Auto strike comes to end

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union tentatively agreed on a new national contract Friday morning, lifting the threat that local strikes would spread nationwide and affect up to 350,000 GM employees, both sides said.

The union called for an end to strikes at 17 GM plants that began over local contract issues.

In a written statement read at 2:10 a.m. EDT, United Auto Workers union President Owen Bieber and chief union bargainer Donald Ephlin said "the UAW has reached a tentative agreement with General Motors Corp. on a new national contract."

GM Vice President Alfred Warren said the agreement "provides the framework for better union-management relations."

"It is an excellent settlement that makes more secure than ever in history the jobs of our UAW-GM members, while providing much deserved economic improvements immediately and in the years ahead," the union officials said.

The UAW said it would withhold details of the agreement until next week's scheduled meeting of the meeting of union's General Motors Council in St. Louis.

"We're going to be advising the local union leadership that we want them to return to work immediately," Bieber said.

Bieber and Ephlin said the tentative agreement "inaugurates an unprecedented job security program with far-reaching new protections for our members against job loss due to outsourcing, the introduction of new technology, plant consolidations and the movement of work ... it also includes commitments from the corporation to maintain production and create new job opportunities in the United States."

The union officials said: "There are also added wages, substantial pension benefit improvements for current and future retirees, provisions for continuation of quality health care, ... and many other advances. The profit sharing plan will also be continued."

Suspect held for robbery

A 25-year-old Snyder man is being held without bond in the Scurry County Jail on charges of aggravated armed robbery after charges were filed on him Thursday for an incident which reportedly occurred last Saturday.

Police arrested Bruce Wayne Nelson at 1902 Coleman Ave. shortly after 11 p.m. Thursday. He now faces charges as well as possible revocation of a previously granted probation in connection with the reported robbery-stabbing.

According to investigators, the case first came to their attention at 3:10 a.m. Saturday when personnel at Cogdell Memorial Hospital reported they were

FLY OR FRY — A Chicken Flying contest was part of the fun Thursday night as the Scurry County Fair opened to the general public. The best effort for the evening measured some 15 ft. with a fowl entered by Dub Hurt. The second place entry was entered by Shawn Robertson and the third by Joey Matthews. Shown helping launch this entry are Kent Mills (left) and Drew Bullard. (SDN Staff Photo)

Fair crowds 'good'

Large crowds were reported for the opening day of the Scurry County Fair Thursday as the exhibition went on view in the coliseum and adjacent ag annex.

It will remain in place until 10 p.m. Friday and from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. Saturday. Admission is free.

Thurday's fair was busy with the judging of many competition events.

Winners in the various events reported as of noon Thursday are listed inside this issue of the SDN.

Winners were announced in the art show, textiles, handicrafts, agricultural products, canned foods, flower show, container grown plants, men's division, educational and community booth exhibits.

Friday from 5 until 9 p.m., entries in the baked goods competition were to be brought to the coliseum. Judging of these is slated Saturday morning.

These examples of locally-generated effort now fill the coliseum main floor and foyer area. Fairgoers may view also some 50 fair exhibition booths on the coliseum's main floor.

The ag annex is filled with display pens of ag competition animals and the traditional Kiddie Barnyard for youngsters.

Animals on display include entries in the divisions for open beef, dairy cattle, breeding sheep, junior lambs and a range of smaller animals such as chickens, quail, pheasants, ducks, rabbits and mice.

A.D. Players are set for local appearance

Four Scurry County Methodist churches are sponsoring a free dramatic presentation Sunday night as part of the Bicentennial celebration of the Methodist church in America.

The local sponsorship is through the Big Spring District Council on Ministries in cooperation with First United Methodist and Trinity United Methodist Churches of Snyder, Ira United Methodist and Union United Methodist Church.

The historic play "Lines of Grace" — staged by the A.D. Players of Houston — is scheduled at 8:15 p.m. in Worsham Auditorium at Snyder High School.

Best known for her portrayal of Corrie Ten Boom in the movie "The Hiding Place," actress and playwright Jeanette Clift George was commissioned to write the play. She founded the A.D. Players, a non-profit, independent Christian theater company, in 1967. She based the title of the play on Psalm 16:5:6.

It is performed with an ensemble of six actors, a few benches and costume effects. The play uses a series of flashback scenes to transport the audience from a 1900 Texas camp meeting to 18th Century England.

The audience will meet Susannah, John and Charles Wesley, as well as Francis Asbury, Barbara Heck and others who were instrumental in establishing Methodism in America.

"Lines of Grace" uses humor to tell the story. Interspersed with Charles Wesley's music, the play offers emotion as well as comic insights into the lives of those historic Methodist figures.

Following the performance, an offering will be taken.

More information can be obtained by calling First United Methodist at 573-5416, Trinity United Methodist at 573-3988 or Union United Methodist at 573-6706.

YOUNG PULLER — A tractor pull for youngsters is one of the new additions due Saturday morning at the Scurry County Fair, an event modeled after adult tractor pulls. The tractor and sled will be provided, and little ones like Adriane Williams, age 3, will pull with a 30-40 or a 41-50 pound weight. Distance will determine the winner and a 50 cent entry fee is asked. The event will begin in the ag annex at 10 a.m. Adriane is shown with granddad Max von Roeder. (SDN Staff Photo)

WINDMILL THANKS — J.A. (Snooks) Merritt was honored Thursday by the Snyder Rotary Club, which presented him with a club WHOO award (We Honor Our Own.) The presentation was made to recognize Merritt's personal project of restoring and erecting an Eclipse windmill in Towle Park. Club member Rex Robinson presented the certificate to Merritt. The feller on Deep Creek says, "A class reunion is where people remember the best-forgotten."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

O. G. Nieman, in the Hereford Brand, wondered in ink the other day about the pay of professional athletes and movie stars.

"Do you think quarterbak Danny White is worth a half million a year to sit on the bench? Should Franco Harris have been content with a mere $650,00 a year. Is the Teamsters Union boss really worth $512,000 annually?

"Most Americans don't think so, according to a recent Harris poll...It's difficult to place values on other people's worth. It's hard to understand how a professional athlete is worth more than the President of the U.S., but that's the way it works."

Unemployment is serious in some parts of the country. Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, told about a man who was out of work when his son began kindergarten.

Taking advantage of the opportunity, the father walked his son home from school each afternoon. For the first four days, the child greeted his father happily, full of exciting school news.

On Friday, the lad was reserved and wearing a long face. Alarmed, the father asked what was wrong.

"I don't know why, dad," the child replied sadly, "but they laid me off tomorrow and Sunday."

George Dolan, in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, told about a local woman who attended her high school class reunion in North Texas. Upon arrival she searched in vain for a face she recognized.

She did spot a familiar surname on a woman's name tag.

"Clotch," she exclaimed. "I'll never forget that name. I went to school with a boy named Isador Clotch. You must be his mother!"

"No," the woman replied. "I'm his wife."

All of Snyder should have chartered some buses and shown up as the "Southwest winner," demanding our cash and car prizes down at Bracketville.

From some of the calls we got here at the office, many folks took the sweepstakes notice seriously.

It would be interesting if we all showed up at once, demanding our prizes.

In Brief

Prices surge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumer prices, surging at their steepest clip in four months, rose 0.5 percent in August as both food and clothing became significantly more expensive.

Coal talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The soft coal industry and the United Mine Workers reached tentative agreement today on a new contract that union President Richard Trumka said "has absolutely no givebacks" and should avert a threatened large-scale strike.

Bargainers for the two sides settled at 4:45 a.m. EDT on the proposed pact to replace one that expires Oct. 1. The agreement came after several hours of what Trumka called "very hard bargaining."

Details were not disclosed.

If the rank-and-file of the 160,000-member union ratifies the pact — and Trumka said he expected a vote as early as next Thursday — it would be the first time since 1964 that the two sides will have reached a strike-free settlement.

Search ends

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Rescue workers today ended their search for bodies in the wreckage of the bombed U.S. Embassy annex, and the U.S. ambassador said the devastation could have been "a hell of a lot worse" if a guard had not shot the suicide car bomber.

A Lebanese military investigator, Elias Mousa, announced today that the casualty toll from Thursday's bombing, based on hospital and coroners' reports, was 12 dead and 72 wounded.

An end play with a twist

By James Jacoby

I have not asked Toronto expert George Mittelman for his favorite hand. But it might well be this deal from 1975, and it is a beauty. George was sitting South and became declarer in a four-spade contract.

He won the opening club lead with his ace and led the queen of spades. East won the ace and returned a club to dummy's king. A third club was played, on which declarer discarded a diamond as West trumped. We can certainly all see that a diamond lead now dooms the contract, but West saw no danger in playing the heart ace. George trumped with the spade seven, saving the deuce. He drew one round of trumps, noting the fall of the spade eight from the West hand. If East, as it seemed, had started with three spades, one heart, four diamonds and five clubs, it was more likely that the king of diamonds was with East. Accordingly George got out of his hand with the carefully preserved deuce of spades. East had to win the spade four and lead a minor suit to dummy.

George made the hand, which was written up in quite a few bridge magazines in 1975.

Wedding Worries Weigh Heavily on Bride-to-Be

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1984 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: My fiance and I plan to be married next June, and I would like to ask my brother and his wife to be honor attendants. My problem is that they are both quite overweight. It's important for me that everything for my wedding be as perfect as possible. Since there is plenty of time until the wedding, I would like to ask them to go on a diet. I know they can do it because they were both thin a few years ago.

How can I make them understand that I am serious about the weight issue without hurting their feelings?

If they refuse to diet, I plan to ask others in their place.

SLIM SISTER

DEAR SLIM: I recommend that you ask others in their place right now. To invite your brother and his wife to be your "honor attendants" on the condition that they lose weight is no honor—it's an insult. Are overweight people any less loving than underweight people? And since you want everything for your wedding to be "perfect," what do you intend to do about your far-from-perfect values?

DEAR ABBY: Last night my wife and I went to our weekly bingo night with hopes of winning a few dollars to put toward outfitting the nursery for the baby we're expecting in three months.

The woman seated across from us heard our conversation about the baby and asked my wife how far along she was. My wife replied cheerfully, "Five and a half months—well beyond the critical period."

With a broad smile, the woman said, "Don't start planning yet, dear; I gave birth to two dead babies before I had a family"!

Abby, how could anybody be so unthinking? It so happened that my wife's first pregnancy ended in a miscarriage, and this time we felt able to relax and plan for our baby.

When I told a friend about the incident, he said, "The lady was right, you know. Even if your wife makes it to the delivery room, the baby could be either stillborn or deformed, and you must be ready for that."

What should we say to these people?

EXPECTING IN CALGARY

DEAR EXPECTING: Don't waste your energy trying to think of something to say to insensitive and ignorant people. Try silence. It speaks volumes.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 16 years old and my love life stinks. I like this kid who has been coming to my house for a year now. He likes to watch TV, make out and eat. (I make fabulous chocolate chip cookies. He can put away a double batch with two quarts of milk.) But, Abby, there are two things wrong with him: 1) He won't make any kind of commitment; 2) he never takes me anywhere.

I'm nothing to be ashamed of, and I am not boring. So what should I do?

GETTING NOWHERE FAST

DEAR GETTING: If he's going to drink your milk and eat your cookies, tell him he has to take you out occasionally. And you may quote me.

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if the general public knows that the waiter or waitress has to pay the check if the person he or she served walks out without paying?

WILMINGTON, DEL., WAITRESS

DEAR WAITRESS: They do now.

Astro-Graph

By Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday

Sept. 22, 1984

This coming year will be one in which you will reap rewards from situations where you have already paid your dues. The efforts you expended in the past were not in vain.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It's better today to tell it like it is, instead of using empty, sweet-sounding phrases to make a point. Sincerity has the most powerful impact. The Matchmaker wheel reveals your compatibility to all signs, as well as showing you to which signs you are best suited romantically. To get yours, mail $2 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You are entering an interesting financial cycle. You could reap a very large return through an unusual chain of circumstances. Be money conscious.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Continue to view things realistically today, but by the same token, dare to be a dreamer. When you anticipate the obstacles, they won't obstruct your hopes.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Important achievements are possible today. Don't cave in when things look the darkest because that's when dawn is about to break.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) No one is so wise that he cannot learn something from others. You'll be innately aware of this today and therefore gain new knowledge.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Strive to be flexible today and play things as they come. When you flow with the tide of events, you'll surf to success.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) A situation may develop today that could put you in a position to take advantage of another. Yet, much to your credit, you'll play fair.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If the status quo is not to your liking there is no reason for you to continue to accept conditions as they are. Make changes for the better.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Persons you know socially will be willing to help you today if you make your needs known. Don't be hesitant to talk to them about serious subjects.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) This is a good day to catch up on projects that you've been sidestepping. Nothing will prove too tough, provided you're determined to see it through.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You have excellent organizing abilities today and you might be called upon to piece together a situation others are unable to manage.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Instead of taking advantage of opportunities for personal gain today, you'll unselfishly work just as hard for others to see that they fare as well as yourself.

Dr. Lamb

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My mother, 74, has a severe ulcer. She had this same problem approximately three years ago. At that time, she was treated with Tagamet, which seems to have precipitated a memory-loss problem.

Now, with this recurrence of the ulcer, she has again been given Tagamet. I have heard that there is another, newer drug that is as effective as Tagamet, but without the side effects. It would help her a lot if she could be given this drug, but we do not know the name of it. Could you please help?

DEAR READER — It is true that Tagamet can cause mental confusion and other nervous-system symptoms.

This is particularly likely to happen in the elderly or in those with some impairment of kidney function.

It is also true that your mother could have started developing memory problems even if she had never taken Tagamet. The symptoms may be completely unrelated to her use of Tagamet or any other medicine. One clue would be if her symptoms persisted after stopping the Tagamet. The mental symptoms that have been described have been transient and have disappeared after the drug was discontinued.

The other medicine you are asking about is Zantac (ranitidine), which was just approved for prescription use this past year. It has similar actions to Tagamet, but is claimed to cause fewer side effects, particularly fewer problems of breast enlargement and impotence in men.

However, it has not been used as long in as many patients as Tagamet has been. The longer Zantac is used, the more likely it is that more side effects will be discovered. Both of these medicines prevent the secretion of acid by the stomach. Before these medicines became popular, other medicines were used to block the vagal nerve's action on the stomach and to help inhibit the formation of acid. These medicines are still useful.

And regardless of whether one uses Tagamet or Zantac, there is much more to the treatment of ulcers and acid indigestion than that. Lifestyle, diet and stress are important factors. People with these problems can do a lot to help themselves. I have outlined what you can do without Tagamet or Zantac in The Health Letter 15-10, Understanding Ulcers and Acidity, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — What is the value of an exercise bike? Is using it on a par with walking or jogging? Should a person with bad varicose veins use an exercise bike?

DEAR READER — There are so many different exercise bikes that no one answer fits all, so I recommend that people use their heart rate to determine how much work they are doing. If you were a well-trained athlete, you might be able to use your stationary cycle at a level that would raise your heart rate to 140 beats a minute, but most people are not in good enough shape to do that on their own. A good, safe rule is to stay at rates during exercise of no more than about 100 a minute. If you want to do more vigorous exercise, see your doctor first. You will find that as your exercise tolerance improves, you can do more and more work and still stay around the 100-beats-a-minute level.

No, bicycling will not harm varicose veins. It might even help them.

Mid-East dance class set at WTC

Centuries of tradition will form the basis for a Middle Eastern Dance course scheduled by the Continuing Education department of Western Texas College.

Jean Harrison, a newcomer to Snyder, will be the instructor. classes will meet from 7-8 p.m. on Mondays from Oct. 1 to Dec. 10 and fees will be $20 per person.

"Middle Eastern dance is one of the oldest forms of dance and has not changed in its natural beauty, grace, and mystery since Biblical times," Harrison said. "It is an effective means of losing weight, toning muscles and gaining confidence and coordination. It is self-paced and suitable for women who would like to get into an exercise routine.

"We will be starting with beginning dance steps and basic zill rhythms (finger cymbals) will be taught in this course," she said.

Harrison studied belly dancing with Edwina Hudson at Odessa College for six years and is a member of the Middle Eastern Dance Organization of Midland-Odessa. She has attended several seminars taught by nationally known dancers. Most of her dancing outside classes has been for nursing homes, fundraisers and civic events.

Women who would like more information about the course may call Harrison at 573-4450 or the Continuing Education office at 573-8511, ext. 240. Women planning to enroll are to pre-register by calling the CE office.

Students will need to wear comfortable, loose-fitting clothing and bring a shawl-type wrap to go around heir hips. They need non-skid shoes or may go barefeet.

Green Hill slates Bible conference

Using the theme "How to Live by Faith," Green Hill Baptist Church has set Sept. 23-26 as dates for a Bible conference with speakers Glenn Reece, Joe Stansell and Mickey Fugitt.

Currently pastor of Forrest Avenue Baptist Church in Sherman, Reece has pastored First Baptist Church of Post. Author of three books, he produces a radio ministry that reaches the West Indies and the Caribbean area. He has spoken in over 100 meetings and is presently director of Echoes of Revival Ministries. His conference message is entitled "What Is Faith?"

Stansell is the pastor of First Baptist Church of Milano. A Fluvanna native, he formerly served as pastor of Avenue D Baptist Church. His other positions include training officer and chaplain for the children's home in Peyote and outreach director for First Baptist Church of Post. He will speak on "Faith and the Lordship of Christ."

A former evangelist, Fugitt began Believers Baptist Church in Potosi and currently serves as its pastor. "Faith That Works" is the message he will present.

Included in the conference will be a special mini-concert by Beverly Stansell during the Sunday morning service and The Christian Sound will perform that evening. Other music will be provided by The Message Trio on Monday, Debra Martinez and Daryl Collins on Tuesday and David and Julie Jones on Wednesday.

Services are scheduled for noon and 7 p.m. Monday through Wednesday. A nursery will be provided.

U.S. Embassy moved again following latest incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Embassy offices in Lebanon were being moved to safer ground today — driven from yet another headquarters by terrorist bombers — as Reagan administration officials defended their security measures against criticism they are inadequate.

Officials also discouraged speculation that the administration would retaliate for Thursday's attack, although they didn't entirely rule countermeasures to the third devastating terrorist bombing of a U.S. government installation in Lebanon in the last 17 months.

Assistant Secretary of State Richard Murphy was en route from Washington to Beirut today to conduct an on-site investigation that will include an assessment of whether proper security measures were in place.

Two terrorists in an explosive-packed van shot their way through a checkpoint about a block from an embassy building entrance near East Beirut. They then sped 500 feet under fire from Lebanese and American guards until they were finally stopped at another checkpoint just 20 feet from the entrance, where the explosives were detonated, heavily damaging the building.

Two American military personnel, and as many as 40 Lebanese, were killed in the explosion, and 20 more Americans were injured, two critically. The ambassador, Reginald Bartholomew, was injured and taken to a nearby hospital, but apparently his wounds weren't serious. The terrorists were killed.

A State Department official said the six-story embassy annex was "no longer usable" and that the embassy offices were being moved to another suburban location east of Beirut. The annex had only been opened two months ago as a temporary facility while a new embassy was being built.

Reagan administration officials were clearly sensitive to the suggestions that security might have been lax or that they hadn't taken sufficient precautions in view of the earlier attacks.

Secretary of State George P. Shultz said the devastation would have been a lot worse had it not been for security precautions taken in the wake of earlier attacks. He said progress had been made because the terrorist vehicle "wasn't able to drive into the building the way these vehicles have been placed" and that the floors of the buildings did not collapse, as in some of the previous blasts.

But Sen. Sam Nunn, D-Ga., the ranking minority member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he thought security at the annex was "clearly inadequate. ... We seemingly need to change our approach to security of American embassies."

Sen. Bob Kasten, R-Wis., chairman of the foreign operations subcommittee of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said he would work "to make sure we have more security, perhaps more Marines."

John Hughes, the State Department spokesman, said the embassy offices had been moved from Moslem-dominated West Beirut to Christian-controlled East Beirut because it was thought the eastern sector was "more secure."

Administration officials said it is impossible to make embassies completely invulnerable to terrorist attack because they must function as public buildings. "That embassy has to be open to the public," Hughes said. "It is the window of the United States on the world in Lebanon."

Meese absolved, but fight will continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fight over the nomination of Edwin Meese III to be attorney general is far from over despite a special prosecutor's finding of no criminal wrongdoing on the part of President Reagan's long-time friend and adviser.

The president says he still wants Meese in his Cabinet if there is to be a second Reagan administration, but Democrats in the Senate say they are not finished scrutinizing both Meese's ethics and the policies he'd pursue if he became the nation's chief law enforcement officer.

Meese welcomed Thursday's report of special prosecutor Jacob A. Stein that found no basis for a criminal prosecution on charges he used his position to get government jobs for friends who helped him financially.

But the president's counselor said the "long ordeal" had made its mark on the way he would conduct his official life.

"The experience has taught me a great deal about the special circumstances of official life in Washington and the need for constant vigilance and sensitivity, not only to actual conduct, but also to how conduct may be perceived," the nominee said. He read a statement to reporters at the White House but refused to take any questions.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said while he accepts Stein's findings of no criminality, he has "some real doubts about Mr. Meese's sensitivities to issues of civil rights and civil liberties."

And Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, said that while criminality is "not an issue now..there appear to be numerous cases where the testimony elicited by Mr. Stein and his staff are at variance with previous testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee."

He called on Meese to ask Reagan to withdraw the nomination. That's been his position for many months.

The Stein report culminated a nine-month fight that left the Justice Department run by a lame-duck Attorney General William French Smith, who made no effort to hide his eagerness to leave.

Westerners host conference meet

Western Texas College's Westerners hope to move up in the conference golf ranks when they play host to the second WJCAC tournament of the season here Saturday.

The 18-hole tournament is scheduled for an 8:30 a.m. start. The college course will be closed until 2:30 for the tournament, but spectators are welcome.

Western finished in sixth place in the first WJCAC event, earning one point. Midland won and leads with six points, followed in order by New Mexico Junior College, Odessa, New Mexico Military and South Plains.

WTC will take four freshmen and two sophomores into the tournament.

"Our freshmen are getting better each week. They are really pushing the sophomores," said Coach Dave Foster.

Among the notable missing sophomores this week is co-captain Jim Batjer, who was edged out in a intrasquad qualifying round.

Vying for WTC will be sophomores Bob Stangby and co-captain Jack Fallin, and freshmen Ryan Heller, Pat Fitzpatrick, Bo Kay and Ron Nedry.

"They (WTC's six-member team) have all played real well this week. They've been consistant," said Foster. "We're looking for a better outcome this week, definitely. It's going to be tough overall, though, just like every one of them."

Tiger girls challenge Pecos here Saturday

Coach Penny Bane's Tigers will face their toughest challenge of the 1984 volleyball season thus far when they host rival Pecos at 3 p.m. Saturday in the high school gym.

"This is our most important match so far," acknowledged Coach Bane, whose Tigers come into the contest with a 7-7 record. "Pecos has a fine team and it is important that we play well Saturday. I want to encourage the community to come out and support us. It makes a big difference to the girls, knowing they have the town behind them."

A junior varsity match is set at 2 o'clock, preceding the varsity clash. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Snyder, Pecos and defending champ Monahans were early favorites in the 2-4A race. They have filled those roles well. All three teams are undefeated in loop outings to date.

Probable starters for the Tigers are Gina Vaughn, Sabrina Sullivan, Hope Hernandez, Donna Anderson, Karlene Thompson and Allison Adams. Kima McLarty usually comes in for Vaughn when she rotates to the back line.

Also ready to play are Rosellia Aguirre, Brenda Zajicek and Cintia Gonzales.

Patty Grimmett is assistant coach for both the varsity and junior varsity.

Vaughn expecting tough Pecos team

When it comes to sports, Snyder and Pecos usually have a lot of respect for one another. They also provide some exciting matchups, and Saturday's varsity volleyball tilt here promises to be one of the best in a while.

"They (the fans) won't have to worry about being bored," laughed veteran spiker Gina Vaughn. "Whenever we play it's going to be exciting."

As a second-year player for the Tigers, Vaughn was considered to be one of the top returning players in District 2-4A this season. But she suffered an ankle injury in the first scrimmage, and the healing process is taking time.

"It bothers me, but I ignore it," she said. "The doctor said it would always bother me. I may not ever reach my potential, but that's the way it goes, I guess," she mused. "I'm working on weights and doing special exercises for it. Hopefully, it will continue to improve."

Despite the injury, there is no mistaking her contributions to the team, and few doubt that she can become one of the better players in the district.

Not one to show cocky confidence, she gives credit where credit is due, and she knows the Eagles are a team to respect.

"It's going to be hard to win, but we're working on it. We're looking forward to it and we know we have to play to the best of our ability. They are a scrappy team. They hardly let anything drop," said the senior, who points to Snyder's hitting as the key to the match. "We have real good hitters and our defense and offense are good too, but we're going to have to hit down the line and to the holes. You can't hit at them because they'll usually pick it up."

She's fully aware, however, that Pecos can be beaten.

"We've always had a real tough time with Pecos, but we've beaten them before. We've prepared mentally and we're going to give them a tough match. I know that."

Girls get ready for Big Spring

Snyder seventh, eighth and ninth grade volleyball teams play Saturday in the Big Spring Tournament.

Action begins at 9 a.m. with local 7th Gold playing Goliad B, the 8th Gold playing Runnels B and the freshmen taking on Big Spring.

At 10, the 7th Black plays Goliad A and the 8th grade Black squad plays Runnels A.

Ali retains sense of humor

NEW YORK (AP) - Muhammad Ali, his words slightly slurred, has demonstrated the ailment which landed him in a Manhattan hospital hasn't affected his wit - or, the former heavyweight champion says, his good looks.

"I'm still pretty, and I'm still the greatest in the world," Ali, 42, told a throng of cheering fans after emerging Thursday from his hospital room.

Ali, who was diagnosed as as having Parkinson's syndrome, was joined on the steps of Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital by the Rev. Jesse Jackson. Jackson said he came to visit Ali because the ex-boxer was "a hero to a generation."

"I think it's a great honor for a great man like Jesse Jackson to take time out to visit a peasant like me," said Ali.

Later Ali flicked a few smiling verbal jabs, in one instance hoisting the former presidential candidate's arm and announced, "This is the new presidential ticket."

Parkinson's syndrome, or Parkinsonism, is not progressive, not contagious and not fatal, said Dr. Stanley Fahn, the neurologist treating Ali. The former heavyweight boxing champ should be able to live "a normal life" with medication he began taking recently, the doctor said.

SHS tries second cross country run

PLAINVIEW – Snyder High School competes in its second cross country event here Saturday.

Snyder competed in Brownfield last week and did not qualify to place as a team.

Coach Kevin Wiseman said, "We've got some new kids, some that haven't run yet, but we hope to take as many as 20 on the varsity and junior varsity. We've still got a lot of question marks. This is a new sport for Snyder and it's going to take some time. We're still shifting people on varsity and junior varsity right now."

On the squad are seniors Phillip Greer, Lance Leatherwood, Tim Key, Terry Steelman, John Garrett and Kevin Boyd, juniors Don Osborn and Gabe Becerra, sophomores Ruben Escobedo, Willie Talamantez and Tony Ramirez and freshmen Vall Martinez, Danny Martinez, William Myers, Pete Madrid, Jeff Adams, Curly Guerrero, Miguel Martinez, Jimmy Guerrero and Frank Castillo.

Future events will be Oct. 6 in Big Spring and Oct. 13 in Lubbock. The district meet will be held Oct. 20 in Andrews.

Bowling champions...

Locals win state crown

The Apple Dumplings bowling team, sponsored by The Computer Case, Inc., were honored in Dallas recently as state champions of the Texas Women's Bowling Association State Tournament.

The team, comprised of captain Diane Arnold, Cindy Brewster, Cindy Cummings, Charlotte McDorman and Shari Cotton, won first place in the Novice Division. They competed the second weekend of the tournament, March 24-25, in Fort Worth. The tourney ended July 1 and awards were presented and made public at the Sept. 15 ceremony in Dallas.

Other events the women entered were singles, doubles and all-events. Arnold and Cotton placed 68th out of 194 paid places in C-division doubles. Cotton placed 80th out of 300 places in C-singles and 117th of 295 in all-events.

Arnold placed 130th in all-events.

Cummings and McDorman competed in the novice division events of singles and doubles.

The team was awarded $300, individual trophies and arm patches, presented at the banquet, which honored state champions in all divisions and categories.

The Apple Dumplings bowl in the local Roll-N-Hope League.

Angels creep up in AL West

by The Associated Press

While the winning has been ugly for the most part this season in the Mild, Mild West, California's Mike Witt pitched a very pretty three-hitter against first-place Kansas City.

By beating the Royals 2-0 Thursday night the Angels moved within a half-game in the American League West of division-leading Kansas City. Kansas City has a record of 78-74, while California stands at 77-74.

The third-place Minnesota Twins (77-75) snapped a three-game losing streak with a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox in an afternoon game to move within a game of Kansas City.

"It was a meaningful game because of where we are," Witt said. "I wasn't thinking about a shutout. It really helps not to walk peple. It keeps you stronger in the later innings. As far as 'whole game pitching,' this was one of my best."

Shootout expected at Tiger Field tonight

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

Snyder Coach Dennis Tomlin says his Tigers want to atone for their losses, and the best way to do that is to win. But he knows tonight's 8 o'clock game with the Brownfield Cubs here will be a real shootout.

"Brownfield is excited about their program and we are excited about ours," said the coach. "It should be a fine football game. We can't make up for our losses without playing again and we plan to give the best effort we can. We appreciate the loyalty our fans have given us and the best way we can show that appreciation is to give them a win."

Both teams feature fairly balanced attacks.

Brownfield will line up in the I formation, passing about 25 percent of the time. According to Tomlin, the Cubs have a potent air attack.

"Brownfield has the best passing game we've played so far. They have a balanced attack," said the coach, who pointed out split end Joel Ross, a 185-pound senior, as the top receiver. "He has fine hands. He's just a real good athlete. And number 2 (Steve Smith) and number 11 (Heath McVay) are both good quarterbacks. They are quick and accurate with the passing game. We're impressed with how well their quarterbacks and receivers throw and catch the ball this early in the season."

Smith, a 155-junior, has started both of Brownfield's games, but he was later replaced by McVay, a 145-junior, against Lamesa.

Chris Billings, 153-junior, is the fullback while Johnny Gonzales, a 165-junior, is the tailback.

"They have good team quickness and though they aren't big, they do have some size in the right spots," added the coach.

The line is anchored by 200 pound seniors Rudy Perkins and Frank Herrera, offensive tackle and tight end, and Geoff Cooper, defensive end.

The Cubs use several players both ways. Ross is split end and safety; Billings is fullback and linebacker; Gonzales is tailback and safety; McVay is quarterback and cornerback and Danny Reed, a 130-pound senior, is wide receiver and linebacker.

After two ballgames, Snyder is averaging 215.5 yards offensively and allowing 220.5 defensively. The Tigers are led in rushing by 170-pound junior Justin Webb, who has 174 yards on 43 carries. Runningmate James Powell, a 150-pound senior, has 87 yards on 17 totes while Jimmy Velasquez, a 155-senior, has 43 yards on five carries.

Quarterback Jimmy Cain has targeted eight completions in 24 tries for 112 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions while Kyle Freeman is the Tigers' most prolific receiver to date with three catches for 54 yards.

TOMMY HOLLADAY

Holladay looking forward to Cubs' air attack tonight

Brownfield.

There is a confidence about this game. Not because Brownfield comes in with a 24-game losing streak; not because it will probably be one of the few games - maybe the only game - that pollsters will acknowledge Snyder's chances, but because with two games behind them the Ragin' Tigers feel they are ready. They feel their time is due.

"I feel pretty good about it, better than the other two games (Dunbar and Big Spring). The team feels more confident," noted Tiger senior Tommy Holladay, who along with Thomas Quintela, Michael McCravey and Terry Steelman is a game captain for the Tigers tonight.

If Coach Dennis Tomlin is right, Snyder had better be prepared. According to him, Brownfield has the best passing game Snyder has faced this season. To Holladay, who starts at left halfback, that is a challenge.

"Personally, I'm looking forward to it. I think the secondary has gotten better prepared this week than against Big Spring or Dunbar. We've worked on it (pass defense) quite a bit and I think we're more together than we have been."

Holladay isn't boasting, but he believes the Tigers can stop Brownfield's passing game, or at least limit its effectiveness.

"I think we can. But we'll have to play together and be more mentally prepared," he said.

"Our attitude has been real good and our practices have been probably the best they've been so far. The community and everybody is really into the game. That helps us get prepared a little better. " added Holladay. "I'm looking forward to it. I know the team is looking forward to it - a lot."

All that remains is to play the game.

Snyder JV outlasts Cubs; play Loraine varsity next

BROWNFIELD -- Snyder junior varsity came up with two first-half touchdowns to defeat Brownfield here Thursday, 14-6.

"Brownfield has a good team. They were 2-0 coming into the game. It was a real big win for us," said Snyder Coach Larry Scott.

The Cats, now 2-0, opened the scoring with 3:51 left in the first period on a 6-yard run by Mike Long. Mitch Page kicked the conversion. Snyder's second TD came with 3:12 remaining in the half when Joe Martinez went in from four yards out. Page again booted the kick-after.

With 46 seconds left in the quarter, Brownfield tallied on a 1-yard run. The PAT try for two failed.

Neither team scored in the second half, though Coach Scott felt the Cats dominated.

"Brownfield only ran three plays the third quarter. We controlled the ball, but we had three delay penalties and six offsides penalties in the game; just a lot of mental mistakes," said Scott, who also noted Snyder was flagged with a 15-yarder on Brownfield's scoring drive. "Our defense did a good job putting pressure on their quarterback in the second half and our secondary did well. Offensively, we had a good night, but we put ourself in a bind too many times."

Dewayne Murdock recovered a fumble for Snyder. Todd Odom had an interception. Snyder was led in rushing by Martinez's 58 yards.

Snyder had 11 first downs and four penetrations, 158 yards rushing and was four of nine for 46 yards passing. Brownfield chalked 11 firsts and two penetrations and 96 yards total offense.

Snyder plays Loraine varsity at Loraine next Thursday, 7:30 p.m. The Cats will still be without Ricky Romero, who suffered a broken nose in the Big Spring game. At Brownfield, Reggie Price suffered an ankle injury and Henry Treat a knee injury. Extent of the injuries was unknown this morning.

Freshmen defeat Big Spring, 38-6

Snyder freshmen evened their season record at 1-1 here Thursday with a 38-6 win over Big Spring.

Lawrence Barrera scored four touchdowns for the Cats and figured in two two-point conversions. The fleet back rushed for an estimated 170 yards on 11 carries.

All of the scoring came in the first two quarters. Barrera's first tally was on a 7-yard run. He then caught a pass from Brad Gartman for the conversion.

He came back to score on a 40-yard trap, a 45-yard trap and a 45-yard belly play.

The second conversion attempt failed but Steve Harper ran the third and Barrera carried over the fourth.

Snyder's final touchdown came on a 60-yard interception return by Harper. Brad Newman ran a sweep play in for the conversion.

"All the kids played real hard. They were really ready to play," said Coach Ricky Howell. "It was nice to have a game like that. We were able to play everybody and they all gained some good experience. I was especially pleased with our line blocking."

Snyder will play in Lamesa at 7 p.m. next Thursday. Another group of freshmen will take on Coahoma in Coahoma at 6.

Cards crush Coyote crew

HERMLEIGH -- Hermleigh underclassmen defeated Borden County 32-13 in six-man football action Thursday.

The Cardinals, 2-0, will host Grady at 6 p.m. next Thursday (Sept. 27).

Daniel Ramey led the Cardinals with touchdown runs of 71 yards, 1 yard, and 16 yards. Joe Mireles kicked four two-point conversions.

Hermleigh's other TD was a 1-yard run by Mark Kuss.

Gary Gunset recovered a fumble for the Cardinals. Ramey and Bobby Brown were credited with 13 tackles-assists each.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - John McEnroe takes to the court tonight against John Lloyd in the quarterfinals of the $265,000 Transamerica Open after dispatching John Sadri on Thursday night, 6-2, 7-5.

Arrest made for robbery

treating a man for a stab wound to the buttock.

At the hospital, officers were told by the victim — Steven Dabney of Snyder — that he had been robbed by a man with a knife in the 3400 Block of Ave. M earlier in the morning.

The initial indication from him was that no charges would be required. A complaint was filed, however, and police began investigating the incident when Dabney was released from the hospital Tuesday.

Bond for Nelson was set at $5,000 on the robbery charge. However, authorities have filed motions against him seeking revocation of two previously granted probated prison terms and he is being held without bond in connection with those proceedings.

A 15-year-old juvenile suspect in the robbery was also arrested Thursday evening.

He was released to the custody of his mother pending action on charges against him by county juvenile authorities.

Judge to decide on delay

HOUSTON (AP) — A judge will decide Monday whether to delay action in a civil lawsuit while prosecutors pursue criminal charges against a teen-age boy, who is accused of murdering a female postal carrier, and his parents, who are jailed for refusing to testify before a grand jury.

David Port, 17, is accused in the shooting death of letter carrier Debora Sue Schatz, 23, who disappeared June 7 while delivering mail in the affluent west Houston neighborhood where the Ports live. Her body was found two days later in an isolated, wooded area north of Houston.

His parents, Bernard and Odette Port, have been jailed since Sept. 12 for repeatedly refusing to answer questions from a grand jury investigating the slaying. The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans has been asked to order the Ports released on bond.

Barbara Schatz, the victim's mother, filed a wrongful death lawsuit against the Port family Aug. 7, the day after her husband, Albert, died of a heart attack. The attack, the lawsuit said, was brought on by the grief Schatz suffered after his daughter's death.

Mrs. Schatz' attorney, Joe Jamail, filed notice of intent to take Bernard Port's deposition Sept. 27.

But Port's attorney, Randy Schaffer, filed a motion to prevent any depositions relating to Miss Schatz's death until the criminal charges against his clients are resolved.

The Ports have refused to testify against their son, citing the right to avoid self-incrimination, the privilege of spouses not testifying against each other and the privilege of parents not testifying against their son.

Barbara Mandrell to get steel rod inserted in leg

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Country singer Barbara Mandrell should be hobbling about by Saturday after surgery to put a foot-long steel rod in her leg bone, which was broken in a car accident, her doctor says.

Dr. David S. Jones, the orthopedic surgeon who performed the operation Tuesday night at Baptist Hospital, said the 35-year-old entertainer will regain full use of her leg. She should be able to use crutches or a walker by the weekend, he said.

Miss Mandrell has been hospitalized since the accident Sept. 11. The driver of the vehicle that swerved into her car was killed.

Known for the hits "I Was Country When Country Wasn't Cool" and "Sleeping Single in a Double Bed," Miss Mandrell has canceled all public appearances for the rest of the year.
