve numbers and T. Paul Barron the latter twelve. A five minute intermission will come between the divisions.

Firms who will be represented, thereby aiding in defraying expenses of the district Parent-Teacher convention here next week, include Banner Creamery, Corner Bros. Piggy-Wiggy, J. C. Smith Ready-to-Wear, Excel-Sure Cleaners, The Fashion, Iva Hunneycutt's Credit Jewelry, 6-A class of Junior High School, Midland Hardware & Furniture Co., Lowe's Service Station, M-System Grocery, Addison Ward, C. Scharbauer, Coffee Shop, Midland Drug Co., Perry Bros., Inc., Hotel Pharmacy, West Texas Office Supply, Middleton Cleaners, Wilson Dry Goods Co., First National Bank Midland National Bank, Kiddies Toggery, Barrow Furniture Co., Elder Chevrolet Co., High School Football Team.

All Arrangements Are Completed for Firemen Convention

All arrangements were concluded today for the Permian Basin District Firemen's Association convention that will be held here Saturday.

Luther Tidwell, chief of the Midland volunteer fire department, announced he had been killed for the big barbecue at Cloverdale Park Saturday afternoon and all other business pertaining to handling the convention had been attended to.

An estimated 300 firemen will be here from West Texas and Eastern New Mexico cities, officials have declared. The district extends from Big Spring and Lamesa on the east to El Paso on the west, Alpine on the south and Hobbs, N. M. on the north. Twenty one fire departments make up membership in the organization.

A business session and team contest will be held Saturday afternoon, followed by the barbecue and a big dance at the Hotel Scharbauer.

Sales Tax Favored By Senate Group
AUSTIN, April 6. (P).—A constitutional resolution submitting to the people the question of levying a combination sales-service-natural resources tax to finance social security made a tremendous gain in the senate today.

The senate engrossed the resolution, 21-5, which was a sufficient margin to submit it if the measure is obtained as many votes on final passage.

Attorney Speaks on World Court Before Rotary Luncheon

History, principles, procedure, handicaps and probable future of the World Court of International Justice were discussed by W. P. Z. German Jr., Midland attorney, in an address at the Rotary club today. Mr. German reviewed efforts toward organizing a world court since the fourteenth century, enlarging upon the steps taken during the nineteenth century which have resulted in the present body composed of representatives of practically all civilized countries.

Formally organized in 1921, and perfected in procedure during the first session in 1922, the world court has successfully adjudicated eighteen cases of international importance.

Principal difficulties have arisen during recent years, with the rise in power of autocracies, Mr. German said. Lack of an enforcement organization hampers effectiveness of the court when some countries rely on military strength to further their rights.

Visitors at the luncheon today included E. R. Ribble and A. B. Knickerbocker of Odessa and Byers Johnson of Carlsbad; Malcolm Breneman and Tom Copeland, Tech students; Carl Young and Jimmy Kern of Midland.

President Clinton Lackey announced the charter night banquet of the newly organized Monahans club to be held at the high school here next Wednesday evening. The local club will present to the neighboring organization a "flag of all nations stand." Those planning to attend the banquet, from Midland, include Lackey, W. I. Pratt, S. A. Debnam, Fred Middleton, Fred Fromhold, Dr. W. E. Ryan, Fred Wemple, John R. Howe and Addison Wadley.

Election of officers of the Midland club, to take office July 1, is scheduled for next Thursday.

Panhandle Covered by Snow Today

Light Freeze Slated To Strike In This Section Tonight

By Associated Press

Three to five inches of snow covered the Texas Panhandle today as the pre-Easter cold wave spread to other sections.

Amarillo reported temperature of 28. Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo and Plainview all reported snow. No serious damage was recorded but in the Panhandle it was feared the hard freeze would injure fruit and tender crops.

Minor damage was done yesterday in sections north and east of Texas by wind, rain and hail.

Swirling snow that melted as it struck the ground dampened the streets of Midland today as the annual "Easter freeze" held sway. Although the mercury had not fallen below 38 degrees at noon, it was considered likely the temperature would be around 30 degrees tonight.

Rainfall that fell in the city limits yesterday afternoon totaled 25 of an inch and caused cessation of sand storms that had plagued residents for the past few days. In the ONE YEAR AGO TOMORROW

Time honored weather signs failed when the freeze struck the West Texas ranching country last night. Ranchmen long had staked their faith in the putting out of foliage by mesquite bushes, the growth of shinnery, the coming out of rattlesnakes and the observance of red ant beds. All of these signs had pointed to spring for some time but failed utterly in the radical change to winter weather. Minimum temperature was 24 degrees, two inches of snow was on the ground.

(Editor's note: Take a look out your window in the morning and see whether or not history does repeat itself.)

southeast and northeast parts of the county, rainfall was estimated at from one to one and a half inches. At the Glass ranch, in northeastern Midland and northwestern Martin county, the rainfall was estimated at one and a half inches. Ranges in that area were declared generally ailed by the precipitation.

Reports from over West Texas indicate rains ranging from showers to moderate downpours were general. Odessa reported a trace of rain yesterday. A light snow was falling there at noon today.

Pampa and Amarillo both reported rain and snow yesterday. Rain fell in Lubbock last night and snow was reported to be falling there this morning.

Both Big Spring and Stanton reported light rains Wednesday and light snow this afternoon. Temperatures ranged around 40 degrees in both cities.

A scheduled baseball game between the Chicago White Sox and the Pittsburgh Pirates in Sweetwater was called off at noon today after the mercury remained at 36 degrees throughout the morning. A light snow was reported there after noon. Several fans here had planned to attend the game but cancelled plans when it became known the game was called off.

All arrangements were concluded today for the Permian Basin District Firemen's Association convention that will be held here Saturday.

If It Is a Good Thing, Do It Right

By WILLIS THORNTON.

People who care about how their government is run ought to sit down to a little lesson provided by the effort in the Senate to slide through an increase in the tariff on vegetable oils.

Whether there ought to be such an increase is not discussed here.

But the method by which it is being sought is so bad that it ought to be noted.

The Senate was considering a bill relating to the mutual taxation of federal and state employes.

The vegetable oil people, whose position is supported by several well-organized and powerful lobbies, got an amendment tacked on to the tax bill which had nothing at all to do with the bill, but which provided a boost in the tariff on certain foreign vegetable oils which compete with local products.

President Roosevelt very properly indicated that he would veto the bill if it passed in this form. He resents, and naturally, a bill coming to him for signature which may be necessary and proper, but which carries an amendment on an entirely unrelated subject.

Thus if the original bill is important enough, there is pressure on the President to sign it, even though he thinks the unrelated amendment is vicious.

This is a frequent dodge in Congress, and it can't be condemned too often.

In this particular case, it is especially bad because the vegetable oil tariff is an integral part of the entire tariff system. It should be considered with, and as part of, the whole tariff plan. It is bad business to make up a national tariff policy piece-meal, sliding in concessions here and there wherever special interests can get them. It makes the whole tariff system a disreputable patch-work.

The vegetable oil people may have a perfectly good case. We don't know whether they do or not, and we're not guessing.

But it certainly should be considered in a tariff bill, on its own merits, and in connection with the whole tariff policy and our obligations to other countries under the Hull trade agreements.

The United States is facing a grave fight in the foreign trade field. One of our handicaps is that other countries do not know what they can count on from us. They know that at any time any agreement may be upset by a sudden bit of lobby pressure in Congress. They know that in dealing with dictators they need not fear this.

This is no suggestion that we should turn our tariff-making functions over to any sort of a dictatorship. Congress should keep that power, but it should prove worthy of it by making tariff laws in an orderly manner and in accordance with an adopted principle and policy, and not haphazardly in response to every temporary pressure.

You Can't Get Away

Most everybody has moments these days when he would like to "get away from it all."

But it is easier to talk about it (and probably more fun) than it is to do it.

Take for a small example the case of James Dawson Fox of Dawson Springs, Ky. James is 78, a former farmer, and his only income is a $10 a month old age pension.

He lived in a rented house, but he wasn't paying any rent. So when the roof started to leak, James didn't have the crust to ask repairs from the landlord. James moved into a nearby cave, where nobody thought of rent.

But there was one difficulty with the cave, as James found out after he moved in. The roof leaked.

And that is why people struggle along with the leaky and unsatisfactory institutions that rule the world today. They are afraid a new roof will leak just as badly.

See Garner is getting ready for a Texas angling trip. Wouldn't it be terrible if sometime there came a President or vice president who absolutely refused to fish?

A shipment of snow went down south for Floridians to look at. If they're that inquisitive, they can have all of it.

What Would Soloman Have Done in a Case Like This?

"Sunlit Norway Call" Subject of Lecture Tonight

"Sunlit Norway Call" is an alluring title for a lecture and it will prove to be an interesting one as well. Mrs. Gladys Petch, known as Norway's "Ambassador without portfolio" will deliver an illustrated lecture on the beautiful land of the Vikings, this evening at the high school auditorium, at eight o'clock under the auspices of the Senior Class.

Mrs. Petch is English born and educated but has lived in Norway much of her life. She became interested in travel lectures while her late husband was an instructor in Oslo University. She has had varied experiences in radio work and has broadcast her famous English lectures from several foreign countries. A very charming speaker, she possesses a lovely voice and personality.

Her talk is an illustrated one in which she uses beautiful, authentic colored pictures. There are many lovely pictures of the Royal Family to whom Mrs. Petch was presented, during her visit last summer. Assisting Mrs. Petch on this unusual program will be Miss Elora Sornsen and Mr. Charles Gallagher. Miss Sornsen, a lovely young Norwegian soprano, will sing several songs in native costume. She will be accompanied by Mr. Gallagher, a young, brilliant pianist. He won much praise and applause when he played here several weeks ago. He is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory and is scheduled to appear in master classes under Moritz Rosenthal, this summer. He will play several compositions by Chopin, the great Polish-French composer of whom he is very fond.

Admission prices are fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for students.

The program follows:
Wedding Day at Troldhaugen, Grieg
Etude-Op. 10 No. 11.....Chopin
Prelude-Op. 28 No. 7.....Chopin

Suspected Slayer Is Captured After Five Years of Freedom

ALAMOSA, Colo., April 6. (AP)—A 71-year-old Texas tavern operator, recognized by a Texas sheriff as a fugitive hunted four years for the slaying of a San Acacio, Colo., store clerk, will be returned to Colorado for trial, District Attorney Leonard M. Haynie said Wednesday.

Haynie reported that John W. Kenworthy, accused in the murder warrant issued March 29, 1935, of shooting Isaac Newton Davis and concealing his body in a grocery store meat cooler, had been arrested at his tavern near Seguin, Tex. Kenworthy, who once served a Colorado prison term for killing a Monte Vista, Colo., officer, disappeared from San Acacio a month before the body of 65-year-old Davis was found in Kenworthy's store, Haynie related.

Sheriff A. W. Saeger of Guadalupe County, Tex., informed Haynie he recognized Kenworthy from a picture published by a detective story magazine. Taken to San Antonio for fingerprinting and questioning, Kenworthy admitted having had an "argument" with a man

Broadway America Club Organization Is Scheduled Here

Sponsored by the Midland Chamber of Commerce, a Broadway of America Club will be organized here within the next weeks or ten days, it was announced this morning by Ed M. Whitaker, chamber of commerce president, who also announced the appointment of a Broadway of America Committee to perfect organization of the local Broadway unit. The committee is composed of Fred Wemple, chairman, B. G. Eridwell, Clarence Scharbauer, W. F. Hejl, J. O. Vance, Harvey Conger, B. M. Kirky, Ralph Lowe, H. J. Phillips, W. B. Simpson, and George Phillips.

Every citizen of Midland interested in the promotion of the Broadway of America highway will be invited to become affiliated with the club, purpose of which will be to join other Broadway clubs up and down the Broadway of America in promoting the transcontinental highway and in increasing traffic over said route. The local club will be affiliated with the Broadway of America Highway Association, of which P. O. Mackey of Douglas, Arizona, is president.

It is pointed out that tourist traffic should be much heavier this year than ever before due to the fairs on both the east and west coasts, and an effort will be made by the many Broadway clubs, in connection with the Broadway Association, to route as much of the traffic as is possible over U. S. 80.

named Davis in Colorado more than three years ago, Sheriff Saeger said.

The slayer of Davis, after killing the elderly clerk with bullets fired into his shoulder and side, hid his body in the store's improvised meat cooler beneath a stairway.

The body was covered with clothing and sprinkled with lime. The cooler door was nailed shut. A coroner's jury established at an inquest March 28, 1935, that Davis had been killed "on or about Jan. 12, 1935."

About a month after Davis' reported disappearance, Kenworthy closed his San Acacio store, sold his belongings and started into New Mexico in his automobile, Haynie said.

Lee Huffaker of San Acacio, who started with Kenworthy on the trip into New Mexico, told officers that when they reached Questa, N. M., Kenworthy asked him to wait while he drove on an errand. Huffaker said Kenworthy never returned.

Permit for Truck Line on 80 Asked

DALLAS, April 6. (AP)—J. V. Braswell, young El Paso truck operator, Wednesday asked the Texas Railroad Commission for a permit to operate through motor truck lines between El Paso and Dallas over Highway 80 and El Paso and San Antonio over Highway 90. Braswell said his fleet would offer the only through service over the proposed routes, but it would affect many motor carriers in the western area, as well as the Southern Pacific and Texas and Pacific railroads.

Lon A. Smith, commission chairman who presided, said hundreds of witnesses would be heard in six cities before the commission ruled. These include Fort Worth April 17, Abilene April 26, Odessa May 4, El Paso May 15 and San Antonio May 25.

Special Services At Christian Church

A candlelight holy communion service will be held at the First Christian church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The service commemorates the Last Supper of Christ with his disciples before his betrayal into the hands of his enemies, and is described by Rev. John E. Pickering as "perhaps the most beautiful and sacred of all the services held throughout the year" at his church.

The church will be decorated in white with a five-foot electrically lighted cross behind a large chair at the communion table, paying tribute to Jesus Christ, the silent Guest.

Mrs. F. C. Cummings, Mrs. G. H. Butler, B. W. Reer, and Dr. L. B. Pemberton and others will be in charge of the various preparations and phases of the observance.

The service will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and should be concluded by 8 o'clock, according to Mr. Pickering.

Good Friday Service at Odessa

Episcopal services, observing Good Friday, will be held at the Presbyterian church in Odessa Friday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 3 o'clock.

All Episcopalians in Midland are invited to attend the services there.

Savory Pork

For a pork roast with a "different" flavor, select a shoulder, have the butcher bone it, sprinkle the inner side with salt, pepper, powdered thyme, chopped parsley and lemon juice. Roll and tie, then rub the outside with cut garlic, sprinkle with a little more salt and pepper, and roast.

The Town Quack

I heard this morning of a cowboy named Ferdinand. He looked the part but had never punched a cow.

Oil men breathed easier, as did the rest of us, when the railroad commission began yesterday to back up and revise some of the radical cuts in West Texas allowables. Proration is a good thing, but nobody enjoys having someone pinch his head off.

A year ago today was the big fruit-killing freeze. I hope we can remember it as the year we didn't have a fruit crop, rather than to pick one year out of ten when the trees produce.

General Smedley Butler, urging citizens never to send their sons to fight on foreign soil, reassured the listeners by saying foreign invaders can't afford to come all the way to America to fight. Let's hope he's right, because very few of us would want to make a battle ground out of the United States.

I would favor a world alliance whereby a neutral territory would be bought for holding all wars. Countries wanting to fight it out would have to go there and set up their camps, starting at the blow of a whistle, with each battle properly refereed.

As a local man said this morning, there's one thing this sort of weather is good for, and that's to fight chickens. But I don't see how they could get roosters warmed up to the battle.

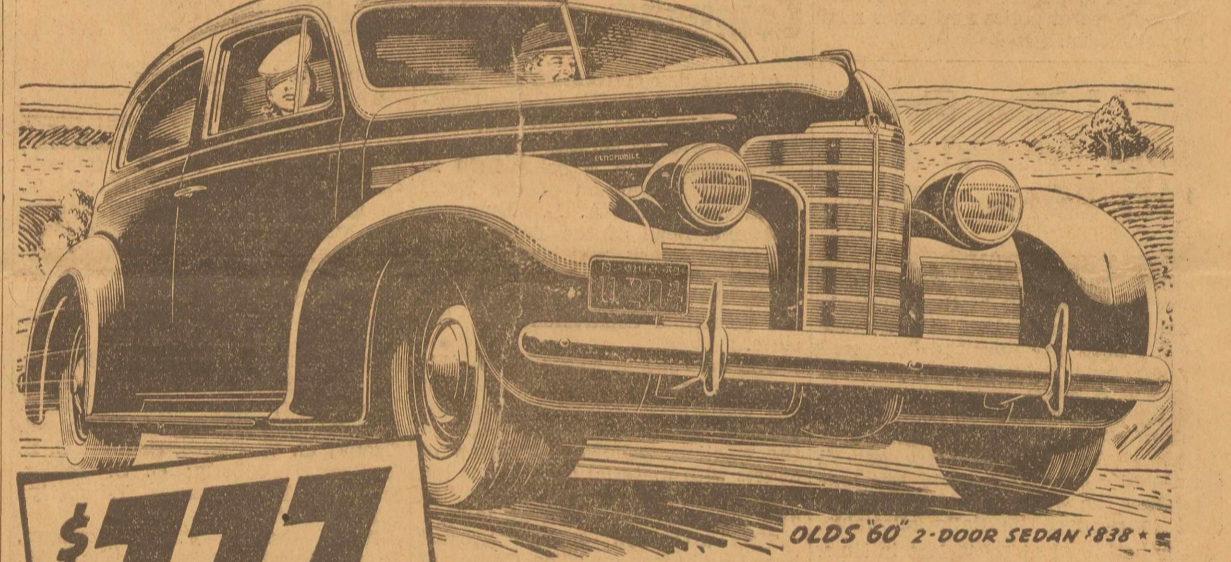

It's matching these big league baseball games in West Texas that causes the cold spells around Easter. I hope Sweetwater will lay off next spring and not book a game. At the very time they want 55 degree temperature, the mercury drops to 35. And sometimes 25.

When the school kids joined the campaign to select a name for the local baseball team, the complexion of the situation changed overnight.

BIGGEST DE LUXE "PACKAGE" A LOW PRICE EVER BOUGHT!

$111 AND UP*
Check Olds delivered prices and check up on Oldsmobile value as compared with any other car in the low-price field. This year's Oldsmobile Sixty Sedan with built-in trunk sells for $106 less than last year's lowest-priced Oldsmobile sedan. Prices have been substantially reduced on Olds Seventy and Eighty. For quality, value and all-round satisfaction, this year's Oldsmobile!

LOW PRICE buys quality when you buy an Olds—quality exemplified by all these leading features:

- Rhythmic Ride, a revolutionary new development, exclusive with Oldsmobile, that results in a finer, smoother ride. There's nothing else like it.
- Quadri-Coil Springing. Big, flexible coil springs cushion all four corners of the car. They need no lubrication.
- Four-Way Stabilization controls up-and-down motion, fore-and-aft and side-to-side movement and body-roll—resulting in a steady, stabilized ride.
- Knee-Action Front Wheels, acting independently of each other, step over bumps, ruts and holes in the road.
- Dual Center-Control Steering provides exceptional handling ease and accurate, positive car control.
- Self-Energizing Hydraulic Brakes assure quick, smooth, straight-line stops with minimum pedal pressure.
- 90 H. P. Econo-Master Engine delivers brilliant, all-round performance—saves money on gas and oil.
- 100% Full-Pressure Lubrication with Rifle-Drilled Connecting Rods. All engine bearings and piston pins are pressure lubricated.
- Roomy, Wide-Vision Body by Fisher has extra-large windshield and windows for greater vision and safety.

Mrs. DeArmond Leads Drill at Club Program

Parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. J. M. DeArmond was the program feature at the meeting of the Woman's Wednesday club with Mrs. Elliott F. Cowden, 201 North C street, Wednesday afternoon. The speaker illustrated her drill with a chart of the various kinds of motions used in club procedure.

Mrs. Ernest Sidwell was received into the club, completing the membership quota.

Mrs. E. C. Conkling reported on the safety council and Mrs. Andrew Fasken on the City-County Federation.

The club voted to cooperate in entertaining the eighth district conference here in 1940.

Mrs. John Perkins was elected delegate to the eighth district conference to be held at Fort Stockton later this month.

A report on the program committee was made by Mrs. M. C. Ulmer.

The corresponding secretary announced from the county librarian an invitation to club members to hear Mrs. Dorothy Journey, state library organizer, who will speak Wednesday evening of next week on the program of the district PTA conference.

Members attending were: Mmes. J. M. Caldwell, R. C. Conkling, J. M. DeArmond, Andrew Fasken, George Glass, O. B. Holt, R. L. Miller, Etie Payne, John Perkins, W. E. Ryan, Robt. M. Turpin, Ernest Sidwell, M. C. Ulmer, W. T. Walsh, W. G. Whitehouse, and the hostess.

Hot Cross Buns Still a Dish to Make at Home

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Service Staff Writer

Commercial bakers sell hundreds of thousands of Hot Cross Buns every Lent. But judging by the number of requests for recipes, many American women still like to make their own.

Hot Cross Buns

One pint milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, 4 cups flour, 1 cake compressed yeast, 1-4 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon ground mace, 1-2 cup currants, 1-2 cup shaved citron, extra flour.

Scald milk. Add to it the butter, sugar and salt. Cool slightly. Beat the eggs well, then whip into the milk. Measure 1 cup of flour and whip into milk. Add 3 more cups of flour, a little at a time, beating in with rotary beater. Dissolve yeast cake in 1-4 cup warm water. Add to mixture and beat again. Set this mixture in warm place to rise until light, about 3 or 4 hours.

Beat down and add spices, currants dusted with flour, and citron. Add more flour to make consistency right for kneading. Grease a large bowl and put the dough in it. Stand in warm place to rise. As it rises, push it down, doing this about 4 times. Place in buttered muffin tin or shape as biscuits on buttered sheet, placing them at least one inch apart. Let them rise to about twice their original size.

Mark with deep cross, using a knife. Brush with beaten egg. Stand 3 minutes longer, then bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) for 20 minutes.

Fill crosses with confectioner's icing made by adding to 1 tablespoon hot water enough sifted confectioner's sugar to make stiff paste. Flavor with a little vanilla.

- MENU
BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, hot cross buns, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Black bean soup, croissants, French bread, rhubarb tartlets, tea, milk.
DINNER: Beef stew with vegetables, baked potatoes, asparagus, apple and celery salad, hot gingerbread, coffee, milk.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer

A famous Fifth Avenue salon advises its clientele to spend the next few weeks eliminating the lines that winter left in the danger zones—the area around the mouth, the spot between the brows just above the nose, around the eyes and at the inner sides of the cheeks near the nose. In other words, the places where lines are most likely to develop during winter months.

If you have fine lines which you know very well you didn't have last fall, by all means decide to go in for a series of home facials. Get a jar of rich night cream and massage plenty of it into face and throat before going to bed.

First, wash face and neck thoroughly. Then apply cream with upward and outward strokes. Work on your throat, using fingertips of both hands and lightly patting skin until much of the cream has been absorbed.

Now gently grasp inside corners of eyebrows with forefingers and thumbs, then pinch outward to outer tips of brows. Using circular motions, massage cream into the skin around eyes. Begin at inside corners, working around and around so that lids, puffs underneath and lines at corners are stimulated and oiled.

Soften "Expression" Lines

Pinch upward from corners of mouth to cheekbones at sides of nose. This part of the treatment tends to eliminate the expression lines which begin at sides of the nose and slope downward to corners of the mouth. Also, pinch outward to temples as well as straight upward from corners.

To eliminate fullness at jawline, begin at center of chin and pinch outward along jawbone. Repeat eight times.

Remember, of course, that all strokes and any manipulation of the skin in a home facial must be gentle. Don't pinch or pat vigorously. You can smooth away lines, but you cannot slap them away without doing more harm than good.

Mrs. Caldwell Is Guest Speaker at Club's Bible Day

Mrs. J. M. Caldwell was guest speaker at the regular Bible Day program observed by Junior Woman's Wednesday club in a meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh West, 805 W. Storey, Wednesday afternoon.

Her discussion dealt mainly with archeological discoveries in the Bible lands and their relation to the Bible.

Club members present were: Mrs. Ben Black, Mrs. W. M. Blevins, Miss Helen Fasken, Mrs. Ralph Geisler, Miss Georgia Goss, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Louis Thomas, Miss Lucile Thomas, and the hostess.

Midland Baseball Team Will Play in Odessa Friday

Members of the Midland baseball club, after having been forced by weather conditions for the past two days to forego practice periods, will play a return game tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in Odessa against the oil town's semi-pro club, that came through with an 18-14 decision here last week.

Three hurlers who have not yet made an appearance in either of the two practice games played by the local team will probably be called upon tomorrow. They are Floyd Bartell, Lee Snyder and Jim Heffington, all righthanders. Bartell has appeared to be the most impressive in workouts but has been troubled with a sore arm.

A newcomer who will probably break into the lineup of the Midland team tomorrow is Raymond Curtis, an infielder. There is a possibility he will be placed at shortstop, replacing Sam Malvicka who is suffering from a sore arm and a spike wound on one of his heels.

There was no workout scheduled for the team today, arrangements having been made to take the entire club to Sweetwater for the scheduled Chicago White Sox-Pittsburgh Pirates battle. However, this morning, it appeared the game would be called off. If so, the local boys will probably get some exercise at jogging around the park this afternoon.

"Colts" Remain in Lead But 'Cowboys,' 'Mustangs' Gaining

Backers of the idea of naming the baseball team here this year the Midland Colts remained in the lead over five other names today, although failing to turn in any more votes in the last 24 hours.

"Mustangs" and "Cowboys" were in a virtual tie for second place with only one vote separating them. Neither had but slightly more than half as many votes as has been turned in for "Colts."

To the person submitting the most votes for any of the six names to be found at the bottom of this column will go a season pass to all home games of the Midland team. Deadline for mailing or submitting the votes in person is Friday at midnight. All votes will be counted Saturday morning and the name having the largest number will be that chosen as the cognomen of the club for the year. All selections are to be mailed or brought in to the Reporter-Telegram sports editor.

Standings at present:

| Colts | 174 |
| Mustangs | 88 |
| Cowboys | 87 |
| Colts | 10 |
| Oilers | 1 |

Brisk Demand Shown For Popular Books

Brisk sale of books under The Reporter-Telegram's annual offer was registered Wednesday and today, following announcement of well known volumes available for only 39 cents and the clipping of a coupon from the newspaper. Such well known books as Treasure Island, The Pathfinder, Moby Dick, The Scarlet Letter, The Count of Monte Cristo, Westward Ho, Plain Tales From the Hills, The Lady in White and others are in stock at The Reporter-Telegram office, with the supply being reduced rapidly.

One Midland man bought seven of the volumes Wednesday, coming back early Thursday for the other 35. One Odessa subscriber mailed in an order for seven this morning. On out of town orders, an additional six cents per volume is necessary for postage and mailing costs.

Tickets for Boxing Tournament Placed On Sale Here Today

Tickets went on sale today for the district AAU boxing tournament here next Monday and Tuesday nights.

The tickets may be procured at the Palace Drug, Midland Drug, Llano Barber shop and the Midland Athletic club. The matches will be held at the athletic club, just across the street north from the Scharbauer Hotel.

Additional entries were received from local boxers yesterday and the first out of town entries are expected today or tomorrow.

Six more Midland boys filed entries yesterday, bringing the total number to 16. Entries yesterday were received from Thomas "Fatso" Wright, welterweight, George Watford, middleweight; Ernest Richters, light heavyweight; Charles Sapp and Delmer Yoakum, light weights; "Smoky" Joe Woods, bantamweight. Winners in the tournament here will be given an all-expense trip to Dallas to participate in the state AAU tournament April 12-13-14. Winners in the state tournament will be taken to the national tournament in Chicago later in the month.

Most of the local boys are working out daily at the athletic club and are expected to be in fair condition by the time the tournament opens.

Particularly impressive has been the form shown by Bill Brasher, middleweight, and Jack Childress, featherweight. Both have had quite a bit of experience in the ring and will be hard to oust in the tournament.

Promoter Bob Royall today announced he would be the third man in the ring when the lights start and that Joyce Howell, one of the top lightweights of the country a few years ago, would be one of the seconds. Other officials will be signed within the near future.

Winnipeg Short On Toppers for Royal Visitors

WINNIPEG, Man. (U.P.) — Although several of Winnipeg's 18 aldermen lack morning coats and top hats to wear during the visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth to this city in May, they apparently are not worried about it.

Asked about the alleged scarcity of "toppers" among civic officials, Major John Queen scoffed at the controversy which had been going on about what he and his aldermen should wear during the royal visit to the city hall. "Silly stuff," he called it.

However, one enterprising citizen already has offered to rent his top hat "in good condition" to the highest bidder on the city council.

Alderman C. Rhodes-Smith, who heads the committee planning Winnipeg's Royal Welcome Week, said: "There's been a lot of hot air blown around about a number of the Winnipeg aldermen not owning morning coats and top hats—and it's quite true. But there has been no official discussion on what civic officials will wear to welcome their majesties to the city." He added, "We're not worrying about that part of the royal visit yet."

"I'm going to dress as I please—and the rest can do the same, as far as I'm concerned," declared Alderman C. E. Simonite. "No doubt some of the aldermen will wear morning coats and top hats. No—I don't know whether I will or not."

Riverman Says Glamour Lives On Mississippi

ST. LOUIS, (U.P.) — The Mississippi river may have lost much of its glamour when it was replaced as a travel medium by more modern methods of transportation, but it has never lost its charm and appeal to rivermen, according to Capt. William Baptiste.

Baptiste, 44-year-old steamboat captain who received a degree in engineering and served in the U. S. army air corps during the World War before taking to the river, said the large and colorful crowds lining the levees of river towns have passed, but the stream has retained its old spirit of friendliness.

He said he seldom leaves his boat for any great length of time.

"I always want to get back to the peace and quiet of the river," he explained. "The noise of the city would make a nervous wreck of me within a few days."

Baptiste, the son of a St. Louis tent manufacturer, grew up on the riverfront here. He said he first heard the call of the river when he was a youngster, "stealing rides on boats, or listening earnestly to the talk of the rivermen."

say they are for war, are for the States that cause war.

"It's only the swivel-chair fellows who want more killing," he asserted. With 40 years of military service behind him, General Butler believes, and says, that the more killing a person sees the less he wants to see it.

Women, as a group, are not exerting an influence for peace that can be felt, he said for the women are going along with their men "just as they always do." Women say that they don't want their boys killed, that they'll do anything (to prevent it), is his condemnation, but they don't do it. And the women who have no sons to be killed are the ones who go about talking of "collective security."

"Women's suffrage has been a tremendous disappointment to me," he said quietly.

"Have you any special message for young people?" he was asked.

"They must not get over-enthusiastic and have a foreign war just to see Europe," came the reply, followed by a muttered, "It's what they did last time."

What can the average man or woman do toward aiding the cause of peace?

The straighttalking, small-statured General has this bit of advice to offer: Keep saying that no armed force of the United States shall be sent away from America. That we will fight to defend the country here but will not fight abroad.

Students Advised No Danger in Visiting Schools at Odessa

Reports of outbreak of social disease in Odessa lower grade schools have been corrected by medical authorities. It was announced today by local school officials who visited the neighboring city prior to taking band contestants there Saturday.

Dr. J. K. Wood, Ector county health officer, wrote that he has been in intimate contact with a recent investigation into an alleged spread of gonorrhoeal infection in the elementary school system, and that actual findings revealed only a few cases among small girls, and those confined to one building.

"All precautionary measures have been instituted and are being rigidly enforced, and the few infected cases have been removed from school until complete cure is obtained," he said. "There could be no danger in any manner to any child in visiting or attending Odessa schools, and certainly no more danger than is ordinarily encountered in attendance at any school of like enrollment in this area of Texas."

Director M. A. Armstrong of the Midland high school band quoted Dr. Wood's letter today, in advance of the band contests to be held at Odessa Saturday, with bands from 26 towns competing.

lipping insurrection).

He is squarely against the habit of sending forces, even to the smaller Central American countries, to protect investments abroad, advocating that the investors protect themselves by insurance and leave the United States army and navy and citizens out of it.

He discussed the entry of the United States into the World War, with some startling data on what happened here and abroad just before the April declaration of War.

"We went to war to save 6000 banks," he declared. "We went into the war to save 4 billions and it cost us 62 billions." Only about two-thirds of this enormous debt has been paid, he asserted, and the

Women's Suffrage "Disappointment," Says Gen. Butler

BY KATHLEEN ELLAND.

"Anybody's fortunate to come to Texas. And more fortunate if he can get Texans to sit still and listen to him." This was the pronouncement of General Smedley D. Butler, interviewed before his address to Town Hall club members and their guests at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening.

In contradistinction to his lecture which was spiced with profanity, not even a "damn" crept into the General's conversation during the brief interview with a staff member of The Reporter-Telegram. Indeed, he had the smooth, flattering, complimentary courtesy of speech, which is a characteristic of the man of the world.

Small and dark, with pepper-and-salt hair, the General moved with alertness and spoke with straightforward assurance in what he had to say.

Although he is a Pennsylvanian by birth, he says he is a good Texan. He has made five tours of the state and has spoken in 15 different places in the state, but this is his first visit to Midland.

Asked if he had any special message for Texans, he replied "No, Texas doesn't need any message from anybody."

Renowned as an advocate of peace and an antagonist of any war save that to repel invasion on United States soil, the former commander of marines was asked whether he found any differences in people's attitude toward peace in the different sections of the country.

"No," was his reply. "It is the same among the same kind of people."

"The backbone of the nation," is opposed to war but that some of the big investors, although they will not

European nations owe the United States 12 billions.

The nations in Europe are just bluffing in their warlike maneuvers, he told his hearers. "If they were going to fight, they'd have jumped each other as they did in 1914."

Chamberlain is giving away things that don't belong to him.

There will be no fight until the United States agrees to fight, he believes, and if the foreign countries realize that the United States won't be in on the war, they will arrange their situations and conditions.

More than once, he urged Americans to "keep their feet on the ground" and to let it be known that while they would not go abroad to war, they would defend their own country at home against any invader.

The Monroe doctrine and the Japanese question came in for a share of the lecturer's attention.

His speech was sprinkled with profanity and shot with humor, drawing laughter, as well as applause from the hearers.

"Throwing mud at Hitler has done him more good than anything," the General told the group.

He admitted he was glad that he was here instead of in Germany. "How long would this last in Berlin?" he demanded. "They'd have purged me as I came in the door."

He doesn't want Germans criticizing President Roosevelt because "he's ours" and Americans can do the criticizing, he said.

He urged all citizens to test the troubles arising in the world by the question "What has this got to do with me?" and insisted that Americans "ought to do all defending here." "If we have to die, let's die at home."

Preceding the General's address, a brief business meeting of Town Hall club was held during which President Thomas explained some of the workings of the organization and invited visitors to join. Miss Elma Graves reported for the nominating committee, submitting names of six candidates from which three new directors will be chosen to take the places of three of the board of nine who are retiring at the end of this season. Candidates were: Mrs. Harvey Sloan, J. P. Butler, Mrs. E. H. Ellison, W. T. Schneidre, Mrs. W. T. Walsh, C. F. Butcher. They will be voted on later.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste builds up in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.
