PREPING FOR THE RING - Clint Witherspoon puts the finishing touches on his lambs before entering the ring in Saturday's annual Iowa Park Junior Livestock Show. Complete results can be found inside this edition.

Police make seven arrests during week

Seven arrests were made during the past week by Iowa Park police, most of them on outstanding warrants.

Christopher Michael Teague, 17, turned himself in at the police station Thursday afternoon after being notified of the warrant.

Teague was charged with capias profine. He was released after paying his fine of $73.50, according to the police blotter.

Friday afternoon, another individual turned himself in at the station after receiving notification of his outstanding warrant.

David Ray Meissner had been charged earlier with speeding in a school zone and having an expired drivers license. He was released after paying his $300 fine.

Another outstanding warrant recipient, Delago Edward Albert, 34, reported to the station Saturday afternoon. He had previously been charged with simple assault.

Albert was released after paying $50 toward total fines of $347, and signed a promise to appear in municipal court.

Two men were arrested within a three-hour period during the early hours of Saturday, both on charges of public intoxication.

Joe Lee Barr, 22, was taken into custody at 2:15 a.m. in the 200 block of North Pacific. He was released at 8:14 a.m., after paying $132 toward a fine of $282, and signed a promise to appear in municipal court.

At 4:28 a.m., Frank James Yother, 36, was escorted to the police station by Constable Sam Fairchild. Yother was charged with public intoxication and held until 10:55 a.m., when he was released after signing a promise to appear.

Officers took Linda Annette Myers, 30, into custody Tuesday evening in the 300 block of East Diamond, on an outstanding warrant issued by the Wichita County Sheriff's Dept.

The warrant had been issued for Myers' arrest on a charge of forgery. She was transported to the county jail by a sheriff's deputy, and held under a $5,000 bond.

Officers responded to the scene of a domestic disturbance in the 900 block of East Cash Monday evening, which resulted in the arrest of Jane Hester Jenkins, 57, on a Class C assault charge.

Jenkins was booked here and then transported to the county jail and held there under a $500 bond.

Police stopped a vehicle in the 400 block of West Park Saturday evening, and issued two citations for minor in possession.

The 16-year-old male was allowed to drive to his home, but girl, 15, was taken to the police station and held until her parents picked her up, according to the police blotter.

Three candidates seek mayor's post

Of the two local elections to be held May 4, considerably more interest has been shown by candidates for the city council than for the school board.

Four candidates -- three of them for mayor -- had filed for a place on the ballots by 9:10 a.m. Monday, the first day for filing.

The three mayoral candidates who filed were Bud Mercer, George Witherspoon and former mayor Tim Hunter.

Wayne House has indicated he will not seek another term as mayor. Mercer's term as city alderman expires this spring.

Filing for his position on the council is Terry Johnson.

As of Wednesday afternoon, the other alderman whose term expires this year, Johnny Crawford, had not filed.

Both incumbent school trustees, Keith Fisher and Randy Catlin, filed for re-election Monday. Fisher is currently serving as chairman of the board.

Candidates for both the city and school races have until Wednesday, Mar. 20, to file.

City candidates can file at city hall, and school trustee candidates file at the administration building.

Early voting begins in party primaries

Early voting in the Republican and Democratic party primary elections began yesterday, and will continue through Mar. 8.

Ballots are available for voters of both parties locally at the Wichita County Tax Office Substation, at 400 North Wall, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays.

Candidates range from president down to precinct constable.

Races of major interest in the Iowa Park area include:

* County commissioner Precinct One - Republicans Larry Lewis, Larry Godwin and incumbent Woody Gossom.

* County commissioner Precinct Three - incumbent Gordon Griffith and Stan Horton, both Democrats.

* Constable, Precinct One - Mike McGehee and John Hopkins, Democrats; incumbent Mark Brewer and Charles Shipman, Republicans.

* Constable, Precinct Three - incumbent Sam Fairchild and Billy McNeely, Democrats, and Republican Alton Yeakley.

City may purchase lots

The city council will consider purchasing six residential lots, when aldermen meet at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

Actually, the council wasn't wanting to buy any more land, but because of an action taken a few years ago, they feel obligated.

When the city decided to relocate its water tower from the Gordon Lake area to the south portion of the city, it was built on city property, but inadvertently made the six lots unreachable, should they be developed.

Aldermen will consider a resolution authorizing the mayor to purchase the lots from its owner, Mrs. Peggy Blanchard.

Another resolution to be considered would authorize a change order for the Indian Springs Addition sewer line.

Administrator Mike Price told the council at the last meeting that the changing of the line's path at one point would save considerable work and expense.

Council members will consider an ordinance changing purchasing regulations which prescribe how much the administrator can spend without prior council approval.

Two public appearances have been included in the meeting's tentative agenda.

Former resident pays hometown visit

By MYRNA SMITH

Don Carlton of Fairway, Kans., a native of Iowa Park, made a brief stop-over here recently. After driving around town a short time, he walked into the City Cafe and there he met coffee drinkers Bill Mahler and Glenn Gwinn.

Carlton is now finishing artist for Garry Trudeau, Doonesbury cartoonist.

After visiting a while, Bill and Glenn took Carlton and drove around town. He had already driven by one place he remembered they lived. It was just across the street from the old "Doc" Wigley home, located on E. Cash.

Although Carlton's family moved from Iowa Park in 1942, when Don was six years old, Mahler said the visitor was surprised that he remembered so much about the town.

The trio drove around Lake Gordon and Carlton remembered they lived in a house at the lake and recalled playing at the base of the dam.

He was born Dec. 28, 1936, one of the hundreds of babies delivered by the late Dr. Gordon Clark.

Don well remembers twice that Dr. Clark attended him. He wrote that he most clearly remembers him "removing a large splinter from my foot (a splinter derived from the wooden floor of one of the markets that apparently burned down)".

Another time he remembers the doctor putting a clamp to close a cut, "received from a errantly dropped hatchet by a friend while climbing a mesquite tree over near what is now Lake Gordon".

Probably there are several people here who still remember Don's father, Roy B. Carlton, and family. His mother, Susie, brother, Johnny Leroy, and sisters, Mary Helen and Willie Mabel, lived in Iowa Park from around 1929 until they moved to Amarillo in 1942.

To refresh memories, this bit of information may be helpful.

According to minutes of the City Council meeting Feb. 18, 1935, "Motion was made by B. L. (Barney) Bradford and seconded by N.E. McKinney that the appointment of R.

B. Carlton as pound man be confirmed. Motion carried".

Then on a motion made by Bradford and seconded by McKinney at the Feb. 1, 1936 meeting the council voted to raise Carlton's salary to $130 per month and that $5 of this amount "will be deposited to his savings account".

In a called session of the City Council June 27, 1938, they voted to accept a government loan and grant for a water works system. They also voted to give Carlton a paid vacation from July 1 to July 10 that year. Carlton then became water superintendent.

By Jan. 1942, Carlton's salary was increased to $150 a month and by then there was an assistant superintendent.

In Aug. 1942 resignations of Carlton and his assistant superintendent, Coy Hunt, were accepted by the council.

The Carltons moved to Amarillo where Carlton was a horse-riding guard at the Pantex Plant, now a nuclear depository. The family later moved to Pampa and then to Denton, before settling in Fort Worth.

Don graduated Fort Worth Technical High School in 1954 and completed a bachelor's degree in

Part of West Magnolia to be closed for a week

West Magnolia will be closed to through traffic from West Highway to Johnson Road beginning Monday.

The closing is necessary to allow city crews to replace a bridge.

The purpose of the project is to allow the widening of the roadway so it can accommodate the large amounts of traffic in the future.

The widening work will be done by Wichita County.

Belvin Lytle, public works director for the city, said he expects the replacement work to be accomplished by Friday, Mar. 1.

Lytle added, however, that should inclement weather set in, the work could take longer.

The bridge to be replaced is located in the 1100 block. The closing will not affect traffic reaching the new Cryovac parking lot, or Magnolia from Park Plaza to Johnson Road.

The portion of Magnolia between West Highway and Johnson Road was originally constructed by the state, as a state highway connecting Wichita Falls and Amarillo.

Rural fires causing problems

Residents are reminded that a complete ban on outdoor burning has been issued by commissioners court, due to extremely dry conditions and lack of moisture.

Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Dept.

responded to 10 calls, beginning Wednesday of last week and counting until noon yesterday.

The area has not received a measurable amount of moisture since New Year's Day.

Education featured at study club meeting

Theme of the Twenty Three Study Club meeting Thursday was the club's involvement in education. The meeting was held in the home of Margaret Soell, with Kay Cole as co-hostess.

The club is involved in education through adoption of seven Kidwell Elementary second grade teachers for the "Kids and Kindness Adopt-a-Teacher Program."

Patsy Todd, president, opened the meeting by leading members in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Joy Belle McKinnon read a quotation by Cicero, "As a field, however fertile, cannot be fruitful without cultivation, neither can a mind without learning."

Mrs. Todd introduced special guests, Barbara Padgett, a second grade teacher at Kidwell Elementary. She was accompanied by seven second grade students representing each of the second grade classes which receive the GFWC weekly newsletter, "Kind News" as a continuing project of the club.

The students described their favorite part of the newspaper and expressed their appreciation to the club for furnishing it.

Mrs. Todd presented Mrs. Padgett with Certificates of Adoption for each of the Kidwell second grade teachers.

Meditation was presented by Flossie Nunn, who read "Greenless Child" from "Reaching for Rainbows" by Ann Weems.

Mrs. McKinnon gave the GFWC Federation Counselor's report. She reported on the Service of GFWC women in Porto Alegre, Brazil.

She stated the program began with furnishing food for the day care students, and then as they were promoted to first and second grade, the program was expanded into providing after school instruction in studying and learning.

Later, a tutoring program was organized, beginning with eight students, which quickly increased to 70, with a long waiting list, due to lack of space in the school. Mrs. Todd closed the program by reading the poem, "In School Days" by John Greenleaf Whittier.

During the business meeting members were urged by Wanda Singer, vice president and Safety Coordinator for the Santa Rosa District, to contact the state senator concerning upcoming traffic legislation.

Mrs. Todd reminded members of the Spring Convention to be held March 23 in Burk Burnett and urged all members to attend and participate.

Frances Park reported on the annual guest night Feb. 29, when the club will share their love of music with the general public by sponsoring the North Texas Men's Choir in concert at First Presbyterian Church of Iowa Park.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Soell and Mrs. Cole.

Deirdre Davis and Stephen Kimball

Couple select March date

Deirdre Davis and Stephen Kimball will exchange wedding vows March 16.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Maybe you are hoping to solve some genealogy puzzles by trying to locate plantation records. First, you must realize that not everyone owned slaves in the South, and not all slaves lived on plantations.

Sometimes we have a tendency to view events as depicted in the movies or novels. There were many small farms whose owners had slaves too.

Black genealogists need to check the 1860 census for the Free Population Census. The largest collection of plantation records that is on microfilm called, "Records of Antebellum Plantations From the Revolution Through the Civil War," by Kenneth Stampp. However, the microfilming is an on-going process.

While a number of records are available, some are still being held by descendants and haven't been released. Also some have been destroyed.

You will find the Stampp collection is available at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, along with guides to microfilm roll numbers, also check with the FHL at the LDS Library in Salt Lake City, along with guides to microfilm roll numbers. Also, check with the FHL at the LDS Library in Wichita Falls for assistance.

Military records should be searched as many African-Americans served their country through the years.

Some interesting facts for historians: In 1860 there were 3,953,750 slaves, and 488,979 free African-Americans in this country;

During the Civil War, to protect their investment, slave owners moved an estimated 125,000 males to Texas to keep them away from the Union Army;

After the war many former slaves started the search for relatives and began to migrate to other areas of the country.

In the 1870s and early 1880s many African-Americans settled in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and migrated as far as California, and also established towns along the way.

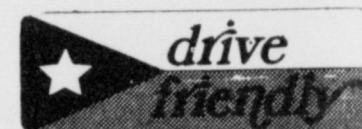

Censuses, town and history records, as well as birth, death, marriage, and school records may reveal information as well as church affiliations with their records.

Cemeteries were segregated and many have been neglected and even lost, but every effort should be made to document all data that can be found and don't overlook the sometimes surprising information that can be found on grave markers, names, dates, poems or sayings that may give some insight to who the person really was.

When visiting an old burial ground, be prepared to clear away overgrowth to reveal the marker, maybe just a stone, wooden marker or a worn tombstone. Take pictures and rubbings.

It's good to find our roots, it's a link with the past.

Randa Falke and Charles Jolly

Engagement announced

The engagement and approaching marriage of Randa Falke and Charles Jolly is being announced this week by their parents, Greg and Sherry Wood, and Harm and Brenda Jolly, all of Iowa Park.

The wedding will take place on June 1, at First Baptist Church in Iowa Park.

Randa is a graduate of Iowa Park High School. She attended Midwestern State University, and is now a student at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Charles is also a graduate of Iowa Park High School, and attended MSU. He is employed by Overhead Doors in Carrollton.

Choir to host 'dinner spectacular'

The Iowa Park schools choral department will host their annual dinner spectacular at 7 p.m. March 2 at the Iowa Park High School cafeteria.

Activities include a spaghetti dinner, cake auction and the "best entertainment around," according to choir director Debi Walters.

This year's theme is "Music through the Years" with entertainment provided by members of the choir.

Tickets will be available at the door for $5 for adults and $3 for children 12 and under.

Miser, Brown vows pledged February 2

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Calvin Brown are making their home in Iowa Park following their marriage Feb. 2.

Mrs. Brown is the former Shannon Darlene Miser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miser. Brown's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brown of Wichita Falls.

The couple pledged double ring vows in rites performed in Faith Baptist Church, with Dennis Neal, associate pastor, as officiant.

An archway decorated with greenery, pink and navy blue roses, intertwined with lace formed the altar setting. The same decorative theme, with crystal candleholders and appointments were used throughout the sanctuary and reception room.

Included in the program of music were "When You Say Nothing At All" and "I Cross My Heart".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal bridal gown of lace and satin. It was designed with a lace embellished bodice that featured a portrait neckline and long sleeves that came to a point over the wrists. The full satin skirt was accented by a six-foot train that was outlined in lace cutouts. Her cascade bouquet was formed of navy and pink roses mixed with greenery and babies breath.

Shantel Turpin was maid of honor and Joanie Payton and Tracy Sanders were bridesmaids. All are of Wichita Falls.

They were identically attired in knee length dresses of navy all over lace. Each carried a bouquet of pink and navy blue roses tied with matching satin ribbon.

Ashton Miser of Iowa Park, daughter of the bride, and Lavell Brown of Wichita Falls, niece of the groom, served as flower girls. They wore pink knee length lace dresses and matching bows in their hair. Their baskets matched their attire.

Dylan Scott Fowler of Iowa Park was ring bearer. Best man was James Payton. Carl Payne and Eric Gentry served as groomsmen and ushers were Brandon Miser, brother of the bride, and Joe McCoy. All are of Wichita Falls.

The groom, best man, groomsmen and ring bearer wore black tux with tails, and pink cummerbunds. The ushers wore black jeans with pink shirts.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The decorations were made by the bride's aunt, Judy Payton. The three-tiered cake, made by the bride's aunt, Lennie Fowler, was topped with a western bride and groom. Food for the reception was prepared by Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Payton and Stella Hart.

Servers included Debra Payton, Angela Fowler, Pam Fox and Shirley Haskell.

The bride changed to a navy blue floral print dress for travel.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and the groom attended Hirshi High School in Wichita Falls.

As I See It...

By Bob Hamilton

It's just absolutely amazing how popular you become, with people

As of January 1, 1996, all emergency services, including 9-1-1 are required to provide direct access to individuals who use Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD).

The Iowa Park Police Department has the equipment and tools to use in emergency communications when serving citizens who are deaf or hard of hearing.

The Department wants to be able to serve all citizens of Iowa Park, including the hearing-impaired.

If you have an emergency and are equipped with TDD, call 9-1-1 and the Department will be able to communicate with you.

When you dial 91-1-, activate your modem. If you are unable to activate a modem, we can do it for you.

If you need information on how to obtain TDD for your residence, contact Nortex 9-1-1, at 906 Travis in Wichita Falls, 723-8225. Information on TDD is also available at the Iowa Park Police Dept., 104 East Highway, 592-2181.

you've never heard of, when you celebrate your 65th birthday.

My birthday was last week, but beginning around mid-November and continuing through now, I've had a constant stream of mailings, telephone calls and even personal visits.

Everybody, it seems, is interested in my well-being. That includes how to invest all my money, how much I can save on health insurance, and how I can even lock in a low, low funeral expense.

The nearest I can figure is that my Social Security information with the federal government must be "public record," and therefore open to any and all who deal with us "older folks."

Apparently, anyone who receives Social Security payments is rolling in money. That's the only reason I can figure as to why all these people are soliciting my investments.

Shucks, it hurts to tell these folks how little money I have. Just because Dolores and I have finally out-lived our home mortgage payments, that doesn't mean we have anything left to invest in anything other than food and clothing.

Actually, our home payments were so low, there was little of the money that went toward the loan, but was paid for taxes and insurance. The money that went toward the loan wouldn't hardly buy our gasoline for a month.

Concerning my medical care costs, I wasn't aware until Tuesday that the teachers of our state had such a fine benefit for us non-teachers.

The United Teacher Associates

Insurance Company is offering a Medical Supplement Insurance Policy as a Medicare supplement.

And, folks, it's available to all retirees, "whether you were formerly a teacher or not."

Apparently to encourage me to open the envelope, a red school house is on the envelope and a script type tells me to "Support Your Local Schools."

Shucks, I thought my school taxes did that.

Oh, yeah, that Austin outfit knows how to save money, too. The envelope was meter mailed for only 16.6 cents. And it was the same size that costs me 32 cents to mail.

They sure know how to save money, those outfits down in Austin.

I was so impressed and interested, I just turned around and mailed back their card that was enclosed in that envelope.

The card said, "No postage necessary if mailed in the United States."

But I forgot to fill in the blanks on the other side of the card. Maybe they'll realize it and send me another.

The city's Board of Adjustments meetings are at 6:15 p.m. on Mondays when there is an agenda, in Council Chambers, 103 North Wall. Public notices for all Board of Adjustments meetings are published two weeks in the Iowa Park Leader, and are open to the public.

graphic design at Texas Christian University in 1960.

When Carlton returned to his home in Kansas after his brief time here in December, he sent Mahler three 325-page books of "Flashbacks, Twenty-five years of Doonesbury". The fly-leaf of each book was a personalized page for Mahler, Gwinn, and the one he sent to be placed in Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Quoting from a letter to Bill that accompanied the books, Don wrote, "My afternoon visit with you in the hometown was truly an epiphany of some kind. Never realized the power of touching the roots and the surprisingly accurate memories of life ages 0-6. You and Glenn made it something remarkable."

And now, Carlton says following the death of his mother in early January, "made the chance return to Iowa Park even more poignant".

Along with the books, Carlton sent a reprint from a book titled, "Kansas People" that included a page on him. Of it, Carlton wrote, "I never had the heart to tell the author that one never ceases to be Texas People, no matter where they live. He didn't ask."

Don has been Trudeau's finishing artist, or which he refers to as being a comic strip inker, and says it is a true cottage industry.

According to him it "has provided a few moments of humor and, mostly deadline tension over the years". He says, "Garry works as close to the deadline as any comic strip creator in the world...that alone keeping us in a certain tension when dealing with current news events: (eg. during the Watergate era, attempting to cipher out what might be dead material should Nixon resign before the strip's appearance some days hence; having those Iranians take actual hostages in Tehran right when we'd just dispatched our character Uncle Duke there on a bribery mission, leaving us out of touch with him for the duration of the crisis, and the Tiananmen Square massacre occurring the morning after we'd put the strip to bed the day before with artistic assurance that surely the Chinese authorities wouldn't be so stupid to do such a

WORTH QUOTING

With the pendulum of social change swinging from the gimme-gimme greed of the '80s to the quality-of-life issues of the '90s, the change has been given new identity.

The "back-to-basics" movement is called "down-shifting," described as a deliberate pursuit of greater personal fulfillment on a slower or different professional and/or personal track.

At our age, we call it running out of gas.

thing!"

Don has worked with Trudeau approximately 25 years. He regularly receives pencil drawings by fax machine from Trudeau, inks in the pencil lines and delivers the strips to nearby Universal Press Syndicate, which discovered Trudeau in 1970.

Because Trudeau's was a controversial comic strip Carlton didn't think newspapers would buy it. But, in the first year he worked with Trudeau it grew from 140 to 400 newspapers and the number has continued to grow through the years.

Carlton's degree in graphic design had given him experience as a newspaper artist and a technical illustrator, but he does not know anyone else who does what he does. His and Trudeau's is a unique arrangement, and it requires that Carlton be able to handle the madness of deadlines.

Trudeau's office and Carlton's studio are half a continent apart, so they meet deadlines by fax and phone. Most cartoonists work six weeks in advance. Trudeau has a lead time of a week and a half, so his strips will be more timely.

Carlton codes the Sunday strips in a paint by number system that shows the printer what color to put where.

Don also did the finishing work on drawings reproduced on the first line of Doonesbury products.

Carlton says "My work for two years with another comic genius, Gary Larson of The Far Side, which retired two years ago was of a less involved technical nature, but I counted it rewarding working with two of America's real stars of the comics simultaneously". He applied the shading to the drawings.

Don and his wife, Joan, have lived in Kansas 30 years. They have three children, Brendan, 30, Joel, 28, and Rachel, 25.

Suit against school unserved

Neither the Iowa Park school district nor a former trustee has been served notice of a suit filed two weeks ago at the court house.

Former athletic director and coach Robert Clensay has filed suit against the district and former trustee Wendall House.

Supt. Glen Mitchell explained Wednesday that in this sort of case, the suit is not served to defendants until the plaintiff's attorney requests that it be served.

Clensay, according to the suit, is asking to be "reinstated with back salary, less comparable earnings, with reasonable and necessary attorney's fees and costs, and any other relief, at law or equity, to which he is entitled."

The suit was filed with the district clerk in Wichita Falls on Wednesday, Feb. 7.

Cook of the Week

Theresa Arrington

Her cooking habits and many of the recipes used by Theresa (Mrs. Paul) Arrington have been influenced by her participation in the First Place program. The program, being offered by Baptist churches across the nation, teaches a Christian approach to a healthy lifestyle and stresses better eating habits and eating healthy foods.

Theresa grew up in Burkburnett, where she graduated from high school. She had taken classes at Vernon Regional Junior College and was working at Wichita General Hospital when she met her future husband, Paul.

Paul grew up in Iowa Park and is a mail carrier for the local post office. When he and Theresa married, almost 16 years ago, they made their home here.

The Arrington's have two sons, Josh, 14, and Adam, 11. Josh is a freshman at Iowa Park High School and plays football and basketball. Adam, a sixth grader at junior high, likes to play basketball.

Theresa is a substitute teacher for the Iowa Park school district, a job she said she enjoys very much.

For relaxation, she likes to work on arts and crafts, cross stitching, and walking.

Theresa and Paul are active members of Faith Baptist Church, where Paul is a deacon and custodian, and both work with the youth group.

Because one of their sons is a diabetic, Theresa has to watch the ingredients in her cooking. But occasionally she bakes her husband's favorite "Strawberry Cake," and for church socials, she quite often takes a "Peach Cobbler."

Unfried Chicken

6 drumsticks
3 chicken breasts (skinned)
3 1/2 cups ice water
1 cup plain non-fat yogurt
1 cup flour
1/2 tsp. creoli powder
1 cup dried Italian bread crumbs
1 Tbsp. Old Bay seasoning

Paul's Favorite Strawberry Cake

1 box white cake mix
1 small box strawberry jello
1/2 cup water
4 eggs
1/2 cup frozen strawberries
Mix all ingredients together. Bake at 350 degrees until done. Cake is done if center springs back when touched lightly with finger. Frost when fully baked. (I like to use bundt pan for this cake.)

ICING:
1/2 cup frozen strawberries
1 stick oleo
1 box powdered sugar
Mix thoroughly and spread over cooled cake.

Peach Cobbler

1 stick oleo
1 cup flour
Pinch of salt
2 small or 1 large can of peaches
1 cup sugar
1 1/2 tsp. baking powder
3/4 cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla
Melt oleo in pan. Mix batter of dry ingredients and milk. Pour over melted butter. Pour peaches with juice over batter. DO NOT STIR. Sprinkle top with a little cinnamon and sugar. Bake 45 minutes at 400 degrees.

1/2 tsp. garlic powder
1/8 tsp. pepper
Soak chicken in ice water. The trick is to make sure chicken and yogurt are very cold.
Put crumbs and seasonings in a zip lock bag. Roll soaked chicken in yogurt and shake in the baggie. Place coated chicken on cookie sheet that has been sprayed 3 times with vegetable spray. Bake at 400 degrees 1 hour, turning every 20 minutes.

Low-Cal Spiced Tea

1 - 2 oz. jar Nestea with NutraSweet
2 pkgs. Wyler's lemonade mix with NutraSweet
1 can Crystal Light orange drink (all 4 packages)
1 tsp. ground cloves
1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
Mix all ingredients together. It takes scant teaspoon per cup. Makes approximately 128 teaspoons, 1 1/2 calories per cup.

Fat Free Apple Pie

1 fat-free flour tortilla
1 small apple
2 pkgs. Equal
1 tsp. low fat or fat-free margarine
Sprinkle of cinnamon
Peel and core apple. Cut apple in small chunks. Sprinkle 2 pkgs. Equal over apples plus 1 tsp. margarine. Sprinkle top with cinnamon. Microwave 2 minutes; stir and microwave 2 more minutes. Pour into warmed tortilla, roll up and enjoy.

Card of Thanks

We would like to try to express our deepest thanks to all who were so caring during our loss. The abundance of food, flowers, cards, visits meant so much. A special thanks for all the prayers in our behalf. Rev. and Mrs. Greg Hardin, words could never express the love and gratitude we feel for you. The entire United Pentecostal Family, thank you for everything and especially for being her friends. Also thank you to the church families of Iowa Park First Baptist Church, Evangel Temple, Iowa Park Faith Baptist Church, Pentecostal Church of Electra, and Wichita Falls First Baptist Church for being so caring. Thank you and may God bless each of you.

'Coins for Corey' drive begun

Corey McMahon, seven year old son of David and Wendy McMahon of Iowa Park, is in critical condition at Cooke's Children Medical Center of Dallas, following surgery to remove a brain tumor last week.

Surgeons removed 98 per cent of the tumor, which proved to be malignant, from Corey's brain on Feb. 13.

To help the family defray medical and travel expenses, Kidwell Elementary School, where Corey attends first grade, has begun a drive to collect "Coins for Corey."

School students may bring any amount of change to the school, which will be placed in an account to aid the family. In addition, canisters have been placed around town, and accounts have been opened at two local banks.

Those wishing to donate to the fund may do so at State National Bank, savings account #009-6834, in the name of David or Wendy McMahon, FBO Corey McMahon; or Norwest Bank, checking account #7061427, in the name of David or Wendy McMahon, FBO Corey McMahon.

Anyone wishing to send a card or message to Corey may send it to Cooke's Children's Medical Center of Dallas, % Corey McMahon, 4th floor-room 465, 1935 Motor Street, Dallas, Texas 75235.

Obituaries

Roy Hamrick

Services for Roy Hamrick, 87, of Quanah were Monday at 2 p.m. at First Baptist Church, with Rev. Roy Canada officiating. Burial was in Quanah Memorial Park.

Mr. Hamrick, brother of Charles Murphy of Iowa Park, died Saturday in a Quanah hospital.

Born June 17, 1908, in Paris, Tx., he was married to Edra Aubrey Gooding June 2, 1929, in Goodlett. His son, Nelson, died in 1995.

At an early age Mr. Hamrick moved to Hardeman County, where he lived the remainder of his life. He was a farmer and rancher and served as Precinct 1 Commissioner for Hardeman County 20 years.

Additional survivors include his wife; two daughters, Melba Erwin of Denton and Frances Collins of Rockport; three sisters, Sudie Rector of Safford, Ariz., and Nora Mae Weathersby and Betty Collins, both of Fort Worth; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Evelyn Carter

Former Iowa Park resident, Evelyn Louise Carter, 70, died Monday in a Duncan, Okla. hospital.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at Cumberland Presbyterian Church with Rev. LaRoyce Brown officiating. Burial was in Marlow, Okla. Cemetery.

Mrs. Carter was born Nov. 16, 1925, in Marlow. She and William Clement Carter were married Oct. 30, 1942, in Marlow. She was a 1943 graduate of Marlow High School. She lived in Iowa Park while her husband was a coach and teacher at Iowa Park High School. She moved back to Marlow in 1981, and was a member of Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Jerry of Euless and Bruce of Bloomfield, N.M.; her mother, Bertha Crouch of Marlow; a sister, Maydell Akers of Rush Springs, Okla.; and three grandchildren.

Lady Hawks continue their winning way

The Iowa Park Lady Hawks, in their first-ever softball season, remained unbeaten and moved to 4-0 with a pair of wins Saturday against Hirschi and Wichita Falls High School at the Optimist Fields in Wichita Falls, and a victory over Burk Burnett Tuesday night.

The Lady Hawks downed Hirschi in the first game 21-15 as Amanda Roberts went the distance to pick up her first win of the season.

Iowa Park jumped on top 8-0 in the top of the first as the Lady Hawks pounded out five hits and took advantage of four costly errors by the Lady Huskies. Julea Ricks and Lori Wiggins were the hitting stars for the game as Wiggins finished 2-for-2 with 3 RBIs, while Ricks finished 2-for-3 with 3 RBIs.

After the 8-run first, the Lady

Hawks added a pair of runs in the second, two more in the fourth, three in the fifth, four more in the sixth and two in the final inning. Hirschi trailed 8-1 after the first and 10-1 after two before scoring three times in the third, a pair of runs in the fourth and fifth, four in the sixth and three in the bottom of the seventh to make the final 21-15.

In the second game against the Lady Coyotes, Iowa Park broke a 1-1 tie with four big runs in the top of the fourth that proved to be the difference taking a 5-1 lead. The Lady Hawks also took advantage of another strong pitching performance by Ricks who moved to 2-0 for the season.

Ricks struck out 15 to move her total for two games to 28 while allowing only two hits which brings her total of hits allowed to 3 for the season. The only two hits allowed by Ricks were a bloop single to the right to lead off the bottom of the third and a 2-out RBI single to left in the fourth.

The Lady Hawks' big four-run top of the fourth started with a single by Jennifer Nicholson and a bunt single by Amanda Thompson. Sarah McCarty followed with a fly ball to right that was misplayed by the WFHS right fielder which allowed two runs to score.

Ricks followed with a single to left to score McCarty and Fischer to put Iowa Park on top 5-1. The Lady Coyotes added their final run in the bottom of the fifth to trim the lead to 5-2 but that was as close as they would get as Ricks struck out six of the final 12 hitters to pick up her second complete game win.

Iowa Park ran its record to 4-0 Tuesday night with a 6-0 win over Burk Burnett. Ricks again went the distance allowing only two hits while striking out five and walking only one.

The Lady Hawks went on top 3-0 in the top of the first on a double by T.C. Osborn who later scored the game's first run on an RBI single by Summer Fortner. After a pair of walks to Ricks and Roberts, Kim Scobee reached base on an error that allowed two more runs to score.

Iowa Park padded its lead to 5-0 in the top of the second and added it's final run in the top of the seventh on a triple by Nicholson who came home on the throw to third. Iowa Park picked up five hits in the game with Osborn leading the way with two.

The Lady Hawks will be looking to continue their winning ways when the take on Petrolia Friday at 4 p.m. with the site yet to be determined, depending on the condition of Petrolia's field.

Iowa Park will not get any time to rest as the Lady Hawks will play in the Wichita Falls Independent School District Softball Tournament to be held at the Optimist Fields. The eight-team tournament will get underway at 9 a.m. with Iowa Park taking on Midway. If the Lady Hawks win, their second game will be at noon with the championship game scheduled for 3:30 p.m..

Baseball season opens Friday

Fans got their first chance to see what the 1996 baseball season will look like Friday as the Hawks came from behind to beat Burk Burnett 8-5 in a scrimmage game.

The same two teams will square off again tomorrow as the Hawks host the Bulldogs in the season opener for both teams, with the first pitch scheduled for 4 p.m..

In Friday's game, Iowa Park rallied from a 5-3 deficit to take a 6-5 lead with three runs in the bottom of the fifth, then put the game away with a pair of sixth-inning runs.

Head coach David Fuhrman was pleased with his team's effort despite missing three starters who had just finished basketball.

"I thought Chris Norris pitched well for his two innings," Fuhrman said. "He did a good job throwing strikes. Clancy Lalumia pitched the final inning and retired all three batters he faced. He kept the ball down and even picked off a kid to end the game."

"I thought our defense played fair even though we hadn't been working on it much. We're concentrating on hitting the ball right now. We did a pretty good job at the plate and some of our JV players that were playing with us came up with some base hits. We made a lot of contact and didn't strike out and that is what we want to do."

For those who can't get enough baseball, the Hawks will play a 100-inning intersquad game Saturday morning starting at 9 as a fund raiser for money to help buy added equipment.

The players will be divided into two teams with each team batting for 9 outs before moving into the field. The Jugs machine will be used to pitch with each player coming to the plate with a 2-ball, one-strike count to help speed up the game.

The Hawks' second game of the season will be Tuesday at 4 p.m. when they play host to the Holliday Eagles.

Powerlifters breaking records

The Iowa Park powerlifting team got a taste of big-time lifting when they traveled recently to the Cedar Hill Powerlifting Meet.

With 47 schools and 478 lifters, this was by far the biggest meet of the season for the Hawks.

But just like the previous meet Iowa Park was in the record-breaking mood as 11 more school records fell.

Jeremy Tatom, who finished 3rd out of 11 lifters in the 114-lb. class, posted three of the new records with a squat of 285, a bench of 160 and a total of 710.

Another of the records fell in the 165-lb. class when Danny Payton, who finished 7th out of 58 lifters, squatted 460 to finish with a 1080 total. Shane Bagley also lifted in the 165's and finished 10th with a total of 1055.

Brandon McLemore finished 16th out of 59 lifters in the 181-lb. class while Calvin Galliton and Richard McCann finished 18th and 25th respectively in the 220-lb. class with totals of 1115 and 1055.

Tyson Spruiell added four new records to the list with his 4th place finish out of 42 lifters in the 242-lb. class. Spruiell squatted 490, benched 285 and dead lifted 450 for a total of 1225.

Keith Hoover picked up the final three records with his 7th place finish out of 37 lifters in the 275-lb. class. Hoover set new marks in everything except for the bench press with a squat of 500, a 480 dead lift and a 1250 total.

The Hawks then followed the good showing at Cedar Hill with a second-place finish in the Nocona Meet.

Bagley and Jackie Miller swept the 148-lb. class with Bagley finishing with new records in the squat with a lift of 420 and a new total of 1075. Miller finished second with a total of 950.

Jimmy Fallon and McLemore finished 3rd and 4th in the 165's with Fallon's total of 1010 and McLemore's total of 1005. Keith Trammell finished 3rd in the 181's with a total of 930.

In the 242's, Brian Casey finished second with a total of 1060 and Reece Williamson finished third with a total of 1005. Wally Wahl finished 4th in the 275's with a total of 1015.

The Lady Hawks also had a strong showing in the Nocona Meet with Jessica Shaw finishing second in the 132 and under with a squat of 190, a bench press of 100 and a dead lift of 225 for a total of 515.

In the 132 and over it was all Iowa Park with the Lady Hawks finishing one, two, three.

Jessi Boyd finished first with a total of 545, Carmon Tidwell finished second with a total of 540 and Melinda Bradshaw finished third with a total of 645. Despite Bradshaw's total being higher than Boyd's, the places are determined by comparing body weight to the total weight lifted to come up with a winner.

The Hawks' next meet will be in Sanger and will be the final qualifying date before the Regional Meet that will be held in Iowa Park on March 3. To qualify for the Regional Meet, a lifter must have lifted enough to place him in the top 10 in his weight class in an earlier meet.

"This is going to be another tough meet for us," head coach Steve Stewart said. "We're going to have to be ready to lift or we'll get beat. But I expect us to do well. We've entered three meets and finished second in two of them. I really feel like we'll finish in the top four in the Sanger Meet."

The Regional Meet will take the top two finishers in each weight class and will advance to the State Meet that will be held at the University of Houston March 30.
