Even the Pilgrims Celebrated on Christmas Day

© Yale University Press

The Pilgrims thought that joy and feasting on a holy day was sinful and frowned on any observance of Christmas, yet on the evening of December 25, 1620, it is recorded that the Puritans returned to their ship and had a feast. The historian was careful to record, that it was to celebrate the start of their new home.

Jack R. Allen, chairman of the nominating committee, announces the election of the following: J. H. Woodward, Harry Cayler, Addison Cutter, Glen McGibbon, B. B. Kent, W. B. LaMaster and Dr. Manse Wood.

CHRISTMAS DINNERS FOR POOR

AMERICAN LEGION SPONSORING CAMPAIGN TO PROVIDE NEEDY FAMILIES CHEER

The makings for a real Christmas dinner for every poor and needy family in Perryton community is the objective the American Legion has set in their Christmas Cheer program for this Yuletide season. On Christmas Eve, trucks laden with big baskets and boxes crammed with dressed chickens, cranberries, butter and bread, coffee, potatoes, oranges, candy, nuts, celery and everything else needed for the preparation of a real feast, will leave the Legion Hall for delivery to the more unfortunate families of the community.

The Legion knows full well that in carrying out this program, some are benefitted that are not deserving. They well know that in a few instances, it is the fault of a rum soaked father that the family is in a destitute condition, but then there are the children, the aged and the mothers to consider and in most cases the father who has done his best but due to unavoidable circumstances has not been able to keep his head above the waters of misfortune.

A program such as the Legion's annual Christmas Cheer campaign costs a considerable amount of money and subscriptions to the fund are being accepted. Anyone wishing to make a voluntary donation may give same to any of the following committee: A. N. Dowers, chairman; Van W. Stewart, J. W. Herrell, H. Shindler, Kirt Williams.

Lions Have Holiday

Civic Club Decides to Hold No Meetings Until Tuesday, January Fifth

Due to the fact that so many of the members will be very busy during the Christmas rush and that others will be away on vacation trips, the Perryton Lions Club decided at their Tuesday luncheon to dispense with the next two regular meetings of the club, holding their next luncheon on Tuesday, January Fifth.

It is rumored that members of the club who have been rather lax in their attendance at regular meetings are going to have this fact impressed rather forcibly when the club gets down to business after the first of the year. There is some talk of preparing a "hot shot" patrol wagon manned by a strong arm detail that won't know the meaning of the word "no," to round up the delinquent Lions.

GENE HOWE, "OLD TACK" OF AMARILLO NEWS, WILL BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT BANQUET

Monday, January 4, has been set as the date for the annual banquet of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce, so states Judge Dave Shanks, chairman of the general arrangements committee for the affair. Judge Shanks says that it has not been definitely decided where the banquet will be held.

Invitations to Chambers of Commerce in neighboring cities have been extended and it is expected that representative delegations from every nearby town will be present. The ticket sale will not be limited to members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Everett Menter and a man named North are under arrest at Borger charged with car theft and breaking into and stealing wheat from the Berry Elevator. Thirty bushels of sacked wheat was found in a house where they are supposed to reside.

The two under arrest are thought to be members of a car theft ring that has been operating in and around Borger for some time. Sheriff Talley states the men are being held in the Stinnett jail.

Ochiltree County Agricultural Association Growing

One of the most successful and needed organizations in Ochiltree county is the Ochiltree County Agricultural Association and the reason for it's forward pace is the fact that the farmers of the county are behind the organization. At the present time they have 391 paid-up 1937 members. M. W. Truax is president and Fred Tarbox is the new secretary. The local association is held up and pointed to as a model all over Texas.

Of the $2.00 membership dues, 50c goes to the state organization, 50c for national dues, 50c as a subscription to the "Farmer's Banner," the state paper, and 50c remains in the local treasury.

Arrangements have just been completed for the affiliation of the Texas Agricultural Association with the national body, the Federal Farm Bureau. A one hundred per cent organized farm body is what has been needed by agriculture for many years and if every farm county in the United States was as thoroughly organized as Ochiltree, the farmers of this nation would have no difficulty in obtaining legislation and concessions from state and federal governments.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Leatherman left last week for North Bend, Ore., where they will spend the holidays in the home of their daughters, Mrs. John Brodie and Mrs. Alton Witt and families.

Mrs. T. J. Morgan returned home Thursday from a months visit with relatives in Canton, Okla.

BEST SPORTS

Captain Roper, forward, for the Darrouzett boys' team, and Captain Gibson, guard of the Perryton girls' team, were awarded trophies at the close of the basketball tournament at the Perryton High School gymnasium Saturday night, representing their selection by the judges as displaying the best brand of sportsmanship during the six-session play.

It goes without saying that these awards are highly appreciated by these two young people, since there were over 300 other players from which to make the selection.

These awards were well deserved, however, for the recipients were good sports both on and off the court. This speaks well not only for them, but for their parents and coaches as well, and it gave the local athletic association great pleasure in being the donors of these awards.

LOUIS GETS KO IN 18 SECONDS

Monday night, Joe Louis, Detroit, the Brown Bomber, shook Ed Simms, Cleveland, loose from everything that he has ever had, in the Public Auditorium in Cleveland when, after only 18 seconds of fighting, and with but one blow, knocked him out, in what came near being a record knockout.

A crowd of 11,000 fans saw the round open with Simms stepping right into Louis, peppering him with rights and lefts, showing no fear of the Bomber. After about the eighth smack off Simms' gloves Louis backed up and started his left to the jaw.

With that one blow Louis won the fight. Referee Dunivan stepped between the battlers after Simms had arisen to his feet on the count of nine, and seeing that Simms was still out, awarded the match to Louis as a knock out.

The proceeds of these 11,000 expectant fans will go into the charity fund for the underprivileged children of Cleveland so that they might realize another visit from Santa.

RANGERS WIN FROM LYNX IN FINAL GAME

MOBEETIE GIRLS COP TITLE BY TRIMMING HARTLEY'S ENTRY WITH SCORE OF 50-34

Leading the basket scoring at all stages of the game, with the exception of the end of the first quarter, the Perryton boys' team defeated Spearman Saturday night in the final game of Perryton High School's pre-season basketball tournament, to win the event with a score of 22 to 15.

This was really a very fitting game to climax the most successful tournament ever held locally, because both are excellent teams, and the floor work and handling of the ball was done with machine gun rapidity. During the entire game spectators, who overflowed the capacity of the gymnasium, were cheering and rooting for their favorites to win.

The end of the first quarter saw the score tied at 5 all; the half-time score was Perryton 11, Spearman 9; at the third quarter it stood Perryton 15 and Spearman 11, and finally, Perryton 22 with Spearman having 15.

Coach Otis Burk of the Rangers made no substitutions during the game, while Coach Lowe of the Lynx, made three substitutions in his line-up in an effort to stem the aggressive onslaught of the Rangers.

There was no let-down on the part of either team in their fight for victory, as the score book reveals. The Rangers made half their points during the first half and the remaining 11 points during the last half. The Lynx scored 9 points during the first half and 6 during the last half.

Schollenbarger and Stewart starred for the Rangers, while Ooley was the main cog in the Lynx machine. Ooley of the Lynx, and Stewart of the Rangers, shared high-point honors with nine each.

Following was the line-ups:

Perryton—22	FG	FT	TP
Pittman, F	1	1	3
Schollenbarger, F	3	2	8

Final Girls' Game

Showing an uncanny skill at looping baskets and superb guarding, the Mobeetie girls defeated the Hartley girls in the final tournament game with a score of 50 to 34.

Naturally from point of action and speed, a girls' game doesn't have the attraction of the fans which the boys command, but regardless of the seeming slowness, both the Mobeetie and Hartley girls displayed a ruggedness and accurate knowledge of the game that was most interesting.

Aline Lancaster, forward for Mobeetie, held the spotlight for her accuracy in hitting the baskets, and in her elusive style of play to get in scoring position. In spite of being closely guarded, she was always where the Hartley girls least expected her to be.

B. Thompson and Hammond, forwards for Hartley, should also come in for special mention during this game, as they together scored 29 of the team's 34 points.

Without reflection on the ability of the coach of the Hartley girls, it was conceded the Mobeetie girls were favored for the win on account of having Coach Blankenship as their mentor. It will be remembered that Coach Blenkenship had charge of the girls' team from Conlen two years ago when they won the girls' state championship title, later going to Wichita, Kansas, where they went a long way toward the national championship. In addition to this Mobeetie was blessed with two or three girls who were close to the six-foot mark in height.

But with these two final games, it very fittingly topped off as interesting and exciting tournament as has ever been held in the northeastern Texas Panhandle.

Following was the Mobeetie-Hartley line-ups:

Mobeetie—50	FG	FT	TP
V. Tubbs, F	8	0	16
R. Tubbs, F	7	2	16
A. Lancaster, F	8	2	18

C. Thompson, F	2	1	5
Hammond, F	6	0	12
Kelso, G	0	0	0

Score by quarters:

Mobeetie	12	11	13	14—50

A STORY ABOUT A SOLDIER

From the New York Sunday Mirror is a story about war which is being re-printed throughout the country.

It was first broadcast over the radio, causing an unprecedented demand for copies. An ex-soldier has been in a Veterans' Hospital for 18 years. He has but a short time to live. The letter to his nephew is not to be given the boy until he is 18 years old. The Herald believes the letter will prove an object lesson for all boys. It reads:

My Dear Billy:

On your last visit you asked me to tell you a story "with soldiers in it." What you heard was half a story that the world should know and ponder over.

I have always tried to tell you nice things about war, Billy. The things a man wants his little nephews who love him so to believe about him.

Now I want to tell you about another part of war—a part you will have to share if it comes. I do not say you should not share in it. I do not know. But I do think you should do everything you possibly can to prevent war. A soldier, little fellow, is a guy who was born behind the eight ball with two strikes on him.

Your mother was a little kid when I went to war. Your Uncle Danny wasn't so old either. I was the oldest of the three kids and with Dad's pay we got along. Of course New York was different then. We lived over on the west side in a good district and had a nice flat.

We knew all the neighbors and life was pretty good. I worked for the Consolidated Gas and brought home my $20 every week and Dad made $40.

Then they began to talk about war. I didn't know much about what they were talking about but I listened and after a while I began to hate the Germans too. When we finally declared war I went to your grandmother. God rest her soul, and told her that I thought I ought to go. She kissed me good-bye that morning and told me if I thought so she did too.

I never went back to the office except to say good-bye, and that afternoon I was in the army.

You'll find all the rest of the story in the big brown book at home. It's the history of our outfit and reads awful well. They tell how I got the Congressional Medal and the others. It's all in there but what it doesn't tell is this:

It doesn't tell about the nights of stark mad fear when shells are dropping all around you and the men you have learned to love in that queer detached way that is war are falling all around you.

It doesn't give you any idea of how it feels to look out the window of a hospital and see a nurse lead two men, one on each side, down the hill to where the captured German guns are so carefully displayed. You don't see how the men are permitted to run their hands along the shining steel barrels and feel the little black and white notice that tells where they were captured. The pair helped capture them. But they can't see them. They are blind. Both of them are blind.

It doesn't tell you of the agonies of gas. How you swallow and spew and wish God would let you die right then. And then you spend days and weeks in agony. You can't eat. You can't sleep.

It doesn't tell you of the men who went over the top on a cold and rainy morning. They trotted into eternity, Billy. Barking machine guns, standing almost ghostly in the dimness, cut them down. I've seen a buddy grab at his belly and hold on to his entrails. He had been almost cut in two by machine gun fire. His nerves carried him a few feet but he never got up.

It doesn't tell you of the high explosive shells that came over during the terrible barrages that both sides laid down. Shells that plopped into the mud near you and neatly severed the head of a man standing eighteen inches from you. His head rolled to one side and for what seemed an eternity he stood stock still. Finally, of course, he fell into the trench.

No, Billy, it tells you nothing of these things. It's a beautiful book and I'm proud to have my picture in it. I guess I was a first rate soldier. They say so anyway.

So, little boy, that is all I can give to you. They tell me that I haven't much longer now. I guess that's best. It's gotten pretty tough the past few months. I don't seem to have any patience any more.

Be a good lad, Billy. We have the greatest nation in the world, son. Don't let a living soul do a single thing that would shame her or take away a single privilege that has made it what it is.

But try as hard as you can to see if there isn't some way to settle these foolish disputes without war.

You have never seen war yet Billy and I hope to God you never do. All my love to you.

Your Uncle,
—BILL.

FIRE MARSHALL ISSUES CHRISTMAS FIRE WARNING

Fire Marshal R. H. Gamel has been notified by the State Fire Marshal that he will be required to make an inspection of all Christmas trees during the holiday season. The use of open flame candles is not permitted, so a strict observance of this rule is requested both in private homes and public gatherings. Mr. Gamel also requests that the use of inflamable decorations be avoided. Don't mar the holiday season with a tragic fire and loss of life and property.

Honor General McCraw

State Attorney-General William McCraw is Honored by Perryton Friends at Lunch

Attorney-General William McCraw and Judge J. H. Broadhurst, former county judge of Hansford county and now an assistant attorney-general, were guests of honor at a luncheon at the Hotel Perryton last Friday noon.

Plates for forty were laid in the private dining room. County Attorney Max W. Boyer, who is representative-elect from this district presided at the luncheon. Several guests from Amarillo were present.

The Attorney-General made a short address after which he talked to the high school students from all over the Panhandle who were here participating in the basketball tourney. General McCraw also conferred with city officials regarding the suit which the city has against the Public Service Corporation for the reduction of gas rates in Perryton.

EMPLOYERS REQUIRED TO FURNISH EMPLOYEE DATA

San Antonio, Dec. 12.—Regional Director Oscar M. Powell of the Social Security Board today urgently requested employers who have not returned the "employer's application for identification number," (form SS-4) to fill out these applications as soon as possible and return them to the Social Security Board at Baltimore, Maryland.

Delinquency in the return of these forms was attributed by Powell mainly to the fact that in the Region Ten States of Louisiana, Texas and New Mexico, federal unemployment compensation tax forms 940 were delivered often simultaneously with the identification number forms. The 940 tax form relates to employers of eight or more persons.

"As a result," Powell said, "some small employers have felt that they are not required to fill out Form SS-4 unless they have eight or more employees. The fact is, of course, that by authority of Treasury Decision 4704, every employer who had one or more persons less than 65 years of age actually in his employ on November 16, 1936, within the United States, Alaska or Hawaii, in any but the specified exempted employments, is required to fill out an SS-4 form.

"We understand that the post office department has issued instructions to postmasters to submit names of all employers who are delinquent in returning these forms. It is our belief that as soon as employers in this region clearly understand their obligations, the list of those who have failed to respond will be substantially eliminated."

DROVE WHILE DRUNK

A sermon for all automobile drivers may be found in the following experience letter in the Progressive Farmer:—

"The biggest mistake I ever made was to get behind a steering wheel with my mind and muscles under the influence of whiskey. I ran the car into another containing four young people, wrecking both cars and injuring a little girl. It also cost $85 to fix my car and I still have damages to pay to the owner of the other car. The grand jury billed me and I am now out under bond awaiting trial. If I am given a sentence by the court—which I deserve—I will have no one to blame but myself for making the mistake of taking a drink and then attempting to operate an automobile, endangering lives of others."
Repenant, Georgia.

E. L. Whippo returned Friday from Ulysses, Kans., where he has been the past two weeks taking treatments. He was a Saturday dinner guest with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. McMillen.

Mrs. C. C. Share and son, Morton Share, of Alva, Okla., were business visitors in Perryton Sunday and Monday. They have land interests in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Montgomery and daughter, Anita Ann, spent the week-end with friends and relatives in Sayre, Okla.

Mrs. Carroll Dodd and son, Larry, left Friday for Kansas City, Mo. to spend two weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Francis left Tuesday for Hot Springs, New Mex., where they will stay several weeks taking the baths.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Couger and children will leave Monday to spend the holidays with relatives in Gatesville, Waco and Graham.

Spirit of Christmas

By Katherine Edelman

SURRENDER yourself to the Spirit of Christmas! Let its joy thrill you—let its peace steal softly across your heart! Open your ears to the magic of its message—open your eyes to the miracles it accomplishes!

Read again Dickens' Christmas Carol, the best known and most inspiring of all the Christmas stories. And don't feel ashamed, if at the end, as Tiny Tim whispers, "God bless us, every one," you find your own eyes wet with tears.

Open the Book of Books, and let Luke tell you about that first Christmas—of the long journey to Bethlehem, of the birth in the humble manger, of the shepherds keeping watch over their flocks. Listen to the heavenly music that was heard upon the hills, to the thrilling words of the angel, "Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord." Bow your head and give thanks for the Prince of Peace who came, saying with the angels, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Let Matthew tell you of the coming of the Wise Men from the East, with their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, which they presented to the Christ Child.

Then, with the Spirit of Christmas in your heart, go forth and help make Christmas a brighter and a happier day for others!

CONSERVATION—

Originally sponsored by the chambers of commerce and county courts in Randall and Deaf Smith counties, the idea has spread rapidly. Recognizing the importance of immediate action, representatives in the various counties are now holding meetings to publicize the next general meeting and form an active campaign directed toward proper governmental officials.

Perryton and Ochiltree county will be represented at Amarillo by Irvin R. Buchanan for the Chamber of Commerce, and Commissioner W. L. Anderson for the county. As many citizens as can attend are urged to do so. Water conservation plans of the present movement are very similar to those proposed by the group that perfected the organization known as the Great Plains Farm Pond & Terracing Association. The first meeting was held at Trinidad, Colo., on November 23, 1934; the organization meeting was in Perryton on Dec. 11, 1934. Later meetings were held at Elkhart, Kansas on Jan. 9, 1935, and at Amarillo on Feb. 8. Irvin R. Buchanan was one of the main leaders in the movement of two years ago.

John McCarty of Amarillo, present committee chairman, was appointed by W. A. Warren, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Serving with McCarty are W. L. Holton, Canadian; Wilson Cowen, Dalhart; H. V. Hennen, Hereford; Noel McDade, Dumas; B. C. McCasland, Tulia; K. C. Lea, Clovis, and Mr. Warren. This committee chose Amarillo as the next meeting place because of its central location.

Basing its faith for fulfillment upon a recent statement by Marvin L. Cooke, Chairman of the President's Drouth Committee, who said the way to save this country is to hold the water where it falls, the committee is working toward the construction of lakes, farm ponds, dams, wells and reservoirs throughout this region. The committee, while looking forward to the permanent benefits to be derived from such a program, does not overlook the fact that it would provide work for hundreds of persons in every county involved.

Chairman McCarty has warned the people against confusing such a program with WPA and PWA construction of school houses, etc., pointing out that this would be strictly a farm and ranch proposition.

Next Saturday's meeting will be held in the Club Room of the Amarillo Hotel. The committee will assemble at 9 o'clock, with a general meeting beginning at 10:00 o'clock. The business session will adjourn slightly after 12 o'clock so that delegates may attend the Amarillo-Ft. Worth football game.

The Resettlement Administration, the Soil Conservation Service and the WPA are expected to have official spokesman at the meeting.

HERALD'S GREETING EDITION NEXT WEEK

The Herald's first annual Christmas greeting edition carrying the Greeting messages from individuals and business firms to their customers and friends will be published next week. Representatives of our advertising department will attempt to contact all parties that might be interested in extending a Yuletide message, however it will be impossible to see everyone, especially those who are not in when our representatives call. However, it is our desire that this issue shall represent the community one hundred percent, and we will appreciate a telephone call to No. 67, and we will have someone call on you at once and assist, if it is your wish, with the preparation of your greeting.

PERRYTON—

stores gave us one big surprise. One hears on every hand of increases in prices but such is not the case for we find that Perryton stores are just "crammed full" of useful and not-so-useful gifts for man, woman and child at the most reasonable prices.

And then there's "good things to eat" for the holiday dinners, and candy and nuts and fruits. Just check through the grocery advertisements in this issue of the Herald and make up your shopping list for the Christmas season. You'll be surprised by a comparison of these advertised prices.

The trifty buyer is "price conscious" and the merchant that advertises is rendering the shopper a service when he advertises prices. You'll find by a careful check of the store messages in the Herald that you can buy cheaper and better in Perryton.

SAFETY SLOGANS

Someone suggests adding a word to the sign at railroad crossings. The sign as amended reads: Stop, Look, Listen and Live.

Don't drink water from any strange, unused wells or springs. It might be polluted with typhoid.

Someone in every swimming party should understand how to get a drowning person out of the water and how to administer first aid.

If you can't swim, stay out of deep water. You have no right to endanger the lives of other members of the party who may attempt to rescue you.

Don't over-treat your flowers. Too much care, fertilizer and watering, retard growth.

EVERYBODY IS WELL TAKEN CARE OF

THE Heinz Company with its 57 varieties has nothing on the folks who make Christmas Cards. An inspection in local stores of what is being offered this year discloses far more varieties of Christmas Cards than Mr. Heinz ever dreamed of in the pickle line.

There are, literally, cards for every member of the family, from Mother down to Cousin, as well as for friends, new and old, big and small. And, as always, one of the most popular types of Greetings is the Sweetheart Card. There are a number of different designs and sentiments to choose from in this classification.

One of the biggest problems of the Post Office Department is handling the additional volume of mail created by the exchange of Christmas Cards, and we would not be surprised if the volume of Christmas Cards caused the mail carriers no little concern this year. It looks like "everybody's doing it."

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY
Alert and Eager To Serve You

"THANK goodness," said Martha Goodwin, bustling about her kitchen, "Christmas comes but once a year." She wiped back a loose wisp of graying hair with a weary gesture. "But it will be fine seeing you again, Lad," she murmured, thinking of her distant son. "Now, le"s see. Those star cookies you're so fond of—" She glanced at the hurrying clock.

Loud shrieks of laughter under her window interrupted her thoughts. Those new neighbor children again. If they were dirtying up her freshly swept w'lk! She strode grimly to the porch. There was a path in the snow from their yard, around hers, and back again to their own, where all four of them had apparently trudged, pushing a snow ball, across her walk in two places. A tussel started suddenly, and they were all tumbling about in the snow, shrieking at the top of their voices.

Martha scolded shrilly at them, and they stood up, an abashed little line of stair steps. "The idea! On Christmas, too!" Martha chided. "Whatever is the matter with your ma, that she lets you make such a racket?"

"She's sick," answered the oldest girl.

"Sick! Then all the more reason why you should keep still. Shame on you." The little group stood like statues.

Martha tucked in the wisp of hair. "You children come in here and sit still while I work, and I'll tell you a story," she invited. "Mind you wipe your feet."

"I suppose it should be a Christmas story," Martha began. "Do you know about the shepherds and the wise men?"

"Yes'm," they chorused. "We go to Sunday school," added the oldest girl.

"Then," Martha asked her, "shall I tell you about Santa Claus?"

Her face clouded a little. "Mother told us that," she answered soberly.

"Oh," said Martha. She dusted the flour from her hands and turned to baste the turkey. Four pairs of eager eyes watched her every move. The doorbell rang.

"Laddie! Good heavens," cried Martha, slipping off her apron, and rushed to the door.

But instead it was a telegram:

"AWFULLY SORRY DARLING BUT I JUST CAN'T GET AWAY STOP DO TRY TO HAVE A MERRY CHRISTMAS STOP GO ON A SPREE AND I'LL FOOT THE BILL STOP EXPECT TO BE ABLE TO GET DOWN FOR NEW YEAR'S AND WILL EXPLAIN EVERYTHING THEN LOVE LADDIE."

Martha Goodwin read it twice. Then she smoothed the straying wisp of hair and went back to the kitchen.

"Well," the older girl was explaining, "it's sort of like a chicken, I guess, only ever so much bigger." The four children looked up as Martha entered. "Why, what's the matter, Mrs. Goodwin?"

"My son—I was expecting him—he isn't coming."

"Gee," came a sympathetic chorus. "And you'd fixed everything so nice and—and Christmassy."

"I'm not going to have it spoiled," Martha decided. "Here," she said and draped the holly wreath over the youngest's arm. "You," she said to the next one, "carry the potatoes, and you take the mince pie—careful, it's hot—and you," to the eldest, "take the vegetables. I think I can manage the turkey."

"But where are we going?"

"Over to your house. Weren't you about to miss out on Christmas dinner?"

"Dinner first, then presents," she suggested, and when, having eaten all they could hold, they gathered about the holly, she found a crudely wrapped present for herself. It was a picture scrapbook, somewhat smudged.

Were those tears in Martha Goodwin's eyes? Surely not, for she was smiling.

"Why, thank you," she exclaimed. "Such a lovely surprise! My," she added, "I do wish Christmas came more than once a year."

THE SUPREME GIFT OF LOVE

I John 4:7-19

I. THE SCOPE OF LOVE

John urges Christians to love one another, for love is of God. If they would imitate the Father, they must show that princess of virtues and graces-love. He who loves in this capacity is born of God, because he who loves Jesus will keep his words, obey his teachings. More profession of love is not sufficient to prove one is born again, but a love made known through obedience (IPeter 1:22).

II. GOD'S LOVE AND GIFT

God loved that he GAVE. He did not expect the world to grasp an abstract definition of his love for lost men. Instead, he gave his own Son as a ranson for sinners' iniquities and to make possible the way for sinners to be saved by the blood of Christ upon the terms of the gospel. Although God loves us, he has not promised to save us unless we will hear, believe, and obey his word. But as his love was made known to us in the gift of Jesus, so ours is to be manifested by our ready and humble response to his message of redemption. God's love abides in us and is perfected when we live according to his will.

III. GOD'S GIFT OF THE SPIRIT

The world cannot receive the Spirit, said Jesus. It is because "ye are sons" that God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts. True, men and women do not receive the miraculous gift of the Spirit. But the Spirit of Christ dwells in our hearts "by faith." Just as sure as people in all good faith "repent and be baptised . . for the remission of sins" they will "receive the gift of the Spirit" (Acts 2:38.) He who has the Spirit of Christ will admire the things Jesus loves. He will imitate the ways of his Master. Love, obedience, sacrifice, humility, forgiveness—and a thousand other excellencies will fairly ooze through every fibre of his being. Yes, his body will be the temple of the Holy Spirit, and what a temple it ought to be. How clean it ought to be kept at all times. Nothing impure should ever enter at the threshold of the Christian heart.

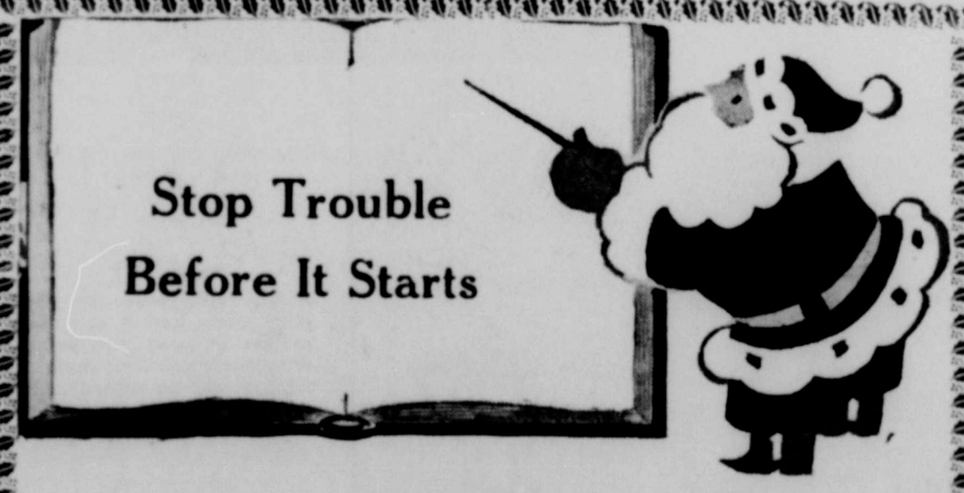

IV. CONFESSING JESUS

Confession of Christ's name is necessary to becoming a Christian. It is one of those steps stipulated by the Lord as a condition of pardon. But Christians must ever acknowledge the name of the Lord. In word, in deed, in life his name is seen, is honored. It is not the name that the cringing coward hears with trembling knees, but one that has endeared itself to the wearer. Perfect love has cast out fear. As long as we serve the will of heaven, we need have no fear of the judgment. It is for the disobedient to dread the time of reckoning. And why do we love the name of our Lord? Why have our hearts been wooed and made tender toward our Savior? "Because he first loved us."

A Manly Christmas Husband

By Gertrude H. Walton

"A BORESOME holiday! If only I had invited Fred to come here with me." Manly jerked his hat from a rack when Julia, his sister, rushed into the hall:

"Manly, please come with me tonight to the dinner party at Judge Thompson's. Horace has just telephoned he can not get here until too late. Roads blocked with snow and cars because of the blizzard yesterday. Our first big spread in this burg. We're so new and this is our first opportunity to meet many prominent citizens of Palas City. Judge Thompson's dinners are annual affairs and he gives special invitations to newcomers of the city."

"I don't care much about the party. But so much in the papers about the Willis Graham's family who will be at the Judge's. Graham is the big shot who made millions from his washing machine patents. He's sort of a god in these parts. He has no son—but some daughters. Maybe, when I'm through college old Graham might remember a Manly boy, for an engineer or in his office."

Manly's parents had gone South for the winter and Julia had urged her brother to spend the holidays with them because she and Horace would be a bit lonely since recently settling in the thriving factory municipality of Palas City.

In evening clothes Manly was nearest satisfied with himself as being "well groomed," than in any other attire. Somehow, the black dinner coat, light vest, brilliant studs in the spotless shirt front, illuminated the sparkle of his brown eyes and enhanced the manliness of his form. Upon arriving at the ancestral estate of Judge Thompson's, Manly was bewildered when the Judge, with unusual ceremony, introduced them as "Mr. and Mrs. Horace Linn, new residents of Palas City!"

"Sh! They think you are my husband. Don't make them any wiser. Horace and I are strangers, you know, here," Julia motioned.

Not knowing whether Julia had planned to pass her brother off as her husband, or whether it was a surprise to Julia, as well as to himself, Manly played "husbandly faithful" beside Julia. But it seemed that every place Manly stood or sat, Patricia, one of the Graham daughters, was near, kindly gracious, but aloof. When he asked her to dance she quickly assented, as though she feared he might never ask for another dance.

"She thinks I am married. Huh! A Manly Christmas husband, indeed! Dum it all! Why did Julia get me into this jam? She will have to un-jam me," he snorted to himself.

The next morning's mail brought Manly an invitation to a party at Willis Graham's for the Graham daughters!

"Of course, you'll go. A secret! No, not a secret any longer because the secret has been long enough," she teased. "I whispered to Patricia, at the party, that you were my brother and to introduce you to others of the younger groups, and to Mr. Graham. She, however, promised secrecy to all but Mr. Graham. Since she did not introduce you to others, not even to her father, I believe she enjoyed the brother-husband affair and planned a party to reveal the secret to her father and guests. No, her interest in you began before I told her you were not my husband. She was raving about my husband's eyes, and hair, and form, and clothes and—"

After the party at Patricia's, the Christmas holiday failed to be boresome. For with Patricia's pep, and promises, Manly looked forward to the days after college, of becoming a Manly husband, in truth.

Remember Sick Vets

Every Hospitalized World War Vet Will Receive a Christmas Gift From Legion Auxiliary

Every disabled World War Veteran forced to spend Christmas in a hospital will receive a Christmas gift from the American Legion Auxiliary, according to Mrs. J. R. Thomas, rehabilitation chairman of the local Auxiliary Unit. At the December business meeting of the Perryton Unit, Mrs. Thomas reported on the Christmas work, and the Unit voted to send their state quota of $8.00 for these gifts.

For a number of years the Auxiliary has been bringing Christmas remembrances to all hospitalized veterans, nearly 100,000 gifts being presented annually. The gifts are chosen to meet the individual needs and desires of the veterans, so far as possible. Approximately $205,000 was expended in the activity last year. The Auxiliary Department in each state provides the gifts for the veterans in hospitals in the state.

To give the men in the hospital peace of mind regarding their families at home, the Auxiliary conducts a family contact service through which the families are visited and their needs for a happy Christmas supplied.

Mrs. Thomas and her committee, Mrs. Hugh Shotwell and Mrs. Harry Nail, will assist the Post in packing the Christmas baskets, which will be given to all needy families in this community.

Membership Increases

Advance Enrollment Shows Hundred Per Cent Increase Over Same Time of Last Year

Increase of approximately 100 per cent over last year is being shown in advance enrollment of American Legion Auxiliary members for the new year, according to Mrs. Freeman L. Garrett, membership chairman of the local Auxiliary Unit. The Auxiliary entered December with more than 250,000 members already enrolled for 1937, compared with 127,000 enrolled at the same time last year.

The large advance membership reported in a telegraphic roll call of Departments, is approximately 60 per cent of the membership goal for the year. Texas has over 91 per cent of her quota.

Mrs. Garrett reported that Perryton has 55 members enrolled for 1937. The Perryton Unit won a $5.00 cash award by having 50 members enrolled by November 11.

QUEEN CROWNED SATURDAY NITE

NELDA ROSE WRIGHT QUEEN OF TOURNAMENT AND HER ATTENDANTS AWARD FINAL PRIZES

The Queen of the basketball tournament was crowned Saturday night following the games. To the tunes of the high school band the beautiful coronation ceremonies were under way. Miss Bette Bryan gave two tap numbers preceding the arrival of the Queen and her party who included: Princess Ludie of the house of Freeman; Prince Waymon of the house of Pittman; Princess June of the house of Phelps; Prince Ernest of the house of Ferguson; Princess Margaret of the house of Farnsworth; Prince Richard of the house of Littleton; Princess Ava Nell of the house of Hill; Prince Clyde of the house of Flowers; Queen Nelda Rose of the house of Wright; King Robert of the house of Whippo and Baby Jane of the house of Perry.

After the last game Saturday night, Queen Nelda Rose Wright presented the trophies, all star awards, and sportsmanship awards. The Perryton Rangers entire first team made the first and second string all star team. Three of the Rangerettes made the first and second string all star teams. The all star teams were appointed by a committee of men whom Coaches E. D. Kelley and Otis E. Burk decided upon.

The following all star awards were given by the Queen after the coronation ceremony: Perryton, Miss Opal Gibson; Spearman, Miss Florence Holton; Mobeetie, Miss Dysart. The forwards of the girls' first team: Perryton, Miss Jenny Woods; Hartley, Miss Hammond; Mobeetie, Miss Vee Tribbs. Basketball Tourney

Perryton Wins in Boys Games Over Spearman; Girls Lose Their Tilt With Mobeetie

Last week-end thirty-two of the best boys and girls basket ball teams in this part of Texas participated in one of the most successful basketball tournaments Perryton has ever held. Not nearly enough rooms were secured for the contestants, and cots were borrowed from the CCC camp, beds were made down in the jury room, in the band room, and many contestants were placed in private homes.

The Perryton Rangers won first place, beating Spearman by a close margin, and the girls lost the semi-finals to Mobeetie, who won the girls' championship cup. The Perryton Rangerettes put up the best fight that was fought against Mobeetie. The tall Mobeetie forwards ran up a score of more than forty points on everyone but the Rangerettes who held them down to 26 point to the Rangerettes' 20 points. The Mobeetie girls ran 51 points over the Morse guards and almost twice as many as 26 on all the other teams they played.

The boys games were scheduled as follows: Canadian vs. Conlen; Hartley vs. Follett; Channing vs. Gruver; Booker vs. Perryton; Spearman vs. Stratford; Higgins vs. Phillips; Darrouzett vs. White Deer; Groom vs. Dalhart. Those winning the first round were Conlen, Hartley, Gruver, Perryton, Spearman, Phillips, Darrouzett and Dalhart. Perryton Rangers then defeated the Conlen boys 42 to 16 in the semi-final round played Saturday at 6:00 P. M., and the Spearman boys beat Darrouzett to the tune of 28 to 20 at 7:00 P. M., Saturday night. That then left the Perryton and Spearman boys to compete for the championship. That game between Perryton and Spearman was the best boys' game of the entire tournament. Spearman and Perryton always put up a good fight of any kind against each other, and both schools had good basket ball teams. At the end of the first quarter the score was 5 to 5. In the second quarter Perryton edged a 2 point lead. In the third quarter both teams tacked their name on the long end of the score, Spearman leading and then Perryton leading. The final score was 11 to 15 for the Rangers, but the ball game was not over until the last whistle had blown. The Perryton line-up was Morris, c; Pittman, forward; Lilly, guard; Stewart, guard; Schollenbarger, forward. Spearman line-up was Hitchcock, forward; S. Slaughter, forward; Sheets, Ooley, and Robertson, guards.

The girls' games were bracketed as follows: Darrouzett vs. Perryton; Booker drew a bye; Morse vs. Mobeetie; Channing vs. Gruver; Canadian vs. Perico; Hartley drew a bye; Spearman vs. Lipscomb; and of those Perryton, Booker, Mobeetie, Gruver, Perico, Hartley, Spearman and Higgins were victorious. Perryton won from Booker but lost to Mobeetie Saturday afternoon in the semi-final round. The score was 20 to 26, and for the only time during the entire tournament, the Mobeetie girls' score was held below 40. The Perryton guards were in there to win, and did a fine job guarding. The Perryton line-up was Gibson, Cofer and Bryan, guards; Woods, Chase and Nelson, forwards. Hartley beat Higgins 51 to 47 and that left Mobeetie and Hartley to compete for first place. Mobeetie and Hartley were the two tallest girls' teams in the tournament and Mobeetie managed 50 points to Hartley's 34.

Those making the all star teams, both boys' and girls' first and second teams can be found elsewhere in the El Sombrero.

Frank Monroe, teacher in the Pampa High School, refereed the boys' games, and Mr. Kenneth Kendrick, of Groom, refereed the girls' games. Sam Hergert and Ray Thomas were time keepers; S. N. Henry and Mrs. Ike Vernon were score keepers.

Gifts That Are Practical

Gifts that the whole family will enjoy are ideal gifts, that's why we are suggesting that this Christmas you give something for the home—something everyone can enjoy.

MAYTAG WASHING MACHINES

One of the most practical gifts is a Maytag Washing Machine. We have them with electric or gasoline motors. A Maytag will wash everything from the daintiest garments to the men's heavy work clothes, and do it satisfactorily.

PERFECTION OIL STOVES

What could be more delightful for the rural family than a Perfection Range or a Perfection Heater. We also have the Superfex oil burning heaters.

ELECTROLUX REFRIGERATORS

Electrolux Refrigerators will provide economical refrigeration the year around. There's no moving parts in this refrigerator to wear out—this and its low operating cost brands it as another practical gift.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

We handle a variety of electrical appliances that always make welcome gifts. We suggest perculators, toasters, hot plates, waffle irons.

DISHES AND COOKING UTENSILS

You'll be sure to find what you want in our large collection of dishes and cooking utensils. An extra dish is always welcome, and there's a place in every home for additional cooking utensils.

TOYS FOR THE KIDDIES

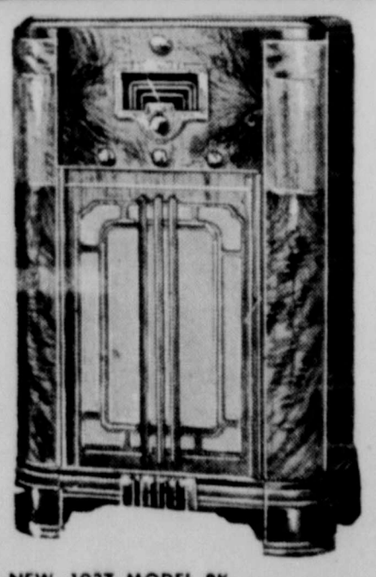

Be practical, but don't forget to give the kiddies toys. They'll grow up, all too soon, so give them the little things their hearts desire while they are still young. We have a large assortment of toys, including many mechanical novelties. Also bicycles, tricycles, wagons, etc.

We invite you to look over our line of toys.

Everyone Reads the Want...

"WONDER if Harris would care? Shall I do it, then ask him afterward?" Rachel Stanton, the morning of Christmas eve, looked admiringly at the brilliant tree in the pleasant living room, then hurried to brush snow from Harris, who, stamping in from the back porch, panted:

"I've cleaned the driveways to barns and road but will have to do it again today. What were you saying?" he was interrupted by Rachel.

"The radio announces that the snow plow from Warnton has stuck at the corner and will have to be dynamited out. No one can get through highways farther than the crossroad's corner," Rachel hurried to the telephone's jingling.

"It was Martha calling. She and Gene and the children started here but are blocked in at a home of kind strangers. I wish we could get food to the Harrison family in the Bottoms. They have no telephone, no near neighbors, and would freeze if they tried to get here through high drifts. Such a winter! It looks as though our Christmas will be "we two," she sighed at the color-lighted tree.

"Well, I see I'll have to shovel out the driveways again," Harris announced, pulling on jacket and gloves.

Later when he went inside to warm his fingers he heard Martha humming and was thankful that she was cheerful over the disappointment of Christmas eve without her relatives. Odors of savory food and the attractive table with Christmas colors, were inviting as he stamped in after evening chores were finished.

"Tonight will be the worst so far this winter. The wind is rising and snow blowing. A terrible night. Surely no one would venture on highways—why—where is the tree? Did you dump it outside because our company didn't come?" he looked, to be sure Rachel was sane.

The Visitor Pointed Toward the West. "That Light Guided Us."

then at the empty corner where the tree had stood.

"Yes, the radio announced the temperatures will be lowest of season so far."

"The tree, Rachel! Did you throw it out?"

"That's exactly what I did—only didn't throw—" a shout from outside sent Harris quickly to the door.

"Come in from the terrible blizzard, you poor frozen—how did you get here?" Rachel helped Harris unwrap five shivering visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and children.

"Oh, it's been terrible getting here. But it was either to freeze and starve at home or risk getting here," Mr. Harrison wheezed.

"But, how did you?" Harris began.

"Outside — see the dogs. We hitched them to the sled. The blessed creatures helped us over drifts which are now frozen."

Steaming food was soon on plates and faithful dogs were lapping milk and broth near the kitchen range.

"How did you find the direction—the way in blinding snow?" Harris looked puzzled.

"Well, we got to the top of King's Ridge in the pasture, and came toward the light. The light near your grove, back there," the visitor pointed toward the west. "That light guided us."

"What light?" Harris stammered.

"Harris, dear, will you please carry our Christmas tree back into the house? I carried it outside this morning to the grove and put food on it for birds, wild ducks and any other wild animals that need food and shelter. Then, tonight, I hung that large lantern with the strong light on top the tree to guide whoever might need it.

Merry laughter rang into the night as nuts were cracked and corn popped. Christmas morning Mr. Harrison helped keep snow from driveways and a path to the grove where the children carried food to a stack of fodder which the men had placed for the wild animals.

"Snow may be drifted high outside. But kindness inside of me needs never be blocked so it can not be scattered and be a guide to others." Rachel mused after the happy Christmas of the worst winter.
