JUNCTION PRAETORIANS MAKE MERRY.

Public Installation of Officers, Followed by Sumptuous Feast.

Last Thursday evening at their hall in this city Junction Praetorian Council No. 50 had public installation of officers, followed by a grand feast; and as to the genuine enjoyment of the occasion we call to witness the two hundred members and guests who attended and have been talking about it ever since.

After the regular form of meeting the house was called to order, and after the opening ceremonies the following officers having been elected by the Council at a previous meeting, were duly installed for the ensuing year: Past S. A., G. F. Gobens; Sublime Augustus, Will K. Hankins; Senior Tribune, O. L. Eastman; Jr. Tribune, Prof. C. O. Britt; Attorney, A. O. Lawler; Recorder, C. R. Stevenson; Southsayer, Rev. E. T. Deel; Medical Examiner, Dr. D. S. Stone; Lygion, Boyd Jetton; 1st Centurion, Dave Cowser; 2nd Centurion, Olney Patterson; Sentinel, W. M. Tinsley; Queen, Mrs. Vinnie Hodges. Other officers elected to assist in the workings of the order are: Musician, Mrs. Grace Stone; Secretary, Mrs. Bessie Hankins; Reporter, C. M. Nichols.

The impressive installation ceremonies were conducted by District Manager C. E. Pearson. Mrs. Emma Burrows read the beautiful Praetorian eulogy. C. M. Nichols served as Praetorian Herald.

After installation ceremonies the council stood at ease and a grand feast was spread. And if there was anyone present who did not enjoy partaking of some of the "forty-seven" different kinds of delicious eatables he certainly must have had a poor appetite. There was turkey, chicken, oysters, ham, barbecue, bread, pickles, salads, hot coffee and tea, and about 320 different kinds of cakes and pies, then there were various kinds of fine palate-tickling "ala-etc."—oh, we can't enumerate here all the good things of that supper.

When all had enjoyed the repast, District Manager Pearson and Praetorians R. T. Deel and C. R. Stevenson favored the gathering with short talks appropriate to the occasion.

Music for the evening was furnished by the Junction orchestra and was indeed enjoyed.

Every citizen, however humble, should have some part in the development and upbuilding of his community.

Junction Emerges From Darkness.

It is to rejoice! Our beautiful little city no longer remains lost in chaotic darkness, but now luxuriantly bathes itself in the beamful rays of electric illumination. The Junction Ice and Electric Co. began regular operation of the electric light plant Tuesday evening, and persons suffering with weak optics had best wear well protecting shades now when visiting our city at night time. We knew all the while that Junction was badly in need of electric lights—and now that we have them in operation, we hardly see how our town could get along without them. We congratulate manager Ernest Wilson and his efficient force on the success of the new enterprise. May the system grow and prosper till the shining electric rays illuminate this entire Llano valley.

It's just another step in our forward march of progress. Pass the word along, boys, Junction is growing and improving every minute.

Go to Church Sunday March 22.

In accordance with the movement in our cities to induce people to go to church and become more interested in christianity designating a certain Sunday as, a "Go to Church Sunday." We wish to have such a service at Junction 4th Sunday in March, at the Methodist Church. Perhaps an investigation would show that a large percentage of our people in Junction does not attend church with any great frequency or not at all. Many of our people in the small towns are fast falling into the habit of the city folks, stay at home habit or use the Sabbath for a day of pleasure rather than a day of worship and service. There is less justification for this now, with our autos and better roads than in former days when our fathers made church attendance a large part of their life, yet with greater difficulties to get to church. They did not use Sunday as a day of pleasure so much, but a day of worship and service to God. I do not believe that the neglect of Sunday school and church service on the part of the great masses of our people is a token of a strong abiding or a thoroughly consecrated life to God. Suppose we make a start in far better habit of attending church services. It will make us a better people, and will honor God, whose we are and to whom our spirits will at last return.

At our service, March 22, we want to sing the old time songs, and if possible will have some special music and a sermon by the pastor. I am especially anxious to have the non church going people to come who have not attended church for years. And all the church going people to come and bring some one with you who is not in the habit of going to church. Come one and all. You will have the glad hand of welcome.

Pastor of Methodist Church, Rev. C. W. Rylander.

IMPROVING THE HIGHWAYS.

We issued over seven million dollars of bonds last year and raised almost an equal amount by taxation for the improvements of our "public highways." The amount of bonds issued was almost double that of the previous year, which indicates that we are making rapid progress in road improvement.

But there is another side to the story. There was over four millions dollars of proposed bond issues defeated. These elections, with a few unimportant exceptions, were carried by a majority vote, but failed to get the necessary two-thirds. The amendment of this law to permit the issuance of bonds on a majority vote is an important opportunity presented to the next legislature.

ATTRACTIONS AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE

PLAYS THAT HAVE HAD LONG AND SUCCESSFUL
RUNS IN NEW YORK, TO BE SEEN HERE
DURING THE COMING WEEK.

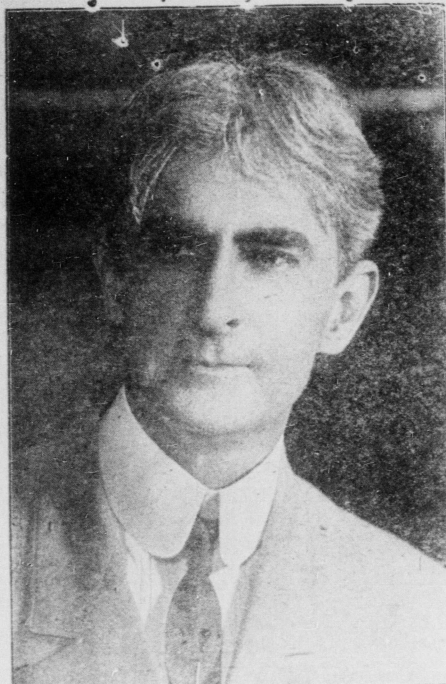

JOHN DREW'S FIRST VISIT TO SAN ANTONIO.

John Drew comes to this city for the first time on March 27-28 with two new plays of the kind that once made theatergoing a pleasure for the cultivated. Mr. Drew has long enjoyed the reputation of being the best actor of light comedy on the American stage, and in his latest successes he discloses new phases of his brilliant art. Charles Frohman, under whose direction he appears, had ical playgoers will be privileged with an opportunity to witness the same program interpreted by Mr. Drew and his artistic associates.

PEG O' MY HEART.

"Peg O' My Heart." J. Hartley Manners' comedy will be seen at the Grand next Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 31, Matinee Saturday. The action of the play takes place in an old provincial town in England. This is the home of a suddenly impoverished family. This a happy inspiration in choosing for family is composed of the relatives of him two contrasting plays—"The young girl of eighteen. She was Tyranny of Tears" by C. Hadden born in New York and reared by Chambers, and "The Will" by J. M. her Irish father there. Peg comes Barrie. In the first mentioned play, to England to enjoy a fortune left Mr. Drew gives one of those finished her by a wealthy uncle. It is a study of a man of the world for essay for her to have a guardian which he is so adept. In the latter, during the period of her education, play, which is written in three according to the uncle's will, and the Like many others relatives his life. Never before has Mr. Drew they accept the annual wage, but so absolutely and skillfully effaced they proceed to take it out of the his own personality in characterizations that they are almost indistinguishable. The success of this double bill in New York was most emphatic and it is cause for congratulation that lo-

SOUTH TEXAS CROP PROSPECTS GOOD

Present Indications in That Section Point to Prosperous Year.

GALVESTON, Tex., Mar. 9.—Optimistic reports of splendid prospects for crops reached here today. In some sections it was said conditions were never better, while in others the reports were not so pleasing, but they told of chances for a prosperous year.

Beeville reported that prospects for a bumper crop are good. San Marcos has not had such a good outlook in years. Taylor farmers are exuberant over the seasonable rain and fast-growing crops. Favorable conditions exist in the Laredo section.

Installation of irrigation plants in Maverick County will cause a large increase in acreage. Corpus Christi informed that, while some damage was done by the freeze, cotton will not be put back very much. Palestine advised were to the effect that about one-third peach crop will be gathered.

The most serious damage by the cold weather was in the vicinity of Brownsville. This loss will be greatly lessened by the farmers replanting at once, the season not being too late to insure a good yield from a late crop.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT IN MANY CITIES OF SOUTH.

ATLANTA, Ga., Mar. 9.—Seismic shocks, slight, but distinct, were felt today in many cities and towns of Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and the Carolinas.

At numerous points business buildings and residences trembled, windows rattled and mild excitement prevailed. In the rural districts the negroes were badly frightened.

As recorded by the seismograph at Mobile, the tremors were light but rapid, indicating that the disturbance was not far distant.

Reports from many sections tonight were that the shocks did no damage and that no one was injured.

In the title part of "Peg."

WITHIN THE LAW.

Smokeless powder, noiseless firearms and a Maxim Silencer, such as the McNamara dynamites are alleged to have employed against their enemies, are adopted for the first time on the stage in "Within the Law," Bayard Veiller's thrilling new American play of modern metropolitan life, which The American Play Company is to present at the Grand on March 15, 16 and 17, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Matinee Tuesday.

These ingenious devices of modern warfare, which makes possible the killing of a person, with practically a minimum danger of detection, are adroitly introduced by the playwright to inject an element of baffling mystery into the murder that forms one of the exciting scenes of "Within the Law."

Although the audience sees a pistol drawn and the character at whom it is aimed, drop seemingly lifeless, there is not the slightest report from the discharge of the bullet nor the faintest trace of smoke. It is the use of these weapons that makes so puzzling the solution of the crime in the play. In New York and Chicago where "Within the Law" is the current dramatic hit, the play was designated "the drama of the minute."

"THE LEOPARD'S SPOTS."

A PLAY WITH REAL POWER.

When a play is produced which deals frankly with some great problem in sociology or practical existence, the questions naturally arise: What good will it accomplish? What will its effect be on the situation it portrays? Is it a story in the right direction—toward reform? Or is it merely photographic—intended to attract through sensationalism and exploited with that end in view, leaving the problem untouched by its influence, unsolved by it, saunter?

A play that has only its sensational features to offer as a plea for patronage descends to the level of vulgarity; its shallowness and insincerity are quickly unmasked and it is relegated by a discriminating public into the limbo of forgotten things. There has been nothing to keep it alive; a little dramatic excellence, perhaps, but no power—no "punch."

Thomas Dixon's new play, "The Leopard's Spots," is destined to live. It has power—it has punch—it has dramatic excellence.

"Leopard Spots" will be presented at the Grand on Wednesday and Thursday, March 18-19, Matinee Thursday.

WHERE FARMERS CO-OPERATE.

France has 1,600 co-operative dairies, Germany 2,600 and Finland 500. There are some 500 co-operative dairies in Ireland, but very few in England and Scotland, says the Country Gentleman.

France as well as Germany has a special "permanent committee" to study the question of co-operative grain storing and to promote action.

There are between 600 and 700 agricultural electricity societies in Germany. The cost for electricity to farmers averages 12c a kilowatt hour for light and 5c for power.

Holland has 500 co-operative horse insurance societies, insuring 70,000 animals, and Belgium 300 societies and 50,000 animals.

Denmark has 1,500 parish horse societies in which losses are shared by all members.

Belgium has 400 goat insurance societies.

Cow and pig clubs exist all over Europe.

Germany has about fifty steam plowing co-operative societies. Farmers have to wait their turn for the use of the implement.

France has a total of 40,000 agricultural co-operative societies.

In the Balkans, before the war, Serbia had 1,200 co-operative societies, Bulgaria 1,000 and Rumania 3,500.

SNOW CAN'T KEEP JOHN D. FROM CHURCH.

Mr. Rockefeller Comes to Town from Pocatello Hills in His Auto and Motors Back.

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's trip to church yesterday was perhaps the longest of any regular attendant at a regular service. He was at Cavalry Baptist Church, Fifty-seventh street, near Sixth avenue, in the morning, when the first union service of that and the Fifth Avenue Church was held. Mr. Rockefeller came from the Pocatello Hills and motored back again in the snowstorm in the afternoon, reaching home about 4 o'clock. His Cavalry pew is the second from the front, at the center. There was hardly a vacant seat yesterday, except in the gallery.

The preacher was the Rev. Dr. Cornelius Woelfkin, who was named on the service list as "minister in charge." Further down on the list appeared his name again as pastor of the Fifth Avenue Church. The Rev. Dr. MacArthur, now of Baltimore, was given as pastor emeritus of Calvary. Names of officers of the two churches were mingled in the list.

Drunken Veteran of Two Armies Shows Training by Manner of Receiving Sentence.

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—When the name of Daniel Kellar was called among those of thirteen men who had been picked up drunk on the Bowery, a gray-haired man of sixty-one, who said he was an English army veteran and also had served in the Spanish-American war, arose and saluted magistrate Appleton in the Tombs Court yesterday.

"Are you Kellar?" was asked. "Present and accounted for," replied the prisoner. "Last night I met a comrade on the Bowery. We went into a hostelry and discussed Col. Roosevelt's charge up San Juan Hill and President Wilson's Mexican policy. I am guilty of intoxication. Your Honor, but I wish you would not send me to the guard house. I want to go home."

"Two dollars' fine or two days in the City Prison," said the Magistrate.

"I haven't the money," said Kellar. Then he raised his hand to his forehead and ordered: "Right face! Sentence approved! Forward march!" And off he went toward a cell.

SUFFRAGE BOMB IN CHURCH.

Exploded in St. John's, Westminster, It Does Much Damage.

LONDON, Mar. 9.—A bomb was exploded in St. John's Church, Westminster, tonight, half an hour after the service had ended and the congregation departed.

The bomb had been placed in the gallery above the pulpit. The explosion, which is attributed to suffragettes, caused considerable damage to the interior of the church, including the shattering of several stained glass windows.

Suffragettes today attended the parish church at Hove, Sussex, England, and during the collect chanted a prayer asking God to "save suffragette prisoners, enlighten the minds of those who torture them, open the eyes of the church that it may no longer stand on the side of cruelty and repression and to open the eyes of the clergy that they may no longer countenance this needless persecution."

MILLS QUITS RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

BELIEVES RECENT EVENTS HAVE MADE NOMINATION REMOTE POSSIBILITY.

CORSICANA, Tex., Mar. 9.—To Texas Democrats: On the twenty-second day of last October I announced myself as a candidate for Governor of this State, subject to the action of the party primaries in July next.

I could never have made that announcement upon my own initiative. There had come to me from all sections of the State such calls for me to become a candidate that it seemed to be my duty to do so, and hence I entered the race.

Events which have transpired within the last four months with which everybody is familiar—and others more personal in their nature of which the public knows nothing—have satisfied me that my nomination is, at best, but a remote possibility.

Believing this to be a fact, there can be no doubt that the proper course for me to pursue is to withdraw my candidacy, which I now formally do.

I am very grateful to those persons in all parts of the State who have tendered me their support. I shall not forget them, but shall continue, in private life, my efforts to deserve their confidence and respect.

Especially do I profess my debt of gratitude to my neighbors and friends in Corsicana and Navarro County. Their kindness to me has ever been far in excess of my deserts. I have long memory for my friends and they will see that I shall not forget the cordial support while they have given me at this time.

With an earnest prayer for the continued prosperity of our beloved State and all of its people, I am, very respectfully,

CHAS. H. MILLS.

SENATOR WILLIACRY WRITES PLATFORM

TAKES ADVANCED POSITION IN FORMALLY ANNOUNCING CANDIDACY FOR GOVERNOR.

Favors Limited Land Ownership, Recall of Veto, Initiative and Referendum and Free Textbooks.

PORTLAND, Tex., Mar. 9.—With "Let us have political peace, but with honor," as his motto, declaring that he is not offering his candidacy as an anti-prohibitionist, and observing that this is the season when politicians can be seen to be assiduously cultivating the dear farmer, Hon. John C. Willacy, of this place has made public his platform as a candidate for Governor. In this he is interestingly discussing many matters of importance now commanding public attention, among them the land and tenant and farm marketing problems. He declares, among other things, for the popular recall of vetoes, for the initiative and referendum, for limited land ownership, a graduated land-tax system, a State board of equalization, compulsory education, free school books and compulsory arbitration of capital-labor disputes.

Not Under Obligations.
"I may be too democratic to run smoothly with machine politics and its autocratic methods," says Senator Willacy. "If so, this must be charged up to my faith in the true principles of Democracy, which teach me that people are not really free when dominated by the few."

"I am entering this contest upon my own initiative and responsibility. If honored with election I shall be under no obligation, direct or indirect, to any man, interest or influence, except God and the whole people of Texas. Unless the nomination and election can be had through the honest ballots of a free and sovereign people I would not accept the office at all. The people of Texas can be their own masters if they will. With equal certainty they may remain subjects of the few if they choose."

"I am not offering my candidacy as an anti-prohibitionist. Not that I underestimate the importance of the liquor problem, for it is, indeed, a very weighty one, but because there are other matters of public importance, vital to our happiness and prosperity that have been smothered in the cauldron of one-issue government."

ABILENE BOY, KIDNAPED AND DISGUISED AS GIRL, IS FOUND IN CANADA.

ABILENE, Tex., Mar. 9.—Kidnaped from his grandparents near Anson about a year ago, Calvin Steward, 7 years old, passed through this city today in the custody of Sheriff E. F. McClure of Jones County. The boy was found at South Fort George, Canada, 1,400 miles from Winniepeg, after a wide search had been made for him.

His father, Sam Steward, a railroad man, lived at Anson. The boy's mother is alleged to have kidnaped him and in order to conceal his identity he was disguised as a girl.

"She" was traced to Kansas City, then to St. Paul, across the Rocky Mountains to California and to Seattle. From there it is said, a boat was taken up the Frazer River to South Fort Gorge.

The boy will be returned to his father at Anson.

SNAKE'S BITE KILLS AUSTRALIAN SCIENTIST.

Dr. Frederick Fox Loses Life After Saving That of Goat Which Was Bitten.

CALCUTTA, British India, Mar. 9.—Dr. Frederick Fox, an Australian scientist, died today as the result of a bite from a snake which he was using for experimental purposes. Dr. Fox had just finished treating a goat which had been bitten by the use of what he claimed was a sure antidote for snake virus when he was attacked by a krait. This snake which is peculiar to British India, is a very venomous reptile. During its attack on the doctor the snake inflicted five punctures.

The doctor, who had often voluntarily submitted to snake bites in order to demonstrate the efficiency of his cure, smilingly incised four of the punctures, but the fifth escaped his notice. Later in the day symptoms of poisoning developed. The antidote was used, but it was too late.

BALL WILL NOT MEET FERGUSON IN DEBATE

BAD PRECEDENT TO ACCEPT WITH SO MANY CANDIDATES IN FIELD.

Does Not Agree With Temple Man In Belief That Division of Democratic Party Is Threatened.

HOUSTON, Tex., Mar. 9.—Col. Thomas H. Ball has made public a letter which he has addressed to Hon. James E. Ferguson of Temple. It is in part as follows: "Replying to your favor of Feb. 34 I beg to say that it will not be convenient for me to attend the opening of your campaign at Waco on Saturday, March 14, and divide time with you."

"Unless conditions arise to warrant me in changing my present intention, I will not open my campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas until the latter part of April, as I think I will have ample time between then and the July primaries to make as many speeches in the various sections of the State, as can be delivered, with due regard to my physical endurance and the patience of those who care to hear me."

"While I appreciate the courtesy extended me, I can hardly afford to avail myself of it without accepting invitations from other Democratic candidates for Governor who might tender me a like courtesy, and I would thus find myself compelled to conform my plans to those who are contending with me for the nomination, rather than those who are supporting me for it."

"Coupled with your invitation was an expression of your opinion that my endorsement by the Fort Worth meeting, as you say composed of delegates representing a minority of the prohibitionists of Texas constituted a radical departure from the usages and principles of the Democratic party in Texas, and 'inimicable to the best interests of the Democracy of our State and therefore, to be condemned by all Democrats.' You and I can never hope to agree upon that proposition, nor do I think your opinion will be found in accord with that of a great majority of the Democrats of the State."

"You were at Fort Worth, and while probably you did not attend upon the proceedings, you had opportunity to see a host of earnest thoughtful men, coming from all sections of Texas to ask that a candidate for the great office for which I am now offering, in response to a demand that will all be deemed the most precious experience of my political life."

"You are not alone, however, in your forebodings. I have seen in the press and heard expressions from individuals that the Fort Worth meeting marked the beginning of a divided Democratic party. As a life-long Democrat I indulge in no such fears."

Col. Ball goes on to repeat arguments which he made in his Fort Worth speech, saying:

"Within the ranks of the party which has had charge of State affairs since the election of Gov. Coke will be fought out all great questions demanding solution at the hands of a patriotic citizenship."

DALLAS SAENGESTEST IS POSTPONED TO PREVENT CONFLICT WITH FIESTA.

DALLAS, Tex., Mar. 9.—Announcement of the postponement of the State Saengerfest, which was to have been held in Dallas, April 21, 22 and 23, was made Wednesday afternoon by Charles A. Mangold, president of the association. The event will take place in Dallas on May 11, 12 and 13.

The postponement was made on account of a conflict with the Flower Carnival and Fiesta at San Antonio in April. Mr. Mangold said that he expected 225 persons from San Antonio and believed that during May would be the best time for the event.

This will be the fifth saengerfest held in Dallas.

How happy is he born and taught That serveth not another's will; Whose armor is his honest thought, And simple truth his utmost skill. Who God doth love and early pray More of his grace than gifts to lend, And entertains the harmless day With a well-chosen book or friend. This man is free from servile hands Of hope to rise or fear to fall, Lord of himself, though not of lands, And having nothing, yet hath all.

DECLARES BRITAIN WILL NOT RECOGNIZE CARRANZA

Embassador Expresses Himself as Satisfied With Way Inquiry Is Progressing and Says His Country Will Not Embarrass Washington In Dealing With Rebels—Bryan Has Wired Chief No Affront Was Intended.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—General Venustiano Carranza's sudden intervention in the inquiry as to the killing of William S. Benton, and his refusal to admit the right of the United States to deal with the matter, put a new face on the Mexican situation today.

As a result, President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan conferred at the White House today, followed by another between Mr. Bryan and the British Ambassador. As a consequence, the United States-British commission designated to investigate the Benton case was halted at Juarez just as it was about to entrain for Chihuahua.

The chief point considered was whether, under the circumstances, the United States should proceed with the investigation arranged with Villa, whereby representatives of the United States and Great Britain should examine the body of Benton.

Plan Not Abandoned.
It was tentatively decided that the plan should not be abandoned, but that the commission would not be sent until further arrangements had been made.

Embassador Spring-Rice, in his conference with Secretary Bryan, declared that the British Government would do nothing to embarrass the United States in dealing with the rebels in the north.

He said that no communication would be held with Carranza and that the matter should proceed as it has been doing.

Interpret Carranza's Action.
There is a disposition in some official circles here to believe that Carranza has defied the United States, but that it was agreed in the conference between the President and Mr. Bryan, and Mr. Bryan and the British Ambassador, that the action of the Constitutional leader was based more on the political complications he has to face in dealing with his own forces.

He has been charged with vacillation by them, and with being too much under the influence of the United States; and it is supposed that he has taken this opportunity to show that he has the strength to be leader and that he will not permit Washington to rule him.

Mr. Bryan sent a note tonight to be transmitted to Gen. Carranza through Consul Simpkins at Nogales, telling him that Great Britain would not treat with him, that the United States had acted only in the friendliest spirit and that no affront was intended, the desire being only to locate those foreigners who are missing and get the facts in the case of Benton.

He accepted in good spirit the offer of Gen. Carranza to make an inquiry into the case of Gustave Baugh, the missing American engineer.

Agents of the Mexican Revolutionists here do not agree with the attitude taken by Dr. Carranza. They understand the situation better and know that he will only complicate matters. They have been busily telegraphing him today, advising him that he should take a different view of the matter.

Appeal to Carranza.

Carranza's friends here are seeking to impress on him that, when dealing with the United States, he is in effect treating with the agent of Great Britain; England and other powers have practically entrusted to the Washington Government the task of looking after its subjects in Northern Mexico, particularly at points where there are no British Consular representatives, as at Juarez.

That Carranza will realize this and change his attitude is the expectation of his friends here.

Washington officials said they did not interpret Carranza's notes as unfriendly. That Carranza really was offended because the United States addressed its first communications about the Benton killing to American Consuls in touch with Gen. Villa was the generally accepted explanation here of his declaration to submit information to Washington about Benton's death.

THREE MOUNTAIN CLIMBERS KILLED BY AN AVALANCHE.

CHABLE, Switzerland, Mar. 9.—Three Swiss Alpine climbers, Richard Meylan, Henri Dentard and Marcell Dreguet, were killed today while ascending the Rocca Bianca peak. Roped together they had attained a height of 5,000 feet, when an avalanche swept over a precipice. The bodies of Meylan and Dentard were recovered.

Those new cement walks that are being put down along south side of Main Street by J. D. Bray and his crew are all O. K. Who will be the next to get the habit?

Putting out shade trees has been the order of the day in Junction for some time; our people believe in making their residential property nice and attractive.

Doesn't it make a fellow glad he is living in Kimble County when he reads about the low temperatures, blinding snows and freezing icy blasts of some of the northern states?

Tom Ball gubernatorial candidate has several friends in this section and, in line with the many other localities over the State a "Tom Ball Club" is now being organized for Kimble County. "Play Ball!"

If you have friends or relatives coming in or going away we will thank you to call, phone or write The Citizen office. You like to read about others; others like to read about you. Every news item one gives us makes this paper just that much more interesting for the other seven hundred readers. And such favors are not forgotten by the editor.

An exchange says that "another good way to cut down the high cost of living is to quit buying things that are not needed and quit buying things that ought not to be bought." That might be a good way but about when do you suppose that will happen? We know several who would just as soon quit living as to be deprived of those things.

The beautiful nightly queen of the heavens rose in all its arcuated transcendent glory Wednesday evening, then looking down at Junction she beheld the newly-installed electric illumination, and blushing with wounded pride the out-rivalled queen bundled up her feeble rays in conscious insignificance and hid her face in sad defeat. The almanac called it a partial eclipse of moon but the almanac failed to give the reason.

We are authorized this week to place before the voters of Kimble County the name of F. M. Adams as a candidate for County Judge of Kimble County Texas. A man who is as well known as Mr. Adams needs no introduction at our hands. He has made his home in this county for the past 30 years and his friends are multitude. [He has served as Justice of the Peace in the London community for the past 24 years, and his work in this line as well as many others has brought him much before the public. He is a public-spirited man of convincing force and character, and no doubt amply qualified to meet the requirements of that office to which he aspires. He submits his name to the people along with the promise that should they see fit to choose him to fill the duties of this important office he will give the very best service in every particular that he is capable to render.

NOT PAINT

With linseed oil at 50c to $1. what sort of oil do you think they use in "paint" at $1.50 to $1.25?

That stuff is counterfeit paint. You can cheat yourself, you can't cheat Time or Weather.

Paint is a rubbery coat over wood or iron to keep-out water. Counterfeit paint may look like it; counterfeit money looks like money.

What are all counterfeits for? They are all alike.

"A Business Proposal"

LES YOST
Modelling in Clay

AT THE MAJESTIC
San Antonio
Week of March 15th

Frank Hale and Miss Signe Patterson are headliners at the Majestic Theater this week. They claim to be originators of the Argentine tango, and are direct from Ciro's at Paris, the most exclusive cafe du danse in the French metropolis, and it was only a few months ago that they took first honors at the Queen of Sweden's tango tea. Their repertoire includes the Hesitation Waltz, the Argentine Tango, the Brazilian Matchless and the Hale and Patterson Waltz.

Jack Kennedy and company will be seen this week in their funny sketch called "A Business Proposal." Kennedy himself takes the part of John Rugg, head of the Consolidated Stoveworks, and the romance-comedy scene is in the stoveworks itself. The other characters are the bookkeeper and Mr. Rugg's private stenographer.

Josie Heather, the dainty English maid, who sings her own copyrighted songs, has been very popular in the West and has no apologies to offer for her turn, though unknown in this particular section. She has a sparkling personality and a sweet and clear voice.

The Three Collegians have an act called "A Bit of College Life," in which they have combined a miniature comedy production and a splendid routine into an ideal act. They are real collegians who quit their books to go into vaudeville. J. Hugh Fish, one of the members of the company, wrote the sketch.

Adelyn Lowe and company, a company of European aerialists, are strong enough to headline any bill. There are four people and all are proficient in their respective parts, and their work is sensational and performed with astounding ease and perfection. Their tenth work is said to be without an equal in the vaudeville field today.

David and Miss Marion Gray, cousins, styling themselves The Grays, have an unusual singing act. David has a double voice. The more remarkable and beautiful of the two voices is a soprano, as clear and sweet as a silver bell. Miss Gray has a natural tenor voice and the combined voices promise an entertainment that is anything but tame.

Modeling in clay with a dash of color now and then is the unique form of vaudeville entertainment Les Yost adopted when he quit his fellow students of the Latin Quarter in Paris to take up life on the stage. Les Yost is assisted by a good-looking and talented young woman. He uses a shapeless mass of soft clay, and from it he fashions faces of men and women that range from the sublime to the ridiculous.

COTTON CORPORATION ISSUES A STATEMENT

PRESIDENT WADLEY EXPLAINS
FINANCIAL CONDITION.

Calls for Meeting of Shareholders in Dallas March 14—Asks Power of Attorney.

The following has been received: To holders of scrip of the Southern States Cotton Corporation: On December 31, 1913, the corporation had in its hands assets in the form of cash and property, which had a cash value of about $800,000, outstanding obligations in "A" scrip of $40,000, leaving $760,000 available to pay the "B" scrip, which in round numbers amounts to $1,750,000 face value. Expressed differently, this corporation, if liquidated in an intelligent fashion at that time, could have paid 43 per cent on the total issue of "B" scrip, which we believe would amount to more than the market price of cotton at the time the sellers delivered it to the corporation.

Your directors believed, and still believe, that if this cotton is held and disposed of according to our plan, you would realize much more than 43 per cent, and in all probability face value of the scrip.

The assets consist, in addition to cash, of forty-six thousand bales of spot cotton and ten thousand bales of cotton bought for May delivery in New York. The total amount of cotton passing through the hands of the corporation has been seventy-eight thousand bales. This was the condition on December 31, 1913, the period at which our books were closed, and since then no material change, so far as we know, has been made, except in the form of the assets, which are believed to represent as much value as on December 31st.

On February 29, at 11:50 a. m., there was filed a petition of involuntary bankruptcy in the United States Court for this District by two persons. It was made the basis of an intervention petition by ten other scrip holders out of a number of about twenty thousand. Those were all from Oklahoma, and a portion were former office-holders of this corporation, who had heretofore represented to you that our efforts in your behalf were honest and intelligent.

At the time of the trial, the original petition for bankruptcy was not used, but upon hearing of the intervenors' petition by the United States court, the judge held that the corporation was engaged in speculation, and that no corporation had the right to be so engaged; that in the very beginning our "B" scrip was not based on actual value, but, on the contrary, a prospective one, and therefore the corporation was insolvent from the beginning.

The Court refused to allow the property of the corporation to remain in the hands of people who had devoted themselves to it for the past three years and who had erected a business which represented nothing in the beginning into one which has paid millions of dollars to the farmers for cotton, and one which we believe had saved them millions by elevating the price of cotton, and one which had in its hands available assets at the time of the petition of about three quarters of a million dollars.

The Court, therefore, replaced the officers in charge of your property, appointed the president of one of the cotton exchanges, who he stated was competent, in his judgment, to fill the position of receiver.

In view of the above fact, the directors of your corporation feel called upon, in all fairness to themselves and to you, to give out this statement, so you will be informed as to the status of your affairs. The directors of the corporation have been called to a meeting in Dallas, Texas, on March 7, 1914, to consider and advise means and plans for the best settlement of our difficulties, and all scrip holders who can come are invited and urged to be here an active part in the consultation.

You will find enclosed in this letter a power of attorney, which you can sign before a Notary Public, or, if not convenient, before two witnesses, and return to the address of any of the parties named therein; or, if you prefer, you can substitute in the "power of attorney" the name of any man in whom you have confidence, and who can and will represent your interests at a meeting of the scrip holders of the corporation, which is hereby called to be held in Dallas on the 14th day of March 1914.

Please give this your immediate attention if you desire to continue your efforts for a marketing sys-

WOMEN TO INSPECT KANSAS CITY'S FOOD

WILL CONDUCT INVESTIGATION OF RESTAURANTS, STORES,
CANDY SHOPS, ETC.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Mar. 9.—Enlistment of women food inspectors to serve without pay, is sought by State Food Commissioner F. H. Pricke, who promises to give Kansas City a thorough cleaning up. He expects to have the co-operation of the Housewives' League, women's clubs and similar organizations. He said:

"I am going to ask the women to do the greater part of the work. Just what conditions are I do not know, but I expect to spend several days investigating. At the end of that time I'll know just what establishments are most in need of attention. Meanwhile, I will call for volunteers from the women's organizations. We can use a good many inspectors—there is practically no limit to the number who can be employed. We will commission them and give them directions for their work."

"Our investigation will cover every sort of establishment where food is made, handled or sold. Under this head will come restaurants, stores, candy shops and bakeries."

It is expected that the department's "campaign" will be quite as much educational as punitive. The Food Commissioner is making no threats against any dealer or class of dealers and the inspection is to be general rather than confined to any class of business.

CUTS CORNERS AND REDUCES LIVING BILL

Weaves Rugs from Old Rags and Sells Them—Ergs Substituting
Vegetables and Fruit for Meat.

"Here are few of my ways in cutting the corners to reduce the high cost of living," a woman writes. "I never serve butter for dinner. We drink coffee only on Saturday afternoons when my husband comes home from work, and on Sundays. We drink tea in the mornings the rest of the week."

"I always use soda to wash dishes with instead of soap; 5c worth of soda lasts two months. I do all the baking myself. All of the presents I give my friends I make myself, because I can make them much cheaper and more useful. I always trim my hats and by buying the shapers and trimmings I can save from $2 to $3 each time."

"I sell all of my old newspapers and old shoes. All old clothes I save for rag carpets. I cut them in strips and sew them together with my sewing machine. The sweater charges 25 cents a yard for weaving and I sell them, in turn, for 50c a yard thereby getting much more for my rags than by selling them to the rag peddler."

"I make all the clothes my children and I wear. We don't spend much money on theaters, as we haven't been to one in four years, because we do not feel that we can afford it."

"Many people think they have to have meat, but if they eat fresh vegetables and stewed fruits their system will demand less meat and thereby reduce their meat bill. Too much meat is injurious and would cause a doctor's bill. People would be lots healthier if they would look after the nickels and dimes and spend more on good food. That is the thing that helps build a strong constitution and saves unnecessary doctors' bills."

tem for your cotton. Your interest in this meeting will indicate your wishes as to a continuation of the work of creating a marketing system, the success of which we believe is almost in sight and now facing a crisis. If the farmers desire to work out their salvation along the line of the last two years, your directors to a man will join you and serve you to the best of their ability. But, on the contrary, if it is not so desired, they can only resign and abandon the effort.

CHILD PLAYS DIXIE AND PREVENTS PANIC

Five Hundred Pupils March Safely From Atlanta School When Fire Starts.

ATLANTA, Ga., Mar. 9.—Five hundred pupils were hurried from the People's Street Public School Building here today when fire broke out in a cloak room. Boys of the school extinguished the fire before it had done any material damage. The children left the building in an orderly manner, marching to the strains of "Dixie" played by one of their number on a piano. The building was emptied in less than one minute.

$300,000 FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.

Four-Story Building of Day Rubber Company Burns and Three Firemen Are Hurt.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Mar. 9.—A fire which started about 8 o'clock tonight in the four-story building of the Day Rubber Company, 415 North Fourth Street, gained great headway and an hour later the entire stock of the rubber company, valued at $300,000, was doomed and many other buildings were threatened.

Three firemen were injured, J. P. Egan of the ladder company O 13, narrowly escaping electrocution when he was struck by a falling wire of the United Railways, while Capt. Lynch and Lieut. John Manning of engine company No. 18 were crushed by falling walls.

The fire sufferers included the Howe Scale Company, 400 North Fourth street, the Hall Safe Company in the same building and the United States Express Company occupying a four-story building at 417 North Fourth street.

The fire, starting in the most densely studded portion of the downtown business section of St. Louis, resulted in a third alarm and practically every fire company in the city was summoned.

DIAZ MAY APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 9.—Felix Diaz arrived here today to attempt, it is believed, to get a hearing before the Senate Foreign Committee, and give his view on the Mexican situation. As yet he has submitted no request and has shunned publicity. Pedro Del Vilar and Cecilio Ocon, who represented themselves as his supporters, appeared before the committee yesterday to ask what attitude this Government would take toward a revolution headed by Diaz. The general, himself, in New York today, declared he did not know the two men.

Diaz, notwithstanding his denial that he knew either Vilar or Ocon, came in response to their messages urging him to plead his own cause. Whether the committee will hear him has not been determined. Senator Shively, acting chairman of the committee, said Diaz would be heard if he wished, as all information possible on the Mexican situation was being gathered by the committee. No promise will be made for the support of any counter revolution in Mexico, such as del Vilar and Ocon outlined before the Foreign Relations Committee yesterday. Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan has declared he would not give a hearing to Diaz if he had his way about it, as he believed the United States was becoming the "international spawning ground of revolutions."

Diaz, it is understood, will endeavor to convince the committee that as the leader of a movement to establish a stable government in Mexico, he would win many influential citizens of the Republic as well as officers of General Huerta's government and army.

It developed today that before the committee yesterday Ocon and Vilar declared 50 per cent of the people of Mexico would back Diaz in an effort to overthrow Huerta.

"If you have such support," one of the Senators asked, "why don't you turn in and settle the whole trouble at once?"

The Diaz followers stated they wished the moral support of this Government in such a movement. Questions as to the whether there were available finances for such an attack on the Huerta government were met with evasive replies, and it was inferred by some Senators that it was the purpose of the Diaz movement to attack Huerta with his own forces in the same way as leaders of the Madero government turned upon him when Huerta seized the reins of power.

Formally Applies for Place on Primary Ballot, Treating Prohibition as Paramount Issue.

AUSTIN, Tex., Mar. 9.—Hon. W. P. Lane today requested State Chairman Collins to withdraw his name as a candidate for Governor and to enter his application for a place on the Democratic primary election ballot as a candidate for Congressman-at-large. He has given out a statement indicating that, for one thing, he is a candidate as a Prohibitionist. He says:

"At the close of my present term, I will have served the people of Texas four years as their Controller of Public Accounts, and notwithstanding I have been constantly surrounded by the most trying and difficult obstacles that were ever thrown in the pathway of the administration of any public official in this State, I have endeavored to make the people of Texas a good officer. I appreciate beyond the measure of my ability to express, the letters and personal rebuffs that have come to me from every section of the State since my withdrawal from the race for Governor asking that I continue in the Controller's office, and I take these solicitations on the part of my friends as a testimonial of their approval of the work I have accomplished since I have been their public servant in the interest of honest government, clean politics and righteous living."

JULES BAKER WILL BE TRIED AT BRYAN

Motion for Change of Venue Granted and Attorneys Agreed on Brazos County

HOUSTON, TEXAS, MARCH 9.—A large number of spectators who had gathered in the criminal district court Monday morning expecting to listen to the trial of the case of Jules J. Baker, charged with assault to murder, were disappointed when the announcement was made that a change of venue had been granted and his case would not be tried in this county.

Judge Robinson made known his decision on the motion of the defense as soon as he took the bench, but left the question of deciding in which county the case should be tried to the attorneys for both sides. Brazos county was finally agreed upon, after a short conference and this seemed to meet with the approval of the court.

That Judge Robinson had his mind made up before the opening of court Monday morning was evident when he made the announcement that the motion of the defendant for a change was granted. "In order not to take up the time of the court for several days in examining witnesses," he said, "I will, of my own motion, change the venue unless the attorneys can come to some agreement as to the place they wish the case set for trial." The attorneys were given five or six minutes, the court announcing that neither Fort Bend nor Galveston counties would be considered. When Brazos county was announced as the choice of the attorneys, Judge Robinson smiled his approval, and said: "Your choice is very satisfactory. I had intended to send the case there in any event."

Baker was formally arraigned and entered a plea of not guilty. It is expected that the case will be called for trial at Bryan at the next term of court. In the meantime a new bond for $500 has been executed.

The decision of the court obviated the necessity of calling over 100 witnesses who had been summoned both by the state and by the defense to establish whether or not Baker could secure a fair and impartial trial in this county. The charge against Night Turnkey C. E. Horton on October 23, 1912, at the police station following the arrest of Henry L. Ransom on a charge of assault.

KEPT VIGIL AS BROTHER'S LIFE FAST EBBED AWAY

Christian Stubberud, Arrested in California, Claimed Charles Ended Own Life.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 9.—When Charles Stubberud, a former merchant of San Antonio, S. D., was found dead in an apartment today with his brother Christian keeping vigil beside his body, Christian was arrested and held pending an investigation of his story that Charles had opened his neck arteries with a paring knife.

There notes which Christian admitted having written were found. They constituted a brief oral or death, the first reading: "Will be die of kidney trouble?" The second: "When will he die?" and the third, "In what year?" Christian asserted that these questions were written at a spiritualistic seance.

A fourth note, signed by Charles, was found. It read: "We have been using our own money. I do not know what I am suspected of, but I have done nothing."

The two men came here recently in search of land. Charles had a bank book showing deposits of $3000.

UNCLE SAM IS NOW A TANGO TEACHER

His Representative Takes Over the Florentia Amusement Company in Bankruptcy.

Conservative citizens and persons, with Comstockian moral and ethical codes desirous of learning the intricacies of the latest dances may do so without any scruples under the dignified protection of a representative of Uncle Sam.

Moses Ely took possession of the dancing academy operated by the Florentia Amusement Company at 250 West Forty-second street recently, after being appointed receiver of the business by Judge Hand in the United States District Court. The action was precipitated by the institution of bankruptcy proceedings against the corporation by H. H. Yought & Co. and two other creditors with claims aggregating $1400.

Less than a month ago the corporation was formed with a capital of $2500. The promoters had heard stories reciting the fabulous fortunes that were being amassed in teaching the tango, maxixe and hesitation and risked their savings in fitting up the dancing academy in the blissful anticipation of gathering a harvest as soon as they opened the doors. Few philanthropists desiring to learn the latest steps appeared and the promoters soon found it necessary to devote their time to staving off their creditors.

Counsel for the creditors sold the liabilities amount to $5000 and he estimated there is barely $1000 to satisfy the claims.

COUNT AND BARON FIGHT WITH SWORDS.

French Affair of Honor Results in One Participant Being Wounded.

PARIS, Mar. 9.—A sword duel between Baron Robert Le Vasseux and Count D'Heureux, fought in the suburbs of Neuilly today, resulted in Baron Le Vasseux being slightly wounded, one of the arteries of his right arm being cut.

The encounter is believed to have arisen out of the recent card scandal at the fashionable Jockey club, where Baron Le Vasseux was alleged to have been guilty of cheating.

At the preliminary meeting of the seconds of the two principals, Raoul Mourichon, the explorer, and Jacques Cailhand, who were acting for Count D'Heureux, raised the question whether Le Vasseux's honor had not been already so affected that he was unworthy to fight.

Baron Le Vasseux's seconds were Gen. A. Avon and Georges Breittmayer, the latter of whom is reputed to be the most deadly, as he is the most notorious, duelist in France. M. Breittmayer declined to discuss the question of Le Vasseux's honor, saying it was sufficient that Gen. Avon and he had consented to act as seconds and they would therefore take full responsibility for the honor of their principal.

Stand up Straight and Avoid Tuberculosis.

The first essential in the avoidance of tuberculosis of the lungs, or consumption, is to keep the lungs strong, so that if the germs are breathed they can do no harm. One of the most important things in keeping the lungs strong is to keep the chest wide open so that the lungs can be properly used. If the body drooped or stooped, or if the shoulders are allowed to drag forward (round shoulders), or if the head is carried forward instead of well back over the shoulders, the chest must be flattened, the breathing must be shallow, and the lungs, not being freely used, become weak. It is in this type of chest that tuberculosis usually begins. The consumptive is usually narrow-chested, with drooped shoulders and with the head craned forward. While the development of a strong, well formed chest is one of the most important factors in preventing tuberculosis, the same thing is to be desired if the disease has once started. Not only should we live in the open, but we should learn to stand up straight and learn to "throw a big chest," so that the lungs can grow strong and the fresh air be taken in. The runner, the singer, or any one who is obliged to make sustained effort is taught to stand and sit with the chest high so that the lungs can be used to the best advantage, and if every one would do the same thing there would be less tuberculosis because there would be fewer weak lungs.—American Medical Association.
